CHS Thinclads Ambushed By Jackson NW

Chelsea High's boys varsity track team lost its first meet of the season last Thursday when the Bulldogs fell, 65-75, to Jackson Northwest on the Jackson NW track. However, Chelsea finished ahead of East Jackson, after East Jackson scored only 26 points, to earn a split in the triangular meet. The results gave Chelsea Coach Bert Kruse a 3-1 record in dual meet competition.

"Northwest surprised us with a little more depth than we expected," the coach explained. "That, coupled with the fact that we had nine or 10 runners missing because of spring vacation, really hurt us. Three or four of the missing athletes would have scored points, which could have made a big difference in the outcome."

"We thought we could win without them, but Northwest hurt us in areas where we were temporarily weakened," Kruse concluded.

On the brighter side, Bulldog Pat Stevenson turned in a double win in the long jump and 440-yard dash, long with points in the high jump, to lead the Chelsea scoring. Distance runners, led by Rick Haller and Phil Frame, also chalked up good performances.

According to Kruse, his team is still experimenting in an attempt to find the strongest line-up and best combinations to score the most points. The effects of this strategy may be viewed today when the Bulldogs attack Novi.

On April 28, Chelsea will travel to Brighton for a big dual meet at 3:30 p.m. which will decide how well Chelsea will conform to its league leading expectations.

Sudden Heart Attack Causes Auto Crash

A 64-year-old man died late Friday evening, April 15, in a traffic accident on Buchanan St. after he apparently suffered a heart attack while behind the wheel of his vehicle.

Dead is Zephyr Carpenter of 221 Buchanan St. Chelsea police report he was westbound on Buchanan when he drove onto the left shoulder of the curb, striking a small tree. His car then slid about 201 feet, hitting a guide wire and two other trees.

Before Carpenter could respond with control of the careening vehicle, his car again crossed the roadway, hit an A-frame, and finally came to rest against the porch of a house.

Carpenter was transported to Chelsea Community Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

No injuries to residents in the area were reported although extensive damage was sustained by objects in the path of Carpenter's car.

Parent-Student Night Slated for 8th Graders

Eighth graders in the Chelsea School District will begin choosing classes for the 9th grade shortly. To ease the decision making process for students, a Parent-Student night will be held at the high school, Tuesday, April 26, 7:15 p.m. in the auditorium.

Parents and students are invited to attend the meeting where a basic description of high school requirements and 9th grade programs will be presented. Supplementing the discussion will be a presentation of individual department programs by all high school department heads.

100th BIRTHDAY: As bright and chipper as ever, Mrs. Clara Breitenwischer, above, examines a few of the numerous congratulatory cards she received on the occasion of her 100th birthday, Wednesday, April 20. Birthday cake, ice cream and flowers were in abundance this past week at Chelsea's Methodist Home, as well-wishers gathered to celebrate the landmark event. Mrs. Breitenwischer moved to the Methodist Home from Manchester in 1958.

Mrs. C. Breitenwischer Observes 100th Birthday at Methodist Home

Good food and life on the farm have contributed to the healthy constitution of Mrs. Clara Breitenwischer, who celebrated her 100th birthday Wednesday, April 20. Mrs. Breitenwischer was born near Grass Lake in 1877.

Now a resident of Chelsea's United Methodist Retirement Home, the centenarian was the recipient of numerous congratulatory messages Wednesday, during a party in her honor held at the Methodist Home by the Women's Society of Dexter United Methodist church. Another open house celebration is slated for Saturday at the Methodist Home.

A double birthday party Tuesday afternoon, hosted by Mrs. Breitenwischer's family, also honored 88-year-old Mrs. Florence Lyon, Mrs. Breitenwischer's sister, who shares her April 20 birth date.

Although Mrs. Breitenwischer uses a walker these days, she keeps in good physical health through daily mental and physical activity. When asked if a shot of good whiskey in the morning and a pipe in the afternoon, was the secret of her longevity, Mrs. Breitenwischer replied quickly with wit

School Board Sets Date for Millage Vote

Chelsea Board of Education, after concurring with the Citizen's Advisory Committee on Education on the need for additional operating funds for Chelsea's educational system, officially set May 23 as the date for a millage election. The exact amount of the millage request will be decided at the April 25 Board of Education meeting. At that time, the Citizen's Committee will hear the board's specific response to their report.

Winding up a two evening session, the board poured over the citizen's report in an effort to plan implementation of their recommendations in such areas as curriculum enrichment.

In an official board action, Superintendent Cameron was instructed to search in earnest for a new high school principal. Dwight Smith will not return to this post next year.

The Joint Committee on Discipline, a group of teachers, administrators and board members, continues to meet each Tuesday and Friday at 7:45 a.m. in an effort to deal constructively with discipline problems and to maintain communications among these segments of the school community. On Tuesday, April 19 the Committee on Discipline agreed to strongly enforce driving regulations. After four days of announcements to this effect at the high school, to insure student awareness of the stricter policy, unauthorised driving by students during school hours will result in a three-day suspension penalty.

The board invites all interested persons in the community to attend the April 25 meeting. During the meeting, the Advisory Committee report will be finalized and released in printed form. The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. in the Board room. However, if space becomes a problem, the meeting will move to the main building.

Hospital Fund Past Half Million Mark

"Assault on goal"—these words were used by Jim Daniels, campaign chairman, as he described the efforts of the members of the Care Campaign Committee as it passes the half million dollar mark, with $515,065 in gifts received to date.

This campaign, the largest, single campaign ever conducted in the Chelsea area, will be successful, said Daniels, if we all do our part, worker and prospect alike, to see that $1.2 million is secured, and a legend here in Chelsea established.

Paul Schaible, Jr., Special Gifts chairman, noted that "The Chelsea Community Hospital hasn't developed a 'time machine,' but they have formulated plans, which with the help of all, will move forward and make possible within a few years progress and facilities that would not otherwise emerge for another decade—if ever. Where we go, what we will be, is exactly what you enable us to accomplish, for we are your community hospital. We must seek gifts which are commensurate with the task at hand. We must secure five year pledge-type commitments," concluded Schaible.

The "Care Campaign Score Card" as of April 19 looks like this, with section chairmen and amount pledged in each section.

Pattern Gifts — Paul Mann and Jim Daniels, $130,000.

Board of Governors-Steering Committee — Paul Mann and Jim Daniels, $54,250.

Hospital Employees—Linda MacLeod and Bob Pawlowski, $62,580.

Medical Section — Drs. Shadoun and Stubbs, $127,500.

Volunteers — Jan Wessinger and Neva Jordan, $3,000.

Commerce-Industry — Bob Ludwig, $67,500.

Special Gifts — Paul Schaible, Jr., $36,200.

Retail Section — Dan Murphy, $23,000.

Stockbridge — Becky Lindemer and Duane Ford, $6,435.

Manchester — Jim England and Dave Little, $1,000.

Total pledged to date: $515,065.

Willard Johnson, administrator, reflecting on the hospital and the Care Campaign, noted that "The Chelsea Community Hospital functions as a community trust. It is an institution with broad social purposes; it encompasses a modern, physical plant, highly skilled

Fund Started To Assist With Medical Expenses

Tragedy struck a well-known and long-standing Chelsea family six months ago when Mrs. Darrel Satterthwaite was afflicted by Guillain-Barre syndrome, or "French flu," shortly after she received swine flu shot last fall.

As a result of her illness, Mrs. Satterthwaite has been a patient in the Intensive Care unit at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, where she has only recently begun to show improvement.

To assist her family with mounting medical expenses, a benefit bake sale will be held April 29, at Merkel Home Furnishings. Contributions of baked goods by any interested members of the community will be highly appreciated and may be brought to Merkel's anytime after 8 a.m. Friday, April 29.

Also, canisters have been placed in stores throughout Chelsea for volunteer donations to the assistance fund.

All donations and proceeds from the bake sale will be deposited in the Carol Satterthwaite account which has been established at Chelsea State Bank. Further information regarding both benefit efforts may be obtained by calling 475-8787.

Guillain-Barre syndrome was first described in 1916 by the French scientists bearing those names. The viral disease begins with paralysis in the legs which gradually spreads throughout the

Kincheleo To Close for Sure

The U. S. Navy has given what it called its final "no" to state officials who have been trying to keep Kincheleo Air Force Base open over the Navy's wishes.

Gov. William Milliken, who has suspected the base would close for some time, nonetheless urged President Carter to review and reverse the Navy's decision to close the base this summer.

Not even Milliken, though, expects any change-of-heart by the federal government. And state and local officials already have begun working on ways to soften the blow of the closing in Chippewa county, where already 20 percent of the workers are unemployed.

Estimates are that closing the base near Sault Ste. Marie could force unemployment above 40 percent and erase an estimated $39 million from area businessmen's annual sales.

The 600-acre base is being eyed as a possible prison site and officials are hoping to attract new industry there as well.

Wind speed at the ground surface is the critical factor affecting wind erosion. When the wind reaches 8 miles per hour at the ground surface, soil particles the size of a pin head start moving.

Leaving the residue (left over parts) of last year's crop on the surface of the land very effectively keeps the wind speed at the ground surface too slow to cause erosion. The effectiveness of crop residue in wind erosion control depends on the amount.

The real question is how does one prepare the land for this year's crop and still leave last year's crop residue on the soil surface? "That's simple," says Eacker, "just don't bury it with a moldboard plow."

If you are wondering how much crop residue you have left on the surface, there is an easy way to measure it. Simply mark off a yard square, collect, dry, and weigh the residue left on the surface in ounces, then multiply by 300—the answer is the pounds of crop residue per acre.

It's already too late for fields which were plowed last fall. They

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:
It has always been my understanding that a "News Paper" was a source of information and NEWS to benefit the reader. What benefit did your readers gain out of your recent NEWS? report of CRIMES? committed four years ago?

First of all I suggest that you get all the facts straight before publishing a degrading article like this. (Not only degrading to the people mentioned in the article, but also to your lovely town.)

Now allow me to give you the facts. Carol A. Meyer did not leave her five children, there were only four. Vicki, the eldest had not lived at home since the age of 16. Vicki also supported herself about 85 percent of the time until the age of 18 and then was 100 percent self supporting.

I can't understand why people can't let "Sleeping Dogs Lie." If this had happened to one of the people of the considered "BETTER CLASS," there wouldn't have been so much as their name mentioned in The Chelsea Standard, much less the listing of all their children's names.

My mother paid for what she did and is still highly respected by all of her children. She refused to go out with any of her children because she has been made to feel that it is disrespectful to use this because people like the people of the community of Chelsea won't let her forget her past mistakes. People should realize one thing, she has paid for what she did and so has her family.

The entire Meyer family has suffered so much harassment that it was necessary for my parents to move from this section of the country in order to find some peace of mind. Not only did my mother need this change but also my brothers and sister: Dale, David, Linda and Danny as well as my father.

There were two of the Meyer children who had to seek professional help to maintain a proper perspective of life because of the social pressures and harassments out of the wrong that my mother did. I was one who heeded the help of psychotherapists.

In the eyes of society, when you reminisce about one of your loved ones who has passed, you remember about the good things in that person; not that in the fall of 1973 they were involved in some so called CRIME with whatever kind of label attached. Sure, friends might say "Johnny and I sure raised hell when we were kids!" but that's not like the past that was brought up about my mother.

I graduated with the class of '77 and it's a good thing I did, if my graduation had been a year later, I probably would not have made it. I'll stand up to this harassment now because I have developed broad shoulders and because I'm older, but the ones I feel sorry for are my younger brothers, my sister and my parents.

I also read in The Standard that the class of '72 is planning a reunion this summer sometime. I was planning to attend because we (my family) are just beginning to hold our heads above the water; but now I would not attend the reunion if I were paid.

On March 26, 1973, it was hard for me to handle the things that were happening. . . . I only had to go to work. . . . not even near the NICE COMMUNITY OF CHELSEA. . . . But my father, brothers and sister had to carry on life as usual. They had to go to town for different things; groceries, gas, to the doctors, and various other errands always expecting and finding someone with a finger pointed at them. The kids had to carry on as usual at school and were constantly being talked about by the so-called UPPER CLASSES' CHILDREN. Not to mention the fact that my brother Dale wanted to stay in Chelsea in spite of it all and graduate with his "friends" he grew up with. Arrangements were made for him to remain and housing was provided for him but the principal would not permit Dale to attend school at Chelsea High.

I think it's time for the people of the precious town of Chelsea to clean off their own doorsteps and clean out all the skeletons from their closets before they start condemning other people and their families four years after one has paid her debt to society. It's like these people in Chelsea that won't let any of us live this down. All you people are concerned with is to pour salt into a deep, deep wound.

I have not seen anything printed about the things Mom, Dad, Dale, David, Danny, Linda or I have accomplished. And there are many things we have accomplished that we are quite proud of. It may not have happened at GOOD OLD CHELSEA HIGH, but we have all earned awards for our family.

I personally feel that there was no need for a re-print of this incident in The Chelsea Standard. But then again, you could be trying to earn an award for your paper. . . . perhaps an award will be given for the most un-original story or the lowest class paper. . . . if so, you have the vote of all my friends and double that from me.

With no respect to you or your community,
Vicki L. Meyer.

Varsity Nine Squeezed Out By Brighton

Failure to connect on the pitching of Brighton's Bob Schmidt led Chelsea High's varsity baseball team into a backwash of defeat Tuesday afternoon as they lost their league opener to Brighton, 1-2.

Some redemption for the Bulldogs came from the pitching of Chelsea's Kurt Owings, who gave up only three hits and struck out six while entrenched on the mound. "We had a well-played game with no errors," said Chelsea Coach Paul Terpstra, "but the primary reason we didn't do better was we struck out 11 times, which was too many."

In the game, Chelsea had only two hits, a single by Don Nadreau, and a double by Anthony Houle. Houle's double drove in Chelsea's only run. Scoring on Houle's hit was Jeff Powell, who got on base on a Brighton error.

After Powell's run in the sixth inning, Chelsea loaded the bases, but was faced with two outs. A strike-out closed the door on Chelsea's hopes for a comeback. Chelsea is now 0-1 in their league and has a 2-1 over-all record.

How To Begin Researching Your Roots

For reasons which must be obvious to every television viewer by now, genealogy—tracing one's roots—is a subject of consuming interest among Americans at the moment. Is there a courageous warrior in my background, or a deserter? Did my ancestors come over on the Mayflower, or did they book steerage on a banana boat? Was my great-great-grandfather a soldier in the Revolutionary War, or did he empty cisterns for General Washington? Everyone seems to be searching for the twists and turns taken by his family tree in decades gone by; the problem is that few know how to embark on such a journey.

Those with money to spare may hire an expert certified by the Board for Certification of Genealogists, 1307 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. Types of experts include records researchers who look up answers to specific questions, lineage tracers who research and prepare pedigrees, and certified genealogists who prepare complete family histories.

Hiring experts can be expensive, however, so the average root-tracer may prefer to do it himself. Most libraries have books on the subject. For those who wish to learn how to begin reconstructing his family's history, a business-size, stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to the National Genealogical Society, 1921 Sunderland Pl., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036 will obtain a free copy of "Suggestions for Beginners in Genealogy." Good luck!

Sluggers of the Week

DON MORRISON, a third-year veteran of Chelsea's varsity baseball team, has played baseball ever since he could first hold a bat and hit a ball. Perhaps because of this past, he believes experience is the key to a successful performance on the diamond.

The 6'0", 165-lb. senior is both a lefthanded batter and thrower, and presents a threat to his opponents whether he finds himself on the pitching mound, or protecting first base. For Morrison, his most memorable game was last year's contest with Saline when Chelsea won the championship. "That game was the first league championship game I was involved in," he said. Morrison predicts the league will be tougher this season, but believes Chelsea can meet that challenge, and consequently has a good chance at the title. "Right now, hitting is our greatest asset," the player revealed. Chelsea's only drawback, he continued, is lack of experience since the 1977 baseball squad is primarily a junior team. Morrison's possession of experience therefore makes him a valuable team member. Teh game of baseball is a challenge to this slugger, "for I wouldn't really want to play it," he said. In addition to baseball, Morrison plays basketball for Chelsea High. Among his other school activities, he is treasurer of the senior class and a member of the National Honor Society. He has two sisters and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morrison of 5090 Queen Oak Dr.

ANTHONY HOULE moved to second base last season while in his second year on the varsity baseball squad. Prior to that move, he had played shortstop. Now in his third year as a varsity slugger, the 5'9 1/2", 155-lb. senior has achieved a fine record of baseball honors. Last season he was named second baseman on the second team of the SEC all-league squad, and was selected Most Improved Player from within the Bulldog ranks. A righthanded batter and thrower, Houle believes baseball "helps you think more and builds endurance." Throughout his baseball career, the game he best remembers was a doubleheader against Brighton last year. According to Houle, the Bulldogs were losing, 0-10, in their second game after having dropped the first to their opponents. To stay at the top of the conference, Chelsea had to either win both games, or settle for a split. With the pressure on, the Bulldogs came from behind to smash Brighton, 12-10. That kind of determination could very well be a factor in Chelsea's final results this season. "This year each team in the league has its weaknesses, but because we don't have any one bad weakness, our chances for the title look pretty good," Houle said. "If we work hard and maintain our concentration and dedication, we can do it." he predicted. Houle stated Chelsea's defense still needs development, but the team's pitching is doing well. He concurred with Morrison on the value of experience to a baseball team, and joins Morrison in bringing this quality to the varsity team this season. In addition to baseball, Houle plays football and basketball for Chelsea High. He has five brothers, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Houle of 315 Taylor Lane.

JV Baseball Team Takes Doubleheader

The Bulldogs junior varsity opened the season on a winning note by taking a doubleheader from Manchester, 6-0 and 5-1, on April 8.

The first game featured the hot hit pitching of Gary Dils, who struck out six batters in four innings, and Mike Machasky, who shut out Manchester in the final three innings.

The winning margin was provided in the first inning on five walks and heads-up base running, which scored three runs. Steve Hegadorn laid down a beautiful sacrifice bunt in the second inning to score the first of two runs scored in that inning. Six Bulldogs recorded hits in the first game, all singles. They are Roger Moore, Brian Burg, Al Augustine, Jeff Stirling, Dan Gerstler, and Dan Wilson.

The second game proved to be a much closer contest with Manchester's improved pitching. Al Augustine, Mike Eisels, and Roger Moore shared the pitching chores for Chelsea with Moore taking the win. Manchester tied the game in the fifth inning and scored one run in the seventh to take the lead. Trailing by a run, Chelsea tied the game when Dan Wilson scored on a passed ball. A couple of walks loaded the bases and Roger Moore then singled to right, knocking in the winning run.

Roger Moore had a good game at the plate banging out two singles and a double. Dan Gerstler also got a single.

On Tuesday, April 19, the junior varsity entertained Brighton at home at 4 p.m. in the league opener. Friday, the Junior Bulldogs travel to South Lyon, game time 4:30, and Saturday, they play a doubleheader at home against Stockbridge, game time 1 p.m.

Frosh Baseball Team Looks for Good Season

Prospects for a successful freshman baseball season loom strong, according to Bulldog coach Chris Dimanin.

Contributing to that glossy outlook is the exceedingly good performance of the team's pitching staff during recent practice sessions. On the mound this season will be Wally Soltysiak, Brad Knickerbocker and Chuck Moore. Backing them up will be team members Mark Stevenson, center fielder and pitcher; Dan Alber, first

Managing the 1977 CHS freshman baseball squad are Bob McAllister and Chris Umstead.

First test for the freshman ball club will be Monday, April 25 on their home turf. The Bulldogs will face Novi, beginning 4 p.m.

Pool Program Has Funded Itself in Full

A statistical survey compiled by Chelsea pool director, Larry Reed revealed that from June 28, 1976 to April 16, 1977 the Beach Pool has had approximately 13,000 patrons in recreational swimming, more than 1,200 in the handicapped, swims, 120 in swim and trim, 1,200 in children and adult lessons, and numerous pool rentals.

Approximately 250 different elementary through high school students have taken advantage of competitive swimming programs.

Swimming periods have been offered as early as 6:30 a.m. and have lasted as late as 10 p.m. Programs have been provided to offer something for all age groups ranging from infants to senior citizens.

The pool program has pioneered good school-community relations, with the program's single negative viewer now its most adamant backer.

The program was initiated on a "fund yourself basis." It has funded itself in full. It began with $0 in its account and now has more than $1,300. It received a stipend of $3,000 from the Village Council to cover operational costs. The approximate operational cost on the pool is $8 per hour and at this rate from Dec. 1 to June 1, costs are more than $2,000. With all this taken into account the pool still maintained a surplus budget.

The program has provided itself with needed materials that were not initially granted, including more watches, megaphones, scorekeepers, warm-ups and additional necessary equipment to operate the program in a professional manner.

The Chelsea Aquatic Club ran a Swim-A-Thon which netted almost $3,000 in revenue. The club also profited from the selling of badges, concessions and dues. The club received the majority of its coaching gratis, and as a result it was able to accumulate funds.

This combined excess of funds has made it possible to purchase a Colorado Electric Timing System exclusive of any swimming pool fund monies. This system will do much to further enhance the quality of the community's aquatic program. The club has further decided that this piece of equipment should become part of the school's offering to the community, and is therefore donating it to the Chelsea schools.

Energy Conservation Series Planned At Gas Company Offices

A four-week series of mini-lessons on home energy conservation is being planned by home economists in the Consumer Services Department at Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. The lunch hour programs are scheduled at 12 noon on Tuesday, April 26, and May 3, 10, and 17 in the company's Consumer Services Auditorium at 211 E. Huron St., Ann Arbor.

On April 26, Linda Meyer, Consumer Services manager, will discuss "Your Gas Forced-Air Furnace." This program will demonstrate procedures for conducting a pre-season furnace checkup and provide information on the purchase and do-it-yourself installation of home ceiling insulation.

On May 3, Miss Meyer will review the history and present day operation of the natural gas industry in a program called "What Happens When You Turn on the Gas."

On May 10, Renee Deter, Consumer Services representative, will present "Energy Conservation at Home," an audio-visual program which explains appliance efficiency ratings and economical techniques for using the range, water heater, dryer and other gas appliances.

The final program on May 17 will be "Four Seasons Flavor Fare," a food preparation demonstration given by Mrs. Deter to review the use of energy conservation practices at the kitchen range. Included will be the latest information on energy-saving gas range features, including the Convection-Air oven. Free recipe books will be distributed.

There is no charge to attend the series. Sack lunches are welcome and coffee will be served. "Energy Expert" awards will be given away at each session. Everyone will receive reference material and handbooks. Participants are asked to register by calling 769-5151, Extension 214 or 215.

The Consumer Services Department at Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., Ann Arbor, will schedule energy conservation programs for community groups throughout the year. Arrangements may be made by calling Linda Meyer at the Gas Co.

Mrs. David L. Pierce

Kimberly Morehead, David Pierce Speak Vows in Jackson Church

Kimela Dawn Morehead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Halbert Morehead, Jr., of Jackson, married David Lynn Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Pierce of 13240 E. Michigan Ave., Grass Lake, April 9 in Gorham Baptist church, Jackson. The 2 p.m. ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Milton L. Wood.

In a ceremonial highlight, vocalists Bill Decoste and Brenda Scheder sang "Follow Me," "Sunrise, Sunset," and "Wedding Prayer" as the couple prepared to exchange marriage vows.

As she approached the altar, the bride was wearing a gown of white dotted swiss, trimmed in Venice lace, and accented by a V-neckline, joliet sleeves, and deep-flounced hemline with an attached train. A short mantilla veil, trimmed in matching lace and attached to a Juliet cap adorned her head. She carried a bouquet of pink and lavender daisies, purple iris and white carnations.

Matron of honor was Yvonne Smith of Grass Lake. She wore a ruffled dress of lavender dotted swiss with a matching hat. Her bouquet was an assortment of pink and lavender daisies with a purple iris center surrounded by baby's breath.

Bridesmaids for the occasion were Cheryl Fisher, Lora Michelle Morehead, and Catherine Elizabeth Morehead, all of Jackson and sisters of the bride.

Their gowns matched that of the matron of honor though they were styled in pink dotted swiss.

Best man, Ronald Sager of Grass Lake, was assisted by ushers Thomas L. Pierce, Richard A. Pierce, and Larry D. Pierce, all of Grass Lake and brothers of the bridegroom.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of Gorham Baptist church. Attending to the guest book were Amy Lynne Morehead and Sarah L. Morehead, both of Jackson and sisters of the bride.

Upon their return from a honeymoon to northern Michigan, the newlyweds will reside on East Ave., Grass Lake.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Parkside High school, Jackson. Her husband is a 1973 graduate of Grass Lake High school and a 1976 graduate of Jackson Community College.

JCs Seek Suggestions For Projects

In addition to accepting recommendations from Chelsea's Village Administrator, Chief of Police, Superintendent of Schools and other public officials, the Chelsea Jaycees are seeking public input in an attempt to design a program for the coming year which will better serve the community.

All members of the general public are currently invited to submit their proposals for desired service projects to the Jaycees, according to Jaycees' president-elect Bob Ponte.

Each proposal will be reviewed by the Jaycees, and a special meeting will be held May 3, 7:30 p.m. in the basement of Chelsea Lanes to allow each resident to air his proposal before Jaycee club members and officials.

Those wishing to take advantage of the Jaycee offer should either fill out the coupon in this week's edition of The Standard, or attend the May 7 meeting. All those who respond will be contacted by the Jaycees.

Truck Recovered Before Missing Report Is Filed

Chelsea police recovered a stolen truck last Friday before its owner, Harry Kealy of 1214 Kernwood Dr., was able to report the theft.

According to police reports, Kealy's 1976 4-wheel drive Chevrolet had been parked in front of the garage doors of Jiffy Mill in Chelsea Friday morning when it was appropriated by thieves.

Friday afternoon, the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department received a message from the Genesee County Sheriff's Department that a truck registered to a Chelsea man had been discovered in a field in Genesee county.

The Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department notified Chelsea police, who in turn attempted to contact Kealy, listed as the vehicle's owner. The officers were told Kealy would be out of town until about 4 p.m.

At 4:45 p.m. Kealy contacted the Chelsea Police Department to report his truck had been stolen. Chelsea police informed Kealy of the vehicle's recovery and pick-up of the truck was arranged.

Officers believe the truck was stolen by two escapees from Cassidy Lake Technical school, Ronald Johnson, 21, and Jeff Bringer, 18. Both men were last seen shortly before noon Friday.

A BETTER BUY

Sure interest rates are higher than they were, but so are the market values of homes and land. Please believe me when I say that even at today's inflated prices and interest rates, real estate is a better buy than anything else you can go after with borrowed dollars.

Jones average. In this sense, real estate is the most worth-while investment you can make, and your best protection against inflation. And don't forget the priceless dividends your family will enjoy as you live in your growing investment.

Financing for other purchases often costs twice as much—and these things depreciate while a house usually grows in value. Check the trade-in value of your car when you turn it in for a new one. Also for the past ten years, real estate values have doubled the increase in the Dow

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

One-Man Clean-Up Crew

Throughout the Chelsea area there are individuals who quietly dedicate their services to the improvement of their environment and the lives of their fellow men. Often these efforts go unrecognized.

However, word has spread about the voluntary efforts of Crooked Lake resident John Blanchard. As in years past, Blanchard has been busy this spring, cleaning up littered areas near his neighborhood.

The Crooked Lake grandfather has already removed enough roadside debris to form several towering piles of trash. After collecting the litter, he takes it in truckloads to the local dump.

Blanchard began his one-man clean-up campaign as a solution to a problem he felt he could not ignore. Not only did the careless disposal of trash by irresponsible people clutter the countryside, but it also began to interfere with the patterns of nature in the Crooked Lake area.

Class of '67 Reunion Plans Progressing

The reunion committee of Chelsea High's Class of '67 held their fourth meeting last week at the home of Mike and Sandy White McClear. During the meeting, reunion treasurer Charley Fredette reported that responses to reunion invitations had already been received from one-third of the class.

Fredette added he anticipates further response from the remaining members of the class by the next meeting of the committee which will be held at the home of Lee Spaulding Tremper, 6521 Conway Rd., on Thursday, April 28, 8 p.m.

Committee meetings are open to any member of the Class of '67 who would like to offer suggestions for reunion activities, help plan the event, or simply become acquainted with former classmates.

Bicentennial 'Queen' Visits Eufaula, Ala.

Cathy McCalla, Chelsea's Bicentennial First Lady, flew to Eufaula, Ala., with her mother, Elaine, March 31 to represent Chelsea in the Eufaula Pilgrimage, Eufaula's answer to Chelsea's five-day 1976 Bicentennial Celebration.

Miss McCalla's visit which ended April 5, completed the two-part town-to-town exchange which was launched when Miss Eufaula of 1976, Rhonda Benson, came to Chelsea last August to participate in Chelsea's Bicentennial activities.

Blood Bank Clinic Seeks Donor Pledges

In 16 days, Chelsea Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4976 will conduct their second annual Blood Drive for the American Red Cross. The blood donations clinic will be at Chelsea Fairgrounds Service Center from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, May 7.

Kermit Sharp and Bill Pierce are co-chairing the event. Last year's drive, held May 22, netted only 67 pints. This year, the VFW Post hopes to exceed that by 30 points.

But, Pierce points out, it takes community support to make the drive a success. Anyone between the ages of 17 and 65 is a potential blood donor.

Already, women of the Post Auxiliary are making telephone calls to arrange appointments for donors. Persons intending to make an appointment may call or see Pierce at the Sylvan Hotel, 475-2911. While the clinic is in progress, walk-in donors will also be welcome.

"Each donation counts," Pierce stated. "Blood cannot be manufactured, it must be donated."

Because blood can be stored only 21 days, there is a continuing need to replenish supplies. The 85 hospitals in southeastern Michigan require 900 units of blood every day.

Barn Dance Slated at Trinkle Farm

Dance floor doyens will once again have a chance to display their fancy footwork as they respond to the call of "Swing Your Partner" during the 4th annual Old Fashioned Barn Dance, June 18, 9 p.m. to 2 a.m., at the Charles Trinkle Farm, 9631 Trinkle Rd., Dexter.

Young and old alike are invited to turn out in either old-fashioned or regular dress. Music for round and square dancing will be provided by Luke Schabie.

Refreshments will be sold on the grounds, with the Dexter Kiwanis Sausage Wagon a featured attraction. All proceeds will be donated to Dexter-Chelsea Special Education and to High Point, Ann Arbor.

Sponsored by the Lima Liberty Belles and Brushkateers, the annual affair traditionally generates response from hundreds of residents in Chelsea, Dexter and surrounding areas. Everyone is invited.

Tickets to the Barn Dance may be purchased at High Point or the Magic Mirror on Jackson Rd., in Ann Arbor; McLeod's Drug Store, Boulton's or Doletzky Barber Shop in Dexter; and Heydlauff's, Vogel's, Pump & Pantry or from Ralph McCalla in Chelsea. Tickets are priced at $7 per couple, or $3.50 per single.

More ticket information may be obtained by calling McCalla at 475-8316.

CORRECTION

On page 3 of the April 14 issue of The Chelsea Standard, the achievement scores of piano students Daniel Klemmer and Robert Benedict were incorrectly reported at 74%. The two students tied for third place with a score of 97% in the Student Achievement Testing program of the Michigan Teachers' Association, held April 2.

ALABAMA VISIT: Giving Eufaula's already splendid Shorter Mansion a bit of added charm is Chelsea's First Lady, Kathy McCalla. Miss McCalla represented Chelsea in the Eufaula Pilgrimage.

Surgical Center Purchase Approved

The Michigan Department of Public Health announced Friday that approval had been granted by the State of Michigan to Chelsea Community Hospital for the hospital's proposed purchase of the Surgical Center Building which it currently leases.

A Certificate of Need, covering the proposal, was issued by the Division of Health Facility Planning and Construction of the State Health Department, with concurrence from the Comprehensive Health Planning Council of Southeastern Michigan and the state administrators of the federal Hill-Burton program.

The hospital administration may now proceed with the purchase of the surgical building for a price of $3,420,000.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU Just One Person

Can one young farmer from Michigan, visiting an urban Congressman in Washington, D.C., bridge the geographic-social-interest gap between them and make any kind of effective impact? Perhaps not in terms of changing the Congressman's vote on a particular issue, because he stays in Washington only by responding to the will of the people he represents—and often that will is not the same as the farmer's. But the young farmer can still return to his farm knowing that when that Congressman casts his next vote on an issue that involves agriculture, he will do so with a bit more knowledge than before his visit.

Several Michigan farmers had that experience recently when a delegation of them visited the nation's capitol to talk to Congressmen about issues of concern to the agricultural community. They do this annually through their organization, the Michigan Farm Bureau, and usually they confine their visits to the representatives within their own districts. Communicating with urban Congressmen was a new experience for many of them and no doubt a new experience for the legislators as well.

It was a beneficial learning experience for both. The farmers gained an insight into why a Congressman introduces a piece of legislation; it's in response to needs expressed by the people "back home" in his district. The Congressmen gained some insight into how legislation affects the farmers, a completely new angle to many of them because they have no farmer constituents.

For example, there's a lot of pressure from urban consumers these days for absolutely "pure" food. Sounds appropriate to the Congressman, so he introduces or votes for legislation aimed toward that goal. He is not aware, perhaps, that modern agriculture cannot provide sufficient quantities of high quality food without the use of agricultural chemicals and drugs. When farmers tell him that any undue curtailment of the safe usage of these products will result in lower quality and quantity of food at higher costs to consumers—his constituents—he can relate.

The fact that the farmers' efforts may not change a vote could be discouraging. But they're programmed to deal with such unpredictable and odds, like the weather and markets. While others may bemoan, "I'm just one person—what can I do that would make a difference?"—farmers go a head and do it. The defeat of the common sites picketing legislation is one example. Thousands of those letters received by Congressmen urging its defeat came from farmers. Its defeat proves that Congress does respond to the will of the people—if that will is expressed.

School Board Briefs

At a regular Board of Education meeting Monday, April 18, present were Haselchwardt, Stirling, Daniels, Hodgson, Feeney, Schafer, Superintendent Cameron, Business Manager Mills, Principals Conklin, Wojcik and Benedict, and Acting Assistant Principal Shave. Several guests also attended the meeting. Meeting was called to order at 8:15 p.m. by President Haselchwardt.

The minutes of April 4 were approved as presented. Mrs. Barbara Seabury, Mrs. Elise Woods and other parents spoke to the board regarding the Multi-Age classroom at South school. They indicated their strong support for the concept and requested that it be continued in the future since the teachers who presently teach the class will not be available to teach that class in 1977-78.

The board directed Principal Wojcik to actively search for a teacher to replace Mrs. Richardson who is willing and able to teach in a multi-age situation. Larry Reed, pool director, reported to the board regarding the operation of the pool from June 28, 1976 to April 16, 1977. The pool operation for recreation and competitive swimming has operated at a small surplus for this period of time.

Reed, representing the Aqua Club, presented an electronic timing system to the school district, which was purchased with funds from the Swim-A-Thon and other activities throughout the past year. The board adopted a resolution to accept the Colorado Electronic Timing System for the pool as presented by the Aqua Club and that the secretary send a letter of appreciation to the Aqua Club.

The board set a special Board of Education meeting for 8 p.m. on Monday, April 25 in the Board Room, to consider the Citizen's Advisory Committee recommendations, setting the millage figure for the May 23 election, and to approve recommendations on tenure, probation or release from contract for teachers.

Secretary Schafer presented four petitions of candidates for Board of Education trustees. The board certified the following candidates for the Board of Education annual election: Earl Heller, Russell Pichlik, Barbara K. Seabury and James W. Stirling.

The board went into executive session at 10:03 p.m. to consider teaching personnel. Meeting called back to order at 10:13 p.m. Walter Hamilton, chairman of the Ad Hoc Citizen's Advisory Committee, presented a verbal report of the committee's final report. A written report will be presented to the board this week.

Hamilton also reported that the second fund-raising dinner of the Ad Hoc Committee will be held on Thursday, April 28 at 7 p.m. in the dining room of the Chelsea Community Hospital. Tickets are available at Chelsea Drug. The board discussed the Ad Hoc Citizen's Committee report in detail and is preparing its reaction to the report for a meeting on April 25.

Meeting adjourned at 11:15 p.m. St. Jude Children's Research Hospital's basic and clinical research findings and accomplishments are freely shared with physicians and research scientists throughout the world, extending the benefits of its work beyond its own patients to children, parents and society everywhere, truly helping children live throughout the world. Comments Asked on Adding Feed Grain to Co-Op Eligibility

Producers of barley, corn, grain sorghum, oats, rye and wheat would be able to get Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) loans through eligible marketing co-operatives under a proposed regulation change announced April 8 by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture (USDA).

The proposal follows a USDA announcement of April 4 in which Secretary Bob Bergland listed a five-point program including establishment of a farmer-owned food grain reserve for the 1976 wheat. Eligible co-operatives presently may obtain on behalf of producer members CCC loans on soybeans.

The Department's proposal, to be published in the Federal Register April 12, would amend Part 1425—Co-operative Marketing Associations requirements for price support and Part 1421—General Regulations governing price support for grains and similarly handled commodities.

In making the announcement, Department officials described the action as "an extension of our present policy insofar as co-operative marketing organizations are concerned." It is expected that farmers will be provided alternate marketing opportunities and a basis on which co-operatives can render greater services to producers, the officials added.

Written comments on the proposal may be submitted to the Director, Grains, Oilseeds and Cotton Division, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, USDA, P. O. Box 2415, Washington, D. C. 20013. All submissions must be received by the director not later than May 12.

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

Record of Proceedings

MORNING SESSION

An adjourned session of the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners was held at the Court House in the City of Ann Arbor, Michigan, on Wednesday, March 23, 1977.

The meeting was called to order by Chair Kuebler at 9:37 a.m. The Board stood in a moment of silence.

Roll call found Commissioners Walter and Walterhouse absent. Special Order of Business:

Robert Guenzel, Corporation Counsel spoke to the Board. Comm. Israel requested this meeting at the last Board of Commissioners meeting. Let me briefly explain why and then he may want to add something and Tom Fegan wants to speak. If you recall when we passed various documents for the 14th District Court, we were looking at three potential spots for parking and I think Tom has listed them on the documents that he has passed out. (Mr. Fegan distributed to the Commissioners a copy of a letter from the City of Ypsilanti with two resolutions attached that were adopted by the City Council on March 21. Also a copy of a map showing Options A, B & C.) There was a problem because the County would not have enough money in the bond issue to pay for any of those complete alternatives. We sat down with the City and agreed to get options on the Ferris Street property. A couple of weeks ago, Tom and I got options on both pieces of property and they will expire on April 1st. That is why we asked for this special meeting today. We wanted authorization for the Chair of the Board to exercise those options prior to April 1st. As you have probably read in the newspaper, the City of Ypsilanti considered this issue Monday night. Comm. Israel and Tom Fegan were there and the City did an about face. They went for Option A on Michigan Avenue. There are four parcels all together. Tom and I originally had talked to the owner and he said he was willing to sell those for the assessed valuation plus 10% which was $126,000. The City of Ypsilanti passed two resolutions: 1) approving the proposed development plan for the 14th District Court and 2) pledging to obtain additional land to provide approximately 35 parking spaces at a cost to the County of not more than $42,000.00 for the land. We met yesterday in the Ypsilanti City Hall and the City signed an option for all four parcels on Michigan Avenue for the price of $126,000. We have talked to the owner and the City about the possibility of only buying two of those lots and the owner retaining the other one and a half or two lots depending on how much room we need. The City will deed over to us what we need for our parking and we would not have to pay in excess of $42,000. There is no action required at this meeting. The City is purchasing the property and they have made a commitment to us that it would be for parking. We can go ahead with the project and will bring the contract between the Building Authority and the Board of Commissioners to your April 6th meeting.

Discussion ensued. Mr. Fegan answered questions. Comm. Israel supported by Comm. Nielsen moved to adjourn until Wednesday, April 6, 1977 at 7:00 p.m. in Circuit Court Room No. 4. Carried.

Meeting adjourned at 9:45 a.m. Robert M. Harrison Washtenaw County Clerk

Robert Guenzel spoke to the Board re: resolution amending the Management Agreements with Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti Chamber of Commerce and an additional resolution that was handed out tonight amending the Accommodation Ordinance. Original resolution was to amend the Management Agreements to provide for 5% for administrative costs and enforcement rather than the existing 10%. That went through with two amendments: one concerning CETA and one concerning a hospital room at the NACO Convention. Comm. Fojtik pointed out to me that the Ordinance itself contains the 10% figure. What we have to do is to amend Section 6 of the Ordinance. The wording was changed to read: "The County will receive an amount not to exceed 10%..." That would give us the flexibility year to year to make it anywhere from 1% to 10%. You can wait and act on this at the next Board meeting. This has to be published and submitted to the Governor for his approval. If you are going to amend the Management Agreements, then you should amend the Ordinance.

Comm. Israel supported by Comm. Walterhouse moved that the resolution to adopt an amendment to the Washtenaw County Accommodation Ordinance, be adopted.

Comm. Fojtik supported by Comm. McClary moved to refer the resolution amending the Management Agreements to the Ways & Means Committee.

Comm. Israel requested to divide the question. Chair Kuebler stated that if there is no objection the question will be divided.

Chair Kuebler stated that a fourth Whereas would read as follows: "Whereas this matter has been reviewed by the Human Resources Committee, Ways & Means Committee and the Administering Board of Community Services Agency."

Motorists Ticketed Leaving Anchor Inn

Some 41 motorists, many of whom had shared the ambience of the Anchor Inn Friday evening, April 8, will be together again in Chelsea's 14th District Court shortly. The motorists were all ticketed within a two-hour period late Friday for speeding or driving under the influence of liquor by Washtenaw County Sheriff's deputies.

The deputies stationed themselves in the vicinity of Dexter-Pinckney Rd., armed with breathalyzers, to await their unsuspecting victims. On the other side of the county line, they were allegedly assisted by Livingston County Sheriff's police in an effort to waylay lawbreakers going in a northern direction.

Joie Slotnick, manager of the Anchor Inn on McGregor Rd., expressed strong views concerning the incident which she termed harassment of individuals patronizing the controversial topless bistro.

"Tell them to stay in their own county and mind their own business," she said, referring to the actions of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department. She added she personally knew of five persons ticketed for various infractions of the traffic code only moments after they had departed from the Anchor Inn.

Mrs. Slotnick accused the sheriff's deputies of watching patrons leave the establishment, and asserted that the ticketing of the five was part of a concerted effort to hurt the bar's business. When asked if she thought the sheriff's department was watching similar establishments in the area as closely, she insisted it was not.

"We've just got to go along with Livingston county," Mrs. Slotnick explained, referring to a number of run-ins the bar has suffered with various departments of the Livingston county government, which has jurisdiction over the Anchor Inn. "Now we have Washtenaw to contend with."

In response to Mrs. Slotnick's charges, Washtenaw County Sheriff Thomas Minick denied the implication of harassment, saying, "Anytime anyone violates the traffic code, it's our duty to enforce it. Harassment is a total misnomer."

"We've had a serious increase in fatal accidents in the western part of Washtenaw county, particularly in the vicinity of Dexter-Pinckney Rd. We gear our operations on a priority that we think is in the best interests of the general public."

Sheriff Minick added that the Anchor Inn was not the only establishment being watched, but said that Friday's activities in the area were spawned by a large number of complaints lodged with his department from people in the Portage Lake area.

When asked if his department planned to continue its operations near the Anchor Inn, Sheriff Minick said, "If the problem exists, we will continue to react to it."

What's Cooking In Michigan

Michigan's harbinger of spring to some people, may be the red-breasted robin but in agricultural circles it is the mighty asparagus. Asparagus is the first fresh field crop in Michigan and should become available in late April, with the main growing season during May and June.

The Michigan Department of Agriculture reports asparagus has the largest acreage among fresh market crops. During the last reporting period, commercial asparagus growers harvested 9,800 tons, valued at $4.8 million, from 17,800 acres.

With the main producing areas located in Van Buren, Berrien, Oceana and Cass counties, most of Michigan's asparagus production goes to processors. Take heart, though, there's still plenty of fresh asparagus at groceries and at the various farmers' markets throughout the state.

I prefer to steam asparagus 'til it is just tender, serve with butter, and eat the spears with my fingers, but there are many different cooking methods.

Asparagus can be used in soups, casseroles, and salads or with cream sauces, butter sauce or Hollandaise sauce.

In her book, "Joy of Cooking," Irma Rombauer makes an important point about cooking asparagus. Never cook too long. Ms. Rombauer said, "The Romans used to say if they wanted to do something in a hurry, 'Do it in less time than it takes to cook asparagus.'"

For an interesting taste treat, serve your asparagus with a dill butter sauce. Melt 1/4 cup of butter and combine with 1 tablespoon of lemon juice and 1 teaspoon of dill weed just before serving. Pour over the cooked asparagus and experience a flavor explosion.

Incidentally, if you're planning some week-end forays into Michigan's countryside this year, set aside June 10-11 to visit Hart and Shelby for the National Asparagus Festival. It's becoming more and more popular each year. In fact, a few years ago so many people came they ran out of—yep you guessed it—asparagus.

ICE FISHERMEN NOTE: Remember When...

Saw one of those power-driven ice augers in action recently and couldn't help making comparison with our technique for punching holes in the ice some 40 years back.

In our first effort, we sneaked a growbar from my brother's boat-house on the Portage Canal and moved out of sight behind the coal dock before giving the ice a tentative tap for soundness. The bar slid on through both the ice and our hands, leaving a one-inch hole and great uneasiness in its wake.

It wasn't until we acquired belt axes of our own that we again got serious about making holes in the ice and anybody who has been that route is aware of some of the problems.

To begin with, we never got that excited about winter fishing until other winter fun things started to drag... by which time, lake ice could be measured in feet. The first foot of ice was no great chore at all but from there on down, the handle usually hit first, the knuckles second and the cutting edge last... usually well off of target.

As the knuckles got sore, the urgency to reach water increased and the size of the hole diminished... usually by the time we had broken through, the 1 1/2 foot wide hold had narrowed down to a mere crack.

From there on, it was cold, sloshy work... usually we'd give in to icy sleeves, but on one occasion we enlarged the crack just enough to let the axe fall through and another time we completely finished the job only to find out we were directly over an old dock piling.

We did manage to get a line in the water occasionally but to the best of my memory, not once during intermittent chopping and sloshing did our efforts ever produce a single fish.

But then we never caught any rabbits in the dozens of pitfalls we dug in the Pigrim River Swamp, either...

STOP. DETOUR

Unless you're crazy about the drive, there's no real reason to drive into Detroit looking for new car bargains. Rampy Chevrolet in Ann Arbor is a lot closer and you'll get the same low prices you find in Detroit—maybe even lower. At Rampy you'll also find the kind of careful, competent, come again service you expect from small town folks who know their neighbors.

You see, Rampy's not just the biggest Chevrolet dealer in Washtenaw County, he's got the biggest dealership of any kind in the country. That means that he's governed by the same kind of high volume economics you've been driving all the way into Detroit to find.

On the other hand, Ann Arbor is a town where people do know each other. Word gets around. And the word is that Rampy gives good service after the sale. As a matter of fact, Rampy's service department has been used as a model for training other Chevrolet dealers.

Isn't it time you took a detour? Before you drive all the way into Detroit looking for a new car... stop at Rampy. We don't think you'll go any further.

Ask Project COPE

Question: Poor eyesight seems to run on both sides of our family. What are some of the signs of possible vision problems in babies and pre-schoolers? If my husband and I knew what to look for we would feel better.

Answer: During the first six months of a child's life eye muscles may not always work together. After six months of age, however, both eyes should be well co-ordinated and any tendency for one eye to "wander" should disappear. By the age of two, a child should be able to use his eyes effectively and there should be no evidence of any difficulty.

Here are some signs of poor vision in infants:

1. Child is visually very unresponsive.
2. He holds objects very close to see them.
3. He often bumps into large objects.
4. He cannot pick up small objects with accuracy.
5. He constantly favors one eye when looking at an object.
6. One or both eyes turns in or out for noticeable periods of time.
7. Child squints or closes one eye frequently.

In children of all ages, these basic warning signs may point to possible vision problems:

1. Appearance: A child's eyes should ordinarily appear clear and healthy. Watch for styes; red and droopy lids; pupils of unequal size; persistent redness and watering; and crossed eyes.

2. Behavior: Watch for closing one eye, squinting, or tilting the head in order to see; failure to learn at the expected achievement level; frequent tripping, stumbling, or poor hand and eye co-ordination when playing ball or picking up things; holding a book too close to the face; frequent blinking; rubbing the eyes; and frequently losing the place when reading.

3. Complaints: A young child cannot be relied upon to complain about blurry vision, because he has no standard of clear vision to use as a comparison. Eventually he may realize that he doesn't see as clearly as those around him, but he may be well along in school before this happens. Neither is a very young child likely to complain about the usual symptoms of eyestrain and headache. Nevertheless, as a child gets older he may begin to complain of headache, dizziness, blurred vision, seeing double, or itching and burning of the eyes.

If a parent suspects that a child has a problem, he should consult his family doctor or child's pediatrician, first. These individuals may then direct the parent to an ophthalmologist, a physician who specializes in diseases and visual difficulties of the eye, for testing. The Washtenaw County Health Department offers free vision screenings and clinics, also. The Special Education office (475-9131, ext. 48) will be happy to direct parents to appropriate sources for having a child's eyes and vision checked.

(Project COPE is a federally funded program which is being operated during the current school year by Special Education Region V for Chelsea, Manchester, and Whitmore Lake School Districts. Its aim is to inform the community about the special problems and needs of pre-school children. Those who have questions, concerns, or who wish to refer a child for diagnostic services may contact Ellen Eagan, Project COPE Co-ordinator at 475-9131, ext. 50 or Dr. DeYoung at ext. 48.)

T. MacCollum Leads Colorado at .484 Clip

The resurgence of the Bengal baseballers at Colorado College in Colorado Springs, Colo., this year, has been chalked up to the team's outstanding offense. And according to Pat Haley, sports director at the college, Tres MacCollum, formerly of Chelsea, has been cited as a pivotal member of the offensive revival.

MacCollum, sophomore right fielder, along with left fielder John Caron of Connecticut, and center fielder Jon Lavoie of California, have compiled a record of 40 hits and 25 runs batted in. Both totals account for exactly half of the team's production in those two categories.

In addition to his fine contribution to team statistics, MacCollum leads the Bengals in hitting with a .484 average. In 31 at-bats, the right hander has nailed 15 hits, including six doubles and one home run, and has a team leading nine RBIs. MacCollum hit safely in the Tigers' first eight games this season and at one point was 9 for 12 at the plate.

MacCollum is a 1975 graduate of Chelsea High school. That same year, he moved from the Chelsea area, with his family, to Arizona where all currently reside.

Coalburning Locomotive Gets Revenge

A sad result of progress is that the past is often held up to ridicule in order to make the present look better. Since there's a bit of the antiquarian in all of us, however, we tend to applaud whenever history gets its revenge.

An article in the Jan. 1, 1925 issue of The Dexter Leader recounts a visit by some 400,000 curiosity-seekers to a railroad yard in Chicago in which that new marvel, the electric locomotive, was on display. In attendance was Thomas Edison, who praised the item as "the transportation of the future." No longer would tired-out coalburners wheeze and puff their way along the tracks; from here on in, all the harnessed might of electricity would be brought to bear against the tedium of overland travel.

But it was the coalburners who got the last laugh. Only once during the shiny new locomotive's tour was it allowed to move under its own power, due, perhaps, to its owners' fear that the 300,000 miles it had already traveled during mountain running in the Cascade Range might produce an embarrassing breakdown. The rest of the time, the gleaming new dynamo was towed from place to place by a steam-powered locomotive. The old coalburner still wheezed and puffed, but one imagines that this time it did so with a sneer.

Wool Incentive Payments Drop From '75 Level

Sheep growers will get about $7 million in federal "incentive payments" on their 1976 marketings of shorn wool, according to the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture (USDA). This compares with $41 million in payments made for 1975 marketings.

The difference between the two years is because the National average wool market price jumped about 47 percent—to 63.7 cents in 1976 from 44.7 cents a pound in 1975. This brought the average price of wool to within 6.3 cents of the previously announced incentive, or support price of 72 cents a pound, unchanged from 1975. Therefore, the payment rate—the rate amount required to bring the average price up to the incentive price—will be 9.6 percent, compared to 61.1 percent in 1975.

A grower's incentive payment is found by multiplying the payment rate times the net dollar return he received from sale of wool. The system is intended to encourage a grower to improve the quality of his wool; the higher quality the wool, the better his price and the larger his payment in any year for which incentive payments are made under the National Wool Act of 1954, as amended.

The Department also announces the payment rate will be 25 cents per hundredweight on unshorn lambs sold or slaughtered in 1976. This payment is to compensate growers for wool on live lambs they market. The payment is based on the shorn wool payment rate, the average weight of wool per hundredweight of lambs, and the price of lamb's wool relative to the National average price for shorn wool.

Deductions of 1½ cents a pound from 1976 shorn wool payments and 7½ cents per hundred pounds of liveweight from 1976 lamb payments will be made to finance advertising, sales promotion and related market development activities. These deductions, provided for in the National Wool Act, were approved by an 85.5 percent favorable vote by sheepmen voting in a November 1974 referendum.

USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) will begin marketing payments to growers shortly through its county offices.

The average of $2.97 a pound received by growers who sold mohair in 1976 was above the announced support level of 80.2 cents a pound. Therefore, no payments will be required on 1976 marketings of mohair.
