Jaycee Blood Drive Scheduled Dec. 17

It's that time of year again when all Chelsea area residents, from ages 5 to 65, can participate in a worthwhile holiday project for fun, food, or profit. The project is the Chelsea Jaycees annual Blood Drive, scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 17, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Each year, the local Jaycees, in conjunction with the American Red Cross, undertake a blood drive at a time when blood donations are needed most—the holiday season. Statistics show that's when most traffic accidents occur. Friendly and able nurses, as well as other staff members from the Red Cross, will be on hand at the blood drive to carefully and competently take blood donations. Coffee, orange juice, and donuts will be available to all donors. Although donors are required to be at least 16 years of age, youngsters may participate in the project by entering the Blood Drive Poster Contest. Three winners will be selected to receive cash prizes. Entries in the poster contest should include the following information: (1) The name, "Jaycee Blood Drive," (2) the day, which is Saturday, (3) the date, Dec. 17, 1977, (4) the time, 8 a.m. to 3 p.m., (5) the location, to be given in next week's issue of The Standard. Along with revealing the location of the blood drive, next week's issue of The Standard will tell where to send poster contest entries.

Varsity Wrestling Team: With a minimum amount of time spent in preparation, and with one of the smallest squads in a number of years, these members of Chelsea High's varsity wrestling squad were nevertheless on the mats Tuesday for their season opener against Jackson Northwest. Although only about 30 individuals are competing for Chelsea this season, Coach Richard Bareis says "the quality of the wrestlers should more than compensate for the lack in number." Tri-captains of the squad are

Girls Swim Team Closes Record Year

Chelsea High's girls varsity swimming team closed out its second dual meet season last week with records for the most wins, least losses, and highest winning percentage of all league competitors. In last year's inaugural season, the team finished with a 5-4 record compared to this year's 10-2 dual meet record. According to Coach Larry Reed, new school records have been set or tied in all but one event. Setting varsity records this year were Michelle Alexander in the medley relay; Nancy Heller, 100-yd. breaststroke and medley relay; Sara Borders, 100-yd. butterfly and medley relay; Shelly Springer, 200-yd. freestyle, 100-yd. freestyle, 100-yard backstroke and medley relay; Cathy Voita, diving; and Sue Cobb, 300-yd. freestyle. Freshman records were set in every event. The record holders are Heller, Borders, Dawn McDowell and Alexander in the medley relay; Cobb, 200-yd. freestyle, 200-yd. individual medley, and 50-yd. freestyle; Borders in the 50-yd. freestyle and 100-yd. butterfly; McDowell in the 100-yd. freestyle and 100-yd. backstroke;

Alexander in the 100-yd. breaststroke; Alexander in the 100-yd. freestyle relay composed of Patti Schumann, Annette Kuhl, McDowell and Borders. Another high point of the season was Chelsea's 42-41 triumph over a very strong Dundee team in the Vikings' pool. Of that win, Coach Reed said, "We swam average and they swam great, but we were very lucky, we have worked hard, and we deserved some breaks." The Bulldogs also qualified two more swimmers for the state meet. The two are Shelly Springer in the 50-yd. freestyle, and Michelle Alexander in diving. Chelsea's last competition before the state meet was its own Invitational, Tuesday, Nov. 22. Recreational Swimming Halted Thursday, Friday Chelsea pool director, Larry Reed, has announced the cancellation of recreational swimming Thursday and Friday, Nov. 24-25, because of the Thanksgiving Day holiday. New Basketball Coach Promises Hustling Team

If Robin Raymond, Chelsea High's new head varsity coach, delivers on his promise, "an exciting brand of basketball" is what's in store for local high school basketball fans this season. Raymond further credits his squad with "good potential" and "good size" this season. Chelsea will be represented by 6'6" sophomore Don Schrottenboer, 6'4" Dave Schrottenboer, and Jerry Benjamin, Jesse Coburn and Mike Machesky, all at 6'3", to name only a few of the players with good size up front. Furthermore, of Chelsea's four returning lettermen, Benjamin, Schrottenboer, Randy Harris and Mark Feeny, two, Benjamin and Schrottenboer, were starters last season. Raymond is noticeably different from his predecessors in that team captains will vary from week to week. "I don't believe in captains for the season, but in changing them every week," he declared. "The 'cager of the week' will captain the team the following week." Another new plan forwarded by Raymond is to continue running Chelsea High's basketball program year around with "a conditioning and weight program in the off-season."

In addition to joining the basketball coaching staff this season, Raymond is also in his first year as a teaching staff member. (Continued on page six)

Open Forum Slated With School Board

Another Open Forum meeting for residents of the Chelsea School District has been scheduled by the Chelsea Board of Education for Monday, Nov. 23, 8 p.m., in the Chelsea High school board room. Open Forum meetings are conducted the fourth Monday of every month. The meetings are designed to give area residents an opportunity to ask the school board questions regarding school issues or to voice their concerns, and to improve communications between the board and the school district. Board members and school administrators will be in attendance at the upcoming meeting.

Athletic Boosters Club Elects

Members of the Chelsea Athletic Boosters Club elected new officers at their Oct. 25 meeting. They are Roger Schrottenboer, president; Chuck Young, vice president; Gail Bauer, treasurer; and Marge Wilson, secretary. A discussion followed on areas in which the Boosters Club could be helpful with local athletic programs. However, most present at the meeting agreed that more input was needed from parents and others interested in sports. All parents of athletes in Chelsea schools are members of the Boosters Club and are urged to attend meetings of the group, held the fourth Monday of every month in the high school cafeteria. The group believes a small handful of interested people cannot make a program or project work without additional suggestions and help from others. The next project planned by the Boosters is a breakfast, dinner, and concession stand for the Dec. 17 wrestling tournament. Those interested in helping should attend the next meeting, Nov. 28, 8 p.m., or call Marge Wilson at 475-9630. Much planning and work is needed for the project to succeed. Before adjourning the October meeting, both the outgoing and incoming Boosters Club officers thanked all those who helped with athletics in the past. Specifically local businesses were thanked for their support and contributions during the recent football season.

Hockey Team Wins Over Hanover-Horton

Showing they are a team to be reckoned with this season, the Chelsea Bulldog iceers took a 6-2 decision from a previously undefeated Hanover-Horton team Sunday in a thrilling contest played at the Jackson Ice Arena. Chelsea's Mark Stevenson opened the scoring when he swept up a pass from Dave Dawson and put the puck into the net from just inside the Hanover blue line. However, Hanover tied the score in the first period when Ken Rhiner picked up a rebound and knocked it into the net. Coming back in the second period, Hanover moved ahead of Chelsea at 3:14 of the period when Greg Adams put another rebound into the net. At the time, Chelsea appeared to have problems clearing the puck from in front of their own goal, according to team manager, Richard Glasson. Refusing to give up, Chelsea kept coming at Hanover. At 8:07 of the same period, Steve Check sent a bouncing puck towards the net. Hanover's goalies misplayed the puck causing it to roll into the net and again tie the score. Chelsea then moved into the lead for good at 9:33 of the period when Mark Stevenson took the puck into the Hanover zone. He saw Joe Marentette coming up on his wing, passed the puck to Marentette, who in turn shot it in for the goal. Chelsea dominated the third period, scoring three times while Hanover remained scoreless. The first goal was made by Steve Check, assisted by Joe Marentette and Mark Stevenson, at 1:35 of the period. At 12:20 of the period, Marentette sent a low shot into the net with Steve Check and Mark Stevenson assisting on the goal. Third to score was Brian Burg, who took a shot that beat Hanover's goalie at 14:40 of the period. Dave Dawson earned an assist on the point when he took the puck deep into the Hanover zone, carried it behind the net, and then passed out to Burg, who scored. "We played like a team in this contest, and it really paid off," Glasson said following the game. "It was a fine performance by all members of the squad." Next week, Chelsea will play Lenawee, beginning at 4:30 p.m. in the Jackson Ice Arena. Spectators are encouraged to attend the showdown where they will be entertained by some good hockey. Chelsea's cheerleaders, and the high school band.

Although Raymond is not new to basketball or to coaching the sport, it would be reasonable to assume he would be concerned with producing a winning season in his first year as Chelsea's top basketball coaching figure. However, the 28-year-old tall, dark, fit-looking newcomer doesn't seem too preoccupied with that all too often overstressed objective. "If we play the game the way we're supposed to play it, the way I teach it, winning will take care of itself," Raymond said. "What we're shooting for is the state tournament," the coach continued. "That's when we hope to be prepared for good competition." In the meantime, a more immediate objective cited by Raymond is to "average 70-80 shots per game." Raymond pointed out how this strategy led to an 81-48 triumph by Chelsea's senior cagers over the underclassmen in a pre-season scrimmage last Thursday. "We took 84 shots at the basket, and made 64 of them," he said. Chelsea's first real test will come Saturday, when the varsity squad travels to Jackson Northwest for their season opener, and will be followed by an equally demanding encounter Tuesday, Nov. 29, when the Bulldogs host Stockbridge in their first home game. Although Raymond predicts tough competition this season, neither game is particularly threatening to the coach, who

Junior Choirs To Participate In Festival

A combined junior choir under the direction of Mary Olney will sing during the Community Festival of Lessons and Carols, Dec. 11, 4:30 p.m., at St. Paul United Church of Christ on Old US-12. Selections to be performed by the choir include "Stars Are for Those Who Lift Their Eyes," by Pauline Delmonte, and "When Jesus Was A Tiny Babe," by James Traver. Pianist for the group is Margaret Wiedmayer, and cellist is Pat Stirling. A combined rehearsal will be conducted Dec. 10, 10 a.m., at St. Paul's church, and will be the only combined rehearsal held prior to the festival. Young people from First United Methodist church, St. Paul's, and Zion Lutheran church have already indicated their intention to participate in the choir. Any other groups or other individuals in the community also interested in joining the group are asked to call Mary Olney at 475-2545.

League Champions: Coming up with a first-place 7-1 record in the Chelsea Invitational Tournament last Saturday were these members of Chelsea High's varsity debate unit. Teams from eight area high schools competed in the event, but Chelsea dominated both the individual award and team trophy categories. First row, from left, are Tammy

Continuing its 20-year tradition, Chelsea Social Services will again distribute Christmas boxes to needy households in the area this season. However, donations from the community are needed to make the holiday project a success. According to Linda Ormsby, director of Chelsea Social Services, the agency is appealing to the community for money and food donations for underprivileged families in the Chelsea School District. The donations will also be used to assist those facing a financial crisis due to a lay-off or serious illness. Individuals or groups wishing to contribute in some way to the Chelsea Social Services Christmas appeal are directed to call Ruth Leach at 475-7405 after 5 p.m. In conjunction with the appeal for donations, persons knowing local families in a financial crisis, or anyone in the Chelsea School District facing a financial crisis, are asked to contact Mrs. Ormsby to arrange for holiday assistance. Social Service Seeks Help With Christmas Boxes

Chelsea High's girls varsity basketball team finished its 1977 season with a 35-43 loss to league champion Novi Friday. "Chelsea lost the game primarily because of a very poor first quarter where the Bulldogs were outscored 2-17," Coach Cheryl Vogel reported. In the next three quarters, Chelsea outscored Novi but was unable to overcome the large point deficit. Leading scorer for Chelsea was Nanette Push with 12 points, followed by Penny Collinsworth with 8, Tracy Hawker with 7, Lori Miles with 4, Sheryl Kiel with 2, and Michelle Sarbach, also with 2. High rebounder was Nanette Push. The game gave Chelsea a 13-5 over-all season record and 9-5 in the league, for a third-place league finish.

Girls Varsity Cagers Start Tourney Nov. 28

District tournaments will be played at Jackson Northwest the week of Nov. 28. Chelsea drew Parma Western for its first game to be played Monday, Nov. 28 at 6:30 p.m. If the Bulldogs win, they will meet Tecumseh at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 1, also at Jackson Northwest. Competing in the district tournaments along with Chelsea are teams from Saline, Milan, Lumber Christy, Tecumseh, Jackson Northwest and Parma Western.

Debaters Earn Top Awards in Eight-Team League Tournament

Chelsea High debaters hosted a league tournament here Saturday, and finished the day-long event with top honors in both the varsity and novice divisions. Chelsea's junior varsity took a third-place win in the event. In addition to Chelsea, teams from seven other schools competed in the tournament. We dominated all other teams Saturday, collecting speaker awards and three trophies," Coach William Glasson reported. "I was very proud of all of our units." Chelsea's varsity unit came up with a nearly perfect 7-1 record with 287 total speaker points to be in front of Saline, which finished in 2nd place with a 7-1 record but three less total speaker points; Ann Arbor Greenhills, 3rd place, with a 3-5 record; Brighton, 4th place, also with a 3-5 record but fewer total speaker points; and Novi, 5th place, with a 0-8 record. Arguing the national debate topic for Chelsea's varsity unit were Julie Prohaska and Tammy Puglisi on affirmative, and Andy Anderson and Carolyn Meyer on negative. In the junior varsity division, a three-way tie for first place was again broken by each team's accumulation of total speaker points, as first place Jackson Parkside, 2nd-place Columbia Central, and 3rd-place Chelsea, all had 5-3 records for the day. Novi followed in 4th place with a 3-5 record, and Brighton came in fifth with a 2-6 record. Members of Chelsea's JV unit were Mike Waldyke and Tim Stubbs on affirmative, and John Koepele and Tom Severn on negative. Chelsea and Jackson Parkside matched records in the novice division, each completing the tournament with 3-1 for the day, but Chelsea moved into first place this time with more total speaker points. Novi was the 3rd place finisher with a 0-4 record. Chelsea's novice unit consisted of Mark Snyder and Drew Sprague on affirmative and Janet Walz and Ruth Rawson on negative. (Continued on page six)

Subdivision Plans Given Dexter Township Board

Discussion of a lawsuit involving the Inverness Inn, and the presentation of plans for the development of a subdivision topped the agenda of the Nov. 15 meeting of the Dexter Township Board. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by Supervisor John Tandy. Present were Tandy, John Miller, Arlene Howe and William Eisenbeiser. Minutes of the Nov. 1 meeting of the board was accepted as read. Supervisor Tandy reported on meeting with Thomas Ehnman, George Carnigan and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Hall regarding the Inverness Inn lawsuit. No resolution was achieved at the meeting. William Rademacher, who is representing the Halls, will at

Thursday, Nov. 29, 1973— Cassidy Lake Technical School's auto mechanics courses were the recipient of $209.37 in automobile assembly equipment, donated by the Ford Motor Co. through Palmer Motor Sales. Some 45 students are enrolled in the course. Presently a decision of the Village Council from last Tuesday's meeting that Christmas lights would be turned on Dec. 1 still stands, but Fritz Weber, village administrator, warns that the directive may be nullified Saturday when he meets with council members in the aftermath of more recent energy-related developments.

The 15-member executive board of Local 437 of the United Auto Workers has voted unanimously in favor of approval of the building election scheduled for the Chelsea School District on Dec. 17, according to Local president Harold Salyer.

14 Years Ago...

Thursday, Nov. 28, 1963— Word flashing over the radio and television Friday that President John F. Kennedy had been felled by an assassin's bullets as he rode through the streets of Dallas, Tex., was a shock the like of which has not been experienced by the United States for many years; in fact, many compared it to the shock and grief caused by the assassination of Abraham Lincoln almost 100 years ago. A Chelsea man, Byron Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pearson, was recognized by friends and relatives here in television views of the U.S. Marine Band marching in the cottage Monday for the funeral of President John F. Kennedy. Pearson, who plays trumpet, was in the front row.

24 Years Ago...

Thursday, Nov. 26, 1953— Marjorie Bradbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradbury, and David Wolfgang, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wolfgang, will be part of a group of 11 4-H boys and girls who will receive a four-day trip to the International Livestock Show in Chicago, Nov. 27-30. Several committees have been at work rounding out plans for the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of Chelsea's First United Methodist church. Dr. Otto Hall will speak at the 10 a.m. Centennial service, Dec. 8. Chelsea has a new restaurant and cafeteria with the opening this week of Powell's Restaurant at 105 N. Main St. Clifton and Alma Powell, a Mr. and Mrs. team, will actively participate in the restaurant, as well as in the catering business they established a year ago. Santa Claus will arrive in Chelsea, in person, at 1:30 Saturday afternoon, according to information from the Chamber of Commerce. He is coming in by plane, and will land in the vicinity of the athletic field.

34 Years Ago... Thursday, Nov. 25, 1943— In an effort to discourage absenteeism and to encourage promptness, a 100 Percent Club was formed last spring by Dexter Machine Products, Inc., at their factory here, and the first trial period has been completed. Four employees with perfect records are Frank Bishop, Hollis White, William Quigley and Millard Harvey. Arrangements have been completed with the federal government by the State Corrections Commission to take over the Cassidy Lake NYA school as an "inmate camp" to train "first timers" in prison, for jobs in industry. Ethel Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hale, will don the uniform of the Marine Corps when her boot training begins at Camp LeJeune, N.C., around Dec. 1. She was sworn into the service in Los Angeles, Calif., where she has been vacationing for the past two months. Mrs. Mary Clark, wife of the Commanding General of the United States Fifth Army in Italy, will speak at Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, Saturday evening, Nov. 27. She will also show pictures which were acquired by General Clark in Italy.

MICHIGAN MIRROR By Warren M. Hoyt, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Emergency Powers Proposed Governor William G. Milliken declared the state should deal from chemical contamination incidents through special emergency powers given the Department of Natural Resources and by the creation of an emergency fund. The Milliken administration is still smarting from the handling or mishandling of the PBB contamination crisis of over five years ago when the fire-retardant was accidentally mixed with dairy cattle feed. Reverberations from the PBB crisis are continuing to surface and it will be an issue not likely to go unexploited by Democratic gubernatorial hopefuls with a general election exactly one year away. The proposed emergency powers, drawn up by the Natural Resources Commission, would authorize the department to establish liens on property and take extraordinary action to protect public health and environmental safety. A new fund, to be included in the executive budget recommendation for fiscal year 1978-79, would be used by state agencies when regular appropriations are inadequate to deal with the situations. DNR officials say necessary quick action in response to legitimate emergency situations has been hindered in some instances because agencies could not spend funds without a specific appropriation. The Milliken proposal faces an uphill battle as the Legislature itself is working on creating a toxic substance control commission, to have similar powers to operate under certain emergency situations. The commission would be comprised of experts mostly outside government which could declare a state of emergency upon legislative and gubernatorial approval. PBB Litigation Meanwhile, the state Supreme Court, in an effort to expedite pending PBB cases, ordered the transfer of all pending related cases to a single, specially-designated judicial officer or court. The order followed a petition by the Michigan Chemical Company and Farm Bureau Services, maker and distributor, respectively of the toxic chemical. The petition asked for superintending control to afford the opportunity to all PBB litigants to have their cases heard and finally concluded by the arbitration process without delay and cost attendant upon a formal adjudication process. The state's highest court also suggested the establishment of a special arbitration panel composed of a hearing officer and four other members to be drawn from scientific or specialized fields germane to the issues involved in the cases and establish rules applicable to cases heard by the panel. A panel hearing has been set for Dec. 8 in the Supreme Court hearing room in Lansing to allow all persons, agencies or organizations who can identify an interest in the outcome of PBB cases to be heard. All pending cases are included in the Supreme Court ruling except the Tacoma proceedings currently on trial in Cadillac.

Trash Continues To Build-Up An impasse continues on providing janitorial services to state office buildings with the Legislature and the State Civil Service Commission disagreeing on whether the janitors should be contractual or full-time state employees covered by civil service. Most state office buildings have been without any janitorial services since the beginning of the new fiscal year—Oct. 1. Legislative money panels have rejected a civil service commission request to transfer funds for civil service salaries to hire former contractual janitors to clean the buildings. Meanwhile, Department of Management and Budget officials have been asked to assign Capitol groundskeepers to janitorial duties temporarily until the dispute is settled. Sen. David Holmes (D-Detroit), who denounces the shift to civil

SAFE House Slated For Battered Women

Governor Milliken was on hand Monday, Nov. 14 for an open house at S.A.F.E. House, the shelter for battered women that is scheduled to open Jan. 2. Mrs. Margaret Kuebler, chair of the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners welcomed the Governor while John Hayes, director of Catholic Social Services and chair of the Domestic Violence Project Board of Directors, explained the reason and the need for a shelter for battered women within Washtenaw county. S.A.F.E. House, which stands for "Shelter Available for Emergencies" will be operated by the Domestic Violence Project, Inc., a non-profit corporation dedicated to helping victims of violent crimes. Working in conjunction with existing agencies, the Domestic Violence Project also announced a drive to collect contributions and household items to furnish S.A.F.E. House. The drive will take place during the months of November and December with the goal of raising $40,000 toward the annual budget of $83,000. To date, grants and contributions have been received from the Ann Arbor Area Foundation, the Ervin Foundation, and the National Organization for Women. Joseph Hooper, president of the Ervin Foundation, Joseph Edwards, president of the Ann Arbor Area Foundation, and Mary Pence, president of the National Organization for Women (N.O.W.) were present to present checks to Bonnie Carlson, vice-president of the project. With the donations received, more than $5,000 will have been received. The open house served as a special event to kick-off the two-month fund-raising drive which will include informal teas, get-togethers, rummage sales, and an A & P Donation Day of Dec. 6. Anyone wishing further information should call 995-5460. The public is invited to support the shelter through donations of household items and contributions.

Federal Grant Approved To Acquire County Park Land The Interior Department's Bureau of Outdoor Recreation has approved a $263,380 Land and Water Conservation Fund grant to aid Washtenaw county in acquiring 158 acres of land for a new county park. The Land and Water Conservation Fund (L&WCF) grant will be matched with county funds for a total investment of $526,760. The new park, to be known as Rolling Hills County Park, is to be located in eastern Washtenaw county north of Bemis Rd. and west of Stoney Creek Rd. The new public recreation facility will be used for field games, tobogganing, hiking, tennis, picnicking, cross-country skiing, fishing, children's play, and ice skating. These activities reflect the interests of county residents and satisfy specific recreation requests of eastern Washtenaw county residents as indicated in a 1974 survey conducted by the University of Michigan's Institute of Social Research. John D. Cherry, regional director of the Interior Department's Bureau of Outdoor Recreation which administers the L&WCF program, commended Washtenaw county for "moving decisively to help meet the outdoor recreation needs of the county's residents. Rolling Hills County Park fulfills the commitment expressed in the Washtenaw County Park and Recreation Commission's 10-year plan to acquire a park site in southeastern Washtenaw county." At the state level in Michigan, the L&WCF program is administered by the Department of Natural Resources.

Federal Grant Approved To Acquire County Park Land

The Interior Department's Bureau of Outdoor Recreation has approved a $263,380 Land and Water Conservation Fund grant to aid Washtenaw county in acquiring 158 acres of land for a new county park. The Land and Water Conservation Fund (L&WCF) grant will be matched with county funds for a total investment of $526,760. The new park, to be known as Rolling Hills County Park, is to be located in eastern Washtenaw county north of Bemis Rd. and west of Stoney Creek Rd. The new public recreation facility will be used for field games, tobogganing, hiking, tennis, picnicking, cross-country skiing, fishing, children's play, and ice skating. Episcopal Church Women Prepare for Christmas Bazaar

Last Thursday evening, the Episcopal Church Women met at St. Barnabas church to complete plans for their bazaar and luncheon to be held Dec. 3 at the church, located on Old US-12, across from the Chelsea fairgrounds.

The women finished making posters for the event, wrapping bird fillers to be sold at the bazaar, organizing the luncheon, and working on various other bazaar projects.

VFW Hosts VA Hospital Party

On Nov. 18, the Chelsea VFW Post 4078 and Ladies Auxiliary hosted a hospital party at the Ann Arbor Veterans Hospital at 7 p.m.

Some 60 patients and three staff members, attended the party. For entertainment the patients played bingo and were given "Canteen" Coupon Books for prizes. After bingo a lunch was served by the Ladies Auxiliary.

Those who attended this hospital party from the Post were commander Kermit Sharp, hospital chairman Byron Smith, Ken Piatt, Dick Clark and Mac Packard. From the Auxiliary, president Bessie Sharp, hospital chairman Betty Smith, Lucy Piatt, Betty Clark and Eulahlee Packard. Gertrude O'Dell could not be present but furnished some of the refreshments.

Also present were Bob Berger, deputy representative; Ruth Otto, VAVS representative, and Edna Lutz, deputy representative, all representing the VFW Post and Auxiliary at the Ann Arbor VA Hospital.

GI home loan eligibility can now be used an unlimited number of times provided the veteran applicant has no outstanding VA-guaranteed loan.

HOFFMEYER-RICHARDSON: Mr. and Mrs. James Hoffmeyer, of 146 Orchard St., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Holly Jean, to Richard Joseph Richardson, son of Mrs. John Horton of Ann Arbor, and Harry Richardson of Pinckney. The bride-elect is a senior at Chelsea High school. Her fiancé is employed by Maude's of Ann Arbor, and will be attending Washtenaw Community College in January. A wedding date has not yet been set.

JC Auxiliary Plans Holiday Time Projects

Director Carol Smith, of 18880 Old US-12, hosted the Nov. 15 meeting of the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary. Attending as a guest was Sue Williams, wife of new Jaycee member John Williams.

In a candlelight ceremony, Denise Martell was installed into the Auxiliary. She received a single long-stemmed yellow rose, the traditional welcome to the organization.

In reviewing old business, Sandy Meyer reported that the entire Auxiliary had an enjoyable time at the recent "Kidnap Breakfast." It was hinted that another may occur in the future.

Members were reminded of the Fall State Convention, held Nov. 18-20 in Kalamazoo, and proposed by-law provisions were reviewed for delegates and other attending members.

Anne Steinaway announced Dec. 20 as the date for the annual Auxiliary Family Christmas Party. Invitations are forthcoming. Sandy Meyer then discussed the possibility of selling the "Hear-See-Do" safety record album at the South School Book Fair, held Nov. 18-19.

Jiffy, Box Top chairman, Pam Lewis, reported there would be an effort to run collection contests in Chelsea schools.

Under new business, Ann Steinaway volunteered to chair the meal for the Jaycee Blood Drive, to be held Dec. 17.

Because of the success of the project last year, "Lunch With Santa" will again be conducted this year. Details are to be worked out in committee.

Louise Ponte announced the menu for the Dec. 5 Joint Dinner Meeting, and requested help in preparations. An invitation to the Dexter Christmas Auction was extended to the Auxiliary from its Dexter counterpart.

President Barb Baker stated that chairmen were still needed for two important projects, Fluoride and the Babysitting Clinic. Also, a new speak-up chairman is needed.

A special presentation in conjunction with the newly accepted "Pet Food Drive" project was given by Kathy Flood, director of the Washtenaw Animal Shelter. Slides were shown of the various activities and responsibilities of the Humane Society. The Auxiliary was made aware of the acute need for animal foods. Chairman Sue Zink plans to launch the project around Christmas-time.

Accepting the monthly "Boobie Award" was Louise Ponte. She seemed to think she was undeserving. Upon adjournment of the meeting, refreshments made by Julie Messing were served.

"What's cooking?" in Michigan

My wife has this thing about nuts. I'm not talking about the one she married but the ones she puts into a marvelous Fruit Nut Stuffing for our Thanksgiving turkey. After a lot of persuasion, she gave me her traditional recipe to pass along to you.

Cook and slice one-half pound of pitted prunes. Reserve one cup of the cooking juices and soak wheat snack wafers in the juice.

Saute two diced onions, two diced green peppers, one cup diced celery, one-half cup finely chopped parsley and a half dozen sliced mushrooms in three tablespoons of Michigan Grade A butter.

When these ingredients have softened, stir in one-half cup chopped walnuts and a pinch of thyme or savory, one teaspoon pepper and two and a half teaspoons salt.

Add the cut up prunes and soaked wafers and store in the refrigerator overnight before stuffing the turkey. The recipe makes enough for a six to eight pound bird.

As you prepare for this year's Thanksgiving feast, remember a few of the safety tips from food technologists with the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Don't stuff your bird the night before. Also, after you've finished dinner, remove the stuffing immediately and refrigerate. It's very easy for food poisoning organisms to grow at room temperature, and you'll agree that's not the way to end a Thanksgiving holiday.

The infant death rate in the U.S. is higher than in 16 other nations, reports The National Foundation-March of Dimes. Health officials feel the rate could be reduced by one-third if every woman were to receive high-quality medical care early and throughout pregnancy and during labor and delivery.

Between the producer and the dinner table, agriculture requires the services of 8 to 10 million persons to store, transport, process and merchandise the output.

Daryl Scholz, Alfred Hurschman Married in Candlelight Ceremony

Daryl Lynn Scholz and Alfred Erich Hurschman were married Saturday, Nov. 12, in a candlelight ceremony at Weller's Carriage House, Saline. Dr. Kendall Cowing officiated at the service which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Scholz of Chelsea, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Hurschman of Hudson, O.

A string quartet, assembled by Ruth Hoffman, performed both before and after the wedding ceremony for the benefit of some 150 guests attending from both Canada and the United States.

The bride appeared in a creamy white gown fashioned by Mrs. Alfred Hurschman of Cleveland, O., grandmother of the bridegroom. The gown featured an empire waistline, and an antique lace insert which had been made by the bridegroom's great-grandmother. She carried a bouquet of white and yellow roses, stephanotis, baby's breath, and trailing green ivy. A sprig of baby's breath and stephanotis was worn in her hair.

Matron of honor was Laura Clark, of London, Ont., Canada, cousin of the bride. She was dressed in a light blue, classic-styled gown, and carried a bouquet of orange mums, deep pink carnations, and white and purple statos.

Be Young, of Hudson, O., served as best man. Ushers were Clifford Scholz, of Chelsea, brother of the bride, and Michael Clark, of London, Ont., Canada, cousin-in-law of the bride. Their attire had also been fashioned by the bridegroom's grandmother.

Attending as flower girl was Alison Muir, of Montreal, Quebec, Canada, cousin of the bride. Her tiny blue print gown featured a white yoke, and had been made by her mother, Mrs. W. B. Muir, of Montreal, Quebec, Canada, aunt of the bride. She carried a miniature version of the matron of honor's bouquet, with baby's breath added to it.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Scholz chose a simple, but elegant deep coral gown. Mrs. Hurschman, mother of the bridegroom, appeared in a navy gown with white accents. Both also wore single white orchids.

A dinner reception was held immediately following the wedding. The three-tiered English wedding cake, made of fruit and decorated in traditional style had been specially prepared for the occasion by Ian Titterton, a friend of the newlyweds.

Photographer for both the wedding and reception was David Koether, also a friend of the newlyweds.

Following a short wedding trip, the new Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Hurschman will reside in Ann Arbor.

Rebekahs Plan Family Christmas Pot-Luck Supper

Chelsea's Rebekah Lodge met Nov. 15 for a regular business session and to finalize plans for a Family Christmas Pot-luck Supper to precede the group's Dec. 6 meeting. Some 16 members attended the Nov. 15 meeting in the Rebekah Hall.

Each member was asked to bring or send in cans of commercial food to the Dec. 6 gathering. The food will then be given to Chelsea Social Services for the agency's Christmas project to benefit the needy.

Mrs. Olla Voelm and Mrs. Evie Hale reported taking two large bags of used bread wrappers to the IOOF and Rebekah Home in Jackson. The wrappers are used in the Home's Therapy Room for rug weaving projects.

Mrs. Jo Hochrein, Marian Pickell and Noble Grand Helen Harris then gave an account of the recent Rebekah cleaning bee.

Nominations for new officers were held at each November meeting of the Rebekah Lodge. Elections will follow at the group's next meeting.

Members of the November Committee were Mrs. Olla Voelm, Elsie Hinz, Veima Wolfe and Nina Lehman.

The Dec. 6 pot-luck supper will begin at 6 p.m. Meat, beverages and dinner rolls will be furnished.

Cager of the Week

SHERYL KIEL (14), a newcomer to the varsity girls basketball squad this season, has been playing basketball for Chelsea schools since 7th grade. The 5'11" junior center, who began her career as a forward, said her new responsibilities this year were "rebounding mainly and putting the ball back up." According to Kiel, her best game this season was Chelsea's second encounter with Saline. "In the game, I scored my most points (20) and did well in rebounding," she explained. In team performance, she named Chelsea's second game with arch-rival Dexter as the Bulldogs' best this season. "The first time we played Dexter we had to go into overtime to win," she said. "But in the second game, we beat them by something like 20 or 25 points, and really worked together as a team." Although the varsity cagers finished their season with a 13-5 over-all record and a 9-5 conference record last Friday, district tournaments will begin next week featuring many of the teams which Kiel said gave the Bulldogs "tough competition" this year. She defended her analysis of the competition with the following words: "The fact that several teams were fighting it out at the top of the league at the end of the season, shows how good competition really was." Kiel noted that the strongest asset to the Bulldog squad this year was a "good defense" and "some good guards who helped run plays." She also said the team had a lot of individual talent, and experience in that at least two or three players had been starters on the varsity team for the past two years. Kiel, who has limited her sporting life to basketball at Chelsea High, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kiel of 21520 Waterloo Rd.

OUTSTANDING ALUMNUS: Dr. Russ Ogden, left, professor of administrative services and business education at Eastern Michigan University, presents an Outstanding Alumnus Award to Lynwood Noah, senior prosecuting attorney for Washtenaw county, at EMU's recent first College of Business Homecoming Dinner and Dance. Noah, a 1961 graduate of Eastern, is a Chelsea resident who was one of eight alumni to receive awards at the banquet, which was sponsored by the Zeta Kappa chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, a national professional business fraternity.

Chelsea Student Appearing In Evangel College Plays

A Chelsea student was in the cast of "Robert and Elizabeth," a musical produced by Evangel College, Springfield, Mo., and presented publicly Nov. 10-12 in the college chapel.

Playing the part of Evans in the production was Stephen Hovater, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hovater, of 13427 Harper Dr. Hovater is a 1977 graduate of Chelsea High school, and a freshman at Evangel. He is majoring in business management and communications.

"Robert and Elizabeth" is a play based on "The Barretts of Wimpole Street." It tells of the romance of Elizabeth Barrett (1806-1861), who in her lifetime was regarded as England's greatest woman poet, and Robert Browning (1812-1889), the unknown young writer who was to surpass her in literature. Evans is Browning's "gentleman's gentleman."

With a cast of 21, an orchestra of more than 30 members, and a crew of 35, "Robert and Elizabeth" was Evangel's largest scale dramatic production to date. In addition to playing a role in "Robert and Elizabeth," Hovater is a member of one of two traveling groups of Evangel College students presenting Christian drama as a ministry in churches this year. His troupe, "The Gladiators," emphasizes wholesome entertainment fitting for a church or school social function.

This year "The Gladiators" are appearing in George Bernard Shaw's "Androcles and the Lion," which has as its setting the persecution of Christians in ancient Rome. Hovater is vast as the Lion.

Evangel College is a four-year Assemblies of God college of art and sciences, accredited by the North Central Association. Enrollment at the college is 1,200.

Chelsea Artist's Design Chosen For Spaulding Christmas Card

"Bearing Gifts" is the theme of the 1977 Spaulding for Children Christmas card now on sale. Designed by Mrs. John (Wilhelmina) Eder, of 765 Taylor St., the card contains a simply stated greeting which reads "Have a Happy Holiday."

Mrs. Eder's illustration was selected by Spaulding for their Christmas cards from several card designs submitted in competition by local artists last year. Although Mrs. Eder has never studied art formally, she has been a practicing artist for many years and is a member of the Chelsea Painters. In the past, her works have been on display at Schumm's Restaurant on S. Main St.

Spaulding for Children Christmas cards are sold annually to raise money for the local adoption agency which finds homes for hard-to-place children.

The agency originated in 1968 with a group of people concerned about the thousands of school-age youngsters, some with mental or physical handicaps, social disabilities, or a history which gives reason to anticipate special problems, who await adoption today.

The idea to create a placement agency for these youngsters became a reality when Warren Spaulding, a retired Chelsea farmer, donated his farm property for the agency's headquarters.

Before Spaulding for Children, hard-to-place youngsters often waited adoption in the custody of social agencies and juvenile courts. Even with the agency, this still occurs for some. The children are usually placed in paid foster homes, which means a qualified family is paid (usually from public funds) to care for the child as a stop-gap measure.

Frequently the children are shifted from one home or institution to another, so they "belong" to no one.

Placement is difficult because most adoption agencies have been tuned to finding homes for normal, healthy infants. Spaulding children need a different kind of family, many more hours of work to match child and family, and more extensive follow-up services. It becomes expensive.

Spaulding for Children's funds come from tax-deductible contributions and from fund-raising projects such as the Christmas card sales. There is no official sponsor providing a ready source of money. Placement work is done by paid, trained professionals, but volunteers do as much as possible in the way of fund-raising and support work to cut expenses.

People in the community can help Spaulding continue its work with a minimum of involvement, simply by supporting the agency's annual Christmas card sales.

Volunteers will be in Chelsea State Bank on Fridays and Saturdays prior to Christmas, with a choice of card designs for purchase. Posters with sign-up sheets are also being displayed in a number of Chelsea stores so that persons interested in purchasing Christmas cards from the agency can simply sign up to be called by a Spaulding volunteer.

Or, Spaulding cards may be purchased by calling Peg Hamilton, at 475-1870; Pat Stirling, at 475-1112; Dorothea Pielmeier, at 475-2872; or Char Ballistrere, at 475-8511.

Carole Hann is the 1977 Spaulding Christmas card sales chairman.

Cong. Pursell Will Discuss Pension Plan

Indications that the majority of Congressmen are still behind a pension for Veterans of World War I is the favorable vote given Sept. 8 for $700,000,000 in the budget resolution for meeting first-year costs of a pension should one be approved. This was later reduced to $245,000,000.

The budget item was presented by Representative Glenn Anderson, of California, introducer of HR 55 calling for a $150 a month pension for veterans and widows. Anderson has 150 co-sponsors, including 14 members of the House Veterans Affairs Committee.

It is estimated that the first full year cost of a pension of $150 would be around a billion dollars. Objectives date for start of the pension is Oct. 1, 1978. Hence only part of the $700,000,000 would be needed for first-year cost.

Representative Anderson on Sept. 8 introduced a revised bill to replace HR 55. It is numbered HR 9000.

His new bill still holds for a pension of $150. Certain elements that could have been given opponents ammunition have been eliminated. The original HR 55 provided that the $150 should be paid in addition to any pension now being received. The double pension on a pension is eliminated in HR 9000.

Anderson's original bill also provided that of a World War I veteran were deceased, his child or children should draw the $150. Obviously, most children of a War I veteran would be around 50 years old, many of them veterans of World War II and recipients of heavy educational aid money. As HR 9000 now stands pension would be limited to minor dependent children of War I veterans.

The changes Representative Anderson has made in his pension program will greatly cut the cost of a pension.

He has also inserted an income limitation of $15,000 a year. This will not hurt many of our people and will further cut opposition to the bills.

A local congressman, Carl Pursell, is also supporting HR 9000. On Thursday, Dec. 1, at the American Legion Post, No. 46, 1035 S. Main St., Ann Arbor, at 8 p.m., there will be an open meeting at which time Pursell will discuss this legislation and how it will affect our World War I veterans and widows.

If time permits, he will also discuss other pending veterans' legislation. Everyone is invited to this open meeting which is sponsored by the Washtenaw County Council of Veterans, an organization comprised of the 18 veterans' groups in Washtenaw county.

Psychology Award

BEV SIMON

Members of Paul Terpstra's psychology class at Chelsea High school have selected Bev Simon, a senior psychology student, as the second winner of this year's outstanding Psychology Student of the Fortnight Award.

Miss Simon was named to receive the honor on the basis of class participation, preparation, and over-all grade.

Purpose of the award, presented to a deserving student every two weeks, is to motivate students to do well in the psychology class, and to give positive reinforcement to the award winner. The class is currently discussing Sigmund Freud's principles of personality development.

Miss Simon is employed part-time as a cashier by Hit & Miss, in Ann Arbor. She is also a member of the Chelsea High Student Council and National Honor Society.

Miss Simon called her psychology class "a challenge," and added, "I like classes that make me use my head."

After completing high school, Miss Simon would like to continue her education at a technical college.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simon, of 20345 Gene Dr.

Olympians Win Floor Hockey Meet

Chelsea Special Olympians played in a highly competitive, exciting floor hockey tournament at High Point Center, Ann Arbor, last Friday, Nov. 18, and finished the day with a perfect 2-0 record. Teams from four schools were entered in the event.

Attending the tournament were Special Olympians from Dexter High school, Chelsea High school, High Point, and St. Louis school. The tournament opened with a game between High Point and Dexter, with Dexter coming out on top of the 8-6 decision. Then, Chelsea played St. Louis school, and won, 11-3.

Scoring for Chelsea in the encounter were Ryan Sweeney with 2 goals, Kathy Buck with 3, Leonard Carlson with 2, Matt Schmidt with 1, Glenn Passow with 1, and Sue Armstrong with 2.

"The win represented a good effort by everyone," Coach Nancy Cooper said following the game. "Several people played goalie for Chelsea in the match, all doing a good job," she added.

Tending Chelsea's goal at various times in the game were Matt Schmidt, Glenn Passow and Ryan Sweeney.

St. Louis returned from its game with Chelsea to face High Point's Intermediates and defeated the High Point squad, 14-6. "Many were newcomers to the game," Coach Cooper noted.

The final game of the tournament featured Chelsea against Dexter, and "was definitely the most exciting match of the day," according to Coach Cooper. Chelsea edged Dexter, 7-6, on goals

Consulting Firm Awarded Contracts

Jerold F. Beaumont, president of Beaumont-Major & Associates, Ltd., of Chelsea, has announced that the firm has been awarded contracts by the Ministry of Industry and Tourism of the Province of Ontario, Canada.

The contracts call for a study of the relationship to and the effects of the opening of a shopping mall on the surrounding business community, with a special emphasis on the "core" or downtown business.

A second section calls for the firm to study and make recommendations to approximately 30 businesses ranging from manufacturing to retail merchants regarding operations, management and marketing to improve profitability and to update skills.

Beaumont-Major & Associates, Ltd., is a management consulting firm which specializes in small and medium sized business and industry.

The meat and poultry industry alone employs 315,000 workers with a payroll of more than $2.7 billion.

What's Cooking In Michigan

I've said before that as a hunter, I make a much better camp cook. But I still appreciate a good venison roast as much as the next person.

I've been somewhat lucky to have a few hunter friends who have small freezers, and I love it when their trophies are too big for the locker. Understandably, they usually try to get rid of roasts and hamburger first, saving the steaks for themselves.

Place a three-to four-pound roast in a Dutch oven, salt and pepper well. The slice one large onion into the pot and add one clove of garlic, cut in half. Pour a 12-ounce can of beer over everything. Bake covered for about four hours or until tender in a 325 degree oven. The wait is worth it.

It's great with noodles or mashed potatoes, but make sure you skim the fat from the cooking liquid if you plan to make gravy.

Should you go hunting this year, the Michigan Department of Agriculture would like to remind you that much of our state's hunting land is owned by farmers.

If you want to hunt on private property, be sure to get written permission from the landowner. Under Michigan's new Recreation/Tresspass act, it's the law. Besides, when you approach the farmer for permission, he might even tell you the location of some choice areas to hunt.

Circuit Court Administrator Is Selected

Washtenaw County circuit court judges have announced their selection of Terry T. Deinein as the new Court Administrator. Deinein, 30, is a graduate of Xavier University received an MA from the University of Toledo, and earned a Master of Science degree in Judicial Administration from the University of Denver which has pioneered in the training of professional court administrators.

A former staff associate with the National Center for State Courts, Deinein has for the past two years been administrator for a multi-judge court serving four counties in Colorado.

Deinein is married and has one child. His selection concludes a lengthy search to fill the new position.

Judge Ross W. Campbell, who headed the judicial search and selection operation, reports that more than 80 applications were received.

Basketball Coach

ber at Chelsea High. He left Ypsilanti High school where he had spent four years as a math instructor and freshman basketball coach, to teach physical education at Chelsea High, and run his "own program" as Chelsea's head varsity basketball coach.

Prior to that, Raymond attended Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, where he first began coaching basketball under Dick Ouellette, his high school coach, while earning a bachelor's degree in education. Raymond received his degree in 1973.

Raymond says the basketball program he has introduced at Chelsea High, closely parallels the one operated by Ouellette, which he said led to 48-2 records both years he played high school basketball under Ouellette at Ypsi High.

Raymond, who is single, currently lives in Ann Arbor, but says he is now in the process of looking for an apartment in Chelsea, presumably to be closer to his court activities.

DEATHS

Rollin Jay Schenk, Sr. Former Chelsea Resident Dies Nov. 6 in California

Rollin Jay Schenk, Sr., 91, formerly of Chelsea, died Sunday, Nov. 6, at the home of his son, David, in Torrance, Calif. He was born in Chelsea on July 3, 1886, to William P. and Jessie Curtis Schenk.

Mr. Schenk married Edna Glazier on March 10, 1910. She preceded him in death on June 18, 1969.

Survivors include four sons, Rollin Jr., of Inyokern, Calif.; Winston, of Lakewood, Calif.; William, of Park Forest, Ill.; and David, of Torrance, Calif.; one daughter, Suzanne Rundgren, of Prospect Heights, Ill.; one sister, Mrs. Paul (Esther) Belsler, of Chelsea; 16 grandchildren; and 21 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Nov. 8, in Santa Ana, Calif.

Bicycle Stolen From Rack At High School

Chelsea police are still investigating the theft of a bicycle which was taken from the Chelsea high school bicycle rack sometime last Thursday.

Jeff Price, 14, of 527 Wilkinson St., owner of the stolen vehicle, reported the theft to police Saturday morning.

The missing bicycle was described as a blue 10-speed, bearing the brand name, "Western Flyer." Price further stated that gears six through 10 were not working when the vehicle was taken. Value of the bicycle was estimated to be $80.

Price was unable to give police the serial number of his bicycle, and the vehicle was not registered with police.

No suspects have been named in the case.

Parents of Handicapped Children To Meet

All parents of mentally impaired, learning disabled, emotionally impaired, blind, deaf, and all other handicapped children, are invited to a special meeting in room 204, Chelsea High school, on Monday, Nov. 28, at 7:30 p.m.

Teachers of all handicapped children will be present to answer questions, discuss problems, and hopefully resolve the problems with solutions. A 30-minute presentation on the Special Olympics program in Chelsea has also been planned.

Citing the importance of having a strong parent group, Mrs. Gladys Buck, chairperson, hopes all who have children in special education programs will attend the meeting.

For more information, call Mrs. Buck at 475-2809, or George Winans at 475-1119.

Debaters on Top in League Tournament...

Coming up with individual speaking performances that gave them titles of "best in the league" were varsity Bulldogs Julie Prohaska, Caroline Meyer and Tammy Pugh. Each received a first place award in her position. Chelsea's fourth varsity contender, Andy Anderson, received a 2nd place individual speaking award in his position.

Chelsea's junior varsity award winners were Mike Waldyke and Tim Stubbs, who earned third place individual speaking awards.

In individual speaking performances among Chelsea's novice debaters, Mark Snyder and Drew Sprague earned first place awards, while Janet Walz and Ruth Rawson received second place awards in their respective positions.

JCs Sponsor Local Hoop, Shoot Contest

On Saturday, Dec. 3, at 10 a.m., Chelsea Jaycees will sponsor local competition for the Elk's "National Hoop and Shoot" contest. This is a basketball version of the "Punt, Pass and Kick" contest held in the fall.

Competition is open to all boys and girls in three age brackets: 8- and 9-year-olds, 10- and 11-year-olds, and 12- and 13-year-olds. There will be separate categories for the boys and girls in each age bracket. Each contestant will shoot 25 free throws and the one with the highest percentage is the winner. First place and runner-up winners in each bracket will be eligible for the Washtenaw county finals at Pioneer High school in Ann Arbor on Saturday, Dec. 10.

Robyn Raymond, varsity basketball coach at Chelsea High school, endorses the program and will be present at the competition, along with members of his varsity squad, to conduct a short clinic on free throw shooting before the competition begins.

Registration for the competition to be held at Chelsea High school may be handled by calling John Williams, chairman of the committee, at 475-1684. There is no registration fee and all equipment is provided.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER REALTOR

HANDSHAKES DON'T COUNT

Many business agreements have been sealed with a "handshake" and enforced in the courts. But when it comes to the world of Real Estate you cannot—and should not—rely on oral promises. In fact, legislation in each of the fifty states specifically requires that all agreements and conditions relative to the sale of real estate specifically be in writing.

In real estate, oral promises or conditions have little standing. If they are not contained in writing within the agreement of sale, or on other papers relating to the transaction, they are not binding. In fact, the typical agreement of sale provides a clause to the effect that all oral statements relative to the transaction made prior to the signing of the written agreement are invalid.

The only way to put any teeth into oral promises, is to insist that everything which you think is significant be put into writing.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

JC Couples Attend Fall State Meeting

"Yes, there really is a Kalamazoo!" This was the reaction of four Chelsea area Jaycee couples who participated in the Fall State Meeting, Nov. 18-20. Attending the convention were Mitch Zink, District No. 2 Director and wife Sue, Auxiliary Present-Past President; Norm Colby, Jaycee Senator and wife Alberta, District No. 28 Vice-President; Bob Ponte, Jaycee President and wife Louise, Auxiliary Secretary; and Bob Meyer, Jaycee Internal Vice-President and wife Sandy, Auxiliary Treasurer.

Arriving Friday afternoon at the Kalamazoo Hilton, the group attended their various executive meetings and took in the sights. The "Friday Night Party" allowed Jaycees and Jaycettes from all over Michigan to become acquainted and reacquainted. Exhibits for on-going and proposed state projects were displayed at that time.

Saturday, the Jaycee morning meeting consisted largely of voting in by-law revisions. An additional state vice-president position was created with the duties of that office and those of the present vice-president outlined. Finance committee membership was also altered.

The Jaycee Auxiliary morning meeting dealt with a by-law revision on national auxiliary membership. It will be mandatory for state Auxiliary members to belong to the U. S. Jaycettes. In the past it has been a personal decision.

Also, the Michigan Jaycettes voted to take on a project on the local level to raise money in order to purchase a motor travel home to accommodate kidney dialysis equipment so children with kidney problems can attend summer camp.

After the morning meetings, the men's and women's luncheons were held respectively. Keynote speakers highlighted both gatherings. The Auxiliary deviated from the program to host a "Gong Show." Chelsea Jaycettes, Sue Zink and Sandy Meyer, along with other representatives of District No. 28 played the "U. of M. Fight Song" on home made instruments, and were immediately gonged. They blamed the disaster on conductor Alberta Colby, a novice in direction of great orchestras.

Both Jaycee and Auxiliary members attended various workshops Saturday afternoon. Available were sessions in Youth Involvement, Burn Awareness, Crime Prevention, Personal Growth, Child Abuse, Family Health and Safety, and Governmental Involvement.

That evening a social hour was attended, followed by the banquet in the grand ballroom. Guest speaker was George Connolly, former National Vice-President and 1977-78 candidate for U. S. Jaycee President. After a Brotherhood Breakfast Sunday morning, the Chelsea group returned home exhausted and fulfilled.

Arnold Steger Suffers Seizure at U-M-Ohio Game

A Michigan fan from Chelsea attending Saturday's U. of M.-Ohio State football game collapsed from a heart seizure during the spirited contest, and was taken to University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

According to a hospital spokesman, William Arnold Steger, 68, of 310 Congdon St., was on the danger list and in the coronary unit of the hospital Saturday night. However, by Monday morning, he was removed from the danger list and reported in fair condition.

CHILD CARE CENTER: These children, all of whom attend the new Chelsea Community Hospital Child Care Center at St. Paul United Church of Christ on Old US-12, appear to be curious as to why they were interrupted during their make-believe dinner. Seated in the foreground of the photo is Jeffrey Pearsall, while grouped in the background, from left, are Liddy Dieterle, Michael Kent, Shawnty Reed, teacher Sandy Ryder, Joni Kalmbach, Ed Waller and Carl Frey. Openings for youngsters ages 2½ through 7 are still available at the Child Care Center, which operates from 6:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The center is directed by Corrine Gillan, who is assisted by community volunteers and some high school students. With a capacity for 30 children, the center offers children an educational setting in which they finger paint, make cut-outs, and participate in a group time where they learn shapes, colors and names. For more information about the center, call 475-1920.

Robert Bertke Recovering from Heart Attack

Good recovery is the prognosis for a Chelsea man who suffered a heart attack while attending a victory party at a local business establishment Saturday evening, following Michigan's 14-6 triumph over Ohio State that afternoon.

Still in the intensive care unit at Chelsea Community Hospital is 42-year-old Robert Bertke, of 1311 N. Freer Rd. However, according to his wife, Duwana, doctors state Bertke is progressing as he should and a smooth recovery is expected.

Mrs. Bertke said her husband had complained of chest pains the Wednesday prior to his heart attack, but had dismissed the notion of seeing a physician. After watching the Michigan-Ohio State football game on television Saturday afternoon, Bertke again began to feel some chest pains, but decided to attend the party anyway, figuring the pains would disappear.

Instead, they increased, and at 7:20 p.m. his wife and some friends drove him to the hospital where he was admitted to the cardiac unit and put under intensive care. Bertke is currently employed as a pressman by Malloy Lithographing in Ann Arbor.

Bill Pierce Visits World War II Battle Sites in Germany, France

To return to the battlefields where one once fought, would be an exciting experience for any war veteran, but to journey there with a group of veterans one fought with, makes the event even more exciting. And, when the men one fought against are included in the experience, the result can become the event of a lifetime.

This actually happened to members of the 70th Infantry Division Association this past September. Some 58 members of the 70th Infantry Division Association and 38 of their wives or other dependents made the trip to France and Germany in the latter part of the month. For most of them it was the first time they had revisited the battlefields of 1944 and 1945. The 89 people represented 22 different states.

Four were from the state of Michigan, including Bill Pierce of Chelsea, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Austin of Birmingham, and Jack S. Ransom of Grand Rapids, accompanied by his son Scott J. Ransom of Lithonia, Ga.

The group assembled at New York Kennedy Airport on the evening of Sept. 21 and boarded a Boeing 747 for the flight to Frankfurt, Germany by way of London, England, and Paris, France. The flight arrived in Frankfurt early in the afternoon of Sept. 22.

The group was met at the Frankfurt Airport by a delegation of the German 6th SS Mountain Division (Nord), one of the units that the 70th Infantry Division fought against in late 1944 and early 1945. The fighting took place in the Vosage Mountains, which was then part of the Alsace-Lorraine territory of eastern France.

The German delegation accompanied the 70th Infantry Division Association through the various battlefields of France and Germany. The group then transferred to buses for the drive along the German autobahn, through the Black Forest region of Germany, to the city of Strausbourg, France where the first night was spent.

On the morning of Sept. 23, the group proceeded to the U.S. Military Cemetery located at Epinal, France where many of the 70th Infantry Division are buried. There members of the group were met by the Mayor of Epinal, who thanked the men for helping liberate France in the Second World War. The Americans and Germans had a joint wreath laying ceremony in honor of those who gave their lives.

From Epinal, the veterans went to the town of Wingen, France where they were greeted by the mayor, many of the townspeople and students of the Wingen high school. The mayor of Wingen thanked the division for liberation of the town and toasted members of the division with French wine.

In Wingen the group broke into two parts. Some stayed in Wingen and others, including Pierce went to the town of Philippsbourg, France, some distance away. It was in Philippsbourg that members of the 275th and 276th Infantry Regiments of the 70th Infantry Division fought with the 3rd Mountain Division (Nord) from Jan. 1, 1945 to Jan. 15, 1945.

In the first 10 days of this battle, the 1st Battalion of the 275th Infantry Regiment suffered 800 casualties. Pierce was seriously wounded there on Jan. 3, 1945.

After a short stay in Philippsbourg the group went to Metz, France for an overnight stay.

Early Sept. 24, the group headed for Forbach, France, visiting former battlefields along the way. A little before noon, the veterans arrived in Forbach and went to the city hall where they were greeted by the mayor and city council members. The mayor of Forbach also thanked the division for liberating the city, explained to the group what had been done since the war, and described future plans for the town. Again the group was toasted with French wine.

The veterans then went to a nearby restaurant where they had lunch with the mayor and city council members. The lunch lasted three hours, with speeches and singing marking the occasion. After lunch the group visited more battlefields in the Forbach and Saarbrücken area, and then spent the night at a hotel in Saarbrücken.

On Sunday, Sept. 24 the veterans departed for Rhens, Germany, visiting more battlefields along the way. Rhens is a small German town located on the Rhine River just south of the city of Koblenz. After checking into a hotel, the group left for Bucholz, Germany. There the veterans were met by the town burgermeister and townspeople. After a welcoming speech and more wine, the group went to Paffem Eck Cemetery where many men of the 6th Mountain Division are buried.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

Michigan Farm Bureau

New RPAR Agency Affects Everyone

One thing about Washington, if it has nothing else to do, it invents new words. Washington has brought new words into the English language than citizens band radio has.

The jargon of some government agencies has gotten so out of hand, they've had to start abbreviating some of their newly-invented phrases. That's where RPAR figures in. It stands for Rebuttable Presumption Against Registration. So, you see why the EPA decided to abbreviate it. It doesn't make any more sense spelled out than it does abbreviated.

But EPA's rebuttable presumption against registration does figure in on your daily life.

About three times a day. Because RPAR can be related to higher food prices. The process allows for substitution of another chemical if one chemical is pulled off the market.

Such is the case with Toxaphene. The EPA wants to ban that agricultural pesticide. It's been linked with liver tumors in mice which have been exposed to doses about a thousand times higher than humans might get for a lifetime. The EPA wants to pull it, and allow farmers to use a substitute. But there are no substitutes in Toxaphene's price range. And claiming that there's no evidence that Toxaphene has ever hurt humans, farmers want to keep using Toxaphene.

Without Toxaphene, the cost of farming will go up, and more crops will be lost to insects. It's estimated that insect damage now costs agriculture about three-and-a-half billion dollars a year. Without Toxaphene, another billion would be added to that total.

Of course, these costs are eventually passed along to those of us who consume agricultural products. And that's just about all of us.

Cards of Thanks

THANK YOU
I wish to thank all my neighbors, friends and relatives for their calls, cards, flowers and gifts sent to me while I was a patient at Chelsea Community Hospital. A special thank you to the Rev. Ralph Ratzlaff for his calls and prayers, and to the doctors and nurses for their care. Thanks also to Mrs. Jack Fowler for taking my sister to the hospital during my stay there.
Matie Lucht.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our son and brother, Larry Julian Policht, Jr., who passed away nine years ago, Thanksgiving Day.
His mother, Mrs. Harold Reilly; sisters, Mrs. Howard O'Dell, Mrs. Pam White, and Mrs. James Jenkins; and brothers, Mike, Al, and Harry Policht.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends, neighbors and relatives for their kind expressions of sympathy during our recent bereavement. Also many thanks to the Rev. Carl Schwarm, the Congregational church, and Staffan Funeral Home. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.
The family of James Robards.

IN MEMORIAM

The voice has stilled, the smile is no more. Those twinkling eyes, I used to adore. In my grave, dear God, I tried to understand, to reach with my heart for your guiding hand. Those tears blind my eyes, I can still feel in me, something love put there, that that will always be. Now I know, dear God, it is only loneliness I feel. It's just that I forget you will always be near. We miss you, Frank Reed.
Ethel Reed, his wife; Francis Ferry, Robert Reed, Margaret Schilz and Richard Reed, his children; and his grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

We thank the police department, a doctor whose name we do not remember, the hospital staff, and attending doctors for their help during our recent misfortune. We also thank those sending flowers and cards, and members of the First Congregational church for their prayers. A special thanks to Father Fortunado, Father Dupuis, and the Rev. James Stacy for their visits and prayers.
Larry and Mercelle Morse.

The family of James Robards.

IN MEMORIAM

The voice has stilled, the smile is no more. Those twinkling eyes, I used to adore. In my grave, dear God, I tried to understand, to reach with my heart for your guiding hand. Those tears blind my eyes, I can still feel in me, something love put there, that that will always be. Now I know, dear God, it is only loneliness I feel. It's just that I forget you will always be near. We miss you, Frank Reed.
Ethel Reed, his wife; Francis Ferry, Robert Reed, Margaret Schilz and Richard Reed, his children; and his grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

We thank the police department, a doctor whose name we do not remember, the hospital staff, and attending doctors for their help during our recent misfortune. We also thank those sending flowers and cards, and members of the First Congregational church for their prayers. A special thanks to Father Fortunado, Father Dupuis, and the Rev. James Stacy for their visits and prayers.
Larry and Mercelle Morse.

Thanksgiving means many things to many people. For some it means a joyous feast, and nothing else. For others it means a holiday and nothing else. Varied beliefs and varied behavior are seen almost everywhere.

Basically, Thanksgiving should be a day of thankful contemplation for all the things we have to be thankful for. And heading the list should be an appreciative thanks that the greatness of our country is spiritual in origin. All of us living in this great land should be everlastingly thankful for the visions born of faith by our fore-fathers.

The faith of our fore-fathers is our reservoir, given to us as an inheritance. The reservoir CAN run dry and most certainly will IF we fail to constantly replenish it with our own spiritual faith; a spiritual fair for future generations to live by. Bill Pierce Visits World War II Battle Sites in Germany, France

A U.S. Army Chaplain (Lt. Colonel) from Weisbaden said prayers and gave a speech in English and German. Music was provided by a U.S. Army Band. Several hundred attended this service which was nationally televised by the German media.

From there the group went to the last positions held by the 6th Mountain Division when the war came to an end, and concluded the visit with a trip to a small cemetery in Bucholz where a brief ceremony was held for the German dead.

In the evening the group attended a buffet dinner sponsored by the members of the 6th Mountain Division. Some 200 members of the 6th Mountain Division and their families attended this event. More than 150 Germans had to be turned away because of the lack of space. After dinner there were speeches and an exchange of gifts among the Germans and Americans. Music was provided by a German band, and singing and dancing continued until after midnight.

The rest of the day was spent stopping, sightseeing, or preparing for the evening, when the group went to the Old Dominion Non-Commissioned Officers Club of the U.S. Army, located in Patrick Henry Village on the outskirts of Heidelberg, for a farewell dinner. Attending this dinner was General George S. Blanchard, Commanding General, U.S. Army Europe, also a member of the 70th Infantry Division Association.

General Blanchard was the commanding officer of Company C, 274th Infantry Regiment during the fight across France in Germany in World War II. After dinner speeches were made by General Blanchard and the president of the Division Association, Orville Ellis. Each member of the group received a certificate stating he helped contribute toward peace by being on such trips as this one had been. After the speeches there was dancing, which lasted until past midnight.

The group departed for Frankfurt and the return trip to the United States on Wednesday morning, Sept. 27. Most of the group agreed the tour had been fantastic, but too fast-paced and short. Pierce said goodbye to the group when they departed for Frankfurt, since he will remain in Europe until July of 1978. Pierce plans to return to his own town to take photos and talk to townspeople who were there during the battles. He will also be in contact with some of the Germans he met on the trip.

The 70th Infantry Division Association will be holding the next reunion in St. Louis, Mo., August of 1978. Germans of the 6th Mountain Division have been invited to attend this reunion. Pierce is a life member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4076 in Chelsea. While in Europe he will be working with the VFW Post in Germany.

This year has seen new upward heights in orchard management. Our license, under state law, for using chemicals has been granted for 3 years, thru 1980. We are very nearly finished selling fruit for this year. My part of management is finished for 1977. It was a joyful view for those who saw our beautiful helicopter orchard picture taken Oct. 12. It is a helpful guide leading to higher ground for quality fruit for you at modest prices.
We are grateful for this feeling of togetherness. It brings to you a nice Thanksgiving and a Very Merry Christmas message from all our associates, H. J. Webb, Jr., Lester Grames and all our personnel.

HEIFERS REPAY HANDSOMELY - Grow 'Em Right!
At Wayne Research Farm twin 3-day-old heifers went on test.
One was fed Wayne Calnip medicated non-cereal milk replacer followed by Wayne Calf Krunch. The other: whole milk, hay, grain, soybean meal.
Wayne-fed heifer was ready for breeding earlier, calved earlier, produced milk 3 months earlier. And 2 1/2 years later, showed a profit difference over twin sister of $164.25!
Better stop in.

Dial-A-Garden
Topics Listed

Dial-A-Garden, the system of pre-recorded daily gardening tips is sponsored by the Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service. The system is in operation 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. Interested persons are invited to call 971-1122 at their convenience and receive timely, up to date gardening information.

Beginning Monday, Nov. 28, Dial-A-Garden will bring you a special two week series on the construction and maintenance of terrariums and dish gardens. Why not follow along and construct a dish garden to give as a Christmas gift?

Next week's Dial-A-Garden topics are:

- Friday, Nov. 25—"Tips for Winter Houseplant Care."
- Monday, Nov. 28—"The Terrarium Environment."
- Tuesday, Nov. 29—"Make a List—What You Need for a Terrarium."
- Wednesday, Nov. 30—"Native Plants for Humid Terrariums."
- Thursday, Dec. 1—"House Plants for Humid Terrariums."

N. Lake Co-Op Nursery Visits New Nature Center

North Lake Co-op Nursery children, accompanied by some of their parents, gained insight into the natural environment last week with a visit to the Waterloo Nature Center, located just off Bush Rd., near McClure Rd.

The four-year-olds journeyed to the Nature Center Nov. 16, followed by the three-year-olds; on Nov. 17.

The children toured the facility, which opened Sept. 17, viewing the various exhibits of both live and stuffed animals. In the exhibits, the animals were shown in their natural habitat.

After completing the tour, the children seated themselves upon deer skins which had been placed on the floor, and Tom Hodgson, naturalist at the Center, proceeded to inform the group how various animals prepared for the winter. He described the habits of caterpillars, snakes, birds, bees, squirrels, turtles, racoons and others.

During Hodgson's talk, live and stuffed animals were shown to the children to aid them in their understanding of the lecture. The children and their parents were allowed to pet the animals, but not all wanted to pet the snake.

The next part of the visit was a walk, led by Ranger Tom, along one of the nature trails. Highlights of the walk were finding a racoon hanging in a tree (it looked like a dead leaf), and seeing a fresh set of deer tracks, a hole dug by a ground hog that was now occupied by a rabbit, skunk or other animal, a bird's nest that was repossessed by a deer mouse, a tree that was being used as a buck rub, an ant hill with several ants sunning themselves, a few birds, and a chipmunk.

The children learned they must be very quiet and alert while taking a nature walk. They also learned more about animals and many of the simple things in nature they may have overlooked previously, or had just taken for granted.

Pinckney Youth Chosen for Air Force Technical Training

Airman Mark E. Nighswonger, son of Mrs. Anita M. Nighswonger of 20880 W. Trebesh Circle, Pinckney, has been selected for technical training at Chanute AFB, Ill., in the Air Force avionics systems field.

The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex., and studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations. Completion of this training earned the individual credits towards an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Airman Nighswonger is a 1977 graduate of Pinckney High school. His father, Edward D. Nighswonger, resides at 428 Hamburg St., Pinckney.

Area Students On Honors List At Ferris State

Several Washtenaw county students at Ferris State College, at Big Rapids, were among the 494 students honored for scholastic excellence during the summer quarter by naming them to the Academic Honors List, Robert E. Ryan, vice-president for academic affairs, has announced.

To be named to the Academic Honors List, a student must earn at least a 3.25 average on a 4.0 basis and carry a full academic load. A full load is defined as 14 quarter hours of credit.

Washtenaw students named to the list include Jacquelyn L. Stafford and Kurt Allshouse of Chelsea; Neva M. King, of Milan; Donald J. Schreiber, of Saline; Sherry L. Risner and Rhonda K. Stiles, both of Ypsilanti; and the following Ann Arbor residents, Dennis C. Smith and Richard B. Stegath.

Also included were Lezlie A. Morse of Pinckney and Linda M. Parker of Munnith.

RONALD J. ADAMS, of 20841 North Territorial Rd., was a member of a class of 240 Masons from 11 southeastern Michigan counties receiving Scottish Rite Freemasonry's 32nd degree at the conclusion of a two-week-end reunion Saturday, Nov. 5, at the Detroit Masonic Temple. The 283rd reunion class was named in honor of the late Joseph C. Davidson, a 33rd degree Mason who was assistant secretary of General Motors Corp. at the time of his retirement in 1960. He died Oct. 28, 1969. Dwight Havens, president of the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce, was the speaker at the traditional 32nd degree banquet, which concluded the reunion.

Ann Arbor Symphony Plans Young People's Concert Next Sunday

The 49th annual Young People's Concert of the Ann Arbor Symphony Orchestra will be held at Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, Sunday, Nov. 27 at 3:30 p.m.

Edward Szabo is music director and conductor; Harold Haugh, narrator; and Martha Naset, pianist.

On the program is Rossini's "William Tell Overture," "Young Person's Guide to the Orchestra," by Britten, and Rachmaninoff's "Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini for Piano and Orchestra." There is no charge for this concert.

American teen-agers have almost 600,000 babies each year, reports The National Foundation-March of Dimes. Teen-agers, 17 and under, have the highest rate of any age group of dead or damaged babies.

Thanksgiving Eve Service Set in Pinckney

A joint community Thanksgiving Eve service will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 23, 7:30 p.m. in Pinckney. Churches participating will be Community Congregational Church, St. Mary's Catholic Church and Shalom. Details are presently being worked out. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Committees at Shalom have been busy engaged in shaping up their 1978 budgets for the congregational meeting which was held Nov. 19. It was a challenge and accomplishment for a mission church that hopes to have its new church built during 1978.

Clothing and many bars of soap were recently collected as Shalom's donation for Lutheran World Relief.

The annual Feast of Carols, on Dec. 4, will be the occasion of the Fellowship's next pot-luck participation in tree trimming and a visit from Santa Claus are planned.

Due to popular demand, Shalom Lutheran church will have a movie night on Dec. 10 (It was first intended to skip December because of other Christmas events and resume in January). The same rule will apply, as for two previous movie showings, $1 donation and free popcorn. Time is 7 to 10 p.m. Community youth are invited.

A veteran who uses an artificial limb, brace, wheelchair or other prosthetic device because of a service-connected condition can receive a $190 allowance each year to cover clothing wear and tear.

NEW ANIMAL, PET FEED PLANT: Alton Grau, his 11-year-old son, Chris, and W. R. Kinney of Chelsea were among the 1,000 farmers and dealers who attended the Open House at The Andersons' new feed plant on Saturday, Nov. 12. The new facility, one of the most modern and technologically advanced in the nation, is located at the firm's Maumee, O. complex. The facility will be operated by a computer control system which assures consistent quality control. A second computer is used to determine least-cost formulas thereby reducing costs to customers. The new 4.2 million dollar structure has an annual production capacity of 150,000 tons.

AMTRAK'S GOT A NEW MICHIGAN EXECUTIVE.

We're talking about the new Amfleet trains running between Jackson and Detroit. These new trains will turn ordinary train travel into a luxurious adventure. The "Michigan Executive" Amfleet looks as good from the inside as it does outside. We have all the most modern equipment with everything that makes traveling what it should be, comfortable and fun. There are wider seats with plenty of legroom, plush carpeting (even on the walls) and a climate control system that is sure to keep you snugly warm this winter. To help you catch up on reading all those exciting office memos, we've got individual seat lights and drop-down trays on the back of each seat.

Our new Amfleet trains aren't the only attractive offer we have for you. Our special 46-ride multi-ride ticket will save you up to 55% off the regular coach fare. Here's how it works: buy a ticket at the beginning of any month and it entitles you to 46 single rides in either direction for any city pair and intermediate points along our route.

At Amtrak's Detroit station, you'll find special buses waiting to shuttle you to Wayne State University, New Center and all major downtown business and shopping locations, including the exciting new Renaissance Center complex. (Shuttle bus fare - 40¢ each way.) For more information on our new "Michigan Executive," simply call Amtrak (toll free) at 1-800-621-0353.

Gridders of the Week

BEN KINCER (45), fullback for Chelsea's varsity grid squad and a newcomer to the team, is already anticipating the 1978 season. "I'm looking forward to being a monster next year," the 5'6", 140-lb. junior said at the beginning of his interview. Kincer defined "a monster" as "a sort of combination linebacker and defensive halfback." Although Kincer was dissatisfied with his team's performance at the beginning of the 1977 football season, he said he was "pleased with the outcome." Chelsea's season ended less than two weeks ago. Looking back on his first year as a varsity player, Kincer labeled the competition "average." Of his own team, he called Chelsea's defense "good" all year, and cited "team spirit" as the squad's most improved quality at the close of the season. He said his best game as an individual player was Chelsea's encounter with Lincoln because in the game he "did better on defense than in any other." He named Chelsea's game with Saline as the team's best, defending his choice with the following words: "Everyone was up for it, and we came from behind to win the game." Kincer predicts the Bulldogs "should have a good season next year because good talent is coming up (from the JV ranks)." The griddier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Kincer of 3180 McKinley Rd.

DAN GERSTLER (90), end for the Bulldog squad, was a starter in this season's varsity line-up although this was his first year with the varsity team. The 5'10", 155-lb. junior was a fullback for Chelsea's JV squad last year, where his skill at football was recognized when he was named Most Valuable Defensive Lineman at the end of the season. As an end, Gerstler said he was responsible for "containing the outside, not letting anything come around his end, and catching passes." The griddier called the recent season an "average one" for the Bulldogs, adding that the team "could have done better" than its 4-5 record. He also said competition was "average" this year, with Tecumseh and Brighton providing the Bulldogs with their toughest opposition. Gerstler named Chelsea's game with South Lyon this season as his personal best because he "played good defense and the team did well." He joined Kincer in listing Chelsea's game with Saline as the team's best. "We came back in the last half against Saline to win, and showed what we could do compared to what we did in the first half," he explained. Gerstler predicts Chelsea will have a good varsity grid squad in 1978. "We should have a good shot at the title because we'll be getting a lot of good players from this year's JV team," he said. In addition to football, Gerstler plays baseball for Chelsea High. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gerstler of 13301 Trist Rd.

Chelsea Student Chosen By Adrian Honorary Society

An Adrian College junior from Chelsea was among 24 new members initiated into the Adrian College chapter of Alpha Chi, a national college honor scholarship society, during a candlelight ceremony Friday, Oct. 28, on the college campus. Ten other Alpha Chi members received promotions within the honor society during the same ceremony.

Craig M. Goodlock, of 225 1/2 W. Middle St., was the local inductee. He is majoring in business administration at the college. Dedicated to the recognition and promotion of good scholarship and character, Alpha Chi membership is the highest academic honor a student can receive at Adrian. To be elected to membership, a junior must maintain a 3.8 cumulative grade point average. Seniors must have a 3.6 average. Grades are based on a 4.0 (A) scale.

Women veterans number approximately 577,000 among the nearly 30 million veterans in the United States, the Veterans Administration says.
