School Land Annexed To Village

A parcel of 38 acres of land belonging to the Chelsea School District and located in Lima township was approved for annexation to the Village of Chelsea by the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners on Wednesday, Aug. 2.

Located west of Freer Rd. near Old US-12, the land houses the bus garage of the school district.

According to school Superintendent Raymond Van Meer, "the annexation will provide the land and the garage access to village utility services, and police and fire protection."

Village of Chelsea petitioned the annexation during their July 20 meeting. As there was no objection during the public hearing on Wednesday night, the Board approved the petition without debate. Fred Barkley, special grants and project director for the Village, said that certification of the boundary change by the State Boundary Commission is expected soon.

Two Vehicles Burglarized Saturday Night

A rash of thefts were reported to the Chelsea Police Department in the last week, including two auto burglaries on the same night and a stolen flag.

Kermit Sharp of the Chelsea VFW reported that on July 27 when he returned in the evening to Veteran's Park to lower the American Flag it had been stolen. The flag was valued at $18.

Douglas Eder, 555 Taylor Lane, and George Ellenwood, 563 McKinley St., both reported that their vehicles had been burglarized. Eder said that he last saw his Lafayette CB 23 channel radio, valued at nearly $200, when he parked his 1978 Ford pick-up in his driveway Saturday night. On Sunday morning it was missing, according to Chelsea Police reports. Eder said he left the truck unlocked.

Ellenwood, who said that he always locked his 1971 Dodge Monaco station wagon, including Saturday night, reported that four tool boxes were missing when he checked his car Sunday morning. Value of the tools was undetermined.

Chelsea police are investigating the robberies and say that they may have a lead to the two auto thefts.

'Very Light' Vote Recorded In Primary

Matching the state-wide voter turnout of a low 25 percent, local residents made their way to the polls under sunny skies Tuesday, Aug. 3 for the Primary Election. While the figures are unofficial, and at times, incomplete, here are some of the results of the vote.

Sylvan township produced 693 voters. Only one contest there was for a single two-year term of trustee, with Reuben Lesser, Jr. (R) taking 176 votes, defeating Douglas J. Nadeau (R) who had 109, according to Clerk Daniel J. Murphy, a write-in candidate for constable was recorded although there was no official word on this yet.

Dexter township supervisor John Tandy (R) defeated challenger Douglas Smith (R) by 27 votes, 181 to 156. All incumbent candidates will appear on the November ballot, in addition to one contest between Earl Doletsky (D) and incumbent Arlene Howe (R) who are running for trustee.

Lyndon township reported 236 voters who cast 151 no votes and 185 yes votes for Proposition No. 1, and no votes and 55 yes votes for Proposition No. 2. Both propositions were defeated. Candidates were: Republican Linda Wade and fellow Republican Ann Wade.

Wade received 77 votes to Adams' 42 votes. Write-in candidate E. J. Hopkins (R) for constable received an unofficial 9 votes.

In Lima township where no candidate had filed for supervisor a massive write-in effort gave 154 votes to Leila Bauer (R) and 95 to Robert Musolf (R). Contest winners for the two open positions of trustee were Robert L. Heller (R) with 234 votes and Martin Merkel (R) with 163 votes. Harold Gross (D), who collected 55 votes, will face these two GOP candidates on the November ballot. Losing was incumbent Robert V. Wirtz (R) who collected 155.

Scioto township voters elected two trustees to run in the November election, incumbent Robert W. Foster (R) with 431 votes, and Francis Lovejoy, incumbent (R) with 385. Gilbert Pennock (R) received 328 votes while Jerold Wayne Montgomery (R) received 269. In the constable election William A. Bernard received 300 votes and Harley B. Ridor, collected 300 votes.

Webster township had 123 voters who went to polls where there were no contests between candidates.

In District 2 of Washtenaw county, including townships of Dexter, Freedom, Lima, Lyndon, Manchester, and Wade, the results were:

Once again Chelsea and Dexter youth made an impressive showing during the 1978 Washtenaw County 4-H Youth Show Aug. 1-4 at the Farm Council Grounds in Saline.

As they have done for so many years, area exhibitors pulled the highest honors in the livestock division.

In Wednesday's market sheep judging, Cheryl Barels of Dexter took Champion Individual honors and Kirk VanNatter of Dexter was awarded for his Champion Pair of Lambs. Ruth Luckhardt of Dexter carried away the Champion Shropshire Ewe title and Marty Heller of Chelsea received the Grand Champion Ewe title.

On the same day in the swine division, Ricky Baldus of Dexter received double recognition with the Champion Individual award and the Champion Pair of Market Pigs, joined by Lucinda McCalla of Chelsea who carried the Reserve Champion Individual title.

Chelsea had just qualified to play in the National Championships in San Antonio, Tex. where they are now, preparing for battle with softball winners from across the country.

HAPPY GIRLS gather around their equally happy trophy carrying Coach Bill Wescott after the Chelsea ASA fast-pitch team defeated the Detroit Gas House Gang on Saturday, July 29. Placing first in the ASA Great Lakes Regional Championships, the girls qualified to play in the National Championship in Texas Aug. 10-13. With the help of their parents, coaches, and generous Chelsea residents, business, and manufacturing firms, they raised the needed $7,000 to cover the team's expenses. "Chelsea is an absolute fantastic town in giving the team a chance for victory," Don Wood, father of team member Kim, said when they realized that they had enough money to fly the team to Texas.

LOOK OUT TEXAS! Indulging in a little horseplay following their dramatic upset in Ann Arbor two week-ends ago in the ASA Great Lakes Regional Championships, the Chelsea girls throw fists in the air and tumble on the ground, overcome with delight.

Chelsea had just qualified to play in the National Championships in San Antonio, Tex. where they are now, preparing for battle with softball winners from across the country.

Softball Team in Texas for Chance At National Title

Forty-two 16- to 18-year-old girls, their parents, grandparents, and coaches packed their bags Tuesday night and by the time this paper is tucked into your mailbox Thursday morning they'll be swimming in an out-door pool somewhere in San Antonio, Tex.

In a fund-raising effort, not unknown to Chelsea residents when it comes to opening the door for their children, close to $7,000 was pledged and donated to the Chelsea Amateur Softball Association Women's Fast Pitch Team for their hurried, but thrilling, trip to softball land and national competition.

Congratulating the girls, in addition to the hundreds and hundreds of Chelsea well-wishers, was Governor William Milliken who telegraphed his expressions of pride in having Chelsea representing Michigan. The girls received the telegram as they arrived in Texas Wednesday afternoon.

"Chelsea is an absolute fantastic town in giving the team a chance at victory," said Don Wood, father of team member Kim and one of many parents who has seen the ball players win game after game since April.

For those who have followed the play by play recounts of the summer's games, written by Coach Charles Waller, many met the girls for the first time during the sidewalk sales. There was Patti Hume on her crutches, Nanette Push pumping, handshakes with her powerful pitching arm, and Clark, Collinsworth, Ringe, and most of the ASA team, their winning smiles reflecting off their well-earned trophies.

"People's generosity during the sales gave us the edge we needed," Wood said. "We were fairly sure by Wednesday that we would be able to go, but when we received nearly $2,000 on Friday and Saturday we knew that we wouldn't be short," he added.

Wood said that the largest donation was provided by the Chelsea Milling Co., "and the support we received from so many contributors was overwhelming," he said.

In addition to their successful fund-raising drive, the team overcame a few snags that had them wondering if they would have enough members to play with in Texas.

Molly Eisele and her family were vacationing in California; Kathy Voita was studying in an honors program in Terre Haute, Ind.; and no one was sure if the two girls from Pinckney, who joined the Chelsea team for tournament play in Potoskey and Ann Arbor, could go.

"With a little luck we're going to have the entire team in San Antonio by Thursday," Wood said. "Molly and her family will re-route their trip back through Texas and meet us there on Thursday; Kathy will fly from Indiana and meet us and her family on Wednesday night; and both girls from Pinckney are going with us," Wood said on Tuesday.

The 42 member entourage left town Wednesday morning at 6 on board a school bus and flew off in an American Airlines jet to Texas at 8:30 a.m. "We were going to use the reservations made by the team we defeated in Ann Arbor, but it didn't look like it would work so we made other plans," according to Wood.

Once they arrive in San Antonio, they will check into the downtown El Tropicano Motor Hotel where many of the 20 teams who will be playing in the ASA Women's Fast Pitch National Championships Aug. 10-13 are staying also. That night, Wednesday, a party will be given for all 20 teams coming from as far as Oregon, California, and of course, Michigan.

Thursday morning, team pictures will be taken followed by a luncheon where all the coaches and team captains will meet to discuss game rules and meet their competitors.

Chelsea's coaches are Bill Wescott, Charles Waller, and Pat Clarke. Captains are Tracey Hawker, Tammy Collinsworth, and Kathy Voita.

That evening, during opening ceremonies each team will march the field carrying their state flag in a pageant and shortly after the first game will be played.

J. W. Metz Lumber Co. of Colorado will be Chelsea's first opponent and the game's outcome is anyone's guess. "When we were (Continued on page six)

Bank Denied Zoning Change For Parking

"No comment," was the most Paul Mann of the Chelsea State Bank could muster following the tabling of a Conditional Use Permit and the denial of a Zoning Variance requested by the bank during the joint Tuesday Aug. 1 Village Council and Zoning Board of Appeals meetings.

More than 20 Orchard St. residents trooped over to council chambers to express their objections to the bank's designs but in spite of their showing and the ensuing hour and 45 minutes public hearing, council member James Schardein said his decision to move as he did was not influenced by the crowd.

Schardein supported the motion by council member Walt Brown to table the bank's request for a Conditional Use Permit until the village had hired a traffic engineer to study the existing traffic flow at and near the bank and received a report.

"The permit would have given us a lot more space for drivers using the drive-up windows. It would have lessened the tie-up on Main St.," Mann said of the bank's reasons for the request.

According to Mann, the Chelsea State Bank based its request on a plan to convert from the present drive-up facilities to a "pneumatic tube" operation utilizing visual auto tellers.

Instead of driving up to a window with a pull drawer, drivers would drop a tube containing their banking into a chute which would be air-forced into the bank where the teller was.

Orchard St. residents, however, were concerned about the consequences of such a switch over. One resident, who asked to remain anonymous, said, "the bank's plans would have four lanes coming out of the drive-in facilities onto Orchard St. and I think we all have a genuine concern over the amount of traffic this could bring to our street," he said.

Immediately following council's motion to table the action on the permit, the Zoning Board of Appeals convened at 9:15 p.m. for the second public hearing of the evening.

The hearing was held, this time on a variance from the provisions of the parking requirements of Ordinance No. 79. According to the ordinance, parking must extend 20 feet back from sidewalks and adjoining property.

The bank requested a variance from this ordinance, Mann said, for the property located next to its existing parking lot off Orchard St. which the bank is in the process of buying from E. LaVerne Conk, 118 Orchard St. The bank had planned to tear down the house on the property to expand their parking facilities.

James Hoffmeyer, one of the Orchard St. residents, explained the crux of the citizen's dispute. "If the bank had been granted the variance it would have set a precedent for other business in the

Little League Game Goes 11 Innings

Described as the best played game in Chelsea Little League action, the Chelsea Pirates conquered the Royals in an 11-inning marathon, 3-1.

With a tied score of 0-0 for 10 straight innings, the Pirates cracked the game wide open with three runs in the top of the 11th inning.

Superb pitching and great fielding prevented numerous runners in scoring positions from crossing the plate. When the opportunity did come, runners were frequently thrown out at home.

Players from both teams were showered with praise at the game's end. "This was one of those games where both teams emerged champions and 'winner' and 'loser' just didn't seem to apply," one of the team's coaches remarked.

Compromise Tax Plan

In the wake of qualifying constitutional amendments to change the state's property tax system and limiting state expenditures, legislative leaders are trying to put together a new, broader-based, bipartisan coalition to draft another tax limitation plan.

House Speaker Bobby Crim (D-Davison) said the coalition would consist of both legislative Democrats and Republicans, representatives from the governor's office and outside groups to draw up a plan both houses could pass by a two-thirds majority by September 8 to get the question on the November ballot.

Leaders fear the initiative petitions—yet to be certified by the state board of canvassers—cutting property taxes could result in little savings by taxpayers yet destroy revenue pictures of local governments and school systems.

Crim said any legislative plan would be devised not to confuse, but to clarify the other tax limitation and tax cut amendments. The tax limitation amendment has problems in areas like local bonding and industrial tax credits, though it is a concept "that probably could be lived with," Crim said.

The legislative plan will have to answer those problems, reach a compromise on limiting taxes and probably include some property tax relief, he concluded.

Meanwhile, the state Department of Management and Budget released a report showing that Michigan homeowners might not save as much money as they hope if the Tish amendment—cutting property taxes in half—becomes part of the constitution.

The amendment would likely require a tax shift so the state can recover an estimated $1.75 billion in lost revenue, according to the report.

"Although there may be some resistance to raising state taxes, the state does not have a surplus to make up the revenue loss and it would be impossible for government to absorb the $1.75 billion revenue loss without crippling or eliminating basic services," the report said.

The tax shift will almost certainly include an increased income tax—up to the maximum 6.6 percent rate the amendment allows—and reduction or elimination of the property tax credit.

The single business tax will also likely be increased, to recover business property tax loss and local school districts might also levy a one percent income tax, allowed under the proposed amendment.

Some people will save under the amendment, modeled after California's successful Proposition 13, the report says; mainly low-income persons, landowners and capital-intensive businesses.

High income persons, renters and professional services will likely pay more in taxes.

The report also stated other revenues could be raised through increases in cigarette and liquor taxes. Local governments could also be given authority to levy two or three percent income taxes.

Cities now have authority to levy one percent income taxes, except Detroit which can levy up to two percent.

The report concluded the "tax structure that is likely to result would be more regressive than the current tax structure... and less conducive to economic growth."

Your truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ed Doolittle came to the session at the country store Saturday night to unload. He said he was full of all the carrying on about how some people who have been privileged to live longer than some people ought to be put on display like them bears China give to the U.S. Ed said it is bad enough to give us older heads all kinds of special names, but there is a drive in and out of Government to get us apart from the rest of the human race. What got Ed on his soapbox was this plea he had saw where someone called "senior citizens" is going all over the country.

What got them started, Ed reported, is the Older Americans Act that provides tax money to do all kind of things for people that have outlived their usefulness. Actual, Ed said, they don't know they have until the Older Americans Act tells em. When this law lays out all the things you can get just by staying alive, you probably get the notion quick that you ain't fit no longer to associate with ordinary folks.

One thing the law does that is catching on around the country, Ed said, is furnish money to set up places where old folks can go and do together whatever they had been doing separately. This one county that is working on a center says they got to have it cause there are 15,000 people over age 65 in just one town. No mention is made, Ed declared, of the fact that 14,000 and some have found their way through, more of, life than most folks without a center for their particular age group, and hey ain't about to be branded different.

The thinking behind these senior citizens is that folks will leave their homes where they're comfortable and congregate at a strange place with a bunch of strangers with nothing in common but their age. Ed said this country has got nurseries, kindergartens, youth centers, country clubs, classes in church for every age group, and if ain't no wonder we talk about gaps up and down the line. We build in the gaps and then we widen them with ever new Government program, was Ed's words. We figger no problem is so big it can't be solved with enough money. Ed went on, and the more you think about the Older Americans Act the more it sounds like a Stop the Rain Act.

Andrew Jackson became the first president to ride a train when he boarded a Baltimore & Ohio carriage for a short ride to Baltimore on June 6, 1833. Trains were still new to the country then, the DeWitt Clinton, only the third train in the nation, having been introduced in 1831. The growth of the industry from its humble beginnings in the 1830s can be seen in the Transportation Collections of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, at trains from the DeWitt Clinton locomotive which plied the Appalachian mountains in the 1940s.

 telephone tip:

Teach your children
 how to use the phone in an emergency!

Anyone can have an emergency at home that calls for fast, intelligent use of the phone... a sudden illness, accident, fire. Hopefully, you already have a list in your phone book or elsewhere near the phone, giving the numbers of your doctor, hospital, poison control, police, fire department and your home address. But, if you have children at home, would they know how to use the phone in an emergency? Make sure they do.

Show them where you keep the emergency numbers and how to call the operator, if necessary. Your babysitter should be told how to call, too. Know if 911 can be dialed for fire, medical and police help in your area. Nobody likes to think about emergencies at home. But, it's better to give it a little thought now, than be sorry you didn't later. Why not check out the family on your emergency phone call procedure right now?

Karen Kennedy, Randall Bennett Wed at Sharon Methodist Church

Karen Ann Kennedy and Randall Ray Bennett exchanged wedding vows during a late afternoon ceremony, Saturday, July 29, at Sharon United Methodist church, Manchester.

The Rev. Wayne Ferrigan united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kennedy of Manchester and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Foutch of Manchester.

For her wedding, the bride hand-made her gown of white windson with a georgette nylon overlay, sheer full sleeves, and plain neckline. Embroidered lace trimmed the empire waist which dropped to a natural waistline and gathered into a bustle effect. Antique buttons fastened down the back of the gown. The gown's hem was trimmed with lace matching the empire waist as was the mantle veil of sheer georgette nylon.

She carried a spray of pink and white carnations with fern and baby's breath. Matron of honor was Mrs. Douglas Flint of Manchester, sister of the bride. She wore a floor-length gown of pastel blue quiana print, with a full neckline, and a full flared skirt. She carried two pink carnations with fern and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas Labatzky of Saline, sister of the bridegroom; Carol Clark of Grass Lake, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Rodney Kneiper of Dexter; Dianne Sodi and Karen Campbell, both of Manchester.

They wore gowns identical to the matron of honor's and each carried a single stemmed pink carnation with fern and baby's breath. Shavyn Labatzky of Saline was flower girl. She carried a miniature version of the bridesmaid's flowers.

Best man was David Guenther of Manchester. Ushers included Thomas Labatzky of Saline; James Bennett, brother of the bridegroom; Richard Kennedy, brother of the bride; Charles Smith, and Daniel Schable, all of Manchester.

The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo and the groomsmen wore powder blue tuxedos.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Chrysler Proving Grounds Union Hall in Chelsea. Barbara Hinderer and Cathy Clark, cousin of the bride, served punch and coffee. Mrs. James Hartmann and Nicki Lentz served cake.

Meteor Shower Coming Friday Night

Close encounters of the meteoric kind may be seen by amateur skywatchers the night of Aug. 11. Michigan State University astronomer Robert Victor says that is one of the best nights of the year to see meteors.

Victor says that up to 60 meteors per hour may be seen in a period two to four hours before sunrise (early Saturday morning, Aug. 12).

Although the meteors may be seen anywhere in the sky, the particles will originate from the direction of the constellation, Perseus, in the northeast sky, explains Victor.

Meteors are small pieces of matter which become visible when they enter the earth's atmosphere.

If the world had no fanatics, eccentrics and partisans, life might be very dull and tiresome.

MSU Publication Lists Where To Buy, Sell Hay

Persons needing hay for their livestock will find plenty of it listed in a current Michigan State University publication.

In "Michigan Hay Information Clearing House," the current and previous issues contain names and addresses of persons throughout the state having hay for sale or wanting to buy hay. It also details the variety, cutting, quality, package form and the amount available at the site.

Prices vary from location to location, but the average price listed in the latest Michigan Crop Reporting Service publication indicates an average of about $70 per ton.

This is the last MSU hay listing publication until next fall. Since October, Hay Clearing House personnel have published five issues.

Persons interested may examine the publications at the Washtenaw county Co-operative Extension Service office, or at locations such as elevators and farm supply stores.

Drive Continues To Restore Medicaid Abortions for Poor

Citing Michigan as "a crucial test case" in the nation-wide drive to restore Medicaid coverage of abortions for poor women, the head of the nation's leading family planning organization has called for Governor Milliken and the legislature to maintain funding of abortions "along with all other medical services essential to the health and well-being of poor women and their families."

The call came during a news conference arranged by Planned Parenthood for Faye Wattleton, national president of the New York City-based Planned Parenthood Federation of America. Mrs. Wattleton, who is on her first trip to Michigan since assuming the position just three months ago, said that "the legality of abortion in general cannot be separated from the issue of its availability to poor people under public programs."

The inclusion of abortion in such programs, she said, has been largely responsible for a dramatic decline in abortion-related mortality and dramatically high utilization of safe, legal abortion by the poor" since the Supreme Court struck down restrictive state abortion laws five years ago. Last year, the Congress and more than two-thirds of the states ceased paying for most abortions under Medicaid, actions which Mrs. Wattleton criticized, sharply as "grotesque violations of the spirit and purpose of the original Medicaid legislation."

Michigan is among just 14 states which continue to fund abortions for the poor under the Federal-State medical assistance program.

"In the final analysis," Mrs. Wattleton said, "the most compelling case for Medicaid coverage of abortion is based not on legal civil libertarian, or economic arguments — strong though these are — but upon the single issue of human well-being: the image of a child in despair, a poor woman in desperation, a future in shattered pieces, a family strained to breaking point. Will the leadership of this great state, with its fine tradition of concern for society's most vulnerable citizens, turn their backs on these women and their families? I do not believe that they will."

Planned Parenthood Federation of America is the national, voluntary family planning organization in 43 states and the District of Columbia, providing supervised family planning services to more than one million persons in 1977.

An Embassy of Michigan Award was presented to Michigan State University's School of Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management (HRI) by Gov. William Milliken on behalf of the state tourism industry. The award recognizes the HRI school's contribution to the hospitality industry worldwide. MSU's HRI school celebrates its 50th anniversary in 1978.

Wasteful Federal Spending Is Always Someone Else's Program

By Congressman Bob Carr

Taxes are going to be cut. The American taxpayer is no longer crying in the wilderness, alone and unheard. The popular mandate to cut taxes and spending will be heeded. The question is—will we pay for the tax cut? There is a danger that the united front presented by taxpayers demanding lower taxes may fragment in the face of that very question. We must not allow that to happen. We must not lose the opportunity we now have to control federal spending and to chart a new course for the future.

My mail is constantly filled with letters asking that I vote to cut wasteful government spending. The suggested cuts, though, are almost invariably in programs which provide no direct benefit to the winter. The city-dweller fails to see why his tax dollars should pay for farm price supports, while the farmer objects to spending federal money for urban mass transit systems. The businessman is alarmed at the high cost of unemployment benefits, while a factory worker who has just been laid off writes to remind me of the revenue lost through tax deductions for business entertainment.

While this sort of adversary criticism is useful and necessary, it presents a subtle but serious threat to the move to cut taxes. Since it is so easy for us to cut billions of dollars from programs we oppose, we never think to take the knife to those programs upon which we depend.

Retired workers do not write to grumble that the government is wasting its money on their Social Security checks. Defense workers do not complain that Uncle Sam is picking up the tab for another fighter jet. Motorists do not call for elimination of federal funds for highways.

That sort of attitude is not unreasonable, but it can be the ruin of the taxpayer revolt. We must realize that no matter how deeply we rely upon particular programs and no matter how little we would like to see cuts in those programs which serve our particular needs, we must be prepared to give up something ourselves in exchange for holding down federal spending.

Government spending, for all our efforts to portray it as an alien, monstrous enemy of the public good, is spending aimed at people. It has assumed proportions too large for our own good, but to bring it under control, we will have to be willing to make sacrifices. It goes without saying that we cannot rely on "the other guy" to make all the sacrifices. We are all in this together. We have met the other guy, and he is us.

Having said this, I want to emphasize that budget reductions do not necessarily mean a decrease in services or benefits. Trimming a flabby budget can improve efficiency and concentrate attention and resources upon the job at hand. The availability of more money than is necessary can actually hurt a good federal program.

A classic example is the C-5A transport aircraft, on which the program managers completely lost control of costs. You might think this would lead to the production of a good if expensive airplane. On the contrary, once the workers and managers formed the habit of collaborating in covering up cost overruns, morale was destroyed, and errors in design and assembly were covered up as well. The result is an airplane which now needs new wings after only a very short life, and which is constantly breaking down because of assembly defects. In contrast, a lean, efficient, waste-free program gives its workers something in which to take pride; such programs generally meet or exceed time and performance targets.

Not all cuts will lead so evidently to the improvement of the program under scrutiny, but the cuts must be made. In the process—which will not be easy—we should avoid isolating ourselves into factions, each blaming the other for excess spending, each jealously guarding the other for excess spending, each jealously guarding its particular share of the federal pie. We cannot afford such shortsightedness in an enterprise in which we are so inescapably linked together. We should look at the total structure of federal programs in terms of how federal spending affects the quality of life in this country as a whole and not simply in terms of how it affects only ourselves. In the long run, our real interest is not the special interest, but the common good.

MSU Scientists Study Pollutants That May Cause Cancer

The possible cancer-causing effects of low-level pollution from coal burning is under investigation by researchers at Michigan State University.

J. Justin McCormick and Veronica Maher, co-directors of the Carcinogenesis Laboratory of MSU College of Osteopathic Medicine, are studying known cancer-causing pollutants of coal combustion to determine the effects of different concentrations of such agents on human cells in culture.

Their research, significant because of the shift from an oil to coal-burning economy, is under a five-year contract with the Department of Energy, with $120,000 funding for the first year.

Michigan Soil Survey Project Speeded Up

More than three million acres of land in 40 Michigan counties will be surveyed within the next 10 years, beginning this month with soil surveys of Kent, Tuscola and Baraga counties. The program results from state legislation enacted last December which provides for accelerating soil survey work of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

B. Dale Ball, MDA director, said 30 counties currently have up-to-date soil surveys, but surveys of remaining counties could have taken 25 years to complete without the new legislation. Now the project is expected to be completed within 10 years.

According to Don Schaner, chief of MDA's Soil and Water Conservation section, a survey for one county normally requires three to five years to complete, including a mapping and soil analysis.

This process can be speeded up through co-operative efforts of MDA working with individual counties, USDA Soil Conservation Service, U.S. Forest Service, Michigan State and Michigan Technological universities, and the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station, Schaner said.

Ten staff members have been hired to assist Glen Weesies of SCS, who will head the project.

Soil borings taken every five acres identify and describe soil layers in the top 60 inches of land. Steepness and lengths of slopes, kinds of native plants, or crops, kinds of rock and compositions of parent material are observed.

Each soil's capabilities for land use are determined and detailed on charts, then plotings are placed over aerial photographs to show their location.

These factors are useful for land use and management decisions in housing, industrial or commercial development, planning and zoning, recreational or agricultural purposes, Schaner said.

National Commission Includes MSU Dean

Dr. Robert L. Green, dean of Michigan State University's College of Urban Development, is one of 23 persons appointed by President Carter to the National Commission on the International Year of the Child, 1979.

Green's extensive work in seeking equity for urban poor and minorities in education has brought him national recognition as a leading educator and psychologist. He has particular interest in the problems of school desegregation and use of standardized testing in the public schools.

Chairperson of the commission is Jean Young, wife of U.N. Ambassador Andrew Young. Functions of the commission include planning and promoting the national observance in the United States of the year 1979 as the International Year of the Child.

Back then nobody had heard of EEE Award homes:

At one time, when they built a house, one of its best features was a big front porch. And the most popular thing a porch could have was a wide, wooden swing.

Nowadays, the most important feature a house can have is energy efficiency because people are very concerned about keeping heating and cooling costs down.

That's why Detroit Edison presents its Energy Efficiency Excellence (EEE) Award to builders whose homes meet maximum standards in energy efficiency. EEE Award homes are properly insulated and are heated and cooled with an energy-saving heat pump, and could save you more than $260 a year in energy costs compared to homes using oil, propane or electric resistance heating.

Major appliances like refrigerators and freezers in EEE Award homes, if provided by the builder, are also energy efficient. Of course, it's important to use and maintain all major appliances properly so they don't waste energy.

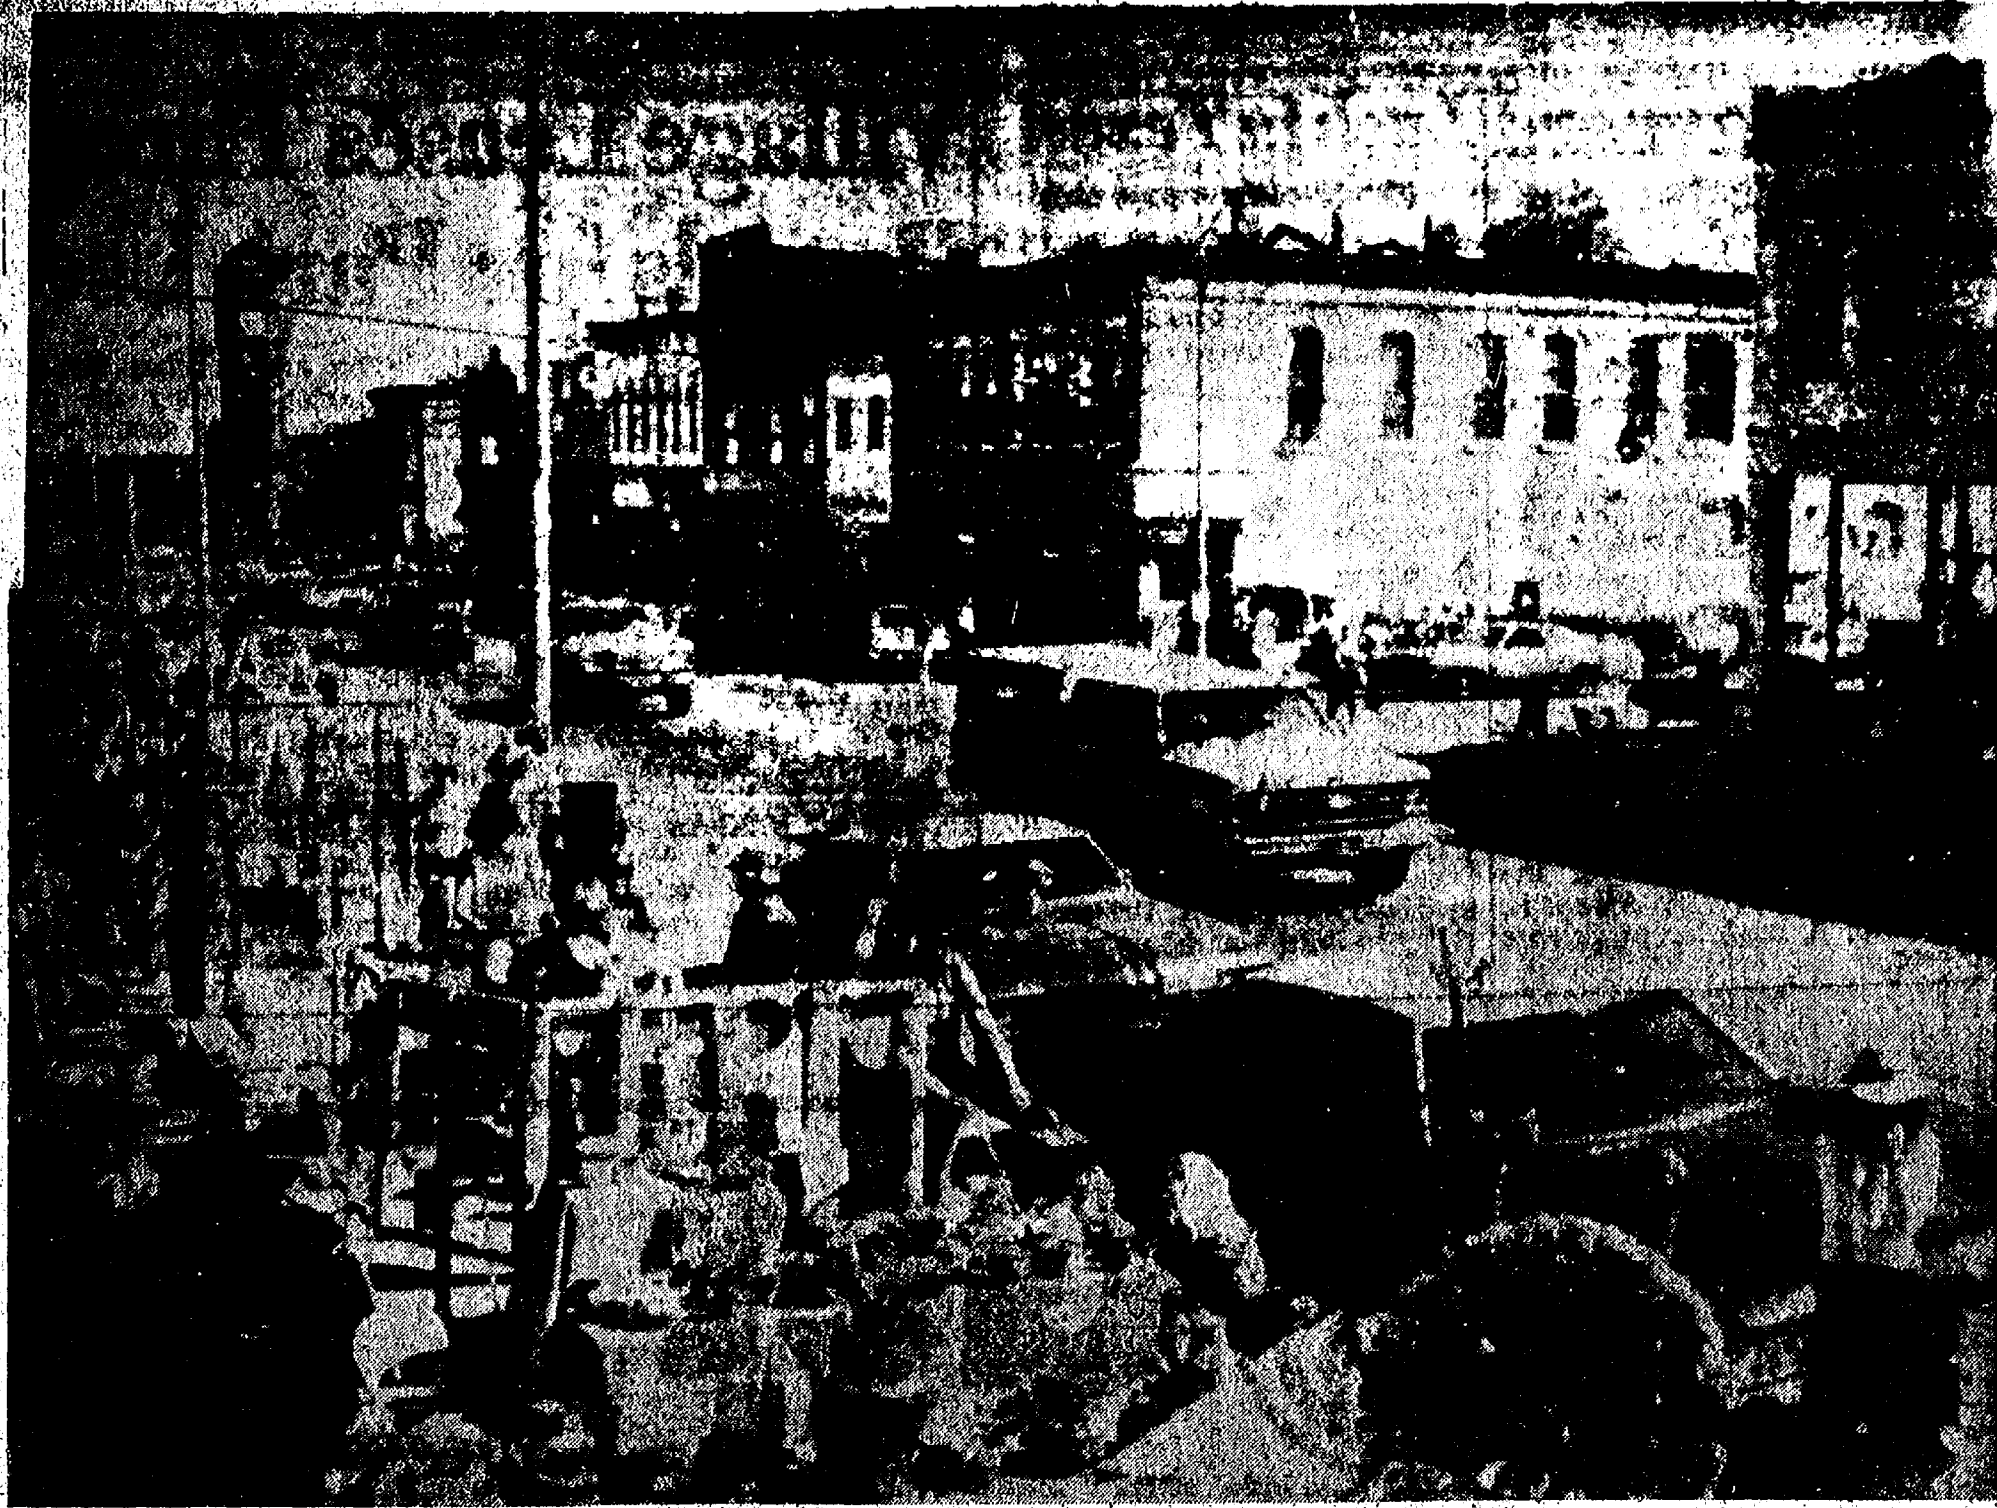

If you'd like to visit an EEE Award home, call or stop in at any Detroit Edison Customer Office and ask for the names of builders who have EEE Award homes on display.

Save where it really counts. The power is in your hands.

TAKING IN THE FAIR: Hundreds of shoppers bustle through Chelsea downtown streets during the Friday and Saturday Sidewalk Sales. Here is one view of the loaded sidewalks taken from the steps of the Chelsea Post Office. Most people, however, availed themselves of a closer look, browsing through the approximately 32 artists and craftsmen's booths and the dozens of merchants' displays.

All Soil Conservation Districts Seek Citizen Input for New Program

Michigan's 84 soil conservation districts will be holding public meetings within the next month as part of the National Resources Conservation Act of 1977 to evaluate citizens' concerns about soil and water erosion problem areas.

According to Don Schaner, chief of the Michigan Department of Agriculture's Soil and Water Conservation section, individuals and citizens' groups are being asked to help formulate a conservation program defining where major emphasis should be placed during the next five years.

Land condition inventories are also being taken by the districts with the help of MDA and USDA Soil Conservation Service.

Areas to be considered include soil and water quality and quantity, fish and wildlife habitat, capability to meet current and projected demands, information on uses, impact of changing in farming, irrigation and current conservation practices, Schaner said.

Soil Conservation districts are units of state government which are responsible for developing and directing programs for conservation and assisting land users. Each local district elects a five-member board of directors to supervise the district's operations.

Appraisals from Soil Conservation districts and state soil and water conservation agencies across the nation will help in developing a five-year national program projected to begin in 1980, Schaner said.

Barn, Machinery, Hay Lost in Massive Fire

Assisted by the Chelsea Fire Department, Dexter firefighters expended 75,000 gallons of water and 11 hours bringing under control a massive barn fire on the property of Grover Colby, Jr., at 4881 Donner Rd., Friday, Aug. 4.

The fire, which broke out that morning, was well in progress by the time the department was summoned at 10 a.m. In order to battle the blaze, firefighters were forced to use a loader to remove some of the $4,000 worth of hay bound in rolls and stacked inside, and to depend upon the assistance of the Chelsea Fire Department for additional water and manpower. Extinguishing operations continued throughout the day until 9:45 p.m., at which time, although the fire was put out, the structures and its contents were declared a total loss.

Losses, in addition to hay, included a tractor, a grain elevator, a truck, and a combine, all of which were in the pole barn when the fire broke out. No estimate of damages has been attempted as yet.

With this additional experience under their belts, Dexter firefighters turned in a "perfect" performance at the county-wide fire drill that took place along Jackson Rd. Monday night, Aug. 7. Fire departments throughout Washtenaw county took part in extinguishing simulated fires and conducting rescue operations in "factory row" in a demonstration which, according to Dexter Firemen's Association member Donald (Ike) Merkel, went "just like clockwork."

During the drill, Dexter dispatched equipment held in reserve to a stove fire on Huron River Dr. at 8 p.m., which was quickly extinguished.

Luck in Texas! Village Leases Three Parcels for Park Use

(Continued from page one) about to face the Detroit team for the first time, we didn't know what to expect; except that we thought they would be tough," Coach Bill Wescott remembered. "We defeated them, though, and I'm looking forward to the same in Texas," he added.

If Chelsea wins, they will join the winner's bracket; if they lose they still have a chance at the championship. "A team can lose one game and still win the title," Wescott said. "If we lose more than one, we will join the loser's bracket but still play a minimum of three games," he explained.

The championship game is on Sunday night and the team will fly home via Braniff Airlines, arriving in Detroit at 4:30 p.m. Monday.

Village Leases Three Parcels for Park Use

Village Council voted to approve the leasing of three separate two-acre land parcels, for recreational use by Chelsea residents, during their Aug. 1 meeting.

"The purpose is to provide more places for children and adults to play a pick-up game of baseball, throw a frisbee, or have a picnic close to home," according to Fritz Weber, village administrator.

One lot is on the north side of the Lanewood subdivision, and a second lot is north of Railroad St. just off McKinley St. "These have been leased from private property owners using Federal Revenue Sharing Funds," Weber said.

Plans include the building of a back-stop and benches for baseball games; mowing the grass, and raking. "They should be ready to use in the near future," Weber said.

A third lot has been leased, using village general funds, from the Oak Grove Cemetery Association. Also a two-acre parcel, it is located at the north end of Jackson St. on the corner of Madison. "This will require clearing of trees and seeding and should be open for use by next spring. We plan to put in small playground equipment and picnic tables," Weber commented.

All the leases are for one year with automatic renewal unless the owner wishes to discontinue the lease.

Zoning Request Denied

area to do the same. Looking at the Zoning map of the future for this area, it shows that half of Orchard St. could be re-zoned from residential to commercial and once this type of action starts it could keep going until the whole area was commercial," Hoffmeyer said.

While Hoffmeyer said everyone was pleased with the Zoning Board action to deny the variance request, "after talking with Schardein I don't think we can take any credit for the way board members voted," he commented. "Schardein was already convinced that the variance shouldn't be approved for other reasons than those expressed at public hearing," he added.

Following the brief 10-minute public hearing, Schardein motioned to deny the variance, supported by Walt Brown. Schardein, Brown, and Sweet, voted yes while Lyle Chriswell and Harold Rudy voted no. Jack Patrick was absent from the meeting.

According to Schardein, his motion was not influenced by the public hearing but upon two specific guidelines established in determining variance requests. "The first guideline followed involved giving the bank special privileges that are denied by the ordinance to other lands in the same district; the second was that the conditions and circumstances regarding the variance are a result of the action of the bank. In other words, the land the bank wants to use as a parking lot can still be used as a parking lot but without going within five feet of the sidewalks and adjoining property. Other businesses in the area are not allowed to do this," he explained.

Harold Rudy, however, voted no to the denial saying, "I feel the variance is not out of line for the area and that the bank has met the necessary criteria. I think there is a lack of substantial reasons on the part of the public for not granting the variance."

Girls Basketball Program To Start In Junior High

Big changes have taken place in the girls basketball program in Chelsea following Board of Education approval earlier this summer for implementation of a junior high school basketball team.

Cheryl Vogel, varsity coach since 1971 when the girls program began at the high school, has been chosen to fulfill the important task of gearing up the new program at Beach Middle School. Elevated to fill the varsity opening was last year's girls junior varsity and boys freshman coach, Jim Winter.

The new head coach says the beginning of the junior high teams will help the Bulldog Cagers become more competitive. "Without a junior high program our girls were always behind in the development of fundamental skills and game experience," Winter said.

"Now with the expanded program we can overcome those handicaps. We are also fortunate to have someone with Mrs. Vogel's experience working at that level. With her varsity background she has a good grasp of the game and realizes the importance of sound fundamentals. Many people don't realize that you need good coaches at this level to build a successful program; that's where it all begins," Winter said.

The Beach program will include a 7th and 8th grade team. They will begin practice at the start of school and play a 6- to 10-game schedule.

"Eager to get started," was the way Winter described his feelings toward the coming season. "Bill Wescott and the girls softball team have really pumped the community up over girl's athletics," Winter added.

"I think their success could help us because Bill has taught them how to work hard and shown them it will pay off. He has done a great job and I hope we will be able to accomplish as much in basketball as he, Charlie Waller and Pat Clarke have in softball over the past few years. If we work as hard as they have, I'm sure it will show," he added.

Varsity and JV practice begins Monday, Aug. 14 at 9 a.m. in the high school gym. There will also be a meeting that night at 7 in the gym.

All high school girls interested in trying out for the varsity or JV teams should report to the gym at these times. Winter says these two teams will be doing some of their early work together. "We don't have a JV coach yet so we're planning to do some of our early work together, especially conditioning," he explained.

Girls will need to have had a physical and will need gym shoes in order to participate in practice.

The first federal legislation to prohibit discrimination in employment was passed in 1967, according to the U.S. Department of Labor booklet, "Labor Firsts in America."

Pirates ended with two wins to improve their record to 4-6 and the anticipation of a better record next year. Reds and Yankees showed a great deal of desire and hustle all year, finishing with a fine record of 6-4 and 7-3, respectively.

Royals, who may look small, but play well, finished with a hard earned 4-6 record. Two teams which worked for every hit and fought hard for every put-out were the Blue Jays and the Dodgers. They completed the season with identical 2-8 records.

Little League regular season ended with a two-way tie for first place between the Pirates and Royals who both finished with 9-1 baseball savvy, they hit well and made super plays in the field to add to their fine pitching.

Blue Jays, with a record of 6-4, faltered late in the season but went out a winner in the last two games. They should be a powerhouse next year returning good pitchers and hitters to their line up.

The most surprising team this year was the Twins who were quiet all season but came on like gangbusters to finish off with an excellent 6-4 record.

Braves finished a .500 season with two losses although they succeeded in defeating first place Pirates earlier in the year as well as several other top placed teams.

Two teams who worked hard but fell short on runs were the Reds, 3-6-1, and the Dodgers, 2-7-1. Their fielding was good but hitting was thin which led to their sub .500 record.

Giants struggled all year and their desire to do their best paid off when they won the last two games. Yankees who finished at 2-8, also fell short on their hitting but played their hearts out on the field.

Coaches and spectators alike found this year's talent best in several years and felt proud of the performance of the young players.

The Village of Chelsea Ordains:

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS

A. "Parking" shall mean the standing of a vehicle, whether occupied or not, upon a street or upon a municipal parking lot, except when said vehicle is temporarily being used for the purpose of and actually engaged in loading and unloading or in obedience to traffic regulations, signs or signals.

B. D. "Parking Meter" shall mean a device which shall indicate thereupon the length of time during which a vehicle may be parked in a particular place, but shall have as a part thereof a receptacle or chamber for receiving and storing coins of the United States, an opening in which said coin may be deposited, a time device to indicate the passage of the interval of time during which parking is permitted, and which shall also display an appropriate signal when the aforesaid interval of time shall have elapsed, and brief instructions as to the operation of said meter.

E. "Street" shall mean any public street, avenue, road, boulevard, highway, or other place within the Village of Chelsea which is used for the passage of vehicles.

F. "Vehicle" shall mean any device in, upon, or by which any person or property is or may be transported, or drawn upon a street, except any device which is exclusively used upon stationary tracks or rails.

SECTION 2. PARKING METER ZONE

SECTION 4. OPERATION OF PARKING METERS

Except in a period of emergency as declared by an officer of the Village Police or Fire Departments, or in compliance with the directions of a police officer or traffic control sign or device, when any vehicle shall be parked in any parking space alongside or next to which a parking meter is located, the operator of such vehicle shall immediately deposit or cause to be deposited in said meter such proper coinage of the United States as is required for the operation of said parking meter and is designated by the directions upon said meter. The operator of such vehicle, after the deposit of the proper coinage shall also set in operation the timing mechanism upon the meter in accordance with the direction thereof. Failure to deposit such proper coinage and/or to set the timing mechanism in operation when so required, shall constitute a violation of this ordinance. Upon the deposit of such coinage and the setting of the timing mechanism in operation the parking space may be lawfully occupied by such vehicle during the period of time which has been designated upon the parking meter, provided that any person placing a vehicle in a parking meter space adjacent to a meter which indicates that unused time has been left in the meter by the previous occupant of the space shall not be required to deposit coinage so long as occupancy of said space does not exceed the previously indicated unused parking time. If said vehicle shall remain parked in any parking space beyond the time set upon the meter, and if the meter shall indicate that the time has expired, then, in that event such vehicle shall be considered as parking overtime and beyond the period of legal parking time, and such continued parking shall be deemed a violation of this ordinance.

SECTION 5. PARKING TIME LIMIT

The Village Council shall from time to time by resolution designate the days on which and the hours during which said parking meters shall be operated in said parking meter zones; provided further, that the Village Council shall have no power to apply the provisions of this ordinance to vehicles parked in metered parking zones on Sundays, New Years Day, Memorial Day, the Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day. Provided further, that the Village Council may prohibit parking in metered zones to facilitate the removal of snow, for public celebrations and parades, or whenever the council declares that some special circumstance or event exists which warrants the prohibition of parking upon designated streets or within certain designated parking meter zones.

SECTION 6. PARKING METER FEES

Parking Meter Fees shall be the amount of coinage which is necessary to put in operation the parking meters as provided by Section 4 above, and the same shall be established from time to time by resolution of the Village Council.

SECTION 7. MUNICIPAL LOTS

The management, maintenance, and control of municipal lots shall be under the general supervision of the Village Administrator and he shall have the authority to establish and promulgate rules and regulations as to the number of cars to be parked, the order of said lots, entrances, exits, and space to be allocated to vehicles, but all of the foregoing shall be subject to the supervision of the Village Council. No vehicle shall be parked within such parking lot for more than twenty-four (24) hours at any one time.

C. For any vehicle to be parked with any portion of the vehicle extending over any line or marking indicating separate individual parking space.

D. To deposit or cause to be deposited in any parking meter, any slug device or metallic substance, or other substitute for a United States coin.

E. For any vehicle to be parked in any individual parking space within the parking meter zone, where the meter has been marked, covered, hooded, or otherwise designated as inoperable by order of the Village of Chelsea or by any sign which indicates that no parking is to be allowed in said area.

F. For any vehicle to be parked outside of, in whole or part, the separate individual parking space as marked.

G. For any person to deface, injure, tamper with, open, break, or otherwise intentionally injure or impair the operation of any parking meter.

H. For any person other than the operator, owner, and/or passengers of a parked vehicle to insert coinage in the meter for the individual parking space in which the vehicle is parked.

I. For any vehicle, the over-all length of which exceeds twenty (20) feet, to be parked within any metered individual parking space, except when trucks or other large vehicles over twenty (20) feet are loading or unloading merchandise to and from a place of business, from any location upon a public street or a parking lot where a location designated for such loading or unloading is not of sufficient size to accommodate said truck or vehicle and the same extends into a metered parking space.

SECTION 9. ENFORCEMENT

It shall be the duty of the police officers of the Village of Chelsea to attach to every vehicle parking in violation of any of the provisions of the within ordinance, a notice that such vehicle has been illegally parked with instructions thereon that the operator is to report to the office of the Police Department. The operator upon receiving said notice shall have the option of paying the penalty as prescribed by resolution of the Village Council and as set forth in said notice, or of appearing before a Court of proper jurisdiction to demand trial of the alleged violation.

If no person appears in response to said notice to pay the penalty or demand trial, then said police officer shall make a Complaint in the District Court in accordance with the statutes made and provided for such cases. Proof of registration of a motor vehicle to a named individual, as owner and proof of a violation of this ordinance shall constitute prima facie proof that the registered owner of the motor vehicle used or operated at the time of the violation charges, or that said vehicle was used and operated with his permission, knowledge and consent, and that said vehicle was under his control at the time of the violation charged. Every person convicted of a violation of any provision of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not more than ONE HUNDRED ($100.00) DOLLARS, or by imprisonment of not more than ninety (90) days, or both, or any part thereof.

SECTION 10. HANDICAPPED PARKING SPACES

SECTION 11. DISPOSITION OF FEES AND FINES

All parking meter fees and any portion of fines collected for violations of the Ordinance, shall be deposited by the Village Administrator in a Parking Fund of the Village of Chelsea. Said funds shall be used for the maintenance, replacement, and expansion of parking meters and municipal parking lots within the Village of Chelsea.

SECTION 12.

The within Ordinance shall be in full force and effect twenty (20) days after its passage and publication.

SECTION 13. REPEAL OF PRIOR ORDINANCES

Ordinances Number 33, 53, and 57 be and the same are hereby repealed and any provision of any other ordinance inconsistent herewith be and the same is hereby superseded.

Civil Air Patrol Plans Simulated Rescue Mission

Civil Air Patrol is conducting a simulated search and rescue mission out of Mettetal Airport in Livonia this week-end. The exercise will involve approximately 200 Civil Air Patrol personnel who will provide the pilots, flight crews, ground rescue crews and communications experts of the all volunteer organization.

More than 30 light aircraft are scheduled to conduct assigned route searches simulating problem and possible conditions of an actual mission alert. Pilots and their flight crews will provide the leads and visual sightings with ground rescue teams making the actual "rescue" of the target.

Part of the Civil Air Patrol's vast communications system will co-ordinate air and ground operations from Mettetal Airport on up to the Grayling area. Activity originating out of Mettetal Airport will cover Wayne, Oakland, Livingston and Washtenaw counties.

Final evaluation of the readiness of Civil Air Patrol to be successful in its rescue mission will be made by the United States Air Force.

New Vocal Group For Dairymen Only

A new vocal group may influence the dairy industry—young calves. W. E. Pollock of the Department of Animal and Poultry Science, University of Guelph, Ontario, has found that playing tape-recorded calf calls stimulates milk production. The tape began just as the cows entered the milking parlor and lasted until they were hooked up to the milking machines, a period of about two minutes.

Changes Told In Feed Grain Storage Plans

As an aid to orderly marketing and better prices, Washtenaw county farmers may obtain price support loans on 1978 wheat now and 1978 corn after harvest. The grain may be stored on the farm or in a government-approved warehouse. However, the 1978 loan requirements are that the farm on which the commodity is produced must be in compliance with the Set Aside Program.

The 1978 wheat loan rate for Washtenaw county is $2.32 and corn is $2.02.

1977 Corn Loans

Producers in Washtenaw county who have CCC loans on 1977 corn are now eligible to put the grain in a three-year storage program and receive storage payments of 25 cents per bushel per year. The loan extension may be accomplished anytime a request is filed with the county ASCS Committee. This may be before maturity or within 30 days after maturity.

A new provision was announced this week. Any producer having 1977 corn stored may now request a loan with the intention to put the loan into the extended loan program and receive storage payments. This new provision applies until Sept. 30.

Farm Storage Facility Loans

Many new storage structures are being erected on Washtenaw county farms through the Facility Storage and Dryer Equipment Program. Any producer who has need for grain storage may request a loan on structures and/or drying equipment at a rate of 7 percent per annum for a period of 5 to 8 years. On-the-farm storage can help a producer pay for his own structure through savings in market prices and storage charges. Producers should contact the ASCS office for details and before delivering any equipment to the farm.

Questions may be answered and information obtained at the local ASCS office at 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor.

Whitmore Lake Man's Nephew Completes Marine Basic Training

Private David Wm. Neuber, nephew of Gene Bedwell of 1028 Greenwood, Whitmore Lake, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

During the nine-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

PERFECT WEATHER greeted sellers and shoppers alike on both Friday and Saturday during Chelsea's 6th annual Sidewalk Sales and Art Fair. "The fair was a success in my opinion; at least I know that I did well," said fair organizer Karen Johnson who allowed herself only a few moments to comment on the fair.

Carts pronouncing "half-off" and salespersons enticing shoppers to "make an offer" made hunting for bargains a breeze. Temperatures in the upper 70's and low 80's, plus plenty of sunshine, made the two-day event pleasurable, especially compared to last year's intermittent showers.

Ag Exports Increase

Weather, growing markets for grain for livestock, and purchases by China, are all factors in USDA's new estimate that U.S. agricultural exports may reach $20 billion in 1977-78. This represents a $1 to $2 billion increase over USDA's earlier estimate.

Tooth Decay Fighter Under Study at MSU

A food compound that neutralizes the effects of sugar on tooth decay is being investigated by researchers at Michigan State University.

The substance—called Lauricidin—is a non-toxic germ-killing agent already approved as a food additive by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

Depending on diet, 40 to 60 percent reduction in dental cavities with Lauricidin is cited by principal investigator Jon J. Kabara, professor of bio-mechanics at MSU College of Osteopathic Medicine.

Kabara and other MSU researchers are studying the effects of certain dietary fats on tooth decay under a grant from the National Institutes of Health.

"Dental caries (cavities) are primarily an infectious disease," Kabara said.

Organisms which cause caries have been found to be particularly sensitive to the germ-killing activity of Lauricidin, a fat which is a breakdown product of the triglyceride family. A natural agent, it is found primarily in coconuts, but also in small quantity in every food that contains fat.

Lauricidin is now being studied for oral hygiene and in food products around the world with the exception that it may neutralize the effects of dietary sugar, Kabara said.

Corn Used in Many Hundreds of Products

When you reach for an aspirin to relieve a splitting headache, you probably don't think about corn. As you lick a postage stamp, does agriculture come to mind? While thumbing through a magazine, do your thoughts turn to the farmer?

Probably not, since common items such as these are not readily associated with agriculture or the farmer. But each of these everyday items and hundreds more can be tied to a single major agricultural crop—corn.

Corn is most readily identified as a crop grown largely for animal feed. This is true for some 93 percent of the billions of bushels of corn that are harvested each year across the United States. But out of the other 7 percent of the crop used domestically comes a wide variety of important products for both urban and rural residents.

Such a divergence of common products, which aren't readily related to corn, help illustrate how agriculture and the crops farmers grow are the foundation of even more than just the nation's food and fiber supply.

This variety of products range from the binder in an aspirin tablet to the glue on a postage stamp and the laminations or coatings used on paper—all of which have their origins in different forms of starch taken from corn. In the home, corn starch products literally surround an average family. They may be found in wall-board and the inks of printed drapes, overhead in acoustical tile and underfoot in the filler of rug backing.

Corn products are eaten in many more forms than people can imagine. Besides the more well-known corn flakes for breakfast or corn chips as a snack, corn is a part of many jams or jellies, instant coffee or tea, marshmallows and

Rail Car Shortage Becoming Acute

Reports of rail car shortages are nothing new. But USDA reports we had 4,000 more rail cars this January than we did in January, 1977. What's the hold-up? Farmers held on to much of their grain for the past two years because of falling prices. They began selling when prices started rising this year. Starting in February of this year, USDA reports that rail car shortages developed in units of 5,000 to 10,000 or more covered hoppers a month as corn and wheat prices rose above the previous year's levels. In April, shippers were short 37,000 covered hoppers daily. On June 24, the shortage was over 23,800 hoppers—compared to a surplus of 705 cars a year earlier.

And the shortage may get worse. USDA's farmer-held grain reserve had almost 550 million bushels of wheat and feed grains in it as of July 7. Of that amount, only barley, about 100 million bushels, has reached the trigger price which allows farmers to repay their loans and move the barley onto the market.

The first federal legislation to train the unemployed and the poor for better jobs was the Manpower Development and Training Act of 1962, according to the U.S. Department of Labor booklet, "Labor Firsts in America."

MICHAEL FOSTER, M.P. in the United States Army, has been transferred from Fort Ord, Calif., to the NATO Base in Glessen, Germany where he will be for the next year. Foster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foster, 515 Wilkinson, and his current address is 202 M.P. Co., Glessen, A.P.O. N.Y. 09169. He enlisted in the army after graduating from Chelsea High school in 1976.

Wet Sidewalks Don't Cause Rain

While the nation's "Inflation czar" now claims that reducing the inflation rate is largely a psychological problem, recent financial data indicates the problem is rooted in the rate of growth in the money supply. Chicago banking authorities now peg the annual rate of money supply growth in excess of 13 percent since Chairman Millar took the helm of the Federal Reserve on March 8 of this year.

Comment: The Administration's anti-inflation program of "symbolic voluntarism" will not work until the Administration reduces federal expenditures—pegged at 15 percent higher this year than last year—and the Federal Reserve reduces the growth in the money supply. In short, price increases and psychology do not cause inflation—just as wet sidewalks do not cause rain!

HUNTER SAFETY COURSE Offered By Rod & Gun Club

Chelsea's Rod and Gun Club is sponsoring a hunter safety course for boys and girls from 12 to 16 years of age beginning in the fall. Upon completion of the course, participants will receive a certificate of verification, required by state law, which will permit them to purchase their first hunting license. Also at the end of the safety sessions, the youngsters will receive a patch in recognition of their accomplishment.

To register for the hunter safety class, applicants must fill out an enrollment card available by contacting any of the following: Group leader Marvin Schiller, 475-2941; Jack & Son Barber Shop, 475-1535; George Padgham, 475-8812; or John Miller, 475-2864.

Michigan To Host National Water Ski Championships

Tivoli Gardens, southeast of Brighton, will be the site of the 28th annual National Water Ski Championships, Aug. 23-27. The event is sanctioned by the American Water Ski Association and will draw top skiers of all ages from all areas of the nation. Water skiing has become a highly perfected sport that attracts some 15,000,000 Americans annually, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce.

Tivoli Gardens is a five-year-old facility developed exclusively for competitive water skiing and is considered one of only a handful of perfect water ski tournament sites in the world.

The National Championships will comprise 12 divisions of competition in three major events—slalom, tricks and jumping. Entrants must meet rigid requirements as established by the AWSA. Qualifiers have not only worked their way through the ranks of local and regional competitions, but have also invested hundreds of hours of grueling practice and training to meet the demands of courage, co-ordination and split-second timing required by the contests.

In slalom competition, the skier must round six buoys on one ski while being towed at a precise speed. The procedure is repeated until the skier misses. On each "pass" through the course the speed of the tow boat is increased and the length of the tow rope is shortened.

Jumping is the most dangerous and exciting of the events. It gives the contestant three chances to reach the greatest airborne distance off the jumping ramp, landing and skiing to the ride-out buoy without falling.

The most intricate of the three events is trick skiing, performed on short, wide, rudderless skis. Each trick has a designated value and the skier is rated on the number of tricks successfully completed in two 20-second runs through a course approximately 200 yards long.

In addition to the thrills of the aquatic competitions, spectators will be treated to a spectacular water show. For further information regarding the National Water Ski Championships and other Michigan events, call the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce, Lansing, toll free. In Michigan, the number is (800) 362-2320; out-of-state, dial (800) 248-6458.

Wheat Carry-Over Expected To Drop

Growers' acreage adjustments in response to the set-aside and grain-out programs, and crop prices, along with adverse weather in some areas, indicate that the 1978 wheat crop will drop below the two-billion-bushel level for the first time in three years, according to the USDA. As of July 1, conditions indicate a crop of 1.9 billion bushels, 11 percent below last year's level.

Because of the reduced U.S. crop, an expected drop in domestic use, and an expected export of more than a billion bushels, it appears there could be some reduction in carryover by the end of the year. Farm prices are expected to average between $2.70 and $3.25 per bushel for the season, compared with the $2.31 average in 1977-78.

Some private forecasters see an 11 percent decline in carryover stocks with prices projected slightly higher than those by USDA.

Japan Increasing Soybean Imports

The latest issue of USDA's foreign agriculture magazine reports that Japan's imports of soybeans are expected to reach 4.05 million metric tons this year. Of that amount, 97.5 percent or 3.95 million tons are expected to be supplied by the United States. If realized, Japan's import volume would be 12 percent above the 3.6 million tons imported in 1977. That year, the rate of increase—compared with 1976's take of 3.55 million tons—was just 1.4 percent.

ALL-STATE TEAM MEMBERS: Sue Messner, left, and Tracie Harook smile as they display their trophies, badges, and medallions presented to them during the 15th annual "Parade of Champions" on Sunday, Aug. 6, in Midland. Sue was selected as co-captain of the Prep Girls division, and Tracie was chosen as a member of the Peanut Girls.

Two Chelsea Girls Named To All-State Bowling Teams

Sue Messner and Tracie Harook were honored during the 15th annual "Parade of Champions" as they were named to the Michigan Youth Bowling Association (MYBA) All-State Teams.

Sue was selected as co-captain for the Prep Girls division and Tracie was chosen as a member of the Peanut Girls at the awards dinner in Midland on Sunday, Aug. 6.

MYBA, sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors of Michigan, based their selections on the girls' over-all point accumulation in games and tournaments throughout the year and on their school grade point average. "We are extremely proud to have this opportunity to pay homage to such fine bowlers. We hope they all continue to enjoy the great game of bowling throughout their lifetimes," George Prybyla, president-elect of the MYBA, said in tribute to the champions on Sunday.

Both Tracie and Sue are members of the Chelsea Lanes. Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Messner of Chelsea and Tracie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harook, also of Chelsea.

Washtenaw Horse Judging Team Wins National Again

a bill intended not only to reduce teen-age pregnancies, but also to help teens who become pregnant with adequate health care, which he called one of the most serious and complex problems facing society.

"This separately identified fee," noted President Harden, "does not represent an increase in total fees charged to students. Rather, it is a mechanism to permit separate accounting of health center revenues and expenditures."
