Varsity Cagers Strong in Last Two Contests

Chelsea varsity basketball squad ran out of energy after a dynamic game of catch-up to take a 65-62 defeat from the hands of the tied-for-first-place Milan Big Reds last Friday, Feb. 9.

"We got as close as five points in the third quarter, but we had worked so hard to get there after being 17 points behind that we ran out of what it takes to win," Coach Robin Raymond commented.

Milan established much of the ground rules in the first quarter, taking a moderate six-point lead, 18-12. Scoring for the Bulldogs were Charlie Bridges with six and two each by Jesse Coburn, Jeff Dils, and John Dunn.

Chelsea slipped badly in the second period, letting the Big Reds outscore them 19 to 8 and fell to a 20-37 half-time score.

Winter carnival activities during the break sparked the Bulldogs in the third quarter as they outscored Milan, 21-10. Jesse Coburn tallied 10 points; Don Schrotenboer, four; Jeff Dils, four; Charlie Bridges, two; and John Dunn, one.

"Milan played really good ball in the first half but we came back with some solid defense in the third quarter," Raymond reported. "Our shooting was also good as we made 10 of 20 attempts," he added.

Final quarter action saw Milan take 18 points to Chelsea's 11 for the victory.

Leading Bulldog scorers were Jesse Coburn and Charlie Bridges each with 14 points. Jeff Dils collected 10; Don Schrotenboer, four; Mike Killelea, three; John Dunn, three; Gary Dils, two; and Mike Machesky, two.

From the floor Chelsea made 22 of 57 attempts for 38 percent. Milan had 23 of 65 for 42 percent.

"The key was in the number of Milan's free throw attempts," Raymond said. Big Reds completed 19 (Continued on page eight)

In Tuesday's game with Carlton Airport, 13 seconds remained on the clock with Chelsea holding a razor thin, 63-62 lead. Jesse Coburn executed two perfect free throws good for two points and a Bulldog victory.

"The pressure in the fourth quarter was unbelievable but we handled it well. It was a very good win," Coach Robin Raymond commented.

While not a conference team, Carlton's credentials are nevertheless impressive. They entered the game with a 9-5 record along with a 6'6", 220-lb. center; a 6'4", 240-lb. forward; and a 6'4", 195-lb. first sub.

"They are a big team and they like to get the ball inside to the big players. We knew we'd have to do something about them to take the game," Raymond said.

Carlton jumped to a 22-16 lead in the first quarter on the tactics described by Raymond while Chelsea manned a full court zone press. "In the second quarter we concentrated on denying them the inside shot and forcing them to work from the outside. We outscored them 19-9," he explained.

During the second period, Carlton took 17 shots, only five of them from the inside. Of the 17 attempts they completed five.

Second half was nip and tuck with Carlton outscoring Chelsea 18-14 in the third. Chelsea turned in the fourth quarter to outscore Airport, 16-13.

Three minutes remained in the game and Bulldogs held a 57-56 lead. Jeff Dils completed two outside jump shots and Don Schrotenboer executed two free throws. Likewise, Carlton added six points of their own to bring the score to 63-62. Coburn, with his free throws, iced the win.

From the floor, Chelsea completed 28 of 60 shots for 47 percent. Carlton made 25 of 68 for 38 percent.

RIBBON CUTTING: Most ribbons cut during opening ceremonies are abandoned after the hoopla, but not this one. Don Wood, village president, second from left, holds in his hand $250 worth of two-dollar bills. The ceremony was conducted Wednesday morning, Feb. 14 at the new McDonald's Restaurant officially opened the doors to the public. Accepting $200 of the ribbon was Corrine Gillan, director of nursing at Chelsea Community Hospital. The donation will be used for the pediatric ward at CCH. Supporting the ribbon on the right are Bill Rose, area supervisor, and Geoffrey Flaum, far right, store manager. $50 was donated to the Chelsea High school band which performed Wednesday morning.

GALA OPENING: McDonald's Restaurant, on S. Main St., the 4,945th store to open in this country, treated Chelsea VIPs to champagne and hors d'oeuvres Tuesday evening, prior to its opening on Wednesday morning, Feb. 14. Serving the treats are, from left, Dorene Dorer, crew person; John Gamble, assistant manager; Geoffrey Flaum, manager; Cynthia John, assistant manager; and Marcia Sikarski, caterer.

FIRST CUSTOMERS: Mrs. Nancy Dunn of 555 Washington St. and her daughter Kim Tapping were the first customers of the newly-opened McDonald's Restaurant on Wednesday, Feb. 14 according to Mrs. Dunn, "our reason for coming in today was because my daughter lost in a game of Odyssey two nights ago. Kim owed me a breakfast," she said.

McDonald's Restaurant Opens New Facility on S. Main St.

McDonald's Restaurant, 1535 S. Main St., officially opened its doors to the public Wednesday morning, Valentine's Day, with a ribbon-cutting and flag-raising ceremony, despite the nasty February weather.

Village President Don D. Wood cut the ribbon of $2 bills while Girl Scout Troop No. 689 performed the flag ceremony. $200 of the ribbon was presented to the Chelsea Community Hospital for its pediatric ward while $50 was donated to the Chelsea High school band which played for the occasion.

The restaurant is the village's first McDonald's and the 4,945th store built in this country. McDonald's also has stores around the world and recently opened its 5,000th restaurant in Tokyo.

The Chelsea store has a seating capacity of 101 and a 52-car parking lot including a drive-up window. "Our restaurant will be open the same fast, inexpensive service for which McDonald's is famous," Bill Rose, area supervisor for McDonald's, commented. The interior decor features pictures provided by Washtenaw County Historical Society. The pictures of old Chelsea were obtained through a $500 donation to the society which will be used for the society's renovation of the Barton Power Dam in Ann Arbor as a historical museum, according to Hazel Proctor, the society's president. Geoffrey Flaum, store manager, said that the restaurant will be open from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m., Sunday through Thursday and from 7 a.m. to midnight on Friday and Saturday. More than 60 area residents will be employed by the restaurant.

Independents Nominate Full Party Ticket

Scenes from one of the greatest love stories ever filmed failed to keep more than 50 Chelsea residents from attending the annual Independent Party caucus held Monday, Feb. 12.

The caucus was called to order at 8 p.m. sharp by chairman George Palmer, with nominations seconds, and unanimous approval for three trustees, a clerk, and two Library Board members concluded in a swift nine minutes. The village election will be held on Monday, March 12 in the Sylvan town hall.

On the Independent Party ticket for two-year terms as trustees are incumbents Mike Sweet, Lyle Chriswell, and new comer to Chelsea politics John Popovich. Jack Patrick, whose term as trustee expires this year, did not seek re-election.

Sweet is concluding his second term as village trustee while Chriswell is completing his first term. Chriswell was first appointed to the position in November, 1976 to fill a vacancy.

Incumbent Thomas Neumeier was chosen as the party's nominee for village clerk for a third term in the two-year post.

Popovich, 46, is a 1950 graduate of Chelsea High school who was born and raised in Chelsea. He is general manager of Faist-Sprague Buick-Olds and is an active member of American Legion Post No. 31. "I'm happy to receive the nomination and will try to perform the job of trustee as successfully as the present and past trustees following the caucus."

On the ballot for three-year terms as Library Board trustees are incumbents William Chandler and Jean Eaton.

All party candidates will run unopposed in the March election although write-in candidates are (Continued on page eight)

Chief Meranuck Resigns Position, Effective in May

Police Chief George Meranuck, a veteran of the Chelsea force since July 15, 1967, announced his resignation effective May 19, 1979 to the Chelsea Village Council during its regular meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 6.

Council members accepted his resignation "with extreme regret," and appointed a committee of four for the hiring of a new police chief, including council members Jack Patrick, James Schardein, Hal Rady, and Village President Don Wood.

"I'm sorry to be leaving the department but I'm getting old and there are times when I can't take care of the people who need taking care of," Meranuck commented.

"I don't figure to be around too long after I turn 70 in eight years and I'd like to do some things before I go," he added. Meranuck will be 62 on April 19.

Meranuck had originally intended to retire when he became 60, "but I got rolling along with the job and decided to wait until I became eligible for social security," he said.

He, and his wife, Wilma of 38 years, intend to leave their home this summer and travel south to Florida and west to Nevada where they have a son Daniel, 37, who lives in Reno. Another son, James, 34, resides in Manchester. Eventually, they plan to locate somewhere near Sarasota, Fla., for their retirement.

Meranuck first came to Chelsea following a 25 1/2-year stint with the Detroit Police Department. He had been a detective, a sergeant, lieutenant, and, before he left, an inspector.

No names have been mentioned as a possible successor to Meranuck although the next in rank, Sergeant McDougall, is said not to be interested.

"Whoever assumes my job will have to be a working chief," Meranuck said. "The police chief in Chelsea has a number of jobs from performing cross-walk duties to apprehending criminals in addition to the paper work, payroll, and personnel management of the department," he added.

Powers Farm Hit By PBB Contamination

Seventy-eight hogs, purebred Du-Rocs belonging to Scott Powers, were destroyed Thursday, Feb. 8, when tests on the animals disclosed that they were contaminated with PBB.

The hogs represented what was to have been Scott's livelihood following his graduation from Chelsea High school this year.

They also represent what has become a relentless, repeating nightmare for the Powers family who live in Lima township on Scio Church Rd.

In 1974, almost exactly a year after polybrominated biphenyl (a fire retardant) was accidentally mixed in with livestock feed, Scott's brother Rod had 40 head of beef cattle and 150 hogs slaughtered for the same reason. Those animals were also to have been Rod's source of income when he graduated.

Rod was forced to find work off the farm his father, Harold (Charlie) Powers owns, while "it is still too early to tell what Scott is going to do," the boy's mother, Martha Powers said.

With the slaughtering of the hogs "here's just us and the dog left," Mrs. Powers said. "You could say I'm a little bitter. They (the Michigan Department of Agriculture) come in here and play God. They came in 1974 and put Rod out of business and then came back five years later, without warning, and do the same thing to Scott," she said.

The Powers farm is one of 14 farms in the state still quarantined although it is the only one in Washtenaw county. The recent quarantine followed a series of tests performed on the Powers animals to determine their PBB level, if any.

According to the Michigan Department of Agriculture, which did the tests, the contamination is the result of PBB lingering in the soil which the hogs were in contact with.

"The department should have known that PBB wasn't going to just disappear after they found it the first time in 1974 but I didn't see anyone coming back here to check on it. They just wait five years, then come, and kill everything again," Mrs. Powers stated. She also finds the state's system of reimbursement leaving much to be desired. She said the state reimbursing farmers for the market value of the present weight of the animal. "An adult hog is usually worth between $300 and $500 but would only bring between $50 and $100 from the state because of the contamination. They should reimburse for the true value of the animals including the operational costs and feed costs involved," she said.

"It's a vicious circle. Because of what has happened, who would want to buy any hogs from us. And who would want to buy contaminated land?" she asked.

Chelsea School Bus Hit By Small Truck

A Chelsea School District bus with six passengers was hit broadside by a slow moving small truck at the intersection of Boyce and Roepeke Rds., early Monday morning, Feb. 12.

Only the driver of the truck received minor injuries, according to Washtenaw County Sheriff's Deputy Larry Thayer.

According to reports, a large obstructive snow bank on Roepeke Rd. blocked the vision of the school bus driver Anna Boote.

"She was unable to see any oncoming traffic and when she pulled ed out it was too late," Thayer reported. The bus was hit by the truck driven by Barbara Krasuski, 8150 Roepeke Rd., Gregory, who "was also unable to see the bus," Thayer said.

Krasuski did not have a stop sign at the intersection.

Neither driver was issued a citation although Thayer said he noted in his report that both were at fault. "There is a steep incline at that intersection and there is a bad snow bank but they both should have taken these factors (Continued on page eight)

On the right is Mrs. Ralph Oesterle, Woman's Club president. A chair scale is designed to weigh the ill and infirm patients with maximum safety and comfort. Nurses will be able to weigh the patients while they are seated.

Committee Assignments Divide Senate

It has often been said never watch sausage and legislation being made. Add to that list the watching of appointment of legislative committee assignments.
For the first time in Michigan history, the appointment of Senate standing committees were made in an open forum with the end result being a bitter split among the 24-members of the Democratic majority.
Under new Senate rules, 1979 is the first year the majority leader was given the authority to make the committee assignments. Previously the leader had little authority and was a pawn of the caucus. The rule changes give the leader similar authorities as enjoyed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
Senate Majority Leader William Faust of Westland appointed a so-called advisory committee on committees to aid him this year with the committee assignments to provide a transition from the caucus power to the leader power of making the appointments.
In an open forum, the committee began its deliberations but it became apparent members were holding back and not saying what they felt as members of the public and press were constantly in attendance at the meetings.
Several meetings brought forth little progress. The only progress was on the consensus assignments, where there was no controversy.

Finally, Faust presented the advisory committee with a list of assignments he had made, depending upon education, experience and seniority.
After the committee began going through the suggested assignments, it became apparent there was another force operating and the Faust list was drastically changed, placing people on committees in a hunt and peck fashion.
The major reason for the substitute list was to strip certain members of powerful assignments as they had been marked as targets by the powerful United Auto Workers union who was asserting pressures on the group in the name of reform.
When the list went back to the Democratic caucus for approval—a so-called caucus—UAW targets showed their strengths and placed the entire list in question as it had to be approved by the entire Senate.
As few as five Democratic members could—if unhappy with assignments—ban with the 14-member Republican caucus and with the tie-breaking vote belonging to Republican Lt. Governor James Brickley and organize and control the Senate for the next four years.
Also, members supporting the substitute list could not explain specifically why certain members were placed on specific committees.
When the final vote was taken, the substitute list had been re-

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
Ed Doolittle got the floor early during the session at the country store Saturday night, and he kept it long. He told the fellows that he has studied the situation up one side and down the other, and he is full convinced that these Sunset Commission watchdogs that has been turned loose in 26 states is barking their fool heads off up the wrong trees.
First off, Ed said, the idea behind these sunset laws is to trim deadwood out of Government. If an agency or department or division ain't earning its keep do away with it. This will save what it cost to run the outfit, and it'll save folks the aggravation of putting up with services and regulations they don't need and don't want. That's the assignment give all these Evaluation Commissions, Ed allowed, but that ain't the targets they're shooting at. In ever case he's seen in the papers, Ed said the sunset laws is being applied to the state licensing boards for trades and professions.
Practical speaking, Ed went on, it was to much to expect these commissions to bite the hands that made them by turning on the Government and coming down for trimming fat. But they are doing worse than nothing by going for these boards that are made up of private citizens that ain't on no Government payroll. Fact is, Ed said, most of em actual make money for their states by turning in fees they get for licenses. Ed reported that Florida, for one, was doing away with licensing boards by the bunches. Barbers and watchmakers went early, according to Ed, and ever job from architect to zookeeper is going to

Chinese Cooking Class Underway
At this date, according to Friends of the Dexter Library member Beverly Hill, only one of four classes currently being offered by the group's Community Education program, "Chinese Cooking," is full and proceeding as planned. The remaining two have been canceled because of a lack of response.
A major test is ahead for the Senate leadership. The legislative future of the state, for the next session, is squarely on their shoulders and their ability to pull together will determine the value of the next session.
Clem Webster got Ed slowed down enough to tell the fellows the thinking behind this part of sunset laws. The state ain't got no business being part of a deal that keeps folks out of a particular trade, Clem said, unless the job has to do with the health, safety and general welfare of the public. If a feller gets a bad haircut onct, he goes to another barber the next time, went on Clem, and by the time his hair has grown out and he's none the worst off. Clem was strong of the mind that the old advice about letting the buyer beware still has a place, 'cause folks still got sense enough to know whether they like what they got. Per a state to set standards for a house painter carrying police power to far, was Clem's words. He said let the house owner judge quality of the work.
Ed fired back that the sun had set on Clem's brains. Why bother boards that was created in the public interest, he wanted to know, when you got all them $100-a-day consultants coming in at ever level of Government advising how to what the Sunset Commission is supposed to cut out? Why pour more tax money in this CET that pays folks to do jobs only if it can be proved the jobs don't need doing? How come we got so many Government workers we have reached the point where it's better to keep paying em to do nothing than to go through the paperwork of getting rid of em? The questions went on into the night, Mister Editor.
Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Chelsea Senior Citizen Nutrition Program Observes Anniversary

HAPPY FIRST BIRTHDAY: Gladys Barth, known for her "white thumb" at the Chelsea Senior Citizen Nutrition Program, prepared two scrumptious birthday cakes for the gang at St. Mary's. Although the program has been serving well-balanced meals to area senior citizens for several years it has only been a year since Betty Koch site manager, initiated the "scratch kitchen" where all meals are cooked in the St. Mary kitchen. The birthday celebration took place on Tuesday, Feb. 13.

Washtenaw County Community Services Agency Senior Nutrition Program, honored the Chelsea Nutrition Site and, especially, the site manager, Betty Koch in a ceremony that celebrated the first anniversary of scratch cooking at the site in St. Mary's school at 300 Congdon.

A proclamation honoring Betty Koch was read by Peter Yelorda, Executive Director of WCCSA. The senior volunteers and the present cook also came in for their share of honors.

Betty began the scratch cooking a year ago, pioneering this type of kitchen in Washtenaw county. "She did a fantastic job in handling both the site manager and the cook positions until this fall when the decision was made to hire Donna Williams as cook, freeing Betty to return as full-time site manager," Yelorda commented.

"From the very beginning, we have depended on the site participants to act as volunteers in helping prepare, serve, and clean up after the meals, as well as in many other areas. They, too, have done a fantastic job. Without them, the scratch cooking project would not have been such a success," Mrs. Koch added.

"There is a lot of community support for the Nutrition Program in Chelsea. Father Dupuis and the Church Board have allowed us to use St. Mary's school since November, 1974 for the program. This December, the CATS bus service began helping us by providing daily transportation for the Seniors who needed rides at a very nominal fee," according to Koch.

There are different activities at the site each day. The site is open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. For further information call, 994-1654 at 475-8582. Any senior over the age of 60 is welcome. Spouses, under 60 are also welcome.

The U. S. Employment Service and affiliated state agencies operate more than 2,500 local offices to serve those seeking employment and those providing it.

History of Area's Old Buildings Presented

On Monday, Feb. 12, the Chelsea Area Historical Society held its regular 8 p.m. meeting at the McKune Memorial Library.

Mrs. Lois Moore, president, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Gwen Schroder introduced the speaker of the evening, Paul Hoffman.

Hoffman, a long-time Chelsea resident, spoke to the members and guests on his favorite subject, the individual histories of Chelsea's landmark homes and buildings.

Among those buildings presented were the first house built in Chelsea, the oldest house still standing in Chelsea, the Packard house, and the Town Hall.

The first house was built by Elisha Congdon on the site of the McKune Library and was moved twice to its final site across from the entry to the Chelsea Hospital. The house was torn down in 1988.

The oldest house standing in Chelsea was the first general store, and then post office. This house is located at 115 East St.

The Packard House, 127 Madison St., stood originally on the site of Merkel's. It was probably built by Elisha Congdon. The house was used as a doctor's office, and in 1902 was an ice cream parlor. This house was moved in 1904 to its present site.

The Town Hall, which was completed in 1883 has seen a flurry of activity over the years. The building has been used as township and village offices. It was also the site of medicine shows, theatricals, box socials, dances, feathery parties, rummage sales, and Chelsea High school basketball.

In addition to Hoffman's interesting and eloquent descriptions of the buildings, he also had photographs which included present day pictures, and whenever possible, older photographs.

The Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) requires the establishment of written procedures for filing claims for benefits, which are then listed in a summary plan description that the plan administrator must give to those eligible.

VA's hospital and medical care system—the nation's largest—provides inpatient and ambulatory care to some 185,000 beneficiaries each day, the greatest number in any agency history.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH are Tammy Collingsworth and Mike Wadyke. Chelsea High school student council has recently instituted a Students of the Month award. Each month, candidates for the award are nominated by either students or staff at the high school. A committee consisting of two students from each class and two teachers consider the nominations and select both a male and female student for the recognition: Tammy, a senior, president of her class and co-captain of both the varsity basketball was selected on the basis of her activities as school treasurer, a job which requires much time and attention to detail. She has currently handled more than $70,000 in funds. She is the vice-president of her class and co-captain of both the varsity basketball and softball teams. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Collingsworth of Ivey Rd., Tammy plans to attend Central Michigan University upon graduation. Mike, also a senior, was selected for his overall academic achievements. Ranked at the top of his class, Mike is a Michigan Competitive Scholarship finalist and received a National Merit commendation. He has also participated in the National Honor Society, the debate team, symphony band, stage band pep band, and a church youth group. Mike is the son of Jerry and Mary Wadyke of Chandler Rd. He plans to attend the University of Michigan or Calvin College for studies in science.

Frosh Cagers Drop Two Close Contests

Chelsea freshmen cagers suffered their eighth and ninth loss of the season last week in narrow games against Lincoln on Feb. 6 and Milan on Feb. 8.

Chelsea took a 44-40 defeat from the Lincoln Railsplitters in a make-up game despite fine performances by John Welton and Todd Sprague and a better record in accumulated turnovers.

"More improvement is needed in rebounding and defense work. When these are accomplished the team's record should improve," Coach Jim Tallman reported.

Lincoln gained a three-point lead during the first quarter which they increased to 10 points by halftime. An offensive spurt by the Bullpups in the third quarter reduced the gap by six tallies and added 10 points in the final stanza. A steady performance by Lincoln, however, earned them the victory.

Leading Bullpup scorer was John Welton with an even dozen. Todd Sprague added 11; Geoff Shaw, Mike Bareis and Darrow Keezer chipped in four each. Keezer contributed five rebounds.

Against the Milan Big Reds, Chelsea again ended on the short end of a 48-45 decision. "Despite our record of late, the team has been showing steady improvement. Gary Van Meer came off the bench in the second quarter and had a tremendous game," Tallman commented.

During the first three quarters, Chelsea held the lead—10-8 in the first period; 26-18 in the second; and 36-33 in the third. The Little Reds overpowered the Bullpups in the final quarter, keeping Chelsea's offense to nine points while they chalked up 15 points for the win.

Three Bullpups finished with double digit scores, including Mike Bareis with 12; Gary Van Meer, 10; and Todd Sprague, 10. Also scoring were Toby Boyd and Geoff Shaw, both with four.

Darrow Keezer, with a consistent scoring and rebounding record all year, counted for 20 rebounds. Van Meer added nine and Geoff Shaw, seven.

"It's good to see individuals like Van Meer come through and have a good game like he did against Milan. This has been a common feature of our team this year with each member excelling in one game. Our only task remaining is for everyone to have a good game on the same night," Tallman said.

General services provided by the U. S. Employment Service include outreach, interviewing, testing, counseling, and referral to placement, training and other services in readying individuals for employment.

7th Grade Cagers Sport 6-2 Record

Seventh grade basketball cagers will close out their regular season Tuesday, Feb. 20 against Dexter, at home.

To date the Bullpups have posted a 6-2 record for the season.

Chelsea defeated Clinton twice, 34-16, and 33-12; and Lincoln twice, 32-21, and 20-8. Bullpups squashed Milan once, 44-31, and Dexter, 31-28.

Dexter was the highlight of the season as they came from behind to score the winning basket with just 11 seconds on the clock.

Chelsea lost two tough games to Saline, 45-28, and 38-28, as in each game they fell behind early.

The 7th and 8th grade teams will complete their seasons by playing in the Stockbridge tournament this Saturday, Feb. 17 with the finals on Saturday, Feb. 24.

Coach Charles Waller attributed the Bullpups' winning record to good aggressive pressure defense. "We play man-to-man defense and the same type of offense as the high school team," Waller explained.

"David Lane provided the necessary ball handling skills, backed up by Eric Green. Both team members played fine defense. Lane's outstanding ability to get the ball up court under great pressure has played an important role in our success," according to Waller.

Offensively, Lane and Green directed the team's offense, but Marty Steinhauer provided the scoring punch for the team during most of the season. Marty scored 20 points against a tough Milan team to mark the season's scoring high point. He has been the trigger for the 7th graders offense, and even when he was not doing the shooting himself, he sparked the team with his hustle and all-out defense.

Glenn Prinzing and Charles Hager were the two big men for Chelsea on the boards as they out-rebounded most of the teams Chelsea has played. Both represented the offense and defensive balance of the team, with Prinzing as the leading rebounder and second leading scorer, while Hager led the team in defensive statistics and was the third leading scorer.

Greg Stephens shared the fifth man position with Jeff Blanchard, Guy Gross, and Richie Slater, all who have seen action as the cutting guard.

David Klei has been the team's No. 1 substitute and a part-time starter. He has given the team excellent flexibility on the front line, while becoming the third leading rebounder and fifth leading scorer.

Randy Sabo, Jeff Martin, and Jay Marshall have all seen limited action as relief for the front line, and have contributed greatly to the team during practice. They provided excellent play during scrimmages, and the fine depth that has allowed Chelsea to play with faster and quicker teams.

Waller commented, "the team has improved during the season, learning a little about basketball, achieving some experience in competitive athletics, and having a good time."

RED SQUARE: The pageantry of this Moscow square will come to life this Saturday evening at 8 o'clock when the Chelsea Kiwanis Club presents Clay Francisco and "The Russian Experience," in its 18th annual Travel and Adventure Series in the Chelsea High school auditorium.

'Russian Experience' Is Travelogue Subject

CLAY FRANCISCO

All is not the bitter cold of a Siberian winter in the Soviet Union as Clay Francisco will vividly point out with scenes of a spring-time ride on the Trans-Siberian Railroad in his "Russian Experience" to be shown Saturday, Feb. 17 in the Chelsea High school auditorium at 8 p.m.

The fourth of six travelogue adventures sponsored by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club will feature a penetrating analysis of life in Russia.

To be explored are Moscow, the many sights within the Kremlin walls, Czarist palaces, and old St. Petersburg, now Leningrad.

Francisco invites the viewer to spend the winter in Siberia, walk historic streets with the Russian citizenry, journey to famed Black Sea resorts, and witness first-hand a Russian vacation. He will also study ancient mosques (a Moslem house of worship) and minarets (the tall slender tower on a mosque) of Samarkand in Soviet Asia.

Francisco's photographic concern is the portrayal of how people live in relation to their physical surroundings. In "The Russian Experience" he traveled 10,000 miles through the Soviet Union searching out the story of a country through its people.

The production of travel motion picture films, for Francisco, is the logical conclusion of a varied career. A student job as an assistant in the University of Missouri's office of public information resulted in a series of positions in publishing.

His journalist's lively concern with world affairs and a life-long interest in photography and in the motion picture as a method of communication contributed to his development into a film lecturer.

After more than three years of wartime service, including amphibious warfare in World War II and participation in the landing on Leyte Island in the Philippines, and Okinawa Island, he returned to the University of Missouri and received his degree in public relations in 1948.

After graduation he was assigned with Time, Inc., publishers of "Time," and "Life" magazines for six years, and was publisher of the west coast edition of "Playbill," national theatre program magazine.

Today his full-time occupation is the production of travel motion pictures. He has produced films for television and has appeared many times on television with his films. He also assists in the production of classroom educational films, using material gathered from around the world.

VFW Auxiliary Business Notes

The regular business session of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary No. 4076 was held Monday, Feb. 12 with 12 members attending.

Virginia Shirmacher was elected and initiated into membership of the auxiliary. Elizabeth Smith gave a detailed report on the weekly Friday morning coffee hour the auxiliary sponsors, and also reported that Lucy Platt is now an official volunteer assisting the auxiliary chairwoman Elizabeth Smith in this project.

Americanism chairwoman Eulahlee Packard reported on the presentation of an American flag to the Methodist Home on Feb. 12. She also had presented a desk flag to the Voice of Democracy contest winner.

Total Eclipse Of Sun Visible Here Feb. 26

No one will want to miss the last total eclipse of the sun to take place in this century Monday, Feb. 26, when the moon passes between the earth and the sun to block out the celestial orb. There are wise ways to observe the phenomenon, however, and staring directly at it is not one of them.

In this area, the eclipse will be partial, and those who look straight at it run the risk of permanent blindness from the sun's ultraviolet rays. The only practical way to experience the juxtaposition is to turn your back to the sun and allow the light to shine through a pinhole in a piece of cardboard onto a white screen. This will cast a mirror-image of the heavenly occurrence that may be studied in safety.

The eclipse will take place over this area at 10:43 a.m., reach its maximum at 11:59 a.m., and end at 1:18 p.m.

'Kiss Your Baby' Week Set By C-F Foundation

Babies are born to be kissed. They are so lovable, so wonderful. And they need us so much.

That's why the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation asks you to "Kiss Your Baby" with very special attention. If he should have cystic fibrosis, he will really need you to do something about it promptly.

One of the signs of cystic fibrosis—the most serious lung-damaging disease—is a salty taste of the skin. If you do taste salt on your baby, see your doctor. Make sure your baby has a test for C-F. Early diagnosis and immediate treatment is vital to your child's life.

Additional signs of cystic fibrosis—and other lung-damaging diseases are: recurrent wheezing; persistent coughing with excessive mucus; pneumonia more than once; excessive appetite but poor weight gain; clubbing (enlarged) fingers and toes; and nasal polyps.

For more information contact your local chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation or the CF clinic at Mott Children's Hospital. When you kiss your baby for the taste of salt, it's an act of love for his well being.

BRAD KNICKERBOCKER (24): Playing his first year on varsity, the 5'9", 172-lb. junior is positioned as guard and forward although most of his time on the court is spent performing the duties of forward. According to Knickerbocker, an athlete with a well-rounded schedule of baseball, football, and basketball, a forward "gets the best shots and scores the most points," he explained. A guard, on the other hand, "handles the ball, sets up the play, and makes sure things go right so the forward can score," he added. Knickerbocker has played in nearly all of the Bulldogs' games this season with the Brighton match posted as his best. "On an average I collect two points a game but during our first meet with Brighton I scored eight points," he commented. He recalls two games this year that stand out the most from the others, including Novi and Milan in the beginning of the season. "We defeated Novi by 10 points even though it was thought they would win and when we faced Milan it was a tight game to the last second. We lost by one point," he said. While Knickerbocker pointed out that the Bulldogs are out of the SEC race "we've got to keep our eyes on the tournament and make certain that we finish as high up as we can in the league." Tournament play comes at the close of the season when every team plays each other with the loser being eliminated. The eventual winner qualifies for the state championship. Knickerbocker is a split-end on the varsity football squad and plays second base on the varsity baseball team. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Knickerbocker, 228 E. North St.

JV Cagers Run Win Streak to 5 Games

Increasing their winning streak to five games last week, Chelsea junior varsity cagers stormed the Lincoln Railsplitters, 64-41 on Feb. 3, and defeated the Milan Big Reds, 62-58 on Feb. 9.
 Junior Bulldogs now have an 1-3 SEC record and an 8-7 over-all record. They are the second-place team in the league.
 Chelsea took a full quarter to warm up to the Railsplitters, sharing a six-point count at the quarter's end. Junior Bulldogs gained the needed momentum before half-time, earning 17 points and limiting the Railsplitters to eight. An even better show was put on in the third stanza, with Chelsea totaling 19 tallies to Lincoln's eight. Chelsea's offense capped the evening with 22 points in the final quarter while a late rally by Lincoln added 19.
 "We played about as well as we could in this game with the defense totally controlling the game," Coach Jon Schaffner commented. "Our defense held Lincoln to a 22 percent average from the field and 50 percent from the line. It also forced Lincoln into many turnovers," he explained.
 Chelsea shot 40 percent from the field and 70 percent from the line. Leading scorer for the junior Bulldogs was Jon Riemenschneider with 17. Also scoring were Carl Simpson, 10; Chris Heaton, eight; Mark Steinaway, six; Karl Albrecht, five; Chris Tobin, four; Jeff Price, four; Sean Peterson, four; Mike Lazarz, Carl Schwarze, and Eric Headrick, each with two.
 Karl Albrecht contributed 11 rebounds, three steals, four assists, and seven blocked shots.
 Jon Riemenschneider added five rebounds, three steals and four assists.
 Mike Lazarz had two steals as did Sean Peterson, Jeff Price had three assists, Carl Schwarze, two; Peterson, two; and Lazarz, two.
 Both Chelsea and Milan were tied for second place with 7-3 SEC records when they met on Friday, Feb. 9. In their first encounter this year, Milan defeated Chelsea by 21 points.
 "We didn't play as well as we have been except for some outstanding shooting," Schaffner commented. Chelsea hit 23 of 46 shots from the field for 50 percent and 16 of 25 foul shots for 64 percent. "The shooting definitely won the game for us as we were out-rebounded and had more turnovers than Milan. The defense was also a factor as we held Milan to 34 percent from the field," he added.
 Milan took a one-point lead in the first quarter, 22-21, while Chelsea caught up during the second quarter to even the score at 34-34. Junior Bulldogs gained a three-point margin in the third period and barely took the game before the final buzzer.
 Sean Peterson had an all-season high of 24 points to lead the team in scoring. Riemenschneider counted for 18. Albrecht had six; Peterson added seven steals, Price, five; and Heaton, three. Carl Schwarze and Peterson both turned in three assists while Albrecht worked for five blocked shots.
 "These kids have really worked hard. When they were 3-7 the season looked bleak but they buckled down and have really played some good basketball the past several weeks," Schaffner commented. Chelsea plays Dexter on Friday, Feb. 16, there.

Good Things Growing In Michigan

If winter blues have arrived at your home, try treating your family to a bright red breakfast by topping your favorite pancakes or waffles with a delicious Michigan cherry sauce.

In our state, where good things are growing, 200 million pounds of cherries were harvested last year, about 77 percent of the nation's production. Michigan leads the U.S. in red tart cherry production and ranks second in sweet cherries, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

With 95 percent of Michigan's cherry crop being processed, ample supplies are available all year for preparing favorite desserts, such as cherry cobbler or a traditional cherry pie topped with Michigan whipped cream.

But during "in-house" winter months, try experimenting with cherries as main course additions. Roast chicken with cherry stuffing, cherry meatloaf or cherry muffins may open food preparation avenues never thought of before.

These colorful treats were in existence long before George Washington's mother's cherry tree made them famous. Cherry pits found among cave dwellers' remains in Europe, North America and Asia date their cultivation to monks introduced cherries to California but a majority of the fruit ended up in Michigan, primarily along our Lake Michigan shoreline.

Three principal varieties are grown in Michigan, Montmorency red tart cherries for fresh and canned markets, Napoleon sweet cherries for brining and finishing into maraschino cherries and Schmidts for fresh market sweet cherries.

For an added family treat, start planning a spring outing to Michigan's cherry orchards during blossom time in late April. More than 5 million cherry trees, combined with other blossoming fruit trees, are a beautiful, and aromatic, sight.

For help in planning your tour, send for MDA's free booklet, "A Cook's Tour of Good Things Growing in Michigan," P. O. Box 30017, Lansing 48909. Twelve individually mapped tours, each of a different Michigan commodity, are highlighted.

The U. S. Employment Service provides services to veterans (with preference for disabled veterans) leading to employment and training.

Fuel Tax Revenues Show Small Increase

Record numbers of cars and trucks traveling Michigan highways increased state fuel tax collections by 4.3 percent in the last quarter of 1978 (October-December), compared to the same period of 1977, the Michigan Transportation Commission has reported.

Increases in vehicles and miles traveled pushed revenues from gas and diesel fuel taxes to $114,035,545, up by $4,737,713 from the final quarter of 1977.

Weight tax (license plate) collections moved up by 25.6 percent, the result of increases included in the package of transportation bills passed by the Legislature in the fall. The new fees went into effect when 1979 license plates went on sale Nov. 1. Fuel tax increases began Jan. 1.

Weight taxes for the quarter totaled $36,438,789, compared with $29,038,041 in 1977.

Miscellaneous revenue and interest earned on highway user taxes totaled $4,804,330. Revenues from all sources added up to $155,346,686, a nine percent increase from 1977.

All the money goes into the Michigan Transportation Fund, which replaces the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund. After deduction of $10,420,059 for various grants and collection costs totaling $7.59 million, the $144,926,629 remaining will be distributed according to a set formula.

The new Comprehensive Transportation Fund financing public transportation and rail programs will receive $12,033,588, or 8.3 percent of the total.

The State Trunkline (highway) Fund will receive $55,646,886 as its 38.4 percent share. The 83 county road commissions will collect $49,709,642 as their 34.3 portion while the 531 incorporated cities and villages will receive $27,538,933 as their 19 percent share.

Fourth quarter distribution amounts to counties, cities and villages compared to the same period of 1977 are as follows:

Jackson, $335,923 in 1977, $914,564 in 1978; Livingston, $440,681, $494,920; Washtenaw, $971,404, $1,069,559; Ann Arbor, $426,228, $459,809; Chelsea $18,067, $17,331; Dexter, $7,909, $8,521; Manchester, $3,906, $9,713; Milan, $18,235, $19,637; Pinckney $5,385, $5,962; Saline $19,030, $20,529; Ypsilanti, $100,336, $108,307.

Pinckney Man Receives Juris Doctor Degree

Geoffrey V. Moffat of Pinckney, was among the 99 graduates of the Henry M. Butzel Class at Cooley Law School in Lansing to receive their juris doctor degrees Sunday, Jan. 21.

The commencement message was delivered by Leo A. Farhat, president of the State Bar of Michigan. He called upon the law graduates to "provide a service to society by being professionals in the true meaning of the word. A close fiduciary relationship between lawyer and client and ultimately between lawyer and society, this is the true meaning of being a professional," stated Farhat.

"Selfless devotion to our clients." This is our responsibility as lawyers, asserted Farhat.

Sunday's ceremony marked the 10th class of graduates to receive their juris doctor degrees from Cooley Law School.

Located in Lansing across the street from the State Capital and within a few blocks of the State Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, Cooley Law School opened its doors to students in January, 1973. Its first class graduated three years later.

Today Cooley Law School is one of the state's largest with nearly 1,100 students who attend classes in three self-contained divisions on a year-around academic calendar.

Rep. Ballantine Named To Five Committees

Freshman State Representative Mary Keith Ballantine (R-23rd District) has been named to five House committees and will serve as vice-chairman of the Corrections Committee for the 1979-80 legislative session.

Aside from her vice-chairmanship, Mrs. Ballantine was also assigned to the Urban Affairs, Senior Citizens and Retirement, Public Health and Public Utilities committees.

"I am happy with my committee assignments," Mrs. Ballantine said. "Each is in an area that has a significant impact on many persons living in the 23rd District and I am gratified that I am being given the opportunity to shape legislation that affects my constituents."

Mrs. Ballantine said that the area of corrections will pose a "real challenge" to the 80th Legislature since the mood of the public is one of limited spending, yet many current facilities need expanding and upgrading.

"Governor Milliken has proposed a lean budget for the coming fiscal year," Mrs. Ballantine said. "It will be a real challenge for those of us on the Corrections Committee to make sound recommendations for the improvement of the state's correctional facilities with the money we'll have to work with. Priorities will have to be established so that the system can be upgraded as quickly as possible."

A Jackson County Commissioner for eight years, Mrs. Ballantine believes that her experience in local government has provided her a solid foundation for work in the legislature.

"My experience on the county commission has given me a perspective for understanding the larger issues that I will be dealing with in Lansing," Mrs. Ballantine said. "I am especially looking forward to my work on the Urban Affairs Committee. After all, the problems of our cities are the problems of our surrounding communities as well."

Mrs. Ballantine cited mass transportation in Michigan and land use control as two major areas of legislation the Urban Affairs Committee will consider this term.

"I am eager for the 80th Legislature to begin moving and I am hopeful that the members of this legislature will deal responsibly and rapidly with the issues before them to make Michigan a better place to live," Mrs. Ballantine said.

Mrs. Ballantine said she welcomes any suggestions offered by her constituents. She noted that letters may be addressed to her in care of the State Capitol Building, Lansing 48909. Her office phone number is (517) 373-1773.

"I have also set up a district answering service to keep in constant touch with my constituents," Mrs. Ballantine said. "That number is (517) 787-0145 and is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week."

Ricardo's Undergoing Major Remodeling

A three-day marathon at Ricardo's Hair Styling salon, 107 N. Main St., will "push the place up" according to its owners Rick and Alicia Foytik who took over the operation three years ago when it was the Village Beauty Salon.

When the paint-stained striped sheets and plastic liners are removed from the shop's front window, a new look to match the new clientele will greet the passerby.

"Only a small percent of our customers come in for a wash and set," Foytik said. "We are serving more and more people who are interested in stylish cuts blow drys, and perms and we want our store to fit the needs of our customers," he added.

Prior to the redecorating, the salon's hair driers were located in the front in full view of those who walked past.

Indians and other native Americans who are unemployed, underemployed and disadvantaged are eligible for training, public service employment and other services under the U. S. Department of Labor's Indian Programs.

Landwehr Construction Co., owned by Ron Landwehr, has designed a cozy room off to the side for the driers, to afford privacy.

"We are using a lot of cedar boards to create a fresh look and we will also be putting in new carpeting, according to Foytik. Other plans include painting, new lighting, and a bricked ledge in the lobby.

The shop will have longer hours, Foytik said, "to accommodate the schedules of working people."

Rick is a 1972 graduate of Chelsea High school and Alicia is a 1974 grad. They live at Portage Lake.

possible. Arrangements for absentee ballots may be arranged through Clerk Thomas Neumeyer.

The 1979 platform of the Independent Party has remained the same since 1977 and includes five major points:
—To continue to maintain the orderly and controlled growth of the village in accordance with our adopted comprehensive plan.

—To continue to work for the improvement of the present sewer system. The party believes that the improvement of the present system is the responsibility of the residents of the village but that the extension of the system is the responsibility of the developer.

—In favor of a co-operative approach to the problems of recreation and supports the village's participation in the co-ordinated group effort to draw together all of the local groups and agencies interested in recreation for Chelsea residents.

—Opposition to the proposed Mill Creek Metropolitan Park as proposed by Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority. The party cites that the park offers little if any benefits to local area residents and believes it will probably cause many problems for the area and added costs to local taxpayers.

—In favor of continued support of the Village Planning Commission.
The Independent Party dates back at least 50 years although it experienced a time of inactivity in the late 40s. Around 1952 it was reactivated and has continued to stand as an unchallenged local political body.

Water Tower Explosion Was 'No Accident'

Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms division, will investigate a report that three of four area youths arrested in connection with five Dexter break-ins Tuesday, Feb. 6, were involved in the Jan. 8 blasting of the village water tower, Washenaw County Sheriff's Deputies have announced.

"The explosion was no accident," said Dexter substation command officer Robert Aeillo of the rupture, which left the village without water for several hours and was originally blamed on pressure build-up behind a frozen valve. "Three sticks of dynamite were used."

Steven Michael Norris, 19, Daniel Roger Mesko, 17, and two juveniles, ages 15 and 14, were stopped by Deputies Basil Baysinger and Richard Pniewski Tuesday afternoon at the corner of Dexter-Pinckney and Island Lake Rds. and were arrested and charged for harboring a fugitive from a juvenile home. The 15-year-old was an escapee from the Starr Commonwealth Home, deputies said.

Stolen goods recovered soon afterward from a motel room connected to the burglary of a home in the 4400 block of Kuebler Ct., deputies said, and although when contacted the owners were unaware that their home had been victimized, the four were arraigned Wednesday in 14th District Court on a charge of breaking and entering. Three were also arraigned on four additional counts of breaking and entering in connection with recent burglaries of Dexter Plywood, Dexter Bowl 'n' Bar, and Ann's Party Store in Ann Arbor.

The 'Bowl 'n' Bar was hit twice on the same night. Norris was being held on $10,000 bond, and he, Mesko, and the 14-year-old were charged as well with harboring a fugitive from a time of the accident.

juvenile home. The 15-year-old escapee is believed to have taken part only in the Kuebler Ct. break-in.

Additional charges of endangering the public health and safety and malicious damage of property may be leveled at a later date on the sabotage of the water tower and of a private mailbox, deputies said. Dynamite was used in both explosions.

Washenaw County Sheriff's Detectives Joe Marshall and George Ralph are investigating reports that Norris, Mesko, and the 14-year-old were involved with as many as 20 unsolved break-ins. Of the fugitive from Starr Commonwealth, Aeillo said, "This is the third time he's escaped, and every time he's come back to Dexter and committed a B and E."

Detective Marshall added that members of the group may be tied to 90 percent of area break-ins committed since early last summer. Harold Kerr of the Detective Bureau is investigating the explosives angle, Marshall said.

into account when they approached the intersection," he said. He also noted that because the truck driven by Krasuski had nearly 600 pounds of bagged sand in the back "it made stopping much more difficult. All that weight worked to keep her from stopping because it kept pushing her forward when she applied the brakes," he said.

Krasuski was taken to the Chelsea Medical Center for a knot on her forehead received when her head hit the windshield. She was released shortly after. Thayer said she had been wearing both a seat belt and shoulder harness at the time of the accident.

YOUR NEXT HOME NOW!!!

If you knew interest rates would drop 2% in one year would it pay you to wait a year to buy a home? No!!!

Suppose you buy a $50,000 home and get a 30 year 9% mortgage, with 20% (or $10,000) down. Your monthly payment comes to $321.85 for principal and interest.

Assume that after one year, interest rates drop back down to 7% and you want to refinance. Even though your home will probably appreciate in value — by say 15% to $57,500 — you are refinancing based upon your original $40,000 mortgage. The appreciation on the home is gravy. Assuming a prepayment penalty of $1,788, your new principal balance would be $41,525. (Some states have no prepayment penalties.) At 7% your monthly payments would then be $276.27.

If, however, you elect to wait a year to buy the same home with a 7% mortgage, you first of all need a larger down payment — $11,500 instead of $10,000. Your mortgage will now be $46,000 which at 7% boils down to $306.04 per month — an annual increase of $357.24. The moral is — it's the cost of the house, not the interest rate, that makes the biggest impact on monthly payments.

M-52 Improvements Scheduled for 1980

What was to have been an informal public meeting at the Sharon Township Hall on Feb. 1 for input on future improvements to M-52 between I-94 and Pleasant Lake Rd., was instead a meeting where the public's input was as useless as that seven-mile segment of M-52 is in the spring.

According to a Michigan Department of Transportation news release published in The Chelsea Standard on Jan. 4, 1979, "it is the intent of the department to encourage citizen involvement and participation in this earliest phase of the planning study to improve

M-52." Jack Morgan, manager of the department's Public Involvement Section, emphasized that "this is not a public meeting on specific improvement proposals, since none has been designed."

According to Sharon Township Supervisor James Haller, however, "when people attended the afternoon meeting they learned that the department had already made up its mind about what was going to be done to M-52."

Why the sudden change of heart? Haller said he was told the department ran out of money. "A month ago we were told the department had earmarked enough money to make major changes to M-52 but just a few days before the meeting they called to tell us the money was gone," he explained.

Consequently, the portion of M-52 between I-94 south to Pleasant Lake Rd. will not see the revamping Haller and many Sharon township residents had hoped for.

Haller reported that the planned work will include widening the road one foot on each side, resurfacing the seven-mile stretch with asphalt, rebanking of curves, adding shoulder foundations, construction of shoulders, installing a new bridge over the county drain one-quarter mile north of Waldo Rd., and redesigning the intersection at Pleasant Lake Rd. and M-52.

"There is a very dangerous situation which exists between Waldo and Peckins Rds., and we had hoped that this would have been included in the reconstruction," Haller stated. Between those roads is a series of curves which has been the scene of several accidents and fatalities," Haller said.

"Many residents have expressed a desire to see those curves straightened out. Now would be a good time too since they wouldn't have to move buildings or homes to do the work," he explained.

The stretch of M-52 between Chelsea and Manchester is rated a "Class B" road and is subject to frost laws in effect from the time spring begins until the ground is relatively dry.

"This is one of several problems we have in the township because when the frost laws go into effect, heavy trucks are banned from the road," Haller said. "With the Michigan Livestock Exchange located on M-52 it means that trucks coming down M-52 have to take I-94 all the way to Ypsilanti, pick up Old US-12, drive through Clinton, and then north on M-52 to get there," Haller said.

Proposed work on M-52 is expected to begin in the spring of 1980 and will bring the rating up to a "Class A" road which is not subject to frost laws.

Another benefit of the work will be the elimination of the problem at the county drain. Currently a cement culvert is used as a bridge over the drain which Haller said "isn't wide enough for the water to go through. It acts more like a dam," he said. With a new bridge to be put in, "the blockage will be eliminated," Haller stated.

"We have needed this work done for some time now and even though we won't be getting everything we wanted, I'm happy with the proposed plan," Haller commented.

Program Helps Patients with Lung Disorders

The battle for breath is on.

For several years now, physicians and other health professionals, public health organizations and government officials have been waging an active campaign to get Americans to stop smoking, employers to eliminate unhealthy work areas and air polluters to stop fouling the air.

The fight that these groups have undertaken is devoted largely to cleaning up the air we breathe. Although public awareness of the relationship between air pollution, occupational hazards and respiratory diseases has increased in recent years because of this effort, environmental health hazards still exist, and many persons continue to smoke.

As a result, thousands of people continue to suffer from chronic obstructive pulmonary diseases (COPD). For this group, breathing is not taken for granted, but is a painful, laborious effort.

As recently as a hundred years ago, a discussion of chronic lung diseases would have been brief. The air was cleaner then. Exhaust-producing autos, buses, and trucks did not clog the nation's roadways, and smoking was not America's worst health habit.

DISORDERS CAUSED BY SMOKING

The most common cause of both bronchitis and emphysema is smoking. Beginning with the 1964 Report of the Advisory Committee to the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, studies completed in the last 14 years have repeatedly shown associations between smoking, respiratory symptoms and lung function loss.

While cigarette smoking is the primary villain in bronchitis and emphysema, certain dusts are also major contributors to pulmonary problems.

THE PAIN OF # ARTHRITIS!

If you have seen a doctor and he has diagnosed your problem as arthritis, you should follow his instructions carefully. If he gives you a schedule for taking medication and performing exercises on a regular basis, and allowing for recreation periods, do just as he has advised you.

Proper diagnosis is extremely important. It's human nature to try to diagnose one's own ailments... and even to prescribe for oneself. Don't. If you should have arthritis, treating yourself could be a short cut to misery for you. See your personal physician and let him decide.

POSTURE (SITTING)

Incorrect —
Head thrust forward, back slumped, feet crossed. Chair inclined, seat soft, too low, no arms.

Correct —
Straight back chair with firm seat. Head up, shoulders straight, stomach in and feet flat on floor.

Good posture, whether resting or sleeping in bed, or sitting, standing or walking, is most important for patients with any kind of arthritis. In fact, poor posture can either cause or make more serious so many of your problems that it is well worth considerable effort on your part to maintain good posture.

The first instinct of every person with arthritis is to find a position for a painful joint that is most comfortable, and to keep the joint in that position for long periods. Usually that position is one in which the joint is bent to some degree. Comfortable or not, this is the worst thing you can do. This leads to greater stiffness and loss of joint motion and, eventually, to deformity.

So it is vitally important for you to keep correct posture at all times.

Sitting

Since most patients with arthritis find that they can work much longer and more effectively if they sit rather than stand, a good sitting position may be the key to your ability to work efficiently. Use a straight back chair (preferably with arm rests) with a firm seat, high enough to let your arms and hands reach your work easily and naturally. Sit with your head up, shoulders straight, stomach in and feet flat on the floor. This posture will allow you to rest in comfort or work with a minimum of fatigue and pain.

Do not sit for long periods on the edge of a bed, on couches, in easy chairs, or on anything that doesn't provide good support for your back.

If your ankles tend to swell after walking or sitting for a while, lie down with your feet propped above the level of your head for periods of thirty minutes or more at a time.

When standing, stand straight, with your head high, shoulders straight, stomach in, and your hips and knees straight. In this posture, you will balance easily on your feet.

about CHOLESTEROL & TRIGLYCERIDES

Cholesterol is a chemical substance manufactured by the liver and also directly ingested in the food we eat. It is important as a chemical building block. Triglycerides is another name for fats, which are the body's main sources of energy and fuel. We need both cholesterol and triglycerides to live, but when they reach abnormally high levels in the blood stream, they can become dangerous because they build up in blood vessel walls. This causes atherosclerosis, a blocking or hardening of the arteries, particularly the coronary arteries which supply the heart with blood. If the blood can't get through the arteries and reach the heart, a heart attack or death can occur. For this reason, high levels of cholesterol and triglycerides in the blood are considered risk factors for coronary artery disease. If we can lower these levels by adhering to a special diet, we may be able to prevent a heart attack. In fact, recent data have shown that a change in diet actually can reverse the process of atherosclerosis.

Cholesterol is found in eggs, organ meats, fat meat, shellfish, and dairy products. Triglycerides are found in dairy products and fat meats. Veal, chicken, and most fish are low in both cholesterol and triglycerides and most fruits and vegetables (avocado is a notable exception) are virtually free of them.

Some controversy exists about the usefulness of keeping cholesterol and triglycerides down. There are individuals who have high levels of both, but no coronary artery disease, others have low levels of both and a great deal of disease. What these exceptions indicate is the effect of another important, and somewhat elusive factor — heredity. In general, however, it is prudent to follow a diet low in fats and cholesterol.

If you haven't had a physical examination or a visit to your doctor for a year or more, it would be a good idea to do so. Your doctor will be the best judge of the need for further evaluation. We need a sensible approach to health maintenance, avoiding extremes. For example, there are patients who have not seen a doctor for five or ten years only to find out that they have diabetes mellitus or high blood pressure which should have been treated sooner. The other extreme is when an individual becomes too health-conscious and is constantly preoccupied with his health.

Too many people today put any thoughts about improving their health in the back of their minds. "I'll do it tomorrow" they say. But in most instances tomorrow never comes. People have ignored preventive medicine. Americans in growing numbers are turning a deaf ear to the pronouncements of public officials and eminent scientists on health oriented matters. America's "good life" is rapidly becoming it's way of death. Bad habits like smoking and eating fatty foods contribute to three-quarters of the deaths in America each year.
