Bulldog Grid Team Upset By Novi, 21-15

Novi returned Chelsea's opening kick-off with a 98-yard touchdown run last Friday night to set the pace for a 21-15 romp over the varsity Bulldog gridriders in their first league encounter of the season. It was Chelsea's second loss in as many games.

Following the opening touchdown run, the Wildcats successfully kicked in an extra point to be first on the scoreboard with a 7-0 lead.

According to Bulldog Coach Phil Bareis, "the Chelsea offense was unable to stir up any kind of an offensive drive the first quarter, but the defense played very well, stopping a Novi offensive push when halfback Joe Verwey intercepted a Novi pass on the two-yard line."

In the second quarter, the Bulldog defense took charge as Tom Bareis, Rick Beeman and Jim Bollinger recovered three fumbles. The second recovery led to a tied score in the game, as Chelsea's offense came alive with tailback Jeff Powell passing to end Chuck Broderick for a 28-yard gain. Powell then dove for a touchdown on the two, and Bob Gottfried scored with an extra point kick.

The Bulldog defense didn't let up, forcing another fumble when Augustino's jarring tackle loosened the ball and Bollinger recovered it on the 28. Chelsea moved it to the six before facing fourth down and only six seconds on the clock. At this point, the local grid squad attempted a field goal, only to have the Wildcats block the kick, pick up the loose ball, and run 94 yards for a touchdown, ending the half with a six point advantage over the Bulldogs.

The second half opened up Chelsea's offense as both teams launched a scoring attack. Novi was first with a 40-yard pass, then Chelsea. The Bulldog effort was spearheaded by the passing arm of Jesse Coburn, who completed 14 out of 28 for 125 yards to move the ball down the field. He climaxed the drive with a 13-yard pass to tailback Powell.

Chelsea's offensive line, consisting of center Don Harris, guards Scott Powers and Victor Verchereau, and tackles Phil Steinhauer and Tom Bareis, again protected the quarterback, as Coburn passed to Joe Verwey for the two-point conversion.

The fourth quarter turned out to be a defensive struggle as neither team scored. Chelsea's final drive ended on the Novi 20 as a desperation pass fell incomplete.

Chuck Broderick was the leading pass receiver for the Bulldogs in Friday's contest, catching three, good for 74 yards. He was followed by Jeff Powell with four for 31 yards, and Dave Schrottenboer with three for 26 yards.

Leon Brown led in rushing with 37 yards out of a net gain of 55 yards by Chelsea in the game.

The Bulldog defense, consisting of ends Dan Gerstler and Victor Verchereau, tackles Tom Bareis, James Bollinger and Leon Brown, guards Bob Gottfried, and Phil Steinhauer, linebackers Alan Augustine and Scott Powers, and halfbacks Gary Packard, Steve Pennington, Joe Verwey and Rick Beeman, was led in tackles by Augustine with 12, Steinhauer, 11, Bareis and Bollinger, 10 each, Verchereau, 8, Powers, 6, and Pennington and Beeman, 5 each.

"Although we lost our second game Friday, we improved from the previous Friday, and if this continues, we'll be on the winning side," Coach Bareis concluded.

The local Bulldogs will host the Brighton Bulldogs in their next game Friday, Sept. 23, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Both teams are 0-2 on the season, but Chelsea will be particularly anxious to win the contest to avenge last year's 38-0 shut-out.

CHRYSLER PROVING GROUNDS Chief of Security, Cliff Lyerla, left, Chelsea Fire Chief Jim Gaken, center, and Chrysler Contribution Committee Chairman Russ Ash, pose in front of a 1952 six-wheel drive fire truck which was donated last Friday to the Chelsea Fire Department by Chrysler Proving Grounds. The fire truck was recently retired from the fire fighting fleet at the proving grounds where it had basically been used as a standby in impact work. The vehicle combines a 500-gallon tank with a high pressure pumper and was donated to the local fire department following a letter of inquiry from Chief Gaken, regarding its disposal. "Quite a few years ago we had occasion to use it in grass fire work, and knew about its capabilities," Chief Gaken said.

Swim Club Swamped, Schedule Is Changed

Beginning Sept. 26, the Chelsea Aquatic Club will undergo revision. Because of tremendous interest in the 10-and-under age group, members of the group will be divided.

If possible, all 8-and-unders will train on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 5 to 6 p.m.; 9 and 10-year-olds will practice from 6 to 7 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays, and from 5 to 6 p.m. on Thursdays. There will be four coaches working with each group at each time.

Last week, approximately 100 10-and-under swimmers were showing up at the same practice time. Now the number will be about 50, a number which is much more workable, according to pool director Larry Reed.

Reed said he was "very excited and surprised" by the turn-out, but realized immediately something would have to be arranged so the group would be more manageable and more positive instruction could be given. He was particularly concerned that the people who came last week would realize that changes were being made for the better.

Cross Country Team Coming On Strong

Although Coach Pat Clarke predicted this would be a rebuilding year for Chelsea High's cross country team, the 1977 harriers have already exhibited enough talent to bridge their gap in experience.

The Bulldogs began this season's campaign with wins over Novi and Tecumseh last week, and returned Saturday to cap their efforts with a second-place finish in the seven-team Greenhills Invitational.

Saline won the championship title in the Invitational, Sept. 17, with 41 points. Chelsea was runner-up with 81 points, followed by South Lyon, 94; Milan, 99; Dexter, 106; Novi, 116; and Monroe Jefferson, 142. Placing for Chelsea were Dave Dawson, 4th; Chris Minick, 7th; Steve Kvarnberg, 17th; Scott Beyer, 26th; and Mark Beyer, 27th.

On Thursday, Sept. 15, Chelsea strode past Novi 25-34. Scoring for the Bulldogs were Dawson, 2nd; Minick, 3rd; Kvarnberg, 5th; Scott Beyer, 7th; and Mark Beyer, 8th. Other Chelsea finishers were Randy Harris, 9th, and Ken Jenkins, 10th.

"Chris Minick and Steve Kvarnberg ran well to lead the team to victory," Coach Clarke said.

Earlier in the week, the Bulldogs nipped Tecumseh, 27-28, in their opener Tuesday, Sept. 13, but lost to Jackson Lumen Christi, 14-17. Placers in the Tecumseh meet were Dawson, 1st; 16:52; Minick, 4th, 17:47; Mark Beyer, 3th, 18:32; Kvarnberg, 7th, 18:32; and Harris, 9th, 18:52.

Coach Clarke singled out Mark Beyer as the one responsible for the Tecumseh win with his fine performance.

The CHS cross country team is now 2-1 on the year.

5-Year-Old Girl Dies Following Auto Crash

A five-year-old Chelsea girl, who had been hospitalized for three days in critical condition after she was thrown from a car when it overturned three times in Lyndon township, died Saturday, Sept. 17, in Mott Children's Hospital, Ann Arbor.

According to Washtenaw County Sheriff's reports, Judy M. Bogdanski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bogdanski, of Lands End, was riding in a car driven by her uncle, Gary J. Bogdanski, 18, of Dearborn, when the accident occurred Wednesday, Sept. 14.

Sheriff deputies said Bogdanski's vehicle bounced off Werker Rd., near Island Lake Rd., then careened out of control across the road before overturning three times.

Reports said the driver, the five-year-old and another passenger were all thrown from the car.

Judy Bogdanski was taken to Mott Children's Hospital Thursday, where her condition was listed as critical. Reports said she suffered severe head injuries.

The driver was reported in fair condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor. The third person, David N. Rooke, 19, of 17685 Old US-12, was taken to Chelsea Medical Center, treated and released.

Multi-Grade Teachers Join Elementaries

Among the changes at Chelsea schools this year is the addition of a new teacher at both North and South Elementaries to assist regular teachers with excessive class loads. Classified as multi-grade teachers, the two new staff members are each responsible for grades one, four and five.

At North school, Kelly Atkinson teaches reading to a reading group in first grade, making four reading groups from the three first grade rooms. To lighten the teaching load in grade four, she also takes a reading group from that level. Other duties include some team teaching in science for fifth grade, and classes in math, science and language arts in upper grades.

South school has Anita Daniels taking several first graders from each room during the morning. In the afternoon, she teaches spelling and other subjects to sections of the 4th and 5th grades.

Each teacher maintains a multi-grade room to which children report for their work.

Girls Swimming Team Now 2-0 for Season

Chelsea High schools girls' varsity swimming team raised their season record Tuesday to 2-0. Combined with last season, the victory gave the swimmers seven wins in succession. This time the Bulldogs defeated Riverview, 94-55.

"The meet was even more one-sided than the score when one realizes Chelsea swam all their points in the last two exhibition events where points were not awarded," Coach Larry Reed explained.

Highlights of the meet were centered around the diving competition where co-captain Cathy Voita broke the Chelsea high-diving record by 14 points, scoring 154.80 pts.

Michele Clerk's freshman diving record was broken by both herself with 130.6 points and Michelle Alexander with 129.15 points.

In the 100-yard butterfly, Sara Borders lowered her freshman record to 1:26.5, and two other combined freshman and varsity records were broken by Sue Cobb and Nancy Heller. Cobb broke her record in the 500 freestyle with a time of 7:05.7 and Heller established a new 100-yard breaststroke record with a time of 1:28.6.

Other best times were turned in by Patti Schumann in the 200-yd. and 500-yd. freestyles, Sue Cobb in the 200-yd. freestyle, Sara Borders and Teresa Degner in the individual medley and butterfly, Shelly Springer, Cathy Voita and Dawn McDowell in the 50-yd. freestyle, and Shelly Springer, the other co-captain who had a best time in the 100-yd. freestyle.

Excellent performances were turned in by Traci Bunten, Donna and Michelle Alexander, and Lisa Radke in the backstroke; and by Dawn McDowell and Dace Ertel in the breaststroke.

Chelsea's next swim meet will be home Tuesday against Willow Run. Events will begin at 7 p.m.

Middle School Open House Slated Oct. 3

An open house for parents of 6th, 7th and 8th grade students in Chelsea will be conducted Monday, Oct. 3, from 7:30 to 10 p.m. at Beach Middle school.

The format of the open house program will consist of following a "capsule" schedule with parents meeting for 10-minutes in classroom groups with each of their child's teachers according to the student's daily class schedule. Purpose of the program is to provide an opportunity for parents to meet teachers and become better acquainted with the school's curriculum.

It is not intended that the evening be used for individual conferences between parents and teachers. Parents interested in arranging such a conference should contact the school office at 475-9131, ext. 57, to set up an appointment.

Parents should attend the open house equipped with the name and room number of their child's homeroom teacher and are directed to report to the homeroom upon arrival.

Dave Sweet Wins Jaycee State Award

Chelsea Jaycee Secretary Dave Sweet won first-place in the recent Outstanding Service Project of the Year contest, sponsored state-wide by Michigan Jaycees. Sweet's project, Careers Day, was conducted last spring with assistance from other Chelsea Jaycee members.

"Dave's leadership, coupled with community involvement, led to the success of the project," a Jaycee spokesman stated.

Supr. Musolf Answers Lima Recall Charges

With the Oct. 25 recall election only one month away, Lima Township Supervisor Robert Musolf Tuesday responded to eight charges levied against him by a citizens committee seeking to oust him from office, calling their efforts "nothing more than a blatant attempt by Fusilier" (former township supervisor and trustee, Wallace Fusilier) to get the job he did not win in a fair election.

He further stated that all charges were without substance, and proceeded to provide a detailed rebuttal to the accusations.

The following is his written statement.

"I have been accused by the Recall Committee of not doing the job I was elected to do. After I was elected township supervisor, some members of the Township Board said they would not work with me. Indeed, they have not worked with me and have not allowed me to perform some of my duties and carry out responsibilities as township supervisor.

"They and their supporters, a minority group in this township, are running the government for their benefit. They do not want open government and are fighting to keep others who disagree with them from participating in township government.

"As you may or may not know, two members of the board resigned. The real reasons were never made public. They were Mrs. Leita Bauer, clerk, and Wallace Fusilier, trustee. If you will remember, I defeated Fusilier in the August 1978 primary for supervisor. In the November 1976 election he was then elected trustee by 16 write-in votes. When Mrs. Bauer and Fusilier resigned, the remaining two elected members of the board, Mrs. Jean Pitt and Harold Gross, supporters of Fusilier, appointed two other members, Mrs. Arlene Bareis and Robert Wertz. A majority of this board, plus Mrs. Bauer and Fusilier (from the floor), override any action I attempt to take in carrying out my responsibilities as supervisor for the township. Mrs. Bauer and-or Fusilier are at every meeting leading the board members in making their decisions. It is like having a 7-member board, not 5 members as per law. Under these circumstances I am accused of not being co-operative.

"On their recall petitions the group has made so-called documented allegations. I will answer each one of these and tell you where to find the facts. The other items on the petitions are accusations so vague and general they cannot be answered.

"PETITION ITEM NO. 1 states I said 'I have done nothing for the Township.'

"MY ANSWER: See the board minutes. What happened was that Pat Trinkle asked me at the July 11 board meeting what I had done for her since I became supervisor. I told her I had done nothing for her. This claim is taken out of context and therefore is a distortion of the truth.

"PETITION ITEM NO. 2 states I violated the State Constitution by assessing real property over 50 percent.

"MY ANSWER: Lima Township's over-all assessed value is at 49.22 percent. The percent is figured by the county using the formulas set up by the state. This figure can be verified at the County Equalization Department. The Board of Review reviewed the (Continued on page four)

Public Hearing on Ambulance Service

Depending on the outcome of a public hearing next week, residents of Chelsea and Dexter may find themselves without ambulance service unless each village moves to purchase its own ambulance fleet, according to Dr. John McCabe, vice-chairman of the Medical Emergency Services Health Council (MESH), an advisory body to the Washtenaw County Commissioners.

Monday evening, Sept. 27, the county Board of Commissioners will conduct a public hearing on county ambulance operations prior to making a decision on what to do with the present county ambulance contract which is scheduled to expire shortly.

The meeting will take place at 7:30 p.m., in the 4th Circuit Court Room, on the second floor of the County Building in Ann Arbor.

One proposal under serious consideration by the Commissioners is to stop contracting altogether, which would mean the seven or eight municipalities now covered by the county ambulance service would have to cast around for a suitable and costly alternative. Seen in its most dramatic light, this could entail no ambulance service for Chelsea or Dexter until the villages finance their own.

Other proposals forwarded by the Commissioners are to continue the county ambulance service by turning it over to private enterprise or to a private non-profit corporation; continue contracting but shift the financing by looking to outlying county areas covered by the contract for additional funds; or own and operate a county ambulance service.

"The Monday night meeting will decide what happens," Dr. McCabe said. "It will be a political decision and it's crucial people show up."

Dr. McCabe and other members of MESH believe the only acceptable solution given the Commissioners' proposals, is to turn the county ambulance service over to a non-profit corporation. "We feel there has to be a central agency to co-ordinate the seven or eight municipalities involved," he concluded.

Six New Teachers Join North School

From its outward appearance, little has happened to change the face of Chelsea's North Elementary school. But inside the school halls, changes have occurred, the most notable of which is the addition of six new teachers to the elementary teaching staff for the 1977-78 school year.

In addition, one veteran teacher has switched job assignments this fall.

New staff members include Brenda Parker, Patricia Smith, Janet Rossi, Kelly Atkinson, Hannah Polles and Barbara Locks. Susan Miller, previously a learning disabilities teacher at North school, is now responsible for guiding a program for gifted and talented children.

Mrs. Parker is teaching 2nd grade. Originally from Detroit and Lansing, she has a bachelor's arts degree in elementary education from the University of Michigan. She taught adult basic education in Lansing, arts and crafts in Chelsea, nursery school in Ann Arbor, and substituted in elementary school prior to joining the North school staff.

Replacing Mary Coulam who resigned as the elementary art teacher is Mrs. Smith. Originally from Blissfield, she is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University where she earned her bachelor of arts education degree. Her husband also teaches at North school.

Mrs. Rossi, who previously substituted for elementary classes in Chelsea and also did her student teaching at North school, is teaching a morning kindergarten class. She has a bachelor of science degree in elementary education.

Team teaching with 1st, 4th and 5th grades at North school is new grade teacher, Kelly Atkinson. She has a bachelor of science degree from Western Michigan University. In addition to her (Continued on page eight)

Author Will Speak At Methodist Church

Dr. A. Douglas MacNaughton will be the featured speaker during a special program at First United Methodist church, Thursday, Sept. 29.

MacNaughton authored the published book, "The Methodist Church in Michigan: 20th Century," and has written many articles for church papers as well as professional journals. He is a member of the Detroit Conference of the United Methodist Church. As a result of his years of teaching Bible and religion courses to college students, and his research writing, Dr. MacNaughton has formulated some definite views on the mission of the church in the age of Evangelism and education. He believes that a close relationship exists between good teaching in the church school and angelic outreach in the congregation.

Dr. MacNaughton is professor of religion and chairman of the Philosophy and Religion Department at Adrian College. His education includes, A.B., Adrian College; M.S. University of Michigan; B.D., Yale Divinity School; Ph.D., University of Chicago. He has been a member of the Adrian faculty since 1931.

A family pot-luck supper at 6 p.m. will precede Dr. MacNaughton's address. A special program is planned for children four years old through 6th grade, featuring Sparky the Clown. A crib nursery will be provided for infants. Methodist youth, junior and senior high, will participate in the address and discussion program.

This special program is being planned by Work Areas on Evangelism, chaired by Ralph Harper, and Education chaired by Jane Schaler.

4 Years Ago... Thursday, Sept. 27, 1973— The Freer Rd. crossing of the Penn Central railroad tracks at the northeast village limits, scene of a car-train collision three weeks ago which ended in the death of two Chelsea school girls will be inspected under the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission tomorrow Sept. 28, at 10 a.m.

As service station owners in various parts of the country plan personal "fishing trips" that will effectively eliminate their station's open hours, the attitude in Chelsea area stations is typified by Ralph Fletcher of Foor Mobil: "All I know is I don't get gas." The daily challenge of meal preparation confronts Mrs. Duane Weiss, Chelsea school district food service manager, when she works on her weekly menus. Mrs. Weiss says that the present cost of a Type A hot lunch in Chelsea, which has remained at 35 cents since the program began in 1959, may be nearly impossible to maintain considering current food prices, shortages, and government food subsidy cut-backs.

Chelsea Community Chest became Chelsea United Way at a meeting of the organization Wednesday night, Sept. 19. The name change was made to enable the local organization to coincide with the recent change made in name by the state group.

14 Years Ago... Thursday, Sept. 26, 1963— Gelman Instrument Co., which started in a basement laboratory in Chelsea in 1958 with a pioneer automatic air pollution measuring instrument, today conducted a dedication ceremony for its new $250,000 research-manufacturing facility near Ann Arbor. Charles Gelman, 31, is founder and president of the company.

Conrad Hafner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hafner, left Wednesday for Los Angeles, Calif., for advanced study at a School of Design, specializing in architecture. He had been employed for several years by Chelsea Products.

Linda Killham, a former student at Chelsea High, is one of the semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship competition. She took the examination last year at Chelsea High School. This is the first time since the scholarships have been awarded that a Chelsea High school student has reached the semi-final competition. A group of eight girls, who have been designated a "demonstration cast," will be responsible for clarification of the new Girl Scout program which goes into effect this fall. The eight are Sherry Clark, Diane Worden, Penny Eisenbeiser, Carolyn Wilkerson, Lee Spaulding, Becky Tirb, Joan Schmidt and Sandy Severn.

24 Years Ago... Thursday, Sept. 24, 1953— Saturday afternoon, Kiwanians will be selling peanuts on the downtown streets from Wednesday ing hours of the budget session in July to be used as a lever to make Governor Milliken "see the light" on a compromise State Police Budget. Although Management and Budget Director Gerald Miller contended the funds could be spent for the Kincheloe project prior to the legislature's scheduled return in mid-September, Attorney General Frank Kelley declared to members of the Administrative Board that no money could be spent without legislative approval even though Milliken and legislative leaders agreed to the necessity of the expenditure. A total of $3.5 million is included in the bill to remodel the base with the expenditure of $1.7 million required immediately before prisoners could be received. Fencing and new locks will cost $800,000 to ready the facility, which houses inmates, by possibly Oct. 1.

Legislative Office Buildings The planned short, single-action session became threatened when leaders learned of contemplated line-item vetoes which Milliken said were not necessary during the current fiscal year. The items included $3.1 million for a House office building and $3.7 million for a senate office building. The veto recommendations were made to increase the general fund's projected year-end surplus, now estimated at only $1 million despite a $120 million lapse from the Department of Social Services.

Continued Prison Overcrowding Meanwhile, Corrections Department Director Perry Johnson said Michigan prisons will continue to be overcrowded 2 1/2 years from now and beyond unless the governor's proposed new sites are acquired and two new 600-bed regional prisons are constructed. Johnson noted the sudden increase in female inmates may soon require construction of a second women's unit. During the past 12 months, the number of female inmates rose 41 percent, compared to 13 percent of males during a like period.

State Police Patrol Following agreement between Milliken and legislative leaders, lawmakers should be ready to act on the State Police budget when the legislature reconvenes Sept. 19. The proposed agreement would allow the continued patrol by state police cruisers on all state freeways, including urban freeways at the request of local units of governments.

Transportation Plan A proposed state gasoline tax hike of 2 cents per gallon could fuel the ever-increasing cost of petroleum products at the consumer's pump if provisions of a state-wide transportation plan are approved by the legislature. Coupled with funds from the general fund, an increase of 2 cents per gallon on diesel fuel tax, a 30 percent increase in passenger car weight fees and a 35 percent increase in commercial vehicle weight fees would provide $187.6 million for increased spending for roads, public transportation, railroad subsidies, port operations and nonmotorized systems.

Wayne county would receive $1 million for sheriff's deputies and the prosecutor's office to aid in the Detroit Recorder's Court program to reduce backlogs and a study of secondary road patrols.

The Livingston County Ride for Research will begin and end at Hell Creek Ranch, 10820 Cedar Lake Rd., Pinckney. All participants in the Ride will receive certificates of participation, while horsemen raising $15 or more also will be awarded special Rider for Research shoulder patches.

Horsemen interested in joining the Ride for Research may contact Doug Jones, 3015 Monks Rd., Pinckney 48169, or phone 878-6190. The club would also like to invite people to come out to Hell Creek Ranch on Friday, Sept. 30, and camp over Friday night, ride Saturday, camp over again, join

Ten members and one guest, Mrs. Robert Hochrein, enjoyed a delicious lunch. A floral centerpiece, which decorated the dining table, had been donated by Mrs. Hochrein's husband and was very much appreciated by all.

Next meeting will be a pot-luck supper and Halloween costume party, Oct. 11, 6:30 p.m., at the summer home of Mrs. Gene Coltre at North Lake.

ALTAR SOCIETY
At their first fall meeting, Sept. 12, members of St. Mary's Altar Society elected new officers for the coming year.

Those elected were Mildred Eeles, president; Anna Laban, first vice-president; Evelyn Hale, second vice-president; Willetta Hafner, secretary; and Marge LaRoe, treasurer.

Following a discussion of business, slides on breast cancer were shown to members by Mrs. Nancy Nunn and Barbara Lipshutz. Miss Lipshutz also gave an oral presentation and answered questions from the floor.

It was announced that the speaker for the October meeting of St. Mary's Altar Society will be the Rev. Fr. McAllister of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor.

In November, the group will sponsor a bazaar on the third Saturday of the month. Beth Forner is chairman for the project. The meeting concluded with refreshments served by Mrs. Eeles.

Co-hostesses, JoAnn Carruthers, Kay Farley and Liz Prentice, furnished dessert.

New members, Norma Grafund and Bonnie Meadows, were welcomed into the group, and a white elephant exchange followed.

Modern Mothers voted to contribute sums of $200 to the Waterloo Nature Center; $200 to the Chelsea Recreation Department; and $100 to the American Cancer Society.

Mrs. Roderick C. Powers

Kathryn McCalla, R. C. Powers Speak Marriage Vows Saturday

Kathryn Lynne McCalla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCalla of 12875 Old US-12, exchanged marriage vows with Roderick Charles Powers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Powers of 12930 Scio Church Rd., Saturday, Sept. 10, in Chelsea United Methodist church.

The 7 p.m. candlelight ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Marvin H. McCallum before a gathering of 365 guests.

Soloist for the occasion was Marie Montague of Chelsea, who sang "Evergreen," "O' Perfect Love," "The Wedding Prayer," and "Annie's Song," accompanied by organist John Schrenk of Ann Arbor.

As she approached the altar, the bride wore an ivory floor-length gown of silesta nylon, styled with bishop sleeves and trimmed with Cluny and Venice lace applique. A band of Cluny and Venice lace encircled the neckline of her gown, matching the lace trim on her chapel length veil. She held a cascade bouquet of white and yellow roses and stephanotis with ivy streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jane Engel of Reading. She wore a sea-spray polyester knit gown with cap sleeves. The sleeves were edged in Venice lace, as was the Queen Anne neckline of her gown. She carried a basket of white daisy poms, yellow sweet roses, sea-spray dried flowers and ivy streamers.

Bridesmaids were Loretta Roskowski of Chelsea; Susan Chance of Ypsilanti; Laurie McCalla of Ann Arbor, cousin of the bride; Mary Ann Dettling of Manchester, cousin of the bride; and Ann Shoop of Dexter. Michelle Brion of Saline, niece of the bride, attended as junior bridesmaid. Their gowns were identical to that worn by the matron of honor. Each also carried a basket of white daisy poms, yellow carnations, sea-spray dried flowers and ivy streamers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McCalla appeared in a floor-length peach-colored polyester knit dress with a matching jacket. Beaded trim decorated the jacket, matching the trim around the neckline of her dress. A corsage of roses completed her attire.

Mrs. Powers, mother of the bridegroom, chose a floor-length

UP, UP AND AWAY!

The world's first practical helicopter set a world's endurance record in May, 1941, by staying aloft for one hour and 33 minutes. This revolutionary vehicle was designed and first flown by Igor Sikorsky in 1939. The experimental craft had a fabric-covered fuselage, a forward flying speed of 70 miles per hour and could even fly backward at 20 miles per hour. This historic Sikorsky helicopter is now part of the comprehensive collection of non-military aircraft on display at Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn.

Supr. Musolf Answers Lima Recall Charges

assessed value of every piece of property. If anyone's real property was assessed over 50 percent, the Board of Review approved it.

"PETITION ITEM NO. 3 states that I showed favoritism to some people and bias to others when I did the assessing.

"MY ANSWER: I have tried to be fair. I followed the tax guidelines as set by the state law. The Board of Review, which was appointed by the Township Board, approved all assessments in Lima township; they have the final say on everyone's assessment. The township property tax cards are available for anyone to look at. If anyone thinks I showed favoritism or bias on any piece of property, they should call me and I will show them anything they want to see.

"PETITION ITEM NO. 6 states that I consistently distort and stretch the truth regarding township matters.

"MY ANSWER: I have not 'distorted' or 'stretched' the truth regarding township matters.

"PETITION ITEM NO. 7 states that I 'did not submit a true and accurate statement of election expenses, in violation of Michigan Election Law.'

"MY ANSWER: I filed a true statement of my expenses with the County Clerk. It was accepted and is available for anyone to examine at the County Clerk's Office. I suspect Fusilier has given his people some inaccurate information. He probably examined my statement at the County Clerk's office and found that I had not listed the expense for a large ad that appeared in The Chelsea Standard. It was not listed because I did not but it. I did not ask anyone to buy it and I don't know who bought it.

"When I ran for supervisor against Fusilier, the people of Lima township elected me, not Fusilier. The majority of people in this township said they did not want him as supervisor. Despite this rejection, he manipulated himself onto the Board of Trustees by 16 write-in votes. When he knew he was going to be recalled he resigned because if he were recalled he could not run for office. Since then he has been more disruptive in the audience than when he was on the board. Now Fusilier is busily working with this Recall Committee to try to remove me from office, believing that if I can be recalled he will be appointed temporary supervisor by his supporters on the board. He would then run as a candidate for supervisor. Fuslier is openly stating that he will be the next supervisor.

"In short, it is my opinion that the entire recall action is nothing more than a blatant attempt by Fusilier to get the job of supervisor, a job he did not win in a fair election. I believe the people of this township want open, clean, honest government for everybody. Right now what they have is a small group of his supporters attempting to run the township government. This group will do almost anything to keep 'outsiders' from interfering with the way they want to run it, even if they have to fabricate accusations to force another election because their man lost the last one.

"If the people of Lima township want open, clean, honest government, I hope they will again support me by voting NO in the October 25, 1977 election.

Robert D. Musolf,
Supervisor for Lima Township."

Cycle Stolen From Main St. Parking Space

Chelsea police are looking for the thief or thieves who made off with a motorcycle late Wednesday, Sept. 14, from a parking spot on N. Main St., near the front of Heydlauff's after it had been left there for only a few hours.

According to police reports, Charles Shiver, of 20129 Bartel Rd., Gregory, owner of the missing 1972 360 c.c. Yamaha, stated he had worked late at Chelsea Pharmacy and left there with friends at about 10 p.m. to go to Stiver's Bar and Restaurant. When he returned at about 2:40 a.m. he found the motorcycle gone.

Upon investigation, local police were able to determine that the motorcycle had been at its said location at about 10:15 p.m. However, a check of the area later that night failed to produce it.

The stolen vehicle is described as having silver fenders, a black frame, and large black letters spelling "Yamaha" on a silver gas tank. The license number is KD-116, but the plate was not on the bike when it was taken. Shiver stated it had fallen off and he had put it under the seat.

Chelsea police have entered a report of the theft on the statewide Law Enforcement Network (LEIN).

Cager of the Week

PENNY COLLINWORTH (30), a three-year veteran of Chelsea High's girls varsity basketball squad, is one of the team's most accomplished players. The 5'6" guard was selected Most Valuable Player last season, was named to last year's second all-league team as a guard, and began the current varsity campaign as a leading scorer for the Bulldogs in last week's victory over Grass Lake. She collected 12 points. As a guard, Collinworth states "being able to dribble" is the most important requirement for the job. When asked to predict Chelsea's outcome in the league this year, Collinworth replied, "we're going to be number one of course." She added that members of the team have been running their plays and working well together to produce their winning results. "We're really fired up," she said, "especially since we beat Grass Lake because they were supposed to be pretty tough." Collinworth explained that she plays basketball simply because she likes the sport. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Collinworth of 1810 Ivey Rd.

Go out this week-end and celebrate Michigan's harvest. Take the family down to your local farmer's market and be overwhelmed by the smells, colors and downright fun of all those fruits and vegetables brought in fresh from the fields for your table.
 It was only a year ago I wrote of going to the market and buying much more than I could ever use. It is a habit I have yet to break. After all, I can always use a little more lettuce, another bunch of carrots, and why not get six ears of corn instead of a more realistic four for the two of us.
 My wife puts up a valiant struggle against my overbuying but I just can't resist. Actually, I'd be much better off if I stayed home just getting things ready in the kitchen but that trip to the market is "an offer I can't refuse."
 This month we're nearing the end of most of the berry fruits but fresh pears and juicy plums are in their prime.
 A pear recipe we use, from Irma Rombauer's "Joy of Cooking," is Stuffed Pears, and for you, this is the time of year to try it. Peel, core and halve four firm pears. Mix together and stuff into the hollows 1/4 cup raisins, two tablespoons each of chopped walnuts and sugar and one tablespoon lemon juice. Place the stuffed pears in a baking dish with two tablespoons of water and then pour 1/2 cup light corn syrup over them.
 Cover and bake in a preheated oven for 1 1/2 hours. We like to taste them during cooking with a little pineapple juice and brown sugar but we've also just dusted them with cinnamon and broiled them lightly before serving.
 According to the Michigan Department of Agriculture, Michigan's main pear variety is the Bartlett. They work great in this recipe when still firm.

VFW Post Hosts Past Commanders, Presidents

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4076 of Chelsea held its first Past Commanders and Past Presidents Dinner Saturday, Sept. 10.
 The VFW Post received its Charter in April 1945 and has had 15 past commanders as well as 15 past presidents since that time. However, until this month, a dinner in their honor had never been organized.
 The idea was an innovation by current Ladies Auxiliary President Bessie Sharp. She and her husband, Kermit, current Post Commander, hosted the inaugural event. Some 40 guests and members attended the dinner. Among the guests was Dalton Seegert, Junior Vice-Commander of the VFW 6th District.
 Four Past Commanders were also in attendance, including Charles Ritter, first commander of VFW Post 4076 in 1945, as well as commander in 1947 and 1948; Mac Packard, commander in 1950, Post Adjutant for 18 years, and currently Senior Vice-Commander of the VFW 6th District; Lawrence Boyer, commander in 1953 and 1968, as well as Post Quartermaster for the past four years; and Clarence Bohanna, commander in 1969.
 Three past presidents attended the dinner. They were Mary Kniss, president of the Ladies Auxiliary in 1948 and 1956, as well as Auxiliary treasurer for more than 12 years; Eulahlee Packard, president in 1952, 1953 and 1954, and currently the Americanism chairman, a post she has held for the past 20 years; and Gerry Klink, president in 1961, 1968, 1969, 1970, 1971 and 1972.
 All of these people have been, and many still are, hard workers for the Post and Auxiliary. After dinner, which was prepared by Auxiliary members, tapes were played on portions of the 30th anniversary party held May 2, 1975.
 A Memorial Service for the deceased past commanders and past presidents followed. Late Past commanders are Carl Benjamin, commander in 1949; Albert Kasper, commander in 1952; and Ren Hutzel, commander in 1959.
 Late past presidents are Anna Werner, president in 1951; and Alta Juergens, president in 1962 and 1963.
 Although the Sharps were disappointed in the small turnout of members, they feel future dinners will have better attendance. Mrs. Sharp thanked those who did attend, and said that illness or being out-of-town were the reasons responsible for the poor turnout of past commanders and past presidents.
 In conclusion Eulahlee Packard, Auxiliary Americanism chairman, presented a desk set to Post Chaplain Bill Pierce for his outstanding contribution to Americanism and community activities. Pierce is leaving Chelsea for a year-long trip to Europe on Sept. 21.

Girls Basketball Team Opens With Grass Lake Win

Chelsea High's girls varsity basketball team shot to a 46-34 victory over Grass Lake Wednesday, Sept. 14, to win their first game of the season.
 "The girls played well over-all, considering it was their opener," Coach Cheryl Vogel reported. "There was a lot of defensive hustle, and the offense kept the ball moving, no matter what type of defense Grass Lake set up."
 Leading scorers for Chelsea were Penny Collinworth, Nanette Push and Shelley Warren, with 12 points each.
 Leading rebounders were Sue Heydlauff, Tracy Hawker and Sherry Kiel.

Nancy Dickerson, prominent national correspondent, reports for Detroit Edison:

"Before another cold winter, learn about the heat pump. It's one of the most energy-efficient ways to heat your home."

Today's heat pump is one of the most energy-efficient ways to heat your home, apartment, office or commercial building. It returns over 1 1/2 units of heat for every unit of energy it uses.

Think what this can mean in conserving energy and helping to keep your heating and cooling costs down.

There's a unique reason why the heat pump is an outstandingly efficient heating system.

It makes good use of outdoor heat.

Yes. Even in winter there's heat in the outdoor air that can help keep you warm. The trick is to move that heat inside where you can use it. That's what the heat pump does. Only during very low temperatures is supplementary heat needed.

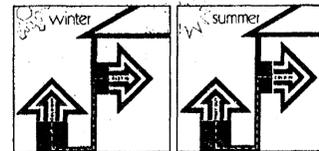

In summer, the heat pump moves heat out of your home for energy-efficient cooling. It's an all-year comfort system that also filters and dehumidifies. And it's clean because no fossil fuel is burned in your home.

The heat pump works something like your refrigerator.

A heat pump is more sophisticated, but it works in much the same way. Imagine the cold air in your refrigerator as the cold winter air outside your home. The hot air that you sometimes feel being blown into your kitchen is actually being extracted from the cold air inside the unit. This is how the heat pump warms your home. In summer, the process is reversed to cool your home: the heat in the inside air is extracted by the heat pump and moved outdoors.

Here's how the heat pump works.

See for yourself.

You can see heat pumps in the new homes displaying the Detroit Edison EEE Award. This Award is presented to builders who incorporate energy-efficient excellence standards into their homes—including proper insulation, energy-efficient appliances and lighting, as well as electric heat pump heating and cooling. Ask Detroit Edison for names and locations of builders who have EEE Award homes on display.

Conserving with comfort.

Detroit Edison wants you to know about the heat pump because it generally is the most energy-efficient way to provide homes and buildings with year-round comfort.

The heat pump can also be an important answer to conservation because the natural heat it uses helps save our non-renewable fossil fuels.

As a concerned participant in America's crusade for conservation, Detroit Edison is working hard to do its part. But it requires a working partnership between those who supply energy and those who use it. So if you're planning on buying, building or replacing your present heating system, consider a heat pump as part of your plans.

Detroit Edison has a folder, "Your all-season space conditioner, The Heat Pump." Pick one up at any Detroit Edison Customer Office and learn more about this energy-efficient way to heat and cool homes and buildings. Or write to: Customer Relations, Detroit Edison, 2000 Second, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

Conserve for all it's worth. The power is in your hands.

Pamphlet May Help Veteran in Finding Job

If you've just gotten out of the service and you're looking for a job, you should know what you're entitled to.

A free pamphlet from the Department of Labor will tell you about your rights, your benefits, and where you can go for assistance. You can get a copy of "Out of the Service and Looking for a Job?" by sending a postcard to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 677E, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

Veterans may be entitled to unemployment compensation if they cannot find a job immediately. Sometimes, they may have the right to return to their old jobs. If you need more training to qualify for a new career, your local Veterans Assistance Center or your State employment service may be able to help you get on-the-job training or vocational or academic schooling. Many of the men and women who work in Veterans Assistance Centers (USVAC) are veterans themselves, and they can give invaluable assistance. Remember to bring your Armed Forces separation form D-2214 and social security card when you visit a USVAC.

Veterans are also entitled to special consideration from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, if they are interested in finding a government job. You can get a five or ten point preference on examinations for filling jobs, and some special appointments, such as veterans readjustment appointments, may be available. Further information on Federal employment may be obtained from one of the Federal Job Information Centers listed in your telephone directory under U. S. Government, Civil Service Commission.

"Out of the Service and Looking for a Job?" (free) is just one of over 200 publications of interest listed in the Consumer Information Catalog. Published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration, this Catalog is available free by sending a postcard to the Consumer Information Center, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

Students Want More Involvement in College Policy

Students want more involvement in university policy, but don't want to see students establishing major policy, a Michigan State University study of student attitudes shows.

The study, by Arvo E. Juola, professor and consultant on instructional evaluation, compared students of 1971 and 1975 and found general student desires for greater influence, more freedom, more options and generally less administrative control.

A student voice at the board-of-trustees-level was on the minds of 65 percent of the seniors and 80 percent of the freshmen.

More students in 1975 than in 1971 rejected abolishing grades, open admissions and having student evaluations influence faculty promotions, according to the MSU study.

The students, however, were more supportive (more than 90 percent) of increased freedom for student publications, off-campus living, and selection of courses.

Michigan is the nation's largest producer of plantation-grown Christmas trees which are shipped to almost every other state in the country, including Hawaii.

Former Chelsea Student Enters Indiana U.

Kathleen Maroney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Maroney of Columbia City, Ind., and formerly of Chelsea, entered Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind., as a freshman on Aug. 24. She plans to major in accounting.

Miss Maroney began her formal education in Chelsea, first attending North Elementary school, and then transferring to South school. While at North school, her kindergarten teacher was Mrs. Carol McKerrrow. Mrs. Jean Smith was her first grade teacher at South school.

On June 1, Miss Maroney graduated with honors from Columbia City Joint High school, where she was an active member of several organizations. She was an Editorial Board member of the yearbook, secretary of National Honor Society, and a regular member of GAA, French Club, Drama Club, Commercial Club, and the Golden Eagle Marching Band.

As a French language student at Columbia City High, Miss Maroney also spent 10 days in France with members of her French class.

Upon graduation, Miss Maroney was the recipient of several scholarships, including one from National Honor Society for outstanding service as a grade school tutor; a Columbia City Tri-Kappa Service Sorority Scholarship; an Indiana State scholarship; and the Rood Scholarship from Lincoln National Life Insurance where her mother is employed as a service consultant.

While attending high school, Miss Maroney was employed by the

KATHLEEN MARONEY

Citizens National Bank in Columbia City. She hopes to continue working in either the banking or accounting field upon completing her college education.

Miss Maroney's father is a native of Chelsea. The family lived at Cavanaugh Lake until 1966, when they moved to Perryburg, O. In 1968, they moved again, this time to Columbia City, Ind., located 20 miles west of Fort Wayne. In addition to Miss Maroney, children in the family include Mike, a senior at Columbia City Joint High school; Carrie, a 7th grader at Marshall Middle school, Columbia City; and Mari Lynne, a 4th grader at Marshall Middle school.

The children's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maroney of 227 E. Middle St.

ASK THE GOVERNOR

by William G. Millham

Question: I understand you recently established a new Consumer Protection and Regulatory Cabinet. What are the purposes and duties of the new cabinet?

Governor: I created the Consumer Protection and Regulatory Cabinet to advise me and to help develop a consistent executive branch policy for consumer protection.

The cabinet consists of the Directors of the Departments of Agriculture, Commerce, Education, Labor and Licensing and Regulation, as representatives of the Michigan Consumers Council and the Office of the Attorney General. William Ballenger, director of the Department of Licensing and Regulation, serves as the principal co-ordinator. Although the departments whose agencies are most heavily involved in consumer protection issues are members of the cabinet, Ballenger has the authority to bring in, on an ad hoc basis, any department when a particular policy discussion directly concerns that department.

The cabinet recently conducted a survey of the 19 departments to assess what the departments were doing regarding consumer protection. Through a questionnaire, the departments are being analyzed as to how they deal with consumer protection, what the issues in their departments are, and how consumer protection is co-ordinated between departments. The answers to the survey are presently being compiled by the Department of Licensing and Regulation. The cabinet will make recommendations based on the survey.

Question: We recently moved from the country into the city. I am concerned about my children playing around buildings, streets and in parking lots. Are there certain potential hazards. I can alert the children to?

Governor: Many accidents occur around the home, and so it is a good idea to point out to children, as well as adults, things to avoid. Most cities have neighborhood parks and playgrounds. Children should be encouraged to use these areas for play instead of streets and parking lots.

A refuse bin is not a playpen. Often children will swing on the ends of bins or climb inside. This can be dangerous, because some bins may tip over on the children.

Playground equipment should be anchored to the ground for stability.

Children should be reminded not to walk in front of swings or swing empty seats, to sit in the center of the seats, not to twist swing chains as this reduces the chain's strength, and not to rough-house or overload one piece of equipment.

Play equipment should be used as directed or designed.

Question: I understand there have been some changes in the Guaranteed Student Loan Program. Can you tell me what these are?

Governor: There have been several technical amendments to the Guaranteed Student Loan Program to help finance higher education as a result of federal legislation. First, the family income cutoff amount for a student to qualify for an interest-free loan while in school has gone from $15,000 to $25,000. Although these figures are subject to some adjustment, if the income criterion is met, the federal government will pay the interest on the student's behalf while he or she is in school.

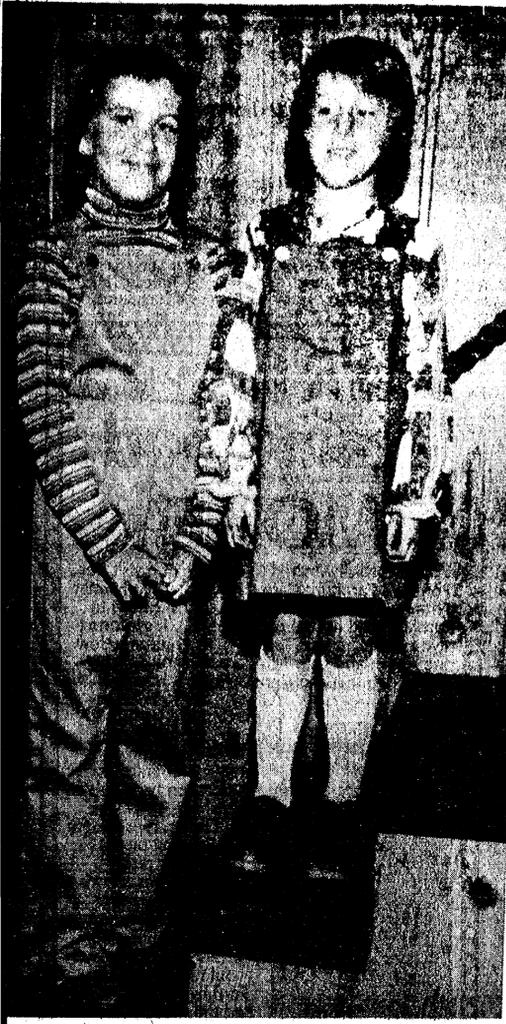

Secondly, the maximum amount a graduate or professional student may borrow per academic year has been increased from $2,500 to $5,000.

Another important development is that the Department of Education can serve as a private lender. This means that if a student's loan application is turned down by a private lending institution (i.e. savings and loan association, bank or credit union), the student may apply to the Department of Education directly for the loan. The Department of Education and private lending institutions have identical obligations and repayment schedules.

Your college financial assistance office can give you further information and applications regarding this program.

OLD GLORY IN BATTLE

The American flag first unfurled in battle 200 years ago Sept. 3. The Regulars under General William Maxwell ambushed British and Hessian troops under General Howe and Cornwallis at Cooch's Bridge, Del. VACATION HOUSE & TAX DEFERMENT

Among the benefits of being a homeowner are the unique tax advantages available. One of them to be wary of is the provision which allows you to defer paying income tax on any profit made from the sale of your home. If you buy a more expensive one within a certain amount of time. It does not apply in all cases.

vacation house doesn't qualify. However, if you owned the dwelling for more than the required time to allow the profit to be taxed as long term capital gains (nine months during calendar year 1977 and one year after that), the $2,000 profit would only be taxed at half the normal rate.

For example, if you sell a vacation home at a $2,000 profit and promptly buy a much more expensive place, can you defer paying the income tax on the profit? The answer is no!

This tax break is available only when both the house sold and the house purchased serve as your principal residence. A

JV Gridders Rally for Win Over Novi

Three great catches by junior Bulldog Brad Knickerbocker in the fourth quarter, combined with nine passes from quarterback John Dunn for a total of 143 yards and eight points, spurred Chelsea High's JV football team to a 22-14 victory over Novi last Thursday.

"It was a very exciting game with some outstanding plays," Chelsea Coach Jon Schaffner reported following the contest.

Novi opened the scoring with a 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, but failed in its conversion attempt.

Chelsea returned in the second period to tie the score, 6-6 on a one-yard run by Mike Wood, but the advantage bounced back to Novi in the third quarter when the Wildcats collected another touchdown on a four-yard run and then raised their lead to 14-6 on their conversion play.

A 16-yard pass play from Dunn to Knickerbocker, put the Bulldogs back into contention as they found themselves in a 14-14 deadlock.

Fair Board Hosts Workers at Dinner

A regular meeting of the Chelsea Community Fair Board was called to order Sept. 15 by President Lloyd Grau.

In addition to President Grau, present were Kay Poljan, treasurer; Earl Heller, executive vice-president; Jerry Heydlauff, vice-president; and directors Harold Gross, Keith Bradbury, Jerry Herick, Art Steinaway, Dick Poljan, Rueben Lesser, Jr., Ralph McCulla, John Klink, Charles Koon and Charles Stapish. Stapish is in charge of Merchant's building rentals during the fair.

Others in attendance included John Wellnitz, A. Bradbury, Dave Parks, Betty Jo Parks, Otis and Cindy Armstrong representing the horse show program, Robert Bauer, horse barn builder, and Paul and Rick Bollinger, representing the tractor pull contest.

Absent were Richard Hais, Joe Merkel III, Frank Renton, Frank Sweeny, Harold Trinkle, and fair secretary Ruth Leach. In general, there has been a good turnout by members of the Fair Board at all meetings.

A detailed report was made by Art Steinaway on the receipts and expenses for the 1977 Chelsea Community Fair Kitchen. With 1977 food prices at an all-time high, the net profit was considered to be good.

Complaints and suggestions were presented by the Horse Show people. Next year, the exercise ring will be larger. Timing of the horse show was also discussed. A Sunday Horse Show was proposed, with starting time to be an hour earlier to accommodate the various classes.

Tractor Pull superintendents made several suggestions to shorten the contest time. Among the suggestions was starting the event an hour earlier and adding weights faster, perhaps by 1,000 pounds, instead of 500 pounds at a time. Details will be worked out before the 1978 Chelsea Community Fair.

Saturday, Sept. 17, all 1977 Chelsea Community Fair workers were honored at the annual Fair Party. Earl Heller, fair manager, barbecued two of his lambs. Large steaks, provided by the Fair Committee, were served at 8 p.m.

Art Steinaway, a Fair Board member, was in charge of the kitchen for the party and also delivered an invocation. Following the invocation, he spoke about the death of Arthur Grau, father of Fair Board President Lloyd Grau, and also mentioned the recent hospitalization of fair secretary Ruth Leach and Mrs. Joe (Judy) Merkel III.

Duane Bycraft grilled the steaks and Merle Leach carved the barbecued lambs. Kay Heller, Kay Poljan, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gross assisted in the kitchen to prevent delays in serving food. Rueben Lesser, Jr. furnished sweet corn for all.

At the conclusion of the lamb and steak supper, Merle Leach introduced Marion Longworth, who displayed slides of the 1977 Fair Parade along with some of the 1959 Parade, complete with sound. The 1959 Parade marked the 125th anniversary of the Village of Chelsea.

Anne Steinaway then introduced Mrs. Annabelle Gochanour, who gave a very comprehensive and informative history of the fair from 1872 to 1927. She named the officers and superintendents from previous fair years and mentioned that in one of the years, 55 prizes were awarded.

Frosh Grid Team Loses To Tecumseh

Despite a strong effort, the Chelsea freshmen football team lost their opening game to Tecumseh 16-6, last week.

"We did everything we were supposed to, we just didn't win," Coach Bill Bainton explained. "They were just a little tougher."

The Bulldogs took the kickoff and marched into Tecumseh territory, but fumbled the ball away on the 20 as the first quarter opened. Several plays later, Vincent Salyer intercepted a pass and returned it to Tecumseh's five-yard line. Jon Riemenschneider then scored from the two on a quarterback sneak behind the blocks of Chan Lane, Kirk Stubbs and Mike Wade.

Tecumseh took advantage of another Bulldog fumble deep in Chelsea territory for their first score. The conversion run was good, giving the Indians an 8-6 lead which they held until halftime.

Tecumseh opened the second half by driving deep into Chelsea territory. This drive was stopped when Jon Riemenschneider tipped a pass which Vincent Salyer intercepted. But Chelsea couldn't move, and after the ensuing punt, Tecumseh drove 50 yards for the TD.

In their two drives, the Indians held the ball for all but two minutes of the third quarter and built their lead to 16-6.

The final quarter was back-and-forth action until Tecumseh threatened with about four minutes left in the game. An interception by Scott Chapman, Chelsea's fourth of the evening, stopped this final Indian drive on the Bulldog 13.

BULLDOG VARSITY MANAGERS: Making sure football equipment is where it's needed when it's needed, keeping water bottles full and accessible to the players, and having a towel ready for each player coming off the field, are among the responsibilities of these 1977 varsity Bulldog team managers. In return, the soon-to-be gridders get a first-hand view of the football regime behind each week's game, and a jump on advice from Chelsea Coach Phil Bareis. Grouped around the pigskin, from left, are Marty Steinhauer, John Lane, Mark Bareis and Tom Hill.

Five Generations of Straubs

When Stephen Langdon Straub was born at 9:51 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 15, the Straub family entered its fifth generation. The infant son of Darlene and Martin Straub has 15 living progenitors.

On his maternal side, in addition to his mother, Darlene, he has grandparents, Marjorie and Robert Robbins, of Gene Dr.; great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Robbins, of Chelsea; a great-grandmother, Mrs. Irene Proctor, also of Chelsea; and a great-grandfather, Kenneth Proctor, Sr., of Dexter.

On his paternal side, in addition to his father, Martin, he has grandparents, Carol and Gerald Straub, of Madden Rd.; great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Straub, of Dexter; great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Miller, of Holland; and a great-grandmother, Mrs. Ora Miller, also of Holland.

The family wonders if this may have established some type of record.

Marty brought Darlene and Stephen home last Monday and all are doing well at their Island Lake residence. When Stephen is christened in early October, he will be wearing his great-grandmother Miller's christening dress which was also worn by his father and his grandmother Straub.

The United States signed its first treaty on Sept. 17, 1778 with the Delaware Indians. Later treaties featured specially minted medals, many of which are on display at Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT
"The woman tempted me, and I did eat it" . . . It was the first alibi in recorded history, and Adam knew it was an alibi . . . And ever since in the course of human events, men and women foolishly think they find face-saving solace in phoney excuses.

Alibis come easy. But they are hard to accept. Alibis like "traffic was bad" . . . "I did not have time" . . . "I felt bad all week" . . . "It was Joe's fault" . . . and similar statements all have a common denominator. They are alibis and the alibi knows it, just as Adam did.

Generally, an alibi only cosmetically covers the real problem. Actually, in essence, alibis are a confession of failure. An alibi often indicates despair - which pierces pride. Will it ever be realized most people are far more apt to accept a frank admission of fault - rather than an alibi? . . . (Your comments are welcome) . . . SCHOOL'S OPEN: Since one million youngsters are returning to classes this September by school bus, safety patrol leader Frank Audia of Dearborn urges motorists to be extra alert. When school buses are boarding or unloading children, such as the three students shown here, motorists are reminded to stop at least 10 feet in front or in back of the bus. During the 1976-77 school year in Michigan, five youngsters died in bus-related accidents, two more than the previous year, and 72 school-aged pedestrians were killed. Children unaccustomed to the dangers of crossing streets and motorists who were inattentive or driving too fast for conditions caused many of the deaths.

Not All Adult Girl Scout Leaders Work With Girls

Not every Girl Scout volunteer works with girls. According to Mrs. Frances Bauer, president of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, currently only 500 of the 2,500 adult volunteers in the organization work with other adults, and handle such vital personal positions as recruiting, training and consulting with troop leaders. The council has more than 100 of these troop services directors, each of whom is responsible for the management of from five to 12 troops.
The role is vital to our council and is a professional job in every way," Mrs. Bauer notes. "After experience as a troop director, a person will never feel awed at the thought of taking on management responsibilities in a business, social service agency or other organization."
Other adult-orientated volunteers function as part time teachers. The council has a staff of 30 volunteer trainers, teaching girls individual and emotional development, inter-personal relations and the group organization theory, as well as Girl Scout history and program to troop leaders and other volunteers.
Still others teach skills in which they have expertise such as primitive camping methods, macrame, carpentry, auto repair, sewing and the like, skills which can then be passed on to troops by the adult members of the class. Some visit troops and teach the girls directly. These program consultants broaden the activity of choices of Girl Scout troops.
Still other volunteers work of policy-making committees, as public relations writers reporting Girl Scout news for local newspapers and as camping aides go along with troops on overnight and weekend camping trips, as well as longer summer excursions.
"If you have an interest, or a skill you'd like to develop, you can do it in Girl Scouting," Mrs. Bauer commented. "It's the largest organization of women and girls in the area. And we're still growing!"
The Huron Valley Council was one of eight councils recently cited by Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. for their outstanding recent growth in membership. Because of this growth the council also needs troop leaders, men and women, of all ages who want to work with growing girls and help them become active, resourceful, responsible adults.
The Huron Valley Council provides 18,000 girls each year in Washtenaw, Livingston, western Wayne and northern Monroe counties.
Information regarding the various positions may be obtained at the Council's offices in Ypsilanti 483-2370.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL:

Academia Nuts

By Loren D. Estleman
Autumn. Days grow shorter, nights colder. The leaves on your neighbor's tree turn colors and drop all over your side of the fence. The county road commission begins spreading brine over the roads after each rain to make sure that it runs out before icy weather arrives. School starts.

School. Back-to-school sales spring up in the stores like dandelions. Mothers celebrate their freedom by either returning to bed after the kids leave in the morning or giving the house its first thorough cleaning since last June. Yellow school buses come out of hibernation and rumble down the road 10 minutes before the kids are ready, stop long enough to blast their horns, and rpar off just as the first foot hits the driveway, forcing the mothers to bundle their urhins into the family car and take them in herself. So much for going back to bed or cleaning the house.

The first day of school is always a traumatic experience. Last year's 8th graders, accustomed to being on top of the heap at middle school, suddenly find themselves high school freshmen, a situation which in the eyes of the upperclassmen places them one step above the miscellaneous junk already beginning to collect in the bottoms of their lockers. Shambling, puff-earlier than they have all sun-feyed from rising two hours sleepily into the wrong classroom and not realizing it until the teacher tells you to turn to page 365 and your book doesn't have that many pages. Did you ever try to squirt someone by holding your thumb over the spout of a water fountain? It's a satisfying feeling, even though nine times out of 10 you do it wrong and wind up soaking wet. The same goes for sailing a paper airplane across the classroom while the teacher's back is turned. Invariably it glides into a lazy bank and lands at her feet. If you're especially unlucky, you made it out of a page of homework with your name at the top.

School is an experience. Not always a good one, but someday you'll look back on it and

Eventually, they stumble upon the right room, and there they find out that Beginning Calculus is not some new form of Transcendental Meditation, as they'd thought when they signed up for the course last year. From there it's on to English Literature 101, History of the Roman Empire, and The Bible as Best Seller. By the fifth class, arms which have done nothing wonder if you'd like to relieve it. The answer is probably no. Nostalgia isn't always a wish to return to the past; sometimes it's just remembering something that was once a large part of your life and isn't any more. Maybe you'll think you're immune to such mooning. But someday you'll walk into an old building that smells of wax and disinfectant, or pause beside a school desk at a rummage sale with names and initials carved all over it, and for a fleeting moment you'll be back where you started.

EMANCIPATION ANNIVERSARY

President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation, freeing slaves in Confederate Territory, on Sept. 22, 1862. The Illinois courthouse lawyer Lincoln practiced in is now part of Greenfield Village, Dearborn.

That's when you'll realize that the first day of school is a state of mind.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

A Wild Critter After Your Food

Most of us have never seen a coyote, except in the western movies. But he's still very much alive, and more so than ever. There are so many of them now that they're raising the cost of lambs and wool simply because they're destroying so many of them out West.

The USDA just completed a study on this wily predator of the West. He's got a ravenous appetite. High in choices for dinner is lamb, then older sheep, then baby calves.

Since environmentalists went on a "Save the Coyote" campaign a few years ago, they've managed to force an end to all effective coyote controls. Particularly, they got the cyanide gun outlawed.

With no effective controls, the coyote population took off, and they have to eat. They've decimated many of the western sheep flocks by killing tens of thousands of lambs and sheep each year.

When they finish up with these domestic animals, they start in on the baby deer, elk, and moose. We recently visited with a Wyoming rancher who had to go out of the sheep business because of the coyote. Since he leases government land to pasture, he's seen lots of wildlife on this land, and the damage that coyotes are doing to young wildlife.

One-third of all the lamb deaths are caused by coyotes. One-fourth of all the adult sheep deaths are caused by coyotes. The cost to you and me by the way of higher food bills and to sheep ranches is $37 million a year.

If a virus disease killed 8 percent of our children each year... coyotes kill 8 percent of the lamb population... you would hear the loudest hue-and-cry for a campaign to wipe out that disease.

Ranchers are saying the coyote should be viewed in the same way... as a disease... a disease that must be controlled before it wipes out the sheep industry.

If the sheep industry goes, say goodbye to barbecued lamb, lamb chops, wool blankets, wool rugs, and clothing containing that natural fiber... wool.

Francis Scott Key wrote the Star Spangled Banner Sept. 13, 1814, while watching the British attack on Fort McHenry, Md. He later set the lyrics to the tune of "Anacreon in Heaven," a popular tavern song of the period. Key also initially entitled the song "The Defense of Ft. McHenry."

Girls Swim Team Swamps Erie Mason

Two school records were set by members of Chelsea High's girls' varsity swimming team Tuesday, Sept. 13, during the team's dual meet encounter with Erie Mason. Chelsea swamped Erie Mason, 8 1/2 to 68 1/2, to win its first meet of the season and its sixth successive meet in its two-year span of history.

"The win was a great team victory with excellent performances by all of the swimmers," Chelsea coach Larry Reed said.

Setting a new school record in the 100-yard backstroke was Bull-G Shelly Springer, while Nancy Keller set a new record in the 50-yard breaststroke. Because Keller is only a freshman, her varsity record in the breaststroke is also a freshman record.

Also setting freshman records were Sara Borders in the 100-yard butterfly, and Michelle Clark in one meter diving.

Leading Chelsea to victory were team captains Shelly Springer and Cathy Volta. Springer, a junior, won three events, including the 200-yard medley relay, the 50-yard freestyle and the backstroke. Volta, also a junior, was a member of the winning medley relay and finished first in the diving competition.

Other double winners were Heller in the breaststroke and the medley relay, and Shannon Springer in the 200-yard individual medley and 100-yard freestyle.

Turing in outstanding performances were Michelle Alexander, Traci Buntun, Sue Cobb, Teresa Degner, Dace Ertel, Christy Fahrner, Sue Inglis, Annette Kuhl, Dawn Mc Dowell, Lisa Radke and Patti Schumann.

"It appears as though the future bids well for Chelsea swimming," Coach Reed announced, following the meet. This year's team consists of 19 swimmers, 13 of whom are freshmen.

"Membership in the team is not closed—new members are still welcome to join," he continued. "You do need to be a great swimmer. If you are interested in joining the team, simply show up at the pool at 3:30 p.m. any day with a bathing suit and towel."

Chelsea's next meet will be against the Riverview Pirates. According to Coach Reed, Riverview has a very rich tradition in high school swimming. They have won three boys state champion-

Got Change for A Ten-Cent Bill?

America's only fractional paper money was issued for a brief period from Aug. 21, 1862 to May 27, 1863. Due to wartime demands for metals in the Civil War, Congress temporarily authorized five, ten, 25- and 50-cent issues of paper money. Referred to as postage stamp currency because of a resemblance to the stamps of the day, the fractional currency was not popular with either the merchants or customers and was quickly withdrawn. Examples of the mini-money are on exhibit in Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, which houses one of the largest currency collections of its kind, including virtually every denomination of American paper money printed between 1769 and 1780.

Free Methodists Start Local Church Services

The Free Methodist church of Chelsea was organized last Sunday morning at the Ypsilanti Free Methodist church. The inaugural service of the fellowship will be held Sunday, Sept. 25, at 4 p.m. in the facilities of the St. Barnabas Episcopal church, 20500 Old US-12.

Free Methodists are Evangelicals embracing the best of the Wesleyan tradition, believing in the Bible as the inspired Word of God and the importance of having a personal relationship with Christ.

The organization of the church is an outgrowth of Bible Studies that have been held in the area for the past four years. Several families in Chelsea have been worshipping in Free Methodist churches in Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor and Jackson.

"It is our desire to complement the united ministries of the other churches in the Chelsea area," states Pastor William Cryderman, who will be serving in the new church. "We do not intend to build the church at the expense of other church memberships, but are looking to provide additional ministries for the unchurched of the area."

Services initially will be held in the afternoon with the worship hour at 4 p.m. and Sunday school for all ages at 5 p.m. This first Sunday there will be a reception following the worship hour. Everyone is invited.

Film Scheduled Refuting Theory Of Evolution

"Footprints in Stone," the first motion picture with both scientists and theologians claim effectively refutes evolutionary teachings, will premiere locally this Sunday, Sept. 25, 6 p.m., at Immanuel Bible church, 145 E. Summit St.

The film focuses on scientific research in Paluxy River, Tex., where human footprints were discovered in the same rock stratum as dinosaur tracks.

"Bulldozing, sandbagging, flash floods and the colorful narrative of local old-timers all add to the excitement and interest of this fast moving documentary which shatters the widely-taught geologic table of evolution," the Rev. Le Roy Johnson, pastor of Immanuel Bible church, said.

He added that the film is meant to reach a vast number of people who have been misled into accepting the evolutionary theory and thereby have come to doubt "the forthright statements of the Word of God concerning man's origin, salvation and eternal destiny."

The film is also meant to encourage those with undaunted faith in the Word of God.

The public is invited to attend Sunday's film premiere. There will be no charge for admittance, but a free-will offering will be taken.

DON HARRIS (50) plays center for the 1977 varsity football squad, returning to that position from last year's team. According to Harris, as a center, he must concentrate on "not getting paranoid about having to do two things at once; that is, snapping the ball and blocking the opposition after doing it." The 6'0", 170-lb. senior stated Tecumseh was his best game to date. "I played defensive end in the second half," he explained. Against Novi last Friday, Harris said the Bulldogs outplayed the Wildcats, but lost "because we let down on three major plays." With the rest of the season to come, Harris says, "we don't want to lose any more so we plan to win all of our remaining games." The feat is possible, he contends, because team spirit is strong, and there are no personal conflicts between juniors and seniors like there were last season. Harris further predicts that Chelsea will defeat Brighton tomorrow to avenge last year's 38-0 upset. "We'll be ready for them this year," he declared. In addition to playing football, Harris plays basketball for Chelsea High and is a member of Future Farmers of America. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harris of 1221 Sugar Loaf Lake.

GARY PACKARD (30), safety for the varsity Bulldog grid squad, says the job demands "speed, agility and aggressiveness." A second-year member of the team, Packard has been playing football since 7th grade. Whether from his experience, or based on his view of the team in practice, the 5'9", 160-lb. senior predicts Chelsea "will end up with a winning season" this year. He explained that the Bulldogs "made a couple of mistakes by letting plays break away" in their Novi loss, and "just didn't go out and handle it" against Tecumseh in their opener. "We're working better as a team now, have a good team spirit, and a good defense," Packard revealed. "Only our offense needs some polishing," Packard, who also runs track for Chelsea High, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Packard of 19678 North Territorial Rd.

BOB GOTTFRIED (62) is precise in his predictions for Chelsea this season. "I'd like to go 7-2," he declared, "and I think we have a good chance for it." The 6'0", 205-lb. guard is entering his second year as a member of the varsity football team. He played tackle and various other positions before becoming a guard last season, but states he likes his current job best because it demands speed, quick reflexes, getting into position and pulling." According to Gottfried, Chelsea's first game with Tecumseh was his personal best this year "because I wasn't goofing up much." He believes that as a team, Chelsea is at a disadvantage this season "because we lost a lot of good players," but countered that drawback with a list of assets. "We have experienced seniors now, a team with lots of size, a good backfield and good quarterbacks." He noted that "if the line comes through, we should do well." Currently, the problem with the Bulldog line, Gottfried continued, "is not getting our heads across, and flaws in the way we're taking down the opposition." To do it right, he explains, "the tackler must be bowed so the opposition can't turn." Gottfried plays football for the fun of the sport, the contact, and its challenge to one's skill. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Terrance Gottfried of 4677 Peckins Rd.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
This letter is written in response to Ms. Vargo and Ms. Harrison's letter on Sept. 15. They said that they would respond with the facts, well, here they are.

They stated: "The horses exercise arena belonged to the Fair Board to do with as they please."

Fact: That means that they could take anything away from the cattle, sheep, chicken or pig exhibitors, which they don't do.

I agree that I didn't have all the facts on Mr. Sibley, but the fact still remains that the duties of a superintendent were not performed.

As for the horses being stalled early two days in a row:

They stated: "It was for the safety of the rider, horse, and spectators," "because of large amounts of people."

Fact: There were no crowds through the horse barn at those early times. After the dinner hour most all of the spectators were clamouring for good seats for the derby.

The following pertains to a statement they made, "Rules were broken and/or bent to satisfy me."

They stated: "That included making an oversized stall since my horse would not tie."

Fact: I called early to reserve a box stall, but all were taken, so I expected a stand stall as anyone else would have. My name was next on the list to receive a large stall though. There were 6 foot gaps on the ends of the rows which they informed me I could have. That was my assigned stall, and I took it gratefully.

They stated: "My horse had no halter on, which were required for safety."

Fact: My horse had a halter on the full and complete time he was at the fair, in his stall.

They stated: "I was allowed to take my horse out after the curfew at my request."

Fact: I did ask to take my horse out "once" at 4:30 p.m. but was denied.

If I wanted to complain to the committee members (which I did, but it wasn't them) or the fair board itself, I would have to send my complaint along with $2, which I understand is a fair board practice.

On Thursday, Sept. 15 I was invited to attend a fair board meeting, which I did. During the discussion I was told by one member, and most agreed, that I should have waited and come to a meeting with my complaints and not have told the residents of Chelsea what happened. That is one question that I can't answer, WHY?

Rep. Mike Conlin Schedules Meeting In Stockbridge

Representative Mike Conlin (R-23rd District) will conduct his second annual series of Town Hall Meetings beginning this month, it was announced Monday.

The first meeting will be held Sept. 27, 8 p.m., at the Stockbridge Township Hall in Stockbridge.

Representative Conlin has scheduled the meetings throughout the 23rd District, which includes large parts of Jackson, Washtenaw and Ingham counties, to encourage two-way communication with his constituents.

"The best way for me to represent my constituents is to meet with them personally and hear what they have to say about current issues," Conlin said. "In the spirit of open government, I've arranged this series of the old 'Town Hall Meetings' to open up new lines of communication."

"I can more effectively represent the people of the 23rd District in Lansing if I know how they feel on the important issues facing us today. I hope everyone will have an opportunity to come to the meeting and let me know how they feel about problems facing us in Lansing."

The schedule of remaining meetings will be announced later.

State Highway Fund Collections Increase

Despite rising gasoline prices, Michigan motorists are driving more than ever, the Department of State Highways and Transportation reported today.

Receipts from state motor fuel taxes (gasoline, diesel fuel, liquid petroleum gas) in the three-month period ended June 30 totaled $106,953,132, an increase of $5,185,665, or 5.1 percent, over the same quarter of 1976.

Weight taxes collected in the form of license plate fees yielded $33,133,121 in the April-June quarter, up by $3,796,073, or 36.1 percent, from the comparable period of 1976. However, the increase mainly resulted from tabulations that followed the late-hour rush by motorists to buy 1977 license plate tabs before the April 1 deadline. In 1976, more motorists bought the newly issued red-white-and-blue Bicentennial plates well before the deadline.

Second quarter collections in Michigan's Motor Vehicle Highway Fund, financed by fuel and weight tax revenues, increased by 12.7 percent to $145,681,623. Part of the increase is $1,345,653 in interest earned by the fund. Prior to the current fiscal year, interest earnings were distributed annually rather than quarterly.

Proceeds are being distributed to the state, counties and municipalities after deductions of $14,552,083 in grants and collection costs. They included $1,256,418 to the State Waterways Fund, $5,960,468 for collection costs and $5,517,228 to the state General Transportation Fund for public transportation and rail programs.

Net proceeds totaling $131,129,540 leave $58,204,573 for the Department of State Highways and Transportation as its 44.5 percent share. The 83 counties will receive $46,906,698 as their 35.7 percent portion and the 531 incorporated municipalities $26,018,270 as their 19.8 percent share.

Jackson county, which received $793,117 during second quarter distribution in 1976, will receive $877,990 for the same period this year, while Washtenaw county's

Harry Kenworthy, Community Relations Manager, Ann Arbor, offers you this telephone tip:

"How can you tell if the person at your door is really a Michigan Bell Employee?"

As you may have noticed, our employees do not wear uniforms. They dress in the way they think is most appropriate to get their jobs done. While this permits them to look like the individuals they are, it really doesn't help you identify them as Bell employees. But, there is a way. Every Michigan Bell employee is required to carry a Michigan Bell identification card giving his or her name, photograph, and signature. For your protection, be sure to see this card before you admit them into your home. They'll be happy to show it to you.
