DOUG WETZEL sails smoothly over a high hurdle in Tuesday's meet with Stockbridge and Willow Run. 30-degree temperatures and a downpour during the meet forced squad members like Wetzel into warm-up pants and queries of where's spring?

Baseball Team Takes Two from Manchester

Chelsea opened the 1978 baseball season with a doubleheader sweep of Manchester. The Bulldogs romped in the first game, 11-4, and then decisively won the second in the nightcap, 6-2.

After falling behind, 3-0, in the second inning of the opener, the Bulldogs erupted for four runs in the bottom of the third. Chelsea managed only one hit but capitalized on four walks and a hit batsman to score their runs.

After Manchester tied the game at 4-4 in the top of the fourth, the Bulldogs exploded for six runs to take a 10-4 lead and put the game out of the Dutchmen's reach.

Highlighting the inning were hits by Al Augustine (two RBI's), Mike Eisele (triple), and Mike Sweeney (single).

For the game, Augustine had four hits and three RBI's; Eisele, Sweeney, and Don Aldrich each had one safety.

"Defensively, the Bulldogs played well for the first game of the year, they did not make any errors," Coach Paul Terpstra said. Senior Co-Captain Kurt Owings pitched the entire game, giving up four runs (three earned runs), seven hits, and four walks. He also chalked up four strike-outs.

"He became stronger as the game went along, holding Manchester scoreless the final three innings," Terpstra commented.

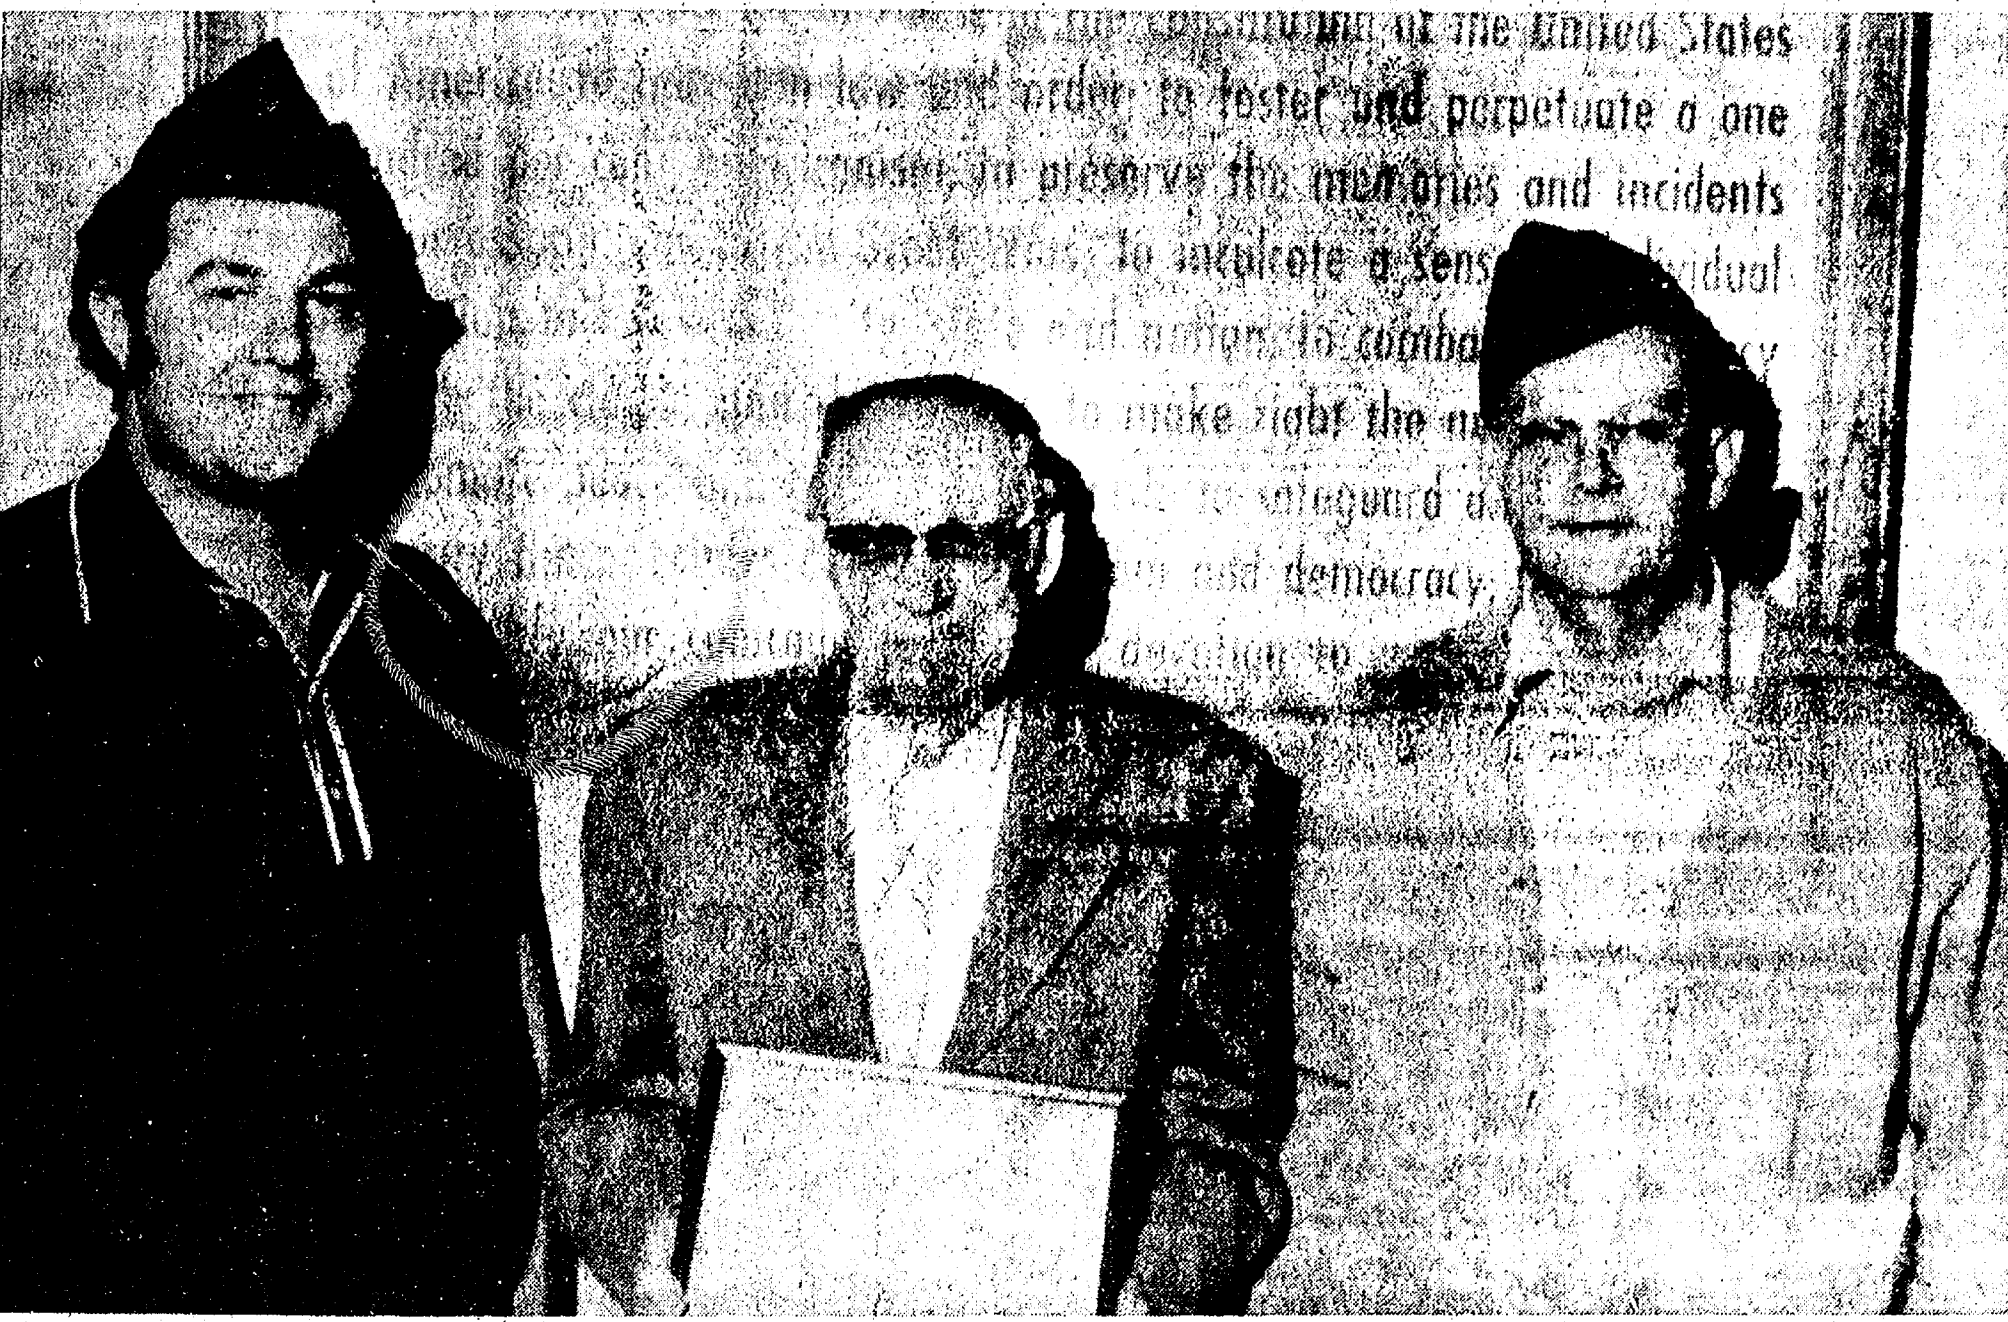

In the second game, Chelsea again fell behind, this time 1-0 in the first inning. In the bottom of the second, however, Chelsea scored on a single by Augustine, an error, a stolen base by Augustine, and an RBI by Jeff Jahnke. Chelsea scored twice in the third inning to lead, 3-1.

The Bulldogs increased their lead to 5-1 with a single by Aldrich, a double (one RBI), and an RBI single by sophomore Mike Wood. Chelsea added an insurance run in the sixth inning after Manchester had narrowed the gap to 5-2 in the top of the sixth.

The final totals showed Chelsea hits by Augustine (double, single) and singles by Aldrich, Wood, and Brad Knickerbocker.

"Defensively, the Bulldogs were strong as they played errorless ball," Terpstra said. Junior Mick Machesky pitched the entire game giving up only four hits and two earned runs, struck out six and walked only three. He was especially tough in the sixth inning when the Dutchmen loaded the bases with no outs. He then retired the 4th, 5th, and 6th hitters allowing only one run," said Terpstra.

Friday, April 14, Chelsea travels to Grass Lake for another non-conference game. SEC play begins Tuesday, April 18, at South Lyon and Wednesday, April 19, at Novi.

Track Team Struggles With Spring Break

Chelsea High school boys track squad opened their season Friday, April 7, against Tecumseh and Pinckney and—as expected—ran into two very strong teams.

The final outcome was Tecumseh 76, Pinckney 64½, and Chelsea 64½. "We had a few people missing and some bad luck in two of the relays, but at best we might have picked up six to eight points over-all," Coach Bert Kruse commented.

"Times and distances were very good for early season and Chelsea times and distances were not that bad. However, both Tecumseh and Pinckney teams were well balanced and much deeper in personnel," he added.

Highlights of the meet for Chelsea were in the shot put and discus as Leon Brown and Bob Ball took 1-2 in the shot, 1-3 in the discus.

Steve Pennington ran a strong race in the 330 low hurdles, finishing second in :41.3, one-tenth of a second off his school record set last year.

During the Tuesday, April 11 meet with Stockbridge and Willow Run, Chelsea was severely handicapped with 10 team members missing because of spring vacation.

Final scores for the meet were:

Stockbridge 73½, Willow Run 60, and Chelsea 33½.

Two very good home meets are coming on Thursday, April 20, and Tuesday, April 25. Brighton comes in April 20 and Jackson Luman Christi and Jackson Northwest on April 25. All have some outstanding performers. These meets will start at 4 p.m.

Tennis, Yoga Classes Slated By Rec. Dept.

Two spring programs have been announced by Robin Raymond, director of the Chelsea Recreation Department.

"We are anticipating the addition of several more programs this spring and summer, but we are in dire need of teachers," according to Raymond.

Volunteers are needed in golf, adult softball, youth baseball, volleyball, ceramics, magic, guitar, or anything a person has a special interest in and would like to teach, Raymond said. They may call Raymond at 475-9341 to volunteer.

The two six-week programs scheduled for spring are tennis and yoga.

Tennis will be offered for both beginner and intermediate play-

Firemen Battle Small Grass Fires

Chelsea Fire Department was called to two week-end grass fires, according to Jim Gaken, fire chief.

The first was a small ("about an acre or two") fire Saturday at 10:30 p.m. on state-owned land near Duffy's Lake, according to Gaken. Eight men extinguished the blaze in less than 20 minutes, Gaken said.

The second call was received Sunday at 8 p.m. about several scattered fires along the railroad tracks between Hoppe and Notten Rds. "We weren't able to reach several of the fires with our trucks so we had the men backpack two Indians and two brooms to the fire," said Gaken.

Indians, Gaken explained, are five-gallon water tanks, and the brooms are specially treated with a fire retardant and used to beat out grass fires.

Sunday's fires took nearly an hour to quell with eight men battling the blazes, Gaken said. The fires were probably started by sparks emitted from a passing train," he said.

Sharp Increase Reported in Student Absences, Suspensions

Describing the 1977-78 fall semester high school suspension and absence figures as "terrible," Nancy Schave, assistant principal at Chelsea High school, presented her report on the statistics at the April 3 school board meeting.

According to her report on student absences during the fall semester, 170 students (19 percent of the student body) exceeded 15 days absences: 58 seniors (27 percent of the class), 41 juniors (27 percent), 56 sophomores (24 percent), and 15 freshmen (seven percent).

In addition, 32 students were absent in excess of 13 days in the final nine-week marking period of the fall semester, according to the report.

These figures, Schave said, represent an average daily attendance (ADA) of 90 percent of the high school body.

"In comparison, the fall semester of 1976 had only 77 students exceeded 15 days of absence for other reasons than severe illness," Schave said. "The increase in one year is the equivalent of 18 additional students absent each day since the fall semester of '76," she added.

The 1977-78 90 percent ADA is going back to the 88 percent ADA of 1971, according to Schave. "There was a slow but steady increase from 1971 to the second semester of 1976-77 when we achieved an ADA of 92 percent," she said.

"In one short year we have plummeted from a record 92 percent ADA in the 1976-77 school year to a 90 percent ADA in the fall semester of 1977-78. This represents half the progress we made since 1971 when the ADA stood at 93 percent," Schave said.

1977-78 suspension statistics up to March 30, Schave said, "are overwhelmingly bad." Although last year's suspension figures were unavailable, "they are many, many more than last year," she said.

A total of 156 high school students (85 male and 71 female) were suspended from one to 10 days from school by March 30, according to the report: 44 for smoking, 21 for marijuana, 19 for truancy, skipping, loitering in the bathroom, 12 for being off-campus, 11 for forgery, 10 for obscene language, eight for defiance of authority,

Kindergarten Round-Up Set for May 4

Registration for all pupils in the Chelsea School District who will enter school for the first time in September 1978, is scheduled for Thursday, May 4 at South school in the cafeteria.

Both rural and town parents are asked to come from 6:30 to 8 p.m. at which time there will be a short period of comments from the kindergarten teacher, the principal, the bus supervisor, the school nurse and the speech correctionist.

To be eligible for kindergarten this September, children must be 5 years old on or before Dec. 1, 1978. Parents should bring a legal birth certificate to round-up. Health forms will be issued at this time.

It is essential that all children be enrolled at this time to help kindergarten planning. Parents are urged to call either elementary school if they are unable to attend the registration session on May 4. Phone number is 475-9131, ext. 60 or ext. 65.

MCRC Elects Board Members

Mill Creek Research Council, during their annual meeting March 28, elected the following members to the board of directors for one year terms: Dave Bacon, Virginia Denham, William Chendler, Nancy Burkhalter, Linda Koch, Robert Wirtz, Wallace Fusilier, Dave Wolfgang, Betty Messman, Margaret Sias, Brett Seabury, and Olive Wiseman.

Varsity Softball Team Dominated By Youth

Chelsea's varsity softball team this year will be dominated by young talent. "There are only five varsity players back from last year's team that had a record of 3-8," Coach Bill Wescott points out. "Our success will depend on how well our young players can adapt to varsity play."

Nanette Push, a sophomore, will take care of the pitching duties this season. She will be hurling to her batterymate, Patty Hume, who is also a sophomore. Both Patty and Nanette won their varsity letters in softball as freshmen.

Molly Eisele, a freshman, will be a very important part of an inexperienced infield. Other sophomores on this year's team include Amanda Schwarze and Kim Wood. Kim was voted most valuable player on Chelsea's junior varsity team last year. "Both Kim and Amanda must continue to show improvement throughout the season if our infield play is going to be as good as it was last season," says coach Wescott.

Juniors on this year's team will be Anna Umstead, Cindy Bareis, Michelle Sarbach, Tammy Collinsworth, Jenny Clark, Cathy Voita, and Veronica Satterthwaite. Of the seven juniors, only two won varsity letters in softball last season. They are outfielders Cathy Voita and Veronica Satterthwaite. Clark, Bareis, and Collinsworth were all members of a very successful junior varsity team that had a record of 9-4.

Captain Tracy Hawker will be the lone senior on this year's varsity. She has played on the varsity for the past two seasons.

Wescott believes that South Lyon and Brighton will be the two most competitive teams this year in the SEC. "It is always difficult to tell how good the other teams are in the league. South Lyon, 1977 league champions, only lost one starter to graduation and they boast a tremendous offensive attack leading last year's league in many hitting departments," Wescott said. (See Schedule on Page Three)

Five Men File Petitions for School Board

A fifth and final candidate has filed a petition to run for one of the two four-year terms on the Chelsea School District board of education, according to Fred Mills, business manager for the school district.

Roger Graves, 9991 Harr Rd., joins Arthur E. Dils, Jr., Dale Schumann, Daniel T. Snyder, and James E. Spencer in the race for seats being vacated by Robert Daniels and Tom Hodgson. The election is June 12.

Girls Track Team Loses to Pinckney

In spite of a school record setting shot put and strong performance in the long jump, half-mile and quarter-mile, Chelsea's girls track team was edged out by Pinckney, 68-67, Friday.

The Pirates were led by double jumpers Denny Parker in the shot and discus, Michelle Curro in the high jump and 100, and Cynthia Berry in the mile and two miles.

Shelley Warren paced the Bulldogs with second place efforts in the half-mile. She also ran discus and high jump and a winning mile relay.

Another fine performance was turned in for Chelsea by Mary Boylan who was second in the shot put with a record setting toss of 32½'. The Bulldogs took the first three places in the long jump with Pris Drew winning first, Laurie Hastings second, and Lori Miles third.

In the 880, Shelley Warren was followed by Theresa Hoffman and Nancy Heller. In the 440 Hoffman was first, followed by Heller and Mary Boylan.

Also winning for Chelsea were Lori Miles in the hurdles and the mile relay.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ed Doolittle told the fellers at the country store Saturday night that the way America is headed the day ain't far off when the right to go hopeless in debt will be about the only freedom we got. Ed said he was talking about what we owe one another, not the national debt that everybody owes themselves. And what makes it worst, Ed went on, is that new laws is being passed ever year that make it easier fer us to wiggle out of one batch of debts and go charging off after more.

What got Ed riled was the piece he read the other day where more and more folks that git in over their heads are grabbing the Chapter 13 rope to pull them out of the monthly payments whirlpool. Ed said this is what's called the wage earner's plan, and what it amounts to is admitting you can't handle your debts and you want the court to take over your financial failings. Ed said this is a two-sided saw, and them coming up on the short side are the small business folks that give us credit on nothing more than what they take to be our good intentions.

What happens, Ed explained, is that the court figgers how much income the feller using this wage earner plan has got. Then the judge parcels out what the wage

Constitutional Convention

Should Michigan have another Constitutional convention? Voters will decide that question when they go to the poll this November as the question will be on the ballot automatically as required by the 1963 Constitution which provides a determination by the electorate every 16 years. If approved, the convention would convene in Lansing on October 3, 1979, or earlier if provided by law.

Constitutional conventions in the state are unlimited to subject matter which could result in an entirely new Constitution or specific amendments to the 1963 doctrine.

The current state Constitution, compared to other states, is relatively new, less cumbersome and has been amended less frequently. The average median age of state constitutions is 88 years compared to Michigan's 14-year-old document.

Only seven of a proposed 13 amendments have been approved by the voters. Approved amendments include the establishment of the Judicial Tenure Committee; establishing the State Officers Compensation Commission;

Child, Family Service Workshop Scheduled

Child and Family Service of Washtenaw county will sponsor a workshop on Family Transitions, to be held Saturday, April 29, at St. Paul church, Chelsea. The workshops are open to the public and are being set up especially for residents of Manchester, Dexter, and Chelsea. This is an attempt on the part of Child and Family Service, which is a member of the United Ways and Chests in Chelsea, Dexter, and Manchester, to provide more direct service to these three communities. If the workshops meet with any success, other so-called Family Life Education programs will be provided in the area.

In describing the aim and purpose of the "Family Transitions" workshop, Natalie Fitzgerald, case-work supervisor, explained, "The workshops are for people of all families—who want to learn how to deal more effectively with the growing tensions, concerns and problems of daily life. The workshops are offered as an educational experience through which people can learn or strengthen skills in communication, relationship building, problem solving, decision making and life planning as a means of personal growth and enrichment."

"Experienced, professional social workers will lead workshops on the following subjects: The Blended Family—His, Hers, Ours; Marital Separation—With or Without an Adolescent; Substance Abuse in the Family. We have food sanitation standards to prohibit such benefit dinners.

Under the bill sponsored by Rep. Stanley Powell (R-Ionia), pot-luck suppers and bake sales, held by non-profit organizations, would be exempt from the provisions of the food service sanitation act. The act requires that food served to the general public be prepared in licensed and approved kitchens.

The bill was requested of Powell by his wife, Eleanor, who has been cooking for pot-luck suppers since 1921.

North Lake Co-Op Nursery Children Visit Lane Animal Hospital

March 29 the children in the Monday and Wednesday session at North Lake Co-Op Nursery visited Lane Animal Hospital.

Dr. Lane gave the children a guided tour of the facility, starting with the examination room. The children observed a flea under a microscope. Dr. Lane stressed the importance of good health for pets and that they need regular check-ups.

In the operating room, Dr. Lane explained how to put a dog or cat to sleep so they could be operated on. He showed the tank of oxygen and anesthesia which is used for dogs and allowed the children to smell it.

The children viewed the x-ray machine. Dr. Lane explained if he had to go to a farm and x-ray a horse or cow the x-ray machine could be taken apart. They saw an x-ray of an animal and the sterilizing machine.

He then brought in a cat that had been operated on that morning.

Dr. Tremper was on hand March 30 when the three-year-olds visited. They took Pogo (the school guinea pig) with them and Dr. Tremper trimmed his toe nails.

March 31, the Monday-Wednesday-Friday session visited with Dr. Lane and Dr. Bower. gave the tour.

Chosen by the president-elect as secretary was Dorothy Lentz.

District delegates are as follows: Eulalie Packard, Mary Kniss, Elizabeth Smith, Judith Kent, Lucy Platt, Betty Clark, and Donna McAllister. Alternate delegates are June Walt, Sarah Heldt, Gertrude O'Dell, Elsie O'Dell, Marlene Johnson, Dorothy Lentz, and Eleanor Farley.

Grave markers and flags were ordered and will be placed on the graves of all departed members before Memorial Day.

Life memberships to the National home were ordered for Kermit and Bessie Sharp as a token of appreciation for their leadership as commander and president of the local post and auxiliary this past year.

Bertha White was elected to membership, and Donna McAllister, previously elected was present and received her initiation oath.

Elizabeth Smith, National Home chairman, received and presented the local auxiliary with a certificate for the auxiliary's participation in the Health and Happiness program of the National Home.

Reports were given by various chairmen of recent activities. Eulalie Packard reported on the April 8 potluck supper, and Judith Kent on the March 25 bake sale.

In the absence of senior trustee Lucy Platt, the quarterly financial report was read by Bessie Sharp and accepted by the group.

Elizabeth Smith reported on the upcoming blood drive, and asked for assistance of members to help through the day, Saturday, May 6. The Red Cross will set up the activities in the local Union Hall.

A $1 gift was voted out for the National Home graduate, there being only one high school graduate at the home this year.

Elizabeth Smith and Judith Kent were appointed to co-chair the rummage sale being held April 21-22 in conjunction with the post members.

The assembly was reminded of the Sixth District meeting to be held in Chelsea on May 21, more details later. A testimonial dinner will be held April 22 for the 6th District commander, John Rothenberger, and 6th District president, Betty Ellsworth, at Morley S. Oates Post No. 701, Lansing. Several post and auxiliary members are planning to attend.

The next regular business meeting will be held May 8, 8 p.m. in the VFW Hall.

Microwave Cooking Shown Woman's Club

The Women's Club of Chelsea met Tuesday evening at St. Barnabas church. A mini-microwave program was presented by Gloria Wilson, the Amana-Oster representative. Mrs. Wilson was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Hodges. The appliances were provided by Heyd-lauff's.

Guests for the evening included Duwana Bertke, Marge Beaumont, Betty Cook, Shirley Chapman, Carrie Eisenbeiser, Beverly Hawks, and Norma Smith.

The proposed slate of officers for the coming year was presented by the nominating committee. They include, president, Betty Osterle; vice-president, Roselee Cairne; secretary, Jo Spade; treasurer, Kathryn Glazier; and parliamentarian, Katherine Donovan.

Plans for the annual dinner to be held May 9, at Win Schuler's in Jackson were discussed. A cocktail hour will begin at 6:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m.

The next meeting will be held April 25 at McKune Memorial Library, followed by the club's annual meeting.

Student Absences

According to Schave, is much less flexible than last year's. "We held conferences with students and parents when we saw the possibility of suspension last year. We tried to meet the problem head-on and find alternatives to suspending a student. This year, however, the suspension policy is so specific in what type of offense receives what type of penalty that there is no room for leeway in individual cases. By the time a student reaches my office it means almost automatic suspension," she explained.

Children at Day Care Center Learn About Good Nutrition

Children at the Chelsea Community Hospital's Child Care Center will be learning all about good nutrition this week. They will help prepare various types of food, such as peanut butter, vegetable soup, scrambled eggs and butter. The children will discuss the four basic food groups and though games and songs they will learn to categorize food into these groups. This will help encourage them to eat a balanced diet.

Following discussions on nutrition, the children will begin spring projects. The children will start their own vegetable garden. They will also be studying and observing the signs of spring on nature walks. Through stories, films, puppets and dramatic play, they will be finding out about the beauty of spring.

On Thursday, April 27, the Washtenaw County Health Department will be testing the hearing and vision of children in the Center. The children will also be screened by the Hospital's Speech Therapist for speech and language problems at the end of April.

There are still openings for full- or part-time children ages 2½ through 6 at the Child Care Center, which operates from 6:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

For more information please contact Corinne Gillan at 475-1920.

Bulldog Sluggers of the Week

DON ALDRICH, left, senior and playing his second year on varsity, believes "last week's games against Manchester represents the kind of season we're going to have this year." Aldrich said that "despite a lot of misgivings of some of the people at the games because four out of 10 seniors were on a Caribbean cruise, we still romped them in both games." Aldrich plays a variety of positions, including centerfield, third base and catcher. "Centerfield is my best position; it's where I'm starting now. I'm better qualified for centerfield because of my past experience and my size works well there. Aldrich stands 5 feet 9 inches and weighs 130 pounds. Last year Aldrich played outfield for the varsity team. Aldrich has a hard time keeping Saline off his mind. "One of the best games we played last year was with Saline when we beat them 5-4 and knocked them out of winning the title. I've been reading about Saline's team this year and in their first game the pitcher struck out 12 and in their second game two pitchers combined to strike out 17. It looks like their pitching is going to be reasonably tough this season." Although Aldrich focuses his sporting energy almost entirely on baseball, he likes to join pick-up basketball games occasionally. Aldrich is also a member of the National Honor Society. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Aldrich, 221 E. Middle St.

KEN JENKINS, right, senior and first year varsity team member, plays leftfield and pitches. Standing 5 feet 9 and weighing 135 Jenkins appreciates the leftfield position "because it gives me a lot of room to roam and it gives me a wide-angle view of the whole game. I can get into the game more when I can see what's going on all around me." Jenkins attributes the double win over Manchester April 8 to the fact that the entire team "was mentally prepared and up for the games." Achieving mental preparation, according to Jenkins, involves "constant practice and never taking a game for granted." Jenkins singles out the performance of Al Augustine who "surprised everyone. We all knew he was going to hit during the games but he hit a lot better than any of us anticipated." Next Friday's game against Grass Lake has Jenkins gearing up for what he says could be a showdown. "I played against Grass Lake two years ago and their pitcher was very good. This year his brother is pitching and I hear he is even better." Jenkins describes the Bulldogs as being deep at all positions and strong on team unity. "We need to increase our speed on the bases but overall we have a lot going for us." Jenkins, when not covering leftfield, works part-time on a farm and thinks often about going into aviation after graduation. To prepare for this in high school he is taking several math classes. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenkins, 551 Howard Rd.

Pull out your dancing shoes and beer mugs—the Stroh Brewing Co., and J. P. McCarthy are having a party April 27.

The occasion is the second annual Stroh Party benefit for Spaulding for Children and everyone is invited.

Hosting the event will be Detroit's beloved, early morning radio master, J. P. McCarthy from WJR, as he did last year for more than 400 guests.

Sponsoring the "all the beer and Coke you can drink" party will be the Stroh Brewery in Detroit, where as last year, the party will be held from 6 to 10 p.m.

According to Spaulding for Children development director Kathy Cavanaugh, a goal of $3,000, double last year's, has been set.

In addition to free beer and Coke "there will be lots of food, two live bands playing continuous German and country music, and door prizes," Cavanaugh said. "So far we have lined up several exciting prizes," she said. Included on the list are: the free use of an AMC Jeep for one year, a chance to have dinner for four at one of 10 Detroit area restaurants, and a week-end for two, including two evenings' accommodations, dinner and cocktails at the luxurious Detroit Plaza Hotel in the impressive Renaissance Center. Cavanaugh adds that additional door prize donors are being actively sought.

Although the party is labeled as a benefit to raise funds for the agency which places physically and mentally handicapped children, it could also be called a celebration birthday party for the 10-year-old precedent-setting adoption service.

For long-time Chelsea residents, the story is a familiar one but one worth repeating.

On April 26, 1968 the dream of the now late Warren D. Spaulding came true when the doors opened for an agency with a pioneer concept—that children labeled "hard if not impossible, to place for adoption and confined to institutions and foster homes could, and should, have permanent, caring homes to grow up in."

Warren, who after a vigorous, compassionate life died last summer at the age of 94, dreamed that his family's farm home on Waltrous Rd. be used somehow for the benefit of children. When he founded Spaulding for Children and donated his home he expressed his hopes for the agency: "to serve all children of all breeds and races." Children need families, not an institution to live in. I'm glad that this farm will play an active part in seeing that homes are provided for children who need them," he once said.

Spaulding is a private, non-sectarian agency which places only those children for whom other agencies have been unable to find a home.

"The children we place are either physically and mentally handicapped children, emotionally disturbed children of school age, racially mixed children, or children from minority groups," Cavanaugh explained.

"To place a child for adoption costs nearly $5,000," she said. "While this may sound very expensive, our agency is a cost-beneficial operation compared to the cost of public support for these children," she added.

Cavanaugh said that if a child were placed in a state foster home it would cost taxpayers approximately $4,000 a year per child. If the child were placed in an institution the cost would be nearly $14,000 a year for each child.

"Not only are we cost-beneficial but it is extremely sensible for the child to be placed in a permanent home," she said.

Included in the cost of placing a child is locating and preparing the child for adoption; finding the right set of parents and preparing them for this step; processing the necessary legal work involved; and supervising and counselling the family after placement.

Spaulding operates on a "several hundred thousand dollar budget" each year, according to Cavanaugh. Funding comes from individuals, community organizations, foundations, fund-raising events like the Stroh Party, and purchase-of-service fees from the state.

Purchase-of-service fees are what Spaulding charges the state for placing state wards in homes, Cavanaugh explained. "This covers only a portion, not the full cost, of our time and expenses in seeking qualified adoptive parents," she added.

Acting as an "agency's agency," Spaulding not only serves the state in finding suitable homes for the special-needs child, but numerous other private adoption and referral agencies.

In addition, Spaulding has grown over the years since 1968 to include nine similar Spaulding agencies state-wide which "work together but independently" Cavanaugh said. Together they have directly placed more than 200 children, she said.

Indirectly, Spaulding has been responsible for an unknown number of adoptions as a result of their campaign to educate others in the field of adoption to the ways and means of Spaulding's success.

"We encourage social workers and others who are involved in placing children for adoption to focus their attention on the special-needs child," Cavanaugh said.

Workshop Slated on Family Transitions

Child and Family Service of Washtenaw county will sponsor a workshop in Family Transitions to be held Saturday, April 29 at St. Paul United Church of Christ, Chelsea. The workshops are open to the public and are being set up especially for residents of Manchester, Dexter, and Chelsea. This is an attempt on the part of Child and Family Service, which is a member of the United Ways and Chests in Chelsea, Dexter, and Manchester, to provide more direct service to these three communities. If the workshops meet with Life Education programs will be provided in the area.

In describing the aim and purpose of the "Family Transitions" workshop, Natalie Fitzgerald, case-work supervisor, explained "The workshops are for people of all ages, individuals, couples and families, who want to learn how to deal more effectively with the growing tensions, concerns and problems of daily life. The workshops are offered as an educational experience through which people can learn or strengthen skills in communication, relationship building, problem solving, decision making and life planning as a means of personal growth and enrichment."

"Experienced, professional social workers will lead workshops on the following subjects: The Blended Family—His, Hers, Ours; Marital Separation—With or Without Children; Coupleship—Communication in Close Relationships; Enjoying Your Young Child; Living With An Adolescent; Substance Abuse in the Family. We have tried to provide something of interest for most every family."

In addition to the workshops, a relaxation session with Yoga will be held during the lunch break. The program will begin at 9 a.m. with three morning workshops. After lunch the afternoon workshops will begin at 1:30 and end at 3:30. People will be able to attend two workshops. Some may want to attend for only half a day, which is possible. Beverages will be provided, but people will be required to bring their own lunch. Free child care will be available for youngsters between the ages of one and six. Anyone interested in attending is urged to register as soon as possible. Pre-registration is required, however, if vacancies exist people will be allowed to register at the door. Fee for the entire day is $5 per person and $3 for additional members.

Information and registration may be secured by calling Child and Family Service at 971-6520.

CARRIAGE TRADE UNLIMITED

1287 ROSEWOOD CALL 662-4042 ANN ARBOR

The nation's longest coal strike has now become history and shipments of coal are returning to normal. For Detroit Edison customers this means you have all the electricity you need, but we hope you will continue to use it wisely.

Unlike many other states, Michigan was able to avoid mandatory power cutoffs through careful planning and the cooperation of business, government and consumers. By buying electricity from outside sources and by burning alternate fuels like natural gas and oil, Detroit Edison was able to stretch its supply of coal and help avoid shutdowns and layoffs. Of course, this was more expensive and the costs will be reflected in higher electric bills for April, May and June. For the average customer using 500 kilowatt hours, this could amount to between $2 and $3 more than billed in March.

The recent crisis once again points out the need for energy consciousness on the part of everyone. So while coal is beginning to move again, Detroit

Edison would like to remind all its customers to use good judgment in their use of electricity. This especially holds true for major energy users like refrigerators, furnace blowers, air conditioners and electric clothes dryers. The more wisely these appliances are used, the more the savings in energy and money will count up.

Detroit Edison thanks you for your cooperation during the coal strike and reminds you to save where it really counts. The power is in your hands.

Karl Fink Seeking District Court Post

Karl V. Fink, an Ypsilanti attorney, has announced his candidacy for the position of Judge of the 14th District Court to fill the vacancy which will exist when Judge Henry Arkison retires at the end of his current term.

In announcing his candidacy, Fink made the following statement:

"The position of District Judge is very important in that the District Court has the most contact with the general public, and from that contact impressions and attitudes are formed concerning our entire legal system. Those appearing in court whether as a party, witness, or juror cannot choose the Judge that they appear in front of, and therefore, it is important that each judicial position be filled with the best available candidate. My lifelong residence in Washtenaw county and the variety of experiences I have had together with my professional training and experience as an attorney make me well qualified to serve the public as 14th District Court Judge. If elected Judge, I will treat each individual appearing in court, in whatever capacity, with dignity and respect. All cases will be decided upon the facts and the law in such a manner that the public can have confidence that the courts can properly resolve disputes promptly, fairly and impartially."

Fink, 38, was raised in Ypsilanti where he graduated from high school in 1957. He then entered the University of Michigan where he was on the wrestling team, receiving his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in 1961. At that time, he was commissioned a Second Lieutenant and entered the United States Army where he served as a paratrooper and assistant personnel officer and was on the United States International Sports Military Wrestling Team competing in Germany, Egypt and Iran. After his active duty, he served for several years as a Reserve Officer with the 33rd Engineer Group in Ann Arbor and was a captain at the time of his discharge from the Army Reserve.

After his Army active duty, Fink entered the University of Michigan Law School, from which he received a Juris Doctor degree in 1965. At that time, he entered private practice in Ypsilanti with his father, Robert V. Fink, until he became a Washtenaw county assistant prosecuting attorney in 1967. During his five years in the Washtenaw County Prosecutor's Office, he was promoted to senior assistant prosecuting attorney and then had supervisory responsibility for all cases arising in the 14th District Court area and for all appeals from all Washtenaw county courts. In 1972, he re-entered private practice with his father until Robert V. Fink was appointed 14th District Court Judge. At that time, Fink merged his practice with the firm of Ulrich Pear & Fink, P.C. where he is presently engaged in the general practice of law.

Fink has been admitted to practice before all Michigan courts, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, the United States Tax Court and the Supreme Court of the United States. In 1972 and 1973 he was elected by Washtenaw county lawyers to represent them in the State Bar of Michigan Representative Assembly. He has served as a volunteer counsel for the State Bar Grievance Administrator and is a member of the Ypsilanti Bar Association, Washtenaw County Bar Association, State Bar of Michigan and the Christian Legal Society.

Fink is a member of various community organizations, is a director of the Boys Club of Ypsilanti, and is a member of Packard Rd. Baptist church in Ann Arbor where he is a Sunday school teacher and deacon. He is a vice-president of the Dexter Association for the Gifted and Talented Students and he is a former director and board chairman of Huron Valley Youth for Christ.

HARRIET SARNOFF SCHIFF

Noted Author To Speak on 'Coping With Bereavement'

"Coping With Bereavement" is the title of a program being presented at the Chelsea High school auditorium, April 28 at 7:30 p.m.

Harriet Sarnoff Schiff, author of "The Bereaved Parent" will be the speaker. She has appeared on such television shows as The Phil Donahue Show, Today Show and Tomorrow Show. She has been written up in Newsweek and McCall's. Because her book has been so widely received, it is in the seventh printing.

Harriet Schiff explores and explains the experiences she and her family as well as many other families have had with the death of a loved one. Having researched and experienced this subject, she feels that she can help those who have gone through it and are having trouble coping and those who have not yet but someday may have to cope with it.

This program is being presented by Modern Mothers and is open to the public. Tickets are available now at Vogel's and Country Craftique, or by phoning 475-8892.

Pinckney Driver Strikes Deer

A 26-year-old Pinckney woman escaped injury when the automobile she was driving struck a deer on Dexter-Pinckney Rd. Tuesday evening, April 4, according to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

Mary Louise Knoch, 11896 Algonquin, Pinckney, told deputies she was northbound on Dexter-Pinckney Rd. a half-mile south of North Territorial Rd. at 6:40 p.m. when a deer bounded in front of her car heading east and she struck it. Deputies said that although the deer was no longer on the scene when they investigated, hairs were found imbedded in the hood of the vehicle.

Damage to the car was reported as slight.

YOU'VE GOT MY WORD ON IT.

There may be bigger used car lots in the area. But there aren't any that are better than Rampy's. You've got my word on it. I'm Bill Miller, Used Car Sales Manager for Rampy Chevrolet.

I'm responsible for seeing to it that when someone buys one of our used cars, he's got more to depend on than a smile and a handshake.

I personally decide which used cars and trade-ins will stay on our lot. And because I'm careful about the cars I choose, Rampy can back me up with both his good name and his OK Used Car Sticker.

So, when you're in the market for a good used car, shop where quality is just as important as volume... Rampy Chevrolet. I'll give you my word on any car on the lot.

Rampy's not just selling cars, he's selling service.

Mental Health Center Seeks Volunteer Help

Washtenaw County Community Mental Health Center has announced new openings and new training for volunteers in the Center's several services. Training begins May 13.

Volunteer openings are available in Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor services. Volunteer mental health workers are needed in the Assault Crisis Center, or with retarded adults, with children, or adults with emotional or other personal problems.

John Schwarz, Director of Volunteer Services, states that "today many volunteer to explore new careers, to learn new skills, to meet new people and new experiences. Volunteers gain as much as they give."

Volunteers work once a week, and make a time pledge from six months to a year. They must be 21 years of age or older—and some of the best are over 40. Interested persons may inquire by calling 994-2601.

Hospital Auxiliary Seeks New Members

Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary is holding a special meeting Monday, April 17 at 8 p.m. in the hospital dining room to provide information about the many programs of the Auxiliary and to encourage people to join this new community minded organization.

The Auxiliary has been organized for nearly a year and is beginning to grow and to expand its program. Already the group has been quite active, listing such things as conducting tours and serving refreshments during the annual Chelsea Painters Art Show which was held on the hospital grounds in June; conducted tours of the hospital for 8th grade students in the service area; and sponsored a very successful Health Fair at Chelsea's Elementary schools.

In the future are a Health Careers Program for area high school students; tours of the hospital for area kindergartners; a scholarship program; and a healthy children clinic. Several fund-raising events have been held to sponsor these projects.

The role of a hospital auxiliary is to serve its institution; to generate service programs responsive to the institution's needs and the community's needs; to promote the health and welfare of those in the hospital community and to stand out as a good example of hospital awareness, responsibility, and integrity.

Those interested in attending this meeting may call Alice Thor, 475-2649. In the Dexter area they may call Jan Wessinger, 426-8503. In Chelsea, call Marge German, 475-8857.

Home, Builders Show Slated in Ann Arbor

You say you need something to put a little kick, a little pizzazz and gusto into your life? How about a cozy seat in a swirling hot tub with a few close friends right in your own back yard while the temperature is freezing and the snow flies? You say you don't need quite that much gusto? Well, there are certainly tamer, but just as interesting pursuits to be experienced at the fabulous Spring Home and Builders Show at the U. of M. Track and Tennis Building, April 14-16.

The show, which is being sponsored by Ann Arbor Scene Magazine and the Washtenaw County Building Industry, will have dozens of exciting exhibits to help you shake your doldrums and think Spring.

On display will be the newest ideas in kitchen design and products—beautiful new cabinets and appliances. Imagine yourself to be the envy of your social set by impressing your friends with elegant dishes whipped up in a flash in your Cuisinart food processor and cooked to perfection in minutes in your microwave oven. There will be demonstrations by trained gourmet cooks to help you pull it off with style.

Not only will there be outdoor hot tubs, but the latest innovations in indoor tubs too. There are great ideas for furnishing your bath with beauty and efficiency.

Of course, Spring is the time to start thinking about building, remodeling, decorating and landscaping. Experts in these fields will be available to show their latest plans and products and discuss your special needs with you. It is not too early to start planning. Believe it or not, warm weather will be here soon.

And for those who weren't as warm as you would have liked this winter, the people to see are ones with the latest in insulation heating. For the energy conscious there are unique ideas for heating with wood-burning stoves and even solar panels.

Do you have a special hobby or craft? Or looking for a new one? Look for the demonstrations of crafts such as pottery making, ceramic, cooking, stained glass making and flower arranging.

If all this isn't enough to get you out to the Spring Home and Builders Show, maybe the special drawings and door prizes will. You may win a romantic vacation for two aboard a Windjammer Cruise in the Caribbean (air fare not included) or a set of tools worth $500, or a Moped 10-speed bike. There are free gifts for each family including a copy of Ann Arbor Scene's special Home and Leisure Living Magazine and a Michigan Go-Blue poster.

In addition, many of the exhibitors will be conducting their own drawings for free gifts and will be offering special discounts on merchandise and services.

Come, bring the family and make a day of it. Fine German and American food will be served by the Old Heidelberg Restaurant.

Local shoe distributors will be handing out special free coupons good for a 50 percent discount on show tickets. A complete list of exhibitors will be published prior to the show.

Show hours are: Friday, April 14, 4 p.m. to 10 p.m.; Saturday, April 15, 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Sunday, April 16, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Blood Pressure Clinic Scheduled Saturday

Washtenaw County Council on Aging, in co-operation with the Michigan Heart Association, will sponsor a free blood pressure clinic on Saturday, April 15 from 9 a.m. until noon at the Heart Information Center, 3800 Packard Rd., Ann Arbor. Individuals of all ages are invited to have their blood pressure checked by a qualified nurse. Written results will be given to all participants.

Telephone Your Club News To 475-1371.

VOGEL'S & FOSTER'S

Ph. 475-1606 Chelsea, Mich.

Dale Heydlauff, a junior at Eastern Michigan University and graduate of Chelsea High school, took first place in Expository during the Michigan Intercollegiate Speech League competition March 31-April 1 at EMU.

Heydlauff's winning performance was a complicated exposition on the "zany antics of Spike Jones," according to Heydlauff. Jones was an innovative musician during the 1940's and 50's who is credited with being the first expert on sound effects. Jones would take a popular classical composition such as Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite and apply a variety of contrived sound effects to the music.

Heydlauff combined the taped music of Jones to his spoken exposition in what he described as "an exciting fun presentation." Heydlauff enjoyed it so much that when he competes in the April 21-24 national competition at Monmouth College, W. Long Branch, N.J., he intends to present the Expository there. He will also compete in Persuasion, Rhetorical Criticism, and Dramatic Duo.

Heydlauff is studying political science at EMU and expects to graduate in 1979. Following graduation "I will either go to law school or find a job."

AFTER 20 YEARS:

Owings Leaves Sheriff's Dept. For Security Job With Ford

After 20 years of service and several years of planning his retirement, Harold J. Owings has left the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department for another job.

"There was absolutely nothing political about my leaving the department," Owings declared in response to the Ann Arbor News article which claimed that Owings had resigned under pressure from Sheriff Thomas R. Minick (R).

"It is very simple," said Owings, who has held every rank within the department except Sheriff. "My 20 years with the department qualified me for the pension plan and I felt that 20 years was long enough to spend on one job."

Owings was granted a medical leave of absence last December from his duties as head of detectives which he held since 1972. During part of that time, according to Owings, he actively looked for work with three or four companies. After turning down job offers in Florida and the Upper Peninsula, he accepted a security position with Ford Motor Co., "with a minimum cut in pay," he said.

"But," Owings added, "it is better to do something different. I'm not sure how it will go, it's too early to tell, but I'm going to stay in the area for a while and try things out."

Except for the two years Owings, his wife Elaine and their two children, Kurt and Brian, lived in Ann Arbor, the family has made their home in Chelsea. "We didn't like it much in Ann Arbor and were glad to come back to Chelsea," Owings said.

Chelsea, he said, was a major factor in declining the two jobs he was offered.

Owings joined the Ann Arbor police department in 1957 as a patrolman—his first job in a career which has lasted more than two decades. On March 20, 1958, he became a Washtenaw County Sheriff's deputy when Erwin L. Klager (R) was Sheriff for the department.

After a three-and-one-half year stint as patrolman, Owings spent the next four years as detective—from 1961 to 1962 as detective—1962 to 1965 as detective sergeant, and 1965 to 1966 as detective lieutenant in charge of the entire detective department.

When Owings became detective lieutenant, "there were no more than nine detectives on the staff; now there are 23," he commented. In 1966 he was promoted to uniformed captain in charge of the department's entire road patrol where he assumed the administrative duties of supervising patrol deputies, handling citizen complaints, and purchasing deputies' patrol cars and equipment.

Owings continued as an administrator, becoming undersheriff in 1967 under Douglas J. Harvey (D). As No. 2 man in the department he had charge of all personnel, hiring, jail security, negotiating union contracts, and dealing with the board of commissioners on annual budgets.

Seeking the No. 1 position of sheriff, Owings entered the race against Frederick J. Postill (D) in 1972. Although unsuccessful in his bid, and a mass booting of Harvey appointees by the winner, Owings became chief of detectives in 1972 where he has been until his resignation in April.

Although Owings says he enjoys serving in an administrative position more than "on the street" work, many of his career's highlights happened outside the office. "I've had the pleasure of joining the security force of many U. S. Presidents and foreign dignitaries as a bodyguard while working for the department," Owings reminisced. "Included among the persons he has served are Robert Kennedy and Presidents Johnson, Nixon, and Ford.

As a detective, Owings belonged to a special task force during the co-ed slayings in the late '60's. "I assigned duties to task force members and investigated tips and leads that swarmed the office as a result of the publicity the killings received," he said.

When Owings joined Washtenaw County Sheriff's department "there were 26 people on the entire staff; now there are more than 240," he said. The growth in the department's staff, along with the growth in population in Washtenaw county has caused what Owings believes is a radical change in the nature of police work.

"Twenty years ago, the relationship between citizens and police officers was virtually on a one-to-one basis. It was personal and feelings of concern existed between the two," Owings commented.

"Today, people are just numbers on a report and the personal touch is lost. I'd say between 80 and 90 percent of the people have no interest whatsoever in local enforcement or all of government for that matter," he continued.

"Although Owings doesn't believe that lack of citizen involvement directly affects the effectiveness of police work "in the long run it might make the department more accountable to the public and more efficient."

Having worked under five sheriffs during his career with the department, Owings has seen them come and go, offering a variety of approaches to policing the county.

"Law enforcement is like any other field; personal views and preferences often win out over responsibility to the public. Some believe in correction, others in crime prevention, some emphasize budgets while others pursue pet projects such as vice, or road patrol. Everyone has his own preference," he said.

"You're not going to eliminate personal preference but there has to be a balance between these and the responsibility of meeting the public's needs," Owings said.

"Good management is incumbent on discharging obligations first and personal interests second," he added.

Refusing to make judgments about any of the sheriffs he has worked under, Owings did say he had a hard time "figuring out what Minick is all about. He's only been in office a year, though which isn't long enough to really say how good a job he's doing."

"Like other sheriffs I've worked for I agree and disagree with him personally, but I like the efforts he has made so far to professionalize the department," he said. "He's doing so much so fast that it's hard to tell how successful he will be," he added.

Owings says that Minick (who worked 16 years for the Ann Arbor Police Department) is trying to reorganize the department along the lines of a city operation. Owings believes, however, that the demands of Washtenaw county are much more diverse than a city's and require individual attention. "The county is made up of agricultural, industrial, recreational, and urban areas, each with specific problems. A department organized like Ann Arbor's may or may not work," he concluded.

Three broadcasting facilities at Michigan State University serve mid-Michigan audiences—WKAR AM and FM radio stations and WKAR-TV, Channel 23.

CANCER BENEFIT QUILT: Bonnie Jones, winner of this year's Cancer Quilt, displays the final product which took dozens of women dozens of painstaking hours to hand-sew 63 patches needed for the Roman Stripe quilt. More than 50 women attended the fourth annual quilting-bee April 3 at the First United Methodist church where the patches were tied on an antique quilting frame owned by Norma Graflund. The quilting-bee is one of several fund-raising events sponsored by the Chelsea Cancer Crusade to raise money for cancer research, treatment, and education. The quilting bee netted $200 through the sale of chances to win the quilt. Chelsea women who organized the bee were Wanda Conner, Norma Graflund, and Sharon Hodgson. Future fund-raising events are the fashion and luncheon show April 22 at Inverness Country Club, and the Bike-A-Thon June 4 at the Chrysler Proving Grounds. The quilt is on display at the Country Craftique shop on Main St.

Case No. 78-14861-CR
ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
Dana A. Dever (T-24220)
Attorney for Plaintiff
At a session of said Court held on the 1st day of March, 1978, in and for the County of Washtenaw, Michigan, at the Court House Building in Ann Arbor, Michigan.
Present: Honorable Ross W. Campbell, Jr. (T-10562), Circuit Judge.
On the 1st day of March, 1978, an action having been filed by Plaintiffs, STEVIE PAWLOWSKI and LULA E. PAWLOWSKI, against Defendants, CARY KEENAN, CHESAPEAKE COUNTY CLUB, INC., FEDERAL LAND BANK OF ST. PAULI, HURON VALLEY NATIONAL BANK, LONDON, EVANS, SIKI AND BAKER, P.C., and all other and unknown creditors or claimants of Chelsea Country Club, and said action praying for (1) the appointment of a receiver for the liquidation and dissolution of said defendant corporation, and (2) the entry of an order for the sale of the following real property with the real estate and payment of the equity of redemption existing from a Sheriff's Deed on Mortgage recorded in Liber 1485, pages 183-189, in favor of the FEDERAL LAND BANK OF ST. PAULI, the value being described as follows:
NE 1/4 of Section 19;
W 1/4 of NW 1/4 of Section 20, all in T2S, R4E, Township of Lima, County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan, containing 240 acres, more or less, and (3) a restraining order against CARY KEENAN and CHESAPEAKE COUNTY CLUB, INC. from conveying, encumbering, disposing of or otherwise dealing with said real property or assets of said corporation, and (4) damages, an award of all stock or interest in CHESAPEAKE COUNTY CLUB, INC. and money judgment against CARY KEENAN in favor of Plaintiffs.
It is hereby ordered that the Defendants, CARY KEENAN, of 1221 Island Drive, Ann Arbor, Michigan; CHESAPEAKE COUNTY CLUB, INC., of the same address; and all other or unknown creditors or claimants of CHESAPEAKE COUNTY CLUB, INC. shall answer or take such other action as may be permitted by law on or before the 15th day of April, 1978, in the Courtroom of the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw, Michigan, at 11:30 o'clock, in the forenoon in Courtroom No. 8, Washtenaw County Courthouse, 200 N. Main Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan, or on any other suitable person, should not be appointed Receiver of CHESAPEAKE COUNTY CLUB, INC. and be immediately empowered to sell free and clear of all claims the real property hereinbefore described to exercise the right of redemption of CHESAPEAKE COUNTY CLUB, INC. and redeem the mortgage foreclosed and Sheriff's Deed herebefore rected, and to further provide for the liquidation and dissolution of said corporation. Failure of said Defendant to appear and show Cause shall result in the granting of the relief requested in the Complaint, and Petition filed in this Court.
It is further ordered that pending further Order of this Court, Defendants CARY KEENAN and CHESAPEAKE COUNTY CLUB, INC. their agents, employees, attorneys, or those acting on their behalf or those with knowledge of this Order and hereby are restrained from convey-

Sylvan Township Board Proceedings
Minutes of meeting held April 1, 1978.
ANNUAL MEETING
Meeting was called to order by Supervisor Schoenberg with the following people present: Trustees Lesser and Carruthers, Treasurer Pearsall, Clerk Murphy, Lloyd Grau, Herman Koenn, Vernon Satterthwaite, Jerry Satterthwaite, Reuben Lesser, Jr., Harold Jones, Jerry Herrick, and Douglas Roberson.
Minutes of the 1977 Annual Meeting were read and approved.
Harold Jones questioned the reason for the lower amount of funds to be allocated to the McKune Library and he was informed by Schoenberg that more was coming from the county so that the township now contributed less.
Vernon Satterthwaite, inquired about the possibility of an increased amount to be budgeted for Cemetery Care for Vermont Cemetery. After much discussion, Motion by Lloyd Grau, to have township board seek Counsel regarding the legality of contributing to the care of cemeteries and for the Board to then make their decision. Motion carried.
Much discussion followed concerning the roads in the township and the Clerk informed the citizens that he would invite members from the Wash. Co. Road Comm. to the May meeting where questions would be answered.
Jerry Herrick asked if the township could collect short term interest on tax collected monies during the months of Dec., Jan., and February. Treasurer Pearsall stated that he thought this would be illegal but would pursue the matter.
Herman Koenn suggested that the assessed valuation be placed on the budget report. Supervisor Schoenberg stated that it will appear next year.
Motion by Vernon Satterthwaite, supported by Fred Pearsall, that the regular budget and the Federal Revenue Sharing budget be approved as presented. Motion carried.
Motion by Doug Robeson, supported by Jerry Herrick, to approve the spreading of one mill tax for operation. Motion carried.
Motion by Murphy, supported by Harold Jones, to approve the following appointments: Harry Merten as Zoning Inspector, Keusch and Flintoff as township attorneys, Chelsea State Bank as depository of all township funds, and R.A. Steger as auditor. All appointments for the period of one year. Motion carried.
Herman Koenn raised the question of designating lands as wet

Possible Injuries Result When Auto Strikes Snowbank

A 39-year-old Ann Arbor man sustained possible injuries after his car rolled over on Scio Church Rd. Thursday morning, March 23, it was reported by the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

Michael Ming Huang, 1194 Bander Dr., Ann Arbor, stated that he was westbound on Scio Church Rd. five miles west of Knight Rd. at 7:15 a.m., traveling at 50 miles per hour, when he saw a bus stopped in the road; braking, he skidded onto the right shoulder and struck a snowbank, after which his vehicle rolled over and came to a rest on its top.

His automobile was removed by a wrecker belonging to Larry's Standard.

Alcohol Awareness Week Scheduled in May For Washtenaw County

Betty Walton, of Drury-Lacy, Inc., has been appointed chairwoman of Alcohol Awareness Week sponsored by the Washtenaw Council on Alcoholism.

Alcohol Awareness Week will be held May 14-20, emphasizing the theme "Alcohol is a Drug."

Purpose of Alcohol Awareness Week is to make people aware of the effects of alcohol on themselves or someone they know and to inform the public that there is help and where to get it.

The Washtenaw Council on Alcoholism plans a variety of county-wide public information programs during the week-long event.

How To Make Money in Dairy Farming

Contrary to popular opinion, there is money to be made in farming.

It's not in growing wheat; we've got too much of that and wheat growers can't get enough for their product to even make expenses. Beef farming is a little better and hog farming is even better than that.

The real money to be made today is in dairy farming—not in the sale of milk, as you might expect—but in the sale of manure.

A Tennessee farmer, Richard Briggs, struck it rich when he came up with the idea of bottling liquid cow manure and selling it to home gardeners as fertilizer. Farmers have always known manure is superb fertilizer, but unfortunately, it's smelly stuff and that turns off a lot of people in town.

What Briggs did was develop a deodorizer which he mixes with the manure before he bottles it. This stops the action of the anaerobic bacteria. The smell is gone and... liquid gold with a brown color.

Maybe you've seen the product in the garden store in your town. The brand name is "Nature's Own Deodorized Liquid Cow Manure." Briggs has franchised dairy farmers across the country to use his system, produce the product, bottle it and sell it.

Here's where the money comes in. The dairy farmer sells his bottled manure for $2 a gallon. That's wholesale; retail is $3. Up to now, most dairy farmers had been trying to get rid of their manure any way they could—either by putting it back on their own fields or by giving it away. For those with a Briggs franchise, it's now a money crop.

Those ingenious farmers!

More Women Seeking Criminal Justice Careers

Women in increasing numbers have been entering the criminal justice field.

Michigan State University's School of Criminal Justice had one woman in the 1951 class. In spring 1977, there were 43 women graduates in a class of 86, and two women received master's degrees.

The women who have completed the program hold a variety of jobs, including detectives, probation officers, radio dispatchers, industrial security investigators, insurance adjusters, social workers, college instructors and university public safety officers. One is an intelligence officer with the U. S. Navy.

MSU, a national leader in criminal justice education, opened its doors to women in 1948 after revising its curriculum to include crime prevention methods, juvenile justice, psychology and sociology courses along with traditional studies in police administration.

World of da Vinci Shown in Travelogue

All roads lead to Rome, so the saying goes, and the road to Chelsea High school will be no exception April 15 when Phil Walker presents "Northern Italy and Rome" in the last of six travelogues in the Chelsea Kiwanis Club's 17th annual Travel and Adventure Series.

The travelogue will be presented at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Walker carefully traces the multi-talented life and spectacular work of Leonardo da Vinci following the path from his birthplace at Vinci through his exciting travels and masterpieces throughout Italy.

Called "the most creative person in history," da Vinci, artist and inventor, is renowned for his anatomical drawings of the human body, his intricate paintings, and his early concepts and inventions of the helicopter, machines of war, underwater submarine, and flying machine.

As the film travels through Florence, Milan, Venice, Mantua, and the "Eternal City"—Rome, Walker introduces the viewer to people and places of modern day Italy.

Phil Walker grew up in northern California and in Carmel-by-the-Sea. With ancestors dating back to the pilgrims who continued west with his parent's generation reaching the Pacific, Walker has a natural inclination towards travel.

He recalls his boyhood on the Monterey Peninsula as "an intimate friendship with the out-of-doors and an introduction to adventure." He found great satisfaction from the stories of Conrad, Melville, and R. L. Stevenson which stimulated his natural interest in travel.

In an early experience he sailed a 75-foot boat from Sydney, Australia to Cebu City in the Philippines. The voyage lasted several months and he encountered a variety of hair-raising circumstances along the Great Barrier Reef and the northern coast of New Guinea. He became the first American to cross the Alps in a free floating hydrogen-filled balloon in 1961 when he flew with two men from Switzerland to Italy. The National Geographic Magazine printed his story of this extraordinary flight, "Across the Alps in a Wicker Basket," in its 75th Anniversary issue of January 1963.

Walker has been an actor in Carmel's summer theatre and later joined the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) as an announcer. He subsequently wrote and directed for NBC and produced his own independent programs for television.

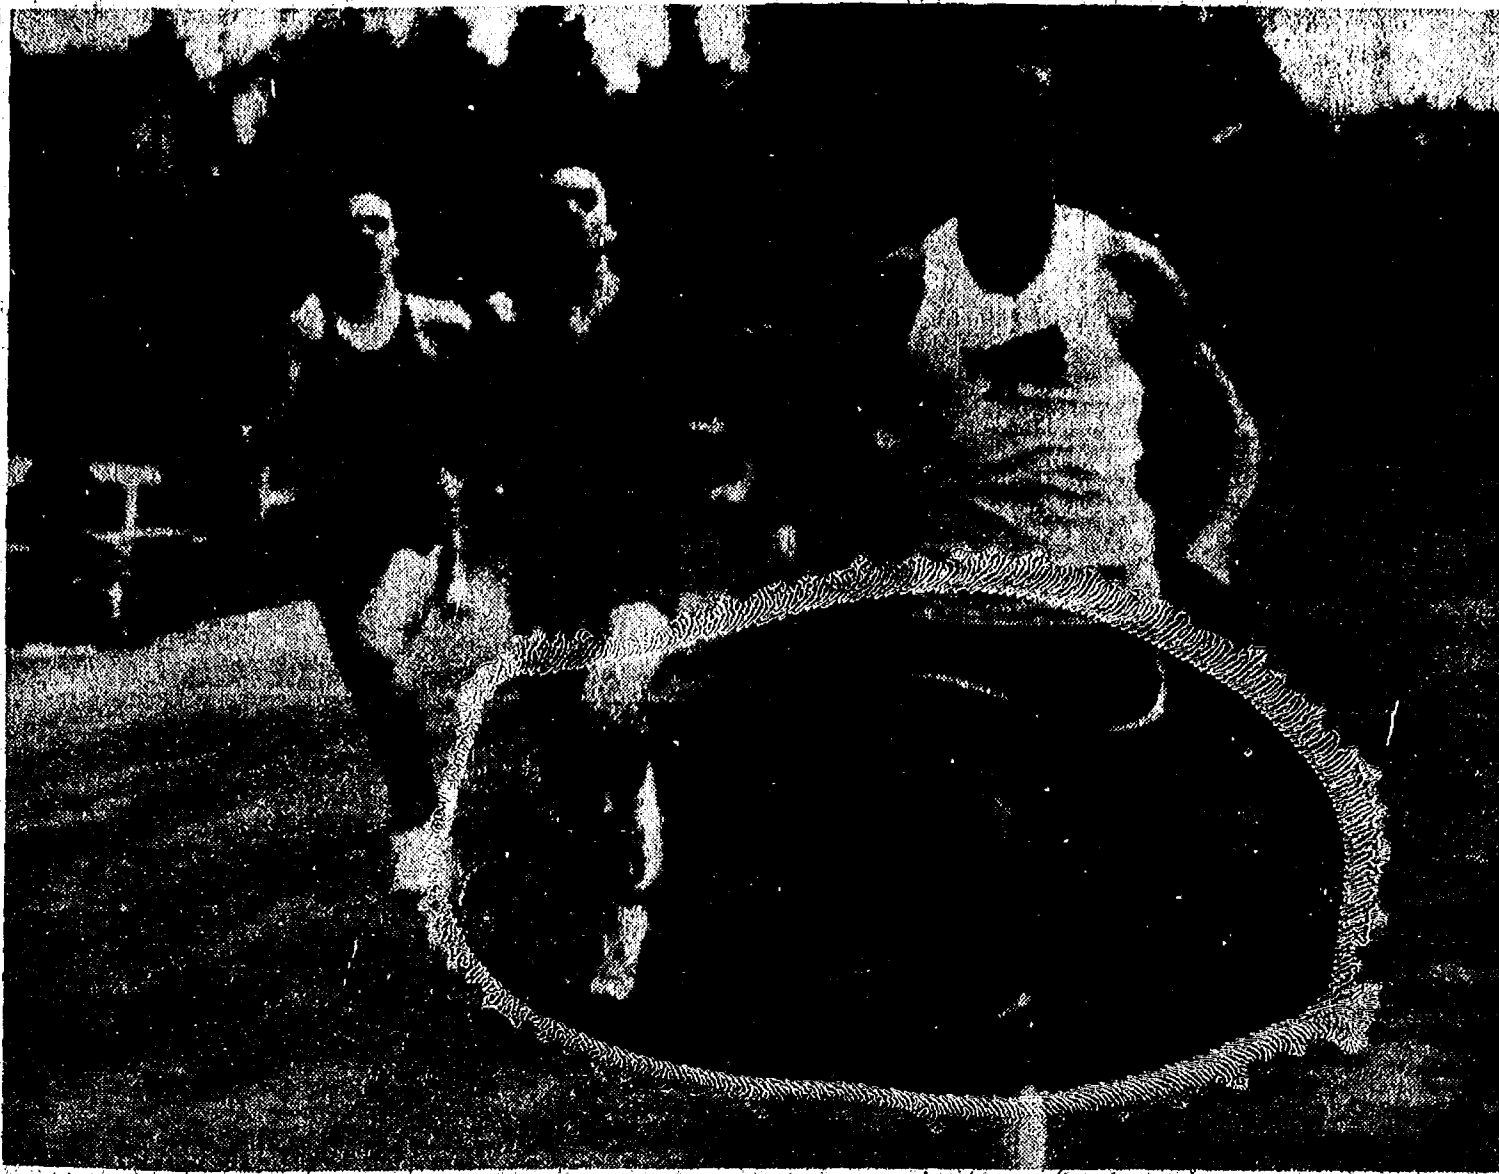

In 1953 he and his wife, Florence, became full-time producers of travel motion pictures. They have since been to most of the world. They make their home in Westport, Conn., during the rare periods when they are not traveling.

Tickets to "Northern Italy and Rome," The Italy of Leonardo da Vinci, are currently on sale and may be purchased from any Chelsea Kiwanian, from various local business firms, or at the door Saturday night.

FISTS CLENCHED and eyes closed, Mark Beyer and members from Stockbridge and Willow Run brave the rain and blaze the track during the mile run at Tuesday's meet. Although Chelsea scored poorly at the meet, 14 members on spring vacation will return this week to deepen the team and fatten the scores.

Swim & Trim Classes Starting Again April 20

Ladies Swim and Trim classes offered at the Beach Middle school pool will begin April 20 at 8 p.m. Classes are 90 minutes long and will continue until June 8. The fee is $12 per person.

The classes are organized into two 45-minute periods. The first is a vigorous exercise period in the exercise room. The second is an exercise and free swimming period in the pool.

Registration will take place April 20.

Hearing Date Set on Use of Federal Funds

May 2 has been set by the Chelsea Village Council for the second public hearing on how $81,000 in Federal Revenue Sharing Funds should be spent in 1978.

The first public hearing, on March 21, failed to draw Chelsea residents who had suggestions on how to use the money.

Chelsea has been receiving Federal Revenue Sharing Funds since 1972 but this is the first year that the Federal government has required public hearings before spending the money, according to Fred Weber, village administrator.

Purpose of the public hearing, Weber said, is to provide a forum for Chelsea residents who have a specific project they would like the money used for. This, he said, could range from fixing a pot hole on their street to starting a day care center.

In recent years, "we have just consolidated the Federal Revenue Sharing Funds into the general budget," Weber said.

If no one should speak at the second public hearing, the council will determine how to spend the money, he added.

More than 3,000 faculty at Michigan State University are engaged in instructional programs or in research, extension and demonstration activities.

Forensics Students Qualify for Regional

Placing more individuals to compete in the late April regional tournament than any other school in the district, 16 Chelsea High school forensic team members "made a very strong showing" during the April 6 district tournament held at Jackson Parkside High school, according to William Coelius, forensic coach.

Nine Chelsea students placed first at the tournament where students from Napoleon, Jackson, Jackson County Western, Jackson Parkside, and Chelsea high schools competed. They are: Andy Anderson in Impromptu, Chris Krueger in humorous, Julie Botsford in Informative, and Karl Stonebraker, Gary Packard, Judy Jones, Tom Young, John LaBarbara, and John Whitaker in Multiple Reading.

Placing second were Tammy Pughliss in Extemporaneous, Sarah Haselschwardt in Informative, Julie Prohaska in Oratory, Sue Heller in Informative, Kelly Headrick in Story Telling, and Todd Wurster and Dave Schrotenboer in Dramatic Duo.

First and second placers qualified to attend the regional tournament to be held the end of April at Plymouth Salem High school in Plymouth.

Placing third were Drew Sprague in Extemporaneous, Tim Stubbs in Impromptu, Gayle Albrecht in Serious Reading, Cindy Bareis in Radio News, John Koepele in Informative and Mary Stoll in Story Telling. These students act as alternates in the event of a first- or second-place member is unable to attend the tournament competition.

An Artificial Language Laboratory at Michigan State University is developing ways in which computers, using voice synthesizers and other devices, can help the blind and physically handicapped communicate with greater ease.

"HEY, THAT'S MY DODGE."

'78 DODGE MAGNUM XE.

What else can folks say after they've seen Magnum XE? The exciting new car with a bold new look. And handling and performance to match.

You see, Magnum XE is a remarkable automobile that combines the attributes of a touring car with those of a luxury car. And based on a comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail prices... Magnum is priced less than these comparably equipped cars: the Monte Carlo Landau, Pontiac Grand Prix, Olds Cutlass Calais and Buick Regal Limited.

One look at Magnum XE's clean retractable head-lamp covers and classic grille and you'll be saying... "That's my Dodge!"
