Crime Wave of Stolen Vehicles May Be Halted

For the fourth time this month, a car left with the keys in the ignition was stolen.

Bill Weber of Chelsea, parked his 1975 black Lincoln Continental at the corner of Park and Main Sts., about 11:15 a.m., Tuesday, March 20 and went into the Chelsea Restaurant for coffee. When he returned at approximately 11:30 a.m. his car was gone.

Before he could report the theft to the police, they received another report from the owner of the Cavanaugh Lake store who reported that a black Lincoln Continental pulled up to their gas pumps and took $5 worth of gas without paying for it. The owner got a description of the driver, a youth approximately 16 years old, and the license plate number. Weber reported the theft of his car immediately after.

The police then knew Weber's car was in the area and a youth was driving it.

Weber decided to look for the car himself. Pat Merkel joined him in his efforts and they spotted the car heading for Chelsea High school. They followed the car to Book St. where the youth parked it and entered the high school.

Weber and Merkel followed the youth into the high school where they turned the matter over to Assistant Principal Sam Vogel. Vogel learned the youth's identity through their description and had him brought to his office.

The youth, a 15-year-old student at Chelsea High, admitted to the theft of Weber's car. After further questioning he also admitted to the thefts of two other cars stolen earlier this month. They were identified as Wally Fusilier's 1966 Buick Riviera, taken from the Chelsea High school parking lot on March 3, and Robert Herter's 1970 Dodge Dart taken from the Chelsea Lane's parking lot on March 11.

Herter's car was recovered last week when Chelsea police received word that it had been involved in an accident on Loveland Rd. in Jackson county.

The 15-year-old youth involved admitted to stealing Herter's car but claimed he was not driving when the car was wrecked. He told Chelsea police that after stealing the car he drove around for a while then parked it. He returned the next day with a friend, the car was still there so they went for a ride. He claimed his friend was driving when they struck a tree and fled the scene. His friend has been identified as a 14-year-old classmate. Police have not yet been able to contact him.

Fusilier's car was recovered Friday, March 16, when the police received a phone call from IPSCO on Cleveland St. The manager stated that a deserted car had been left in the parking lot. It had been there for several days and did not belong to any of their employees. The car was identified as Fusilier's and towed to Smith's service station on Jackson Rd. Although the keys were missing there was no damage done to the car.

The 15-year-old youth will be petitioned for a Juvenile Court hearing. The 14-year-old is still under investigation.

Police Chief George Meranuck says the credit for the apprehension of the suspect goes to Bill Weber, Pat Merkel, and Sam Vogel. If Weber's car had not been taken the police may never have discovered his identity.

The 1978 Ford pick-up stolen March 5, was also recovered. Police reports say there is no connection between this theft and the others.

Michael Neibauer, owner of the truck, received an anonymous phone call Tuesday, March 20. The caller said he could find his truck in Jackson county on a farm lane off Glen Rd. Neibauer contacted Chelsea police and Officer Orr was sent to the scene. Orr found Neibauer's truck stuck between rows of corn stalks. The right front side of the truck was damaged and the left front tire was flat. The truck was returned to Neibauer.

The moral of this sequence is—Don't leave your keys in the car and always lock your doors.

Care Urged To Prevent Grass Fires

Chelsea Fire Department was called to the scene of five grass fires, Saturday, March 17. This brings the total to six grass fires in five days.

In order of reports made, the fires were located as follows: Bush Rd., S. Freer Rd., McKinley Rd., N. Lima Center Rd., and Ivey Rd. Only one of the five had obtained a burning permit.

Conditions are extremely dry this time of year and precautions should be taken by those burning outdoors. It is to be remembered that the Village of Chelsea has a burning ordinance that prohibits all outside burning. For those burning outside the village and in the area covered by the Chelsea Fire Department, a burning permit is needed. They may be obtained by calling the police and fire dispatcher at 475-9122.

A burning permit is not needed for household rubbish in an outside incinerator. This pertains only to those outside the village.

When asking for a permit the following questions should be answered before calling:

1. What is the direction and velocity of the wind.
2. Are any buildings close.
3. Do you have adequate help and fire fighting materials available such as brooms, shovels and water.
4. Are you ready to take the responsibility of the fire you are about to set?
5. Make sure if the fire starts to get out of control that the fire department is called immediately.
6. Have a phone where you or someone can be reached.
7. Exact location of the fire.

The following types of burning can be allowed provided such burning is conducted a minimum of 1,400 ft. from the nearest incorporated city or village limit.

Burning of trees, logs, brush, and stumps at land clearing operations in rural areas may be allowed. Tires, plastics and similar materials are not to be used in such fires.

Fires purposely set to agricultural lands for disease and pest control and other accepted agricultural and wildlife management practices may be allowed.

The burning of refuse is allowed in incinerators which can perform in such a manner as to comply with the Air Pollution Control Rules and Regulations.

The backyard burning of household refuse including yard trimmings and leaves can be allowed; however, it is not a recommended practice and is to be discouraged.

The open burning of refuse from a multiple dwelling is not allowed.

The open burning of refuse at commercial and industrial sites is not allowed.

The open burning of highly flammable, toxic or explosive materials cannot be allowed without special approval from the Department of Natural Resources.

Burning under special conditions may be permitted providing such operations are not in violation of a local ordinance and do not create a nuisance or hazard to health and that consideration be given to local weather conditions and related factors so as to avoid causing any nuisance or hazard to health.

Senior Citizen Girl Scout Troop Active

Chelsea Jaycee president Bob Smith presented a check to the Senior Citizen Girl Scout Troop 777 at their meeting Thursday, March 15. The Jaycees have sponsored this troop since it began two years ago.

The troop was organized by a volunteer group of Ann Arbor women who were all mothers of Girl Scouts. The Chelsea troop is one of the only three senior citizens troops in the country. It is comprised of women over the age of 65. A majority of the members live in the Methodist Retirement Home of Chelsea where their meetings are held every two weeks.

Members do volunteer work for the nursing area, work for merit badges, and visit various establishments for entertainment. Upon seeing the different projects the troop was working on and had scheduled for the future, Smith said, "We are proud to be a sponsor of this group of ladies and

Police Officers File Request for Union Election

Chelsea Police Officer's Association, The Fraternal Order of Police (FOP), has filed an application for a union election.

In a preliminary Department of Labor hearing March 14, the village and the FOP voiced disagreement over the composition of the proposed bargaining unit.

The village wishes all police officers, full- and part-time, to be eligible to vote in a certification election. The FOP, on the other hand, wants only the full-time officers to have a vote.

This disagreement necessitates a formal hearing, which will be set for sometime next month. At that time, the FOP and the Village of Chelsea will present briefs to support their positions.

After a decision is reached on this issue, an election will be called.

Picturepages Gain Local Sponsorship

Picturepages is a booklet published through the Captain Kangaroo TV program. It is essentially a learning tool for pre-schoolers designed to encourage parents to work with their children, and to have children and their parents become familiar with their public library. It is used in conjunction with Captain Kangaroo's program and alone.

Picturepages cost approximately 5 cents per child and are normally sponsored by a community's library, and distributed free. McKune Memorial Library was contacted by Cindy Smith of Chelsea, to set up a sponsorship of the program. Although it was felt that Picturepages were worthy of sponsorship, funds were not available.

Through Mrs. Smith's efforts, Picturepages will be available at the A&W in Chelsea, beginning May 1-July. They will be sponsored by A&W, Montange Construction Co., and a local family. Mrs. Smith urges that other individuals or businesses continue to support this sponsorship with donations. Those with questions or donation may contact Mrs. Smith at 475-7532.

There has already been much public response to this program in the community. It has been seen as a way to promote interaction between children and parents and to make learning fun.

'Arizona Chuckelogue' Film Slated Friday

If you are looking for some humorous entertainment this Friday evening, Stan Midgley's "Chuckelogue" will be presented at Chelsea High school, March 23, 8 p.m. It was originally scheduled for Saturday, March 17 in the Chelsea Kiwanis Club Travelogue series but had to be delayed because of a conflict in building use.

Midgley is a graduate of Princeton University. He was a chemist for eight years before his hobbies, mountaineering, bicycle riding, and photography replaced his vocation.

He became well known for riding his bicycle 48 miles a day to work and famous for his hilarious vacation movies of his bicycle trips to Colorado and the other Rocky Mountain states.

In 1946, he won first prize in a nation-wide contest for his movie of a bicycle trip through the Bryce-Zion-Grand Canyon region. Even his early photography was excellent but what differentiated his work was the delightful touch of humor he added. He loads his films with trick photography and "gags" and gives a humorous narration.

The Midgley "Chuckelogue" are known from coast to coast. There have been 2,000 professional plat-

Mrs. Lydia Zahn Marks 98th Birthday

Visitors started arriving three weeks ago to help Mrs. Lydia Zahn, 3380 S. Fletcher Rd., celebrate her 98th birthday. Mrs. Zahn was born March 19, 1881, in Lima township and has lived here all her life.

Friends and relatives, numbering up to four a day, have been stopping in for lunch or just to visit, and say "Happy Birthday." A celebration dinner was given in her honor Sunday, March 18, by her daughter, Mrs. Irma Grau with whom she makes her home. 27 persons attended the dinner.

Mrs. Zahn has only spent one of her 98 birthdays in the hospital and that year she received more than 116 cards. This birthday she has already received over 80 cards and they are still coming. She usually receives at least 100.

Quilting and reading keep Mrs. Zahn busy. She is well known for her beautiful work, and spends most of her day cutting and sewing quilt blocks. Many of her items are made to be sold commercially at the Shaker Shop in the Briarwood Mall.

Mrs. Zahn has been a member of Zion Lutheran church for 77 years and is a member of the Women of Zion. She regrets that she is no longer able to attend. "My health is basically good, but I suffer from arthritis and have to use a walker. I have a hard time climbing stairs."

Mrs. Zahn is enjoying all her visitors, cards and gifts but as far as birthdays go, "I don't want any more—I'd just like to go on with what I'm doing and stop counting them," she laughed.

CB Radio, Mount Stolen from Auto

William Castleberry of Chelsea, reported Tuesday, March 20, that his 40 channel CB radio and magnet mount antenna had been stolen from his unlocked car by an unknown person. It was taken sometime after midnight.

Police Chief George Meranuck says that CB thefts have dropped considerably. There was a rash of reports last year. It may be because so many people own CB's now.

Milbocker Leads Cribbage Tournery

Even though the group is small this year, they report having lots of excitement. Tessie Monroe almost double skunked one of her opponents.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I reckon the discussion of polls at the country store two Saturdays back got my mind on it, but it seems there's been a heap more opinionating than usual in the papers recent. Part of it is that everybody is worried about Iran and nobody has the foggiest notion what to do about it. So many ifs are being tossed around by so many spokesmen for so many problems that it would take a Solomon to sift through em and decide whether we ought to annex Mexico or start importing Chinese rickshaws. From what I heard about Iran turning off the spigot we're going to have to reinvent the front porch swing so we will have somepun to do Sunday afternoons instead of ride over the neighborhood checking stock and crops.

A few weeks back there was a hopeful report out of Portland, Maine, but now it appears that isolated case of clear thinking has been safely brought under control, and there is no chance of an epidemic. This piece I saw said surgeons in Portland had agreed to offer free second opinions to patients recommended for surgery. That public service came after a Committee in the U. S. House done a study that showed Americans spent $4 billion on operations they didn't need in 1977. After that committee report, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare paid for second opinions for patients in a test program, and the finding was that one in four second opinions disagreed with the first. So far as I've read, the surgeons in Portland ain't been heard from since. And the American Medical Association that is allus willing to share its opinions on everthing, has took a strong no-comment stand on this.

Actual, Mister Editor, there's some opinions worth some thought, but the woods is full of them that ain't. The fellers was talking at the country store Saturday night about how the whole world is run by computer, and Zeke Grubb give this report where New Hampshire had done a computerized study of traffic accidents. The best advice the computer could come up with was that the worst time to be on the roads of New Hampshire was Friday between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. in a snowstorm on the freeway. This mechanical brain figured out the safest driver in the state was a woman over 70 years old operating a forklift on a rural dirt road in broad daylight. Now that New Hampshire knows the answer, all she's got to do is go back and rework the question.

Practical speaking, what the computer did for traffic safety hypnotism can do for education. After Zeke give his report, Ed Doolittle read this clipping where a engineering professor in Florida has been hypnotizing his students and telling them they can remember everthing in class. The kids told a college board that looked into the case they could recall more.

Personal, I go for the opinion of Fred Boor, a St. Louis barber. He said the other day that tight neckties is a big cause of baldness. Any reason to outlaw neckties is good enough for me.

Large numbers of women ages 25 to 34, 71 percent of whom were mother with dependent children in the home, continued to enter or re-enter the work force in 1978, according to a report by the U. S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Warren M. Hoyt, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Year of the Environmentalist The posture of the new legislature and the courts of Michigan make 1979 appear to be a year that will favor the environmentalist.

The legislature wasted no time in posturing for more receptive committees relative to conservation and environmental legislation. Specifically, Sen. Joseph Mack (D-Ironwood) was dumped as chairman of the Conservation Committee where he had operated for years in opposition of environmental legislation.

Mack has continually killed any natural legislation, claiming it simply was a land grab by the state or it would stifle development in certain areas.

Such legislation never surfaced from his committee once it was referred there.

Meanwhile, the Supreme Court has expanded an earlier decision and further restricted any oil and gas drilling in the Pigeon River Country State Forest.

The ruling in Michigan Oil Co. vs. Natural Resources Commission affirmed earlier rulings by courts and state officials to prohibit drilling in parts of the 92,872-acre forest for which mineral leases had been sold.

Previously, the court overturned drilling permits in the southern one-third of the forest that had been issued by the supervisor of wells under a consent agreement with three oil companies.

The decision was based on the Environmental Protection Act declaring the state's elk herd would be harmed by the drilling activities. On a 4-3 decision, the Supreme Court ruled that the act sets provisions to guard against not only gas and oil waste, but also waste of other natural resources, including land and wildlife.

The court said the law should be read liberally to allow the Natural Resources Commission to prevent serious environmental damage. The majority decision declared the legislature did not intend to sacrifice all other natural resources in an effort to discover and produce oil and gas.

Alternatives To Redlining Insurance companies have offered a plan to provide coverage that is available and affordable to all persons in the state as an alternative to anti-redlining legislation. Redlining is a practice by insurance companies and lending institutions that will not write insurance or lend money to persons living within certain boundaries due to income levels, age of the neighborhood or incident or claim rate.

A group called Michigan Insurance Needs charged that any legislation prohibiting insurance redlining that includes a reinsurance facility would not solve the problem.

James Helmze, chairman of the group, said there is no crisis in insurance coverage today, but there could be one if the legislature implements an "ill-considered and detrimental interference with a workable program in the misnamed name of reform."

A reinsurance facility was part of an anti-redlining measure that failed to clear the legislature last year. Under such a plan, insurance companies could not refuse coverage to any customer. However, the companies could reinsure those policies of bad risk customers and charge them a higher rate. All insurance companies would then share the costs of the customers in the facility.

Economic Council To Be Made Permanent With the uncertainty of the economy, the legislature is wasting no time in creating a permanent economic development council to advise state leaders on economic trends and problems.

The council, under legislation recently approved by the House, will consist of 13 members. It will collect economic data, analyze materials and make recommendations to the legislature to aid in the continued improvement and stabilization of the economy.

"I am a lawyer, self employed. My KEOGH retirement plan at Great Lakes Federal will provide $225,899 when I retire in 15 years." Ms. Ethelyn Carver is a self-employed lawyer who has earned income that puts her into the 50% tax bracket. Because Ms. Carver wanted to keep as much of her income as possible, while planning for her retirement years, she opened a KEOGH tax deferred retirement account. She found that she could contribute 15% of her income, up to a maximum of $7,500 each year and deduct this amount from her taxable income. She will have accumulated $225,899 in her KEOGH account when she retires in 15 years. Because she qualifies for the maximum contribution, she will have reduced her taxable income each year by $7,500. In an account or investment that was being reduced by taxes, she would only have $78,804. If you are self-employed you too can deposit up to 15% of your income, maximum $7,500, in a tax deferred KEOGH retirement account. This amount can be deducted from your current taxable income and you do not pay taxes on it until you start making withdrawals after age 59 1/2 at which time you will probably be in a lower tax bracket. Your KEOGH account can earn the high interest rate of 8% per annum. Interest is compounded monthly and paid quarterly for an effective annual rate of 8.30%. At this rate your money doubles in approximately 8 years and 8 months. Minimum term 36 months. With your account you receive a Retirement Account card which you can use when making deposits to your account and which entitles you to Travelers Checks and Money Orders free of charge. At the end of March, June, September, and December you receive a detailed statement which describes each deposit to your account. YOU STILL HAVE TIME TO CUT YOUR 1978 INCOME TAX If you now have a KEOGH account and have not deposited up to your maximum you have up to April 15, 1979 to make your full 1978 contribution. Federal regulations require a substantial interest penalty for early withdrawals. The name and profession of the person in this ad is fictitious and solely an example of the benefits of a retirement account at Great Lakes Federal Savings.

OK Given for Building U-M Burn Center

University Hospital, Ann Arbor, received approval from the State Health Director Feb. 23 to construct a separate building to be used as a Burn Center.

The multi-story facility will house 30 beds, two operating rooms, a four-room outpatient clinic, patient and family waiting areas, physical medicine and rehabilitation area, social services, and research and education areas.

The 30 beds include two 6-bed intensive care units with hydrotherapy in each, six acute care and 12 rehabilitation beds. This project will consolidate all existing burn care beds in the Ann Arbor health facilities service area, which includes the 10 existing burn beds at University Hospital, six at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, and 14 rehabilitation beds at Chelsea Community Hospital. University Hospital will designate 20 of its medical surgical beds as burn beds.

Cost of the project is $8,437,000. The National Institute of Burn Medicine has undertaken a $6.5 million fund raising campaign from private sources to finance the center.

An American flag and more than $1,000 in office equipment were stolen from the Dexter Township Hall during a burglary there sometime between 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 13 and 8:40 a.m. Wednesday, March 14, according to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

Deputies said a basement window on the southwest corner of the building at 6880 Dexter-Pinckney Rd. was pried open, after which entry was gained and the following items were taken: a Pitney-Bowes postage meter, valued at $700; a Smith-Corona portable electric typewriter, $250; a 3'x5' American flag, silk, with gold eagle staff, $70; a manual typewriter, $65; a Texas Instruments calculator, $58; a Burroughs electric adding machine, $50; a portable AM-FM radio, $35; and a pencil sharpener, $10.

Although an unlocked desk had been rifled, it was reported, the locked desks had not been tampered with, and except for the flag, which had been hanging in the first floor hall, all of the missing items were taken from the two basement offices.

Community Education Programs Have Enrollment of 1,500 Persons

There has been a tremendous increase in enrollment in the Community Education Program, reported Director of Community Education Jacynn Rogers at a recent board of Education meeting.

Administered through close cooperation among the Chelsea Recreation Council, Washtenaw Community College, Eastern Michigan University, Washtenaw Co-operative Extension and the American Red Cross, the program now boasts more than 100 classes accommodating 1,500 participants.

Course offerings are varied, with emphasis placed on adult academic, enrichment and recreational programs. There is also a youth enrichment program in elementary schools on Saturdays.

Director Rogers pointed out the need for suggestions on future offerings and made an appeal for teachers. She indicated that the emphasis will be placed on further upgrading the quality of individual classes to tailor them to the needs of the participants.

Chelsea and Dexter residents will receive a Spring-Summer course offering brochure featuring the recreational programs.

COURSE OFFERINGS in Community Education go beyond recreation, craft and sports to include valuable job skills. Above, Manuel Hermostillo practices to improve his speed in turning glass.

WCC Approves Scholarship Plan

A new, comprehensive, $100,000 scholarship program was approved by Washtenaw Community College trustees Tuesday, Feb. 28. The program offers scholarship assistance to older individuals in the county, seniors in each high school in the county, adults returning to education, and persons who do not qualify for federal scholarship help.

"Through this program we hope to remove money as a barrier to anyone seriously interested in getting an education," Dr. Gunder A. Myran, WCC president, said. Scholarships are divided into five categories: high school merit (for seniors in 15 public and private high schools in the county), community merit, start-up (for returning adults), emeritus (senior citizens), and trustee (for persons not eligible for federal financial assistance).

Each scholarship will include tuition, books, and supplies for two semesters.

The program becomes effective immediately and scholarships will be applicable for the Fall semester 1979. Persons interested in applying may call the financial aids office at the college, 973-3525.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER

EMINENT DOMAIN

A home may be a man's castle, but even the king of his castle has little clout if his property is needed for public use — be it urban renewal, schools or public highways. The process is known as eminent domain. It is the power built into the federal and all state constitutions to take private property for public use upon payment of "just compensation" which has been interpreted by the courts to mean "fair market value."

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8683; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Mrs. Bernice Schneider Chosen Mercywood Employee of Year

Mrs. Evelyn Bernice Schneider, formerly of Chelsea, was selected Employee of the Year for 1978 at the Mercywood Neuropsychiatric Hospital in Scio township. Mrs. Schneider, a resident of Munith, has been a psychiatric aide in the Nursing Service section of the hospital for 20 years. She was presented with a gift and her name was inscribed on the Employee Award plaque located in the Administration area of the hospital. She was selected on the basis of her loyalty, dedication, personal service to patients, assistance to other staff members, excellent attendance, and over-all excellent performance in carrying out her duties as a psychiatric aide at Mercywood.

Employee Awards Banquet was held at the Chelsea High School and Sister Mary Maurita, chief executive officer and administrator at Mercywood, who commended Mrs. Schneider for her outstanding and lengthy term of employment. Mrs. Schneider was born in Kinross, graduated from Dexter High school and resided most of her life in Chelsea. She is the mother of seven children; Lloyd of Chelsea, Diane Reed of Chelsea, Richard of Oregon, Douglas of Hawaii, James of Colorado, Judy Kent of Munith, and Janis Schneider of Oregon.

Special Olympic Girls 2nd in Cage Tourney

A Silver Medal went to the Special Olympic Chelsea women's basketball team at the Special Olympics State Basketball Tournament in Port Huron, March 18-18. Playing for the team were Kayby Young, Sue Armstrong, Theresa Murphy, Linda Alber, Kim Foss and Lori Brown all of Chelsea; two High Point students, Lorraine Martel and Lori Wheelert; and one Dexter student, Theresa Calcut. The team was coached by Nancy Cooper and Kyle Hollis. Attending as chaperones were Gloria Pearson and Nanette Push. The girls played Lenawee county in their first game on Friday night, winning 24 to 20. Sue Armstrong led in scoring with 18 points. Lorraine Martel had 4, and Lori Brown, 2. They lost the championship game to a Port Huron team but came out with a silver medal for the second-place finish. Washtenaw and Livingston county areas were represented by two boys teams. High Point, coached by Doug Cooper, played in Division 13 and placed 4th out of 8 teams. They defeated the Bay City Hawks, lost to Ottawa county, and then lost a close match to Grand Rapids. Community Mental Health also went as a team and played in Division 3. They won a silver medal after defeating Bay City, Monroe, and a team from Wayne county. The girls were asked to attend the Regionals in Illinois, April 5-9, but will be unable to because of Easter vacation and the Washtenaw county swim meet on April 5. The next event for the Chelsea Special Olympians will be a volleyball tournament at High Point this Thursday, March 22. Nine teams are expected.

HONORED EMPLOYEE: Mrs. Evelyn Schneider, a former Chelsea resident, has been named Employee of the Year for 1978 at the Mercywood Neuropsychiatric Hospital in Scio township. Mrs. Schneider, presently a resident of Munith, has been a psychiatric aide in the Nursing Service section of the hospital for 20 years. Her name has been inscribed on an honor plaque and she was commended for her work in a speech given by Sister Mary Blanche, chief executive officer and administrator at Mercywood.

Jaycettes Sponsoring Fire Safety Programs

Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary is presenting two programs of fire safety to the residents of the community. First, Operation Red Ball. Operation Red Ball is a project designed to help the firefighters of your community identify where children, the elderly or handicapped persons may be sleeping in your home in case of a fire. A Red Ball sticker is placed on your front door and the windows of each child's bedroom. If more than one child sleeps in a room, place as many Red Ball stickers on that room's window as there are children sleeping in the room. Your name, address and the number of children registered are on file with the Fire Department. In case of a fire in your home the Fire Department checks the files and then the first place they search on reaching your home is the room whose windows have Red Ball stickers.

Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary and the Fire Department work together on this project. If you are interested in being registered for Operation Red Ball (or are already registered and just need to replace damaged Red Ball stickers), on a 3"x5" card, or equivalent print (1) your name; (2) your address; (3) number of children or handicapped persons, and their ages. With this include a stamped, self-addressed envelope and mail these to Kathy Sprawka, 9735 Joslin Lake Rd., Gregory 48137. Upon receiving the above, your registration will be given to the Fire Department and your Red Ball stickers will be mailed to you. The second program is to ask that all residents formulate an emergency fire drill in their homes. It is very important that every member of the family, adults as well as children, know immediately what to do and where to go in case of a fire. This should be a reflex action. It is also very important that a meeting place be established some distance from the home so that an immediate head count may be taken, and the firefighters can be notified if someone has been unable to escape. A fire doesn't just happen to someone else; it could happen to your family. For further information, please contact Kathy Sprawka, 475-1860.

St. Mary's Rectory Occupied

After nearly a one and one-half year wait, the Rev. Fr. David Philip Dupuis can now relax in his own living room. The rectory of St. Mary Catholic church at 14200 Old US-12, begun in late fall 1977, was finally occupied last Thursday.

The rectory is quite a change from Fr. Dupuis' old residence at 416 Congdon, near former St. Mary school. With 2,500 square feet, including two offices and a work area, the pastor says he finally has plenty of space. Open house will be held in May for the parish to view the new residence.

Volleyball Tournaments Scheduled

Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission is sponsoring women's and men's volleyball tournaments for teams throughout the county. This is an invitational tournament for teams selected on comparable skill levels. Any volleyball team that plays in Washtenaw county may participate. Individual trophies will be awarded for first- and second-place teams. Goals are to offer new experiences in competition, with highest regard for sportsmanship and emphasis on community interaction. Both tournaments will be held Saturday, April 7, at Saline High school gymnasium, from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Registration fee is $20 per team and must be accompanied by a team roster with a limit of eight players per roster. All team rosters and fees must be postmarked by March 30. Submit team roster and entry fee to: Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission, 4133 Washtenaw Ave., P. O. Box 8645, Ann Arbor 48107. Any questions may be answered by calling the Parks and Recreation office at 973-2595.

Fr. Dupuis, who has been with St. Mary's for six years, said there was a long-standing agreement with the church to build a new rectory. The new building, although habitable, will require the addition of sidewalks and landscaping this spring to give it final polish.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven
Teaches the power that is in God's Word. In Genesis the first chapter is written, "And God said" nine times, and it came to pass in every instance just as God said. The Psalmist wrote: "For he spake and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast." (Psalms 33:9). There was power in Christ's word to raise the dead (John 11:43, 44), heal the lame (Matthew 21:14); multiply the loaves and the fishes (Matthew 14:13-21), and to control the elements (Matthew 8:27). The apostle John has recorded the purpose of Jesus performing miracles. "And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing you might have life through his name." (John 20:30, 31). The Bible the light from heaven has the power to convert the soul. (Psalms 19:7), create faith (Romans 10:17), make one clean (John 15:3), make one wise unto salvation (2 Timothy 3:15). Hebrews 11, "Inspirations Hall of Fame" vividly teaches the obedience of faith.

Bids Asked for Independence Lake Park Work
Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission (WCPARC) has now opened its bidding process to interested contractors for the first phase development of Independence Lake County Park.

Included in this significant phase one project are an entrance road and parking, sunbathing areas, shoreline improvements, a sand and grass beach and a bathhouse complex with restrooms, an office and picnic shelter. The construction, scheduled to begin this spring, will enable WCPARC to open the beach park to the public in 1980.

According to Robert Gamble, director, funding for this development will be provided through WCPARC millage revenues approved by county voters in 1976 and the Federal Land and Water Conservation Fund, which awarded a development grant to the project last year.

Rep. Ballantine Calls for Halt On Tax Hikes

State Representative Mary Keith Ballantine (R-Jackson) co-sponsored a House concurrent resolution on March 7 that calls on the legislature to hold the line on increased revenues this fiscal year.

Under the provisions of the Headlee Amendment, which was approved by voters in November, revenue taken in by the state during the 1978-79 fiscal year would be divided by Michigan's 1977 total personal income. Total taxes would then be limited to that percentage of total personal income.

The resolution, which received bipartisan support, states that it was the "clear intention of the electorate that the legislature not seek to raise the base year state revenue, thus increasing the spending limit from then on."

"I want to make sure that the Democratic majority does not ram a piece of legislation down the throats of the people of this state that will increase their taxes," Rep. Ballantine said. "The people of Michigan voted to put a limit on raising taxes. If we live in a democracy, let's represent the people's wishes in the legislature."

Rep. Ballantine said she opposes a Democratic plan that would raise the state's personal income tax from 4.6 percent to 5.5 percent by April 1, a move which could increase Michigan residents' total taxes in future years by over $220 million.

"I am opposed to anything that will raise state revenue in the headlee base year," Rep. Ballantine said. "Any attempt to raise the base year revenue should be considered an effort to circumvent the Headlee Amendment. I do favor a shift from the property tax to income tax, but within the limits of the Headlee Amendment. I also believe that an entire package of the shifts should be proposed and the full impact understood. I do not like piecemeal changes. Raising taxes before Oct. 1, the beginning of the 1979-80 fiscal year, would raise taxes now and would also raise the tax base so that a larger percentage of incomes would go for taxes in the years ahead," Ballantine added.

BE A CLOWN: Margie Brown, professional clown and a student at the United Theological Seminary in Dayton, O., co-ordinated a "Clown-a-bration" at the Dexter United Methodist church over the week-end, where she taught participants how to celebrate the clown in each of us. Two days of fun and discovery were climaxed by participation in the regular Sunday morning worship service at the church.

Methodists Host Clown-a-bration

The United Methodist church of Dexter hosted a "Clown-a-bration" this past week-end to celebrate the clown within each of us.

Participants were not only able to see many diverse people with-to reveal those facets of our whole selves to others through the art of clowning.

Sharing her skills as a professional clown, Margie Brown was the co-ordinator of the workshop. Margie has traveled in a variety of circuses and Christian caravans and is a student at the United Theological Seminary in Dayton, O. She enabled participants of all ages to be colorful fools who delighted in God's creation.

Following a full week-end of discovery and training, the local clowns planned and participated in the Sunday morning worship service at the United Methodist church.

Free Booklet May Help In Purchasing New Home

Purchasing a new home is no casual investment. It's probably the biggest buy you'll ever make. So it pays to look first at every angle of the deal. Making a poor choice could be the most regrettable financial error of your life.

According to the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, two out of every three buyers select a used home. HUD's free booklet, "Wise Home Buying," can help make the house hunting a little easier, whether you're looking for a new house or an old one. For a free copy of the booklet, send a postcard to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 657G, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

The old rules about home buying are changing with the times. Bankers used to say you should never pay more than two to two-and-one-half times your annual family income for your home. Another way of putting it was, don't budget more than one-fourth your gross monthly salary for monthly housing expenses, including heat, utilities, and maintenance. Today, some families are spending more than 30 percent of their gross monthly income on housing. But to make a realistic decision, consider what you're willing to give up and what you're not. And don't get in over your head.

You'll also need cash for the down payment and closing costs. Quite often these can be greater than you expect. Closing costs will include the title search, transfer taxes, insurance, and origination fees. Be sure your contract specifies who will pay for each item—buyer or seller.

When you shop for financing, be as thorough as you were for house shopping. There are many ways to finance a house. You may be able to assume the remaining mortgage on an existing house. This will make closing costs considerably less, and the interest rate by the old mortgage may be much lower than prevailing rates.

Or you can look into mortgages that are insured by HUD-FHA or guaranteed by the Veteran's Administration, if you are an eligible veteran. FHA-insured financing generally enables home-buyers to make a smaller down payment, and frequently to make lower monthly payments. You can check with your local FHA office for details.

Finally, you may choose conventional financing from a saving and loan association, a commercial bank, a mortgage banker, a savings bank, or an insurance company. Just shop around, and compare interest rates, down payment, fees, and terms of repayment.

Ready to take the plunge into home ownership? In most cases it is a good idea to use a real estate broker. Multiple listings and your broker's ability to pre-screen houses can save you many a wild goose chase. The broker may even help you get financing. And, the usual 6-10 percent commission is paid by the seller.

When you order a copy of Wise Home Buying (free), you'll also receive a copy of the free Consumer Information Catalog. It lists more than 200 selected free or low-cost publications from the federal government. The Catalog is published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration.

Wheat, Feed Grain Program Sign-Up Starts

Washtenaw County ASCS Office began accepting applications for the 1979 Wheat and Feed Grain Program on Feb. 15. Participation thus far has been good. Greater activity is expected during the next few weeks.

Program participation is voluntary; however, farmers with set aside crops of barley, corn, grain sorghum, or wheat must file their intentions to participate during the sign-up period to be eligible for deficiency and disaster payment protection for these crops and be eligible for price support loans on all crops except sugar.

Farmers who may be undecided about the program or have questions are encouraged to contact the ASCS office or one of the ASC committee persons for more information. The program is designed to prevent an excessive buildup of wheat and feed grain stocks which causes low market prices. The Washtenaw county office is open 7:55 a.m. to 4:25 p.m. Monday through Friday. However, producers with several farms should go to the ASCS office early in the day for better service. Appointments may be made by calling 682-3900.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

Wasting Food...

Let your imagination run wild for a few moments. Imagine a pile of food as tall as an Egyptian pyramid... a mountain of apples and potatoes, milk, bread and meat, puddings and cake; and everything else.

Try to imagine 137 million tons of food, enough to dam the Mississippi, or to fill 2,740,000 railroad cars stretched across 2,593 miles of countryside.

All this food has a value of $31 billion, and it has been grown, transported, packaged, prepared and served. Just think of the enormous amount of energy used to do all this.

The shocker is that all this huge amount of food has been thrown away un eaten, because this mountain of food is the sum total of the amount lost, wasted, and destroyed in these United States each year.

These food-waste figures come from Michigan State University's Department of Agriculture Engineering, which has been examining losses at each step of the food chain between farmers and consumers.

Only a modest percentage of this food is spoiled or spilled at wholesale and retail outlets. The largest percentage is lost after it gets to us as consumers.

Michigan State didn't say so, but we would judge that a lot of this waste occurs at eating establishments rather than at home. Take a look someday at how much good food goes into the garbage can at a school cafeteria, and you can get some idea why the waste figure is at $31 billion.

At a time when we need to conserve energy and are looking for ways to conserve the food budget, cutting down on waste is a good place to begin. More of us should follow the old adage of "take what you want, but eat what you take."

Fair Board Making Plans for Big Event

The regular monthly Fair Board meeting was called to order on Thursday, March 15 by president Lloyd Grau. Other officers present were Kay Poljan, treasurer; Jerry Jydlauff, vice-president; Frank Renton, board secretary; Earl Heller, executive vice-president; and Mary Ann Guenther, fair secretary.

Board members present were John Klink, Mark Staphis, Ed Keezer, Bill Stoffer, Harold Trinkle, Ralph McCalla, Jerry Herrick, Charles Staphis, Archie Bradbury, Robert Heller, and Art Steinaway.

Others present were Merle Sibley, Pat Merkel, Tim Schulze and John Wehnitz. Absent were Richard Bollinger, Harold Gross, Reuben Lesser, Jr., Jim Dault, Dick Kolander, Charles Koehn, Joe Merkel, III, Dick Poljan, and Frank Sweeney.

The minutes of the Feb. 15 meeting were read and approved. A discussion about the need for a typewriter and the kind of type needed, resulted in a motion to buy one with the proper type to be used for the preparation of the Fair Premium Book which must be prepared for printing in the near future. A few changes will be made in the 1978 book.

The Athletic Booster Club will sell tickets and park cars as they did for the 1978 fair.

Merle Sibley presented plans for the use of fair property for horse-shoe courts. Tournaments could be held. His plans will be considered at the April 10 meeting.

Tim Schulze discussed the compact tractor pulling contest. Final arrangements will be completed soon.

Plans for the fair kitchen are not yet finalized. When they are completed, announcement will be made by the Fair Board.

Travel Bureau Designs New Lure Brochure

Efforts to sell Michigan as a four-season vacation destination have been bolstered with the release this month of a new promotional brochure, according to William F. McLaughlin, director Michigan Department of Commerce.

In full color and illustrated profusely, the 24-page publication was produced by the Travel Bureau as its new, basic promotional piece designed to inform potential visitors of Michigan's four season opportunities.

The book will be included in literature packets sent in response to inquiries generated by the Bureau's million dollar advertising program, according to Jack S. Wilson, director, Travel Bureau.

Copies are available free of charge by contacting the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce, P. O. Box 30228, Lansing 48909 or by phoning toll free, in-state: 1-800-292-2520; out of state: 1-800-248-5700.

VOLUNTEER 4-H LEADERS from Jackson county were among the 40 from around the state who were welcomed, educated, entertained and honored at Michigan State University, March 3 and 4, during the 23rd annual 4-H Leadership Conference. Leadermete's goal is to teach volunteer leaders about new programs available in 4-H, to help them improve themselves as leaders and to honor their successful efforts. Left to right are: (front row) Dawn Roderrick, Chelsea, Mathew Scott, Jackson and Pat Balinsky, Jackson.

Maple Syrup Processing Can Be Interesting Activity

Processing maple syrup and sugar is still primarily a farm enterprise having great potential for expansion, says Melvin R. Koelling, professor of forestry at Michigan State University.

Few commercial manufacturers market the seasonal products year-round, and this is an agricultural crop for which demand always exceeds supply, he says.

One of the reasons for the low production of maple syrup and sugar is the labor-intensive nature of the industry, Koelling says.

He says it's hard to find labor for the maple season, which extends from about the middle of February to the beginning of March.

Self-automated tubing and vacuum pumps, however, have eliminated the need for some of the labor, he adds.

Another limiter of production is that the gathering of sap is very weather-dependent, Koelling says.

The best conditions for ample crop are found in below-freezing nights—ideally about 20 degrees F.—followed by a rapid rise in temperature the following day—reaching up to about 48 degrees F. by noon, he says.

Because the best crops are produced in such erratic temperatures, he says, a slow spring with alternately warm and cold temperatures makes a better crop than a long winter and a short spring.

The best trees to tap for maple syrup are sugar maple (Acer saccharum) and black maple (Acer nigrum), he says, because the sap from these trees has a higher sugar content than those of other maple trees. Syrup may also be obtained from red and silver maples.

He says about one million gallons of syrup are produced each spring in the northeastern United States, and Michigan produces about 100,000 gallons.

Making maple syrup or sugar is an enjoyable and rewarding hobby for people who are "tired of being cramped indoors all winter," Koelling says.

"It's a process that's very typically American," he says, and perhaps the best part is that "when maple season's over, spring is here."

Free Camping Directory Offered

Free copies of the 1979 edition of two popular directories are now available to people who go camping in Michigan.

Directories list 69 private campgrounds and 117 recreational vehicle service locations in Michigan.

Campground directory pinpoints locations on a map of Michigan and contains small maps showing how to reach each one. The campgrounds are coded with reference to 21 customer services.

The companion directory was issued to help RV owners discover which Michigan dealers service their particular vehicles should road emergencies arise. Addresses and telephones are listed by counties and each is coded with reference to 15 customer services.

The directories are published by the Michigan Association of Recreational Vehicles and Campgrounds (MARVAC).

To obtain both free copies, send a self-addressed 15-cent stamped business-size envelope to RV Directories, MARVAC, 19045 Farmington Rd., Livonia 48152.

Workers 45 and over quit their jobs less than half as often as younger workers.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

As a concerned citizen of this area, I deem it necessary to voice a protest over the erection of the large, unsightly sign on the north approach to Chelsea, on M-52.

Evidently there is no sign ordinance in that township, which is a shame! To me, the size is entirely inappropriate and unnecessary. The message would come across just as well in smaller form.

Another point: It is commendable that the parking lot has been renovated. Now it would be great if the backs of the stores facing the lot were given a facelift. The adjoining communities, although smaller, have tried to bring a "sense of history" back to their businesses, as well as residential districts. Some of our businesses have done likewise. How about the rest of them taking the cue? The community has many good things going for it—let's keep them going!

Sylvia Gilbert.

Dear Editor:

Please find space to print this article in The Chelsea Standard. I'm sure your readers (especially parents that have children active in this particular sport, or parents that had their children drop the team for similar reasons by the coach) will find it most interesting and educational.

A Concerned Parent.

Chicago—Wrestlers who lose weight rapidly to compete run the risk of causing temporary physical damage which could lead to more serious, possibly life-threatening conditions, two Colorado doctors say.

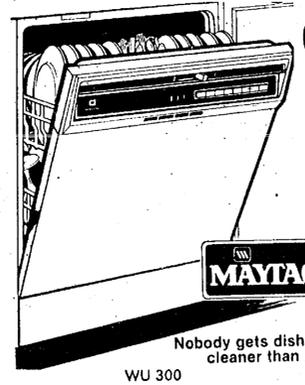

Dr. Phillip H. Croyle and Dr. Alan D. Hilgenberg of St. Joseph Hospital in Denver wrote in a recent issue of the American Medical Association Journal that the ill effects for wrestlers undergoing sudden weight loss usually are short term. However, they said, more immediate, serious problems can sometimes arise.

The doctors told of a 16-year-old high school wrestler who, as a result of rapid weight loss, developed a blood clot in the lung. The boy's life was saved by bypass chest surgery in 1977.

"When a person loses weight abruptly, the blood becomes viscous. It's a lot like a higher weight (automobile) oil. You take a person in that condition, it doesn't take much trauma to cause blood clotting."

The boy who weighed 109 pounds, lost 12 percent of his entire body weight—13 pounds—with
