Bulldogs Hand Saline First Loss of Season

Although Saline roared out to a 13-0 lead over Chelsea Friday, the Bulldogs returned to roll up 25 points and hand the Hornets their first loss of the year. The 25-21 upset hooted Saline into an SEC tie showdown with South Lyon, scheduled for tomorrow.

Alan Augustine scored the winning Chelsea touchdown on a one-yard plunge with 5:51 left in the game. Bob Gottfried added one more point on a successful conversion kick to punctuate the victory.

Saline got on the scoreboard with a 5-yard touchdown pass at 17 in the first quarter to cap a 62-yard drive.

Saline increased its lead with another six points at 10:50 in the second quarter when an 82-yard drive ended with a one-yard drive over the goal line by the Hornets' half-carrier. The extra point attempt that followed failed.

A third touchdown by Saline on a 23-yard pass, and a two-point conversion pass gave the Hornets their 21-0 lead over the Bulldogs in the second quarter.

But with only 28 seconds left in the first half, Chelsea scored on a one-yard run by Steve Pennington to end a 69-yard drive and begin the Bulldog comeback. A highlight of the Chelsea drive was a 33-yard pass to Jeff Powell. The Bulldogs failed in their two-point conversion attempt.

Chelsea scored again at 10:17 in the third quarter to narrow the gap behind Saline to 12-21. The touchdown came as Jesse Coburn connected with Dave Schrottenboer for 44 yards on the first play following a fumble recovery by Don Harris. Once more, the extra point attempt was no good.

With 1:52 left in the third quarter the Bulldogs capped an 88-yard drive with a 38-yard touchdown pass from Jesse Coburn to Jeff Eibler, and finished the quarter behind Saline, 18-21, after their third extra point attempt was sabotaged.

Chelsea upended Saline in the fourth quarter with Augustine's touchdown which climaxed a 77-yard drive. The play was set up by a 39-yard run by Augustine.

"Our defense played well when they needed to, and we had good pursuit in the game," Coach Barreis said in assessing the Bulldog win.

He added that the offense also performed well, with Jesse Coburn passing for two touchdowns and just missing a third. Another offensive standout was Augustine who ran for 66 yards.

Cited for their outstanding blocking, which enabled Chelsea to gain 125 yards in rushing were center Don Harris, guards Scott Price, Scott Powers and Phil Steinhauer.

Leading tacklers were Jeff Powell with 9, Alan Augustine, 7; Todd Headrick, 6; Tom Bareis, 6; Steve Pennington, 5; Rick Beeman, 3; James Bollinger, 3; and Phil Steinhauer, 3.

Chelsea completed 10 of 14 attempts to gain 174 yards passing and added 218 yards rushing. Alan Augustine and Jeff Powell each had an interception.

Chelsea is now 2-5 for the season.

NEW OWNER: Ted Faist, left, and Graham Sprague, both of Sprague Buick-Olds-Opel, Inc., engage in some camaraderie on the showroom floor of the local auto dealership. As of Oct. 1, Faist, formerly general manager, assumed ownership of the dealership after purchasing it from Sprague, who is retiring. However, Sprague plans to retain an interest in the business firm. Sprague and Faist have been together at the dealership for more than 25 years, so it is unlikely any radical changes will result from the change in ownership. However, some changes in staff have already occurred. John Popovich is now sales manager at Sprague Buick-Olds-Opel, and Doug Sprague, son of the retiring former owner, will leave the dealership after having been associated with it for the past four years. Faist plans to change the name of the company after the first of next year. The local Buick dealership was founded nearly 60 years ago by the late W. R. Daniels who sold it to Sprague some 40 years later.

Harriers Lose Final Dual Meet of Season

On Tuesday, Oct. 18, Chelsea's cross-country team dropped its final dual meet of the year to Saline, 34-25. As a result, the Bulldog squad finished its dual meet season with a 5-4 record and 3-3 record in the league.

David Dawson led the way for Chelsea, finishing first in a varsity home course record of 16:28. On Saturday, Oct. 22, the Bulldog harriers traveled to the Manchester Invitational where Dave Dawson finished 6th in the senior run with a school record time of 16:37. Other senior placers were Randy Harris, 32 (17:21); Mark Shippey, 47th (19:30); and Jim Weidmeyer, 51st (21:14).

In the junior run, medals were won by Chris Minick, 14th (16:24); and Scott Beyer, 17th (16:30). Also placing were John Whitaker, 38th (17:43); and Pat Murphy, 43rd (18:16).

In the sophomore run, Chelsea finishers were Mark Beyer, 29th (18:16); Randy Bohl, 40th (19:39); and Maark Stevenson, 44th (20:27). Medal winners in the girls' run were Teresa Hoffman, 6th (21:34); and Laurie Hastings, 10th (23:31).

Boys Varsity Swim Team Seeks Try-Outs

Larry Reed, Chelsea pool director and varsity swimming coach, has announced that Nov. 7 will mark the start of the boys varsity swimming season.

"That date leaves the boys with less than one month of practice before their season opener," he noted, adding, "this year's team will have many new additions, all of whom are expected to make the team much stronger."

Reed encourages anyone interested in swimming or diving on this year's varsity team to go out (Continued on page six)

Third Local Police Officer Leaves Force

"It's not job dissatisfaction, but better positions," Chelsea Police Chief George Meranuk said wryly in describing what amounts to a mass turnover in his five-member full-time staff.

Within the past two months, the chief has had to look for three new patrolmen to replace a trio of experienced men who each resigned to accept other jobs. Prior to that, not a single replacement had been necessary in more than four years.

The first ripple in the recent wave of departmental staff change came in late August when Patrolman John Dettling went on part-time duty in order to accept part-time employment with Sprague Buick-Olds-Opel, Inc. He was replaced by full-time Patrolman Dennis Hall.

This month, Patrolman Larry Yaeger resigned to accept a more lucrative supervisory post with General Motors Corp. in Ypsilanti.

Effective Oct. 24, Yaeger was replaced by Jack Orr, a 25-year-old rookie who has served as an auxiliary officer with the Adrian Police Department and as a member of the Eastern Michigan University campus police force, which is supervised by the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

Orr is a 1977 graduate of Sienna Heights College in Adrian, where he majored in criminal justice. Recently married, he lives with his wife Melissa, in Ann Arbor. Orr has been assigned to the night shift, and will work from 8 p.m. to 4 a.m.

The third patrolman to resign is Roger Graves. Effective Nov. 1, he is leaving the local department to accept a new position as chief of the Leoni Police Department. A replacement has not yet been named.

Arson Suspected in Methodist Home Fire

Arson is the suspected cause of a fire that struck Chelsea's United Methodist Retirement Home early Tuesday evening, Oct. 18.

Although the incident gave rise to some consternation among Methodist Home residents, who average 77 years in age, damages were minor and there were no injuries reported.

According to police reports, Chelsea firemen responded to the fire at approximately 6:15 p.m., and located its origin in the attic storage area of a three-story brick and wood frame building. Some 30 occupants of the building reside on the third floor.

The fire, which had nearly been extinguished by the facility's water sprinkling system when firemen arrived, destroyed some papers and a cardboard box containing numerous other papers and some miscellaneous personal items stored by residents.

Flames had also damaged two suitcases and their contents, as well as a wooden chest containing clothing. Minimal damage was sustained by the floor of the storage area.

Police and fire department investigators speculate the fire was started in a paper box. They have ruled out wiring defects and heating system defects as causes of the fire, and believe it was deliberately set.

No suspects have been named in the incident which is still under investigation.

Girl Cagers Trounce Lincoln, Lose to Novi

Chelsea went to Lincoln last Thursday to play their 10th girls varsity basketball game of the season and earn their ninth victory of the year. The game was a one-sided romp, with Chelsea winning, 59-14.

Every individual playing for the Bulldogs scored. High scorers were Shelley Warren and Nanette Push with 13 points each. Also scoring were Sheryl Kiel and Sue Heydauff, with 8 points each; Tracy Hawker, 7; Michelle Sarbach, 4; Penny Collinsworth, 3; Tammy Collinsworth, 2; and Lori Miles, 1.

High rebounder was Sheryl Kiel, followed by Tracy Hawker and Shelley Warren.

Chelsea's girls' varsity basketball lost a heartbreaker to Novi Tuesday when Novi scored 1 point in the last 10 seconds of the game to upend the Bulldogs, 36-35.

Chelsea started slow giving Novi an 11-19 lead at half but came back strong to lead, 25-25, at the end of the third quarter.

The final score dipped in Novi's favor as the team scored a basket with nine seconds left on the clock. Chelsea was unsuccessful in its final desperation scoring drive.

High rebounders were Nanette Push, Shelley Warren and Sue (Continued on page 12)

Lima Recall Attempt Fails In Heavy Vote

By a narrow 15-vote mandate, Supervisor Robert Musolf retained his seat as Lima township's top official Tuesday, after an unprecedented turnout of 729 township voters turned out to cast their ballots in a special recall election.

A final tabulation of votes showed 371 against the recall, as opposed to 356 in favor of the action. Two ballots were declared spoiled.

Results of the election are expected to end a three-month long, tumultuous political battle in Lima township between those challenging the supervisor's ability to govern the township, and those supporting his efforts.

Supervisor Musolf was unable to be reached for comment after the recall results were made public.

However, Wallace Fuslier, a member of the recall committee, and the person most often cited as the source of political havoc in Lima township, had the following words to say: "If Bob Musolf would work one-tenth as hard for the township as he did to stay in office, he would be a fantastic supervisor."

Musolf, elected for a two-year term as supervisor last November, now has a little more than one year left to serve in his term.

Halloween Party For Kiddies Set Monday Evening

Brisk fall winds, the appearance of goblins and ghosts in the windows of area homes, and pumpkins grinning on the doorstep, all signal the approach of Halloween.

Again this year, Chelsea Kiwanis will contribute to the "spirit" of the occasion by hosting a Kiddies Halloween Party on Monday, Oct. 31.

As part of the traditional festivities, youngsters draped in white sheets, masks, home-made or store bought costumes, will make the rounds of the neighborhood homes from 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. to collect goodies while voicing the familiar chant, "trick or treat."

Beginning at 6 p.m., they are invited to congregate at the Municipal Parking Lot on Park St., where their costumes will be judged for prizes prior to the annual Halloween Parade.

Kiwanis judges will choose winners in four categories—most comical, most original, spookiest, and most typical of Halloween.

After the costume judging, at approximately 6:30 p.m., the children will be joined by the Chelsea Fire Department for a 15-minute parade through the town. The parade route will be from the parking lot to East St., north to E. Middle St., west to Main St., south to Park St., and back to the parking lot for cider and donuts.

As in past year, the Chelsea Jaycee "goblin patrol" will be on hand to assist police and watch out for window soapers, candy thieves, or other Halloween pranksters. Members of the goblin patrol will wear white armbands.

Jim Szamecki is co-ordinating this year's Kiwanis sponsored Kiddies Halloween party.

World Community Day To Be Marked Nov. 2

World Community Day, sponsored by Church Women United, will be observed this year on Nov. 2. Local activities will begin at 9 a.m., at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home.

A highlight of the local observance will be the appearance of Nina Klandt, state president of Church Women United, and one of 26 national representatives to travel to Ireland in March of this year where she met with Peace People representatives.

Mrs. Klandt will show slides and tell of the peace efforts in Belfast. A nursery will be provided at Chelsea Baptist church, 159 Wilkinson St.

Also during World Community Day, SERRV (Sales Exchange for Refugee Rehabilitation Vocations) handicrafts will be displayed for purchase at a coffee hour preceding the local program. SERRV is a major self-help effort to fight chronic poverty. It gives families around the world, caught in the backwash of war, natural disaster, or chronic poverty a means of earning an income by providing these families with a chance to sell their handcrafted products.

A high percentage of the retail price of SERRV handicrafts goes to the producer, since the exploitative middleman is eliminated, and since the program is operated on a not-for-profit basis.

"By exposing the public to the benefits of such programs as SERRV, and to the words of Mrs. Klandt, the local World Community Day program will seek to show how we can reach out in love to the people in our community and around the world," organizers of the local program, Joy Stacey and Peg Hamilton, say.

An offering will be taken to provide funds for community and family service programs, for safe and accessible water throughout the world, for world-wide emergency aid in disasters, for health programs, and ministries to build up women nationally and internationally.

Nine area churches are co-operating in this year's local observance.

JV Gridders Rally Comes Too Late

Although Chelsea's junior Bulldogs came to life in the second half of last Thursday's encounter with league power Saline, they were unable to overcome a 27-point half-time deficit. However, the local gridders narrowed their loss to 27-12 by collecting two touchdowns in the final period while keeping the Hornets scoreless.

Saline exploded with two touchdowns in the first quarter, and added another point on a conversion attempt for an early 13-0 lead.

The Hornets increased their advantage to 27-0 in the second quarter on three more touchdowns and two successful kicks for extra points.

"Saline completely dominated the first half as they rolled up 247 yards, accumulating half of that total by passing," Chelsea Coach Jon Schaffner reported.

United Way Resident Giving at New High

At $2,122, residential contributions to the 1977 Chelsea United Way are the highest in five years, according to General Chairman Bill Connolly. The local campaign has been in progress a little more than one month.

Connolly credited the campaign's recent record achievement to residential chairman Pat Whitesall, her four team captains, and their 30 solicitors who went door-to-door seeking gifts for the Chelsea agency which channels community support into 37 charitable organizations.

Residential giving to Chelsea United Way is in addition to pledges and donations made by Chelsea employees of industrial and business organizations. Reports of these, as well as rural and other contributions to the 1977

Chelsea United Way drive, are expected within a few days.

Team captains and their solicitors who were responsible for the 1977 residential achievement are:

Lanewood—Captain Carol Slater; solicitors: Dot Hume, Kathy Cross, Pat Depping, Jane McLaughlin, Louise Likavec.

Southeast—Captain Gerry Tallman; solicitors: Jeanette Sweet, Nancy Keezer, Liz Raduazo, Lise Bowers, Angie Smith, LaVonne Harris, Roberta Hinz, Sherri Plank, Fay Frederick, Dawn Winter.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ever once in a while a hopeful sign happens along, and Josh Clodhopper is the fellow most likely to spot it. In one of his rare reports at the country store sessions, Josh got the floor Saturday night and allowed he had seen where the earth's weather is getting warmer. He said he couldn't give an official word on this winter or the next because he was dealing long range.

It turned out Josh had saw where a group of scientists are saying that by the last of the 22nd century the world is going to warm up 10 degrees. Josh didn't check whether that was fairer, hite or this new measure we're trying to use, because he said it ain't important how hot or cold we're going to be in 200 year. What Josh took to be the good news is that there'll be a 22nd century. From all he'd been hearing about running out of this and polluting that and blowing up the rest, Josh said he'd decided folks were going to have to find another planet to devour if we hoped to make it past the 20th century. Josh said he'd take this old world hot or cold.

Actual, Mister Editor, the fellows weren't as surprised at what Josh took for the good news as they were that he spoke at all. Zeke Grubb had come with another report that had got them to thinking where man is heading, and word from Josh that people still will be around for 200 year was a relief. What Zeke said was that the U.S. Census Bureau has reported where more than one household in five in this country has only one person in it, and more than a third is made up of two people.

In 1960, according to the Census Bureau report, 40 percent of the households had no more than two people. Now the per cent is more than 51. Zeke said people are living longer, staying single more, divorcing more and not having babies more than ever before. All this together, he said, means we might have to start taking in people to keep the country stocked in exchange for the food we send out to India and China where folks still will be standing four deep. The fellows were full agreed we're a long way from that situation, but they took note that by the time we hit Josh's 10 degree jump in world temperature the population picture could take on a different look.

Ed Doolittle said the first place we need to check on who's sending what where is South Korea. He was of a mind that this new Jaworski team is moving powerful slow in finding out who took what over and under the table from the Koreans. Ed said we have reached the end of somepon when we can send millions of dollars to a country only to have them slip millions back to our lawmakers to encourage them to vote them more millions. What it is, declared Ed, is a perpetual motion money machine.

The fellows were general agreed that the least we ought to do is let them lawmakers know we're going to be around the last of the 22nd century. They're spending our money like there's no tomorrow.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Community Band May Be Organized

Brass, wind, and percussion aficionados interested in playing in a community band may soon find themselves dusting off their instruments and preparing for rehearsal as initiates of such a group.

In response to numerous requests, Chelsea High school band director, Steve Bergmann, has agreed to organize and direct a community band for adults if a sufficient number of persons express an interest in participating.

The band will meet for practice sessions either every month or every two weeks, depending on the wishes of members. Rehearsals will be in the high school band room during evening hours. Persons interested in joining a community band should call Bergmann at the high school for more information. Leave your name and telephone number if he is unavailable when you call.

Lobby Bill Has Few Exemptions

A Senate Committee has worked the lobbyist regulation bill removing exclusions previously allowed under the original draft.

Members of the Municipalities and Elections Committee declared the best possible lobbyist regulation measure would require registration and reporting by any person having contact with the legislature or other public officials.

Exemptions were viewed by members simply as loopholes.

Major groups now included in the bill are employees of public and private colleges and universities, employees of local units of government and school boards, employees of state executive departments and employees of the judicial branch of government. Language was also removed which would have provided specific exemptions to persons representing churches and religious organizations and members of political party committees.

Registration and quarterly expenditure reporting remain as the primary purposes of the legislation to bring before the public eye lobbyists, their clients, how money is being spent and upon whom in influencing or attempting to influence matters before the legislature or other public bodies.

The bill will now go to the Senate Judiciary Committee as it carries strict penalty clauses.

Marijuana Decriminalization

Back-to-back House of Representatives votes on successive days spelled doom for a bill decriminalizing possession of small amounts of marijuana.

The votes, forced by opponents during highly emotional debate, prohibit any further reconsideration of the measure.

Bill sponsor Rep. Perry Bullard (D-Ann Arbor) said there would be no attempt to reintroduce a similar bill as it is now necessary to elect a new legislature before the issue could again be rationally considered.

The debate surrounding the bill reached fever heights numerous times which on one occasion resulted in a woman legislator striking Bullard with an ash tray.

Generally, members reacted with relief that the issue was dead for the year and it would not be back before them for the remainder of the current term.

Even with a more liberal House membership in 1979, the bill would still face great odds winning support in the much more conservative senate.

Barbara J. Wenk, David Pruess Wed at Zion Lutheran Church

Chelsea's Zion Lutheran church was the setting for the marriage of Barbara Jean Wenk and David John Pruess of Ann Arbor on Oct. 22. The 3 p.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Morris, pastor of the church, before 300 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman O. Wenk, 2681 Fletcher Rd., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Pruess of Sault Ste. Marie.

Vocalist for the occasion was Patricia Knickerbocker of Chelsea, who sang "Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was dressed in a white quiana gown fashioned with a V-neckline, full-length sleeves, and a chapel-length train. The train of her gown was trimmed with lace applique and hand sewn pearls, as was the cap of her wedding veil. All had been made by her mother. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and yellow roses, stephanotis and ivy leaves.

The bride of honor was Marilyn Hinderer of Caro, sister of the bride. She appeared in a rust-colored quiana gown with a cowl neckline at the back. The gown featured extended sleeves at the shoulders which were gathered forward. Her colonial bouquet was an assortment of yellow, butter-orchid and bronze mums, intermingled with yellow roses.

Attending as bridesmaids were Rita Himes of Ft. Benning, Ga., sister of the bride; Lynn Rask of Gosse Pointe Woods; and Marjorie Wrightman of Ann Arbor. Their gowns and bouquets matched those of the matron of honor.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wenk chose a long coral tana dress with a cowl neckline. Mrs. Pruess, mother of the bridegroom, wore a long jade green quiana dress.

Best man was Richard P. Garon of Grayslake, Ill. Ushers included Donald Dove of Ortonville; Charles Paterka of Ypsilanti; and Charles Westrin of Ann Arbor.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club by the bride's parents. Tina Rueckner was in charge of the guest book; Donna and Diane Pruess, sisters of the bridegroom, cut the cake; Mrs. Barbara Wenk, sister-in-law of the bride, was in charge of gifts; Fred and Beth Locke and Mike and Kathy Cross poured punch and coffee; and Daniel and Rob Wenk, brothers of the bride, Don Hinderer, brother-in-law of the bride, and Dan Wenk, cousin of the bride, assisted where needed.

Upon their return from a week-long wedding trip through the Smokey Mountains and to Gatlinburg, Tenn., the newlyweds will reside in Ann Arbor.

The former Miss Wenk received her bachelor of science degree from Capital University and her master of science degree from Michigan State University. She is employed as a teacher at Chelsea High school. Her husband received his bachelor of science degree from Michigan Technological University and is employed as an engineer by Chelsea's Chrysler Proving Grounds.

Homecoming Fever

By Loren D. Estleman
Anthropologist Ashley Montagu has written a book in which he usually aggressive. Without meaning to embroil myself in an ideological dispute for which I am neither academically nor psychologically prepared, I think it's safe to say that he did not formulate this theory while witnessing a homecoming celebration in his home town.

At no other time of the year do petite cheerleaders and meek scholars turn into the raving fanatics one sees when the local football team carries its yearly battle to the home front. This is not to put them down, because the phenomenon is universal; I well remember entering the poster design competition in 1967 with a work of art bearing the legend, in blood red letters: "Splatter Lincoln's Guts All Over the Field." I didn't win.

Indeed, the entire game of football is very much like war. Victory, for instance, depends upon the amount of ground gained. The quarterback, as general, uses his linebackers like artillery to pound the opposition, then attempts to ram a wedge through the enemy's soft spot and open the way to his objective. In this case the end zone. Uniforms are colorful and designed to make the warriors look more formidable as much as for protection. Aggression is the pivot upon which spins victory or defeat.

Pep rallies are plotted out well in advance of their execution to spark an effect similar to that obtained at the Nazi Party rallies of pre-World War II Germany. The music is distinctly martial, the cheers and flight songs are starkly mechanical and peppered with words such as "crush" and "pound," as the team is exhorted to "Give 'em the axe." When the battle has ended, sportswriters dip into their own language of aggression to describe the event. In their parlance, a team is not defeated; it undergoes a "drubbing" or is "slaughtered." The winner has "powered over" the opposition. Fans are "frenzied" or, at the very least, "wild."

As with any war, parades herald the event. This is where the hometown team exhibits its power. The winning float in Pinckney High school's 1976 Homecoming Day competition featured a Pinckney Pirate at the wheel of a Prohibition-era black sedan while his partner poked a Tommy gun out the window and mowed down a member of the opposing team standing on a streetcorner. Theme for that year's parade was the Bicentennial.

All this, plus the extras—electing class queens, wearing the school colors on the day of the big game under the threat of ostracism for those who refuse, greeting friends with "Beat Milan" instead of "Hello"—is merely the buildup for the game itself. That's when the fans really revert to "savage." Bleachers bounce and buckle beneath the measured tread of stamping feet. "Hail to the Conquering Hero" swells the air bravely. At the kick-off, hundreds of throats join in a roar of blood lust. To the individual fan and the player on the field, it's unbelievably intoxicating. To the detached spectator on the sidelines, it's frightening, an echo of the days when Romans gathered in the circus to watch Christians being flung to the lions.

Shocking? Perhaps. But Homecoming fever can be a healthy safety valve, an outlet through which both adult and student can release the frustrations which have been building up for 12 months. Aggression in the form of lurid posters and lung-searing cheers is preferable to the real thing. Just as the Christmas holiday gives us an excuse to practice the goodwill we have no time for the rest of the year, Homecoming is a license to let go. Now that Dr. Spock and Vietnam have made us feel guilty about revealing our true feelings, we need that license more than ever.

third quarter with a strong offensive drive. The Bulldogs outdistanced Saline, gaining 45 yards compared to Saline's 22, but were unable to score.

In the fourth quarter, Chelsea opened up with two successive 25-yard pass plays from John Dunn to Brad Knickerbocker, getting its first touchdown of the game on the second passing effort. The Bulldogs kicked for an extra point, but the effort was not good.

Check Halloween Treats With Metal Detector

Washtenaw county will soon be invaded by goblins, witches and other apocryphal anticipating good Halloween fun and the treats that are given out each year on Oct. 31. But that's not the only factor which makes Halloween "scary," according to the county Sheriff's Department.

Problems facing county law enforcement officials, and parents alike, are the attempts to maim and injure children by placing harmful objects in treats.

To help safeguard children this year, the Crime Prevention Bureau of the county Sheriff's Department, working in conjunction with McDonald's, the Saline Police Department, Ann Arbor Police, Ypsilanti Police, and Van Buren Police, will offer a program that will help insure a safer night.

A team of deputies and officers will be located at participating McDonald's Restaurants in Washtenaw county from 6 p.m. until 11 p.m. on Halloween night, Oct. 31. These officers will have metal detectors set up to check treat bags for metal objects that may have been placed in treats.

These locations are 3811 Carpenter Rd., Ann Arbor, near Melter's; 2000 W. Stadium Blvd., Ann Arbor; 4775 Washtenaw Ave., Ypsilanti; 373 N. Zeeb Rd.; 7847 E.

Michigan, Saline; and 16 Ecorse Rd., Ypsilanti.

"The various law enforcement agencies will be geared up for immediate follow-up on any tainted candy that comes in," officer Richard J. Conner of the Sheriff's Crime Prevention Bureau said in commenting on the metal detection program.

He added that in 1975, the year before the program was initiated, 20 complaints of tainted candy were received by county officials. "Last year, we had only one," he noted, "and we're hoping for zero this year."

In addition to the metal detector program, the Sheriff's Department has listed nine safety tips which should make for a safer Halloween. They are keep the trick or treat period between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.; send an adult with children; remind children to cross at corners; dress children in light-colored clothing and give their escort a flashlight to carry; permit children only to walk and not ride around in a car or use bicycles; if driving is necessary, drive less than 15 miles per hour; have children carry identification; tell children to avoid taking candy from strangers on the street; and tell children not to eat any unwrapped candy or other treats until they have been thoroughly checked.

STOP. DETOUR

Unless you're crazy about the drive, there's no real reason to drive into Detroit looking for new car bargains. Rampy Chevrolet in Ann Arbor is a lot closer and you'll get the same low prices you find in Detroit—maybe even lower. At Rampy you'll also find the kind of careful, competent, come again service you expect from small town folks who know their neighbors.

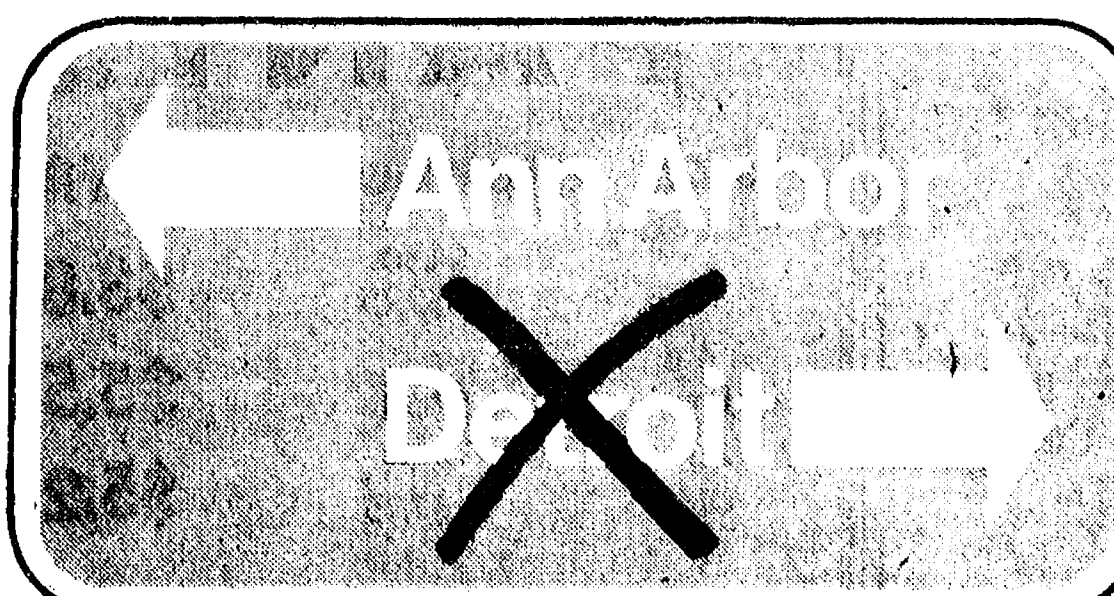

You see, Rampy's not just the biggest Chevrolet dealer in Washtenaw County, he's got the biggest dealership of any kind in the country. That means that he's governed by the same kind of high volume economics you've been driving all the way into Detroit to find.

On the other hand, Ann Arbor is a town where people do know each other. Word gets around. And the word is that Rampy gives good service after the sale. As a matter of fact, Rampy's service department has been used as a model for training other Chevrolet dealers.

Isn't it time you took a detour?
Before you drive all the way into Detroit looking for a new car... stop at Rampy.
We don't think you'll go any further.

Cager of the Week

SHELLEY WARREN (51), a center for the CHS girls varsity basketball squad, returned to the team for her third year this season. The 5'8" senior has been a consistent scoring talent for the Bulldogs, and as a result, was named Most Valuable Player on the team last year. She was also selected for an honorable mention on the all-league team. As a center, Warren says her primary responsibilities are "getting shots under the basket and rebounding." The latter demands the ability to jump for the ball. Warren's best game this season has been the Bulldogs' encounter with Saline two weeks ago. In that game, the cager scored 21 points to lead Chelsea's scoring drive. Warren noted that competition in the conference this season "has gotten tougher all around," compared to the last two years. "Strategy is important she explained, but even winning doesn't say which team is best." She cited Chelsea's game with Brighton as an example. "We lost to Brighton because they were really prepared for the game, whereas we were unable to work together as well as we had at other times in the season." When asked to speculate on the outcome of her team in the league this season, Warren replied: "I hope we come out on top. Chances for that look pretty good if we play up to our potential." Comparing the assets of the 1977 Bulldog squad to those in the past, Warren added "We have a lot of good individual talent this year, more than there has been in other years I've played." In addition to basketball, Warren runs track for Chelsea High. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clare Warren of 133 E. Summit St.

Correction...

The report of a house fire and burglary at 3620 Notten Rd. which appeared on page one of the Oct. 20 issue of The Standard, contained a misleading statement, according to Rebecca Smith, owner of the house. She said that although some money was left undisturbed by thieves, it was not "a large sum" as reported in the article.

Substitute Teachers Are Needed

Assistant Principal Nancy Schave reported to The Standard Tuesday, that for some reason, fewer than usual substitute teachers registered at Chelsea High school this fall.

Because of this, at times it has been difficult to obtain a qualified person to take over a classroom when the regular teacher is ill.

"In all likelihood, there are people in the community who are qualified and could occasionally use the extra money they would earn as a substitute teacher," Schave said.

Substitute teachers must hold a valid teaching certificate, or have 120 semester hours in a teacher education program, and must also have had a negative tuberculosis test within the last year.

They may specify days on which they wish to work, or limit themselves to a particular number of days per week.

Qualified applicants should contact Assistant Principal Schave at the high school.

Vote Slated on Fair Board Nominations

A regular meeting of the Fair Board was called to order Oct. 20 by President Lloyd Grau.

Present were Lloyd Grau, president; Earl Heller, manager; Kay Poljan, treasurer; Ruth Leach, fair secretary; Jerry Heydlauff, vice-president; and Frank Renton, Richard Poljan, John Klink, Reuben Lesser, Jr., Charles Koenn, Keith Bradbury, Harold Gross, Art Steinaway and Harold Trinkle, directors.

Also attending was John Wellnitz. Absent were Ed Keezer, Richard Haist, Jerry Herrick, Ralph McCalla, Joe Merkel, III, Charles Staphish and Frank Sweeney.

Following a discussion, the board resolved to have those who manned the gates at the 1977 Community Fair, work in the same capacity during the 1978 fair.

Other resolutions were made to accept contract work as finished and issue payments accordingly.

Nominations for Fair Board members were presented and will be voted upon at the Nov. 10 meeting of the board. Life members, or those who donated their fair notes to the fair, are entitled to vote in the election.

No new developments have surfaced with regard to the vandalism of fair property following a wedding reception in the Chelsea Fairgrounds Service Center on May 21.

UNICEF Funds Help Children Everywhere

On Halloween, Oct. 31, Chelsea will again join the rest of the United States in a special observance of United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF) Day.

Annually, countries throughout the world dedicate a holiday in support of the relief fund. In Norway, for example, it's Twelfth Night, while in Japan, the day is chosen at the turn of Spring.

This year, in Chelsea, children will canvass their neighborhoods for monetary donations to aid needy children world-wide during the Halloween week-end, Oct. 29-31.

Already, local schools and churches have joined in support of the children's efforts, putting up posters to remind people of the needs of UNICEF.

During the week of Oct. 10-14, a 10-minute film entitled "The Wonderful Machine" was shown to grade school children. Using puppets, the film explained how UNICEF funds help children.

The following week, Oct. 17-21, teachers distributed pamphlets to the children in their classrooms, which were specifically designed to be understood by those at grade school level. After reading the pamphlets describing the work of UNICEF, the children discussed the program with their teachers. Tomorrow, Oct. 28, each elementary student will bring home a letter explaining the UNICEF campaign, and asking families to give and collect donations. Collection boxes may be picked up at Chelsea State Bank on Saturday, Oct. 29, between 9 a.m. and 12 noon. Participating churches will also distribute collection boxes on Sunday, Oct. 30.

Donations are to be returned to Chelsea State Bank Tuesday, Nov. 1, during regular banking hours. The primary objective of UNICEF, which regards children as the world's most important resource, is to help children in the greatest need—the poorest children in the poorest areas of the poorest countries.

UNICEF's concern with a child's needs revolves around areas of health, nutrition, education and social service necessities.

Chairman of this year's local UNICEF campaign is Mrs. Joy Stacey.

LOOKING? KEEP A RECORD

Buying a home is a big investment and involves major decisions. So, it's understandable why so much time and care is taken when looking for a home that's right for you. No one knows this better than your local Realtor.

Once the Realtor takes on the assignment of finding you a home, he'll probably show you several. Therefore, it's important to take notes on what you have seen or you may forget which home is where, how big it is, what shape it's in, and how much it costs.

Your Realtor can provide you with a checklist to make this important task easier. This way, you can rate each home as you see it and instantly recall the location, price, construction, number of rooms, heat, fuel, taxes, and financial requirements. If you have a Polaroid picture of the house to go with the notes—so much the better when describing it to your other half.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please, phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea, Phone: 475-8881, evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

46 Talented Children Chosen For Special Projects Program

Principal Robert Benedict reports that the North School Projects Room for Academically Talented children has been the source of much activity in past weeks. Purpose of the project is to help talented youngsters develop their interest in four basic areas, science and math, creative arts, language arts, and humanities.

Police Men's Wives Plan Christmas Bazaar

The Ann Arbor Police Men's Wives Association is sponsoring its fourth annual Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 12. The event will be held at the Washtenaw Service Center, located at the corner of Washtenaw Ave. and Hogback Rd., and will take place from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. special pilot project during September. After reviewing characteristics with school personnel, nominations were taken from classroom teachers, special teachers, the principal and other staff members.

Parents also submitted names by requesting a nomination form through the school office.

On Oct. 7, Benedict, the Pilot Project Director, and Mrs. Charles Miller, the Special Projects Room Co-ordinator, met in committee to make final selections. Children had accumulated points on a checklist used for each nomination, that included Stanford Achievement Test scores and other pertinent data.

Children with a specific number of checks were then placed in the program.

Letters were sent to the parents of the 46 selected children, asking them to make an appointment with Mrs. Miller to discuss the program. Conferences with parents are continuing this week. "Parents appear to be enthusiastic and very positive, offering their services for many of the projects," Benedict said.

The program will begin operating during the first week of November. The children will attend the Special Projects Room twice a week, in small groups, for half-day sessions. The group will be formed on the basis of interest, rather than grades.

Final selection for groups will be done after parent and student interviews are complete.

A unique feature of the pilot project is the involvement of the classroom teachers in the building. Mrs. Miller will be the overall co-ordinator of the activities in the Special Projects Room, but the classroom teachers will go to the room as well, to give the children instruction and assistance in working on their projects. At that time, Mrs. Miller will take the place of the classroom teacher in her room.

In this way, North school teachers will be continually involved in the program by actually working with the various groups of children. Furthermore, the teacher will become better prepared to help the project and other students when they return to the general classroom.

GONG SHOW: Playing a little blue grass on the green grass, these members of the "Country Bumkins" band were just one of the acts to audition Tuesday for North Lake Co-op Nursery's "Gong Show" which will be presented to the public on Nov. 11-12, 8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., in Chelsea High school auditorium. Along with a guitar and banjo player, the group features a skilled washtub, washboard, and jug player for back-up.

FFA Chapter Welcomes 31 Greenhands

Future Farmers of America's Greenhand Invitational was held Oct. 17 with 31 members receiving the greenhand award. Greenhand is the first degree of the FFA.

Those honored included Don Burdett, Mark Dault, Betsy Ball, Mark Bauer, Karen Chappell, Peter Beaudoin, Brian Dault, Kim Gauthier, John Hellner, Neil Koch, Brian Koepke, Katie Lewis, and Randy Luick.

Also, Michelle Napier, Mike O'Quinn, Jeff Osestoski, David Parks, Troy Satterthwaite, Karl Schenk, Robert Schulze, Craig Sturgeon, Craig Thams, Terry Thompson, Todd Newhouse, Brian Vandegrift, Rick Wiesner, Ray Ziegler, Penny Bortles, John Berry, Ann Burgess and Randy Ellis.

Five FFA chapter members each recited a paragraph of the FFA Creed. They were Betsy Ball, Katie Lewis, Brian Koepke, and Jeff Osestoski.

A slide presentation, given by the FFA officers, followed. The slides showed some of the FFA's past recreational activities, last year's officers, last year's banquet, and the FFA float entered in the 1977 Chelsea Community Fair Parade.

The program ended with an election of junior officers. They are Brian Koepke, president; Robert Schulze, vice-president; Betsy Ball, secretary; Michelle Napier, treasurer; Ray Ziegler, reporter; and Terry Thompson, sentinel.

Name in Court Report Was Not Chelsea Man

In the second column of District Court Proceedings, which appeared on Page 14 of the Oct. 20 issue of The Standard, it was reported that John Carr pled guilty to charges of littering and minor in possession of beer. The defendant is a Manchester resident and not John Carr of 784 Main St., Chelsea.

Frosh Grid Team Battles To 6-6 Tie

Freshman Bulldog Bill Freeman ran 28 yards through a hugh opening created by teammates Mark Steinaway and Les Hafner in the fourth quarter of a game with Saline last week to score the tying touchdown and finally break Saline's defensive press, as Chelsea grid squad fought the Hornets to a 6-6 draw.

According to Coach Bill Bainton, the Bulldogs started fast in the game when Jeff Dils came up with a 30-yard return on Saline's opening kick-off.

However, Chelsea lost three yards on the next three plays, and was forced to punt. Saline took the punt and marched to the Bulldog 15, before being stopped. The Hornets then attempted a

Largest CHS Debate Team Begins Season

Although they entered two varsity units for the first time in nearly two decades, Chelsea High debaters came away from their debut in last Saturday's Dearborn Edsel Ford Invitational, with a somewhat hushed performance.

One varsity unit finished with a 3-5 record for the day, while the other was blanked, 0-5. A total of 37 varsity units from around the state participated in the verbal contest.

"The results of our opener show us that we have a lot of work to do this year," Coach William Coelius said. "However," he added, "our record should improve in our next debate because essentially we're a very strong team."

This year's national topic is "Resolved: that the federal government guarantee comprehensive medical care for all citizens of the United States."

Arguing the affirmative on Chelsea's leading varsity unit were Tammy Puglisi and Julie Prohaska, while negative proponents were Andy Anderson and Caroline Meyer. Affirmative members of Chelsea's second varsity unit were Jim Botsford and Tim Stubbs, while upholding the negative were Tom Severn and John Koepke.

According to Coach Coelius, one bright spot in Chelsea's slow tournament start, was the individual performance of Tammy Puglisi. She won a special award as the 8th best speaker in the tournament from a field of 148 competitors.

"That was our first individual award received in a tournament in the past two years," Coach Coelius noted.

Puglisi and Julie Prohaska returned this season for their third year on Chelsea's varsity debate squad. Although their side won two and lost two as part of the Chelsea unit that recorded a 3-5 finish Saturday, Coach Coelius explained that two of the teams Puglisi and Prohaska lost to placed first and second in the tournament.

This year, the two veteran debaters are part of the largest debate team to ever start a season at Chelsea High. Some 21 novices are participating and will enter their first tournament Saturday, Oct. 29. Chelsea is hosting the tournament which will begin at 8:30 a.m. and feature three other schools, Jackson County Western, Jackson Parkside and Ann Arbor Pioneer.

Following that opener, the local novices will compete Nov. 5 in the Ypsilanti Novice Tournament.

Junior High Harriers Place Well

On Saturday, Oct. 22, a delegation of 7th and 8th grade Chelsea runners traveled to the Manchester Invitational to compete in a one-mile cross country run. Of the 16 local runners to compete, eight returned home with medals.

Winners in the 8th grade division were Duane Robbins, 9th (5:35); Craig Wirtz, 11th (5:37); Nancy Hastings, 14th (5:44); and Bob Benedict, 15th (5:46).

Brent Martin, 3rd (5:50); Paul Frame, 8th (6:04); Tom Donkin, 9th (6:05); and Neil Quigg, 11th (6:10); were winners in the 7th grade division. Other placers at the event were Tom Vandervoort, 21st (6:04); Leon Durgan, 22nd (6:06); Kim Boyd, 18th (6:33); Russ Harris, 17th (6:35); Tracy Borton, 18th (6:36); Sandi Frame, 19th (6:42); Donna Popovich, (7:05); and Bill Brooks, (7:46).

Home Meal Service

Not Affiliated With Meals on Wheels

A beneficiary of the Chelsea Child Study Club's "Goodies Galore" fleamarket was incorrectly identified as Chelsea's Meals on Wheels program in a caption under a photo publicizing the fleamarket, which appeared on page one of the Oct. 20 issue of the Standard.

The name of the Chelsea agency scheduled to receive a share of the fleamarket proceeds is Chelsea Home Meal Service.

Meals on Wheels is the franchised name for an organization which operates a program similar to that of Chelsea Home Meal Service, but the two groups are not affiliated.

Gridders of the Week

ALAN AUGUSTINE (22), a fullback for the Bulldog varsity grid squad, moved up from the JV ranks to join the team for his first year this season. The 6'1", 190-lb. junior was named Most Valuable Offensive Back last year and is consequently a welcome asset to the 1977 varsity squad. He said his personal best game this year has been Chelsea's game with Saline last Friday. "I played well on both offense and defense," he explained. He added that the contest was probably the team's best to date "because it was a tough game and we won." Augustine said Chelsea went into the game knowing "Saline was good and that they had to win for the SEC title." According to the gridders, the results of that encounter "shows we can beat any team in the conference, that we're a good team, and that we just didn't put it together earlier in the season." He expects team morale to be high because of the win and predicts the Bulldogs will defeat both Jackson Northwest and Lincoln in their two remaining games. As an offensive lineman, Augustine said his responsibilities include "following blocks, and knowing the plays so you know where to go." He summed up his role as a defense man in the following words: "You have to sacrifice your body." Along with football, Augustine plays basketball and baseball for Chelsea High. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Augustine of 20331 Jerusalem Rd.

SCOTT PRICE (69) began the current varsity grid season as a center, but has since been assigned to play as a linebacker. A first-year member of the squad, the 6'0", 183-lb. junior describes his job as being able to "throw the right block and sustain it." Against Saline last Friday, Price delivered his best performance to date, chalking up a total of 11 tackles. "That game was also a chance for me to start," he added. Price agreed with Augustine that Chelsea's match with Saline was the Bulldogs' best of the season. "We went into the second half with a 15-point deficit, but managed to dominate that portion of the game and win," he explained. "Our defense came together, and our offense began to move the ball." The victory against Saline has reinforced Chelsea's desire to win, and as a result, Price believes the team will finish the season with a 4-5 record. The Bulldogs will achieve that record if they defeat both Lincoln and Jackson Northwest in their two remaining games. "Neither of those teams are a threat," Price said. "We should be able to take both of them." Helping the team secure the prospective victories will be "good team attitude," according to the gridders, who noted that attitude is Chelsea's most improved quality this season. In addition to football, Price is a member of Chelsea High's basketball team. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Price of 527 Wilkinson St.

JESSE COBURN (12), Bulldog quarterback, also began his first year with the varsity squad this season. As a quarterback, the 6'2", 180-lb. junior lists his responsibilities as "having to know what's going on at all times on the field, being able to execute plays and make good fakes, and having good timing and passing skills." During his JV year, Coburn was selected Most Valuable Defensive Back. Not only has he retained his former talent, but has added to it as witnessed by his two touchdown passes in Chelsea's game with Saline last Friday. Both helped lead Chelsea to victory. Coburn noted that "everyone played well in that game," and predicts Chelsea will re-enact that performance in both of the team's remaining games. "We should finish the season with a 4-5 record," he said, defending that statement with the observation that "Lincoln hasn't won a game and should therefore be easy to defeat." Coburn said he attempts to achieve an equal balance between passing and running as quarterback to "keep the other team off balance." He hopes to use this strategy, as well as the strength of the Bulldog defense against Jackson Northwest and Lincoln in the next two weeks. Coburn, who also plays basketball for Chelsea High, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Coburn of 11139 Boyce Rd.

Frosh Grid Team Battles Saline to 6-6 Tie

field goal, but the effort was blocked by Bulldog Chris Heaton. Scott Chapman caught the loose ball and returned it 15 yards.

At the 15, the Bulldogs still were unable to move and Saline came charging back. This time,

Steve Wilson, Bill Freeman and Mike Wade stopped a fourth-down run by Saline for no gain on the 17.

Again, Chelsea had no offense and Saline took over to roar down the field. The drive was stopped by Bulldog Mark Steinaway, who intercepted a pass. The half ended shortly thereafter with neither team reaching the goal line.

Saline struck on the opening kick-off of the second half, returning the ball 70 yards for a touchdown. "The Hornet carrier appeared trapped several times, and at least six Bulldogs had a chance at him, but he eluded them all," Coach Bainton said.

Chelsea came back with some new faces on offense and worked back up the field.

A 30-yard pass from Jon Reimenschneider to Sean Paterson took the ball inside Saline's 30. From there, Freeman carried for Chelsea's only touchdown. A conversion pass just missed the receiver to leave the score at 6-6.

The Hornets threatened two more times, but were held by Chelsea. Bulldogs Steve Wilson and Bill Freeman stacked up one drive on fourth down and one, but the final drive resulted in a missed field goal from 35 yards.

Girls Swim Team 6-2 For Season

The CHS varsity girls swimmers raised their season record to six wins and two losses this past week by losing first to Flint Swartz Creek, 95-76, and then defeating Southgate High school, 92-67. By splitting with the two Class "A" teams the girls have now won one more meet than they did in their entire season last year.

"If it were not for the illness and injury of two divers and one swimmer, Chelsea would have won both Class "A" meets," Coach Reed said. "Rather than quit in the face of those drawbacks, our team showed great character by racing harder and going faster than any Chelsea team ever has." Coach Reed added, "I was very proud of our team."

In the Swartz Creek meet, Chelsea broke the school medley relay record by 3.9 seconds. Members of the team, freshmen Michelle Alexander, Nancy Heller, Sara Borders and upperclassman captain Shelly Springer, were responsible for demolishing the old record set in last year's state meet.

Other school records were set by Springer in the 100-yard freestyle, and by Heller in the 100-yd. breaststroke.

Winning for Chelsea were Springer in the I.M. and Alexander in diving, while outstanding efforts were turned in by Shannon Springer in the 200 and 100 frees, both of which were personal lifetime bests. Annette Kuhl was singled out for swimming extremely well in the same two latter events.

Sue Cobb set a freshman record in the 200 free, as did Dawn McDowell in the 100 free.

Sara Borders set two freshman records in the 50 free and 100 butterfly, while Teresa Degner recorded her best times in three events. Other outstanding performances were turned in by Lisa Radke in the breaststroke, Shannon Culver in the breaststroke, and Jane Weisner and Kristi Fahrner in the 500 free.

Against Southgate, Chelsea won eight of 11 events, led by the Springers. Shelly won the 50 and 100 frees, and Shannon, the 200 I.M. The two also combined with Dawn McDowell and Sara Borders to win the 400 free relay.

Other winners for Chelsea in that meet were Lisa Radke, Sue Inglis, Teresa Degner and Donna Alexander in the medley relay; Michelle Alexander, diving; Sara Borders, the butterfly with another freshman record; and Nancy Heller in the breaststroke.

Chelsea has four meets left in the season, two of which will be home and two others away. The team's next meet will be at home against Detroit Northern, another Class "A" school.

On Nov. 3, Chelsea will be at home against top-rival Dundee. That evening, the team will be honoring all swimming mothers in attendance.

Chelsea has eight swimmers and divers nearing state qualifying times. They are led by all three divers, co-captain Cathy Volta, Michelle Clark and Michelle Alexander. In swimming, Shelly Springer is near qualifying times in the 50-, 100-, and 200 yd. freestyles, along with Shannon Springer, Shelly Springer, Dawn McDowell and Sara Borders in the free relay, and Nancy Heller in the breaststroke.

Area Students Receive EMU Leader Awards

Two Dexter area residents have received Eastern Michigan University Campus Leader awards for the 1977-78 academic year.

The recipients were Dale E. Heydlauff, son of Jerald and Shirley Heydlauff of 11340 Dexter-Chelsea Rd., and Cheryl D. Willoughby, daughter of Carl and Roberta Willoughby of 6242 Dexter-Ann Arbor Rd.

Campus Leader awards are given to undergraduates or new students who have a minimum 3.0 grade point average and are involved in significant high school or college leadership activities.

Dale, a Chelsea High school graduate, is majoring in political science at Eastern. Cheryl is a graduate of Dexter High school and is planning to major in physical education.
