

Boosters Successful in Fund Drive for School Activities

An unprecedented outpour in response from those who care, allowed me to say we have succeeded," announced Dr. William Hawks, president of Chelsea Boosters Club, Inc., before a crowd of nearly 400 Chelsea residents who congregated in Chelsea High school auditorium Monday evening, Nov. 1.

"As of this point, at this meeting, we have collected more than $1,000 in cash," he attempted to continue, but all further words were drowned out in a thunderous two-minute standing ovation, as the exuberant gathering rose in mass to applaud the results of a one-week deadline drive which ended with the reinstatement of extra curricular activities in Chelsea schools.

The Monday night meeting reopened the Chelsea Board of Education's recessed budget hearing of Oct. 25. At their last meeting, the board had voiced its decision to terminate all non-academic school activities to avoid a budget deficit following Chelsea's millage defeat Oct. 19. But, a last-minute reprieve granted the community seven days in which to raise the needed $45,000 to prevent the drastic cut.

Only hours after the adjournment of the Oct. 25 meeting, mobilization efforts had begun. Concerned citizens, led by Dr. Hawks, chartered the Chelsea Boosters Club, Inc., a non-political organization whose sole purpose was to raise the crucial amount. The group began with a $7,000 indention, collected by student canvassers Saturday, Oct. 23.

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 28, a strategy meeting was held to determine the best course to follow in raising the outstanding $38,000 balance. In succeeding days, students continued a door-to-door campaign for donations, and a week-end of special activities was held to climax solicitation efforts.

Community volunteers worked 17½ week-end hours at a flea market and bake sale to channel in contributions, and students sold photographs of Michigan and Spartan Stadium to football fans at local and Michigan football games, braving a freezing drizzle. Support of the drive came from formerly polarized factions throughout the community, students, parents, educators, concerned citizens, rural residents, "yes" and "no" millage election voters, and local business firms, to form a core of solidarity unequalled in all of Chelsea's history.

At the Monday night meeting,

Nov. 1, Don Morrison, a CHS student who spearheaded the organization of student volunteers, thanked the community for their tremendous response to the budget crisis. In return, a Chelsea mother stated, "With the completion of this past week, I have a new respect for students in this town—I wish to thank students for what they have done on behalf of all parents."

In what was a comparatively anti-climactic motion, the school board, led by president Howard Haselschwardt, moved to accept the Booster Club's check for $45,000 with a 6-1 vote. Only board member Tom Hodgson opposed the motion on grounds of personal conscience, justifying his resolve by noting he feared the success of the fund-raising drive might lead voters to defeat an upcoming millage proposal in the spring.

Booster Club president, Dr. Hawks, hastened to reiterate the group's stand that the effort was strictly "a one-shot deal." He further announced plans to hold a Booster Club meeting Sunday, Nov. 7, 7 p.m., in the high school auditorium, to determine the future of excess monies raised by the group this past week, and that of the Booster Club itself.

All club members, which includes all those who donated $5 or more, and are 18 years of age or older, are invited to attend the public forum and air their views on the matter.

Any resident, holding any opinion will be given two minutes in which to state proposed solutions. A tentative proposal to organize a steering committee, composed of a coalition between students, adults, business persons, educators and concerned citizens, has already been suggested as a means of identifying future goals.

"While I think the significant thing is we've done it (raised the $45,000), our singular purpose now is to address ourselves to the future," Hawks stated. "Only meaningful dialogue will settle our differences and prevent further crises. Therefore, we ask all members of the community to be present at the meeting Sunday, so we can determine our future the only fair way possible—with a democratic majority, in keeping with the sanctity of the American ballot."

revenues," the school board voted to reinstate extra curricular activities in Chelsea schools. The money was solicited in a one-week community drive, supported by a polarized range of local citizens from students to "no" voters who had defeated an Oct. 19 millage election by six votes.

Debaters Post 3-3 Record in Regional Meet

Chelsea High's varsity debate team was swept along on a wave of gathering verbal dexterity last Saturday, Oct. 30, as they competed in a regional debate tournament at Dearborn Edsel Ford. Chelsea completed the day with a 3-3 record, a one-win improvement over the final score in their tournament opener two weeks ago.

Teams from ABCD schools throughout southeastern Michigan traveled to Saturday's tournament debate this year's national topic, resolved, that a comprehensive program of penal reform should be established throughout the United States.

On the affirmative side for Chelsea were Tammy Puglisi and Barbara Hinderer, while negative opponents were Julie Prohaska and Leslie Clark.

Chelsea has been entering the league tournaments in preparation for SEC competition which begins early December," said Bill Coelius. "The tournaments are usually very difficult, with tougher competition than generally appears in league or district debate contests."

At Edsel Ford, the Bulldogs defeated Homer, Saline, Ed-Ford, Royal Oak Kimball, and Wayne John Glenn, but fell to Warren Woods, Wayne John Glenn.

LINING UP TO CAST BALLOTS in the general election Nov. 2, are voters from throughout Sylvan township. The turnout of local voters hit a record figure of 2,251, or an even 75 percent of those registered to vote. The line seen here was photographed at 7:15 p.m., just 45 minutes before the polls closed. Most of the day the line extended out onto the sidewalk.

Western Washtenaw Maintains Traditional Republican Majority

In spite of damp weather and overcast skies, area voters poured out in record numbers Tuesday, Nov. 2, to clear up questions of national, state and local interest.

The returns reveal local residents disagreed with the national decision to elect Jimmy Carter (D) president.

Sylvan, Lima, and Lyndon township voters all went for presidential incumbent Gerald R. Ford (R), by at least a 2-1 majority.

Elsewhere, the vote was heavily in favor of Republicans as Marvin Esch (R) soundly defeated Don Riegel (D) in the local election, only to have voters state-wide ratify the opposite, and put Riegel in the U. S. Senate seat to replace retiring Philip Hart.

In the 6th Congressional District, Cliff Taylor (R) led over Bob Carr (D) in the local contest, but Carr won handily over Taylor in the over-all district vote.

Mike Conlin (R) was re-elected to the State Legislature, 23rd District by both local and district voters with well over a 2-1 majority, winning over Darlene Otis (D), while incumbent Sheriff Frederick Postill (D) was soundly defeated county-wide by Tom Minick (R).

In a close race, William F. Delhey (R) was returned to the county prosecutor's office, to dissipate the hopes of Democratic contender George Steeh though Steeh led in the early returns.

Other county winners were Robert M. Harrison (R) for county clerk over Janet R. Klaver (D), both locally and county-wide; Hilary E. L. Goddard (D) in county returns, although opponent Robert W. Breymaier (R) was the choice of local voters for county treasurer; Patricia Newkirk Hardy (R) for register of deeds, with an overwhelming majority of all votes; Thomas Blessing (D), drain commissioner over Howard W. Taft (R) though Taft won locally; and George A. Merkel (R) took the county commissioner's seat in the 2nd district, defeating James E. LaGoe (D), by a 4-1 margin.

Local voters agree with county results which failed to pass county propositions for bridge construction and reconstruction, Proposition 1 on the ballot, and to increase tax limitations to repair and maintain county buildings, Proposition 2 on the ballot. However, Proposition 3, to maintain and develop parks and recreation areas, which was defeated by area voters, passed in a county decision.

Proposition 4, to include all of the city of Milan in Washtenaw county, was carried by voters throughout the county, but fell in Monroe county. Consequently, Milan will remain divided between the two counties.

Proposal A, to ban non-returnable bottles, won state-wide and also in western Washtenaw county. The other three state proposals concerning lowering the age requirement to 18 for senatorial can-

Gridders Drop Contest Against Rival Dexter

Chelsea High's varsity squad lost to Dexter Friday night, 24-7, as the Bulldogs' arch rivals demonstrated their superiority on the field, but won the big battle to finish the remaining games in the season as the entire community rallied to support extra curricular activities in Chelsea schools, contributing to a drive which netted well over the needed $45,000.

Chelsea coach Phil Bareis admitted the game was played during a rather unusual week for the Bulldog gridgers, many of whom had spent several days off the practice field and in area neighborhoods collecting donations. "It was really tough to concentrate on football this week," he concluded.

Dexter scored three times in the first half and added another touchdown in the fourth quarter before Chelsea could avoid a shut-out with a score with less than three minutes left in the game.

Dexter controlled the line of scrimmage from both sides, opening gaping holes on offense and smothering Chelsea's blocking on defense. Dexter rolled up 306 yards of total offense to Chelsea's mere 74. And, inhibiting the scoring were 118 yards in penalties against the Dreadnaughts and another 101 against Chelsea.

Dexter took the opening kickoff, scoring on its first two possessions. When Chelsea returned to accept Dexter's kick-off, the Bulldogs fumbled to give Dexter excellent field position at the 35. Five plays later, Dexter scored again with 6:21 still left in the first quarter.

Another Chelsea fumble killed the Bulldogs' only threat of the first half and opened the way for yet another Dexter touchdown. A fourth-quarter fumble at the 13-yard line set up Dexter's final score, as the neighboring team got the six-pointer on a one-yard quarterback sneak.

Official Schools Enrollment Hits Total of 2,647

On Wednesday, Nov. 3, the Chelsea Board of Education reported the enrollment figure for Chelsea district schools in the current 1976-77 school year is 2,647.

Based on enrollment, Michigan membership state aid to the district has been set at $279,911, or about $105 per student.

Hockey Team Downs Adrian for First Win

The CHS hockey team won its first game of the season, 4-2, over Adrian, Oct. 31, with team captain Greg Hastings scoring two goals to open the way for a Chelsea victory.

"We kept our errors to a minimum," coach Jerry Ringe stated in describing his team's effort, "and spent little time in the penalty box."

Chelsea fans had plenty to cheer about as midway through the first period the Bulldog icers took control of the game. From that point on, most of the play was contained to the Adrian end of the rink.

Adrian was first to score with a goal at 2:15 in the first period. Adrian's Bill Baker slipped the puck past Chelsea goal keeper Mike Check, but it was the only time Adrian would be able to outmaneuver the Chelsea net minder.

Chelsea got on the scoreboard at 11:55 in the first period when Hastings tipped in a shot from Bulldog Kevin Houle, who received credit for the assist. And, again at 1:05 in the second period, Chelsea's Dave Dawson got the puck deep in the Adrian zone, beat the Adrian goalie for an unassisted goal, and put Chelsea ahead to stay.

At 8:42 in the second period, Chelsea scored a third time when Bulldog Dennis White took a loose puck and put it between the legs of the Adrian goalie as Mark Stevenson picked up an assist on that goal.

Chelsea's fourth and final goal of the game came at 6:18 in the third period. CHS icer Pete Huston passed the puck to Harold Vandervoort who took the shot just wide of the net. Hastings was there to pick up the rebound off the backboards and sink it home for his second goal of the game. Huston and Vandervoort were cited for the assist.

Adrian ended the scoring at 11:21

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Natural, most of the session at the county store Saturday night was took up looking at the political picture. And natural what the fellows saw depended on who the fellows are. It was Bug Hookum that allowed beauty ain't the only thing that is in the eye of the beholder, and it's a help easier to see the warts on the other fellow's politics than your own.

Ed Doolittle said a lot of money and a lot of time has been poured into the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, and more of both is spent every time a national election rolls around. For his money, Ed declared, the Republicans has made a better case again, but he said he realizes that to his mind they allus do. Ed said he had voted his party all his voting life and the other side hadn't come with anything this time to change him.

Clem Webster was just as strong for Democrats up and down the line. Ed and Clem seldom set horses on anything, and never on politics. Clem says when it comes to studying issues, and taking sides, Ed is looking through a tunnel and all he sees is Abe Lincoln at the other end. Whoever come up with mossback had old Ed in mind, was Clem's words Saturday night. Clem was solid for Carter, but he allowed the man's ear-to-ear grin and his promise not to lie had nothing to do with it.

Actual, Clem declared, for a politician to promise not to lie ain't news, cause they make a heap tougher promises they can't keep. For the most part this time, Clem said, he was voting Democrat cause he couldn't bring his self to vote any other way, but in the case of the President it's more of a choice. You got one man that fell into the job and wants to keep it, and you got another that has proved he can move folks off dead center.

General speaking, Mister Editor, the rest of the fellows was like the old lady that told the pollster she weren't going to vote for anybody, cause all that does is encourage the rascals. It was Zeke Grubb that allowed his lifelong study of politics has showed that the man that goes the farthest is the one that can argue both sides with equal conviction. He can jump in and jump out and land on his feet ever time. Zeke said the fellow that understands politics is the kind that prays to whom it may concern. He knows you got to touch all the bases and scout through all the loopholes to make the most out of this free-for-all American system of government.

Josh Coldfelter, that usual keeps his ears open and his mouth shut at our meetings, called Zeke's hand on the business of arguing both sides. Josh said he don't know nothing about politics and he gets that fixxed up, but he does know a little about people. Josh was of mind that the fellow that is a mover and a shaker is the one that can't see but one side. Josh said when you can't pick a team to play on you might as well stay home, cause you ain't going to be much good to any team, and he got a endorsement on that motion from most of the fellows.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Prevent Abuse
No need to put out a fire if the never gets started.
The same theory holds true with substance abuse—and it's time to work toward prevention. That's the general finding of a special Substance Abuse Prevention Committee chaired by Lt. Gov. James J. Damman. That committee recently recommended a five-year program to set up comprehensive substance abuse prevention activities throughout Michigan.

"Prevention has not been taken as seriously as it should," Damman said. "And I agree with the committee and task force members that with careful developmental work, prevention can provide viable alternatives to treatment."

Among committee proposals are those to:
—Provide the public with accurate and pertinent information about drug and alcohol abuse.
—Coordinate federal, state and local substance abuse prevention programs.
—Provide professional information and in-service training to attract and keep well-trained competent persons in the field.

Patients' Rights

Flat on his back in a hospital bed, a patient might wonder the real meaning behind any long technical terms his doctor could use to define his illness.
And if his doctor didn't see fit to explain, he'd still wonder. But that could change under terms of a "patients' bill of rights" proposed in the House by Rep. Thomas H. Brown, D-Westland. A companion measure would ensure the rights of nursing home or home for the aged patients and residents.

"This legislation would, for the first time, make the hospital, or nursing home for the aged, responsible to the patient explicitly and make it mandatory that the patient's rights be made known to him," Brown says.
"Presently a patient rarely knows or understands his rights," Brown says. Most hospitals and homes and their staffs have done a good job of fulfilling their responsibilities to patients. However, he adds, there have always been a few physicians and hospitals and staff members who have violated patients' rights and taken liberties that have left the patients with no recourse unless he suffers grave or permanent damages.
"These bills would be a major step toward correcting this situation."

Among other provisions, the bill requires hospital patients to the right to full information—explained in layman's terms—about their diagnosis, treatment, prognosis, risks and possible side effects of recommended medical treatment or procedure, and alternate forms of treatment.

Buckle Up
Stubborn motorists and passengers who refuse to buckle up—"the seat belt's too confining..." "I don't like the shoulder harness..."—best beware!
—Failure to use belts cost some 700 Michigan motorists their lives last year.
—That same failure cost state citizens some $250 million in medical, hospital insurance and other costs.

Veterans Day Parade Slated in Ann Arbor

The Washtenaw County Council of Veterans will hold a Veterans Day Parade on the 11th hour, on the 11th day of the 11th month, 1976 in Ann Arbor.

The American people have accepted the obligation of honoring those citizens who have carried the banner of freedom and peace in defense of our country. Thus we have Veterans Day set aside for this purpose.

On this day we pause, in solemn tribute to those men and women who fought for America in the past, at Yorktown, at Chateau Thierry, on the beaches at Normandy, in the Pacific, Korea and Vietnam. They all, both living and dead, have earned an honored place in our history.

Having paused in solemn honor, we now march in ringing tribute to those who have given us this day of peace and freedom.

The parade will start at S. Division, proceed up Packard to S. Main, to Washington, to S. Division and return to starting point. The Reviewing Stand will be in front of Sten and Gutz Sporting Goods Store.

VIP's on the Reviewing Stand will represent government, Veterans, religion, education and active military personnel.

In the parade will be school bands, baton twirlers, cheerleaders, flag-bearers, costumed units, floats, armed forces mobile units and veteran organizations. Several units will be from throughout southeastern Michigan.

Grand Marshal this year is one of Ann Arbor's own. The Veterans Council is extremely proud to honor an outstanding hero from Ann Arbor, and a U.S. Marine Corps Veteran, Joseph Rodriguez, who fought, through the Pacific to the of program liaison of the Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning.

"Safety belts work," Haseltine says. "They work better than any other occupant-restraint program currently available, and that includes airbags." He notes also that airbags are primarily effective in frontal impact crashes.
"Increasing safety belt usage stands out, above all other highway safety programs, as having the greatest life-saving potential," he says.

Haseltine says Michigan next year will have "the most comprehensive public information and education campaign ever initiated in the area of highway safety."

period, all our churches are urged to ring their bells and factories blow their whistles.
This too is a day when all our family homes, businesses and industries can fly the flag of our country.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Earl Osborne

Stephanie Aldrich, G. E. Osborne Speak Vows at Methodist Church

Stephanie Jo Aldrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Aldrich, 21 E. Middle, married Gregory E. Osborne, son of Mr. William Osborne of 18 Sycamore, and late Evelyn M. Osborne, Saturday, Oct. 9, in the First United Methodist church of Chelsea.

The 6 p.m. ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Marvin H. McUm, and by guest minister, the Rev. Clive Dickens, before 150 guests. During the ceremony, the bride's aunt, Dee Rivara of Des Moines, Ill., performed two vocal solos, "We've Only Just Begun," and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her wedding, the bride chose a long lace-trimmed ivory organ gown with a lace flounce hem and lantern sleeves. Venice lace decorated the bodice of her dress which was styled with a banded neckline and tucked yoke. Venice lace also decorated her finger-tips. She carried a bouquet of white coral roses, stephanotis, and lily's breath.

Andrea Allen, sister of the bridegroom, served as matron of honor. She wore a mint green quiana nylon dress. Her bouquet was an arrangement of white and yellow daisies, coral roses, and star flowers.

Bridesmaids for the occasion were Phyllis Buss, Elizabeth Belser, and Lou Ann Hankerd, all of Chelsea. Their dresses were styled to match the one worn by the matron of honor.

Erin and Charity Allen, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls. They were attired in dresses which matched those worn by the bridesmaids, and they carried baskets of roses and daisies.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Aldrich wore a long-sleeved aqua polyester dress.

Best man was Robert Allen, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, while serving as groomsmen were Bill and Donald Aldrich, brothers of the bride, and Ken Kusterer.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held at the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club.

The newlyweds, who traveled to northern Michigan on their honeymoon, currently reside in Chelsea.

The former Miss Aldrich is a 1973 graduate of Chelsea High school and is employed by Chelsea Pharmacy, Inc.

Mrs. Osborne graduated from Chelsea High school in 1972, and now attends Eastern Michigan University.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR HUNTERS

1. CAUTION—This may sound silly—but make sure your deer is dead! Many a hunter has been injured or lost his deer thinking it was dead, when it was just wounded.
2. TAGGING—Follow State laws regarding tagging and reporting your kill. Be sure your deer is tagged before you load it into your car.
3. BLEEDING—It is not necessary to bleed your deer unless it's been shot in the head—but if you do bleed it, don't ruin the head by slashing the neck. Insert the blade of your hunting knife several inches in front of the point of the breast. Small (4 1/2-5 1/2 inch) blades are better than the long ones.
4. FIELD DRESSING—Take along a 6 to 8 foot section of clothesline to tie the deer's leg to a tree to give yourself working space. Make a small incision, only from the pelvic to the brisket bone. Do not open breast. Remove intestinal tract. There is no need for washing unless it's a gut shot. We will do that.
5. TRANSPORTING—Keep the front legs extended forward—makes for easier skinning. A good way to get your deer out of the timber is to tie the front legs to its head and drag it head first. Keep it as cool as possible. Remember to protect your deer from warm rain.
6. DO NOT SKIN YOUR DEER. LEAVE THAT TO US. The hide protects it from spoiling and makes a good cover.

World Community Day Slated Friday

Church Women United will be sponsoring a World Community Day celebration on Friday, Nov. 5 at the Congregational church. The day will begin with a pot-luck luncheon beginning at 12 noon which will be followed by a short annual meeting of Church Women United. Following the meeting the group will view a short film, "Poverty in Washtenaw County," followed by a discussion. One of the highlights of the day will be a display of gift items from SERRV, with Nancy Gentner of Ypsilanti in charge. The proceeds from the sale of these items goes almost entirely back to the people who made them. The group will be able to enjoy seeing these unusual items and may be able to do some Christmas shopping as well.

The Executive Board of CWU will be meeting at 10 a.m. preceding the day of celebration to prepare for the annual meeting. Baby-sitting will be provided by the Congregational church. Bring your own table service, a dish to share and come to enjoy the day of celebration.

Sharp, Pierce Attend VA Committee Meet in Washington

Kermit Sharp and Bill Pierce were in Washington, D. C., to attend the 50th Anniversary Meeting of the Veterans Administration Voluntary Service Advisory Committee, Oct. 20-23. More than 1,000 VA hospital volunteers from across the country attended the meeting.

Sharp and Pierce are volunteers at the Ann Arbor VA Hospital. Sharp is a member of American Legion Post 46, Ann Arbor and is the VAVS representative for the Department of Michigan. Pierce is a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4076, Chelsea, and is the Post hospital chairman and chaplain. These organizations are only two of more than 300 organizations which sponsor the volunteers who serve veterans in the VA health care facilities, giving more than 11 million hours of service each year.

Richard L. Roubush, administrator of Veterans Affairs, addressed the volunteers at a luncheon on Oct. 21, expressing the appreciation of the VA for their concern for veteran patients.

At a recognition ceremony held on the evening of Oct. 21, Mrs. Francine I. Neff, treasurer of the United States, was the guest speaker. Musical selections were presented by the United States Marine Corps Band and the presentation of Colors by the Joint Color Guard of Armed Forces. "A Musical Tribute to America" was presented by the Young Columbians.

Jean McKee, acting administrator of the American Revolution Bicentennial Administrations, was a guest of honor at a Friday evening recognition banquet for which entertainment was provided by the United States Air Force Ceremonial Band and a performing group sponsored by the British Embassy.

Volunteers attending the meeting also enjoyed a choice of special events arranged by the VA Voluntary Service National Advisory Committee. These included visits to the colonial city of Alexandria, Va., hometown of George Washington, to the newly opened National Air and Space Museum, and to the Australian Embassy, where the visitors were guests of the Ambassador of Australia to the United States.

Sharp and Pierce stayed a few extra days in Washington and visited the National Cathedral, Washington Monument, Lincoln Memorial, Smithsonian Institute and Arlington National Cemetery. On the return trip to Chelsea, they stopped over for a visit at Gettysburg, Pa.

Can you afford to expand?

Hard expansion means land expansion. For the best analysis of your financial needs at a time when land prices are doubling, see your Federal Land Bank representative. Today's capital expenditures run high for expansion. That's why the Land Bank offers large amounts of capital that's truly long-term at reasonable rates. When you think expansion, think Land Bank.

BRAVING DAMP WEATHER and overcast skies, voters in Sylvan township were required to wait in long lines before reaching voting booths inside Sylvan Township Hall Tuesday. While the heavy local turnout resulted in a primarily Republican mandate, voters elsewhere challenged the results by electing several Democrats to office. Foremost among those Democrats elected was Jimmy Carter, a former governor of Georgia, who was elected president to succeed Gerald R. Ford.

During the hot summer months air conditioning, in homes, offices, and other public places puts a heavy burden on our gas and electric utilities. To meet the demand, they often have to use inefficient equipment, and this wastes energy for us all. The Federal Energy Administration suggests that you help cut down this waste by using washing machines, dishwashers and other energy-intensive household equipment during what are known as the "off-peak" hours—early morning, later evening, and week-ends.

Swine Flu Clinic Slated Monday for Senior Citizens

Washtenaw County Health Department officials will conduct a second free swine flu immunization clinic locally, on Monday, Nov. 8, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., in the Surgical Center of Chelsea Community Hospital.

Local physicians will administer the bivalent vaccine (A-Victoria and A-New Jersey), or combination swine flu and milder influenza strain, to persons 60 years of age and older.

The public clinic is being held as part of a $135 million government-sponsored country-wide inoculation program.

While the bivalent vaccine is also recommended for those with chronic illnesses, health department officials have stated chronically ill persons should contact their private physicians for vaccination against swine flu.

Chelsea Girls Chosen for Women's Honor Choir

Two CHS seniors, Sue Leach and Kathy Treado, were among 120 high school students from across the state, chosen for membership in the 1977 Women's Honor Choir last Saturday, Oct. 30.

A panel of five judges selected the new members from more than 240 vocalists who auditioned for the choir at Mason High school, Mason. Contestants were judged on their abilities to sing a solo and sight read music.

This was the first year Chelsea was represented at the Women's Honor Choir auditions.

The choral group performs annually for musicians and educators attending the Midwestern Music Conference in Ann Arbor, the largest yearly conference of its kind to be held in the country. Guest conductor of this year's Women's Honor Choir is John Tousey of Mt. Pleasant.

Both Miss Leach and Miss Treado are four-year veterans of the CHS choir, and have actively participated in several high school musicals. Both were cast as leads in the 1975-76 CHS production of "Carnival." In addition to their music-related involvements at Chelsea High, both are cheerleaders on the CHS varsity squad.

Miss Leach is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Leach of Cavanaugh Lake Rd., and Miss Treado is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Hodder of South St. and the late Howard Treado, Jr.

Freshmen Lose To Dexter, Saline

The freshmen finished an up and down season on a downbeat Tuesday, losing to Saline, 20-8. It was the first quarter which doomed Chelsea as the Bulldogs gave up two touchdowns in the last five minutes of that period.

The first score came on a freak play on a halfback pass. The receiver was well covered, but the two Chelsea defenders collided and fell, enabling Saline to score on the 35-yard play.

On Saline's next series one of the Bulldogs missed his coverage of a halfback who caught a pass and ran 48 yards to score. Meanwhile, Chelsea's offense was stopping itself with penalties which prevented any sustained drive.

At the half, Saline held a 13-0 lead.

Chelsea came on strong in the third period, and again the defense led the way, with Tom Houle, Tom Gilbreath, and Dave Morris plugging the holes. After holding deep in their end several times, Gilbreath intercepted a pass at the Bulldog 30. Just six plays later, John Dunn hit Mike Wood for a 34-yard TD. Dan Pagliarini, who made a key run with a fake punt to set up the TD, ran for the conversion, cutting Saline's lead to 13-8. (Continued on page 10)

Girls Varsity Cagers Defeat Manchester

Chelsea High school's girls varsity basketball team met a court challenge from Manchester Tuesday evening, Oct. 26, defeating the neighboring rivals, 41-36, after their originally scheduled game with Lincoln was cancelled.

Chelsea dominated the first half taking an 11-point lead to the locker room. However, Manchester came back in the third quarter to overtake the Bulldogs and wrap up the quarter with a three-point lead.

With only two minutes remaining in the fourth, Bulldog cager Teresa Breza released a couple of clutch baskets, followed by a superb hustle from Karen Kelsier which netted a key free throw and additional basket to give Chelsea the victory.

High scorer for Chelsea was Penny Collinsworth with 13 points. Also contributing points were Kim Moore with 11; Breza, 5; Kelsier, 4; Nanette Push and Shelley Warren, 3 each; and Tracy Hawker, 2.

On Thursday, Oct. 28, the Bulldogs cagers played host to Nov's defending champions and undefeated league leaders.

Showing its potential, Chelsea dominated the entire first half, leading at the end of the second quarter, 31-20. The Bulldogs held their lead through the third quarter, only to witness a Novi demonstration of championship play in the fourth quarter. The visiting team kept plugging away to execute a comeback and win the game, 50-40.

High scorer for Chelsea was Nanette Push with 15 points. Other Chelsea scorers included Penny Collinsworth with 8; Shelley Warren, 6; Kim Moore and Sue Heydlauff, 4 each; and Karen Kelsier, 3.

Following last week's play, Chelsea now stands 3-8 overall, and 1-6 in the league. The cagers are scheduled to play again Thursday, (today), Nov. 4.

Ecology Center Says Use Leaves For Garden Mulch

For many, the over-abundance of fall leaves can become a problem. The Ecology Center of Ann Arbor offers a solution.

Use them for a garden mulch. It's good for your soil and helps prevent springtime erosion.

If your garden is too small, or your leaf pile too large, bring the leaves to the Ecology Center's Organic Garden at Beal and Glacier Way—just across the street from Veterans' Hospital in Ann Arbor.

The Center asks that you put the leaves in the northeast corner of the garden next to other mulching materials. If you carry the leaves to the garden in plastic bags, empty the bags and take them home.

For more information, call the Ecology Center of Ann Arbor at 761-3186.
