Air Force Cadet Gary Packard, Jr. Thriving on Rigorous Academy Life

Gary Packard, Jr. may still be waking up at 6 a.m., but the rest of the day is nothing like the heavy schedule he left behind at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Until next Sunday, Packard will be able to enjoy the relatively lazy life of a civilian before returning to a seven-class schedule of 241/2 credit hours interspersed with physical educate tion, intra-mural sports and study time. The son of Gary and Bernice Packard of North Territorial Rd., Gary is a second-year cadet at the academy, having been appointed by Representative Bob Carr in 1978.

As Mrs. Packard points out, a lot of people have misconceptions about the daily life of a service academy cadet. "They always ask me where he's stationed now," she laughs, "but it's actually a university and not the actual Air Force."

According to Gary, the "typical" day is heavy with academics. Cadets rise at 6 a.m., attend classes from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. with some breaks and lunch, to which they march in a group, inbetween. Every other day, intra-mural sports are required, and then following din-

Mshars Warn Others Following Tragedy

"It was a terrible, terrible experience. I'd like people to know what happened to us. If nothing else, our story can serve as an example for others. Maybe the information can save a life, and that's something I'm sure my dad would really want."

Those are the words in which James Mshar of Grand Rapids described the accident in his home that claimed the life of his father, former Chelsea resident Alexander Mshar, last week.

Carbon monoxide fumes seeped through holes in the furnace exhaust system as the family and the visiting Mshars slept Dec. 19, causing James Mshar's son, Michael, to awaken the family with his crying at about 1 a.m., Mshar thought at first the boy had the flu.

One short hour later quick work by an ambulance crew had Mshar, his mother, Ruth, wife Geraldine, and children in the emergency room for treatment.

tion pointing to the Rev. Jones' tenure as "a period of prosperity and profit" for the congregation, Estimated cost of the buildings and all furnishings in 1895 was $12-13,000.

But Alexander Mshar was pronounced dead at the home.

James Mshar says no one knows for sure when the deadly fumes began to seep from holes in the exhaust system of the furnace in their basement. "We think there may have been a problem as far back as last spring," he commented. "One evening my wife, myself and one of our children nearly collapsed in the upstairs bathroom."

Officials speculated that the smoldering fire in the fireplace may have drawn fumes from the furnace and spread them throughout the house. Mshar, however, said the faulty furnace needed no help from the fireplace to spread the deadly poison.

After awaking at his son's cries, Mshar reported feeling disoriented and confused. He finally called the Poison Control Center, which diagnosed the problem and told the family to open the doors, while notifying an emergency crew at Blodgett Memorial Medical Center. The crew pulled everyone out of the home, but Alexander Mshar, who was already dead.

Alexander Mshar had been a tool and die maker in Chelsea for more than 40 years before moving to Sarasota, Fla.

James Mshar came to a hard decision regarding the tragedy. "I knew that I would miss (dad), but I wondered what would he want me to do, and that's when I figured I should let people know our story," he said.

"He lived a good full life. I only hope the way he died can serve as a reminder to people of what can happen."

Beach School Art Show Set Next Tuesday

Beach Middle school's annual art show will be held this coming Tuesday, Jan. 8 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the school.

Student drawings, paintings, and three dimensional artwork from art classes will be displayed. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Mrs. Packard said Gary started on his paperwork in his junior year, ammassing recommendation forms, taking physicals and filling out applications.

The school year doesn't end for cadets the way it does for other college students. There is a sixweek summer program for all cadets each summer and vacations come only at Christmas and spring break. This year Gary won't be coming home for the break and his family won't see him again until summer.

The rare vacations home like this one are time for relaxation, eating home cooking and visiting old friends. "When he comes home we stock up on the food and figure he's going the sleep at least the first two days," Mrs. Packard summed it up.

Approximately $577 worth of damage was done to windows at Beach Middle school sometime between Dec. 12 and 27, a custodian reported to Chelsea Police this week.

According to Police Chief Robert Aeillo, some 16 windows, two doors and 13 small floodlights were riddled with BB shot on the north and west sides of the building.

Some 14 2'x6' windows, two 30"x40" windows and two 21/2 x6" doors were seriously damaged in the incident. Police are investigating the incident.

Together with pumpkin pie and mistletoe, these words have meant Christmas vacation to the 12 members of Chelsea High school's varsity basketball squad.

Almost every day, with the exception of Christmas and New Year's, the team appears at the gym for two hours of tightly scheduled practice. For Coach Robin Raymond, the hours are not intended to maintain the team's prowess as much as to improve it in all areas.

"Teams improve in practice, not by playing in a game," Raymond said. "If they have to think about it (in a game) they don't know it well enough. It should be second nature."

After four games in the regular season schedule, Chelsea boasts a 3-1 record, including an impressive win over previously unbeaten Milan. Raymond notes the progress of his squad carefully in the contests as well as prac-

"I think we are where I thought we'd be," he affirmed. "We've had two pressure games so far this season. We learned a lot against Brighton that we used against Milan. The key to winning close games is to stop their momentum and regain your original lead. Against Milan we did that."

Chelsea's sole loss thus far this season came against Brighton, in a game in which Raymond says the team couldn't handle the pressure of a close contest. That aspect of team play has improved in the three succeeding games.

"Determining how good a team you are is done in pressure situations," explained Raymond. "Five of our top six players are seniors and have the experience which helps out in pressure games. They've seen it already. You expect your seniors to be able to handle pressure."

An area the team is working on during the vacation hiatus is rebounding, which hasn't yet satisfied Raymond in any of the four contests played this season.

Team drills, sprints, individual Two specific drills are run every day to hone skills and increase aggressiveness. "You need desire and have to be aggressive to be a good rebounder," Raymond said. "Height alone doesn't make a good rebounder. You've got to drive in there and grab the

Raymond has a personal list of 12 goals that the team tries to meet in each contest. Of the five defensive, four offensive and three combined goals, Raymond says a victory would be ensured by reaching seven. In the South Lyon game the team made six, but totalled only three in its victory over South Lyon.

Another goal is to shoot 70 percent in freethrows for the season. Right now the team has a 59 percent average.

Chelsea will need all the expertise and skill the team can muster when their season resumes Friday, Jan. 4 with a home contest against Dexter. The Dreadnaughts have three returning starters, all 6'2", and are thus far 1-3 on their season.

After Dexter comes a crucial contest with Saline, followed by games with Lincoln, Lumen Christi, Howell and Tecumseh. "After Tecumseh," predicted Raymond, "we'll know where we're at. During the second half of the season, there is usually no improvement as individual players. You'll see more team play than in the first half."

A question mark for the team right now is Karl Albrecht, known as Chelsea's "sixth starter," who is out with a knee injury received in a physical education class. "If Karl is unable to play," said Raymond, "it will hurt us. He doesn't start, but is our sixth starter. The top six on the varsity play almost evenly."

Raymond says that he tries to give all 12 of his players as much court time as possible, but in a tight contest would stay with his starters. "Participation is nice but you can only take it so far," he commented. "Ideally, everyone would play equally, but that's not reasonable. In the sec-

Wetlands Preservation Becomes Reality

The Legislature cleared a 10-year old hurdle with the final adoption of legislation defining the use of and regulating the state's wetlands.

Wetlands—swamps, bogs and marshes—have been filled in at an alarming rate, especially in densely populated areas, causing not only urban sprawl, but also adversely affecting natural habitats for birds, fish and animals and causing flooding problems.

Legislation to slow down this process has been before the Michigan legislature for the past

Under a bill approved during the final hours of the legislative session this year, the Senate approved a bill expanding renter credit for rent paid by senior citizens and low income persons.

With an annual estimated cost of $8.5 million, the bill would provide a credit for senior citizens for rent payments over 50 percent of their income. Other low income persons would receive a credit for 75 percent of anything over 40 percent of their income.

Contraption

The notion of multi-purpose utensils is nothing new to the world. On July 6, 1897, one inventive person gained a patent for a combined grocer's packagergrater-slicer-mouse trap and fly trap. For obvious reasons, once a person had gotten to the last uses, the machine could never be returned to its grating or slicing stage, and the entire contraption disappeared from the shelves. Visitors who visit the newly opened 32,000-square-foot Interpretive Center of Henry Ford Museum, Dearbor, won't run across the five-in-one invention, but they will find hundreds of other artifacts which shaped the lives of folks long gone.

Today's chickens are scientifically bred and fed for nine to twelve weeks until they are ready for market. There may still be a chicken flock in a farmer's backyard, when chickens are raised primarily for the farmer's use. But most chickens go from hatcheries to atmosphere controlled buildings to insure disease-free flocks will be produced.

An estimated 7.8 million hens were raised in our state in 1979, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Most of Michigan's production comes from Allegan, Huron, Kent, chickens raised here are laving hens. Although Michigan ranks only 28th in the nation in chicken production, our state's chickens laid 1.5 billion eggs in 1979 to rank Michigan's production 17th in the

Broiler-fryers are raised until from one and a half to three and a half pounds, usually nine weeks. Roasting chickens, larger and firmer fleshed, are marketed when three and a half to five pounds, usually 12 weeks. A whole broiler-fryer is 53 percent edible meat, a three-pound bird

For a delicious low-calorie dish, after the busy holidays, combine two cups cooked, diced chicken, two cups diced, unpeeled red Michigan apple, one-half cup sliced celery and one-quarter cup chopped onion in a two-quart baking dish. In a small bowl combine one can cream of chicken soup, one teaspoon sage, one-half teaspoon salt and one-quarter teaspoon pepper. Mix well and pour into baking dish, stirring to combine all ingredients. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 to 40 minutes or until hot and bubbly.

Candy Making

Candy making can be delightful recreation for youngsters during holiday vacations or any day when weather prohibits outdoor activities. And one of the many good things growing in Michigan is the main ingredient for making these luscious treats—sugar.

Or, try a taffy pulling party this Christmas, Combine three cups Michigan sugar, one cup each water and corn syrup, and onefourth teaspoon salt in a heavy four-quart saucepan. Stir until boiling, Wash down any undissolved sugar from the pan sides with a pastry brush dipped in water.

Add four tablespoons Michigan butter and continue boiling without stirring until a candy thermometer register 256 to 264 degrees. The lower temperature gives a chewier taffy. Turn out onto a large platter well oiled with vegetable oil. After a few minutes, sprinkle with one and one-half teaspoons vanilla, or other flavoring, and food coloring if desired, You may wait until the taffy is being pulled and add different food colorings to different portions.

Grease hands well. As soon as the taffy edges have cooled, start pulling. Two can pull easier and have more fun! Pull taffy out about 12 inches, flip one edge over the other and catch in the middle to pull apart.

Repeat until the taffy is very hard to pull and holds its shape if laid out. Cut into pieces with greased scissors. Store in airtight containers between sheets of wax paper or foil. Moisture in the air can make taffy quite sticky.

-Michigan, that is-we're starting the new year out right, with a blizzard of people pleasin' activities and events for every age, according to the Michigan Calendar of Travel Events.

Leading the list of January happenings is Tip-Up Town U.S.A., with two big week-ends of "family style" fun on the ice of Houghton Lake, Jan. 18-20 and 26-27. Fishing contests are just a part of the big picture. The Grand Parade, Saturday, Jan. 18, leads visitors into the "village on ice" and ice sculptures, games, contests, sky diving and hang gliding demos, and activities solely for the amazement and amusement of all.

The second week-end is geared to snowmobiling families, with safaris, treasure hunts and poker runs. Add cross country skiing. motorcycle races on the ice, a snowgolf tourney and country music shows, and you've got a "tom foolery" week-end that can only be made in Michigan.

Tip-Up Town's bylaws are quite specific-clearly stating the purpose of the Village on Ice to be-"the promotion of bigger lies, hilarity, tom foolery and good will,"

Contests, games, ice sculptures, cross country skiing and other snowy antics are waiting at other Winter Festivals in other areas of the state during January. There's the Winter Festival at Buchanan, Jan. 12-13. and two big week-ends of Winter

AGRICULTURE ACTION MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

★ Farm Story Of the Decade

1980 is significant because we close out another year and embark on a new decade. Newspapers are full of reminiscences of the past 10 years and the important newsi stories of that time. Over-all, the energy crunch rates as the top story of the decade, but there is an important agricultural news story that should rate high as the farm story of the 70's.

Soviet grain purchases which began in the early 70's have broader implications than many recognize. Let's look at Soviet grain buying and what it meant to farming and the U.S.

First of all, it probably improved our relationship with the second most important power in the world. The Russian attitude went from burying us to buying from us. The Soviet Union, beginning in 1972, took 75 million metric tons of wheat, corn, soybeans and other grains.

During the 70's agricultural exports rose five times over. Exports added farm income. They produced jobs all over the United States. These jobs ranged from manufacturing farm machinery to loading grain at the ports.

Exports gave farmers the incentive to produce. We went from production of 4 billion bushels of corn in 1970 to 71/2 billion in 1979. Exports also contributed to the health of the economy by improving our balance of trade, although not enough to offset oil imports.

The Soviet Union was a big part of this export picture. As we move into the 80's, they seem even more dependent on us for food, and that's a good position for us to be in.

Snowmobile contests and toboganning top the list of festive activities at the Saugatuck/Douglas Winter Festival, and Ypsilanti's Winter Carnival at Jyro Park, both set for Jan. 26-27

> The city that put America on wheels unveils what's new for the eighties during two big shows at Cobo Hall, Detroit, this month. This year's edition of "Autorama," Jan. 4-6 spotlights sports cars and vans, then Jan. 12-20, its the 64th Detroit Auto Show. More four-wheeled fantasies will be on display Jan. 18-20 at the Lansing Civic Center during the Custom Auto Show.

Michigan's entertainment roster promises an exciting, starstudded month. For starters, Roger Williams joins the Detroit Symphony Weekender Pops Series, Jan. 11 and 13 at Ford Auditorium. And, the "Queen of Scat," Ella Fitzgerald, will be backed by the Kalamazoo Symphony, Jan. 25, for an evening to remember in Miller Auditorium. At the University Auditorium, on the campus of Michigan State University in East Lansing, the Vienna Choirboys will be in concert Jan. 15, followed by the fancy footwork of the Krasnayarsk Dance Company of Siberia, Jan.

17. Musical masterworks courtesy of the Juilliard String Quartet, Jan. 18, and the classic choreography of the Eliot Feld Ballet, Jan. 30, close out the month at Michigan State. Detroit's Music Hall presents Jennifer Muller and "The Works" Jan. 23-26; and Kalamazoo's Miller Auditorium will host the Vienna Choirboys Jan. 18.

Michigan's winter sports activities won't leave you out in the cold, regardless of your inclinations. For snowmobilers, there's the Thunder Bay 250, enduro snowmobile race, Jan. 12, Alpena. Time trials for the "250" are set for Jan. 4-7. If you're a safari fan, join fellow "Beelers" and trail riders in Cadillac, Jan. 5; White Cloud, Jan. 19; Tawas City, Jan. 20-21; or the annual Moose Jaw Safari, at Harbor Springs, Jan. 12. There'll be a Sno-Fun Week-end at Kalkaska, Jan. 12-13 and the Mardi Gras de Snow is a super snowmobiling week-end for all ages at Paradise, Jan. 18-20.

The sled dog racing season is in full swing across Michigan, with huskies "mushing" ahead in Ludington, Jan. 5-6; Traverse City, Jan. 12-13; Lansing, Jan. 19-20; Pinckney, Jan. 26-27; and International Sled Dog competition at Kalkaska, Jan. 28-27.

Cross country skiers anxious to test their skills won't want to miss the 4th annual North American Vasa Race, Jan. 26 in Traverse City. Skiers of all levels of ability are encouraged to participate, with both Elite and Citizen classes open. Also scheduled for Jan. 26 is the Avalanche Ski Classic, at Boyne City. There'll be racing for all ages and classes.

It's "snow" wonder winter in Michigan is a popular play season. Don't miss any of the fun and games coming up in the month ahead. Write for your free copy of the Michigan Calendar of Travel Events, available from the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce, P.O. Box 30226, Lansing 48909.

The first half of this term was hectic as we tackled many difficult and controversial issues. Many issues were resolved by the members of both houses and sent to Governor Milliken for his signature, including essential insurance legislation, wetlands protection, and hazardous waste management.

I would say, though, that those three issues will be resolved shortly after the opening gavel for the 1980 session is pounded.

Perhaps the issue which most frustrated members of the legislature in 1979 was workers' compensation. Everyone agrees that we have needed a new system for a long time, but progress is hard to come by.

Despite the efforts of a Governor-appointed task force to solve the problems between business and labor representatives, the two sides seem to be light-years apart.

The present program is outdated and in serious need of reform if Michigan is to compete with neighboring states in luring businesses here.

The statute which governs the workers' compensation program here in Michigan was written in 1912 and has evolved into a system that is non-competitive with other Great Lake states.

A House Republican task force spent a good deal of time and energy last year traveling around the state to hear testimony by persons directly affected by the current system.

Some of the testimony was horrifying. One small trucking firm operator in Menominee, who also operates a terminal in Green Bay, Wis., said that the same insurance company provides workers' compensation policies for his employees in both states.

He noted that he pays $1,500 per man more in Michigan than he does in Wisconsin for his workers' compensation insurance. The stories go on and

What is most troubling, though, is that employers no longer want to come to Michigan to expand their businesses because premiums cost more here while employees receive fewer benefits. Who can blame them?

So the issue of workers' compensation has to be at the top of our list of priorities this year, and I will do all I can to bring about an equitable solution to the pro-

Property tax relief will also be high on our list of things to be accomplished in 1980. There are at least three proposals being bandied about in the legislature and I am hopeful that we can come up with one that includes all the ingredients necessary to benefit the people of Michigan by making the tax system more fair for

The Bill of Rights in the U.S. Constitution protects individual minority rights, but minority representatives and ultimately the constituents they represent, are subject to immediate rulesetting on the moment by the majority party. Everyone suffers under this system. It must be changed, and I hope that 1980 is the year when the minority party in the legislature is finally given. the rights it is guaranteed under the U.S. Constitution.

Auto Industry in Trouble

The last two weeks of 1979 proved to have some good news and some bad news for Michigan's number one industry: automobile production.

The good news was, the approval by the U.S. Congress of billions of dollars in loan guarantees for financially troubled Chrysler Corp. The measure, which is sure to gain President Carter's signature, will preserve the company from immediate bankruptcy and, of course, the hundred of thousands of Michigan jobs which depend on the third largest automaker for

The other good news is that Michigan-based American Motors Corp. is headed for record production of its basically small car line of automobiles, particularly its Jeep vehicles.

The bad news is that automobile forecasters predict a double digit decline in production for General Motors, Ford, and Chrysler during the first three months of 1980.

Naturally, that means that auto industry layoffs begun during the last quarter of 1979 will continue. and probably expand.

The director of the state's Michigan Employment Security Commission said that he expects the state unemployment rate to hit 11 percent dring the first quarter of 1980.

All of this adds up to bad news for our state and particularly for the state budget which provides so many services to so many individuals. Some fiscal analysts predict that the state will have to cut $500 million from current spending levels or increase taxes in order to meet the constitutionally mandated balanced budget next year.

The crunch comes not only in decreased tax revenues. If an individual isn't working, he or she won't be paying income tax and buying will be reduced, thus reducing sales tax revenues.

Perhaps the most difficult problem is that at the same time the revenues to the state treasury are being reduced, the demand for assistance is increasing at an enormous rate. Unemployment benefits, aid to families with dependent children and many other social services are in great we took the trouble to eat the "right kind" of foods. You'll learn about eating the right kind of foods-and feel worlds better as a result-after you read Lelord Kordel's "Let's Live Longer," which starts this week in The Standard.

What Is The Kordel Plan? Lelord Kordel believes that wrong eating is one of the main factors in the physical and mental illnesses that plague men and women today.

For years he has studied the effect on body and mind of varying foods, and is convinced that many diseases can be prevented—even eliminated—by learning how to eat correctly.

The Kordel Plan is a way of living healthily while eating enjoyably. By following the suggestions he gives in his articles—you will find a new ability to relax amid the tensions of modern life.

Through eating certain foods it is possible to live a livelier, more vigorous life. Sleep will become deep and refreshing. You will face each day with a song in your heart-because of your new-found energy.

Good Foods Cost Less "Good foods actually cost less than poor ones," he states. "Many an expensively provisioned table is tragically poor in nutritional values because of unwise selection and wasteful preparation."

demand during times of high unemployment.

The fact is the coldest, darkest months of the year 1980 are going to be bleak indeed for many Michigan citizens. The decisions the times dictate in Lansing will not be easy.

The more telling point may be how long this latest budget crisis lasts and whether our state is in a permanent downward spiral economically.

If the latter proves to be the case, then we will all have to adjust to our expectations of government services to levels in keeping with Michigan's relative

It's either that or raise taxes. The 1978 referendum on tax limitations would seem to indicate that course is not what the voters have in mind.

Vista Programs

Washtenaw and Jackson counties have received more than $300,000 in federal grants to help fund programs staffed by eight VISTA volunteers in 1980.

The money will be used to pay for programs in domestic violence education; the development of local volunteer programs; and emergency housing opportunities for persons making the transition from institutional to community living programs.

I believe that VISTA is a wonderful organization which helps people help themselves. And the persons doing the instructing are volunteers, they are dedicated to their work and probably give more of themselves than a person who would look at the instruction as a job.

VISTA is an acronym for Volunteers in Service to America.

The grant money will be used to

-five VISTA volunteers in Washtenaw county to educate the public about domestic violence.

-two VISTA volunteers in Jackson county and one in Washtenaw county to develop local community volunteer services, advocacy programs, and options for persons moving out of institutional living situations.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

Uses several descriptive words that help to identify the children of God-Christians. In pursuit, a Christian is a follower of Christ. He practices self-denial and follows Jesus' example of living. (Matthew 16:24; I Peter 1:21). In knowledge, he is a disciple or learner. Jesus said, "Come . . . learn of me." (Matthew 11:29). In character a Christian is a saint. (Corinthians 1:1, 2). In connection and relationship, he is a branch in the vine. In the gospel of John we read the words of Jesus: "If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. (John 15:6). In illumination, a child of God is light. (Matthew 5:14-16). In labor, a Christian is a sower; in combat, a soldier; and in alertness, a watchman. (Matthew 13:3; 2 Timothy 2:8; Ephesians 6:11-17; Matthew 26:41).

Less Spilt Milk

Milk no longer ran loose in Brooklyn after Jan. 11, 1878. On that date, milkmen began delivering it to Brooklyn homes in glass bottles. Up to that time, purchasers brought containers to their milkman and watched as he ladled out the quantity desired. #### FLEXIBLE MORTGAGE

There's a new type of mortgage loan which would tailor the payment schedule to the borrower's needs and abilities. Instead of level payments for the life of the loan, payments could be smaller for one period and larger for another period depending on your future earning prospects.

Under the proposed regulations, the borrower and lender would negotiate the repayment schedule as long as each payment would cover interest costs and would be on a fully ammortized basis after eight years. Thus, a young couple could arrange smaller payments during the initial years of the term or an elderly couple could have smaller payments following retirement.

As an example, take a 30year mortgage where the normal monthly principal and interest payment would be approximately $220. Using the flexible payment plan, the borrower could pay as little as $200 per month for the first eight years, then $240 for the remainder of the term. This type of home loan

Can a Change in Eating Habits Help You Live Longer?

By LELORD KORDEL Number One of a Series

to ls wrong eating a factor in the physical and mental illness of modern man? Lelord Kordel believes so. For years he has studied the effect on body and mind of varying foods, and is convinced that we can add many years to our lives by revising some of our eating habits.

HERE THEN, is the Lelord Kordel plan for enjoyable eatingand healthy living. Follow these articles for the next 12 install-ments. They will help you to a tivelier, healthier existence.

'DO PEOPLE DIE because they don't eat the right stuff?" I recall asking that question of my mother when I was about nine years old.

5, "I suppose they do, thousands of them every day, only it is called by some fancy medical name," was her sage reply.

Perhaps that was the day when I resolved to find out what people should eat to grow to maturity in good health and to maintain themselves in vigorous, en ergetic usefulness throughout middle age and toward the century milepost.

What I learned is not new, for there is really nothing entirely new under the sun. A few wise men in each generation have felt for centuries that mankind was growing less and less vigorous.

In the days of the Roman Empire, the philosopher Seneca realized this sad truth. As tutor and friend of the gluttonous Emperor Nero, no doubt Seneca had occasion to make many an observation which finally led him to declare:

"Man does not die. He kills himself."

And throughout the ages since Seneca, men-and that means women, too-go right on "killing" themselves at the dinner tables, lunch counters and banquet boards of the world.

HEED THE WARNING!

We are an ultracivilized nation, composed of persons whose mental powers and accomplishments are adjudged above the `average.

Then, why in the name of all that is sensible, don't we heed the warnings which our own public health statistics flash before us every time there is a census; every time we conscript large numbers of our young men for military service? We are a nation of aches and pains, fatigue and nerves. Thousands upon thousands of our citizens die every day, prematurely. Many of our older men and women are incapacitated in one way or another for years before their death by one or more serious illnesses.

We are far from being a strong, healthy people. By now, you are probably waiting for me to tell you to invest in a carrot patch and live off the harvest the rest of your You might live a long time by munching carrots throughout the years. But who wants to live a long time if life is going to be as monotonous as a carrot

Even an anteater enjoys occasional variety in its meals. THE FIRST STEP

However, as a first step toward re-educating you for maximum health and well-being, I shall outline briefly what to me is a prime natural law governing the human body. Whether you have but a smattering of knowledge about the human frame, or whether you have read every medical book in the library, a good understanding of natural law is absolutely necessary. Then you will treat your body with the respect and consideration it

Every form of living, growing thing on this globe—algae scum on a pond, redwood trees, whales, mankind—is made up of cells. Each one of these cells is so small that it would take 8,000 of them lined up side by side to reach across one edge of a box one cubic inch in size. To fill that same little cube box would require over 100 million of these

And in the entire human body there are hundreds of billions of cells. That is a lot of anything! To make the matter more complicated, each one of those cells is a separate living unit.

The next time you look in a full-length mirror, try to visualize yourself as the billions of separate lives you actually are instead of as the one life registered on the birth records.

Therefore, the prime natural law is to nourish the cells of your body. What do they require? Among others, three very important nutrients: Minerals, Vitamins, and Protein.

Why, you are probably asking, should I be bothered with such things? An animal does not. It eats what it wants with no thought of maintaining any kind of balance. Or does it?

An animal does maintain a balance in nutrition! Except that it does so by instinct. whereas man, blessed with the "superior" faculty of intelligence, can choose and select his food. What is the result?

LIFE EXPECTANCY

The average man today can expect to live to be 68; but some doctors think he should live to 150. The lower animals do much better than man.

According to Dr. Edward L. Bortz: a dog is fullgrown at two years, lives to an average twelve; a cat is full-grown at 1½, lives to ten; a horse, full grown at four, reaches 25.

Reasoned Dr. Bortz: "If a man is physically mature at 25, then he should have an average normal life span of 150 years."

Why does not man live proportionately as long as the dog, the horse, or other animals?

For the simple reason that, given the power to think, he seems to have lost most of his instinctive powers. When man traded instinct for intellect he made a bad bargain as far as his health was concerned. Instinct would never lead him to over-refined foods, starches, artificial sweets and fried victuals dripping with Yet his "intellect" does!

Thus it seems that in the matter of nourishing his body and attaining a ripe old age, man. fares much worse with his "brain" than an animal does with its instinctive powers.

It is a pleasure to wish you a Joyous Holiday and a Happy New Year. Also, I want to announce that in January we will re-open our district services office at a new location on the corner of Fifth Ave. and Catherine, near Ann Arbor's Farmers Market. Our phone will continue to be 665-4672 for local activities and 800-292-5893 for our Lansing of-

Looking back over our first year in Lansing, I am struck by the numerous activities which have involved the Pierce office and volunteers. Obviously, this has been a tremendous learning experience, and we continue to learn. But it also has been difficult, and personally very painful, to decide budget and service allocations for the aged, low income, institutionalized, handicappers, and others who look to the state for protection and ser-

1979 was the base year for determining future state budgets under the tax limitation amendment. While some politicians continue to "posture" on the tremendous waste in the state budget, I geniunely feel that the majority of state officials have acted responsibly in the enabling legislation for tax limitation. Yet, I'm unsure how the state will act in the near future on such monumental questions of Michigan's high unemployment, expensive yet painfully short supply of housing, and the gigantic problems caused by stagflation. From my perspective, Michigan will have some very serious fiscal times ahead.

When we came to Lansing my first goal was to chair the Senate Health and Social Services Committee in as responsible and effective a way as possible. I feel we have met this objective and work to date has been generally applauded. The majority of bills our committee considered were in the public health area. An achievement was the acceptance of the State Health Plan this fall. Michigan is the only state to have its legislature formally approve the state plan. I have introduced several bills to end communicable disease tests for barbers and cosmetologists for whom the tests are no longer useful. The committee has not reported out the bill to prohibit Medicaid abortion funding, and I will continue to oppose this discriminatory legislation. In the near future the bill restructuring Blue Cross/Blue Shield will come before Senator Miller's Commerce Committee, and I have a special assignment with his committee while that bill is studied. We must reduce intolerable rate increases for medical services in Michigan.

In February, we were contacted by citizens concerned with emergency medical services in privately-owned places where large numbers of people congregate (i.e., factories, stadiums, theater). In many such places the medical care available in the first crucial minutes after a serious accident is inadequate. A task force was established to improve this emergency medical care and to advise Representatives Bullard, Owen and me. The task force is composed of emergency care providers,

For people in Chelsea and Dexter who run into problems meeting the high cost of home heating, Grass Lake resident Katy Harat is a friendly person waiting to help.

A 10-year employee of the Washtenaw County Community Service Agency, Mrs. Harat can advise local residents on the benefits to be gained from the Energy Crisis Assistance Program (ECAP). Eligible persons may receive as much as $320 during the winter season to pay fuel and utility bills and other crisis needs. "The whole thing is that a lot of people think something should be done for the middleman," said Harat, "and this is as close as they're going to come."

According to Harat, senior citizens have priority for the funds, but applications will also be accepted from low-income people or those receiving public assistance.

"The fact is that many people have to make a choice between keeping warm or eating," she explained. "An older person will generally keep warm, but then starve because there's no money for food."

Perhaps owing to the fine weather, Mrs. Harat says she has had applications from only 10 or so persons from the Chelsea-Dexter area thus far this year. That low number, however, does not mean that the need is not

"It's a matter of they're afraid to go to their neighbor," she said. "And maybe people feel hesitant about going to social services because its too close. Maybe they'll come to me because I don't have an office in Chelsea and yet I'm still involved in the Most importantly, Mrs. Harat works to dispel the feeling that taking help through such programs is "charity." "Every chance I get, I get on the soap box," she affirmed. "I tell them, 'For years you've paid taxes, don't you think you should get something back?' They've paid taxes all these years. This is something they deserve.

Mrs. Harat currently works out of the annex building of the Sheriff's Department Dexter substation. Chelsea and Dexter residents may call her Monday and Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at 971-8400, extension 478. On Tuesday she may be called at 475-1581.

Before the winter is over, Katy Harat hopes to reach more people than have so far called on her. "It's a re-education process," she explains. "You've got to tell people what it's all about."

Nature Center on Reduced Schedule For Rest of Year

Waterloo Nature Center will be operating on a reduced schedule for the 1980 calendar year because of a loss of personnel.

The nature center building will be open to the public from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday. Groups may still reserve naturalist conducted programs Wednesday through Saturday mornings.

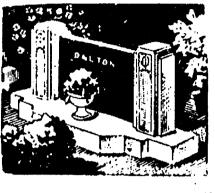

Foot trails around the center and the parking lot will still be available to the public seven days a week.

Because of the current hiring freeze in state government, the center is unable to fill the receptionist position vacated in December. The hiring freeze may remain in effect until October 1980 or perhaps longer, according to Park Naturalist Tom Hodgson.

1903 proved to be a very hot year for the fledgling automobile industry. At the 3rd National Automobile Show, which ran from Jan. 17-24, all the latest styles were introduced, including square hoods, honeycomb radiators and the 1903, 7.3 horsepower, one-cylinder Cadillac runabout. The Transportation Collection of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, offers visitors an opportunity to view the first year Cadillac, as well as other 1903 models, including the Packard Model F, Marr Autocar and curved dash Oldsmobile.

Watt A Day

Jan. 19, 1736 might have started as an ordinary day, but before it was over. James Watt had entered the world. Watt's work with steam engines helped lead the way into the industrial age. An impressive selection of power machinery, including Watt steam engines, is on exhibit in the Hall of Technology at Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

Tax Help Available From IRS

The Internal Revenue Service today reminded area residents that help with federal tax questions is available by phone and at the local office. IRS's toll-free telephone assistance network is open Monday through Friday. Hours for help by phone are 8 a.m. through 12 noon and 12:45 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. Telephone numbers are listed in the tax forms package and local directories.

IRS says you can get quicker service if you call during slow periods. The best time to call is early in the morning or late in the day. Try to avoid Mondays and Tuesdays if you can. IRS says they are the two busiest days of the week. The agency's phone system handles about 75 percent of the assistance needs of tax-

The local office staff offers free in-person help with tax returns. The office in Ann Arbor is located at 200 E. Liberty. It is open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

IRS monitors a sample of each day's phone calls to promote accuracy of answers to tax questions and courtesy to taxpayers. In addition, all tax returns prepared at IRS offices are given a "quality review" to ensure all schedules are attached and all'

line entries are made properly. The IRS again reminds taxpayers whose 1979 income was less than $10,000 that they may be entitled to a special benefit, in some cases as much as $500. It's called the "Earned Income Credit." It is available to certain qualifying persons, even some who may not otherwise be required to file a tax return, or even some who had no tax withheld in 1979. "But," says IRS, "if you qualify, you must file a return to ge the benefit of this credit." IRS suggests a simple rule: If you earned under $10,000 on your job last year, ask about the earned income credit!

'Welcome to Ireland' Film Slated Saturday This Saturday, Jan. 5, in the third installment of this season's

Kiwanis Club "Travel and Adventure Series," seasoned traveler Bill Kennedy will present "Welcome to Ireland," a tour of the length and breadth of the Emerald Isle.

Kennedy's travelogue presents a friendly land filled with quaint old world charm, as well as the excitement of large urban centers such as Dublin, Cork, Limerick and Belfast.

The remote and timeless Aran Islands and the awe-inspiring Skelligs present a sharp contrast to modern Ireland.

Kennedy presents Ireland's famed crafstmen at work, observing the hand crafting of Waterford crystal, Belleek china and Donegal tweed.

Ancient castles, a contemporary farm family and a fishing village provide glimpses into the lives of the Irish. Coastal highways of the Rind of Kerry, the Dingle Peninsula and Donegal offer breathtaking vistas along the Irish seacoast.

Tickets for the presentation will be available at the door. The travelogue begins at 8 p.m. promptly at the Chelsea High school auditorium.
