

Chelsea Hospital Staff Will Begin Serving Homebound Patients

Chelsea Community Hospital patients who have been released but are unable to return to the hospital for follow-up care have at long last been recognized as a special group needing a wide range of special services.

During the Wednesday, Dec. 6 Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners meeting an agreement was approved between Chelsea Hospital and the county's Health Department which will allow much of the hospital's medical staff to make home visits to the homebound living in Western Washtenaw county.

This, according to Willard Johnson, Chelsea Hospital administrator, is a separate function from the hospital's Family Practice service which operates under the auspices of the University of Michigan Hospital and provides house calls by doctors.

The program is expected to start Jan. 1, and the agreement has an initial lifespan of three years. Johnson, however, anticipates that the three year "test period" will more than prove the need for such a service and renewal is expected.

For the past 35 years, the Health Department has served homebound patients with its home health service of nurses, physical therapists, and nurses aides throughout the county. Because the Health Department is certified by state and federal agencies, it receives a certain amount of reimbursement for its nursing expenses from state and federal programs.

With Wednesday's approval, Chelsea Hospital has both become part of the certified Health Department and eligible for reimbursement funds will also bolster the types of service the Health Department provides now for residents in Washtenaw county. Johnson also expects that after the first six months, they will be able to expand to include the entire county.

Some of those services Chelsea will provide include physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, nutritionists, and medical social workers. Other staff workers could be added in the future also.

According to Johnson, nearly 60 percent of the hospital's patients reside in Washtenaw county with much of the balance from Jackson and Livingston counties. The number of homebound patients in western Washtenaw county alone, Johnson estimates, is between 50 and 75.

Cagers Down S. Lyon After Brighton Loss

Easy scoring off the fast break and a superb floor shooting average of 59 percent stole the show Friday night as the Brighton Bulldogs grabbed a 81-53 decision from Chelsea.

Saturday's game against South Lyon proved more palatable for Chelsea. Though hard and evenly fought, the Bulldogs held tough for a 46-41 victory.

Brighton squashed all Chelsea's comeback attempts of which there were two in the second and third quarters.

"When we entered the game we thought there would be two keys to the win. First we would have to out-rebound them, and second, stop their fast break," Coach Robin Raymond said. "We didn't do bad in the rebounding they only passed us by three—but Brighton has a mean fast-break and we couldn't touch them," he explained.

A fast-break, according to Raymond is where a team has three offensive players coming down the floor with the ball and the opposing team has only one defensive man near the hoop.

Brighton jumped to an early 10-2 lead in the first eight minutes and increased it to 24-11 by half-time. Chelsea was further hurt when Charlie Bridges was benched in the first quarter and a half with three fouls. "This really affected our offense," Raymond said.

Two strong comebacks were attempted by Chelsea, once in the second and another in the third. "We came within six points each time but each time Brighton took two easy baskets to break our momentum," Raymond said.

In rebounding, foul shots, turnovers, and fouls, both squads performed about evenly. Brighton collected 34 rebounds to Chelsea's 31; Chelsea and Brighton both shot 41 percent from the line; Brighton had one more turnover with 18 than Chelsea; and Brighton had 20 fouls compared to Chelsea's 17.

Leading scorer for Chelsea was Gary Dils with 14. Brad Knickerbocker, Mike Mackesky and Jeff Dils each had eight. Don Schrotenboer collected seven; Charlie Bridges, four; Mike Killelea, two; and Matt Feeney, two.

Schrotenboer led in rebounds with seven, followed by Bridges with six; five each by Gary Dils and Mike Mackesky; and three each by Knickerbocker and Jeff Dils.

Saturday's game, according to Raymond, saw South Lyon "playing a deliberate offensive style and a 2-3 half-court zone." "Both of us were tired from playing a conference game the night before and I think it showed," he added.

Bulldogs took a first quarter lead of 15-12 and retained the upper hand, if barely, all night. Chelsea's biggest lead was nine points gained in two minutes into the third quarter.

"At the end of the third quarter I told the players to hold the ball out in front to force South Lyon out of their zone and let us get a chance to play our man-to-man defense," Raymond explained.

South Lyon, however, refused to co-operate and stayed in the zone until the last few minutes before the final buzzer. Chelsea kept their lead to win the game.

"Overall we both played a sloppy game. We weren't very artistic but we did control the tempo in all four quarters," Raymond commented.

Charlie Bridges turned in his best offensive performance of the season, collecting a sizeable 21 points. Other Chelsea scorers were Jeff Dils with eight; Gary Dils, seven; Mike Mackesky, six; and two each for Don Schrotenboer and Mike Killelea.

Frosh Cagers Win One, Drop One

Chelsea freshmen cagers won one and dropped one last week bringing their record to 2-1.

On Thursday, Dec. 7, Bullpups took on Novi for a 50-42 defeat. "We just couldn't pull our line scoring together that night and went 0-12 in that department. We also had a thin aggressive defensive which contributed to the loss," Coach Jim Tallman commented.

Aquatic Club Takes League Title

Competing with three class "A" schools in the second annual Super 6 League fall swimming championships, Chelsea Aquatic Club capped off a perfect season by securing the title.

Charles S. Cameron Pool on Saturday, Dec. 9 housed what may have been the largest athletic event in Chelsea's history with more than 3,000 spectators and swimmers.

Arch rival Milan, with a history of four state high school championships in their 10-years of swimming fell behind the Chelsea champions by nearly 300 points. Final results were Chelsea, 1,671; Milan, 1,393½; Plymouth, 1,091; Ypsilanti, 1,018; Belleville, 735½; and Willow Run, 528.

Plymouth, Ypsilanti and Belleville are large class "A" teams and have had swimming programs for more than 20 years. In all, more than 800 swimmers competed in 2,400 events on Saturday with Chelsea breaking numerous club and league records on its way to victory.

Chelsea swimmers placing first were:

Nearly everyone on the team placed and in two events the Bulldog swimmers took first, second, third, and fourth place out of the entire league.

Chelsea completed the season with a 5-0 record. Next registration is from Jan. 3-10.

Chelsea Blood Bank Clinic Set For Saturday

As the holidays approach, and the pessimistic predictions of statisticians begin to take shape, Chelsea Jaycees urge you to donate a half hour and a pint of blood to help traffic and other accident victims this year.

With the co-operation of the Ann Arbor Chapter of the American Red Cross, the Chelsea Blood Bank Clinic has been set for Saturday, Dec. 16 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Chelsea Fairgrounds building. "Giving blood is especially important this time of year and a half hour of your time could save the life of someone else," Chelsea Jaycee President Bob Smith said. To qualify for blood giving, a person must be 18 years old or older. Younger donors must have written parental consent. Donors must weigh at least 110 pounds, be in good health, and have waited at least two months since their last donation.

Local Jaycee members have arranged for a variety of energy-producing foods such as orange juice, donuts, and coffee for donors.

Royal Rural Roosters Caroling Friday Night

Listen for the sound of horses and sleigh bells, as the Royal Rural Roosters sing their way through Chelsea on Friday evening, Dec. 15 (tomorrow).

Everyone is invited to participate in the Christmas caroling. Nearly 40 members of the Roosters will load up into two wagons for their swing through town. They will be on Main St. at 8:30 p.m. for a time and then travel to the United Methodist Home to entertain residents there.

Wrestlers Place 5th in Linden Tournament

Chelsea grapplers finished fifth during the Linden tournament Saturday, Dec. 9 with one championship and five placers.

Alan Augustine took the 191-lb. championship, pinning his first opponent and defeating the No. 1 seeded wrestler from Flint Armsworth in an exciting come-from-behind match, 11-9. Augustine placed in the finals when his opponent defaulted when taken to the mat by the Chelsea grappler. Tom Bareis finished second in heavyweight. He scored two first place pins before losing in the finals to a fine heavyweight from Linden. Bareis' record is now 5-1 with four pins.

Finishing third for Chelsea were co-captains Chuck Young and John (Continued on page five)

Boys Swim Team Has Tough Schedule

Leading the race against Montez until they lost a 1-2 finish in diving, Chelsea High school boys swimming team fell in a 98-74 decision to the Class "A" school.

Chelsea set several varsity and freshman records, including the medley relay team of Tom Gaunt, Henri Vanderwaard, Dave Mason, and Mike Mason with a varsity record winning time of 1:52.1.

Tom Gaunt broke the record in the 200 IM with a time of 2:20.3; Dave Mason, in the 100-yard butterfly, had a record-setting time of 1:02.7; and in the 100- and 500-yard freestyle, Phil Hoffman set varsity records with times of 5:53.3 and 5:24.0, respectively.

Winning the 400-yard freestyle relay were Phil Hoffman, Scott Prohaska, Todd Oxner, and Mike Mason in 3:45.9. Tom Gaunt highlighted the meet with a record-breaking 1:01.8 in the 100-yard backstroke.

In diving, Chelsea had two freshmen break records with Craig Wirtz compiling 178 points and Dave Mason earning 174 points.

"The boys team will have a rough time this season with an up-graded schedule that includes five class "A" teams, the class "B" state runners-up, and the second-place team in class "C" competition," according to Coach Larry Reed.

Also on the schedule twice is Willow Run who finished 7th in last year's state meet.

"We could easily lose six or seven meets this year but we must race these teams to prepare ourselves for the state meet," Reed commented.

20 seconds they change places to the amazement of everyone including Washtenaw County Sheriff's Deputy Sergeant Aello who provided the handcuffs with the warning that "I didn't bring the key." The duo also produced two live doves during the performance and displayed several well-executed tricks. Later in the evening, Santa Claus arrived bearing gifts for the children.

annual fund-raising candy cane project which was officially kicked off when several cases of the sugary treat were delivered to the St. Louis school recently. Smiling his approval is Father Fortunato, just left of Scriven. Chelsea Lions will be selling candy canes in the village on the week-ends of Dec. 15-16 and Dec. 22-23.

Legislature To Concentrate On Self

The Michigan Legislature is trying to clean up its own act during the final days of the 1978 session. With less than a month remaining in the session and major items facing the legislative body, leaders are making a last-minute push for more openness, accountability and control over other activities of the elected officials.

The Senate has been struggling for months over a proposed rewrite of rules which govern the membership, employees and expenditures for both travel and equipment.

So far this session, the legislature has been able to enact more stringent controls over expenditures reporting by lobbyists and their hired agents to allow the public to see where outside money is being spent and for what reasons.

Also, the legislature has enacted a series of open meetings acts requiring that all meetings of state and local governments be open to the public, but at the same time, the legislature exempted its own caucuses from the open meetings act.

The proposed rules, besides giving more power to the majority and minority leaders, require a uniform form for reporting of all state expenditures, limit postage expenses during the year and prohibit mass mailings 60 days prior to any election and prohibit expenditures for lavish office remodeling, redecorating and furniture.

Further, the rules call for opening of party caucuses to the public and the press to guarantee the business of the people will be conducted in a public forum.

Even without a specific rule change, however, the pressure for opening party caucuses has been continuing to emerge.

Members of the House of Representatives passed legislation to open legislative party caucuses and sent the bill to the Senate where it was sure to die.

Legislative observers see the House-passed bill as a "cheap shot" as it does not take legislation to open party caucuses. Each party could simply open the caucus, at will.

Senate Republicans took a step forward when they opened to the public and press their most recent leadership caucus. Besides opening that particular caucus, the group also adopted rules to have all future caucuses open unless discussing personnel or party politics.

With the opening of the Republican caucus, the pressure is placed on all the other caucuses to likewise open or be shouldered with the rap of dealing behind closed doors.

Meanwhile, the House of Representatives is working to complete passage of a conflict of interest bill which would require financial disclosure of all members.

Even if it passes the House yet this year, there is a good chance it will not clear the Senate as the session is drawing to a close.

The measure defines and prohibits certain kinds of conduct, requires elected officials to list property ownership interests over $1,000 outside sources of income, and creates a political ethics commission charged with monitoring possible conflicts of interest at state and local levels.

The bill is designed for greater accountability among legislative members.

So the remaining days of the 1978 session are ones that could prove very productive to the overall record the legislature has written.

Not only could these actions show the legislature to be hardworking in governing the people of the state, but also hardworking to govern itself to make it the working body of the people.

Good Things Growing In Michigan

If you're looking for a gift for the person who has everything, choose an imaginative food present this year. Food gifts are practical and cost less than many other items. Nearly 50 commercial crops are grown in Michigan, offering something for almost every taste.

For the busy hostess on your list, an assortment of Michigan cheeses, a basket of fresh Michigan apples or a party pack of Michigan wines would be excellent for the holiday season.

A set of soup mixings with a supply of Michigan soups like celery, tomato, mushroom and bean would be great for warming skiers and snow buffs, and especially impressive if the soups are homemade.

For the family with a fireplace, an old-fashioned corn popper filled with a bag of Michigan popcorn would be ideal.

An ice chest is welcome for spring and summer picnic outings, but fill one now, with Michigan sausages, bologna, meats or dairy products for a useful Christmas.

If mailing gifts to distant members of your family poses a problem, a variety of Michigan jams, jellies, preserves and apple butter can be easily packed for shipment.

Decorated cookie pins are something unusual for kids to make for grandma. Bake sugar cookies. After they cool completely, decorate and apply a decoupage coating a pin to the back and grandma will delight in such a unique handcrafted gift.

There are numerous other food gift ideas from the state where good things are growing that are both unique and practical for Christmas giving.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

If Dr. Yuk Yung's notion catches on, watch out. We'll be back in the space race so quick it'll make those Arab oil bandits dizzy. Yung is a scientist at the California Institute of Technology, and he says Mars may have been covered with oil. If it was, how can we be certain it ain't? Was the question raised at the country store Saturday night when Ed Doolittle reported on Dr. Yung's idea.

The scientist said canals on Mars could be made by rivers of oil, enough to cover the planet 10 yards deep. Zeke Grubb said with that kind of a prize and with this country's appetite we will finger out someone. Zeke said it ain't the oil so much as it is the cars that run on the stuff. We will do without coffee, even sugar, maybe even television, declared Zeke, but the thought of giving up our cars makes grown men cry.

Somebody come up with a claim that there are three cars in this country for ever bathtub, and Zeke allowed it will stay that way unless we figure a way to ride in a bathtub.

The talk on cars got Ed Doolittle started on the Federal Trade Commission's ruling that used car salesmen has got to start telling the truth. Ed was of a mind that would do more harm to the automobile industry than another oil embargo. The way that idea ought to read, Ed said, is ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you walk. This kind of cancer in our economy won't stop with the salesmen, Ed warned, it'll spread to the customer.

The federal people has got to realize, Ed said, that the used car dealer gets them cars used, and the user might of got it used. You force honesty into that kind of delicate balance, and you might as well chop a few links out of man's food chain. A feller drives into a used car lot to talk trade, everybody starts telling the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and what you get is no deal, was Ed's words. And the same goes for the new car dealer trying to reach a trading price. Worse comes to worse, and the first thing you know the car marketers will have to tell the dealer and the dealer tell the customer that road tests showed signs of trouble with the steering. You got that kind of talk up front, Ed said, and you do away with recalls altogether, cause you do away with sales.

Clem Webster saw that Ed was wound too tight, so he broke into report news to cheer about. Holding up his clippings like they were a royal flush, Clem announced that not only has Donald Duck gone to work for the Department of Housing and Urban Development at a handsome salary of $99,999 a year, but the grand old Smithsonian Institution has honored Teddy Bear on his 70th birthday. If that ain't enough to wake up the spirit of America, Clem said, what about the White House reception the other week for one Mickey Mouse in honor of him turning 50?

It ain't surprising that nobody smiled when convicts in Washington State Pen hired a $100-a-day consultant to "improve their public image." There's never a dull day, declared Clem.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Maximize Winter Jacket Wearability With Proper Care

So, you've bought a new ski jacket or parka to ward off the approaching winter chill. To keep that garment "winterized," follow its label care instructions, says Joanne Thurber, Michigan State Extension specialist in clothing and textiles. She offers a few additional upkeep tips to help maximize wearability.

To preserve the exterior nylon jacket shell, keep it away from sources of high heat, such as campfires, hot dryers, or hot irons.

Before machine-washing the jacket, close hook and eye fasteners to prevent their snagging the material. If a tear does occur, repair it immediately.

When washing a polyester-filled jacket, add a fabric softener to help reduce static electricity, but do not use bleach. For machine washing, front-loading equipment is often recommended. A top-loading machine's agitator can break up the polyester batting, thus reducing the insulating ability of the material.

Polyester winter jackets should be machine dried at a low heat setting—high heat can also damage the insulating ability of the fiber.

A mild soap and fabric softener are also recommended for washing down garments. Enzyme, phosphate and bleach detergents will harm down insulation. So will high heat.

Dissolve the soap in the water before inserting the down jacket. A couple of bath towels can be added to balance the load. These can also be used during machine drying to absorb moisture.

Drying a down jacket takes several days and consists of several machine dryings of 30 minutes each. After each drying period, it's necessary to pull apart the down clumps to restore the garment's fluffiness. Matted down has less insulating ability than down filled with air.

Both polyester and down outerwear can be hand-washed and line-dried. Be sure when hanging a jacket out to dry that there is no stress on any part of the garment.

Proper care and wear will extend the life of your jacket and, more importantly, maintain its insulating function.

The world's most advanced medical information system for birth defects has been developed by The National Foundation - March of Dimes, Tufts-New England Medical Center, and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The computer contains information on more than 1,000 birth defects.

Veterans Council To Meet Monday

The annual hospital party and nominations for the Soldiers Relief Commission will be items of discussion during the Washtenaw County Council of Veterans regular meeting on Monday, Dec. 18.

Officers and delegates will meet at 8 p.m. at the Dexter American Legion Post No. 557, 8225 Dexter-Chelsea Rd., Dexter. Executive committee meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. that evening.

All posts are required to advise Mike DuRussell on refreshments or donations that will be made for the Jan. 29 hospital party.

Because Dwayne Davis will not be available for re-appointment as commissioner to the Soldiers Relief Commission, appointees' names will be taken. Also to be discussed at the meeting is the annual dinner meeting report.

LEGISLATIVE LOG

An Overview of Action on Bills
In the Michigan Legislature
During Week of Dec. 4-8

In the Senate...

The traditional push to complete action on all major bills prior to the legislature's scheduled adjournment for the year next week culminated in Senate approval of a number of House-passed bills. Given a favorable nod by the Senate, and sent on to the Governor for his signature, were measures to: streamline the state's Probate Code; create a permanent Office of Criminal Justice Programs; permit truck-tractor and semi-trailer combinations to be operated at lengths of 60 feet; increase penalties for violations of county park rules and allow work in a cleanup program as an alternative to jail; and promote and regulate vanpooling.

In addition, the Upper Chamber passed, and sent back to the House for concurrence in Senate amendments, bills which would: allow tax credits for the installation of alternative energy conversion devices; establish a year-round vehicle registration system; extend from one to three years the probationary period for new drivers; permit local units of government to create port development authorities; allow van owners to purchase personalized license plates; and prohibit employers from secretly monitoring employees' telephone calls.

The Senate also approved, and sent to the House for review, a number of Senate-initiated measures, including bills to: provide refunds of increased license plate fees; pending certification of petitions aimed at blocking those increases; increase marriage license fees from $5 to $25; and implement collective bargaining rights for State Police troopers and sergeants. A bill banning the sale of decorative gas lamps was defeated, but will be reconsidered next week, along with a measure to prohibit the sale of appliances which require more than three pilot lights for operation.

Reported from Senate committees this week were House-passed measures to: ratify the proposed U. S. Constitutional amendment to allow Congressional representation for the District of Columbia; establish a home weatherization program to help low-income families pay for installing insulation in their houses; and create a small business development division within the State Department of Commerce.

In the House...

The House joined with the Senate this week in passing the controversial bill to halt state payments for Medicaid abortions, except in cases where another's life was in danger. In addition, a separate Medicaid budget, appropriating some $320.3 million for low-income and elderly health care services during the remainder of this fiscal year, was passed by the House and sent to the Senate. That appropriations bill would allow a portion of such funds to be used for welfare abortions, however. The previous bill was sent to the Governor's desk where it faces a certain veto.

Also passed by the House this week, and sent to the Senate for its review, were bills to: legalize the manufacture and use of the controversial anti-cancer drug, Laetrile; provide civil fines of up to $25 for persons under 21 who possess alcohol; increase the marine fuel tax; authorize a tax on low grade iron ore; and exempt from voter-approval requirements all bonding projects approved prior to passage of the Headlee Tax Limitation Amendment. In addition, the House gave its stamp of approval to two major Senate-passed measures which would require overtime pay for firefighters who work more than 54 hours per week and double married couples' income tax deductions for political contributions.

House members again defeated two controversial bills this week, rejecting measures which would have decriminalized the possession and use of small amounts of marijuana and allowed restaurants to offer alcoholic beverages starting at 10 a.m. on Sundays.

House committees reported to the full House for debate next week bills to: establish a full employment plan in Michigan; increase salaries for some top state department heads; set up a three-year pilot job training program for widows and divorcees; allow refunds of increased license plate fees; provide state retirement credit for military service; increase licensing fees for most professions; and permit state tax credits for income taxes paid to Canada.

From the Governor...

Governor Milliken signed into law this week the major Nursing Home Reform Act which is designed to ensure that Michigan nursing homes operate honestly and provide decent care for their residents.

Also linked by the Governor this week were bills to: restructure the Department of State Highways and Transportation and permit gubernatorial appointment of its director; change the name of that department to the Department of Transportation; authorize counties to establish county officer compensation commissions to set pay rates for county officials; permit the issuance of sales and use tax exemption certificates for the purchase and installation of pollution control devices for factories and Bart Bauer and Tony Wisniewski both finished fourth. Freshman Brian Cooper came up with his first victory win by scoring a pin in consolation.

Other freshmen who wrestled well but did not place were Tim Pennington, Rick Poljan, and Steve Grau.

Final team standings were Fenton, 173½; Oscoda, 145; Holly, 145; Lake Fenton, 80; Chelsea, 79; Oxford, 67½; Fliht Arnsworth, 68; and Lakeland, 18½.

power plants; and expand the eligibility requirements to qualify under the state's Veterans Bonus program.

Early in the week, the Governor hosted the first International Conference on Hazardous Materials Management. The conference was held to co-ordinate and improve state and Canadian efforts in handling and disposing of hazardous materials in both routine and emergency situations.

Kathi Aron Appears
In 'Wizard of Oz'
Production at EMU

Kathi Aron, daughter of Robert LaFave, 50 North Territorial Rd., played a "Winkie" in Eastern Michigan University's production, "The Wonderful Wizard of Oz," which ran Dec. 8-10 in Eastern's Quirk Auditorium.

The senior, an education major, joined a host of other players in the production, adapted for the stage from L. Frank Baum's book by Virginia Koste, and produced by the 15-year-old Theater of the Young organization.

Dana Corp. Hosts
Christmas Party
For Children

Making Christmas an even happier occasion for their employees is what the annual Dana Corp. Christmas party is all about, and judging from the children's faces, it works very well indeed.

More than 200 children and 100 employees joined Saturday afternoon, Dec. 2 at the Union Hall on S. Main St. for Dana's 7th annual party.

Highlights of the affair were the drawing of two names for brand new bicycles and a visit from Santa Claus who listened attentively to the children's Christmas wishes.

For some of the children, their very hopes were answered that afternoon as Dana presented gifts of radios, dolls, and toys to each child.

Santa, loaded with treats for the children will stroll through Chelsea's downtown business district

Chelsea had taken an 8-6 lead in the first quarter with Novi turning that around by half-time, 22-20. Bullpups put eight points on the board during the third period to Novi's 10 while the final quarter saw Novi add 18 tallies to Chelsea's 14.

Leading scorers for Chelsea were Todd Sprague, Toby Boyd, and Darrow Keezer, each with eight. John Welton added six; Mike Bareis, four; and two each for Bob Trevino, Ross Murphy, Geoff Shaw, and Doug Henson.

Keezer contributed 15 rebounds; Boyd, six; and Shaw, three.

In their best defensive game of the season, Chelsea took a 47-38 decision from Stockbridge on Monday, Dec. 11.

"Out shooting average of 41 percent and an excellent free throw percentage of 68 were the keys to the victory," Tallman said. Darrow Keezer ran up 13 points followed by John Welton with 11; Geoff Shaw, six; Toby Boyd, six; Mike Bareis, four; Bob Trevino, three; and two each by Todd Sprague and Doug Henson. Leading rebounders were Boyd with 11 and Keezer with eight. Also playing a fine game were Dave Peterson and Ross Murphy.

Special Ed Students Get Early Christmas

It came upon one mid-day morning when the Chelsea Middle school Special Education students received an early Christmas package. The contents from a warm fellow friend, Richard Porter, consisted of 20 tickets to the theater production of "Annie" at the Detroit Fisher Theater. A Christmas card and recording of the musical were also enclosed. The date is set for Dec. 21.

Pat's Attic Antique, Gift Shop Opens

Things are looking up for Patty Shadoan of Manchester who opened her "Pat's Attic" above Walt's Barber Shop at 101 S. Main St., Tuesday, Dec. 12.

The spacious rooms on the second floor, have been converted from dust collectors to showcases of Mrs. Shadoan's gift and antique collections, just in time for the discerning Christmas shopper looking for that unusual, unique gift.

Among the items for sale, gathered from farm homes, auctions, and wholesalers in Ohio, Illinois, Georgia, and Michigan, are beautifully hand-stitched bed quilts, beveled glass mirrors, books, solid-wood bed frames, tables, chairs, and a variety of authentic, pre-plastic, household implements.

Mrs. Shadoan, an antique buff for years, has spent the past three months traveling the mid-western states preparing for the opening. "It took a little longer than anticipated, but I have a solid inventory which will be continuously replenished," she commented.

In addition to the antiques, one room has been devoted to contemporary gift items and curiosities. Pat's Attic will be open Monday through Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m.

Americans of all ages, more than 60,000 deaths occur annually as a result of birth defects.

The Middle school and High school students will be attending chaperoned by Lynn Zander, Doug and Nancy Cooper, Maria Sebu, and Jon Pepper.

Lynn Zander, school resource teacher, flipped through the yellow pages in the hopes of contacting a suitable restaurant willing to donate 20 dinners for the occasion.

Lynn claims it was not easy to find a restaurant willing to do such a favor when business is plentiful. The kind and generous heart of Mr. Balooly, owner of Topinkas on the Boulevard, came through and he is going out of his way to accommodate the students in his fine restaurant.

The students are topsy-turvy with excitement! Complementing this event, the students are studying the play, interpreting the music, and learning the history surrounding World War I and the depression. Topinkas' manager was thoughtful enough to relate the menu so as to incorporate it into the home economics class.

Beach Middle school students enrolled in history, home economics, and music are writing reports for these classes.

Lynn said "during the interpretation of the musical score, the students uncovered two important themes. The lead character, Annie, sings "Tomorrow," with the conviction never to give up on life. The character, Warbucks, rejoices in his newly found joy in sharing with others. What a beautiful philosophy on life to unveil during this holiday season of the year!"

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER

REALTOR

GETTING STARTED

Although 76% of newly married couples start out by living in rental housing (primarily apartments), some thought should be given to the other side of the coin — home ownership. Sometimes the solution is buying low-cost income property, a duplex for example. The down payment requirement is usually comparable to a single-family residence, but half the property is supplying income from rental, which helps in making the payments. Upkeep is generally higher, and there are some added responsibilities of ownership.

Before making your first housing decision, why not consult with a Realtor and have him show you some possibilities?

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea, Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

In a few years, however, it may be possible to use both sides of the duplex for income

JV Cagers Defeat Brighton, South Lyon

Chelsea junior varsity basketball squad triumphed in two SEC games last week-end, dousing a red hot Brighton, 61-45 on Friday, Dec. 8, and returning Saturday to defeat South Lyon, 43-27.

Hot on the tails of a smoking Brighton team, Chelsea trailed by two points at half-time, 27-29. Third quarter action saw the Bulldogs' defense holding Brighton to a humble three points while the offense chalked up 14 tallies to take the lead, 41-32. During the final eight minutes, Chelsea collected 20 points to Brighton's 13 for the win.

From the floor, Chelsea's percentage was a fine 44, completing 27 out of 61 attempts. In foul shots they made seven out of 13 for 54 percent.

Leading scorer was Mike Wade with 14 followed closely by Jon Riemenschneider with 13. Sean Peterson contributed eight as did Karl Albrecht. Carl Simpson netted seven; Chris Heaton, four; two each by Carl Schwarze, Mike Lazarz, and Mark Steinaway; and Ken Hopkins chipped in one.

Albrecht hustled for 13 rebounds; Heaton, six; Riemenschneider, six; Mike Wade, four; Sean Peterson, three, and Simpson, three. Albrecht added five steals and five blocked shots. Sean Peterson, Carl Simpson, and Chris Heaton all contributed three steals while Wade and Riemenschneider added three assists.

Bringing their SEC record to 2-1, Chelsea took a 43-27 decision from the South Lyon Lions taking an early first quarter lead of 9-5 and holding on throughout the game. A super Bulldog defense limited the Lions to seven field goals out of 43 tries for 16 percent.

Karl Albrecht starred in the Saturday game, leading with 18 points, 18 rebounds, four steals, and five blocked shots.

Also scoring for Chelsea were Chris Heaton with five; Simpson five; Jeff Beaver, three; Mark Steinaway, three; Jeff Price, two; Sean Peterson, two; Mike Wade, two; Jon Riemenschneider, two; and Mike Lazarz, one.

In field goals, Chelsea pulled 33 percent and 57 percent in foul shots.

Jon Riemenschneider completed seven rebounds; Chris Heaton, five; Sean Peterson, Mike Wade, and Mike Lazarz all had three. Lazarz and Riemenschneider both added two steals.

Jaycees Host State President

Bob Vining, president of the Michigan Jaycees, was guest speaker at the Chelsea annual Jaycee and Auxiliary Christmas dinner recently.

Vining discussed the need and significance of the Jaycee organization to the community and also of the importance of the National Burns Institute.

Three state awards were presented to local officers by Vining. Bob Meyer received first place in chapter management; Morgan Rowe, first place in committee action; and Jerry Martell, honorable mention in individual development.

Special guests at the meeting were Shirley Vining; Terry Walters, Chaplain of the Michigan Jaycees who gave the invocation; Sandie Kind, District No. 28 state vice-president and her husband, Stan; and Paul Staley and his wife, Sue, Jaycee District directors.

FULL HOUSE: More than 3,000 spectators and participants came to the Charles S. Cameron Pool last Saturday for the second annual Super 6 League Fall Swimming Championship. Nearly 800 swimmers participated in 2,400 events with teams from Milan, Plymouth, Ypsilanti, Belleville, and Willow Run. "It was possibly the largest athletic event in Chelsea's history and its smooth operation is attributed to the 160 hours of advance preparation put in by members of the Chelsea Aquatic Club," Coach Larry Reed commented. Chelsea swamped its competitors, including arch rival Milan, winner of four state high school championships in the past 10 years. Bulldogs collected 1,671 points; Milan, 1,393½; Plymouth, 1,031; Ypsilanti, 1018; Belleville 735½; and Willow Run, 528.

SUPER 6 ACTION: 800 members of six area swim clubs converged at the Charles S. Cameron Pool Saturday, Dec. 9 for the second annual fall championship competition. Chelsea Aquatic Club outdistanced its nearest contender, Milan, by almost 300 points to take the title, breaking several club and league records along the way.

G. Cameron Cited By DNR For Lifesaving

George L. Cameron was presented with a special employee recognition award Thursday, Dec. 7, for his prompt, effective lifesaving of a 14-year-old Taylor boy last July.

Cameron, a Michigan Department of Natural Resources ranger stationed near Tahquamenon Falls, was honored along with eight other employees, at a dinner meeting in Lansing. Howard A. Tanner, director of the DNR, presented the awards. Cameron is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Cameron.

According to the citation, Cameron was called by Donald Bauer of South Milwaukee, Wis., who was camping in the area, to a bend in the Tahquamenon River where Troy Guffey had been caught by a swift current and appeared to be drowning.

Both Cameron and Bauer swam to Guffey and assisted him to shore. Guffey was conscious and did not require resuscitation. Guffey, the citation said, had been wading in the river when he stepped into a deep hole and lost his balance in the current. The Tahquamenon River, at that bend, is about 60-yards wide and approximately 10 feet deep.

Attending the recognition dinner were Cameron's wife, Karen and son Gabriel, and his parents.

Uninjured in Monday Collision

Both deer and driver emerged uninjured from an accident in which a Chelsea man struck the animal on Island Lake Rd. Monday evening, Dec. 11, according to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

Deputies said Robert Maynard, 58, of 6100 Stoffer Rd., Chelsea, was westbound on Island Lake Rd., 200 feet west of the Milford intersection, when the deer ran out in front of his car and was struck. Although struck in the hindquarters, it was reported the animal ran away immediately after the collision. Damage to the Huston vehicle was slight, deputies said.

There's plenty of outdoor fun at Kensington Metropark near Lake Rd., 200 feet west of the Milford intersection.

Your Chelsea Funeral Home with the "HOME" like atmosphere
By Donald A. Cole

Did you ever consider how people in general have different strengths? In fact, have you ever considered what your greatest strength may be?

Your physical strength, for example, does not necessarily mean bulging biceps or mighty muscles. It means being blessed with good health and physical stamina to enable you to work, to earn a living. . . . Mental strength is having the brain power to work up to our physical capacity. . . . Moral strength develops a strong sense of responsibility and accountability for what we do, think and say. It keeps us aware of the difference between freedom and license.

Most important of all is spiritual strength. It keeps us sensitive to a purpose and reason beyond our limited, worldly concerns. It is religious belief that keeps us hopeful and expectant rather than frustrated and discouraged. Is it not obvious spiritual strength SHOULD be our greatest strength?

Good Things Growing In Michigan

Hot Michigan bean soup, flavored with tidbits of ham, is a warm taste for a snowy evening—from the state where good things are growing, the Bean Capital of the world.

Michigan's Thumb and Saginaw valley areas produce nearly 99 percent of all navy beans and one-third of all varieties of edible beans harvested in the nation, including kidney, cranberry, pinto and black.

An estimated 370 million pounds of dry beans will be harvested this year from 545,000 acres, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture, and will be shipped as far as Africa, the Near and Far East, South America and Europe.

Each season, bean growers gamble on weather conditions. Too much or too little rain can hurt the crop, particularly at critical stages of development. Wet weather in fall may also extend harvest into October.

Bean seeds should be tested for diseases before planting begins in May. Since 1928, state law requires every pound of Michigan grown beans to be inspected and graded by a state licensed inspector under supervision of MDA.

Beans are an excellent economical source of protein, iron, thiamine, riboflavin and two of the B vitamins.

When shopping, look for beans natural in color, whole and uniform in size. Dry beans will keep for a couple of years if stored properly in a cool dry dark area, in a bag or can with a tight cover that shuts out dust, insects and mice.

For a guided tour of Michigan's bean region, contact the Michigan Department of Agriculture for a free copy of "Cook's Tour," which includes 12 crop tours around the state. Write MDA, Information and Education division, P.O. Box 30017, Lansing 48909.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carl Lahrman

Diane Ruhlig, William Lahrman Wed in Concordia Chapel

Diane Ruhlig became the bride of William Lahrman in a double-ring ceremony on Friday, Nov. 24 at 4:30 p.m. in the chapel of the Holy Trinity at Concordia College.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ruhlig, Jr., of Island Lake Rd. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Beatrice Morgan of Columbia City, Ind., and Mr. Dale Lahrman of Angola, Ind.

The Rev. Eugene Krentz read the service. Dallas Dubke, the bride's cousin, was the soloist and Tom Fischer served as organist. The bride's father gave her hand in marriage.

Her bridal gown was made of silk organza with rose point lace and trimmed with accordin pleats. It was an A-line style with an empire waist and a camelot neckline. The gown had long bishop sleeves and was finished off with a chapel train. A rosepoint lace trimmed silk illusion fingertip veil fell from a camelot cap. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Nancy Ruhlig was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Ellie Morcom of Chelsea; Susie Themer of Louisville, Ky.; Amy Ruhlig of Dexter, sister-in-law of the bride; and Eileen Lahrman of Ft. Wayne, Ind., sister of the bridegroom. They wore matching dresses of spice-colored polyester with chiffon capes. They carried baskets of fall colored daisies and wore matching flowers in their hair. Krissy Ruhlig, cousin of the bride, of Carleton attended as flower girl. Her dress matched the others in color as did her flowers. Ronald Rast of Columbia City, Ind., was the best man and ushers were Phil Thomas of Flint; Dan Lahrman of Columbia City, Ind., brother of the bridegroom; and Dan and Martin Ruhlig of Dexter, brothers of the bride. Scott Rutledge of Royal Oak, cousin of the bride, carried the rings to the altar on a white lace-covered satin pillow.

The bride's mother was dressed in a spice polyester and lace dress while the bridegroom's mother was in beige and gold polyester. They each had a wrist corsage of miniature roses centered with a garde-nia.

Four hundred friends and relatives attended the wedding reception held at Roma Hall. Julie Savary of Dexter attended the guest book at the reception.

After the honeymoon to Niagara Falls and the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania, the couple will reside at 12296 Island Lake Rd. The bridegroom attends Concordia College, and after graduation in May, the couple will move to Fort Wayne, Ind.

World Grain Production

World grain production is expected to be up about 4 percent in 1978-79 from the previous year. The increase is likely to be larger than world utilization, so some build-up in world grain stocks is anticipated. The U.S. probably will continue to hold at least two-fifths of world wheat and coarse grain stocks.

Girl Scouts Adopt Re-Designed Emblem

The new emblem for the 67-year-old, 3 million-member Girl Scout movement in the United States was introduced at the 41st National Convention of the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. in Denver.

The emblem is a redesign of the trefoil, a three-leaf clover shape used in various adaptations by Girl Guides and Girl Scouts in almost 100 countries around the world. It replaces a design patented by the U.S. Girl Scouts in 1914.

"We believe it is important," said Frances Bauer, president of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, "to call attention to the distinctive, contemporary identity of Girl Scouting. The new emblem is designed to do this."

Featuring a stylized silhouette treatment of girls' faces in profile, the trefoil is accompanied by the words "Girl Scouts" in a contemporary typeface. When rendered in color, the trefoil is the traditional Girl Scout green; the words are in blue, the color of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts.

The design was commissioned by Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. from Saul Bass-Herb Yager & Associates, internationally known specialists in visual communications.

"The emblem reflects both the proud heritage of the Girl Scouts and its new position in a changing world of youth," said Ms. Bauer.

Also attending the convention was Ann Arbor resident, Virginia Nordby, who was elected to a three-year term on the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. National Board of Directors.

Mrs. Nordby, policy co-ordinator with the Office of the Vice President of Academic Affairs at the University of Michigan, said, "The new emblem represents what Girl Scouting is today—on the move."

Mrs. Nordby, who was a member of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council's Board of Directors from 1974-77, was recently appointed by Gov. William Milliken to the Michigan Women's Conference, a state agency dealing with women's concerns.

Author of numerous articles on the status of women, and women in law, Mrs. Nordby said, "I have always been concerned with the legal and educational rights of women. Because of this concern, I see Girl Scouting as a vital force in the lives of today's girls."

Also attending this triennial convention as delegates were Bert Hinz, 262 Harrison, Chelsea; and Nancy Krohn, 905 Robin, Ann Arbor.

Visitors to the convention were Virginia Castor, 2217 Independence, Ann Arbor; Connie Gunther, 9180 Dexter-Chelsea Rd., Dexter; Gail Slusser and Jo Stevens, 19 N. Hamilton, Ypsilanti; Connie and Jim Taylor and their daughter Stephanie, 309 Highlake, Ann Arbor; Linda Simmons, 222 Hibbard, Manchester.

Approximately 5,000 attended the national convention in Colorado.

Wrestlers Pinned With 3 Quick Losses

A young, inexperienced Chelsea wrestling team suffered a triad of losses recently, falling to a tough Columbia Central and Michigan Center in a dual meet on Tuesday, Dec. 5, and a close match with Novi on Thursday, 33-33.

"Our inexperience really showed as we gave up five falls to Columbia and came out on the short side of the 48-17 decision," Coach Richard Bareis commented. In the first of two contests on Tuesday, Chelsea produced winners in Tony Wisniewski, 16-5; Chuck Young, 14-4; John Whitaker, 2-0; and Tom Bareis with a pin victory.

Chelsea next faced Michigan Center and gave up six falls and forfeited one weight in the 44-35 loss. Bulldog winners were Tony Wisniewski with a draw; Chuck Young, a fall; John Whitaker, a decision; Bart Bauer, a fall; Alan Augustine, a forfeit; and Tom Bareis, a fall.

"We are young and we are going to have a tough time until we can start avoiding some of the easy points we are giving. Our wrestlers are working hard and I feel in the near future we will be able to present a fairly tough line-up at duals," Bareis said.

On Thursday, Chelsea came within two points of a victory over Novi. Tim Pennington wrestled at 88 lbs. and put up a good fight. At 105 lbs., Tony Wisniewski scored a 15-0 decision while Bob Beeman, at 112 lbs. came up with his first victory of the year with a fall in the third period.

Other Bulldog winners included Chuck Young with a 10-0 decision at 132 lbs.; John Whitaker, 8-0 at 145 lbs.; Bart Bauer had a 19 second fall victory at 155 lbs.; and Tom Bareis received a forfeit victory.

Jim Cobb at 119 lbs. and Steve Grau at 126 lbs. lost by falls as did Brian Cooper at 138 lbs. Rick

Festival of Lessons, Carols Well Received

An opportunity for serious as well as pleasurable reflection on the Advent-Christmas season received wide-spread enthusiasm as more than 300 persons attended the second annual Festival of Lessons and Carols last Sunday.

This year the event was held at the First United Methodist church with nine area pastors giving the readings interspersed with songs, carols and music.

Each reading focused on the period of Christ's birth through His coming. Pastors reading were the Rev. Merle Bradley of the Chelsea Free Methodist Fellowship; the Rev. Carl Schwarm of the Congregational church; the Rev. Jerrold Beaumont of St. Barnabas Episcopal church; the Rev. R. J. Ratzlaff of St. Paul United Church of Christ; the Rev. John Elliott of North Lake United Methodist church; the Rev. John Morris of Zion Lutheran church; the Rev. Thode Thodeson of the Chelsea Baptist church; the Rev. Fr. Philip Dupuis of St. Mary Catholic church; and the Rev. Marvin McCallum of the First United Methodist church.

Solists for the afternoon festival were Mrs. Jan Pratt, Beverly Firestone, June Krebs and Mrs. Patricia Settles who stepped in for Susan Beaumont, who had developed laryngitis.

Mrs. Carol Morris directed the Zion Lutheran church Senior Choir; Mary Olney arranged the combined Children's Choir; and Joel Beam directed the combined Adult Choir.

In their first major appearance since the acquisition of the memorial hand bells, the First United Methodist Youth Hand Bell Choir performed under the leadership of Mrs. June Warren. Karey Johnson directed the Chelsea High School senior string orchestra.

Mrs. Caroline Aborgast presented a reading. The Men's Club of the host church were ushers while Virginia Schaffer managed the coffee and punch hour following the event.

According to the Rev. Marvin McCallum, chairman of the festival which was sponsored by the Chelsea Ministerial Fellowship, the response was enthusiastic and plans will be made for a third festival next year.

Christmas Program Slated At North Sharon Church

The program will be at 10 a.m. on Sunday, Dec. 17 and will include nearly 200 children from Jackson, Ann Arbor, Chelsea, Grass Lake, Manchester, and Michigan Center.

Director of this special Christmas presentation is Mrs. Lawrence McAtee of Grass Lake. She will be assisted by Mrs. Mattie Craft, Mrs. Roberta Kemp, Mrs. Ricky Lantis, Gaylord Moore, and Assistant Pastor Tom Butterfield. This one-hour presentation will feature old-fashioned Christmas music and Scripture readings by the children.

Cross-Country Skiing Good at Hudson Mills

Hudson Mills Metropark, located northwest of Dexter has excellent terrain for cross-country skiing.

This is the primary winter attraction at the park and there are no specially developed trails; however, the scenic qualities of the park make it a wonderful spot for this fast-growing sport.

The nature trail is open year-round for self-guided hikes. Hudson Mills Metropark is an excellent spot for winter photography, especially at the rapids near the North Territorial Road bridge or at other scenic locations within the park.

Park hours are 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. For information contact Hudson Mills Metropark, 8801 North Territorial Rd., Dexter, phone 428-8211.

Vehicle entry permits (Annual: regular, $5, senior citizen, $1, or Daily, $1) are required year-round.

Federal expenditures for Vietnam era veterans have totaled more than $40 billion. This includes more than $25 billion for GI Bill education and training assistance and some $3 billion for VA hospital and medical care.

Jolly Your 'Holly' Day Season in Mich.

'Tis the season . . . and Michigan is ready with a month of happy holidaying things to do, according to the Michigan Travel Bureau's Calendar of Travel Events.

You can even put a little fun in your Christmas shopping and discover special treasures made with "tender loving care" at the Christmas Craft Bazaar, Dec. 1, Alma; Christmas Craft and Hobby Show, Dec. 1-2, Grand Haven; Holly Berry Fair, Dec. 2, Caseville; and the Christmas Craft Show, Dec. 9-17, Artillery Armory, Oak Park.

Get a glimpse of "Christmas Around the World" depicted by two delightful displays at Menominee (Dec. 1-3), and Grand Haven (Dec. 7-30). Christmas trees decorated in keeping with the customs of various countries will be exhibited in the Community Center at Grand Haven and in the County Museum in Menominee. Music, dancing and gifts for sale will be added attractions at Menominee.

The Christmas Walk at Meadowbrook Hall is a stroll through a floral wonderland created by area florists. The stately, 100-room mansion is located on the Oakland University campus at Rochester and the Walk continues through Dec. 3. There is an admission charge.

Christmas in Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum begins Dec. 2 and continues through Dec. 31. Village buildings are decorated in character with their period in American history, yuletide music and enticing aromas of holiday cookery fill the air.

Another chapter of the way it was at Christmas comes to life during Christmas in The Delano Homestead, Nature Center, Kalamazoo, Dec. 10 and 17. Living history demonstrations related to our pioneers' Christmas activities will highlight the event.

Take a different, somewhat awe-inspiring look at Christmas, weekends, through Dec. 24, at Abrams Planetarium, East Lansing. The "Star of Wonder" presentation is a traditional favorite concerning the astronomical possibilities of that guiding star of long ago.

Sugar plums and elves, toy shops and candy canes are only a small sampling of what's in store for children of all ages who visit magical "Fantasyland," Dec. 1-24, Kennedy Memorial Center, Lincoln Park. More enchanting prevails Dec. 9-21, at the Christmas Carnival, Cobo Hall, Detroit. A giant 6-foot Santa in a wooden airplane surrounded by parachuting elves will be the featured attraction at this year's Carnival along with perennial favorites such as the giant snowball throw and Santa's castle.

Center Dec. 1-3, with the 1979 edition of "Holiday on Ice."

That Christmas feeling is evident in a variety of other events and activities scheduled for Dec. To mention just a few: The Grand Ledge, Holiday Home Tour, Dec. 2; Old-Fashioned Christmas Parade, Rochester, Dec. 3; Christmas Flower Show, Belle Isle, Detroit, Dec. 11; and Noel Night at the Cultural Center, Detroit, Dec. 13.

Snow oriented activities include: Sled Dog Races, Atlantic Mine, Dec. 30-31; Wendell Treep Memorial Ski Races, Pine Mountain, Dec. 16-17; 150 Snowmobile Race, Gladwin, Dec. 29-31; and the Mardi Gras Winter Festival, Harrison, Dec. 28-31.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

The Bible God's light from heaven points out the different designations of the New Testament church. The church is called: the church which is his body (Eph. 1:22, 23; 4:4); the church of the first-born (Heb. 12:23); The church of the Lord (Acts 20:28); the body of Christ (I Cor. 12:27); the house of God; which is the church of the living God. (I Tim. 3:15); the church of Christ because there were churches of Christ (Rom. 16:16). The congregations were called churches (I Cor. 16:1); churches of God (I Thess. 2:14); churches of Christ (Rom. 16:16); all the different congregations of Galatia were spoken of as churches. These different designations describe the New Testament church.

THANK YOU

To the Contributors, Supporters, and Voters:
For your help in electing me Probate Judge.
To my campaign opponent, Maxine Virtue:
For a vigorous and dignified campaign worthy of the office.

P.S. Because of the confusing reports in The Ann Arbor News on the Probate Judge election results, I thought my supporters should know that the final certified count by the Board of Canvassers showed we won by a margin of 1,014 votes:

Loren W. Campbell 30,832
Maxine Virtue 29,818

HOW FAR IS TOO FAR?

You've gone too far by far when you drive all the way into Detroit looking for a new car bargain. Too far is taking all day for service when a few hours is all it should take. Too far is having to stop to eat lunch when you're shopping for a used car. Too far is driving to Detroit when you could go to Rampy Chevrolet in Ann Arbor.

Somehow a lot of people have gotten the idea that just because they make cars in Detroit, it's the best place to buy one. Not so.

Rampy has always been competitive in pricing both his new and used cars. That's how he got to be the biggest dealership in Washtenaw County. And at Rampy, the sale is only the beginning of a mutually satisfactory relationship. Service is a big part of his business. At Rampy, service is second to none. Rampy has hired top professionals and given them the best possible equipment to both diagnose and fix your car's problems expertly and efficiently.

How far is too far? The distance it takes to go anywhere but Rampy Chevrolet.

Rampy doesn't just sell cars, he sells service.

TODAY'S INVESTOR

Q. According to a friend of mine, there are a group of stocks connected with the auto industry that are doing very well. He says they have been growing at a rate much faster than the auto industry, and that his shares have appreciated quite substantially. He says these are the companies that distribute automotive repair parts. Is he right and do you think this industry is a good one to invest in?

A. Your friend is right. There are a number of companies in this business and most of them have done very well. They have made a business of buying auto replacement parts from the manufacturers and getting them the right place at the right time. In many cases, the manufacturers are the ones who made the parts for the original car. In many cases, they package these parts under their own label. Their function is to warehouse and distribute these parts to service shops, repairmen, and other retailers so the parts are readily available to the person who needs them when he needs them.

The company your friend owns, Genuine Parts, is the biggest company in that field and has had an excellent record.

There are a number of factors which give this industry some special advantages. The number of automobiles on the road is growing steadily. After a car is about three years old, it begins to need replacement parts. Since many cars remain on the road until they are ten or more years old, the greater part of the cars are a market.

Inflation and other high costs are causing cars to be kept longer and this has enlarged the replacement part market. Also, cars are tending to be driven more miles, so a five-year-old car today is likely to have more miles on it than a five-year-old car would have had say in 1976.

Automobiles are also more complex today. There are easily a thousand more parts on a car today than there were ten years ago. Some of this is due to more accessories being on cars and to the greater complexity of those items. A great deal is due to equipment such as safety and pollution equipment mandated by the government. But, these new items also wear out and have to be replaced. Autos, because they are now the only transportation of so many people, have to be repaired promptly when something goes wrong.

I'm sending you a copy of the December Better Investing which has a detailed story in it about this industry and one of the smaller units, Republic Automotive Parts. That company also has had a good record and seems to be quite favorably priced at this time. General Automotive Parts is another good company in this business.

Mr. O'Hara welcomes your questions, but will answer them only through this column. Having trouble paying your electric bill?

Help us help you.

All of us, of course, must pay for the goods and services we use. From time to time, many of us may have difficulties making those payments—due to illness, loss of employment, an accident or a disability.

If this happens to you, let Detroit Edison know. Detroit Edison has programs to help you if you're having problems with electric bills and to help you avoid overdue bills in the future. The programs are designed to assure uninterrupted electric service.

You can help Detroit Edison help you by getting in touch as soon as possible—by mail, by telephone or by stopping in at any Detroit Edison Customer Office.

Here are Detroit Edison Programs to help when your bill is overdue:

Bill Payment Counseling

Company Customer Representatives will offer advice and assistance and suggest ways to obtain aid in paying Edison bills through public assistance programs such as social service or welfare agencies, if needed. So call or stop in at any Customer Office and talk things over.

Payment Plans

If an extra-large overdue bill seems impossible to pay, don't despair. Payment plans can be tailored to fit your situation and clear things up.

These Detroit Edison Programs can help you avoid problems arising from overdue bills:

Double Notice Protection Plan

When you sign up for this plan, if your overdue bill could result in a service shutoff then a friend, relative or community agency is notified so they can remind you that your bill must be paid, or pay it for you. This plan is especially helpful for the elderly, the sick, the shut-in or persons who spend extended periods of time away from home.

Senior Citizen Rate

If you are 65 years or older and the head of a household, this new rate can help lower your electric bills if you use less than 548 kilowatt-hours a month—848 kilowatt-hours or less if you have controlled electric water heating combined on your regular meter. If you want more information, call or stop in at any Customer Office so that a Customer Representative can review this new program with you.

Wise Use of Electricity

Detroit Edison has booklets on how to use your electric lights and appliances wisely and other ways to save energy around the home.

Stop in at any Customer Office and pick up what you need to get the most out of your energy dollar.

Detroit Edison does everything possible to get in touch with you to see if you need help when your electric bill is overdue. But you can help by getting in touch with Detroit Edison.

PROPER MEDICATION USE

The best use of medicines depends on three persons; Your doctor, your pharmacist, and yourself.

How you participate in this three-way effort is most important.

Here are some general facts you should know about all prescriptions:

No medicine is expected by medical science to be effective for 100% of the people who use it, or even 100% of the times it is used by those for whom it is effective.

A doctor gives you a written prescription so you may take it to the pharmacy of your choice. If you call to ask for a phoned prescription, be sure to provide the phone number of the pharmacy you want the doctor to call. If it is a refill, give the doctor the prescription number on the original container.

Before any prescription can be written your doctor needs to have certain information from you.

Be sure to describe all your symptoms and answer all questions as accurately as you can. This will help the doctor determine your proper treatment.

If you go to more than one doctor, be sure each knows about all medicines you presently or regularly take. Give the names (if available.) Include nonprescription products such as aspirin or laxatives. When some medicines are used at the same time as others, the interaction can produce unwanted effects. The resulting symptoms could be most difficult for your doctor to diagnose.

Take precautions against overdose. When you first get up in the morning, count out the total number of any one kind of tablet or capsule you are to take in one day and put them in a container labeled to identify its contents. Then by counting you can tell at any time whether or not you have already taken your medicine for that hour.

Don't trust your memory when taking medicine. Always read the label three times (with your glasses on, if you wear them): once before you

THERE MAY BE MANY REASONS WHY SOME CHILDREN ARE 'SLOW LEARNING'

A COMMON Eye Disease

GLAUCOMA...A
COMMON PREVENTABLE
CAUSE OF BLINDNESS...

Glaucoma is hereditary
....You have a 12%
chance of having this disease if there is a history of Glaucoma
in your family.....
....Routine eye checkup is highly recommended.....Early care can prevent blindness.....

Glaucoma is the most common preventable cause of blindness in the U.S. Open angle glaucoma, the most frequent type, is an asymptomatic cause of slow death of the optic nerve. It does not cause pain, redness, irritation, or any other obvious symptom, and hence is known as "the thief in the night" as it stealthily robs eyesight. A patient never notices slow and gradual loss of vision when it occurs over a period of years.

Not uncommonly, a patient will be permanently blind in one eye, with advanced loss in the other, before the condition is recognized.

Because early care will usually prevent blindness, routine medical eye examinations are of great importance.

About two percent of persons over 50 years of age have glaucoma. A routine medical examination, with particular attention to intraocular pressure and optic nerve evaluation, is appropriate every five years after the age of 50.

Eye Burns need fast treatment

Chemical burns of the eye result from splashing into the eye strong alkali, acid, solvent or toxic chemicals. The delicate cornea may be rapidly damaged, with permanent scarring and blindness.

Immediate! (right now, not two minutes later); generous, and prolonged washing of the surface of the eye is essential if sight is to be preserved. Pour as much as a quart of solution upon the eye over a period of 20 or 30 minutes, if a really strong chemical has splashed into the eye.

Use water, milk, soft drinks, normal saline solution, or whatever nonirritating solution is available.

LEARNING DISABILITIES

Many parents will become aware of the possibility that their child may not be performing adequately in school. And sooner or later, such parents will wonder if a "learning disability" is the reason. Almost unheard of as a technical phrase earlier in this century, learning disabilities are frequently identified today as the cause of poor school performance; estimates of the number of children affected vary from five to as many as thirty per cent of the school-age population. Yet many authorities (educational, psychological, medical) admit that techniques of evaluation and correction are still far from being scientifically precise and that labels are, therefore, more a matter of "working definitions" than diagnoses which are foolproof.

Normal learning requires several "pre-conditions" including mental development appropriate for the tasks or subject matter, a reasonably stable emotional environment at home and in school, normal physical abilities (seeing, hearing, nervous system development, etc.) and adequate learning opportunities.

One of the most difficult questions to answer is the most obvious one; "Where can I find help for a child who is not doing well in school?" Traditionally, family physicians and pediatricians have provided counsel concerning any physical or emotional problems that may be involved. Quite frankly though, most are not well trained in psychological and educational evaluation, although pediatricians are increasingly acquiring such skills. In more recent years, school systems have developed resources to identify and test children with learning problems; national and state laws now make such capabilities mandatory. Many private sources of evaluation also exist. However, the competence of any of these sources is variable. A multidisciplinary approach, one which can use the special skills of psychologists, neurologists, educators, and others whose expertise may be brought to bear on the child with a learning problem, is most likely to avoid the bias inherent in any single emphasis. At the very least, parents should be satisfied that their concerns can be answered in simple and understandable terms, that a formal approach to measuring possible learning disabilities is undertaken, and that steps to correction can be outlined.

The label "learning disability" has taken on more precise definition in recent years and modern testing may disclose specific learning problems-and more importantly, suggest appropriate corrective measures. However, it is important to recognize the lack of absolute precision in learning disability theory and practice. Second opinions should be sought if learning problems cannot be explained to the satisfaction of the parents. Local chapters of the Association for Children with Learning Disabilities (ACLD) can provide counsel and support; national headquarters are located at 4156 Library Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15234.

CLEAN LIVING MORMONS LIVE LONGER

There are many positive rewards for preventive medicine. For example, it has been known for years that Mormons and Seventh Day Adventists live longer, healthier lives than the average U.S. citizen. The reason for this is a result of their daily habits, which are strongly supported by their religion. Adventists, who generally avoid alcohol, addictive drugs, tobacco, coffee, tea, hot spices, rich desserts, and meat have a cancer death rate 50% below the national average and 40% to 50% fewer heart attacks. Lung cancer, which is the leading killer among men, is 62% lower in Mormon males, while esophagus cancer, which is linked with alcohol consumption, is 64% lower.

These results should be enough to motivate people to change their bad habits while there is still time and before they develop any symptoms of disease.

Count your calories

Control of fatty substances in the blood is not feasible when the individual is extremely overweight.

It has been shown that life expectancy may be shorter for people who are markedly over their normal weight. Middle-aged men who are significantly overweight, for example, have about three times the risk of a fatal heart attack compared with middle-aged men of normal weight. Obesity also means greater likelihood of high blood pressure or diabetes.

Most people reach their normal adult weight between the ages of 21 and 25. With each year after that, fewer calories are needed to maintain this normal weight. But people in their 30's and 40's usually eat as much as they did in their early 20's, become physically less active, and store the excess calories as fat.

There is no quick, easy way to reduce. It is best to avoid extreme reducing diets, because they usually leave out foods essential to good health. Even when such diets are successful in bringing your weight down, they don't help you to develop a pattern of eating that will keep your weight normal.

If you need to reduce, ask your doctor to advise you. He will know what weight is best for your height, age and body build.
