Milliken, Levin Win As Heavy Vote Recorded

Lima Township Has New Supervisor in Leila Bauer

Tuesday's election brought voters out in droves under clear, sunny skies and local township clerks were impressed with how smoothly the day went with the new punch-card voting system.

In Sylvan township, re-elected Clerk Daniel Murphy praised voters for coming prepared and for their numbers. "We had at least a 65 percent turnout and most everyone appeared to know who they wanted to vote for which contributed to short lines," he commented.

Voters in the township had only one wait early in the morning when the line reached the Chelsea Pharmacy front door. "It used to be that when we had voting machines a line that long meant an hour-and-a-half wait," Murphy said.

Sylvan township registered voters cast ballots Tuesday and re-elected all of the incumbents, a new trustee, and a new constable. Supervisor Donald Schoenberg (D), received 1,191 votes; Clerk Murphy (D), 1,356; Treasurer Fred W. Pearsall (R), 1,436; Trustee Reuben A. Lesser, Jr., (R), 1,372; and Constables Paul Newhouse (D), 879, and incumbent Gary D. Foster (R), 1,019. All figures listed are unofficial.

These voters cast 1,092 yes votes for Proposal D (higher drinking age), and 971 no; 854 yes for the Headlee proposal and 954 no; 681 yes for Tish and 1,051 no; and 395 yes for the Voucher and 1,441 no.

Lima township has a new supervisor, Leila C. Bauer (R) with 706 votes against the 188 write-in ballots cast for incumbent Robert Musolf (D), 1,016 of the 1,400 registered voters turned out. Re-elected with 774 votes were Clerk Arlene R. Barcis (R); Treasurer Jean L. Tilt (R) with 757; Trustees Robert L. Heller (R) with 613, and incumbent Harold L. Gross (D) with 503. Also running for trustee was Martin Merkel (R) who collected 473 votes.

The new Lima constable is Daniel D. Foytik (R) with 694 votes. These voters cast 552 yes ballots for Proposal D and 424 no; 504 yes for Headlee and 454 no; 387 for Tish and 574 no; and 218 for the Voucher and 745 no.

1,120 of the 2,157 registered voters in Dexter township exercised their privilege to re-elect all of the incumbents. Supervisor John M. Tandy (R) received 717 votes; William Eisenbeiser (D), 773; and Treasurer Lorinda Jedele (R), 874. Incumbent Arlene B. Howe defeated challenger Earl Dolezky (D) with 624 votes to his 461; and Constable Robert H. Burns (R), had 852 votes.

These voters cast 641 yes votes for Proposal D and 542 no; 663 yes for Headlee and 491 no; 516 yes for Tish and 653 no; and 250 yes for Voucher and 890 no.

Lyndon township had a total of 586 ballots cast and one incumbent ousted from his trustee position. According to Washtenaw county election reports Orson A. Beeman, Sr., (D) defeated incumbent Norman Kaiser (R) 265 to 250. Republicans re-elected included John D. Hurd, Supervisor with 391 votes; Linda Wade, clerk, 418; and Barbara Roderick, treasurer, 400. New Lyndon Constable is Kathryn A. Sprawka (D) who ran unopposed and received 372 votes.

In Sharon township there were no contests for the re-election of all of the Republican candidates as 488 of the 660 registered voters cast ballots. Returning to office are James S. Haller, supervisor; Duane Haselschwerdt, clerk; Herbert G. Jacob, treasurer; Willard Blumenauer, trustee; and Ira E. Johnson, constable.

Only the trustee position in Freedom township has a new office holder as Armin G. Haussier (R) was elected. Otherwise all the incumbent GOP candidates will return to office including David J. Meinhardt, supervisor; Rena L. Griebach, clerk; Walter A. Heiber, treasurer; and constables Stephen A. Carson and Luther M. Nagel. 570 of the 922 registered voters turned out.

Scio township had 65 percent of the registered voters cast ballots for the re-election of all the incumbent Republicans as well as a new constable. Robert A. Jones, supervisor, received 1,763 votes;

Wrestling Season Starts Next Monday

All interested wrestlers should contact him or show up for the Thursday, Nov. 9, meeting at 3:30 in the cafeteria. All an athlete needs to participate is a signed physical ready to hand in.

Leading the wrestling team will be senior co-captains Chuck Young and John Whitaker. Returning lettermen for Chelsea are seniors Tom Bareis, Bart Bauer, Tony Wisniewski, and Alan Augustine; juniors Scott Dalton, Adrian Saari, and Chris Umstead and sophomore Bob Beeman.

From Stockbridge will be the new assistant Coach Brad Wilson who wrestled for Stockbridge a few years ago.

Teen-Agers Start Happy Angel's Night

We've all heard of "devil's night," but when a group of teen-agers knocked on a local resident's door and wished the occupants a "happy angel's night," there was a moment of disbelief.

"Whoever they are, we thank them," said the Hurshel O'Dells of 125 E. Summit St.

"We didn't know quite what to expect when we answered the door but they sure made us happy," they said.

Approximately 12 to 15 teen-agers gave their optimistic cheer at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 2 and in addition to their chorus of "happy angel's night," they presented the O'Dells with a brand new set of green plastic measuring cups as a token of their good will.

"We've never heard of anything like this before so we thought we would thank whoever did it. It was very nice," they commented.

RIBBON CUTTING: Only a bank would have a ribbon of two-dollar bills but it took more than cardboard scissors, no matter how large, to cut through them as these Ann Arbor Trust Company officials learned. Dedication ceremonies for the opening of the bank's first branch office, located at 1478 Chelsea-Manchester Rd. just west of M-52, were held Friday, Nov. 3 prior to the official opening on Monday, Nov. 7. From the left are William J. Bott, branch manager; George H. Cress, president of Ann Arbor Trust Co.; William M. Bruce, executive vice-president and head of the bank's banking division; and newly re-elected Sylvan township supervisor, Donald Schoenberg.

State Bank Will Open New Branch Office

Contingent upon the approval of the Chelsea Planning Commission, Chelsea State Bank plans to expand their banking facilities, according to an announcement by bank president Paul E. Mann on Tuesday, Nov. 7.

"Our application for a branch office was approved by the Michigan Financial Institute Bureau of the Department of Commerce in Lansing on Oct. 12 and our option on the property was finalized on Thursday, Nov. 2," Mann said.

If the bank's site plan is approved, a 40x28-foot building will be erected on the southwest corner of M-52 and Old US-12. "The facility will be primarily for drive-in banking but there will also be a lobby with three tellers for routine, daily banking," Mann explained.

The plans, as drawn by the architectural and engineering firm of Thompson-Phelan, Inc., of Ann Arbor, show the building with four drive-in lanes attached with an overhang.

"Eventually, we will expand on the building as demand increases, but for the moment our purposes are to provide better service to customers and help reduce some of the traffic congestion generated near our Main St. office," Mann commented.

The next Planning Commission meeting is scheduled to convene on Tuesday, Nov. 14 and Mann anticipates they will have at least a preliminary site plan to present for approval. "If we receive approval we will begin immediately with our plans and expect to be in full operation within six months. There is a good possibility that we may go with a temporary trailer facility before the construction of the building is completed," Mann said.

Mann said that no announcement was made when the bank first received approval from Lansing "because we were still in the process of securing the land." While he stated that he was in no position to cite the cost of either the land or the building, he said that the land was being purchased, with options, from the Chelsea Emergency Physicians, P.C., which is a group of local doctors.

The entire land package includes 2½ acres, zoned commercial, not all of which will be used in the beginning, Mann said.

Chelsea State Bank is operating under an 1897 charter and was once located in the District Court building on the corner of South and Main Sts. It moved to a new building in 1968 when their total assets amounted to approximately $15. Assets are now in excess of $42 million.

The bank has approximately 5,000 to 6,000 savings accounts and 4,000 checking accounts.

Youth Killed, 7 Injured in Auto Accident

Seventeen-year-old Mark Lee Schanz, a Chelsea High school junior was fatally injured Friday, Nov. 3 when the car he was driving veered out of control and hit a tree on Freer Rd., according to Chelsea Police reports.

One of the passengers, Traci Fletcher, 14, 329 Railroad St., is still listed in serious condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, according to hospital reports on Wednesday, Nov. 8.

"The department has not yet obtained statements from all of the passengers and cannot give a definite account of the accident," according to investigating officer Dennis Hall.

According to the information the department has, there were seven passengers, and Mark, all Chelsea High school students, in the 1966 light blue Dodge Dart. Three of the passengers were released from the hospital after treatment for minor injuries including Donna Colburn, 14, 404 Chandler St.; Chris Guinan, 14, 17376 Waterloo Rd.; and Debbie Marentette, 14, 14049 Edgewater Dr.

Listed in fair condition at Mott Childrens Hospital are James Robbins, 15, 14 Hickey Dr.; and Christy Burg, 14, 418 Chandler St. Bruce Centofanti, 15, 3730 Silver Fox Dr., was listed in satisfactory condition following surgery on Wednesday, Nov. 8.

Hall stated that at 6:58 p.m. Friday the department received a call from a resident on Freer Rd. "Within eight or 10 minutes we had all rescue units at the scene with the first ambulance from Chelsea arriving just seconds after we did," Hall said.

Reports say that Mark was traveling northbound on Freer Rd., when he veered to the right and hit a tree on the east side of the road.

"We have little data to explain why he left the road. There is no evidence of alcohol or drugs; he didn't appear to brake because there were no skid marks; and road conditions were perfect—no rain and the road is in excellent condition," Hall said.

There are no curbs on Freer Rd. at this point and many of the trees which line the road are as close as five feet to the pavement.

"Probably the single biggest reason for the severity of the accident is the number of people in the back seat. When the car hit the tree there must have been at least 400 pounds pushing the front seat forward," Hall explained.

Hall added that there were three persons in the front seat and five in the back seat. Mark was killed instantly, according to reports, as the front seat was pushed forward, off its tracks, and forced the driver into the steering wheel.

G. Beaumont Murdered By Crazy Man

A 1970 graduate of Chelsea High school, Gordon Foster Beaumont, 26, of Richland, died in an act of heroism last Friday as he attempted to prevent the abduction of one of his employees.

Mr. Beaumont, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Jerrold Beaumont of Chelsea, received a single gunshot wound to his head from the gun of Daniel Freeman Travis, 25, of Galesburg, according to Kalamazoo police.

Travis had abducted his ex-girlfriend Virginia Hinkelman, 33, from the Saga Foods Corp. office where she and Beaumont worked. Beaumont was food services manager for the company.

While Travis was forcing Mrs. Hinkelman up the stairs and outside to a car, Beaumont rushed after them up the stairs and Travis shot him, according to reports. Soon after, Travis drove Mrs.

Hinkelman east of Kalamazoo where he shot her twice in the head and then himself. Kalamazoo police found Mrs. Hinkelman alive but in critical condition and Travis dead. Mrs. Hinkelman died Sunday afternoon.

Beaumont had an extremely rare blood type and was kept alive on a life-support system during a nation-wide search for a recipient for his kidneys. No recipient was found, however, and he died Friday night.

Funeral services were held Monday, Nov. 6 at St. Barnabas Episcopal church in Chelsea where his father is pastor. Memorial contributions may be made to the St. Barnabas Memorial Fund.

He is survived by his widow, Marilyn Lennox; his parents; a brother Douglas and sister Susan at home; and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Hesman of Windsor, Ont., Canada.

Bulldogs Close Grid Season 4th in League

Capping the varsity season with a 14-7 victory over Jackson Northwest, Chelsea Bulldogs gridgers completed the year 4th in the Southeastern Conference with a 6-3 record.

The game marked the final appearance of 13 seniors including Joe Kaiser, John Nelson, Captain Jesse Coburn, Doug Clark, Ben Kincer, Bill Moore, Tim Bareis, Scott Powers, Kevin Clark, Jeff Eibler, Jim Brown, Scott Price, Captain Alan Augustine, and Captain Tom Bareis.

Meeting the Northwest squad on home turf, Chelsea dominated the first half as they collected two touchdowns. In the first quarter, Bulldogs pushed the ball on a sustained drive for 69 yards in 14 plays with tailback Augustine going the final seven yards to score. Brad Knickerbocker kicked the extra point.

In that drive, the offensive line, led by Scott Price, Dave Morris, John Nelson, Scott Powers, and Tim Bareis, moved Northwest with ease.

Chelsea scored again in the second quarter on another sustained drive, picking up 56 yards in eight plays. Augustine and Knickerbocker repeated their earlier performance following a pass from John Dunn to Knickerbocker for 17 yards.

From these two drives, Bulldog offense relaxed and didn't score again although they moved the ball.

"Defensively, we played one of our better games coming up with one fumble and five big interceptions," Coach Phil Bareis commented. Scott Price led the team in tackles with 10. Ben Kincer had one interception; Augustine, two and Dunn, two.

Dunn's interception came in Chelsea's end zone with less than two minutes to go to seal the victory.

Also tackling for the Bulldogs were John LaBarbara, Mike Killea, Jim Brown, Louie Jahnke, Art Presley, Ben Kincer, Doug Clark, and Keith Stillion.

On offense, Augustine had 20 carries for 86 yards; Moore, eight for 28; Wood, one for four; and Presley, one for five. Dunn collected 19 yards passing while Knickerbocker had 19 yards in passes caught.

Two Escape Serious Injury in Auto Crash

Two Chelsea High school students escaped serious injury Monday, Nov. 6 when the car they were traveling in skidded, flipped, and crashed into a telephone pole, splitting the pole in two.

"They were very lucky and we are so grateful that they survived," mother of the two students sighed.

Linda Lorraine Harat, 16, and her brother Mathew, 15, both of 13975 Maute Rd., Grass Lake, were on their way to classes early Monday morning when the 1970 Barracuda she was driving left Cavanaugh Lake Rd. as she was rounding a curve just west of Conway Rd.

The Washtenaw County Sheriff's department sub station in Dexter, "It appears that she had been traveling at a high rate of speed and failed to negotiate a curve while driving east. She went off the road onto the gravel and when she attempted to correct the situation she overcompensated, crossed the center line, and hit a telephone pole on the north side of Cavanaugh Lake Rd."

Sounding still a bit shaken the day after the accident, Linda explained that as she left the road and was coming back onto it her car crossed over to the other side.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

In all the years I've known Bug Hookum they ain't nothing gone quite right for him. He al-laments about everything, if it ain't farm prices and weather it's his preacher that runs five minutes overtime ever Sunday or the President breaking in on one of his TV ball games to announce a new crisis and taking the hole fourth quarter to do it. So Bug surprised the fellers with his part in the discussion at the country store Saturday night.

Instead of viewing everthing under the sun with alarm, Mister

Editor, Bug come promising hope fer mankind. He allowed he had done considerable reading behind these matters, and after studying them one side and down the other he had decided that the world is here to stay. First, Bug reported, there's what them scientists call "improved food chain," and then there're fewer folks to eat the chain. Bug said a combination like that is bound to be good news. Bug was most encouraged by this piece he saw where the population explosion might fizzle instead of stack people four deep over the face of the earth.

General speaking, declared Bug, countries like India and China that ain't been interested in nothing so much as multiplying has started to see the sense in slow adding, if not subtraction. The population growth in many of these countries where there's already more people than places at the table is slowing down. They are leveling off so fast, Bug allowed, that experts now are letting themselves think the problem of feeding the world might even be solved.

Furthermore, went on Bug, new kinds of food is being found. Fer instance, he said scientists is drawing protein out of tobacco and are claiming that instead of this wicked weed killing us it may turn out to be a good guy and help save us. Then they're processing seaweed and making high protein feed out of it, and kudzu, that we allus figured for the plant world's worst pest, outside of briars, can be eat 'all sorts of ways. The young leaves can be picked to make green salads, and the hole plant can be used up into flour and used fer bread.

The fellers was pleased that Bug was pleased about somepun, but Clem Webster said he was taking Bug's report on the food chain with a heap of salt. Clem said he, fer one, wasn't ready fer no kudzu salad, and as long as there was wheat in the world he weren't switching to kudzu biscuits. Clem said there is vegetables and there is weeds and he'd as soon leave it that way. He said the bone and sawdust he gits in his hamburger, and the sand that keeps the salt he eats from clogging is bad enough.

But Josh Clodhopper, that don't talk much, spoke up fer Bug. The neatest trick he had heard of, Josh said, was this perffessor in North Carolina that wants to build a space ship you can eat after you git where you're going. He had made a building material out of wool, silk, sugar, and hamburger, but he can't whet NASA's appetite fer it, Josh said.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

State Officials Preparing If Tax Proposals Are Approved
A number of state officials have been scrambling to develop contingency plans to put into operation should any one, or all three, of the tax proposals on the November ballot be approved.

The plan is to prepare the state and its revenue coffers should the proposals take effect. California recently was caught somewhat flat-footed when Proposition 13 was approved there reducing property taxes. That state, however, had a $5 billion surplus with which to work, while Michigan has only its so-called budget and economic stabilization fund totaling under $200 million.

The group is supposed to have a set of options ready just prior to the election. Those options will likely be discussed and debated by a special ballot proposal implementation commission to be appointed by Governor William Milliken.

That commission is to consider the implications and alternatives of the proposals.

"The idea behind these plans is not to discredit the proposals, but to be ready," said Thomas Clay, director of the state's office of the budget.

The group is divided into two separate subgroups—one to draft options to deal with Propositions "E" and "J"—the Headlee tax limitation proposal and Tisch property tax cut—and the second to deal with proposal "H"—the voucher school financing plan.

Robert Klein, director of the Office of Revenue and Tax Analysis, said if only the Headlee plan is adopted, the state will not have too many problems in adjusting. The amendment prohibits increases in state spending greater than actual increases in personal income.

The Tisch property tax cut, however, would require the state to make up around $1.7 billion in revenue, that would largely go to schools and local governments. It cuts property taxes in half, limits the amount they can increase and puts a ceiling of 5.6 percent on the income tax.

Approval of Tisch and voucher would wipe out nearly three-fourths of Michigan's property taxes, cutting revenues by some $3 billion. The voucher plan takes schools off property tax financing and requires the Legislature to devise an alternative method of funding schools, both public and private.

Ballot Proposal Aid
Voters will be facing not only numerous decisions on state-wide local races but will also have to sort out and cast an intelligent vote on 11 state-wide ballot proposals.

An aid to voters is available for the secretary of state's office which provides the exact wording of all the proposals to review prior to the Nov. 7 election. The pamphlets are available from any of the 207 branch offices.

Because of the lengthy ballot this year, it is more important than ever that voters know what to expect when they first open their ballots. Minds should be pretty well made up before voters enter the booths.

An obscure state law allows an election worker to ask the voter to leave the polling place after only two minutes in the booth. Although the law has serious constitutional questions, an informed electorate will not need any more time than the two minutes and the voting process will be expedited.

Christmas Seal Goal Is $52,128 in County

The Michigan Lung Association announced its need for $880,000 state-wide as it kicked off its Christmas Seal campaign for 1978. Seals are in the mail to past contributors. The need in Washtenaw county has been set at $52,128, which Louis Belcher, MLA's local Christmas seal chairman, hopes will be raised through Christmas Seal contributions and other fundraising efforts being organized by MLA volunteers in the county.

"One of the unique strengths of this organization is that 80 cents of every dollar contributed in Michigan stays in Michigan to help our own citizens," said Belcher, the mayor of Ann Arbor and vice-president of First Ann Arbor Corp.

Christmas Seal contributions here support health-improving programs such as: a kindergarten through third grade curriculum to teach youngsters about smoking and its effects on the body, breathing clubs, self-care classes, smoking cessation groups, non-smokers' rights programs, scientific seminars and workshops for professionals, air conservation programs and educational fellowships, which are awarded to promising young physicians who seek further training in lung disease in Michigan teaching hospitals.

"It is not commonly known that lung diseases result in staggering economic losses to the patient due to absence from work and school days," Belcher said. Presently several hundred thousand residents of the state are afflicted by one or more of the three "chronic" lung diseases—emphysema, chronic bronchitis and asthma.

Citing the devastating way in which lung disease changes the way families live, the Michigan Lung Association, an educational organization, is pledged to the prevention and control of lung disease and the improvement of the health of the people of Michigan. The Christmas Seal campaign is its main source of support. For more than 70 years these seals have worked for better health in Michigan.

Among last year's research grants that Michigan Lung Association helped to support were these: one to investigate the role of viruses in precipitating attacks of asthma; one to study the mechanisms of the influenza virus; and still another to use the electron microscope and determine more about how surfactant is produced in the lungs. Thousands of babies die every year from respiratory distress syndrome, also called hyaline membrane disease, because not enough surfactant is produced in their lungs.

According to State Health Department statistics, a total of 3,632 deaths, not including lung cancer, were ascribed to lung diseases including chronic lung disease, tuberculosis, influenza and pneumonia, and asphyxiation of the newborn.

The chronic lung diseases are common and serious health problems in Michigan. 1,737 people died of these diseases in 1977.

Acute lung disease, such as pneumonia, and influenza, often looked upon as "less serious" than other lung diseases, are logged as claiming almost 2,000 lives in Michigan last year.

This year's Christmas Seal campaign seeks funds to continue successful programs to start new ones while alerting parents, teachers, grandparents, and babysitters to the dangers of "foreign bodies" to young lungs. Hard candies, popcorn, peanuts, holiday treats, small toys, pins, etc., inhaled into the lungs cause breathing interference, claiming the lives of 2,000 children annually.

sel fuel tax and an increase in the vehicle license plate fee. "People against Higher Taxes" will try to hold up the effectiveness of the increases by placing the question on the 1980 ballot.

Republican Senators Garry DeMaso of Battle Creek and John Weiborn of Kalamazoo, co-sponsors of the group, said they hope to have petitions ready for circulation in the state in about three weeks.

If the proper number of signatures is certified by the State Board of Canvassers to place the question on the ballot, the increase would be delayed until after the 1980 election when voters would make the final determination as to whether the increases should take effect.

Out-County Dial-A-Ride Service Starts

Out-county Dial-A-Ride became a reality Monday, Oct. 30 as the Ann Arbor Transportation Authority extended its services to all of the rural towns in the county.

AATA has been waiting months for the state to authorize a $90,000 grant to operate the service. In the meantime, villages such as Chelsea had their councils approve token funds in support.

The service is open to the general public with priority given to citizens over 60-years-old, and the declared handicapped.

From Chelsea riders may go to Dexter, Ann Arbor, Manchester, Saline, Milan, Ypsilanti or wherever they may need to go. To book a trip or for general information the number is 971-4114.

AATA is anticipating that most trips will be for medical purposes to area hospitals. Hours are from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., seven days a week. Brochures on the new service are available through AATA and several copies are on hand at The Standard office.

If a group or organization would like AATA to address their group they may contact Rey Perez at 994-2895.

Stoner Photo Collection In U-M Historical Library

The late Claude T. Stoner of Dexter made a hobby of collecting pictures on railroad topics, most of them related to Michigan.

The result was a collection of 3,600 pictures and negatives, which now are in the University of Michigan Bentley Historical Library, which houses the Michigan Historical Collections.

Robert M. Warner, director of the library, says the photographic collection is a gift of Stoner's three daughters—Barbara and Elizabeth and Mrs. Richard Kelly—and other friends of the library. The collection has been catalogued and now is open for use for researchers in Michigan railroad history.

Claude Stoner was born in Ashley, in 1899 and began his interest in railroads while growing up there. His interest grew during two periods of employment by the Ann Arbor Railroad in the 1920s and 1930s.

He continued to pursue his hobby while working in the metallurgy department of the Argus Camera Co. in Ann Arbor. In 1962, he retired from Argus and began to criss-cross the state in his pursuit of pictures to add to his collection. He made copy negatives of photographs when he could not acquire the originals.

In seeking pictures pertaining to railroading in Washtenaw county, Stoner collaborated with Sam Sturgis, an Ann Arbor commercial photographer, with whom he often exchanged photographs. Sturgis also accompanied Stoner on many of his trips searching out the right-of-way of abandoned railroad trackage in the county.

As his collection grew, Stoner kept busy providing pictures for other collectors. He had a particular interest in the Shay locomotive, which was developed in Michigan for lumbering operations, and he provided many pictures for a recently published history of the Shay. Stoner's last contribution to railroad history was to a largely photographic treatment of the Grand Trunk Western Railroad. Stoner died last year.

Girls Varsity Cagers Lose to Novi, Brighton

Chelsea varsity girls basketball team collected two losses last week as they fell to Novi, 49-44, and Brighton, 63-26.

Against Novi's Ladycats, the Bulldogs opened strong playing the best basketball they've exhibited all year. "The Chelsea five teamed Novi with a hustling pressure defense and aggressive offense," according to Jim Winter, first-year varsity coach.

Bulldogs forced 10 Novi turnovers in the first eight minutes through their unyielding team defense as five different girls came up with steals. The Ladycats could muster just six shots for the entire quarter as the Bulldogs led, 11-5.

Second quarter action saw an extended offense production as both teams tuned up their running. Chelsea continued picking the pockets of the Ladycats, coming up with eight more turnovers and turning them into 17 points. Novi managed 12 in the second stanza but still trailed by nine, 28-19.

"We went after them in the first half," Winter said. "We were fired up yet relaxed. The defense was something else and the girls took it right to them," he commented.

"I think we tightened up in the second half. We were too worried about making mistakes instead of just playing our game. That's the price you pay with a young team," Winter said.

The second half was a complete reverse of the first as Novi outscored the Bulldogs, 30-16. Chelsea held off the Ladycat charge until 1:20 into the third quarter when Novi tied it 32-32. Novi took a three-point lead at the close of the quarter and the Bulldogs never regained it.

Nahette Push continued to lead Chelsea's scoring with 19. Jennifer Ringe turned in a strong offensive game to match their defensive effort, scoring nine points. Sheryl Kiel and Mary Boylan hit for six points while Tammy Collinsworth and Lori Miles contributed two each.

On Thursday, the Bulldogs hosted the undefeated league-leading Brighton cagers and came away on the short end of a 63-26 score.

The home team came out tough in the first quarter but appeared to lose their spark at the end of the first stanza as Brighton pulled in front, 20-10. Chelsea scored only four tallies in the second quarter as the visitors began to pull away. Bulldog offensive problems continued in the second half when they scored only 12 points.

Scoring for Chelsea was Push with 12; Kiel, nine; Ringe, three; and Collinsworth, two.

On Friday, Nov. 10, the Bulldogs will host Milan in an important SEC contest. JV game starts at 6:30 p.m.

JV Gridders Shut Out By Northwest

Upsetting the near perfect record of the Chelsea junior varsity Bulldog squad, Jackson Northwest shut out their guests, 20-0, in the last game of the year, Thursday, Nov. 2.

Jackson scored in the first, third and fourth quarters but failed to overcome a long drive effort by Chelsea in the second quarter.

Northwest touchdowns came on a two-yard run in the first; a three-yard run in the third; and a one-yard run in the final stanza.

"Chelsea could not get their offense going and only gained 143 yards all night," Coach Jon Schaffner stated.

John Preston ran for 68 yards; Bill Freeman, 30; Carl Simpson, 28; Jeff Dils, 14; and Jon Riemenschneider, two.

Chris Heaton led in defensive tackles with 16, followed by Bill Freeman with nine; Mike Lazarz, eight; Steve Wilson, seven; Sean Peterson, seven; Riemenschneider, six; Brian Dault, six; Les Hafner, five; Ken Hopkins, four; three each for Jeff Price, Eric Headrick, Mike Wade, and Jeff Dils; two each for John Preston and Scott Chapman; and one each for Sterling Vorus, Sandy McLaughlin, Kirk Stubbs, and Carl Simpson.

Dils executed a spectacular interception while Mike Lazarz recovered a fumble.

The 22 young men who completed their fine season as co-champions of the Southeastern Conference with Milan were Scott Chapman, Craig Thams, Jeff Price, Mark Steinaway, Chris Heaton, Les Hafner, Sterling Vorus, Ken Hopkins, Brian Dault, Eric Headrick, Mike Lazarz, Chan Lane, Sandy McLaughlin, Mike Wade, Kirk Stubbs, Jon Riemenschneider, Carl Simpson, Steve Wilson, Sean Peterson, John Preston, Bill Freeman, and Jeff Dils. Their coach was Jon Schaffner who completed his 11th year as junior varsity coach.

Julie Smith Joining Interlochen Orchestra for Detroit Concert

Julia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. P. Smith, 1335 No. 10th Territorial Rd., will join the Interlochen Arts Academy Orchestra as a member of the double bass section in all-Schubert program at Detroit's Ford Auditorium, Tuesday, Nov. 14.

The Academy Orchestra and Choir will perform as a part of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's International "Festival '78: Schubert-Vienna."

The Orchestra is the only group of student instrumentalists invited to perform at the Festival, planned by Detroit Symphony Orchestra conductor Antal Dorati as the world's largest commemoration of Schubert's death, which occurred 150 years ago on Nov. 19, 1828.

Throughout its 17-year history, critics have described the Interlochen Arts Academy Orchestra as "one of the truly remarkable orchestras in the country," and as a group of musicians with "an altogether professional uniformity of mind and feeling."

Founded in 1962 as the winter counterpart of the world-renowned National Music Camp, the Interlochen Arts Academy is a boarding high school for the visual, literary and performing arts, with a full college preparatory curriculum.

Among other soloists and groups performing in the Festival are the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, violinist Itzhak Perlman, pianist Murray Perahia, soprano Elisabeth Soderstrom, contralto Maureen Forrester, The Marlboro Trio, and the Bern String Quartet.

Foreign Investment in Farmland Studied

Last week President Carter signed into law a measure that sets up procedures for foreign owners and purchasers of farmland to report to the Secretary of Agriculture. The legislation was supported by the American Farm Bureau Federation.

This week House Agriculture Committee Chairman Thomas S. Foley (D., Washington) said that the law is not meant to control who can buy land.

"What Congress has done is create a system which will help us find out, for the first time, whether foreign citizens are—or are not—buying up alarming amounts of U.S. farmland," Foley said. "After we find out what the real facts are, we can then make some informed decisions about what, if anything, should be done."

A report issued recently by the General Accounting Office (GAO) says it appears less than 1 percent of the nation's 1.3 billion acres of farmland is owned by foreigners.

When President Carter signed the legislation on Oct. 14, he said government surveys indicate foreign ownership of land is still very small. But he noted that farmers are concerned about foreigners driving up prices and added that more information was needed before definite conclusions are reached.

Under the new law, the Department of Agriculture will issue regulations within three months for the reports to be filed by foreign citizens who currently own or later buy or transfer farmland. After that, current foreign owners will have to file reports on their holdings within 180 days, and future buyers or sellers will have to file reports within 90 days of their transactions. Violators face civil penalties of up to 25 percent of the value of the land held.

The Tax Implications
Recent purchases of U.S. farmland by foreign investors have raised questions about the tax treatment of capital gains from the sale of such property. Concern has been expressed that foreign investors may have a tax advantage under various tax treat-ties. This possibility needs further study; however, it seems fairly clear that some foreign investors do have a tax advantage under special provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, according to W. E. Hamilton, American Farm Bureau Federation Chief Economist.

As a general rule, foreign corporations and individual non-resident aliens can escape the U.S. capital gains tax if they are not engaged in a trade or business in the United States, Hamilton explains. This special tax treatment is available to an individual foreign investor only if he was not present in the United States for at least 183 days during a tax year.

The present law on capital gains realized by foreign investors apparently was enacted primarily to stimulate foreign portfolio investments in U.S. securities, with little or no thought of the implications for agriculture, Hamilton said. These implications have become more serious in recent years due to rising land prices and the declining value of the U.S. dollar in relation to some foreign currencies. Under current conditions, a foreign investor who is not subject to the U.S. capital gains tax on profits realized from the sale of farmland has a considerable advantage over U.S. residents.

A bill, S. 3414, designed to eliminate this advantage, was introduced by Senator Malcolm Wallop of Wyoming in the closing days of the 95th Congress and was approved by the Senate as an amendment to the General Tax Bill. It was not included in the conference report on the Tax Bill, but the conferees did ask the Treasury Department to make a study of the issue and report back early next year.

WCC Workshop Slated on How To Find A Job

Washtenaw Community College will offer a special workshop on "How To Find A Job While Working on a Career" as part of an employment opportunity series Tuesday, Nov. 14 from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Barb Bargo, career consultant, will teach the class which is open to the public. She will stress that "no job is a dead end one. All experiences contribute to occupational goals. Participants can join us and learn how to use their past and present employment history to achieve their future career goals," she explains.

The class will be offered at the Ypsilanti Center of the College at 411 Florence St. A $5 fee to cover materials will be charged. In-district senior citizens may enroll in the class at no charge.

Advanced phone registration for the class is requested by Friday, Nov. 10. Questions and registration should be directed to the Ypsilanti Center staff at 482-2230.

Pre-employment back examinations

There's a growing new specialty within the chiropractic profession. Because literally many millions of work hours are lost every year because of back injuries, this has become a problem of increasing importance to employers, employees and insurance companies. It has been found in study after study that chiropractic is the most effective method of treating industrial strains and sprains.

Now chiropractic research has developed what is known as the pre-employment spinal examination. If chiropractors can do a better and faster job of returning employees to their work, they have to know a great deal about the subject. If certain physical conditions and characteristics are present, it has been found, the potential for industrial back injury at a later date is higher than average.

Now pre-employment tests by chiropractors, using these standards, screen out candidates whose back analysis is such that they are not good risks for heavy work. While this field of study is relatively new, where it has been used it has proved to produce rather outstanding results, in both cost saving and human suffering.

Chiropractic can not only contribute to regaining health but prevent trouble from occurring.

Animals Tell Us of Rough Winter Coming

If the Farmers' Almanac, woolly bear caterpillars and thick-furred kitty cats are correct in their predictions, Michigan is in for a long, frigid winter.

The recent, cool temperatures seem to indicate there may be truth to the forecast made by the Farmers' Almanac, which predicts much more cold and snow than normal this winter. Many folks think the Almanac is a lot more reliable, over-all than the daily predictions on the local radio and television station.

Meanwhile, the kitty cats, dogs and farm animals are putting on winter coats somewhat thicker and earlier than usual, seeming to announce their agreement with the Almanac and the woolly bear caterpillar.

When those caterpillars are black as ink, as they are this year, oldtimers say a frigid, white winter is ahead. "It's going to be cold, slippery and sloppy," said 83-year-old Herbert Krone, who for years has fashioned weather forecasts from woolly bear caterpillar fur found in Pennsylvania. Woolly bear caterpillars, which Soloists for Byrd's "Mass for Five Voices" will be Louise Fader and Jane Wilcox Kovacs, soprano; Robin Jaynes and Phil Smith, tenor; and Roger Chard, bass. The third composition to be performed is Anton Bruckner's "Mass No. 2 in E Minor," for which the singers will be joined by a chamber wind ensemble.

Cooper Earns $1,500 For Special Olympics

Inspired by her friend Arlene Winn to "get up and finish the race," Nancy Cooper, Special Olympics director at Chelsea High school, succeeded in her first attempt in a 26-mile marathon last Saturday, Nov. 4.

Cooper was on both the winning and losing lists in her endeavor — losing her lunch but gaining more than $1,500 in pledges from Chelsea and Ann Arbor residents and businesses.

"I had a lot of difficulty but I made it," Cooper said. "I won't tell you how long it took me although my friend Helen Thomas ran the 26 miles in four hours and 10 minutes. Thomas is head of the Chelsea Swim Club.

Cooper proclaimed that she would never, ever, do a marathon again. That was only seconds after she crossed the finish line however. On Monday, she was nearly ready to do it again.

Approximately 270 runners joined in the race in Grand Rapids with 60 never finishing.

"Before I left, all my students had written me letters of encouragement and I read them while going to Grand Rapids. I kept thinking about them when I was running and that helped me go through most of the race. At one point I became sick and was resting on the side of the track when Arlene shouted at me to get up. I did and finished," Cooper said.

BRING YOUR DEER TO DUNBAR'S DEXTER LOCKER FOR PROCESSING

Includes Skinning, Cutting, Wrapping, Quick Freeze

Helpful Hints for Hunters:

1. Wounded deer could be dangerous, make sure your deer is dead.
2. TAGGING — Follow State laws regarding tagging and reporting your kill. Be sure your deer is tagged before you load it into your car.
3. BLEEDING — It is not necessary to bleed your deer unless it's been shot in the head — but if you do bleed it, don't ruin the head by slashing the neck. Insert the blade of your hunting knife several inches in front of the point of the breast. Small (4½-5½ inch) blades are better than the long ones.
4. FIELD DRESSING — Take along a 6 to 8 foot section of clothesline to tie the deer's leg to a tree to give yourself working space. Make a small incision only from the pelvic to the brisket bone. Do not open breast. Remove intestinal tract. There is no need for washing unless it's a gut shot. We will do that.
5. TRANSPORTING — Keep the front legs extended forward — makes for easier skinning. A good way to get your deer out of the timber is to tie the front legs to its head first. Keep it as cool as possible. Remember to protect your deer from warm rain.
6. DO NOT SKIN YOUR DEER. LEAVE THAT TO US. The hide protects it from spoiling and makes a good cover.

back of the car hit the pole," Linda said.

An unidentified person called county deputies to the scene where Deputy Larry Thayer found Linda and Mathew in good, but shaken condition. "They only complained of a few bumps and bruises and a little pain. She said that she would seek treatment on her own," Sergeant Aello commented.

Linda is a 11th grade student at CHS and Mathew is a 10th grader. Her mother stated that just before the two left for school they were going to take two small children to nursery school but "at the last minute we decided they should take the bus instead," Mrs. Harat said.

Having only had her driver's license since September, Linda said, "this is my first accident and I'm going to make it my last."

Her mother said that Linda suffered torn ligaments in her back while Mathew had pulled several muscles and wrenched his neck. "They're all right and I don't think they'll miss more than a day of school," she said.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER

REALTOR

HOW MUCH TAXABLE PROFIT?

When you sell your home at a profit, the difference between the cost and the selling price is taxable (unless you defer it by buying a more expensive home). The important cost basis is the sum of the original cost plus the dollar-value of improvements and selling expenses. Although the average homeowner can usually determine the amount originally paid for the home, he usually lacks information regarding improvements which have been made during ownership.

Amounts spent for replacements, alterations or improvements which increased the value of the property can be added to the original cost basis to determine the gain or loss at sale. Not only should the homeowner know the dollar amounts of the improvements, he should be able to substantiate these facts in the event of an IRS examination. So keep those records and check stubs.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8682; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

BROTHERS MATCH SUCCESS: Billy Lamb, 14, left, and Bobby Schleede, 14, both freshmen at Chelsea High school and sons of Mr. and Mrs. Don Schleede, 13333 Trinkle Rd., shot their first deer, using the same blind tree position behind the same tree, using similar bows, and bagging their catches with their same fourth shot of the season. There were a few differences, however. Billy shot a button buck on Friday, Nov. 3 at 5:45 on a full penetration lung shot. "I was nervous but excited," he commented. Bobby bagged a doe on Sunday, Nov. 5 at 5:55 p.m. also with a full penetration lung shot. "It was the thrill of my life," he said. Both boys had been out the night before their success without luck. The following night they nabbed their deer on the first shot. They used Aouters Astro Glazier bows, a year-old design utilizing a pulley tension concept, which they bought themselves. They both began deer hunting two years ago and belong to the Michigan Bow Hunters Association. "We can't wait for next year," they said in unison.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

My husband, John, and I moved to Chelsea a little over a year ago. Since then, we have been constantly pleased with the community. As an example, last week-end, our van caught fire on the way to the Chelsea football game. I ran to the nearest house and was immediately helped so I could call the fire department. A couple stopped, let us use their fire extinguisher after ours was used up, drove my daughter and me home, and barely allowed us to thank them. The fire department responded quickly and efficiently. A situation that could have been disastrous, turned out to be only an inconvenience.
Then, tonight, we were entertained by students singing pumpkin carols. These are just a few examples of the positive attitude Chelsea residents continually portray making this a delightful community.

Sincerely,

Dear Editor,

Over the 10 years I have taught in Chelsea, the community has stepped forward many times and helped the special children and adults within their school district. Now, through the pledges they gave for the marathon I ran last Saturday, they have helped every mentally impaired athlete in the entire county. I finished the 26 miles, not very gracefully and with no energy left over at all. I want to thank the many marvelous people who pledged and especially Helen Thomas and Arlene Winn who were my inspiration. Over $1,500 was raised for the Special Olympics. A very special thank-you to the following individuals, civic organizations, and businesses:

Charles Cameron
Mrs. Ann Feeney
Bob Daniels, Chelsea Lumber Co.
Paul Mann, Chelsea State Bank
Chelsea Child Study Club
Chelsea Lions Club
Bea Parish, Chelsea Cleaners
Dr. Lane, Lane Animal Hospital

Carol Spencer Touring With Valparaiso U. Chamber Orchestra

A former Chelsea student, Carol Spencer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Spencer of Huntington, W.V., will go on tour with Valparaiso University's Schola Cantorum and Chamber Orchestra Nov. 10-12.

The groups will give five performances in the western suburbs of Chicago and in Rockford, Ill., during the three days.

Carol is a member of the Chamber Orchestra.

The 64-voice Schola Cantorum, directed by Dr. Frederick Telchow, has a long history at VU. It has gained a reputation as an outstanding performing chorus, known for its interpretation of a variety of both sacred and secular literature from the Renaissance to contemporary.

The Chamber Orchestra, directed by C. Robert Rose, is made up of VU students and performs regularly throughout the year both on and off campus.

The popular Parents Orientation, now in its third year at Central Michigan University, was attended by 1,700 parents during the past summer. Orientation helps reduce the "separation anxiety" that occurs when a son or daughter leaves home for the first time.

Buses and heavy-duty trucks regularly produce noise levels that exceed the level at which sound can be hazardous, warn hearing specialists. When driving next to such a noisy vehicle make certain your car windows are closed and the specialists add.

Regular Meeting of SYLVAN TOWNSHIP BOARD has been postponed from Tuesday, Nov. 7 to Tuesday, Nov. 14 because of Election Day.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

The apostle Peter preached on the day of Pentecost the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. In verse 36 he stated, "Let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom ye crucified. This message pricked their hearts and their guilt caused them to cry out, "Brethren what shall we do? And Peter said repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." "They then that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them that day three thousand souls." (Acts 2:37-38:41)

Gridders of the Week

ART PRESLEY (44), has collected his best plays as a defensive line-backer monster but he would still "like to maintain my position as offensive fullback because of the recognition and opportunities for key blocks," the 5'10", 182-pound first-year varsity griddler commented. Presley, a junior, describes his job at fullback as "performing blocking assignments and getting a chance to do a little running for our tailback." As monster he "covers the run and passes," he explained. "I've played both slots equally throughout the season and I think that defense gives me a better run for the money. I also like offense because I've done well there too," he said. Presley has played in each game this season and points to the Brighton battle as his personal best. "I had a few important plays, good blocks, and ran the ball," he said. Chelsea walloped Brighton, 35-14, for their third consecutive victory with Presley running twice for seven yards and recovering a fumble. "Chelsea's best game this year was with Brighton and against Northwestern. We were tough with Brighton and the Jackson game was a real boost after being pretty down from Milan and Saline," he commented further. "Overall we had a good season; not as great as anticipated but nothing to be disappointed about either," he added. Presley has played his first year for Chelsea after moving from Ann Arbor where he played football for Huron High School. He is also a member of the varsity swim club and plays baseball. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Presley, 2860 Clear Lake Rd.

LOUIE JAHNKE (78) is a junior first-year varsity member on the Bulldog squad. While he describes the transition from junior varsity to varsity as "tough" he, nevertheless, was selected to play in the majority of his team's encounters. Jahnke was awarded the honor of Most Valuable Offensive Lineman both as a freshman and as a junior varsity griddler, and as a varsity player he was positioned as an offensive tackle and defensive end. "When I'm on offense my orders are to sustain the block so that the opponent can't make the tackle," the six-foot, 182-pound Bulldog commented. "As an end I contain the opponents from going outside," he explained. Jahnke, unfortunately sustained several injuries this season which benched him from three games. His best game was the Brighton match when he collected four tackles and three assists. "I became much more familiar with the end position and it was my start for the season," he said. "Our best game was with the SEC title holders, South Lyon. We were the only team in the conference to defeat them and it was because we played so well together as a team. The season went great in the first half and the second half was mediocre but I can't say why," he commented. Jahnke also plays baseball and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jahnke, 7990 Mester Rd.

KEITH STILLION (72), is a junior playing first year on varsity for the Bulldog gridders on offensive and defensive tackle. When positioned on defense, he "rushes through the line and breaks up the play before it happens." On offense, he "blocks for the running back and on passes," he explained. "Defense is where I come through the best because I'm pretty quick and can get around the offense fast," he commented. During the Monday evening Fall Athletic Banquet, Stillion was voted Most Improved Lineman for developing his skills in blocking and tackling. His best game this season was with Jackson Northwest. "I made more tackles than in any other game I had been in and I felt good about how I played," he said. Stillion also feels good about the Bulldog season. "Our first four games, especially the Tecumseh game, were super. There didn't seem to be much wrong with how we played. The last few games weren't bad even though we lost because we still kept our unity. Basically I'd have to say we had a winning season," he commented. Stillion focuses his athletic energies only on football and is looking to another successful season next year. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Stillion, 3900 South Lake.

Wilderness Survival Program Set

Hunters, fishermen, hikers and other outdoor enthusiasts; regardless of their reasons for seeking the outdoors for recreation, have one thing in common. During their recreational pursuits they all run the risk of becoming lost or stranded in the outdoors at some time or another.

Naturalists at the Waterloo Interpretive Center will be offering a program on "Wilderness Survival" at 2 and 4 p.m., Saturday and Sunday Nov. 11-12. The program will include information on how to keep from getting lost and what to do if outdoor survival becomes necessary. Visitors from the Chelsea-Dexter area take W. Middle St. west from the Chelsea business district to Cavanaugh Lake Rd. Follow Cavanaugh Lake Rd. west to Pierce Rd. Turn right and follow the park signs to the Interpretive Center. CMU Students Come From Every County

Central Michigan University again this year draws its students from all 83 of Michigan's counties.

And just over half of CMU's 16,203 students this semester come from eight counties along a line that runs roughly from Mt. Pleasant to the Saginaw Bay and then to downtown Detroit.

Students from those eight counties account for 50.5 percent of CMU's current enrollment, according to figures compiled by the Registrar's Office. The figures also show that 97.9 percent of CMU's students are from Michigan, with other states accounting for 172 students and other countries and U.S. territories for 154.

Oakland county leads as the home base for the most students with 1,942. That's 12 percent of the total enrollment. Wayne county, with 1,631, or 10.1 percent, is second, and CMU's home county, Isabella, is third with 1,128 or 7 percent.

Washtenaw county currently has 151 students at CMU to rank 24th among Michigan's 83 counties.

Others in the top 10 include Saginaw with 823 or 5.1 percent, Midland with 804 or 5 percent, Macomb with 777 or 4.8 percent, Genesee with 724 or 4.5 percent, Kent with 582 or 3.6 percent, Bay with 385 or 2.4 percent, and Gratiot with 383 or 2.2 percent.

Ohio, with 32 students at CMU, leads the other states, while Illinois, with 30 students enrolled, is second and New York with 16, ranks third. In all, there students from 31 states other than Michigan.

CMU's current enrollment is the second highest in the school's 88-year history.

This plan requires a minimum savings account balance of $2,500 and becomes available November 1, 1978.

Wide Selection of Savings Plans

Ann Arbor Trust offers a wide range of Certificates of Deposit all paying the maximum legal rate of interest, as shown in the table below:

Term	90 Day	1 Yr.	2 1/2 Yrs.	4 Yrs.	6 Yrs.	8 Yrs.

Special Mortgage Customer Benefits

No closing fees are assessed to single family mortgage loans, and we trust our customers to make their own tax and insurance payments; thus no escrow is required on mortgage loans.

No Prepayment Penalty on Installment Loans

Prepayments on Installment Loans are rebated using the simple interest method, which returns more dollars to the customer. We do not use the "Rule of 78" method which penalizes the borrower for early repayments.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business from Indiana University, and is a World War II Navy veteran.

Bill, his wife, and family, will be moving to Chelsea in the near future and plan to make it their permanent home.

A list of Bill's community service projects would seem endless. A partial list includes serving as Director of the Michigan United Fund, as Trustee and Treasurer of Washtenaw Community College, and as Director of the Washtenaw League for Planned Parenthood. He was a member of the Rotary Club for over 23 years, and is a recipient of the Michigan Minuteman Governor's Award. He also has been active in downtown, city and county planning activities.

Bill extends a cordial welcome to all Chelsea area residents to stop in soon and get acquainted. You'll like our friendly, courteous staff and the unique banking services the Chelsea Banking Office is offering. It's banking at its best!

CENTENNIAL

Here's your chance to see how CENTENNIAL HOMES erects, encloses and completely finishes the exterior of a home. This allows you to save a bundle by doing the finishing yourself, or simply subcontracting the interior. CENTENNIAL HOMES gives you complete design flexibility. Use one of our plans, your own plans or the best of both.

Since this house is not all finished and fancied up with furniture, you will be able to examine our workmanship and materials very closely. We feel a CENTENNIAL HOME does not have to be finished to look impressive! We certainly hope that you will plan to visit our open house so that you can GET THE INSIDE STORY!!
