Chelsea Players Will Present 'Sweet Charity'

"Sweet Charity," presented by The Chelsea Players, opens a three night run on Thursday, July 20, through Saturday, July 22 in the Chelsea High school auditorium. Curtain time is at 8 o'clock each evening.

Neil Simon wrote the play and Cy Coleman and Dorothy Fields, the music for the story of Charity, the girl who wanted to be loved.

The show is directed and choreographed by Gina Kapeton, and the orchestra and musical director is Ann Lee. Both Ann and Gina have extensive backgrounds in music and the theatre and filled these same positions for last year's Chelsea Players production of "Anything Goes."

Kathleen Treado, a veteran of many school and summer musicals, is playing the part of Charlet. Nickie and Helene, Charity's friends and fellow dance hall hostesses, are played by Lenore Mattoff and Julie Vorus. Both Lenore and Julie have appeared in other Chelsea productions. Two newcomers, John W. Elliott and Wayne Ferrigan, play the roles of Oscar, and Daddy Brubeck. "Daddy's" assistants are Todd Wurster and Pat Powers. Doug Beaumont is Herman, the owner of the Fandango Ballroom who "loves to cry at weddings." Doug has appeared in many area musicals, as has Howard Salyer who plays the aging matinee idol, Vittorio Vidal.

Marcia Warren is his jealous sweetheart Ursula. The large cast has several members from former years, among them Dennis Bauer, Sue Frisbie Bauer, Steve Figg, Jim Powers, and Julie Prohaska.

The show, which has 14 musical numbers, is highlighted by several intricate dance routines, as well as some very elaborate and tricky harmony, most notably in the production number "Rhythm of Life." "Rich Man's Frug," "Hey Big Spender" and the well-known "If My Friends Could See Me Now" are just a few of the musical treats playgoers have in store for them.

There are a limited number of special opening night seats, priced at $10, which entitle the purchaser to a reserved seat for Thursday's show as well as attendance at an Afterglow party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Schumann immediately after the performance. Punch and supper will be served, and cast members will be on hand to meet and mingle with the party goers. Jeanene Riemen, Schneider and Marjorie Daniels are the co-chairmen of the Afterglow. Assisting them are Jodi Daniels, Laurie Lancaster, Linda Cattell, and Sandy Mayer. Excellent seats are still available for all three performances. Tickets are on sale at the Pump & Pantry, and are priced at $3 and $5. Tickets may also be purchased at the door. All seats are reserving.

Summer Swimming Classes Underway

"Swim for Your Life," the Chelsea Recreation Department swimming program, will hold its last session July 24 through Aug. 4.

"We have had a tremendous turnout this summer and our staff has been excellent," Mrs. Noreen Williams, supervisor of the program commented.

Noreen, a college graduate in secondary education, has taught swimming for 20 years, and is a water safety instructor. She is the wife of Marlis Williams, an engineer at Chrysler Proving Grounds and the mother of six children.

She is joined by Laurie VonHofe, supervisor and coach of the Chelsea Swim Club; Kim Nicola, Shelly Springer, Shannon Springer, Sara Borders, Kathy Volta, and Michele Clark, who have been teaching classes this summer.

"Our teachers have the enthusiasm and humor needed to create a desire in the students to learn and the logical and practical teaching techniques to make that desire a reality," Noreen commented.

While the classes follow the Red Cross outlines, procedures, and award systems, "our methods of teaching is a little unconventional in that we use a team method. This involves telling the student that all the teachers share in the responsibility to teach them. Students are grouped according to present achievement level, and as they progress, they are placed with a group of students with that same skill level. This helps the students progress much more rapidly because they are not held back by less skilled students," Noreen explained.

Classes offered in the final program include:

Aqua Tot's—Classes begin at 8 a.m. for three-year-olds and under. A parent must accompany the child in the water. Class objective is to help the parent teach their child water safety skills, adjustment to enjoy the water, and basic swimming techniques.

3- and 4-year-olds classes meet M-F at 10 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Children learn the fundamental skills and are taught that the responsibility to learn to swim is theirs. Teachers will provide the techniques, skill drills and love that it takes for a teacher-student team to be successful.

5- and 6-year-olds meet at 10:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Classes emphasize fundamental skills and working on breathing co-ordination, and some survival techniques.

7- and 8-year-olds meet at 11 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. for development of co-ordinated swimming skills. They work on correct movements for effectiveness.

An 11:30 a.m. class for 5-year-olds and up is divided into skill groups and is an hour for individual attention.

11- and 12-year-olds meet at noon and 1:30 p.m. Advanced swimmers of this class work on endurance and distance as well as four new strokes and performance exactness.

Adult swimmers meet on Tuesday and Thursday. For more information, call the Charles S. Cameron Pool at Beach School, 475-1425.

Recreational swimming is held Monday through Sunday, 2:30 to 4 p.m., and Monday through Friday 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. Fee is 50 cents per swimmer.

Diving lessons are available M-F from 12:30 p.m. and 1 p.m. Fee for the swimming classes is $10 for residents, and $12 for non-residents.

Post Office Will Be Open Even If Workers Strike

When postal workers' three-year contract expires Thursday night at midnight and a settlement or contract extension have not been agreed on, Chelsea Postmaster Richard Schaules is prepared in the event of a mail strike.

"We will do our utmost to see that each and every Chelsea resident receives whatever mail we can and is able to receive state and federal payments. Social Security checks, and purchase food stamps," Schaules stated.

According to Schaules, he is not certain what position many of his employees will take if there is a strike, but "whatever happens will be here, along with my assistant Larry Williams, and who ever shows up for work. No one will be turned away if they want to work," he said.

Plans include keeping the post office open during regular hours and a system where "people can come in and pick up their mail even if they don't have a post office box. We will process and sort mail, and give it to people as they come in," Schaules said. "We will utilize all the help we can get if there is a strike," he added.

Remembering a past strike, Schaules said "these strikes don't affect small towns as they do large ones but there is a problem in receiving mail to give to people."

QUOTE

"Regrets are the natural property of gray hairs."
—Charles Dickens.

PETOSKEY BOUND: An outstanding pitching constituent, coupled with superior fielding and hitting, the Chelsea Amateur Softball Association 16-18-year-old fast pitch team holds an 8-1 record for the season and has been declared the league champion. The team has qualified to play in the ASA double elimination tournament in Petoskey, to be held this week-end, where eight teams will meet. Chelsea lost only one game to Pinckney during the season and, because ASA rules allow a team to pick up two extra members for the tournament, Chelsea has chosen Roxanne Johns, pitcher for the Pinckney team, to join them. Chelsea also chose

Amy Hume. Pitcher standings are, Ann Elsele, 1-0; Diane Thompson, 3-0; Cara Feeney, 3-0; and Shelly Weber, 1-0. Because of their outstanding performance on the field the girls will travel to Petoskey July 22-23 for the Amateur Softball Association Championship tournament. Facing one of their toughest challengers, the Ann Arbor PROS, on Friday, July 14, Chelsea ran away with the game, 22-12.

Girls Softball Teams Going to State Tourney

Chelsea 13-15-year-old Girls Fast-Pitch team won two more games last week to extend their undefeated streak to eight, and earn the right to represent the League in the Amateur Softball Association 13-15 Fast-Pitch Championships in Petoskey this week-end, July 22-23. The 13-15-year-old girls will make the trip with Chelsea's 16-18-year-old Fast-Pitch team which will also represent their League in the ASA Tournament.

Chelsea opened the week by defeating Stadium Bike on Wednesday, July 12, 22-11. Diane Thompson pitched three strong innings as Chelsea jumped out to a 14-4 lead. Cara Feeney and Ann Elsele finished up for Chelsea as the game ended in five innings.

Shelly Weber was outstanding at the plate, leading Chelsea's hitting attack with five hits in five trips to the plate. Shelly contributed two doubles, and a home run, scoring five runs. Also contributing to the Chelsea attack was Amy Unterbrink with a double and a home run and Maggy Sweet who had three singles.

Paula Haist, playing behind the plate, had her best game of the year as she threw out four runners to continually get Chelsea out of trouble. Paula cut down two runners advancing to third, one trying to steal second, and one at the plate.

Chelsea completed the week by defeating the PROS in six innings on Friday, July 14, 22-12. The PROS kept the game close until Chelsea broke it open in the fourth inning by scoring eight runs. Chelsea appeared very nervous as the game began and committed five errors in the first three innings, but finally settled down and played well through the last three innings, holding the PROS to only two runs.

Cara Feeney started for Chelsea, but moved to second base as Cara had trouble finding the plate from the pitching mound. Diane Thompson came on in relief and completed the game to record her third win of the year. Thompson pitched an excellent game under a great deal of pressure and was credited with pitching six innings, facing 33 batters, giving up only six hits, 10 walks, eight runs and striking out four.

Anita Powell, Shelly Weber, Amy Unterbrink, and Paula Haist again provided much of the Chelsea scoring punch. Powell led the attack with three doubles and five RBI's, followed by Shelly Weber with two hits, one of which was a bases-loaded triple. Unterbrink drove in four runs with two hits while Haist had two hits and three RBI's. Defensively Amy Hume made a strong game in center field, making two good catches and throwing out a runner at home.

Chelsea's Coaches, Pat Clarke, and Charles Waller said that the girls are very excited about going to play in the ASA Tournament in Petoskey next week-end.

S. Vogel Chosen Assistant High School Principal

Gaining a new assistant principal, but losing a U. S. government teacher and tennis and wrestling coach, Chelsea Board of Education approved the appointment of Samuel Vogel as assistant high school principal, effective July 31.

Chosen from approximately 90 applicants, Vogel will fill the position recently vacated by Nancy Schave who had served as assistant principal for two years and has now accepted the position of principal in Galena City, Alaska.

"I know Sam is a good, hard worker who has excellent relations with staff and students alike; he will make a very good assistant principal," John Williams, Chelsea High school principal commented.

Of the 90 applications received by the school district, nine were reviewed and selected by Williams. An advisory committee was formed, made up of high school department heads, who in turn interviewed the nine candidates and selected three to be interviewed by Williams.

"I interviewed each person for nearly three hours, including an extensive tour of the community and school facilities, before reaching my decision to select Vogel," Williams said.

Vogel first came to Chelsea after receiving his bachelor of arts degree in political science from the University of Michigan in 1968 and was a student teacher in U. S. government for the 1968-69 school year. In 1969 he taught at Cassidy Lake Technical School and in the fall of 1970 returned to Chelsea as a full-time teacher in U. S. government and history.

Vogel also has been the head tennis coach for seven years, and an assistant wrestling coach for eight years. During that time he completed graduate studies at the University of Michigan and received a master's degree in secondary school administration.

In 1975, Vogel served on the North Central Accreditation steering committee for self evaluation of the Chelsea school, and for the past two years, has supervised the Work Opportunity Resources Corporation (WORC) in Chelsea.

"Although Sam has had no actual experience as a building principal, he has a solid background in supervising and he has an excellent knowledge of the community and schools including both students and teachers. He has the ability to develop a rapport with people which is badly needed in this position. It will be a pleasure to work with him," Williams commented.

Because the assistant principal position will be a full-time job, Vogel will not teach or coach next year.

Rosier Players Coming With Tent Show

Vaudeville skits. Stimulating songs and dances. Good wholesome family entertainment at a modest price. You think it's all dead? Nonexistent? Wrong! On July 25-29 the Rosier Players will be coming to Chelsea to present this almost forgotten form of entertainment—the tent show! The whole family can see American History come to life before their very eyes.

Sponsored by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, the Rosier Players of Jackson Community College will be presenting four different plays Tuesday through Friday with a Roaring Twenties Revue on Saturday. The Rosier Players have performed throughout Michigan on numerous occasions in the past, and have always delighted their audiences.

The old time dramatic tent show, once the primary source of entertainment in the United States, enjoyed a popularity like that of nothing else. The show, sometimes called "Toby" shows after the country bumpkin popular in so many of them, date back to before the Civil War. Touring groups would often play in different communities year 'round, travelling in the tent during the summer and appearing in opera houses and theatres during the winter.

The Rosier Players originated in Mason as the Henderson Stock

Co. in 1898. Travelling throughout the midwest, the company was one of about 30 repertory shows originating in Michigan.

Over the years, as the popularity of TV and movies grew, interest in repertory shows fell off.

One by one the shows disappeared until now the Rosier Players are the very last of the old time tent shows in America. In 1976 Rosier donated the tent show and much of its material to Jackson Community College, with the provision that it continue to perform the old time shows while training younger actors.

Featured along with the Rosiers this year will be Ken and Roberta Griffin, popular illusionists direct from Hollywood. Rounding out the professional company of 23 will be several talented young adults from various parts of the state. Expertly directed by Gerald L. Blanchard, the show is sure to entertain.

The Rosier Players will be performing in their tent five nights from July 25-29. They will be appearing on the grounds of Chelsea High school. The doors will open nightly at 7:30, with the show starting at 8:30. So bring the whole family, for a full week of songs, dances, skits, plays, popcorn, lemonade, and a whole lot of old fashioned fun.

For more information contact Gerald Blanchard at 787-0800 ext. 279.

Adult Softball Teams Preparing for Tourneys

With the end of the regular season today, Chelsea Recreation Department Adult Softball Leagues are preparing for their post-season tournaments.

First round of games is at the Chelsea High school on Tuesday,

July 25 at 6 and 7:30 p.m. Play continues at the same times on Wednesday, July 26, and at 6, 7:30 and 9 p.m. on Thursday, July 27. Finals will be on Saturday, July 29, at 4 p.m.

In fast-pitch action, Ann Arbor Centerless has clinched the league teams in the league will, however, play a single elimination tournament to sharpen up for the state tourney in August. The first round of games will be Wednesday, July 26, at 6:30 and 8:30 p.m. with the finals on Saturday, July 29 at 5:30 p.m.

Trains Block Crossings

Engines and tempers ran hotter than usual Friday and Saturday mornings as Con-Rail trains blocked railroad crossings in excess of 30 minutes both days.

While some motorists took advantage of the inconveniences by visiting with fellow stranded friends or by planning their day's strategies and feats, others idled along with their engines, drumming fingers and fuming.

Friday's traffic snarl began at approximately 7:30 a.m. and after several false alarms, gates rose at 8:15 a.m. Although the book says that any train which blocks a crossing for more than five minutes will be ticketed, none was issued Friday. "Unless someone comes in to sign a complaint, or we see the train blocking a crossing for more than five minutes, we can't issue a ticket," Chelsea (Continued on page eight)

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I worry about folks that feel pressure to make "instant" decisions. To my way of thinking too many of us have got the idea that studying a situation up one side and down the other is out of date. There's too much going on in the world to waste time mulling over a problem, we say, we got to act in haste and, if it don't work out, take our time repenting. I got a feeling that's why men and boys don't carry Barlow's no more.

Back when we were coming along, Mister Editor, a feller would as soon go out naked as without his pocketknife. Some of the sissy ones used em to peel apples and some of the tough ones cut their chewing plugs with em, but the real purpose was whittling. Folks don't whittle much any more, and I think that's a shame.

Some of the best thinking that ever went on was while men was whittling. My Pa loved to whittle and deal, and he found it hard to do one without the other. If he was doing some heavy trading he would work his way through a porch post, a wagon tongue, or whatever was handy. He told me once he whittled clean through the arm of a chair at the bank while he was dickering fer terms on a loan, and the banker got the upper hand by trying to throw in damage to the furniture.

It's too early to tell if folks in California voted before they thought on 'starving their local governments to death, but I got the feeling they ought to of done a little whittling first. The good part of that Proposition 13 is that folks burdened by property tax had a chance to tell everybody how they felt, but after the dust settles I wonder if they ain't going to find they poisoned the wrong well. That's the one they go to fer schools, police, fer all the services they take fer granted, and if that one dries up they got to find another one. Fer all its drawbacks, the property tax hits hardest at them that's got property, and that means big business and big industry. If local governments have to turn to other wells like local income tax to pay the help to pick up the garbage and fight the fires it's going to hit everybody that has income. More have income than have property.

I mentioned my thinking on this matter to the fellers at the county store Saturday night, and I got shot out of the saddle quick. Ed Doolittle allowed Proposition 13 was the greatest event in America since the Boston Tea Party. He said that message more than made up for all the wild things that come out of California. He said he had been concerned about a court ruling out there that forcing dogs to wear collars was unconstitutional because people, goldfish, birds and other Americans don't have to wear em. But Ed said he'll put on a flea collar himself if enough people will set up and take note that they still got their governments in the jug and the stopper in their hands.

It was Clem Webster that got in the closing remarks. Clem sees black whenever Ed sees white, and vice versa, and he said Ed's thinking put him in mind of nothing as much as the farmer that burned down his barn to get rid of the rats.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Legislature Clears Docket
 People should never watch two things being made—sausage and laws.

The second was proven again this year during the last session of the legislature before summer recess when the final 19-hour marathon session resulted in finalizing the budget of more than $7 billion, of which $4.2 billion will come from the general fund.

After a certain period during a Friday-Saturday session, legislators would have voted for anything, and often did, just to leave Lansing for a two-month summer recess and begin full-time campaigning for the August primary election.

Members of the Senate were actually locked in the chamber and the State Police were dispatched to return absent members. The House meanwhile appealed to members to stay for the final votes but had only 88 out of 109 members present for the final vote.

Absolutely no time is given to the membership to review the budget before they are asked to cast a final vote to set the budget for the upcoming 1978-79 fiscal year.

For example, the legislature, without as much as a hint of discussion, approved the massive $2.4 billion social services budget and the $1.9 billion appropriation for the state's public school districts.

There was, at one time, a possibility of the legislature spending more time considering the budget due to the 18-hour notice requirement under the state's open meeting act.

However, prior to the final push to finish the budget, the legislature passed separate legislation exempting its own conference committees from that notification requirement and set a six-hour requirement for first meetings and only a one-hour requirement for further meetings.

As usual, besides approving the upcoming fiscal year, the legislature used the final days of the session to bring numerous subjects before the body where they were approved with little or no debate.

Final legislation action was taken on no fewer than 57 bills during the last week with many subjects areas receiving only minor debate while some items received no debate at all.

The House had in its possession legislation banning double-bottom tankers on state highways for more than nine months and spent more than two weeks hotly debating the question. However, the Senate rammed the bills through with only token debate within a single day.

The Senate also spent only a few minutes on a proposed constitutional amendment that will appear on the November ballot to allow the voters to decide whether to deny bail bonds in certain felony cases.

The House again spent much time debating the proposal that could deny bail, at the court's discretion, for a person accused of first degree sexual conduct, armed robbery or kidnapping with intent to extort unless the court had clear evidence the defendant would not flee the state, for a person accused of committing a violent crime while on bail, and for a person accused of a felony and has at least two prior convictions for violent crimes in the past 15 years.

Two key items of the $168 million state transportation package were sidetracked during the waning hours of the session when they were sent to the Senate Appropriations Committee for further study.

The measures provide for an al-

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Duane E. Schiller of Chelsea, formerly of Stoughton and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford D. Bakken of Stoughton, Wis., parents of the bridegroom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an A-line empire gown of white organza. A pastel pink accented pleated ruffle trimmed with veil and alencon lace formed the scoop neckline and back. The same ruffle also trimmed the cathedral length train and hemline. A pink sash with venise lace accented the empire waistline. She also wore a waltz-length veil of white bridal illusion which was attached to a Juliet headpiece of venise lace. Appliques of matching lace decorated the veil. She carried a lacy German bible which had been given to her grandfather in 1907. Attached to the bible were two cymbidian orchids. A bow with ribbon streamers completed the arrangement.

bridegroom wore a white tuxedo with a pastel pink shirt and accented rosebud. The groomsmen and ring bearer wore similar tuxedos in pale gray with pink shirts and accented carnations.

The mother of the bride wore a blue polyester knit gown and a white rose and blue-tipped daisy corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a jade gown of polyester knit and a corsage of yellow roses and white daisies.

Grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Ernest S. Lafer of Beaveron, presented the communion elements. Melissa Hamilton, sister of the flower girl, handed out rice packets to the guests.

Large baskets of pink carnations, yellow mums, white daisies, grey eucalyptus and baby's breath decorated the altar. Soloist was Dan Johnson of LaCrosse, W's. He sang "The Call," "The Wedding Song," "O Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer." Organ music was provided by Mrs. Tom Lawrence of Stoughton.

Following the ceremony, nearly 170 guests attended a sit-down dinner reception and dance at the Stoughton Country Club. Serving at the reception were Joanne Schaffer of Merrillville, Ind., aunt and godmother of the bride, and Sharon Schiller, cousin of the bride of Chelsea.

The couple took a 12-day honeymoon in Florida and the Bahamas. They reside in a home, built by the bridegroom, on Mesa Dr. in Oregon, Wis.

The bride is a medical technology major at the University of Wisconsin in Madison and is employed by Madison Radiologists, S.C. The bridegroom is currently employed as a machinist at Dana Corp., Edgerton, Wis.

Denise Salyer, Michael H. Long Are Wed at Methodist Church

Denise Salyer and Michael Hibbard Long were united in marriage Saturday, July 8 at 2 p.m. before 300 guests in the First United Methodist church.

The Rev. Marvin H. McCallum performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin E. Salyer, 315 Wilkinson St., and the son of Mrs. Marjory R. Long and the late A. G. Long, 5335 Central Western Springs, Ill. The bridegroom is of 9601 Textile Rd., Ypsilanti.

The full sheer sleeves gathered into buttoned cuffs and her chapel-length veil was edged with bridal illusion scalloped lace. She carried a flowing cascade arrangement of white roses and baby's breath accented with blue and white stephanites and trailing ivy.

Mrs. Shelia Hughes of Battle Creek was matron of honor. She wore a silky polyester gown of light blue with pleated ruffled bodice and spaghetti straps. She wore a white picture hat with a light blue ribbon and a spray of white, pink, and yellow daisies and baby's breath. She carried a white mesh basket of white, yellow and pink daisies, pink sweetheart roses and ivy streamers.

Bridesmaids were Laurie Little, friend of the bride, and Joyce Hellenga, friend of the bride. They wore pale blue gowns identical in style as the matron of honor's and carried matching baskets without sweetheart roses.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Salyer wore a loose fitting, slightly flared floor-length dress of chiffon with a light blue background accented with pink flowers. She chose a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Although timely, concern over rising noise levels is by no means a recent development, according to hearing specialists. They point out that concern about noise pollution dates back to ancient Rome when the lawmakers of that era placed restrictions on evening chariot traffic in an effort to reduce nocturnal noise levels.

Sheep Producers Face Referendum On Deduction Plan

Washtenaw county is known to be the largest sheep-producing county in Michigan. According to Dorothy M. Howard, county executive director for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, Mrs. Howard reports that the U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) and the American Sheep Producers Council have announced a proposal that would allow USDA to withhold funds from government incentive payments made to producers. The deductions, which would be used to help finance the council's advertising, promotion and producer information activities, would amount to 2 1/2 cents per pound of shorn wool and 12 1/2 cents per hundred-weight of unshorn lambs.

Before the proposed agreement can go into effect, it must be approved by sheep producers voting in a referendum to be held later this summer. The exact dates of the referendum will be announced later, according to Mrs. Howard. Proposed rules for conducting the referendum were published in the June 13 Federal Register; the proposed agreement was published in the June 27 Federal Register. Copies of proposed referendum rules and the proposed USDA-ASCS agreement may be ordered from the director, Emergency and Indemnity Payments Division, USDA-ASCS, P. O. Box 2415, Washington, D. C. 20013.

Pinckney Man Helps

His Squadron Win Competitive Award

Navy Aviation Structural Mechanic Airman Larry P. Tipton, whose wife, Sandra, is the daughter of Virginia Grant of 410 Hamburg St., Pinckney, has helped his squadron win a competitive award.

He is assigned to Attack Squadron 147, based at Naval Air Station, Lemoore, Calif., and currently embarked aboard the aircraft carrier USS Constellation.

This ship was awarded the Navy's Battle Efficiency "E" for excellence in every competitive group of exercises this past fiscal year.

Attack Squadron 147 flies the A7E "Corsair II," a jet bomber designed for all-weather operation and capable of providing both tactical bombing and close air support for ground troops.

Tipton joined the Navy in May 1975.

Those who bemoan the money spent for defense ought to try to estimate the cost of another war.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

To Whom it May Concern,

On Friday, July 14 the girls softball teams, Cardinals and Astros were playing at the high school. While the girls were in the field trying to play their hardest, a guy was mowing the grass—right in the same field. What would he have done if something flew out of the mower and hit one of the girls. I'm sure he could have mowed that field at another time. The girls were only there for about two hours.

Also why is it that other teams of other leagues have set rules to play by? Every time our girls have a game and a new umpire, they get a rule added or changed. How can you expect the girls to enjoy the game. I thought that was the reason for having the league.

Why not get a set of rules printed up so the coaches and umpires play the same. The parents would be less confused right along with the girls.

Last year there were five and six teams, this year there are only three. Next year maybe none.

Hope the right person or persons read this so some action can be taken. A set of rules would make a lot of difference in the girls attitude.

A concerned and confused mother
Helen Scripser.

Scott Kramer pled guilty to driving with a suspended license. Fines and costs, $75 and a three day jail term, suspended.

David A. Sova pled guilty to careless driving. Fines and costs, $75.

Stanley P. Lucynski pled guilty to not having an operator's license in possession. Fines and costs, $150.

Thomas D. Baler was found guilty of assault and battery. Fines and costs, $200. He was sentenced to one year probation and 10 days with the Washtenaw County Work Program. He was also sentenced to pay restitution to the complainant as determined by the probation department.

Sharon L. Fox pled guilty to speeding. Fines and costs, $35.

When everybody used fans, nobody cared about EER.

The most important gift of all

WINANS JEWELRY

Years ago, when summers got hot enough to fry an egg on the sidewalk, you could switch on the fan and hope for a change in the weather. The last thing you cared about was energy efficiency rating, or EER.

Today, air conditioners keep people comfortable during the summer heat. And it's important to know that some units use less electricity than others to do the same job.

So, if you're buying a new portable air conditioner to cool one room, or central air conditioning to cool the whole house—look for a model with a high energy efficiency rating—or EER number. You'll save energy and money if you buy a model with an EER of 8 or more.

Air conditioners, like refrigerators and other major appliances, are big energy users. And the more efficient they are, the less they cost to operate.

So it's important to use all your major appliances properly and keep them in good operating condition.

Detroit Edison has helpful booklets on the wise use of electricity. Stop in at any Customer Office and pick up what you need.

Save where it really counts.

How to check for curvature of spine
If you've ever grown trees, you know how essential it is in the early stages to start the seedling growing straight. Tying the young plant to stakes can give it a good beginning and keep it from bending.
In a very real sense, much of the same philosophy applies to raising children. All of us hope that our offspring will grow up straight and healthy, but we usually don't know if we're doing a good job of it.
One of the dangers is that the bruise or back pain in childhood may go away in a day or so, only to return years later in a different and more severe form.
Scoliosis, or curvature of the spine, is one condition that should be attended to as soon as possible. And here's how you can test for it in your child. Have the child bend straight forward from the waist, head level with the back and arms hanging loosely. Look closely at the muscles on both sides of the spine. If the muscles "bunch" up on one side, the strong possibility of scoliosis is present.
To make sure, schedule an examination for your child with a doctor of chiropractic. If curvature is not present, your mind will be relieved. But if there is scoliosis, your chiropractor can immediately start a program aimed at correcting the condition.
Like almost anything else back problems are more easily and effectively handled when they are discovered early.

VA Home Loan Rules Liberalized

Because the high cost of real estate today may keep some married veterans from seeking GI home loans, the Veterans Administration wants veterans to know their spouse's ability may be counted in computing the loan amount for which they may qualify.
VA policy considers the full combined income of both the veteran and spouse when the income of the veteran alone is not sufficient to qualify for the amount of the loan.
The same standards applied to the income of the veteran are applied to that of the spouse. The type and duration of employment will determine if the income of either or both can be considered reliable for the relatively long term of loan payments.
The VA exercises judgment and discretion based on facts in particular cases. No hard and fast rules apply.
Potential family growth is no longer considered by VA in determining income for loan purposes, and VA has been successful in discouraging lender solicitation from veterans or their wives regarding child-bearing capability.
For further information, call the Veterans Affairs Office at 871-8600 or 974-2519 or stop at the office at 4133 Washtenaw, Ann Arbor.

LOANS FOR NEW YORK CITY

New York's Mayor Edward Koch has asked Congress for federal loan guarantees to keep the nation's largest metropolis from becoming a "dead city." Its jobs and wealthier classes gone and only its poor remaining.

Jaycee Auxiliary
Twenty-two years ago today the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary began their journey. They propelled themselves into the stratosphere toward a destination that is easily visible and can be pinpointed on a map. However, this special place can't be measured physically in terms of its real value. Our Auxiliary continues to strive for that goal, using community service, Jaycee assistance and personal growth to stride ever closer. Nine years ago Neil Armstrong landed on the moon and since then 12 astronauts have walked and rode over 60 miles there during 160 hours there and conducted over 50 experiments, but no water or life was found there. Unfortunately, the technology that made it all possible was unable to locate and utilize the abundant, untapped source of all that is best in people — the WOMAN in the Moon! By continuing the course you have set, we feel confident YOU will make it. Thank you for all that you have done for your community and its people, the Chelsea Jaycees and, ultimately, yourselves. We have all become better people for your efforts.

Congratulations and Happy Birthday!

Con-Rail Troubles

Police Chief George Meranuck said.

On Saturday, however, when Con-Rail closed the crossings at 8:06 a.m. and impeded hurried motorists from attending to their Saturday morning chores or jobs until 8:47 a.m., Chelsea police issued a ticket for blocking a crossing for 40 minutes.

"40 minutes seems to be a popular amount of time for trains to obstruct traffic, although I once ticketed a railroad company for an hour and 40 minutes blocking," Meranuck said.

The ability to hear better in noisy places than in quiet locations may be the sign of a hearing loss, according to hearing specialists. Persons experiencing this condition should have a hearing test at their earliest convenience, the specialists say.

VACATION HOME AND TAXES

If you build or buy a vacation home, you can let it help your annual tax bill and still enjoy it for your family's pleasure. However, with the 1978 tax reform bill (effective 1/1/77) there have been changes restricting some of the deductions under certain conditions.

For starters — whether you use it for yourself or not, there are always the usual deductions for mortgage interest and property taxes. The interest deduction can be considerable during the early years of the loan.

There are other deductions that also may be taken — just as you would if you owned an apartment house for an investment: depreciation, maintenance, utilities, insurance, etc.

In order to take these deductions the total cannot exceed the amount of rental income (less taxes and interest) and the home cannot be occupied by the owner for more than two weeks or 10% of the rental use. However, rents are not taxable if the house is rented less than 15 days.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Astros Still Leading Babe Ruth League

With fine weather providing the setting, Babe Ruth teams played a full schedule, and as the standings show, the Astros continue to be the team to beat.

Depth of the Astros pitching was evident as two new pitchers, Doug VanDeven and Nick Krzyzanski won games against the Pirates and Athletics, respectively. Jeff Catano won a third game against the Reds.

Pirates provided the stiffest test yet for the Astros as Dan Alber, returning from an injury, baffled the Astros with good side arm pitching. Dan limited the Astros to only three runs. Unfortunately, the Pirates could manage only two runs as they lost, 3-2.

In addition to the performance by Alber, a fine game was produced by Joel Krichbaum in an earlier contest against the Orioles. Joel was the winning pitcher and also contributed two solid hits.

Second place Reds continued to play great ball as they defeated the Dodgers with a solid 17-0 score. Dave Kennedy pitched the pitcher which was probably the best pitching display in the league this summer. Rob Ianni helped in the game by contributing six RBIs in three hits. Tod Aeschliman had four hits including a home run, double, and single.

On Saturday, July 15, the 15-year-old All Stars traveled to Lansing for the District Tournament. They met, however, a strong Saline team and lost, 7-2. Saline jumped on pitcher Tom Malcolm for four runs in the first inning. Chelsea countered with two runs immediately and played even until the seventh inning when errors by Chelsea allowed three more runs by Saline.

Jeff Fouty had three hits and Dave Kennedy two hits but, overall the Chelsea All Stars were unable to put enough hits together to produce many runs.

In the final tournament game Saline faced a tough Ypsilanti and lost, 7-5, placing second in the contest.

This Saturday, July 22, a team of 13-year-old All Stars will venture to Grass Lake for a tournament. Representing Chelsea will be Bob Trevino, Matt Villemure, Dave Wojcicki, Tim Whitesall, Will Morley, Jamie Owings, Randy Krichbaum, and Dave Petsch.

Dexter will send Tod Aeschliman, Walt Edwards, and Phil Guccio. From Manchester will be Jim Krzyzanski and Pete Johnson.

DRAMATIC REMODELING: In as little as two weeks, the First Assembly of God, 14900 Old US-12, has a spectacular new roof, transforming the church from its former box-like structure to one with personality. Planning for the construction began last March with construction by William Birchnieff of Pinckney starting two weeks ago. "I am very pleased with the results so far and think that it has made the building appealing to the community," Pastor Richard Coury commented. Included in the new design is the addition of insulation, a fiberglass steeple ordered from Texas, the remodeling of the pastor's study, and new aluminum and glass doors to replace the former wood doors. "We knew the roof needed repair and thought that in the process we could make a real contribution to the community by altering the church's appearance at the same time," Coury said. The project will cost the church approximately $16,000 and should be completed by Aug. 1. Before the church was built in 1959, members attended services on the second floor of a downtown business. Currently more than 50 members attend services at the church.

Village OKs New Equipment Purchase

Two new pieces of equipment, a radio and a Vibrastat II roller worth nearly $5,000, were approved for purchase during the Tuesday, July 11 Village Council meeting, according to Don Wood, village president.

A two-meter Yaesu amateur radio was purchased from the Chelsea Communication Club at a cost of $290 "for virtual exclusive use in civil defense or weather emergencies in Chelsea and the surrounding area," according to Bill Wade, managing director of the Communications Club.

Wade, whose volunteer club formed just more than a year ago to assist the village in communications during disasters, said that the radio will allow amateur radio operators to speak to places as far away as Battle Creek by "activating rebroadcast stations in fixed locations."

While the village has had access in the past to this type of radio, the purchase "will save a lot of time, and free radio operators for mobile applications," Wade explained.

"Last year, our club carried one of our own radios to the basement of the Municipal Building for use during the snow emergency. With a permanent radio located there, we can spend less time moving it back and forth and free radio operators to go out on the road and report back to us or help transport people out of an area," Wade said.

The radio is an addition to the current village communication system which includes a CB radio base station and the regular fire and police broadcasting equipment. "The two-meter radio is very versatile; capable of sending messages to any licensed amateur radio operator in Ann Arbor, Jackson, Adrian, Lansing, or Toledo. By activating repeater stations in these areas we can extend our line of communication even further," Wade said.

Council also approved the allocation of $4,818 from Federal Revenue Sharing Funds for a Vibrastat II vibrating roller from Miller Equipment Co.

According to Fred Petsch, director of the Department of Public Works, the roller is the village's first road repair major equipment purchase and will be used for black-topping, small road cuts made by his department for new sewer line installation.

"Since last winter we have made 15 cuts in the roads and when we acquire the roller we will be able to resurface the cuts with black-top," Petsch explained.

In the past, the village has had to contract out this type of minor road work.

Wayne Oliver Faces Charges of Disorderly Person

Wayne Allan Oliver, 203 North St., Chelsea, was arrested on charges of disorderly person Monday evening, July 17, according to Chelsea Police Department reports.

Oliver was arrested following an incident in a local bar where he was refused a drink. Oliver began tipping tables and chairs over in the bar and was ordered out of the bar, according to the reports.

"Patrolman Hall was outside the bar when Oliver came out and Oliver began yelling at him, Auxiliary Officer Detling, and a passing motorist that he would 'take anyone on,'" Police Chief Meranuck said.

Oliver was placed under arrest, taken to the Chelsea station, and transported to the Washtenaw county jail. He was released the following day to appear in court July 24.

South School Parent-Teacher Group To Meet

Purpose of this meeting is to organize fall projects and to plan new features for the newsletter. Raymond Van Meer, new superintendent of Chelsea schools will attend this meeting to become familiar with PTS and to offer suggestions he may have concerning PTS.

Parents are invited to bring their children along to play in the park.

STANOWSKI FOR DISTRICT JUDGE

To the Citizens of Washtenaw County:

I am a candidate for the 14th District Court judgeship because I believe that the quality of the judiciary determines the quality of justice. Respect for the law is the cornerstone of a free and well ordered society. My record, diversified experience and knowledge of the law demonstrates that I can provide the necessary judicial leadership and the high standards of performance that are essential for the respect and cooperation of my fellow citizens within Washtenaw County.

The community asks much of the criminal court and the court is expected to meet their demands by controlling crime. Controlling crime is not solely the task of the police, the courts or correction agencies. Crime prevention and control requires total involvement and participation of the entire community. Without the interest and participation of the schools, businesses, social agencies, private groups and individual citizens, crime in our society will continue to be a multi-million dollar business. We can no longer tolerate public apathy, reluctance or an inability of society to take effective action against the criminal element. I believe that we must lead the trend to reverse public accommodation of crime and violence.

It is my belief that the court has a vital function in balancing the rights of individuals and the needs of the community. The community is entitled to freedom from fear and should not permit the intolerable situation of one man preying upon another. The complex balancing process of protecting the rights of an individual and the interests of the community must be premised upon the principle that people are accountable for their actions and criminals are responsible for their crimes.

The principles of justice demand complex and time consuming procedures in which the court must separate the innocent from the guilty. However, the guilty, who are convicted, must be punished with reasonable certainty and promptness, so that, the deterrence of crime will not be blunted. A society which does not insure its safety and nourishes lawlessness is governing itself by the absurd.

In choosing to seek the office of Judge, I have placed my confidence in the Voters of Washtenaw County, and I urge that you now generously respond to my candidacy by placing your confidence in me.

Respectfully,

John W. Stanowski

Termed by many as the classes of the field, Pro Dragsters, Pro Funny Cars, Pro Comp vehicles, and Pro Stocks, are expected to wage a torrid qualifying session beginning Friday afternoon, and continuing Saturday for the 16 positions open in each eliminator. The top 16 in each class will be pitted against each other in the final eliminations on Sunday, July 23, beginning at 1 p.m.

The powerful vehicles in their respective classes are referred to as the quickest and fastest in the field and usually are the hardest on equipment. Should a driver be bumped from the field qualifying he will come back and punish his vehicle severely in order to get back into the lineup. Should he fail to do so he will go home with nothing. However, if he makes the field it is certain that he will go home with a certain amount of cash even if he loses in the first round of eliminations on Sunday.

Many previous winners and runner-ups at the Hires-IHRA Northern Nationals are expected to return to defend their titles, plus the 80 drivers that are in the top 10 in Winsor Points in the run for the championship this fall.

Soil, Water Conservation Program Will Be Planned

Soil and water are two of our basic natural resources. The use of these resources effect our daily lives as well as the lives of future generations.

Soil and water conservation programs in Washtenaw county have a long and successful history of being locally initiated, planned and managed through the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District. The actual field work being done by the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation Service.

Last fall, Congress passed the Soil and Water Resource Conservation Act better known as the Resources Conservation Act. It calls for an appraisal of the quality, quantity, capability, and condition of the nation's soil, water and related resources; an evaluation of the needs and desires of all people.

An important part of the law is its emphasis on citizen participation in determining the future direction of local communities. This will be accomplished in Washtenaw county through a county-wide survey, and a public meeting. Using the results of the survey and public meeting, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service will develop a program to guide conservation efforts and evaluate the program's effectiveness each year.

Bill Fishbeck, Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District Board Chairman, Clark Eacker, District Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, along with John Comstock, director of Co-operative Extension Service invite you to express your views on this matter on Tuesday, Aug. 8, 8 p.m. at the Co-operative Extension Meeting Room, The Service Center, 4133 Washtenaw Rd. (corner of Washtenaw and Carpenter Rds).

If you would like additional information please call Clark Eacker at 761-6721 or John Comstock at 973-9510.

The Comprehensive and Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973 increased state and local government authority to design and operate their own training programs to meet local needs.

Golden Eagle, Golden Age Passports Available

Taking the family on a camping trip across the country? Plan to visit the national parks? Then the "Golden Eagle" passport, only $10 for calendar year 1978, is something you'll want to buy. Or, if someone in your party is over 62, he or she will want to get a free "Golden Age" Passport.

A free pamphlet from the Department of the Interior tells you all about these special permits. You can get your copy of Golden Eagle and Golden Age Passports by sending a postcard to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 676F, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

The Golden Eagle Passport admits you and a carload of passengers to national parks and recreation areas throughout the United States, during calendar year 1978. And, you may enter these parks as many times as you wish.

You can get your Golden Eagle Passport for $10 (which is not refundable) in person or by mail from National Park Service headquarters, U.S. Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. 20240, or from Forest Service headquarters, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, or at a regional office of either organization. You can also purchase Golden Eagle at any National Park System area where fees are charged. The Golden Eagle is not available at post offices.

If you're 62 or older, Golden Age passports will give you, with your carload of passengers, a free lifetime entrance permit to the national parks, monuments, and recreation areas where fees are charged. Golden Age will also entitle you to a 50 percent discount on fees charged for camping, boat launching, parking, etc. It does not cover private concessions.

To qualify for a Golden Age Passport, you'll need to go in person to show proof of age. You may use a driver's license or birth certificate (Medicare cards won't do since they're also issued to certain people under 62). But, if you have no proof of age, you may sign an affidavit attesting to your age.

Like Golden Eagle, you can get Golden Age Passports at a number of recreation areas and regional offices of the National Park System or Forest Service. Check your local phone book, under "U.S. Government."

For more information, including a list of monuments and recreation areas, send for the free pamphlet, Golden Eagle and Golden Age Passports. You'll also receive a free copy of the Consumer Information Catalog that lists more than 200 other free or low-cost publications of consumer interest. The free Catalog is published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration.

Farmers Must Report Crops By July 31

Farm producers participating in the set-aside program as well as those not participating must certify crop acreages at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office by July 31. This date has been extended to enable all farmers to complete reporting. It is important to certify for current program purposes and for future program years.

The 1977 Agricultural Act provides that participating farmers will be eligible for voluntary diversion payments, disaster payments in case of crop loss, and deficiency payments in case of low market. Also, participation is necessary for obtaining price support loans on grain.

First President To Ride A Train

Andrew Jackson became the first president to ride a train when he boarded a Baltimore & Ohio car for a short ride to Baltimore on June 8, 1833. Trains were still new to the country then, the DeWitt Clinton, only the third train in the nation, having been introduced in 1831. The growth of the industry from its humble beginnings in the 1830s can be seen in the Transportation Collections of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, at trains from the DeWitt Clinton through the giant Allegheny steam locomotive which plied the Appalachian mountains in the 1940s.

Unless you're crazy about the drive, there's no real reason to drive into Detroit looking for new car bargains. Rampy Chevrolet in Ann Arbor is a lot closer and you'll get the same low prices you find in Detroit—maybe even lower. At Rampy you'll also find the kind of careful, competent, come again service you expect from small town folks who know their neighbors.

You see, Rampy's not just the biggest Chevrolet dealer in Washtenaw County, he's got the biggest dealership of any kind in the country. That means that he's governed by the same kind of high volume economics you've been driving all the way into Detroit to find.

On the other hand, Ann Arbor is a town where people do know each other. Word gets around. And the word is that Rampy gives good service after the sale. As a matter of fact, Rampy's service department has been used as a model for training other Chevrolet dealers.

Isn't it time you took a detour?
Before you drive all the way into Detroit looking for a new car . . . stop at Rampy.

Dana Building New Take-Off Plant in Texas

Dana Corp. has announced it will build a new plant in Tyler, Tex., to manufacture and assemble a line of power take-off products. Dréxel D. Minshall, senior group vice-president, Service Parts, said that construction of the 70,000 square foot facility is expected to begin in September, and to be completed by June, 1979.

A power take-off mounts onto a vehicle transmission using its gear configuration to drive accessory equipment such as winches, dumps, hoists, cranes, pumps and agricultural implements. PTOs are sold to original equipment manufacturers and as add-on equipment through service parts distributors.

The new Tyler plant will substantially increase Dana's PTO production capacity and improve its delivery and service capability for its vehicular and industrial markets.

The addition gives Dana dual manufacturing sources for the product, which is presently made in Chelsea.
