Barbecue, Ice Cream Social Fireworks Set

Chelsea Fairgrounds promises to be the area's hot spot Tuesday, July 4, as members of the Herbert J. McKune Post No. 31 of the American Legion turn their talents to the roasting of 1,500 chicken halves and the explosion of more than $1,700 worth of fireworks.

Beginning the celebration of Independence Day at noon on Tuesday, Legion grilling pits will become a production line of hot, juicy, perfectly roasted chicken served with cole slaw, rolls, and chips for a modest price.

Dining facilities will be provided in the Chelsea Fairgrounds Service Center, or the boxed lunches may be ordered for take-out. A variety of beverages will also be available. Legion members will serve food until the last chicken is gone.

To complete the meal, an ice cream social will commence at 7 p.m. with cake and ice cream followed by an extensive fireworks display, shared in cost by the American Legion and Kiwanis Club.

Chief Chef Jim Gaken will supervise the barbecue pits and John Popovich will organize and direct the fireworks display.

St. Paul Pastor Named to WCS Board Crew of 33 Youths Involved in WORC Conservation Program

The Rev. R. J. Ratzlaff, pastor of St. Paul United Church of Christ, was recently elected to the Washtenaw County Community Services Board.

This board of directors is part of the non-profit organization designed to assist and counsel people who need help with various personal problems.

With approximately 300 Human Service Agencies in Washtenaw county offering assistance, many persons do not know which agency to contact for help. WCS takes the guesswork away as it is a central diagnostic resource and helps diagnose the individual's problem and aids in directing the person to the proper agency.

A professional staff, under the direction of Administrator Sylvester Coleman, Jr., works from the office at 2301 Platt Rd., Ann Arbor.

The service offered by this agency is open to any employee working in Washtenaw county. Helping persons diagnose their problems early and giving help as needed is the main concern of the service.

The board of directors of WCS consists of interested citizens and professionals involved in counseling services. Margaret Kuhl, personnel specialist and registered (Continued on page three)

Knowing a good thing when they see it, the Village of Chelsea and the Chelsea School District applied for a second year of funding for the Department of Natural Resources WORC (Work Opportunity Resource Corporation) project and received $32,557.

"We asked for double that amount this year but received less than half of what we wanted. Last year we were allocated $37,746, more than 50 percent of what we asked for," Ken Larson, program supervisor, said.

One reason, Larson cited, for the decrease from last year's grant "is because more towns applied for money this year. Chelsea was one of only a few communities who knew about the project last year and applied for funds right away. This year more places caught on to the project and received money."

Now in its second year, WORC was approved by the Michigan State Legislature in June, 1977 to the tune of $5 million. This year, another $5 million was allocated to the Department of Natural Resources for distribution to state municipalities.

"The key to the program is the kids," Larson said. "They learn not only an appreciation of their natural environment, but work skills, and a pride in their work and community," he commented.

More than 33 Chelsea youths, out of 108 applicants, and four supervisors, in addition to Larson and a full time secretary have been hired for restoration and conservation work in the community.

13 of the youths participated in the project last year as did the four supervisors, Jeanne Welton, John Grosser, Craig Coltrane, Sam Vogel, and director Ken Larson. A fifth supervisor from last year, Dave Nicewicz, moved from Chelsea recently.

According to the DNR guidelines, workers must be between the ages of 15 and 21, a resident of Michigan, and unemployed when hired. Minimum wage of $2.65 an hour is paid to workers for a 40-hour week from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday if weather permits. Supervisors are paid $5 an hour. No one may work more than 10 weeks.

With an already substantial list of accomplishments from last year, the 1978 WORC crew have an equally impressive list of "to-do" and completed projects this year.

"These kids are doing a super bang-up job and we are way ahead of schedule on a number of jobs," Larson said.

On the completed list is Veterans Park which received an extensive overhaul of the playground equipment and a cleaning up of Letts Creek, and a rebuilding of a retaining wall.

"We made repairs to a bridge which was broken at one end and completed work on a retaining wall which we had begun last year. We also repaired playground fixtures, picnic tables, and benches, and stained everything," Larson explained. "Then we jumped into the creek and cleaned out all the glass, trash, and debris that had accumulated," he added.

Larson said that only 15 percent of the total WORC project grant can be spent on tools, grass seed, shrubs, or miscellaneous equipment. "For the Veterans Park project the village supplied the stain and we supplied the labor," he said.

The village is also helping through its purchase of a pick-up truck which it is renting to WORC for use during the summer.

Leaving through his two typed pages of work orders for the summer, Larson next described the finishing work now in process on Pierce Park.

"Last year we began the reclaiming of nearly 300 feet of the park, clearing out small trees and brush. Now we are fixing drainage ditches there and digging out 'ree' stumps. By the end of the summer we will have hauled in top soil and seeded the area with grass to probably double the size of the park," Larson said.

Two other projects being completed from last year include the high school athletic field and nature trails at Beach Middle school.

At the high school a work crew of eight youths are clearing the grounds of weeds, fixing and painting the bleachers both on the baseball diamonds and football fields, and clearing out brush in a 90-foot

Jaycees Sponsoring Garden Tractor Pull

Chelsea Area Jaycees, in conjunction with the American Legion will be holding a Garden Tractor Pulling Contest on Tuesday, July 4th. It will be held at the Chelsea Fairgrounds beginning at 9 a.m.

Rules and regulations for the contest are as follows:

1. Please read general rules and regulations.
2. Contest is open to rubber wheel type compact tractors, not home-made.
3. A $5 entry fee will be charged at time of weigh-in for each tractor.

5. Drivers under 18 years of age must have written consent from parents before weigh-in.
6. Horsepower will be determined by model of tractor and engine. Tractor and engine with no model area all the way up to first base on the baseball diamond.

Six new nature trails through the nature center at Beach school are also being completed. "The trails start on the Beach school side and go into the nature center where they all connect. They may be used by the public and the school science classes," Larson explained.

"The WORC crew has cleared out an area around the pond for closer observation of the wild life there," Larson added.

"The benefits from a program like this go way beyond the physical restorations of the community," Larson commented. "From my observations youths are provided a work opportunity when nothing else was available, and learn good work habits and pick up valuable skills. Most importantly, I think there is a mutual restoration of confidence in the community towards the youths and the youths in their community. I see the program creating a positive attitude all the way around," Larson commented.

Future projects to be undertaken by the four crews of eight workers each include repairing playground equipment at both elementary schools in addition to general conservation work on the school properties. "There are many nails on the playground fixtures that could possibly hurt someone and there are also several rocks (Continued on page four)

4 Years Ago...

Thursday, July 4, 1974—Chelsea High school building trades house at 761 Flanders St. has been sold to Our Savior Lutheran church, 1615 S. Main St., for use as a parsonage. Chelsea firemen assisted Monday night at a fire at the Park Rd. farm at Albert Haack that destroyed two barns and a hog shed. The blaze was not under control until six hours after it started at nearly 5 p.m. Warming the hearts of opponents to Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority's plans for a Mill Creek metropolitan park, State Senator Gilbert E. Bursley and Senator Robert Griffin expressed concern that the land is needed for agriculture and that the area cannot adequately provide the services needed for a park, particularly with removal of a portion of the current tax base. Chelsea resident Fred Petsch took the time to participate in Dexter's Sesquicentennial celebration last week, and came away with a trophy for his efforts in horse-shoe pitching.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Warren M. Hoyt, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Lobbyist Registration, Regulation The Michigan legislature is often off target. This is the case with the pending legislation to require registration and expenditure reporting of lobbyists and their agents. The Senate has been going through a long painful process of rewriting and refining the so-called lobbyist reform bill placing financial disclosure requirements on lobbyist expenditures in the course of doing business with public officials.

In its present form, the bill at best is vague and would unlikely stand up under a constitutional challenge. It requires any person who spends more than $250 per year on an individual public official or $1,000 per year on lobbying practices to register and report quarterly to the secretary of state's office.

Amendments presented indicate a business owner could not petition government — a guaranteed right of both the U.S. and State Constitutions — without fear of being subject to criminal penalties after reaching a certain dollar value expenditure in both direct and indirect expenses.

Who can define what an indirect expenditure is and what should be reported? How about parking fees, shoeshines, haircuts or even the cost of a babysitter so a person could attend a committee meeting? This vagueness alone would be grounds for the courts to strike the reporting requirements down as unconstitutional. Another constitutional gray area the legislature is toying with is the removal of members of the press who were exempted from the registration and reporting requirements. The First Amendment guarantees the right of free press and such inclusions infringe upon these rights.

Members of the legislature and other public officials would be better to try to control themselves and their dealings with lobbyists rather than trying to place the restrictions on those lobbyists and the public.

It would be a simple matter to develop and pass conflict of interest legislation or ethics legislation setting guidelines for those people in public office.

This would be the best answer as public office holders would know exactly what they could or could not do and could decide whether to enter public service with full knowledge that such restrictions exist.

The legislature is becoming more and more well known for the number of acts passed to regulate. It would be better to look in a mirror and regulate what they begin to regulate 148 members of the legislature instead of 8.2 million residents of the state.

Sheriff Road Patrol Bill Governor William G. Milliken is one step closer to exercising a threatened veto as the House recently passed a bill mandating Michigan's county sheriffs to patrol secondary roads and providing state funds to support those patrols.

Milliken has labeled the legislation as a "porkbarrel" to preserve jobs for Wayne county sheriffs. He further maintains it will begin to erode powers of the State Police.

Legislative leaders meanwhile are trying to reach a compromise between the governor and the legislature.

The bill mandates that county sheriffs will be the law enforcement body primarily concerned with patrolling the county roads and highways. It allows for cities that pass through the incorporated sections.

The measure also allocates a formula for paying the county sheriffs for the patrol. The formula is based on the number and length of the county roads.

July 4 Favorite Day For Motorcycle Races

July Fourth was a red-letter day during the early years of the motorcycle. On that date in 1902, the first motorcycle endurance race was run from Boston to New York. Of the 32 entries for the 254-mile run, 31 started and 13 finished. On the Fourth in 1914, an Indian motorcycle, ridden by Glen Boyd of Denver, Colo., won the first 300-mile race, held at Dodge City, Kan., with an average speed of 67.92 mph. A walk through the Transportation Collection of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, includes views of a 1902 Fafrin German motorcycle and a 1909 Indian.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR: I saw the other day where a drugstore in town had a special on charcoal, and in the same paper there was a sale on lawn furniture at one of the grocery stores. It looks like, Mister Editor, that we're final coming around to country stores in town. Folks out here expect one-stop shopping, but according to this item Bug Hookum mentioned at the country store Saturday night it don't suit everybody.

Bug said he had saw where this druggist in Philadelphia was closing his store after 44 years at the same location. He said he was hanging up his mortar and pestle because he didn't know how to sell anything but drugstore items and at his age it was too late to learn the department store business. He said there was no way he would stock ponies and tennis rackets to keep up with the rest of the drugstores in his section of town.

Bug said, he felt right sorry for the fellow. The pore man had been, trying to get along on stuff like toothpaste, prescriptions, and permanent wave sets. No garden seed, no car antifreeze, no quick-fry hamburger machines, no lawn mowers, none of the regular items in a modern drugstore. But Bug said that's what happens when you can't move with the times.

Nowdays, Bug went on, we got grocery stores that can change the oil in your car while you shop, and we got cigar stores that don't sell cigars, but they got plenty of ham sandwiches and naked-wimmen books. Anybody going into the drugstore business today knows he's got to put in a full line of tobacco and groceries, cameras and ladies' ready-to-wear. If there's room left, maybe a little glassed-in spot in back fer drugs and medicines.

The fellows accepted Bug's report, and Clem Webster spoke fer all of em when he looked around and said if you count the glassed-in counter where the fellow that runs the store keeps his cheese we would all be setting in a modern big city drugstore. Our store has a pretty good line of boots and work clothes, but we still got to order bicycles, fishing boats and other sporting goods out of catalogs. The fellow that runs the store said serious the other night he was giving thought to adding a shed on the side to put in some of them baskets and hanging plants the wimmen keep asking about. He said he had a new slogan in mind to go across the front of the store. He's going to say "It's here, just look til you find it."

Ed Doolittle was agreed a fellow has got to think a jump ahead to stay even, and he was thinking of all the regulations we got now fer eating places. Cafes now have got to have all kinds of electric dishwashers and water heater boosters to protect the customer's health. But the cafe operator picks up the extra cost when he cuts a pie. Use it, he had a sink

34 Years Ago... Thursday, July 6, 1944—Heinz Eschweiler, a German prisoner of war at Camp Waterloo, escaped from the camp early Monday morning and was at liberty only a few hours when he went to the farm home of Ernest Riemenschneider, three miles north of the camp, and gave himself up. Paul W. Schneider graduated on Tuesday, June 27, from the Midshipman School at Camp McDonough, Plattsburg, N.Y., and received his commission as Ensign in the Navy. Cars driven by Mrs. Gertrude Howard of Stockbridge and Nathan Collins, Madison St., collided at the corner of East Middle St. and East St. late last Wednesday afternoon. Both cars were badly damaged and Elsie Risen, a passenger in the Howard car, suffered face cuts. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Flintoft and son, Miss Joan Walworth and Ensign Paul Schneider attended the Lambert family picnic, held Sunday at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Zeeb, Little Silver Lake.

"We used to do the Big Apple, Charleston, and the Polka and we were pretty good at them," she added. After dating for several years ("we took our time") they married July 21, 1928 in Toledo, O., and lived in Detroit. "I remember how he hated fighting the traffic all the time getting to work and we decided to look for a business to buy outside the city," she explained. "One ad we saw in the paper looked promising but we had never heard of Chelsea before. After coming here several times, Anton found how much Chelsea reminded him of Denmark with all of its

Beginner's Guide to Home Canning, Freezing

If your home garden crop leaves you with food coming out of your ears, how about freezing or canning some of it for later?

Need some how-to tips? The U.S. Department of Agriculture has just the thing for you and it's free. For your copy of Beginner's Guide to Home Canning and Freezing, just send a postcard to the Dept. 683F, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

Be sure to can only the amount your family will use in one year. Although food held longer is safe to eat, it may lose nutritional value or quality, especially if you store it at temperatures above 70 degrees F.

As a beginner you'll need to understand something about microorganisms, such as bacteria, that cause spoilage of food. Botulism, a deadly poison caused by certain bacteria, will grow only in low-acid foods. So, to kill these bacteria, low-acid foods like asparagus, beans, and corn and carrots must be carefully processed, using a steam pressure canner. This canner allows you to destroy harmful bacteria by processing at 240 degrees F.

High-acid foods, on the other hand, may be processed in a boiling water bath canner, since few bacteria survive in acids. Apples, berries, and tomatoes are examples of high-acid foods.

Use only tempered glass canning jars that are made to withstand high temperatures and lids that fit the jars you are using. Never use empty peanut butter, coffee, or mayonnaise jars for canning. These jars are not tempered and generally do not fit standard canning lids well enough for proper sealing.

For home freezing, as well as home canning, the key to success is starting with quality food, using containers that will protect and seal food well, and observing cleanliness and speed while processing. A good rule of thumb is two hours from garden to container—and the faster the better.

Most food can be quick frozen; but you can't freeze tomatoes (except stewed tomatoes) or vegetables that lose crispness, such as radishes, celery, cucumbers and salad greens.

Here's what you'll need: standard kitchen utensils, plus a steel aluminum or enamel kettle or pot to hold at least a gallon of boiling water, and a tight fitting cover. You'll need a mesh basket, a strainer or large squares of cheesecloth to hold vegetables while blanching.

Also get a container for ice water to stop cooking action by quickly chilling vegetables, and a colander for draining them.

Don't skimp on freezer containers. Most on the market today are waterproof and easy to seal. Ordinary waxed paper, milk cartons, or plastic cartons from cottage cheese are not suitable since they aren't moisture-proof or vapor-proof.

When you order a copy of Beginner's Guide to Home Canning and Freezing, (free), you'll also receive a copy of free Consumer Information Catalog. It lists more than 200 selected free or low-cost publications from the federal government. The Catalog is published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration.

CLASS OF '78 PLANS:

CHS Salutatorian Planning For Career in Law, Politics

It was a "feeling of helplessness" that led Julie Prohaska, Chelsea High school class of '78 salutatorian, through a whirlwind of high school classes and activities to better prepare herself for a career in politics, public speaking, and law.

"I felt so helpless knowing that I had just one little vote that I purposefully became involved in forensics and debate to become a good public speaker and to be able to do more as a successful political candidate," Julie said.

Having moved with her family from New Hampshire in 1974, Julie was also motivated to take up public speaking. "It was a little frightening to move to Chelsea. I knew I had to assert myself and make friends—forensics and debate opened new horizons for me," she added.

Graduating second in her class with a 10.97 grade point average throughout her four years at Chelsea High school, Julie was a member of the yearbook staff, the chorus for three years, a three-year member of both the forensics and debate teams, four years in high school theatre and with the Chelsea Players, and in the women's ensemble for two years.

She earned the speech award, the Charles S. Cameron scholarship, a campus leader award from Eastern Michigan University and the Regent's-Alumni award from the University of Michigan.

In her decision to attend Eastern over the mainmouth University of Michigan, Julie cited school sizes and her estimation of quality. "I could have gone to U. of M. and be a number or go to Eastern and be a person," she said. "I also feel that Eastern has a superior speech department and I am really looking forward to becoming a member of their forensics team," she explained.

"It was a hard decision not to go to Michigan, but I'm going to school for the school, not for the name. Michigan carries its name for its graduate school and I plan to go to law school there after my four years at Eastern," she added.

With so much of her thinking projected towards the future, Julie had little time to feel any noticeable changes sweep over her while graduating from high school. "I feel about the same," she said.

She also has a few worries about a rigorous schedule of political science and speech communication classes which await her next fall. "I know I'm going to need this summer for a vacation but I don't worry about how I'll do in school. Where there's a will, there's a way," she quipped.

Whether Julie is really on vacation this summer is debatable. In addition to working a full-time 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. shift at Chelsea Community Hospital, she has play rehearsals from 7 to 11 p.m. for the upcoming production of "Sweet Charity" July 20-22. "It keeps me pretty busy," she admits.

She also admits that she will miss many of her friends from high school. "I probably won't see many of them again for a long time, but when I'm rich and famous I'll come back for a visit," she laughed.

"I have a lot of expectations for my life and most of them are challenging. I'm fascinated with politics and government and there are many things that can be done with a law degree. I'll have many opportunities to travel which is something that I enjoy doing very much she added.

"I'm anticipating the competition in college and look forward to it," she concluded.

The U.S. Labor Department reports that more than 50 percent of all Comprehensive Employment and Training Act resources are being spent on young people, 16-22 years old, through part-time and work-experience projects, summer jobs, and the Job Corps.

Washtenaw Resources Will Be Evaluated

You can help appraise the soil and water resources of Washtenaw county and develop a conservation program to protect and improve them.

Last fall, Congress passed the Soil and Water Resources Conservation Act. The Resources Conservation Act calls for a comprehensive look at the nation's basic natural resources and for better programs to protect and improve them. An important part of the law is its emphasis on citizen participation in determining the future direction of conservation programs that affect local communities.

Under the law, you can express your views and opinions on the nation's natural resources. Using the views and opinions of all people, the U.S. Soil Conservation Service will develop a program to guide conservation efforts and make an annual evaluation of progress.

The Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District has joined the Soil Conservation Service in its effort to strengthen soil and water conservation programs. Together, they are conducting a survey to obtain opinions, concerns and suggestions on local soil and water resource problems and the kind of action people feel is necessary to improve them.

The Soil Conservation District is going to be contacting people to get their ideas and a future public meeting is planned to get suggestions first hand. The survey will run until mid-August in an effort to get as much public input as possible.

The District will welcome telephone calls, messages or letters from people who wish to express their views.

The Soil Conservation District office is located at 6101 Jackson R. Ann Arbor 48103.

Washtenaw County Residents Give $60,452 To Lung Association

"The people of Washtenaw county gave $60,452 to the Michigan Lung Association this year in its educational efforts to prevent and control lung disease," said John Peleuses, CRIT, M.L.A.'s Huron Valley Regional Board president. The organization, now celebrating its 70th year of service to the people of Michigan, experienced a 4.3 percent increase in its state-wide fund-raising efforts.

The year-end tally includes Christmas Seal contributions, special event dollars (walk-a-thons, bowling events, etc.), and monies from other sources, such as memorial gifts and bequests, which were raised prior to April 1.

"We're thankful to the citizens of Washtenaw county for recognizing the scope of the lung disease problem today," Peleuses said. "The total economic cost of respiratory disease is estimated at $16.5 billion each year."

Peleuses said that Christmas Seal contributions from the public are still the major source of income for local lung association programs such as breathing clubs, smoking cessation groups, non-smokers' rights programs, scientific seminars, medical fellowships, and air conservation programs.

Foreign Investment in U.S. Is Good, Says MSU Prof

Foreign investments in the United States ought to be welcomed, at least in the manufacturing sector, says Michigan State University economist Mordechai E. Kreinin.

State Fair Entry Forms Now Available

Entry forms for the 1978 Michigan State Fair have just rolled off the presses, according to State Fair officials, and are available to anyone who wants to enter an exhibit in one of the Fair's thousands of categories.

Interested persons may obtain a premium list and entry forms by writing the Michigan State Fairgrounds, Detroit 48203, or by calling (313) 368-1000. Specify which of six premium books is needed.

The six premium books cover: Horse Shows; Livestock; Poultry; Rabbits, Pigeons and Canaries; Agriculture; Horticulture and Floriculture; Horticulture Arts and Fine Arts.

Anyone who has entered exhibits in the Fair during the past five years will receive premium books by mail without asking.

Deadlines for returning entry forms in all categories except the horse shows is Aug. 1. The horse show entries will close July 29.

The 1978 Michigan State Fair will run 11 days—from August 23 through Sept. 4 (Labor Day).

Prices have stayed the same as last year. Adult admission is $3. Children under 12, accompanied by an adult, will be admitted free throughout the Fair.

Fair officials say they are hoping for another "barren" Michigan State Fair. The past two years have set State Fair records, with rising attendance and the highest state revenues in Fair history.

The Michigan State Fair, which was founded in 1849, is the oldest state fair in the nation.

on the grounds that just out for someone to fall over," he explained.

Another item on the list includes the grounds at McKim Memorial Library. "The land was torn up by the trucks and the brick cleaning process a few months ago and we plan to bring the lawns back to their original condition," Larson explained.

"We are also looking into several areas of village-owned land which might make nice mini-parks for kids who want to play a pick-up game of baseball without having to belong to a league," he added.

Having passed the state audit at the end of last year's WORC project, Larson says he is satisfied with the results and optimistic that the state will continue to provide grants in the coming years.

The disparity between the rate of unemployment for blacks and other minorities and the rate for the general population is a reminder that the legacy of discrimination persists; Secretary of Labor Ray Marshall says in the 1978 Employment and Training Report of the President.

College Enrollment Doubled Since 1964

Although fewer people can afford to go to college these days, more of them are enrolled in Michigan institutions than ever before. Systematic fall enrollment figures have more than doubled between 1964-1976, according to an article in the Michigan State Economic Record.

The article in the Michigan State University publication, written by Weston H. Agor, higher education consultant, Michigan Department of Education, also notes that the percentage of the population attending college is increasing.

Specifically, 2.77 percent of the state's population were attending institutions of higher education in 1964, while 5.3 percent were doing so by 1976, Agor adds.

Factors which could account for the trend include increasing interest in continuing education, more women in college, and more widely available financial aid.

"In addition," Agor says, "with itself produces growth."

Huron River Canoe Map Now Available
A new single-sheet Canoe Map (with an orange cover) for the Huron River is now available. The new map, covering the 101-mile stretch of the Huron River from Proulx Lake in Oakland County to its mouth at Lake Erie in Wayne County, is divided into four sections: (1) Proulx Lake State Recreation Area to Kensington Metropark, (2) Kensington Metropark to the Village of Dexter, (3) Dexter to the City of Belleville, and (4) Belleville to Lake Erie. Designed by Graphic Artist Michael S. Broad, these maps show public canoe campsites, launching and parking areas, portages, canoe liveries, road crossings, and other orientation points. A chart denotes mileage and travel time between major points of interest, with a complete trip estimated at 42 hours. The Huron River canoe map is available at these park offices: Kensington Metropark near Milford, Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter, Lower Huron Metropark near Belleville and HCMA Detroit Office.

To obtain a copy by mail, send your name and address and 20 cents in coin or postage to: Huron River Canoe Map, Dept. CS-DL, in care of Metroparks, 3030 Penobscot Building, Detroit 48226.

agency which places only those children with special needs. "We especially like to have the public attend so that they may become better acquainted with our services and to have a good time," Cavanaugh commented. Because the agency will be celebrating a decade of precedent-setting adoption services, the Spaulding staff and Board of Directors have planned numerous attractions including games with prizes, lots of food, clowns, and a plaque presentation. "The games are based on every level of skill and children of all ages will be able to win," Cavanaugh said.

THE BIBLE—The Light from Heaven

The Psalmist wrote, "The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple." (Psalms 119:180). The word simple does not mean unintelligent, but those who are uninstructed. The entrance or the acceptance of the word will bring light of instruction to all people if they will open their hearts to receive it. One is to study and handle God's word properly. "Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, handling aright the word of truth." (2 Tim. 2:15). Jesus said, "Search the scriptures, because ye think that in them ye have eternal life; and these are they which bear witness of me." (John 5:39). In the book of Acts the Bereans are called a noble people because they searched the scriptures daily. (Acts 17:11). David wrote: "Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wonderful things out of thy law." (Ps. 119:18).

Astros, Athletics Still On Top in Babe Ruth

Play continued last week with the Astros and Athletics setting the pace, each with 4-0 records. The Astros continue to receive some fine pitching. The Athletics have balanced their attack with good hitting and fielding. Dave Parks has performed well at catcher and Bob Trevino has played well at shortstop. Dave Thayer stroked a grand slam home run to help Jim Stock boost his pitching record to 2-0.

The Reds have improved their record to 3-1 with wins of 9-7 and 11-7 over the Orioles and Yankees, respectively. The win over the Orioles was paced by Randy Raloff as he drove in three runs with two hits. Todd Aeschliman had three safeties and collected five RBI's in the victory over the Yankees. Tom McCormick chipped in with three innings of hitless relief to subdue the Yankees.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER
REALTOR

ADVANTAGE OF LARGE MORTGAGE

When buying a home, should you strive for a low down payment with a commensurately large mortgage loan? Here's what some experts say about the value of a large mortgage.

The lower your down payment is, the easier it will be to sell your home in the future. The reasoning is that there will be a greater number of prospects who have a smaller amount of cash available to take over a small equity than for a huge down payment or even being forced to take out a new loan at a possibly higher interest rate.

The higher interest charge is offset somewhat by a higher tax deduction. The money that would have been put into a large er down payment can be used for other income-producing investments. Finally, it's cheaper to borrow mortgage money than any other kind. And you certainly may have to borrow for autos and college tuition if you are an average American.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8683; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Girls Fast-Pitch Team Remains Undefeated

Scoring a 17-14 victory over the Ann Arbor PROS, Chelsea girls fast pitch 13-15 year-old Travel Team remained undefeated last Wednesday in a seven-inning game.

Starting the game with a bang was pitcher Diane Thompson who struck out the first three batters in the first inning and five out of six batters in the second and third innings.

Thompson gave up just one hit and two runs but had trouble in the fourth inning as she walked four out of five hitters. She was relieved by Cara Feeney who pitched until the sixth inning when Ann Eisele took over and finished the game, pitching in the seventh inning with two strike-outs of the last three batters.

Chelsea produced most of its runs in the third inning with 10 runs scored behind a balanced hitting attack. Shelly Weber, Maggy Sweet, and Paula Hiest each produced two hits. Diane Thompson and Paula Hiest each had four RBI's. Anita Powell scored four runs and drove in three, and Amy Hume, the youngest player, was one for one at the plate and walked twice to score all three times at bat.

"Chelsea has remained undefeated so far this season as a result of its strong pitching and balanced hitting," Coach Charles Waller commented. "Our only real problem so far has been the difficulty of the young pitching staff getting the ball over the plate consistently. With five young pitchers it is hard getting enough pitching time to master the difficult skills required in fast-pitch," he added.

Chelsea has only given up 12 hits in three games, while collecting 43 of their own. The team, however, has given up 60 walks which resulted in 43 runs.

WCC Offers Programs for Senior Citizens

Senior citizens can enjoy a wealth of special opportunities as a result of some unique programs offered at Washtenaw Community College. These opportunities come with membership in an elite group at the College, called the Golden Eagles. One of the best parts of this is that it's free.

What membership brings to those in the Golden Eagles is enrollment in any classes offered by the College at no cost as well as use of all the College facilities and attendance at College events such as art exhibits, lectures and special performances. It also enables members to enroll in other courses, designed for senior citizens, which are offered off-campus at places convenient for senior students.

Membership in the Golden Eagles is open to any senior citizen who is over 55 and retired or over 60, retired or not. Membership is maintained by registering in a class offered by the College following regular enrollment procedures.

For additional information, please contact the Registration or Admissions office at the College at 973-3543 or 973-3548.

Registration Closed For Youth Baseball

Registration for youth baseball is now closed, according to Robin Raymond, director of the Chelsea Recreation Department.

THE CHELSEA STANDARD

Second Section CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1978 Pages 7-14

OPEN HOUSE: Members, family, and friends of Chrysler UAW Local 1284 joined for an afternoon of food, music, and conversation Saturday, June 24 in the newly built recreation and meeting hall on M-52 just north of the Chrysler Proving Grounds. Through several fund raising events, members obtained the money for the building which was recently finished by the Wacker & Tuthill Construction Co., Ann Arbor.

Child Care Center Still Has Openings for More

Children enrolled in the Chelsea Community Hospital's Child Care Center are enjoying summer together with their friends and teachers. They are spending more time outside in the warm sun. Gardening has become an important aspect of each day as the children observe the growth of their tomato plants, lettuce, zucchini, peas and cucumbers. They are learning about how seeds grow and the importance of water and the sun to plants.

Twice a week the children walk through the Chelsea Fitness Trail to Pierce Park, where they play on the playground equipment, enjoy a picnic lunch and participate in a group story time. During the trip to and from the park, the children have an opportunity to discover the wonders of nature. Often interesting objects found on the trail provide the materials for collages at the art table.

The children are very excited about the new wading pool at the center. On hot days the pool will provide a cool relief to the weather.

Also during the summer, the children will be learning about birds. They will learn the various parts of a bird's body such as, wings, feathers, etc. Questions such as: where birds live, what they eat and how they move will be explored with the children. Through songs, books and creative movement the children will begin to appreciate the special wonders of birds.

Community workers will be the next unit of study. During this period the children will visit the Chelsea Community Hospital and observe various workers in the health field. A special visit will be made to the children's parents that work at the hospital. Plans are also being made for a police officer, a firefighter, and a letter carrier to visit the center and explain to the children about their occupations.

There are still openings for full- or part-time children, ages 2 1/2 through 7, at the Child Care Center, which operates from 6:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The Center is open to all families in the community. For more information, please contact Corinne Gillan at 475-1920.

Girls Softball Team 3-1 in ASA League

Chelsea's women's fast-pitch softball team improved its record to 3-1 in the senior division of ASA play in Ann Arbor this past week. After Pinckney defeated Chelsea, 15-4, in the league opener, Chelsea bounced back to down Brighton, 19-2, Dexter, 15-5, and Gabriel Richard, 12-4.

On June 14, Nanette Push struck out five Brighton hitters and hit her first home run of the summer to pace Chelsea to their 19-2 victory. Chelsea collected seven hits off of losing pitcher Chris West. Cathy Voita and Patti Hume both connected for key hits in the game.

On June 19, Chelsea was led to victory by Jenny Clark who hit a triple and a single. "Jenny is the type of person who works extremely hard on her hitting," says Coach Bill Wescott. "I have been very pleased to see her having such a successful summer season thus far."

Clark has played two years on Chelsea's junior varsity program and made the varsity team just this year. She presently leads the team in hitting with two triples and a batting average of .667.

Kim Wood was the winning pitcher against Dexter, going the distance. Wood also collected a pair of hits and is presently batting at a .444 clip this summer. Defensively Patti Hume played her best game of the season making three key put-outs.

After defeating Brighton and Dexter, Chelsea won their third game in succession downing Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard, 12-4. Chelsea collected eight hits against losing pitcher Toni Teders. Nanette Push pitched her finest game of the season, fanning nine Gabriel Richard hitters and only allowing two hits.

Sophomores Molly Eisele and Jennifer Ringe both collected key hits in Chelsea's offensive attack. Shortstop Eisele is presently batting .313. Catcher Patti Hume has had six hits this summer and is the team's second leading hitter at .545. Nanette Push leads the team in home runs with one.

Chelsea's next game will be tomorrow against Ypsilanti Lincoln at Vet's park in Ann Arbor. Starting time is 9:30 p.m.

A Model T Ford was the winner of a transcontinental automobile race from New York to Seattle in June of 1909. Staged to promote the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition which opened that year, the race attracted six entries, two of them Model Ts. The prizewinner, in 22 days, 55 minutes, was Model T No. 2, now on exhibit at Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, along with many other important artifacts from our country's history.

Grady School of Journalism and Mass Communication.

Former news editor for The Eufaula Tribune (Eufaula, Ala.), she was state news editor for The Daily News, Athens, Ga., in 1974-76. In 1975 she received the Media Advocate Award from the Northeast Georgia Area Planning and Development Commission.

Mrs. Riechert is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, the American Association of Agricultural College Editors and Southern Association of Agricultural Scientists.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Parnell, also formerly of Chelsea. Parnell was minister of the Chelsea Church of Christ in 1966-71.

Bob Devine Gets 2nd Hole-in-One

Norman Pranger Hits Hole-in-One

Witnessing the event, accomplished on the fourth green with a driver, were Don Kvarnberg, Mark Kisiner, and Tim Foley. Pranger shot 207 yards for the feat.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION
MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

Consumer Thinking
There has been a tendency in the past to pit consumers against farmers and vice versa. Farmers were justifiably angry at the consumer meat boycotts of the 1973 era. There were a lot of misinformation and misguided people. At the Chicago Board of Trade, they like to tell the story about consumers showing up there with picket signs to protest the high price of beef and pork, when, of course, those commodities are traded on the Mercantile Exchange blocks away.

On the other side of the coin, the farm strike angered a lot of consumers. Consumers wondered how farmers could afford to take so much time off from work to lobby in Washington. They were also skeptical of farmers who drove $30,000 tractors with air conditioned cabs and said they were going broke.

Now, the thinking goes, it may be the consumer's turn to protest. After all, raw farm product prices have been going up for the last seven months. Steak and hamburger are costing more. Lettuce went up to a dollar a head. It stands to reason that shopping carts might replace the tractors on Pennsylvania Ave.

However, we believe the old emotionalism shown food prices may be tempered. There is evidence that consumers are more sophisticated than they were in 1973.

People who travel almost anywhere in the world discover similar circumstances. The modest food prices of the United States are found practically nowhere else. That's because American farmers are more efficient—allowing us to pay a smaller percentage of our disposable incomes for food than anywhere else.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
We would like to thank Drs. Robert Burns, Dick Dijkman, Gene Miller, Edw. Sutter and Clate Warren for their part in our recent Fluoride Clinic. Their help in the program and concern for the area children is a credit to them and to their profession. Also a thank you is in order to Dottie Hume for her many years of service to the program.

At this time we would like to remind the community it is the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary who sponsors this State Public Health Clinic. It is through our many hours of preparation and work that the program can even be offered to the community.

For a little background, the Chelsea program was started by Virginia Albrecht in approximately 1970. It was she who recruited most of the equipment that is still in use today. After four years the program got to be too much for one individual to oversee so the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary was approached for sponsorship and accepted the responsibility.

Because of manpower and the location of the schools, we are forced to run the clinic in the summer. Since it is a state program there are certain procedures to follow. In October of each year, our volunteer chairman and her committee attend the state training sessions. By Jan. 1 the state must be notified in writing of intent to run the clinic in our community. By Feb. 1 an order is put in for registration forms and information pamphlets. On Feb. 15, a letter to parents and registration forms are sent out through the schools. An article is then run for two consecutive weeks in the local papers. By March 10, a report to state must be made on enrollment. Supplies are then ordered through dental supply houses, professional help is booked and the location is found for the clinic. Just before the running date, which is usually in June, appointment cards are sent out, professional help is confirmed and workers are found for the days the clinic is open. Then by Sept. 30, a final written report is due to state on all particulars. In October, we start all over again. As shown, the project is a year-long process for us.

As Dr. Burns stated in the 6-22-78 issue of The Standard, "It is disappointing that those children that most need the decay reducing assistance of a fluoride clinic of this type are apparently not taking advantage of it." All we can do is offer the program to the community. It is up to the parents to see that their children take advantage of it.

Sandy Meyer, President, Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary.

To the Editor:
I would like to alert your readers to H. R. 8494, a very stringent disclosure bill which was passed in April. The Senate is now considering a companion bill, S. 2871 which is even tougher than the House bill. The Senate bill would compel any corporation, union, church or other group to register with the government and open its records to federal inspection if it spends $5,000 or more on advertisements, mailings or other efforts to get people

Upon completion of his studies at Detroit College of Law, Stanowski began as a sole practitioner in Dearborn Heights. In March of 1970, Stanowski was called to service in the United States Army. On week-ends, Capt. Stanowski provided free legal services to the indigent at the Columbus Legal Aid Society.

In July, 1974, he was appointed Assistant Prosecuting Attorney by William F. Delby for the County of Washtenaw.

Within the Office of the Prosecuting Attorney, Stanowski was in charge of the Co-operative Reimbursement Program, advisor to the Crime Prevention Bureau and attorney-advisor for the Consumer Action Center. He has prosecuted cases in Juvenile Court and has represented the Prosecuting Attorney's Office in the Probate Court—Mental Health Division.

Stanowski has been employed by the Prosecutor's Office nearly four years and is one of the Senior Trial Attorneys assigned to the 14th District Court. As a Senior Trial Attorney, he has prosecuted persons charged with homicide, criminal sexual conduct, murder, robbery, larceny, as well as District Court misdemeanors. After work, Stanowski has taught at the Southeast Regional Criminal Justice Training Center and at Washtenaw Community College: Criminal Law and Procedure; Criminal Investigation and Police Community Relations.

"The thrust of today's interest is in the protection of criminal rights," Stanowski stated. "Everybody should be concerned for the rights of the criminal to prevent a police-type state, but not to the exclusion of the vast silent majority's innate right of freedom from fear. While the majority does not express their fear, they are cautious not to walk after dark without looking about and over their shoulder constantly. And yet, the criminal walks among our midst, head held erect without fear of being the victim of rape, robbery, assault or being burglarized."

"The fear of punishment has been markedly reduced by ever progressively changing attitudes of rehabilitating the criminal. If the criminal had the fear of punishment, just maybe he would take a long, hard look before he commits an armed robbery," Stanowski added. "There is no excuse for the commission of an armed robbery nor any reason for placing a victim in fear of his life. Far too often the victim's life dangles on a slim thread while the criminal decides whether you should live or die.

"Armed robbery should be eradicated from our society and this can only be accomplished if the judicial system is not only fair but also, that justice must be swift, certain, severe, and public.

"Speedy trials are necessary to insure that a defendant will be prosecuted within 90 days of his arrest.

"Certainty of punishment is necessary to prevent the criminal from shopping for the lenient judges by implementing standardized sentencing. Severity of punishment should be met on the basis that punishment should fit the crime and not the person.

"Last, but not least important, is public awareness that the courts are doing their job will reduce the public's fear of crime while putting criminals on notice that crime will not be tolerated," Stanowski concluded.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hughes

Diane Robbins, Jay Hughes Wed Saturday at St. Joseph's in Dexter
 Diane Robbins and Jay Hughes were united in marriage Saturday, June 24 at 5 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic church, Dexter.

The Rev. Fr. Kenneth MacDonald performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robbins, Trinkle Rd., Chelsea, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hughes, Sr., of South Rockwood. The bridegroom is from Muskegon.

Organist for the occasion was Mrs. Vasser of Dexter.

As she approached the altar, the bride wore a white princess line gown of silk organza over taffeta with full bishop sleeves and wide cuffs. The bodice was covered with cotten venise lace applique and seed pearls. Her cathedral length train was bordered by a scalloped venise lace. She wore her mother's headpiece which had been covered with lace to match her gown. The attached fingertip veil was bordered in matching scalloped venise lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, pale yellow sweetheart roses, and babies breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Marcia Brown of Charlotte. She wore a sleeveless princess line floor-length gown of quiana in pale yellow with a matching overlay cape. She carried a bouquet of white carnations dipped in yellow with pale yellow sweetheart roses and babies breath. She accented her costume with a single carnation and babies breath in her hair.

Bridesmaids were Cindy Byrne of Hale, friend of the bride, and Mrs. Erika Hughes of Flat Rock, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. They wore gowns identical in style to the matron of honor in pale blue and pale green. They carried matching bouquets of white carnations dipped in the same color of their gowns and yellow sweetheart roses with babies breath. They also wore a single carnation and babies breath in their hair.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Robbins wore a sea-foam green knit gown with a v-neck and a short layer cape which tied in the front.

The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue floor-length gown of polyester with a v-neck and matching long-sleeved jacket trimmed with macrame accents.

Tim Hughes, brother of the bridegroom, was the altar boy for the wedding. Best man was Walter Hughes, brother of the bridegroom of Flat Rock. Ushers included Steve Robbins, brother of the bride of Chelsea, and David Fowler, friend of the bridegroom, of Allen Park.

A reception was held at the Chelsea Fair Service Center. Lori Ellen Reetz of Saginaw attended the guest book. Sue Stoner of Chelsea poured punch while Suzanne Smutkala of Port Austin and Ann Conklin of Tecumseh cut the cake.

The couple took a week-long tour of Michigan and will reside in Muskegon.

The bride is a 1978 graduate of Central Michigan University where she earned a bachelor of science degree in secondary education.

Chelsea VFW Hosts National Home Group
 On Tuesday, June 20, VFW Post 4076 and Auxiliary served a spaghetti dinner to 90 children and 10 adults, including Sam Story, executive director, and Glenn Carnes, personnel director, from the VFW National Home in Eaton Rapids.

The children of the Home were treated to a day at Cedar Point on Monday and stopped at the Chelsea Post on their way home Tuesday for lunch. The ladies of the Auxiliary prepared the meal.

National Home Chairman of the Post and Auxiliary, Byron and Betty Smith, stated "it was very gratifying to be able to do something for these children, whose parents served our country so well."

The VFW National Home is like a little village all its own, covering a total of 640 acres, consisting of individual homes for each family, their own grocery store, Fire Department which the older children themselves are trained to operate, a guest lodge, a Chapel, an auditorium, and a farm.

Purpose of the Home is to provide a normal home life for children of deceased and disabled members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary. This is all supported by the thousands of VFW Posts and Auxiliaries through special programs and gifts to the Home. The Home receives no government subsidy.

A carnival is held at the National Home on the second Sunday in July every year and thousands of Post and Auxiliary members and their guests are invited, as well as the public. They are given tours of the grounds and homes by the children themselves. This year, July 9 is Carnival Day.

"Everyone is welcome to come to the VFW National Home in Eaton Rapids and see what we are so proudly doing for our Veterans and their families," Betty Smith said.

CLASS OF '78 PLANS:

Shelley Warren Will Run to Classes at Central Michigan

When Shelley Warren completes her studies in dental hygiene she will probably find an apartment far enough away from her job so that she can run to work.

A four-year veteran of the Chelsea High school girls track team, a four-time qualifier for the state meet, and the daughter of a dentist, Shelley's career plans are fairly well settled.

"After working for my father since I was a freshman, I've been influenced by his dental assistants who were always very nice and enjoyed their work," she said.

"There really isn't any other program I'd been interested in except becoming a hygienist," she added.

The daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clare Warren, Shelley graduated cum laude from the class she was president of and received an academic scholarship to Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo which she didn't accept.

"I've been to the Western campus but I was much more impressed with Central Michigan University when I went there," Shelley explained of her decision to attend CMU.

Joining Shelley on her fall move to Mt. Pleasant, among several other Chelsea class of '78 graduates, will be Penny Collinsworth, a colleague of Shelley's on the track team and her future roommate at CMU. "I'm ready to do something else now that I've finished high school and I've always wanted to go to Central," she commented.

In addition to her activities in track and as class president, Shelley played three years as a center on the high school basketball team, and played in both the symphony and marching bands while in her freshman and sophomore years.

"When I reached my junior year the school had lengthened the time of classes and there just wasn't enough time to take everything I wanted to," she explained.

Of all her classes, Shelley said that her psychology class "was the most interesting. It wasn't boring at all but it was hard and there was a lot of information that had to be learned. I think I learned the most from that class."

Described by her track coach Bill Bainton as an outstanding athlete, Shelley continuously broke records, including her own set in previous years, in the half-mile, mile relay, discus, and high jump.

"Track is an individual sport to me and personally very rewarding. It is very competitive, though, which is one thing I didn't like too well," she said.

While she would like to continue on the track team at CMU "it will depend on how my studies go. My first objective is to get through school and if I can make it through the first semester I'll be all right," she said.

Too excited about her future,

SHELLEY WARREN

Shelley said "I wasn't really sad at graduation, but maybe it really hasn't hit me yet. I'll still be able to see the people I want to see, even though we all aren't at the same school anymore," she added.

With a brother who is attending college, Shelley has been able to learn some of the things to expect from her classes at CMU.

"Talking with him has made me feel a little less uncertain about going away to school," she commented.

Shelley plans to complete her first two years at CMU and then transfer into the dental hygiene program at the University of Michigan.

R. Spaulding Elected Scout Commissioner

Dr. Gunder A. Myran was re-elected president of Wolverine Council, Boy Scouts of America, last week. The Wolverine Council serves 11,500 youth and adult members in Monroe, Lenawee, Washtenaw and Livingston counties. Myran is president of Washtenaw Community College.

Elected vice-presidents were: Samuel Green, Temperance, Cub scouting; Thomas P. Schuon, Ann Arbor, scouting; Judge S. J. Elden, Ann Arbor, exploring; Dr. Gordon L. Nordby, Ann Arbor, manpower; Dan H. Butler, Ann Arbor, Finance; Richard Schneberger, Ann Arbor, administration; Nelson R. DeFord, Ann Arbor will again serve as treasurer, Roland Spaulding, Chelsea, was elected Scout Commissioner. Donald R. Hall, Ann Arbor, serves as Scout Executive.

The Silver Beaver for distinguished service to boyhood was awarded to five scouters. This is the highest honor a local Council can bestow to a volunteer leader. Recipients of the Silver Beaver were: Dorothy Kramm, Hamburg, Munhac District Cub Scouting Commissioner. In her capacity, she has been responsible for training hundreds of volunteer leaders.

Thomas P. Schuon, Ann Arbor, scouting vice-president. Schuon's major interests have been the physical properties and camping program of the Council.

Harold W. Tesch, Adrian, of Troop 1602, sponsored by the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club. He was recognized for his 10 years of service as scoutmaster of a troop of mentally retarded scouts.

Dr. Gordon L. Nordby, Ann Arbor, vice-president for manpower, attained the Eagle rank and served on the Camp Staff as a boy in Idaho. He has been active in council advancement and activities.

Nelson R. DeFord, Ann Arbor, council treasurer, has been active in scouting's fiscal affairs for many years. He is widely known for his support for and contributions to many community activities.

Guest speaker for the annual meeting was Dr. Thomas S. Haggal, High Point, N. C. A member of the General Motors Speakers Bureau, he annually makes more than 300 speaking engagements to business conventions. His syndicated radio program, "Values for Better Living," is heard throughout the nation. Dr. Haggal serves as chairman of the board of ICA. He served as National Director of Personnel for the BSA from March 1975 to June 1977, guiding the personnel procedures of 8,000 BSA employees and two million volunteers.

The 250 scouters and wives present also heard the report of the president and scout executive and elected board members for the coming year.

Agricultural Exports Up For 1977-78

Weather, growing markets for grain for livestock and purchases by China are all factors in USDA's new estimate that U.S. agricultural exports may reach $26 billion in 1977-78.

This represents a $1 to $2 billion increase over USDA's earlier estimate that agricultural exports would total $22 to $24 billion. In the current issue of Agriculture Outlook, a monthly USDA publication, the department explains the revision reflects recent stronger prices, particularly for oilseeds and grains, as well as some increases in the volume of total shipments. "Export prices are now expected to average only about 5 percent below those of fiscal 1977, and volume is likely to expand more than a tenth," the article says.

U. S. farm exports reached a record $24 billion last year but the U. S. agricultural trade surplus dropped from $12.2 billion in 1975-76 to $10.6 billion last year. But USDA says farm imports are expected to increase just marginally so the surplus may recover to around $12 billion this fiscal year.

Several developments are contributing to the improved prospects for U. S. farm product exports. These include drought damage to the Brazilian soybean crop; larger than expected demand for U. S. cotton; drought's effect on South American grain crops, boosting U. S. wheat exports to that region; strong demand for feedstuffs in Western Europe and Japan because of prospering livestock industries; and re-entry into the U. S. market by the PRC.

Chiropractor Joins Walk to White House

Chelsea chiropractor, Dr. Warren B. Atkinson will join several thousand other doctors in Washington, D.C. over this up-coming Independence Day week-end in a "Walk for Our Patients' Rights."

Several thousand Doctors of Chiropractic are expected to deliver to every Congressman and Senator, as well as the President, petitions containing up to a million names of their patients asking for their equal rights to select the doctor and type of health care system of their choice. The doctors and many of their families, assistants, and patients will stage a walk first to the White House to deliver their petitions to the President, and then on to the Capitol where they will deliver the respective petitions to their individual Congressmen and Senators.

The petitions, which are being collected throughout the United States, read: "We the following concerned American citizens, petition you, our President, Senators, and Congressmen, to support and vote for federal legislation that shall include and provide for a freedom of choice of doctors and health care; the freedom to have full and complete chiropractic health care provided in or out of hospitals just as medical, surgical, and osteopathic care is provided in all programs such as national health and accident insurance, Medicare, Medicaid, and Veterans Administration and Civil Services."

In addition to participating in that walk from the White House to the Capitol, Dr. Atkinson and Linda M. Elwart, D.C., Technical Assistant, will attend a four-day seminar on the latest research in the chiropractic profession in X-ray techniques, examination, and practice management procedures.

Josiah Wedgwood, noted English potter, was born July 12, 1730, into a family of established Staffordshire potters. By the age of 29 he had gone into business for himself, and at 32 was appointed potter to the Queen. Eventually Wedgwood turned his talents to the European renascence of classic art, which is the area he is probably most noted for today. Among the many pieces of Wedgwood pottery exhibited in the Decorative Arts Galleries of the Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, are a pair of plaques nearly 25 inches long made in about 1785, the largest pair of Wedgwood plaques known.

VFW Group Attends State Convention

Local VFW Post and Auxiliary members attended the VFW 59th state convention at the Southfield Sheraton Inn and the Michigan Inn June 22-23. More than 2,000 VFW men and 1,200 women of the auxiliaries of Michigan registered for the convention.

Local members attending were commander Kermit Sharp, president, Bessie Sharp, District No. 6 senior vice-commander, Mac Packard, Eulahlée Packard, Ken and Lucy Piatt, Fremont Boyer, Byron Smith, and Gary Kent.

Memorial services for the fallen were held Thursday, June 22 with the Rev. Reinhold of Indiana, formerly of Pinckney, as guest speaker.

An hour-long military parade had seven drum and bugle corps in the line of march. They were in competition at the pageant of drums on Saturday night, held at Southfield High school.

The Saginaw County, sponsored by the Midland post with 112 youths participating, was the winner of $1,000 and trophy. They have the option of going to Dallas, Tex., in August for national competition.

Mac Packard began his term of office as commander of District No. 6. There are 15 VFW districts in Michigan. District No. 6 is composed of 30 VFW posts.

Byron Smith was appointed Department deputy aid to the VA Hospital in Ann Arbor. Andy Richter from Bay City will be the Department of Michigan new commander and Betty Connelly from Monroe will be the president of the Ladies Auxiliaries. She is from District No. 6.

The planning meeting for 1978-79 will be held in Brighton, July 16 at 1 p.m. with representatives from all posts attending.

Spending billions on employment, training and other social programs since the 1960's has not narrowed the gap in unemployment rates between whites and blacks and other minority group members, according to Secretary of Labor Ray Marshall in the 1978 Employment and Training Report of the President.
