MAYOR EXCHANGE DAY: On their way to a luncheon at Schumm's restaurant, Chelsea officials and their visitors from Bloomfield Hills gather under the welcoming sign for Mayor Stephen J. Carey. Thanks to a fluke in this spring's weather, the visiting mayor and his wife Alma were greeted in Chelsea by balmy breezes and persistent sunshine along with eight guides who whisked them through the village for a full day of tours and menus. Accompanying the Bloomfield Hills couple were, from left to right, in front, Lyle Chriswell, Mrs. Don Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Carey, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rudy. In back are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Neumeyer, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patrick.

Tickets Still Available for Cameron Party

Reports on ticket sales for the "Charlie Cameron Roast," on Saturday, June 3, are trickling in fast and furiously in "definitely maybe" figures, according to Dolly Spaulding, chairman for the honorary dinner for retiring Superintendent Charles Cameron.

"Latest accurate number of alumni to be in attendance are a firm 42 to 207, or somewhere in between, or maybe a few more," Spaulding said assuredly.

"Representing alumni who were lucky enough to graduate before Charlie's regime (referred to as 'B.C.') is General Dwight Beach," Spaulding said.

Pete Flintoft is representing the later edition of alumni (referred to as "A.C.") who reports that a "week-end surge in sales has upset his current count but has turned in a definite maybe of several hundred." "This brings us to 450 tickets sold—just short of our goal of 600," Spaulding added.

The cut-off date is at the end of May and "we are concentrating on two other groups—the friend of Charlie and those who are coming to see just who his friends are," Spaulding said. "Please pick up your tickets so that we can get a more ambitious count," he added. They are available at $6.50 each at a number of Main Street businesses.

Exchange Mayor Has Many Kind Words About Chelsea

If the Bloomfield Hills mayor had come to Chelsea in 1969 he might not be mayor today.

"My wife Alma and I had been looking everywhere for a place to retire in 1969," the 72-year-old mayor of Bloomfield Hills, Stephen J. Carey, said while in Chelsea on Mayor Exchange Day, Monday.

Relaxing in the spacious, comfortable home of Lyle and Pat Chriswell for a quiet afternoon cocktail reception, the tall, silver-haired, bow-tied mayor and his slender, soft-spoken wife talked wistfully of the town they were visiting.

"Chelsea is truly lovely, and if we had known about this town we would have likely moved here," they said. Although the sprightly couple have lived much of their married life in the northern Detroit area, "both of us grew up in villages very similar to Chelsea," Carey related.

While impressed with the tours through the Chelsea Milling Co., the Chelsea Community Hospital and Medical Center, and the Chrysler Proving Grounds, the Careys were equally attracted to "the beautiful surroundings, and wonderful people," they had seen and met during the day.

"Chelsea is a very successful community in having just the right amount of manufacturing and services to attract people in living here," Carey said.

The reception marked the end of the "business" portion of Exchange Day where, in a tour arranged by councilman Jack Patrick, the mayor, Patrick, Clerk Tom Neumeyer, Hal Rady, Mrs. Don Wood, Lyle Chriswell, and the men's wives, traveled in a van provided by Palmer Motor Sales.

Of all they had seen, Mrs. Carey was most inspired by the Chelsea Community Hospital. "It is placed in such a lovely setting that I would think that anyone who went there could get well just looking out the window."

After lunch at Schumm's restaurant in Chelsea and the reception at the Chriswells, the Careys were provided with a room at Weber's Inn for a rest before dinner there.

Just as the Bloomfield Hills mayor was arriving at Chelsea Village Hall to the sound of bells striking, City Administrator Fritz Weber, President Pro-Tem James Sweet, and their wives, arrived promptly at 10 a.m. in Bloomfield Hills.

Designated by the Census Bureau as the richest community in the state of Michigan and the third richest in the country, the city is less than 2½ square miles wide with more than 38 miles of curving streets and cul-de-sacs.

While approximately 3,800 persons currently live there, "we could conceivably enlarge to 6,000 residents," Carey said. "There is still a considerable amount of land for developing, although much of it is in the hands of developers who are anxious to get moving and start building homes," he explained.

Chelsea dignitaries spent a luxurious day being chauffeured in limousines from tour to restaurant, tour to reception, and tour to dinner.

"It was an enjoyable day, but I'm afraid we spent so much time eating that we missed a few of the scheduled stops," Fritz Weber told of their busy visit.

Guided by Robert Stadler, city manager, Joseph Daiek, mayor pro-tem, and their wives, the Chelsea group visited the D-Arcey, McManus and Masius Advertising Agency, Cranbrook, and the Institute of Science. They lunched at the Fox & Hounds restaurant, were received at the Cranbrook House, and dined at the Kingsley Inn.

"I found the Institute of Science very fascinating and expect to go back there soon," Weber commented following his return to Chelsea.

Weber said that Chelsea and Bloomfield Hills had only a few things in common despite their similar sizes and populations. "Because they purchase their water and other services from Detroit, they don't have the problem," (Continued on page five)

Memorial Day Services Set For Monday

Memorial Day services to honor deceased veterans will begin at 9:30 a.m. Monday when veterans, school bands, officials, and residents gather to parade through village streets enroute to Oak Grove Cemetery.

Parade participants are expected to meet at the municipal parking lot at 9:30 a.m. where they will line up for the 10 a.m. step-off under the guidance of parade marshal Pat Merkel. Officer of the Day will be infantryman Mac Packard.

Led by color guards of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, the parade will follow Main St. to Park, Park to East, East to Middle, and Middle to Oak Grove Cemetery. Following will be a firing squad and Chelsea veterans.

Steve Bergmann will direct the Chelsea High school Band which will provide marching music for Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts and Brownies who will march behind the cars of Memorial Day speakers.

Beach Middle school Band, directed by Warren Mayer, will be next in the parade, followed by children walking and riding decorated bicycles.

Upon arrival at Oak Grove Cemetery memorial services to past American veterans will be held. Master of Ceremonies Ray Lutovsky will open the service, followed by an invocation by the Rev. Carl Schwarm. The American Legion Auxiliary will then place a wreath in memory of those who died in American and Foreign Wars.

Continuing the memorial will be a selection played by the high school band and an address by World War II veteran George W. Harms. Harms served with the 4th Marine Raider battalion in the United States Marine Corps as a Platoon Sergeant and was twice awarded the bronze star medal for valor. He was wounded twice in combat. For 32 years Harms has been a member of the American Legion and has been a Commander of the Chapter 37 military order of the Purple Heart.

Concluding the service will be a salute from the firing squad, taps, and "The Star Spangled Banner," played by both bands. A benediction from the Rev. Schwarm will end the ceremony.

The parade will then re-form to march back to the parking lot.

United Way Budget For '78 Set at $38,400

Budget committee of Chelsea United Way has decided on a 1978 campaign goal of $38,400. According to Ann Feeney, chairman of the committee, the goal for this year fulfills the requests of 12 of the 14 agencies aided by Chelsea United Way but exceeds the 1977 campaign results by only three percent.

Chelsea United Way Committee has received approval from its board of directors, headed by President Gerald Dresselhouse, to raise funds for social service agencies as follows: Chelsea Recreation, $7,600; Cystic Fibrosis, $1,100; Chelsea Home Meals, $800; Child Guidance, $600; Girl Scouts, $3,520; Catholic Social Services, $1,600; Retarded Children, $3,320; Child & Family Services, $1,200; Salvation Army, $2,000; Boy Scouts, $4.5 Red Cross, $4,000; United Way, of Michigan, $5,410; for a total of $38,400.

The $5,410 for United Way of Michigan is distributed to a large number of state and national agencies concerned with such urgent needs as leukemia, alcoholism, drug abuse, crime and child delinquency, Feeney explained.

Baseball Team Loses Two 3-2 Decisions

Chelsea lost a pair of 3-2 decisions in SEC play to Milan and Dexter last week. The Bulldogs, however, rebounded to down South Lyon, Saturday, May 20, 7-5.

In the May 16 Milan game,

Chelsea fell behind, 2-0, after two innings. In the third inning, Al Augustine drove in a run with a single, to narrow the gap to 2-1. Milan increased its lead to 3-1 in the top of the third inning, but in the seventh inning Chelsea cut the lead to 3-2 on an RBI single by Kurt Owings. With the bases loaded and two out Milan halted the Bulldog rally with a strike-out.

Hitting were Jeff Jahne, Chris Kruger, Augustine, and Owings. In the May 19 Dexter game Chelsea was again limited to four hits as Dexter scored an unearned run off Mike Machesky to record the victory. Hitting were Roger Moore, Don Aldrich, Mike Sweeney, and Dave Schrotenboer.

Saturday, May 20, Roger Moore led the offense against South Lyon with two hits, one double, and two RBIs. Al Augustine whacked a double and hitting were Aldrich, Owings, Sweeney, Schrotenboer, and Brad Knickerbocker. Mike Eisele notched his fourth victory without a loss. He gave up only two earned runs, five hits, and six walks.

Shelly Warren Qualifies for State Meet

Chelsea's girls scored seven points in the regional track meet Saturday, May 20, and had one qualifier for the state meet. Monroe St. Mary won the meet, followed by Carlton Airport, Milan and Hillsdale. Chelsea was 10th overall.

Mary Boylan turned in an excellent performance in the discus, finishing fifth with a throw of 94'6". Shelly Warren qualified for the state meet at Otsego by finishing third in the 880 with a 2:25.1. Nancy Heller finished fourth in the same race with a 2:23.9.

The mile relay of Shelly Warren, Nancy Heller, Teresa Hoffman and Angie Merkel finished fifth with a good 4:19.8 time. They were narrowly edged from third by Tecumseh with a 4:17 and Saline with a 4:19.6.

Several other Bulldogs ran well but failed to place. Lorrie Vandegriff ran a fine 1:7.5 preliminary in the hurdles. Pris Drew was seventh with a 5:56 mile, and Sue Heller, Kathy Honbaum, Angie Merkel and Debbie Honbaum lowered their best 880 relay time to 1:54.9.

"Our girls ran well. Their times continue to improve and they show improvement every time they run. Shelly again showed that she is an outstanding runner in earning a spot in the state meet for the fourth time," Coach Bill Bainton commented.

Ball, Brown Qualify for State Meet

Scoring all 11 points for the Chelsea High school boys track team during the regional competition at Milan last Saturday, Bob Ball and Leon Brown qualified for the state meet on June 3 at Marysville.

Ball won the shot put with a throw of 53'4½", which ranks with the best three or four in the state. Ball also placed second in the discus with a new school record toss of 148'4".

Brown qualified in the discus with a hurl of 143'10". He placed fifth and although only the first (Continued on page eight)

Overcoming weaknesses in the sprints and hurdles with superior depth in the other events, the Bulldogs ended with a 3-4 record in Southeastern Conference dual meet which puts them in fifth place going into the league meet.

Chelsea went 1-2 in five events against the Raispliters. In the discus Shelly Warren was first with a throw of 93'6" and Mary Boylan was second.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellers was viewing the had new days with alarm at the country store Saturday night, and natural the discussion got around to the good old days. Evidence was presented for both, but the jury is still out on when old days left off and new days took over.

Zeke Grubb had saw where the average house being built in this country this year cost $56,000, and where the U.S. Treasury is talking about bringing back the $1 coin. Zeke was of the mind that it's had enough to price the average house out of reach of the average American, but pricing the average service station cold drink machine out of his reach is too much. Zeke said the new coin won't be anything like the silver dollar of the good old days. It will be smaller and made of a little copper and a lot of cheap metal, which is what you'd expect of money today, Zeke allowed.

Ed Doolittle said we got to git back to when a sack of groceries is larger than the sack of money it takes to but it, and he meant back when calico was five cents a yard, when work shirts was 50 cents apiece, when the doctor charged $10 to deliver a baby and didn't expect pay til he came to deliver the next one. Back then, went on Ed, a feller could have a night on the town for less than the tip the girl expects now fer telling you there's a two-hour wait at the restaurant.

Natural, Clem Webster jumped on Ed's statement. Clem said back then corn was 30 cent a bushel, and the closest Ed got to a fancy eating place was a slab of cheese, a can of sardines and free crackers around the stove at the store. Clem said he knows a doctor today is likely to charge $5 fer his nurse to tell you he ain't taking more patients, but that beat the turpentine and castor oil tonic we use to prescribe for ourselves ever spring. We might of got the baby fer $10, Clem went on, but we was lucky if we could round up enough flour sacks to keep the baby in diapers and the rest of us in work shirts that we didn't have 50 cent to git store-bought. Clem said he knows a pound of nails to go into one of them $56,000 average houses cost as much now as a keg of nails use to, but back then we had to use them nails fer coat buttons cause we didn't have the price of a button, much less a coat.

General speaking, the fellers favored Clem's position. Bug Hoo-kum said all the fellers was past these three score and 10, all has lived through ups and downs, highs and lows, and never has he heard one of them say right now is a good time to live. They're forever wanting things to git better, or to go back to when they were better, but they truth is, all of them is living better then ever.

It was Zeke that put the stopper in he jug. He said the way we live changed when refinace was invented. That made debt king and everybody a slave to time payments. The Government calls it deficit spending and shows the way, and we all run to keep up.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Funds for Mental Institutions
In the wake of reports of patient abuse in the state's mental institutions, a special governor's task force has reported more and better trained staff and smaller institutions are needed to minimize abuse and neglect.

Wilbur Cohen, chairman of the task force, said the panel substantiated the occurrence of both abuse and neglect at state institutions and concluded the abuse will continue as long as such large facilities are maintained in the state.

"A big institution breeds frustration, breeds lashing out by patients, breeds reactions by staff. No matter how much money we pour into the system, we should not build and maintain such large institutions," he said.

The report, of no less than 25 recommendations, endorsed the Department of Mental Health's policy for more community-based services.

Cohen said abuse at the Plymouth Institution for the Mentally Retarded resulted both because of the system and because of individual transgressions. He acknowledged abuse at Plymouth was "covered up," but not in an organized fashion but by individuals not complying with regulations.

The task force said its investigation found serious deficiencies in disciplinary actions, medical care, programs, procedures and institutional neglect.

The panel added the recommendations of a separate special panel within the Department of Mental Health would cost an estimated $35 million per year with about $10 million being required for start-up costs, and another $2.5 million to carry out a federal order for more staff.

Governor William G. Milliken said he could not offer a commitment of a level of additional funding, but said priorities may have to be reset both within the department and throughout state government to free up the needed funds.

Recommendations of the task force also included the establishing of separate, well-defined criteria of abuse and neglect and the training program for direct care staff.

Employees of the institution were further encouraged to cooperate with investigations of abuse and neglect. Also, the panel urged greater involvement of parents of patients, through citizen advisory committee, parents associations, meetings, workshops, and classroom observation and work.

American Flags To Be Placed on Veterans Graves

Members of the Herbert J. McKune Post No. 31 American Legion will be placing flags on the graves of veterans tonight and ask that they be informed of any soldier's grave that they might not know about.

"There may have been a recent burial of a veteran and we would not know to place a flag there," a spokesman for the American Legion said. "We will be in Oak Grove Cemetery Thursday evening placing flags and anyone may come there to make sure a grave is properly marked," he added.

Body Found in Lyndon Township

A man who had been shot once in the heart and then splashed with gasoline and set ablaze was discovered Wednesday, May 17 by two mushroom pickers in the Waterloo Recreation Area just outside of Chelsea in Lyndon township, according to reports by Wayne County Sheriff's Department.

Following an autopsy, the man was identified as Rufus Lemon of Detroit who had been missing since March 29, police said.

Sheriff's Lt. Terry Shenk said that no suspects are in custody in connection with the killing.

Food Stamp Program Assistance Available

The Food Stamp OUTREACH Program has some facts that food stamp participants should know about.

When you have communication differences or notice negative attitudes while shopping in the food or grocery stores, first try to work with his on a one-to-one basis if possible.

If you're sure the problem is food stamp related and it involves unnecessary conflicts or arguing, then you should make a complaint directly to the manager of the store.

After that step has been taken and you find this hasn't solved the matter or brought you good results then you should direct your problem to the Food Stamp OUTREACH office by calling 994-1863 Monday through Friday, 8 to 5, or writing Food Stamp OUTREACH, Washtenaw County Department of Social Services, 2350 W. Stadium Blvd., Ann Arbor 48103.

The Employment and Training Administration has a key role to play in the U.S. Department of Labor's package of employment programs for veterans. Some programs are reemployment rights preference in job referrals and training opportunities, and public funded training and education.

Early Photos Sought By Library

Antique photograph collectors—the McKune Memorial Library Board of Trustees needs you. "Anyone who has or knows of anyone who might have a picture of our library before it was painted is urged to call me," Debi Overbey, librarian says. The library's number is 475-8732.

"Our goal is to restore the building as close as possible to its original state and pictures of the library would be very useful," she said. "It's possible that the building was painted before photography was invented," she added.

Although no final decision has been made on whether to keep the brick in its natural state, "it is the board's preference that we keep it like it is," Overbey said. The board is now in the process of receiving bids on having the brick tuck-pointed.

Between 1976 and 1985, the U.S. Department of Labor predicts an estimated 29 million jobs will become available to replace workers who die or retire.

STOP. DETOUR

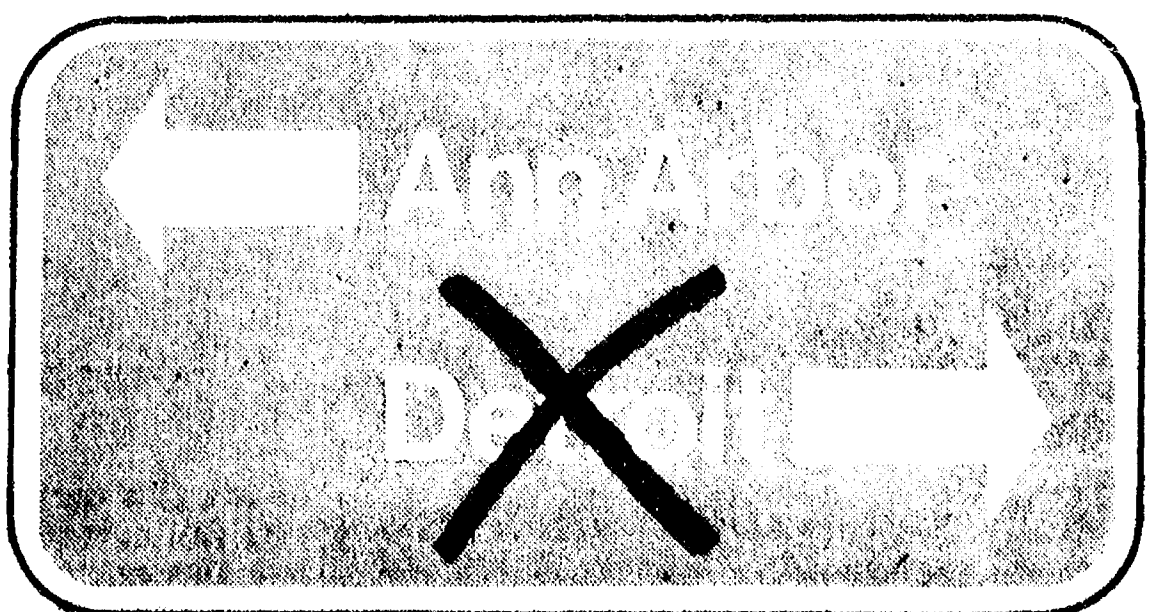

Unless you're crazy about the drive, there's no real reason to drive into Detroit looking for new car bargains. Rampy Chevrolet in Ann Arbor is a lot closer and you'll get the same low prices you find in Detroit—maybe even lower. At Rampy you'll also find the kind of careful, competent, come again service you expect from small town folks who know their neighbors.

You see, Rampy's not just the biggest Chevrolet dealer in Washtenaw County, he's got the biggest dealership of any kind in the country. That means that he's governed by the same kind of high volume economics you've been driving all the way into Detroit to find.

On the other hand, Ann Arbor is a town where people do know each other. Word gets around. And the word is that Rampy gives good service after the sale. As a matter of fact, Rampy's service department has been used as a model for training other Chevrolet dealers.

Isn't it time you took a detour?

Dexter-Ann Arbor Run Attracts 1,600 Runners

With entries now closed for the annual Dexter-Ann Arbor Road Run on Saturday, May 27, Elmo Morales, the Run's co-ordinator, reported today that more than 1,600 runners are expected to start the event, thus making it the largest running event of its type in the state of Michigan and the largest single participatory sports event in the Ann Arbor area.

Now in its fifth year, the Run is sponsored by the Ann Arbor Track Club, Ann Arbor Bank and Trust, and radio station WAAM.

Runners may choose either a 15-mile course from Dexter through the Huron River Valley to Ann Arbor, or a shorter 7-mile route, both events finishing on the track at Huron High school. The Dexter starting point is on Baker Rd., in front of Dexter High school, while the 7-mile run gets off from the intersection of N. Maple Rd. and Huron River Dr.

The first runners from the 7-mile event are expected to arrive at Huron High about 35 minutes after the 8:30 a.m. start, and the first finishers from the 15-mile about 70 minutes after the start from Dexter.

During the time runners are on Huron River Dr. it will be closed to bicycles and motorized vehicles, the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department has announced.

First scheduled in 1974, as part of Ann Arbor's sesquicentennial celebration and entered that year by 175 runners, the Run has grown each year with more than 80 percent of the participants from the Ann Arbor area, Morales noted. Last year's Run was in near-record heat "so we're hoping for a little better break with the weather this year," Morales said.

Last year's Run drew more than 800 entries, and the 15-mile was won by Tom Hollander of EMU in 1 hour, 19 minutes, 51 seconds. First place finisher among the women competitors was Ann Forsee of Dexter who covered the distance in one hour, 40 minutes, 33 seconds.

Waterloo Interpretive Center Offers Programs

Waterloo Interpretive Center will begin its summer program offerings on June 1. These naturalist conducted programs will be available for groups on a reservation basis. Reservations may be made by calling the Interpretive Center at 475-3039. The interpretive building and trails are also available to the public during regular operating hours from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday.

Programs to be offered during the summer season include the following:

"Life in a Bog." Tells the story of the formation and succession of Michigan's inland lakes. It includes a trip to a floating bog where the students will see insect eating plants and orchids in season. Recommended for 9- to 12-year-olds.

"Nature's Tank, the Turtle." This program will introduce the group to several kinds of common Michigan turtles. They will be able to see and touch many of them. They will also learn how a turtle's shell is constructed, how turtles eat and reproduce, who are turtles' natural enemies and how turtles defend themselves. Can be geared to any age level.

"Common Michigan Snakes." This program is designed to introduce the group to some of the harmless snakes common to southern Michigan. They will be able to see and touch (if they want) several harmless snakes and learn many interesting facts about them. Superstitions regarding snakes will also be discussed. Can be geared to any age level.

"Michigan Geology." Introduces the group to the rocks common in the glacial till of southern Michigan. The introduction stresses the role of rocks and minerals in our lives. Rock collecting as a hobby is also discussed. The program concludes with a walk on the geology trail to discover Michigan rocks in the natural environment. Recommended for 9- to 12-year-olds.

"Michigan Mammals." Introduces the groups to some of the mammals common to southern Michigan. It includes an indoor presentation, and a field trip to look for signs of mammal activity. The groups will be able to see and handle study skins of the various mammal species. Can be geared to any age level.

"Waterloo's Native Americans." Tells the story of the prehistoric Michigan Indians. The group will be able to see and touch native artifacts, learn how they were made and what they were used for. A field trip will introduce the students to some of the plants used by Michigan's native Americans for food and other everyday uses. Recommended for 5- to 12-year-olds.

These programs are designed to last up to 90 minutes. Actual program length will depend upon the age and attention span of the group. Each program can accommodate a maximum of 30 people. Larger groups can be accommodated by dividing them into groups of 10 and repeating the program if the schedule permits.

The Waterloo Interpretive Center is located north of I-94 between Jackson and Ann Arbor. Visitors take I-94 to exit 156

(Kalmbach Rd.), turn north and follow the park signs to the interpretive center. As the interpretive center is a Michigan State Park facility, all vehicles must have a motor vehicle permit for entry. These are available at the reception desk in the interpretive building. An annual permit is $5 and allows that vehicle to enter any Michigan State Park an unlimited number of times during the calendar year. A daily permit is $1 and is good for the date of issue only. A senior citizen permit is $1. Revenue collected from the sale of motor vehicle permits is used to purchase more park land and build new park facilities in the various state parks throughout Michigan.

The park staff asks that visitors to the interpretive center please leave their pets at home.

Chelsea Co-Op Nursery Notes

Chelsea Co-Op Nursery school three-year-olds were introduced to Winnie the Pooh and his friends recently through a story and records. They sampled a "smackere!" of Pooh's delicious honey and Pooh banners were made on burlap for the children to take home.

The four-year-olds learned about "The Very Hungry Caterpillar" and made sock caterpillars, which they magically turned into beautiful butterflies.

Picnics will be held this week and the children will receive nursery school diplomas.

Chelsea Co-Op Nursery school will once again be presenting workshops this summer. Some of the workshops will be: The Farmer in the Dell, with corn on the cob and a nifty planting project; Fun in the Sun with shells and sand crafts; and Winnie the Pooh with honey treat and pooh puppet. Please watch these columns for more information.

Nursery children were pleasantly surprised to see a Dexter fire truck parked in their school yard last Friday. Firemen Jim Devine and Bob Wagner showed the children what the well-dressed firemen wear.

Jim Devine demonstrated the proper use of the oxygen mask and the children enjoyed trying on his hat. The children took turns sitting in the driver's seat of the fire truck and enjoyed hearing the siren.

Don Nadeau Earns Letter on St. Joseph's Varsity Baseball Team

Don Nadeau, a 1977 graduate of Chelsea High school and a freshman at Saint Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., was one of 19 letter winners for the 1978 baseball season. Nadeau is a catcher for the Pumas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Nadeau, 19350 Old US-12.

Greater efforts in energy production, transportation and environmental protection will contribute to a growing demand for scientists, engineers and technicians, according to the U. S. Department of Labor's Occupational Outlook Handbook.

STEVEN C. BLAESS will be graduating, with honors, from the Tarpon Springs High school Tarpon Springs, Fla., June 9. Steve has achieved membership in the National Honor Society, won track letters, and as a senior was voted the most outstanding in the field of track sports. He is also a member of the school's bowling team. He will begin his career June 15 in the finance division of the U.S. Army. Steve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Blaess of Palm Harbor, Fla., former Chelsea residents.

Rebekah Lodge Hosts Group of District Officers

Chelsea Rebekah Lodge No. 130 was hostess to the District No. 12 officers at their May 16 meeting.

Attending were 46 members from Jackson, Parma, Vandercook Lake, Hanover, Brooklyn, and Dexter lodges. Business conducted included voting to send a child to Big Star Camp near Baldwin. Leon Durgan was selected.

Nominations for a representative alternate, and lodge deputy were held. Election will be at the June 6 meeting.

A successful rummage sale was reported by co-chairmen Marian Pickell and Lillian Sanderson. Jo Hochrein reported on putting Rebekah emblematic grave flags on the Chelsea deceased members.

District No. 12 President Helen Walworth reported on her next visitation to Parma, May 23 and Home City on June 2.

Nina Lehman and Eulalie Packard headed the evening's committee with other members finishing. Tables were decorated with yellow daffodils and at each place had a yellow flower, made from egg cartons by Mrs. Lehman.

Jeff Boyer and Jim Fitzsimmons presented a magic act, as the entertainment of the evening.

North Lake Co-Op Nursery Finishes Year

The school year at North Lake Co-Op Nursery has come to an end.

Some of the children were very apprehensive the first week of school. It was their first time away from mothers and they didn't know what to expect. But the atmosphere at the school, the working moms, the other children, and especially Mrs. Stafford, the teacher, helped all to overcome their fears.

During the school year the children visited the high school band, an apple orchard, Lane Animal Hospital, and the Waterloo Nature Center.

The children have become expert chefs, making everything from donuts and sandwiches to soup and salads.

They were very creative in the art room, making their own gifts for parents for Valentine's Day, Mother's Day and Christmas.

Throughout the school year the children learned the meaning and tradition of the first Halloween, Thanksgiving, the Easter Bunny, and Valentines. The children also learned about the culture and habits of the Indians.

All the children grew in some way from their nursery school experience, whether it was to jump rope 29 times without missing, to pedaling a tricycle, to climbing one step on the radar screen without being afraid. Each child grew from 1 to 3 inches and gained from 1 to 5 pounds. But what is more important each child ended the year with a little more awareness of the world around him or her.

Picnics for each session were Wednesday and Thursday (May 16-17). Barbecued hot dogs, potato chips, pickles and home-made ice cream were some of the items on the menu.

Graduation exercises topped off the day. Each child received a diploma stating he or she had graduated the year at the school. Some of the children will return to the school next year and others will further their education by starting in kindergarten in the fall.

On Friday, May 19, children and parents met at the site of Mr. Drew's coal driven train on North Territorial Rd. for the last event of the year. A picnic followed at Veterans Park.

It was hard for the children to say good bye to the school, friends, and teacher. But it was even harder for Mrs. Stafford. She has been teacher, nurse, mother, grandma and even grandpa to the children. She has seen growth and development in each child. She has seen them in good times and sad times. But, on the bright side, school will begin again in September.

YOUR BACK & YOUR HEALTH

Presented by ARBOR VITAE CHIROPRACTIC CENTRE In the Interest of Public Health

What (really) is chiropractic?

This is a new column that will appear in this space every other week. Because there are so many misconceptions about chiropractic and chiropractors, this column will attempt to straighten things out.

First of all, chiropractic is neither a cure-all nor a worthless practice. It has definite merits and definite limitations. Obviously you wouldn't go to a chiropractor for a broken leg. Then the question is, when should you visit a chiropractor? This series of columns will try to give you some usable guidelines. The first step is to understand the basic principles of chiropractic.

Your spine is made up of 24 moveable segments, called vertebrae. Running down through these vertebrae is the spinal cord, which is really a whole lot of nerves, sort of like communications lines from your brain. The nerves extend out from between the vertebrae to send messages from the brain to the organs of the body.

Sometimes a fall or a twist or a jar moves a vertebrae out of its normal position. This can prevent the message from getting through to the body organ the way it's supposed to.

The job of the chiropractor is to restore the vertebrae to its normal position so the body can once again function as it should. While this is clearly an oversimplified presentation of chiropractic, it's essentially correct.

Your body's natural state is good health. Chiropractic is dedicated to letting the body achieve that state, naturally.

lems that go along with them. Most of their streets don't have curbs and gutters, and many streets are gravel because that is how the residents like it," he said.

Two problems the communities do share are traffic and developers. Bloomfield Hills has the heavily used Woodward Avenue splitting the city in half and "Drivers are always ducking down sidestreets to avoid traffic on Woodward," Weber learned.

Carey added that in addition to Woodward Ave., the city also has three major roads which are county owned, which lessens control by the city in how they are used and maintained.

A self-described "stickler on zoning" Carey describes the success of his city, in which he has been involved politically for the past six years (since April as mayor), as keeping a tight rein on zoning ordinances.

"My theory is that if it causes a hardship, then it won't go." In a city where an estimated half of the residents are retired, Carey said it is important to maintain an attractive environment. "If someone makes a zoning petition we take a neighborhood door-to-door poll to see how it will affect everyone," Carey said.

Zoning restrictions in Bloomfield Hills are fairly strict. House lots may be no smaller than 3-4 of an acre and range all the way up to three acres. Houses must also fit within a mandated size. Other restrictions include a two-story limit on building height and several condominiums will not rent to families with children under 16 years old.

One surprising difference between the two communities is their official's salaries. Bloom-

Horse Power Was Giant Acre Eater

Some critics of modern, mechanized agriculture have suggested that we return to farm use of animal power to reduce use of fossil fuels. If that were done, a big share of farm output would have to be removed from the human food chain. During the 1910-1914 period, at the dawn of the tractor era, about 90 million acres were used just to produce feed for farm horses and mules. That was more than a quarter of all cropland then in use.

field Hills may be the richest community in Michigan but since the town became a city in 1932 the mayor is compensated $5 a month for his duties. In Chelsea, however, village presidents receive a whopping (in comparison) $18 twice a month for meetings and $78 quarterly.

Hydrobrade Brick Cleaning Was Used On McKune Library

In the May 4 edition of The Standard an article on the brick cleaning of the McKune Memorial Library stated that Sermac Systems by Advance, Inc., was using the sand blasting method.

According to Sermac they employed the Hydrobrade method of brick cleaning "which involves the use of a fine stream of sand injected into a cone of water, where sandblasting usually involves the use of a coarse, dry sand which could pose a serious threat to the surface being cleaned, plus the undesirable side effect of clouds of dust," Sermac explained.

"We do not in any way regard our use of the Hydrobrade method in this case 'unfortunate,' as it is indeed the only acceptable way to remove the coating of mortar which had been applied over the surface of the brick," they added.

Summer Filled With Off-Beat Attractions

A grape stomping bash, a frisbee fling and a cherry pit spitting sideshow are among far-offbeat festivals awaiting persons seeking off-beat Michigan activities this summer, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

For "do-it-yourself" adventure, Michiganians also may drive in a demolition derby or tractor pull, hang glide off a Lake Michigan bluff or sail by boat from Port Huron to Mackinac Island. Owners of homely hounds or beastly bowlers may enter their pooches in Michigan's ugliest dog contest.

To guide tourists and week-end vacationers in Michigan to zany events with a wacky beat, Auto Club has compiled a list of 20 "Far-out Festivals."

The fifth annual Cherry Spitting Contest July 8 at the Tree-Mendus Fruit Farm in Eau Claire in southwest Michigan is designed to promote Michigan's red tart cherry industry.

When Paw Paw-Wine Capital of the Midwest—holds its Sept. 15-17 Grape and Wine Festival, tourists get a chance to sip wine and take part in the traditional grape stomping contest. Winners and losers alike wind up with purple feet.

Frisbees should fly furiously at the Range Snowmobile Club near Houghton-Hancock, site of the International Frisbee Tournament July 1-2. Now in its 21st year, that Upper Peninsula event has received national recognition.

Contests for the ugliest dog, the person with the most freckles or biggest Afro haircut and frog jumping are just part of the fun at Muskegon's Seaway Festival June 24 to July 2. A Log Rolling Contest is set Aug. 12 at Mill Pond near Farwell.

Foot-stomping good times also await visitors attending the June 25 Thornapple Bluegrass Music Festival at Charlton Park in Hastings and the July 29-30 Bluegrass Festival at Flint's Wilson Park. Part of the Flint show includes gospel bluegrass concerts and a mountain dancing demonstration.

Defiers of gravity can attend the June 30 through July 4 National Soaring and Hang Gliding Festival. The Lake Michigan bluff near Elberta is the location for glider demonstrations while soaring will be staged at the Frankfort Airport.

Youthful drivers can reach speeds of 33 miles per hour in the July 23 Detroit Soap Box Derby at Dorias Field. For sailors, the 25th nautical mile Port Huron to Mackinac Island sailboat race, which begins July 15, is an exhilarating experience.

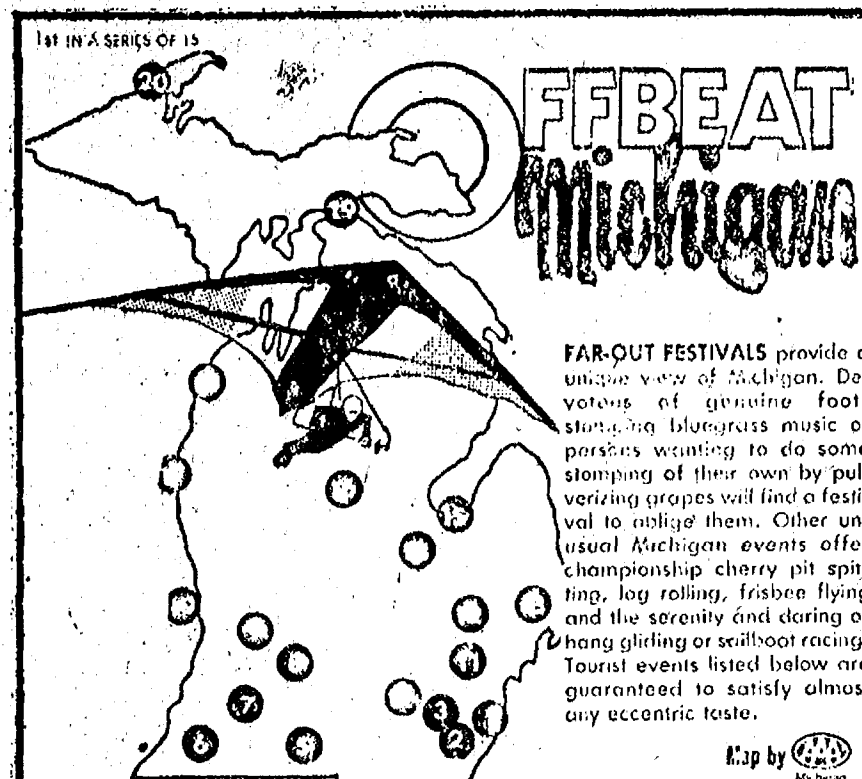

Sleight-of-hand artists will demonstrate their wizardry during Colon's Aug. 9-12 Magic Get-Together. Artistic wizardry of another type can be seen at the Clothesline Art Fair at Reeds Lake in East Grand Rapids, where dozens of artists will show their works June 17.

Physical fitness buffs may join 20,000 walkers Sept. 4 for a 4 1/2-mile stroll from St. Ignace to Mackinac City as part of the Labor Day Mackinac Bridge Walk. Nearly 700 participants are expected for the June 24-25 Mid-American Gymnastics Beach Meet at Stearns Park in Ludington.

Demonstrations of bullet molding and miniature soldier carving, cannon-firing competition and costume judging, plus a military parade may be seen at the June 17-18 Muzzleloaders Festival at Dearborn's Greenfield Village.

For those with appetites, there's the July 14-16 Bridgeport "all you can eat" Sauerkraut Festival and Munger's July 27-30 Potato Festival. The Munger event also features a demolition derby and tractor pull.

A donkey baseball game and a 1,000-unit parade highlight the Sept. 8-10 Carry Nation Festival at Holly. Other Southeast Michigan offbeat festivals are Farmington's Founders Festival July 27-29 with a variety of games and carnival rides for children and the Aug. 23-27 National Water Skiing Championships at Tivoli Gardens at Brighton.

Firemen Free Woman With Finger Stuck In Steering Wheel

A rescue operation by the Dexter Fire Department at Delhi Park Tuesday morning, May 23, freed a woman from an embarrassing predicament.

Washtenaw County Sheriff's Deputies summoned firefighters to the park at 11:59 a.m. after Bonnie Wyatt got a finger stuck in a hole in the steering wheel of the sports car in which she was seated. Saws were used to cut the steering wheel apart and disengage the appendage.

The vast majority of the 46 million job openings expected to arise between 1976 and 1985 will require less than 4 years of college training, according to the U.S. Department of Labor's Occupational Outlook Handbook.

LEGISLATIVE LOG

An Overview of Action on Bills in the Michigan Legislature Week of May 15-19

In the Senate...

Topping the Senate calendar this week were bills addressing nursing homes, crime, and voting procedures. Passed by the Upper Chamber were measures upgrading standards of staffing and quality of care at nursing homes in Michigan; appropriating some $50 million for brighter street lights and more police patrols in metropolitan high-crime areas; and allowing anyone over 50 years of age to vote by absentee ballot. All of these measures were sent to the House for its review, as was another Senate bill equalizing property tax credits for disabled veteran renters and homeowners. In addition, the Senate approved a series of House-passed bills allowing physicians' assistants to continue practicing while revised rules regulating their activities are being drafted.

Included among the bills moved into position for a final vote in the Senate, perhaps next week, were measures permitting farmers, who own land enrolled under the Farm-land and Open Space Preservation Act, to receive property tax credits against their Single Business Tax liabilities, and setting watercraft speed and noise limits.

Senate Committees reported several major bills this week. Expected to be debated by the full Senate in upcoming weeks are bills which would: extend until the end of August the deadline for applications for energy assistance grants; establish guidelines for the development and use of electronic money systems; provide funding for school programs tailored to the capabilities of academically talented or gifted students; and compile Michigan's health statutes into one massive Public Health Code.

In the House...

The House gave its approval this week to a major package of bills toughening Michigan's laws to protect abused spouses. The bills allow police to make arrests without warrants in suspected abuse cases, and permit judges to order persons convicted of such abuse to receive counseling instead of jail terms. The Senate will now review the package.

Also passed by the House this week, and sent to the Senate, were measures which would recognize protective surveillance of persons working in utility and sewer tunnels, and amend the State Constitution to permit investment of state funds in credit unions and savings and loan associations, in addition to banks. Also, the House approved two Senate-passed measures, one of which increases the salaries of state employed doctors and psychiatrists and another which expands the number of judgeships in Michigan.

Heading next week's House calendar are bills to: provide tax credits for homeowners who install solar energy devices; regulate pawnbrokers; authorize $5 million to hire young people to work on conservation projects this summer; and spell out what may be included in lease agreements.

The House committee action, the Judiciary Committee wound up its review of the Senate-passed marijuana decriminalization bill, reporting the measure to the full House for debate. In addition, House committees reported measures which would: permit businesses to be rehabilitated or improved without increased property taxes for a period of 12 years; prohibit sawed-off shotguns; promote vanpooling; appropriate funds for K-12 education during the upcoming fiscal year; and allow the Governor to appoint a new Lieutenant Governor if a vacancy occurs.

From the Governor...

Governor Milliken signed the "auto lemon" bill into law this week. The new law, which takes effect next January, allows car buyers to stop payments on defective vehicles, and defend in court their refusal to pay until necessary repairs are made.

In addition, the Governor signed bills into law which will: establish a Military Base Conversion Authority to oversee the conversion of Kincheloe Air Force Base into civilian use; extend the three-day cancellation right on home solicitation sales to include telephone sales; and ban the use of recorded telephone sales messages; allow increased salaries for district and circuit court judges; and give retirement credit to state employees for military service performed prior to obtaining employment with the state.

Governor Milliken also spent time this week traveling to Washington, D.C. to review federal revenue sharing proposals with the Executive Committee of the National Governor's Association, and to discuss Michigan's economic climate with the Fantus Company. In addition, he kicked off Holland's Tulip Festival, and at a Lansing news conference, announced that the incidence of serious crime is dropping in Michigan. He said he will travel to Europe next month to encourage foreign businessmen to invest in Michigan.

Our demand for electricity is increasing at the rate of six percent per person per year. However, consumption during the peak usage hours is increasing at the rate of 12 percent annually, a demand growing more rapidly than the nation's planned generating capacity will be able to accommodate.

Why the "Light Bill" became the "Electric Bill"

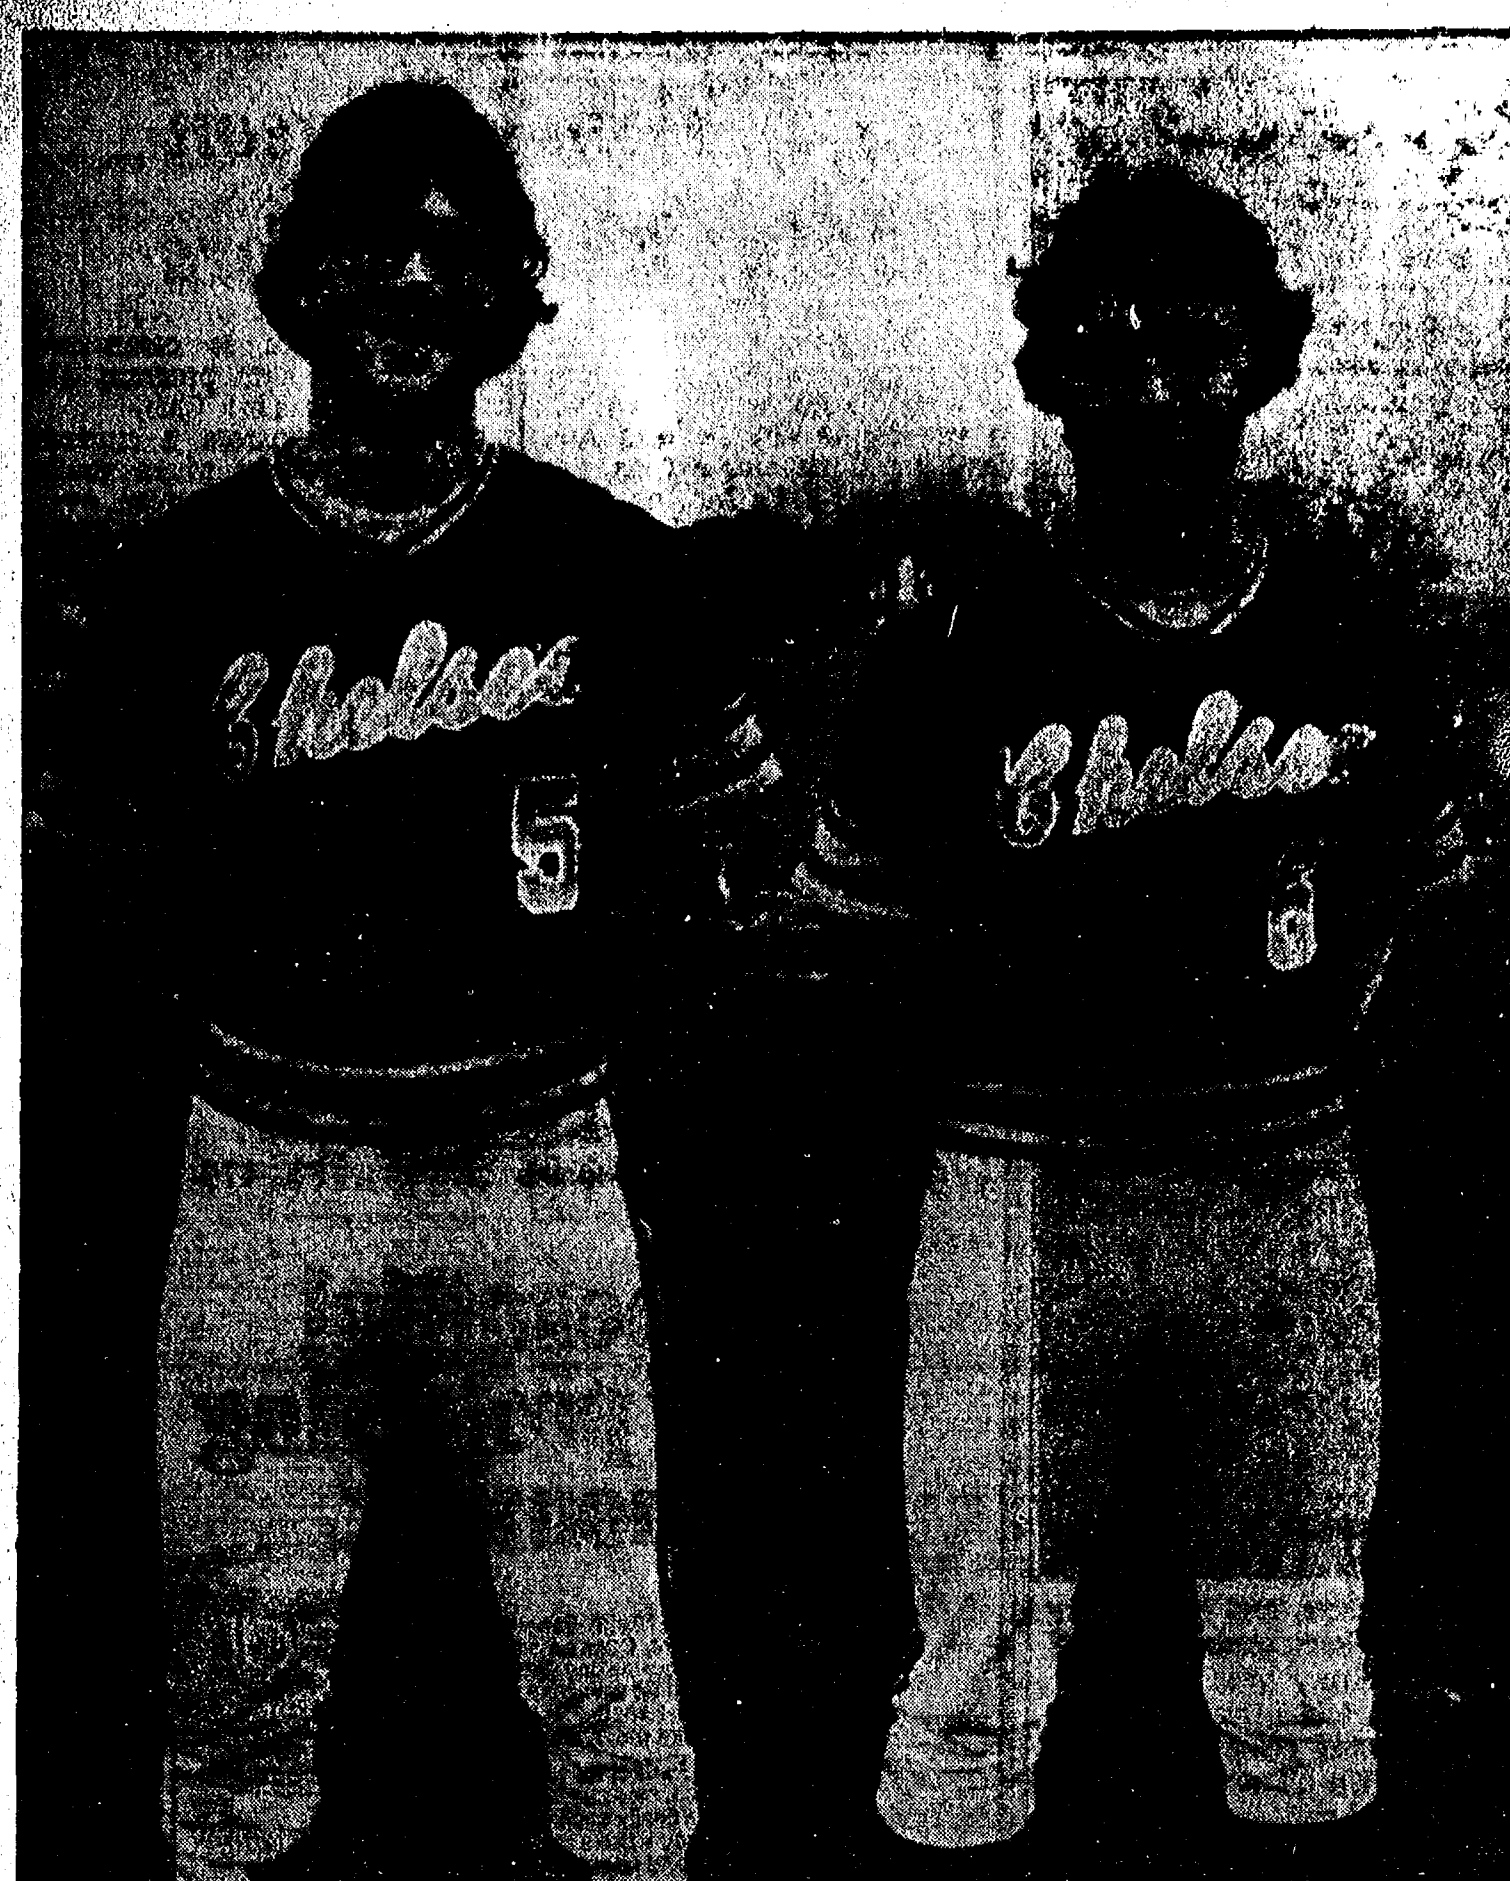

It's simple. Back in the 1930s lights accounted for nearly all of the electricity used in your home. But as times changed and convenient, modern appliances were invented, lights became a much smaller part of your total electric costs. And today, with frost-free refrigerators, air conditioners, furnace blowers and ranges, lights actually account for less than 20% of the electricity you use. That's why proper use and maintenance of major appliances is so important. The more efficiently these big energy users operate, the more economical they'll be. And that can save a lot of money and a lot of energy. Detroit Edison can tell you how to get the most out of the major appliances in your home. So call or stop in at any Detroit Edison customer office for helpful information. Save where it really counts. The power is in your hands.

MIKE WOOD, left, a sophomore studying architecture, has been juggling his time this season between varsity and junior varsity play with the Bulldogs. Being pulled up from JV early this year made Wood a little nervous but "I'm much more confident with my hitting in the varsity league now that I've played a few games," Wood commented. Wood is a catcher for the team and has played that position since he first started playing ball at age 7. "Catching just seems natural for me," said Wood who explained that he became interested in the position because his brother Paul also played catcher. "It's a good spot to be in during the game. I'm part of every play and there is rarely a dull moment." Catchers have a lot to keep in mind as they crouch behind the opponent batter. "I call every ball to the pitcher, keep my eye open for stealers to second base, and try hard to stop every ball that shoots by the batter," Wood explained. The catcher position is also a creative one where the pitcher and catcher join to make up the call signs for balls. Mike's best game this year was with Gabriel Richard the second time around. "I went two for three in batting and didn't let a single ball pass me behind the plate. It was a really good feeling." Besides baseball, Wood plays a forward position in basketball and tailback in football. He also shares Al Augustine's fascination with water-polo with seals in Florida where they belonged to the same team while on vacation. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood, 646 Flanders St.

BRAD KNICKERBOCKER, right, a sophomore playing first year varsity for the Bulldogs, is also playing second base for the first time. "I really like the spot," Knickerbocker said, "It's a little easier than playing shortstop, but I still get a lot of action which I like." While on the freshman team, Knickerbocker played left field and pitched a little. Although he has played every game this season on the varsity team, "one day we didn't have a game going and the Junior Varsity needed a pitcher so I played for them." "It has been a big switch going from freshmen to varsity and I think the hardest part for me has been the hitting. I know I didn't do too well in the beginning but I'm much better now," he said. Indeed he is. During the tournament game with Pinckney, Thursday, May 18, Knickerbocker led the Bulldog attack with two hits and four RBI's. "That was probably my best game all season," Chelsea won the game 8-3, qualifying for another tournament game of which there are a possible 10. As long as a team wins a tournament game they qualify to play another and then go on to the state championship. Knickerbocker said that this year's team "has had its ups and downs and right now what we're looking for is a strong finish in the conference." Knickerbocker also plays split-end in JV football and forward in JV basketball. For the summer he plans on playing for Chelsea in the summer league in Ann Arbor where he will be joined with several other Chelsea JV and varsity junior baseball players. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Knickerbocker, 226 E. North St.

Girls JV Softball Finish Season Today

The girls junior varsity softball team entered its last week of competition Monday by dropping a close game at South Lyon, 8-7. Despite the loss, which always hurts, Coach Waller said that it was Chelsea's best game of the season.

Jennifer Ringe pitched the entire game, giving up just 10 hits and two walks. Chelsea lost the game by not being able to produce the big hits with runners on base. Coach Waller commented that his team produced only four hits and two of those were bunt singles.

TODAY'S INVESTOR

Q. It seems like my taxes keep going up and I've decided it's time for me to buy some tax-free municipal bonds and see if I can't get some tax-free income. Can you tell me a little about these bonds and particularly could you tell me what I'd have to earn on a taxable investment to equal a 6 percent return on a tax-free municipal bond?

A. With inflation and our progressive tax rates, more and more people are getting into a tax bracket where it pays to take the smaller return offered by Municipal Bonds and have all of the income from them tax free. If you buy a Municipal that pays 6 percent, you would have to earn 8.45 percent on a taxable issue to net the same income if you were a single individual in the $12,000 to $14,000 range of taxable income. If your taxable income was in the $20,000 to $22,000 range, your taxable earnings would have to be 9.68 percent to equal 6 percent on a Municipal Bond. A table giving the complete range of comparisons for all tax brackets and for quite a range of municipalities is in the January issue of Better Investing and I'm sending you a copy.

There are a few things you ought to keep in mind when you are considering buying Municipal Bonds. They are rated by Standard & Poor's and also Moody's. The top rating is AAA, the lower the rating, the greater the risk. New York City bonds had a rating of "A" when they got into trouble.

Income from Municipal Bonds is tax free at the federal level. It will not be tax free at the state level unless the bonds are from a municipality in your state.

The price of bonds moves up and down with other interest rates; and if you think you may have to sell the bond before it matures and is paid off, you should buy one that will mature in two or three years since its price will be less subject to fluctuation.

There is a very active market in Municipal Bonds. So you can count on being able to sell one if you have to. It should be pointed out that these bonds tend to trade in $10,000 units; and if you wish to buy or sell a smaller amount, you will have to pay a little larger fee. If you want to invest in smaller amounts, you have a couple of choices, one is called unit trusts. In these, you buy a part of a larger holding of securities and receive your proportionate share of income and get your money back as the units holdings mature and are paid off. Another is in the newer municipal funds which are like a mutual fund but their holdings are composed of municipal bonds.

Mr. O'Hara welcomes your questions, but will answer them only through this column. He would be pleased to send a complimentary copy of BETTER INVESTING MAGAZINE or information about Investment Clubs to any reader requesting it. Air Force Offering Accelerated Promotion In Critical Specialties

An accelerated promotion program for people enlisting in the Air Force for training in one of four critical specialties was announced today by Air Force Recruiting officials.

People enlisting before May 31 and selecting technical training in security, munitions maintenance, voice processing or fuel specialties will be eligible for promotion to airman (E-2), after completing the six-week Air Force basic training course at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex. Recruiting Service officials said. Normally, promotion to the rank of airman comes after six months in the Air Force.

ANNOUNCING DODGE OMNI.

EPA ESTIMATES:
39 MPG HIGHWAY, 25 MPG CITY.
Its EPA mileage estimates are 39 mpg highway and 25 mpg city. These estimates refer to an Omni equipped with a standard 1.7 litre engine, four-speed manual transmission, and 3.3 transaxle ratio. Naturally, your mileage may vary according to your car's condition, equipment, and your driving habits. California mileage is lower.

$4267* (CAR AS SHOWN.)
$3706* (BASE STICKER PRICE.)
That's right! $4267* for the Omni pictured here. But Omni's prices actually start at $3706*. And that price includes front disc brakes, rack-and-pinion steering, cut-pile carpeting, front bucket seats, AM radio, vinyl body-side moldings, and white sidewall radial tires!

*Excluding taxes and destination charges.

MOTOR TRENDS' CAR OF THE YEAR.
We wanted Omni to have those qualities American drivers always held dear. So we gave it front-wheel drive, mounted the engine sideways, and ended up creating a surprising amount of interior room. We put a coil spring at each wheel and designed in plenty of suspension "jounce" travel to make Omni's ride supple and smooth. We've even indulged Omni owners with remarkably comfortable seating, AM radio, whitewall radials, and vinyl side moldings. All standard.

See the car that Motor Trend magazine has already named "Car of the Year." The new Dodge Omni. Sit in one. Drive one. Then buy or lease one.

Real Estate

FALSE ECONOMIES

There are many ways to cutstart. Listen to his recommendations when you sell your home. But some of these may be very costly in the final outcome. I refer to selling without the services of a REALTOR and attorney. Their experience and knowledge could easily be the best financial insurance you can buy.

An attorney can be well worth his fee if he steers you clear of a single financial or legal pitfall.

(Trying to play expert by filling in the blanks of standard deeds, purchase and sales agreements, binders, or financial forms can easily backfire. Some of the biggest monetary losses have come about precisely in this manner.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea, Phone: 475-888; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Lions Club Reports Successful 'Splash'

Chelsea Lions Club swam away with $100 in concession sales from their first (but not last) Invitational Swim meet in Beach Pool, Sunday, May 21.

"Considering that we had only hoped to break even, the event was more than successful," Tom Dmoch, president of the club, said.

Racing, diving exhibitions, clowns, blindfolded inner tube races, and lots and lots of homemade goodies attracted more than 100 swimmers and dozens of spectators.

Racers from 5-year-olds to a perky 77 joined in the "fun" raider which the Lions say they will continue as an annual event.

"We sure had a lot of fun," said Lion and clown Dave Scriven who won the 50 yard blindfolded inner tube race. "Don't tell anyone (especially Dave Quilter) that the only reason I won was because Quilter fell out of his inner tube and when he got back in he swam the wrong way," Scriven confided.

In a similar dazzling display of expert swimming the Lions challenged the Jaycees and a group of spectators in a 200-yard inner tube relay which was won handily by Mike Bunn, Howard Holmes, Ron Bodganski, and Carol Drzyga. The Jaycees finished second and all Tom Dmoch could say about his Lions was "it was a moral victory that none of these waterfearing cats drowned."

"Without the help of the 34 merchants who advertised in our program, and the special help of Ted Wilson as starter, Larry Reed as announcer, and Will Connelly who spent hours making and hanging up posters, the event would not have been the 'Splash' it was," Scriven said.

Only one minor problem occurred all day and Scriven said he will do the best he can to correct it. "Because the PA system does not function very well, many swimmers did not receive the ribbon they should have," he said. "If this happened to anyone they may call me at 423-2414 and I'll make sure they get a ribbon," he said.

First-place winners on Sunday were S. Oxner, P. Hoffman, D. Peterson, K. Thomas, S. Borders, K. Thomas, K. Nicola, J. Mason, D. Harness, P. Colombo, C. Stirling, M. Carrigan, J. Matklow, L. Johnston, D. Borders, D. McDowell, T. Gaunt, S. Prohaska, and H. Holmes.

Bike Safety Clinic Slated By Jaycees

A safety and repair workshop for Chelsea children bike riders (just in time for the Bike-A-Thon) will be held Saturday, June 3, beginning at 9 a.m. in the Beach Middle school parking lot.

Sponsored by the Chelsea Jaycees, children will be able to purchase 1978 bicycle licenses for 50 cents and have minor repairs made on their bikes by volunteer Jaycees members, according to Jim Samek, project chairman for the Jaycees.

Also during the day, bikers can ride one of three obstacle courses, take a written test and enter their bikes in a safety contest. Prizes for these events will be bicycle equipment such as a headlight or horn, provided by the club.

Tom Severn, and Coach Sam Vogel. In back are David Boyer, Steve Wolak, Randy Bohl, Dave Parks, Steve Wilson, Bruce Rabbitt, and Marc Feeney. Outstanding players this year included McCormick, 13-1; Mike Hagen, 14-2; and Jeff Stirling, 11-3.

Netters Win Brighton Invitational Tourney

Chelsea varsity tennis team finished their 1978 season this past week with two more meet wins and a team championship in the Brighton Invitational Tennis Tournament.

Varsity netters scored a 6-1 victory over Stockbridge and a 5-2 win over Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard, formerly Ann Arbor St. Thomas.

Winners in the Stockbridge match were singles players Jon McCormick, Mike Hagen, and Jeff Stirling. Winning doubles teams were Marc Feeney and Bruce Rabbitt, Dave Parks and Steve Wilson, and Jane Barnes and Shelly Lazarz.

In the Gabriel Richard match, Chelsea's lineup was considerably changed because the Ann Arbor school was missing some of its top players. Certain Chelsea players sat out the match, while others who normally play doubles were able to play singles.

Winning for Chelsea were Marc Feeney at singles, Steve Wolak at singles, Jon McCormick and Mike Hagen at doubles, Dave Parks and Steve Wilson at doubles, and David Boyer and Diane Ottoman at doubles.

On Tuesday, May 16, play was started in the Brighton Tournament, which was held for SEC schools, which sponsored tennis teams. When play was suspended at 9:30 p.m., Chelsea held a one point lead over Brighton High school. When the tournament was finished on Saturday, May 20, Chelsea maintained their lead to win the team title.

Chelsea Student Named to Special Olympics Board

Teresa Murphy, a special education student at Chelsea High school, has been selected as a member of the Tri-County Special Olympic Board of Directors.

Teresa will represent all Special Olympic athletes from the tri-county area which includes nearly 1,000 handicapped persons in Washtenaw, Livingston, and Monroe counties.

"This is the first time that a handicapped student will serve as an executive board member and I join many people in giving Teresa our support and congratulations," Nancy Cooper, special education teacher at Chelsea High school and Regional Director for the Tri-County Michigan Special Olympics, said.

As a board member, Teresa will attend bi-monthly meetings where she will join such prominent board members as U. of M. track coach Jack Harvey, Detroit Pistons coach Herb Brown, and Dick Ryan, PBA bowler.

She will also speak at the State Special Olympics to be held June 1-4. Also speaking there will be Eunice Kennedy Shriver.

In addition to speaking at the State Olympics, Teresa will participate in the mile-run, the one-meter run, and the 220 dash.

Fair Board Members Question Road Work

Regular Fair Board meeting was called to order Thursday, May 18 by President Lloyd Grau. The secretary's and treasurer's minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted.

Officers present were Lloyd Grau, president; Jerry Heydlauff, vice-president; Earl Heller, executive vice-president; and Kay Poljan, treasurer. Board members present were Art Steinaway, Frank Renton, Archie Bradbury, Richard Bollinger, Charles Stapish, Ralph McCalla, Dick Poljan, Robert Heller, Joe Merkel, III, and Harold Gross.

Others present were John Wellnitz, Ned Palmer, Marilyn and Tom Lewis, superintendents for goat display; and Phil Bareis.

Absent were Ruth Leach, fair secretary; Ed Keezer, fair board secretary; Keith Bradbury, Jerry Herrick, Reuben Lesse, Jr., John Klink, Harold Trinkle, Charles Koenn, and Frank Sweeney.

Tom and Marilyn requested permission to secure lumber and make gates for the goat display. Their request was granted. Other fair business and fair insurance were discussed.

Before the board meeting was called to order, several members, including John Wellnitz, public relations for the fair, discussed the grading inside the fair fence. According to Wellnitz, "the present grading makes the mowing of grass and weeds impossible. The fence posts are very crooked and out of line. Some very nice oak trees east on Old US-12 were cut down and dug out while the forest trees north of the merchant's building were buried more than four feet with fill dirt."

"These trees will eventually die from too much fill, and the sidewalk build around them will still be crooked after the trees are gone," Wellnitz said.

"Many are asking 'who is responsible for the planning and execution of the work being done on Old US-12?'" he added.

Wellnitz said that while it has been said that no money from the village coffers is being used directly to pay for the Old US-12 project, "several years ago, however, people who got Federal grants got back only 40 cents on their income tax dollar. 60 cents of their dollar was lost going to Washington and coming back to the people. Yet claims are made that Federal grants are 'free money'—how much does the income-tax payer lose now? There is no such thing as 'free money'," Wellnitz concluded.

Emergency Farm Bill Is Now Law

President Carter has signed farm legislation and used the new authority to announce an increase in the wheat target price to $3.40 per bushel. The Emergency Farm Act of 1978 provides that when a set-aside is in effect for wheat, feed grains and upland cotton, the Secretary of Agriculture may increase the target price for any of those commodities by any amount he determines is appropriate. The law affects crops planted in 1978 through 1981.

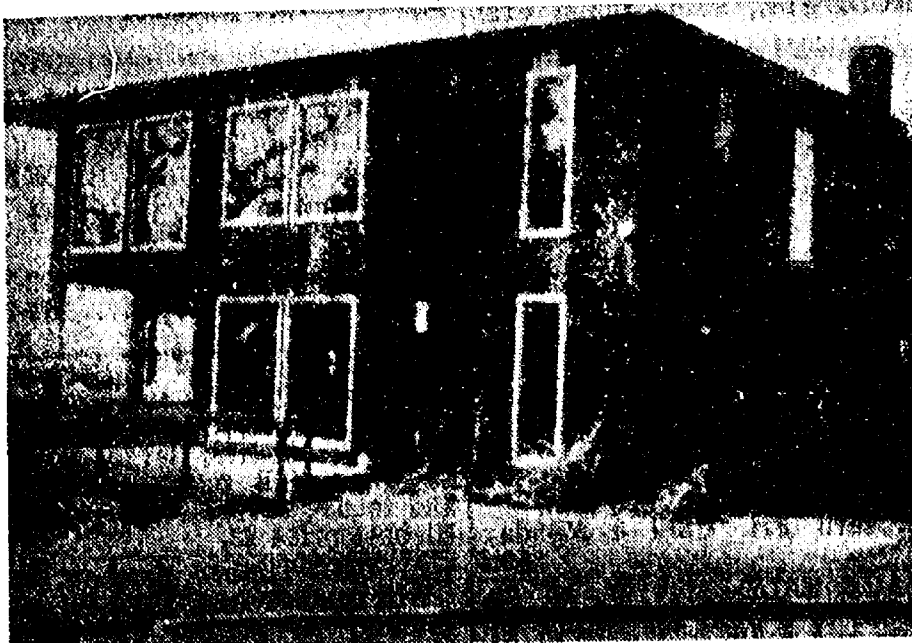

Other changes include an increase in the upland cotton rate to 48 cents per pound from 44 cents; an increase in the Commodity Credit Corporation's borrowing authority to $25 billion from $14.5 billion; allows market promotion for raisins; and grants the Secretary of Agriculture the authority to allow commodities produced on set-aside acreage to be converted into gasoline ingredients.

Plant Breeding

Requires Patience

Plant breeding is a profession for tortoiseshells, not hares. Houser, a new high-yielding wheat variety from Cornell University, took 18 years to develop. It resulted from eight crosses made from nine breeding lines.

Tom Fegan, Planning Director, spoke to the Board regarding an item that was discussed in the Physical Plant Committee. Annually the County Planning Commission provides certain staff directly to the Board of Commissioners and its committees to do specific assignments. This year the Commission could find two and one quarter people with another quarter of a person added through a Clerk of the Works that has been hired to do work from now through the end of June. There is a memo in the packet from Mr. Fegan to the Physical Plant Committee that explains this. Because of the many building projects this year there is a need for about four people to do the work. Physical Plant passed this on to Ways & Means to discuss various alternatives. Since there are four alternatives that were discussed, one of the Commissioners requested that four resolutions be prepared, one describing each option. Pat Bamberg, Director of CETA, spoke to the Board regarding her meeting with Ypsilanti Township union and management about their CETA positions. There are two options that the Board may choose to exercise with the Township: 1) to contract for their one non-unionized position which is the Administrative Assistant and not to recontract for the balance of the positions. You will have a complaint filed either way you go on this issue. I feel the first issue is the much more defensible position than the second issue is. I would like some sense of how this Board would like me to proceed.

Discussion ensued on the Belleville address and whether that person lived in Washtenaw County or Wayne County. It was the consensus of the Board to eliminate the person with the Wayne County address until the matter is investigated.

78-0248 Roll call vote on adopting the resolution appointing Karen Gunn to the Washtenaw County Advisory Committee on the Status of Women: YEAS: 15. Motion carried.

Chair Murray stated that at a meeting of Human Resources, the committee approved travel to Arizona to a convention and she was wondering what the rationale was since the Board had adopted a resolution prohibiting travel to non-ratified ERA states.

Comm. McClary requested the resolution be divided into three portions to be voted on individually. Discussion.

Comm. Walter stated that several months ago it came to his attention that the lists of voters in the August, 1976 Primary Election from Ypsilanti Township were inadvertently destroyed by a part-time employee in the County Clerk's Office.

Comm. Walter moved to amend this resolution to state that it will only be effective after the Clerk makes available the list of voters in the 1976 August Primary of any of the townships for which a citizen makes a request. Be it further resolved that this resolution not be effective until the Clerk compiles the list of voters in the August 1976 Primary in those townships where the lists were destroyed and where a citizen has requested those lists. There was no support for Comm. Walter's motion.

Comm. McClary supported by Comm. Merkel moved a substitute resolution which would indicate that at times during the year when there are not elections functions that pertain to the new campaign act, that this person be part of the public service function of the Clerk's Office and serve on the counter for the public. Area Farmers Sign for Wheat, Corn Program

So far, more than 45 percent of Washtenaw county's 2,000 farmers have signed up for the U. S. Department of Agriculture's set-aside program for wheat and corn, the leading crops grown here.

The deadline for farmers to sign up for the program was May 15, but it has been extended to May 31, so more farmers can qualify according to Mrs. Dorothy M. Howard, executive director of the Washtenaw County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Under the program, farmers agree to set aside 20 percent on wheat and 10 percent on corn for harvest in 1978. They then qualify for disaster relief, deficiency payments, and commodity loans, Mrs. Howard said.

The program is aimed at reducing the amount of corn and wheat being grown and thus helps improve the local markets. If the national market price (June thru October) on wheat, does not average over the target price of $3.40 per bushel, as set by the government last week, there can be a deficiency payment of $1.15 per bushel.

In addition to the required set-aside which provides eligibility, there is an opportunity for producers to set aside an additional 10 percent on the corn program and receive a payment for that additional effort.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture hopes to have 50 to 55 percent of the nation's farms signed in the set-aside program.

Many Miss Kindergarten Round-Up

A small group of an estimated 75 parents attended the Kindergarten Round-up held this month at South school with a total of 92 children registered for the 1978-79 school year so far.

Last year, more than 100 parents who registered 105 children, attended the round-up.

"Either classes will be smaller next year, or many parents have not yet registered their children," Sylvester Wojcik, principal of South school said. Wojcik said that they are expecting approximately 150 kindergarten students next year.

"We are urging parents to come to South school as soon as possible to register their child for next year," he added.

Wojcik said that early enrollment is imperative to successful planning of kindergarten classes. "We must plan immediately for the coming year," he stated.

To qualify for kindergarten, a child must be five years old by Dec. 1. State law requires parents to present school registrars a copy of the child's birth certificate from the county clerk office of the county where the child was born at the time of registration.

GRANDPARENTS DAY: Sharing experiences on a one-to-one basis, grandmother Nellie White and South school students Stephanie Jane Stephens and Jerry Stephens spend a quiet few minutes out of a busy day to leaf through a picture book. Sponsored by the Parent-Teachers South organization, the day was designed to enlist the wisdom of grandparents in the education of children. Escorted by their grandchildren, 175 grandparents visited classrooms, the library, and playground and attended a program in the gymnasium where Mrs. Charles (Ruth) Cameron spoke on grandparent's role which she described as "very special" and as "filling a valuable and unique place in the lives of children."

THREE GENERATIONS: Grandparents Clayton and Alice Ross, left, Gina Durgan, a 5th grade student in Mr. Bullock's class, grandmother Ellaruth Savicki, and great-grandmother Irma Buchanan await the afternoon program which was just one part of Grandparents Day at South Elementary school on Thursday, May 18. Following a talk on "The Role of Grandparents" by Mrs. Charles (Ruth) Cameron, Mrs. Nance's 5th grade class presented a choral reading of "Our Country 'Tis of Thee," and a dramatized American history. The Parent-Teachers South organized the event which was attended by more than 175 grandparents. Grandparents Day coincided with the all-school art show and visitors were treated to an extensive student art display as well as a full day of visits to numerous school classes, the library, and playground. Many grandparents had traveled from other cities to attend the affair and children without grandparents adopted them for the day.

Home-Cooked Meals Served in Senior Citizen Nutrition Program

A delectably fresh new approach to preparing nutritious meals for Chelsea senior citizens made its debut on Valentine's Day, an appropriate occasion when loved ones are remembered with special gestures.

Delighting the palates of diners and upping the numbers who gather around the pleasantly set tables in St. Mary church hall is the decision to serve tantalizing home-cooked meals rather than the catered food as had been done for the past six years.

"We decided that home-made meals would add a new dimension to the program by allowing the people who come here a chance to partake in meal preparation and by giving us a higher quality menu," Mrs. Betty Koch, site co-ordinator for the Nutrition Program, explained.

Established six years ago under the auspices of the Office of Economic Opportunity and the Washtenaw County Community Service Agency, CSA, senior citizens in Chelsea have been joining for a full morning of socializing, recreation, and a hot dinner at noon.

Similar programs are held in Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, and Willow Run. "The biggest thing about this program is that it breaks up people's days. They can come here early in the morning, talk to their friends, watch or partake in activities, and enjoy a relaxing and nutritious meal," Mrs. Koch said.

Before the home-made meals were introduced, only a handful of 15 to 20 persons were regular participants in the program. "On Feb. 14 we served only 15 people. On Mother's Day there were more than 30 who came for dinner."

St. Mary's, Mrs. Koch said, was a perfect location for the home-made meal idea. "St. Mary's was more than willing to let us use their kitchen and there was very little that had to be done to bring the kitchen up to standards required for meal preparation," she said.

"Not only was St. Mary's supportive in our program but they were generous enough to share the cost of installing the sinks which were needed to meet county guidelines," Mrs. Koch said.

Other help for the program was provided by an Ann Arbor appliance store who donated two refrigerators. "A Chelsea store offered to help us with the refrigerators but it didn't have them in stock and we needed them right away," she said. "What does it take to feed a hungry family of 30 or 35 every day, five days a week? 'A little help from my friends,' Mrs. Koch answered.

For a tempting meal of roast turkey with all the trimmings to be placed on the table, however, an enormous amount of planning, purchasing, and preparing must be co-ordinated not only in Chelsea but in Ann Arbor and Lansing.

"We plan meals weeks in advance of when we serve them," Mrs. Koch said. "Our greatest concern is that each meal is highly nutritious and appealing both in taste and looks," she added. To do this, she has a thick book of recipes from which to choose and the CSA in Ann Arbor has a nutritionist and dietitian who carefully checks each meal for nutritional balance. Menus are then approved by a staff in Lansing.

Mrs. Koch does virtually all the food purchasing from stores in Chelsea which provide a discount and from Chelsea Milling Co. which also sells below retail prices.

Helping with the meal preparation itself are paid staff members, Mrs. Koch and Donna Williams, and "at least two members of the Nutrition Program sign up every day to volunteer in the kitchen," Mrs. Koch said.

"I have never had to cook for such a large number before and it certainly has made a better cook out of me," Mrs. Koch said while lowering the flames under a kettle of beans with one hand, turning the oven on with her other, giving directions to the volunteers, and telling her story all at the same time.

"There is always something I have to remember to do like making a dish for a member who can't have fowl, or putting the water on for tea, or remembering to have something for diabetics," she said.

Holidays are always handy occasions to add a special touch to the program and for Mother's Day Wilhelm Dufrin, Lee Ferguson, Gale Gilson, and Elwin Barth roasted the turkey and personally dished out each dinner for the women.

While savoring such dishes as mashed potatoes and gravy, cranberry salad, stuffing, beefs, moist turkey, and bread and butter, Mrs. Koch was busy with a few surprises for the diners.

First on her list was recognizing the oldest and youngest mothers and grandmothers, and those with the most children and grandchildren. Brightly colored carnations were passed out to each woman, the men were applauded for the excellent meal, and for a finale, during a dessert of coffee and home-made lemon meringue pie, Mrs. Koch and Donna presented the women with a china cup and dish.

Currently, approximately 30 people partake in the program "but we can have up to 40 altogether," Mrs. Koch said. "When the program first started there was a lot of stigma attached to having a 'charity' program and I said so what if it is? Other places have it; why shouldn't Chelsea," Mrs. Koch said determinedly.

Although the funds for the program are provided through the OEO, "many who come here contribute what they can. If our time isn't included in the cost, each meal costs only about 70 cents. OEO, however, says that anyone who is over 60 is entitled to the meal without charge and anyone under 60 must pay $1.42," she explained.

In the years that the program has been in Chelsea "many of the unwarranted feelings about charity have disappeared and with our new home-cooked meals I think we will be around for a long time brightening up the lives of our senior citizens," Mrs. Koch added.
