

School Board Answering All Questions on Need For Funds

As the Oct. 19 millage election approaches, Chelsea School Board President Howard Haselschwardt offered the following public comments. "Over the past several weeks members of the school board have made a concerted effort to meet with district voters to explain the millage proposal and to answer their questions. Many organizations have been contacted, public meetings and coffee held, and many informal but lively discussions have taken place on village street corners and over back yard fences."

In each of the contacts made, the board members have found many common denominators. They have found that most voters are not apathetic. Most are concerned about their children's education and are willing to support their schools. Most demand to know the facts and want mil-lidge requests backed by sound justification. They are not willing to vote for issues until their questions and concerns have been answered.

Although the questions and concerns varied with each individual, there were several that surfaced repeatedly. Taxpayers don't want to vote extra millage just to have the state withhold a corresponding amount of state aid. Had the school board asked the voters to pass an additional 1.5 mills in March, that is basically what would have happened. Since that time the law has been changed. Now funds gained through increases in local millage will stay in the district and will not result in a corresponding reduction in state aid.

Voters are justifiably concerned when they see school buildings that are supported by their tax dollars vandalized and in disrepair. Vandalism is a growing problem in all segments of society today. There are several measures that are being adopted to eliminate this problem in the Chelsea school buildings.

In the Beach Middle school, the adjustment in the school day has gained a period of instruction for each teacher. Some teachers are teaching additional classes during this period. Others are supervising the lunchroom, hallways and lavatories. This increased supervision is already paying off in reduced maintenance costs. Many parents who attended the open house at Beach school this fall commented on the excellent condition of the buildings.

A positive incentive program to reduce vandalism is being initiated in the high school. Vandalism in the high school has cost about $2,000 annually in recent years. On Wednesday, Oct. 13, the administration met with the student council to explain the plan. Two thousand dollars will be set aside in a special fund to pay for repairs for damage to the facilities resulting from vandalism. Any funds left over at the end of the year will be spent by the student body for constructive school projects or activities. The program will be administered by the student council. The board hopes this plan will encourage students to take some responsibility in reducing vandalism. With this program, along with more vigorous supervision by the administration and teachers, the board is confident there will be a reduction in school vandalism. The ultimate goal is to reduce vandalism to the point where the school buildings can be kept in top condition at all times.

Voters want to know that before the school board asks for additional millage, everything possible has been done to operate within the existing budget. The school board feels the district has lived up to this responsibility.

The high school program has been streamlined by consolidating classes and eliminating non-productive time. Elective courses with enrollments of less than 20 students were eliminated or combined with other classes in closely related subject areas. In the last semester of the 1975-76 school year there were 46 classes with fewer than 20 students, an ideal arrangement, but costly. This semester there are only 18. Many of these are specialized courses that require lower enrollment to function safely and effectively.

As a result of these actions, the high school program is operating with two less teachers. The elementary staff has been reduced by one-half a position due to a reduced kindergarten enrollment. Teachers leaving the district at the end of last year were replaced by teachers with less total seniority. The staff reductions and seniority savings combined was $40,000.

The district applied for and was granted five federal CETA positions to hire enough maintenance and clerical staff for the new buildings. Total savings, $40,000. An additional $2,000 was saved by teachers taking over lunchroom supervision at Beach school, as lay persons were hired to perform these tasks in the past.

Bus purchases were delayed one year for a temporary savings of $50,000. Expenditures for textbooks, teaching supplies, library books, conference and travel, custodial and maintenance supplies and contracted services have been reduced for a savings of $36,000. The total savings in all budget areas was $168,000.

Then why is the school district asking for an additional 1.5 mills on Oct. 19? While Chelsea school district was trimming its budget to make it possible to live with a renewal millage in March, the State of Michigan was doing some trimming of its own. Over the past two years the state's austerity budgeting resulted in a loss of $128,882 in state aid to Chelsea School District. $62,564 was cut by executive order. An additional $62,564 was lost when the legislature failed to restore the executive cuts and based this year's budget increase on last year's reduced amount. An additional $3,754 or six percent of $62,564 (the six percent guaranteed increase) was also lost. The 1.5 mill increase requested will bring $148,000 in added revenues. The funds are needed to make up the state aid loss of $128,882. The remaining $19,118 will be used to cover rent increases in the cost of utilities.

"We are confident that the above information answers those question most frequently asked by the Chelsea voters," concluded President Haselschwardt, "but if anyone is interested in additional information there are two coffees scheduled, one at the home of Ann Feeney, 249 Park St., at 8 p.m. tonight, Thursday, Oct. 14, and one at the home of Carla and Fred Schwarz on Monday, Oct. 18, at 8 p.m."

The election will be held in the large group instruction room at the Beach Middle school on Tuesday, Oct. 19. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Bulldog Grid Team Absorbs 38-0 Defeat

Chelsea suffered its second league loss in two starts Friday, Oct. 8, when the Brighton Bulldogs drubbed the Chelsea Bulldog griders, 38-0, on the Brighton field.

"You've got to give credit where credit is due," said coach Phil Bareis, who saw his team blown off the field with a 26-point second quarter. "Brighton has a fine team."

When Brighton connected on an intricate halfback pass play late in the opening quarter, the Chelsea defense seemed to suffer total disorganization, and never fully recovered.

Brighton opened their scoring on a third-and-eight play at the 32-yard line in the first quarter. Early in the second period, an interception set up Brighton's second touchdown, followed by a successful two-point conversion.

Later in the period, Brighton struck through the air for a six-pointer on a 28-yard pass. An on-side kick caught Chelsea unaware and led the way for yet another scoring plunge. Then, with only six seconds remaining in the half, Brighton struck again with a 28-yard touchdown throw.

Any hopes Chelsea may have harbored for a rally were vaporized early in the third quarter when Brighton turned a fumble into a four-yard, 11-play drive, climaxed with a six-yard scoring run.

Brighton towered over Chelsea, netting a whopping 360 yardage gain during the game. The Bulldogs countered with a meager 67 yards rushing and 70 yards passing. Brighton dominated with 16 first downs to Chelsea's six, and recorded two penalties for a total loss of 20 yards, while Chelsea finished with 9 for 61.

Chelsea's Tony Robards led the team with 20 yards rushing, while Dave Schrottenboer caught a pass for 22 yards. Don Nadeau was credited with receiving a pass for a 21-yard gain.

Leading tacklers for Chelsea were Tony Robards with 7; Matt Fisher and Leon Brown, 6 each; and Steve Pennington, 5.

Following their defeat at the hands of Brighton, Chelsea griders will be hungry for a taste of victory as they prepare to face South Lyon in Chelsea's Homecoming Game, Friday, Oct. 15.

Stolen Tractor Found Mired In Swamp

A tip from two hunters resulted in the recovery of a 1967 green and yellow John Deere Model 3020 gas-powered farm tractor by the Manchester Police Department Friday, Oct. 8. The tractor, reported stolen Aug. 28 from Chelsea Fairgrounds following the annual tractor pull competition, listed a replacement value of $8,000.

According to police reports, the hunters spotted the piece of machinery partially buried under mud in a swamp on the back 40 acres of a farmer's field in Freedom township. They notified the farmer, who in turn reported the discovery to Manchester police.

Upon investigation, officers found the tractor in good condition, although two front tires were flat. Police then contacted the vehicle's owner, Robert Breuninger of Dexter, and towed the disabled tractor to police headquarters in Manchester for pick-up.

No suspects have been named in the case.

Vandals Enter School, Steal Amplifier, Cash

Vandals gained illegal entry into Chelsea High school between midnight and 8 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 9, and fled with a Model 1060 Marantz amplifier valued at $300, in addition to loose change from a vending machine.

The incident was discovered by Harold Schauer, a custodian at the school, when he reported for duty Saturday morning. Ron Joseph, head custodian, notified police.

Police reports indicate the vandals passed through the audiovisual room, music room, student publications room, auditorium, and faculty lounge, before ransacking the student publications room and departing.

Officers investigating the incident speculate those involved would have to be familiar with the school to know where equipment was stored. Because of evidence gathered at the scene, police further surmise the vandalism was the work of only two individuals.

No suspects have been named.

Swine Flu Clinic Slated in November

Beginning in November, the Washtenaw County Health Department will sponsor a clinic in Chelsea, at a still unconfirmed site, to immunize residents against swine flu.

The county is responsible for the immunization of 80 percent of those over 18 years of age, joining the country in one of the largest immunization programs in the nation's history.

Both a bivalent and monovalent vaccine have been produced, and are being shipped from the State Health Department to local health bureaus. The bivalent vaccine contains a combination of swine flu and a milder influenza strain (A-New Jersey and A-Victoria), and is recommended for persons aged 60 and over, or for those with chronic illnesses such as heart and lung diseases, diabetes, and certain other diseases.

All other persons, 18 and over, should receive the monovalent, or swine strain vaccine (A-New Jersey). There are no recommendations for the 3 to 18 age group, except that the chronically ill should contact their private physicians to receive the bivalent vaccine.

The Health Department will not conduct public clinics for the bivalent vaccine. This vaccine will be administered mainly by private physicians. Nursing homes will cover their own patients. Plans are also being made by retirement centers to administer vaccine to residents of these centers. Some persons will receive the vaccine through clinics organized by senior citizens groups and through existing community clinics such as

Hearing Slated Tuesday on Sylvan Zoning

At their Oct. 12 meeting, the Sylvan Township Board moved to table a decision on a current zoning petition involving the Miller and Coltre properties until Tuesday, Oct. 19, when the board will conduct a special public hearing to act on the issue.

The meeting, scheduled at the legal request of some residents who will be affected by the proposed change, will begin at 7 p.m. in Sylvan Township Hall.

Growing public concern by some residents over allegedly irresponsible moves to redistrict properties in Sylvan township, resulted in the creation of a new organization, the Cavanaugh Lake Area Taxpayer's Association (CLATA). Dale Fisher, outspoken critic of the current Miller-Coltre rezoning proposal, spearheaded efforts to form the new group.

According to Fisher, the primary purpose of the new association is "to further citizen participation in township government and generally have representatives present at every township meeting."

CLATA hopes to co-operate on projects of public interest with the already existing Sylvan Taxpayer's Association.

Other goals of the new organization include "looking for qualified people interested in running for public office, and encouraging other groups in the township to form the same type of association," Fisher stated. "Ideally, we hope to have at least three strategically placed, similar organizations." Anyone interested in joining one of the present groups or initiating a separate organization, should contact Fisher, 475-2953.

CLATA's first official act will be to sponsor a public hearing Oct. 25, in Sylvan Township Hall. Don Pennington, chief planner for Washtenaw county, will be present to discuss the 1974 master zoning plan for Sylvan township. He will also clarify the County Planning Commission's reasoning behind the establishment of existing districts.

D. Wojcicki Advances To Area PP&K Finals

David Wojcicki, 11, will share Pontiac Stadium with the pros during the Detroit Lions-Chicago Bears game on Sunday, Nov. 21, as he challenges the Northern Michigan representative in Punt, Pass and Kick (PP&K) Area competition finals during half-time.

David, a sixth grader at Beach Middle school, advanced to area competition following his victory over a 10-man field in the world division of the District PP&K held in Ypsilanti on Saturday, Oct. 9. He won the event with an over-all score of 22.5 points.

David's formula for success was simply to concentrate and do his best. Contest spokesmen asserted "the winner is judged on accuracy to such an extent, good throwers or kickers can lose points if they fall wide or overthrow their mark." Experts note it can happen to anyone.

They're Opening

Who cares if "public bodies" do their business in public? Everybody should. They're doing the public's business and spending taxpayers' money.

Even if they don't want to attend the meeting themselves, members of the taxing public should care if their media representatives are allowed into meetings of "public bodies" to carry out their roles as watchdogs of government.

Thus the "hurras" came from many quarters when Michigan's new open meetings law won approval. The measure—a lion's share of the credit for which goes to Rep. David Hollister, D-Lansing—takes effect April 1, 1977. A super loophole exists in current law, which requires only that the final vote on a given topic must be taken in public.

The new law requires all meetings of a public body to be open to the public and held in a place available to the general public. "All decisions of a public body shall be made at a meeting open to the public," the law declares.

There are exceptions, of course, such as chance encounters and social occasions. (Some consider that provision a loophole too, but others point out that it probably would be quite unconstitutional to try regulating the social activities of anyone—public officials included.)

Other exceptions are meetings held to discuss: —Disciplining an employe, public officer or student.

—Collective bargaining strategy and negotiation sessions when either party asks for a closed hearing.

—Purchase of real estate, up to the time option, purchase or lease is obtained.

—Pending litigation, if it is determined that open discussion would be harmful to the public body's legal case.

—Review of applications for employment.

Partisan caucuses of the legislature also are exempt.

In the international trade of agricultural products. Marketing advisor Mansour Bejaoui points out that the most widely known measures—pounds and bushels—are not as precise as metric measures. The bushel, he notes, is commonly agreed to be 2150.43 cubic inches in volume. But its weight ranges from 60 pounds for wheat to 56 pounds for corn and 32 pounds for oats.

New Honorees

The Michigan Highways Hall of Honor, established to cite outstanding contributions to the development of state highway, road and street transportation systems, added four names to its rolls.

They included: Talbert Abrams, a pioneer in aerial surveying for highways; the late Mortimer E. Cooley, the University of Michigan, a leading municipal engineer; and the late William D. Monroe, a leading municipal engineer; and the late Sen. Michael J. O'Brien, the state lawmaker "most responsible for enactment of Michigan's basic highway law.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

After the fellers got through the politics on the agenda at the country store Saturday night they shared reports on good and bad, old, and new days. It was two of Ed Doolittle's clippings that got me started, and before the feller that runs the store run home they covered items ranging from doctors house calls to mother's milk.

Ed had read where this country doctor was reviewing his 50 year of practice, and the doctor said he still can't go to sleep at night till he has made at least one house call. Ed was of a mind they must be a heap of doctors with terminal insomnia in this country, and it felt mighty good to know at least one doctor would come to you instead of you waiting half the day in his office to see his nurse.

Speaking of house calls, Bug Hookum broke in to say grocery stores on wheels are coming back. He had saw where old folks in big city housing projects now can shop at home from big vans that have everything from fresh fruits to frozen meats. Old people were being mugged by their Social Security when they tried to walk to the store, so the store comes to them. Bug said he recollected when ice come that way, and fish, and practical everything else come by mail. This idea could save energy to, Bug allow, with one store driving to a heap of customers instead of all them driving to the store.

Getting back to Ed, the other note he had was where the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission has give up on requiring child-proof matches. He recalled months back when the fellers discussed the $3 million the commission spent researching and coming up with match safety standards. The matchbook had to be so a child couldn't open it, and the match had to put itself out in four seconds. Now, the commission says the match danger ain't a danger. Different matches wouldn't cut back on burns, for one thing, and for another if the matches were hard to get at, grown folks would just leave em open so youngsters could find em.

All three items were good news to the rest of the fellers. Zeke Grubb said he would vote for that doctor for President, and as for match safety he was proud to see a feller can still strike his match on the seat of his pants, or even pop it with his thumbnail and leave the lit match head to barbecue the nail, all without breaking the law. With this break, Zeke declared, we might get back to being able to feed our own table scraps to our own hogs.

You never know, said Clem Webster, how things will turn around. He said a chemical poison found in cow milk last year now has been found in wimmen milk. Farmers had to shoot 32,000 head of cows, but Clem figured the best way out fer public health now is to decide the poison ain't so bad after all, like the level of arsenic reported this summer in California grapes. A baby's jest got to eat.

Yours truly, Uncle Lew.

Suit Charges Inferior Silo Product Sold

Ronald Mida of Ypsilanti was arraigned in Judge Henry Arkinson's 14th District Court in Dexter on Friday, Aug. 8 on a charge of fraudulent pretenses over $100. The complaint was filed by Jim Dunlavy of Mast Rd., a Dexter farmer.

Mida was released on a $1,000 personal recognizance bond and will appear in the Chelsea District Court on Oct. 25 for preliminary examination.

Dunlavy's complaint is that Mida sold him an inferior product used in silos, fraudulently, under the name of Silo-Guard, generally a reliable product. Mida is presently employed by American Agriculture Products Co., formerly Tri-State Agri-Lab in Ypsilanti, an authorized dealer of Silo-Guard.

The product which Mida sold to Dunlavy was laboratory tested and is alleged to be counterfeit and unlike the authentic product, is claimed to be useless in the silo.

Farmers are urged to check products they have on hand bearing the Silo-Guard label, especially if they were sold at a discount price. If there is any question about the authenticity of the product, it should be tested in a laboratory, commented Dunlavy.

Detroit Men Charged With Felonious Assault

Two suburban Detroit men were arrested on charges of felonious assault by Chelsea police following an early morning incident in front of The Pub, 113 S. Main, Sunday, Oct. 10. The two were identified as Ronald J. Weston, 23, of Melvindale, and George Haktisian, 19, of Dearborn Heights.

According to police reports, officers received an alert from an unidentified caller about 12:20 a.m., stating a group of people were gathered in front of the downtown bar and two males were brandishing shotguns.

Chelsea Patrolmen Roger Graves, Robert Browning, and John Detling arrived on the scene, and were advised by William R. McCling of Chelsea, that a man fitting Haktisian's description had pushed what he believed to be a single-shot shotgun into his stomach, stating "you better get out of here."

Darrell L. Fletcher of Chelsea corroborated McCling's account, adding the same individual had also pointed the gun at him. A third victim, Ricky S. Risner of Chelsea, affirmed both men had pointed their guns at him and made verbal threats.

Witnesses to the disturbance declared they observed Haktisian and Weston remove two shotguns from a 1974 blue Dodge van parked on Main St. near The Pub, saw them load several rounds of ammunition into each gun, and point them at the three men.

Before the officers had time to act, they noticed two men in a blue van, matching the vehicle description proffered by witnesses, traveling south on Main St. towards the group. The patrolmen stepped into the street and stopped the vehicle.

A consequent search of the van led to the discovery of one Eastfield Model 916, 12-gauge pump action shotgun, one Iver-Johnson 16-gauge single-shot shotgun, and five shells of ammunition. The weapons and shells were confiscated as evidence.

Both Haktisian and Weston, the two men inside the van, were arrested and handcuffed, and transported by police to the Washtenaw County Jail in Ann Arbor. They were arraigned in Circuit Court Tuesday, Oct. 12.

Freshman Grid Team Trounces South Lyon

The Bulldog freshmen turned in a fine performance Tuesday, Oct. 12, trouncing South Lyon, 28-6.

Chelsea's offense got rolling with a 63-yard drive on their first possession. John Dunn capped the drive with a one-yard sneak for the TD.

South Lyon threatened in the second quarter, but a strong defense effort forced them to turn the ball over. Chelsea scored again on a 40-yard pass from Dunn to Mike Killelea. Mike Wood ran the extra points. The TD was set up when Dan Pagliarini ran a fake punt for a first down from the Bulldog 30.

Just before the half, South Lyon scored their only points on a pass to a halfback who outran the Chelsea defenders, making the half-time score 14-6.

Defense took over in the third period. Chelsea's offense sputtered but Tom Gilbreath, Andy Weir, Bill Burgess and Randy Risner turned in strong play on defense.

It was Burgess' fumble recovery that set up Chelsea's next score, a three-yard run by fullback Brad Knickerbocker. Dunn threw to Killelea for the conversion. Mark Cole scored the final TD on a six-yard run to end a 56-yard drive over-all, and a 35-yard personal gain. This made the final score 28-6, a rewarding victory for the young Bulldogs who seemed to show more poise and polish as the game went on.

The next freshman game is with Tecumseh Oct. 19, followed by confrontations with Dexter and Saline, both strong rivals, to close the season.

The Veterans Administration will spend more than $4 billion on health care for veterans this year.

Previous Years CHS Yearbooks Going On Sale

The Chelsea High school yearbook staff will conduct an "oldies but goodies" yearbook sale, Friday evening, Oct. 15, directly following Chelsea's homecoming football game.

Yearbooks dated as far back as 1962, along with CHS "Barkets" from 1964, 1967, 1968, 1970, 1972, and 1974, will be on sale just outside the gates above the football field. The price of all books is $4.

Potential buyers are urged to hurry to the sale as only a limited supply of books will be available.

Deer Hunters Will Swap Tales Oct. 21

Twenty-five years ago an anxious group of Chelsea deer hunters unable to contain their enthusiasm for the upcoming annual movement to the "North Woods" decided to get together and discuss their plans.

The group, which called themselves The Loyal Order of Confirmed Deer Hunters and Deer Slayers of America Amalgamated (or in short T.L.O.C.D.H.A.D.S.), held their first meeting at the home of Vincent Burg.

On Oct. 21, T.L.O.C.D.H.A.D.S.O.A.A. will celebrate its 25th Anniversary by meeting at the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club, 7103 Elingane Rd., 7:30 p.m.

All members and area deer hunters who are not now but wish to become members are invited to attend.

Hunters who were successful last season are urged to bring their antlers or mounted heads for display. An evening of stories, movies and cards is planned.

34 Years Ago...

Thursday night from 7:30 to 9:30 for six weeks, starting Oct. 15.

Chelsea's second big scrap collection will be held next Thursday afternoon, Oct. 22, according to Paul C. Maroney, who has accepted the chairmanship of the committee for the second big drive.

Every community in Washtenaw county will be asked to consider forming neighborhood war clubs under their local defense councils, according to an announcement by Harrison H. Caswell, chairman of the county council of defense at a meeting of the group last Friday evening.

PTO Voices Support for School Millage

Chelsea Parent-Teachers Organization held its first meeting of the year Tuesday, Oct. 5, at Beach School. Approximately 25 members and guests were in attendance.

Chairman John Cox called the meeting to order at 7:40 p.m. He suspended the normal business proceedings because of the importance of the discussion topic, the "School Millage Election."

Cox then introduced the guest speaker, Robert Daniels, member of the Chelsea School Board. Daniels detailed the need for the additional millage, and answered questions from PTO members relating to the millage and to school operations.

Cox stated he believed the board is justified in their request for the additional 1.5 mills and asked for PTO support of the issue. A motion was presented, and passed unanimously, in support of the request.

Cox then distributed copies of the proposed PTO By-laws and Constitution and stated that discussions on the matter would follow at the November meeting. Although a definite time and date was not established, the meeting was tentatively slated for the second or third week of November. Anyone may obtain a copy of the proposed By-laws and Constitution by calling Cox at 475-7547.

The meeting was adjourned at 9 p.m.

PSAT, NMSQT Test Date Near For CHS Juniors

Juniors interested in registering for the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) and National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMSQT) have only two enrollment days remaining before the registration deadline takes effect at 3:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 15.

The tests are scheduled for administration Tuesday, Oct. 19, in the high school cafeteria. The exams cost $2.75, payable upon registration in the main office of Chelsea High school.

Any questions regarding either the PSAT or NMSQT should be directed to the CHS Counseling Department, 475-9131, Ext. 42.

About 30 percent of VA's 200,000 employees represent minority groups.

SCOTT OWINGS (88), a six-year veteran football player, is now in his second year on the CHS varsity squad. The high school senior exhibited an uncanny ability to predict the future last season, when he remarked that Chelsea would probably finish the 1976 season with a 5-4 record, rather than maintain a position as league title contender. However, the 6'0", 160-lb. griddler maintained, "we could easily win the rest of our games," a second prediction which if realized, would cancel out his first. Owings believes current problems for the team stem from a failure on the part of the offensive line to block effectively, and he cited a need for the offense to sustain its drives. "Catching passes is the most fun," the Bulldog end replied when asked what he liked most about football. Beginning as a guard, Owings switched to linebacker on the JV team along with a football colleague, Don Nadeau, and both then transferred to end positions when drafted for the varsity. Owings also plays baseball for CHS, and is a member of the yearbook staff, the Key Club, and National Honor Society. He has a sister, Lee Ann, a CHS freshman, who plays girls basketball, and a brother, Jamie, who is a sixth grader at Beach school and avid football fan. Owings stated he plays football because "it gets me tired so I can sleep nights." Referring to the Bulldogs' upcoming game against South Lyon, he added, "We better beat them, because if we don't and we thought this week was unpleasant (following the Brighton loss), just wait until next week." Owings is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Owings of Meadow Lane.

RICK BEEMAN (44), has played football for Chelsea since 7th grade when he competed on the intramural team. The CHS junior used "to ruin the ball" before starting as a center his sophomore year. Recollecting his past season on the JV squad, Beeman stated the team was hot. "We only lost two games last year, against South Lyon and Tecumseh, both were close and we should have won them." The 5'10", 143-lb. griddler doesn't think Chelsea is doing too well now, but added optimistically, "we should come out better than our present record indicates, our offense will get it together." Beeman has no doubts that Chelsea will win against South Lyon on Friday. The Bulldogs have been studying films of the South Lyon team in action and have apparently spotted some gaps in their opponents' strategy. Beeman, who also wrestles for CHS, has two older brothers, Russell and John, an older sister, Darlene, a younger brother, Bobby, and a younger sister, Lisa. All have either attended or are attending Chelsea schools. When asked what he enjoyed most about football, Beeman replied, "the contact, and trying to outsmart or outwit the other team." He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beeman of Waterloo Rd.

DAVE SCHROTENBOER (82), a CHS junior, began football in 7th grade, and moved from the JV squad to varsity this season. A best-remembered moment came last season when the JVs played Saline. "We won the game after time had run out," the griddler stated. "With no time left in the game we scored a touchdown, putting us one point behind Saline. Then, we lined up for the two-point conversion, after time ran out, made it, and finished, 22-21, one point ahead." Remarking on the team's progress this season, Schrotenboer said, "We played terribly as a team against Brighton, we just weren't fired up enough. But, we're going to win against South Lyon Friday." The 6'3", 175-lb. end began football as a tackle, but switched to his present position "because I wasn't big enough to continue as a tackle," he declared. As an end, Schrotenboer enjoys the hard hitting and competition football provides. He has an older brother, Doug, who is a 1976 graduate of CHS, and a younger brother, Don, who is a 9th grader at CHS and a member of the freshman football team. Schrotenboer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger G. Schrotenboer of Werker Rd.

You can't judge a Congressman by his newsletters.

Most voters think their Congressman does a good job of keeping in touch with them. And most Congressmen do, because they get free printing and postage privileges. That's why, when it comes to communicating with the people back home, there's really no difference between the two candidates for Congress in the Sixth District. Each wants to keep in close touch with you, and each will.

You judge him on the issues

But there is a difference between the two candidates on the issues. And it's on the issues that you should determine who you want to send to Congress. After all, the man you send to Washington will be casting your vote for you in the House of Representatives.

Take a look at the issue of the race - things like crime, welfare, jobs - and decide which of the two candidates will vote your way most often. Then, on November 2, vote for the person who will cast your vote in Washington.

THE ISSUE	THE PRESENT CONGRESSMAN	CLIFF TAYLOR
Easier parole for criminals	YES Voted to make it possible for federal criminals to be released after 1/3 their sentences (Roll Call 239, May 21, 1975)	NO "One out of three crimes is committed by people on parole. I think we must stiffen parole requirements, and have tough mandatory sentences for crimes committed with a gun."
Congressmen's fringe benefits	YES Voted "yes" on lavish backdoor fringe benefits for each Congressman (HR 6950, July 22, 1975)	NO "It is the duty of the Congressman to exercise thrift with taxpayers' money."
Welfare Reform	NO Voted not to limit food stamps to those households which are at or below the poverty level (Roll Call 698, November 13, 1975)	YES "I want to crack down on welfare abuse so we can better serve the truly needy."
Balanced Budget	NO Voted for huge deficit of $72 billion (Roll Call 693, Nov. 12, 1975)	YES "I am opposed to huge deficits - they fuel the fires of inflation."
Solving unemployment	GOVERNMENT MAKE-WORK Co-sponsor of HR 50, an elaborate program of government make-work identical to the now-discredited Humphrey-Hawkins bill	PERMANENT JOBS "I favor good permanent jobs in the private sector, jobs that don't run out when the public funds do."
Foreign Aid	MORE Votes again and again for billions of dollars in foreign aid and "soft" loans, particularly to countries in Latin America and Africa (Roll calls 24, 752, 753, 754 in 197; 93, 286 in 1976)	LESS "We now support 57 totalitarian governments, according to the Agency for International Development. I think we must be more careful of what aid we send, and to whom."
Mandatory registration of all guns	YES In a letter to a constituent dated May 5, 1976, he advocates statewide registration of all guns.	NO "I favor enforcing those laws we already have. In addition, I support mandatory sentences for crimes committed with firearms."

If you agree with him, you ought to vote for him.

Cliff Taylor

for Congress.

GEORGE STEEH
 DEMOCRAT FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

Effective management of the prosecutor's office is desperately needed to direct more than two dozen employees and handle accessibly a criminal case load of over 4700 a year. Now only 100 of 1700 felony cases go to trial, and nearly 1 in 4 felony charges is dismissed because it was brought improperly. No wonder the crime problem gets worse!

George Steeh has been a Senior Assistant Prosecuting Attorney. He has extensive experience handling trials and appeals. As Chief of a nationally acclaimed Economic Crime Unit, he effectively managed a staff and case load more than twice as large as the Washtenaw County Prosecutor's.

George Steeh will give us the effective management we need in our prosecuting attorney's office to confront the crime problem.

Ed Coy Realty Opens Office In Dexter

The Ed Coy Realty opened last week on Broad St. under the ownership of lifetime Dexter resident, Ed Coy, Ted Picklesimer of Chelsea is an associate.

Coy and his wife, Fran, live on Trinkie Rd. They have two children, Todd and John.

Active in community affairs, Coy is a member of Kiwanis Club, a past member of the Dexter Jaycees, former Lima Township supervisor and served as lobbyist for the Michigan Township Association for one year.

Increasing numbers of automobiles, trucks and motorcycles in conjunction with more and more noisy labor saving power tools and appliances have combined to make noise pollution one of the most significant health hazards in the second half of the 20th Century, hearing specialists report.

The Veterans Administration reports development of the first national cemetery since 1950 is under way near Riverside, Calif.

JAYCEES FEED 1,500: Shortly after 4 p.m., all 1,500 chickens roasted over the charcoal pits by Chelsea Jaycees during their annual Chicken Barbecue and Color Tour on Sunday, Oct. 9, had disappeared, and in their place were hundreds of well-fed diners. The above photo focuses on just such a group, as they pick up their packaged dinners and tour guides furnished by the Jaycees, and head for the woods to view autumn colors following their meal.

TO THE UNINFORMED, a day-long cloud of smoke which poured from a site on the corner of M-52 and Old US-12 could have meant only one thing—fire. However, upon investigation, they would have found three Chelsea Jaycees master chefs preparing barbecued chicken for 1,500 participants in the Jaycees' annual Fall Chicken Barbecue and Color Tour. Cloudy weather didn't hinder the success of the event as area residents lined up to savor the tasty birds throughout the day. The above photo captures the barbecue pits in full operation. Chairman of this year's chicken barbecue was JC Dale Messing, at left in photo.

Chelsea's cross-country team is scheduled to run at Novi Thursday, Oct. 14, and again on Tuesday, Oct. 19 at Milan.

Thursday, Oct. 28, the Bulldog harriers will challenge arch-rivals Brighton. According to Coach Pat Clarke, "the team will show up at Brighton. Brighton is unbeaten this season with a 5-0 league mark, and 8-0 over-all. They have won 25 consecutive dual meets in the last two years. However, Chelsea was the last team to defeat Brighton, and the only team to ever defeat the league leaders on their home course."

H. Vogel Granted Highest Honor of Civil Engineers

Herbert D. Vogel, of Washington, D. C., and a former Chelsea resident, received Honorary Membership in the American Society of Civil Engineers, spokesmen for the group reported Sept. 29. Dr. Vogel accepted the Society's highest honor at the ASCE annual convention.

Dr. Vogel was cited "for his distinguished career as an engineer-soldier, for his founding of the Waterways Experiment Station and for his work as an advisor and administrator on projects planned to improve the quality of life."

After earning a Doctor of Engineering degree from the Berlin Technical College, Dr. Vogel became director, U. S. Waterways Experiment Station, Vicksburg, Miss. He later became instructor, the Engineering School, Ft. Belvoir, Va. He then held several Assistant to District Engineer positions and in 1942 became District Engineer, Pittsburgh. Later he was assigned as District Engineer, U. S. Engineer District, Buffalo, N. Y., from 1945-1949. For a year after this, he became Engineer of Maintenance, The Panama Canal where he prepared plans for the reorganization of canal activities to result in creation of the Panama Canal Co.

From 1952 to 1954 as Division Engineer, Southwest Division, Dr. Vogel was in charge of the Corps civil works program that involved new construction and enlargement of dozens of Air Force installations. He then took the position of Chairman of the Board of TVA for eight years. Having retired as a Brigadier General, he entered his current position in 1963 as Engineer Advisor, International Bank for Reconstruction and Development. Dr. Vogel has authored numerous technical papers and is a Registered Professional Engineer in New York, Tennessee, Texas, and Washington, D. C.

As a sign of the times, more than 300 cities and communities throughout the United States have established ordinances to combat hazardous environmental noise hearing specialists observe. Other communities wishing to control the deluge of environmental noise are urged to contact the Environmental Protection Agency for recommended regulatory guidelines, they add.

BROADCAST CONTROLLED COLOR TELEVISION

Many TV programs are now transmitted with a special color reference signal called VIR. When the VIR signal is present, now sophisticated computer-type circuitry in selected General Electric color models, uses this signal to automatically adjust the color and tint of the television picture. This means you won't have to fiddle with those color control settings. Instead, this truly automatic VIR system makes the adjustments for you.

GE's Broadcast Controlled Color system consistently gives you color and tint automatically adjusted by the VIR signal from the broadcast themselves.

Come in for a demonstration - ask us to show you the extent to which VIR is available in this area.

Varsity Debate Team 4-4 in Season Opener

The CHS debate team unleashed a flow of verbal tenacity as they successfully opened their 1976 varsity tournament season at Essexville-Garber in Bay City, Saturday, Oct. 9. They finished the day with a 4-4 record.

Twenty varsity debate teams throughout the state argued this year's national topic, "Resolved, that a comprehensive program of penal reform should be established throughout the United States."

On the affirmative side for Chelsea were Leslie Clark and Julie Prohaska. Upholding the negative, were Tammy Puglisi and Barbara Hinderer.

"It was good preparation for upcoming debates, a shakedown cruise, with competition on all levels," Coach William Coelius declared following his team's tournament debut. Schools from all class divisions participated jointly in the four-round debate.

Chelsea defeated Detroit Catholic Central, Charlevoix, Clare, and Southfield, but fell to Grand Blanc, Caro, Dearborn, and Cass City.

Three local debaters in the season opener prepared for this year's debate series by attending two-week summer debate institutes at colleges and universities country-wide, on their own volition, and at their own expense.

Tammy Puglisi attended a debate seminar at the University of Michigan; Leslie Clark enrolled in a summer debate program at Northern Michigan University; and Julie Prohaska traveled to the University of Massachusetts. The format of the summer debate institutes included guest lecturers delivering addresses on the national topic, and practice debates.

Coach Coelius is predicting "a good squad of novices coming up, but they don't debate until the beginning of November."

AN ELEGANT ARRAY of flower arrangements and planters greeted visitors touring Gar-Nett's newly opened national greenhouse addition. The greenhouse features an 18'x20' room with a walk-in flower cooler.

Gar-Nett's Open New Greenhouse

Gar-Nett's Flower and Greenhouse, 1121 E. Middle St., celebrated the completion of its 18'x38' aluminum and glass national greenhouse with an open house for the business community Wednesday, Oct. 6, and a public showing Oct. 8 and 9. The new structure features an 18'x20' room with a walk-in flower cooler.

Music for the open house was furnished by Chelsea's Nalli Music Store. Students of Jan Otto performed on various instruments, including Craig McLaughlin on organ, Keith Guenther on guitar, and Jerry Ratzlaff, also on guitar.

Gar-Nett's public greenhouse exhibition on Friday and Saturday was well attended and acclaimed a success by sponsoring personnel. Guests were served cider, coffee, cookies, doughnuts, and fruit, as they toured the facility.

A highlight of the event was a door prize drawing. Winners and their prizes included Sue Carpenter of Chelsea, a set of steak knives; Barbara Wenk of Chelsea, glass-blown Christmas tree ornaments; Dave Rowe of Chelsea, brass-plated car planter; Beatrice Vogel of Chelsea, salad bowl set; Evelyn Frame of Detroit, chip and dip set; Sue May of Chelsea, fireplace planter; Michael Loux of Chelsea, brandy set; Judy Staebler of Chelsea, large plant; and Lois Koch of Chelsea, bouquet of eucalyptus.

Gar-Nett's opened for business in July, 1972, under the ownership of Jeanette Otto, who has had 28 years of experience in the florist industry.

Senior Citizen, Handicapped Bus Service Now Operating

Only one week old, Chelsea's new village-wide and selective rural bus service for senior citizens and handicapped adults is gradually acquiring a regular clientele, although more riders are needed to insure the continuance of the service. Official bus operation began Monday, Oct. 11.

The reserve-call shuttle bus service is under the authority of the Chelsea Area Transportation System (CATS), a seven-member collection of area organizations pledging financial support to the project.

To book rides, qualifying residents must call 475-9494 between 9 a.m. and 11 a.m., and 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday. A 12-hour advance notice is required for dispatch.

Daily service hours are Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Thursdays, the bus will operate from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., with afternoon hours reserved for maintenance and special trips.

The CATS shuttle will transport residents 62 years of age or older, and handicapped persons 18 years of age or older throughout a 34 square mile service area. Operation within the village limits will be 4 1/2 days per week, while areas east of M-52 will be serviced Monday and Wednesday, and areas west of M-52 on Tuesday and Friday.

Areas mapped for service include almost all of Sylvan township and a large portion of Lima township. Boundaries are defined as north to the northern most boundary of Sylvan township, south to just beyond Scio Church Rd., east to Lima Center Rd., and west to Loveland Rd. In a recent flyer distributed throughout Chelsea by CATS, Lima Center Rd. was mistakenly identified as Baker Rd.

Bus fare has been set at 25 cents per passenger per trip, or a total of 50 cents for round trip service. However, service will be free for the balance of October.

CATS officials are currently conducting a search for volunteer dispatchers to staff the dispatching office located in the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home. No prior experience is required. Interested volunteers are urged to call Louis Burghardt, 475-1674, Sam Johnson, 475-7472 and 475-7366, or Betty Koch, 475-8582.

Changes Noted In High School Athletic Schedule

Two changes in the 1976 CHS calendar of athletic events have been announced by Tom Baisitriere, CHS athletic director.

The Bulldog freshman football game with Tecumseh, formerly slated for Wednesday, Oct. 20, has been moved forward to Tuesday, Oct. 19, 7 p.m., in Chelsea.

The CHS girls varsity basketball game with Saline, Oct. 21, has been shifted from home to away, with a reciprocal change occurring Nov. 16, when Saline will travel to Chelsea to meet the Bulldogs' second challenge rather than play in Saline as originally scheduled.

Bus Arranged For B. Graham Appearance

The Billy Graham Crusade will be launched in Pontiac Metropolitan Stadium Friday evening, Oct. 15, 7:30 p.m. with the program scheduled to continue through Sunday, Oct. 24.

A bus load of spectators will be leaving Immanuel Bible church on Friday evening, Oct. 15, 8 p.m., and again on Monday, Oct. 18, which is Youth Night.

Appearing along with Billy Graham, will be the regular team members: George Berlerly Shea, Myrtle Hall, Ted Smith, Don Husted and Cliff Barrows.

Special guest personalities will include Joe Reed, Detroit Lions quarterback; Andre Crouch, gospel singer and recording artist; Charles Colson, former presidential aide to Richard Nixon and author of "Born Again," a current best-seller; Johnny Cash, and June Carter, Ethel Waters, Evie Tornquist, Joni Eareckson, Kim Wickes, (blind Korean singer), and Norma Zimmer, television personality on the Lawrence Welk Show.

Some group reservation tickets are still available (although tickets are not needed to attend, this just helps assure seats together). For information call Immanuel Bible church, 475-8936.

Canoe, Kayak Races Set on Huron River

The second annual R.S. & C.K. Fall Flush Canoe and Kayak Race Week-end will be held this year on the week-end of Oct. 23 and 24. Slalom races will be held on Saturday, Oct. 23 at Delhi Metro Park on the Huron River between Ann Arbor and Dexter. Starting time is 11 a.m. (Registration is between 8 and 10 a.m.)

Two downriver races will be held Sunday, Oct. 24. The first race starts just below the Mast Rd. bridge near Dexter and is 4.7 miles long, ending below Delhi Rapids. Many different classes of boats, from open canoes to wild-water (closed) kayaks will compete. This race starts at 11 a.m. (Boats will be started at intervals).

The second race is for the "Unlimited Canoe Class" and is open to both amateur and professional racers in any type of two-person canoe. For this race there will be an exciting mass start from Hudson Mills Park at 1 p.m. The finish will be below Delhi Rapids, a total of 9.5 miles. Registration for both downriver races will be at Delhi Metro Park from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m.

Kayaking and river slaloms are a rapidly growing sport. The races held twice yearly on the Huron River at Delhi Rapids are the only river slaloms held in Michigan. They are both sponsored by the Ann Arbor based Raker Strength and Courage Kayakers Club (R.S. & C.K.). The fact that Delhi Rapids on the Huron is practically the only rapids in southern Michigan contributes greatly to the uniqueness of these slalom races to Michigan. The Delhi site is also quite suitable to spectator viewing as the banks are fairly open.

It takes much skill and practice in order to do well at kayak slalom. The slalom race is therefore broken up into novice and expert classes in order to give the beginning kayaker a fair chance. For those who wish to practice the course, the slalom at Delhi Rapids will be set up at 10 a.m. Friday, Oct. 22.

A slalom race is quite a colorful event. As many as 30 gates are hung over a rapids. Each gate consists of two poles: one green and white, the other red and white striped. The canoeist or kayaker must pass between these poles with the red to the left without touching either pole. Naturally the gates are placed in a difficult but not impossible sequence.

For more information or registration forms call or write: Bill Black, 1402 Henry St., Ann Arbor 48104, phone 994-4064 or Richard Amick (publicity manager), 1464 Cedar Bend Dr., Ann Arbor 48105, 663-3952.

JV Gridders Victims Of Brighton Power

A steady exchange of the lead characterized the first half before Chelsea's JV gridders were finally swept to defeat by the Brighton powerhouse, 12-34, in an early evening confrontation, Oct. 7.

Bulldog Bill Moore returned the opening kick-off with a 16-yard run and touchdown, to initiate the scoring, 6-0. Chelsea attempted to increase their lead by running the ball back across the goal line for extra points, but failed.

Brighton took possession and countered the Bulldog attack, as they scrambled for a touchdown of their own, evening the score at 6-6.

Brighton scored again in the second quarter, pushing ahead, 12-6, only to see Chelsea tighten it up again, 12-12, on an eight-yard pass from Jessie Coburn to Jeff Elbler. Neither team managed to clear extra points.

With half-time fast approaching, Brighton regrouped, zeroed in for another touchdown, and came through with extra point, to close the play at the end of the second quarter, 20-12.

Brighton returned in the second half with full ball control. They dominated the remaining two quarters, scoring two more touchdowns and running home an extra point.

Leading tacklers for Chelsea were Jessie Coburn, 15; Scott Powers, 13; John Augustine, 9; Don Gerstler, 8; Alan Augustine, 8; Doug Clark, 7; Tim Bareis, 5; and Jeff Elbler, 4.

Demonstrating outstanding performance in the field were Dan Gerstler who intercepted a pass, Doug Clark and Shawn Murphy, who both recovered fumbles, and Scott Powers, who registered an outstanding tackle.

According to coach Jon Schaffner, Brighton has a very good team, which aced their opponents in their first three games of the season. Chelsea, with three starters out at the beginning of the game, still played even with the visiting team, until the Bulldogs lost another starter late in the second quarter. "Injuries really decimated the team this week," Coach Schaffner reported.

Chelsea's JV gridders will travel to South Lyon Thursday, Oct. 14 for another conference challenge beginning at 7 p.m.

Association for Retarded Shares in United Way Funds

One of the 14 agencies served by Chelsea's annual United Way campaign is the Washtenaw Association for Retarded Citizens. Their number one priority has been to insure that handicapped persons' rights are safeguarded.

In a release published by the WARC these rights are listed as the right to participate in all aspects of community life; the right to economic security and a decent standard of living; the right to proper medical care; the right to protection from exploitation, abuse and degrading treatment.

It is efforts by groups such as this that got the Michigan Mandatory Special Education Act passed in 1971. This legislation guarantees all handicapped persons from 0 to 25 years, the right to an education. Chelsea's special children and adults are afforded many opportunities championed by this group.

WARC makes use of donated funds to provide nine busses to transport children to Highpoint School and to the Community Mental Health Development Center. There are group living homes for adolescents and adults in the county, supervised and administered by House Parents.

One of the endeavors the group is proudest of is the relocation of patients from State Mental hospitals, where they have often been mistakenly confined for years, misdiagnosed as mentally deficient. These persons are gradually integrated into the outside world, located in jobs and homes, and provided with close supervision. Not only do they become self-sufficient tax-paying citizens, but the state no longer must undertake their financial responsibilities—a double dividend.

The participants and employees of WARC are a dedicated group of persons who continue to deserve the financial support of the area United Ways.

Recreation Swim Hours Reduced

Chelsea swimming pool director has announced that because of a lack of interest in pool use for recreation swimming, the open schedule has been reduced. Open swimming is now scheduled on Monday and Thursday from 7 to 8 and Saturday from 12 to 2.

All adult lessons and handicapped and Senior Citizen swims will continue as scheduled.

Girls JV Cagers Show Continued Improvement

Chelsea's JV girls basketball team, having compiled a 1-5 record so far this season, was the subject of praise by Coach Cindy Bradbury. "With only four returning players and eight first-year players, we have played well defensively, never losing by more than eight points," she stated, adding "The offense hasn't jelled yet, but everyone has started scoring and we hope to begin winning at both ends of the floor."

Sophomore Sherry Klei was cited by the coach as the mainstay of the team, leading the Bulldogs with 68 rebounds for six games, while also moving into position as a leading scorer.

Other leading rebounders have been Jeryl Herrick, Cindy Welshans, Michelle Sarbach, Mary Bort, Theresa Thompson, Veronica Satterthwaite, and Lee Ann Owings.

Four freshmen and a sophomore have taken over guard duties, running plays and doing an excellent job of stopping the fast break, according to Coach Bradbury. They are Connie Anderson, Debbie Connell, Gloria Pearson, Carmen Scripser, and Tammy Collinsworth.

In league action, the Bulldogs lost to Brighton by eight points, and to Novi by only three. Chelsea will face-off against both teams again, at home, and play the rest of the league members twice, so the season is just underway.

Leading scorers for the first six games have been Cindy Welshans, Connie Anderson, Tammy Collinsworth, Veronica Satterthwaite, Michelle Sarbach, a transfer student from Virginia, and Sherry Kiel.

Next Tuesday, Oct. 19, Chelsea's JV cagers will play Dexter at 6:30 p.m. on their home court. Dexter is rumored to have the best JV team in the league, so the match will be a good indication of Chelsea's offense progression.

Freedom Township Board Votes Against Bridge Repair Millage

At their October meeting, the Freedom Township Board voted to deny a millage increase of .5 mills, requested by the Washtenaw County Road Commission to finance bridge repairs in the township.

The request was denied, board officials stated, because there are no bridges in Freedom township.

Frosh Grid Team Loses To Brighton

A bad week for Chelsea football began with the freshmen losing to Brighton, 38-12, Tuesday, Oct. 5.

Things went wrong early as Brighton capitalized on bad snap to punter Brad Knickerbocker and two penalties to go in front, 8-0. Three more penalties helped Brighton to their second TD late in the first half, giving them a 16-0 half-time lead.

Brighton took the opening kickoff of the second half and drove on down the field to score, then scored again on a 33-yard run to build a 32-0 lead. Chelsea finally got some offense late in the period with Mark Cole and Sin Joo Kim carrying behind Randy Risner, Mark Jenkins, and Karl Bell. A 16-yard reverse by Kim set up a three-yard TD run by Cole.

Brighton got their final TD on a 64-yard run midway in the fourth period. Chelsea added their final score when Bill Burgess recovered a Brighton fumble, and Brad Knickerbocker drove for short yardage to get the touchdown, making the final score 38-12.

It was not a good game for the Bulldogs. They were frequently hurt by penalties, and could never generate much offense. "We just did not play very well," was about all Coach Bainton had to say. The loss drops the freshmen to 1-2.

Band Boosters Publish Cookbook Of Local Recipes

A year-long project, undertaken by the Chelsea Band and Orchestra Boosters, culminated this week with the publication of 300 cookbooks, each spiced with more than 100 local recipes furnished by Chelsea residents.

The cookbooks are currently on sale at several area businesses, including Chelsea Lanes, Country Craftique, and Chelsea State Bank, or may be purchased by calling Ann Klobuchar, 475-7301, or Robert VanRiper, 475-2309.

All proceeds from cookbook sales will be used to finance Chelsea Band and Orchestra projects. In the past, the Boosters have sponsored fund-raisers for new uniforms, instrument repair, and bus fare for special band appearances. Annually, their financial contributions also help defray band camp expenses.

CORRECTION

In the Oct. 7 issue of The Standard, Mark Smyth, featured as one of Chelsea Gridders of the Week, was incorrectly identified as the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. Smith. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Smyth of Waterloo Rd.

The Veterans Administration employs about 5 percent of all physicians in the United States.

Girls Varsity Cagers Lose 2 Close Games

Chelsea girls varsity basketball team played two tough, close games this week and came out on the bottom both times.

On Tuesday, Oct. 5, the cagers traveled to Brighton where they dominated through the middle of the final quarter before falling to defeat, 41-43. Serious foul problems opened the way for a Brighton victory, as the leading Bulldogs had three players called out of the game in the crucial, last moments of play. With some of their staunchest opposition removed, Brighton moved ahead to score and win the game.

High scorers for Chelsea against Brighton were Shelley Warren with 15 points; Kim Moore, 7; Nanette Push, 6; Karen Keiser, 5; Tracy Hawker, 4; and Teresa Breza and Penny Collinsworth, 2 each.

On Thursday, Oct. 7, the team traveled to Jackson Northwest, where they lost, 36-38. In this game, the Bulldogs came from behind to take the lead, but failed to maintain the rally in the final two minutes of play.

Penny Collinsworth and Teresa Breza were high scorers for Chelsea, with 13 and 12 points, respectively. Other leading scorers were Kim Moore, 4; and Sue Heydlauff, Nanette Push, and Shelley Warren, 2 each.

The CHS girls varsity basketball team will travel to Milan for a league challenge Thursday (today), Oct. 14, and will return to their home court for a bout with Dexter the following Tuesday, Oct. 19.

Home Meal Service Needs More Drivers

Home Meal Service of Chelsea currently feeding 20 elderly shut-ins daily, urgently needs new drivers. Twelve volunteers are needed weekly to maintain the present level of service.

Each volunteer averages only 45 minutes to one hour per week. Persons interested in driving either regularly or as a substitute, should call Ginny Wheaton, 475-7412.

Specifically, drivers are needed for Wednesdays and Thursdays. No experience is necessary since new drivers undergo a short training period before delivering alone.
