Varsity Cagers Lose to Saline, Jackson NW

Chelsea's varsity cagers challenged league-favorite Saline on the Hornets' own territory last Friday and came away with a stinging 69-52 loss as Saline moved with methodical precision to shut off Chelsea's inside game and take control of the boards.

The Hornets exploded with an 11-0 lead in the first two minutes of the game after sinking their first four shots.

Chelsea, on the other hand, opened with three turnovers and a missed shot on its first four possessions before finally launching a comeback and narrowing the gap behind Saline to 14-19 at the end of the first quarter.

Dave Schrotenboer and Marc Feeney put Chelsea on the scoreboard with six and four points, respectively, to spearhead the comeback effort.

Saline increased its momentum in the second quarter with a 24-point shooting binge while Chelsea had to settle for 18 points. Eight of the Hornets' 24 points were made from the charity stripe which is where they found themselves after Chelsea received a double technical foul following a verbal exchange between Bulldog Coach Robin Raymond and a referee.

Although down 43-32 at half-time, the Bulldogs expected a quick two or three baskets in the opening of the third quarter would put them back in the game, according to Coach Raymond. "Instead, Saline outscored us, 16-9," he reported.

Chelsea came back to edge Saline, 11-10, in the final period before accepting the loss.

"The thing that made the biggest difference in the game was outside shooting," Coach Raymond said. "They made eight baskets between 18' and 20' feet from the boards, while we made two."

Saline also eliminated Chelsea's inside game by constantly switching from man-to-man to zone defense throughout the encounter. In the contest, Marc Feeney came up with "probably his best all-around game of the year," according to his coach, as he paced the Bulldogs with 22 points. He was followed by Randy Harris with 13 points, Charlie Bridges with 10, and Dave Schrotenboer with 7.

Although Dave Schrotenboer grabbed 11 rebounds, Marc Feeney, 7, and Charlie Bridges and Randy Harris, 6 each, it wasn't enough to crop Saline's 45-39 rebound advantage over the Bulldogs.

The loss Friday left Chelsea with a 3-2 conference record and a 4-5 over-all mark, putting the team in a tie for third-place non-

Although Chelsea's varsity defensemen time and again held off the Jackson Northwest offense to keep their team alive Tuesday evening, ice cold shooting ultimately sentenced the Bulldog cagers to a 52-75 death at the hands of Jackson.

With the Bulldog offense shooting only 5 for 35 from the floor in the first half of the game, it took Chelsea's burning defense to lead the Bulldogs to their 21-17 half-time advantage.

Chelsea also led in rebounding at the end of the first half, recovering the ball 33 times, compared with Jackson's 17.

But the bottom fell out for the Bulldogs as they returned for the third quarter with the knowledge some points had to be scored. Jackson, shooting 16 for 21 from the floor, bounded ahead with 35 points, while Chelsea, 1 for 9 from the floor, countered with a mere 11.

In an anti-climatic fourth period, Chelsea outscored Jackson 23-20 to somewhat cushion its loss.

"In the first three quarters we managed to achieve an all-time record low in shooting, sinking only 7 for 45 from the floor," Coach Robin Raymond noted. "To sum up our performance in the second half, if we can't put the ball in the hole, we can't win. That's what it's all about."

Final statistics in the game showed Chelsea ahead of Jackson in rebounding, 56-34, and the two teams nearly even in turnovers with Jackson at 19 and Chelsea slightly ahead with 21. But Chelsea had a plucky 25 percent shooting average in the game while Jackson came up with a very respectable 48 percent.

"We outplayed them in every category but putting the ball through the basket," Coach Raymond said ruefully.

Leading scorers for the Bulldogs were Marc Feeney with 14 points, Jesse Coburn with 8, Randy Harris with 7, and Dave Schrotenboer also with 7.

In rebounding, Schrotenboer paced Chelsea with 15, his high for the season, and Feeney followed with 10, also his personal high for the year. Other top rebounders were Coburn with 8, Jerald Benjamin with 6, and Charlie Bridges with 5.

Because the game was a non-league encounter, the loss did not mar Chelsea's conference record which remains at 3-2. However, it did drop the team's over-all mark to 4-6.

The Bulldogs hope to make up for the loss tomorrow, Jan. 13, when they host Lincoln for a game beginning at 8 p.m.

Beach School Art Show Rescheduled

School closings in Chelsea Tuesday forced the cancellation of the Beach Middle School Art Show which had been slated for 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. that same evening.

As a result, the public exhibit of paintings, pen and ink drawings, water colors and sculpture by 6th, 7th and 8th graders at the school has been rescheduled for tonight, Jan. 12, 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the Beach school art rooms.

The annual art show is being sponsored by the art department at Beach school. Instructors are Judy Parker and Bev Yelsik.

JV Cagers Avenge Earlier Loss to NW

Tuesday night Chelsea's junior varsity basketball squad avenged its first loss of the season with a stunning 54-46 triumph over Jackson Northwest. When the two teams clashed earlier in the basketball year Jackson had bested the junior Bulldogs by 10 points.

The non-conference game did nothing to change Chelsea's status in the SEC, but did boost the Bulldogs' over-all mark to 7-3.

"We shot well and outrebounced Jackson in our struggle to beat them," Coach Jon Schaffner reported. Chelsea was 25 for 54 from the floor for a respectable

Todd Ortring Wins Art Scholarship

Todd Ortring, of Chelsea, has been awarded a complete art scholarship as winner of the nationwide "Draw Me" contest, sponsored by Art Instruction Schools of Minneapolis, Minn., one of the world's leading home-study art schools.

Ortring competed against contestants from all 50 states in the United States as well as contestants from Canada.

Under terms of the scholarship, he will be the recipient of a free program of study which offers complete professional art training. The scholarship also provides an exceptional opportunity for Ortring to continue developing and cultivating his natural artistic talent to a high degree of proficiency.

Ortring is a 1975 graduate of Chelsea High school.

Blowing Snow Closes Schools, Snarls Traffic

Gale-force winds and arctic cold closed schools, blocked some roads, and left others ice-covered and slippery in the Chelsea area early this week.

Officially, there was only 1.2 inches of snow Sunday, but a rapid temperature drop from 33 degrees Sunday to 7 degrees Tuesday morning, coupled with high winds, caused ice to form from two days of rain and fog over the week-end.

County road officials reported Monday it was too cold for salt to break-up the ice, and the sand they attempted to spread instead was blown away by winds gusting at a peak of 57 miles per hour late Monday evening. The wind-chill index fell to 44 below zero as a result of the heavy gusts.

Washtenaw County Sheriff's deputies were called out to assist with a traffic tie-up on S. M-52 near Pleasant Lake Rd. late Monday afternoon after blowing snow piled up in drifts across the road and reduced visibility to zero.

In addition to Chelsea schools, public schools were closed Tuesday in Ann Arbor, Dexter, Manchester and Saline as overnight high winds that began Monday resulted in slippery road conditions on both main and rural thoroughfares throughout the county.

Varsity Swim Team Sets 5 New Records

Five record-breaking performances by members of Chelsea High's boys varsity swimming team failed to salvage their 49-33 loss to Dundee on Jan. 3, Chelsea's second of the current season.

Pacing the Bulldogs in the contest was Henri Vanderward who placed first in both the 200-yd. individual medley and the 100-yd. breaststroke. In both events, Vanderward set varsity records.

Also winning his event and breaking a varsity record was CHS freshman Phil Hoffman in the 500-yd. freestyle.

Other varsity or freshman records were set in the non-winning performances of Chelsea's Tom Rudd in the 100-yd. butterfly and Tom Gaunt in the 100-yd. backstroke.

Performing well against Dundee, according to Chelsea Coach Larry Reed, were Jon Oesterle in the 100-yd. butterfly, Gaunt and Kirk Myers in the 200-yd. individual medley, Scott Prohaska in the 200-yd. freestyle, Charles Weisner in the 100-yd. freestyle, Dan Peterson in the 50-yd. and 100-yd. freestyles, and Doug Pichlik and Dan Bourget in the 100-yd. breaststroke.

In commenting on his team's performance during Chelsea's latest series of swim meets, Coach Reed said: "We're showing remarkable improvement as all but two varsity records have been broken."

The Bulldogs will travel to Inkster and Marysville for their next two encounters.

Grapplers Rally To Win Over Milan

In what Coach Richard Bareis termed "a dull match," which succeeded a lengthy holiday lay-off, Chelsea grapplers overpowered Milan, 45-10, in wrestling action this past week.

"We made a lot of mistakes and were really slow in the contest," Coach Bareis remarked.

Bob Beeman opened the match with a narrow 3-2 loss at 98 lbs. He was followed by Tony Wisniewski who came from behind to score a 4-4 draw at 105 lbs., and by Scott Dalton who was upset by a 12-7 decision at 112 lbs.

However, at 119 lbs., the Bulldogs began a gradual turnaround as Chuck Young recorded a 2-0 shut-out win in a tough match. John Bullick fought to a 4-4 draw at 126 lbs., but was followed by Mike Young with a 8-0 sweep at 132 lbs.

Bart Bauer added to Chelsea's leading edge, scoring a 10-7 comeback-behind win, while John Whitaker rolled to a 12-4 decision win. Then Terry Thompson nailed his opponent for the only pin of the evening at 155 lbs.

Milan forfeited at 165 lbs., 191 lbs., and in the heavyweight class, leaving the way open for Todd Headrick to close out the evening with a 7-1 decision win.

Chelsea's next meet will be against Dexter tonight, Jan. 12, at Dexter.

Police Acquire New Mobile Radar Unit

Chelsea police have greatly increased their ability to catch speeders with the addition of a new $2,400 radar unit purchased last week for the department by the village.

The unit plugs into a cigarette lighter and sends out beams which bounce off a moving vehicle. An antenna picks up the receiving signal which is computed into miles per hour inside of the unit. The unit then registers a reading of the speed, up to a maximum limit of 285 miles per hour.

"We used the unit this past week and it really proved effective," Chelsea Police Sergeant Lenard MacDonald reported. He added the mere presence of the unit was enough to warn many speeding motorists to slow down.

In citing the advantages of the new unit over those of an older model formerly used by local officers, the sergeant said a patrol car can be moving and the unit will still register the speed of passing motorists. It is also capable of measuring the speed of a vehicle traveling behind a patrol car, or approaching from an opposite direction.

The new radar unit calibrates (checks itself out) and has a range from 3/4 of a mile to one mile. A further advantage is the antenna of the unit mounts on the inside of the windshield of a patrol car, as opposed to the outside, so motorists are never sure whether it is being used.

Manufactured by Custom Radar, Chelsea's new unit is the most advanced model available to law enforcement agencies. A revolutionary microprocessor, which acts as a mini-computer, is the inside mechanism responsible for the unit's increased flexibility.

All officers in the local police department attended a special class Wednesday evening, Jan. 4, and are now certified in the operation of the new radar unit.

Varsity Cagers: Although they have lost their last two battles on the court, enthusiasm still runs high among these members of Chelsea High's varsity basketball team who believe that such unfavorable decisions are reversed in their 10 remaining games this season.

The cagers took an early conference lead this season when they began using a new strategy introduced by Coach Robin Raymond. Recently, however, the fast-break offense and man-to-man pressure defense has failed to come together and as a result the cagers have dropped to

Char Steinaway, high point scorer for Chelsea High's girls varsity basketball team and winner of this year's Most Valuable Player award in a vote by her teammates, earned yet another honor this week when she received an honorable mention in voting for the all-league girls basketball team.

Although snow still covers the ground, deep caverns have been opening up in the white stuff as construction on Chelsea's new trunk sewer system continues to move right along. Installation of the sewer, which will eventually stretch from M-52 at Sibley Rd. to Old US-12, began early in November and is expected to be completed some time in March. Now that Daylight Savings Time brings a 9 a.m. dawn, many Chelsea children have been walking to school with flashlights to increase their visibility to motorists. South Elementary school principal, Sylvester Wojcicki, estimates that the number of parents driving their youngsters to school has nearly doubled with the change from Standard Time.

Next Tuesday, Jan. 22, voters in the Washtenaw Intermediate School District will consider a plan by the district to establish a county-wide career center aimed at serving the needs of those who graduated high school with little or no saleable skill.

Charles "Chuck" Koengeter, accompanied by Harold Stander and Bill Hayhow of Ann Arbor, left Sunday for Dallas, Tex., where Koengeter will compete in BPAA's National All-Star Bowling Tournament. Koengeter won the required local qualifications at Colonial Lanes, Ann Arbor.

Approximately 80 people, representative of a cross-section of the electorate of the Chelsea School District, were present for the Citizens Committee meeting Tuesday evening in the Chelsea High school cafeteria. The group discussed long-range plans for additional school facilities, replacement of the junior high school, and other matters of special interest.

Jack Merkel, president of Chelsea Friends of the Library, announced yesterday that the organization, as a service to the community, is promoting an eight-week reading efficiency course scheduled to begin Feb. 20. The Chelsea March of Dimes Bowling Tournament got underway Sunday under the direction of co-chairmen R. V. Worden and Edwin Greenleaf. Assisting with the special March of Dimes benefit were campaign co-chairmen Ann Marsh and Nancy Luick, and Mrs. Donald Baldwin, publicity chairman.

Plans submitted by Louis C. Kingscott & Associates for the new elementary school on McKinley Rd. were approved at a special meeting of the Chelsea Agricultural Schools Board of Education Wednesday, Jan. 6. The plans call for a U-shaped structure to contain eight rooms with no corridors.

Chelsea has a 1954 New Year's baby, probably the only one in Washtenaw county. Cheryl Diane Wilkerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Wilkerson, was born at the family home, 754 Flanders St., before her mother could be taken to a hospital.

Louis Burghardt has been named to head a 10-man first aid and rescue squad of American Legion members from Herbert J. McKune Post No. 31. The squad was formed as a Civil Defense and community service project to fill the need in the Chelsea area for a trained group of rescue workers.

Energy Project Begins

Residents in 15 Michigan counties have been sent energy inventory cards as part of a pilot project by the Department of Commerce to help improve the energy efficiency of their homes.

The project is to inform Michigan residents about the energy efficiency of their own homes and of conservation strategies available to their particular circumstances, according to Director Keith Molin.

The project is expected to go state-wide next year if the demonstration proves feasible. Residents of 40,000 homes involved in the pilot project will be asked to check appropriate boxes on the cards, which will be analyzed by Michigan State University.

The resulting computer print-out will include information on where energy is being wasted, what can be done to use less energy and estimates of how much money the homeowner can expect to save through insulating, weatherstripping and other similar measures.

Molin said estimates project, that with a dedicated effort, conservation savings of nearly seven percent are possible by 1980.

The project involves households in the counties of Barry, Branch, Calhoun, Clinton, Eaton, Gratiot, Hillsdale, Ingham, Ionia, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Kent, Lenawee, Montcalm and St. Joseph.

Governor Promises Farmers Aid
Governor William G. Milliken has promised Michigan farmers he will help get Michigan farmers in on a meeting with U. S. Agriculture Secretary Robert Bergland.

Farmers are demanding 100 percent parity for their products and for other changes in government policies which they say are forcing American farmers into bankruptcy.

They are charging that as recently as 1974, they were selling some of their crops at above-parity prices, but prices have fallen since then while machinery costs have risen as much as 200 percent.

Bergland has agreed to meet with representatives of the farmer's movement from several states. No meeting date has been set.

Milliken, after a lengthy meeting with representatives of the American Agriculture Movement, said Michigan farmers would be represented in the meeting with Secretary Bergland.

Milliken has requested from the movement a list of 10 names of farmers who would be part of a representative group from Michigan.

Farmers claim that one-fourth of the American farmers are on the verge of bankruptcy.

Pigeon River Update

Drilling in the Pigeon River Basin is back in the news with the state's highest court issuing an order enjoining any drilling or site preparation in the area. The order, however, does allow for drilling or site preparation already in progress at the time of the order.

Earlier the Court of Appeals denied a request to halt drilling in the area. The Appeals Court also denied a request by Shell Oil Co. to dismiss the suit brought against it.

Environmental groups have appealed a decision by the Ingham County Circuit Court that proper environmental safeguards had been taken in the area. Environmentalists oppose a decision by the Department of Natural Resources to allow drilling in the wild, natural areas.

School Guidelines Set

The State Board of Education has determined local school boards adopting silent meditation programs should specify a particular time for the meditation each day and allow excuses for students and staff choosing not to participate.

The state board said local boards should notify all school personnel, parents and students when programs of silent meditation are allowed. Further rules may be implemented by the local boards.

The panel also said local schools deciding to take a school census should maintain a count of all persons under 18 years of age and a count of all handicapped persons within their districts.

The food guidelines declare local boards should encourage the sale of foods with high nutritional value and food not meeting the standard should not be sold until at least 30 minutes after the final lunch period.

Michigan State University operates the nation's largest single campus residence halls system. More than 19,000 students live in 36 residence halls; for married students and their families, there are 2,284 apartments built and maintained by MSU. There are 1,184 apartments for faculty.

Ypsi State Hospital Becomes Regional Psychiatric Unit

Reflecting its role as a regional treatment center for persons with mental health problems, Ypsilanti State Hospital has a new name. As of Jan. 1, it has become Ypsilanti Regional Psychiatric Hospital.

"Asylum" was the first description of such centers, offering a place of refuge and shelter. Later treatment became a goal, and the asylums became hospitals. "Today mental health care forms a regional network of services and agencies," said Walter Kenzie, director of the hospital. "Community Mental Health Centers, Regional Centers for Developmental Disabilities (for mental retardation), and Regional Psychiatric Hospitals (for mental illness) work together with private agencies to provide a wide range of specialized services."

Ypsilanti Regional Psychiatric Hospital serves residents of Genesee, Hillsdale, Jackson, Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe, Shiawassee and Washtenaw counties. In addition the children's division, York Woods Center, serves part of Wayne county. The hospital has 1,071 beds.

money
with compound interest

the one
sure way to build a fortune

One of the most important, but overlooked, features of savings is the magical effect of compound interest. If money is deposited and the interest it earns never withdraws, the money grows at an amazing rate. Money to most on Ann Arbor Federal Savings certificates doubles every 10 years.

Thus, if a person 40 years old with $25,000 (in savings, coins, cash value insurance, etc.) puts it into a certificate account at Ann Arbor Federal Savings, it will grow to $50,000 by age 50. By age 60 it will have grown to $100,000 without adding a penny of his paycheck.

For the person in his mid-fifties, with retirement coming up in ten years, compounding has even greater significance. Say he has actual assets of $100,000. If he converts these into cash, he can have $200,000 in ten years and realize an interest income for life of $10,000 to $15,000 thereafter.

But what about the person starting out, the twenty-two year old. By putting $50 a month in a 5 1/2% passbook savings account each month and leaving the interest to accumulate and compound, he will have $21,190 by age 45. Then if he transfers the money to a certificate account and never adds another penny! The money will grow to $87,380 by age 65.

On the other hand if one continues to add to his savings account regularly, it is well within the realm of possibility to accumulate $300,000 or $400,000 or more.

At Ann Arbor Federal Savings your dollars are not subject to market fluctuations, so you are sure when you reach the age at which you want to start using some of your money or earnings it will be there.

However, the Bulldogs are still optimistic about their chances for a winning end to the season and seem to have the necessary attitude to produce that result.

"If enthusiasm and desire won basketball games, we'd be 9-0 right now," Coach Raymond said. "In the last minute of play Friday, we were down 17 points, but were still diving for balls on the floor and working as hard as we had at the beginning of the game."

"If we continue working as hard as we are now," he added, "improvement is sure to come."

Tax Rebate Help For Senior Citizens

For the fourth consecutive year, the Chelsea Kiwanis Club will sponsor a community service program to assist area senior citizens and handicapped individuals in filling out their annual tax claims for a partial refund of property tax or rent paid during 1977.

The partial tax relief program applies to senior citizen property owners, seniors who rent apartments or dwellings, totally disabled veterans, the blind, paraplegics, and quadriplegics.

All area residents who qualify for the partial property tax or rent rebate, and would like assistance from the Kiwanians in filling out their forms, should report to the Chelsea Community Hospital cafeteria, 7:45 p.m., Monday, Jan. 30.

Those attending the meeting must come prepared with their social security number and that of their spouse; a list of all household income including wages, interest, dividends, pensions, social security payments, rental income and net farm income; the amount of health and accident insurance premiums paid for themselves and members of their family; if property owners, the amount of village or township tax paid; and if renting, the total amount of rent paid for the year or for that portion of the year property was rented.

Last year the Kiwanis Club helped 41 people with their 1976 claim forms, and their combined refunds amounted to $14,558.14. Kiwanis members anticipate a substantial increase in the number of persons seeking assistance this year.

A second meeting will be held March 6 for those unable to attend the January meeting. For further information, call 475-1502.

Special Olympians Take Part in County Basketball Tournament

A combined Chelsea-Dexter Special Olympics girls basketball team blazed its way to a County Special Olympics Basketball Tournament title Jan. 6, while a combined Chelsea-Dexter boys basketball squad made a strong showing in the same tournament, but lost its chances for a title after losing a 21-6 decision to Monroe.

Because Chelsea's special education class lacked the necessary number of players to form both an independent boys and girls basketball team, the local players found themselves merging forces with Dexter, usually an arch-rival in athletic contests. However, both sides found the combination profitable.

Chelsea-Dexter teams, calling themselves the Chelter Dreadnought Bullnights (from Dreadnought and Bulldogs), were coached by Nancy Cooper of Chelsea and Arlene Winn of Dexter High school.

The Chelsea-Dexter girls were first to take up their positions on the hardwood court and found themselves opposite the Monroe county Special Olympics girls team. Because so many teams were entered in the tournament, only halves were played.

Chelsea-Dexter upended Monroe, 16-8, on the scoring efforts of Kathy Buck with 6 points, Sue Armstrong, also with 6, and Bonnie Stillion (Dexter) with 4. Also contributing to the victory were Linda Alber, Theresa Murphy, Lori Brown, Lynn Vencil and Linda Rinesmith.

In the second girls tournament round, High Point defeated Community Mental Health, 18-4, which was followed by Chelsea-Dexter's 14-0 shut-out win also over Community Mental Health. Leading scorers for the Chelsea-Dexter girls team were Sue Armstrong with 8 points, and Kathy Buck with 6.

In their tournament opener, the Chelsea-Dexter boys were upset by Monroe in a close game which saw the lead exchanged many times. Scoring for Chelsea-Dexter were Richard Roza (Dexter) with 10 points, Kevin Thomas (Dexter) with 2, Steve Lawrence with 2, and Glenn Passow, also with 2.

Other members of the Chelsea-Dexter boys team included Ryan Sweeney, Karl Pauley, Wayne Wilke, Robert McCrindle, Leonard Carlson and Matt Schnadt.

In the second round, the Chelsea-Dexter boys clashed with Community Mental Health and emerged with a 20-11 victory. Scoring for the Chelter Dreadnought Bullnights, were Kevin Thomas with 6 points, Steve Lawrence also with 6, Glenn Passow with 4, and Lee Wilke with 2.

Community Mental Health then defeated High Point, but St. Louis school, coached by George Stellan, took the boys tournament title after routing Monroe.

Chelsea-Dexter teams are planning a rematch with High Point because their game Jan. 6 was cancelled as a result of insufficient time. High Point is coached by Doug Cooper.

Upon their return from last Friday's basketball tournament, area Special Olympians began preparing for the State Floor Hockey Tournament, scheduled for Jan. 20 at Belleville High school, Belleville.

Discussion Set on Sewer System Permit Procedure

State Representative Mike Conlin (R-23rd District) has announced his plans to sponsor a special meeting for Freedom township area residents concerned with on-site sewer system permit procedures.

In answer to complaints voiced by township residents regarding discrimination in the granting of permits for on-site sewer system construction, Representative Conlin has arranged for John Atwater, director of the Washtenaw County Health Department, to meet with residents and discuss their grievances.

The meeting, scheduled for Jan. 16, 7:30 p.m., in Freedom Township Hall, will be conducted on a town hall forum basis.

The third annual Washtenaw county 4-H Recognition Banquet, held last night at Saline High school, honored two local leaders. Awards were presented by Don Johnson, Washtenaw county agricultural agent, to Allen Broesamle for 15 years of leadership, and to Mrs. Clarence Redden for 10 years as a leader of 4-H clubs.

An appropriation of $90,000 has been recommended by the youth guidance committee of the state corrections department for the treatment of wayward minors—those between the ages of 17 and 21 years of age, who will be sent to the Cassidy Lake camp, which was taken over from the NYA for a vocational training school for young prison inmates.

In an election held under the direction of the National Labor Relations Board at the local plant of Federal Screw Works on Tuesday, the CIO defeated the CIWA by a vote of 412 to 339. This vote was conducted to determine the bargaining agency for employees at the plant.

George Winans, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Winans, was commissioned a Second Lieutenant as pilot in the Army Air Force. He received his Silver Wings at graduation exercises at Pampa Army Air Field, Tex., on Friday, Jan. 7.

In September, 1977, the average daily patient census in VA hospitals was 74,435 persons, the Veterans Administration reported.

"Instead, let the word of God fill you with meaning and purpose for living in today's world," the pastor announced.

Weekly services will be conducted in Rebekah Lodge Hall, on M-52, beginning with Bible class at 10 a.m. every Sunday, morning worship at 11 a.m., and an evening worship at 7 p.m. supplementary mid-week prayer service will be conducted Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Color Film To Be Shown at N. Lake Church

"Shokari Pass," a new film from the producers of "The King of the Hill," will be shown North Lake United Methodist church, 14111 North Territorial Rd. on Sunday, Jan. 15. The hour color release from World Wide Pictures will be shown beginning at 7:30 p.m.

"Shokari Pass" is unique. Although it has an English soundtrack, it was originally produced for showing to Japanese audiences. It was filmed entirely in Japan with a Japanese cast and crew, and depicts the delicate beauty of that country. The drama of the story unfolds against a backdrop of Japan's spring blossoms, snow-capped mountains and whispering native music.

A true story, "Shokara Pass" is based on the international best seller by Ayako Miura. Nearly two million readers have been touched by this story of the abiding love of a young couple at the turn of the century.

Credited with creating a deeper understanding of the Christian faith among the Japanese people, the film tells of the love of a young couple, Fujiko, and of his willingness to be guided by his personal faith, no matter how great the cost of commitment.

From its gentle opening to its gripping, unexpected conclusion, "Shokari Pass" is a profound demonstration of the power of love in one life.

The Rev. John W. Elliott, pastor of the North Lake United Methodist church, extends an invitation to each member of the community to attend this special showing and added, "Shokari Pass" is the kind of film that will be enjoyed and remembered by the entire family."

There will be no admission charge for the film program.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER

REALTOR

HOME-OFFICE DEDUCTION

If you use one room of your home as an office, make sure that you are taking advantage of the tax break that is entitled to you. How much of your home office expenses can be taken as a business expense depends on the size of the room in relation to the rest of the house.

For example, if the house has 1,600 square feet of space and the office measures 10 x 16 feet (or 160 square feet), you are allowed 10% of the total running costs of the house's light, heat, repairs, painting, and other maintenance, depreciation, taxes and so on.

But, remember that the room must be used exclusively for business use; preferably as a main place of business, or showthat the room was necessary to see clients or patients. Also, expenses cannot exceed the income earned from the business.

Also, if you have any valuable equipment in your home office, don't assume that it will be covered by your regular homeowners insurance policy. You'll need a special floater to protect against loss.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-9681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Chelsea Recreation Department's winter course offerings are now open for registration, according to Tom Neumeier, director. This year's program will introduce a lecture series entitled "Do Something Different."

Designed to cover a variety of topics, the eight-part series will feature guest appearances by experts in each field. For a fee of $24, participants will receive six tickets which may be used for any six of the eight lectures. Additional tickets may be purchased for $3.50 each at registration. Topics to be offered are as follows:

Jan. 16—"If You Don't Like the Play, Change the Script." Based on transactional analysis script.

Jan. 23—"Assertiveness Training." Learn the way to express your beliefs, feelings and desires in an honest, direct, and appropriate manner.

Jan. 30—"Law for Laymen." Your rights as a citizen and much more. Spend an evening with a practicing attorney and learn some surprising answers.

Feb. 6—"Conflict in Life and Work." Find out when conflict is acceptable, and when it is, how to use it effectively.

Feb. 13—"Lifesavers." You're camping and your husband complains of pains in his chest. You think it is a heart attack and there is no help available. What should you do? A neighbor is in for lunch. She begins to choke and there is no time to get help. What should you do? The baby has swallowed something that may be poisonous. Should you give him water? This class could be a lifesaver.

Feb. 20—"Russian Roulette With A Fork." Can food selection affect our mental attitude? Our personality as well as our vitality? An expert in food research will offer some surprising and interesting ideas for your consideration.

Feb. 27—"Bio-Rhythms." Charting your ups and downs in life. Learn which are good days, bad days, and peaks of optimum function. Complete instructions on how to chart your bio-rhythm.

March 6—"ESP Workshop." You too, have ESP. This class will help you discover the extent of your ability and will give you guidance in developing it further.

CANFIELD COUNTRY SCHOOL: Back in the days of wood burning stoves and horse and buggy transportation, education amounted to little more than the three R's, reading, writing and arithmetic. Most of the "learnin'" took place in environments similar to the one memorialized in this photo of the Canfield Country school, circa 1902-03. The school was once located on Waterloo Rd. There was only one classroom and one teacher, with instruction doled out to each student according to his or her age. Many old-timers in Chelsea are captured here

Metric Workshop Planned for Jan. 30

A special Metric Workshop will be conducted at Beach Middle school the end of this month to inform and educate the general public in Chelsea as to the meaning and use of the metric system of measurements.

According to tentative program arrangements, those attending the special workshop will be weighed in kilograms upon arrival and their height will be measured in centimeters.

Graduated cylinders and beakers, marked in milliliters, will also be on display, and participants will work a metric crossword puzzle to gauge their knowledge of the metric system.

A general talk is planned to give participants a brief explanation and history of the international weights and measures system.

"We plan to inform the public of the proper symbols to be used and the proper words that apply when writing metric," Jim Hoffmeyer, a 7th grade science teacher at Beach school and co-ordinator of the workshop program, explained.

"For example, we'll define the difference between the reference to temperatures in degrees centigrade and that of Celsius."

Hoffmeyer added that an important part of the workshop will be to point out how the metric system may already be in use without general public awareness of that fact. "We currently use a decimal system in counting money, which is really a form of metrics," he said.

For those skeptical about the chances of metrics gaining everyday use in the future, Hoffmeyer had the following to say: "It's definitely coming whether or not the system is accepted officially. When we're dealing with other nations and with technology, everything is couched in metric terms. It simply makes more sense."

After the initial presentation of metric terms and uses at the special workshop, participants will be divided into groups for questions and discussion under the direction of various group leaders. Currently, sponsors of the workshop are seeking qualified members in the community familiar with the metric system to volunteer their services as a leader.

There is no charge for the workshop and refreshments will be served, according to Beach school principal Alan Conklin, refreshment committee chairman.

The workshop is slated for Monday, Jan. 30, 8 to 10 p.m., in the Beach Middle school science rooms.

Those planning to attend are asked to call Beach school at 475-9131 and state their intentions so that program planners will know approximately how many people to expect.

Chelsea Students Receive WMU Scholarships

Two students from Chelsea were among a record number of 92 Western Michigan University paper science and engineering students awarded semester scholarships, it was announced Tuesday, Jan. 3, by the Paper Technology Foundation, Kalamazoo.

The stipends, which total $42,618, range from $265 to $1,309 per student, and are renewable for a student's entire undergraduate career at WMU if satisfactory classroom performance is maintained.

Chelsea's scholarship recipients are Steven D. Bennett, of 8215 Beeman Rd., a WMU junior; and Brian D. Smith, of 7676 Werkner Rd., also a WMU junior.

The foundation has a membership of more than 90 corporations and 200 alumni and individuals. Most of their dues and contributions are directed toward the scholarship fund.

BARBARA RODERICKLYNDON TOWNSHIP TREASURER
9508 Beeman Rd., Grand Lake, MI 49240 Ph. 475-7056State Highway Crews Ready for Winter Snow

Shuddering with memory of last winter's record-shattering winds, snow, ice and cold, Michigan's chief of maintenance for state highways reports he and his men are better primed than ever for their annual battle with Old Man Winter.

"We have completed a series of training sessions for our men throughout the state and are confident that we can keep all state highways reasonably passable, no matter what the weather is," said Thomas R. Wiseman, engineer of maintenance for the Department of State Highways and Transportation. "Our confidence is supported by continually refined procedures, improved equipment for snow and ice removal—perhaps most important of all—the pride and determination our men have in keeping highways open."

Wiseman quipped that his confidence is further supported with the expectation that "this winter can't possibly be as bad as last winter."

The Department's final bill for state-wide snow and ice removal last year was a whopping $18,161,511, some $1 million more than the previous record, and nearly $3 million more than the average for the previous five years.

With fingers crossed, Wiseman said the budget for this year's winter maintenance program has been established at $15,000,115, or $2.2 million less than last winter.

He recalled that last winter's snow removal program in many areas of the state degenerated into a daily pushing contest between excessively high winds and his men and machines.

"We no sooner would get a highway cleared, when winds would blow the same snow back onto the highway," Wiseman said. "This occurred day after day in many areas of Michigan, especially in areas along the Lake Michigan shoreline."

The task was further complicated by prolonged sub-freezing temperatures, making the winter of '76-'77 the harshest on record.

Wiseman said a "careful, curtailed salting program," for state highways will be in effect again this winter. A year ago, the State Highway Commission ordered less use of de-icing salt on highways whenever and wherever possible, not only because of soaring costs for salt but because of increasing environmental concerns.

"With new and improved snow removal equipment and procedures, we believe we can do an adequate job and at the same time reduce salting operations," Wiseman said. "We will continue to salt or sand hills, curves and intersections but will curtail salt operations on straight stretches of highways during storms."

The Department is responsible for snow and ice removal on 9,400 miles of state highways. To accomplish this, the Department staffs its own maintenance garages in 21 of Michigan's 83 counties and contracts with 62 county road commissions and 158 municipalities for snow removal on state highways in their respective jurisdictions. That adds up to a force of several thousand men.

In addition to state highways, the state's 83 county road commissions are responsible for snow removal on approximately 88,000 miles of county roads. Municipalities remove snow on approximately 18,700 miles of streets.

Wiseman admitted the millions of dollars spent on snow removal "literally goes down the drain."

"The real question," he said, "is what would it cost not to remove snow?"

Wiseman noted that this winter will mark the 60th anniversary of Michigan's formal program to keep state highways passable during winter. It all began in the winter of 1917-18, during World War I, when the state had to keep roads open for delivery of war material destined for combat zones overseas.

Since then, Michigan has seen a vast increase in highway mileage and generally harsher winters. But also much improved snow removal equipment and technicians.

Michigan's first gold mine, established in 1881, was the Ropes Gold Mine, named for its founder and major owner, Julius Ropes. The mine, located north of Ishpeming, was in operation for 14 years, drilling to a depth of 800 feet and recovering $447,902 in gold and silver. Ishpeming is also the home of the National Ski Hall of Fame, one of the many interesting landmarks in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce.

— OFFICIAL NOTICE —REGULAR MEETING OF THE

will be held

Tuesday, January 17, 1978 - 7:30 p.m.

at the Dexter Township Hall, 6880 Dexter-Pinckney Rd.

ITEM TO BE DISCUSSED:

Tentative approval of Hidden Lake Estate on Flemming Rd.

WILLIAM EISENBEISER
Dexter Township ClerkLabor Law Reform Bill Could Affect You

Let's pretend you own and operate a small business in a town of 10,000 people. You have 10 employees; over half of them have been with you in excess of five years, with most of the employees being social friends of yours.

Although most of your sales are once a year or so you do get a large order from a nearby federal installation with whom you have been doing business for a number of years.

At the start of your busiest season, you take on a new employee, telling him that you can guarantee him a job for the next several months and perhaps thereafter if your sales volume continues to increase. You soon notice, however, that he seems more interested in talking with the other employees than in serving customers, and you think perhaps you will have to let him go.

However, before you can make a decision, you are started to receive a special delivery letter from the National Labor Relations Board late one Friday afternoon. The letter informs you that a petition has been filed with the NLRB by a union which claims to represent a majority of your people. The NLRB letter further advises you that the board's normal practice in such circumstances is to hold a secret ballot representation election within 15 days. If the union wins the election, it will be certified by the board as the bargaining agent for your employees.

You are obviously bewildered since you know virtually nothing of unions, nothing of labor law, and do not even know a labor lawyer (there not being one in your whole county). So you call one of your social friends who is also an employee and who, since the work day is over, happens to be at home. You then go to his home to discuss the situation since that is more convenient than asking him to come back to the office. Your friend-employee tells you that "yes" there has been a labor organizer working in the area, that he seems to be particularly close to the new employee you hired, and that several of the employees are unhappy about a couple of issues.

You ask the employee why it had not been mentioned before and he tells you that no one had even thought about these issues until the labor organizer and the new employee mentioned them. These are relatively minor issues which you are perfectly happy to discuss with the employees, and so you ask the friend you're visiting to arrange a short employee meeting at the store for the next working day. During the discussion, the employee demands are considered reasonable by you and you agree to grant those demands. You also seek to correct some of the misleading and incorrect assertions which the union organizer has made to your employees.

At noon the same day you are presented with a demand by the union representative to have an employee meeting at your store for him to address the employees. You refuse this demand because it is your private property and you feel the demand is unreasonable.

You also observe that the new employee is spending virtually all his time talking to the other employees urging them to support the union. He is doing no work himself and is diverting the other employees from their work. You call the new employee into your office to admonish him. When you do, he becomes belligerent and surly. You tell him he's fired, and he says he'll get even with you by going to the NLRB.

Let's stop here . . . what kind of trouble have you gotten into if S. 1883 becomes law? Assume you have now finally been able to obtain the services of a labor counsel. Here's what he will likely tell you . . .

—The board will hold a representation election within 15 days of when you received the petition. Sure, that doesn't give you very much time to find out about the union and pass such useful information on to your employees so they can cast an intelligent and informed vote. But that's the law. —You violated the law by refusing to give the union organizer "equal access" to your employees; even though it's your property, he has the right to talk to your employees during work time and on your property—because you did.

—You can anticipate that the employee you fired will file an unfair labor practice charge with the board. If, as seems probable, the NLRB decides to issue a complaint against you, the board will immediately proceed to Federal District Court to obtain a court order requiring you to reinstate the discharged individual pending a full hearing on the matter before an NLRB administrative law judge. The board's chances of getting such a court order are excellent. If the administrative law judge and the board agree that you committed an unfair labor practice by discharging the individual for union activity, you will be liable for double back pay. And you will have to pay the full amount even though that individual immediately obtained work elsewhere and actually lost nothing!

—You have probably committed an unfair labor practice in violation of the National Labor Relations Act by going to your friend-employee's home and by discussing the union with him there. You have committed another unfair labor practice by asking him any questions about the union drive.

—You have undoubtedly committed yet another unfair labor practice by asking the employees what their grievances were and by promising to take action to correct the problems brought to your attention. Under the National Labor Relations Act, this would be regarded as an improper attempt to "coerce" the employees into voting against the union.

—The election will very likely become a one-way ratchet to be used against you. If the union wins, the board will certify it as the bargaining agent for your employees. But even if the union loses, the board will probably find on the facts here that you have committed unfair labor practices "that undermined a free and fair election." If the union had obtained signed cards in its favor prior to the election from a majority of your employees, the board could, and almost certainly would, order you to bargain with the union. And this despite the fact that a majority of your employees cast their secret ballots against the union in the board-run election.

—If you wanted to obtain review of a board certification or board bargaining order in the courts, you could do so. But only at a substantial risk. If you lose in the courts, you will be required to pay your employees wage increases from the date when the board says bargaining should have started until you actually sign a first contract. The amount of those wage increases is based on the percentage change in a Labor Department index. That index, however, is not based on wage settlements in small businesses, but on those in units of 5,000 or more employees.

—Finally, if the board should find that you commit any new unfair labor practices in violation of a prior board or court order, you can be debarred from receiving government contracts for up to three years. In other words, you can be prevented from selling your merchandise to any federal installation.

Farmers are not yet under the National Labor Relations Act and S. 1883 does not propose to remove the agricultural exemption. But the Secretary of Labor has said he favors legislation to bring farmers under the Act, and legislation has been introduced in the House to remove the exemption.

To protect your own future, to prevent this situation from happening to other businesses in your area, and to stop this grab for more power by the union bosses, your two Senators need to hear how you feel about this bill, which may be on the floor of the Senate by mid-February.

A comic once said that if he'd known he was going to live this long, he'd have taken better care of his body. Funny line, but what he didn't know is that it's never too late. Take cigarette smoking for instance. A smoker runs twice the risk of heart attack and five times the risk of stroke as a non-smoker. But when you quit, your risk gradually drops almost to that of a person who never smoked. So why not give your heart a break and quit? CHS Wrestlers 3rd In Western Tourney

Chelsea High wrestlers continued to demonstrate their ability to place near the top in tournament competition this past weekend as they made a strong third-place finish behind Jackson Parkside and Eaton Rapids in the Jackson Western Invitational.

Final team standings were Parkside, Eaton Rapids, Chelsea, Marper Creek, Highland Park, Saline, Columbia Central, Napoleon, Okemos, Albion, Tecumseh, Jackson Western and Jackson Luman Christi.

Earning championship honors for Chelsea in the tournament was Mike Young at 132 lbs., while place winners included Chuck Young 2nd, at 119 lbs.; Todd Headrick, 2nd, at 178 lbs.; Leon Brown, 2nd, heavyweight division; and Bart Bauer, 3rd, at 138 lbs.

Other Bulldog wrestlers who gained points for their team were Tony Wisniewski who scored a pin, John Bulick who fought his way to two wins, John Whitaker who also grappled to a pin win, and Terry Thompson who followed his teammates with a third pin win.

"I was pleased with the performance of our wrestlers," Coach

Richard Bareis declared, "but we still need a lot of improvement if we expect to challenge Dexter and Saline."

Mike Young continues to lead the Bulldogs with an undefeated 13-0 record, while Leon Brown has established a 14-2 record to date. Other individual Bulldog marks include Todd Headrick at 13-3-2, Chuck Young at 10-4-1, Bart Bauer at 13-6, Terry Thompson at 12-5, and John Bulick at 12-9-1.

Great Lakes shipping was gracefully launched in 1869 with the all wood, 211-foot R. J. Hackett from a shipyard in Cleveland. Today, among the approximately 240 carriers in operation, the Stewart J. Cort, at 1,000 feet, is the largest of all bulk ore carriers on the Great Lakes. Visitors to Sault Ste. Marie may take a boat tour through the Soo Locks, the same passage the mammoth carriers must make between Lakes Superior and Huron from late May through mid-October, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce.

KATHRINE FRISINGER, Secretary

Cager of the Week

JESSE COBURN (22), forward, and first-year member of Chelsea's varsity basketball squad, has shown a lot of improvement since the season began, according to his coach, Robin Raymond. Raymond pointed out that the transition from football to basketball takes a while, and that Coburn, a mainstay of Chelsea's grid squad in the fall, is just beginning to complete the transition. "He should be a big contributor to the team the second half of the season," Coach Raymond reported. Coburn, who says he concentrates mostly "on rebounding and outside shooting" as a forward, added that he scores an average of five points per game and recovers an average of five or six rebounds per encounter. The 6'3", 165-lb. junior further noted that his best game this season was Dec. 10 against South Lyon because he "played well on offense and defense both." Calling Chelsea's game with Pinckney on Dec. 20 the team's best to date, Coburn recalled: "We played well together that night, kept our fast break going, totally dominated the game, and won." The cager predicts Chelsea will finish the current season among the top four conference teams, consenting only that it would be tough to win a conference title after losing to Saline. "But we're capable of beating any team in the conference if we play well, and we still have Milan (runner-up in the conference) and Saline to play again," he said. According to Coburn, Chelsea's greatest competitive asset is its ability to run well, which figures prominently in its ability to execute a fast break. "When our fast break is working, we're pretty hard to defeat," he declared. Coburn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Coburn, of 11139 Boyce Rd.

Dexter Township Board Sets Guides for Zoning Enforcement

Two budget changes were approved by members of the Dexter Township Board during their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening, Jan. 3.

Board members moved to increase the Zoning Board of Appeals budget from $550 to $1,300, and to increase the legal fees, accounting and contractual service budget from $5,000 to $8,000.

In other action, Treasurer Arlene Howe reported that the yearly salary of Supervisor John Tandy, as reported in the Ann Arbor News, was misleading because the published figure included the assessor's fee as part of the regular supervisor's salary.

After approving both the minutes of the previous board meeting and the treasurer's report, board members were informed by the township's zoning inspector that the temporary Schneider home had been removed and therefore the bond should be returned. Matters pertaining to the Michael A. Lirtz home on Stinchfield Woods Rd. were also discussed.

The board then moved to approve the township's zoning administration procedures as revised.

In his report to the board, Supervisor Tandy announced that the annual Michigan Townships Association Convention had been scheduled for Jan. 10 and that he planned to attend the meeting. Howe has also tentatively scheduled to attend.

The supervisor further reported that no date has been set for the continuation of the Hintzen trial. Before adjourning, the board approved payment of bills as presented.

Detroit telephone customers were the first in the nation to be assigned individual telephone numbers to aid operators in handling a large volume of calls. Today, Michigan ranks seventh in the U.S. with nearly six million telephones in operation. Visitors to the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn can see exhibits tracing the development of modern communication, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce.

JV Cagers Dumped By Saline, 67-39

A six-game winning streak came to an abrupt halt for Chelsea's league-leading JV cagers last Friday when they were dumped by Saline, 67-39, in what amounted to a second-half sack.

Although Saline jumped to a 14-0 lead early in the first quarter, the junior Bulldogs returned to narrow the gap to 10-18 behind Saline at the end of the period, and then evened the score at 27-27 late in the second quarter.

Saline managed to collect one more point from the charity stripe before the period ended, leaving the Hornets with a 28-27 half-time advantage.

"Ice cold" was the way Coach Jon Schaffner termed Chelsea's start in the second half when the junior cagers found the basket only once in their first 20 scoring attempts. As a result, Saline pulled away with a 17-point lead at the end of the third quarter.

Scoring 21 points to Chelsea's 10 in the final period, Saline coasted to an easy victory.

"Our three-week holiday lay-off really showed as we shot the poorest we have all year against Saline," Coach Schaffner said in reviewing Friday's game.

Brad Knickerbocker led the Bulldogs with 8 points, 3 rebounds and 2 assists, followed by John Dunn with 7 points, 4 steals, 3 assists and 2 rebounds; Jeff Dils with 6 points, 4 assists and 3 rebounds; Dave Seyfried with 6 points, 6 rebounds and 1 steal; and Karl Albrecht with 6 points and 5 rebounds.

Also helping out were Mike Killelea with 4 points, 10 rebounds, 1 steal, 1 assist and 1 blocked shot; Mike Wood with 2 points and 2 rebounds; Don Schrotenboer with 10 rebounds, 2 steals and 1 blocked shot; Dan McGill with 2 steals; and Dan Alber with 1 assist.

As a result of the loss, Chelsea is now tied for the number one spot in the conference with a 4-1 conference mark, and has dropped to a 6-3 record on the season.

Before the holiday lay-off, the junior Bulldogs battled to a 64-50 triumph over Pinckney in a non-league encounter though the game was pronounced "not one of our better ones" by Coach Schaffner. The Bulldogs recorded a season high of 34 turnovers in the clash, but countered by totally dominating the rebounds with 48 compared to Pinckney's 27.

Chelsea took a 14-0 lead in the first quarter and increased it to 33-18 at half-time. In the third period, the Bulldogs again outscored Pinckney, 18-12, for a 52-30 advantage and though outdistanced by Pinckney in the fourth quarter, 20-12, they finished on top of the 64-50 decision.

Don Schrotenboer paced Chelsea in the game with 17 points, 15 rebounds, 4 steals, 2 blocked shots and 1 assist, followed by Mike Killelea with 17 points, 12 rebounds and 2 assists.

Also contributing to the winning cause were Brad Knickerbocker with 9 points, 6 rebounds, 7 steals and 4 assists; Jeff Dils with 9 points, 6 rebounds, 8 assists, 2 steals and 1 blocked shot; John Dunn with 7 points, 5 steals, 2 rebounds and 1 assist; Dave Seyfried with 3 points, 3 rebounds, and 1 blocked shot; Dan Alber with 2 points and 1 rebound; Karl Albrecht with 3 rebounds, 1 steal and 1 blocked shot; and Dan McGill with 1 blocked shot.

Intramural Basketball Underway at Beach

In the boys league, Preston defeated Vandervoort, 15-8, while Murphy crushed Robbins, 20-12. Leading scorers were Ray Williams with 11 points, John Preston with 8, Tom Vandervoort with 6, Doug Inglis with 6, and Matt McCallum, also with 6.

The Preston team leads the boys league with a 2-0 record, followed by Murphy with a 1-1 record, Vandervoort also with a 1-1 record, and Robbins with a 0-2 mark.

In the girls league, Kiel slid past Eisele, 15-10, Thornton battled to a 6-2 finish over Troutman, and Weber edged Hastings, 10-8. Leading scorers were Karen Kiel with 7 points and Ann Eisele with 6.

Thornton and Weber are at the top of the girls league with even 2-0 records. Kiel and Eisele are in the middle with even 1-1 records, and Troutman and Hastings 0-2 records.

Dance Marathon Starts Friday at High School

In a move reminiscent of the '30's, the Junior Class at Chelsea High school will sponsor a dance marathon this week-end in the Chelsea High school cafeteria to raise funds for the upcoming Junior-Senior Prom.

The marathon, which is tentatively scheduled to include some square dancing, will begin at 10 p.m. Friday, Jan. 13 and continue round-the-clock until 7 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 15.

Sponsor sheets are currently being circulated in the community by students seeking to solicit pledges in the name of marathon participants. Residents and local retailers will be asked to name their own amounts and then pay that amount multiplied by the number of hours the student they sponsor remains on the dance floor.

The public is invited to stop by the high school cafeteria anytime during the three-day marathon and watch the proceedings. In addition to dancing, a bake sale will be in progress and refreshments will be available. A small admission fee will be charged.

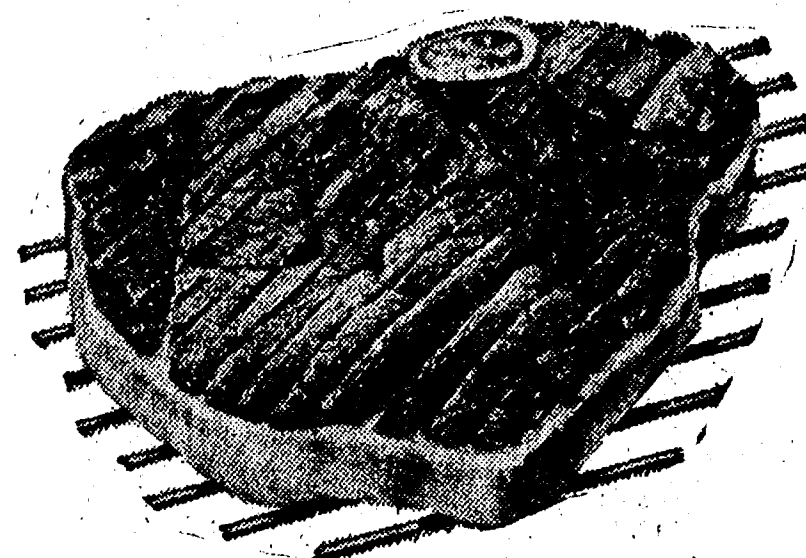

According to Mary Stoll, spokesperson for the Dance Marathon Task Force, a cash prize will be awarded to the marathon winner on Sunday.

Teacher-sponsors for the event are Bud Janich and Laurie LaZebnik.
