Bulldogs Shut Out, 27-0, By Saline Hornets

Saline shut out Chelsea High's starry griders last Friday with a 27-0 victory. In the battle, Saline scored once in the first quarter, twice in the second, and once again in the third to steamroll to a 27-point win.

Chelsea's loss was mainly due to a lack of offense, four lost fumbles, and an interception," said Coach Phil Bareis after witnessing his team's defeat.

The Bulldogs gained 113 yards during the game, 73 of those rushing and 35 passing. Offensive leaders included quarterback Jeff Powell, who completed three passes for 35 yards, Rocky Brandell who received two passes for 18 yards, and Dave Schrotenboer who caught a pass for 17. Powell also led in rushing, carrying the ball for 38 yards.

Leading Chelsea's defensive unit was George Menge with 11 tackles. Other high tacklers included Mike Heck with 9; Al Dalton, 8; Mark Smyth, 8; and Tony Robards, 7.

Chris Smyth recovered Saline's only fumble.

According to Coach Bareis, defensive halfback Matt Fisher played fine pass defense, breaking up two of Saline's air-borne efforts. However, Saline still managed to outdistance the Bulldogs with a total yardage gain of 264, rolling out 227 yards rushing, and 37 passing.

With Friday's loss, Chelsea's league record now stands at 2-6. On Friday, Nov. 12, the CHS griders will meet with Jackson Northwest at home, for their final game of the season.

In the upcoming game, 10 CHS seniors will mark their last appearance with the Chelsea team. The 10 griders are John Toon, Tony Houle, John Adams, Check Dalton, Robards, Bruce Stubbs, Dale Headrick, Bruce Bennett, Menge, Bob Burgess, Mark Smyth, John Push, David Classon, Don Nadeau, Mark Brennan, Jeff Sweetmyth, and Howard Bush.

Youths Escape Crash With Minor Injuries

Washtenaw County Sheriff's deputies used a cutting torch to retrieve two Chelsea youths, Jerry Bridges, 17, and James Depping, 16, from the remains of a totally demolished 1976 Chevrolet Corvette, following an automobile accident late Saturday morning, Nov. 6.

Both escaped the mishap with minor injuries.

According to police reports, the vehicle was traveling too fast as it approached a bend in Werkner Rd., commonly referred to as "Noah's Curve." Bridges, the driver, lost control of the car. It went up on its side, slid down an embankment, and settled against a tree. As the car hit the tree, its roof crumpled from the impact.

"It's a wonder they're still alive," stated one of the deputies assigned to investigate the accident.

Both Bridges and Depping were taken to Chelsea Community Hospital for treatment following the crash and were released by Wednesday, Nov. 10. Bridges was given a traffic citation for his role in the incident.

Swim Club Registration Starts Nov. 15

Chelsea Aquatic Club, the local competitive age group swimming program announces winter registration will begin on Nov. 15, and continue to Nov. 18.

Anyone 5 years of age and older who can swim one length, 25 yards, of the pool is eligible. Anyone under 8 years of age need only swim 10 yards to enter.

Meeting times are 3:30 to 5 p.m. for high school swimmers, 5 to 6 p.m. Monday through Thursday for middle school students, and 7 p.m. Monday and Wednesday for elementary students.

This program will last 16 weeks. Fees are $10 for elementary swimmers and $20 for junior high and high school girl swimmers.

High school boys will be swimming free of charge on the varsity swimming team. These fees figure out to approximately 30 cents per session, so this is not an expensive program.

The club will offer instruction in techniques and philosophy of competitive swimming, and provide the opportunity for competition once or twice a month against other club teams. Attendance is not mandatory at all practices, but it is encouraged.

Girls Swim Team Wins Third Straight

Chelsea High school girls varsity swimming team neglected to allow the economic adversity faced by extra curricular school programs affect its attitude, and as a result turned their season around 180 degrees.

MRS. ROBERT DANIELS of Chelsea, and co-chairman of the Chelsea Chapter of the American Cancer Society, displays this year's Christmas card for the Washtenaw county chapter, which she also designed. The greeting card, which carries the theme, "Christmas Children," was selected from among several entries submitted by area artists. Cards are available for purchase locally through Mrs. George Palmer.

Local Artist's Design Chosen for Cancer Society Christmas Card

Mrs. Robert Daniels, co-chairperson of the Chelsea Chapter of the American Cancer Society, has designed this year's Christmas card for the Washtenaw County Chapter. "Christmas Children," says Mrs. Daniels, "is the theme of the card."

Mrs. Daniels submitted several drawings of these same children in different poses, in competition with other area artists. The Washtenaw County Cancer Society selected the Daniels illustration to represent their Christmas greeting.

If the card looks slightly familiar, it may be because the same children were used several years ago by Mrs. Daniels in the Spaulding for Children Christmas card.

The cards are available at the home of Mrs. George Palmer, 475-8331, and may be purchased for 20 cents each.

In addition to their Christmas card sale, the Cancer Society in Chelsea announces the collection of a grand total of $1,626.20 from the "Steve Cantrell Memorial Bike-a-Thon" held earlier this year at the Chrysler Proving Grounds.

Plans have been approved to hold the next Bike-a-Thon May 15, 1977, again at the Proving Grounds. A 25-mile course has been arranged to accommodate the bikers.

According to Nelson Rooke, president of the 500-member United Auto Workers Local 1284, the dispute centered on working conditions at the proving grounds.

However, Chrysler spokesman, Leonard Nawrocki, stated Wednesday, Nov. 10, that the workers walked out not because of the issues still left on the bargaining table, but because "they were frustrated with the lack of information on local contract talks from the UAW International."

Nawrocki said Chrysler officials learned of this alleged grievance "from employee to management statements."

The four and one-half day strike curtailed many operations at the Chelsea site, Chrysler spokesmen confirmed as nearly all 475 bargaining unit members left their jobs. Chrysler employs 780 workers at its corporate offices in Chelsea.

While no date has been set for local contract settlement, Chrysler officials claim it should be rapidly forthcoming with the national contract now officially signed and approved.

CHS Senior Earns National Award in Creative Writing

Kathy Schmitke, 17, a CHS senior has been cited for outstanding performance in writing by the National Council of Teachers of English, and was named a finalist of the 1976 NCTE Achievement Award in Writing contest, NCTE officials reported last month.

Miss Schmitke is one of 850 finalists selected to represent high schools in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and American schools abroad.

She was nominated for the writing award last February by Mrs. Jan Newhouse of Dexter, a CHS English teacher who is currently on leave of absence from the high school. More than 6,500 students were entered in the national competition.

According to NCTE, award finalists are recommended for college scholarships in 1977 should they need financial assistance. Names of the students are sent to admissions officers and English department chairmen at U.S. two- and four-year colleges and universities.

Each award nominee submitted a sample of his or her best writing, and an impromptu essay. These compositions were evaluated by state judging teams of both high school and college level English instructors to determine award finalists.

For her best writing sample, Miss Schmitke submitted a short story with a bicentennial theme, and answered the 60-minute impromptu essay request, "Tell about an experience you had which you had never had before, and what you learned," by recollecting a 1975 camping trip with Youth Conservation Corps.

During that five-week camping trip near Cadillac, some of Miss Schmitke's most memorable experiences including hauling rocks to shore up the riverbanks along the Pigeon River, watching an elk drink from the river, and dipping fish fins.

Miss Schmitke's interest in wildlife and conservation dates back to childhood years. She wrote a true story about swans when she was 11 years old, which was consequently published in "Ranger Rick" National Wildlife Magazine. For the story, she received a $50 award.

More recently, Miss Schmitke's activities have included attending a summer citizenship seminar this year, as one of eight Washtenaw County Farm Bureau representatives.

At CHS, she is a member of National Honor Society and the girls softball team. Last year, Miss Schmitke was on the Acolade staff, a magazine high school students publish annually. The magazine is a collection of some of the best student writing submitted during the school year. Currently, the CHS senior works part-time at Lane Animal Hospital.

Miss Schmitke is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schmitke of Stofer Ct.

Two Juveniles Admit 6 Recent Burglaries

Chelsea police report that a routine arrest this week of two village boys, has led to the solving of six area burglaries. The juvenile crime wave began Oct. 4, when Chelsea police answered two burglary complaints.

Police were first summoned to Chelsea High school, where school authorities advised officers that the Auto Shop had been illegally entered and ransacked. While nothing appeared to be missing, several windows were left broken.

Later that same day, officers responded to a call from the owners of a private residence on Madison St. The owners told officers their home had been robbed by thieves who had entered through the back door after forcing a chain lock. Missing was $30 in cash which had been hidden in a jewelry box.

Less than three weeks later, Chelsea police received yet another burglary report. This time the complainant was South Elementary school on Pierce St. Thieves had entered the school by breaking a classroom window. Once inside, they made their way to the principal's office and removed a portable stereo, valued at $70, from the premises.

Within the next two days, the manager of the K. of C. Hall on Old US-12 reported someone had entered the building and had stolen a portable stereo kept there by members.

"The crime spree was finally broken when two sharp-eyed high school janitors spotted a broken window in one of the classrooms," Chelsea Patrolman Robert Graves stated. Upon investigation, the janitors found a young high school student hiding in a corner of the room. Unknown to them, the youngster's accomplice had just jumped out a window and escaped. As one of the janitors left to call police, the cornered youth also dove out the window and escaped into the darkness.

Arriving moments later, police were told of the incident by the two excited custodians, who felt the boy must have hurt himself when he passed through the broken window.

The next day, following a hunch officers checked the emergency room records at Chelsea Medical Center, and learned the name of a boy treated for a severely cut leg the previous night.

"This hunch proved fruitful," Graves remarked, "as the youngster admitted to the string of

Nearly 2,000 Receive Flu Vaccine Here

Nearly 2,000 health-minded Chelsea residents poured out of their homes to receive free swine flu immunization shots last week-end during county sponsored clinics held locally Friday, Nov. 5, and Monday, Nov. 8.

According to clinic directors, early arrival formed half-hour waiting lines before each clinic got underway; but, once in operation, the longest wait experienced by a participant was 20 minutes, with the average waiting period between 10 to 15 minutes.

"We are very pleased with the response," stated Liz Farsakian, a registered nurse who administered flu shots both Friday and Monday. "The turnout in Chelsea is one of the county's largest."

Sharing inoculation responsibilities with Mrs. Farsakian was Gilbert Wynn, who managed the bivalent clinic on Monday. Both reported "no problems on sight" among persons receiving a flu shot, nor had anyone called to report a complication. However, several flu shot recipients complained of sore arms and headaches.

On Friday, 1,277 people appeared for flu shots at Chelsea High school. The monovalent vaccine was given, which is the swine strain only. At this clinic, shots were administered with an air-gun to speed up the vaccination process.

"We had everything we could possibly need, thanks to Chelsea schools," praised Mrs. Farsakian, Friday's clinic manager. "Volunteer and community support were unbelievably good—things wouldn't have gone without them," she added. The Chelsea VFW provided refreshments for clinic volunteers and staff.

When mid-day reports on Monday's bivalent clinic at Chelsea Community Hospital were received, nearly 700 people had already been immunized. "We expect 1,000 by the end of the day," Wynn said. "We're pulling people from all over the area, including Ann Arbor—for a total of more than twice that anticipated."

Wynn added, "some residents coming for the bivalent vaccine were unable to leave their cars and enter the clinic, so we went out to their cars to give them their shot."

The bivalent vaccine was specifically developed for the elderly or those with chronic illnesses. With the help of Chelsea Hospital volunteers, lines for these people were kept to a minimum, even though the bivalent shots were administered with a syringe. During the opening 45 minutes, a record 240 persons were immunized.

Another bivalent clinic is scheduled in the county on Nov. 10. The clinic will be held 3-5 p.m. and 6-9 p.m. at the Ypsilanti Senior Citizens Recreation Center, 1015 Congress St., Ypsilanti.

The current $135 million government swine flu immunization program was developed in response to threats of an epidemic following the emergence of a new and potentially serious form of flu. Because the strain is new, no immunities have been developed in people to resist its virulence. Mass inoculations are expected to prevent uncontrolled outbreaks of the disease this winter.

Chrysler Employees Back on Job Again

The 450 striking workers at Chrysler Proving Grounds in Chelsea returned to work Tuesday noon, Nov. 9, to end a wildcat walkout which began 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 5, over local contract issues.

According to Nelson Rooke, president of the 500-member United Auto Workers Local 1284, the dispute centered on working conditions at the proving grounds.

However, Chrysler spokesman, Leonard Nawrocki, stated Wednesday, Nov. 10, that the workers walked out not because of the issues still left on the bargaining table, but because "they were frustrated with the lack of information on local contract talks from the UAW International."

Nawrocki said Chrysler officials learned of this alleged grievance "from employee to management statements."

Boosters Delay Final Disposition of Funds

Approximately 80 members attending an open-forum meeting of the Chelsea Booster Club, Inc., on Sunday, Nov. 7, to discuss the future of the organization in the aftermath of the averted Chelsea school budget crisis.

After more than one hour, and following nearly 20, two-minute long, proposed solutions, the Booster Club board moved to postpone any decisions on controversial issues until Nov. 15 when a second meeting will be held.

At this meeting, which will convene in the high school auditorium at 7 p.m., a recently formed steering committee will prescribe its recommendations for the future of the booster club and the club's $7,000 excess in funds collected by boosters to reinstate extra-curricular activities two weeks ago.

The steering committee is a 25 member coalition of all community factions involved in the booster drive. Committee members were appointed by Dr. William Hawks, president of Chelsea Booster Club following initial recommendation from community elements.

After the 7 p.m. meeting, a second meeting will be held beginning at 8 p.m. At this latter meeting guest speakers from outside communities will address Chelsea Booster Club members with advice and information on the operation: guest speakers for other communities. These speakers will include members of other booster clubs and outside high school coaches.

While decisions on proposals regarding the future of the Chelsea Booster Club have been suspended, one goal was identified by a strong contingent of supporters at last Sunday's meeting. In their view, the role of the local club should be that of an athletic booster club. The Chelsea Boosters Club board adopted that format, based on a majority demand, but reserved determination of the distribution areas for their excess $7,000 which was collected for all extra-curricular activities.

Home Meal Service of Chelsea, a community service program which operates to deliver meals to elderly or disabled persons in the local area, still needs volunteer drivers for Tuesday and Wednesday meal deliveries.

According to program spokesperson, Mary Ann Merkel, Chelsea is one of the few communities offering meal service for the elderly without government assistance. Instead, Chelsea's service depends on volunteer help.

"The people of Chelsea should be proud of the support they have given to this program," stated Mrs. Merkel.

For the program to function properly, there is a constant need

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellers was settling down at the country store Saturday night and digging in fer the duration. There was a heap of election second guessing by Ed Doolittle and Clem Webster, the night and day of political thinking around the stove, and the only fellers in the bunch that treat politics as a serious fulltime business of ever American worth his liberty and pursuit of down payments.

Zeke Grubb final rose to a point of order in Ed and Clem's post-season debate and allowed as the campaign was a case of Cinderella's chariot turning into a pumpkin Tuesday night. All the candidates and all the talking will go like smoke in high wind, Zeke declared, and all their promises will scurry like mice. Afore the vote, all candidates are like magicians, Zeke said, and after they disappear like magic. When you find one that got in office he can tell you all the same problems, but now they're in somebody else's department. Higher wages, lower inflation, better roads have to come up through committees afore the feller that got your vote can do anything.

Speaking of disappearing, Bug Hookum brought up the matter of the other 172 people that run fer President this time. Bug said he had saw some of the platforms some of em stood on, and he was of a mind we had ought to of elected them as a President Committee. With all their planks, went on Bug, we could build some kind of a platform to jump off of.

For instant, Bug said, there was one feller running in favor of tax loopholes. We got em, he said, the trick is to learn to use em. Set him down with the candidate that wanted everybody to go naked to save money on clothes and git everybody's mind off taxes and we'd be bound to come up with tax reform we could live with, was Bug's words.

Contrary, Clem said, you start stirring all them ideas in one pot and it'll boil over. For instant, he had read a piece about candidates that wanted to do away with the CIA and the FBI and the standing army. Put them in the same room with them fellers that want to cut out welfare, double defense spending and blow up Cuba and we could start a war, was Clem's words. The fewer people we got pulling strings and pushing buttons in high places the better, Clem declared, and the fellers was general agreed.

But Ed had picked up what Zeke had said about disappearing candidates, and he reported where whole departments are doing it. He had saw where money is spent and senators make speeches at committee hearings that ain't held, and that by one recent count 12 out of 24 days of hearings on budgets fer federal agencies were wrote up in 4,500 pages of minutes, but they never took place.

And now, Ed went on, we got a U.S. Department of Agriculture that has vanished from the face of the earth. Ed said he is hoping a search fer it will be made now that the election is over. Chances are, Ed allowed, USDA has been hiding with the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew

Elders Need Help

Nearly blind, his hands gnarled from crippling arthritis, the 83-year-old man maintained a pride in his ability to take care of himself in his own tiny apartment. There was help from the visit nurse who came each day for a few hours. And there was help from the hospital group that brought 'round one hot meal a day.

Buoyed by that aid, the man was content to live out his days in the serenity of his home, to accept the chronic illness that was to claim his life.

There's increasing thought that such an option should be available to more people.

"We should not ignore the reality that a person's home, and his or her own neighborhood and hometown community, represent the natural of normal living environment which most people prefer," says Gov. William Milliken.

But, he adds, "all too often, we off the disabled, the chronically ill of all ages, and especially those who are older, one of two choices:

helpless isolation if kept at home or else the sterility and regimentation of an institutional setting." Milliken says ways should be sought to make needed health care in an individual's home a workable and attractive option.

How much of a problem is that of the elderly ill?

By 1990, nearly one-fifth of the total Michigan population will be 60 or older, according to current projections.

And the National Center for Cent of those 65 years of age and older have functional limitations attributable to chronic disease.

Work To Be Done

Lots left to do when the legislature returns in Lansing Nov. 15. Before adjourning in early October, lawmakers acted on open meetings legislation and a transportation measure.

But several issues will be before the solons: workmen's compensation, land use, revision of the single business tax and changes in the state's juvenile code.

Education at Home

Special education—even before a handicapped youngster gets to school—is the goal of a recently inaugurated program conducted by the Michigan Department of Education.

"Often, early treatment of a handicap can prove invaluable to the child when he or she enters school," explains Dr. John Porter, Health Statistics reports that 42 percent superintendent of public instruction.

The new program offers home instruction to parents of handicapped youngsters. It aims to help the parents understand their youngsters' disabilities—and, if possible, provide help in training their children at home, before they get to school.

Once in school, the handicapped child has the legal right to special education services.

Michigan's Mandatory Special Education Act of 1971 specifies that such services must be offered to any person up to age 21 who has visual, speech, hearing, mental, physical or emotional impairments, or who is learning disabled.

Nearly 150,000 handicapped residents of the state received special education and other training last year because of that law.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I want to take this opportunity to thank all of the many volunteers who worked so hard to gain passage of Proposal A on Nov. 2.

I believe that the results show us just what the citizens can do when we all get behind an issue. Right up to the final days of the campaign many people were still of the opinion that our efforts were going to be wasted. Fortunately, we did not choose to listen and we were successful.

Some corporations who will be affected by this Proposal have told their employees that passage spells doom to their jobs. I trust that the two-year change-over period will prevent this from happening as management accepts the challenge to convert and diversify to new markets and products. The MUCC would like to know of any employee who loses his or her job because of the passage of the proposal.

I wish I could thank all of you personally, but that is quite impossible, so I take this method of thanking you all publicly for your support. Congratulations for a job well done.

Sincerely,
 Dan Robbins, President
 Michigan United
 Conservation Clubs

Dear Editor,

Recently, on Halloween week-end, my classroom was broken into. Money was stolen, desks overturned, things torn from the walls, plants broken, pop spilled all over etc. My students were very upset. However, the Chelsea police department acted quickly and apprehended two juveniles less than four days after the event. Officer Graves was extremely helpful and there is a chance restitution will be made. I want to commend the police department and the High School custodial staff for their quick action and concern in this matter. Our community should be proud to have such people working for them. My class and I thank them very much.

Your 1976 Tax Break

If you do not now participate in a qualified private or government pension plan, you can deposit 15% of your yearly income (maximum $1500) in an IRA retirement savings account at AAFS. You pay no income tax on this portion of your income or interest earned until your retirement, at which time you will be in a lower income tax bracket. Funds in a tax sheltered account grow much faster than in a non-sheltered account. The chart shows an example of this difference assuming you are in the 25% tax bracket and deposit $1500 on the final business day of each year.

AT THE END OF	WITH TAX SHELTER	WITHOUT TAX SHELTER	YOUR GAIN WITH TAX SHELTER
10 Years	$21,762	$14,844	$6,918
20 Years	$68,881	$41,488	$27,393
30 Years	$170,903	$89,308	$81,595

BEWARE OF QUACK ARTHRITIS CURES

VFW Auxiliary Hears Reports, Plans Bazaar

Thirteen members were present for the regular business meeting of VFW Ladies Auxiliary, Post No. 4076 Monday, Nov. 8. Sally Ellenwood was initiated into membership.

The charter was draped in memory of Florence O'Hara, who recently died. Reports were given regarding the Service School of Instruction held at the Post Home, Oct. 20, and president, Elizabeth Smith, gave a report on the Pow Wow held in Traverse City Oct. 29-31, attended by Lucy Platt of the Auxiliary, Byron Smith, Ken Platt, Mac Packard and Fremont Boyer of the Post.

Eulabee Packard reported on the Sixth District meeting in Monroe, Sunday, Nov. 7. Others attending that meeting were Mary Kniss, Elizabeth Smith, and eight Post members. Members were reminded of the Veterans Day Parade being held Thursday, Nov. 11 in Ann Arbor. Several Post and Auxiliary members plan to participate.

The local group plans to hold a bazaar and bake sale Dec. 3 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Dec. 4, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Post Hall. Items are to be brought to the hall Friday morning unless given to another member before that date for delivery.

Crocheted soap bags, ditty bags, bibs for audiology, and scuffles are requested for the V.A. Hospital. Patterns may be obtained from Elizabeth Smith (phone 475-8850). Also volunteers are needed.

A workshop will be held at the hospital Saturday, Nov. 13, 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Hospital chairman Gertrude O'Dell, along with the president, Elizabeth Smith, plan to attend.

Five dollars was allowed for each Christmas party and New Year's Eve party at the National Home along with the Help and Happiness Fund in the amount of $41.

The parent organization is working to remove the National Home from jurisdiction of Social Services as they dictate policy. The home is funded by the VFW, not the State, so please contact your legislators regarding SB 1237, and HB 3, and ask them to support the efforts of the VFW to exclude our National Home from the Department of Social Services, in order for the VFW to carry out our purpose.

$5 was voted out for the United Fund, and $10 to the local Firemen's Auxiliary to be used in the Social Services Christmas baskets.

The Department of Michigan Ladies Auxiliary VFW chartered in July, 1927, will be marking its Golden Year. Plans are being formulated for a Golden Anniversary party to be held July 21, 1977. Nov. 19 and 20, the VFW Big 10 conference will be held at the Hyatt House in Dearborn.

The next regular meeting will be Dec. 13, combined with the Christmas party, 8 p.m. in the VFW Hall.

Girls Swim Team

The girls lost their first four meets to Jackson High, a large Class A school; Woodhaven, a much improved third-year team; Milan, the favorites to win this year's championships; and to Holt, a team rated in the top 10.

However, they have won their last three meets, two against Class A teams and one against a Class B team. Their latest victory was over Willow Run, 57-27. Winners for the Bulldogs were Mary Stoll, Karen Dresch, Shelly and Shannon Springer, Kim Slater, Sheila Tarasow and Cathy Voita.

Two school records were broken in that meet. One by Shannon Springer in the 500 freestyle and the other by Dresch in the 100 breaststroke. One other meet highlight was Tarasow's performance in the 50 freestyle. Her time qualified her for the state meet.

The team has two dual meets left on this year's schedule. "If they continue to win, they will be able to finish their season with more victories than losses, and for a first-year team that would be amazing," their coach acknowledged.

For every dollar spent this year by responsible organizations on legitimate research for the cause and cure of arthritis, more than $24 will be spent by arthritis victims on useless "remedies" and "treatments" cooked up by quacks, the Arthritis Foundation reports.

"What's cooking" in Michigan

by Carl B. Olson
Michigan Dept. of Agriculture

If you're one of the legion of Michigan deer hunters going into the wilds for this year's fall hunting season, Michigan Department of Agriculture officials remind you to be sure to ask the landowners' permission before you enter private property. And, if you do, they might even tip you off to some excellent areas to hunt.

I'm basically a non-hunter, but some of my favorite memories are of going to my cousin's hunting camp in what is called "Club Country" near Alpena where I acted as cook.

Since camp food is simple fare for the most part, we often had what were called camp beans. It's my understanding the term came from logging camps where men were fed this hearty and nutritious legume for the high energy it provided.

Using one quart of Michigan navy beans, wash and soak them overnight in about three quarts of water. In the morning, sort them and boil in fresh water 'til they begin to crack open. Place them in a baking pan and nearly cover them with the water in which they were boiled. Parboil briefly 3/4 pound of salt pork and cut it into narrow strips. Lay the strips over the beans, pressing down on the pork until it is even with the beans. Sprinkle five tablespoons of brown sugar over the top and then bake around three hours in a 350 degree oven. Any leftovers can be made into patties, fried lightly and served for breakfast, believe it or not.

It may be a Scandinavian trait, I don't know, but everyone used plain white sugar on the beans when they were dished up. Also, we never used molasses or other ingredients in the beans.

When I see that army of red coats, or fluorescent orange, going into the woods, I wish I could once again do my chores at that hunting camp. As long as I could snooze most of the day to be ready for the inevitable card games each evening.

★ Gridders of the Week ★

TODD HEADRICK (68) is a five-year veteran of Chelsea football, currently playing his first year on the varsity squad. The 6'1", 196-lb. griddler has been active on the field throughout his career. Football fans may recall a memorable play by Headrick in last year's JV game against Jackson Northwest, when he fell on a Chelsea fumble in the end zone to score a touchdown. Selecting Chelsea's game of the week, Headrick said, "It was a close game, we played decently, and had a few nice passes for touchdowns." Now a CHS junior, the griddler will be returning to football again next year. He predicted the 1977 team "won't lose a game because all the juniors on the team were out getting experience this season and will be returning next fall." Commenting on Chelsea's rather poor showing this year, Headrick explained, "It seemed we just didn't have the guts to go out and play as a team." Headrick personally gets involved in teamwork, particularly with teammate Tom Barols, "because he's right next to me on the line," he declared. To keep in shape for football, Headrick lifts weights and wrestles for CHS. Both activities "build strength for blocking and overpowering the opponent" on the football field he disclosed. Headrick has four sisters and four brothers. One sister and a brother already graduated from CHS, a brother, Dale, is a CHS senior who played center on the varsity football team until he was benched with an injury, and two other brothers, Eric and Tom, attend Beach Middle School. Headrick's sister, Kelly, is a CHS freshman, while two other sisters, Lisa and Christie, attend South school. He is the son of Mrs. Don Proffert of W. Summit St. and Robert Headrick.

BRUCE BENNETT (60), middle guard for the Bulldogs, began football as a tackle for the CHS freshman team. Now a CHS senior, the lineman plays on both the offensive and defensive units of the varsity squad. In his first year of football, Bennett received a coach's award for Most Outstanding Player. Since then, the 5'8", 173-lb. griddler has lived up to his early signs of promise with several good performances on the field. Bennett filled Chelsea's game with South Lyon this season as the team's best, stating, "It was basically a good game, we came across with a strong defense, and were consistently successful with our offensive plays." According to Bennett, "Chelsea has some good runners on the team this year, including John Adams, Tony Robards, and John Tom, but we've been losing because we haven't been hitting well." As Chelsea approaches its season-wrap-up game against Jackson Northwest this Friday, predictions of the outcome of that contest from the Bulldog gridders indicate they expect to win. Bennett expressed his pre-game optimism in the following words, "It we give it all we've got, we should do well against them." For the 1977 season, he believes Chelsea has a good chance to be conference champion, explaining, "Quarterback Jeff Powell, who is a really good quarterback, will be returning and several excellent sophomores will move up to varsity." Bennett, who plays football to win, puts that same energy to use as a member of the CHS wrestling team. In comparing the two sports, he stated, "I hope we do better wrestling than we did playing football," and quickly added, "I know we will." Bennett has four sisters and one brother. An older sister and his brother already graduated from high school; one younger sister attends CHS, and two younger sisters are enrolled at North school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Bennett of Lima Center Rd.

JASON LINDAUER (70), dates his football playing debut back to the 7th grade, when he began developing an interest in football sports. The 5'11", 175 lb. guard claims he chose to play football "because it lets you bust somebody up without paying the penalty for it." Lindauer, who has been positioned as a guard since 8th grade, was honored as Most Valuable Lineman his freshman year. As a newcomer to the varsity squad this season, the CHS junior characterized the season as "a disappointment," and continued, "maybe we just expected too much this year after last year's team." In retrospect, Lindauer believes there was at least one fundamental benefit to Chelsea's weak performance this year, and that was "we found out what we can count on as a team." Speculating on the Bulldogs' potential for next season, he declared, "I'm looking forward to next year, I'm betting my bottom dollar we'll be conference champs." Lindauer agreed with Bennett's analysis that Chelsea's game with South Lyon in October was probably the team's best game all year. However, Lindauer's reasons in defense of that assumption varied from Bennett's. According to Lindauer, "It was our best showing because people were up for Homecoming — it wouldn't have meant a thing unless we won — the team just got fired up and figured it was time to beat somebody." With Chelsea's last game to be played Friday against Northwest, the griddler expects the bulldogs to perform better than usual. Tempering his prediction, though, is his knowledge that Northwest has a strong team. "That knowledge is from experience," Lindauer said, "I know some of the guys on Northwest's team." Outside of football, Lindauer remains athletically active. He is presently on the CHS hockey team, and in the spring, he keeps in shape as a hurdler on the CHS track team. Lindauer has two sisters and two brothers. His older brother, Matt, who graduated from CHS in 1975, also played football. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Lindauer of Fletcher Rd.

Girls JV Basketball Team Loses Two

The Chelsea JV girls basketball team lost both their games last week by a nearly equal 15-point forcing gap each game. Playing at home on Tuesday, Nov. 2, the Bulldog cagers fell to Brighton, 17-31. Brighton netted 13 points in the fourth quarter to sweep the win after holding Chelsea scoreless in the second quarter. Leading scorer for Chelsea was Cherry Kiel with six points. Close behind were Cindy Welshans, Tammy Collinsworth, Michelle Sarbach, Veronica Satterthwaite, and Jerry Herrick. On Thursday, Nov. 4, Chelsea traveled to South Lyon. The Bulldogs chalked up the early lead, were overtaken by South Lyon, and left behind with a 22-37 loss. One South Lyon player collected on 12 out of 21 free throws, and ended the game scoring 22 points on an extended personal drive, according to Chelsea coach Clady Bratbury. High scorers for Chelsea were Kiel with 7 points and Sarbach with 6. Also adding points were Welshans, Gloria Pearson, and Debbie Connell. Leading rebounders were Kiel and Welshans, 9 each, and Pearson, with 7. Thursday (today), Nov. 11, the CHS JV cagers will travel to Dexter to try and upset Dexter's undefeated JV team. And on Nov. 18, the Bulldogs will host Saline in Chelsea's last game of the season.

Girls Basketball Splits Two Games This Week

"There were two close, exciting games for Chelsea's girls varsity basketball team this week," Coach Cheryl Turner reported. On Thursday, Chelsea came out on top, 49-48, over South Lyon. Chelsea took the lead at the start out by half-time the score was tied. The lead changed hands many times in the fourth quarter. With 50 seconds left in the game the Bulldog cagers found themselves down by three points. With some good steals and rebounds to set up two quick baskets, Chelsea pulled off the 49-48 victory. High scorer for Chelsea was Kim Moore with 18 points. Also in double figures were Nanette Push with 11; Shelley Warren, 10; Karen Kelsor, 6; Penny Collinsworth, 4; Sue Heydlaiff, 2; and Lori Miles, 1. On Tuesday, Nov. 2, the team played an exciting game against Brighton. Brighton dominated the first quarter, gaining a 13-point lead. However, in the second quarter Chelsea rallied to bring the score to 30-33 at the half. The third quarter found the lead changing hands several times, but by the end of the fourth quarter the final score was 50-58, with Brighton on top. High scorer for Chelsea was Warren with 18 points. Push scored 12; Miles, 10; and Collinsworth, Moore, and Heydlaiff, 4 each. Remember to apply for a social security number several weeks before you need it. Junior Miss Competition Set for Nov. 29

On Nov. 29 the Dexter Jaycees will host the local Junior Miss program at the Dexter High school. A student from the senior class will be selected to represent Dexter in the state contest at Pontiac in February.

The evening program, which is open to the public, will feature the participants in group and individual performances. Pat Derry has choreographed a special youth fitness routine for the Dexter program. It will be done to live music.

Last year's Junior Miss Lenne Jo Halgren from Washington, urges all eligible girls to participate in their local Junior Miss Program. She says it "... offers great opportunities and experiences ... you don't have to be a winner to gain something in growth, education and friendship."

The Junior Miss committee feels this is an excellent opportunity for the people of Dexter to honor the outstanding youth of their community. This program emphasizes scholarship, poise and achievement. It stresses the whole person and is not a beauty contest. The community is urged to view the evening program and attend the following reception honoring the senior participants.

Wylie School Loses to Beach, Prin. Arbour Mops Cafeteria

Chelsea may have suffered a millage defeat, but it didn't affect their custodial personnel!

Jack Arbour, principal of Wylie Middle school in Dexter, however, is "helping out" by mopping the cafeteria at Beach Middle school for a different reason.

Several years ago, "and let's not talk about how many," said Arbour, he and Al Conklin, principal of Beach school in Chelsea initiated the Mop Bowl, the annual Chelsea-Dexter encounter on the gridiron. It was decided at that time that the loser would mop the cafeteria of the winning school.

"I have been over there a few times," said Arbour, but this year, once again, I hold my head high. On the score board, we lost, but in the hearts of everyone of our players was the drive to play them again the following week. Our team, students of football, knew where they made their mistakes and wanted to show Chelsea that they profited by the loss. Isn't that what life is all about?"

"But we have to wait another year before young men like Steve Birchmeier, Karl Meyer, John Carpenter, Chris Rutkowski, Bill Uren, Barry Otto, Mike Doletzky, Pete Cornils, Don Bauer, Tom McCormick, Mitch Lee, Jeff Bedolla, Dan Samuels, Steve Tee, Brian Bancroft, Mike Claffey, and Len Dexter, Mark Hiser, Craig Graves, Bob Hynes, Troy Harmon, David Hanson, John Fialkowski, John Hoffman, Jay Munson, Jim Salmon, Bob Olsen, and others like: Randy Reason, Pat Haney, Ron Allaire, Scott Kelsey, Randy Sly, Kelly Evinger, John Dyer, Ron Stoffer, Dennis Cousins, Alex Hirsch, Wade Wines, Wayne Moore, Tony Tripodi, Randy Krull, Randy Jones, and Dan Hehr get a chance to prove that they did gain more knowledge of the game."

As Arbour left a much cleaner Chelsea cafeteria, amid cheers and a few jeers, he was overheard to say to Principal Conklin, "Outstanding coaches like Briggs, Dirlam, and Fisher were not ashamed of one single player on our team, so quite humbly, I'm proud to be here! It's a healthy rivalry and will be the basis for developing healthy young men."

"And I have one thing more to add," Arbour was heard to say at the top of his voice to the Chelsea team ... but turned and didn't say it. He let them think what they wanted to think. It might have been, "Wait until next year!"

Girl Scouts, Leaders To Attend Association Fall Meeting

All adults in Girl Scouting and Girl Scouts 14 years and older are urged to attend the fall meeting of the Western Washtenaw Area Association of Huron Valley Girl Scouts on Wednesday, Nov. 17 beginning at 7:30 p.m. at the Saline City Hall, 104 N. Harris.

Three scouts from Troop 48 in Saline will share their Wider Opportunity excursions. Karen Delhey and Elisabeth Rogers attended the "1776 All Over Again" adventure in Pennsylvania. Peggy Crim attended "Rendezvous at South Pass" in Wyoming. Discussion groups will be formed for the evening.

Also on the agenda is the International Thinking Day which will be celebrated by troops in Chelsea, Dexter, Manchester and Saline on Feb. 19. An evaluation of the Junior Encampment on Oct. 15-17 at Linden where 187 girls, 31 adults, and 60 parents got acquainted, will be discussed.

Girls and leaders are also reminded of the workshop on Friday, Nov. 19 for Junior Girl Scout patrol leaders and leaders.

PLAIN ASPIRIN JUST AS GOOD

Many products advertised as remedies giving "long-lasting relief" from the pain of arthritis are composed chiefly of aspirin, glamorized by fancy names, fancy packaging and fancy prices, according to the Arthritis Foundation. Aspirin is very effective and is often prescribed by doctors at special dosage levels for the treatment of arthritis, but plain inexpensive aspirin is just as good as any "glorified" aspirin.

THE MOP BOWL: Once again Jack Arbour, principal at Wylie Middle school, cleaned the Beach Middle school cafeteria in Chelsea to pay off a debt. Wylie lost to Beach in the annual football game and, as in years past, the losing principal must mop up the winning school cafeteria. Pointing to a soiled spot is Al Conklin, right, principal at Beach Middle school, with amused students looking on.

Save up to $75 in your attic this winter.

Insulate!

Nobody likes higher Gas bills, including us at Michigan Consolidated. But because the cost of Gas we buy from our suppliers has gone up, your Gas bills will be higher this winter than they were last year.

So it makes sense to stretch each dollar's worth of Gas just as far as possible, and to keep your Gas bills as low as you can. One way to do this is by insulating your home.

Once again, Michigan Consolidated is offering a low-cost Home Ceiling Insulation Program designed to conserve Natural Gas and save you money.

Since the program's introduction nearly three years ago, more than 115,000 of our customers have installed ceiling insulation, and have cut their home heating costs by as much as 17% each year. Based on current Gas prices, this means you may be able to reduce your own heating costs by as much as $75.00, from what they might be without insulation, starting right this winter.

If you do the job yourself, you should be able to buy insulation for a home with 650 sq. ft. of attic space for about $125.00. That means you'll probably save enough Gas to pay for the material in less than two years. Our free Do-It-Yourself Insulation Handbook tells you how. Pick one up at any of our customer business offices or any participating retail outlet. Or call or write, and we'll mail you a copy.

If you'd rather not do the job yourself, one of our participating insulation subcontractors can. The cost? About $250.00 for homes with less than 1000 sq. ft. of ceiling area. You can pay cash. You can pay 20% down and pay the balance without interest over your next three Gas bills. Or you can make extended payments at an interest rate of 1% per month on the unpaid balance (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%).

So why not save money in your attic this winter with our low-cost Home Ceiling Insulation Program? We'd like to help you cut your heating costs, and we'll both be working to save our country's valuable Natural Gas supplies. We do care about your tomorrow.

Help Offered to Parents in Detecting Educational Needs

Project COPE (Community Outreach for Parent Education) is a new, federally funded program which is being operated during the current school year by Special Education Region V for Chelsea, Manchester, and Whitmore Lake School Districts.

The program is designed to provide information to parents, community organizations and professional workers about the special problems and educational needs of certain pre-school children from birth to five years of age.

These pre-schoolers are children who were born with, or who have acquired, since birth, physical, emotional or mental conditions which handicap their normal growth and development. Slowness to gain speech and language skills, difficulty with vision or hearing, and lateness in mastering physical skills such as sitting and walking are a few examples of the kinds of problems which some of the children have.

Since many of these conditions can be helped or corrected if parents recognize the problem early, COPE's primary goal is to give parents and professionals information which will help them to recognize possible handicapping conditions as early as possible.

As a first step toward this goal, a mass mailing of COPE's Early Warning Signs brochure to pre-school parents will be conducted the week of Nov. 8.

Parents of pre-schoolers who do not receive this brochure, who suspect that their child may have special needs, or who want to discuss concerns or ask some questions are urged to call the COPE staff at the Region V Special Education Office, 475-9131, ext. 48.

Ellen Eagan, project director, or Cheryl Nettefeldt, psychologist, will be able to answer questions and describe the referral process for diagnostic or special education services.

Local clubs, community organizations, and professional groups interested in learning about COPE and about warning signs of possible problems in pre-school children are also urged to contact the COPE staff.

Hockey Team Loses To Jackson Parkside

The Parkside Eagles out-muscled Chelsea High's hockey team in a contest last Sunday. Parkside scored five times as the Eagle defense held Chelsea to just one goal.

The only goal in the first period was pocketed by Parkside's Captain, Mike Robertson, with 11:03 remaining on the clock. Chelsea scored the second goal, but not until the second period. In the Bulldog play, Bob Fischer took a pass from Mark Stevenson and broke into the open. Fischer faked to the left, then sent a shot past the Parkside goalie, just to his right. Stevenson was given an assist on the scoring maneuver.

The Chelsea goal woke up Parkside and from that time on the Eagle defense clamped down, as Mike Robertson and Steve Patch added one goal each to make it 3 to 1 for Parkside by the end of the second period.

In the third period, Parkside dominated as they sandwiched in two more goals, one at 2:10 in the period and another at 6:16. The final score of the game rested at Parkside, 5 and Chelsea, 1.

This was a tough loss for the Chelsea Bulldogs. Assistant Coach, Phil Boham, had this to say after the game. "We made too many mistakes today and that's one thing you can't do against a team of Parkside's quality."

Next week the Chelsea Bulldogs travel to the Lansing Ice Arena to play against Waverly High School at 9 p.m. This is a change in the schedule so hockey fans are asked to note the adjustment.

Beach Gridders Take First Loss of Season

After four consecutive victories, the Beach Middle school varsity football squad suffered their only defeat of the season on Tuesday, Nov. 2. The Bulldogs lost their last game of the year to Saline, 8-27.

Prior to that closing contest, Chelsea had overpowered Novi, 14-0; Brighton, 44-0; Milan, 14-6; and Dexter, 30-14. "In total, the middle school varsity outscored opponents, 110 to 47," said Coach Bert Kruse.

The game between Chelsea and Saline was a showdown between two undefeated teams in the conference. "Unfortunately, after the various schedule changes and missed practices resulting from the unclear status of extra curricular activities, the Chelsea team came up a bit flat, and got muscled by Saline," explained Coach Kruse.

Basically, however, the coach felt it was another good season for the middle school. While physically the 1976 squad was not large size-wise, the team did have speed. "When they played aggressively, they played very aggressively," Kruse stated.

Players who made up the starting team offensive included Tom Rudd, Vincent Salyer, Jeff Fouty, Eric Headrick, Mike Wade, Chris Heaton, Steve Wilson, Sandy McLaughlin, and Ian Lane. Fouty and Headrick alternated at the offensive ends, Wade and Heaton at the tackles, and Wilson and McLaughlin at the guards.

Backfield starters included Jeff Dils, quarterback; Jon Riemschneider, flanker; Bill Freeman, fullback; and Carl Simpson, tailback.

In addition, Tim Blough and Keith Hegadorn started on defense. Blough was the only 7th grader carried on the varsity.

Other members of the squad included Brian Dault, a tackle; Matt Steinaway, defensive end; Jim Stock, quarterback and defensive halfback; Mike Layard, guard and linebacker; Ken Cobb, defensive back; Phil Hoffman, defensive back; Mike O'Quinn, tackle; Jeff Price, end; and Kirk Stubbs and Scott Chapman, both out most of the year with injuries.

Leading the team's offensive unit was Simpson who gained 375 yards on 71 carries, and scored 38 points on five touchdowns and four conversions. Freeman was the second leading ground-gainer with 181 yards on 32 carries. He totaled 23 points on three touchdowns and five conversions.

Other scoring gridders were Riemschneider with four touchdowns, three on passes from Jeff Dils; Blough, with two; Salyer, who scored on a pass interception in the Brighton game; and Cobb who added the final two points on an extra point run.

Quarterback Jeff Dils completed 22 out of 43 passes including five for touchdowns.

Riemschneider and Freeman led the pass receivers with eight catches each.

On defense, Simpson had 42 tackles for the season, followed by who scored on a pass interception Wilson with 33; Wade, 29; Blough, 27; McLaughlin, 25; Riemschneider, 23; Freeman, 16; Hegadorn and Dault, 12 each; Heaton, 10; Salyer, 9; Dils, 8; Cobb, 7; Stock, 4; Steinaway, 4; Hoffman, 3; Elliott, 1; Rudd, 1; and Stubbs, 1.

"Potentially there are some good ball players in this group. If some of the members develop some size along with their quickness and good understanding of the game this should turn out to be a quality group in the future," concluded Coach Kruse.

Special Education Parents Group To Meet Nov. 22

The monthly meeting of the Parents Special Education Group will be held on Nov. 22 at 7:30 in room 204 of Chelsea High School. Dr. Henry DeYoung, new director of Special Education, will be there to talk about what effect the millage loss will have on special education programs. He will also answer any questions parents may have.

It is very important that parents get involved in these meetings since your child's future is at stake. A strong group is important in keeping good programs going and in starting new and needed changes.

76-0503 Comm. Bradbury supported by Comm. Taylor moved that the Washtenaw County Mill Rates and Special Dollar Amounts as Apportioned October, 1976, be adopted. Roll call vote: YEAS: 13. NAYS: none. ABSENT: 1. Motion carried.

Citizen Participation:

Walter Miller, 1107 Abbey Lane spoke to the Board on behalf of the parents of the Day Care Center. He stated their concerns about the reorganization plan adopted earlier in the meeting. They express disapproval of these budget cuts and dissatisfaction with the redistribution of personnel. He stated they cannot provide the necessary services with this type of cut. They asked that the Board of Commissioners give this second consideration.

Discussion ensued for some time. Paul Wasson spoke to the Board. Parents from Willow Run are displeased with this reorganization plan. The Administrative Board approved of this plan with the information they got and thought the plan would work. I think to solve this problem is: 1) the person that proposed this cut in the Day Care Center, your committee of that proposed cut would go out to the Day Care Center and spend one day to see just what goes on then after that then have the Director of the Day Care Center meet with them and we as the Administrative Board also meet with the Day Care Center and see exactly what we can work out with the Day Care Center. Then after the Director works out something with the Day Care Center and get it on paper, bring it to the Administrative Board and we will see if it is feasible. If it will work and will pass the decision on to the Board of Commissioners.

76-0504 Comm. Nielsen supported by Comm. Israel moved to concur with the recommendation that Paul Wasson has made and bring it back to the Board. Motion carried.

Comm. Nielsen supported by Comm. Taylor moved to adjourn the Annual meeting until Wednesday, November 3, 1976 at 7:00 p.m. in Circuit Room No. 4. Carried.

Meeting adjourned at 8:45 p.m.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

Michigan Farm Bureau

No Half-Price Pork Chops Result

There was a time when farmers were too busy earning a living to worry about their public image. There really wasn't a need for concern, anyway, because farmer and consumer transactions were made directly with no middlemen separating the two. Later, as the journey of food from farm to urban table had some "detours" along the way, people still had memories of living on a farm, or visits to country relatives, to keep them aware of the original source of their food supply.

The years passed and city consumers, separated from the farm by generations, began a thinking of the supermarket as the origin of their food. And lawmakers, with little or no knowledge of agriculture, were making decisions which directly affected the lives of farmers.

The independent, self-sufficient farmer who, a short time ago, was not concerned with his public image, suddenly realized he needed the understanding and support of those not involved in his industry. He worked hard to build bridges of understanding between farm and city—in personal contacts at mall promotions, fairs and farm tours, through speakers' bureau appearances before urban groups and in the schools. He took the time to get acquainted with his news media people and convince them that what was happening on the farm was NEWS—not just to farmers, but everyone.

Farmers have made great strides in promoting consumer understanding, but one area has them stumped. When farm prices go up, there always seems to be an excuse for retail food prices to rise—and this makes the headlines. Yet, when farm prices decline, nobody cares—or even knows—except the farmer. It seems farm prices are related to food prices when they're on the rise, but not when they decline.

A case in point is the hog price situation. A year ago, hogs were selling for $60 per hundred pounds. Recently, they've been below $35 per hundred, almost a 50 percent drop. If consumers saw this drop in prices reflected in their pork chops—it would be news—but they don't.

Whether farm prices are rising or falling doesn't really have that much effect on retail prices, because only 40 cents of the food dollar is put on at the farm level. The other 60 cents is added after the products leave the farm gate.

The farmer, with his ever-rising production costs, understands that the middlemen's costs are rising, too. What disturbs him is that it's the farm price that's always used as the reason for retail price increases. He thinks somebody else along the food production line ought to take a turn being the "heavy."

JV Gridders Stop Dexter, Lose to Saline

The recent premature retirement forecast, following the Chelsea millage failure, was temporarily disavowed one week, allowing Chelsea's JV gridders to postpone their hibernation and defeat their Dexter rivals, 28-14, Thursday, Oct. 28.

The Bulldogs began their domination in the first quarter, driving 51 yards on their first possession. They capped the charge with a two-yard touchdown plunge by Bulldog Dan Gerstler.

Dexter countered by returning the next kick-off 97 yards for a touchdown, and completed the effort with two more points on the conversion play.

However, not to be outdone, Chelsea's Gerstler came back to score again on a five-yard run, followed by the team's successful execution of an extra two-point play, and the local gridders led, 14-8.

In the second quarter, Chelsea had three good drives. But, all were stopped by Dexter's defensive struggle, one on a fumble, and the other two on interceptions.

Dexter initiated the third quarter by scoring on a four-yard run to tie the game, 14-14. Responding to the challenge, Chelsea's Al Augustine helped his team down to the three-yard line, then crossed over into the end zone for Chelsea's third touchdown in the game.

It was Chelsea all the way in the fourth period as Augustine picked up another touchdown on a 57-yard run, and Gerstler struck for two more points on the conversion.

Defensively, Chelsea was led by Gerstler and Scott Powers, who had 9 tackles each. Adding power to the unit were Scott Price with 7; Steve Marriott, 7; Ben Kincer, 4; John LaBarbara, 4; Alan Augustine, 4; Shawn Murphy, 4; Jessie Coburn, 3; Dan Kolander, 2; and Jeff Eibler, 1.

Coburn had two interceptions, and Murphy, one. Two of the interceptions were made in the end zone to stop Dexter drives. Bart Bauer came across with a fumble recovery.

On the Chelsea offense, Augustine ran for 214 yards, with Gerstler carrying for 144 more. According to coach Jon Schaffner, "there was some great running by both of these two backs, but what got them started on every play, was excellent blocking by the offensive line of Eibler, Powers, Kincer, Lucas Lovely, LaBarbara, and Gary Thornton."

Somewhat crippled by the loss of their starting quarterback, Chelsea's JV gridders nevertheless nearly upset league champion Saline last Thursday. The Bulldogs narrowed their defeat to a mere four-point margin, as they left the field with the score at 7-12.

"The loss of our starting quarterback, injured in play the night before, really hurt our offense," commented coach Jon Schaffner following the game, "but the team played well against a very tough Saline squad."

Saline's first touchdown came early in the first quarter. On the second play in the game, the league leaders recovered a Bulldog fumble on Chelsea's 20-yard line. After taking possession, Saline continued to move the ball until they scored six points. Chelsea blocked Saline's kick for the extra point.

In the second quarter, Saline gained 28 yards on a pass touched by two Chelsea defenders, coming back to match that effort with a 27-yard touchdown run. Again, they failed to collect extra points as Chelsea's linemen thwarted the conversion attempt.

A third quarter stalemate ended when Chelsea returned in the fourth to land a touchdown on a three-yard plunge by Al Augustine. Augustine kicked for the additional point, putting Chelsea five points within reach of victory.

With plenty of scoring time left in the period, Chelsea had possession inside the Saline 20-yard line only to interrupt their momentum with a fumble. Then, in the closing minutes of the game, Chelsea had the ball inside Saline's 10-yard line, but was forced back with a penalty.

Saline stopped Chelsea's last drive, intercepting a pass in the end zone, with only two minutes left on the clock.

Defensively, Chelsea was led by Scott Powers, with 14 tackles. Close behind were Steve Marriott with 10; Augustine, 7; Shawn Murphy, 5; Bart Bauer, 5; Dan Gerstler, 5; Jeff Eibler, 5; Dan Kolander, 4; John LaBarbara, 4; Doug Clark, 3; Bob Ostrander, 2; Ben Kincer, 2; Tim Barais, 1; Gary Thornton, 1; and Scott Price, 1.

Murphy led with two interceptions, Kolander had one, and Augustine and Powers recovered fumbles.

"We hope to close the season on a winning note against Jackson Northwest," said Coach Schaffner. That game is scheduled for Thursday (today) 7 p.m., at Northwest.

ELECTRONICS AT GRAHAM CRUSADE: His features shrouded in concentration, Chelsea resident Harve Nye, of Thaler Electronic Laboratories, Inc., Ann Arbor, monitors the platform movements of Billy Graham during the evangelist's recent 10-day appearance in Pontiac Metropolitan Stadium. Nye directed the first three days of projection operations for the southeastern Michigan Crusade, Oct. 15-24.

Chelseaites Harve Nye Directs Electronics at Graham Crusade

Billy Graham launched his 10-day southeastern Michigan crusade in Pontiac Metropolitan Stadium Friday, Oct. 15, transforming the usual roar for soaring footballs into a roar of lofty sermons in praise of the power of religious faith.

While Christian thousands filled only about one-third of the 80,000-plus-seat stadium during the initial days of the crusade, attendance reached a peak of nearly 56,000 on the eve of the crusade's wrap-up date, Oct. 24.

According to Billy Graham team members, the return percentage among initial crusade crowds influenced the extent to which attendance figures spiraled by the end of the 10-day rally. The fact that repeat attendance was high, testified to the evangelist's prolific ability to deliver mesmerizing sermons to invigorate lagging faith and precipitate spiritual awareness.

All of Graham's services in Pontiac were patterned to build toward an invitation for members of the audience to make "decisions for Christ." A 5,000-member, non-denominational volunteer choir opened the service. Offerings following, intermingled with the presentation of special guests. Then, Graham approached the podium to conclude with a message and deliver his invitation. About 800 accepted the offer Friday night.

Congregation representatives from three Chelsea area churches traveled by bus to the southeastern Michigan crusade at various times during the 10-day engagement. Participating churches included First Assembly of God church, St. Paul United Church of Christ, and Zion Lutheran church.

Graham's latest Michigan crusade repeated the same evangelism he has been preaching for the last 29 years. However, technically it was a distinctly advanced production, utilizing an impressive array of recently marketed electronic equipment.

For his Michigan appearance, Graham had arranged the assembly of systems to tape the event for future televised broadcasts, regulate and mix sound, and carry screen projections to his followers to aid in transmitting a more personalized appeal.

A local area firm, Thaler Electronic Laboratories, Inc., on Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor, organized and supervised the first three days of screen projection for the southeastern Michigan crusade. Chelsea resident, Harve Nye of Thaler, co-ordinated and directed the projection operations.

Specifically, Nye was responsible for rendering constant visual color duplication of platform proceedings on a 20x30-foot screen mounted 50 feet above the stage area from a two-camera feed wired into a central camera mix.

Coal Blending May Help Solve Some Clean Air Problems

By Frank G. Zarb
Federal Energy Administrator
How can we increase our use of coal without damaging our air quality? We must find the answer to that question.

Since much coal has a high sulfur content, many persons fear that strict enforcement of air quality standards will mean shutting down coal mines. That could lead to more foreign oil imports and lower economic growth for some parts of the country.

Now, however, FEA and the Electric Power Institute are considering a possible solution to the problem through coal blending. This technique requires the combining of two types of coal to obtain certain characteristics.

High-sulfur eastern and midwestern coal would be blended with low-sulfur western coal for an environmentally acceptable boiler fuel. The Nation would stand to lose as much as 200 million tons of high-sulfur coal production if the problems caused by high-sulfur coal emissions are not resolved.

FEA and the Electric Power Institute co-sponsored a seminar in Des Moines, Iowa earlier this year at which representatives of industry, utilities, Federal and State agencies, and the academic community examined this use of coal. The economic, environmental, and transportation ramifications of the process were among the major issues addressed.

This technique, if successful, would be no cure-all. It is, however, one of several promising techniques for increasing the use of coal and maintaining acceptable environmental standards.

Meanwhile, rising prices and supplies of other fuels have combined to make coal once again one of our best fuels for the next 20 to 30 years.

Because of coal's advantages, the Federal Government has taken action under the Energy Supply and Environmental Coordination Act of 1974 to assure that coal is used wherever it is an environmentally acceptable means of generating electricity and firing industrial boilers.

This conversion to coal will help reduce our dependence on foreign oil and conserve domestic natural gas and, at the same time, provide coal suppliers with the assured market that they need if they are to expand coal production to the extent that our national interest requires.

Widowed fathers can now get social security checks if they have young children in their care, just as widowed mothers have in the past.
