IPSCO Strike Settlement May Be Imminent

"They're going to have to settle eventually, they can't afford to lose it down," several striking members of UAW Local 935 asserted as they spoke about the 11-day old labor dispute which has crippled production at Chelsea's Industrial Plastic Specialties Co. (IPSCO) on Cleveland St.

nearer to what most automotive workers receive. "Management has turned down everything we're asking for," one worker concluded, but he failed to specify the union's other demands. In an attempt to meet production quotas, the workers declared that management, foremen, supervisors and secretaries were all working production lines at IPSCO.

Playground Programs Start Monday

Chelsea's Summer Playground program will assume operations at the beginning of next week, according to Summer Director Jim Winter. The program, sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Council will be offered at two sites: North Elementary and South Elementary schools.

MEDICAL SCHOLARSHIP CONTRIBUTION: Mrs. Betty Maxwell, right, director of the Chelsea Painters, and Mrs. Gale Johnson, left, chairman of the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary, present Dr. William Hawks with a check for $475 from the Chelsea Painters. The contribution will help support the A. A. Palmer Medical Scholarship Fund which was awarded this year to Siebert, a 1973 graduate of Chelsea High school.

School Board Requests New Millage Vote

In the wake of two millage defeats in as many months, the Chelsea Board of Education Monday night directed Fred Mills, business manager, to ask the county's election scheduling committee to approve Aug. 8 as a date for another vote.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Zeke Grubb told the fellers at the country store Saturday night that he reckons Cecil Heidelberg's neighbors is whistling a new tune when they go by his place these days. Instead of turning up their noses at a ugly pile of wore out tires they're admiring a pritty ripe cash crop Cecil is about to harvest, was Zeke's words.

Zeke brung a clipping to the meeting that told how Cecil had up to 12 million thrown away ties back of his house near Andover, Minn. He's been piling em up fer 30 year, and now he has 10 acres 40 foot high. A few weeks back a feller from Okla-homa got in touch with Cecil and offered him cash fer ever tire, at least 35 cent apiece and up to $5 fer the biggest ones. Zeke said he couldn't figger near that high, but if he sells 12 million it's bound to add up to a right good return on them 10 acres.

The beauty of the deal, Zeke went on, is that tire dealers all over the place have been paying Cecil to take them old tires off their hands. He's been stacking em out back, he said, knowing that soon or late somebody would want em. He was right, Zeke declared, which shows folks are more apt to make their own breaks than to have opportunity come banging on the door to git attention. This feller from Okla-homa is moving a tire shredding outfit to Cecil's field, and he's going to cut up the tires and use the rubber fer fuel. He allows there is more heat in tires than coal, and a rubber base makes a coal fire burn better.

The fellers was unanimous proud of Cecil, and they wished him well with his used tire sale. Ed Doolittle said the part about git-ting paid twice fer the tires, onct to git em and onct to get rid of em, reminded him of the story the moving picture director Cecil B. Demill liked to tell about the feller that took his used film chemics off his hands. Fer years, Demill said, he paid the feller so much a gallon to haul away the chemics from developing the film at his studio. When Demill final worked out a system fer git-ting rid of his chemics hisself, the feller offered to pay Demill fer the stuff instead of git-ting paid. It turned out the feller was re-claiming all the silver from the chemics and he was making 10 times as much selling silver as he was hauling chemics.

Practical speaking, declared Clem Webster, it's like the scientists say, matter can't be created or destroyed, all we can do is change its form. If we keep somepup long enuff, Clem allowed, we're bound to work around to it agin. Like Bug Hookum's Sunday suit, went on Clem, it's one of them double breasted, wide lapels padded shoulder jobs, and it's come in and gone out of style four times since Bug's owned it.

Speaking of opportunity, Clem said, he recalled the feller that bought up all the surplus Army pup tents after the Korean War. Everbody thought he was crazy 'til he stamped a picture of a coonskin cap on em, called em Davy Crockett tents and sold a million. That's American enter-prise, Clem allowed.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Lawmakers Tackle Controversies
Tackling three of the most controversial topics in the hopper, state legislators have taken some small, but significant, steps toward raising the legal drinking age, allowing birth control teaching in schools and banning abortion in the state and nation.

The Senate overwhelmingly approved a bill to boost the drinking age to 19 for a trial three years. It still needs the House okay, but it's been assigned to a committee headed by liberal Perry Bullard, whose district includes the University of Michigan.

He can be expected to give the measure a good airing, Critics, including many students, say it discriminates against 18-year-olds whom the law treats as adults in every other respect.

In the House, a committee has approved a measure that would finally let Michigan schools teach students about family planning, banned since 1948. Michigan and Louisiana are now the only two schools that prevent such instruction.

Efforts to repeal the ban have failed four times, in part because some parents argue such teaching will encourage sexual promiscuity and infringe on their own rights to teach their children.

This year, however, the opposi-

DEA Ratifies Contract for Last Year

After working the entire period without a contract, the Dexter Education Association (DEA), comprised of 103 teachers in the district, voted to ratify a master agreement with the Dexter School Board for the 1976-77 school year Friday, June 17.

The contract calls for minor increases in teachers' salaries and extra duty compensation, but no increases in any other benefits. Some changes were made in the language of the contract which will affect working conditions for teachers within the district. According to DEA member Jerry Smith, a teacher at Wylie Middle school, many received less than a cost of living increase. The class size, he said, remained the same as in previous years.

Harry Kenworthy, Community Relations Manager, Ann Arbor, reminds you:

"How and When you call Long Distance can make a big difference in savings!"

Be sure you know all the ways you can save on long distance. Most people already save by dialing direct, instead of going through the operator. And, on calls within Michigan, you can save most by calling weekdays after 5 p.m. or on weekends till 5 p.m. Sunday. You save when you dial direct on out-of-state calls, too. Check the front pages of your telephone directory for the best times.

When you want to dial direct, but don't know the number, you can receive long distance directory assistance by dialing 1, plus the area code of the city you want to reach, plus 555-1212. You'll find a listing of some distant city area codes in the front of your directory. If you have any questions, just call your local Michigan Bell business office, also listed in the front of your telephone book. We're ready to help.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Frederick Harris

Darlene Davis, Stephen F. Harris
Wed at Congregational Church

Darlene Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rody Davis of David, Ky., married Stephen Frederick Harris, son of Fred Harris, Jr., of Chelsea, and the late Sarah E. McGuire Harris, Saturday, June 4, in First Congregational church, Chelsea. The 6 p.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. Carl Schwarm.

As she approached the altar, the bride was wearing a white dacron-polyester organza gown trimmed with Cluny lace. The gown featured a camelot neckline accented with mother of pearl, traditional bridal sleeves and an attached chapel train. Her floor-length mantilla veil was also trimmed with Cluny lace, and was attached to a camelot headpiece with mother of pearl accents. She carried a cascade bouquet of white stephanotis, yellow sweetheart roses and baby's breath, sprinkled with long ivy streamers.

Matron of honor was Charlotte Adams of Chelsea, sister of the bride. She wore a mint green, empire waist dress with white accents. A white picture hat with a co-ordinated ribbon and daisies completed her attire. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and baby's breath, secured with yellow and green ribbon streamers.

Bridesmaids for the occasion were Sandy Davis, sister of the bride, and Brenda Davis, cousin of the bride, both of David, Ky.; Connie Salyer of Chelsea, cousin of the bride; Charlotte Bentley of Chelsea, sister of the bridegroom; Debbie Weiss of Chelsea; and Kathy Deisler of Findlay, O. The bridesmaids wore matching yellow gowns and carried bouquets of white daisies, yellow roses and baby's breath. Their picture hats were accented with yellow ribbon and daisies.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Davis chose an aqua gown with cape-type sleeves, a Nehru collar, and white accessories. She wore a corsage of white daisies and yellow sweetheart roses. Mrs. step-mother of the bridegroom, appeared in a coral gown with a chiffon capelet and silver accessories. Her corsage was an arrangement of white daisies and sweetheart roses.

Attending as flower girl was Jeanie Adams of Chelsea, niece of the bride. She carried a basket of daisies, while Shawn Davis of David, Ky., cousin of the bride, carried the wedding rings.

Serving as best man was Bill Colvin of Chelsea. Groomsmen included Randy and Greg Davis, brothers of the bride and both of David, Ky.; Gary Bentley of Chelsea, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Keith Kusterer of Ann Arbor and Barry Novess of Chelsea, both cousins of the bride.

At Waterloo

Cindy Harook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harook of 1281 Guinan Rd., married Woodrow Hoover, son of Mrs. Virginia Hoover of Stockbridge and the late Epp Hoover, Saturday, June 11, in Waterloo United Methodist church. The 5 p.m. ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Glenn Kjellberg before a gathering of 125 guests.

As she approached the altar, the bride was wearing a white A-line gown styled with an empire waist, a silk bodice trimmed in lace, half sleeves, a stand-up collar and a matching train. A headpiece of daisies completed her attire. She carried a bouquet of white daisies and baby's breath secured by ribbons.

Maid of honor was Anita Bruder of Manchester. She appeared in a pale yellow, sleeveless, cotton-polyester gown with a round neckline and the sash at the waistline. She held a single yellow rose surrounded by baby's breath and a ribbon.

Bridesmaid for the occasion was Mrs. Letha Kozovie of Stockbridge. She wore a pale green gown which matched the gown worn by the maid of honor, and also held a single yellow rose, surrounded by baby's breath and a ribbon.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Harook chose a white, sleeveless polyester dress, accented with navy blue dots. The dress was styled with a stand-up collar, a full skirt and was belted at the waist. A corsage of miniature roses and carnations adorned her shoulder.

Mrs. Hoover, mother of the bridegroom, appeared in a yellow polyester dress with a rounded neckline, full skirt and belted waistline. Her corsage was an arrangement of miniature carnations and daisies.

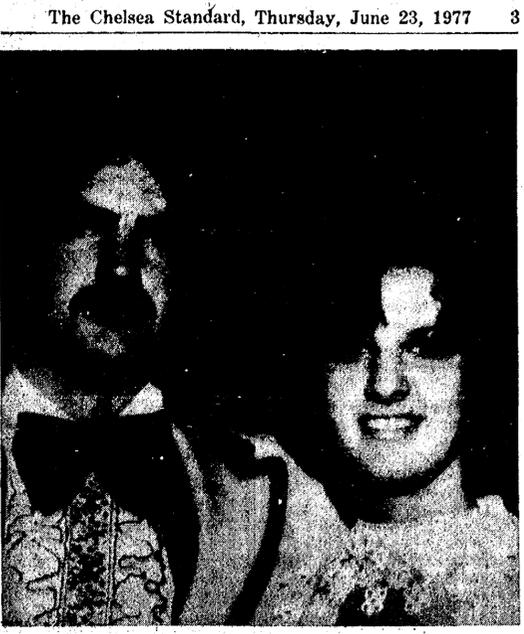

Attending as flower girl was Tracie Harook, sister of the bride, while ringbearer was Thomas Hoover, nephew of the bridegroom.

Serving as best man was Roger Stevens of Munnith. He was assisted by a groomsmen, Roger Hoover, brother of the bridegroom, and two ushers, Gary and Phillip Hoover, also brothers of the bridegroom.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the American Legion Hall in Munnith, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. John Harook. Beth Tobin poured punch while Mary Hudson and Jean Campbell, both aunts of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Jeanette Harris tended to the guest book.

The former Miss Harook is a 1975 graduate of Chelsea High school and is employed by Farmer's State Bank of Munnith. Her husband is employed by Central Fibre, Chelsea.

The newlyweds currently reside in Munnith.

Final Federal Crop Insurance Report Date Is June 30

Farmers participating in the 1977 Federal Crop Insurance program are reminded that the final date for reporting their planted acres of spring crops is June 30. Forms for this purpose have been mailed to all 1977 insureds. Farmers are reminded that if the acreage is not reported prior to June 30 damaged crops could be uninsurable for the 1977 crop year under the terms of the contract.

Heavy sign-up in the 1977 program has resulted in extra heavy workloads in the local county offices, therefore, farmers must take it upon themselves to file their acreage report.

Fire Dept. Offers Smoke Detectors

Citing the fact that 2,000 residential fires occur daily on a nation-wide basis, coupled with the fact that 75 percent of all fatal fires occur between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m., Chelsea firemen have launched a drive to help protect area residents from the potentially fatal effects of a late night blaze in their homes.

For a nominal fee of $30, homeowners may purchase a Smoke-master ionization-type smoke detector from any Chelsea fireman. The battery-operated units are easy to install and are basically designed to protect sleeping quarters, according to spokespersons from the local fire department. When triggered, the unit emits a high-pitched warning signal which will awaken all those within hearing range.

In addition to using any Chelsea fireman as a source for the unit, the smoke detectors are available by calling Larry Koch, 475-7319; Larry Adams, 475-7478; or Bob Dorer, 475-2721.

Along with the smoke detectors, the fire department has life ladders available for purchase. These chain-link ladders may be readily stored in closets or dresser drawers and are designed for use in escaping fires through second-story windows.

As a final reminder to residents interested in protecting themselves against fire, Chelsea firemen urge residents to make use of the department's fire extinguisher service. Along with selling new fire extinguishers, Chelsea firemen can recharge dormant ones.

STOP. DETOUR

Unless you're crazy about the drive, there's no real reason to drive into Detroit looking for new car bargains. Rampy Chevrolet in Ann Arbor is a lot closer and you'll get the same low prices you find in Detroit—maybe even lower. At Rampy you'll also find the kind of careful, competent, come again service you expect from small town folks who know their neighbors.

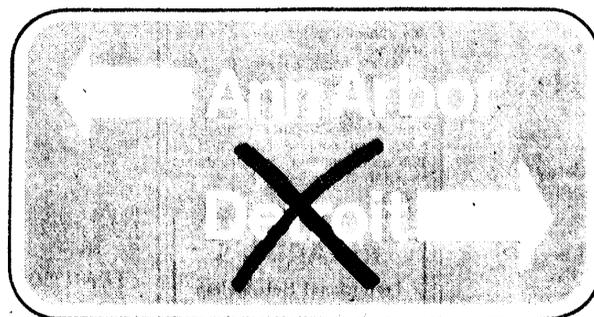

You see, Rampy's not just the biggest Chevrolet dealer in Washtenaw County, he's got the biggest dealership of any kind in the country. That means that he's governed by the same kind of high volume economics you've been driving all the way into Detroit to find.

On the other hand, Ann Arbor is a town where people do know each other. Word gets around. And the word is that Rampy gives good service after the sale. As a matter of fact, Rampy's service department has been used as a model for training other Chevrolet dealers.

Isn't it time you took a detour?
Before you drive all the way into Detroit looking for a new car... stop at Rampy.
We don't think you'll go any further.

VFW Post Receives Perpetual Charter

On Saturday evening, June 11, Chelsea Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4076 and its Ladies Auxiliary hosted a dinner for guests and members to celebrate the receipt of the Post's Perpetual Charter from the VFW National Headquarters. The charter was presented to the Post for obtaining at least 25 life members. At the present time, the Post has 38 paid up life members.

Some 60 guests, Post members and Auxiliary members attended the affair. Among the guests were the Rev. Harvey Ellsworth of Laingsburg, commander of VFW District No. 6, VFW Post 701, Lansing; Bill Goodwin, past commander, VFW District No. 6, VFW Post 6132, Lansing; Glenn Carnes, past commander VFW District No. 6, VFW Post 6132, Lansing; Marvin Smith, past commander VFW District No. 6, VFW Post 3725, Erie; Mrs. Betty Ellsworth, president VFW Ladies Auxiliary, District No. 6; Mrs. Lucille Smith, Sr., vice-president, VFW Ladies Auxiliary, District No. 6; Mrs. Jean Goodwin and Mrs. Edith Carnes.

After sharing a dinner prepared by Chelsea's VFW Auxiliary, the guests were introduced by Mac Packard, master of ceremonies for the evening. Guest speaker was Glenn Carnes, staff member of the VFW National Home at Eaton Rapids.

Carnes spoke on current events at the VFW National Home, the number of children graduating from school and new children being admitted to the Home. He also encouraged the invitation of Michigan Congressmen to the National Home for a first-hand look at the facilities. Michigan Social Services is still campaigning for jurisdiction over the National Home.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Perpetual Charter to the Chelsea VFW Post by Bill Goodwin of Lansing. Goodwin was selected for this honor because of his deep interest and helpfulness in keeping the momentum going in the Chelsea VFW Post over the years.

Life members present for the evening festivities were Mac Packard, Ken Platt, Fremont Boyer, Laurence Boyer, Byron Smith, Frank White, Kermit Sharp, Vern Packard, Tom Collinsworth, Duane Boyer, Gary Kent, Clarence Bohenna and Max Grambau.

Also life members, but not in attendance at the presentation are Charles Ritter, Dave Strleter, Bill Pierce, Dave Myers, Roy Johnson, Duane Weiss, Clair Harms, Harold Osborne, Warren Wadhams, Jim French, Willard Pearson, Robert Foster, Jim Finch, Charles Slocum, Dick Seyfried, T. S. McKaye, George Winans, Jim Barnes, Charles Kuhn, Lloyd May, John Stoffer, Dick Clark, Dell Packard and Gary Speer.

Another presentation made by Goodwin that evening was to Mac Packard of Chelsea VFW Post 4076 from VFW Post 6132, Lansing. Packard received a Citation of Merit for his work in Lansing in the Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Drive. Packard and his fire truck raised in excess of $3,000 for that cause.

Loren Beutler Named to Cleary Board

Loren Beutler has been appointed to the Cleary College Board of Trustees, according to an announcement made by Dr. Ervin Steiner, chairman of the board, last Thursday, June 16. Cleary College is headquartered in Ypsilanti.

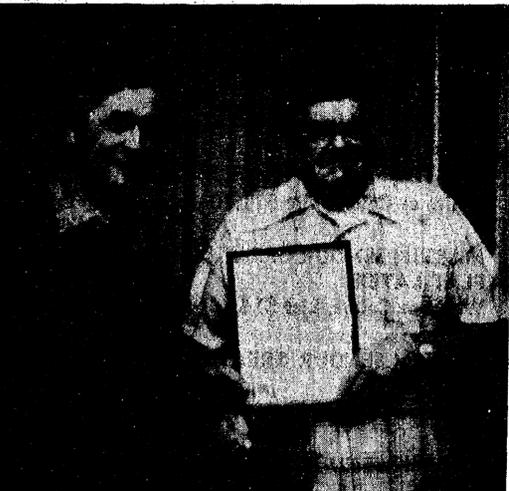

Beutler, who has lived in Ypsilanti for the past 26 years, is a graduate of Chelsea High school. He received his BBA degree from Eastern Michigan University.

Beutler retired from Ford Motor Co., in 1973 after 23 years of service. During his career at Ford's, he worked in the Forward Plans Department of Finance at the company's World Headquarters in Dearborn for nine years.

Among his other achievements, Beutler served as president of the Southeastern Michigan Growers Association, and served on the Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Tree Growers Association. He has also been involved in other business activities, including the development of real estate.

PERPETUAL CHARTER PRESENTED: To climax a special celebration hosted by Chelsea Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4076 and its Ladies Auxiliary, June 11, Bill Goodwin, left, past commander of VFW District 6 and member of VFW Post No. 701, Lansing, presented a Perpetual Charter from the VFW National Headquarters to local Post Commander Byron E. Smith. The charter was presented to the Chelsea Post for its efforts in obtaining 38 paid-up lifemembers.

CERTIFICATE OF MERIT: Bill Goodwin, left, past commander of VFW District 6 and member of VFW Post No. 701, Lansing, presents a Certificate of Merit to Mac Packard, member of Chelsea VFW Post No. 4076, during an honorary dinner at the local VFW Home, June 11. The presentation was made in recognition of Packard's work in Lansing during the Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Drive there.

Mrs. Skittenhelm and Mrs. Bristle returned home Saturday, June 18, while Mrs. Bristle's son remained in Fayetteville where he will be the guest of his sister, Elaine, for one month. Her husband, Capt. Falcone, is a navigator stationed with the U. S. Air Force in Fayetteville.

Nutritious food for mothers during pregnancy is important not only to her but to her unborn baby, says the March of Dimes. Malnourished mothers risk giving birth to infants who are underdeveloped mentally and physically. A sound diet is an important part of prenatal care, according to the voluntary health agency.

REALTOR

HOME BUYER PSYCHOLOGY

Buyers buy homes by comparison. The average buyer is no slouch. He'll shop a particular neighborhood and home-type. He'll rarely buy the first one he visits. It's too big an investment to be nonchalant. He will then compare prices against comparative value. He'll quickly throw out any obviously overpriced homes.

If the buyer really likes one of these overpriced homes, he may make a counter offer at a lower price—closer to its true value. But history shows that he'll probably make his offer for one already realistically valued.

A Realtor can save the home seller much chagrin because he has accurate knowledge of what similar houses in his neighborhood are selling for; which have been taken off the market because of overpricing. Doesn't it make sense to work with documented facts instead of guesses? Who knows, you may even be planning to sell your home for less than you should. Why not drop in and find out? We have the facts.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Rev. Weiss Honored By Baldwin-Wallace College

The Rev. Edwin J. Weiss, 79, a retired Methodist minister and resident of Chelsea's United Methodist Retirement Home, was inducted into the Golden Legion of the Baldwin-Wallace College Alumni Association during an annual commencement banquet, June 11, on the college campus, south of Cleveland, O.

A member of the Baldwin-Wallace College Class of 1927, the Rev. Weiss has been an alumnus of the college for 50 years.

Out of a 127-member graduating class, the Rev. Weiss and 29 of his former classmates attended the ceremonies in their honor two weeks ago. In addition to receiving certificates of recognition, the 30-year alumnus were awarded golden motor boards by A. B. Bonds, Jr., college president, and Robert C. Cawrse, president of the Alumni Association.

The Rev. Weiss and two other members of the Class of 1927 were also distinguished with 1977 Merit Awards from the Alumni Association. The Rev. Weiss' award, presented in lieu of a doctorate of divinity degree, cited him "for devoted ministry and administrative leadership in the United Methodist Church."

The Rev. Edwin J. Weiss

A cum laude graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College, the Rev. Weiss began serving Methodist churches in Ohio, Indiana, Mississippi and Michigan as a minister, shortly after graduation. He then served as pastor of Ann Arbor's West Side Methodist church for 8 1/2 years before coming to Chelsea in 1956. While he was pastor of the Ann Arbor church, the Rev. Weiss succeeded in building a new church building for the congregation.

The Rev. Weiss came to Chelsea in 1956 to assume the administrative directorship of the Methodist Home. During his 10-year tenure at that post, he was responsible for the addition of nursing units and efficiency units to the Home, and for the remodeling of the kitchen and dining room at the retirement facility.

In 1966, the Rev. Weiss returned to Ann Arbor where he served as associate minister of visitation at the West Side Methodist church for a period of 6 1/2 years. Now retired, the Rev. Weiss and his wife, the former Helen Artz, have spent a substantial portion of their time traveling, touring five Canadian provinces and the Alaskan Yukon Territory. They have three daughters, Jean, Joyce and Marilyn.

Both the Rev. and Mrs. Weiss, their three daughters and their daughters' spouses, were guests of Baldwin-Wallace College at the commencement banquet two weeks ago, and were also guests of the college for overnight lodging at a nearby motel.

Alcoholic mothers run a substantially higher chance of giving birth to a child with birth defects, according to the March of Dimes. Early, regular prenatal care, and good personal health habits improve a woman's chance of having a healthy baby.

Child Abuse Conference Held at U-M

Parental abuse of children, the leading cause of pediatric death in the United States, was the topic of the Southeastern Michigan Conference on Child Abuse, Tuesday, June 14, at the University of Michigan's School of Public Health in the Francis Building on the U-M campus.

Helping to sponsor the conference were 23 agencies in Washtenaw county which are either directly or indirectly involved in aiding children and their families affected by problems of child abuse.

Three major groups represented at the conference were public health nurses, social workers and lay care center workers. Attending the day-long event from Chelsea was Eleanor Strong of 20501 Jerusalem Rd.

Main conference speakers included Dr. Ray Helfer, professor of human development at Michigan State University; Leslie Hoover, head nurse of pediatric services at Ingram Medical Center; Maxine Virtue, an Ann Arbor attorney representing the Washtenaw County Committee for Children-at-Risk; Dr. Mark Hildebrandt, a S.C.A.N. team representative from the University of Michigan Medical Center; and Magdalene Hester of the Child and Family Center, Detroit.

Through their various presentations, the speakers placed emphasis on detecting cases of child abuse and neglect, helping families of these children recognize and overcome their problem, and preventing possible cases of child abuse by providing parenting preparation.

James Carroll Granted M.D. Degree at U-M

James Carroll of Chelsea received his M.D. degree from the University of Michigan Medical School, Friday, June 3.

A total of 227 new physicians were awarded diplomas during the ceremonies at which polio vaccine developer Jonas Salk, M.D., addressed the class. One of the largest and oldest medical schools in the nation, the U-M has now graduated 13,247 physicians since its founding in 1850.

Carroll, who lives at 622 Taylor St. with his wife, Elizabeth, is the son of Dorothy Carroll of Flint. He was previously graduated from Holy Redeemer High School in Flint and from Lake Forest College. A U. S. Marine Corps veteran, Carroll served in Vietnam during the American intervention there.

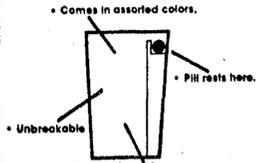

Alice Juergens Named To Honor Roll at College of Great Falls

METHODIST HOME VOLUNTEERS: Tired, but surrounded by an aura of accomplishment, these members of the Emmanuel United Methodist church Senior High Youth Fellowship in Blissfield worked for three days to transform ragged lawns and shrubbery around Chelsea's United Methodist Retirement Home into neatly manicured grounds last week. The clean-up effort was the final phase of a voluntary project to benefit the Home. A volleyball-a-thon last December launched the project, and was followed by a spaghetti dinner at Easter. Along with the clean-up, the Youth Group donated $600 to Chelsea's Methodist Home. Members of the Youth Group are: front row, from left, Amy Brubaker, Betty Brubaker and Zell Eiserman; second row, from left, Rose Eiseman, Lisa Veldhoff, Barbara Brubaker, Beth Veldhoff and Beth Ikle; third row, from left, Craig Shannon, Mark Sutton, Mrs. Irick of the Chelsea Methodist Home Resident Council, Martha Mallory and Mic Suman.

Blissfield Youth Fellowship Group Manicures Methodist Home Grounds

Blissfield is a town of 3,500 residents. The Emmanuel United Methodist church there has a membership of about 200. Its Senior High Youth Fellowship has 20 energetic, creative, concerned and dedicated young people.

Last winter these young people chose the Chelsea United Methodist Home as their project, and considered possible ways to help. They began raising money with a volleyball-a-thon in December, playing a marathon game against teams from the Blissfield community. At Easter, they sold wooden crosses, followed by a spaghetti dinner later in the month. They had raised $600 in all.

Not content with this, members of the Youth Fellowship came to visit the Home to find ways in which the "people power" of the group could assist the Home. After conferring with Home administrators, they decided on a work project to clean up the Home grounds. As soon as school was out, the group packed up their camping gear and headed for the Waterloo area. After establishing camp headquarters they arrived at the Home on Monday, June 13, armed with an assortment of garden tools. Twelve young people and their counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Mic Suman, were introduced to the residents and then had a picnic lunch with the officers and committee chairman of the Resident Council.

Recreation Dept. Tennis Lessons Start Monday

Sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Department, three-week tennis classes for children in three age group divisions will begin Monday, June 27.

Youngsters aged five to seven will play daily on weekdays from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m.; those aged eight to 10 will play from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.; and those aged 11 to 13 will play from 11 a.m. to noon.

A second session of children's tennis lessons will begin July 18 and continue through Aug. 5. The fee for each session is $3, payable to the Chelsea Recreation Department. Instructor for each session will be Terry Schreiner. To register, call Mrs. Schreiner, 475-2536. Registration fees must be paid at the first class meeting.

Following lunch, the young people, in conjunction with residents, set to work on the grounds around the Home. Three days later, the group had transformed the area into neatly manicured grounds, and had acquired blisters, sunburn and poison ivy in the process. As they sat in the picnic area, eating ice cream cones, Amy Brubaker, president of the group, discussed the project. "The weather was perfect, the camping was great, and we feel we really got to know some incredibly wise and interesting people, besides making a contribution."

That evening, the group visited nursing patients at the Home, presenting each with a handsome wooden cross decorated with flowers and bows, for a bedside table. They ended the evening by entertaining all the residents with a variety program.

Mrs. Irick, president of the Resident Council, received their check of $600. "You have brought us much more than money," she said as she accepted the donation. "Your enthusiasm, energy and joy in your work has inspired us all. You are a credit to your parents, your church and your country. Thank you and God bless you." The money donated by the Youth Fellowship is being used to purchase needed equipment at the Home, so that the lawn, trees and shrubs can be kept in the fine condition that was achieved by the efforts of these outstanding, young people, according to administrators at the Methodist Home.

Notice of Public Hearing on Proposed Amendment to the Chelsea Village Zoning Ordinance

TAKE NOTICE, that the Chelsea Village Planning Commission will hold a public hearing, as the statute in such provides, for amending the Chelsea Village Zoning Ordinance, that is:

- SECTION 2.2 DEFINITIONS, to amend entire Section.
SECTION 4.4.8 to add PLANNED UNIT RESIDENTIAL DISTRICT (PUD).
SECTION 5.2 SIGN REGULATIONS, to amend entire Section.
SECTION 5.6 PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENT, delete entire Section.
SECTION 5.7 SITE PLAN REVIEW AND APPROVAL, to amend entire Section.

The aforesaid hearing will be held in the Council Room in the Chelsea Municipal Building on July 12, 1977 at 7:30 o'clock p.m., at which time all interested persons shall be heard. The proposed amendments are on file in the office of the Village Administrator, and may be examined prior to the date of the hearing.

CHELSEA VILLAGE PLANNING COMMISSION
DIANE KILLELEA, Acting Secretary

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
While on a recent camping adventure in the Waterloo Recreation Area I met two very generous residents of Chelsea whose help contributed in making my visit a comfortable one.

To the "poncho" man from the tackle store, your gift was invaluable that dreary Sunday morning. To the "wood" man, I've never sat next to a warmer or more beautiful fire. Again, thank you, Suzanne Carr, Ann Arbor.

Dear Editor,
I have always voted yes on the school's millage, sometimes hesitantly, because I do understand the opposition. I have paid taxes for 25 years, and have had four children in school, not always involved in sports, or extracurricular activities, so you can imagine my dismay at the article "Swim Pool is Closed for Summer" which appeared in last week's Chelsea Standard.

If the Aquatic Club pays rent, parents pay to see the swim meets, families and groups and kids pay to swim and a report given in the Sept. 16, 1976 issue of the Chelsea Standard, stated, "The Board applauded news of a $1,200 surplus in the Pool account, and also its having served more than 9,500 persons in various activities in the past summer. Mr. Reed also stated that programs scheduled after school hours will continue as self-supporting activities," then WHY?? does it have to be closed this summer.

I am not so naive that I think these fees cover ALL expenses, but perhaps a compromise, between the people and the schools for a change. I'm sure the Aquatic Club would most likely pay a little more rent, than have to travel to Ann Arbor, and that many parents would consider a small increase in fees, rather than driving to the crowded lakes.

The "Pool", a much needed facility in Chelsea for many years, was finally approved, after more millage votes, and the response to it so great and people so willing to pay to use it, MUST YOU USE IT AS A THREAT??

Norma Jean Smith.
To the Editor:
Well, come August our millage will probably pass even though we had a record turn-out and it lost. And this wasn't the first time. I voted no. Why? Not so much because of the money but because the main thing I heard was threats.

No swimming in the pool I voted for three times because it was going to be a community pool which is paying for its self. Now by draining it who is helping pay the mortgage?
No driver's education even though the state pays a percentage of it. If the schools can't have it all we won't even suggest to the parents that they can pay the difference.

The teachers need more pay, yet, they only work 180 days for what they get. They also knew when they went into teaching what the wages would be. I they wanted $20,000 a year let them work in the factory six and seven days a week for 12 months.

If we don't offer the high dollar we won't get the best teachers. I find this hard to believe with so very many working in Department stores because they can't get jobs.

What about the children that are so very close to getting scholarships in sports. If they are good they can get a scholarship in some other way and if they are good in their sport once they get into college they can make the team.

Over-loaded classrooms, yes, it's a shame but if the teachers work and the community helps this can be overcome.
We need new busses and yet, ours will be sold and someone like the Sharon Bible School will use them another five years. They travel further than our school system does and I don't remember them having one new bus.

No school district as far as I know could be any worse off than Manchester and yet, they have field trips, sports, and summer programs for their children thank-to volunteers and parents willing to pay for what their children want. Are we so lax that as a community we can't do the same without being threatened into voting in millage. When it comes to buying textbooks, hiring needed teachers, bringing in special help that some children need, tell us, then we will vote yes. But not by taking away the things that make school a pleasure for our children. Also, it's being said that someone was brought in to bring in the yes, vote from outside our area, is this true? If

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

★ A Lot at 'Steak'

A big, juicy steak sizzling on the grill, ready to join forces against the battle of the "hungries" with a baked potato crowned with sour cream, corn on the cob dripping with melted butter, a tall, refreshing glass of milk, hot apple pie topped with a generous chunk of cheese. Or, if you prefer, a roast pork turning on the spit, and a picnic tablecloth anchored down by dishes of potato salad, deviled eggs, baked beans, sliced cucumbers and onions, a pitcher of ice-cold cherry punch, and cantaloupe ready to be cut and filled with scoops of ice cream.

Scenes such as these, with a wide variety of menus to suit the taste of individual families, are a traditional part of Michigan summers. Their uniqueness lies in the fact that all the food products used to prepare these tasty, wholesome meals — unless you've got a confirmed coffee-drinker in the crowd — could have been grown within the borders of our own state. That's pretty unique — few states can lay claim to that fame — and Michigan consumers have been as proud as Michigan farmers of their "meal in a mitten" capabilities.

Farmers are still proud of their ability to produce such a wide variety of high-quality food, but they are concerned that those backyard picnics this summer might not feature as many all-Michigan menus as in the past. They're worried that uninformed and misinformed consumers might be influenced by the political antics that have kept the PBB agricultural tragedy of four years past in the public limelight, creating completely unnecessary concern regarding Michigan's food supply. They're frustrated by signs that proclaim "non-Michigan" meat for sale. Michigan has the highest meat standards in the nation, standards which farmers supported. If you doubt that these standards make a difference in quality — just try a non-Michigan hot dog.

It's not only the dairy and meat producers who question the destructive pathway of those motivated by goals other than consumer safety. Fruit and crop farmers, who could be considered untouched by the PBB problem, view the emotional issue as only the beginning of pressures for completely "pure" food, a situation that would mean less quality, poorer quality and higher prices.

Michigan's diverse agriculture brings an estimated $3.5 billion into the state's economy each year. The shopper in the supermarket, the supermarket manager, the businessman down the street, the worker in the factory that manufactures the equipment the farmer uses to produce food — all have a big stake in a healthy Michigan agriculture. The only "ajime" it has today is the loss of confidence by some consumers who have not listened to the repeated scientific assurances that Michigan's food supply is safe.

Farmers believe consumers know that their all-Michigan meals are the best in terms of taste, variety and nutritional value, and that they are anxious to be reassured of their safety. The best way to do that, they've decided, is simply to tell them, farmer-to-consumer. They'll be "leaving their plows in the fields" temporarily throughout the summer to do just that, at fairs and mail promotions or just on a one-to-one basis. It's a busy time of year for farmers but they believe this is a job they must do themselves.

Cat feces and raw red meat have this in common: they may harbor toxoplasmosis. If acquired during pregnancy, this infectious agent can cause brain damage in the child. The March of Dimes urges pregnant women to avoid handling cat litter, and to eat only meat that is well cooked.

Michigan's estimated population is 9,098,000, according to the U.S. census.

PET OF THE WEEK is an 8-month-old female fox terrier puppy named "Boomer." She is a medium-sized dog, with a short, wiry coat and long tail. She has had her shots for distemper and rabies. She is good with children and other dogs. She is used to being inside and is housebroken. If you might be interested in Boomer or a dog similar to her, please call the Humane Society of Huron Valley at 662-5585 between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Monday through Saturday with the exceptions of Wednesday and Sunday when the shelter is open between 1 and 5 p.m. There are currently several beautiful, pedigreed German Shepherds at the shelter, also a dog that appears to be an Elk-hound, and an adult. So if you are looking for a pet, please make the Humane Society's shelter your first stop as there are many beautiful animals in need of love and a home there including rabbits, guinea pigs, kittens, puppies, and, of course, adult cats and dogs. The Humane Society attempts to make sure that animals adopted at its shelter receive good homes and families adopting pets there must agree to have the animal spayed or neutered when it is seven months old. Spay clinic services are available at the shelter and the clinic is open to the general public as well as to persons adopting pets at the shelter. Appointments to have animals spayed or neutered can now be made one week in advance. The only requirement is that the animal must be six months of age.

CPR Classes Set in Dexter Township

A class in the technique of cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) being offered to all Dexter Township area residents by the Michigan Heart Association. Sessions will be held June 27, June 28 and July 6, at 7 p.m. in Dexter Township Hall.

Mark Champion, a certified CPR instructor, will conduct the classes, and all those who complete the three-session class will be certified to administer CPR. Because enrollment in the class is limited, anyone wishing to participate should register as soon as possible. To register, call Caron Pryor, 878-9312, or Marth Egan, 426-4887.

Planning Session Set By Service Agency

More than 50 people are expected to attend the Dexter-Chelsea "Community Together '77," a public planning meeting, sponsored by Washtenaw County Community Services Agency (CSA), June 27, 11 to 3:30 p.m., in Sylvan Township Hall, 112 W. Middle, Chelsea.

The community meeting will be the first stage in establishing CSA goals for the 1977-78 program year.

The Agency is soliciting community participation in determining the priority needs of low-income people.

Ideas generated by the meeting will be the foundation for planning and developing CSA programs for low-income people, created and staffed by low-income people. Nancy Margolis, CSA deputy director, explained "The goal of this agency is to assist the self-determination and self-development of low-income people. CSA hopes that 'Community Together '77' will bring out the folks CSA serves. The best way to determine the needs of low-income people is to ask the people themselves."

Tim Simpson, CSA, Neighborhood Action Center Supervisor, is co-ordinating the meeting.

The nucleus of the meeting will be small group discussions designed to generate program ideas. Topics of discussion will include Housing, Social Service Resources, Education-Job Training, Employment, Special Project Proposals, and Strengthening Community Based Programs. Participants are encouraged to voice all areas of concern. Reports from the group discussions will be followed by an open question and answer session. Refreshments will be served.

Everyone concerned with the needs of poor people is welcome to attend. CSA staff have made a concentrated effort to get out to the community. Special invitations have been sent to elected public officials and public and private social service organizations. Attending also are CSA Executive Director Peter Yelorda, Deputy Director Nancy Margolis, the CSA Administrator Board, and the Neighborhood Action Centers' (N.A.C.) Advisory Boards.

The Chelsea-Dexter meeting is one of four being sponsored by CSA throughout the county. Mrs. Marylou Stoddard, N.A.C. Advisory Council Chair, will act as chairperson of the Chelsea-Dexter meeting.

Persons in need of transportation should call Chelsea-Dexter N.A.C. at 426-8196. For more information contact CSA headquarters, 662-3172.

CSA is the county's umbrella anti-poverty agency. Programs sponsored by CSA include four Neighborhood Action Centers, Emergency Services, Head Start, Senior Citizen Nutrition Program, Foster Grandparent Program, and a Winterization Program.

Every Heart Beats True Under . . . Red, Green and Yellow?

Congress adopted the stars and stripes as the official U.S. flag on June 14, 1777. Before that, banners of many colors had flown over the Colonies — among them, the British Union Jack, the green pine tree, a coiled snake on a yellow ground and the cross of St. George.

Some of these once-official flags and others which trace our star-spangled banner's history from 1607, line the mall approach to the Independence Hall entrance of Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn.

Chelsea Youths Help Win Title for EMU

In a four-day intercollegiate forensic competition, held April 22-25 on the campus of George Mason University in Fairfax, Va., Eastern Michigan University's forensics team won its second consecutive national championship with the help of two students from Chelsea.

Brad Glazier, a sophomore studying speech at the University, gave speeches in Rhetorical Criticism and Informative Speaking and finished in the top 24 of the nation in After Dinner Speaking. He is the son of Stan and Janice Glazier of 575 Glazier Rd., and is a graduate of Chelsea High school.

Dale Heydlauff, a sophomore studying speech and political science at EMU, was also a big talker in the tourney. Heydlauff delivered speeches in the categories of After Dinner, Informative, Poetry and Persuasive Speaking, and finished in the top 24 in Rhetorical Criticism. He is the son of Jerald and Shirley Heydlauff of 11340 Dexter-Chelsea Rd., and is also a graduate of Chelsea High school.

Coach of the EMU forensics squad, Dennis Beagen, noted that Eastern has finished in the first- or second-place slot in national competition for the past four years. This year's team also set new records. Eastern had the highest number of points for one school (366), the most points by a pentathlon winner (82), a student who competed in five events and the most individual titles by one person (4). Second-place school in the tournament was rival Ohio University, with 274 points. The host school, George Mason University, finished third.

Ask Project COPE

During the past school year, Project COPE, a federally-funded outreach-childfind program designed to find pre-schoolers who have handicaps or special needs, has been operated by Special Education Region V for the Chelsea, Manchester, and Whitmore Lake School Districts.

Various activities have been undertaken in order to reach parents, physicians, clergy, teachers, and others within the community who have contact with children in the birth-to-five age range. Early Warning Signs brochures have been widely distributed in order to help sensitize people to possible budding problems. A twice-monthly question-answer column which has appeared in various area newspapers has helped to trigger referrals. Frequent speaking engagements by the Project COPE staff to service clubs, social groups have aided in alerting people to the rights and services under the Mandatory Special Education Act to which they and their children are entitled.

Those who would like to receive an Early Warning Signs brochure or who wish to ask questions or discuss concerns are urged to call Dr. Henry DeYoung, director of Special Education, at 475-9131, Extension 48 in Chelsea.

Very few other school districts in the State of Michigan are waging Region V's type of thorough, aggressive outreach-childfind program so that pre-school children with special needs are identified and helped early. Thus far, 35 children have been referred to Project COPE. Charles Cameron, superintendent of schools in Chelsea, and the other Region V superintendents are to be commended for their interest, concern, and foresight in recognizing the need for an outreach project and in helping to make it strong and effective in serving the needs of the community.

Area Students Make WMU Honor List

Three Chelsea students and two from Dexter were among more than 1,600 students named to the Dean's List at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, upon completion of the winter semester.

To be eligible for the distinction, a student must have compiled a 3.5 grade point average or higher on a 4.0 scale in 14 hours of graded work.

Students from Chelsea, honored for their academic achievement, are Kevin E. Schmitke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Schmitke of 14440 Stofer Ct.; Brian D. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne F. Smith of 7876 Werkner Rd.; and Norman W. Schafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schafer of 1575 Pierce Rd.

Dexter students included on the Dean's List are Barbara A. Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Gray of 9180 Island Lake Rd.; and Mary A. Kaercher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Kaercher of 12190 Island Lake Rd.

Two of the students, Schafer and Miss Gray, received all-A grades for the semester. Only 401 students among those named to the Dean's List earned an all-A average.
