Varsity Gridders Absorb Third Loss

Chelsea varsity Bulldogs rallied too late against the Lincoln Rail-splitters last Friday as they conceded their third loss of the season, 21-14, and their chances for a shared second place in the Southeastern Conference.

Hampered by the absence of key player Jesse Coburn, who was recently injured in a hunting accident, and a collection of penalties during the first half, the Bulldogs ended the SEC season with a 5-3 record.

Statistically, Chelsea had it all over Lincoln with nearly 100 yards more rushing, twice as many yards passing on seven out of 13 passes completed, and three interceptions to Lincoln's one.

It was Lincoln's one, however, that determined the game. With the score tied in the fourth quarter, 14-14, the Railsplitters' Jim Czinski returned an interception 27 yards for the winning points.

First half action was a defensive struggle between the two squads. While Chelsea moved the ball down near Lincoln's goal line twice, penalties stalled the drives. An attempted 30-yard Bulldog field goal went wide.

Not until seven minutes into the third quarter did the scoreboard register points when Lincoln scored on a 60-yard drive and a six-yard pass to Jim Czinski. Their extra point was good.

Chelsea ran for 68 yards with John Dunn scoring with one minute left in the third period.

Lincoln ran on a 24-yard drive by Derrick Tolliver for their second TD and kicked a good point. Mirroring his earlier play, Dunn completed a 73-yard drive from the one-yard line to even the score at 14-14 on Knickerbocker's good kick.

Leading the offense was tri-captain Al Augustine who carried the ball 25 times for 107 yards. He was followed by Dunn with 12 carries and 34 yards; and Presley with eight and 24.

Dunn shone with seven complete passes out of a total of 13 for the game. Knickerbocker caught three for 31 yards, and Mike Killelea had two for 23.

On the defense, Scott Price completed six tackles and three assists. Al Augustine was right behind with four tackles and three assists. John LaBarbara had five and one.

Friday night, Nov. 3, is parents' night with senior Bulldogs taking the field against Jackson Northwest here. This is the Bulldogs' final game of the season in a non-conference match.

Seniors playing will be Alan Augustine, Tom Barreis, Tim Barreis, Doug Clark, Ben Kincer, Bill Moore, Joe Kaiser, Scott Powers, John Nelson, Kevin Clark, Jeff Bibler, and Jim Brown. Coburn is expected to be released from the hospital this week and be on hand for the last game.

DEBATE WINNERS: Chelsea traveled to Lapeer for the first Lapeer East Eagle Debate tournament with the novice teams earning a second and third place out of 11 schools while several individuals were recognized for their responses. In all, Chelsea was awarded five trophies during the tourney. Pictured in the front row, from left to right, are Sue Ingalls, Brian Koepele, Janine Hoffman, and Janet Walz. Second row, Theresa Merkel, Sara Merkel, Beth Merkel, Debbie Koepele, and Sue Ingalls. In back are Brad Flanigan, Mike Killelea, Dave Waldyke, and John LaBarbara. Novice team of Beth Merkel, Janine Hoffman, Debbie Koepele, and Brian Koepele on the affirmative and Sara Merkel and Theresa Merkel on the negative won third place with a 6-2 record and 347 speaker points. Novice team of Dave Waldyke and John LaBarbara, affirmative, and Mike Killelea and Brad Flanigan, negative, won second place also with a 6-2 record and 368 speaker points. Individual winners were John LaBarbara, first in novice; Dave Waldyke, third in novice; and Theresa Merkel, Janet Walz, and Sue Ingalls for the best speakers on their respective teams. Varsity teams attending were Ruth Rawson and John Koepele, affirmative, and Dace Ertel and Janet Walz, negative; Mike Waldyke and Tom Severn, affirmative, and Sue Ingalls and Drew Sprague, negative.

J. Coburn Wounded In Hunting Accident

What had been planned as a pleasant afternoon of pheasant hunting suddenly became an incident of near tragedy as a local athletic star was shot in the leg Monday, Oct. 23.

Tri-captain for the Bulldog varsity squad, Jesse Coburn, senior at Chelsea High school, was injured as a 20-gauge shotgun was accidentally triggered while he and two friends were hunting game near the Waterloo Recreation Area.

"I didn't even hear the shot. I just bent down to touch my leg when I felt something strange and realized that I was bleeding," Coburn explained. "I really can't say what happened because it was so fast and I can't remember," he added.

The boys, who Coburn said had hunted together often, had spent the morning flushing pheasants without success. Just as they returned to the field after lunch the gun which Coburn had loaned to his friend went off, pelting his leg with shot pellets. "It was weird. I didn't hear anything, and for a while I didn't feel anything because my leg was numb," Coburn said.

As their car was close by, the three drove to the Chelsea Community Hospital where Coburn was transferred to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor.

"I was lucky. The shot just hit the fatty part of my upper thigh and not the muscle. The wound is about three inches wide and a half inch deep," he explained. "At first it didn't hurt very much, but after the skin grafts and all the dressing changes it has been fairly painful," he added.

When Coburn returns to the classroom he expects to be on crutches for about four weeks. "I should be back in school by next week. The worst part about this is missing school but they've been bringing me work to do while I'm here," he said.

Trouble-Free Halloween Reported

In spite of verified sightings of pirates, vagabonds, devils, and other representatives of the underworld, Chelsea escaped serious destruction this Halloween week.

"Quiet" was the word around the Chelsea Police Department. "In some respects we were surprised at the relatively few incidents of pranks," Police Chief George Meranuck commented.

"Probably the single biggest reason for the smooth week was the appreciated help of the Chelsea Communications Club which spent five days patrolling neighborhoods at night and flashing spot-

United Way Campaign Enters Final Weeks

Two hundred volunteer workers for Chelsea United Way are entering the final weeks of their campaign to raise $38,500 for distribution to 36 social agencies for the 1979 year.

The largest groups of volunteers are Chelsea residential workers under the direction of Pat Whitesall, and rural workers under the leadership of Linda Montgomery.

Gifts from large local corporations are being personally solicited by Frank Renton while other industrial donors are being canvassed under the direction of Lyle Christwell. Art Stoll and Tom Vaillancourt are seeking the support of local clubs and organizations while Dale Schumann and Paul Schaible, Jr., lead the effort for pledges and gifts from community merchants.

Barb Seabury provided leadership in soliciting support from school employees. Nancy Holmes aided in obtaining gifts from professional people, while Mark Taylor was in charge of the fund campaign among staff workers at Chelsea Community Hospital.

"This is a very big effort by a lot of Chelsea area neighbors," Will Connelly, general fund chairman, said. "Because we are volunteers, the costs for the campaign are largely for literature, pledge cards, envelopes, and postage. There are no paid professionals. Thus 97 cents or more out of every dollar collected goes directly to the social needs we are all trying to serve," he added.

President Jerry Dresselhouse pointed out that most of the leaders in the 1978 campaign are present or former directors of Chelsea United Way.

Girls Swim Team Wins Three More

Thumbing their noses at defeat, Chelsea girls varsity swim team raced past Monroe, 107-65; Detroit-Northern, 107-50; and Lincoln, 100-65 last week.

Chelsea's season record is 10-0 for the year and an amazing 16-0 for the past two years. They have not lost since October, 1977, when they were defeated in a closely contested meet with Class A Swartz Creek.

The girls have three dual meets and an invitational remaining in their highly successful season. They must travel to Dundee for a very difficult meet, and then are at home tonight, Nov. 2 against Albion and Monroe. On Thursday, Nov. 16, Chelsea will host a large high school invitational with eight teams attending.

Chelsea is the defending champion in the meet after which the Bulldogs will compete in two meets and the state meet. Chelsea has qualified 50 percent of its team for the state competition.

"The team expects to have a very good chance of placing swimmers in the 200-yard freestyle with Sara Borders; Shelly Springer in the 50-yard freestyle; Michelle Alexander in diving; Sara Borders and Shelly Springer in the 100-yard freestyle; Teresa Degener in the 100-yard breaststroke; and Borders, Shannon Springer, Anita Powell, Shelly Springer, Lisa Radke, and Mary Bacon in the 400-yard freestyle relay," Coach Larry Reed commented.

Winners for Chelsea in the meet against Monroe were Lisa Radke, Teresa Degener, Shelly Springer, Anita Powell, Mary Bacon, Shannon Springer, Michelle Alexander, and Julie Sundling.

Against Detroit-Northern, Bulldog winners were Lisa Radke, Teresa Degener, Shannon Springer, Mary Bacon, Michele Clark, Anita Powell, Janine Hoffman, and Annette Kuhl.

Against Lincoln, winners were Lisa Radke, Teresa Degener, Shannon Springer, Anita Powell, Mary Bacon, Shelly Springer, Sara Borders, and Sue Cobb.

On Monday, Nov. 6, the boys varsity swim program will begin its practice season. Larry Reed will coach, attempting to continue the success of the undefeated girls' team.

Local, National, State Officers, 11 Proposals Require Advance Study

As a guide to the national, state, and local candidates, and the 11 ballot proposals, the following is offered to better prepare voters for what they will encounter on Election Day, Tuesday, Nov. 7.

At the local township level, nearly all of the candidates are incumbents seeking unopposed re-election. Voters, however, have the option of writing in a candidate of their choice. To win, a write-in candidate must receive more votes than the candidate whose name appears on the ballot. Instructions on this procedure are included on the ballot.

In Sylvan township, incumbents seeking re-election are: Donald Schoenberg (D), as supervisor; Daniel J. Murphy (D), clerk; and Fred W. Pearsall (R), treasurer.

Reuben A. Lesser, Jr. (R), is running unopposed for the one open position of trustee. Incumbent Gary D. Foster (R) and Paul Newhouse (D) are on the ballot for the two constable positions.

At least one race is in action in Lima township where incumbent Harold L. Gross (D), trustee for the township for 18 years, is being challenged by the united campaigning of newcomers Robert L. Heller (R) and Martin Merkel (R). There are two open positions for trustee. A second possible race exists between ballot candidate Leila C. Bauer (R) for supervisor and a write-in campaign for Robert Musolf (D), who is the incumbent. Bauer was herself elected during the August primary on a write-in effort.

Lima township Republican incumbents in unopposed bids are: Arlene R. Bareis for clerk, and Jean L. Tilt for treasurer. Daniel D. Foytik (R) is looking for his first position as constable in an uncontested race for the one position.

All but one candidate in Dexter township is an incumbent and the only challenge presented is that between incumbent trustee Arlene B. Howe (R) and Earl Dolezky (D) for the one open slot of trustee. Candidates running unopposed are John M. Tandy (R), supervisor; William Eisenbeiser (D), clerk; Lorinda Jedele (R), treasurer; and Robert H. Burns (R), constable.

In Lyndon township, Republican John D. Hurd is seeking his first term as supervisor, unopposed, while Republican incumbents Linda Wade, clerk, and Barbara Roderick, treasurer, are also unopposed. Incumbent trustee Norman Kaiser (R) is in contest with Orson A. Beeman, Sr. (D), in a race for the one open slot of trustee, and Kathryn A. Sprawka (D), is looking to her first term as constable.

No contest exists in Sharon township as all the candidates are incumbents. Republicans up for re-election. Included are James S. Haller, supervisor; Duane Haselschwerdt, clerk; Herbert G. Jacob, treasurer; Willard Blumenauer, trustee; and Ira E. Johnson, constable.

The same is true in Webster township. Republican incumbents seeking re-election without contest are Donald Zeeb, supervisor; Wana M. Baldus, clerk; Margaret Mynning, treasurer; John T. Wheeler, trustee; and DeWight C. DeRoo and Robert E. Seelye as constables.

Freedom township offers only one new face on the ballot as Armin G. Haeussler (R) is seeking his first term as trustee. The remaining candidates are Republican incumbents running unopposed for their seats. They are David J. Menart, supervisor; Rena L. Girbach, clerk; Walter A. Heiber, treasurer; and Stephen A. Carson (R) and Luther M. Nagel (R) as constables.

Also on the local level are non-partisan candidates running for trustee positions on the Washtenaw Community College Board of Directors. Of the nine candidates for the three open positions, three are incumbents including Richard W. Bailey, treasurer; Ann Cleary Kettles, secretary; and James W. Anderson, trustee. The remaining six are Dewey W. Eubanks, James B. Gilligan, Jr., Curtis L. Holt, Patricia Marie Rossman, C. Edward Wall, and Phillip G. Wells. The trustee slot has a six-year term.

Washtenaw Community College is also asking voters to approve a millage renewal of one mill or one dollar per $1,000 of assessed valuation as equalized for a period of five years from 1981 to 1985, inclusive, for the purpose of providing funds for operating expenses and the operation and purchase of equipment for occupational training programs.

George A. Merkel (R), is seeking unopposed re-election as county commissioner in the 2nd District.

Three universities have candidates vying for seats on their boards as does the State Board of Education.

Incumbent candidates for the State Board of Education—two positions are open—are Annette Miller (D), vice-president; and Barbara Dumouchelle (R). Also running are Malcolm G. Dade, Jr. (D), executive assistant to Mayor Coleman A. Young; and Silvernia Q. Kanoyton (R), deputy director Michigan Department of Licensing & Regulation.

Two slots are vacant on the University of Michigan Board of Regents with incumbents Paul Brown (D), and James L. Waters, (D) seeking re-election. Challenging them are Republicans John R. Axe, attorney, and Gilbert E. Bursley, State Senator and president of Cleary College, Ypsilanti.

Michigan State University has two trustee positions open and four candidates in contest. Democrats are Carole Lick and Barbara Sawyer and Republicans are Paul V. Gadola and Mary P. Sharp.

Wayne State University in Detroit has two governor positions open with two Democratic incumbents seeking re-election. They are Leon H. Atchison, chairman of the board; and Max J. Pincus. Republican candidates are James R. Haley and Laura Reyes Kopack.

State elections include races for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, State Senator for the 18th District, Representative in State Legislature, 23rd District; and seven judgeships.

Governor William G. Milliken (R) is seeking his third full term in this capacity against the challenge of William B. Fitzgerald (D) who is now a State Senator and attorney. Milliken's running mate is James H. Brickley, president of Eastern Michigan University, while Olivia P. Mayard, vice-chairperson of the Michigan Democratic Party is on the ballot with Fitzgerald.

Richard H. Austin (D) is in contest for re-election as Secretary of State with Melvin L. Larsen (R), a State Representative of the 61st District.

School Bands Plan Concert

Capping off the season, the 103-member high school marching band, the Beach Middle school 7th and 8th grade bands, and the jazz ensembles from both schools will present a post-marching band concert, Thursday, Nov. 9 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gym.

Steve Bergmann, director of the high school band, invites everyone to the group's performance.

MOST COMICAL: Abandoning the depths of the sea to participate in the Chelsea Kiwanis Club annual Kiddies' Halloween Party, Allison Hepburn placed first as the funniest octopus seen in these parts for some time. Posing as a stray pup rescued by the local dog catcher, Kristen Knopsulder and Gretchen Vogel took second place while the charming couple of Kurt and Kristen Roberts stepped out in high fashion Tuesday evening for a night on the town to place third.

SPOOKIEST: To call these creatures ugly would hardly do justice to the word and so judges of the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, out of sheer fright, awarded these five Halloween beggars prizes for their terrifying costumes Tuesday night. First place was awarded to Jeff Mason; Mark Doubleton received second place; and Kirk Eubanks, Scott Salyer, and Todd Eubanks placed third.

Kelley Takes On Utilities In Conservation Programs
 Attorney General Frank J. Kelley again has taken on the utility companies to make sure consumers do not pay higher gas and electric rates due to energy conservation programs.

The Michigan Public Service Commission is currently in the process of reviewing proposed regulations which would permit utility companies to adopt and encourage conservation plans.

Kelley, in papers filed with the commission, said serious defects in the proposed rules could result in customers using less gas and electricity, but paying higher rates.

"In my judgment, any regulations adopted must make absolutely sure that utility customers are not asked to pay higher rates because they are using less energy. . . . It is intolerable to ask people to first pay the costs of a conservation program and then raise their rates still higher because the program works," Kelley said.

He said that he will personally oppose the adoption of any new rules that would permit utilities to assess surcharges for lower consumption or permit the utilities to demand higher profits for conserving energy.

Kelley concluded there is no justification for the utilities' demands to earn higher profits on conservation than on providing utility service and the proposed regulations should prohibit any "conservation profiteering," by public utilities.

Welfare Investigations
 The state's welfare fraud investigation program is saving taxpayers more than $270,000 per month, according to a recent report released by Governor William Milliken.

ing down in our world trade balance, Ed said, but not in arms sales. For the year that ended in September we sold a record $13.7 billion worth, for all defensive use, of course, Ed said.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

The report indicated the state's automated systems analysis program has uncovered welfare fraud by cross-checking welfare rolls with personnel records of employers from around the state.

The computer cross-check system has closed 1,083 cases and reduced grants in 279 other cases since its inception in 1976. The program is now entering its second, or investigative, phase and will involve legal action in cases of actual fraud.

The governor said all of the programs have been part of a general effort in the Department of Social Services which have helped reduce the monthly caseload and the estimated error rate.

Milliken reported the declining caseload and stepped-up controls have helped bring about the first decline in the state's social services budget since 1962.

The department's adjusted general fund-general purpose budget for the current fiscal year is $33 million less than last year's.

Minority Grad School Career Conference Slated

Minority students and alumni from all area colleges are invited to attend the University of Michigan's fifth annual "Minority Graduate School and Career Conference" Nov. 6 in the Michigan Union.

Representatives from more than 100 business and industrial firms, government agencies and graduate schools will be in the Union Ballroom at the Pendleton Room from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. to distribute literature and meet informally with students. They will also be scheduling interviews with prospective candidates Nov. 7. Participants should bring their resumes.

There is no charge for the event, sponsored annually by the U-M Office of Career Planning and Placement (CPP). Undergraduates as well as seniors and graduate students are welcome.

Hazardous Materials Conference
 An American-Canadian conference on hazardous materials management will be held Dec. 4 and 5 in Detroit.

Michigan, still reeling in the wake of the PBB mix-up, will host the two-day conference co-sponsored by the governor's office, the National Governors' Association and the Department of Natural Resources.

Invited to attend are representatives from each of the states, all Canadian provinces and several federal agencies.

Milliken cited a need for coordinated action by states and provinces for better handling and disposal of toxic materials and a need for improved national and international co-ordination in handling toxic material disasters.

"It is clearly going to be necessary for states to have reasonably similar regulations and controls on the handling and disposal of toxic materials," Milliken said.

CPP offices, located on the third floor of the Student Activities Building, are open to all U-M students who need information and advice about career goals. In addition to helping students find jobs, CPP counselors guide them in planning their educations, and applying for summer or part-time jobs or graduate schools.

CPP also co-ordinates summer internship programs in Washington and New York, and maintains an extensive, up-to-date library of job descriptions and employment trends.

Cloning Expert Will Speak at WCC Nov. 9

David Rorvik, author and expert on cloning, will speak at Washtenaw Community College at 12 noon on Thursday, Nov. 9. The lecture is open to the public at no charge and will be given in Lecture Hall II of the College's Liberal Arts and Science Building.

Rorvik's latest book, "In His Image—The Cloning of a Man," claiming to tell the true story of the first cloning of a human being, has continued to generate controversy in the public and scientific community since its publication last March.

Rorvik, a scientific writer whose columns have appeared in Time magazine, Esquire, the New York Times, Harpers, Saturday Review, Playboy, Rolling Stone and Readers' Digest, is author of seven books dealing with new developments in medical science. He won the first Pulitzer traveling fellowship ever awarded and recently was given the Altea Patterson Foundation Fellowship to investigate the politics of cancer research worldwide.

His latest book, discussing a millionaire's plan to create a genetic "twin" of himself, recounts the series of events leading up to the actual birth of a "baby born without a mother." In his talk at Washtenaw Community College, Rorvik will discuss this instance of cloning as well as other aspects of the biological revolution including recombinant DNA, genetic engineering and cloning.

Washtenaw Community College is located at 4800 E. Huron River Dr., Ann Arbor.

Further information about Rorvik's free lecture at the college for the public is available by calling the College at 973-3528.

Better Get Election Crib Sheet

Mid-term elections generally invite voter apathy and with the unusual number of proposals, (1), and national, state, and local candidates, many of the even most devoted ballot casters may avoid the polls in favor of skirting long lines and tough decision making, this Tuesday, Nov. 7.

Sylvan Township Clerk Daniel Murphy makes several suggestions to ease the process of exercising the voting privilege. He also promises that with 10 voting booths in operation for each of the township's two precincts, as opposed to three each in previous years, long lines should not develop.

Murphy strongly advises voters to prepare themselves before Tuesday by studying the wording of the proposals and remembering that the words "Headlee" and "Tisch" are only popular forms of describing proposals. "All of the proposals on the ballot are referred to by a letter, not by name, with a brief summary of the proposal's purpose," Murphy explained.

Exact wording of the 11 state proposals will not appear on either the ballot the voter will read while in the voting booth or on the 8x7 proposal notice which will be posted near the entrance inside Sylvan Township Hall. The voting ballot will contain a short description and the proposal notice will provide a more detailed account while the exact wording is available from the Washtenaw County Clerk's office or at The Chelsea Standard.

To vote as quickly and precisely as possible, Murphy urges everyone without a photographic memory to write down their proposal answers and candidates choices on a list and use it as a reference while voting.

He also reminds voters who have special needs of absentee voting. This may be done in two ways; either by making an appointment with the township clerk to vote in his or her office before 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 7 or by receiving an absentee ballot from the clerk to take home.

"You don't have to be out-of-town to use these methods," Murphy said. They may be used if you are 1.) A senior citizen over 62 years old. 2.) Out of town on Election Day. 3.) Observing religious prescriptions. 4.) Physically unable to attend the polls without the aid of another person.

To vote in the clerk's office prior to Election Day, an appointment is necessary with most township clerk's. To obtain an absentee ballot to be filled in at home, Murphy will have them for Sylvan Township at Chelsea Pharmacy, on Main and W. Middle St. or by calling him at his home at 475-1191. "We will bend over backwards to help people get their vote in," Murphy stated. Deadline for obtaining a ballot is Saturday, Nov. 4 at 2 p.m.

In 1813 the first state law to declare that proprietors of manufacturing establishments teach their child laborers "reading, writing and the first four rules of arithmetic" was passed in Connecticut, according to the U.S. Department of Labor booklet, "Labor First in America."

Hunting Accident

(Continued from page one) finished Coburn's enthusiasm for hunting, it has and will interrupt his athletic prowess on the gridiron and on the basketball court.

Coburn missed a crucial game of the Bulldogs against the Lincoln Railsplitters and as captain of the basketball team he will be out of action at least until February. "I'll miss half the season but I'm counting on joining the team at least half way into the year," he emphasized.

Young Homemakers Visit Fabric Shop

Thirteen members of Young Homemakers Club traveled to Salline Thursday, night, Oct. 29. There they met with Chelseaite Charlotte Ingalls in her fabric shop called The Crossroads.

After time for browsing, Mrs. Ingalls shared some of her feelings and insights about the business and working outside of the home. Through demonstrations the group saw how to make a bur-lap wreath, a stuffed Christmas tree table decoration, placemats, and a biscuit pillow. Everyone enjoyed discussing and examining the many fine quilts adorning the shop's walls.

Members gathered later for refreshments and an informal meeting. Arlene Honbaum, Georgia Myers and Holly Porter were welcomed as new members. Francis Murphy distributed program booklets for the coming year.

On Nov. 8, a Baker's Clay workshop will be held at the home of Kay Heller. Members are asked to call if they plan to attend. The next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 11 at the home of Barbara Haist. Everyone is to bring a craft idea or cookie recipe to share.

11 Proposals on Ballot

General for the past 16 years is seeking re-election and is challenged by Stephen C. Bransford, Jr. (R), a practicing attorney for 19 years in Grand Rapids; and James E. Wells, American Independent Party, who is an attorney from Southfield.

Democrat Edward C. Pierce is in contest with Republican C. William Colburn for the State Senator position in the 18th District.

In the race for Representative in State Legislature, 23rd District, Democrat Earle Stevenson and Republican Mary Keith Ballantine are on the ballot.

Two justices of the Supreme Court will be elected from four non-partisan candidates, two of whom are incumbents—James L. Ryan and G. Mennen Williams. Also running are Alice L. Gilbert, Circuit Judge; and Gary R. McDonald, Circuit Judge.

Dorothy Comstock Riley is unopposed in her bid for re-election as Judge of the Court of Appeals, 1st District.

In the election for Judge of the Circuit Court, two incumbents are running unopposed for the two open positions—Patrick J. Conlin and Edward D. Deake.

Vying for the position of Judge of the Probate Court are Maxine Virtue and Loren W. Campbell.

For the one open position of Judge of the District Court, 14th District, Lynwood E. Noah and Karl V. Fink are the two candidates.

At the national level, the electorate will choose a United States Senator from a list of two including Carl Levin (D), a Detroit attorney; and incumbent Robert P. Griffin (R).

Voters will also choose a Congressional Representative for the 6th District. Running are incumbent Bob Carr (D) and Mike Conlin (R).

11 state proposals, referred to by letters, will appear on the ballot with 100-word definitions. The following is a brief description of each proposal and explanation as taken from the guide prepared by the League of Women Voters of Michigan "1978 Voters Guide."

Proposal A asks voters whether a convention of elected delegates to revise the Constitution, with revisions to be submitted to voters for ratification. By law, voters must decide every 16 years on whether to revise the Constitution. Without a convention, voters may make minor revisions through state proposals such as this one or through legislative action. The current Constitution was adopted in 1963 and if the proposal should pass, delegates from each Representative district and one from each Senatorial district in Michigan would be elected and the Convention would begin by October 1979.

Proposal B asks if the granting of parole to a prisoner convicted of certain crimes involving violence or injury to personal property be prohibited until at least after the minimum sentence has been served. If this is passed, the specific crimes would be listed including the categories of murder, armed robbery, kidnapping, rape and other serious felonies where there is injury or potential injury. Currently, persons convicted of these crimes may be granted early release for good behavior on the decision of the Parole Board.

Proposal C asks whether state funds could be deposited in savings and loan associations and credit unions as well as in banks. State funds include all income received by the state and local units of government for operation such as taxes, federal grants, and license plate fees.

Proposal D asks voters if persons under the age of 21 should be prohibited from buying, possessing, and consuming alcoholic beverages. The proposal would define an alcoholic beverage; prohibit the sale or giving of an alcoholic beverage to anyone under 21 years old; and prohibit the possession for personal consumption of an alcoholic beverage by anyone under 21 years old. Michigan previously had such a law but granted the right to drink to 19-year-olds in 1972. In early 1978, the law was amended to make 19 the legal drinking age.

Proposal E, if voters say yes, would limit all state taxes and revenues, excluding federal aid, to its current proportion of total state personal income and would provide an exemption for a declared emergency. It would also prohibit local governments from adding new or increasing existing present local programs without full state funding; prohibit the state from reducing existing level of aid to local governments, taken as a group; and require voter approval of certain bonded indebtedness.

Current law in Michigan requires that property tax assessments be based on 50 percent of true cash value with no limitation of the amount of yearly increases in property valuation for this purpose. The Constitution does not limit the rate of state income tax which is now at 4 1/2 percent. It also limits the property tax rate levied by local government units without a vote of the people and sets a limit on the rate that can be levied with a vote of the people. Property taxes are limited to a percentage of household income through the circuit-breaker tax credit on state income tax.

Proposal G asks if Michigan State Police Troopers be allowed the action of collective bargaining with binding arbitration. If passed, the amendment would let troopers and sergeants bargain collectively with their employers on conditions of employment; permit troopers and sergeants to submit unresolved disputes to binding arbitration; and provide that all promotions be determined by competitive examination and performance on the basis of merit, efficiency and fitness. At present, troopers' salaries, like all State Civil Service employees, are set by the Michigan Civil Service Commission, a four-member body appointed by the Governor. Troopers would still be prohibited from striking if the proposal is passed.

Proposal H, if passed, would prohibit the use of property taxes for school operating expenses and establish a voucher system for financing education of students at public and non-public schools. Ayes vote would prohibit the use of property taxes for school operating expenses; require the state legislature to establish a program of general state taxation for support of schools; and require the state legislature to provide for the issuance of an educational voucher to the student's parents or guardian for application to the student's education at the school of their choice.

Presently, local property taxes supply a major source of revenue for the operation of public elementary and secondary schools. State Constitution prohibits allocation of state funds to non-public pre-elementary, elementary and secondary schools. The proposal would affect only property taxes, but not those which have already been voted for the payment of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness.

Voters could approve additional property taxes for school construction and taxes could be levied for support of community colleges and public libraries not part of a local school district. The proportion of the property tax, within the 15-mill constitutional limitation which formerly went to schools, would be available to counties and townships unless they had voted a fixed allocation to various units. The value of each voucher has not been determined and would not necessarily meet the complete cost of each child's education. The proposal would remove a state-wide average of 65 percent of property tax bills.

Proposal J asks voters to approve a reduction in property tax assessments and establish a maximum of 5.6 percent on the rate of the state income tax. If passed, the amendment would reduce real and personal property tax assessments to 25 percent of true cash value of property; limit state equalization increase to 2 1/2 percent for any year; establish a maximum of 5.6 percent of the rate of state income tax; allow state legislature to authorize school districts to levy up to one percent income tax with local school district voter approval; and prohibit legislature from requiring new or expanded local programs unless fully funded by the state.

Currently, law requires property tax assessment to be based on 50 percent of true cash value. There is no limitation on the amount of yearly increases in property valuation of assessment purposes, and the Constitution does not limit the rate of the state income tax which is now 4 1/2 percent.

Proposal K asks whether courts should be granted the authority to deny bail under certain circumstances to those accused of violent crimes. If passed, the proposal would permit denial of bail to a person accused of murder, treason, armed robbery, criminal sexual assault 1st degree; or kidnapping for extortion; a felony involving an act or threat of violence if the person has been convicted of two crimes involving violence within the previous 15 years or is on bail, parole, or probation for such a crime; and provide that trial must be commenced within 90 days after denial of bail or bail shall be set.

Currently the Constitution provides that all persons, except those accused of murder, or treason, are entitled to bail. Proposal M, if passed would allocate at least 90 percent of gas tax revenues for general road purposes; the remainder for other transportation purposes; and to replace state Highway Commission with a Transportation Commission. The proposal would provide that the remainder of gas and license tax revenues after 90 percent is applied, for the exclusive use of general road purposes, not to exceed 25 percent of sales tax on cars and parts, be used exclusively for other transportation purposes. It would limit bonding for roads, streets, bridges and other transportation purposes to amounts to be derived from specific motor vehicle tax and sales tax revenues. The proposal would replace the State Highway Commission with a non-partisan State Transportation Commission which

Lady Cagers Notch Two Conference Wins

Chelsea's lady cagers came roaring back from two consecutive losses two weeks ago to notch two big Southeastern Conference wins last week.

On Tuesday, Oct. 24, the Bulldogs traveled to Saline to face the Hornets. First quarter action was fast and furious as both teams' offenses seemed able to score at will. Junior Nanette Push had the hot hand for Chelsea, pumping in 12 of her team's 18 first quarter points. But the Hornets still held a slim 20-16 lead.

In the opening minutes of the second quarter, it looked like Saline was ready to pull away as they stretched their lead to 26-18. Chelsea dug in on defense and increased their offensive pressure to grab a 37-35 half-time lead.

"We certainly were getting the ball to fall," explained Varsity Coach Jim Winter. "Push was unbelievable in the first half. She was 11 for 19 from the floor and 3 for 3 from the line. They were pressing full court and our guards did a nice job beating the front people to set up 3-on-2 and 3-on-3 situations, and in those situations Nanette is tough," he said.

shall establish a state transportation policy.

Currently all taxes on fuel sold for motor vehicles on highways and on registered motor vehicles are used exclusively for highway purposes.

Another provision of the proposal is that 100 percent of taxes on aviation registration and aviation fuel, and up to 25 percent of the sales tax on motor fuels, motor vehicles, parts, and accessories would also be used for comprehensive transportation purposes. The proposal would not increase gasoline taxes or automobile registration fees. Both could be enacted by the legislature.

Proposal R asks voters to authorize the creation of a railroad development authority to make loans to railroads with trackage in Michigan and to authorize authority to issue general obligation bonds in an amount not to exceed $175 million.

If approved, the amendment would create an authority which would be authorized to issue general obligation bonds not more than $175 million at any period in time, and pled full faith and credit of state for repayment. The authority could make loans to railroads for redevelopment projects in industries of national defense or state industries.

Currently, railroads are allowed to claim a credit against their property taxes for 25 percent of the amount that they spend yearly to maintain and improve rights of way. Revenue bonds do not have tax-exempt status, while general obligation bonds do. The state would pledge its faith and credit for the bonds and notes. There would be no financial obligation for the state unless a railroad defaulted on a loan made by the authority.

First Auto Race

The roads between Chicago and Waukegan, Ill., were the scene of one of America's first automobile races on Thanksgiving Day, 1895. More than 80 entries showed up for the 52-mile race, but only six started and just two finished. The winner was a horseless carriage designed by Charles Duryea and built by his brother. The winning speed was an average of 7.5 mph. Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, offers the only surviving 1896 Duryea motorwagon, one of 13 produced that year from the winning prototype vehicle.

Push's 25 first half points were backed by sophomore Mary Roylans, eight. Although the scoring machines seemed well oiled, the Bulldogs knew defense would be the key in the second half.

"We don't normally score that much," said Winter. "The first half pace was pretty fast and we thought Saline might be tiring. We thought we could take advantage of that to cool off their offense," he explained.

The Bulldogs followed their instructions very well. Senior co-captain Sheryl Kiel and Boylan took control of the boards and Push and sophomore guard Jennifer Ringe solidified the defense that came up with six steals in the second half.

Kim Wood, Mary Jo Elisele and senior co-captain Tammy Collinsworth also contributed heavily to the hustling, scrapping defense that held the Hornets to only nine third quarter points.

As the Hornets began to worry about Push's offensive powers, the Bulldogs began to spread the scoring around. Kiel, Push, and Ringe tallied four points each and Mary Jo Elisele pushed in two as Chelsea inched farther ahead, 51-44, to close the third quarter.

The Hornets were game in the final eight minutes, putting 17 points on the board, but Push, Boylan, Kiel and Ringe tallied 16 for the Chelsea squad to frost the victory.

Winter gave teamwork the credit for the victory. "Saline probably had better individuals," he said, "but we worked together better as a unit. The people on the floor, our bench, and our fans all played important roles. I wouldn't have wanted to have been without any of them," he commented.

Chelsea finished with three people in double figures with Push's 33 leading the way. She got plenty of help from Boylan who tallied 14, Kiel who came up with 10, Ringe's eight, and Elisele's two.

Thursday's contest with Lincoln was not quite as artistic as Saline's. Against the Railsplitters the Bulldogs showed the effect of Tuesday's hard-fought battle. The hometown five found itself early in the game trailing a Lincoln squad, who has yet to win the SEC 4-0.

Chelsea pulled themselves together to outscore Lincoln, 25-4 for the rest of the half for a 25-4 lead at intermission. Balance again was one of the keys as six Bulldogs scored in the second quarter.

The second half turned into a foul-filled affair for the Chelsea squad. They picked up 17 fouls compared to three in the first half.

"We were being a little anxious out there," said Winter. "We knew we could beat them but the girls might have been trying too hard instead of relaxing and playing their game," he said.

The visitors from Lincoln mounted a comeback, outscoring the home team, 24-13, in the second half but the Bulldogs came out on top, 38-32.

Seven cagers found their way into the scoring column. Push hit for 13 to lead the way. Mary Jo Elisele played a strong game and ended with seven points. Kiel and Ringe added six points each and Collinsworth, Wood, and Jeryl Herick each had two.

For the season the Chelsea cagers stand 6-7 over-all and 2-5 in the SEC. This Thursday Chelsea residents have the opportunity to see the Bulldogs take on one of the area powerhouses when they entertain the undefeated Brighton Bulldogs. The JV contest begins at 6:30 p.m.

World Community Day Slated Friday

Church Women United, again celebrates World Community Day this Friday, Nov. 3. Chelsea women with this year share in the Manchester Church Women United celebration, which will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday at St. Mary church, Main St., Manchester.

Chelsea women will meet at St. Paul United Church of Christ parking lot and leave together at 1 p.m. This year's theme is "Touchstones of Discipleship."

This celebration focuses on the needs of people around the world and affords the opportunity to give toward meeting some of those needs.

Several projects of Church Women United, Intercontinental Mission are: "to accept responsibility for justice and peace" through grants for Peace Point and Corrymeela Community in Northern Ireland and the National Farm Workers Ministry; "to release the potential in ourselves and others" through grants for women's training programs and co-operatives in Bangladesh, Indonesia, Haiti, El Salvador and Peru; "to develop more maturity in faith and discipline in Christian commitment" through grants for Caribbean Church Women and the International Committee for World Day of Prayer; "to strengthen bonds of sisterhood around the world" through grants for North American Indian Women's Association, Korean Church Women United, programs for rehabilitation of women in Laos and Vietnam, ministries with South African women and children, and ministries with women in prison.

Anyone desiring to attend the World Community Day celebration or to give toward these projects may call Joy Stacey, 475-8323.

This celebration emphasizes the unity of Church women in a visible fellowship to witness to their faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, and enabled by His Spirit, to go out together into every neighborhood and nation as instruments of His reconciling love.

Farm Bureau Sets Annual Meeting Dates

Nov. 28-29-30 and Dec. 1 are the dates set for the annual meetings of the Michigan Farm Bureau and three of its affiliate companies—Farm Bureau Services, Inc., Farmers Petroleum Cooperative, Inc. and Michigan Agricultural Cooperative Marketing Association. The meetings will be held at the Civic Auditorium and Paultine Hotel in Grand Rapids.

SEEKING A HOME: Abandoned several weeks ago, this sad-eyed dog, part border collie is in search of a home. Discovered by a local family, she has been neutered and given the necessary shots by a Chelsea veterinarian, but because the family is already caring for three other stray dogs and two cats, they are looking for a warm, animal-loving family to provide a home. "She is a gem of a dog; housebroken and very gentle," her family says. If you can help, call 475-7465.

Space Program Slated at Jackson Comm. College

State Representative Mike Conlin (R-Jackson) announced today that the Michigan Department of Commerce and Michigan Space Center will sponsor a program titled "Opportunities in Space" Nov. 15 at Jackson Community College.

Conlin noted that several nationally prominent scientists and researchers will attend the one-day program. A television satellite will also be hooked up to permit live presentations and questions and answers between the audience and experts at NASA and the Lewis Research Center in Cleveland, Conlin said.

"This program will allow persons interested in space technology and its place in America today to learn more about space and its potential uses, particularly with regard to commerce in Michigan," Conlin said. "Some experts are predicting that business in space will be generating $30 billion a year by the year 2000."

The basic theme of the program will focus on industrial and medical uses of space in the future, Conlin said.

"There are many things that can be accomplished in space that cannot be achieved on earth," Conlin said, noting that solar energy and medicine have "unlimited potential in space because of the make-up of the atmosphere."

The program will begin at 7:45 a.m. with a tour of the Michigan Space Center and end about 4 p.m. Lunch will be from 12 noon to 1:30.

Donald A. Roth, Community Relations Manager, Ann Arbor, offers you this telephone tip:

"How can you tell if the person at your door is really a Michigan Bell Employee?"

As you may have noticed, our employees do not wear uniforms. They dress in the way they think is most appropriate to get their jobs done. While this permits them to look like the individuals they are, it really doesn't help you identify them as Bell employees. But, there is a way. Every Michigan Bell employee is required to carry a Michigan Bell identification card giving his or her name, photograph, and signature. For your protection, be sure to see this card before you admit them into your home. They'll be happy to show it to you.

Michigan Bell Employees people who enjoy serving people.

First Loop the Loop Reported in 1913

With a loop, a whirl and a verticle climb, Lincoln Beachey of San Diego, Calif., became the first man to loop the loop Nov. 15, 1913. Beachey took his craft up to 1,000 feet, gave a quick tug on the stick and was flying upside-down. Once he righted himself, he had looped the loop. Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, exhibits the biplane of E. M. Land, another early exhibitor flyer who gained fame for doing loops, in the aviation section of the Hall of Technology.

Catling Gun Fired

250 Rounds Per Minute

The classic six-shooter of the Wild West was surpassed in firepower by Richard J. Gatling's invention of Nov. 4, 1862: the Gatling gun. The weapon had a cluster of 10 barrels which fired up to 250 rounds per minute as the cluster was turned. Gatling's gun turned out to be the forerunner of the Vulcan machine gun. A 1875 version of the Gatling gun is part of the firearms exhibit of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn. The .45-70 battery gun has a firepower of 500 rounds per minute.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER

HOME OWNERSHIP - A CASH RESOURCE

Sometime in everyone's life, for luxury or necessity, there may be a requirement for a large amount of cash. Today's homeowner is probably the best prepared individual to cope with this "need for money" problem. His equity in his home is a ready source of cash.

Let's assume he bought his house about ten years ago for $20,000 and has now reduced his mortgage to $10,000. Since home values rise, his house is now worth $35,000 which gives him an equity of about $25,000. On a conventional mortgage basis, a bank may loan him 80% of value, or $20,000. Thus, after paying off his existing $10,000 loan, he would come out with $10,000 cash, or nearly what he paid for his home 10 years ago.

I'm not suggesting that everyone run out and refinance their homes. I do point out, however, that another excellent reason for owning a home is the increasing equity produced through rising prices.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8683; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Cross Country Ski Club May Organize

On these cold mornings when the ground is covered with frost, a few members of the community get a feeling of great anticipation. It can't be long now until that frost is changed to snow and they can get out their skis and take to the trail.

Cross-country skiing is one of the fastest growing sports at this time. It is a sport that encourages participation by entire family groups as cross-country equipment is relatively inexpensive after the initial purchase of skis, poles, and shoes. There is no long lines at the ski lifts and no fees for the use of trails because there are so many free ski trails in the Waterloo Recreation Area.

A few people in the community have discussed the idea of forming a club for cross country skiers. There would be a possibility of all-day trips cross country, or racing competition. If you are interested, please call A. J. Hale, Jr., at 475-8734.

Analysis of Proposal 'H,' the Voucher Plan

By Raymond E. Van Meer

Supt. Chelsea School District. The Parochial-Voucher Proposal bases its appeal on the elimination of the property tax. In addition it promises a voucher, of unknown value, that would be given to every school-age child in the state for use in a state-approved public, private or parochial school of their choice. This proposal does not inform the voter that $2 billion would have to be shifted to other tasks and an ADDITIONAL $300 million would have to be raised in taxes to support the additional 200,000 private and parochial students that would be given vouchers.

The Voucher Plan would replace the property tax support of public schools and mandate a new education system for the state. Under the plan, parents of school-age children would be issued vouchers which they would redeem at the public or non-public school of their choice. That school would return the voucher to the state in exchange for a certain amount of funds.

Property taxes could be levied by school districts only to retire debts. The state would establish a form of general taxation to support elementary and secondary education and a new method of distributing funds to state-approved schools. The Voucher Plan does not pinpoint a source of additional state funds or consider how difficult it would be for schools to plan curricula, use of buildings, or hiring of staff members if they don't know how many students they will have. A system where parents or guardians are required to use a voucher at the school of their choice could bring complete disorder to educational planning and to educational programming.

What is being proposed would, in an indirect manner, cause public money to be used to support sectarian or parochial education. Such a feature is both poor public policy and unconstitutional. The United States Supreme Court has already rejected such aid as "unmistakably to provide desired financial support for non-public sectarian institutions."

Justice Douglas wrote on this matter, "It is illegal to do indirectly what is forbidden directly." The tax advantages that parochial aid supporters proposed by elimination of the property tax to support K-12 education are deceiving.

Over one-half of the school operations' resources, or at least $1.7 billion, presently come from locally levied property taxes. Approval of this proposal came from locally levied property taxes. Approval of this proposal would bring about major shift in the tax burden and in tax benefits. In place of the property tax will be a "program of general state taxation" to be designed by the legislature. To replace what property taxes now yield will require drastic INCREASES in the personal income tax and the single business tax. This proposal will place an unfair and unmanageable burden on the State institutional change requires that the legislature begin devising in January, 1979, a totally new system of funding education for 2,250,000 students in this state, and it gives the legislature only eight short months to accomplish this task.

Implementation of a voucher plan will create an expensive bureaucratic monster in Michigan. Right now the State Department of Education sends State Aid checks to 581 school districts six times each year. The voucher plan will cause the state to write more than 2,250,000 vouchers annually—one for every school-age child in Michigan and get them in the hands of each parent or guardian. After that the accountability process begins to determine who used vouchers where and how the school that received the voucher used the funds. This kind of accountability could lead to state control of non-public education.

North School Book Fair Starts Nov. 6

A fall Book Fair, sponsored by the North Elementary school media center, will be held the week of Nov. 6, offering books, games, and puzzles for all ages.

Students, parents, friends, and the public are invited during the regular school hours, 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., while an "adults only" evening will be held on Thursday, Nov. 9 from 6:30 to 8 p.m. At 8 p.m. an American Indian dance presentation will be given.

Proceeds from the fair go towards the purchase of new books and other items for the media center.

The first private pension plan set up entirely by American workers was created by the International Molders' Union of North America in 1880, according to the U.S. Labor Department booklet, "Labor Firsts in America."

FROM THE SKY: It's a bee, a Red Baron, and a robot from space zeroing in on the town of Chelsea in search of sweets to fuel their aerial flights. Awarded prizes by Chelsea Kiwanis Club judges for most original are David Mayer as the Red Baron, first; Adam Erskine as the busy bee, second; and Sally Wilson as a mechanical robot, third. Winners were announced following the parade through Chelsea in the Kiddies' Halloween Party Tuesday evening.

Home Meal Service May Discontinue

For the first time since the Home Meal Service of Chelsea began delivering hot, nutritious meals to the area's senior citizens, there is serious concern about its future.

"Unless the community is willing to support this endeavor by volunteering to deliver the meals when we will not be able to continue," according to Barbara Branch, volunteer chairwoman.

"Home Meal Service" is a community project and its success is determined by the community's willingness to maintain its existence," Branch explained.

At present, the service does not have regular drivers for Tuesdays and week-ends. There is also need for substitute drivers, Branch explained.

Hot meals are delivered to Chelsea senior citizens in town seven days a week. "A route takes approximately one hour with meals delivered in light-weight portable containers which are easy to carry," Branch explained.

A volunteer need only sign up for one day a week and must have a valid driver's license and car. "Delivering meals can be a family affair especially on week-ends when family members are together. They can work as a team in a community project, helping themselves and others at the same time," Branch commented.

To volunteer, call Barbara Branch at 475-7644.

Congress Passes Meat Import Legislation

Prior to its recess on Oct. 15, Congress agreed on meat import legislation that will now go to the President for his signature. The compromise bill establishes a meat import floor of 1.2 billion pounds per year and includes the House countercyclical formula. For the first time, the quota includes all forms of fresh, chilled, or manufactured beef.

The bill gives the President authority to raise the beef import quota during a period of national emergency or when he determines supply would be inadequate, due to a national disaster, to meet domestic demand at reasonable prices. If the wholesale farm price for beef increases 10 percent faster for two consecutive quarters than the consumer price of beef, the President also would have the authority to increase the beef import quota up to 10 percent at his discretion.

Beach Girl Cagers Take 2 from Lincoln

Both Beach Middle school girl basketball teams trotted off the Lincoln court with lopsided, winning scores last week showing vast improvement since they became cagers for the first time two months ago.

"High scorers have varied throughout the season while many girls who do not score are very instrumental with assists and getting the ball down the court," Coach Cheryl Vogel commented.

Vogel cited "excellent defense" in the 7th grade team by Laurie Heller, Wendy Wolfgang, Karla Peterson, Teresa Bort, and Donna Maloney as contributing to the over-all improvement.

On the 8th grade team, several girls have advanced their skills, including Dawn Murphy, Sandra Frame, Renee Schmell, Dawn Scripser, and Anna Aello.

7th grade Bullpups pulled a 37-11 victory over Lincoln with Jeanette Rouse as high scorer with nine points. Marion Stapish tallied eight, Joan Shonk six; Tanya Mattoff and Mary Vaught each with four; and Carol Warren and Donna Mahoney chipped in two.

A tougher game was contested between a tall, aggressive Lincoln team with the 8th grade cagers rallying with a 24-10 win. High scorer was Missi Lazarz with 11 points followed by Tracy Borton with five; Kim Boyd, Jean Folsom, Kathy Degener, and Sandra Frame all had two.

The girls have games with Stockbridge at home on Nov. 7 at 4 p.m. and with Tecumseh there on Nov. 8 at 3 p.m.

Mechanical Apple Picker Developed

Michigan State University agricultural engineers have developed a mechanical device that will be able to harvest apples at the rate of 6,000 bushels per day.

The 17-foot-tall behemoth will shake the trees 100 to 300 times per minute to release the apples. It will also handle other major chores in the orchard such as pruning and spraying to control pests.

Most Foods Contain Bad Substances

About 150 distinct chemical substances have been identified in a food product being sold throughout the United States! Among them are solvents, alkaloids, oxalic acid, tannins, nitrates, and even arsenic! In addition, over 100 other items were found in this product that have no recognized significance to man.

The product being sold is a potato. We hasten to explain that these substances are normal in all potatoes. Yet, obviously, potatoes are safe... and nutritional.

Food, it seems, is more complex than some people have realized. They are so used to calling it by its table name that they forget it's a collection of chemicals, some with very bad reputations.

Minute amounts of toxic metals such as lead, mercury, cadmium, arsenic, and zinc are normally and naturally present in food. Indeed, they're said to be unavoidable since they occur in soil and water and are picked up by the plant normally.

The question becomes, then, not just what we eat—but how much of it we eat. The final factor is our own individual makeup, our tolerances and allergies.

For the average person, the safest routine probably is moderate amounts of a variety of foods.

First Flight Across U.S. Reported in 1911

On Nov. 5, 1911, Calbraith Perry Rodgers landed at Pasadena, Calif., the first person to fly across the United States. Rodgers' flight, in a Burgess-Wright biplane, was anything but non-stop or speedy. The 49-day journey had 70 stops, 51 planned landings and 19 crashes. The Transportation Collection of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, contains a number of historic aircraft including the planes Admiral Byrd flew over the North and South Poles and the first plane to make an East-to-West crossing of the Atlantic.

Amtrak Improves Service to Chicago

Michigan rail passengers will enjoy shorter travel times and smoother, more comfortable train rides, thanks to a newly completed $9 million track and roadbed improvement program sponsored jointly by Amtrak and the Department of State Highways and Transportation.

Beginning Sunday, Oct. 29, Amtrak's modern TurboTrain and Amfleet trains between Detroit and Chicago will be rescheduled to reflect the shorter travel times. The new schedule will feature reductions of up to 45 minutes in round-trip travel times for the cross-Michigan trains. New timetables will be available at Amtrak stations and at travel agencies.

During the two-year upgrade program along the 63-mile route segment between Kalamazoo and the Michigan-Indiana state line, workmen installed 116,334 new railroad ties, realigned track and switches, improved roadbed ballast and upgraded grade crossings. Now, Amtrak's eight trains operating over this line daily will be able to cruise at speeds of 79 miles per hour. Before improvements, the passenger trains were restricted to top speeds of 60 miles per hour.

In addition to the reduced travel times, rail passengers will find major improvements being made to rail stations in Detroit, Ann Arbor, Jackson, and Battle Creek. New inter-modal passenger stations are in service at Dowagiac and Kalamazoo, and new construction is scheduled at the suburban Detroit passenger station in Dearborn.

For free information on the new Amtrak passenger train schedules, travelers may call Amtrak toll-free at 800-621-0333.

Tax Deductions Are Expensive 'Bargain'

By Congr. Bob Carr

Most taxpayers are aware that our federal income tax structure is riddled with loopholes providing special deductions for individual classes of taxpayers. Many taxpayers, however, are unaware that tax deductions—even those that are uniformly applicable to all taxpayers—represent a fundamental inequity in our tax system. The obvious problem with deductions is that not everyone can use them. A less obvious, but equally serious, problem is that tax deductions, as opposed to tax credits, do not affect all taxpayers equally.

For each dollar of a tax credit, a taxpayer's tax liability is reduced by $1. Tax deductions, on the other hand, reduce a taxpayer's liability not by a flat dollar amount, but by a percentage of the deduction dependent upon the taxpayer's highest bracket.

A $100 deduction is worth different amounts to different taxpayers—$20 to those in the 20 percent bracket, $50 to those in the 50 percent bracket, and $70 to those in the top bracket.

The inequity is easy to see. The wealthier the taxpayer, the greater the benefit of the deduction. A look at one of the fairest tax deductions—the personal exemption of $750 allowed to each taxpayer and dependent—will make this still more clear. The personal exemption, though granted in part to all taxpayers, results in very different tax savings for families in different income ranges. A family of four earning $15,000 saves $570; a family of four earning $50,000 saves $1,440; and a family of four earning over $200,000 saves $2,100.

Announcements of new or increased tax deductions are usually greeted enthusiastically by taxpayers happy at the prospect of a tax "bargain." Like most things, the savings are more apparent than real. Tax deductions are no bargain.

The 1.9 million veterans and active duty personnel who received Veterans Administration payments for educational assistance during fiscal year 1977 brought total participation under the current GI Bill to more than 7 million.

Drugs in Animal Feeds Reduce Production Costs

If the government were to ban the use of drugs in animal feeds, consumer costs for beef, pork, chicken, and turkey would increase immediately and level off after five years, according to a USDA study made at the request of the Senate Agriculture Committee.

The department studied economic consequences of the Food and Drug restrictions on the use of penicillin, tetracyclines, and other drugs. Some scientists have warned that drugs used for animals could theoretically create human resistance to the use of the antibiotics in disease treatment.

USDA economists said restrictions of the antibiotics could increase production costs and could result in more animal disease, smaller supplies of meat at higher prices, and great consumer food expenditures.

They also predicted that consumer costs of poultry would increase 10 percent in the first year if antibiotics were banned; beef and veal costs would rise 3 percent and pork would rise 4 1/2 percent.

The economists predicted that total farm income would increase 5 percent immediately after government restrictions on the drugs—because scarcer animals would bring higher prices. They said that by the fifth year total farm income would decline slightly because of projected increases in deaths of animals, and higher costs of putting out the same number of animals as before.

Livestock and poultry producers have added antibiotics to animal feed at sub-therapeutic levels for more than 25 years to improve feed efficiency, to cut down on animal disease outbreaks, and to reduce condemnation of their livestock and poultry—all with no known harm to man or animal.

Griffin Visits Farm Bureau Center in Lansing

Farmers are often blamed, wrongly, for inflation. When actually they are the victims of it," said Senator Robert Griffin during a brief visit at Farm Bureau Center in Lansing yesterday, Oct. 24. "While others oftentimes receive wage increases to compensate for inflation, there is no assurance at all that farmers will receive such compensation as far as their income is concerned."

Griffin attacked excessive deficit spending by the federal government as a major cause of inflation. "This year the federal government is spending more than $30 billion in excess of its receipts," he said. "In other words, they're borrowing and printing money to pay its bills. Unless the federal government gets its budget under control, we're going to continue to have runaway inflation."

The Senator stopped at Farm Bureau Center to express appreciation to the organization's political action arm, AgriPac, for his designation as "Friend of Agriculture" and for its support in his campaign for re-election.

Robert L. Preston On Extended Cruise In Western Pacific

Navy Aviation Boatswain's Mate Third Class, Robert L. Preston, son of Robert and Barbara Preston of 151 S. Dancer Rd., Dexter, is currently on an extended deployment in the Western Pacific and Indian Ocean.

He is assigned to the aircraft carrier USS Enterprise, homeported in Alameda, Calif.

The one-month routine excursion into the Indian Ocean is in keeping with U.S. policy of conducting waters and with previously announced intentions to operate ships periodically in the Indian Ocean. A port visit is scheduled in Perth, Australia during the cruise. Following the Indian Ocean cruise, his squadron will continue its deployment with the U.S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Preston joined the Navy in February 1975.

JV Gridders Share Conference Crown

With two starters out of the lineup, Coach Jon Schaffner of the Bulldog junior varsity squad, entered Thursday's battle with the Lincoln Railsplitters with understandable trepidation.

"Carl Simpson and Mike Wade were both out with minor injuries and there was some question as to how we would do without them," Schaffner commented.

Bulldogs, however, put that question to rest on the opening kickoff as they marched down the field to score and scored again on their second possession in the first quarter, and again in the second quarter.

"They took possession of the first half from its first minute and never let go. It was one of our better games of the season," Schaffner said.

And it was a good season. As the Bulldogs captured their seventh win of the year (six in SEC) by downing Lincoln, 30-24, in the last split second of the game, the junior varsity team of Chelsea was declared the Conference Champs, an honor they share with Milan which also has a 6-1 SEC record.

For Schaffner, who has coached the junior varsity for 11 years, it was his sixth reception of the title. Chelsea was crowned champion of the Southeastern Conference three years ago.

Schaffner credited his team with "an alertness and determination which was shared by every member of the squad," for the success. "They're a winning bunch," he added.

Collecting as many touchdowns in the first half as they had in full length games all season, Chelsea led the Railsplitters, 18-8, by halftime.

Bill Freeman was the griddier of the first half, going 12 yards for the first TD; five yards on the second; and again before the first half was over. Lincoln had scored once.

"It looked like we were going to blow them out but we had some sloppy tackling and Lincoln started to gain," Schaffner explained.

When the teams came back for the third quarter Lincoln ran the opening kickoff back for a touchdown to shorten the gap to 18-14. "Chelsea fired up after this and Jon Riemenschneider executed a 45-yard run to give us a 10-point lead," he said.

Lincoln recovered to score in the final minutes of the third quarter and the score was closed again to a four-point Chelsea lead.

As the gun went off in the closing seconds, Chelsea completed a 40-yard pass play from John Preston to Jeff Dils for the winning points.

Offensively, Bulldog John Preston rushed for 120 yards; followed by Bill Freeman with 109; Jeff Dils, 79; and Riemenschneider, 55.

"The offensive line of Craig Thams, Mark Steinaway, Chris Heaton, Kirk Stubbs, Chan Lane, Sandy McLaughlin, Brian Dault, and Jeff Price did a tremendous job of blocking as Chelsea never had to punt all night," Schaffner said.

Penalties were the only hindrance to the offense while the defense was played by tackling hard in line with the team's previous performances.

Chris Heaton and Steve Wilson led with nine tackles; Brian Dault, eight; Mike Lazarz, eight; Bill Freeman, seven; Eric Headrick, six; John Preston, six; Riemenschneider, four; Les Hafner, four; Mark Steinaway, three; Jeff Dils, two; and one each for Stubbs, Thams, and McLaughlin.

Blocking well in the backfield were Preston, Riemenschneider, Steve Wilson, and Freeman as Chelsea moved on the ground for 308 yards.

The Bulldog champs end their season Thursday, Nov. 2 at Jackson Northwest at 7 p.m.

Farm Bureau Trade Mission Reports on Russia

Members of Farm Bureau's trade mission are on their way home after a two-week tour of the Soviet Union. During a stopover in Geneva, Switzerland, where they monitored the GATT II trade negotiations, they reported on the two major problems of Soviet agriculture—a short growing season and a lack of rainfall.

Kansas state Farm Bureau president John Junior Armstrong reported his general observations: "I would say the area, particularly the new lands area and the Krasnodar area where we really got out on the state farms—the collective farms—reminded me of the Iowa, Illinois land—good, black, deep soil and level like western Kansas."

Michigan Farm Bureau president Elton R. Smith said, "It was just great big prairies plowed up and put into big state farms. These are all state farms of several thousand hectares and the grain production is moving along pretty well. The livestock production leaves much to be desired."

Indiana Farm Bureau president Marion Stackhouse reported, "They feed their dairy primarily on roughages with a small amount of concentrate and so most of the concrete that they do produce goes into hog and poultry production."

★ Bobby Jr.'s Education Started

Robert F. Kennedy, Jr., the 24-year-old son of the late Robert Kennedy, was in Washington recently making public relations appearances in connection with a book he has just published on the life of Judge Frank M. Johnson.

Robert, Jr., went to Alabama several months ago to write a senior's thesis on Governor George Wallace as a part of his graduation from the History Department at Harvard.

But when he got to Alabama, he found that Governor Wallace was not running the state. It was being run by Federal Judge Johnson through a series of his court orders. Judge Johnson is the man President Carter picked, to head the FBI, but then he dropped out because of ill health.

The interesting thing about young Kennedy's interview in one of Washington's daily newspapers is what he had to say as a result of his stay in the south:

"After a year there, I have a different perspective of states' rights versus big government," he said. "It is a valid political argument and something this country is going to have to confront. I believe states are losing too much of their autonomy. They ought to be given more of a chance to rule themselves."

"I would not agree with Johnson who probably would get rid of the states," he continued. "Sometimes I have a hard time reconciling my liberal predisposition, which too often involves bigger government, with my basic instinct. I don't want the federal government knocking at my door and telling me how to run my life."

Bobby, Jr. may not have switched to grunts—but he has gotten the message as to where most of us are in this country!

To the Editor:

Dr. Edward Pierce is running again, this time for the State Senate seat being vacated by Gil Bursley.

A lot of us still remember Dr.
Pierce's unsuccessful campaign for Congress, where he came out in favor of national health insurance, two years of "free" college level education, federally guaranteed employment for those unable to find a job in the private sector, and federal subsidy amounting to one-third the total funding for education.

This time around, Dr. Pierce is one of the few candidates of either political party who opposes all of the tax limitation proposals, and it is easy to see why he does.
With his tax and spend philosophy, he is one man we should NOT send to Lansing.

By contrast, his opponent, Bill Colburn, is supporting tax limitation and already knows his way around Lansing, where he has served as chairman of the State Water Resources Commission.
Bill Colburn favors finding ways to save money and control taxes, not ways to spend more and tax more. That's the man, we NEED in Lansing.

Mike Stimpson.

Dear Editor:

It was shortly after moving to Lima three years ago that we visited the township hall to obtain a permit. What a wonderful feeling we got as we looked at the friendly, and cheerful-looking people on the township and planning board, othig 'stuffy or pompous about them, just a grand bunch of very pleasant and intelligent people, doing a splendid job. We had a good, warm feeling about living in Lima.

Then, later on that year, things changed, and Lima became the laughing stock of the county. We were't able to be present at valid father, but we have seen enough, and heard enough to know that we need sincerity back in Lima.

We need an honest person with no axe to grind, someone who will

To the Editor:

What ever happened to the ghosts and goblins of yesterday, the spooky feeling of being followed by a witch, and the eerie blackness that surrounds those cute little devils?

I feel half the fun of Halloween is lost by the time limit on trick-or-treaters. The fact that the kids only have one hour to collect their candy isn't the bad part, it's the time it starts that just isn't traditional! How can you get scared in broad daylight??

To add to the disappointment of daylight, most parents aren't even home from work by 4:30 to get their kids ready for the big event, or even to hand out candy when the little neighbors come to the door!!

It seems to me that now that we are back to regular time and it gets dark between 6:30 and 7 that whoever set the time for Halloween could make it just a little bit later and put Halloween back to normal.

Caroline Enderle.

To the Editor:

I sincerely hope that the voters of Lima township will elect a supervisor on Nov. 7 who is capable of doing the job, and doing it right.

One-half of our farm is in Lima township. We live in Sylvan township and all of our buildings are in Sylvan township and we pay taxes on them in Sylvan township.
There is not a building of any kind on the land in Lima. Never has been and I do not intend to build any there.

On the assessment role Mr. Musolf has listed two houses and out-buildings and has raised our assessment 52 percent. If he does not know where the Lima township line is you would think he would try to find out. He also has two building sites listed at a value of $7,000 each. I would like to know where these building sites are as I have never sold any for building and I do not intend to.

I have told everyone who came to me and wanted to buy some ground to build on that I did not want to sell any. Even Mr. Musolf who came to me before he built his house and wanted to buy some ground to build on but I told him the same as I told the rest of the people.

We have owned this farm for over 30 years and during that time there have been four different Supervisors in Lima township before Mr. Musolf, all qualified for the job and I know they must have been fair about assessing it. This land has never been assessed in this manner before. I have filed a complaint but Mr. Musolf refuses to do anything about it.

I am not in favor of this over-assessing some of the taxpayers just to help some of his particular friends. I have always been willing to pay my fair share of taxes but this kind of assessing is out of order. Our taxes were over $4,000 this year and with this kind of a raise what will they be next year.

I would recommend Leila Bauer for supervisor. I have known her all of her life, she has lived in Lima all of her life. She is fair, honest and capable, and I know she will try to be fair with everyone. I believe she would be able to work with the rest of the board and do a good job of it.

Sylvester Weber.

Open letter to parents . . .

Last Saturday, about 11 a.m., I drove down Main St. in Chelsea, and much to my horror, witnessed three parents guiding, or in one case actually pushing, their children across the busy street half way between the stop lights. And believe me when I point out that the traffic was VERY busy.

I am truly bothered by what I saw and hope that this reminder will be taken in the spirit in which it is written—and just that, a reminder!!

Parents!! Watch over your children's safety. You have such a marvelous treasure in your care —how senseless to risk that child's safety just to save the two or three minutes it would have taken to walk to the stop light and wait for the appropriate signal. Why should a child NOT think it's ok to cross the street anywhere anytime if it's ok to do it with Mom or Dad! Watch out for your kids' safety—they're the most precious things which will ever be entrusted to you.

Thanks for listening.
Sincerely,
Denise Hafner.

sea Kiwanis Club judges in Tuesday's Kiddies'

Frosh Gridders Lose to Lincoln

Incredible individual performances failed to save the day for Chelsea freshmen gridders as the Bulldogs succeeded in dumping their sixth game of the year to the Lincoln Raisin' Spitters, Tuesday,
Oct. 23, 39-16.

Tim Blough out-did himself in the game as did Ray Williams but we still came up short in spreading some of this wealth across the team," Coach Wayne Welton commented.

Lincoln took the initiative in the first quarter as they scored for six points while Chelsea came right back on an excellent running effort by Ray Williams, Tim Blough and Ross Murphy for 55 yards on a reverse. Blough ran it in from two yards out to complete the sustained drive. Blough ran the extra points in to give the Bulldogs an 8-6 lead.

Chelsea next tagged Lincoln for a safety before half-time and increased their lead by two points.

"We had several opportunities to put the game away before the half was over," Welton said. "Lincoln fumbled on their two-yard line and we grabbed the ball but the clock ran out and we missed the chance," he added.

It was Lincoln all the way in the second half with a ground attack which netted them a whopping five touchdowns.

Chelsea's second, but last touchdown, came on another fine drive highlighted by the running of Blough who cracked over again from the two-yard line.

Bulldog defense sparked with the work of Blough who executed 32 tackles (he has averaged 21 a game). Todd Sprague punched for 11 and Dave Preston had seven. Blough and Rick Polian each recovered a Lincoln fumble.

On the offense, Ray Williams rushed with 16 carries for 103 yards; Blough had 18 for 92 yards; and Ross Murphy had three for 67. Gary Van Meer added four yards along with Bob Trevino, also with four.

Rummaging Through the Sales

By Loren D. Estleman
I'm afflicted with a terminal, though mercifully only seasonal, disease. Like 'hay fever,' it starts with the first buds of spring and continues until the first frost. I hesitate to call it an addiction, but that's what it is; whenever I'm near the source of my problem, I begin to itch all over and get no relief until my unholy appetite is sated.

I am a rummage sale addict. Be they garage, yard, moving, or auction, these sales — almost invariably made up of miscellaneous items culled from dozens of still-living bazaars — are irresistible. I cannot pass one without stopping in, any more than I can leave one without buying something.

That wouldn't be so bad, if only I bought something for which I had some use. At the recent Boy Scout Rummage Sale in Dexter, for example, I acquired a violin. Even without strings, at $2.50 it was a bargain. It'd be even nicer if I knew how to play it. At the going rate, I figure the lessons will run me roughly 40 times what I paid for the bargain — not counting medical expenses after my practicing reaches the ears of my neighbors. My high school economics teacher would consider this a prime example of diminishing returns.

Perhaps the oddest thing about these sales is that the same things keep turning up at all of them. How many times have you seen the same overstuffed armchair with one removable arm, or that unraveled cornet in a case that looks like it was carried into battle with Teddy Roosevelt's Rough Riders? I'm convinced that these items are mailed from one sale to another. The only thing about them that changes is the price — it keeps going up.

Auctions are worse. Something about pitting buyers in competition against each other brings out the savage in human nature. Articles that would be left over after everything else was sold at a rummage sale go for ridiculous prices when put up for bid. Psychiatrists might say that this comes from a craving for power: Few experiences are more exhilarating than that of being able to escalate an item's worth simply by raising one's hand. I think it's more basic than that. I once had a dog who wouldn't touch his dinner until the cat walked into the room; he didn't want it, but he sure wasn't going to let anyone else have it.

Besides, there's something hypnotic about a trained auctioneer's spiel, like a magical incantation. It lifts us up and carries us along with it as does martial music at a parade or rally. I suppose Hitler's speeches had something in common with this traditional gobbledygook, although even he never succeeded in selling a beat-up violin to someone who couldn't play.

These sales appeal to our naughty side. Viewing the personal odds and ends that our friends and neighbors trot out for everyone to see is like peeping into someone else's diary. "Look at that label on this dress! So that's where she buys her clothes!" "Get a load of the Kiss on the old biddy in that painting! Must be their rich aunt." "There must be 10,000 confession magazines in that box! At the office he reads 'U.S. News and World Report.'"

The amazing thing about 20th century's answer to the flea market is what sells. We'd turn up our noses at the thought of buying half a box of kleenexes at the department store, or of bidding $10 on a "mystery box" full of Heaven-knows-what, but these are among the most popular items offered. You never know what might come in handy, like that size 15 bowling shoe there; what would we do if a 350-pound professional bowler with one leg came to our door looking for proper footwear?

Why do people have sales? Chiefly, to get rid of all the stuff they acquired at other people's sales. That's why that human head bank with the slot between the eyes look familiar; you saw it at last year's rummage sale two blocks down. The nice thing about these events is that everyone gets a second chance to buy what he passed up the first time around. If he doesn't want it, he can always get rid of it when he has his own sale.

Which leaves us weak few holding the bag. True rummage sale addicts never put on their own sales, and thus are stuck with the items they buy. "That moose head? There's a real story there. I bagged it with my checkbook over on Fourth St." Asking us to sell off this stuff is like asking an alcoholic to pour a quart of 12-year-old scotch into the sewer. It ain't natural.

I could go on for a dozen more paragraphs, but I have to get home. It's time for my violin lesson.

Michigan Tree Facts Offered At Nature Center

In the last few weeks the trees have been flashing their red and yellow warning signs. First one tree and then another has marked the end of the growing season and signaled the coming of winter.

The walks will begin at the Interpretive building at 2 and 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 4 and 5 only. Visitors can learn about common Michigan trees, their uses, and other fun facts.

The Interpretive Center is located midway between Ann Arbor and Jackson. Visitors take I-94 to exit 156 (Kalamazoo Rd.) turn north and follow the park signs to the Interpretive Center. For further information call 475-8069.

Headache-Less Hat Was Patented in 1912

In a never-ending search for the great pot of gold, one ingenious inventor patented a special headache-less hat on Nov. 10, 1912. The article consisted of a special wire frame on which hats were to be placed and two special wire supports which placed the weight of the hats onto the shoulders rather than the head. The one major problem was how to disguise the bulky wire supports running down each side of the wearer's head. Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, offers visitors a chance to see many inventions which proved more practical throughout the eight-acre Hall of Technology.

Author-Teacher To Speak On Sexuality As Life Force

Dr. Sol Gordon is holding a mass meeting for the public on sexuality as a life force. Dr. Gordon's lecture will be at the University of Michigan's Horace H. Rackham Building, 915 Washington St., Monday, Nov. 13 from 7 to 9 p.m. There is no charge.

The lecture is sponsored by University of Michigan Student Council for Exceptional Children and Michigan Student Assembly, both non-profit organizations.

Dr. Gordon is currently a professor of Child and Family Studies at Syracuse University. He is a well-known authority on sexuality and disability. Dr. Gordon is the director of the Institute for Family Research and Education. The institute is involved in developing and maintaining effective, open ad child. This involvement is extended to two current projects: the first, a parent program concerning community family life education, the second, media projects to reduce pregnancies among teen-agers.

Dr. Gordon, a prominent author, has written many books on morality, sex and love for parents, teen-agers and children. Some of Dr. Gordon's books are published by Ed-U Press, a publishing company he established. Dr. Gordon received the Annual Educational Foundation for Human Sexuality Award in 1974 for his extraordinary work in the sex education field.

Dr. Gordon has appeared on various popular TV and radio talk shows in New York City, Boston, Houston, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Los Angeles and Chicago among others. Dr. Gordon also has lectured world-wide on family life education.

On Monday, Nov. 13, Gordon will hold a mass meeting for the public on sexuality as a life force. He will discuss how sexuality is an aspect of our total identity and is an expression of how we feel about ourselves. Dr. Gordon emphasizes that sexuality is just one facet of being human and that in our democratic society, sexuality should be a matter of choice. He will expound on the sexual oppression of denied groups such as women, homosexuals, and handicappers.

Barrier-Free Design Workshop Slated at WCC

Washtenaw Community College will offer a three-hour workshop on access and barrier free design Saturday, Nov. 4 as part of a continuing series concerned with "disability" and independent living.

The class, co-sponsored by the College and the Ann Arbor Center for Independent Living, is open to the public at no charge. It will be held from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. in Room 1908 of the College's Student Center Building.

The program, partially funded by a grant from the Ann Arbor Civic Club, has been designed to include not only timely instruction but also a forum for those with physical handicaps or those with an interest in broadening their knowledge about human differences to discuss feelings, attitudes, experiences and perceptions of the handicapped.

Special guest speaker and qualified resource personnel will be available for consultation at Saturday's session. Advanced registration is requested, if possible. Registration and questions may be cared for by calling the College's Ypsilanti Center at 482-2230. EPA Granted Golden Fleece Award Oct. 24

Senator William Proxmire gave his monthly "Golden Fleece" award to the Environmental Protection Agency on Oct. 24 for its Award to the Environmental Program on runoff on farms can pollute nearby streams and ponds, the Associated Press has reported.

An EPA spokesman retorted: "The study was designed to find a way to prevent runoff, not prove its already obvious results. The agency is looking for a way to permit farmers to safely and economically store manure over the winter, then spread it over fields in the spring when it would be absorbed with no runoff," he said.

The study was the result of a two-year effort by the University of Vermont. EPA provided $38,174 and the University the remaining $29,040, the report said.

Among other things, the study concluded that runoff from manure stored on a sample farm was enough "to cause deterioration of water quality in small streams and ponds." The study recommended that manure be covered by a permanent roof in the winter or stored in a lagoon which wouldn't permit runoff.

"This is one occasion when the city slickers at the EPA got taken by the 'down easters' from Vermont," Proxmire said. "Not only was the manure in this study stacked high, but the deck was stacked even higher against the American taxpayer." Proxmire said the money was spent for a study to obtain information already known by dairy farmers from Vermont to Wisconsin.

Chelsea's only score was produced by Kurt Eisenbeiser who made the point in the third quarter against the Eagles.

Gridders of the Week

DAVE MORRIS (60), is a junior with five years of school football experience who joined the Bulldog varsity lineup this year. Morris plays both offensively and defensively and is also a member of the kick-off return team and the punt return team. While on defense, the 5'6", 162-lb. Morris is a qualified middle guard whose job is to "protect the middle, find and follow the ball carrier, get there, and make the tackle," he explained. As an offensive guard, he's ordered to "block the opponents to see to it there's a hole for the carrier," he said. It was during the Novi game that Morris received an opportunity to show his stuff when he made a key block which led to a Bulldog touchdown. In addition to these two positions, Morris also plays defensive linebacker and given his choice he would concentrate his energies in this capacity. "I consider myself more of a defensive player because nothing gives me greater satisfaction than making crushing tackles and a lot of them," he commented. Morris is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. John Morris, 3080 S. Fletcher Rd.

JOHN LaBARBARA (52), has made a successful entrance into the Chelsea Bulldog varsity squad this year as a 5'8", 167-lb. junior. For the length of the team's exceptional season, LaBarbara has belonged to the first string and contributed a consistently valuable performance as both offensive guard and defensive middle guard. LaBarbara describes his play as guard as working to "block the opponent's linebacker so our running back can breeze through." As middle guard, he "keys the backs and flows with the play to make the tackle," he stated. "Defense is my forte. It is where I am the strongest and I thrive on the challenge and having to be alert to every play," he commented. LaBarbara was chosen Most Valuable Defense Line-man when on the junior varsity team last year. His best game this season was with the South Lyon Lions where he made a winning fumble recovery. He tripped up the Lions' halfback one yard short of a first down to preserve their 12-7 victory. It was the 1978 SEC title holder's sole loss of the season. LaBarbara describes this year's team as being "high in morale and strong in team spirit," he said. LaBarbara also belongs to the varsity track team and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vito LaBarbara, 11497 Trinkle Rd.

Child & Family Service Starts Poster Contest

Child and Family Service is conducting a poster contest for junior and senior high school students. Purpose of the contest is to make people aware of the need for developing good foster care and, hopefully, to recruit potential foster families.

Child and Family Service, a United Way agency, has been providing foster care for children in these communities for more than 50 years. They have a special criterion need for families that the poster contest will help to develop needed community awareness and will provide a healthy activity for students.

Grand Prizes of $50, $25, and $15 will be awarded. In addition, regional prizes will be awarded.

After all the posters are collected from all the schools, entries will be judged by a professional team, for the grand prizes. To be able to award the prizes before Christmas, the contest closes on Dec. 1.

Fliers, with contest rules are available at all high schools, junior high and intermediate schools. Facts and myths about Foster Care is included on the reverse side. All Washtenaw county students are eligible to participate. The judges will be announced shortly.

Arrangements are being made for entries to be displayed in a prominent place in the county. The winning poster may be reproduced and displayed by Child and Family Service throughout the county.

Any potential foster families, call Carol Hoffer, Foster Home Recruiter, at 971-6520.

Two Juveniles Nabbed After Crime Spree

A 24-hour crime spree involving five stolen vehicles, two armed robberies, one incident of breaking and entering, and a high-speed chase along country roads drew to a close Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 26, as Washtenaw County Sheriff's Deputies ran two juveniles to ground at the corner of Cassidy and Roe Rds., according to deputies at the Dexter substation.

It reportedly began at 4 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 24, when a 15-year-old youth from Grass Lake and his 14-year-old partner from Stockbridge broke into a home on M-82 north of Waterloo Rd., ransacked it, and stole a shotgun, which they took next door and used to hold up a 60-year-old woman and left driving her 1978 Oldsmobile Cutlass.

Sometime later, deputies said, the youths stole two more vehicles, one a Jeep from Dexter, then abandoned them and returned at approximately 10 a.m. Wednesday to the home where they had stolen the Cutlass, which they were driving again. Again they held up the woman, this time threatening her with a club, and stole $10, it was reported.

Shortly thereafter they stole a pickup truck from Stockbridge and were southbound on M-82 near the county line, the 14-year-old driving the Cutlass, his companion following in the pickup, according to the report, when Deputy Richard Pniwski, in a patrol car heading north, recognized the Cutlass from radio descriptions and executed a U turn to give chase.

"At this time," recalled Sgt. Robert Aello, command officer at the Dexter substation, "Pniwski didn't know the pick-up was involved. He was behind the truck and attempting to go around it when it started weaving from side to side to prevent him from passing, then suddenly the boy slammed on his brakes to try to smash the patrol car. That's when he caught on."

Aello said the chase had swung onto Leeke Rd. when the youth driving the Cutlass stopped and took off on foot into a cornfield. Again the youth in the pick-up stopped abruptly to force the patrol car to run into his vehicle, he said. Failing that, he said, the fugitive left the scene at a high rate of speed. At this point Pniwski abandoned his vehicle to pursue the boy in the cornfield on foot, Aello said.

"Meanwhile," he continued, "the boy in the pick-up went to the Sugar Loaf Lake Store, filled his tank with gas, and left without paying for it. He was heading down Boyce Rd. toward Leeke—we figure to pick up his buddy—when Deputy Larry Thayer took up pursuit on Boyce. Now, Pniwski's unit and the abandoned Cutlass were blocking Leeke. The boy in the truck executed a 180-degree turn, but by that time Thayer had pulled his unit across the road, blocking the way. The boy speeded up and started blowing his horn, meaning, 'Get out of the way.'"

When, according to Aello, Thayer didn't comply, the youth in the pick-up swerved into the sapling trees beside the road, but was unable to drive over them and succeeded only in rolling the truck over, whereupon he was placed under arrest.

A State Police tracking dog was brought to the site to aid in locating the other youth, who was still on foot in the cornfield. Deputy Stamper, stationed at the corner of Cassidy and Roe Rds., spotted the boy running across Cassidy, overtook him on foot and placed him under arrest, deputies said.

A search of the Cutlass discovered the shotgun in the trunk, it was reported, after which the two youths were taken to the Washtenaw County Juvenile Home pending disposition by the Juvenile Court. Five county cars were involved in fugitives' apprehension, along with two detectives from the county and assisting units from the Manchester Police Department.

"I had to laugh when we arrested the boy in the truck," said Aello. "As the handcuffs were being snapped around his wrists, he asked, 'Am I gonna be in trouble because I don't have a driver's license?'"

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

★ Nitrite Dangers

Less Than Botulism

The news is still buzzing about the nitrate scare brought on by the Department of Agriculture, particularly the Consumer Division headed by Mrs. Carol Tucker Foreman.

Everyone must be familiar with the problem by now, but in case you aren't, the whole thing sets up this way . . .

Something called the Delaney Amendment says that if any food product is found to contain a carcinogenic substance, it must be banned from human consumption. It doesn't say to what degree or how minute—just says it's there! Zero tolerance, in other words.

So Mrs. Foreman says she is merely enforcing the law. Seems funny that no other Department of Agriculture official ever learned about nitrates before Carol came along, doesn't it?

It also seems rather odd that the Massachusetts Institute of Technology scientist, whose study of rats led to the nitrate warning, is concerned over all the worry it created. Dr. Paul Newberne said he didn't think that just because nitrates cause cancer in rats that it would really create serious risks in human population. Calling the whole scare a "scientific tempest in a teapot," the MIT scientists appealed for "common sense and flexibility by the regulatory agencies."

Another scientist from MIT, Dr. Steven Tannenbaum, who authored the paper on human nitrate exposure, said the estimate of increased human cancer risk due to nitrate are so bad that he would flunk his graduate students if they did the same thing.

The real problem is the choice we are going to have to make. Cancer may kill you, eventually, but botulism is quicker and more certain. And without nitrate to cure meat, botulism is almost a sure thing.

And how are you going to make bacon, tomato and lettuce sandwiches? Experts point out that significant amounts of nitrate also occur in lettuce, spinach, celery and other leafy vegetables and Carol hasn't said a thing. Maybe she doesn't eat salad either.

Diabetes now affects ten million people in the U. S., one and one-half million of whom are juvenile diabetics. Its prevalence is increasing by 6 percent a year—at which rate an American born today, living an average life span of 70 years, has a better than one-in-five chance of contracting diabetes.

VOTE NO on all 3... H, J, and E

Here's what PROPOSAL H would do to Michigan

- destroy local control of public and private schools.
- create one state-wide school district, run by the legislature.
- lower the quality of education in a great many school districts, while increasing the cost.
- double your income tax.
- again try to circumvent the state constitution, and give a new push to creeping parochialism.

Here's what PROPOSAL J would do to Michigan

- result in increased costs for senior citizens, young home buyers and renters.
- cut in half local revenues for fire and police protection.
- it's a phony tax cut that benefits business and corporations.
- it's a state politician's dream of grasping away local controls.
- it's not a tax cut, but a tax and fee increase.

Here's what PROPOSAL E would do to Michigan

- provide no tax relief for anyone.
- freeze into place an unfair property tax system.
- obstruct the creation of new jobs and perpetuate unemployment.
- ban property tax reform.
- stop further state improvement of school financing.
- Almost everything in Proposal E is subject to costly legal challenge.

DON'T LET THEM CHEAT YOU!

They WON'T lower taxes! They WILL cost you MORE!

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffery Brian Layher

Karen Trinkle, Jeffery Layher Exchange Vows at St. Paul's

Karen Lynn Trinkle and Jeffery Brian Layher exchanged wedding vows in a double-ring ceremony at 6 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 14, in St. Paul Lutheran church, Chelsea.

The Rev. Paul T. Heinicke performed the ceremony for the daughter of Shirley A. Trinkle of Chelsea and the late Erwin C. Trinkle and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane E. Layher of Chelsea. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, David E. Trinkle of Chelsea.

A gown of bone antique lace was selected by the bride for the ceremony. Crochet lace trimmed the neckline, sleeves and waistline. The yoke was ruffled and accented with Brussels embroidery. The skirt had peplum sides and the hem was also edged in peplum. A lace headpiece trimmed with Brussels embroidery and seed pearls held her fingertip veil, and she carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, stephanotis, and baby's breath.

The bride's attendants were gowned in matching wine mer-caine knit. Maid of honor was Terri D. Jones of Chelsea. David D. Layher of Chelsea, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Bridesmaids were Kris Funk of Pinckney, Julie Botsford of Chelsea, and Kathy Chmielewski of Munith.

Serving as ushers were Daniel Heydlauff of Chelsea, Michael Reed of Brooklyn, and Randy Layher of Grass Lake.

Lyn Toney of Dexter attended as flower girl.

Following a reception at Roma Hall, the couple left for a honeymoon in northern Michigan.

They will reside in Jackson.

Boat launching ramps are open through October at three Huron-Clinton Metroparks. Sites are located at Metro Beach Metropark (near Mt. Clemens), Stony Creek Metropark (near Rochester-Utica) and Kensington Metropark (near Brighton-Milford). Metropark boat launch permits and vehicle entry permits (Daily - $1 each) are required.

FFA Notes

On Wednesday, Oct. 25, members of the Chelsea FFA Chapter visited area farmers to talk to them about a "safe corn harvest." At harvest time we like to pass out any information we have that would prove useful to all concerned at harvest time. We visited as many farms in the Scio-Church Rd. area as possible and if we missed you we have placed some information at Farmers' Supply and at McCalla Feed for you to have. We hope you have a safe corn harvest.

What We Need Is . . .
PROVEN EXPERIENCE

Ballantine

For Michigan State House, 23rd District

VOTE

Mary Keith Ballantine

November 7th

Mary Keith . . . EXPERIENCE IN WORKING FOR US

A LISTENER

Mary Keith is willing to listen and act on your best ideas. She has proven this as an elected official of Jackson County, through her involvement in community programs, and in her current campaign to be our next State Representative.

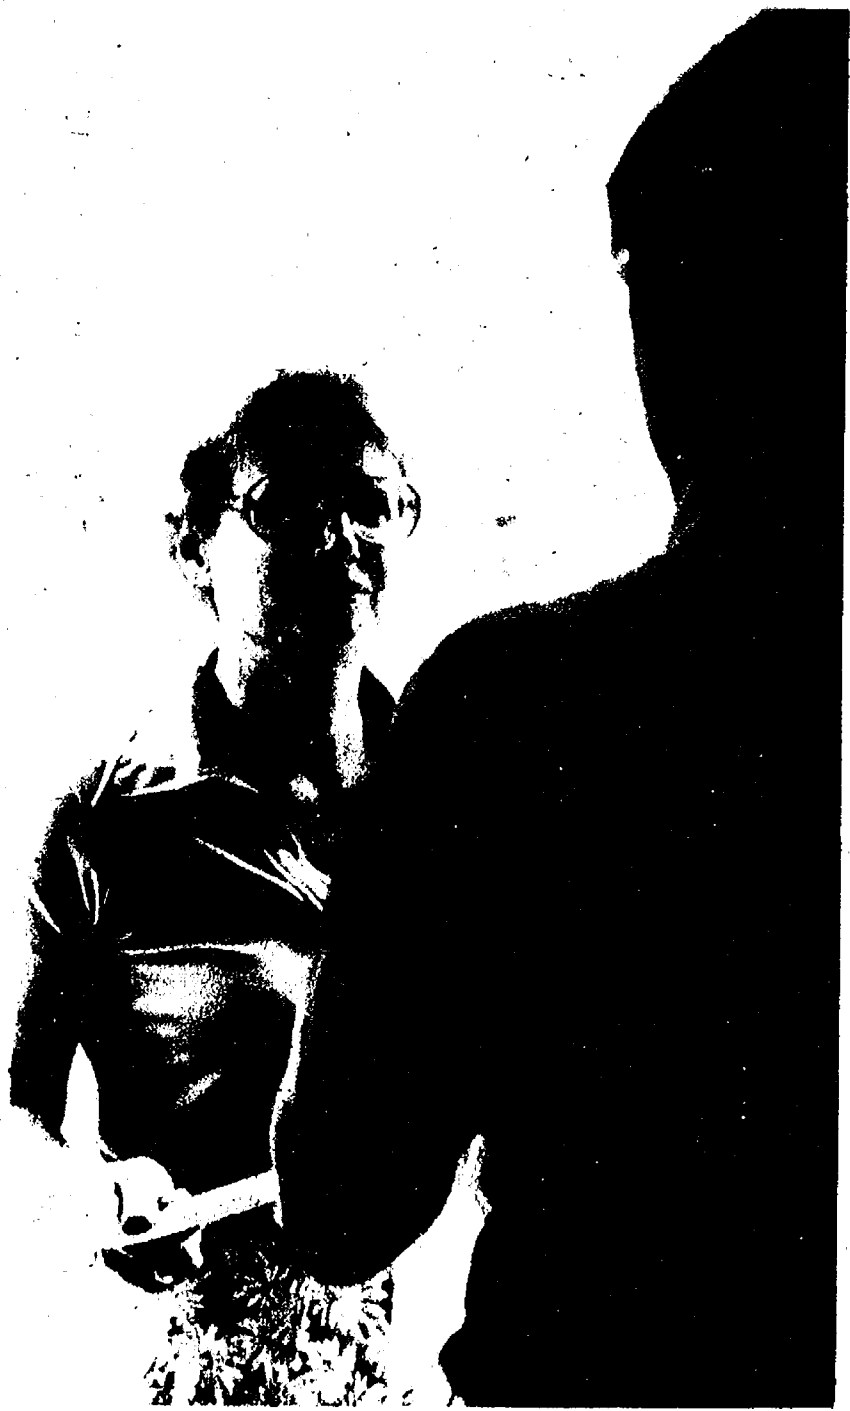

A DOER

As a County Commissioner, Mary Keith uses her experience to make government work for us on the local level. She can bring this same experience to work for us in state government as our State Representative. Her working knowledge of the governmental process will help cut through the red-tape in solving constituent problems and help develop legislation that is responsive to our needs.

A PROBLEM SOLVER

The problems are tough . . . and won't go away unless we face them. That's exactly what Mary Keith Ballantine wants to do as our State Representative . . . to work for things that really matter to you.

Mary Keith Ballantine's experience and dedication have proven that she's ready for the job ... and that's why we need her.

Mary Keith has a common sense approach to the issues.

Limiting Government Growth: Unnecessary paperwork and expanding bureaucracy is a major cause of our frustration with government. Reducing this red-tape must be a top legislative priority. Legislators must work to achieve efficiency in government and save taxpayers' dollars.

Property Tax Reform: A more equitable property tax system is needed. Tax bills cannot continue to increase each year. The Legislature must stop talking and start acting.

Local Government: A majority of the people in this district believe that the best, most responsive government is at the local level. The laws that are made in Lansing must allow and encourage local units of government to solve our problems where possible.

Business: The Legislature must give immediate attention to revision of Michigan's workers' and unemployment compensation laws. We have to enact these reforms in order to improve the business climate and create more jobs for Michigan residents.

Agriculture: With unpredictable weather, unknown diseases and pests, and many unnecessary government regulations, farming has become a very difficult business operation. These problems have been compounded by a property tax system that taxes farmland based on its commercial sale value and not on the worth of farm productivity. The 23rd District's agricultural community is a much needed resource that we cannot afford to lose. Mary Keith Ballantine will work hard on legislation that will work for agriculture - not against it.

Mary Keith...
