Dexter Attorney Seeks State Legislative Post

Dexter attorney Thomas L. Stringer announced today that he will be a candidate on the Republican ticket for State Representative from the 23rd Legislative District which covers western Washtenaw county and a part of Jackson county.

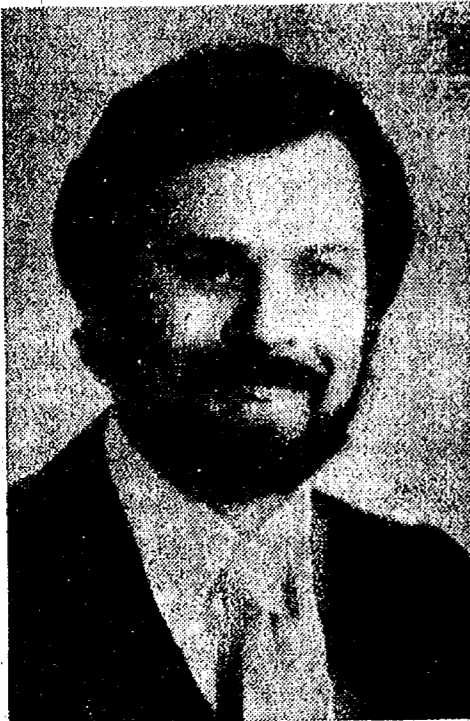

Stringer, 30, will be seeking the seat vacated by incumbent State Representative Michael H. Conlin (R-Jackson). Conlin has announced that he will not be seeking re-election to the post he has held since 1975.

Stringer, who was recently nominated for consideration as a candidate for Outstanding Young Man in America, is heavily involved in Dexter civic and community affairs. He is a trustee of the Dexter Village Council, president of the Dexter Community Youth Center, vice-president of the Dexter Chamber of Commerce, a director of the Dexter Kiwanis Club, legal council for the Michigan Jaycees, a member of the Executive Board of the Michigan Jaycees, and current vice-president of the Dexter Jaycees.

"I am entering this election with the understanding that if elected, I will be representing the concerns of the people of the district and not necessarily the concerns of Tom Stringer," he said. "I consider myself a political moderate. I am opposed to the concept of bigger and bigger government and I strongly support holding the line on spending and taxes."

"If elected, I will devote my full attention to the welfare of the 23rd district while at the same time insuring that the best interests of the state are considered," Stringer added. "I promise to be responsible and the only special interest I will be influenced by is the people I'll be representing."

Stringer is a partner in the Dexter law firm of Kitchen and Stringer. He is a graduate of Blissfield High School, Eastern Michigan University, and the University of Detroit Law School. A member of the American and Michigan Bar Associations and the Washtenaw and Livingston County Bar Associations, Stringer is also president of the Young Lawyers Section of the Washtenaw County Bar Association, and a commit-

Lynwood Noah Announces for District Judge

Washtenaw County Assistant Prosecutor Lynwood Noah, of 8501 Hanker Rd., Gregory, formally announced his candidacy for 14th District Court judge Wednesday, Feb. 8, at a regular meeting of the Dexter Area Chamber of Commerce.

Noah will seek the seat to be vacated by incumbent District Court Judge Henry Arkison who is scheduled to retire from office when his term expires this year. Because Arkison will reach the age of 70 prior to the August primary, he is prohibited by state law from seeking re-election to his current post.

Arkison was appointed 14th District Court Judge by Governor William Milliken in 1969, and retained his seat in subsequent elections. He is one of four judges currently presiding over the 14th District.

Noah, a practicing attorney for a number of years, served as chief assistant to Booker T. Williams, former Ypsilanti prosecuting attorney, before assuming his current duties as an assistant prosecutor for Washtenaw county.

18 Calves Perish in Barn Fire

Two barn fires in little more than an hour gave the Chelsea Fire Department a mid-winter work-out Saturday evening.

18 calves died from smoke inhalation in the first fire which struck the Virgil Clark farm on N. M-52 shortly before 7 p.m., according to Fire Chief Jim Gaken. He added a heat lamp being used to warm the calves was the suspected cause of the blaze.

Part of the barn roof was burned off but no injuries were reported in the second fire which occurred at about 7:20 p.m. at the Frank Sweeney farm at 20412 Jerusalem Rd. Cause of the blaze is still under investigation.

The two farms are within six to eight miles of one another, Gaken said, but it is believed there is no connection between the fires.

Chief Gaken also said neither fire is related to the series of barn fires which occurred in the area a little more than one year ago and were believed to be the work of an arsonist.

Junior High Festival Set For Friday

Some 40 Beach Middle school musicians will travel to Monroe Saturday to compete in the annual District 12 Junior High Solo and Ensemble Festival. The event has been re-scheduled from Feb. 3 to Feb. 17 because of snow.

According to junior high band director Warren Mayer, Chelsea musicians will be entered in approximately 46 events and will compete for ratings to be determined by a three-member judging panel.

Students finishing the day with a Division I rating will receive a blue medal and will be eligible for regional competition. Those receiving a Division II rating will receive a red medal. Parents are reminded buses will leave Chelsea for Monroe at 6:15 a.m. and will return at about 5:30 p.m.

The annual Junior High Solo and Ensemble Festival is sponsored by the Michigan State Band and Orchestra Association.

Debate Team Places 5th in State Championship Tourney

Julie Prohaska and Tammy Puglisi, two seniors representing Chelsea High's varsity debate squad at the 61st Michigan State Championship Debate Tournament in Grand Rapids, Feb. 9-11, argued both negative and affirmative sides of the national debate topic through eight preliminary rounds before settling for the 5th-place finish at the quarter-final level.

Some 78 Class B schools were entered in the tournament which was judged by debate coaches from Class A schools and colleges. Chelsea's two debaters were eliminated in the quarterfinals by a 2-1 decision that favored Caro.

"It was a strong effort by both girls who have done well all season," Chelsea Coach William Coelius reported. "Both demonstrated they were quality individuals and because they will be graduating this year, the team will miss them."

Coach Coelius added that Prohaska and Puglisi both plan to study for careers in law and can look forward to future success as attorneys.

This was the second consecutive year the two debaters have qualified for the State Championships. Last year Prohaska and Puglisi combined to give Chelsea a fifth-place finish in the state, but added proficiency in the debate arena enabled the two to place even higher this season.

Michigan top eight debate teams as determined by last week tournament results, are Birmingham Brother Rice, first; Warren, second; Caro, third; Essexville Garber, fourth; Chelsea, fifth; Marshall, sixth; Three Rivers, seventh; and Portage Northern, eighth.

Lyndon Dog Kennel Is Still in Operation

A concerned and vocal group of Lyndon township residents is expected to attend the Feb. 21 meeting of the Lyndon Township Board to protest the board's lack of action on an issue which has troubled the township for nearly two years.

The group's protest stems from an illegally-kept dog kennel on the Charles Baum property, 9730 Beeman Rd., Grass Lake.

What began as a complaint against Baum for maintaining a public nuisance with his kennel operations in March, 1976, blossomed into a full-blown legal battle last summer when Lyndon Township Board members filed a civil suit against Baum on the grounds township ordinance requires a 10-acre parcel of land for a dog kennel.

Township Attorney Peter Flinthead said the dogs were sick and uncared for, were contaminating a water main ditch, and that Baum maintained an exposed septic field contrary to local and state law.

In a non-jury trial before Circuit Court Judge Edward D. Deake, Baum admitted he was operating on two as opposed to 10 acres, but denied the dogs were mistreated or that they were contaminating water.

Two Wrestlers Qualify for State Tourney

Chelsea High senior Mike Young repeated as regional champion at 132 lbs., and senior Leon Brown claimed the runner-up title in the heavyweight division at last Saturday's Class B Regional Wrestling Tournament at Willow Run.

Both will now advance to the State Finals which are scheduled to begin tomorrow, Feb. 17, at East Kentwood in Grand Rapids. The two-day state tournaments will conclude with consolation finals and championship matches.

As a result of his title win Saturday, Young now holds a perfect 36-0 record for the season. Brown's season mark is at 26-3. "If Young and Brown wrestle up to their ability this week-end, both stand a good chance of placing in the state finals," Chelsea Coach Richard Bareis said.

After personally visiting the kennel to investigate the charges and studying testimony in the case, Judge Deake ruled Dec. 2 that Baum's dog activities constitute a nuisance.

The court formally enjoined Baum from using his land on Beeman Rd. as a dog kennel and ordered the former Jackson resident and native Detroit to pay court costs, as well as costs of $1,640 to the Washtenaw County Humane Society for destruction of 85 dogs Baum had brought to Washtenaw county from Jackson to reinstate his kennel operations after he was convicted of cruelty to animals in Jackson District Court.

The 85 dogs had been seized by the Humane Society and destroyed following a ruling handed down by Circuit Court Judge William F. Ager, Jr., in April of 1976. A veterinarian had determined all but two dogs had mange, but Baum denied the veterinarian's report saying only about a dozen of the dogs were afflicted with the skin disease.

After the 85 dogs were taken away, Baum began collecting a new supply of dogs which had reached 40 by the time of his trial last August. Although Judge Deake's decision gave Baum until Jan. 6 to get rid of the dogs, he has ignored the ruling, continues his kennel operations, and at last report was adding more dogs to his collection.

Baum's failure to comply with the court ruling, and what many residents see as the township's failure to enforce it, have triggered an angry response from residents anxious to close down the illegal kennel.

Although the Lyndon Township Board has instructed its attorney to place a lien on Baum's property, residents feel this move bypasses the issue as the dogs could remain at the kennel for an unlimited time before the property is finally sold.

Another concern voiced by residents opposed to the lien is that even if Baum's property is sold, the kennel structure will remain and the new owner may be tempted to establish the same kind of operation.

After talking with their own attorney, township residents were told they could either return to court to request enforcement of Judge Deake's ruling, or confront

Saline in the final quarter. Then with only a little more than a minute remaining on the clock, the Bulldogs moved into a 65-63 lead, their first in the game. "We stayed close until an opportunity came to move ahead, and we took advantage of it," Coach Raymond said.

Saline regained possession of the ball with only seconds remaining in the period and a 30-foot shot by Mike McGuire for the Hornets tied the game at the buzzer, 65-65.

In the overtime, neither team scored during the first 1½ minutes, but at 1:18 on the clock, Charlie Bridges broke the stalemate by sinking a turnaround jumper from the top of the key to give Chelsea a 67-65 lead.

Then, with only eight seconds left in the game, Randy Harris netted a pair of free throws to leave the Bulldogs with a four-point cushion. Saline's Jon Reynolds dropped in an uncontested basket seconds before the game

Bulldogs Pull Upset in Win Over Saline

In an overtime thriller here last Friday evening, Chelsea's varsity cagers pulled off the major upset of the season as they handed top-ranked Saline a 69-67 conference loss.

The Bulldogs who are now tied for third place in the SEC with Dexter, used a good, aggressive defense throughout the game to take Saline out of its offensive patterns.

"Momentum played a big part," Chelsea Coach Robin Raymond reported. "We made them play our game."

Although the game was close in the first quarter, Saline had gained an 11-point lead by half-time as the score stood at 34-23. But most of Saline's shots were forced, coming from the outside, and that ultimately led to the team's downfall in the contest.

"You don't win close games by shooting from the outside," Coach Raymond explained.

The Bulldogs made a sweeping comeback in the third period as they outscored the Hornets, 23-14. "At that point we realized we could win the game," Coach Raymond said. "In the past, when we were down by 11 or 12 points at half-time, we had difficulty in coming right back."

Balanced scoring by Randy Harris with 7 points, and Marc Feeney, Jerald Benjamin and Charlie Bridges with 4 points each in the third, enabled Chelsea to move to within 2 points of Saline as the period ended with Chelsea trailing Saline, 48-50.

Chelsea managed to stay close to Saline in the final quarter. Then with only a little more than a minute remaining on the clock, the Bulldogs moved into a 65-63 lead, their first in the game. "We stayed close until an opportunity came to move ahead, and we took advantage of it," Coach Raymond said.

Saline regained possession of the ball with only seconds remaining in the period and a 30-foot shot by Mike McGuire for the Hornets tied the game at the buzzer, 65-65.

In the overtime, neither team scored during the first 1½ minutes, but at 1:18 on the clock, Charlie Bridges broke the stalemate by sinking a turnaround jumper from the top of the key to give Chelsea a 67-65 lead.

Then, with only eight seconds left in the game, Randy Harris netted a pair of free throws to leave the Bulldogs with a four-point cushion. Saline's Jon Reynolds dropped in an uncontested basket seconds before the game ended to give the Hornets their only two points in the three-minute overtime.

"In the first half we didn't put on enough offensive pressure, but we came out in the second half, ran our fast break, and made them play defense," Coach Raymond said as he described the comeback that eventually won the game for Chelsea.

"It was by far the best game we have played this season as we took good percentage shots in the last half, and held our poise all the way through the overtime."

Leading scorers for the Bulldogs were Marc Feeney with 18 points, Randy Harris with 16, Jerald Benjamin with 13, Charlie Bridges with 9, Dave Schrotenboer with 8, and Jesse Coburn with 4. List of rebounders by collecting 11, followed by Benjamin with 9, Bridges with 5, and Marc Feeney with 4.

Both Benjamin and Bridges were cited by their coach for coming off the bench to make an outstanding contribution to their team, and Marc Feeney was praised for getting the big baskets.

Statistically, both teams came up with 32 rebounds in the game, but Chelsea led Saline from the charity stripe, sinking 21 of 30 for 70 percent. Saline was 9 of 17 for 53 percent. From the field, Saline was 29 of 59 for 49 percent, while Chelsea trailed with 24 of 55 for 44 percent. The Bulldogs had 17 turnovers compared to the Hornets' 17.

Chelsea is now 6-4 in the conference and 8-8 over-all.

The Bulldogs will play Lincoln Friday, 8 p.m., and will begin district play a week later.

"We hope to carry the momentum from Friday's win into the Districts," Coach Raymond reported. "The kids know they can beat the big teams now if they play hard."

SEC Round-Up

DEXTER 58, MILAN 55—Milan dropped its second consecutive game Friday, losing to Dexter, 58-55.

Although Milan came up with a 37-30 half-time lead, the Big Reds were outscored by Dexter in the second half, 28-18. An excess of turnovers was blamed for Milan's scoring lapse in the last two periods.

Mark Ianni took game scoring honors for Dexter with 18 points, while Mark Fierek led the Big Reds with 16.

PET FOOD DRIVE: Sue Zink, chairman of the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary's Pet Food Drive, is shown depositing a bag of dog food into one of the many collection containers placed in grocery stores throughout the area. Auxiliary members are sponsoring the Valentine's week drive in conjunction with the Huron Valley Humane Society to help the animal shelter keep up with demands on its food supply. A restricted budget and the growing cost of animal food has forced the humane Society to seek private donations. Cash contributions are also welcome and will be accepted by Auxiliary treasurer Sandy Meyer. All are tax deductible. Customers are urged to buy an extra can or bag of pet food to share with homeless animals when they shop. Any size or quantity is welcomed.

MEN OF VISION: Chelsea Lions Sight Conservation Committee members Donnie LeMaster, left, Louis J. Depping, right, and committee chairman Herbert Pearson display some of the many pairs of discarded eyeglasses already collected in a drive which began this week. The Chelsea Lions Club is collecting reading glasses and hearing aids no longer utilized by area residents to send to Tanzania where they will be matched with prescriptions and distributed to those with sight or hearing problems. Boxes for the collection of old eyeglasses and hearing aids have been placed in Chelsea State Bank, Chrysler's Proving Grounds, Federal Screw Works, Chelsea Pharmacy, the local Dana Corp. plant, Chelsea Lumber, Chelsea Milling Co., the Chelsea branch of Ann Arbor Federal Savings Bank, Huron Valley Optical, Dr. William Hawks' office in Chelsea Medical Center, Chelsea's Rockwell plant, Central Fibre Products and Winans Jewelry. Dr. G. H. Daya, an International Lions Club member and chairman of the Tanzania Society for the Blind, will be responsible for distribution of the glasses and hearing aids. This is the second consecutive year Chelsea Lions have undertaken such a project. Last year, local Lions collected more than 500 pairs of eyeglasses.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellow that runs the country store give one of his rare reports Saturday night at the start of the session. He said his most interesting customer all week was this high-pressure preacher that makes so many speeches around the country until serving his church has got to be a sideline. The store feller said he ask him what angle he took to talk to so many groups so different in their beliefs.

The preacher said he used the same approach for all of em. He sets out to get their attention with a few jokes, then he shows em his serious side and how much he knows about everything that's going on in the world, and by this time they're ready for whatever message he has worked up for the occasion. Usual, the preacher said, he ties a general topic to a local situation.

The store feller said the preacher told him he use to loosen up folks at the club meetings by telling em preaching on Sunday and talking all the week might not look like much, but it beat working. He said he dropped that line 'fer fear folks wouldn't realize it was a joke. The feller that papers pretending to be a preacher beats a license to steal. He didn't go along with everything he said, at least he was agreed that a little fun in church life ain't a mortal sin, and folks in church don't need to act like they're waiting in the dentist's office.

What struck Zeke Grubb funny about the store feller's report, Mister Editor, was the part about preaching beating working. Zeke said from what he sees in the papers pretending to be a preacher beats a license to steal. He told the feller he had saw this time where this feller that can't read or write has a staff of 20 people taking $3 million a year by mailing out titles from plain preach-er to bishop in his Universal Life Church to anybody that sends in the right money. What it is is a tax dodge, Zeke said, and if this self-ordained head of the Universal Life Church can't read, he don't have no trouble counting, or telling what he believes in. He told a reporter that Heaven is when you got what you want, and Hell is when you ain't.

Ed Doolittle didn't see anything funny about gitting your house and most of your money exempt from taxes by gitting yourself ordained by mail. Ed was of a mind we've already got billions of dollars' worth of tax-free church property, and the laugh is on the governments, and the governments is the folks that keep our high-priced help. Ed went on. He said he saw recent where this feller had a consulting job with the U. S. Interior Department that paid $167 a day. He was let go because of some shady political financing in California, and two weeks later he was hired as a $168 a day consultant with another federal agency. He consults about shrubbery and sidewalks for half a block in front of the National Museum of Art, Ed said.

Mister Editor, there is more than one kind of license to steal.

Yours truly,

Uncle Lew.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Warren M. Hoyt, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Court Protests Secret Ballot
The Michigan Supreme Court made a necessary important ruling recently protecting the secret ballot.

The Court unanimously reversed a Washtenaw county order holding an Ann Arbor woman in contempt of court for refusing to divulge whom she voted for in the city's mayoral election.

The incredible one-vote victory by Albert H. Wheeler over Louis Belcher was challenged due to persons voting who were actually not residents of that city.

The Court of Appeals denied leave to appeal which, in effect, allowed the contempt of court citation to stand against Susan Van Hattum who had been mistakenly registered in Ann Arbor and had voted, there although she actually did not live within the boundaries of the city.

Van Hattum refused to divulge her vote to the court, citing a right of secrecy during a challenge by Belcher who hoped to turn the results in his favor after revealing the improper votes.

The Supreme Court, in reversing an earlier appeals court ruling stating the constitutional right of secrecy in voting does not extend to a person who admits that he voted without proper qualification, held the citizen's right to a secret ballot in all elections as guaranteed cannot be so abrogated in the absence of a showing that the voter acted fraudulently.

The Court's ruling confirmed one of the basic rights of our democratic society and reaffirms that courts do protect those rights.

Another clear message is in the election and subsequent ruling—individual votes do count.

So on the next election day when people grumble and say their vote does not count, simply look to the April 4, 1977 Ann Arbor city election.

Dwindling Farmlands
Michigan's yearly loss of farms and farmlands is becoming a growing concern with latest surveys showing the state lost 3,000 operating farms in the last year, according to a report by Department of Agriculture Director B. Dale Ball.

The loss of the farms represents a decline of 200,000 acres in farmland.

In 1973, the Agriculture Department noted the trend in a report on the state's farmland needs to the year 2000. At that time, Michigan had 12 million acres of land in farms.

Since that report, however, Michigan has lost 600,000 acres of land in farms. This loss is equivalent to all of the present farmland in Connecticut.

Connecticut recently developed legislation that would fund a state program to buy and hold development rights to farmlands. Farmers would still own and operate their own land, even be able to sell it, but the state would guarantee its use for agriculture only.

Other eastern states have developed similar plans, but the basic problem is state financing of such programs.

Ball said he noted a greater public interest in the problem than ever before, and hopes that this may spur Michigan to develop solutions before its rich farm land base erodes much further.

Michigan currently is operating a Farmland and Open Space Preservation Act which provides qualifying lands with property tax breaks in exchange for giving up development rights on that property for a 10-year contractual period.

The legislature also has pending before it proposed land use legislation which is designed to develop a master plan for state lands for future development.

"Happiness Is Getting A Fluoride Treatment" is the theme of the first prize-winning poster entered by Lisa Lakatos and Julie Luck in the Jaycee Auxiliary's poster contest heralding this summer's fluoride treatment program and dental week, Feb. 2-10.

James Daniels of 585 Glazier Rd., and Duane Ford of Stockbridge have been appointed to the 12-member governing board at Chelsea Community Hospital. Daniels is a partner in Chelsea Lumber Co. and a member of the Washtenaw County Road Commission. Ford is a partner in Dan-ger's Department Stores which has 12 outlets, most of them in communities served by the hospital.

New faces at Vogel's Department Store on Main St. are those of Jack and Fridelle Winans who took over as owners of the store last Friday. Prior to their purchase of Vogel's, the store had been owned and operated by the late Helen Vogel for nearly 30 years.

It was a time of "remembering, rejoicing, and redemption" last Sunday and some 250 people turned out to make certain that the occasion, the 125th anniversary was observed in a style suiting the event. Lionel Vickers, a church member for the past 36 years, presented reflections on the past.

World Day of Prayer Scheduled March 3

Literally millions of women on every continent will be thinking about the high incidence of loneliness and alienation in modern life on the first Friday in March. They will seek "Community Spirit in Modern Living" as a way to serve God's will for fullness of life for all people.

March 3 is World Day of Prayer, and it will be celebrated in 140 countries and 33 islands on that day by Christian women united in study, liturgy and prayer.

In the United States, World Day of Prayer is sponsored by Church Women United. In Chelsea, this year's service will be held at the Methodist Church of Chelsea, 128 Park at 1 p.m. All are welcome.

Each year the International Committee for the World Day of Prayer chooses one nation to write the service. This year the women of Canada explore the conflicts, tensions and compromises of living in community under the theme "Community Spirit in Modern Living."

The Canadian women show their concern for the issue of diversity within community in the message they send with the service: "Our life in Canada is becoming fuller and richer as people of many cultures, many races, many creeds, and many tongues have come to make their home here. As Canadians, we call our sisters and brothers around the world to share their lives with us and with one another so that all of humanity may grow into unity and wholeness through fellowship with one another."

The spiritual and practical influence of World Day of Prayer is powerful, good and lasting, and that's why the women who plan this event call it a "celebration."

Area residents are urged to attend the meeting to express their opinions and concerns regarding political issues in the state.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
My husband and I owe a debt of gratitude to several people for their help given to us during the recent blizzard. The gallant gentleman who rescued me from my stranded vehicle and whisked me away by snowmobile to a shelter; and the equally gallant individual who transported my husband by snowmobile all the way from a factory in Chelsea, to my Clear Lake Rd. shelter. Regrettably, we do not have their names.

However, Chuck and Skip Winkle, who opened their home to us and 13 others, have to be given special plaudits for hospitality far beyond the call of duty. Mr. Winkle made each and every one of his guests feel comfortable and at ease, and his son was always available whenever help was needed. No one who was stranded away from home could have had a better place of refuge.

Mr. Winkle and his son, in actuality, provided a home away from home.

Thank you Chuck and Skip. You really are two very warm and wonderful people.

Sincerely,
Joe and Betty Wallace

County Assessments Reported To Be Low

All cities and townships in Washtenaw county were told Wednesday, Feb. 8, to update their tax rolls by hiking assessment figures some by as much as 28 to 36 percent.

County Commissioners approved the 1978 "tentative ratios" presented by Equalization Director George Kostishak without much debate.

The figures, which state law requires published, will be the guideline for local assessors to update their tax rolls during the next two months. Any municipality failing to follow the guideline faces a forced increase at the county and state levels.

All taxable property—agricultural, commercial, industrial, utility and residential—must be assessed at 50 percent of market value for tax purposes. None of the 24 units in Washtenaw county shows the statutory assessment level in Kostishak's report.

In western Washtenaw county, Sharon township was the worst of all with real property assessed at 39.20 percent. The township valuation must be raised by 28 percent (or multiplied by a factor of 1.28) to meet the state standard.

Manchester, Bridgewater, and Saline townships are three other units told to raise their rolls by 20 percent or more.

Municipalities receiving the smallest factor, 1.04, are Saline, Lodi township, Salem and Sylvan townships.

In personal property, Lima township must increase valuation by three percent, the only unit of government ordered to update its rolls for equipment, tools, and machinery.

Throughout the county, residential property was assessed lower than other categories, largely because the real estate market has been active, Kostishak reported. A strong demand for homes and rental property results in higher prices, and consequently low assessment, he added.

Since the over-all factor is imposed upon an entire municipality, rather than by type of property, commercial and industrial property owners are likely to suffer from the discrepancy in the residential category, Kostishak said.

"That's why the state requires us to publish the tentative ratios by class," he maintained.

Local units must finish their work by March 7 for the Board of Review to start hearing individual appeals. The county should adopt the final rolls by May 1, and the summer and winter tax bills will be computed based upon them.

Your chimney is just a hole in the wall letting hot air escape. GAS MISER is an automatic flue damper that prevents warm air from escaping. It is normally closed, but when the thermostat calls for heat, the damper opens before ignition can occur in the combustion chamber. When burner goes off, GAS MISER closes to stop heat loss.

GAS MISER is safe. If gas valve should fail, the automatic damper opens, venting by-products of combustion out the chimney.

GAS MISER is accepted for all natural gas installations by metropolitan Detroit and most reciprocal communities.

It's Rampy's theory that if you spend time, effort and money to see that your customers are satisfied, they'll come back again... and again.

That's exactly why Rampy recently bought the most modern computer diagnostic system available. The Sun 2001. It's one of the few things in this world that seems to make everyone happy.

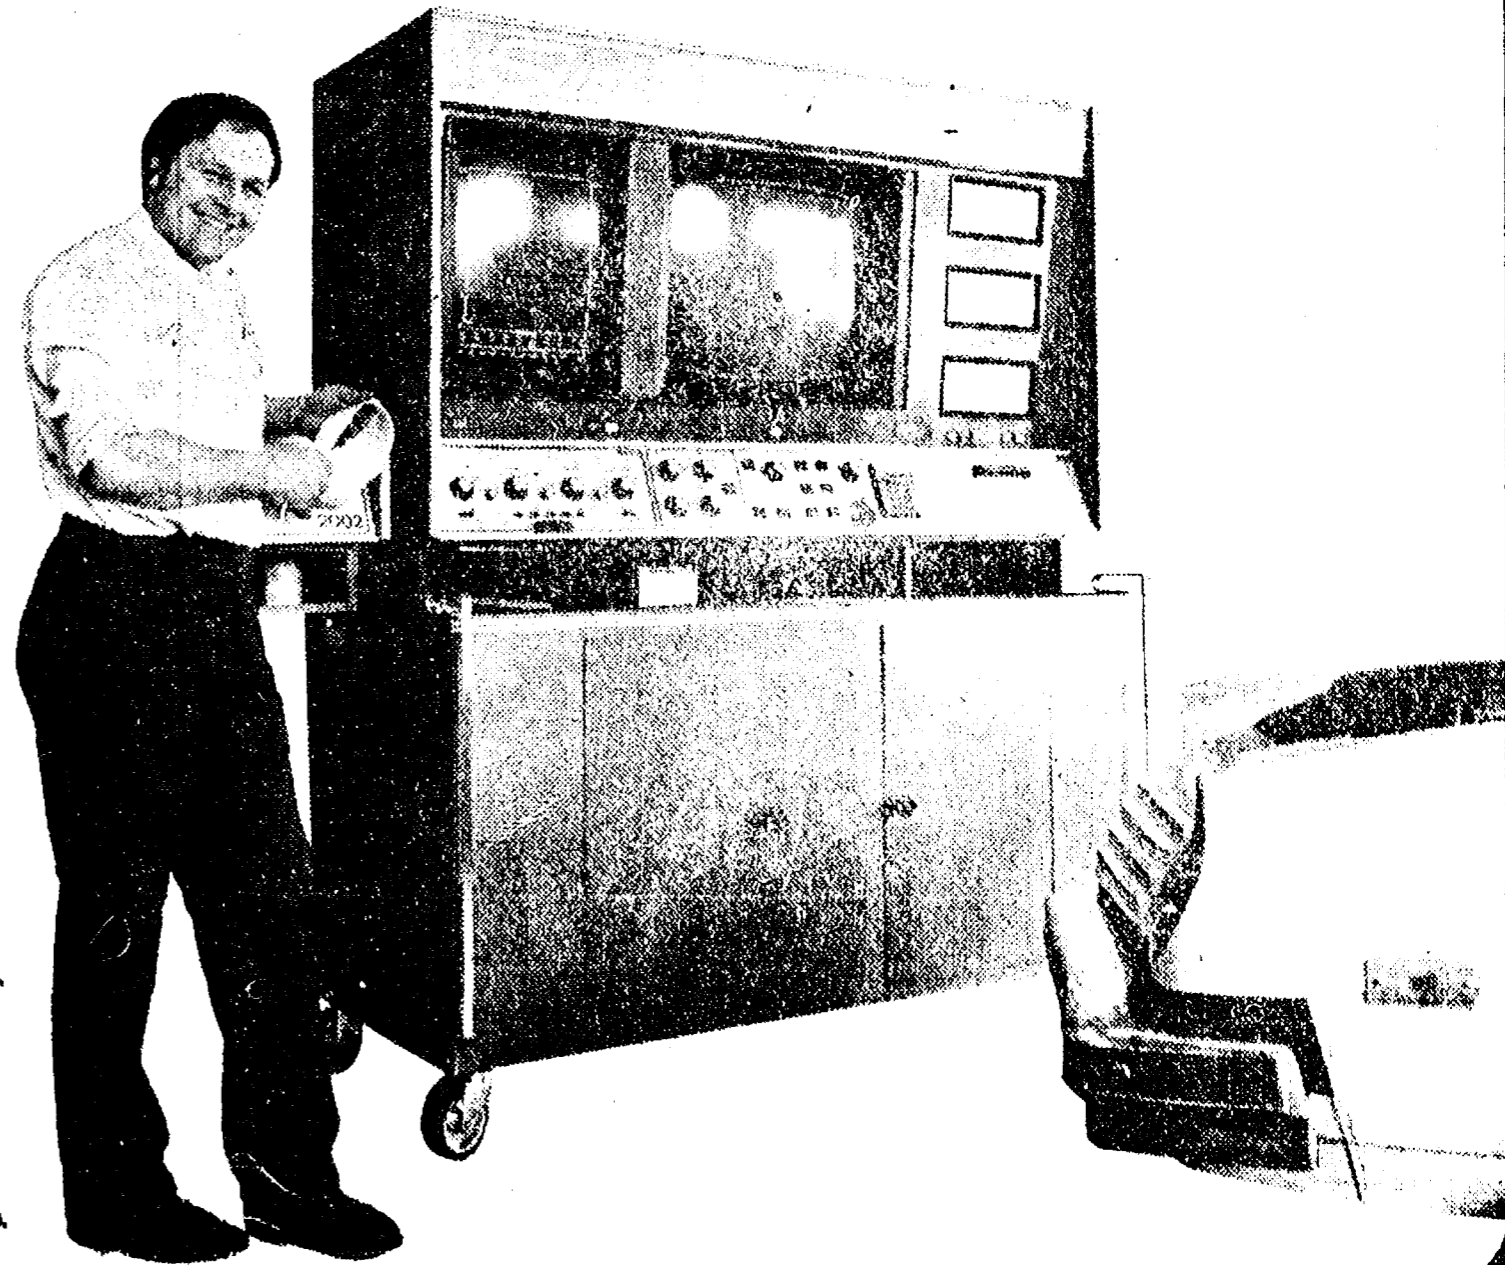

The mechanics like it because it makes their job easier... it can spot a small problem before it develops into a big one... and it saves a lot of sweat looking for problems that just don't want to be found.

Customers like it because the computer print-out they receive allows them to see just exactly what was needed to get their cars running at peak performance. And, that means fewer service calls in the long haul. The real problems are spotted right away.

And Rampy likes it because he can see it helps keep his customers satisfied.

Bring your car in for a taste of the future today... the Sun 2001... at Rampy Chevrolet.

M. Conlin May Seek Congressional Seat

State Representative Michael Conlin (R-23rd District) announced last Thursday night he is retiring from the Michigan Legislature at the end of this term, clearing the way for a likely bid for the Sixth Congressional seat.

The 34-year-old Jackson politician was elected to the State House in 1974 to serve a district that included the western portion of Washtenaw county and parts of Jackson county. He said he expects to announce in four to six weeks whether he will challenge U.S. Rep. M. Robert Carr, an East Lansing Democrat, for Carr's seat in Washington, D.C.

"I'm leaning very heavily in that direction and that's probably the direction I'm going to go. But I'm not going to get in that race unless I can win it," Conlin admitted.

A Conlin-for-Congress committee has been established and is already raising funds, but, he maintained, no final decision has been made. Before that formal decision comes, Conlin will have in hand the results of a poll taken recently of voter sentiments in the Sixth Congressional District, he said.

Conlin is one of the younger members of Washtenaw county's prominent Conlin family. His father is Circuit Court Judge Henry Conlin, and a cousin, Patrick, also serves on the local Circuit Court bench. The late Circuit Judge John Conlin was his uncle.

FFA Teams Dominate District Meet

Chelsea FFA leadership teams dominated the 1978 District Leadership Contests in Dexter last Thursday by winning all three of the events they entered in the five-event competition.

Taking top honors for Chelsea were Victor Verchereau, public speaking; Debbie Harrison and Candy Schirraacher, demonstration; and Becky Bollinger, Cindy Welshans, Michelle Napier, Shelby Hall, Kent Bollinger, Mark Lesser and Brian Koepke, parliamentary procedure.

This was the 32nd consecutive year in which Chelsea's Parliamentary Procedure team has taken the district championship. The team also has a more conservative string of three straight wins in annual competition at the regional level.

Other teams winning events at the district contest were Milan in Greenhand public speaking, and Dexter in job interview.

All top-placing teams now advance to the 1978 Regional Leadership Contests to be held Feb. 23 in Tecumseh.

Choosing the latter alternative as the least costly course of action, township residents concerned with the kennel are now rallying support for their side and plan to pressure the board to go back to court for further "Orders and Writs" which will allow the township to order the county dog patrol to pick up the dogs at Baum's kennel immediately.

This request will be put before the board at its meeting Tuesday, Feb. 21, 7 p.m., in Lyndon Township Hall.

Though the Lions pounded hard on the boards, Bert Nelson with 14 points, and teammates Jeff Burt and Chris Green with 12 points each, were unable to keep up with the Wildcats.

JV Cagers Trample South Lyon, 83-65

Chelsea's junior varsity cagers lined up against their South Lyon counterparts here Tuesday evening for an old-time conference "shoot-out" that left the Bulldogs on top of the 83-65 decision.

Both teams emerged from the contest with a tremendous 51 percent shooting average from the field, but Chelsea attempted 17 more shots to control the boards, 40-25. The Bulldogs also under-cut South Lyon's turnover total by seven.

Chelsea was leading, 12-10, in the opening quarter when the team suddenly "got red hot," according to Coach Jon Schaffner. On 15 of their next 17 trips down the court, the Bulldogs were able to score for a 22-12 first-quarter advantage and a 45-35 lead at intermission.

Early in the third period, Chelsea netted seven consecutive shots to move 58-37 ahead of South Lyon. By the end of the period, the Bulldogs had climbed to a 66-47 lead and continued to stay within one point of that spread through the final quarter.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Jeff Dils with 21 points, 3 rebounds, 4 steals and 7 assists; Don Schrotenboer with 18 points, 6 rebounds and 1 blocked shot; Mike Killelea with 15 points, 11 rebounds, 2 steals and 1 assist; and John Dunn with 10 points, 6 steals and 10 assists.

Also performing well were Mike Wood with 4 points and 2 rebounds; Karl Albrecht with 4 points, 2 rebounds, 1 steal and 1 blocked shot; Jim Cobb with 3 points; Dan McGill with 2 points, 1 steal, 1 assist and 1 blocked shot; Dave Seyfried with 2 points, 3 rebounds, 1 steal, 2 assists and 1 blocked shot; Dan Alber with 2 points and 1 rebound; Brad Knickerbocker with 2 points, 5 rebounds, 1 steal and 3 assists; Steve Myers with 1 rebound; and Brad Flanagan, also with 1 rebound.

Coach Schaffner complimented his players for their fine passing in the game, and singled out John Dunn with 10 assists, and Jeff Dils with 7 assists, in particular, describing how both managed to get the ball to their teammates for several successful wide-open lay-ups.

Chelsea's junior varsity conference record is now 10-1, while its over-all mark is 14-3. The Bulldogs will travel to Lincoln Friday, Feb. 17, for their next game.

MMPA Local Elects Officers, Delegates

Some 70 members of the 80-member Ann Arbor Local of Michigan Milk Producers Association (MMPA) elected new officers and appointed delegates to the upcoming district meeting at their annual meeting Tuesday, Feb. 7, at Pittsfield Grange.

Elected to office were Donald Gill of Canton, chairman; Robert Mast of Dexter, vice-chairman; and Albert Ruhlig, also of Dexter, secretary-treasurer.

Charles Koenn of Chelsea, and Loren Geiger of South Lyon, will join the trio of new officers as delegates to the district meeting. Guest speaker for the annual meeting was Velmar Green, treasurer of MMPA and a partner in Green Meadow Farms, Elsie, Green Meadow milks a total of 1,200 cows.

Items of interest to dairy farmers discussed at the annual meeting included an update on reports of PBB testing in Michigan, and legislation on PBB related matters still pending in both the state House and Senate.

It was reported that no dairy herds in the area served by the Ann Arbor Local MMPA are under quarantine for PBB poisoning at this time, but all area dairy farmers are being affected by state legislation passed last October which requires all cows culled for slaughter to receive biopsies prior to shipment to stockyards.

Only veterinarians authorized by the State Department of Agriculture are permitted to conduct the required biopsies.

Also at the annual meeting, several MMPA representatives, and those from organizations associated with the dairy farming industry, presented reports on events and other matters pertinent to dairy farmers.

How much thought do you give to your heart? There it is, pumping away, day after day, doing its job with no prompting from you. Your heart does an enormous amount of work. It beats 100,000 times a day to pump 4,300 gallons of blood through 60,000 miles of blood vessels! Of course to do all that, the heart must be in excellent condition. We'd like you to know the things you can do to keep it healthy. Won't you call us? We're the Michigan Heart Association and we're fighting for your life.

Watt A Day!

Jan. 19, 1736 might have started out as any other, but before it was over, the world had another citizen and history would be influenced. James Watt, who later became famous in the development of steam engines, was born that day. His work with power machinery helped lead the way into the industrial age. An impressive selection of power machinery, including Watt steam engines, is on exhibit in the Hall of Technology at Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn.

JV Cagers Down Saline in Overtime

In a tremendously exciting basketball contest here last Friday evening, Chelsea's junior Bulldogs defeated the Saline junior Hornets in overtime, 53-51, to avenge their only conference loss of the season and strengthen their hold on the number one spot in the SEC.

Chelsea leads the conference with a 9-1 record which is one game ahead of runner-up Millar and two games ahead of third-place Saline. The Bulldogs have a 13-3 over-all mark.

In Friday's game, Chelsea was trailing the Hornets by three points with just seconds to go in the final period when Jeff Dils came down the court for a field goal and was fouled. By netting his foul shot for a three-point play, Dils evened the score for Chelsea at 47-47, and sent the game into overtime.

Chelsea jumped out to a four-point lead in the three-minute play-off, but Saline came back to tie the score, 51-51.

With only three seconds remaining in the game, Dils was fouled again, made both his shots from the charity stripe, and put Chelsea up, 53-51. Brad Knickerbocker then intercepted an inbound pass by Saline to nail down the victory.

By sending six consecutive free throws through the hoop, Dils scored all of Chelsea's points in the over-time.

Another key to the win, according to Chelsea Coach Jon Schaffner, was the junior Bulldog defense which managed to steal the ball 17 times from Saline and force 10 Hornets errors to leave Saline with a record of 27 turnovers. Chelsea totaled only 13 turnovers in the game.

Although the Hornets shot 41 percent compared to Chelsea's 51 percent, the Bulldogs attempted 14 more shots than their opposition.

Quarter scores in the contest were Chelsea 8, Saline 14 in the first; Chelsea 8, Saline 10 in the second; Chelsea 20, Saline 11 in the third; and Chelsea 11, Saline 12 in the fourth. The Bulldogs edged the Hornets, 6-4, in overtime.

Coach Schaffner singled out John Dunn for his outstanding performance on defense. Dunn held his Saline counterpart to only four points in Friday's game, compared to the 17 points scored by the same player in the first Chelsea-Saline encounter this year. Dunn also came up with 4 rebounds, 2 steals and 2 assists.

Other Chelsea standouts last Friday were Jeff Dils with 19 points, 2 rebounds, 7 steals and 7 assists; Brad Knickerbocker with 18 points, 4 rebounds, 4 steals and 3 assists; Don Schrotenboer with 11 points, 12 rebounds, 3 steals and 2 blocked shots; Mike Killelea with 5 points, 10 rebounds, 1 steal and 1 blocked shot; and Mike Wood with 1 rebound.

Stalled Car Demolished By Train

A car which became stuck in snow midway across the railroad tracks near the East St. crossing Wednesday evening, Feb. 8, was totally demolished by an Amtrak passenger train which was unable to stop in time to avoid the collision.

No injuries resulted from the crash as the driver of the car, Stephen A. Bauer, 23, of Ann Arbor, and his passenger, Paul F. Sevonty, 24, of Livonia, abandoned their 1973 Datsun 280Z with the approach of the train.

According to Chelsea Police reports, Bauer was attempting to turn the car around in a private drive east of the railroad depot at about 7:20 p.m. when it became mired in snow on the railroad tracks. Together with Sevonty, he was unable to push the car off the tracks before the east-bound train struck the vehicle while traveling at approximately 40 mph.

Following the impact, the car was carried along the tracks for several hundred yards, or almost to the Freer Rd. crossing, before the train finally came to a halt.

To remove the mangled wreckage from the tracks, Con-Rail employed a large wrecker to lift the train engine, and Smith's Service of Chelsea was able to pull out the imbedded remains of the car. Chelsea firemen were also called to the scene to stand by in case fuel leakage from the demolished car ignited.

Snowbanks Blamed In Car-Child Accident

Two towering snowbanks on either side of a driveway were blamed by Chelsea Police for obstructing the vision of a Jackson driver who was unable to avoid striking a 7-year-old Chelsea boy last Friday afternoon after the boy darted out from the driveway and into the path of the moving car.

Listed in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, is Martin Brooks, of 625 W. Middle St.

Police said Carl S. Hesse, Jr., 32, of Jackson, was southbound on Wilkinson St. at about 3:33 p.m. Friday when the youngster ran into the path of his 1967 Plymouth near the Chandler St. intersection.

Although two witnesses and three passengers in the car confirmed that Hesse was only traveling at about 20 mph when the accident occurred, wet pavement caused by melting snow contributed to the driver's inability to stop before hitting the boy.

The snowbanks, however, were cited by officers as the primary cause of the accident because Hesse did not see the boy prior to the youngster's appearance on the road, and the boy told police he did not see the car coming.

No charges were lodged against Hesse in the incident.

Swim Teams Plan Night To Honor Mothers

During a regular meet, Feb. 23, the Beach Middle school and Chelsea High school boys swimming teams will host a Mothers Night. All mothers in attendance will be presented with a rose.

The meet will start at 4:30 p.m. and the roses will be awarded directly following the meet. Larry Reed, high school coach and pool director, and Jim Tallman, junior high coach, would appreciate the attendance of all parents so the coaches may offer their thanks.

In several processed fruits and vegetables, the can costs more than the raw product.

ENJOY YOUR INFLATION HEDGE

The best way to get people to be confident — except in a forecast about economics is to have ed sale — of getting back more prices skyrocket. People who worry about inflation aren't kidding; the problem is real and serious. But what can we do to protect ourselves?

If you are a homeowner, you are doing it unknowingly because one of the safest and surest hedges against inflation is the ownership of real estate. Your "shelter" expense will stay fairly steady even in times of rising prices. The monthly payments on a mortgage don't change at all.

Volleyballers Lose to Mich. Center, Saline

Members of Chelsea's girls varsity volleyball team went up against Michigan Center Monday evening and played their best defensive game to date though they ultimately lost the match.

"We were hustling on every play, something we haven't done up until now," Chelsea Coach Walter Keppler said.

Failing to get their serves over in the first game of the match, the Bulldogs lost, 8-15. In the second game, however, they nailed together a good offense and strong defense to make the contest an exciting one down to the finish line when Chelsea was finally edged by Michigan Center, 15-13.

Offensive players of the match were Sue Gerstler, Nancy Knott and Captain Kathy Starkey, while defensive honors went to Mary Jo Eisele.

Although Eisele came up with seven points on offense for Chelsea in the match, it was her outstanding defensive performance that triggered key Bulldog plays and gave her the defensive honor, according to Coach Keppler. Last Friday, Chelsea's girls varsity volleyball team was stung by the Saline Hornets, 4-15, 2-15.

"Saline has one of the best serving teams we've ever come across," Coach Keppler remarked. "This combined with the team's steady defense was just too much for the Bulldogs to handle."

Chelsea's next home volleyball game will be tomorrow, Feb. 17, 4 p.m., against conference member Lincoln.

IV Volleyball Wins Over Mich. Center

Chelsea's junior varsity basketball team encountered a mixture of victory and defeat this past week as the girls fell victim to the strong serves of their Saline counterparts Friday, 9-15, 5-13, but rallied to vanquish their Michigan Center rivals Monday, 15-2, 15-5.

"We were defeated by Saline not only because we had trouble receiving their serves, but also because of weakness in our own serving abilities," Chelsea Coach Elaine Raspin explained.

High point scorers for Chelsea in the match were Molly Bacon (5 points), Kelly Heuse and Kristin Steinhauer (3 points each), and Cristl Thomsen (2 points). The Chelsea-Saline contest was the first time the junior Bulldogs lost a match in two games.

Chelsea's win over a tough Michigan Center team Monday was the result of "putting our whole game together," Coach Raspin reported.

Thomsen remained one of Chelsea's leading scorers with seven points though she was injured shortly into the first game of the two-game match. Steinhauer also scored 7 points, followed by Marie Klink with 5, and Michele Clark with 4.

Swim Team Downs Inkster, Marysville

Members of the Chelsea High boys varsity swimming team made a big splash this past week with victories over Inkster and Marysville. The wins boosted their season record to 7-4.

Although Chelsea splashed lost their first three events at Inkster, and four of their first five, still led the opposition, 40-35, because of superior depth and a 1-2-3 sweep in the 50-free.

Placing for Chelsea in the 50-free were Henri Vanderwaard, first; Phil Hoffman, second; and Mike Mason, third.

Tom Rudd then won the butterfly, Vanderwaard the 100-free, Jon Osterle the 500-free, Tom Gaunt the 100-back, Jim Dowhal the 100-breaststroke, and Vanderwaard, Scott Prohaska, Jeff Rudd and Hoffman the free relay.

As a result of those efforts, Chelsea topped Inkster, 103-66.

Last Thursday, Chelsea hosted Marysville, a team the Bulldogs had lost to earlier in the season, 33-49. This time, however, a team effort paced by 23 lifetime bests, six varsity records, and four freshman records left Chelsea with an 88-81 triumph.

Three varsity records were set by Henri Vanderwaard (medley relay, 200 individual medley, 100 breaststroke) and by Phil Hoffman (200 free, 500 free, and free relay). Also setting varsity records as members of the medley relay were Dowhal, Tom Rudd and Dan Peterson.

Chelsea's free relay squad consisted of Prohaska, Jeff Rudd and Hoffman.

Hoffman's times in the free-style races were all freshman records also.

Other freshman records were established by Todd Oxner in the individual medley, and Charles Wiesner in the breaststroke.

Performing exceptionally well in the meet, according to Coach Reed, were Tom Gaunt, 200 free and 200 individual medley; Scott Prohaska, 200 free, 200 individual medley, and 500 free; Jeff Rudd, 50 free and 100 free; Dan Peterson, 50 free and 100 free; C. B. Wiesner, 50 free and 100 free; Randy Koch, diving; Kirk Myers, butterfly; Mike Mason, 100 free; Todd Oxner, 500 free; Tom Rudd, 100 backstroke; Jon Osterle, 100 breaststroke; Doug Pichlik, Dan Bourget and Joe Vaillencourt, 200 and 100 frees.

Chelsea has five dual meets remaining this season and expects to win four of the five contests. The team will also attend the Marshall Invitational Feb. 25, and will host an invitational Feb. 28.

Do you know the things you can do to keep your heart healthy? First of all, get regular exercise. Your heart needs it. Just like any other muscle. Second, don't smoke cigarettes. Smoking deprives your body of valuable oxygen. Have your blood pressure checked regularly and eat a diet low in saturated fats. If you'd like to know more, call the Michigan Heart Association.

SWIMMERS OF THE WEEK: According to Chelsea High school coach, Larry Reed, key to the Bulldogs' success this year in varsity swimming is the "amazing improvement" of two young swimmers, Tom Gaunt, left, a freshman, and Henri Vanderwaard, a sophomore. Both have earned many points for Chelsea this season. Gaunt is currently the freshman record holder in the backstroke and one of the team's better individual medley swimmers. To achieve a new freshman record in the backstroke, Gaunt broke the previous record established by Vanderwaard. However, Vanderwaard is not suffering from the loss as he now holds varsity records in five events—the medley relay, 200-yd. individual medley, 50-yd. freestyle, 100-yd. backstroke and 100-yd. breaststroke. By cutting 1.2 seconds off his best time in his best event, Vanderwaard will be Chelsea's first male swimmer to qualify for the upcoming State Meet.

Mark IV Takes Lead In Rec. Basketball

With most of the snow cleared from roads in the Chelsea area, players in the Men's Recreational Basketball League resumed action. Last week saw Mark IV take the league lead with a perfect 2-0 record.

Mark IV rose to the number one spot last Thursday with a 64-54 triumph over Chelsea State Bank. Both teams played excellent games, combining a fast break offense with several good defensive plays.

In the game, Ron Sweeney scored 21 points, and Randy Guenther, 14, for the Lounge's, while Tom Balistrere continued his hot shooting with 16 points for the Bankers. Chick Lane bucketed 12 in the losing cause.

Elsewhere in the league, Wolverine Bar tied Chelsea State Bank for runner-up honors in the league with a narrow 39-36 win over Rockwell.

For the Bar, Eppen continued his rebounding and scoring ways by collecting 19 rebounds and netting 22 points, while John Reifel put 10 points through the hoop. Bob Davis scored 14 points for Rockwell.

After falling to Wolverine Bar, Rockwell came back to dump LithCrafters, 58-41. Clyde Whitaker scored 22 points for the winners, followed by Bob Davis with 19. Stevens led the Printers with 13 points.

More men's basketball action is scheduled for tonight, Feb. 16, at Beach Middle school. Mark IV will face LithCrafters, and Rockwell will challenge Chelsea State Bank.

St. Louis Cagers Down Special Olympics Team

Chelsea High's Special Olympics basketball squad traveled to St. Louis school Tuesday for a Valentine's Day game that marked the debut of new St. Louis school coach, David Sweet.

Under Sweet's tutelage, Chelsea was upset by St. Louis school, 44-37, in what was termed a "well-played and good-natured contest," by Chelsea Coach Nancy Cooper. Coach Cooper explained she was "very happy" with the game after seeing her new student, Terry Walkowke of Manchester, score 23 points. "He played an excellent game," the coach said.

Also scoring for Chelsea were Glenn Passow with 6 points, Steve Lawrence with 4 points, and Sue Armstrong also with 4 points. Five other Bulldogs were cited by their coach for playing well in the game. They were Ryan Sweeney, Matt Schnadt, Lori Brown, Linda Alber and Theresa Murphy. "HEY, THAT'S MY DODGE"

'78 DODGE MAGNUM XE.

What else can folks say after they've seen Magnum XE? The exciting new car with a bold new look. And handling and performance to match.

You see, Magnum XE is a remarkable automobile that combines the attributes of a touring car with those of a luxury car. And based on a comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail prices... Magnum is priced less than these comparably equipped cars: the Monte Carlo, the Pontiac Grand Prix, the Oldsmobile Cutlass, the Cadillac Calais and Buick Regal Limited.

One look at Magnum XE's clean retractable head-lamp covers and classic grille and you'll be saying... "That's my Dodge!"

Farm Bureau Sponsoring Health Program

A special lecture program on health, sponsored by Section 6 of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau Women's Committee, has been re-scheduled from Jan. 26 to Feb. 21 because of snow.

The program is open to the public and will feature Dr. R. L. Hatton of Lansing discussing "Self-Breast Examination." He plans to supplement the discussion with a slide presentation.

Also on the program will be Dr. Robert Moyad, head of the Department of Urology at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor. Dr. Moyad will speak and show slides on "Cancer of the Prostate Gland."

The lecture program will begin at 8 p.m. in the Pittsfield Grange Hall, Saline-Ann Arbor Rd. Farm Bureau members are asked to bring sandwiches or dessert for refreshments.

ULTRA PASTEURIZATION
A new process called "ultra pasteurization" has made extra shelf life possible for some cream products. With this technique, dairy products are heated to 280 degrees Fahrenheit for two seconds, producing an almost sterile product. As a result, cream and half-and-half may be sold in stores for 15 days after time of pasteurization.

Winter Carnival Proves To Be Great Success at High School

"Fantastic" was the word used by Chelsea High School Assistant Principal Nancy Schave to describe the reception given to this year's first annual Winter Carnival at the high school by students and the community alike.

Carnival highlights from half-time ceremonies during the Chelsea-Saline varsity basketball game last Friday were rebroadcast over Ann Arbor radio stations.

School spirit grew rapidly during the carnival week, which began Feb. 8, and culminated last Friday with junior varsity and varsity basketball wins over Saline, with the crowning of Don Schrottenboer as Carnival King, and with the announcement that Chelsea's sophomore class had won the Spirit Award for their activities during the week.

The sophomores, also known as the CHS Class of '80, included a first-place win in the carnival's toboggan and sledding contest, as well as first-place in the cafeteria decorating contest among their honors, but were upset by the seniors at Chelsea High in three-legged basketball.

Even Dave Schrottenboer's two technical fouls in the basketball finals failed to hinder the seniors from trouncing the competition from the lower class level.

A caterpillar, a Bulldog, a Snoopy dog, a 14-foot high snowman built by the high school auto class, and a snowperson built by the high school art class were all entered in the carnival's snowman building contest, but it was Bill Bainton's math class that walked off with first prize.

Math students further demonstrated their solidarity and winning ways by presenting math instructor Ken Larson with 29 tokens of love which in turn made Larson the winner of Teacher Appreciation Day.

CHS senior Don Watson also had a moment in the carnival spotlight when he downed 10 bananas in two minutes and 40 seconds to out-gorge seven or eight other contestants and win the Banana Eating Contest.

But the most hotly-contested title of the week was that of "Prettiest Legs," which managed to draw an entry from Principal John Williams as a mystery guest. Other contestants included Victor Verchereau and Brian Van Reesema from the senior class; Scott Powers and John Whitaker from the junior class; Jim Fitzsimmons and Dave Wilson from the sophomore class; and Char Lane and Carl Simpson from the freshman class.

Youthful legs were apparently

POPCORN CREW: Leslie Glibreath, left, prepares to dump a sizzling and buttery scoop of popcorn into a bag held by Beth Collins, center, while Anne Schaible keeps her eyes on the burner where more popcorn is popping. The three students at Chelsea High engaged in their popcorn making activities prior to the Chelsea-Saline game held here last Friday. Because the game was scheduled to climax Chelsea High's week-long Winter Carnival, a large and hungry audience was expected to attend and these girls wanted to be prepared.

prized by voters in the contest as Simpson was declared winner.

A parade of mini-floats launched half-time ceremonies during the Chelsea-Saline varsity basketball game as the Winter Carnival drew to its climax.

"Sail on to Victory" was the theme of the senior float, a paper and cardboard sailboat pulled by Tracy Hawker and Shelley Warren. The juniors came up with their own interpretation of the "Saline Bus and Team," which featured two buxom cheerleaders in bobby socks and saddle shoes leading a pack of rag-tag cagers.

A train sporting the slogan, "We'll Run the Hornets Off the Track," was the sophomore class float entry while the freshmen staged a tug-of-war around the Chelsea High school gym, leaving float interpretation up to the audience.

Last in line among the floats was an entry by the Chelsea High school teaching staff. Introducing their entry with the rhyme, "Sting like a Hornet, bite like the fleas, the Bulldogs will knock you onto your knees," the teachers sprayed a buzzing nest of winged hornets with a can of "Bulldog Bug Spray."

The juniors won the float judging contest with their "Saline Bus and Team."

Before the winner of the Carnival King contest was announced, candidates and their escorts were introduced. They included Victor Verchereau, escorted by Barb Schardein, and Dave Schrottenboer, escorted by Sue Heller, from the senior class; Gary Thornton, escorted by Mary Stoll, from the junior class; Louis Jahnke, escorted by Judy Norris, and Donald Schrottenboer, escorted by Kyrin Steinhauer from the sophomore class; and Shaun Peters, escorted by Kathy Brown, and Jon Riemenschneider, escorted by Pat Villeneuve, from the freshman class.

Following the Chelsea-Saline varsity basketball game, a dance was held in the Chelsea High school cafeteria to cap the Carnival activities.

Although the week may now be only a memory for some, a huge Bulldog face, sculpted from snow, still remains near the locker building and circle drive at Chelsea High as a testimonial to the spirited inauguration of the carnival celebration.
