

State Dept. Rules St. Louis Pupils Must Receive Evaluations

When the State Department of Education ruled last fall that students at the St. Louis School for Exceptional Boys were not being given due process of their rights as prescribed by law, Chelsea School District and the Washtenaw Intermediate School District found that they will bear the brunt of correcting the situation.

"It's scary," Dr. Henry DeYoung, director of special education at Chelsea High school, remarked.

"I don't like to sound pessimistic and negative, but lately I can't help it," he added.

The ruling followed a complaint filed last May by Dohn Hoyle, program co-ordinator of family services at the Washtenaw Association for Retarded Citizens which cited the State Departments of Education, Social Services, and Mental Health as being at fault. Not named in the complaint, but found in violation nevertheless were the Chelsea School District and WISD.

St. Louis lies within the Chelsea School District and WISD. According to Hoyle's complaint, which the Department of Education ruled as valid, students attending the St. Louis school were not given individual evaluations prior to placement nor were they given individual educational plans following placement. There are both state and federal laws which mandate that these be done.

St. Louis is a privately run all boys Catholic residential institution which currently has 32 students placed there through public agencies and 34 students placed by their parents.

As a result of the ruling, the Chelsea School District and WISD must now see to it that each of the 32 agency-placed students receive evaluations and educational plans and inform the parents or guardians of the remaining 34 students that these services are available without charge.

Most of what Dr. DeYoung finds frightening is the financial burden which may be placed on the Chelsea school budget.

"It is almost impossible to estimate the amount of reimbursement we will receive from state funds," he explained.

"We are dealing with unknown factors that make it very difficult to give precise figures," DeYoung said.

Included among the unknowns are how Chelsea and WISD are going to divide the work load, who is going to do the evaluations, whether staff will have to be added to the Chelsea special education program to accommodate St. Louis students if they attend classes in the Chelsea schools, and, of course the bottom line, who is going to pay.

"Our biggest concern is financial. The Chelsea Board of Education has always gone the second mile for special education, but the question 'from where?' is going to be raised when we ask for more money," DeYoung stated.

Since the ruling came last fall, DeYoung and the staff of WISD have been hard pressed to answer these questions.

"One of our first steps was to apply for a state grant through the State Aid Act for special education but we haven't heard anything definite yet," DeYoung said.

According to DeYoung, there are two separate sources within the state for funds. "One provides more than the other and we hope to qualify for the larger package which could possibly pay 80 percent or more of the cost," he explained.

Failing that, DeYoung is certain that they will receive an approximate 30 percent reimbursement from the state and another 30 to 35 percent grant from the county. The balance would come from the school budget.

"Because we are unfamiliar with the students at St. Louis we have no idea how much and what type of evaluations they will need. The cost of an evaluation can range from $200 to $1,000 per child," DeYoung said.

Although Chelsea and WISD will share the job of providing evaluation, Chelsea's special education staff "is only able to maintain our special education student population," he said.

In lieu of hiring additional staff, DeYoung anticipates a contractual arrangement with Chelsea Community Hospital. "I have spoken at length with the hospital's administrator Will Johnson and his response has been very positive, very encouraging," DeYoung commented.

A meeting on Jan. 15 with DeYoung and Chelsea Hospital administrators should finalize details of the hospital's co-operation.

Once the students have been evaluated for their specific handicaps, another law mandates that the child have a short-term instructional objective and a long-term goal outlined. These will also have to be seen to by Chelsea and WISD.

One of Hoyle's complaints was that the students at St. Louis were not integrated with normal children as much as possible. Once the physical, emotional, and educational evaluations are completed the Chelsea classrooms may have to accommodate some of the St. Louis students.

DeYoung said that this may or may not necessitate the hiring of more staff. "The law says that a classroom may not have more than 15 special education students at a time and at the middle and elementary school levels this probably won't be a problem," he said. "It's just to early to tell," he added.

In the meantime, DeYoung questions an underlying question of legality of the situation. "The law says that the local school district must provide these services to both public and private schools but I question if private schools should be supported with public funding. I believe in private schools but I think they should keep private and independent," he commented.

Swim Team Earns Two More Victories

Chelsea High school boys swimming team earned two more victories this past week defeating local rival Lincoln, 104-65, and then Marysville, 100 miles away, 60-23.

In the meet against Lincoln, Bulldogs were led by double varsity record performances from Phil Hoffman in the 50-yard freestyle and in the 100-yard butterfly. In the freestyle, Hoffman missed qualifying for the state meet by only five-tenths of a second.

Setting a freshman record in the same meet but losing his varsity record in the 100-yard butterfly was Dave Mason.

Although the performances did not lead to any records, the most exciting and dramatic improvements in the Lincoln meet belonged to John Robbins and Kirk Myers in the 500-yard freestyle. Both broke six minutes in the event for personal bests.

Other outstanding swims were turned in by Paul Schumann in the 500-yard freestyle and in the 200-yard freestyle with tremendous drops.

Joining Schumann in the 200-yard freestyle with an excellent life-time best was Charles Wiesner. In all, 16 life-time bests were turned in by Chelsea including Craig Wirtz, Todd Oxner, Andy Weir, and Scott Prohaska.

In the meet against Marysville, only one record was broken and only two personal bests were turned in. The varsity record was broken by Tom Gaunt in the 200-yard IM—his third time this year. Another life-time best was turned in by Craig Wirtz in the 500-yard freestyle.

"The meet against Marysville was particularly satisfying since last year they beat us badly. It shows the swimmers and coaches that the five hours a day that some of them are working out is paying off. Marysville only graduated one of their better swimmers from last year's team. The big difference is that we have improved more because of our hard work," Coach Larry Reed commented.

Results of the Lincoln meet are: 200-yard medley relay, John Robbins, Henri vanderWaard, Scott Prohaska, Phil Hoffman, first, 1:55.2; Tom Gaunt, Craig Wirtz, Dave Mason, Todd Oxner, third, 1:56.9.

200-yard freestyle, Mike Mason, first, 2:07.1; C. B. Wiesner, second, 2:12.6; Paul Schumann, sixth, 2:21.6.

200-yard IM, Henri vanderWaard, first, 2:23.1; Todd Oxner, second, 2:24.4; John Robbins, third, 2:26.5.

50-yard freestyle, Phil Hoffman, first, 2:26.5.

Community Ed. Adds Still More Activities

If a non-stop ringing telephone is any indication, the Community Education Department is in full-swing of winter registration.

Adding further proof to the pudding, Director Jackie Rogers has announced that several classes have already been filled while a number of additions have been made.

One addition is a series of three Walt Disney films sponsored by the elementary schools Parent-Teacher Organization, with the first, "So Dear To My Heart," to be shown on Saturday, Jan. 13. Children should arrive no earlier than 1 p.m. and be picked up promptly at 3 p.m. The movie is 50 cents per child and refreshments will also be on sale. Parents are encouraged to attend.

Another addition is a course on weight reduction offered by the Chelsea Community Hospital. Classes begin the week of Feb. 11 for eight weeks. Further information will be provided in the near future.

Those children who have registered in the Chelsea Recreation Council's Biddy Basketball program will be contacted by their coaches soon, Rogers said. She added that the council is still in need of several volunteer coaches.

Those classes which have been filled to capacity are the two CPR courses, and the sheep section of the Small Farm Forum—two sections are still open.

In the Super Saturday program, gym, disco dancing, model building, "On With the Show," and the children's story hour are all closed at both North and South school. Closed at South school but open at North are the free form fun, "Kids Can Cook," and "A Is for Art." A number of other classes are open at both schools.

At the college level, the EMU graduate course 501—reading development, elementary—may still be registered for before Monday, Jan. 15 at the CED office in the high school.

While the Washtenaw Community College extension classes have already begun, Rogers said that registration is possible. For more information, call 475-9830.

Wrestlers Lose to Willow Run, 30-29

Hampered by the absence of heavyweight Tom Barreis, Chelsea varsity grapplers took a razor thin defeat, 30-29, from Willow Run on Thursday Jan. 4.

On the following Saturday, Chelsea wrestlers placed seventh in the 17-team Western Tournament with only eight members of their squad performing.

Bulldog winners on Thursday were Tim Pennington at 98 lbs., who won his first varsity match in a 2-1 decision. At 105 lbs., Tony Wisniewski scored a quick pin victory. Chuck Young, at 132 lbs., took an 8-1 win while Bart Bauer rolled up a fine 14-0 win. Eric Gaken won on a disqualification and Alan Augustine won on a forfeit.

Both Bob Beeman and Jim Cobb lost by falls at 112 lbs. and 119 lbs., respectively. Dave Harrison also lost by a fall and John Whitaker lost at 138 lbs. Pinned was John Preston in his first varsity match while Tim Barreis lost, 6-0, at 178 lbs.

In the Western Tournament, final standings were Holt, 168½ points; Jackson Park-Id., 138; Columbia Central, 97½; Western, 84; Eaton Rapids, 74; Harper Creek, 71; Chelsea, 68; Jackson High, 67½; and Saline, 62.

Four Bulldog wrestlers brought Chelsea to its seventh-place standing including Chuck Young at 132 lbs. and Alan Augustine at 191 lbs., who both scored three convincing

Help Offered Senior Citizens On Tax Rebate

Chelsea area senior citizens annually realize thousands of dollars in property tax rebates.

Applications for 1978 rebates are now being filed and for the first time this year, heating cost assistance will be available to approximately 90 percent of the senior citizens. Applications for this money is made on the same form.

Qualified members of the Chelsea Kiwanis Club will assist senior citizens on Monday evenings, Jan. 22 and Jan. 29 at 8 p.m. in the dining room at the Chelsea Community Hospital and at noon on Tuesday, Jan. 23 at St. Mary's school.

Eighteen young Chelsea wrestlers traveled to Stockbridge and came away with a lot more experience and a few medals to boot.

Junior varsity Bulldogs' only champion was Ray Williams who scored three victories at 145 lbs. Williams scored two falls and a 4-0 win in the finals.

Placing second for Chelsea were Mark Bulick at 98 lbs. with two falls and a loss in the finals while John Preston at 155 lbs., scored two falls before losing in the finals also.

REUBEN A. LESSER, SR.: A servant of Sylvan township since 1932, Lesser was surprised last Friday evening when the township's officials and their wives invited him to dinner and presented him with a plaque in tribute to his services. Forced into partial retirement because of a leg amputation, the 77-year-old Lesser had been a township trustee since 1934 as well as a member of the Zoning Board of Appeals "for many years," Lesser said. Although his memory on dates is a bit vague, Lesser was sharp-minded on why he refused to run for supervisor. "I'm a peacemaker—always have been. A supervisor's job makes enemies and I knew I didn't want any part of it," he quipped. Having seen an enormous growth in government and bureaucracy, Lesser cautioned this generation's lawmakers to "fight for local control. More and more the state and federal governments are assuming control when it should be the local government that makes the decisions," he said.

Reuben Lesser, Sr., Honored For Service to Sylvan Township

Reuben A. Lesser, Sr. never thought it would come to this after more than 40 years of political service to Sylvan township.

"I had heard some talk about taking me to dinner but I was really surprised when they gave me the plaque. I never expected that," the 77-year-old recently retired politician said.

Sylvan township officials and their wives paid tribute to Lesser's near un-interrupted devotion to the township with dinner at Gilbert's in Jackson and the presentation of a walnut plaque inscribed with his name and years he has worked for the township. Expenses for the recognition were paid from the pockets of his hosts.

Exactly when Lesser took political office for the first time is a subject of some debate as neither the man himself, or current township officers can locate records.

According to Lesser, "it was in 1934 when Joel Liebeck came to me asking if I'd get into the race for overseer of the Highway Commission." Liebeck was running for commissioner when at that time each individual township in Washtenaw county maintained its own roads.

Don Schoenberg, Sylvan township supervisor, however, believes the year was 1932 when Lesser first took office as highway overseer and 1934 when he became commissioner.

"I have forgotten the years now because I didn't figure anyone would ever ask me about it," Lesser laughed.

When Washtenaw county formed the Road Commission, local highway commissioners were put out of work and Lesser "retired" for a few years.

Then, in 1943, Lesser became chairman of the Sylvan township land use program which he said was "the fore-runner of the zoning board." From 1943 until 1976, Lesser was a member of the Zoning Board of Appeals while from May 1, 1954 until his retirement this month, he was trustee for the township.

While vague on dates, Lesser was sharp-minded when asked why he never ran for supervisor. "Not me. They asked and asked but I always said no." Why?

"I'm a peacemaker and a supervisor's job makes enemies so I knew I didn't want any part of it," he explained.

Still, Lesser loved his decision-making responsibilities as trustee and would have continued if not for a foot infection which caused the amputation of much of a leg in May, 1978. He would probably be farming too, but now spends much of his time indoors.

"It put me down a bit when I was told they would have to amputate. At first I figured they could fix the problem—it looked good for a while—but it didn't work" he said.

Several years ago he lost an arm in a farming accident which caused little difference in his abilities "to keep the peace during township meetings" or run his farm.

While Lesser, Sr., was not seen on last November's ballot, his son Reuben Lesser, Jr., was and now holds his father's trustee seat. "He's running my farm now like I did and I think he'll be as cool-headed as I was on the board," the senior Lesser commented.

Chelsea High school novice and junior varsity debaters made a more than impressive showing during the recently completed league competition at Ypsilanti High school placing first in both their divisions.

Competing were Chelsea, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor Huron, Ann Arbor Pioneer, Ann Arbor Greenhills, Wayne Memorial, John Glenn, Taylor Center, and Trueman Central High schools.

Chelsea took an 8-2 novice victory with debaters Jennie Hoffman, Brian Koepke, Debbie Koepke, John LaBarbara, Sara Merkel, Theresa Merkel, Mary Kay Poljan, and Dave Waldyke.

Taking first place with a 10-2 record in junior varsity were Sue Inglis, John Koepke, Ruth Rawson, Tom Severn, Drew Sprague, Mike Waldyke, and Janet Walz.

Varsity Cagers Down Dexter, Jackson NW

Chelsea varsity Bulldogs continued their winning ways Friday night, running a near perfect fast break for their fourth victory of the season, 68-49.

Dexter Dreadnaughts, with a 1-6 SEC record, traveled to Chelsea for the first post-holiday game, hoping to slow down the Bulldogs.

"They didn't think they could run with us because our size and quickness was a real disadvantage for Dexter. They thought they could control the ball and prevent us from making our fast break and during the first half they were very effective," Chelsea Coach Robin Raymond explained.

For the first time, this year, Chelsea flew through the opening two minutes of play with Charlie Bridges sinking six baskets while two other Bulldogs added four points for a 10-4 lead.

Dreadnaught Jim Vaughan, however, collected 12 points before the first quarter was over giving Dexter a 16-14 advantage.

Chelsea regained the lead before half-time, 28-23, and bounded back in the first two minutes of the third quarter freeing themselves from Dexter's slow down tactics.

"We had two keys to our win," Raymond assessed. "First, we outscored Dexter early in the third quarter, 10-2, and we played some of the most consistent basketball all season," he said.

With Chelsea's surge, Dexter was forced to play catch-up and to fast break. Bulldogs, once the tables were turned, were able to increase their lead by the end of the third period to 44-33.

More Chelsea fast breaking in the final stanza brought 24 points for the hometown win.

Dressing for the game, after a year's absence from the Chelsea court, was varsity Captain Jesse Coburn. "Coburn added a lot of spark to the team's energy just seeing him in action and having him back," Raymond said.

Coburn was injured in a hunting accident this past fall when a stray bullet found his leg.

"The team looks towards its captain for leadership and with Jesse dressed for action it sure gave them a lift," Raymond added.

Leading Chelsea scorers were Charlie Bridges with 20 and Don Schrotenboer with 15. Jeff Dils had 10; Gary Dils, six; Mike Machesky, six; Mike Killelea, five; Jon Riemenschneider, Brad Kierhocker, and John Dunn each had two.

From the floor, the Bulldogs shot 51 percent while Dexter had a respectable 41 percent.

With only two for eight in free throws, Chelsea had a poor 25 percent. Dexter had seven for 10 for 70 percent. Chelsea collected 12 fouls to Dexter's 11.

Of all of his team's statistics, Raymond was most impressed with assists.

"We had 24 assists which shows how unselfish the players are. Instead of wanting to keep the ball to themselves for an individual performance, they are willing to pass it on to a fellow team member for the score," he said.

In rebounding, Chelsea had 42 to Dexter's 23. Leading the Bulldogs was Don Schrotenboer with 15. Charlie Bridges had nine; Killelea, six; Machesky, five; and Jeff Dils, four.

Chelsea is now 4-3 over-all and 3-2 in the League.

In other Friday night action, the SEC race was cracked open when Novi defeated Milan 48-39. It was Milan's second consecutive loss and Squaring off against considerable pressure in the final two minutes of play, Chelsea varsity Bulldogs shrugged off intimidation for a 72-65 victory over Jackson Northwest Tuesday night.

It was the Bulldogs' first win on the road and their fifth win of the season for a 4-2 SEC record.

"The first half saw our best offensive performance all year and we also accomplished a rare 60 percent average from the floor," Coach Robin Raymond commented.

Chelsea outdistanced Northwest, 21-14, in the first quarter thanks to the combined shooting of Charlie Bridges with eight; Mike Machesky with six; and Gary Dils with four. Jeff Dils chipped in two and Don Schrotenboer, one.

By half-time Chelsea led, 44-37, with a shooting record for the half of 15 for 26.

"Northwest played an excellent man-to-man full court defense, the best we've seen all year, in the second half. They succeeded in stopping the number of our shots but we still made 13 out of 21," Raymond reported.

In the third quarter Northwest reduced their deficit to 5, 56-51, and in the final stanza came within two points.

"That's when the pressure started," Raymond said. "In our only two losses this year we have not done well under pressure. Tuesday, however, was a different story and even though Northwest threatened us, we passed it off for the win," he commented.

Other firsts for Chelsea was a 67 percent average from the free throw line; two foul outs; and 22 turnovers.

18 out of 27 Bulldog free throw attempts were completed with Don Schrotenboer leading with seven. Charlie Bridges had six; Mike Machesky, six; and Gary Dils, four.

"We had the worst record of turnovers this game because of Northwest's man-to-man defense. Our press, however, caused them to have 19 turnovers so it was about even," according to Raymond.

Fouling out on the Bulldog line-up were Mike Machesky and Don Schrotenboer.

Leading scorer for Chelsea was Charlie Bridges with 23 points. The only other Bulldog to make double figures was Jeff Dils with 12. Other scorers were Mike Killelea with nine, Gary Dils, nine; and Mike Machesky eight.

During the second half, Bridges completed 11 shots out of 15, most of them 15- to 17-foot jump shots, Raymond said.

With two minutes left in the fourth quarter, Chelsea led by 11 points until Northwest pulled within two. Jeff Dils hit a jump shot followed by two quick buckets by NW. Coming to the rescue was Matt Feeney with two pressure free throws, 32 seconds before the final buzzer. Killelea missed a free throw but Feeney bounced back to tip it in. With the score at 70-65, Bridges iced the win with two more points.

Property Tax Relief Top Priority For New Legislature

The new legislature which convened Jan. 10 will immediately begin consideration of a property tax relief package which could result in heading off another attempt to radically lower property taxes throughout the state.

Although the so-called Tisch property tax cut proposal was defeated by the voters in November, the fact that it was before the voters and may be back in the future has made a lasting impression on legislative leaders.

These leaders have listed increased property tax relief as a priority for the new legislature to strive for a more balanced approach to solve the problem of spiraling property taxes, yet with not such drastic means and provide a replacement tax that will not cripple necessary services needed.

A proposed plan, now in the drafting stages, could provide as much as $300 to $500 million to Michigan citizens. The plan basically would increase the property tax circuit breaker while making up revenues through an income tax increase.

The proposed plan could allow for increased income tax exemptions to provide more relief to citizens where it is most needed.

To make up the cost of the plan, the state would increase the income tax from its current 4.8 percent to 5.6 or 6 percent. Each full percentage point increase in the income tax nets the state nearly $500 million annually.

A major part of the plan would also educate Michigan property owners that Michigan already has a property tax relief program. This is designed to make people realize the current system is equitable and a drastic change may create more problems than it would solve.

A so-called Montgomery Plan, named for Rep. George Montgomery (D-Detroit), chairman of the house Taxation Committee, will probably be revived after it failed last year as members opted to let the voters have their say on the property tax question after petitions were certified to get the question on the ballot.

Under a warrant system, taxpayers would get a warrant entitling them to a rebate through their local treasurer. The sole purpose of the warrant is to show people they are getting a property tax cut through a state write-off from their state income tax liability.

The PBB question has not been heard from since the November election until recently when a circuit court judge ruled that Attorney General Frank J. Kelley has authority to sue several companies for more than $120 million in damages for negligence in dealing with the fire retardant chemical.

Ingham county circuit court Judge James Kallman dismissed a motion by defendants in the state suit that argued the attorney general did not have the proper authority to sue the various companies on behalf of the people of Michigan.

Kelley is suing seven corporations for involvement in the industrial mix-up when toxic chemicals were mixed into dairy cattle feed. The chemical subsequently entered Michigan's food chain and became one of the hottest political topics in the state coming to a head during the past gubernatorial election.

Being sued is the Michigan Chemical Corp., Velcol Chemical Corp., Northwest Industry Inc., Northwest Chemical, Michigan Salt Co., Michigan Farm Bureau and Farm Bureau Services Inc. Should the state win, damages will go to pay Michigan's share of destroying and disposing of contaminated animals and running scientific tests, both on humans.

To date, except for minor individual settlements, major funding for testing and disposal has come from the state's general fund.

Last July, the State Public Health Code was signed into law in Michigan. One of the most important steps in the implementation of this code has been the identification of a list of important health problems in Michigan from which a list of proposed basic health services is presently being developed. To be designated a "basic health service" a program will have to be universally available throughout the state. Furthermore, the legislature can no longer designate services as required or "basic health services" without also providing matching funds for implementation.

The State Health Department has made available to the Washtenaw County Health Department and other local health departments and health systems agencies the list of health problems in Michigan and the proposed list of basic services to respond to these problems. At this point, the state and local health departments are asking for citizen participation in the development of this list. Therefore, the Board of Health is setting aside time during the board's regular monthly meeting on Friday, Jan. 19, beginning at 9 a.m., to hear from anyone in the county who might wish to add to or comment on the list of proposed basic services. The Board of Health meeting will be held at the Washtenaw County Health Department conference room at 2355 W. Stadium Blvd. in Ann Arbor.

Anyone wishing to review the preliminary list from the State Health Department prior to the Board of Health meeting may do so by contacting the County Health Department, Ann Arbor Office at 994-2490.

Tax Help Available From IRS

The Internal Revenue Service today reminded area taxpayers that help with federal tax questions is available through IRS's toll-free telephone assistance network, Monday through Friday. Hours for help by phone are 8 a.m. through 12 noon and 12:45 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. Telephone numbers are listed in the tax forms package and local directories.

IRS says you can get quicker service if you call during periods when activity is typically slower. The best time to call is early in the morning or late in the day. Avoid Mondays and Tuesdays if you can. "They are the busiest days of the week," IRS says.

The agency's phone system handles about 75 percent of the assistance needs of taxpayer. However, persons with more complicated problems will be able to get free help at the local IRS office at 200 E. Liberty, from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

To promote accuracy of answers to tax questions and to ensure courtesy to taxpayers, IRS monitors a sample of each day's phone calls. It also "quality reviews" all tax returns prepared at any IRS office to ensure all schedules are attached and all line entries are made on the returns filed.

The IRS also reminds taxpayers whose 1978 income was less than $8,000 that they may be entitled to a special benefit, in some cases as much as $400. It's called the "Earned Income Credit." It is available to certain qualifying persons, even some who may not otherwise be required to file a tax return, or even some who had no tax withheld in 1978. "But remember," says IRS, "if you qualify for the earned income credit, you must file a return to get the benefit."

HOT DOGS!

The average American eats almost 80 hot dogs each year. That amounts to a total of approximately 14 billion hot dogs consumed in this country annually. The first wiener-in-a-bun was probably served at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904 by a Bavarian sausage peddler who sold wieners as "red hots." Because his "red hots" were too hot to handle, he gave his customers white gloves. But the gloves were too expensive, so the entrepreneur came up with a bun to fit the sausage.

Cager of the Week

MIKE MACHESKY (40) is a senior, second-year varsity member of the Bulldog basketball squad who also plays on the varsity baseball team. Machesky views this year's team as "more together than last year. We have been playing some really good ball although we lost a couple of close ones." While hesitant to laud his own abilities on the court, Coach Robin Raymond was more verbal. "Mike isn't one to make a lot of what he does and the casual observer would miss the little things he does that work to pull the team together. He is one of the most consistent players on the team with an average of six points a game and 5½ rebounds a game," Raymond said. Machesky predicts an outstanding year for the Bulldogs, "if we keep the team playing as one instead of five individuals," he explained. He sees the Novi game this season as the best so far. Chelsea won, 54-40. "The scoring was balanced and that's one of the most important factors in winning," Machesky commented. As a forward, he describes his position as shooting from the outside and feeding the post center inside; running the offense; rebounding; and looking for an open man. Despite his notable performance on the court, his love is baseball and he has been a varsity team member for three years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Machesky, 17291 Grass Lake Rd.

Good Things Growing In Michigan

If you want to stretch your food dollar this month, try some tempting egg main dishes such as crepes, omelets or quiche.

Crepes are paper-thin pancakes easily prepared from an egg batter, filled with meat, poultry, vegetables or fruits and topped with gravy, a cheese or cream sauce.

For a different pizza, fill an egg unelet with cheese, bacon, onions and green pepper and top with a spicy tomato sauce. Or, crumble bacon into greased custard cups, top with grated Swiss cheese, pour an egg mixture over this and bake elegant individual quiches.

Fresh Michigan eggs are an excellent food buy. Two large eggs equal four eggs, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Egg color varies from white to dark brown depending on breed, and consumer preferences may vary. However, color is not an indication of quality.

Michigan eggs are quality graded in accordance with federal-state laws. Grade AA, extra fancy, and Grade A have thick whites and firm yolks which are excellent for frying and poaching where appearance is important. Grade B eggs have less thick whites and yolks may be somewhat flattened but they are good for general cooking and baking.

Eggs are very delicate and should be cooked over low to moderate heat. To hard boil, simmer eggs for 15-20 minutes, then plunge into cold water immediately to arrest further cooking and prevent yolk discoloration. To peel, crack shell and roll between your palms to free the thin shell membrane. To preserve quality, eggs should be stored cold with broad end up. Michigan eggs are automatically packed this way. Traffic Death Toll Passes Last Year's

For the first time in five years, Michigan with 2,043 provisional fatalities for 1978 has recorded an annual traffic death toll that has exceeded the 2,000 mark. Col. Gerald L. Hough, department director, has reported.

The provisional total is already 93 or about 4.8 percent higher than the toll of 1,950 in 1977. Other recent year tolls below 2,000 include 1,955 in 1976, 1,811 in 1975 and 1,875 in 1974. The state's all-time high of 2,460 occurred in 1969 and was part of a 10-year span, 1964-73, in which all the annual tolls were above 2,000.

State Police traffic services division officers point out that the 1978 toll will likely increase by another one or two percent when records for the year are complete.

While a better evaluation of factors contributing to the increase will be available later when data are more complete, traffic officers already know that some of the factors include increases in vehicle mileage traveled, in numbers of licensed drivers and in numbers of motor vehicles registered. Other factors they said would include a more active economy and the tendency on the part of some drivers to travel at excessive speeds.

Despite the increase in the annual toll, traffic officers feel that the death rate in 1978 per 100 million miles of vehicle travel should again be one of the state's lowest. The rate for 1977 was an all-time low of 3.0.

Part of the 1978 toll was the 138 deaths charged to December accidents. This toll was down by 22 from 158 in 1977. The average toll for December was 148 in the five-year period 1973-77.

Michigan's traffic death toll for the Christmas week-end in 1978 was 27, which was 13 more than for that period in 1977. The recent New Year week-end toll was four and that was 11 less than for that period a year earlier.

Snowmobilers Gear Up for Michigan Triple Crown

Record speeds are expected again this year as snowmobilers prepare for Michigan's 1979 "Triple Crown" of Snowmobiling.

One of the state's major winter sporting events, the competition includes three separate races; the Thunder Bay 250, Jan. 13 at Alpena, the TC 250, Jan. 27 at Traverse City, and the International 550, Feb. 10 at Sault Ste. Marie. The grueling 1-500 is the world's longest closed track snowmobile race, demanding the maximum in strength and endurance from driver and machine, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce.

More than $50,000 in prize money will be awarded this year with a $14,000 purse for the Thunder Bay 250, $17,500 for the TC 250 and $25,000 for the International 500.

Over-all single winner of the Triple Crown will pocket $2,000, winners of the individual races

Sandra Y. Kopinski On Dean's List at Northwood Institute

Sandra Y. Kopinski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kopinski of Dexter, has been named to the Dean's List for fall term, announced Thomas J. Brown, Chancellor of Northwood Institute.

384 students earned a 3.0 or above grade-point on a 4.0 scale to achieve Dean List recognition.

HOUSING COSTS

In the first quarter of 1978, the national median price of a new house in the United States has gone over the $50,000 ceiling to about $54,000. That's compared to a cost of $48,000 for 1977. The new total is more than three times the median U. S. Family income.

it meant them having to make room in the No. 1 spot for Brighton, as each has one conference loss. With poor shooting performance on the part of the Milan Big Reds, Novi's Wildcats laid back in a zone during the second half. Things looked bad in the third quarter when Milan tallied eight points to Novi's four, but Novi rallied in the fourth for the win. Chris Giorgio led the Wildcats with 15 points and their Dwayne Rider took 15 rebounds. Milan's Tim Keller netted 18 points. Novi is now 4-3 in SEC and is tied with Chelsea and Saline for second.

Saline Hornets demolished winless Lincoln, 74-59. Saline was behind one point in the second period when Mark James took his Hornets to a half-time lead of 35-25 with 15 points. By the game's end, James totaled 27 points. Also scoring double digits was John Kendrick with 14, in addition to 11 rebounds. Hornet Jim Vanderpool added 10 points. Scoring against the Saline fast break were Raulsplitters Jim Czinski with 16; Floyd Epps with 10 and Daryl McClain with 10. Saline is 3-2 in the league.

Brighton zapped South Lyon, 68-44. Like Dexter, South Lyon played a slow-down game, keeping Brighton to a 12-8 lead by the first quarter's end. Second quarter action, however, saw the Brighton Bulldogs outscoring the Lions 24-10 with a 3/4-court press. Bulldog Craig Bachelor topped the scoring with 19 points with Henry Morley adding 12 points and 12 rebounds. Mark Garback loaded the Bulldogs with 12 assists. Lion John McKee tallied 14 points and Brian Carpenter added a dozen. Brighton is 4-1 in SEC and 5-1 overall. South Lyon is 2-3 in the league and 2-4 overall.
