New Firestone Retread Plant Open By July 1

With remodeling in its completion stages, the new Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., Inc., Retread Plant, 20401 Old US-12 W., is expected to begin limited production by July 1 according to plant manager Dale Maurer.

Proceedings to buy the Chelsea building began more than a year ago by the Akron, O., based Firestone Co. with purchase finalized last August. Since August, construction workers for the Hippopotamus Construction Co., Ann Arbor, have been redesigning the 16,000 sq. ft. building - knocking out walls, putting up walls, and laying floors - for its new use. The work has continued even through the winter months, Maurer said.

Approximately 20 workers are being sought for positions of truck drivers, plant work, and office help, while two or three employees from the Firestone Saginaw and Lansing retread plants, including Maurer, will relocate to the new location. "We are running ads now for hard working individuals looking for permanent employment," Maurer commented.

According to Maurer, the Chelsea location was chosen "because of its proximity to the Detroit area where there are many established Firestone outlets for retreaded tires."

The Chelsea plant will house equipment from both the recently closed Saginaw plant and the soon to be closed Lansing plant. "We are consolidating the two plants into Chelsea for more efficient operation," Maurer explained.

Although Maurer would not say what the anticipated revenue would be from the Chelsea operation, he did say that the "demand for retreaded tires is way above supply" which he explained was a result of the fact that "not all used tires are suitable for retreading. Car and truck tires that we retread must meet the 1972 Federal guidelines," he added.

The retread plant does not sell retail, Maurer said, only to established Firestone dealers. Currently Chelsea does not have an established outlet.

Maurer has worked for Firestone for 22 years in a number of locations, most recently as manager for the Lansing retread plant. While he is presently dividing his time evenly between Chelsea and Lansing, he will be moving to Chelsea soon and said he is "looking forward to moving back to a small town. I grew up in a small town but I've spent many years living in a large city; it'll be nice to move to Chelsea," he said.

PREVENTATIVE DENTAL CARE: More than 119 Chelsea students have signed up for the annual fluoride clinic sponsored by the Jaycee Auxiliary. Here, Laura Scriven, 4th grade student at North school, is examined by Dr. Robert Burns, Jr., DDS, in the Beach Middle school clinic. Laura will have her teeth cleaned by Jill Quackenbush, left, dental hygienist for the Michigan Department of Public Health, and a layer of fluoride will be applied. Assisting in the clinic is Mrs. Philip Hume, right. For optimum results, four visits are necessary to the 10-day clinic, according to Jaycee Auxiliary chairperson for the clinic Mrs. Robert Wheaton. According to statistics, sodium fluoride may reduce cavities by 40 percent if children receive regular treatments as preschoolers, 2nd, 5th, and 8th graders, Wheaton said.

Maintenance Millage OK'd By 22 Votes

Schumann, Snyder Named School Board Members

By a tight margin of 22 votes (three ballots were spoiled) 606 Chelsea voters gave approval to a 1/2-mill levy for major school facility maintenance. 584 voters said no to the request during Monday's election.

At the same time, two candidates out of five were chosen for the four-year terms available on the board of education. Receiving the most votes was Dale A. Schumann with 682, followed by Dr. Daniel T. Snyder with 526, Arthur E. Dils, Jr., with 378, Roger A. Graves with 315, and James E. Spencer with 254.

Voting was extremely tight, with only 1,193 out of approximately 4,500 registered voters casting ballots. Fred Mills, business manager for the school district, however, was "extremely pleased that the millage passed. We now have the means to begin needed repairs which in the long run will save the district money over the years," he commented.

Also commenting on the millage approval, Board President Robert Daniels said "while I am not surprised at the closeness of the approval, it is very satisfying to the board, school personnel, and many others that the millage passed. This will allow us to start work on the definite maintenance needs and to continue our investigation of federal funding for insulating the buildings," he said.

Elected to a four-year term on the school board, Dale Schumann said of the results, "I was particularly pleased that we had a number of good candidates and I guess I was just lucky to be elected." Schumann added that "I am concerned with the appearances of the schools and will put my priorities in straightening up the schools and have them as a model."

Another concern, Schumann said was "to see that teachers receive the equipment they need to do their job. It is important that they have the proper tools," he said.

Newly elected Dr. Daniel Snyder commented that he was "pleased with the outcome although with no great burning issues my election does not seem a question of claiming an actual victory."

"People made their choices on the basis of discussions during candidates night, and Teachers Association meetings," he said. Snyder made heavy use of door-to-door communications in and outside of the village which he said "was very useful in meeting the people of the area and in gaining their support."

Commenting on his priorities as a school board member, Snyder said "because recent years have focused on the pursuit of operating millage, sometimes with difficulty, I now feel it is time to forge ahead in other areas, including a curriculum review."

"With the coming of a new superintendent and having a new high school principal, the future should prove to be challenging for the entire school board," he said. (Continued on page three)

19 Teams Competing In Softball Leagues

Two weeks into the season, Chelsea Recreation Department adult softball leagues are in full swing with 15 slow pitch and four fast pitch teams vying for the title.

"Several teams have already shown themselves to be strong contenders for the championship," Andy Hurst said. In fast pitch, Ann Arbor Centerless and 3-D each won their first two games. On June 7, 3-D took an early lead behind timely hitting and the sharp pitching of Ken Schiller, but Centerless chipped away at the lead and won the game, 7-6, with two runs in the bottom of the seventh inning.

In slow pitch, six teams remain undefeated. McCalla's and Village Motors are each 3-0, and have dominated their games with large winning margins.

Jiffy Mix and Unadilla Store are both 2-0, while the Ann Arbor Eagles and Chelsea Bank-Greenhouse have all won their only game. Slow pitch games have featured a number of high scoring contests early in the season with the next one scheduled for Tuesday, June 20, when Village Motors hosts McCalla's at 7:30 p.m.

That same evening, Jiffy Mix meets Chelsea Bank-Greenhouse at 6 p.m.

Fast pitch games are played every Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m., while slow pitch games are on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 6 p.m.; 7:30 p.m., and 9 p.m. The two leagues alternate on Monday. The season will run until the end of July when league championship will be determined in a playoff.

Youth Arrested On Drug Charge

Jeffrey Johnson, 18, 17 Hickory Dr., Chelsea, was arrested Thursday, June 8 in Chelsea, on charges of delivery of a controlled substance, according to Chelsea police reports.

Arresting Johnson for allegedly selling approximately one ounce of marijuana was Chelsea officer Richard Walter. Johnson was arraigned before Judge Henry Arkinson in Dexter on June 9, and released on $1,000 personal recognizance bond.

According to Police Chief George Moranuck, the reported sale occurred on Wednesday, June 7, across from Utrog's Fun World, 137 Park St. Chelsea police, Moranuck said, had been keeping the area near Utrog's under observation "because of numerous complaints against people milling around outside Utrog's who were causing a nuisance."

Community Education Program Being Organized for Fall Start

Beginning next fall, Chelsea and surrounding area adults seeking to complete or begin requirements for a high school diploma will be able to do so through the newly established Community Education Program, Charles S. Cameron, superintendent for the school district announced.

In addition, area students of all ages will be asked for their input into the selection of classes which will be offered through the community education segment of the program.

A decision to initiate the program came during the board of education meeting, May 15. During that meeting, board approved the recommendation of Superintendent Cameron to institute a Community Education Program for 1978-79 and, at the same time, offered a contract to Jacquelyn Rogers as director of the program.

"I am anxious to begin working with community residents to identify academic, enrichment, and recreational needs to design the new program," Rogers commented.

Rogers explained that a Community Education program "primarily reflects the educational needs and desires of a particular community. The emphasis becomes one of instituting the lifelong learning philosophy of education via the use of public schools and other valuable community resources."

Currently, more than two-thirds of the 500 school districts in Michigan have full-scale Community Education programs. "Michigan remains the leader in this dynamic national movement in the field of education," Rogers said.

Specifically, the program components may include pre-school classes, classes co-ordinated through the recreation department, the senior citizen center, local civic organizations, and Washtenaw Community College, "and classes specifically asked for by the community," Rogers said.

"Of particular importance at this time is the creation and development of the Adult High School Completion Program. This is a tremendous opportunity for all adults, 18 years of age or older, to obtain a high school diploma," Rogers added.

According to Cameron, work on developing the program has continued over the past seven years by his attending various workshops and through his involvement with local county Community Education programs. "My observations and discussions with leaders in this area have convinced me that a program such as this would be extremely beneficial to our residents," Cameron commented.

Funding for the program will come from a variety of sources including a $10,000 grant from CETA, a $3,500 state reimbursement grant (an incentive payment for districts beginning the program for the first time), and state aid membership fees totalling $1,300 for every four students who enroll in classes.

"Once the program gets off the ground it is pretty much self supporting," Cameron said. In addition to regular state membership fees, the program will also have an enrollment fee which is paid by the student.

As director, Rogers will have the responsibility of enlisting the suggestions of class offerings through a summer ad campaign in the area, as well as the hiring of certified teachers for all classes. Rogers is presently completing a specialist degree and professional Mott Internship at Eastern Michigan University's Center for Community Education. Prior to the internship, Rogers was a Community School Co-ordinator for Bedford Public Schools. She will assume her responsibility on July 1.

Rogers added that a full-time secretarial position will be available July 1. Applicants must be currently unemployed and a resident of Washtenaw county, she said. To apply, call Fred Mills at the Chelsea school district for an interview. Responsibilities include typing and office management. Hours during the fall and winter will be in the afternoon and evening, and daytime hours during the summer.

Jeff Daniels Now in New York Hit Play

The play has won a New York Drama Desk Award Nomination for the best play of 1978 and reviews have been very favorable for the most part with Rex Reed of the "Gong Show" calling it "the best play in town! . . . If you care anything at all about the art of the American Theatre, you'd be insane to miss it!"

Performed by the Circle Repertory Company, "The 5th of July" is about a fourth of July week-end in Missouri on the farm of Vietnam veteran Ken Tally. Jed, his housemate, is turning some of the (Continued on page three)

In addition to offering adults 18 and over an opportunity to complete requirements for a high school diploma, the

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR: Just when we think the Federal Government has figured out all the ways to tax money out of us and to give our money away along comes a whole new crop of ideas. Ed Doolittle reported to the fellers at the country store Saturday night where the U.S. Department of Energy has got a deal that puts plain giveaways in the shade. That outfit now is giving grants to hire experts to get more grants, Ed said.

If this ain't perpetual motion, Ed said at least it's the same as Bert Lance's trick of borrowing money to use to borrow more money, and the greenback grows round and round. The Energy Department wants to give $10,000 to small companies to use to hire people to do the paperwork on applying for research grants on electric cars.

Now that the Government has worked but a way to work both sides of the grantsmanship street, Ed said they got to work on new ways to get it back. Ever time you pick up the paper you see where our elected officials is trying to find somepon new to tax, and all they got to do is look around. He had saw where just about all the Federal departments and agencies have got people they keep paying for doing nothing because it's cheaper to keep em on the payroll than to go through the hassle of firing em.

There's a good chance, Ed went on, that we'd be better off paying Congress to do nothing, but since the lawmakers are dead set on making laws he had a couple to suggest. One is a law that makes it a crime not to burn, shred or otherwise destroy newspapers more than two weeks old. This would calm taxpayers that are forever running onto old campaign promises. This law would put the country in a mood for the next one, Ed said, where the Department of Commerce would make everybody go to bed for a week ever year. We would stop consuming and producing, the economy and tempers could cool down, supply and demand could even out and everybody could live happily ever after.

Actual, Mister Editor, Ed said he don't give his laws a chance in Congress, but they wouldn't git much static from the rest of us. We would look at paying taxes to work to pay taxes like we do grants to git grants. We accept it all as our way of life. We're like the dog that was pestered so much by kids tying cans to his tail that he got to the place ever time he saw a tin can he would back up to it like a mule, gitting hitched to a plow. He thought that come with being a dog.

Yours truly, Uncle Lew.

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley has gone to bat for the consumers again, this time declaring that a scheduled rate increase for about 20 percent of the subscribers for Blue Cross-Blue Shield should be cancelled or scaled down.

The proposed higher rates, amounting to a total of about $31 million, are scheduled to become effective July 1, if approved by Jones. The Insurance Bureau, Department of Commerce, has recommended approval.

Kelley said the entire Blues rate structure should be subject to a full review by the commissioner. "It is clear that these rates could have an enormous impact on the economic well-being of this state. I consider it imperative that a matter of such importance to the subscribers and the general economic welfare of the state be carefully considered in an evidentiary hearing requiring cross-examination of witnesses," Kelley said.

He added his office will review the financial data and cross-examine company and staff witnesses on the reasonableness and necessity of the rate hike.

Illegal Weapons Use of sawed-off shotguns and rifles would be punishable under bill recently passed by the Michigan House. Persons convicted of manufacturing, selling or concealing a sawed-off weapon could be sentenced to as much as five years in prison and/or fined $2,500.

The weapons, made literally by sawing down a shotgun or rifle barrel, are considered extremely deadly by law enforcement officers. The weapons are allegedly popular with members of organized crime.

Sponsor Rep. Mark Clodfelter (D-Flint) said he believes the vast majority of leases currently in existence in the state contain at least one provision.

He said the main goal of the legislation is compliance. "People are unaware of their rights, and if they dispute something, they go along with the lease because they think it is signed and binding," he said.

The bill requires all new leases to contain a warning to tenants advising them that the lease must comply with state law and that questions about legality of any provision should be referred to an attorney or other expert.

Tenants are given the right to demand a landlord correct the lease containing an unenforceable clause and go to court seeking $250 in damages should the landlord refuse to do so within 20 days.

It further permits a court to dissolve a lease agreement if an unenforceable clause is included. Tenants could recover $500 in damages if the landlord violated clear and explicit provisions of the law and refused to make corrections.

If the violation was not a clear violation of explicit law—something the tenant must prove—the landlord could be subject to the $250 penalty just once when several tenants are involved, but must correct all leases. For clear violations, the 20-day grace period may be waived and each tenant can bring separate actions for damages.

Blue Cross Rates Attorney General Frank J. Kelley has gone to bat for the consumers again, this time declaring that a scheduled rate increase for about 20 percent of the subscribers for Blue Cross-Blue Shield should be cancelled or scaled down.

Kelley said he wants to challenge the rate hike at a hearing before Insurance Commissioner Thomas Jones. A hearing has not yet been scheduled.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,
The good people of Chelsea spent a long evening the other week-end toasting and roasting my Uncle Charlie Cameron on the occasion of his having survived 41 years as their coach, principal, and school superintendent. Everything they said about him was the truth—that I am confident. Many of the speakers said he would be missed. I hope they know how much they will miss him. But here's the rest of the story that did not get told. Uncle Charlie and Aunt Ruth, besides all the good they did in Chelsea in the last four decades, have been loyal, loving standbys of a large and scattered family. They have shown up at every family reunion, wake, christening, first communion, confirmation, ordination, wedding, anniversary and retirement party in the extended and dispersed Cameron family since FDR's third inauguration. Ruth's family, the Sinclairs, got the same treatment. Remember Aunt Florence? She was an aging relative of Ruth's who was made welcome in the Chelsea Cameron's home off and on for some significant number of years. And now Ruth's mother, too. From my late mother (Charlie's younger sister) and father, I learned something about the depth to which love can go. From Uncle Charlie and Aunt Ruth I learned how constant over years and decades love and care can be. So, Chelsea; I thought you ought to know the rest of the story. Maybe now you know the reason nearly 20 of us showed up for the dinner. (We were that tough-looking bunch up front.) We love Charlie and Ruth, too. They taught us a lot about how to love. Harry T. Cook, II.

Delegates elected to attend the national convention in Dallas, Tex., in August were Eulahlee Packard and Bessie Sharp; alternate delegates are Mary Kniss and Elizabeth Smith.

Reports were given by the District delegates on the District No. 6 activity held on May 21 in Chelsea. A joint planning meeting will be held in Brighton on July 16 to formulate activities for the 1978-79 year for both VFW posts and the auxiliaries.

July 15 has been the date chosen for the local auxiliary to celebrate the 33rd anniversary with a pot-luck supper, followed by a short program in the VFW hall at 6:30 p.m.

Local VFW post is sponsoring a Lite-A-Bike program Saturday, June 17, at the Chelsea Fire Station parking lot. Auxiliary members will serve cool drinks to all participating bicyclists.

A caravan of post and auxiliary members are forming to motor to the National Home on July 9 to attend the National Home carnival. Those attending should take a picnic lunch.

A group of children from the National Home will arrive on June 20 to enjoy a spaghetti dinner at the local VFW hall enroute to a baseball game.

The next regular meeting will be July 10 at 8 p.m. in the hall. Buddy Poppy chairman Lucy Piatt gave a report of the May 19 poppy sales, stating results were gratifying and expressed appreciation to the workers and the public for their support.

back acres into an English garden when old friend's of Ken's arrive for the week-end.

Ken offers his friends a chance to buy the farmhouse so that he and Jed can travel but Jed would rather keep the house. So would Jed's aunt Sally who also arrived at the farm to spread her late husband's ashes somewhere on the grounds.

Aunt Sally has been carrying the ashes around in a candy box since he died a year ago.

Ken's friends agree to buy the house, which forces Ken to make a decision between selling the house or not, between the celebration and the going on, and, in the end, passes up his friend's offer and commits himself to a future at the farmhouse with Jed. Aunt Sally spreads her husband around the rosebushes.

Parents are asked to check their child's bike for a current license which may be purchased from the Chelsea Police Department. Licenses are due in June and cost 50 cents.

"With vacation from school and many bikes on the streets, the safety of our town's children is very important to us all," Heldt said.

Free Pamphlet Explains Details of Medicare Program

Health insurance is one item in the budget that can save you money. But up until a few years ago, older people had a hard time either getting or affording health insurance. Then came Medicare. It provides low-cost health insurance through the Social Security system.

To help you understand this program, the Social Security Administration has published a pamphlet called A Brief Explanation of Medicare. For your free copy, send a postcard to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 685F, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

What is Medicare?

It is a health insurance program under social security that helps Americans 65 and older and many severely disabled people under 65 to pay the high cost of medical care. It has two parts, hospital insurance and medical insurance.

Practically everyone over 65 is eligible for both hospital and medical insurance. And Medicare is also available to those under 65: if they are disabled and have been entitled to social security or railroad disability benefits for two consecutive years or more, or they need dialysis treatments or a kidney transplant because of permanent kidney failure and are insured under social security or railroad retirement.

You don't have to retire to get the hospital insurance protection. Even if you keep working you will be covered if you have worked long enough under the social security system. To find out if you are eligible, check with your social security office about three months before you reach 65. And if you haven't been under the social security or railroad retirement system, you can get this coverage by paying a monthly premium.

The hospital insurance benefits help pay the cost of up to 90 days of in-patient care in any participating hospital for each benefit period. A benefit period starts when you have been out of the hospital or any other facility providing skilled nursing care or physical rehabilitation service more than 60 days. There is no limit to the number of benefit periods you can have.

There is a reserve of 60 additional in-patient hospital days if you ever need more than the 90 days. However, each reserve day you use permanently reduces the number of reserve days you have left. Under certain conditions, the insurance also covers up to 100 days in a skilled nursing facility and up to 100 home health visits from a home health agency per benefit period.

To help cover doctor's costs, there is Medicare medical insurance. It pays 80 percent of doctor's costs and many other costs after an initial $80 annual deductible. For this you pay a small monthly premium, $7.70 a month until June 30, 1978, and $8.20 a month for the year beginning July 1.

To learn more about these insurance plans and the benefits they give, get a copy of the pamphlet, A Brief Explanation of Medicare (free). At the same time you will get a copy of the Consumer Information Catalog that lists more than 200 other free or low-cost federal publications of consumer interest. The free Catalog is published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration.

Hits Move on Beef Imports

The president of the Michigan Farm Bureau, Elton R. Smith, Thursday, June 8, blasted President Carter's decision to increase beef imports. Smith called it a "stupid, short-sighted decision that would have very little effect on consumer beef prices, but a disastrous impact on agriculture."

Smith pointed out that the U.S. Department of Agriculture has admitted that the extra imports will only serve consumers a few pennies a pound on the retail price of beef. "So why did the Carter administration take this action that will only serve to lower the price of beef producers receive?" he asked.

"Our beef producers have just suffered through four years of ruinously low prices. Now, just when the beef industry is getting back on its feet, the President wants to pull the rug out." Smith said that farmers appreciate the idea that Carter is trying to do something about inflation. "But allowing more foreign beef into the U.S.," he said, "is a penny-wise, dollar-foolish decision. It saves consumers a few pennies now, but will cost consumers many dollars in the long run by decreasing supplies of American-grown beef."

A TRIBUTE TO THE BIBLE

This book contains—the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, doom sinners and happiness of believers. Its doctrines are holy, its precepts are binding, its histories are true and its decisions immutable. Read it to be wise, believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you. It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, the Christian's charter. Here paradise is restored, heaven opened, and the gates of hell disclosed. Christ is its grand subject, our good its design and the glory of God its end. It should fill the memory, rule the heart and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently, and prayerfully. It is a mine of wealth, a paradise of glory and a river of pleasure. It is given you in life, will be opened at the judgment and remembered forever. It involves the highest responsibility, rewards the greatest labor . . . —Anon.

Program for Gifted Students Renewed

A second grant of $17,000 has been approved by the Michigan State Board of Education for the 1978-79 Chelsea North school Projects Room for Academically Talented children, the state board announced recently.

Chelsea began its program last November as an outlet for talented 1st through 5th graders at North school. "It is a pilot project and funding is provided yearly for three years by the state," Robert Benedict, North school principal and director of the project said. "After three years, funding becomes the responsibility of the local school district, if the project is decided to be continued," he explained.

Last year 45 students participated in the program which is designed to elevate interests in four basic areas including math and science, creative arts, language arts, and humanities.

Classes are co-ordinated by Mrs. Charles Miller although a special aspect of the program is the use of outside talent, including parents and teachers, Benedict explained. "Children were involved in a variety of projects in astronomy, sculpture, chess, newspaper writing, and science," Benedict said. "In the science class, they created dinosaurs out of lumber and papier mache and then recorded their procedures on tape," he added.

Selection of students is based on teacher and parent observations and recommendations, and by results of the Stanford Achievement Test. To qualify for the grant, a yearly report is submitted to the state, evaluating student accomplishments. "Our report is based on a survey of student and parent attitudes toward the project and school in general," Benedict explained.

Benedict added that only minor revisions in next year's program will be made in scheduling adjustments.

Chelsea belongs to a growing number of school districts with programs for gifted students. Funds are provided by the state legislature which sets aside $250,000 each year with about $132,000 of this amount expected to be spent on new projects to begin next fall.

"We have always been convinced that the pursuit of educational excellence is as important as equality of educational opportunity," State Superintendent of Public Instruction John W. Porter said. "These programs for the gifted allow our more advanced students to explore their own creativity and to realize their full potential," he added.

Al Nixon Seeks Guinness Golfing Record

With a life-long ambition as inspiration and a father as his caddy, Al Nixon, a 1961 Chelsea High school grad, is off to set a new record for the Guinness Book of Records by playing golf in all 48 of the continental United States in nearly 35 days.

Accompanying Al is his father, Homer, who lived in Chelsea until 1977 when he moved to Lantana, Fla.

Nixon says he will play nine holes of golf at each of the 48 stops along the 8,000 mile tour. He and his father will travel by car and stay in motels along the way.

A nine handicapper for nine holes, Nixon has been playing golf for 15 years. "It has been a long-time dream that golf can be played in all 48 states in under 40 days," he said.

They left Sunday, June 11 from his Kimball Lake home near Newaygo. He is a school teacher in Grant, where he has taught for 12 years.

Hospital Emergency Sign Reported Stolen

An "Emergency" sign for the Chelsea Community Hospital, located on M-52 and valued at approximately $500, was discovered missing Sunday, June 11, according to Chelsea police reports.

"Construction workers for Michigan Bell had disconnected the electrical sign and set it aside while working in the area. On Sunday the sign was missing," Chief Meranuck said.

The sign is approximately four feet long, one foot wide and eight inches thick.

Aikido Self-Defense Class Offered

A class in the scientific Japanese art of self-defense, Aikido, will be taught by Bob Goyer, Chelsea school psychologist. The class will begin Monday, June 19, and is offered as a program of the Chelsea Recreation Council, with instruction supervised through the Aikido Yoshinkan Association of North America.

Aikido, like Judo and Karate, is a martial art, but differs in philosophy and technique. Many Americans think of the martial arts as "fighting," yet their real goal is to help develop a person's character and to enable him to protect himself without injuring the other person. Aikido means "The Way of Harmony." It is purely defensive, involves no hitting or kicking and no attack. It does not meet force with force, but guides an attacker's strength and momentum so that he is thrown or pinned in a graceful and almost effortless way.

Aikido is a perfect form of self-defense for women, older people, or those who are not unusually strong. It depends not upon muscles, but upon developing a sense of co-ordination, timing, speed, balance, and the ability to remain calm under stress. Medical authorities have described Aikido as the most scientific of the martial arts. Because of its scientifically-based effectiveness and because of its ability to subdue and control a violent person without injuring him, it is widely used by police departments around the world. It has been widely used by the Tokyo Police Department's Riot Control Squad, by the FBI, and by many local police departments in Michigan such as Wyandotte and Jackson.

ESCROW

One word used frequently in real estate matters but not too well understood by the layman is the word "ESCROW."

This word normally pops its head with regard to "deposit" or "earnest money" paid at time of signing a purchase and sales agreement. This deposit is held in "escrow" or a "trustee" account until the closing. The word "ESCROW" may occur again at the culmination of the sale of a home if any of the terms of the purchase and sales agreement are incomplete. This sum of money is placed in the hands of an impartial party (usually the attorney or the bank) by one party of the transaction and is not released to the other party until he meets specific conditions. For example, if there is painting or landscaping to be completed at the time of the closing, the money for this work can be held in escrow until it is completed. In this way, the passing of title will not be held up until the job is completed, yet both parties are protected.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 835 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Chiropractor Will Walk to White House

Chelsea Chiropractor Dr. Jerald Flinn will be joining several thousand other doctors in Washington, D.C. shortly to participate in a "walk for your health rights."

From June 30 to July 4, some 7,800 doctors of chiropractic are expected to attend a research seminar and prepare a petition for delivery to the White House. The doctors and their families, assistants and patients will stage a walk from the Capitol to the White House to deliver a petition bearing several million signatures obtained in chiropractic offices across the country.

The petition reads: "We, the following concerned American citizens, petition you, our President, senators and congressmen, to support and vote for a freedom of choice of doctors and health care; the freedom to have full and complete chiropractic health care provided us just as medical, surgical and osteopathic care is provided in all programs such as national health and accident insurance, Medicare, Medicaid and Veterans Administration and Civil Service."

In addition to participating in the walk to the White House, Dr. Flinn will attend classes on the latest work being done in the chiropractic profession. Joining the doctor will be his wife, Pat, daughter Larie, mother-in-law Evelyn Marshall, and his assistant, Joan Ernst, C.A.

WAITING FOR THE TRAIN: Nearly 83 third graders from South school and 23 teachers and parents waited patiently for the Amtrak train to take them to Ann Arbor on Wednesday afternoon, June 7. Some dressed in pioneer costumes, the group first arrived at the Chelsea station with their picnic lunches where the train was to make a special stop at 12:43 p.m. A delayed train, however, postponed the trip until approximately 1:20 but "everything went fine, the kids were thrilled and so were some of the parents who had never been on a train before," third grade teacher Mrs. David Prohaska said. When the train didn't show the first time, everyone went back to school to eat their lunches and returned to board the train a half hour later. "The only real problem was that the trip was too short," Mrs. Prohaska said. Because of the tardy train, the group immediately boarded Chelsea buses when they arrived in Ann Arbor and returned to Chelsea. The field trip was one part of a series of week-long activities which centered around the theme of American pioneer days.

LEGISLATIVE LOG

An Overview of Action on Bills
In the Michigan Legislature
Week of June 5-9

In the Senate . . .

Members of the Senate spent a majority of their time this week discussing amendments to the controversial lobbyist bill and to the proposed Public Health Code, moving both measures into position for a final vote, likely to be taken next week.

The lobbyist bill was amended to establish a $4,500 limit on campaign contributions from lobbyists to Senate members, and to prohibit public officials from soliciting campaign donations from lobbyists. Defeated, however, was an amendment which would have prohibited former legislators and their staffs from becoming lobbyists.

The Public Health Code, which would codify all of Michigan's public health statutes into one massive document, was amended to include lesser penalties for the use and possession of small amounts of marijuana. Attempts to prohibit fetal research and to allow local units of government to decide whether fluoride should be put in their drinking water went down to defeat, however.

The Senate also voted to concur in House amendments to a bill authorizing tax incentives for the renovation of blighted business districts in Michigan cities. That bill was ordered enrolled by the House.

In Senate committee action this week, the Appropriations Committee held daily sessions to consider the remaining budget bills for the upcoming fiscal year. Reported from other Senate committees this week were measures to: provide assistance for victims of spouse abuse; establish a toll-free telephone line to the Michigan Consumers Council; require agricultural land to be assessed upon the basis of its production capability, rather than its commercial sale value; and to allow warrantless arrests of persons who are involved in accidents if they appear to be under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

In the House . . .

Funding for county sheriff's departments and loans for farmers who have suffered losses due to chemical contamination were the two major issues topping the House calendar this week. House member approved the Senate-passed bill authorizing an appropriation of $12.5 million for county sheriffs to beef up their patrols on secondary roads in Michigan, and sent the bill back to the Senate for concurrence in minor House amendments. The House also approved, and sent to the Senate for its review, a bill providing loans of up to $75,000 for farmers whose livelihood has been damaged by chemical contamination, but who have no legal recourse for compensation.

Also passed by the House this week, and sent to the Senate, were measures which would amend the State Constitution by allowing the Governor to fill a vacated lieutenant governor's seat, and require the inspection of passenger vans and station wagons used to transport pupils. Senate-passed bills permitting the use of the metric system for commercial purposes and in computing the motor fuel tax were also approved by the House this week. The controversial marijuana decriminalization bill was tabled, however, and a proposed constitutional amendment guaranteeing citizens' right to privacy was referred to committee for further study.

Placed into position for a final vote in the House, perhaps as early as next week, were bills to fund battered spouse abuse centers in the state; regulate waste bins; and prohibit penalties and interest on deferred property taxes.

House committees approved several major budget bills for the upcoming fiscal year, and reported bills which would: allow and regulate ratemaking; create a state energy agency; establish a home weatherization program; and provide tax credits for utility payments.

From the Governor . . .

Governor Milliken signed into law a series of bills this week requiring various boards and commissions in the state to comply with the Open Meetings Law, and a package of measures requiring insurance companies to provide a 180-day notice when they plan to cancel auto, homeowners, or liability insurance. The insurance-related bills are designed to give the Legislature time to develop a comprehensive approach to insurance redlining.

In addition, he approved legislation allowing utility companies to loan customers' money to insulate their homes and to install approved fuel-conservation devices. Prior to passage, the bill was the subject of heated debate among legislators, some of whom felt it would help promote energy conservation, and others who viewed it as a welfare program which will penalize those who have already insulated their homes on their own.

In other Executive News, the Governor announced that $3.5 million has been allocated to various state and local agencies to hire youths for the summer, and urged the federal government to reconsider its order prohibiting Canadian sport and commercial fishermen from angling in U.S. waters.

Governor Milliken spent the latter part of the week conducting a four-day tour of Europe to promote Michigan as a location for new business. While there, he announced that 70 investors from Germany and the United Kingdom expressed an interest in investing in Michigan.

Many Unusual Means of Travel Offered Throughout Michigan

Traveling in Michigan can be as offbeat as floating in a hot air balloon, a trip by chairlift, hang gliding or riding a driverless, people mover, reports Automobile Club of Michigan.

For a journey into the past, take a paddle wheel boat cruise or try a ride on a steam engine, horse-drawn carriage, Model T or old-fashioned trolley car.

To explore the world of hot air ballooning, contact one of three Southeast Michigan firms. Trips covering about eight miles and lasting up to two hours cost between $75 and $150 for one person. If the pilot carries two passengers in the wicker basket, the cost varies from $50 to $87.50 each.

Reservations may be made by calling Balloon Corp. of America, Flint (313-767-2120); Cameron Balloons US, Ann Arbor (313-985-0111), or HighAmerica Ballooncenter, Rochester (313-852-0666).

A ride on the 810-foot chairlift to the summit of Copper Peak, the ski flying hill near Ironwood, offers a view of Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota forests contrasted against the blue water of Lake Superior. For information call (906) 932-3500.

For a different view of Lake Michigan, take hang gliding lessons at Warren Dunes State Park near Bridgman. A day's lesson from the Midwest School of Hang Gliding (616-426-3100) costs $50 and entails being strapped into a harness attached to a 30-foot-wide sail, then being coaxed off a 20-foot training slope for a try at soaring.

The computer-controlled electric people mover linking Dearborn's Fairlane Town Center shopping complex and the Hyatt Regency Hotel glides over 2,600 feet of elevated guideway in less than two minutes. There is no charge to ride the orange and white cars, which operate daily year-around.

Dearborn's Greenfield Village (313-271-1620) offers several rides from the past. They include a 10-minute spin in a chauffered Model T car, a 45-minute horse-drawn carriage tour, a ride on a train pulled by an 1875 steam engine and a cruise aboard the Swanee, a restored 1883 paddle wheel riverboat.

Other paddle wheel boat rides include the Westwood River Queen (616-363-5104), which makes two-hour cruises on the Grand River at Grand Rapids, and the Au Sable River Queen Boats (517-728-9871 or 739-7351), west of Oscoda at Foote and Five Channels dams.

The Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority (313-961-5865) can supply information about its paddle wheelers—the Dixie Belle at Metro Beach Metropark near Mount Clemens and the Island Queen at Kensington Metropark near Milford.

On Mackinac Island, where motor vehicles are banned, visitors can take a 1½-hour circle tour by horse-drawn carriage.

Other Michigan railroad attractions include the Boyne Valley Railroad (616-582-2232), which makes a 7.2-mile run between Boyne City and Boyne Falls, and the steam fired Huckleberry Railroad (313-785-7803 or 736-7100), which passengers board at the Davison Depot in Historical Crossroads Village near Flint for a 9.5-mile round trip through Genesee Recreation Area.

Passengers on the Soo Locks Tour Trains (906-635-5912) ride into Canada across the International Bridge. A close-up view of the locks is provided by the Soo Locks Boat Tours (906-632-6301 or 632-2512), which pass right through the world's busiest and longest locks.

Another way to Canada is by excursion boat from Detroit to Bob-Lo Island in the Detroit River. Boats to the Canadian recreation island sail several times daily from Memorial Day week-end through Labor Day.

Passengers and autos may travel by ferry across the St. Clair River to Canada or across Lake Michigan to Wisconsin. Almost continuous ferry service is offered daily between these points: Algona and Walpole Island-Wallaceburg, Ont.; Marine City and Sombra, Ont.; and Roberts Landing and Port Lambton, Ont.

To get from Michigan to Wisconsin, take the Chessie System Autoferry (313-552-5000), Detroit, 616-456-9801, Grand Rapids, and 616-843-2521, Ludington from Ludington to Milwaukee, Manitowac and Kewaunee or ride the Ann Arbor car ferry (800-632-0972) from Frankfort to Kewaunee. Both services operate year-around with regularly scheduled trips only during summer.

While the trip across Lake Michigan takes several hours, the Ironton Ferry crossing of Lake Charlevoix from Ironton to Boyne City takes less than five minutes. The ferry is pulled across the lake on cables, and the ride costs just 50 cents.

For 25 cents, visitors to downtown Detroit can ride the old-fashioned trolley car which runs up and down Washington Boulevard between Grand Circus Park and Cobo Hall.

For a ride up and down desert-like Lake Michigan sand dunes, try Goshorn Lake Dune Schooner Rides near Holland (616-857-2253) or Sleeping Bear Sand Dunes Rides near Glen Haven (616-334-3191).

Former CHS Student Graduates With Honors At Satellite Beach, Fla.

Colleen Nusca, a former CHS student, returned to Chelsea from Florida this past week to visit with friends and to attend the local graduation ceremonies. A 1978 graduate of Satellite Beach (Florida) High school, Colleen will attend Beloit College in Beloit, Wis., and major in pre-law and languages. She was recently selected as a Beloit Presidential Scholar for the Class of 1982, an award given in recognition of "academic attainments, leadership ability, and service to school and community." Ten of these four-year scholarships were awarded nation-wide by Beloit.

Colleen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Nusca of Satellite Beach, Fla., who formerly resided in Chelsea.

Donald A. Roth, Community Relations Manager, Ann Arbor, reminds you:

There are things you can do to control the cost of your phone bill.

We are constantly searching for ways to help you economize on your phone service, but here are just a few ideas on how you can help yourself:

Call when it's least expensive. For example, when you're calling long distance, dial direct and plan your calls for times when the rates are lowest.

Budget Service that's really low budget! Look into the availability of Budget Service if you don't make a lot of phone calls every month. It's the least expensive one-or-two party phone service we offer.

Plan to have all your service installed in one visit. For instance, if you move, plan carefully so the installer doesn't have to make extra trips, for which you may have to pay additional charges. And while you're planning for new service, make sure it's going to be the kind most suited to your needs.

Sometimes, little tips can save you a surprising amount over the long haul. We'll keep trying to help you save.
