Pinckney Girl Safe, Says She Was Abducted

The Robert Thompson family of Pinckney had their prayers answered Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 5, when their 20-year-old daughter, Roberta, who had mysteriously disappeared Sunday, Aug. 26, called home.

"I am the happiest mother alive," Mrs. Thompson said in an interview Wednesday, Sept. 6, after returning from the doctor where they had taken Roberta. "Her face is badly bruised, especially under her left eye, and she's hurt in other places too, but she is alright and we are just happy to have her home again," she said.

According to her mother, Roberta went to take a short walk before lunch on Cedar Lake Rd., where they live. "When she wasn't home in time for lunch we became worried and after a few hours had passed we began looking for her. My husband found a pair of her things which were on the road. They looked like they had fallen off while she was running. We also found a half-empty bottle of pop on the road," she added.

Brighton State Police were called to investigate and Trooper Randy Fairbanks stated at the time that the post was "treating this as an abduction."

An exhaustive search for several days by both helicopter and tracking dogs failed to uncover any clues as to Roberta's disappearance.

In addition to the search, Brighton State Police were checking with relatives of the Thompson family, including those living in Marion, Ind.

"According to a report issued by the Indiana State Police to us, Indiana troopers had contacted relatives of the Thompsons in Marion and learned that they (the relatives) had been in communication with Roberta," a spokeswoman for the Brighton Post said on Wednesday afternoon.

"The Brighton Post then called the Thompson family to inform them," she added. "The report from Indiana indicated that Roberta had been found in good health and that she was in Marion of her own free will. We don't know the real story yet and won't until we talk to Roberta herself tonight (Thursday)," the spokeswoman added.

Mrs. Thompson, however, insists that stories saying that her daughter left on her own free will are "false." "Why would a 20-year-old girl want to run away from home when she had a car sitting in the driveway and money in her purse?" Mrs. Thompson asked.

"My daughter has told me that as she was taking a walk, a man in a car approached her and asked her if she wanted a ride. Roberta told him no when he started to get out of the car. She began running down the road and he chased her, grabbed her, and pulled her into the car against her will," Mrs. Thompson added.

Mrs. Thompson said her daughter told her that the man was driving south through Indiana when they came to Marion. "My daughter begged him and begged him to let her out, and finally he did. She was close to some friends of hers and went there where she tried to gather up her strength before calling us on Tuesday," she explained.

While Roberta was in the car the man periodically smashed her across the face with his hand, her mother said. "Her face looked very bruised and we took her to the doctor's today to have him look at it. She is hurt in other places too but we can help her recover physically and emotionally. It will take a long time," Mrs. Thompson commented.

According to Mrs. Thompson, her daughter had been in Marion staying with friends for three days before she called home on Tuesday. "She was trying to get strong enough to call home. Her face was so swollen she couldn't talk and she didn't know what day it was," she stated.

"All I can say is that we are very, very happy to have her home. If it wasn't for everyone's prayers I know that we would never have seen her again," Mrs. Thompson said.

The Thompsons received a call from Roberta on Tuesday afternoon and they drove to Marion that day to pick her up. They returned to Pinckney at about midnight. Roberta is a 1977 graduate of Pinckney High school and was a student at the Midwest Beauty College in Pinckney. Mrs. Thompson was raised in Marion and the family has several relatives and friends in the area.

Mrs. Thompson said that Roberta will file an official description of her alleged assailant with State Police Wednesday night, Sept. 6.

Cross Country Team Could Surprise Many

A new girls cross country team and one of the largest and youngest boys cross country team ever to be fielded by Chelsea highlight the opening of the 1978 season.

Seven girls are working hard to establish a team for the first time this year including senior Meg Camoo; juniors Theresa Hoffman, Gayle Beyer, and Laurie Hastings; sophomore Pris Drew; and freshmen Nancy Hastings and Cheryl Hankard.

More than 20 runners on the boys team are diligently practicing to rebuild and improve upon the 5th place showing of last year's harriers, according to Coach Pat Clarke.

While three-time all-league runner Dave Dawson and four of his teammates have left the Chelsea team via graduation, three senior letter winners are returning to lead the way. They are co-captains Pat Murphy, John Whitaker, and three-time letterman Scott Beyer. "All three have looked very good so far in early season practice and they have excellent potential," Clarke commented.

Joining the seniors are two junior letter winners Steve Kvarnberg and Mark Beyer. "Both have the ability to be top-flight if they can gain a little more strength," Clarke said.

Clarke added that with five returning lettermen it would appear the Bulldogs should be a strong team but "these runners are mostly untried and need time to develop before the season begins," he said.

The 1978 season will start with some formidable teams in the first few weeks, leading off with a top-ranked Class B team, Lumen

JV Gridders Look Sharp in Scrimmage

Fine running and a strong show by the offensive line combined to give the Chelsea Junior Varsity football team seven touchdowns and the promise of an exciting year.

Chelsea made their first contact of the season in a scrimmage with Jackson County Western on Friday, Sept. 1, and for the first time in several years the backs appeared to have the speed and balance to break the long touchdown run, according to Coach Jon Schaffner.

"The offensive line is doing a very good job of blocking to get

Jackson Couple Wins Horseshoe Pitching

A sizeable crowd of more than 50 spectators and a record number of 20 teams participated in the 1978 Chelsea Community Fair Horseshoe Pitching Contest held Friday evening, Aug. 25, at 5 p.m.

"The popularity of horseshoe pitching is evident with seven more teams competing than last year and in the amount of interested spectators," Jim Daniels, superintendent of the contest, said.

"Next year we will provide the audience with loudspeaker announcements and a scoreboard so that they can enjoy the game more. Many spectators left after a while this year because we weren't able to keep them informed on the game's progress," Daniels said.

Placing first was the team of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wells of Jackson, while Larry McGee and Mark Rutherford of Manchester placed second and Merle Sibley and Fred Petsch, both of Chelsea, took third place.

Team members traveled from Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Jackson, Dexter, and other surrounding communities to play.

NEW HEAD LIBRARIAN: Verna Marriott, 39, joined the McKune Memorial Library staff recently as head librarian replacing Debi Overbey who returned to work in Stockbridge. A resident of Ann Arbor and the mother of two children, Verna received her BA in education from the University of Michigan in 1960 and her masters in library science from the University of Michigan in 1977. This will be her professional job as librarian and one which she has already proved to be stimulating. Verna has a very warm and friendly library users and expects as librarian to see that excellent reputation is maintained and readers are satisfied. "While I have only been on the staff a few weeks, my most favorable impression is with the book budget. Many libraries with which I am familiar do not have such a generous budget," she said. To keep the public aware of new books the library purchases, Mrs. Marriott will resume the latent column on new books in The Standard. "I have other ideas which I would like to present to the Library Board and would also like to see a broader range of children's books in both fiction and non-fiction," she said. Mrs. Marriott has two daughters, Laura, 15, and Kathy, 17. They live in Ann Arbor but she said that she is anticipating a move to Chelsea.

Property Taxes Dangerously High

In case you haven't noticed, Michigan property taxes are high. As a matter of fact, according to an intergovernmental study group, Michigan's property tax rate is at a level that dangerously risks adoption of a California-type tax cut plan.

The Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, in a discussion paper dealing with tax cut proposals, said the property tax will be accepted as long as it is a moderate rate of 1 to 1.5 percent of the market value of property.

The commission report said anything over 2 percent is in the danger category. In its survey of 1974 rates, the Michigan rate was 2.38 percent.

Along with New Hampshire, Michigan has the fourth highest rate in the country.

The report noted that states that assume the cost of Medicaid and welfare, and carry 65 percent of the cost of local schools should be able to stay under the 2 percent level.

Michigan falls beneath the 65 percent mark, but does pick up the full welfare-Medicaid costs.

The commission said states can avoid radical tax cut plans by limiting property tax rates to under 2 percent, adopting circuit-breakers so property taxes do not consume undue portions of a person's income, providing partial state funding for mandated local programs, requiring local governments to raise added revenue only through higher tax rates not by increased assessments because of higher property values and improved administration of the property tax.

Michigan has had a circuit breaker since 1973. The commission calls such a system the best instrument to provide tax relief.

Abandonment of Lake Michigan Ferry

Governor William G. Milliken and the Department of State Highways and Transportation is doing everything within its power to stop the abandonment of railroad car ferry service across Lake Michigan.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway car ferry service, running between Ludington and Milwaukee, is the subject of a five-year phase-down plan which could eventually result in total elimination of the service.

Milliken recently ordered the Highway Commission to instruct the state highway department to withdraw its support from the so-called Keweenaw Plan, which calls for the phase-down in service.

After review, Milliken said the plan represented an immediate reduction of service and was a "dramatic shift in the position of the State of Michigan."

The governor warned the phase-out of railroad car ferry service between Michigan and Wisconsin will aggravate inflation and unemployment in Western Michigan. He added it would also improve additional costs and inconvenience on shippers who now rely on the cross-Lake Michigan service.

"The Keweenaw Plan offers no better than one-third the service now provided. More important, it contradicts Michigan's commitment to oppose abandonments and recommendations of the Bi-State Tax Force on Cross Lake Ferry Service," the governor said.

Milliken was careful to add the action of the Commission directed by him represented the first and only official position of the state concerning the C & O abandonment petition.

Old West Side Homes Tour Set in Ann Arbor

Six Ann Arbor homes built between 1886 and 1942 will be open to the public during the sixth annual Old West Side homes tour on Sunday, Sept. 17.

The Old West Side neighborhood is considered typical of the 19th century Midwestern architecture, history and environment. Entered on the National Register of Historic Places in 1972, the neighborhood recently received additional protection of its unique qualities through a local preservation ordinance.

Settled originally by Germans, the sincere concern that this ethnic group had for structural integrity, careful detailing, and impeccable maintenance is in large measure responsible for the quality of the neighborhood today. The outstanding homogeneity of its building and landscape provides the neighborhood with a unified environment of considerable historic and cultural value.

The Old West Side Association, the sponsor of the tour, has received state and national recognition for its innovative approaches to stimulate community support for community and neighborhood conservation. For its sixth annual tour, the association has chosen six structures typical of the neighborhood.

Residences chosen for the tour include those of Michael Levy and Jeffrey Von Wald, 508 Second St.; Rick and Beth Bollinger, 618 Fifth St.; Hank and Laurie Bednarz, 1310 Lutz Ave.; John Dietrich, 1209 W. Huron St.; Ed and Joni Kobrinski, 202 S. Seventh St.; Joe and Carol Brown, 617 W. Liberty St.

Child care will be provided for children under 12 at the RLDS church. Refreshments and shuttle bus service will also be available. For further information, contact David Evans at (313) 994-0313 or Frank Wilhelme at (313) 769-1828.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Clem Webster brung his soapbox to the meeting at the country store Saturday night, but ever time Democrat Clem would stand up Republican Ed Doollittle or another sharpshooter would take a crack at him. Clem came ready to put in his bid as President Carter's image maker, but he never was given much of a chance to present his case.

For a start, Clem told the fellows it was time everybody changed tunes about the Carter Administration. He said all he has heard in the past two months is how popular Ted Kennedy is and Jimmy Carter ain't. He said he was full aware that summer is a dull time for news, but the papers is sounding like a broke record.

Actual, declared Clem, the President has not been give a benefit of any doubts in the past year. The column writers have come to expect the worst out of Washington, and they all seem downright disappointed if they don't get it. Clem said he has been following politics from a safe distance most of this century, and never in his memory has the papers played hounds to the President's fox the way they are with Carter. Even the poor man trying to take a vacation with his family last month was made to look like the Keystone Cops on one of their bad days, was Clem's words. He went on to say from one account he read, you'd think the President ought to have done a better job planning the weather during his raft trip.

As a matter of actual fact, broke in Ed, President Carter has said one thing and done another thing or nothing at all on just about ever issue he's dealt with in the White House. Ed said he would admit that one problem with the people and the President is, we want to believe he can do what we know he can't do. But he makes it worst by egging us on. Fer instant, Ed said Carter promised to cut the size of the President staff, but he wound up selling that pleasure boat and adding everywhere else. He has not been able to inspire Congress, or even to wake it up, Ed allowed, and if you don't move the Congress you don't move the country. As for his stand on tobacco, he has come down four-square on both sides, Ed said, and when a man in his job stands up and says his Administration is going to make smoking "safer than it is now" he deserves what he gets. Whatever his party flavor, a President stands or falls on leadership, and right now Carter is trying to balance on one knee, was Ed's words.

Practical speaking, Zeke Grubb allowed, politics may be the art of the impossible. He said he had saw where state and local government is growing faster than the federal, and he didn't see how we can blame Carter for that. The CETA thing is the kudzu of the bureaucracy, Zeke said, threatening to cover us up in $11 billion worth of make work. If that ain't bad enough, we git word the General Services Administration, which is supposed to keep the federal government in line, is taking payoffs to the tune of $500 million a year. So we've been sending the fox to guard the henhouse, and long before Carter's time.

Yours truly, Uncle Lew.

With all the recent emphasis on high interest rates for investment certificates, you may be overlooking a very important family financial tool... the 5 1/4% per annum passbook savings account. This is your "daily working" savings account. It earns daily interest - from day of deposit to day of withdrawal. The money is always available, so you use this account to accumulate dollars, take them out when you need to pay a medical bill, a repair bill, taxes, a trip. It's about as convenient as a wallet, but your money is earning a good return every day it is on deposit and it is safely insured with an agency of the federal government. A bonus feature is that by maintaining a balance of $1000 or more in savings you are entitled to all of the travelers checks and money orders you can use. No charge. So invest all the money you can in our top interest paying certificate accounts for long term requirements, but for day to day needs and emergencies keep a healthy balance in a 5 1/4% daily working account where it will be immediately available and earn a good return. Susan Hensel Exhibiting In Detroit Art Fair

Chelsea potter, Susan Hensel, will exhibit her work at the 1978 Lafayette Park Art Fair. She will join more than 80 Michigan artists and craftspeople as one of the season's very best fairs on Sept. 9 and 10.

Every year this juried fair features the best of Michigan's artists-craftspeople in an event that is just the right size. This year participants will exhibit, demonstrate and sell their work. Wood carving, dulcimers, handcrafted furniture and soft sculpture will be the more unusual offerings along with the traditional media.

As always there will be booths for young residents where neighborhood children sell their work. Children's activities from 11 to 5 both days will keep all the small people creatively entertained. A complimentary makeup artist will again create fantasy faces for the children. The Mime Ensemble will perform for and with and among the audience. Last but not least, the food will again be wonderful—with the fragrant smell of kuffa wafting in the September air.

The place is the Towers Shopping Plaza on Lafayette, one and one-half blocks east of the Chrysler Freeway near downtown Detroit. Hours for the fair are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. The annual art auction will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday.

TODAY'S INVESTOR

By Thomas E. O'Hara

Q. At my broker's suggestion, I bought Union Carbide Corp. about 12 years ago at $50 a share. He said it was a good blue chip and was certain to give me a good income and gradually get to be worth more money. He was right on the income. The dividend has increased from $2 a year to $2.80 a year, but the price of the stock has tended to be less than what I paid for it. Would you advise me to sell it and put my money in something else?

A. Let me tell you how I see the situation of the company. Then you can decide if you agree with what I say, and if you want to continue to hold the stock. Union Carbide has increased its sales at a good rate since you bought the stock. Its earnings per share have not kept up with the sales increase; and in recent years, have not matched the level reached in 1974. The fact that the improvement in earnings shown in 1974 has not continued has been a disappointment to both public and professional investors.

Carbide's current management is embarked on a program to make a sizeable change in the company's business. The corporation now has a sizeable business in the production of basic chemicals and plastics, industrial gases, ferroalloys and consumer products. The basic chemical and plastics part of the business has had problems recently because of lack of demand, particularly in Europe, in getting sufficient price increases to cover rising costs. The ferroalloy products are sold to the steel industry and a slackness there has left that part of the business in a less than booming situation.

Management has a sizeable capital investment program underway and hopes to improve efficiency and make a major shift in the company's business into products where it adds more value and ones which are sold to consumers rather than industry.

The question for you as an investor is will management's efforts be successful and if they are, how soon will they result in an uptrend in profits. If you decide they will be successful and produce higher profits in the next year or two, it probably will be a good idea to hold the stock. Considering the size of the company and the extent of the changes to be made, it would not be unusual if they did not show a favorable effect on profits for 2-3 years. In that case, you could probably find a number of stocks that would do better for you. I'm enclosing the list of stocks in Better Investing's current Model Portfolio. Any of those should do well for you over the next 2-3 years.

The bride is the daughter of Marie Lamkin of Willis and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lamkin, 829 Lowery Rd., Chelsea. The bridegroom is the son of Vic H. Gauthier, 12100 Trinkle Rd., Dexter, and Mrs. Eldon Lamkin, 829 Lowery Rd., Chelsea.

More than 100 guests attended the wedding where the sister of the bride, Angie Underwood, played three songs on her guitar.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of light beige satin. She made her veil to match the gown carried gardenias and yellow roses in her bouquet.

Jessica Lamkin of Ypsilanti was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown with a beige background and flower print. Her bouquet was made of straw summer flowers and she wore a flower arrangement in her hair.

Bridesmaids were Brenda Susan

Lamkin of Willis, sister of the bride; Michelle Gauthier and Kim Gauthier, sister of the bridegroom; Shelly Piper of Belleville; Shelly Wolford of Belleville; and Judy Gilbreath of Manchester. They wore gowns of blue and white check and white shawls. Their bouquets were made with blue straw flowers as were their head pieces.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length chocolate colored gown with silver accessories and an orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a medium blue floor-length gown with a gardenia and white and silver accessories.

Shanda Reim Underwood was flowergirl. Joshua Jarvis of Dexter was ring bearer.

Best man was Vic H. Gauthier, father of the bridegroom. Ushers included Matt Lamkin of Willis, brother of the bride; Ron and Mike Smiley of Saline, cousins of the bride; and Tom, Jeff, and David Kanitz of Milan, cousins of the bride. The groomsmen wore blue tuxedos and the bridegroom wore his Navy dress uniform.

A reception was held in St. John Catholic church hall from 6 p.m. until midnight. Families of the bride and bridegroom gave the reception for nearly 125 guests.

Foster Family Recruitment Drive Started

Child and Family Service has launched a Foster Family recruitment program. Carol Hoffer, who is in charge of the project, explained that the need for new homes is for youth between the ages of 13 and 18.

"A Foster Family is a full-time job," states Mrs. Hoffer. "It is a challenging and rewarding job. It is a job that only people—no machines—no computers—no experts—can do. It is a people-caring-for-people job."

"For a variety of reasons, teenage youth can be in need of living arrangements outside of their natural parents' home. The reasons can range from serious illness or death of parents, to desertion or neglect, or divorce by parents. Placement itself can be difficult, and at times confusing: it is hard to be separated from your families. The youth face extra pressures in foster care homes: they must learn new rules and expectations; they need to handle their feelings of loneliness and sadness caused by being separated from their families. They lose old friends, change schools, even change jobs at times. Caring, understanding foster families in all communities are invaluable if such young people are to make a proper adjustment. In spite of the difficulties these children may have in their new homes or new school they can learn to change—they can learn to trust—slowly, over time. They need an opportunity to grow."

If you wish to find out more about being a foster family to youth ages 13 to 18, call Carol Hoffer, 971-6520, at Child and Family Service. Leave your name and number. She can answer your questions about licensing and can put you in touch with other foster families from your area, with whom you may talk.

Senate Takes Surprise Move Against OSHA

The Senate voted recently to exempt small businesses employing about 10 million U.S. workers from federal Occupational Safety and Health Regulations.

Under the proposal introduced by Senator Dewey F. Bartlett (R., Okla.) businesses with 10 or fewer full-time employees would be exempted from OSHA regulations if they are in industries with an injury-illness rate of less than 7 percent.

The measure was adopted by a voice vote as an amendment to legislation authorizing Small Business Administration programs for the next fiscal year.

According to a spokesperson for Bartlett's office, the proposal is more extensive than previous exemptions for small business that have in the past been tacked on to the yearly Labor Department-HEW appropriations bill. That exemption, excluded businesses with 10 or fewer employees from OSHA's recordkeeping requirements.

The Bartlett proposal, which now goes to conference with the house-passed SBA bill, would exclude small businesses from OSHA's investigatory powers.

Ledwidge, Romeo, Steele Win Races at Speedway

Saturday, Sept. 2 marked the last regularly scheduled races at Butler Motor Speedway, with the Sportsman Season Championships held at this time. Area drivers received a variety of flags, ranging from checkered to yellow to black.

Three Late Model drivers were victorious. John Ledwidge, car No. 34, won the Pursuit race, narrowly beating defending champion, Don Taylor in No. 25. Joe Roman in No. 90 drove a very skillful race to hold off a crowded field of experienced drivers to win the Feature race. No. 90, driven by Tom Steele, jumped out to an early lead in the third heat race. Able to hold on to his lead for 10 laps, Steele won the checkered flag.

The Sportsman modified cars had many problems on their championship night. No. 90, Jerry Evilsizer, and brother-in-law, No. 94, Fred Worden, collided with each other in the third heat race and both had to go to the pits for repairs. Both No. 90 and 94 were able to start the Feature race but were forced into the pits before the race was over with mechanical problems. Ron Pustay in No. 33 was the only Sportsman car to complete both of the races he entered.

Tom Stevens joined the "Over the Hill Gang" when he took his first trip over the bank in No. 73. Stevens went top high coming out of turn No. 2 and became caught in the loose dirt, sending the car out of control and over the hill. No. 73 was heavily damaged.

Len Jones in No. 85 drove an excellent race in the fifth heat to place second. However, mechanical problems kept him from running in the Semi-Feature event.

The following is a summary of the finishes of area drivers.

Third Heat (Sportsman)—No. 33, Ron Pustay, 4th; No. 73, Tom Stevens, out; No. 90, Jerry Evilsizer, out; No. 94, Fred Worden, out.

Fifth Heat (Sportsman)—No. 85, Len Jones, 2nd.

Semi-Feature (Sportsman)—No. 33, Ron Pustay, 8th.

Feature (Sportsman)—No. 90, Jerry Evilsizer, out; No. 94, Fred Worden, out.

First Heat (Late Model)—No. 34, John Ledwidge, 3rd; No. 80, Joe Romeo, 6th.

Third Heat (Late Model)—No. 90, Tom Steele, 1st.

Pursuit Race (Late Model)—No. 34, John Ledwidge, 1st; No. 80, Joe Romeo, 6th.

Semi-Feature (Late Model)—No. 90, Tom Steele, Black Flag.

Feature (Late Model)—No. 80, Joe Romeo, 1st; No. 34, John Ledwidge, 4th.

The next race at Butler Motor Speedway will be Saturday, Sept. 23. At this time the Michigan State Dirt Track Championship races will take place with open competition for Modifieds and Sprint cars and MSPA Super Late Models, with a $9,000 purse. Rain date: Sept. 30. Time trials are set for 6:30 with racing at 8 p.m. This will be Butler's last race of the season.

The Comprehensive and Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973 increased state and local government authority to design and operate their own training programs to meet local needs.

Girl Scout Council Recruiting Helpers

Men, working women and college students, as well as mothers, are being actively recruited as Girl Scout volunteers in a special drive launched by the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council.

The drive, which began Aug. 28 and runs through Sept. 15, is using local media appeals, church service announcements, and speeches to service clubs to enroll volunteers to work with Girl Scouts, ages 6 to 17, in Washtenaw, Livingston, western Wayne, and Monroe counties. In this Council area, nearly 18,000 girls are served.

In addition to troop and assistant leaders, the Council is enlisting volunteer troop services directors, who recruit and assist troop leaders. Resource people who share expertise of any kind from kite-making to metallurgy with Girl Scout troops at just one or two meetings are also being sought.

In announcing the drive, Council president Fran Bauer said,

Sample Michigan Products on Tours

Take an industrial tour to see how automobiles, wooden shoes and red flannel underwear are made or to get a free sample of Michigan-made products ranging from beer and wine to baby food and vitamins, suggests Automobile Club of Michigan.

To tour an auto plant, contact Ford Motor Co. in Dearborn (313-322-0034) or General Motors' Detroit office (313-556-4444), but he advised that most of these tours are suspended during model change over.

Holland, America's Dutch capital, is the site of two wooden shoe manufacturers offering tours to the public—De Klomp Wooden Shoe and Delft Factory (616-396-2292) and the Wooden Shoe Factory (616-396-6513). DeKlomp bills itself as "the only Delftware factory in the nation."

The whir of sewing machines may be heard at the Red Flannel Factory in Cedar Springs (616-696-9240) as visitors watch pajamas, long johns and other fire engine red apparel being whipped into shape.

Adults who tour the Carling Brewery in Frankenmuth (517-652-6161, ext. 42) or the Stroh Brewery in Detroit (313-961-5840) are invited to sample the suds that come from big copper brewing kettles. You'll have to settle for just a sample because there are no beer sales on the premises.

Head for the vineyards of Michigan's wine country for a round of wine-tasting that is free to adult visitors. Unlike at the breweries, wine, champagne and sherry or sold by the bottle or case from the shelves which line the walls of the tasting room.

Wineries offering free samples along with tours include: Lakeside Winery, near Harbert (616-469-0700), where tasting is done in an outdoor wine garden; Taboe Hill Vineyards, near Buchanan, (616-422-1161); Bronte Winery, near Hartford (616-621-3419), and Penn Valley Vineyards, near Fennville (616-521-2396).

Three of the wineries are in the Paw Paw area. They are Warner Vineyards (616-657-3165); St. Julian Wine Co. (616-657-5568), which boasts a hospitality room with chandeliers made from a 100-year-old wine press, and Frontenac Vineyards (616-657-5531).

At the 77-year-old Gerber Products Co. in Fremont, visitors are given a cup of juice and a free package of the baby food the firm has produced for the past half-century. Tours start at the brand 2614.

A free sample of vitamins goes to adults who tour the Upjohn Co. pharmaceuticals plant in Kalamazoo (616-323-5866).

Kellogg Co. in Battle Creek (616-966-2000) gives a gift package of its cereals to all visitors, and a sample of Jiffy muffin, biscuit and pie crust mixes awaits those who tour the Chelsea Milling Co. in Chelsea (313-475-1361).

Picnic fare—hot dogs and potato chips—is free bonus given anyone

Free Nature Programs Offered at Park Lyndon

Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission is now offering nature programs free of charge to county residents. Park Lyndon, a 205-acre wilderness park on North Territorial Rd., is the site for the upcoming programs.

WCPARC naturalists will lead these new programs which consist of interpretive walks through the park. Nature trails provide access to the diverse habitats within Park Lyndon, including forested steep terrain, a small lake, a spongy bog area, and open prairie-lands. Sandhill cranes, North America's third largest bird, blue herons and owls are among the many types of birds which frequent the park. In addition, the park offers unique plant life such as insect-eating sundews and pitcher plants as well as orchids. White-tailed deer, woodchucks and snapping turtles may also be seen.

Researchers Find

Chicken Soup Does It

Grandma's "chicken soup" cure-all may be founded on more fact than fancy. Researchers at Mt. Sinai Hospital, Miami Beach, recently tested chicken soup along with hot substances as a method for speeding the expulsion of germ laden mucus from nasal passages. Although several hot liquids tested as effective, chicken soup performed best as an "effective upper respiratory tract infection therapy."

The two programs offered this fall are "Bird Watching" and "Nature Walks." In the first, participants will see a variety of birds, including many fall migrating species. The WCPARC naturalist will identify these birds and discuss the various habits of each.

The "Nature Walks" program emphasizes the different habitats within the park. The naturalist will identify trees, plants and animals and answer questions. Historical facts and folklore of the area will also be covered.

Each program runs approximately two hours, from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Scheduled dates for "Bird Watching" are Sunday, Sept. 10 and Sunday, Sept. 17. "Nature Walks" will be held on Saturday, Sept. 9 and Saturday, Sept. 16. Interested residents must make reservations in advance for the program and date of their choice by telephoning the WCPARC office at 864-2376.

In the event of rain, the programs will be held in the nature cabin at Park Lyndon where a slide presentation, demonstrations and exhibits will be shown.

The first state legislation requiring the reporting of injuries due to occupational disease was in California in 1911, according to the U. S. Labor Department booklet, "Labor Firsts in America."

Finance your home insulation through Detroit Edison. (Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow.)

A charming snow scene in a glass paperweight. In the old days it was the favorite possession of many a little girl or boy.

But the reality of winter in southeastern Michigan can be harsh—bringing high heating bills.

Before another cold, snowy winter, make sure your home is properly insulated. It's the most important single thing you can do to keep heating bills down. And help save energy.

Detroit Edison's Home Insulation Finance Plan is designed to help. First, by providing a list of participating contractors. Second, with convenient financing.

Under the plan, you can arrange to have insulation installed anywhere it's needed—wherever valuable heat might escape into the cold winter air.

If you're a residential customer with legal title to your home and an acceptable credit rating, you can take advantage of Detroit Edison's Home Insulation Finance Plan. Call or stop in at any Detroit Edison Customer Office for details.

Then when winter comes, sit back and say—"let it snow, let it snow, let it snow!"

Save where it really counts. The power is in your hands.

A Government That Works for Its Citizens

By David Cohen
President of Common Cause
Immediately after Labor Day, the House will face its first key test on whether it has learned any lessons from California's Proposition 13 vote. The outcome of civil service reform will tell us whether Congress is ready to respond to citizens' frustrations and anger toward government by insisting on competent performance by our public servants.

The Carter Administration's legislation builds on the concept that citizens will receive effective government service only if it is impartially administered, provides incentives and rewards for outstanding performance, permits managers to manage, and provides employees with protection against political abuse.

Government employees' unions and veterans' groups are working overtime in the halls of Congress to maintain the present inflexible civil service. In candid moments, employees, managers and civil service experts acknowledge that the federal government is a bureaucratic maze which stifles the initiative of dedicated government employees while often failing to protect their rights. The accumulation of laws and regulations serves as a shield for non-performance.

Government is complex enough without permitting it to frustrate good managers by giving them insufficient authority to supervise personnel effectively. Nor should it continue to undermine dedicated civil servants by failure to reward their outstanding performance. When merit violations take place with impunity and pay and promotions are made on the basis of longevity rather than performance, our system clearly has to be changed.

If the House is concerned about the taxpayers' revolt, it will force up to four key issues in civil service reform:

(1) Establish a Senior Executive Service. The SES would designate up to 9,200 super-grade executives without adding to the government's payroll. Entrance into the Service would be voluntary for persons now at high levels. Those who enter the Service would be eligible for bonuses for superior performance and would be removed for poor performance. The opponents of change are trying to block it with a proposal to limit the SES to three departments on a two-year trial basis.

(2) Add protections for whistleblowers. An independent counsel would be authorized to investigate allegations of improper reprisals against those who blow the whistle on wrong-doing within the government. This properly reverses past practices when government employees who revealed the existence of unlawful and improper behavior by their agencies too often became targets of agency reprisals.

(3) Modify veterans' preference. The effect of modifying veterans' preference will be to open greater opportunities to qualified women, minorities, and young people while assisting those veterans most in need of help—the Vietnam era and the disabled veteran.

(4) Oppose changing the Hatch Act. The Hatch Act is an essential protection against partisan political interference with the civil service. In a system based on performance, it becomes extraordinarily important to protect civil servants against such political interference. The most aggressive opponents of civil service reform are at the same time trying to promote changes in the Hatch Act. These are unwise and irresponsible.

The choice for the House is: will it be responsible in remedying many of the problems facing our civil service system and show that it is paying attention to voter dissatisfaction with government performance, or will it continue to cave in to the intense pressures from veterans' groups and government employees' unions who have a stake in a status quo that results in poor government performance?

Urwiller is a recent graduate of Adrian College with a degree in business administration. He has taken over as regional sales coordinator.

Dr. Verne R. Brown, president and founder of ENMET, announced the plant expansion will soon be completed. Tom Donkin, vice-president of operations said the firm's production will increase three-fold to help meet the recent increase in demand for the company's products. "A growing concern for worker safety is expected to cause the firm's sales volume to expand at an accelerated rate in the future," Donkin said.

ENMET is a leading manufacturer of gas and vapor detection devices which are used to ensure industrial health and safety. These chemical detection instruments are utilized in a wide variety of applications, including sewage handling, petroleum refining, oil and gas exploration, automotive manufacturing, and iron and steel production. ENMET products are distributed throughout the United States, Canada, and other parts of the world.

Alert Officer Nabs Walkaways At Party Store

Freland and Geoffrey E. Friant laid eight bottles of wine and two 12-packs of beer on the counter at Cook's Grocery Store on Waterloo Rd., Chelsea.

Also shopping at Cook's was Robert Browning, Sergeant Detective at Camp Waterloo and officer for the Chelsea Police Department. While store owner Fred Cook asked the two men for identification, Browning caught sight of a book of prison coupons in the back pocket of one of the walkaways.

"By the way they were dressed and knowing that the coupon books were from Cassidy Lake, I concluded that they had left the grounds," Browning stated in his report.

As Browning informed the walkaways of his discovery, two Chelsea officers were summoned who handcuffed and transported the escapees to the Washtenaw County Jail.

The great inventor Thomas Edison gained another of his more than-a-thousand patents on Aug. 8, 1876. Appeals Court OKs Saline Branch Bank

The State Court of Appeals has unanimously upheld a decision by the Financial Institutions Bureau, Department of Commerce, to permit the establishment of a branch bank by The Saline Bank, Saline.

The court's decision Aug. 8 reversed the judgment and permanent injunction issued by the Washtenaw County Circuit Court which had barred establishment of the branch in Pittsfield township.

State Banking Commissioner, Richard J. Francis, said the issue in the case was whether the Circuit Court, based on the evidence submitted at the administrative hearing, "substituted its judgment for the Bureau's."

The Court of Appeals acknowledged that there was conflicting testimony given, but found "sufficient evidence to support the commissioner's conclusions" that the proposed branch will serve the needs of the community.

"With respect to necessity, the trial judge appeared to substitute his judgment for that of the commissioner," the appeals court said. "We find no abuse of discretion in his adopting a more pro-competitive policy for branch banks. On the contrary, for the reasons indicated, we perceive no error of law in the commissioner following such a policy."

Establishment of the branch bank had been opposed by the Ann Arbor Bank and Trust Co., Community Bank of Washtenaw, Huron Valley National Bank, National Bank and Trust of Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti Savings Bank.

The first proposal for federal legislation to provide old age pensions was in 1907, made by Congressman William B. Wilson (D-Pa.), who became the first Secretary of Labor in 1913, according to the U. S. Labor Department booklet, "Labor Firsts in America."

Six of the seven Chelsea touchdowns were scored on running plays and five of the six were the result of long runs. "The defense needs to improve as they gave up five touchdowns to Jackson with most of the yardage gained on missed assignments in their passing game," Schaffner commented.

"If we can improve the defense and the blocking by the offensive backs, we could be an upcoming team this year," he added.

"This is a talented group of young men and they can be as good as they want to be. We will get a good test today as we open the Chelsea 1978 football program against Tecumseh at home at 7 p.m. Tecumseh has an excellent football program and always has a winning team," Schaffner said.

Turtle Eggs Hatching At Nature Center

Some two hundred million years ago, strange hard-shelled reptiles inhabited shallow lakes, streams and marshes that covered much of North America. They shared these waters with giant dinosaurs. They witnessed the evolution of mammals and birds. Each year these slow moving creatures dragged their bony shells out of the water to find suitable places to lay their eggs. Turtles, never as large or exciting as the dinosaurs, were more successful in the end.

Two hundred million years later, the dinosaurs have disappeared, birds have evolved into hundreds of species of all sizes and colors, and the mammals have culminated with the evolution of man. Only the turtles have remained relatively unchanged.

Again this year, during May and June, they lumbered ashore to lay their eggs. Tom Hodgson, park naturalist at the Waterloo Interpretive Center, collected more than 200 turtle eggs. They are currently on display in the interpretive building where visitors may watch them hatch. Most will hatch within the next two weeks, so visitors should plan accordingly. The new hatchlings will be displayed for a short time in a shallow water aquarium in the center and then released so they might grow and reproduce as nature had intended. The Waterloo Interpretive Center is located on Bush Rd., just west of Chelsea. Visitors take W. Middle St. out past the Methodist Home to Cavanaugh Lake Rd. Proceed west on Cavanaugh Lake Rd. to Pierce Rd. Turn right on Pierce Rd. and follow it to the end. Turn left onto Bush Rd. The Waterloo Interpretive Center entrance is on the left. The Waterloo Interpretive Center is open from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday.

BURGLAR-PROOF SLIDING DOORS

Burglaries always increase during vacation periods when the homeowner is away. One of the favorite accesses is via the sliding glass door. Today's standard hardware for locking sliding doors is pretty flimsy and even an amateur will have no trouble in gaining entrance. But here's how you can outwit the culprit.

Cut a length of dowel (or broom handle) the right length and lay it in the track between the door and the opposite jamb. No way that sliding door can be slid without removing this wedge.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8683; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Skateboard Enthusiasts Learn To Execute Intricate Maneuvers

Their parents don't always like to watch, but for nearly three hours a day, seven days a week, Steve Wilson, 14, and Craig Thams, 15, jump, race, slalom, spin and anything else they can dream up doing on their skateboards.

"We both got skateboards for Christmas three years ago and for the rest of that winter we did nothing else but ride in my basement," Craig said.

Two Christmases later, Steve and Craig have progressed to $75 and $85 skateboards and some pretty fancy footwear.

"We took a lot of spills in the early days and for a while we lost our interest because we didn't know about all the things that could be done on a board," Steve commented.

This summer, however, the two visited Craig's aunt in Warren where there is a fairly sophisticated skateboard park known as Skateboard City East. For $5 a day they had access to slalom runs, race tracks, and "the bowl." "The entire park is made of smooth cement and we couldn't believe what some of those kids were doing. We swore we couldn't do half of what we saw but it is really easy to do when you practice a lot," Craig explained.

Craig said that Michigan does not have the support or facilities for skateboarding that Ohio or Florida has. "My father visited Florida this winter and brought back a lot of ideas on skateboard tricks," he said.

One of those ideas was a concave ramp nearly six feet high which both boys and Craig's father helped build. "This first ramp wasn't big enough so Craig and I built a better one," Steve said.

Made of plywood, the ramp they use now is nine feet high, six feet wide, and eight feet long with a three-foot verticle section at the top. "The feeling is really indescribable going up and making a 180-degree turn. The motion and speed, mix to make it really sensational," Steve explained.

While the ramp is "numero uno" in their book, other tricks they've become proficient at include hand stands, speed races, and the slalom course. Steve's record in the slalom is 40 cones on a single run. "You have to get a good fast start and then just keep doing 180-degree turns to get through the cones. I get a little dizzy sometimes," he said.

Because skateboarding has a reputation of frequent and often serious accidents, both Steve's and Craig's mothers have loaded them up with protective equipment including helmets, gloves, knee pads and the like.

"We know they'd like us to wear the stuff but we never do," Steve confessed. "The helmets look dumb and the other things get in the way. I think they trust us because we've come pretty good but they still worry," he added.

To lessen the pangs of a fall, Steve said that they spent several weeks learning how to make a safe wipe out. "There are ways to land so that the chances of getting hurt are reduced and we can take a bad fall smoothly now," he said.

With the football season in full swing, the two skateboard kings will be spending less time flying and more time on the field as they are both members of the Chelsea Junior Varsity football team.

"We'll keep riding inbetween games, school, and everything else. When the winter comes we'll practice in the basement," Steve said.

Aquatic Club Fall Session Starts Soon

Fresh from a successful summer of competition, the Chelsea Aquatic Club is back preparing for a new fall session of swimming.

Chelsea will be a member and the defending champion of the Fall Super Six League which includes teams from Milan, Belleville, Plymouth, Willow Run, and Ypsilan-tu. Competition begins Sept. 18 and ends in mid-December with the Championship meet.

Requirements for joining the club are, 8-years-old and under, one width any stroke; 9- and 10-year-olds, one length any stroke; and 11-years-old and older, two lengths any stroke.

Fee for the club is $20 per swimmer with a maximum of $50 per family. The fall schedule is, 8-year-olds and under, Wednesdays, 6 to 7 p.m., Friday, 5 to 6 p.m., and Saturday, 10 to 11 a.m.; 9- and 10-year-olds, Monday and Friday, 5 to 6 p.m., and Saturday, 11 a.m. to noon; Middle school swim club, Monday through Thursday, 4:30 to 6 p.m.; and the high school swim club, Monday, through Friday 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Fees are not due until Friday, Sept. 22 which allows swimmers a few free-days of swimming before the monetary commitment is made.

Great Lakes Federal Now Ranked 11th In Entire Nation

Great Lakes Federal Savings and Loan Association is now ranked 11th in the nation according to the "American Banker." When comparing the total deposits of the nation's 4,770 savings and loan associations as of June 30, 1978, Great Lakes Federal Savings had advanced 71 positions since June 30, 1977. As of this month, the Association has assets of over $650 million.

On April 1, First Federal Savings of Battle Creek merged into Ann Arbor Federal Savings, and the corporate name of Great Lakes Federal Savings was adopted. This is the third name change since the Savings and Loan was founded in the old Ann Arbor Court House in 1890.

BREATH TAKER: For a split second, Steve Wilson maintains a completely vertical position before flipping up the end of the board to make a 180-degree turn and zooming back down the ramp. "Sometimes I feel my feet slipping off the board when I reach the top and the adrenalin really shoots through me. It only takes a second, though, to make a 180 and before I know it I'm down the ramp," Steve said.

LIFTOFF! Steve Wilson sails with the greatest of ease nearly three feet off the ground as he perfectly executes this skateboard jump.

The Reproductions Program of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, offers several types of early American wallpaper, as well as furniture and accessories.

The Bible - The Light from Heaven

The Bible speaks about God appearing in the garden and pronouncing a curse on the serpent, the woman, and the man. (Gen. 3:14, 16, 17). Sin has been a blight in the world. View the broken-hearted husband as he follows the corpse of his wife to the grave, the mother as she touches her lips to the cold brow of her babe in the embrace of death, or to her wail as she sees her son marched off to prison, see the pain, sickness, heartaches, tears and sorrows of earth, and know that they are the result of sin. The apostle John wrote, "All unrighteousness is sin." (1 John 5:17). Note some of the Bible stories showing the sadness of sin. Cain—in the family life; Saul—in the highly gifted life; David—in a godly man; Peter—in a disciple. The Bible teaches that "Christ died for our sins." (1 Cor. 15:1-4).

REA Helps Fund Communications Net in Wisconsin

The Rural Electrification Administration has made its first loan for facilities to provide broadband telephone services. Secretary of Agriculture, Bob Bergland, said the $1.3 million loan was made to the Footville Telephone Company in Footville, Wis., to construct coaxial telephone service, capable of delivering a wide variety of communications services over a single wire. "In addition to private line telephone service, about 870 of Footville's 800 telephone subscribers will also be receiving eight channels of commercial television over the same wire," he said. The cable television portion of the project will be financed through local surcharges. Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Alex Mercure, whose responsibilities include the REA, said, "Broadband gives rural people the potential for a wide range of services, including load control devices for conserving electricity and utility meter reading. It enables doctors to diagnose illnesses over long distances, and permits the transmission of data for operating modern farms and businesses in addition to entertainment television."
