School Millage Election Slated Next Monday

Voters in the Chelsea School District will go to the polls Monday, March 6, to determine the fate of the Chelsea Board of Education's request for a three-year renewal of the 3.8-mill school tax hike passed by district voters last August.

"Because the increase was for a period of only one year, it will expire upon completion of the current school term.

If passed, the millage renewal will allow the district to continue operations at their current level.

"We're confident that with a renewal of the 3.8 mills, we will be able to maintain the existing quality of both our academic and extra-curricular programs," Chelsea School Board President Robert Daniels said.

Voting will be from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday in the Beach Middle School large group instruction room.

Burglary Suspects Nabbed By Police After Bridges B&E

Three burglary suspects temporarily staying in the Dundee and Manchester areas were apprehended in a joint effort by Chelsea Police and the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department early Tuesday after a tracking dog led officers to a local church where two of the three suspects were hiding.

Arrested were Jean Dahn of Dundee, Walter Little, 31, also of Dundee, and his brother, Albert, 33, of Manchester. All listed Goshen, Ind., as their place of permanent residence.

According to police reports, two Chelsea officers, Sgt. Lenard McDougall and Ptl. David Peebles, were on routine patrol at about 3:40 a.m. Tuesday when they noticed a suspicious-looking vehicle parked in the A&W lot, 1555 Chelsea-Manchester Rd.

As the two pulled in to investigate, they spotted two men outside Lloyd Bridges Chevrolet and Traveland, 1603 S. Main St., who appeared in the process of looting the dealership. At the same time, the two suspects saw the officers' patrol car and immediately fled on foot.

Ptl. Peebles took off in pursuit of the suspects, but lost their trail after the duo entered a woods behind the dealership. Meanwhile, Sgt. McDougall stayed with the driver of the suspicious vehicle, Jean Dahn, and called the Sheriff's department for assistance.

Within minutes, Sheriff's Detective Paul Wade and Deputy Dennis Smith appeared at the scene to aid Ptl. Peebles in a continuation of his search. Deputy Smith brought along his dog, Hans, a 1½-year-old German Shepherd, specially trained for tracking by the Sheriff's Department.

Hans led the three officers, who were later joined by Sheriff's Deputies Finley McCormick, Raymond Zakrzewski, William Maloney, and Dennis Hines, as well as Officer Steele from the Manchester Police Department, through waist-deep snow to St. Paul United Church of Christ, 14600 Old US-12.

Police said the church had been broken into. At about 5:30 a.m., the dog discovered the two suspects hiding above duct work in the church.

Cagers Trounced By Dexter in Final Game

After squeezing out a two-point victory over conference champion Saline in overtime play, and winning three consecutive games prior to their encounter with Dexter last Friday, Chelsea's varsity cagers suddenly found themselves whacked from their lofty perch by a 52-69 loss to the Dreadnaughts in their last regular game of the season.

"We played poorly," was the one-liner delivered by Chelsea Coach Robin Raymond following the week-end game.

Chelsea was hurt by the fact that one of its leading scorers, Marc Feeney had the flu the day of the contest and consequently failed to net any points.

And a second key to the loss was Chelsea's meager 10 for 19 from the free throw line. Dexter was 21 for 26.

A precision-mounted attack by the Dreadnaughts kept them in control of the entire game. As Dexter kept increasing the lead, from 21-12 in the first quarter, to 30-22 at half-time, and eventually to 51-40 at the end of three, Chelsea was forced to play catch-up.

"It was a long night and a hard game because we knew regardless of the outcome, we were to play Dexter Monday in the opening game of the season."

QUALIFY FOR STATE FINALS: These members of Chelsea's Future Farmers of America parliamentary procedure team took championship honors in their division while competing in the 1978 Regional FFA Leadership Contests in Tecumseh last Thursday. As a result of the win, the team will advance to the State Finals to be held March 22 at Michigan State University. This was the fourth consecutive year Chelsea has emerged as parliamentary procedure division champion while competing at the regional level. Seated in the front row, from left, are Michelle Napier, secretary; Becky Bollinger, chairman; and Cindy Welshans, vice-chairman. Standing in the back row, from left, are Brian Koepele, Shelly Hatt, Kent Bollinger and Mark Lesser. Chelsea FFA advisor is Dave Nicewicz.

Kiwanians To Assist in Tax Refunds

Chelsea Kiwanis Club will provide free assistance to area senior citizens seeking help in completing their 1977 property tax refund claims.

A meeting for this purpose has been scheduled for Monday, March 6, 7:45 p.m., in the Chelsea Community Hospital cafeteria.

Most renters and homeowners over age 65 are eligible for a tax refund. Renters must know the total amount of rent paid during the past year, while homeowners are instructed to bring their 1977 property tax statement.

Information as to the amount of insurance premiums paid by accident policies during 1977 will also increase tax refunds this year.

For further information, call 475-1502.

Richard Glasson Tops Field in Cribbage Tourney

After four long nights of play in the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary's annual Cribbage Tournament, Richard Glasson emerged from the 26-member field of contestants Monday evening to nail down the championship title.

FFA Parliamentary Procedure Team Captures Regional Crown

Chelsea's Future Farmers of America (FFA) parliamentary procedure team took top honors at the FFA Regional Leadership Contests in Tecumseh last Thursday to make it the fourth consecutive year Chelsea has won the division championship at the regional level.

District winners from Pittsford and Onsted joined Chelsea at the regional in competition for one of eight berths on the squad that will now travel to the State Finals to be held at the Ericson Kiva on the Michigan State University campus March 22.

The State Finals will be open to the public and have been scheduled in conjunction with Farmer's Week and the State FFA Convention.

Members of Chelsea's parliamentary procedure team are Becky Bollinger, chairman; Cindy Welshans, vice-chairman; Michelle Napier, secretary; and Shelly Hatt, Mark Lesser, Kent Bollinger and Brian Koepele.

Chelsea's demonstration team, composed of Debbie Harrison and Candy Schirmacher, won a third-place silver award at the regional for an entry entitled, "Equine Extremities—Diseases and Cures."

In public speaking, a third regional Leadership Contest category Chelsea entered after winning the division title at the district level, Victor Verchereau won a third-place gold award for his speech on "Food, the Future, and America."

Beach Swimmers Win Mason Tournament

Chelsea's junior high swimming team distinguished itself as one of the top junior high teams in the state last week-end by winning the Mason Junior High School Invitational Tournament.

"This tournament is traditionally one of the best in the state with most of the prominent teams in southeastern Michigan attending, and to win it truly distinguishes that team as one of the best in the state," Chelsea Coach Jim Tallman said.

To win, Chelsea had to defeat such notable area teams as Adrian, Milah, Monroe, and Willow Run, to name only a few.

"The secret to Chelsea's success Saturday was, as it has been all season long, not just the outstanding performances by a few of its top swimmers, but tremendous efforts by every member of the team," Coach Tallman added.

This fact was evident Saturday when nearly everyone on the team finished in the top 12 of his or her event to score points for their team. Often this meant outdoing 30 or 40 other swimmers from other schools.

Winning firsts for Chelsea were members of the 200-yd. medley relay team, John Robbins, Dave Nicola, Kirk Hawks and Dave Mason; Kristin Thomas in the 200-yd. freestyle; John Robbins in the 100-yd. backstroke; and Dave Nicola in the 100-yd. breaststroke.

Others placing for Chelsea were Dave Cooley, Kathy Degener, Amy Hume and Nancy Hastings, 9th in the medley relay; Sean Oxner, 4th in the 200-yd. freestyle and 5th in the 100-yd. free; John Robbins, 5th in the individual medley; Dave Nicola, 2nd in the 50-yd. freestyle; Dave Mason, 3rd in diving and 3rd in the butterfly; Craig Wirtz, 4th in diving and 6th in the breaststroke; Brent Martin, 8th in the 200-yd. freestyle and 11th in the 100-yd. freestyle; Amy Hume, 10th in the individual medley; Kirk Hawks, 5th in the butterfly and 10th in the individual medley.

Cagers Win First District Tourney Game

It's been a history-making year that has yet to end for Chelsea's varsity basketball squad which Monday won its first district tournament game in eight years with a 64-60 decision over Dexter.

With neither team holding more than a five-point margin at any point in the game, and with the lead changing hands on only eight occasions, it was simply "our good fortune to be on top when the contest ended," Chelsea Coach Robin Raymond said.

But fortune got some down-to-earth assistance from the Bulldogs themselves when Jesse Coburn hit a 10-foot shot from the baseline to score with less than 1½ minutes left in the game and break a 58-58 tie.

Marc Feeney was fouled on Chelsea's next possession and went up to the free throw line to move the score up to 62-58 in favor of his team, only to have Dexter come right back and narrow the gap to 60-62 behind the Bulldogs.

That's where the game remained until the final five seconds when Dexter had a chance to even the score at 62-62. However, Jeff Krull's four-foot underhand layup bounced off the rim and Feeney was again fouled in the scurry for the rebound.

He hit two in a row amid the screams of jubilant fans, Dexter made a desperation inbound pass as the buzzer sounded, and Chelsea emerged from battle with the triumph.

It was a perfectly executed game for the Bulldogs who had been trampled by the Dreadnaughts in two previous meetings, 70-49, and 69-52. The last of those two came Friday night.

Chelsea opted for patience in the tournament encounter, so rather than rushing the basket, the Bulldogs worked the ball around to the open man.

"Our shot selection was our best of the year," Coach Raymond reported.

With Dexter playing a zone defense throughout the game, another key to Chelsea's win was the excellent penetration of that defense by the Bulldog guards.

But the biggest factor in Chelsea's favor was its outstanding rebounding performance. The Bulldogs hauled down 35, while Dexter managed only 28.

Rehearsals in Progress for CHS Musical

Rehearsals for "Bye, Bye Birdie," Chelsea High school's spring musical production, are now underway in the high school auditorium with both cast and crew keeping a wary eye on the mid-March opening night date.

Cast in the title role of "Birdie," an Elvis-like songbird, is Bart Bauer. It's his imminent induction into military service that sets the plot in motion.

Todd Wurster will play the part of Albert, the Army-bound minister's manager who is desolate at the thought of losing his meal ticket until his secretary, Rose, to be played by Sally Vaught, comes up with an idea for a publicity stunt.

Though she won't be singing her way across the stage, Julie Prohaska, cast as Mae Peterson, will have the show's main comic assignment—that of the theatrical manager's possessive mother who resorts to some hilarious tricks to keep her 33-year-old little boy from rushing into a marriage with his secretary. Mama Peterson has been able to delay the marriage for eight years as the musical opens.

In "Bye, Bye Birdie," phrases like "What's the word, Hummingbird?" "What's the tale, Nightingale?" and "What's the story, Morning Glory?" come up in a song that amounts to the younger generation asking the age-old question, "What's new?" Composed by Charles Strouse and Lee Adams, the song is called "The Telephone Hour" and portrays a bevy of teen-agers tunelessly telephoning each other from their respective homes.

Among the other outstanding songs to be performed during the musical is "How Lovely To Be A Woman," by a teen-age Kim (Tracy Cattell) while she is pulling on Argyle socks and zipping up her jeans.

There is also the cheerful "Put On A Happy Face," a sarcastic anthem to Ed Sullivan entitled "Hymn for A Sunday Evening," a lilting soft-shoe number that asks "What Did I Ever See In Him," and a hilarious take-off on every castanet-accented ditty that ever was in the form of "Spanish Rose."

The musical will be presented to the public March 16-18, 8 p.m., in the high school auditorium. Tickets go on sale today, March 2, at Chelsea Pharmacy, but may also be mailed ordered from CHS Musical, Chelsea High school.

FFA DEMONSTRATION TEAM: Candy Schirmacher, left, and Debbie Harrison, two members of the Chelsea chapter of Future Farmers of America, hold up the third-place certificate they received last Thursday for their award-winning demonstration on "Equine Extremities—Disease and Cures," presented during the Regional FFA Leadership Contests in Tecumseh. The two qualified for the regionals by winning the district championship in their division two weeks ago.

MUSICAL REHEARSALS UNDERWAY: Shown rehearsing a song from Chelsea High school's upcoming spring musical production of "Bye, Bye Birdie" is Bart Bauer, standing at center, who will portray the lead role of Birdie, an Elvis-like songbird. Surrounding him in a salute are members of the chorus line. The plot centers around Birdie's imminent induction into the Army. Supporting roles will be played by Todd Wurster, Sally Vaught and Julie Prohaska. The musical will be staged March 16-18, 8 p.m., in the Chelsea High school auditorium. Tickets are now on sale.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I saw this piece of the other day where researchers are looking for a new warning sign for poison. It seems the old skull and crossbones don't scare children any more. The article said youngsters have got so used to seeing the skull and crossbones on TV to mean pirates until they have come to think of what's in the container as pirate food. They figure if the stuff in the can is good enough for the pirate food and the sailors that capture a boatload of cereal it's good enough for them.

Mister Editor, I can see how signs outlive their usefulness. It seems we got to come up with a whole new set of danger signals ever so often in this country. The poison sign researchers say a snake might be a good poison warning, since most children still are afraid of them. The piece said some poisons now are being put in containers with a drawing of "Mr. Yuk," an ugly face with his tongue sticking out.

I mentioned this poison sign to the fellers at the country store Saturday night, and Bug Hookum said he didn't see no problem. If all we want to do is keep the youngsters from gitting at the stuff, he said, all we got to do is seal the poison in plastic like we do razor blades and it'll be safe from everything. Bug said he'd like to see the kid that could break into one of them packs, not to mention the cellophane wrappers cheese crackers come in. Children may think there's pirate food inside, but allowed, but they'd have to get help from a parcel post handler to bust up the package so they could get it at.

Another sign we're going to have to change, it looks like, is warnings of heart trouble. Zeke Grubb noted at the session that after all the TV commercials bragging about low cholesterol we find out there's good cholesterol and bad cholesterol. One kind sticks to the walls of our blood vessels and plugs them up, but the other kind floats around in the blood and don't cause a problem. Farthermore, Zeke said, the kind we get depends more on inheritance than diet. Where we thought the stuff plugged our arteries up for good, we know diet and exercise can clear it up. Zeke said we ought to eat grapefruit, onions and garlic to keep cholesterol down, and if that don't help at least it'll keep you from gitting clogged enough to anybody else to catch what they got.

General speaking, Mister Editor, you can't depend on signs. I saw where this doctor said looking at a patient's tongue is a waste of time. We got to have a new sign to tell what shape we're in. Use to, the doc would take your temperature and pulse, thump your back and stomach, you would say "ah" for him and that was it. Now they hook you up to machines that draw charts for computers to work out.

The only sure sign I've heard of lately was the weather rock these folks in California have hanging from a chain in their yard. It's wet it's raining, if it's dry it ain't. If it's swinging the wind's blowing and if it's got a shadow the sun's out. It's jumping we got a earthquake. Accurate and simple to use. We need more signs like that.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Eliminate Hospital Beds

The House of Representatives with its sights set on containing hospital costs, recently approved legislation to require health authorities to identify areas that have excess hospital beds and then eliminate them.

The legislation is the first piece in a package to help contain spiraling hospital costs. Other measures will require a certificate of need for new equipment and distribution of medical services.

Under the bill, excess hospital beds could be eliminated through hospital consolidation or closure of either entire or portions of hospitals.

Hospitals with excess beds would also be prohibited from new construction unless they could demonstrate actual need.

Bill sponsor Rep. Raymond K. Hres (D-Monroe) said nearly as many as 5,000-6,000 hospital beds could be eliminated within the next five years because of the bill.

Ironically, the day after the bill's passage, Kehres was involved in a serious airplane crash leaving him hospitalized in a Florida facility.

Rep. Bela Kennedy (R-Bangor), a staunch opponent of the bill, warned representatives that local interests would be nearly excluded from the process of developing plans to eliminate beds. His arguments were apparently outweighed by the continued spirals in hospital costs.

The bill was amended to give special consideration to hospitals that are more than 25 miles from the next nearest facility.

Radioactive Waste Ban
 Department of Public Health officials and the attorney general's office have squared off on a total ban of radioactive waste disposal within the borders of the state.

The Public Health Department said the state should not completely preclude the storage and disposal of the wastes while attorney general's office urged imposition of the most absolute and total ban is possible.

Donald E. VanFarow of the Department of Public Health told the House Public Health Committee amendments were needed to legislation to allow the storage of some low-level radioactive material for medical, scientific and educational purposes. He said the language of the bills under consideration, taken at its extreme, could prohibit storing milk in refrigerators because it contains potassium-40, a radioactive isotope.

A spokesman for the attorney general said the change is not acceptable. He said in every case in which nuclear wastes have been deposited, they have leaked and all the state gets is an apology. He said the people of this state have no reason in the world to trust the federal government in the handling of nuclear wastes, or to trust private industry. Disposal is a national problem and requires a national solution.

The legislation prohibits anything except above-ground storage of radioactive wastes.

The House panel is expected to take a final vote on the proposed legislation within the next two weeks.

What Taxpayers Get
 Michigan taxpayers got a real bargain with the $13 million appropriated to Attorney General Frank J. Kelley's office in 1977. For those state dollars, the office saved the state $408 million that could have been withdrawn by the federal government, netted $10 million in fines or settlement paid to the state and took action to return more than $21 million to citizens.

Some $2.4 million of the funds paid directly to the state came through settlements with six of the state's largest water polluters which violated the state clean water laws. Along with the penalties, the companies agreed to start construction on more than $95 million worth of pollution control installations.

Most of the $10.3 million of the funds paid to the treasury, $5.1 million was money from estates without heirs. The remainder of the fund came from other pollution cases, welfare fraud and Medicaid fraud investigations.

Of the funds going back to the consumers, $6 million will come from Michigan Bell in the form of reduced rates because the attorney general's office discovered an error made by the Public Service Commission in granting rate increases. Another $1.6 million comes from a refund from Consumers Power Co. based on a complaint on how the company was passing along increased fuel costs.

Another $2.4 million will go back to Michigan citizens as a result of a settlement with General Motors.

JC Auxiliary Asks Help in Pet Food Drive

The February meeting of the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary was held at the home of Denise Martelli, 10190 Jackson Rd. Before members started with the business session, several guests in attendance were introduced. The included Diane Long, District No. 29 vice-president; Brooke Tuck, Hartland Auxiliary president; and Carol London, Milan Auxiliary president.

President Barb Baker then asked for an old business review.

Chairman Sue Zink reported that the Pet Food Drive had been extended for another week. She stated that the community was not participating in the project as hoped, but that any food donated would help out the depleted Humane Society supply.

All Jiffy boxtops had not been counted, said Louise Ponte, but North school had collected well over 1,000. Reporting for chairman Ginny Wheaton, Carol Smith said that work had begun on the Fluoride Program and application forms would be appearing in The Chelsea Standard. Every one was urged to attend the social Casino Night.

As part of the nominating committee, Sue Zink announced the election slate would be presented in March, and a workshop for addressing Cancer Society envelopes was arranged for March 5.

Breaking for dessert, supplied by co-hostess Sue Zink, the Auxiliary went into its own version of the television show "Tattle-tails." Interesting and humorous facts were found out about various Jaycee couples. Denise Martelli won a jar of honey for knowing best what her husband would say. Sue Zink got a blank pad of paper for not knowing anything.

Moving into new things, Sandy Meyer announced the "Auxiliary Night-In" for March 30. This evening is aimed at improving Auxiliary individual and group relations. There will be a dinner, then a talk by Chelsea Auxiliary Past-President Sandy Brown, followed by a rap-session.

The prospect of open-membership was discussed briefly. It was decided to arrange for pro and con speakers at the next meeting.

The membership was reminded to help out on several upcoming projects, including Easter Egg Coloring, Distinguished Service Award Banquet and Jaycee Membership Drive.

After Alberta Colby won the "Girl of the Month" award for January because of her hard work that month, the meeting was adjourned with the Creed.

Woman's Club Views Collection of Rare China Plates

Woman's Club of Chelsea met Tuesday evening at the McKune Memorial Library.

The meeting was attended by 19 members and a guest, Sherry Drew.

The Valentine Tea held Feb. 14 at the Methodist Retirement Home was discussed. Punch and home-made cookies were served to 75 residents of the home in the game room, decorated in red, white and gold for the occasion.

A red carnation was presented with a note of thanks to each lady who dressed a doll for the clubs Christmas doll project.

Following the business meeting a rare limited edition entitled "Lafayette in America" by Louis Gottschalk was reviewed by Mrs. Gladys Barth.

Mrs. Barth also displayed her Lafayette Legacy Collection of china plates by D'Arceal Limoges of France.

The next meeting will feature a demonstration of Ukrainian Egg decorating, March 14, at the library. Guests are welcome.

RUHLIG-LAHRMAN: Mr. and Mrs. Martin E. Ruhlrig, Jr., of Island Lake Rd. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Diane S., to William C. Lahman, the son of Dale Lahman of Angola, Ind., and Mrs. Beatrice Morgan of Columbia City, Ind. The couple plans a Nov. 25 wedding. Diane is a graduate of Dexter High school and her fiancé is a graduate of Whitke High school and Indiana University. At present they are both attending Concordia College in Ann Arbor.

District Tournament

Dexter came up with a mere 18, only three of which were offensive rebounds which limited the Dreadnaughts to one shot.

Although Dexter moved out to a 15-13 lead at the end of the first quarter, Chelsea came back to outscore the Dreadnaughts by two in the second and even the game at 25-25 at intermission. Dropping in eight points in the first period and six in the second, Randy Harris alone gave Chelsea 14 points in the first half.

Chelsea returned in the third quarter to gain a two-point margin with the score at 45-43, and repeated itself in the fourth for the 64-60 win. Feeney took over Harris' role in the second half, coming up with 16 points alone.

Statistically, Chelsea was 26 of 52 from the field for a 50 percent shooting average in the game, while Dexter was 25 of 46 for 54 percent. Chelsea had 19 turnovers compared to Dexter's 14.

The Bulldogs were paced by Randy Harris and Marc Feeney with 22 points each, while Jesse Coburn contributed 10, and Dave Schrotenboer 6. Schrotenboer led the rebounding with 13, followed by Feeney with 7 and Coburn with 4. Jeff Dils, moved up from the JV ranks for tournament play, also came up with 4 rebounds.

District tournament finals have been rescheduled from Friday,

March 10, to Saturday, March 11, 7:30 p.m., at Willow Run.

Cribbage Tourney

Finishing behind him were Fred Brede, second place; Jeff Boyer, third place; and Art Jarve, fourth place.

Glasson and the three place-winners received trophies for their efforts, while all remaining contestants were left with the satisfaction of having matched skills and learned new cribbage tricks.

According to sponsors of the competition, the general consensus among tournament contestants following the event was "it was one of the best cribbage tournaments ever in Chelsea."

DeWitt Clinton, born March 2, 1789, was a politician who recognized the needs of a changing society? As mayor of New York City and later governor of the state, Clinton pushed for the building of the great Erie Canal. Those who scoffed at him named it "Clinton's Ditch," not seeing its tremendous role in commerce in the early 19th century. Later, in honor of the great man, the first train to operate in New York State was named the DeWitt Clinton. A reconstruction of the DeWitt Clinton is only one of the trains on exhibit in the Ford Museum, Dearborn.

HAWORTH-PITZEN: Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Haworth of 10681 Maple Rd., Grass Lake, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Diane Louise, to Peter Joseph Pitzen, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Pitzen, II, of 1280 Lima Center Rd., Dexter. The bride-elect will be a 1978 graduate of Chelsea High school and is employed part-time by Mercywood Hospital, Ann Arbor. Her fiancé is a 1976 graduate of Chelsea High school and is employed by American General Products, Ypsilanti. A June 25 wedding is planned.

Schittenhelms Observe 50th Anniversary

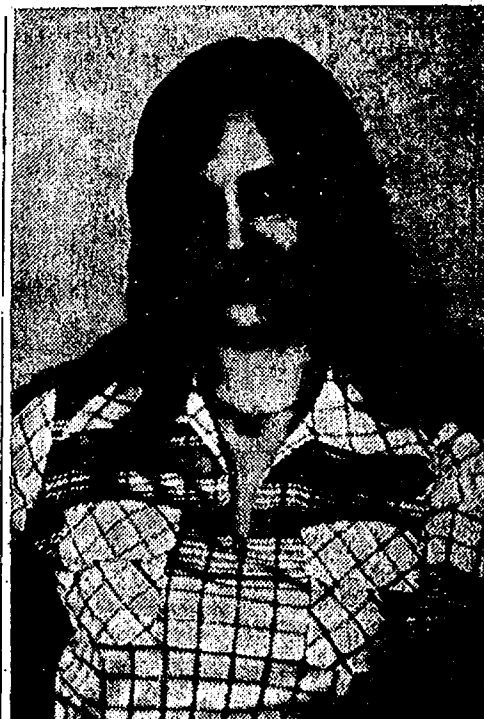

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schittenhelms, of 421 Maute Rd., Grass Lake, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Feb. 19 with a dinner at Weber's Inn Ann Arbor, attended by their three children and families.

The couple was married Feb. 19, 1928, in Chelsea, by the Rev. J. Grabowski.

In honoring the anniversary pair the dinner celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Bristle and Mr. and Mrs. John Skittem and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bauer and family.

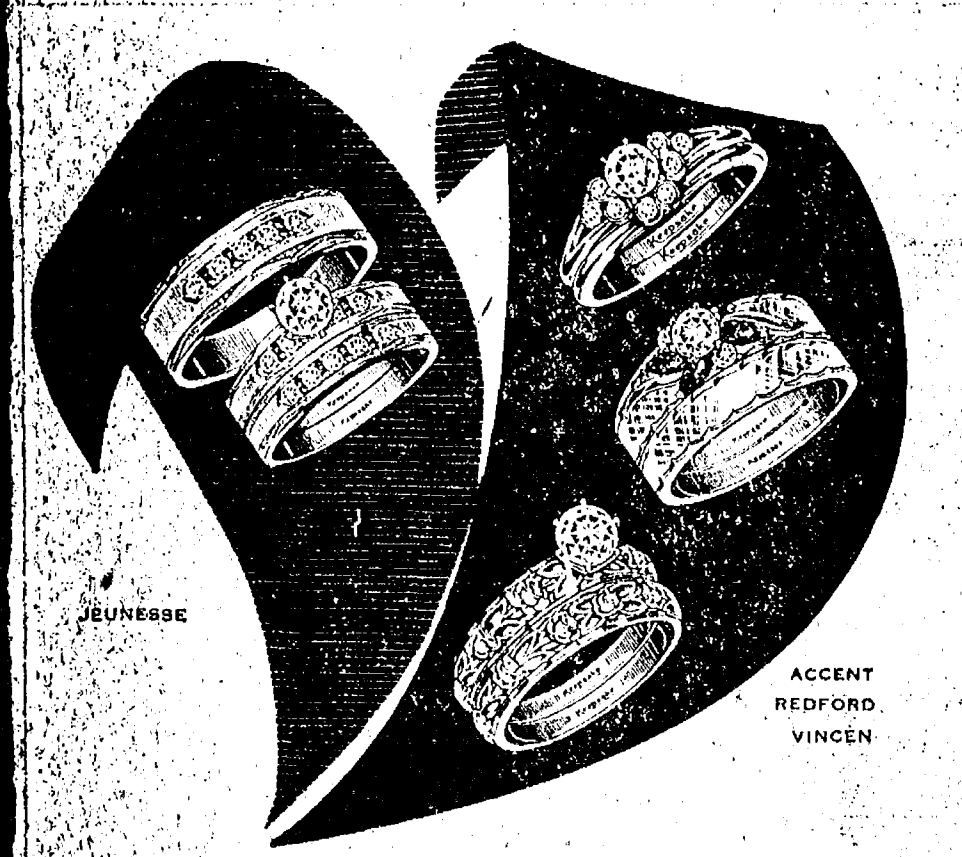

Mr. and Mrs. Schittenhelms have grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Immediately prior to the anniversary dinner, an afternoon gathering attended by family members only was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bauer in Chelsea.

LOVELY-TALBOT: Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Lovely, of 519 Lane St., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Brenda Kay, to Gary Leonard Talbot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Talbot of Ann Arbor. The bride-elect is a 1978 graduate of Chelsea High school and is employed by Pittsfield Plastics, Ann Arbor. Her fiancé attends Washenaw Community College as a full-time student and is employed part-time by the Sears & Roebuck Co.'s automotive service department, Ann Arbor. A June 3 wedding is planned.

Andy Anderson In National Merit Scholarship Finals

Andy Anderson, a Chelsea High school senior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Anderson, 14689 Waldo Rd., has been named a finalist in the 1978 National Merit Scholarship Competition. The selection process to name Merit Scholars is now in progress.

Merit Scholars will be eligible to receive approximately $11 million in scholarships this year to be awarded by the Illinois-based National Merit Scholarship Corp.

For more than two decades, the National Merit Scholarship Program has sought to give recognition to those high school seniors at the uppermost end of the academic ability scale, and to supplement that recognition with financial awards.

The program is privately funded and is the only major scholarship competition that is both independently supported and national in dimension.

Ann Arbor Symphony Presents Free Concert Sunday Afternoon

The Ann Arbor Symphony Orchestra will perform an all-Tschalkowsky concert Sunday, March 5, 3:30 p.m. in Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, under the direction of Edward Szabo.

Maria Meirelles will be guest soloist for the well known Piano Concerto No. 1 in B flat minor. The program opens with the Symphony No. 5 in E minor.

Miss Meirelles, a native of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, is well known to Ann Arbor concert goers. A student of Gyorgy Sandor, she recently finished her doctoral requirements at the U-M School of Music with a series of eight recitals in which she performed the entire 32 Beethoven Piano Sonatas. She has appeared on National Education Television programs several times and was guest soloist with the Grand Rapids Symphony Orchestra, Arthur Fiedler conducting. She is presently devoting herself to a performance career. Admission is complimentary and family attendance is especially welcomed.

EXPEDITION PERU: Scenes such as this one of alpacas grazing at 14,000 feet in the mountains of Peru will be among the many images to cross the screen in Saturday's travelogue presentation, "Expedition Peru," to be narrated by John Ebert. The travelogue is the fifth of six being shown as part of the Chelsea Kiwanis Club's 17th annual Travel and Adventure Series. It will begin 8 p.m. in the Chelsea High school auditorium.

Travel Film on Peru Scheduled Saturday

Unique historic ruins and scenic attractions few countries in the world can equal will come into focus here Saturday when John Ebert presents "Expedition Peru," the fifth of six travelogues in the Chelsea Kiwanis Club's 17th annual Travel and Adventure Series.

The travelogue will be presented at 8 p.m. in the Chelsea High school auditorium.

Peru has been described as one of the most interesting mountain countries in the world. It is the home of beautiful El Misti, second highest isolated volcanic peak in the world. Also found along the same mountain chain is 22,000-ft. Mt. Huascarán, site of a devastating avalanche some years ago.

Those who have traveled to Peru find it a land of contrasts. Primitive farms dot the lonely alpine where llamas roam, yet wealthy cities are also found, peopled by those seeking a cosmopolitan setting. Often, ancient ruins appear just beyond the outlines of a modern building.

In his narration of "Expedition Peru," Ebert will describe the outstanding features of this multi-faceted country as their images roll across the screen. Ebert has led several historic expeditions to Peru, three of which were to the Quebrada Yungay, Quebrada Tupacraji, and Alpa-Mayo areas.

A native of Wisconsin, Ebert attended Northwestern University, Attorn Institute of Technology, Iowa State University and the Federal Radio Institute. Since his youth, he has been associated with travel and adventure photography, and as a high school and college student, he helped defray his expenses by filming unusual outdoor adventures and selling the articles and photographs to newspapers and magazines.

Also since his youth, Ebert has possessed a craving for travel and the urge to visit primitive and unusual places. He has led or directed more than 38 major expeditions which have taken him to all corners of the North and South American continents, and into virtually hundreds of primitive regions.

An accomplished teacher and public speaker, Ebert has taught courses on travel and wilderness exploration, and has presented film lectures to hundreds of groups and organizations. Most of his appearances have been on established "Travel and Adventure Film Lecture Programs."

Ebert is considered a specialist in color motion picture film-lectures and today his programs are recognized as the very best available in the travel-adventure field. Tickets to "Expedition Peru" are currently on sale and may be purchased from any Chelsea Kiwanis, from various local business firms, or at the door, Saturday night.

County Social Services Plan Open House

The Rev. Emmett Green, chairman of the Washtenaw County Social Service Board has announced that an Open House will be held at the Ann Arbor Office of the Washtenaw County Department of Social Services on Thursday, March 2, from 5 until 7 p.m.

The facility is located at 2330 W. Stadium Blvd., approximately one-half mile south of the Jackson Ave.-Stadium Blvd. intersection. The public is welcome.

The Stadium location houses the Administration Offices for the County Department of Social Services as well as full range of financial and Social Services.

The three member Social Service Board and various State officials will be present along with the county director, and his deputy, Ralph Carnegie, to greet visitors. Light refreshments will be served. Ample parking and child care services are available.

Girl Scout Cookie Delivery Date Is Near

Order-taking for the 1978 Girl Scout Cookie Sale started Jan. 30, and while the weather posed a problem, the enthusiasm of the Huron Valley Junior, Cadette, and Senior Girl Scouts appears to have won out.

All indications are that the 400,000 box goal will be reached by the time the orders are added up later this month.

On two successive Saturdays in January, nearly 3,500 Girl Scouts and their friends saw Mr. Bub-bles prove that "Girl Scouts are Smart Cookies," an entertainment program to kick off the sale.

County Head Start Policy Council Elects Officers

Officers of the Washtenaw County Community Services Agency Head Start Policy Council were elected recently at the first annual Head Start Policy Council dinner at the Campus Inn, Ann Arbor.

Elected as chairperson was Vicki A. Burton, 692 Timberlane, Ypsilanti. Vickie is a parent with the CSA Day Care Center.

Vice-chairperson for the coming year will be Linda Vallovet, 1312 Blossom, Ypsilanti, who is a parent with the Willow Run Head Start program.

Secretary for the coming year will be Debbie Munding, 17935 Old US-12, Chelsea. Linda is a parent with the Home Base Head Start program.

round of the district tournament." Coach Raymond said. "It's hard to play the same team twice in three days."

Nevertheless, Chelsea held its own from the field, shooting 21 for 53. Dexter was only slightly ahead, shooting 24 for 49 from the field. In turnovers, Chelsea had 23 compared to 15 by Dexter.

Leading scorers for the Bulldogs were Randy Harris with 15 points, Gerald Benjamin with 11, Jesse Coburn with 8, Dave Schrotenboer with 7, and Charlie Bridges with 6.

High rebounder for Chelsea in the contest was Schrotenboer with 11, followed by Feeney with 6 and Benjamin with 6.

The loss left Chelsea with an 8-6 conference record for the season and tied for third-place with Dexter in the final SEC standings. Over-all, Chelsea finished 10-10 in regular play.

SALINE 89, LINCOLN 45-
Southeastern Conference Champion Saline used a full court press to demolish a winless Lincoln team, 89-45, Friday on Lincoln's own court.

Saline coasted to the win after mounting a 46-21 half-time lead, and finished with three players in double figures while Lincoln came up with only one.

MILAN 77, NOVI 53-
Milan's varsity basketball squad

avenged its Feb. 7 upset at the hands of Novi last Friday by doing out a 77-53 drubbing to visitors.

Novi was handicapped in the game by the loss of one of its key men, Dave Pisha, who was forced to sit out the contest because of flu.

But Milan remained undefeated and went right to work in a 16-12 lead in the first quarter which it then increased to a 22 advantage at intermission.

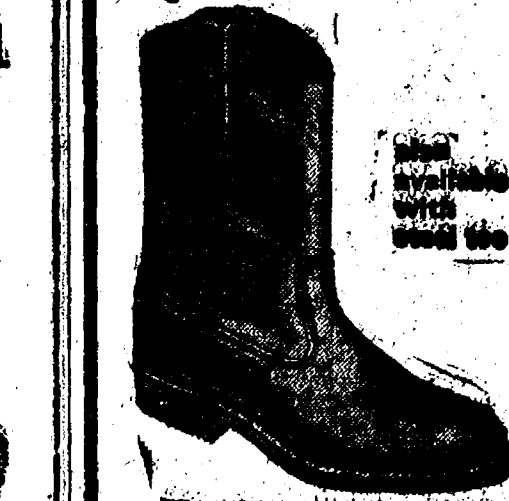

SOUTH LYON 83, BRIGHTON 71-
South Lyon took an early lead over Brighton last Friday, never let up on its host, and capped its struggle with an 83-74 conference win.

Randy Lewis paced the Lions with 18 points, while Keith McClain tied Lewis for game highs with 18 points for the Bulldogs.

McKune Library Offers Many New Best Sellers

By Debra Ann Leabu, Librarian

The last few weeks of winter can seem quite long. Why not visit the library and find something to brighten up these days?

The bestseller list is full of good fiction. J.R.R. Tolkien's "The Hobbit" is now number one, followed closely by the book everyone is still talking about after months and months, "The Thorn Birds." Some others that are asked for often are LeCarre's "Honorable Schoolboy," "Beggarmen, Thief," by Irwin Shaw, Harold Robbins "Dreams Die First," and Howard Fast's "The Immigrants."

On the non-fiction list, James Herriot's "All Things Wise and Wonderful" is a big favorite. A different type of book for those with nerves of steel is "The Amityville Horror" about the supernatural occurrences a family experiences in a house they bought.

Some other good non-fiction to see: two books by John Caldwell on cross-country skiing before the season ends. For the budding runners: Three new books, including James Fixx's "The Complete Book of Running" and Joan Ulyot's "Women's Running." The latter is a great book for encouragement and inspiration and the basic pointers for the non-athletic women especially! A new "Foxfire" volume is on our shelves.

A very interesting perspective on Nazi Germany is given in "Mischling, Second Degree." This describes how the Nazi regime affected the children of the country in their day-to-day lives. A striking point is children will be children no matter what the historic period they're living through.

Joanne Weber continues her fine pre-schoolers' story hour on Wednesday mornings from 9:30 to 10:30. The response has been so enthusiastic that she will continue sessions through March this year.

In the fall of 1979, a national White House Conference on Libraries is planned. The purpose is to formulate library policies for the future in response to what the public foresees as important in types of library services.

The proportion of delegates to the White House will be one-third library personnel, two-thirds public citizens.

In preparation for the national conference, local conferences across the nation are being planned now. For the Washtenaw and Livingston county areas, a morning conference will be held on April 8 at Washtenaw Community College. This is for the general public to attend and participate in.

The meeting is designed to get an idea of what our local residents like about present library services, what they don't like, what changes they would like to see in the future, different directions, or any other general opinions about libraries.

Mark April 8 on your calendar as your contribution to the library services of the future and watch this newspaper for more details about the conference.

FBI Offers Job Opportunities

Local FBI representatives at Ann Arbor have advised that, in consideration of President Carter's concerns regarding high unemployment among the country's youth, the FBI is offering clerical and stenographic jobs to qualified applicants in Washington, D.C. and at Detroit on a full-time basis.

All applicants must be U.S. citizens, high school graduates, over 17 years of age, and able to pass basic achievement tests in writing and spelling. Additionally, typists must have 40 WPM proficiency and stenographic applicants 80 WPM in shorthand. Pay scales range from $7,033 to $8,900. Further details are available at the Ann Arbor FBI Office, 3rd floor, Federal Building, or by calling 668-2111.

A computerized, two-way television instructional system has been designed by Michigan State University telecommunication researchers and used to teach firefighters in Rockford, Ill.

Webster Township Board Meeting Date Changed to March 14

Webster Township Board met Tuesday, Feb. 21, with all board members in attendance along with three residents. Minutes of the Jan. 17 meeting were read and approved and the minutes of the Jan. 25 Planning Commission meeting were discussed.

The following motions were made:

1. To pay bills as presented.

2. Wes Tinsdill appointed to three-year term on Board of Appeals.

3. March board meeting date to be moved one week early, to Tuesday, March 14, due to Settlement Day being on the regular meeting date.

Heading impairments can strike persons of all ages, warn hearing specialists. Young persons who believe they need not be concerned about their hearing ability until reaching senior citizen status can be headed for trouble, the specialists stress.

Hockey Team Blasts Win Over Kalamazoo

Chelsea High's hockey team blasted the Kalamazoo Junior Broncos Sunday, Feb. 19, for a 5-2 win that gave the Bulldogs a 2-1 edge in their three encounters with the Broncos this season.

Chelsea opened the scoring with three goals in the first period. Steve Check was the first to find the net after Dave Dawson hustled the puck loose and sent it to Check on a pass.

One minute later, Dawson repeated the same action and Check put away his second goal of the game.

The Bulldogs scored a third time in the period when Dawson pushed the puck into the net on a mishandled shot by the Kalamazoo goalie. Joe Marentette and Steve Check received assists on that goal.

The second period saw both teams score. Marentette ushered in a power play goal at 8:39 of the period, assisted by Dawson, and Kalamazoo got on the scoreboard at 10:14 of the period on a goal by Ken Kuehn.

Although Chelsea was up 4-1 at this point, Kalamazoo did not give up. Jeff Silk scored Kalamazoo's second goal at 9:38 of the third to narrow the gap to 2-4 behind the Bulldogs, and the Broncos then decided to put their goalie out to get an extra attacker.

But that plan backfired as Check took possession of the puck and passed it to Marentette who shot it down the ice and into the open net.

In other action prior to the Feb. 19 game, Chelsea lost to Jackson High, 2-3, but an even greater loss was that of Bulldogs Pat and Mark Stevenson for the remainder of the season as a result of that game.

Because the two brothers have led Chelsea's scoring attack for most of the hockey year, it was notable that without the two, Chelsea was still able to play good hockey and win over Kalamazoo.

"This win over the Broncos did a lot to build our confidence now that two of our best players are no longer with us," Richard Glasson, team manager, said.

Chelsea hockey team coach is Phil Boham.

Chelsea's final game will coincidentally be against Western tomorrow, March 3, 10:30 p.m., in the Jackson Ice Arena.

"We must win this one Friday and then hope Hanover-Horton defeats Western on Sunday (March 5)," Chelsea Coach Phil Boham said.

In addition to Friday's league encounter, the Bulldogs will play an exhibition game against Jackson Northwest Sunday, March 5, at 6 p.m. It will be the first meeting between the two teams this season and will be the first game to be played by Northwest since the team was selected to host the State Junior Class C Finals.

WCC Alumni To Meet

Graduates and former students of Washtenaw Community College will meet March 6, 6:30 p.m. in the Second Floor Lounge of the College's Learning Materials Center.

The alumni association, interested in programs to help provide scholarships to students at the school as well as to make additions to the Learning Resources Center, begins its recruitment drive at the Monday meeting.

Freer Acres 4-H'ers are working hard to finish their sewing projects for Spring Achievement.

Group leaders Gloria Greenleaf and Judy Juergens, have helped us a lot so that the projects will be done in time.

But before Spring Achievement, there will be a Mother's Tea, to be held March 4, so that all mothers can get a preview of our projects.

Washtenaw County Spring Achievement will be March 11, and will be held at Chelsea High school this year. Judging begins at 9:30 a.m. with finals to follow from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The public is welcome.

Becky Finch, Freer Acres Reporter.

Chelsea team manager Richard Glasson said.

Chelsea had come into the game as a contender for the league championship, but as a result of the loss, the Bulldogs are now one game behind the league leading Jackson Western Panthers with only one game left to play in the season.

Western, with two games remaining in the year, now looks like a shoo-in for the league title.

Chelsea's final game will coincidentally be against Western tomorrow, March 3, 10:30 p.m., in the Jackson Ice Arena.

"We must win this one Friday and then hope Hanover-Horton defeats Western on Sunday (March 5)," Chelsea Coach Phil Boham said.

In addition to Friday's league encounter, the Bulldogs will play an exhibition game against Jackson Northwest Sunday, March 5, at 6 p.m. It will be the first meeting between the two teams this season and will be the first game to be played by Northwest since the team was selected to host the State Junior Class C Finals.

Burglary Suspects Nabbed By Police

The basement furnace room of the church. Police added that prior to their discovery, the two suspects had used the telephone at the church to call Chelsea police in an attempt to discover what had become of Dahm.

The Little brothers and Dahm were brought to Chelsea Police headquarters where they confessed to their roles in the Lloyd Bridges burglary.

An estimated $1,500 worth of goods taken from the dealership premises was recovered. The two men had loaded the items into a van and were ready to leave when they were spotted by police.

However, the dealership now has the task of repairing some $3,000 worth of damage caused by the thieves in their raid.

Police said the men overturned ashtrays, dumped stock off shelves, pulled out a wall clock, cut telephone wires, and in general vandalized the premises of Lloyd Bridges Chevrolet in what perhaps was an attempt to make the burglary look like the work of juveniles.

All three suspects admitted the burglary was premeditated. "They said they drove here from Dundee planning to hit someplace in Chelsea," one officer said.

National Nutrition Week To Be Marked

National Nutrition Week will be observed March 5-11 to emphasize the need for good nutrition on a daily basis, and to underscore the link between good nutrition and over-all good health.

Locally, the Chelsea Community Hospital Dietary Department will take part in the national observance with publication of its "Guide to Good Eating."

Dietitians at the hospital will also be available throughout the week to answer questions about nutrition.

The Dietary Department's "Guide to Good Eating" lists those foods that should be included in every person's daily diet.

Dairy foods, including cheese, ice cream or any other food made from milk, form the first essential group. Children should drink three or more glasses of milk per day, teenagers, four or more glasses of milk per day, and adults, two or more glasses of milk per day.

A portion of these allotment figures may be made up of foods made from milk.

Two or more servings of food in the meat group are also necessary on a day-to-day basis for good nutrition. In addition to meat, the group includes fish, poultry, eggs, cheese, dry beans, peas and nutmeats. The latter three foods are generally regarded as alternatives.

Fruits and vegetables form the third basic food group and a good diet should include four or more servings per day. Tomatoes, dark green or yellow vegetables, and citrus products are the mainstays of this group.

Foods from a fourth and final group round out the "Guide to Good Eating." The group includes all breads and cereals, and four or more servings of foods made from grain should be eaten daily.

"If a person follows the 'Guide to Good Eating' and chooses a variety of foods in his or her diet, that person will be assured of receiving all the vitamins, minerals and other nutrients needed to maintain good health," Julie Say, a member of the hospital's dietary department, said.

Anyone having specific questions about nutrition during the upcoming week should call the dietary department at 475-1311, Ext. 217.

Sen. Bursley To Speak At Jaycee DSA Banquet

State Senator Gilbert Bursley (R-18th District) will be the featured speaker at the Chelsea Jaycees' Distinguished Service Award banquet.

The event will be held 7 p.m., Monday, March 18, in the Chelsea Fairgrounds Service Center.

Dinner will be catered by Ted Orthing, chef at the Flaming Pit restaurant, Ann Arbor.

Purpose of the banquet is twofold—to allow the local Jaycee chapter to honor the citizen selected to receive the Distinguished Service Award, and to give other community service organizations represented at the banquet an opportunity to honor their own members for outstanding achievement.

Separate tables at the banquet may be reserved by organizations interested in the latter purpose.

Names of nominees for the Distinguished Service Award must be submitted to the local Jaycee chapter on or before Saturday, March 4. Nominations postmarked after March 4 will not be accepted.

A nomination form has been included in the current issue of The Standard.

A BUSY DAY FOR THE U. S. GOVERNMENT

March 3 seems to have been a very hectic day for the government throughout the years. On that date in 1851, Congress authorized the issue of silver three-cent coins.

In 1875, the first 25-cent pieces were authorized, and on March 3, 1847, the first postage stamps to be issued by the Post Office Department were authorized.

The stamps were a red-and-brown five-cent stamp with Ben Franklin's image and a black 10-cent stamp with Washington's visage. Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, offers an extensive collection of early American coins and stamps.

TO BENEFIT JUNIOR PROM:

Teachers Will Play In Golden Sneaker Basketball Game

In a sharp break with tradition, teachers at both Beach Middle school and Chelsea High school will find themselves following their students instead of leading them tomorrow.

Occasion for the role reversal will be the Golden Sneaker Championship basketball game organized by members of the Chelsea High junior class under the direction of Mary Stoll, Sue Heller and Lori Miles.

At the game, slated for 7:30 p.m. in the Chelsea High gymnasium, students will lead the pep band, sponsor the cheerleaders, keep score, sell tickets, and coordinate the event in general.

Their efforts will be directed toward raising funds to help finance the Junior Prom.

But it will be "The Bunglers" and "The Arthritics" who will dominate the spotlight when game action begins. The names refer to the two teams scheduled to meet on the basketball court.

Playing for "The Bunglers" or the Beach Middle school faculty team, will be Richard Bareis, Bill Wescott, Bert Kruse, Lenny Solomon, Tammy Barbert, Mario Selou, Karey Haas, Helen Fox, Pete Warburton, Ron Henderson, Don Watson, Joe Beard, Warren Mayer, Judy Ward, Tracey Casar, Lynn Zander, Charles Waller, Dave Lange, Larry Reed.

An initial tabulation of votes in the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary's Baby Photo Contest shows a close race currently in progress in both contest divisions.

Four boys are running neck-to-neck towards the finish line at the head of the boys' division, while out of the 10 girls entered in the contest, either one of two could finish girls' division champion.

Voting in the contest will end Saturday, March 4, when canisters are collected for a final time. Winners will be contacted by telephone, and the decision of judges will be final.

Babies entered in the contest, and their respective canisters, are: Shaimon Elliott, Heydlauff; Matthew Gaken, Pump n' Pantry; Sarah Schick, Schneider's Grocery; Jason Rosentreter, Country Craftique; Alicia Lauhon, Chelsea Pharmacy; Lindsay Gaken, Dayspring Gifts; Lisa Hughes, Vogel's; Andrew Parker, Dancer's; Lydia Halst, Kusterer's; Danny O'Dell, Village Bakery; Melissa Messner, Grove's; Aimee Armstrong, Chelsea State Bank; and Jayma Spears, Al Nalli Music.

Debbie Spalding is Auxiliary chairman for the contest.

Michigan is a four-season tourist attraction.

Jim Hoeft and Jane Lehman. Coaching the team will be Al Conklin.

Teaming up to form "The Arthritics," or the high school faculty squad, will be Paul Terpstra, Ann O'Hagen, Ken Larson, Cathy Opoka, Bill Bainton, Nancy Cooper, Rick Headley, Mimi Luckham, Jim Tallman, John Williams, Dave Nicewicz, Jon Schaffner, Jim Winters, Chris Dimanin, Robin Raymond, Bud Janich, Helen Bareis, Terry Schreiner, Rosie Hudnut and George Prinzing. Phil Bareis will coach the squad, assisted by Pat Wade.

Game announcer will be Pat Clark while Jim Marshall and Dave Lukasik will referee the contest. Handling the time clocks and the scoring will be Todd Tudor and Gary Dills.

Led by Bev Martin, members of the Arthritis cheerleading team will include Tom Balistrere, Karen Fuller and Laurie Lazebnik, while the Arthritis Pep Band, to be led by Pat Stevens, will consist of Nancy Schave, Gail Quinn and Carl Kelcey.

Winner of the Golden Sneaker Championship title will be decided on a combination of best team spirit, best sense of humor, and most entertaining team, all to be judged by audience applause at the end of the game.

Half-time entertainment will be provided by the audience as they compete for prizes in a giant free throw event.

Ticket sales are now in progress at Beach school and the high school. Tickets will also be available at the door.

School Board Will Meet at Beach School

Location of the Monday, March 6 regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education has been changed from the Chelsea High school board room to 8 p.m. at Beach Middle school.

The change was made, according to Chelsea Schools Superintendent Charles Cameron, because board members will be at Beach school when the polls close at 8 p.m. in the March 6 school millage election.

The agenda for the upcoming school board meeting will include a discussion of the Chelsea High school testing program by high school principal, John Williams, and a discussion of the forensics and debate programs at the high school by William Coelius.

A progress report on the search for a new superintendent to replace Cameron, who will be retiring at the end of the current school year, will be followed by an update on the proposal for a community education program in Chelsea.

Certification of millage election results will round out the evening.

COUNTRY TIME CHEVROLET: During the month of January, Lloyd Bridges Chevrolet, 1803 S. Main St., conducted a contest on three local radio stations called "Name That Tune." Bridges, owner of the local dealership, went to Nashville, Tenn., where he had professional recording artists develop a theme song for his company. This song was played for four weeks on the air, and people were asked to make up a name for the tune. Entries were judged on originality and creativity. The winning title was "Country Time Chevrolet," submitted by Stephen F. Harris, of 561 Chandler St. On Saturday, Feb. 25, Bridges presented the Harris with an Hitachi AC-DC color television which was their grand prize for coming up with the winning title. The Harris are at left the photo, accepting the television from Bridges.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER

REALTOR

DECISION FOR NEWLYWEDS

Congratulations! You're engaged to be married. Decision time is coming. Shall the first den of your dreams be a cozy apartment or a comfortable home, large enough to house your projected number of off-springs?

Stop and reflect these alternatives. Apartment rents are climbing as available space lessens. On top of this, the monthly rent checks represent money that is gone forever. On the other hand, mortgage payments are a form of forced savings and actually build an equity for you. Also you can probably look forward to a profit when you eventually sell.

One other consideration is the cost of household moves each time you stairstep to larger quarters. This expense could conceivably cost you every penny you thought you were saving by paying less for smaller quarters.

Either way you decide — have a happy honeymoon!

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-868; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

JV Cagers Wrap Up Conference Crown

Combining a strong assault on the boards with some outstanding rebounding action, Chelsea's junior varsity cagers rolled to a 64-49 win over Dexter last Friday to close out their season with a Southeastern Conference championship title.

"After playing two mediocre games immediately prior to this contest, members of the team decided to finish the season playing like the champions they are," Chelsea Coach Jon Schaffner reported.

With that attitude, the junior Bulldogs leaped out to a 23-point lead at the end of three quarters and completely dominated the rebounds in the encounter by hauling down 65.

Chelsea opened up with a 14-7 first quarter before settling down a bit for a 27-19 lead at intermission. Then in the second half, the Bulldogs nearly tossed Dexter off the court as they scored 26 points to Dexter's 11. Although the Dreadnaughts came back in the final period to outscore Chelsea, 19-11, their efforts failed to overcome their overwhelming deficit.

Chelsea shot 42 percent from the field while Dexter trailed way behind with a 27 percent shooting average from the field. From the free throw line the Bulldogs hit an excellent 74 percent, the second consecutive time they have shot more than 70 percent from the line.

The junior Bulldogs ended their basketball year with a 17-3 season record and a 13-1 mark in the conference.

"This group of 14 young men had a tremendous season," Coach Schaffner remarked. "It's the best anyone seems to be able to remember for many years."

Pacing Chelsea in Friday's contest were Jeff Dils with 18 points, 3 rebounds, 1 steal and 2 assists; Don Schrotenboer with 16 points, 18 rebounds, 2 steals and 3 blocked shots; Brad Knickerbocker with 12 points, 13 rebounds, 3 steals and 3 assists; and Mike Killelea with 7 points, 14 rebounds, 3 assists and 1 blocked shot.

Also contributing to the win were John Dunn with 2 points, 3 rebounds, 1 steal and 4 assists; Mike Wood with 2 points, 3 rebounds, 13 steals, 3 assists and 1 blocked shot; Dave Seyfried with 1 point and 3 rebounds; Karl Albrecht with 2 points, 2 rebounds and 1 blocked shot; Dan Alber with 4 points and 1 assist; Dan McGill with 1 rebound, 1 steal and 1 blocked shot; Jim Cobb with 1 steal; Brad Flanigan with 1 rebound; Steve Myers with 2 rebounds; and Troy Koepp also with 2 rebounds.

Last Chance To Buy Girl Scout Cookies

Chelsea Girl Scout Cadet Troop 98 will be selling Girl Scout cookies Saturday, March 4, and again Saturday, March 11, at Polly's Market and Gambles from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Anyone who missed ordering cookies from the scouts last month will have an opportunity to purchase any or all of the six cookie varieties at either of the two locations.

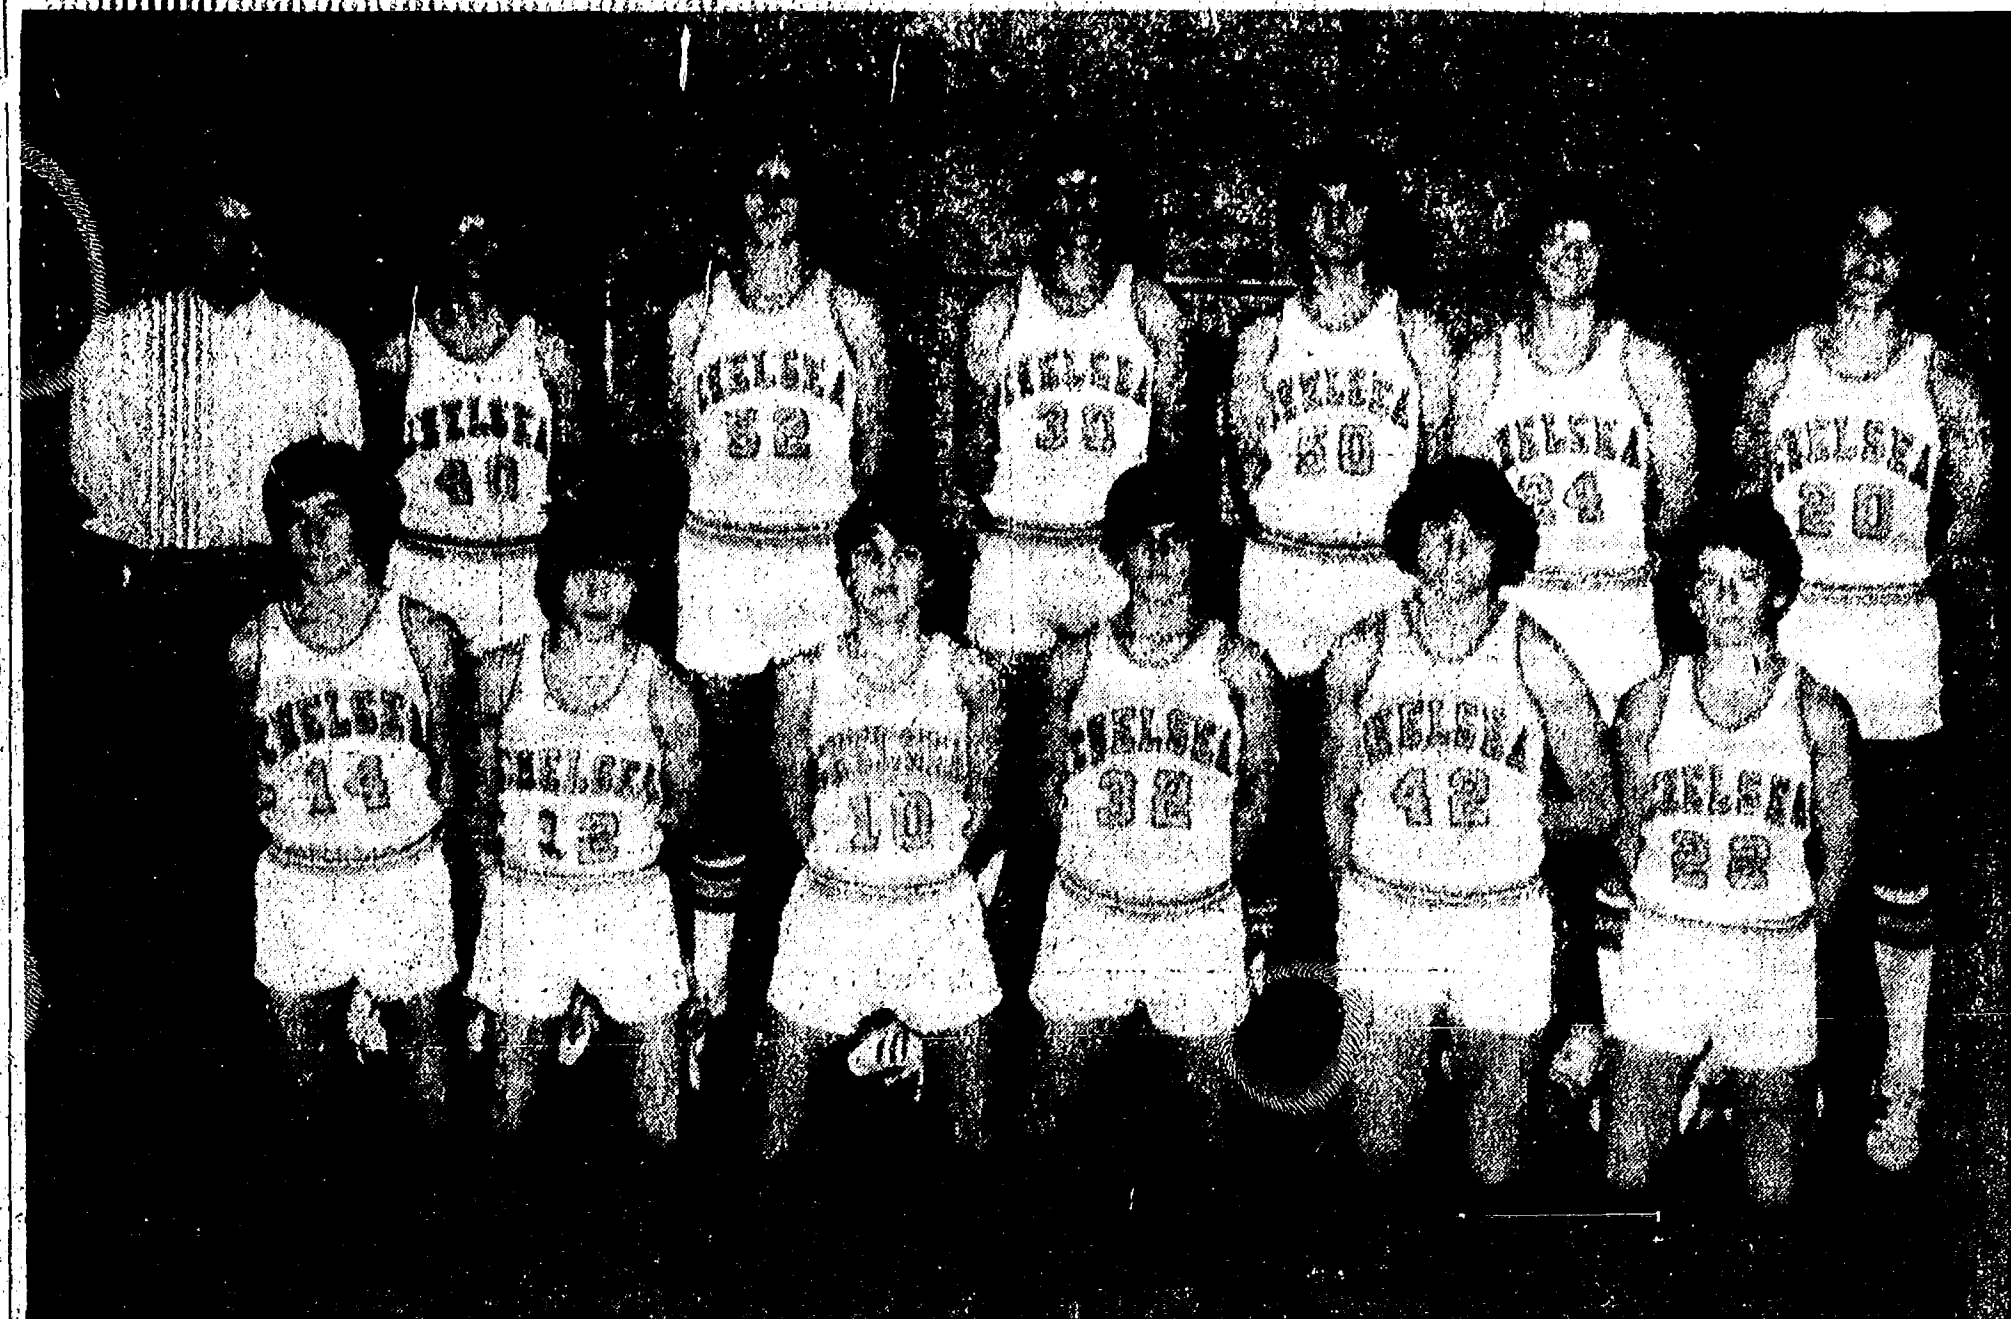

Troop 98 plans to use proceeds from their cookie sales to help finance their trip to Washington, D.C. in June.

CONFERENCE JV CHAMPS: Finishing the year with a 13-1 conference record and the Southeastern Conference championship were members of the 1978 Chelsea junior varsity basketball squad, pictured above. Over-all the junior Bulldogs achieved a 17-3 mark for the year with two of their three losses coming in their first two games of the season. In the front row, from left, are Jeff Dils, Jim

JV Cagers Finish Number 1

After years of hibernation in the lower echelons of the Southeastern Conference standings, Chelsea's junior varsity cagers emerged from their deep sleep this season, began to scale the conference ladder, and last Friday achieved the pinnacle of their climb—an undisputed SEC championship.

But what underscores the accomplishment is it came with the introduction of a new coach this season, Jon Schaffner.

Schaffner, who took over from a highly proficient Paul Terpstra, guided his team to a conference title following a seven-year lay-off from basketball coaching.

"It was easy to coach this group of young men, and a fun way to re-enter basketball coaching," Schaffner said. "Never having been undisputed conference champions prior to this year, I can only say we had a great season."

Under Terpstra's guidance, Chelsea's junior varsity squad came up with co-championships in the conference in 1969 and 1970, but those are the only two years in the memory that the Little Bulldogs came out on top.

Starting for this year's JV team were Jeff Dils, John Dunn, Don Schrotenboer, Mike Killelea and Brad Knickerbocker.

At 5'7", Dils, the only freshman on the team, finished the season as Chelsea's leading scorer with 277 points. He further distinguished himself as a good outside shooter.

Dunn, who stands at 5'8", was described as "a tough defensive player" by his coach. He stole the ball 58 times to pace the team, recorded 75 assists (second only to Dils), and contributed 160 points this season.

The team's leading rebounder, 6'6" Don Schrotenboer, hauled down 210 of Chelsea's 824 rebounds this year, and with 55 percent, had the best shooting percentage from the field of all his teammates.

Schrotenboer was also the only one on the squad able to dunk the ball.

Killelea, at 6'2", was the team's second highest rebounder, coming up with a total of 207 for the year. Killelea was also one of Chelsea's top three scorers with a contribution of 208 points.

At 5'9", Knickerbocker was cited as a "very good outside shooter" by Schaffner who added the cager collected 74 rebounds in the season to rank as Chelsea's third leading rebounder.

Along with the starters, 6'0" Mike Wood and 6'3" Dave Seyfried, spent more time off the bench than on it as Chelsea's two main substitute players. "They came off the bench, worked the boards, and got us going," Schaffner said.

Other players contributing to the success of the season were Karl Albrecht (6'2"), a backup center and second leading shooter percentage-wise; Dan Alber (5'10") a leading free throw shooter for the junior Bulldogs with 83 percent; the hard-working Dan McGill (5'6"); Jim Cobb (5'4"), another fine outside shooter; Steve Myers (5'5"), a player who missed a few games because of illness but really hustled out on the court; and Troy Koepp (5'7"), who originally planned on managing the team before being drafted into the squad where he improved tremendously this season.

A final player on the team, 6'2" Brad Flanigan, had never played competitive basketball prior to this season. According to Schaffner, he had a good attitude all season, worked hard, improved rapidly, and met his goals.

Chelsea averaged 41 percent from the field, and 57 percent from the charity stripe for the year, collected 824 rebounds, and recorded 246 steals, 322 assists, and 93 blocked shots.

Doing an outstanding job as statisticians were Jeff Boyer and Schaffner, while managing the championship squad was Richard Slater.

Girls Volleyball Team Axed in Tournament

In the Southeastern Conference volleyball meet held Saturday at Novi, Chelsea's varsity squad came away with much praise but few victories.

Chelsea drew South Lyon (eventual second-place finisher) in the first round, but failed to make its early warm-up time because of snow.

It showed, according to Chelsea Coach Walt Keppler, as the Bulldogs finished the first game on the losing end of the 2-15 decision.

In the second game, Chelsea revived enough to score eight points before South Lyon again reached a game-winning 15. Strong serving by Molly Bacon accounted for five of Chelsea's points in the game.

In a consolation round, Chelsea faced Ypsilanti Lincoln and was determined to avenge last week's loss to the Railsplitters.

The Bulldogs scraped by with a 16-14 win in the first game, but inconsistent serving came back to plague Chelsea in the second, which it dropped by a score of 7-15.

Although Lincoln jumped out with a 6-0 lead early in the third and deciding game, the Railsplitters were overcome by the serving of Chelsea's Mary Jo Eisele who moved the Bulldogs into a 7-6 advantage midway through the contest. However, Chelsea was unable to maintain its momentum and was axed by the Railsplitters, 8-15.

Chelsea's third and final match was with Saline. Easily the second best team competing in the SEC meet, Saline was first defeated by Brighton (eventual meet champions) in a heartbreaking match, and then upset by Dexter. Still stinging from the two losses, the Hornets turned around to face Chelsea.

It took only three Saline servers to blank the Bulldogs in the first game of the match, 15-0, and in the second and final game, every one who made the trip had a chance to play as Chelsea lost again, 4-15.

Chelsea's next and last home game will be a pre-regional encounter with a strong Tecumseh team, Wednesday, March 8, 7 p.m.

Working closely with head basketball coach, Robin Raymond, Schaffner instituted a man-to-man defense and a fast-break offense. He also adopted Raymond's policy of not naming a team captain for the season, but instead selected a captain week-to-week based on the play of team members in the previous game.

Schaffner said he discussed the weaknesses of the team with Raymond throughout the year and then used many of the head coach's ideas in drills to correct them.

Also helping out was freshman basketball coach, Jim Winters, "a good fast-break teacher," according to Schaffner.

Under Schaffner's direction, the junior Bulldogs lost only their first two games, and then went out to win 17 of their next 18. Their only loss in those last 18 contests was to Saline.

"We went ice cold in the second half and had our worst shooting night of the season," Schaffner said in explaining the loss. But Chelsea came back to avenge it by defeating Saline in a triple over-time game played here later in the season.

This year's junior varsity squad was described as "an ideal team" by Schaffner. The junior Bulldogs had great size as most were taller than varsity players, good speed particularly among the guards, and all combined to form an intelligent group of players.

Cards of Thanks
CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank all my neighbors, friends and family for their cards, flowers and visits during my stay at the hospital and since my return home. A special thanks to the Rev. Carl Schwarm, Dr. McCormick, and the staff at Chelsea Community Hospital.
Vernon Satterthwaite.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank all my neighbors and friends for their visits, gifts, and cards during my recent hospitalizations. Special thanks to the Rev. Morris for his many visits and prayers, to the Junior and Senior Chorus for their cheering songs, and for the faithful visits of Darlene and Dave who never missed a day and who made it possible for Blackie and Goldie to visit me as well. I extend my heartfelt appreciation to all those who made the time pass more speedily and pleasantly.
H. J. Huelsberg.

CARD OF THANKS
I would like to express my appreciation to my aunt Madelyn Stoker for everything she has done during the recent loss of my brother and for all the time she spent visiting my mother in the hospital. Also for all the help since my accident. I would also like to thank Val Fletcher for her prayers and her help.
Karen Wireman.

CARD OF THANKS
We would like to thank everyone for their acts of kindness, sympathy, flowers and contributions during the recent loss of our dear son and brother, David E. Aldrich.
Mr. and Mrs. Gale Aldrich, Karen Wireman, Carol Wiley, Pat Coley.

THANK YOU
We would like to express our gratitude to all the people who signed petitions to help remove the illegal kennel on Beeman Rd. A special thanks goes to the people who circulated the petitions, to the people who made a special effort and attended the township meeting, and to Mr. Kallian Liston, our attorney, who has been a great help in the past two years. It is great to know in the time of need, here are those who will stand up for you in the name of justice. Thanks again.
Clyde and Maryann Myers.

CARD OF THANKS
I would like to thank Dr. Warner-Dunlop and the doctors, nurses and others at the Chelsea Hospital for their excellent care. Also thanks to the friends, family and neighbors for their visits, calls, letters, flowers and well wishes during my stay at the hospital and return home.
Lucille Sanderson.

Home Companion
Service in Need of Community Support
Older Adult Outreach Service of Washtenaw County has developed the Home Companion Service as a way of helping families who have 24-hour responsibility for an elderly person whom they are unable to leave alone. The Home Companion Service is in need of community support.

Home Companion Service is an outgrowth of one group of adult children whose frail parents were living in their homes. Their need for some relief and respite was met by developing a mechanism to match a companion with a suitable family. This service can be arranged on an ongoing basis or "on-call" basis. Companions are recruited from the community, interviewed, given orientation and training. The service is designed primarily to provide a companion for short periods, typically a few hours, up to a day.

Payments for the service will be arranged between the family and the companion. The Home Companion Program serves families throughout Washtenaw county.

If you have need for the service, would like to be a companion, or would like further information, contact Susan Pickle, the Companionship Co-ordinator at Child and Family Service of Washtenaw County, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday at 971-6520.

Errors on Tax

Return May Delay Refund

An incorrect entry in either of two important areas of a Federal income tax return can delay an expected refund check or alter tax liability, the Internal Revenue Service said.

The two items, filing status and dependency exemptions, are important in determining both the rate of tax and the amount of income on which the tax is imposed.

Single taxpayers filing as "Unmarried Head of Household" and persons claiming dependents to which they are not entitled are the two most common mistakes in these areas and can cause refund delays, the IRS said.

Rules applicable to filing status and exemptions are contained in the tax form instruction packages mailed out by the IRS. The agency urges taxpayers to consult the instructions before filing out their tax return.

Small Farmer
Meetings Slated
Ken Ludwig, the newly appointed Small Farm Family Agent of the Co-operative Extension Service, will be hosting a series of gatherings for small farmers and homesteaders in various parts of the county.

These informal gatherings will be a good time to get to know Ken, meet some of your neighbors and fellow farmers and talk about programs, activities and workshops.

Please feel free to attend whichever one is more convenient for you.

Thursday, March 2, 7 p.m., Augusta Township Hall.
Tuesday, March 7, 7 p.m., Saline Middle school.
Thursday, March 9, 7 p.m., Manchester High school.
Thursday, March 16, 7 p.m., Ann Arbor Township Hall.
Wednesday, March 22, 7 p.m., Lima Township Hall.

For further information call Co-operative Extension Service at 973-9510.

Pinckney Man
Strikes Parked Car
Near Portage Lake
A 24-year-old Pinckney man was cited for drinking and driving without insurance Wednesday night, Feb. 22, following an accident in which he struck a parked car on Dexter-Pinckney Rd., according to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

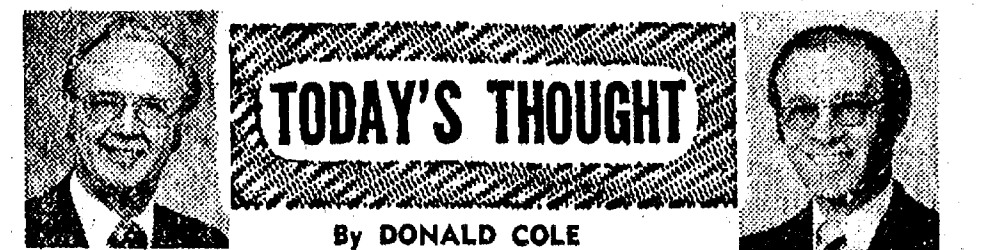

The report stated that Ricky Thomas Watkins, 413 Mann St., Pinckney, was southbound on Dexter-Pinckney Rd. one-tenth of a mile south of the Winston Rd. intersection at 9:45 p.m. when he drifted off the road onto the right shoulder and struck a parked car belonging to David Abbonanza, 9680 Dexter-Pinckney Rd.

— OFFICIAL NOTICE —

REGULAR MEETING OF THE DEXTER TOWNSHIP BOARD will be held Tuesday, March 7, 1978 - 7:30 p.m. at the Dexter Township Hall, 6880 Dexter-Pinckney Rd.

WILLIAM EISENBEISER
Dexter Township Clerk

Are you one of those who like to stand on a crowded corner or street and just watch the people go by? If so, what percentage of the people you see are smiling? You are lucky to see one affable face within a dozen passers by. Surely life is not that rampantly grim.

The value of a simple smile is inestimable. It enriches those who receive it without impoverishing those who give it. It creates happiness in the home, fosters good will in business. A smile can not be bought, begged, borrowed or stolen. It has no earthly good to anyone until it is given away.

ANNOUNCING DODGE OMNI.

EPA ESTIMATES: 39 MPG HIGHWAY, 25 MPG CITY.
Its EPA mileage estimates are 39 mpg highway and 25 mpg city. These estimates refer to an Omni equipped with a standard 1.7 litre engine, four-speed manual transmission, and 3.3 transaxle ratio. Naturally, your mileage may vary according to your car's condition, equipment, and your driving habits. California mileage is lower.
$4267* (CAR AS SHOWN.)
$3706* (BASE STICKER PRICE.)
That's right! $4267* for the Omni pictured here. But Omni's prices actually start at $3706*. And that price includes front disc brakes, rack-and-pinion steering, cut-pile carpeting, front bucket seats, AM radio, vinyl body-side moldings, and white sidewall radial tires!
*Excluding taxes and destination charges.

MOTOR TRENDS' CAR OF THE YEAR.
We wanted Omni to have those qualities American drivers always held dear. So we gave it front-wheel drive, mounted the engine sideways, and ended up creating a surprising amount of interior room. We put a coil spring at each wheel and designed in plenty of suspension "bounce" travel to make Omni's ride supple and smooth. We've even indulged Omni owners with remarkably comfortable seating, AM radio, whitewall radials, and vinyl side moldings. All standard.
See the car that Motor Trend magazine has already named "Car of the Year." The new Dodge Omni. Sit in one. Drive one. Then buy or lease one.

DODGE OMNI. IT DOES IT ALL.

To the Editor:

On Feb. 13 I witnessed something which in my opinion truly describes our potential harsh insensitivity toward one another.

On the aforementioned date, I wished to enter the Chelsea Pharmacy to make a purchase; however, I found the entrance blocked by a huge black Labrador wearing a white T-shirt. Like many people I was immediately put on guard, as I had no idea as to how the dog would react. I managed to slip past the dog and get inside to make my purchase.

While waiting for the cashier, I noticed a young boy attempting to leave the store after making his purchase. When the boy opened the door the dog immediately tried to attack him. Luckily, he was able to slam the door in the dog's face. Meanwhile the girl, who I assume owns the dog, was standing at the counter, and laughed aloud at this incident. She then walked over, petted the dog, and told the boy that the dog simply did not like him.

In my opinion, this child, and I do not use the term child lightly, should have the dog taken from her, and not be allowed to have another, until she is mature enough to respect other people's feelings, and realize the full potential of an animal of this size.

Co-ordinating Manager At Chelsea Hospital Earns National Award

Robert J. Wojtowicz, co-ordinating manager at Chelsea Hospital, was singled out by ServiceMaster for recognition of outstanding management achievement at the hospital during 1977.

Wojtowicz was selected from more than 150 managers in the ServiceMaster Hospital, North Central Division, to receive the company's Merit Award for Supporting Management. The award was presented at a management conference, Jan. 28, at the Hyatt Regency O'Hare, Chicago.

The Merit Award for Supporting Management, given annually to one resident manager in each of ServiceMaster's geographical hospital divisions, signifies an outstanding contribution to the hospital administrator's team as a department head. Selection of the award winner is based on inspections by ServiceMaster representatives and reports from hospital administrators.

Wojtowicz joined ServiceMaster in 1974 and has served at several hospitals before receiving his assignment to Chelsea Hospital.

ServiceMaster pioneered the concept of service to hospitals through management support programs. Today, ServiceMaster is the leading company providing in-hospital management services for housekeeping, linen control and distribution, laundry and plant operations and maintenance programs.

The first national federation of industrial unions was the Committee of Industrial Organization in 1935, according to "Labor Firsts in America," published by the U. S. Department of Labor.

ANN FEENEY, newly-appointed chairman of the Chelsea United Way budget committee, is shown at right delivering a hot meal to Bertha Kasenchuk. The local United Way chapter annually allocates a portion of its funds to Chelsea Home Meal Service, a program that provides for delivery of one hot meal per day to elderly and handicapped individuals in the Chelsea area. The photo, part of the Chelsea United Way's photo collection, was taken approximately one year ago.

A. Feeney Appointed To Chair Budget Committee

Ann Feeney, a director of Chelsea United Way and member of the Chelsea Board of Education, has been appointed chairman of the local United Way budget committee. The appointment was announced by Chelsea United Way President Gerald Dresselhouse.

The budget committee decides upon the allocation of funds raised by the local United Way chapter. It currently has the happy task of deciding how to distribute some $7,658 raised last year over and above the 1977 campaign goal of $28,500. Of the $37,255 collected in last year's fund raising effort, $1,100 was used to finance expenses.

To determine where the $7,658 will be spent in 1978, Mrs. Feeney has tentatively called a March 8 meeting of her committee.

The mother of six children, Mrs. Feeney and her husband, J. Michael, reside at 249 Park St.

In addition to her United Way and school board activities, Mrs. Feeney is treasurer and an active worker for Chelsea Home Meal Service, an agency that provides hot meals at nominal cost to senior citizens and handicapped individuals in the community.

Fashion Show Benefits County March of Dimes

The annual March of Dimes benefit luncheon and fashion show, focusing on the latest spring fashions, will be presented on March 11 at 1 p.m. at Weber's, Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor.

TODAY'S INVESTOR

Q. From all I read in the papers, stocks have been a terrible hedge against inflation. Yet, you continually suggest people buy and accumulate stocks. Aren't you a little inconsistent?

A. It's easy to come to the conclusion that stocks are a poor inflation hedge when you go through a period like the past six or seven years when stock prices go down and then fail to rise as high as other prices have risen. But, over a full economic cycle, stocks are probably the single best hedge that a person can put his money in to protect himself against inflation. Here are some figures that come to my desk recently from the Wayne Hummer & Co. monthly letter. In the past 20 years, dividends increased 60 percent. The Consumer Price Index rose 3.8 percent. In the last five years, when inflation has been most severe, dividends are up 9.3 percent compared to the annual 7 percent inflation rate. Looking back even further to take one specific example, in 1958 AT&T paid a dividend of $9 a share, now that share has become 6 shares and pays a total of $25.50 in dividends. So, from a dividend point of view, stocks have clearly been a superior inflation hedge.

Looking at stocks from the standpoint price appreciation, they have not kept up with inflation in recent years, but in my belief this catch up will take place in the years ahead. All of the assets in back of corporations; their land, their buildings, their machines and equipment have appreciated in value at a rate equal to or better than inflation. The cost of the products they produce and the prices they receive for their goods and the profits they make on them have all increased. So, all of the values in back of stocks are substantially greater than they were just a few years ago. Many people are well aware of this. Foreign corporations are offering to buy the stock of some of our corporations at prices much higher than which the stock is currently selling. This is because they recognize the opportunity to buy a lot of value (which they could not duplicate in many cases at twice the prices they are offering) because our current stock prices are low. Many U.S. companies are buying other companies at prices way above current stock prices for the same reason.

Gradually, this undervalued situation of stock prices will adjust (and the adjustment may be for ahead of other inflation rates because of the continually growing values) and when it does, then stocks will have proven to be a very excellent inflation hedge from the standpoint of price as well as income.

Q. I am a single female, 25, and would like to invest $2,000 I am not sure where the best long-term investment could be. I work part time and am a graduate student. I am a novice and all my investment experience has been in short term stocks, but I want to be an investor.

A. First, are you sure the $2,000 is something that you can invest and not have to touch for a long period of time. If that is the case, then you are young enough so that you should put your money in growth type stocks. I'm sending you a copy of the January issue of Better Investing and suggest you look at the stocks in the Model Portfolio on page 6. I'd divide your money into three equal parts and buy three stocks in the portfolio which have the highest projected rate of growth, those would be American Family Corp., Marion Labs, and Tiger International.

Next I would get together a few friends and start an Investment Club. That would be the best way to start learning sound investment principles. I'm enclosing a few folders you can give your friends that describe how investment clubs work.

Mr. O'Hara welcomes your questions, but will answer them only through this column. He would be pleased to send a complimentary copy of BETTER INVESTING MAGAZINE or information about Investment Clubs to any reader requesting it. Methodist Conference Receives $2 Million Matching Funds Gift

A sum of $1 million has been pledged to the United Methodist Retirement Homes of the Detroit Annual Conference, provided local churches raise at least $2 million in a capital funds campaign now under way.

An anonymous donor has promised to give one dollar for every two pledged to the homes by Methodist churches and their members.

"In order to take full advantage of this challenge, Methodists of this area must pledge at least $2 million," Roger Spry, chairman of the Homes' development committee, said in announcing the donation Feb. 27, at a campaign rally of the Ann Arbor District.

"It is hoped that the church membership will fully underwrite its $3 million suggested goal, thus enabling the Retirement Homes to redeem the $3 million indebtedness due in 1979 as well as the $1 million due in 1981," he added.

The current campaign aims to retire a debt incurred when a major renovation and expansion program at both Methodist Retirement Homes, in Chelsea and downtown Detroit, was undertaken in 1975 to increase capacity and meet health, fire, and safety standards.

At that time the Detroit Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church approved a capital funds campaign, and last year approved a two-year extension of that drive. The Board of Trustees of the Homes, with the Rev. Samuel Seizert of Royal Oak as president, has designated January through April as a time for an intensified campaign at the local church level. Several churches have already responded.

The First United Methodist church of Owosso promptly sent a check for $24,000 to the Retirement Homes. The Rev. Norbert W. Smith explained that church members at their annual church conference Jan. 11, voted to borrow $24,000 from their bequest account and contribute the money immediately, enabling the homes to "save a great deal of interest." The Owosso church will then conduct a drive within its membership to refund the bequest account.

The Owosso contribution of $24,000 will be matched by $12,000 from the anonymous donor.

The Administrative Board of the First United Methodist church of Garden City has resolved to contribute $3,500 to the campaign drive by Dec. 31, 1978, and to meet its total suggested goal of $10,500 by Dec. 31, 1980. A special offering for debt retirement will be taken the first Sunday of each month. The two youth fellowship groups of the church voted to give proceeds from all their projects to the Retirement Homes; "The drive is pulling our congregation together in a special way," the minister the Rev. Robert Grigeriet, said.

The more than 200 residents of Boulevard Temple voted Jan. 26, to contribute $3,000 to the campaign immediately. The money came from sales made in the home's Friendly Shop and other proceeds accumulated over the past several years. These same residents agreed last fall to give up coffee at their noon meal, realizing that this sacrifice will save $3,500 to $4,000 annually.

Boulevard Temple, at the corner of West Grand Blvd. and Rosa Parks, has served as a home for the elderly since 1963. Residents of the 74-year-old Chelsea Home have $1,000 last fall toward retiring bonds. The money was earned by residents through their annual fall bazaar and from sales of their ceramics and products from their sewing room, variety shop and showcase.

National Physical Education Week Set for March 1-7

"Get Moving, America" is the theme for the celebration of National Physical Education and Sports Week, March 1-7. What can you do during that week?

1. Visit your child's physical education class as an observer or participant and learn more about the details of your school's physical education program.

2. Arrange for more physical activities that involve family and friends—hiking, cycling, roller skating, swimming, bowling, cross-country skiing, etc. Make physical activities more enjoyable by doing activities together.

3. Encourage your children to walk or cycle when they have places to go; involve them in a work schedule at home that involves physical activities.

4. When you buy toys or play equipment, pick things that give the child a physical workout as well as fun.

5. Try to attend or participate in at least one athletic event that is being held in your community during the first week of March.

Above all, Get and Keep Moving, Chelsea! It feels good to feel fit physically, mentally, and emotionally. So try to learn a skill you can play for life!

MY KINGDOM FOR A HORSE?

Remember 1918, the peak year of non-mechanized farming? That year, U.S. farmers had 26.7 million mules and horses and 13.5 million farm workers. U.S. agricultural production in 1974 was 2 1/2 times greater than 1918. A straight projection means we would need 61 million horses and mules and 31 million farm workers to achieve today's yield with 1918 methods.

Chelsea Girl Is MSU Student Co-Ordinator

Sharing... learning... leading.

These are some of the satisfactions experienced by Matthew B. Veroff of Ann Arbor and Jane Buxton of Chelsea, student co-ordinators for the Michigan State University Office of Volunteer Programs (OVP).

In the largest college volunteer effort in the country, approximately 1,200 students take time out from their busy schedule to help others in any one of 42 OVP projects.

The projects range from helping elderly people with their household chores to cleaning glassware in a laboratory to initiating reading and recreational programs in a juvenile detention home.

Staff co-ordinators oversee each activity, but the bulk of the organizing in the field is the responsibility of student co-ordinators.

Some of the duties of student co-ordinators are acting as a liaison between the volunteer office and the agency where the program is held, helping plan orientation sessions for new volunteers, assigning students to particular job schedules, co-ordinating transportation, and reporting regularly on the progress of the program.

Veroff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Veroff, of 1547 Granger,

Ann Arbor, has been a volunteer for two years and is co-ordinator of the Ingham County Juvenile Detention Home program.

Buxton is student co-ordinator of volunteer guides and demonstrators at the Impression 5 science museum in Lansing. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buxton, of 3840 Fletcher Rd.

After graduation in June with a degree in recreation, Buxton plans to become involved in 4-H projects.

A dormitory resident assistant, Buxton is also a member of the Horticulture Club at MSU and the Association for Recreation and Leisure Education. She is a 1974 graduate of Chelsea High school.

First Paper Money

In an attempt to pay the soldiers who fought for the colony in the French and Indian wars, Massachusetts became the first of the American colonies to issue paper money on Feb. 3, 1690.

By establishing a provincial bank and releasing paper notes in denominations ranging from two shillings to five pounds, the colonial government hoped to pay off its debt. Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, maintains an extensive collection of colonial currency.

Dentists Offer Check-Ups for Children in Fluoride Program

A Chelsea dentist, concerned with the need for preventative dental care for children in three prime cavity and orthodontal problem age brackets, has organized a volunteer effort to be shared by four other local dentists to give free check-ups to children enrolled in the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary's summer fluoride treatment program.

Dr. Robert A. Burns, Jr., a dentist at Chelsea Medical Center, read about the Auxiliary's fluoride treatment program and realized the program is aimed at a select group of youngsters those at an age where dental problems first start developing.

Believing that early treatment of dental problems prevents costlier remedies in the future should the problems go untreated over a period of time, Dr. Burns decided to offer free dental check-ups to children participating in the fluoride program so that parents would have some knowledge of the current condition of their children's teeth.

After checking with the sponsoring Auxiliary and with various state bureaus in Lansing for authorization, Dr. Burns was told he could proceed with his plan. He then contacted other dentists in the area and all expressed interest in participating in the innovative project.

"We will not be giving complete examinations with X-rays and the like, but will simply use mirrors and other manual tools to give parents a barometer feeling for how great the need is for interceptive repair of damaged teeth," he said.

In noting that tooth decay is the most common disease of mankind (colds not excluded), Dr. Burns added that it is the only disease that can either be prevented or totally remedied.

In many cases, the need for braces can also be circumvented with early treatment of orthodontal problems, according to Dr. Burns.

Although the Auxiliary's topical fluoride application program is primarily offered to children who have not been drinking fluoridated water, Dr. Burns pointed out that the program is the most complete of its kind, even compared to fluoride treatments given by a dentist in his or her office, and that parents who have any reason to suspect their children are not fully protected should consider enrolling them in the program.

"With some 2,000 grade school aged children in Chelsea, it would seem a minimum of several hundred could benefit from the fluoride treatments," Dr. Burns said. Last year only 150 children were enrolled in the Auxiliary program.

Those particularly urged to register for fluoride treatments are pre-schoolers (age 3 and older), second, fifth, and eighth graders who do not drink from the Chelsea water supply; and eighth graders who have lived in Chelsea less than seven years, fifth graders who have lived here less than five years, and pre-schoolers and second graders with less than three years residence in the city.

Each child who participates in the fluoride program will be expected to attend a series of four clinics to be scheduled one or more days apart and will be given a toothbrush and brushing instructions at one of the clinics.

Topical fluoride applications prevent 40 percent of new tooth decay but should be supplemented with regular visits to a dentist, good toothbrushing habits, and avoidance of sugary foods between meals, the Auxiliary has stressed.

The fluoride treatment program will be conducted during the summer according to a schedule to be announced in May. An appointment card will be mailed to parents 2-3 weeks prior to a child's appointments.

A fee of $4.75 per child will be charged for the program, but parents unable to finance the cost may call Ginny Wheaton at 475-7412 to discuss a possible fee adjustment.

Parents wishing to register their child for fluoride treatments should fill out the registration form contained in today's issue of The Standard, and return it with the $4.75 registration fee to their child's teacher before March 7. No refunds will be given after March 9, and any registrations after March 9 will be on a first-come basis if any program openings exist.

Linda Wahr Named To Dean's Honor List at Spring Arbor College

Linda Wahr, of 16400 Heim Rd., has been named to the 1977-78 first semester Dean's List at Spring Arbor College, Spring Arbor.

The Dean's List at Spring Arbor is based on a 4.0 point system with each student required to achieve a 3.5 grade point average or better for the scholastic honor.

ACT Exam Deadline Is Tomorrow

Susan M. Carter, Chelsea High school guidance counselor, has announced the schedule for several events to be sponsored by the counseling department this month.

At the top of the list is the March 3 registration deadline for those students at the high school who will be taking the ACT college boards exam. The test will be administered in the Chelsea High school cafeteria April 1. Any questions regarding the exam should be directed to one of the high school counselors.

On March 8, an admissions counselor from Grand Valley State College will be in the high school counselor's office. Appointments to meet with the visiting counselor should be made with one of the Chelsea High school counselors.

Parents are reminded that registration for next year's classes will soon begin. Parents of 8th graders, in particular, are asked to be aware that during the week of March 20-24, Chelsea High school counselors will be presenting high school pre-enrollment information to junior high school students in Chelsea.

Volleyball Team Still Inconsistent In Loss to Dexter

The up and down, inconsistent season of Chelsea's varsity volleyballers continued last Thursday during their match with Dexter.

Getting their points in bunches, the Dexter Dreadnaughts opened up with an early lead in the first game and coasted to an easy 15-2 victory.

However, in the second game, Chelsea played a tight defense before falling victim to a late Dexter surge that left the Bulldogs with a 13-15 loss. The lead changed hands five times during that second game.

Chelsea's offensive player of the match was Michelle Sarbach, while defensive player of the match honors went to Kathy Starkey.

NEWEST GIRL SCOUTS: Members of Chelsea Girl Scout Troop 777 pose for a group photo at the Methodist Home where they meet every Thursday to plan activities geared toward widening their horizons. The troop, formed last November, presents a new concept in scouting as the median age of members is near 80. The troop was organized by an Ann Arbor woman, Mrs. Connie

Methodist Home Group Organizes Unique New Senior Citizen Girl Scout Troop

A new vanguard is forming among the ranks of Girl Scouts who constitute an institution as traditional in America as mom, apple pie, and the flag.

And, members of this vanguard are coming from the least likely of places—from a community of senior citizens disenchanted with the current lack of programs offering an opportunity to develop self-awareness and inter-personal relationships.

Chelsea is one of only three cities or towns nationwide harboring such dissidents and they're all at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home.

Under the direction of Connie Amick of Ann Arbor, 17 residents at the Home have united to form Girl Scout Troop 777, choosing that number for their troop because they feel it's a lucky one. While the ladies won't be selling Girl Scout cookies (regulations at the Methodist Home prevent it), or working on merit badges, they will be actively seeking to widen their horizons, according to Mrs. Amick.

Assisting Mrs. Amick in her advisory role to Troop 777, which is part of the Western Washtenaw Area Association of Huron Valley Girl Scouts, are Sandra Rogers, an Ann Arbor Girl Scout leader, Marie Frait, Peg LaJeunesse and Sharon McCarthy. The latter three are all also from Ann Arbor. McCarthy is a University of Michigan student.

"This is a new concept in scouting," Mrs. Amick said in regard to the Girl Scout troop where members have a median age that hovers near 80.

"Rather than structuring their program to fit that of other scouts, we asked the women what they really wanted to do and then developed a program to fit their response," she reported.

The women of Troop 777 were not interested in arts and crafts, but wanted to see things outside the home, learn more about a variety of subjects, and grow as individuals.

Consequently, since their formation last November, the Methodist Home Girl Scouts have organized a Christmas tea, traveled to the Michigan League in Ann Arbor for lunch, learned the history of scouting, watched W. C. Fields movies, participated in a seminar on winter birds, and plan to visit the Botanical Gardens in Ann Arbor and learn about wildflowers.

Last Saturday, Methodist Home scouts also participated in a Girl Scout Thinking Day program at Dexter High school.

In preparation for Thinking Day, which seeks to focus on the international aspects of the Girl Scout movement, Troop 777 received a visit from Greta Skjaerlund of Dexter, president of the Western Washtenaw Area Association of Girl Scouts, and a native of Denmark. Mrs. Skjaerlund showed slides of Denmark and treated the group to Danish pastries.

Members of Troop 777 also brought items made in other countries to the meeting and discussed them.

Because no members of the new Girl Scout troop were scouts in their younger days, all have spent a considerable amount of time learning more about the Girl Scout program. They wear Girl Scout pins to their meetings, and have memorized the Girl Scout Promise, Girl Scout Laws, and Girl Scout songs.

They are planning inter-troop activities, and will join a Chelsea Cadet Troop, and a Dixboro Junior Troop in special projects this spring.

"Members of Troop 777 are all appreciative and enthusiastic about what they are doing," Mrs. Amick said.

In keeping with tradition, the troop has a patrol leader, Mrs. Emily Finch; an assistant patrol leader, Mildred Grams; and a scribe, Ethel Ratcliffe.

The troop meets every Thursday at the Methodist Home, and while there is no limit on membership in the troop, it is open exclusively to Methodist Home residents. Those participating in excursions planned by Troop 777 must all be registered members of the troop.

A recreation budget cut at the Methodist Home initially opened the way for formation of a Girl Scout troop there, but according to Mrs. Amick, the main reason the troop formed was to provide an alternative for those uninterested in other programs at the Methodist Home.

"I don't know if we have succeeded with our goal as yet, but the women certainly look forward to their meetings each week,"

Mrs. Amick said. "The general feeling is you're never too old to learn, grow, and do new things."

In addition to Chelsea's senior citizen Girl Scout troop, other such troops exist in Great Falls, Mont., and Cincinnati, O.

The "I Can" program, in use nationwide to help classroom teachers improve physical education training of mentally handicapped youngsters, originated at Michigan State University.
