THREE VEHICLES were involved in an accident Saturday afternoon at the intersection of M-52 and Waterloo Rd. The car driven by Chelseaite Elizabeth Marsh, right, was struck by a car traveling on M-52, center, after she failed to yield at a stop sign, a sheriff's department spokeswoman said. No one was seriously injured, although three people were taken to Chelsea Hospital for treatment of minor injuries.

Three Injured in M-52 Crash

A local woman and two out-of-towners were injured Saturday afternoon in a three-car accident at the intersection of M-52 and Waterloo Rd. north of town.

Mrs. Elizabeth Marsh, 1345 Sugar Loaf Lake, was taken to Chelsea Hospital in an ambulance following the 1:30 p.m. collision. Two passengers in a car driven by Hilary Platte of Portland were also transported to the hospital with minor injuries.

According to information received from Chelsea Hospital, Mrs. Marsh was not admitted to the hospital as an in-patient. The hospital would not reveal the extent of her injuries or comment on treatment received in the emergency room.

Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department reports indicate that the accident occurred when Mrs. Marsh failed to yield as she proceeded northbound on M-52.

According to the reports, Mrs. Marsh attempted to make a left turn from M-52 onto Waterloo Rd., and failed to yield to the car driven by Platte, traveling south.

A FONTANA-TAYLOR AMBULANCE crew pushes a stretcher into their vehicle for a trip to Chelsea Hospital, following a three-car collision at the intersection of M-52 and Waterloo Rd. Saturday afternoon. According to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, three people were injured, including Elizabeth Marsh of Chelsea, but none seriously.

Jeff Daniels' Appearance Slated Feb. 5

Tuesday night, Feb. 5, may be the big night Chelsea has been waiting for, as Jeff Daniels' episode of "Hawaii Five-O" is tentatively scheduled to be shown that evening.

According to Jeff's father Bob Daniels, the network cancelled the long-awaited episode two weeks ago because of soundtrack problems. Jeff was called back into a New York studio to do some re-dubbing over the original soundtrack and CBS has scheduled the show about three students who use model airplanes to steal the crown jewels of Hawaii's last queen for the first Tuesday in February.

Frosh Cagers Split Games Last Week

Freshman cagers took an SEC contest with Milan last Thursday, 37-23, but fell in non-conference action to Jackson Northwest on Monday, 46-55.

In the Milan contest, Chelsea dominated the scoring in all quarters but the third, with Dave Wojcicki grabbing 22 points, followed by Randy Krichbaum with 6 and Russ Harris with 4.

"Chelsea's full-court defense caused several turnovers and helped us play good aggressive defense throughout the game," said Coach Jim Tallman. "This was the key to success."

Recreation Dept. Offers Diversion

If winter Saturdays drag by with nothing but television watching in store for the youngsters, maybe a class, or two, or three would relieve the doldrums.

Chelsea's Recreation Department and Community Education are re-introducing the Super Saturday program, to "encourage, extend and further the development, culture and education of children during their leisure time."

Classes begin Jan. 26 and end March 8, with special movies shown on Jan. 19, March 15 and April 5.

The activities offered are many and varied, ranging from art classes, babysitting clinics and biddy basketball to rocketry, sewing and tumbling. In between

Cagers Take League Lead With Victories Over Saline, Lincoln

Chelsea Bulldog supporters filled fully half of Saline's impressive gym last Friday night and cheered their cagers to an important 52-47 SEC victory over the Hornets. The win placed Chelsea on top of the league with a 4-0 record.

Despite fatigue following the crucial contest, Chelsea's cagers again hit the court Saturday and defeated a fired-up last-place Lincoln team, 73-60.

Coach Robin Raymond expressed pleasure at the twin showings and noted that Chelsea's win at Saline was the first time the Bulldogs posted a victory in Saline's gym, built nine years ago.

Saline went out to an early lead, 6-0, in the Friday contest and led Chelsea, 12-6, at the end of the first period. Coach Raymond put that deficit down to the pressure felt by the Bulldogs in the crucial game. However, he noted that Chelsea's large crowd for the away game was a strong positive factor for the team.

The Bulldogs then forced more offensive action and outpointed the Hornets 21-17 in the second stanza. At the half, Saline's lead had been pared to 29-27.

Three quick Chelsea baskets at the very beginning of the second half really changed the game around for the Bulldogs. According to Raymond, Saline likes to slow the ball down when they're ahead in the second half, but they were unable to utilize that strategy because Chelsea took the lead.

Chelsea stayed ahead in the final quarter, 11-10, and took the contest away from the former first-place holders.

Raymond said the biggest key to the victory was the fact that Saline had only two players who scored more than four points. Big man John Kendzicky scored his usual average of 22 points, and Chip Skinner had 15, but the duo accounted for 37 of Saline's 47 points.

Chelsea's pre-game strategy outlined by Raymond in The Standard last week worked to perfection: the Bulldogs conceded Kendzicky his points, but denied the other players scoring opportunities.

"They were so dependent on getting the ball to Kendzicky that they forgot about everyone else," said Raymond. "We knew they were going to look to him, but didn't figure on it everytime they got the ball."

On the other hand, Chelsea presented a balanced scoring front. Jeff Dils led with 14 points, followed by John Dunn with 13, Don Schrotenboer with 11 and Mike Killelea with nine.

Kendzicky and Schrotenboer both fouled out late in the final period, leaving Saline with no one to depend on. Both Schrotenboer and Killelea had good games against the two tall Hornets, Kendzicky and McGuire.

Coach Raymond pointed out Chelsea junior Sean Peterson for an excellent game with relatively little prior experience. Peterson was moved to point guard to allow Dils to move to the high post, and acquitted himself admirably.

Chelsea did a good job of shooting from the inside, Raymond said, but three outside jump shots by Killelea in the second quarter got Saline concerned about the outside shooting and gave Chelsea an edge.

Chelsea made 70 percent of their freethrows, against Saline's 50 percent. Raymond said that, with 24, the Bulldogs had more turnovers that they'd like, but pointed out that the pace quickened considerably in the third quarter.

"It came down to the last three minutes, but we didn't get conservative and we won it," said Raymond. "The kids held their composure late in the game against a lot of noise, excitement and pressure."

If the Bulldog freethrowing average gave the team an edge in the Saline game, it was the crowning glory of Chelsea's game with Lincoln, and Jeff Dils was the crown prince.

Dils sunk 17 out of 18 attempted free throws, missing one only in the first quarter and shooting 14 in a row. The Bulldogs followed his lead, sinking 33 of 44 foul shots for a 75 percent average. Lincoln hit 8 of 23 attempts.

"Freethrows saved the game for us," admitted Raymond.

He expressed amazement over the high percentage because of the large number of shots taken and the increased chance for errors.

Lincoln did take over the contest in rebounding, however, grabbing 44 to Chelsea's 29. Raymond was concerned about the statistic, but admitted that his team was tired and lost some aggressiveness. He was disappointed that the Bulldogs let Lincoln (Continued on page nine)

Swimmers Dunk Dundee, Novi

Chelsea High school swimmers raised their season record to 4-0 with two road victories over Dundee, 58-24, and Novi, 105-65.

In the meet with Novi, Chelsea set 10 pool records in 11 events at the two-year-old pool. The highlight of the meet was Dave Mason's performance in the 100-yard butterfly. His time of :56.8 broke his own school record and qualified him for the state meet.

Other personal bests were turned in by Kent Noll in the breaststroke, Andy Wier in the butterfly, Sean Oxner in the 200 freestyle, Steve Wolak in the 100 breaststroke and Dave Mason in the 100 freestyle.

Against Dundee, the CHS swimmers again took 10 of 11 events. Personal bests were turned in by Mike Mason, 200 free and 100 butterfly; Kirk Hawks, 100 butterfly; Shawn Pierson, 100 free; Sean Oxner, 500 free; Andy Weir, 500 free; Kent Noll, 100 back; Tom Gaunt, 100 breaststroke; and Dave Mason, 100 freestyle.

"The two victories were nice, but now we go into the tough and serious part of our season," said Coach Larry Reed. "We meet Adrian away, Milan home, Willow Run home, and Brighton away in the next two weeks."

Brighton and Adrian are extremely strong Class A teams who are both undefeated on the season, with wins over the likes of Monroe High school (7th in last year's Class A state meet), Pontiac Central and Jackson High school. Milan was third and Willow Run seventh in last year's Class B state meet.

"If we can win two or more of these meets we will be one step closer to our season goal of finishing in the top 20 of the state," said Reed.

The Milan meet, Jan. 22, 7 p.m. at home should be close and fast.

BRAD KNICKERBOCKER (25) and Don Schrotenboer (35) provided a good deal of the action in Chelsea's game at Saline last Friday night. In a fast-breaking contest, the Bulldogs emerged victorious, 52-47, taking the SEC league lead.

Volleyball Team 2nd in Tourney

According to Chelsea High volleyball coach Judy Bottom, all the tough games are behind the team and they are looking for a successful season from now on.

The toughest of the group was SEC power Saline, who decimated the junior varsity and beat the varsity 15-7 and 15-9, despite some excellent effort.

Sue Branham, a former Saline player, was excellent in serving and spiking, while Cindy Gerstler shone in serving and Kelly Hense did a good defensive job in addition to setting and serving well.

A closer contest was the one with Tecumseh earlier in the week, in which the JV fell in two of three games and the varsity again fell by scores of 15-7 and 15-8. The varsity was hurt without the presence of Sue Branham, but featured good playing by Hense, Gerstler, Patty Rawson, Molly Bacon and Deb Cornell.

Outstanding for the junior varsity were Kathy Morris, Julie Hunn, Marty Kovick, Kim Schmid and Venus Roberts.

Most heart-breaking of all was (Continued on page eight)

Committee To Study Nuclear Waste

In anticipation of future pressures on nuclear dumping, Governor William G. Milliken has appointed a special committee on nuclear waste disposal to study the impact of a national program on high-level nuclear waste disposal.

Milliken said the panel is needed because Michigan, which generated nuclear waste from power plants and medical treatments, has an obligation to work with others to resolve the waste disposal problem.

Heading up the committee will be William Taylor, the governor's science advisor.

Milliken said the committee will consider the possibility and appropriateness of nuclear waste research in the state.

Michigan law prohibits the disposal of nuclear waste and according to the governor and legislative leaders, the state is not to be considered as a dump site.

The committee will also have to study the relationship the legal prohibition on nuclear waste has on other federal activities.

Collective Bargaining For State Employees

A final decision on collective bargaining for state classified workers will be made early in 1980, according to State Personnel Director Richard Ross.

He said collective bargaining will lead to a "new approach" for civil service workers during the new decade.

"Change is inevitable. Employees say they want the guaranteed right to bargain collectively on their compensation. The time for decision is here," he said.

Ross has been charged by the Civil Service Commission with developing a proposal that will replace the current "meet and confer" system used since 1976, that determines state workers' pay.

The commission said it was their intent that a collective bargaining system, acceptable to both workers and state government managers, be developed. They, however, did not completely eliminate the possibility for a non-bargaining proposal as well.

A decision will be made independently of a proposed constitutional amendment allowing collective bargaining by state employees.

Several proposals for a constitutional amendment, which would have to be approved by the voters, have been suggested.

If a constitutional amendment is proposed, Ross said he would prefer a proposal made last summer by the Citizens Task Force of Civil Service Reform.

The task force recommended collective bargaining be implemented without an amendment.

The proposal would give the Civil Service Commission final determination on proposed agreements, such as the commission now has final decision making power on proposals from the pay hearings panel.

The panel makes recommendations after receiving testimony from the state and employee groups.

Whether it be done by legislation or by constitutional amendment, it appears state workers, much like large labor groups, will soon be enjoying collective bargaining.

Builder Reports Ladders, Shingles Stolen from Site

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Clem Webster told the fellers at the country store Saturday night that Garrett Trappell is trying to start a reverse trend for folks in high Government places. He said Trappell wants to go from jail to jail, instead of from job to jail. Clem had saw this piece in the papers where Trappell is running for president from his cell in a federal prison in Illinois.

The candidate is running into some hitches, Clem said, like a life sentence that limits his campaigning more than somewhat, and as a convict he's not allowed to vote or hold public office.

Trappell's platform calls for him to be elected first, then work out the details. He said his first official act as president will be to pardon himself, then he can get on with running the country. Besides, he says the law that won't let him hold office violates the Constitution that says everybody over 35 years old has a right to run for president. Clem said the item reported that Trappell is seen as the darkest horse in a stable of more than 100 "marginal" candidates that have filed for federal office this year.

The fellers took considerable interest in candidate Trappell. Ed Doolittle was of a mind that if we got him at least we'd know what we were getting, and we wouldn't have to spend time and money digging up everything about him. And he wouldn't stick us with surprises like the governor of Tennessee that tried to pardon all the convicts in the state after he got beat and before he left office. We'd keep our guard up with this feller Trappell, Ed said, and we'd be more careful in dealing with all his buddies he might name to high office.

Clem Webster said he was surprised that a feller safe in prison would want to come out and take on a job like being president. Somebody willing to make that sacrifice can't be all bad, was Clem's words. He said he had saw this piece wrote by a bank robber in a federal prison in North Carolina. The young feller said he went to school, played in the gym, took "self-image improvement" classes and worked on building his "self-esteem." He said all this better prepared him to return to society, Clem said, and Clem was wondering what manner of living this convict was used to having society support him in. Clem said that piece made prison sound like a finishing school without classes, curfew or fees.

Actual, Clem went on, if Trappell lives as soft as the image improver his venture into politics would work out like the groundhog weather report. If Trappell gets a chance to stick his head out here in the cold world of crime victims he'll probable scoot back in and give up the idea. Clem said out here a feller can't even worship as he pleases anymore. He had saw where a group in Florida that smokes pot in place of a Sunday sermon has run afoul of the law. The judge said he stopped the services because where the smokers congregate ain't zoned for a church. Clem said he wonders what Trappell thinks of zoning laws in this country.

Mexican Fiesta Dinner Dance Tickets on Sale

It's almost time for Chelsea's Mexican Fiesta Dinner Dance, planned and carried out by members of the Chelsea High school symphony band for the entertainment of the community.

On Feb. 9, the band will host the gala evening activities at the new UAW Hall, Local 1284. Tickets go on sale Jan. 18 at the Chelsea Pharmacy at $25 a couple and $15 per single. The ticket ensures an evening of entertainment.

The menu, prepared by Symphony Band members, consists of an appetizer of French onion soup, followed by a tossed salad. For the main course, band members will serve juicy roast beef, mashed potatoes and gravy, green beans, roll and butter. For dessert, a cart of delectable sweets will be prepared for the choosing.

Following dinner, members of the Chelsea High Jazz Band will provide music for dancing. Then, at midnight, a Mexican treat will be served.

Dinner will begin at 7 p.m., followed by dancing at 9 p.m. The UAW Hall is located on M-52, south of I-94. All proceeds will go toward the Symphony Band's Mexican Festival Project, to help the group get to Mexico City this May.

Detroit's first chapter of the NAACP was organized in 1910 at the Guild Hall of St. Matthews Episcopal church. Consisting of both black and white members, the organization held annual celebrations honoring the births of Frederick Douglas and Abraham Lincoln, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY OFFICERS were elected at last Monday night's meeting of the Chelsea group. Handling the reins for the year will be, front, left to right, vice-president Sally Rendell, president Lois Moore, secretary Chris Wagner; rear, directors Harold Jones, Otis Titus and Britton Graham, and treasurer Max Hepburn.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT:

Historical Society Enjoys Highly Successful Year

At the Monday evening, Jan. 14, meeting of the Chelsea Historical Society, President Lois Palmer Moore presented the annual report to the society, outlining the activities of the previous year.

This year's report reads as follows:

The 1979 tenure of office, as seen by the president, is rewarding. Membership increased and many projects were attempted and consummated. The members, officers, and committees functioned as a team, and through their combined efforts, the following was accomplished.

Harold Jones, Kathleen Chapman and President-elect Lois Palmer Moore attended the Washtenaw Historical Society

Christmas party in 1978. Lois Moore was present at a meeting of area historical officers hosted by the Washtenaw Historical Society at Ann Arbor Great Lakes Federal Savings.

Past-President Gwen Schrader brought the CETA photography project, undertaken by Daryll Flugg, to a close. The society now has future historical evidence in its possession.

Records from Lima Center school and Rogers Corners school were accepted from Mrs. Paul F. Nelhaus and Sylvester Wojcicki respectively. A copy of Nina Belle Wurster's "History of Chelsea" accompanied the latter.

Mrs. Judy McArthur introduced University of Michigan masters degree candidates Amy Lee and Barbara Berlin at the January meeting. As a result of their architectural and urban planning presentation at the April meeting, and the subsequent presentation to the Chelsea Village Council, a Chelsea Historic Commission has been organized. Members from the society appointed to the commission are as follows: Otis Titus, Britton Graham, Sally Rendell, W.C. Lane, DVM, and Frances Runciman.

Paul Hoffman presented an interesting program on area buildings at the February meeting. The society was saddened by his death on March 16, 1979, and a resolution to honor him was passed and recorded in the minutes of Oct. 8, 1979. Subsequently, Mr. Hoffman's documents were donated to the society by his family. This act is greatly appreciated.

Mary Jo Miller attempted to stump the membership with a quiz of antique tools and implements in March. We always enjoy our former member who contributed so much to the formation of the society.

Wynsten Stevens, curator of the Kempf House in Ann Arbor, was guest speaker at the May meeting held at the Methodist Retirement Home. His program on area cemetery markers received many interesting questions and comments. A slide presentation of the proposed Washtenaw County Historical Society Museum by Hazel Proctor of the society included many artifacts and memorabilia to which the home residents could relate.

Gwen Schrader is recording any donations to a future museum in Chelsea. The society hopes to find a permanent building, and is investigating interim storage space.

Marie Petsch, Hazel Dittmar and Chris Wagner as a committee, together with other members participating, were commended for the success of the booth at the Chelsea Community Fair.

The society, chaired by Glenn Wiseman, is anxious to find pictures of any kind depicting early life in the Chelsea area. These can be copied and returned. Some may appear in The Chelsea Standard. Please include all information known about any material submitted.

Genealogy forms are available to interested residents or persons anywhere with local ties. Also available are Historical Society Home Survey forms. These forms are for any home in the area. Both forms are free of charge.

Historian Harold Jones began to retrace the prolific history of the Dancé family at the September meeting. This was received with ongoing interest.

Otis Titus, Historic Sites Chairperson, reported that the Welfare Building, a part of the Glazier Stove Works, has been listed in the State Register of Historic Sites as of a letter dated Aug. 8, 1979. This is the culmination of exhaustive research, travel, and correspondence performed by Titus. The society commended him for this exemplary work.

A portrait of the Hon. James M. Congdon, co-founder of the village of Chelsea, was presented to the McKune Library in September. This was accomplished through the efforts of Harold Jones, Ann Feeney, Jan Ferrero and Lois Moore. The society is still seeking a portrait of Elisha Congdon.

At the November meeting, Alice Ziegler of the Washtenaw County Historical society gave a slide presentation of graves of the Revolutionary War veterans buried in this area. Her ongoing work was met with much interest from local members.

Angie Smith has successfully handled the sale of the society stationery since its inception. Her services are greatly appreciated and her successor, Sally Nicola, is wished comparable success. The stationery is available through Mrs. Nicola, Vogel's Department Store and Fireside Antiques, 1196 S. Main St.

Thank you, members of the Chelsea Area Historical Society and residents of the Chelsea area, both past and present, for your contributions.

Respectfully submitted, Lois Palmer Moore.

Research is the key to removing the threat of birth defects from future generations. To that end, the March of Dimes channels millions of dollars annually into birth defects research programs.

Children Study Farm Animals At Hospital Child Care Center

The children at Chelsea Community Hospital Child Care Center are enjoying interesting activities in January.

Last week the children learned about various aspects of farms. They studied farm animals — their names, what they eat, how they move, and the food they provide us with. The children learned about farmer's daily activities and what machines they use. They learned new songs about farm animals and practiced making the animal sounds.

This week the theme is Our Senses. The children will be participating in activities involving their five senses. They are learning about taste buds by trying foods that are sweet, sour, salty, and bitter. They will learn that they hear with their ears and through different games they will discriminate between sounds. The sense of smell will take on a new meaning for the children after they smell different foods and spices without seeing them.

Games involving different textures will enable the children to understand more about the sense of touch. Various activities involving sight will enable the children to appreciate what their eyes can help us do.

The next week the children will discover the wonders of winter. They will learn about snow and cold weather. They will discuss how animals and people adapt to the weather. They will learn about winter sports and other activities. Through stories, films, and creative movement, the children will find out about the beauty of winter.

The following week the children will find out about zoo animals. They will be discussing the names of animals, what they eat, and what type of homes they live in. The children will make animal puppets, collages of animal pictures, and animal parts for their "zoo." They will be reading a lot of books about animals, acting out animal movements and sounds. The children will learn about body parts of animals (are they the same as people?) and how to treat wild animals.

Chelsea Community Hospital Child Care Center offers an educational program with the basic philosophy that each child is a unique human being with special talents and interests. It strives toward the healthy development of the total child—his or her social, emotional, intellectual development.

The Center is licensed by the State of Michigan to care for children ages 2½ to 7. The hours of the Center are 6:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The Center is located in the west wing of St. Paul United Church of Christ, 14600 Old US-12. Further information may be obtained from Corinne Priehs, director, at 475-1920.

WRESTLERS SCORE: In their best performance of the season to date, seven Chelsea wrestlers place in the county meet at Ann Arbor Huron last Saturday. Taking second, third and fourth place rankings were, rear, Travis Rudd, Rick Poljan, Bill Freeman, Will

Wrestlers Score In County Meet

Local grapplers made their best showing of the current season last Saturday at the county meet hosted by Ann Arbor Huron High school. Participating with Chelsea were Ann Arbor Huron, Ann Arbor Pioneer, Gabriel Richard, Dexter, Saline, Whitmore Lake, Ypsilanti and Willow Run. No team standings were recorded, but several Chelsea wrestlers placed in their divisions. Adrian Saarinen took third place at 98 pounds; Jeff Osentoski was second at 105; Travis Rudd, 2nd, 112; Jim Cobb, 4th, 119; Bill Freeman, 4th, 167; Rick Poljan, 4th, 185; and Will Rosentreter, 4th, heavyweight. Coach Tom Fletke expressed pleasure at the number of placings taken by Chelsea wrestlers. Earlier in the week, the Bulldogs dropped an SEC meet to Milan, 24-39. In that contest, Adrian Saarinen beat Joseph Cakallero, 8-1; freshman Ernie Bristle at 105; downed Doug Cummings, 9-7; Jeff Osentoski at 112 beat Dave Kempfer, 7-0; Jim Cobb at 119 beat Tracey Ammerman, 15-0; John Preston at 145 pinned Dennis Bauerman; Eric Headrick at 155 pinned Dave Bellmore in the first period; and Rick Poljan at 185 won 12-4 over Grant Kline. Coach Fletke pointed out the success of the Bulldogs in the lighter weight classes and looks for improvement in the heavier categories.

Auto Crash

The driver of the third vehicle was Jeffrey Haas, 19700 Waterloo Rd. The Chelsea Fire Department was called upon to remove passengers in the Platte car from the wreckage of their vehicle. Chelsea Police were also on the scene to assist the Sheriff's Department.

Michigan Second In Direct Exports

Michigan is second only to California in the dollar value of its direct exports of manufactured goods. This is mainly because of its large share of the Canadian market for cars and trucks, a Michigan State University researcher says. David I. Verway, research professor in the MSU Graduate School of Business Administration, said the state's direct exports—manufactured products sent directly to another country without an intermediary—totaled $6.9 billion in 1976, according to figures just provided by the Bureau of the Census. California had more than $8 billion in direct exports, while Illinois was third with $6.7 billion. Please Notify Us of Any Change in Address

Debate Team Qualifies For State Tournament

Chelsea's varsity debate team tied for the district championship. Carl Heldt Named To Veterans Trust Fund Committee

The Board of Trustees of the Michigan Veterans Trust Fund has announced the reappointment of Carl A. Heldt, 1216 Meadow Lane, Chelsea, to continue serving on the Washtenaw County Veterans Trust Fund Committee as the Veterans of Foreign Wars representative, for a term ending Dec. 31, 1982. Last year, the Washtenaw county committee assisted 835 veterans, widows and dependents of veterans, for a total of $58,879.01. Throughout the State of Michigan, county committees assisted 32,817 veterans, widows and dependents, with a total expenditure of $2,467,069.87.

at Marshall last weekend, assuring them of a berth at the state tournament Jan. 31-Feb. 2 at Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant. Lansing Waverly and Marshall tied the Chelsea group for first with scores of 5-1, and Portage Northern came in fourth with a 4-2 record. All four teams will compete in the state tournament. In addition, Chelsea debater Drew Sprague was chosen one of three senior debaters to travel to Detroit's Renaissance Center to compete in the John S. Knight Scholarship Contest, Feb. 22-23. The separate contest is for recognition of outstanding individual debaters. Chelsea's district winning team consisted of Dave Waldyke, Sara Merkel, Theresa Merkel and Drew Sprague. The topic at the state tournament, as it has been all year, will be foreign trade.

Catherine Durkin Named New Methodist Home Administrator

Beginning last month, Chelseaite Catherine Durkin began to follow in the professional footsteps of Miss Frances Dunning and Miss Annabe Atkins.

Local residents can be forgiven if even the most solemn head-scratching sheds no light on the names of those two women. History shows that both served as administrators of the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home before 1930, making Catherine Durkin the first woman to hold the position in 50 years.

Serving as director of nursing services at the home for the past 18 months gave Mrs. Durkin a good inside knowledge of the workings of the home, but she did admit some trepidation at the long line of males, many of them Methodist ministers, that come between her and Miss Atkins on the list of the home's administrators.

"That was the one thing that made me wonder," she pondered, sitting in her sunlit office at the home. "I wasn't sure that I'd be accepted, being a woman in the position. I didn't have doubts about being able to perform, but I wondered how they'd accept me."

Now, with a month under her belt, Catherine Durkin says that all her worries on that score are past. "I've been accepted very well," she smiles. "I feel very comfortable in the situation. I think having the pulsation for the place helped a good deal."

After 22 moves, including three to Michigan, throughout her married life, Mrs. Durkin has probably learned the knack of feeling comfortable almost anywhere.

Born in Lorain, O., she took her nursing training at St. John's Hospital in Cleveland. Through the ensuing years, she worked off and on at the nursing profession, interspersed with raising her three daughters and two sons.

Immediately before returning to Michigan for the third time in July 1978, she was nursing director for Lutheran Social Services in Janestown, N.Y.

Because she was filling in so often for the executive director of that organization, he urged her to take the additional education for administration. So, in July of 1976, she enrolled in a Cornell University course in nursing home administration, which provided 100 hours of study in areas such as regulatory agency requirements, Medicare and Medicaid, quality care, management phases, public health standards and the patient bill of rights.

Despite an initial caution, Mrs. Durkin completed the course, and was subsequently licensed in

EXPERIENCED ADMINISTRATOR: Catherine Durkin may be new to the desk and the office, but she has served the Methodist Home for the past 18 months as director of nursing ser-VICES. Mrs. Durkin was appointed to the position of home administrator last month, replacing Elmer Benson, who was himself filling in until a permanent administrator could be appointed.

New York state as a long-term care administrator.

"It just goes to show you," she said, "that if you take the risk, you never know what might happen. A second career might surface, as it did with me."

When she and her husband moved back to Michigan in 1978 to be near their daughters, Mrs. Durkin went on a job search and was hired at the Methodist Home as director of nursing services. She commuted from Brighton for four months before she and her husband moved to 124 Wilkinson St.

She continued in that capacity until being asked to accept the administrator position. Previous administrator Elmer Benson had been handling those duties in addition to being executive director of the United Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., and assisting at the Boulevard Temple Home in Detroit.

According to Mrs. Durkin, the administrator of the home bears a diversified load. "An administrator is totally responsible for the delivery of quality care and living within the regulations pertaining to the population here, and, of course, being responsible for all departments."

With 125 full- and part-time employees, 160 home for the aged beds, 62 nursing home beds and 22 village garden apartments, the demands are rigorous.

Being a licensed administrator and familiar with the Chelsea home, however, Mrs. Durkin is not likely to be caught off-guard by any of her new responsibilities. She has worked in many retirement and nursing homes, and is delighted to be in a religious-affiliated home, which she feels provides a "totally different atmosphere" from places which are operated for profit.

"I think you feel the difference in a church-related home," she explained. "Even with our old buildings and occasional struggles to stay financially solvent, the different atmosphere is there."

Despite her initial worries about acceptance, Mrs. Durkin now feels completely at ease with all of her staff and with the residents. She chalks a lot of it up to her own attitude.

"I think it's just a matter of having a plan and carrying it out," she concluded. "You've got to know what you're about."

Frankly, It's Ben's Day

One of America's best-known historical figures, Benjamin Franklin, was born Jan. 17, 1706. In the 84 years that followed, Ben became a candlemaker, printer, writer, inventor, postman, diplomat and one of our founding fathers. A visit to Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, can reintroduce observers to Franklin's life and times and provide an opportunity to see Houdon's famous bust of Franklin.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Do you have your high school diploma? Did you drop out of school for one reason or another? Have you ever wished you'd finished school or thought you'd like to finish now? Do you know that you can do that right here in Chelsea?

These questions I asked myself many times, and when I found out our former superintendent, Charles Cameron, was planning a program here in Chelsea for adults to finish their education, I inquired about it.

Jackie Rogers, who is the adult education co-ordinator, sat down with me to discuss what I needed to take to complete my education for a diploma.

I must say that, yes, I was a little concerned that perhaps I'd waited so long that I wouldn't be able to learn as easily as before. This and other questions Jackie made clear to me and with such ease that I felt very comfortable that first day in her office.

I made my decision to start school in September. It wasn't so difficult that I was sorry I'd started, but I did have to put out the effort to get to the classes and do the homework and take care of my home and work nights.

I can be pleased with myself now that I've completed the course and I received my diploma with 15 other proud recipients last June. So, if you've asked yourself these questions, you can get your answers very courteously at the Chelsea High school.

Chelsea should be proud of the wonderful adult high school program they have going and of Superintendent Van Meer and Jackie Rogers for their continuing efforts to promote more and better programs all the time. It takes people such as these to select the outstanding teachers that we are so fortunate to have.

We have all of the facilities, but we ourselves have to make the time and make the effort. I'm so proud to have received my diploma from Chelsea High schools, and I'm sure you will be, too.

Opal McNamara.

Belling the Rat

In an application filed Dec. 16, 1907, an erstwhile inventor presented his humane rodent eliminator. It consisted of a mousetrap which collared the creature with a small bell, scaring him and forcing the rest of his clan to run and hide. While this particular invention is not in the collections of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, other fascinating items ranging from tiny mousetraps to a 600-ton locomotive are on exhibit.

VFW Auxiliary Makes Plans To Form Junior Girls Unit

The auxiliary of local VFW Post No. 4076 met Monday, Jan. 14 with nine members attending. The rehabilitation chairman reported several members to be ill and two hospitalized at this time.

Fran Zatorski, Junior Girls Unit chairman, has requested the names of eligible girls between six and 18, interested in forming a unit. She now has the permission and material from the national organization. Daughters of veterans who served overseas are eligible for membership.

Community Service chairman Alexandra Ellenwood will teach the upcoming CPR class at the Senior Citizen Center. The auxiliary voted to furnish the books for the class.

Another paper drive will be held by the Post Jan. 26 in conjunction with the Boy Scouts. Anyone having paper to contribute may call 475-9624.

The annual wild game dinner sponsored by the Post will be held Saturday evening, Jan. 19, at 6:30 p.m. in the VFW Hall. Auxiliary members, their families and guests are invited. Bring own table service and a dish to pass. Local Voice of Democracy winners and their families will be special guests.

The auxiliary voted to pay premiums on all members for cancer and other dreaded diseases insurance with the National Auxiliary, due in January. Mary Erskine has set the first Saturday in February as a general clean-up day for the VFW Post Home. Volunteers are requested.

The sixth district will hold the next meeting Feb. 17 in Brighton, with hostess auxiliary No. 4357. Dinner reservations are to be in by Feb. 4. Anyone wishing to attend may call Lucy Piatt at 475-2236.

Mid-Winter Conference of the Department of Michigan will be held in Lansing Jan. 25-27.

A testimonial dinner will be held for Leona Wolschon, Dept. of Michigan state president, on Saturday, March 29 at Post No. 2358, Roseville. Reservations must be in by March 15.

The next regular meeting will be held Feb. 11, 7:30 p.m., in the VFW Hall.

Law Enforcement Officials To Hear Terrorist Expert

Washtenaw County Sheriff Thomas R. Minick announced today that Dr. Frank Ochberg, director of the Michigan Department of Mental Health, will address a January 17, meeting of law enforcement officials on the need to establish contingency plans to deal with special-threat events such as kidnap-hostage, barricaded terrorists and other tense life-death situations.

Dr. Ochberg, a psychiatrist and world renown expert on terrorism retains top-secret security clearance as an ex-officio adviser to the National Security Council. Dr. Ochberg has provided technical assistance to governments in helping them to cope with the "emotional traps set by terrorists." According to Dr. Ochberg, "The terrorists' actual threat is much smaller than the shadow cast by the threat. Terrorism works by theatrics and by undermining confidence in slow, deliberate, rational governmental processes. When you begin to establish a panic mentality among people, the terrorist steps back smugly and says, 'I've done a good day's work.'"

Sheriff Minick requested Dr. Ochberg's presentation in order to help law enforcement officials understand the nature of terrorism. According to Sheriff Minick, "A fundamental problem for our understanding of terrorism is one of definition. We tend to categorize terrorism as a substantive criminal activity and overlook the fact that terrorism is a technique, a way of engaging in certain types of criminal activity so as to attain particular ends. Law enforcement agencies must be prepared to deal with the extraordinary types of violence exhibited by incidents of terrorism."

Home Meal Service Still Needs Drivers

Chelsea Home Meals Service is still looking for drivers to help with the daily delivery of hot meals to local residents in their homes.

The number of people using the service has necessitated the addition of a second route, and volunteers are needed for Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Delivering meals usually involves one hour from 11:15 a.m. until just after noon. New drivers will be accompanied by an experienced person to get them accustomed to the route.

Anyone feeling they can donate approximately one hour a week to help the service should call Barbara Branch at 475-7644.

George Merkel Chosen Vice Chairman of Board

George Merkel of 142 Van Buren St., currently serving his second term on the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners, was recently elected to the vice-chairmanship of the board for 1980.

Merkel and newly-elected chairman, Richard Walterhouse of Ann Arbor, were surprise choices for the top two spots since they are part of the Republican minority on the board. Of the board's 15 members, eight are Democrats and seven are Republicans.

Merkel explained that issues on the board are often matters of western Washtenaw county vs. eastern Washtenaw county, rather than Democrats vs. Republicans. That explanation clears up the mystery of how he was chosen by a vote of 9-6 on the first ballot.

Merkel first was elected to the Board of Commissioners from District II in 1976. Prior to that, he served eight years as a trustee on the Sylvan Township Board. He will be up for re-election in 1980.

In addition to filling in for the chairman and presiding in his absence, Merkel's vice-chairman duties also include chairing the Community Service and Employment Committee, which is concerned with the CETA program, Community Service Agency and county-employee relations.

Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners meets the first and third Wednesdays of each month at 7 p.m. in the County Building in Ann Arbor, Courtroom 5.

Dick Gregory, professional comedian who has become famous as a human rights activist, social satirist, critic, political analyst and recording artist will appear at Washtenaw Community College on Thursday, Jan. 24 at 11:30 a.m. His address will be open to the public at no charge.

Gregory will speak in Lecture Hall II of the College's Liberal Arts and Sciences Building at 4800 E. Huron River Dr. Questions regarding Gregory's appearance should be directed to WCC staff at (313) 973-3313.

Pinckney Area Youth On Destroyer Duty

Navy Seaman Recruit Curtis N. Acuff, son of Curtis M. and Pat G. Acuff of 334 Unadilla, Pinckney, has reported for duty aboard the destroyer USS Arthur W. Radford, homeported in Norfolk, Va.

A 1979 graduate of Pinckney High school, he joined the Navy in July 1979.

Let There Be Light

After months of painstaking effort, Thomas Edison made the first public demonstration of his electric incandescent lamp on Dec. 31, 1879. He lit several buildings near his Menlo Park, N.J., Compound with his lights powered from the Menlo machine shop. This Dec. 31, a century later, special early evening ceremonies at Greenfield Village, Dearborn, recreated that historic event, using the same machine shop and the only surviving residence, the Sarah Jordan Boarding House.

LIVE LONGER!

Don't Throw Away the Best Food

By LELORD KORDEL
Number Three of a Series

We have more food available to us than most people on the face of the earth. Why is it, then, that malnutrition should haunt us in a land with such a high standard of living?

With all this abundance and prosperity why do so many of us drop dead in the very prime of life?

The plain unvarnished fact is that we are not living as long as we should. We don't come anywhere near our potential.

The almost unbelievable part of it is that the very women who do the "most" for their families—are often directly to blame for some of this tragedy! They are the devoted homemakers who overload their charges with rich baked goods, tasty casseroles, expensive tid bits!

MODERN LUCREZIA

Many a loving wife and mother would be highly offended if you suggested she was a present day Lucrezia Borgia.

Lucrezia, you know, was the gal who rid herself of an unwanted husband by giving him tasty viands spiked with arsenic or cyanide!

Lucrezia did it with cyanide—many a modern housewife does it with a skillet!

You see, most of our recipes are handed down from our great-grandmothers who had to "make do" with what was available.

They grew their own wheat and ground it themselves. Refined flour was unknown.

They needed steak? A buffalo or deer was shot from the bounteous supply of wild game that roamed the land.

They wanted eggs? To the barn and back with a dozen.

An ear of corn or other vegetables? These were picked from virgin soil that had not been overworked.

There is an old saying that God made good food—but the devil made bad cooks.

In our modern, up-to-date kitchens the health-maintaining vitamins, minerals and other nutrients don't have a chance!

An ear of corn goes from field to wholesaler to supermarket. From package to refrigerator.

Finally, it limps in to dinner with as much as 77 percent of the mineral values and 50 percent of the vitamins lost in the shuffle.

To put it bluntly: the refinements we enjoy so much are killing us!

Unfortunately, like a broken leg, the penalty of bad nutrition doesn't arrive all at once. It might be better if it did.

NUTRITIONAL SHORTAGES

Then more people would realize the danger and take steps to correct their nutritional shortages.

We eat today's over-refined foods and get fat.

We stuff ourselves to the gills—all the while our body is starving for vital nutrients.

Sooner or later our cells will let us know about it. It is then we begin to complain of "feeling old" while we are "still young."

Did you know that the male dies four times faster than his female counterpart?

Why is this so? It is the men who have been fed rich, fatty foods for a good share of their lives. First by their mothers. Then by their wives.

As she plugs in that electric fry pan, does the modern housewife realize she has suddenly turned into a modern Lucrezia Borgia? That she may be killing her husband in small daily doses?

What sort of meals do you have at your house? Plenty of meat and potatoes? Lots of rich brown gravy?

Apple pie? Chocolate cake? Hot rolls? Pancakes and waffles? Macaroni and cheese on budget nights?

After the age of 30, and most certainly after 40, you must begin taking stock of your eating habits.

Food should be the first item on your budget. Not new drapes for the living room. Not a new car. Not a house in the suburbs.

FOOD IS FIRST!

Food is item number one! This, of course, means food that has not been devitalized by over-refining.

Next time you skin a potato, keep in mind that the peel has 90 percent of its vitamins. What were you going to do with those peels?

When you tear off the outside leaves of lettuce or cabbage, remember that more than 60 percent of the minerals are concentrated there.

What were you going to do with them?

You were going to discard them, weren't you?

Do you also throw away the broth from cooked vegetables? Hold on!

This broth contains a good deal of the vitamins and minerals that came in the vegetables.

Don't pour this vital food down the drain! Make a clear soup of it in the following manner:

EXTRA NUTRITION

Simmer a small soup bone in about four quarts of water for three to four hours. During the last hour of cooking, add to it the outside lettuce leaves, cabbage leaves, celery tops, mushroom stems, pea pods—all the trimmings you would ordinarily throw away.

When these are tender, strain the broth. Allow it to cool. Remove any fat from the top of it. Refrigerate in glass jars.

It will make about two quarts of stock from which you can prepare a delicious consommé by the addition of lemon or spices and salt and pepper.

Good nutrition is not a matter of income. It's a matter of intelligent selection. Proper foods actually cost less than many of those that are woefully lacking in nourishment.

NO SNOW: These huge blades at the Washtenaw County Road Commission yards on W. Middle St. were made for plowing through Michigan snow to ease the way for January motorists. With temperatures steadily into the 40's these days, however, these lonely blades may just have to sit the winter out.

MSU Prof Says Workers Need Job Protection

More than a million American workers, with at least six months seniority, are being deprived of their jobs each year without due process, says a Michigan State University economist.

Jack Steiber, professor of economics and director of the MSU School of Labor and Industrial Relations since 1959, says the discharge rate for probationary employees is more than five-fold that of employees with six months service.

He notes that while American unions, and civil service and teacher tenure laws provide protection for some employees, more workers are without recourse from unjust discharge.

Losing a job within a work-oriented society, says Steiber, affects a person's financial stability and their relationships with themselves, their families, friends and the community. The consequences of being discharged go far beyond the economic and other work-related disadvantages that may flow from working for a non-union employer.

In 1938, the Wagner-O'Day Act obligated the Federal Government to buy certain products from workshops staffed by blind people, according to "Disabled Americans: A History," published by the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped.

Wrestler of the Week

TRAVIS RUDD, a talented freshman, is this week's featured grappler. Wrestling at 112 lbs. in last Saturday's county meet at Ann Arbor Huron, Rudd took second place with a good performance. Coach Tom Fletke is encouraged by Rudd's abilities, in spite of the freshman's inexperience. Rudd is now 3-5 this season, and as yet competes in no other sports.

Pharmacy Is First in State Contest

Village Pharmacy at Chelsea Community Hospital was notified this week that a display they prepared has taken first place in a contest sponsored by the Michigan Pharmacists Association (MPA).

According to Lorraine D. Perkins, Pharm.D., Chelsea submitted posters and informational materials concerning the National Medication Awareness Test they presented in conjunction with Chelsea Pharmacy in various locations around the village last October.

Patient information sheets on "Getting the Most from Your Medication," certificates of participation, posters and newspaper articles were used to promote the test and Michigan Pharmacy Week.

Last week notification came that the MPA voted the materials the best community and hospital in-pharmacy campaign. Chelsea's winning display was submitted by Lorraine Perkins and Amy McCormack.

The MPA Public Affairs Committee judged Chelsea Hospital's pharmacy activities to meet the goals of Michigan Pharmacy Week, which are spreading pharmacy awareness within the community, generating news coverage and using patient information handouts.

Village Pharmacy was awarded complimentary registration at the 1980 MPA Interim Meeting, professional body language patches, a public service award and coverage in the Michigan Pharmacist journal.

TIMOTHY WILLIAMS

Area Man Picked For VA Training

Timothy Williams, 14230 North Lake Rd., Gregory, chief of pharmacy at the Ann Arbor Veterans Administration Medical Center, is one of 35 men and women to be selected by the VA's national office as an assistant director trainee.

Williams, 38, was among nearly 100 VA employees nationwide who participated in a new management assessment center program to compete for the one-year traineeship that leads to a position as an assistant director at one of the VA's 172 medical centers around the country.

Williams participated in the management assessment center program during a 2½-day session in late October in Minneapolis, Minn.

"It was high pressure and intense," explained Williams, a native of Kalamazoo who grew up in the Detroit area. "We participated in a series of five role playing exercises. One of them involved an in-box exercise in which we had a limited amount of time to deal with an accumulation of memos, reports and notes, demonstrating the ability to make decisions. Other exercises involved problem solving and group dynamics."

Williams commented, "I think this program will result in the selection of better administrators for the VA."

Williams graduated in 1968 from Ferris State College, Big Rapids, with a bachelor's degree in pharmacy. From 1968 to 1971, he worked as a pharmacy intern and then as chief pharmacist at Mercy Hospital in Cadillac.

He joined the VA as a supervisory pharmacist with the Dallas VA Medical Center in 1971. In 1973, he transferred to the Ann Arbor VA Medical Center as assistant chief of pharmacy. At that time, he was also a University of Michigan instructor for elective laboratory experience at the VA.

In 1975, Williams was promoted to chief of pharmacy at the VA Medical Center in Durham, N.C. While there, he served as an adjunct assistant professor at the University of North Carolina and completed a one-year health administrators management improvement program at Duke University.

He rejoined the Ann Arbor VA Center as chief of pharmacy last July.

Williams and his wife, Sally, reside in Gregory with their three children. He said he expects to receive his assistant director traineeship assignment at another VA medical center within the next several months.

Williams' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams of Canadian Lakes.

Job Outlook Good for Present College Grads

The over-all employment picture for new college graduates apparently will not be affected by the current downturn in economic conditions, said the director of the nation's largest university placement office.

"We anticipate a slight increase (1 to 2 percent) in the number of college graduates that will be hired this year over last year," said John D. Shingleton, director of placement for Michigan State University. "And last year was a pretty good year."

The only anticipated decline in hiring in the coming year will be in the automotive industry, he said. Two large auto firms have canceled scheduled visits to campus, he noted. "Michigan is going to be soft in hiring; the state is geared toward the auto industry. But aerospace is going great. So is the petroleum industry."

Graduates most likely to be recruited, the report says, are ones in accounting, aerospace, electronics, merchandising-retailing, military, petroleum engineering and geology.

Legislative Update

A Weekly Report from State Rep. Mary Keith Ballentine
State Capitol, Lansing 48909
Phone (517) 373-1775

Week of Jan. 14-21

"SUNSET" VETO — Governor Milliken has vetoed SB 75, which orders legislative review of government agencies but lacks the vital provision for "sunset" termination dates. An attempt to override the veto would probably not be successful.

EARLY RETIREMENT — The legislature is down to 147 members this week with the resignation of Rep. Bob Law of Livonia for personal reasons. After a special election is held this spring, the House will again be at its full strength of 110 members.

TAB TIME — The time to buy your 1980 license-plate tabs is now to avoid long lines on March 31. This is the last year for those lines: from now on, all license plates will expire on the owner's birthday so renewals will not be all at once.

PUBLIC LANDS? — If you know of land in or near an urban area that would provide recreational opportunities for the public or any land that would provide quality hunting or fishing, you can nominate it for public acquisition through the Michigan Land Trust Fund Board. For information, write the DNR Budget Office, 6th Floor, Mason Building, Box 30028, Lansing 48909.

BIKE IDEAS — The Michigan Energy Administration is seeking proposals to encourage bicycle riding as an alternative to driving cars on short trips. A $20,000 grant will be awarded to a local government or regional planning commission with the best ideas. Deadline is Feb. 29; for details, write the Energy Administration, Law Building, 525 W. Ottawa, Lansing 48909.

TRAIN TRACKS — The Governor has signed into law SB 469, by which Michigan joins with six other states (Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia) to prepare a feasibility study on operation of a high-speed intercity rail passenger network between these states. It is clear that alternative transportation is necessary as oil fuels become more expensive.

VIETNAM BONUS — Veterans who served 190 days of active duty between January, 1961, and September, 1973, are still eligible for the Vietnam-Era Veterans Bonus if they have not already received one. Contact the Bonus Section, Military Affairs, 2500 S. Washington, Lansing 48913.

TROUT STAMP? — The 1981 Trout Stamp Contest is now underway for a design to be used on the stamp required for salmon or trout fishing. Any salmon or trout species may be used except the splake or brown trout. Write DNR Fisheries Division, Box 30028, Lansing 48909.

HUNTING STATS — Although hunting may seem like a dangerous sport, the fact is that more people are killed each year in fishing accidents than in hunting accidents: from 1962 through 1977, there were some 250 hunting-related fatalities compared to 730 fishing fatalities.

INSURANCE HOTLINE — For quick access to information on auto and home insurance, you might try calling the toll-free Hotline of the Michigan Association of Insurance Companies, 800-292-3712. The Association is a non-profit public affairs organization.

Research Results Say OK To Mainstream Handicapped Early

Handicapped youngsters can be mainstreamed into regular classrooms as early as the pre-school level, according to results of a three-year research project at Michigan State University.

The study, which involved placement of some 80 handicapped youngsters in regular pre-school classrooms, showed that any pre-school could integrate a handicapped child into the classroom without major modification or schedule disruption.

Results of the program also indicated that "handicapped children showed positive growth in social, emotional, motor and intellectual skills."

A Milk-Curdling Course

America's first collegiate-ranked dairy school was established at the University of Wisconsin on Jan. 3, 1890. The first year saw a mere two students enroll, but that was adequate because there were only two courses: Testing Milk and Farm Churning. Within a few years, however, dairy courses were quite acceptable and enrollment swelled. Many of the fascinating stages in the development of the dairy industry are visible on a walk through the Home Arts Collection of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

The U. S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) was created to assure equal employment opportunity in federal contract and subcontract work.

Some Plain Talk

If you're like most people today, you're willing to accept a little discourtesy to get a little service on your car.

It used to be, the car buyer was king. Dealerships actually lived by that credo. Then somehow, things got turned around.

Now, you're treated right when you're buying. But when the deal is signed, and something goes wrong . . . well, nobody knows you. And, you start shopping.

By trial and error, you find a good mechanic. And, because he's good and in demand, he can afford to be short with you. So, you swallow the discourtesy and pay the bill. It's a sorry state of affairs.

Especially, because there is no good reason for it. At Rampy Chevrolet, we have 77 repair stalls and 75 employees. Some are there to sell cars . . . most are there to service them. All are there because they are good at their job . . . and because they like doing it.

There is no reason why you should accept less service than we are offering.

Take this ad in to your dealer. Tell him you're switching to Rampy, if he doesn't deliver.

If that doesn't inspire him, join our group of satisfied customers.

Either way, you win.

SEC ROUNDUP:

Chelsea Leads Conference After Big Win Over Saline

All six SEC teams participated in league contests Friday night, and when the dust had cleared, Chelsea emerged convincingly on top of the league.

The Bulldogs gave a fine accounting of themselves against tough Saline and managed a convincing 52-47 win over the Hornets, led by the scoring of Jeff Dils and John Dunn.

Chelsea then went on to defeat Lincoln on Saturday, upping their SEC record to 5-0, with an overall mark of 6-1.

Meanwhile, JC Western moved up in the standings by defeating Lincoln, 45-42. Western is now in fourth place in the league behind Chelsea, Saline and Milan, and ahead of Dexter and Lincoln.

Milan 73, Dexter 60—
Milan came up with 27 fourth-quarter points Friday night, to out-distance the luckless Dreadnaughts in SEC basketball play, 73-60.

Junior Sam Pope played his best game of the season, tossing in 23 points for Milan, while John Gruden added 18.

Robby Cranson scored all of his Big Red points in the second half, as Milan boosted its record to 2-1 in the league.

For Dexter, Rob Ianni and Jeff Leighton each had 18 points, and Jim Vaughan added 16.

The Dreadnaughts are now 1-3 in the league.

JC Western 45, Lincoln 42—

Jackson County Western managed to outpoint Lincoln only in the third quarter, but the margin gained there was enough to edge the Railsplitters, 45-42.

The 17-12 margin in that period gave Western a 37-34 lead that they held throughout the final quarter to take the win.

Kevin Kedroske led the Lincoln scorers with 12 points. Fred Jansen and John Bevan had 10 each for Western.

Lincoln remains in the SEC cellar with an 0-5 record, while Western managed to move ahead of Dexter in the league standings with a 1-2 record.

especially Frank Waller with seven rebounds, Wojcicki with six and Dave Mann with five.

On Monday, however, the defense failed to come through for the Bulldogs, and poor shooting aided in their defeat.

Wojcicki again scored in double figures, with 13, as did Frank Waller, with 12. Steve Cattell contributed six points to the effort. Wojcicki had 12 rebounds, Waller 11 and Matt McCallum 6.

Also playing a good game for Chelsea, according to Coach Tallman, were Rod Robeson and Russ Harris.

The frosh are now 4-2 on their season. Next contest is this evening, Thursday, Jan. 17, at Dexter.

Lincoln's Jonathon Woods hit 15 points in the second half, mostly from the outside, and was extremely difficult to stop.

Coming back from a knee injury of still-uncertain seriousness, Karl Albrecht played for Bulldogs in foul trouble, scoring eight points and grabbing four rebounds. Raymond said Albrecht still limps but feels no pain in the knee.

With his superb foul shooting, Dils scored a season high of 29 points. John Dunn was second with 14. Schrotenboer had 9, Albrecht 8, Killelea 4, Peterson 4, Jon Riemenschneider 3 and Jeff Price 2.

The contest with Lincoln ended the first round of league competition in the SEC which left Chelsea on top of the group. Saline has yet to play Milan and Jackson County Western must meet Dexter, before the first round is over.

Michelle Sarbach on Marymount College Basketball Team

Michelle Sarbach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas L. Sarbach, 3050 McKinley, will be playing the position of forward on the Marymount College of Virginia's basketball team during the 1980 season.

Michelle is currently a candidate for an associate in arts degree in business administration at Marymount College.

Located near Washington, D.C., Marymount is a woman's college offering master's, bachelor's and associate degrees. More than 50 career-oriented programs lead to bachelor's and associate degrees in the divisions of arts and sciences, business administration, education and human services and health services.

Legislation Proposed Would Give MDA Audit Authority

Legislation introduced by Representative Francis Spaniola would give the Michigan Department of Agriculture additional authority to audit grain dealers. The bill, H. B. 4807, has passed the Michigan House of Representatives and has been favorably reported by a Senate Committee. Action is expected following the Legislature's holiday recess.

As currently written, the bill would require licensed grain dealers, such as elevators and truckers, to keep daily position reports of their transactions. Three types of transactions are recognized: cash sales, price later agreements and warehouse receipts. These and other provisions of the bill would help protect farmers from losses due to bankruptcies of grain dealers.

Ten Huron-Clinton Metroparks now serve the residents of the Detroit Metropolitan Area and provide over 15,285 acres of recreational land. Citizens of Wayne, Livingston, Macomb, Oakland and Washtenaw counties are served by this Metropark system. For winter facilities phone 961-5865 (Detroit).

EXTRA EFFORT, like the shot captured above, managed to put the Bulldogs ahead of SEC power Saline last Friday night. Chelsea managed a 52-47 win over the Hornets, sending the Bulldogs into an undisputed first place in the league.

A PACKED AUDITORIUM in Saline watched as Chelsea took on the perennial league power Hornets last Friday night. Chelsea, utilizing tight defensive work, hemmed in most of Saline's scorers and kept on top of the ball, as Don Schrotenboer, right, demonstrates.

Free Tax Seminars Scheduled

The secret to legal avoidance of unnecessary taxes and planning for future retirement needs will be among the topics for discussion at two free tax planning seminars scheduled for the Jackson area. The seminars are being sponsored by Taxing Times magazine and will be held in Jackson Thursday, Jan. 17 at the Holiday Inn, 2000 Holiday Inn Dr., at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Taxing Times columnist Lewis Kilzer will conduct the free seminars, and Phillip S. Fry, publisher of Taxing Times and author of the widely-read books: "Pay No Income Taxes Without Going to Jail," "Blood Taxes at Harvest Time," "How To Disinherit the IRS and Probate Court" and "How To Find and Profit From Real Estate Bargains," will appear on videotape at the seminars.

Among the topics scheduled for discussion are: the use and misuse of wills in estate planning; the advantages of using 10-year trusts to transfer income out of high tax brackets and into lower ones; the "how-to" behind the use of foreign trusts and the secrets to avoiding death taxes and gift taxes by the use of trusts.

Other tax and estate planning information will be presented at the free seminars as well as tips on using real estate as a tax shelter and the establishment and use of 800 percent tax deductions.

A question and answer session will accompany each of the free seminars.

The seminars are being presented free of charge by Taxing Times magazine, but reservations to attend must be made. Reservations may be confirmed by calling Tax Information Center at 800-848-6621.

Cager of the Week

BRAD KNICKERBOCKER is this week's outstanding cager. He is a 5'10" senior forward for the varsity Bulldogs. According to Coach Robin Raymond, Knickerbocker's assets are his outside shooting abilities and his relatively small size. "Sometimes, with his hustle, the size is an advantage," said Raymond. Knickerbocker is in his second year on the varsity squad.

Living Patterns Affect Nation's Energy Future

Planning now going on at the community level will be a crucial factor in determining the nation's energy future, according to Herman Koenig and Lawrence Sommers of Michigan State University.

A glut of cheap energy, said the professors, enabled 30 million people to move from rural areas and small towns and settle in automobile-based, energy-inefficient urban/suburban complexes in the '40's, '50's and '60's.

The unplanned inner-city decay and suburban sprawl that resulted from that migration will have to change as liquid fossil fuel energy supplies decline and energy becomes increasingly more expensive, Koenig and Sommers contend.

The crucial issue, they say, is whether communities plan for that change or risk calamity by simply letting it happen.

The future of U.S. settlements, the MSU professors maintain, is a trend toward more compact communities. To be energy efficient, they say, urban concentrations have to be large enough and dense enough to cut costs of transportation and heating, but not so large that lines of supply and waste disposal become unwieldy and energy intensive.

Their argument is largely based on analysis of the "real" costs of energy—that is, the cost of a unit of energy in terms of average wages for an hour of labor, or the amount of energy that an hour of work can buy in any given year.

REALTOR

OPPORTUNITY VS. INCONVENIENCE

Once you list your home with a REALTOR, it's up to him or her to find a buyer fast. Normally, the REALTOR will arrange appointments to view the home which are convenient to all parties. That's always nice.

Sometimes, however, prospects are on tight schedules, requiring your REALTOR to make last-minute appointments. Don't get annoyed. I'd like to have a dollar for every sale consummated on a last-minute appointment. Believe me, these are the best ones. Why?

Often, prospects who are transferring into your area are on short househunting visits. They don't have the luxury of time on their side. And they want and need a house now—not in a year. The busy prospect is also more apt to make an immediate purchase than one who has all the time in the world. So, if you really want to sell your house in a hurry, treat the last-minute appointment as an opportunity—not an inconvenience.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

We Want You To Know About Casket Prices

DONALD A. COLE
Director

Casket prices are determined by three factors: the durability of the wood or metal used in construction, the effectiveness of the sealing device and the appearance created by the craftsman who built it.

Among the metals, hardwoods and cloth-covered caskets manufactured today, a variety of models and colors is available to meet the needs of families from all walks of life.

For more detailed information on caskets, or any aspect of funeral service, call or visit Burghardt-Cole Chelsea Funeral Chapel at any time. There's never any obligation.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven
Reveals a challenge in the gospel of John, chapter 1 and verse 46. When Philip, one of the first disciples of Jesus, told Nathaniel about finding "him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph," Nathaniel asked, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip's reply was both simple and to the point: "Come and see." Although Nathaniel was to some extent prejudiced against anyone who lived in Nazareth, he was, nevertheless, willing to accept the challenge which Philip placed before him. He did as Philip suggested, and he was overwhelmingly convinced that Philip and his companions had indeed found the Son of God; the King of Israel. No person should ever allow himself to get into a condition which makes himself unwilling to consider Jesus and Christ the Saviour of the world. We are trying to find Jesus and his way in the scriptures. Jesus said, "Search the scriptures: for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." (John 5:39). It may very well be that you need to accept the invitation to "Come and see." You are welcome!

Shirley Dehn Retires As Director of Nursing At Methodist Home

Shirley M. Dehn, R.N., director of nursing at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home for 20 years, has retired from the home as of Dec. 31.

A retirement dinner will be held in her honor Sunday, Jan. 20, 2 to 4 p.m. in the main lounge of the Chelsea Home.

Mrs. Dehn began her work at the Methodist Retirement Home in 1957 as a part-time staff nurse. Within just a few months she was appointed head nurse, a title later changed to director of nursing.

At that time, there were 40 nursing beds with only one other licensed nurse and two aides on each shift. Residents of the home helped to care for each other and also helped prepare food and wash dishes as well as assisting in some household tasks.

Mrs. Dehn worked for the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. for 10 years before entering the nursing profession. While with Michigan Bell, she trained as a Red Cross nursing aide. But, as she states, "I always wanted to be a nurse," and in 1945 entered the cadet nurse training program at Borgess Hospital in Kalamazoo.

Upon graduation, she was assigned to Jefferson Barracks, Missouri VA Hospital, where she met and married William Dehn in 1947. He was killed in a snowmobile accident in 1978.

Mrs. Dehn took her state board exam in 1947 and then worked at Mercywood and St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Dehn has a daughter, two sons and two small granddaughters, with whom she plans to spend many hours now that she is retired. Those who know her well, however, say that there is no question that Shirley Dehn will continue to help others who are in need of the careful care she rendered during 22 years of service at the United Methodist Home.

The trustees and residents of the Home invite all friends, medical associates, co-workers, and family members of past and present patients and residents to attend the open house Sunday, Jan. 20 at the home, 805 W. Middle St.

Written messages may also be sent to Mrs. Dehn, in care of the home.

Gummy Preservation

The year 1889 was heralded with a truly unusual invention. Patent No. 395,515, issued Jan. 1 of that year, was for a chewing gum locket. Rather than sticking a used piece of gum behind the ear or under the seat, the gum chewer carefully sealed the gum in the locket until it was needed again. While the gum locket is not in existence anymore, a number of more practical inventions may be seen in the eight-acre Hall of Technology in Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

Q. I have seen stories and articles by people who call themselves Financial Planners. Is this some kind of new profession? What do these people do?

A. Certified Financial Planners are pioneers in a relatively new profession. Their job is to review an individual's financial position and help him design a financial plan that will aid him in reaching the goal he has set, usually a financially secure retirement income.

To be of real value a Financial Planner should have a broad knowledge of the many types of financial vehicles and the particular advantages and disadvantages of each. He needs a knowledge of stocks, bonds, bank services, insurance, real estate, taxes and the various financial instruments and devices that derive from these sources.

There are many very able people working in this field. There is an abuse in that some of these people are employed by organizations selling one particular type of financial service and comments I have heard are that in some of these situations their advice all tends to the selling of the product of their employers.

A good article on what to expect a financial planner to do for you and what he should be paid was written by Alexandra Armstrong, a Certified Financial Planner working for Julia M. Walsh & Sons in Washington, D. C. It covers more points than I can in the limited space of this column and I'm sending you a copy. We'll be pleased to send one to any reader who requests it.

Q. I have a pretty good job, the last of our children will be out of school in a year and my wife and I are aware that if we are going to have more than a bare-bones retirement we are going to have to build up some additional income. How would you suggest we go about it?

A. As I see the picture, you are in quite a good position. You can set aside about $2,400 a year, and you have 15 years before retirement. As a starter I am sending you a list of 11 companies whose stock can be purchased at practically no cost through a new plan developed by NAIC. In this plan, after your account is opened, you can invest in each of these companies every three months and the companies pay all of the cost. I'd suggest you pick four of them to purchase and keep investing in them until you have 200 shares of each. Then start purchasing four more.

There is no guarantee that says these companies will be a success in the future, but each has had a good record which suggests they should do well in the future. If these companies continue to do as well in the future as they have in the past 10 years, there is a possibility that 15 years from now your money will be worth two to three times what you have invested. That means you will have a very nice stake to add to your retirement funds.

Since you have no experience in investing, I'd suggest you start an Investment Club. Discuss this idea with friends until you find three or four that are interested and then have them talk to their friends. You should soon have a group of 10 or 12.

To help a new person just starting to invest or a new club, there is a model starting portfolio published in Better Investing every three months. Using that list of stocks, you can start investing even though you haven't had much experience. After four or five years in an investment club you will have picked up a lot of knowledge about investing and be in a better position to manage the securities you are accumulating.

Mr. O'Hara welcomes your questions, but will answer them only through this column. Readers who send in questions on a general investment subject or on a corporation with broad investor interest and whose questions are used, will receive a complimentary year's subscription to the investment magazine, Better Investing. We would be pleased to send a complimentary copy of Better Investing magazine or information about Investment Clubs to any reader requesting it. Walnut Timber Market Falls

Irv McFarland, Area Forester Department of Natural Resources

As far as I can tell, the market for black walnut trees has fallen off dramatically in Southeastern Michigan in the last couple of years. Much of the slack has been taken up by the demand for white oak veneer trees. Natural oak and massive stained pine furniture have been the top furniture woods for the last couple of years as well.

There has never been a large demand for walnut lumber trees in Southeast Michigan. The walnut industry is much more developed in the Ohio River Valley and in the plains states. Kentucky has more walnut timber than any other state.

Southern Michigan is on the northern border of the walnut range and has only a small number of walnut trees when compared to states in central walnut range. Most of the quality walnut trees that have been harvested in Southeastern Michigan have been shipped out of state for processing as veneer logs. When the walnut veneer market was good, many of the logs were exported to foreign countries.

With little present demand for walnut export, the demand for or chance of selling walnut trees in Southeast Michigan is not good. In fact, only the very large walnut trees growing in a woodlot are of much interest to buyers. Trees less than 60 inches in circumference when measured 4 1/2 ft. above the ground are too small to be marketable. A number of walnut buyers who used to operate in Southeast Michigan are no longer in business or they are handling the white oak or other tree species.

I get a lot of calls from people who have walnut trees in their yard. At present, there is little or no demand for these trees. Owners should plan on letting these trees grow.

Beach School Grapplers Drop Two

Beach Middle school's wrestling team dropped its first two meets of the year by slim margins this past week.

The junior high grapplers opened the season against a fine Jackson Catholic Middle school team. Winners for Chelsea were Mark Rosentreter by a 10-2 decision at 76 pounds; Ed Esch, 89 lbs., by a fall; Scott Cooper by a fall; Jeff Morgan, 103 lbs., by a fall; Dan Fenton, 117 lbs., 5-4 decision; and John Laraway by forfeit.

Winners in their exhibition matches with fine performances were John Wilson, Bob Murphy and El Mullaly.

Wednesday, Jan. 9, Beach lost to the Pinckney Pirates, 41-32.

Mark Rosentreter, Scott Cooper and Jeff Morgan all remained undefeated, winning their matches on decisions.

Other winners for Chelsea were Gar DeVoe, Scott Hass and Tim Osentoski. Eric Stoffel's match ended in a 2-2 draw.

Chelsea also had some fine exhibition performances, turning in wins by John Wilson, Tom Sturgeon, Shane Brown, David Tobias, Will Van Reesema and Scott Mills.

Next match for the Beach grapplers will be Wednesday, Jan. 23 at home against Stockbridge.

Bus Systems Ridership Increasing

Normally, public transit ridership in Michigan peaks during the winter months.

The reasons vary — the driveway is full of snow, the garage door is frozen shut, driving is too risky on icy streets, the family car has a dead battery.

"This year is not running true to form," says John P. Woodford, director of the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT). "Five Michigan communities set new, all-time ridership records in October, when the weather was warm and pleasant."

Adrian, Eaton Rapids, Gladwin, Isabella county and Manistee county bus transit systems topped all previous months' ridership by substantial margins in October.

Usually, comparison is made with "the same month last year." This provides a common denominator type of comparison, and more accurately measures the growth of a system, Woodford said.

Sixteen outstate small-bus systems have established outstanding records of steadily heating "the same month last year." They are: Big Rapids, for 43 consecutive months; Alma, Manistee county and Ludington, for 21 consecutive months; Baraga county and Eaton Rapids, 15 months; Grand Haven, 12 months;

Belding and Niles, 10; Cadillac, eight; Gladwin and Hillsdale, seven; Antrim county and Davison, six; Holland, five; and Isabella county, for four consecutive months.

"Michigan's many public transportation systems are playing an ever-growing role in the fight against inflation and the state's efforts to conserve energy," Woodford said. "With the recent purchase and distribution of new buses to existing systems, and the new county incentive transit programs funding by the legislature, public transit should continue to grow."

First "Flying Fish" Perky Patent

Glenn Hammond Curtiss took off from San Diego, Calif., on Jan. 28, 1911, in a special plane of his own design. With that short flight he became the first man to make a successful airborne journey in a hydroplane. Named "Flying Fish," Curtiss' seaplane was the first of many aircraft to land on water. Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, exhibits a 1918 Curtiss seaplane in its extensive Transportation Collection.

James H. Nason of Franklin, Mass., joined the list of American inventors on Dec. 28, 1865, when he received his patent for a coffee percolator, an appliance taken for granted 114 years later. The Home Arts Collection of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, provides visitors with a look at hundreds of other useful inventions for the home and hearth.

T.C. THE TALKING CAR

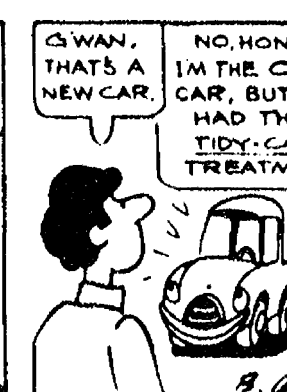

HEY, BOB, I THOUGHT YOU SAID YOU COULDN'T AFFORD A NEW CAR!

THIS ISN'T A NEW CAR, TOM. I JUST HAD THE OLD ONE TIDY-CAR!

SWAN, THAT'S A NEW CAR. NO, HONEST! I'M THE OLD CAR, BUT I'VE HAD THE TIDY-CAR TREATMENT!

How would you like to have a car that stayed shiny and repelled dirt?

A car that looked like it just sailed out of the showroom, month after month.

If your car is brand new, we'll keep it looking that way. If it's showing its years, we'll clean and shine the years away. And best of all, we'll do the work at your convenience. We pick up and deliver.

Tidy Car's Preserv-A-Shine can do just that — give your car a showroom shine and preserve it for the life of the car.

The Preserv-A-Shine process includes initial treatment and an annual cleaning and re-sealant job. And it means you'll never have to wax your car again.

I get a lot of calls from people who have walnut trees in their yard. At present, there is little or no demand for these trees. Owners should plan on letting these trees grow.

Feed Wild Birds All Winter Or Not at All

Feeding wild birds can be an enjoyable and instructive experience. But if you doubt that you'll be willing or able to continue feeding at least through March, it's better for the birds if you don't start at all.

Gary Heilig, Washtenaw County Horticultural Agent at large explains that the neighborhood birds will become dependent on your feeder. If you suddenly quit feeding in midwinter starvation could kill many of the birds.

"If you know you'll be going on a two-week vacation around Christmas, hold off feeding the birds until you get back rather than starting to feed and then stopping," Heilig suggests. "If you can't afford to feed the birds all winter—through the end of March, at least, or preferably through April—don't start at all.

Feeding birds can be expensive, he points out, especially if you decide to feed a highly varied mixture of seeds and other foods and fill the feeder whenever it's empty. Many people find the demand increases until they can no longer afford to buy the feed. They get discouraged and quit feeding. The birds are then forced to find another source of food, or starve.

"To avoid this, set up a budget for wild bird food and put the birds on a diet," Heilig suggests. "Decide how much you can af-

Lima Township Board Proceedings

Regular Meeting January 8, 1980
The meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. by Supervisor Bauer and was opened with the Pledge to the Flag.

Roll call: Supervisor Bauer, Clerk Bareis, Treasurer Tilt, Trustees Gross and Heller, all present.

Motion to approve the minutes of the December 3 meeting was unanimously carried.

The treasurer's report was received.

Approved the Century-Phoenix application to rezone 5.16 acres on East Old US-12 from Agricultural to R-S Suburban Residential in accordance with the General Development Plan, Lima Township Commission and the Washtenaw County Planning Commission.

Supervisor Bauer reported that preliminary equalization studies indicated this year farm assessments would increase 41% and residential assessments would increase 20%. If the sales for farm property would have been used the percentage would have been 52%. However, with the excellent co-operation she received from township property owners, she was able to reduce the preliminary equalizations 11% on farms and 4% on residences. Final studies seem to indicate that farm assessments will increase 30% and residential assessments will increase 16%. Commercial and industrial will increase 15%. The developmental class will increase 22%. She emphasized that these were average percentages and that some property assessments may increase more or less in an effort to assure proper assessment uniformity. Inflation, she reported, was the main cause for these high increases for the 1979 roll she is preparing for the 1980 tax statements.

Approved motion to inform the Road Commission that the STOP sign to be placed at the north end of Haist Road will be placed at the wrong end of the road because traffic is much heavier and much more dangerous at Haist and Fletcher Road than Haist and Jerusalem Road. A STOP is also necessary at Haist and Fletcher Road.

Approved motion to express to the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners, disapproval of the Lima Township Board, of the County Commissioners paying any pay to Michael Gotthainer, County Administrator, while on personal business in another state.

Approved motion that the Trustees take care of whatever is necessary for either replacing or repairing the chimney at the townhall.

Approved paying bills in the amount of $4,925.17.

Approved use of the townhall free or charge for the Citizens Committee for Roads and the Taxation Committee.

Approved motion to adjourn meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Arlene R. Bareis, Clerk.

+ AREA DEATHS +

Mrs. W. Birch, Sr.
Life-Long Area Resident
Dies at Home Jan. 10

Mrs. Margaret E. Birch, 533 N. Main St., died Thursday, Jan. 10 at her home. She was 81.

Mrs. Birch was born June 1, 1898 in Dexter township, the daughter of Frank and Lillian (Schaffer) Noll. She was married to William B. Birch, Sr., on Nov. 28, 1916. He preceded her in death Dec. 29, 1959.

The Birches had lived all their lives in the Chelsea-Dexter area. Mrs. Birch was a member of St. Mary Catholic church and the Altar Society of the church. She was also a member and past-president of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include two sons, James of Ann Arbor and William, Jr., of Phoenix, Ariz.; two daughters, Mrs. Frank (Bernidene) Visel of Chelsea and Mrs. Cecelia Neale of Chelsea; seven grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a son, Louis, in 1971, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles (Mary) Ritter, in 1970.

Funeral services were held Monday, Jan. 14, 11 a.m. at St. Mary's Catholic church, with the Rev. Fr. Philip Dupuis officiating. Burial followed in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

The rosary was recited Sunday evening, Jan. 13, at the Staffan Funeral Home.

Mrs. Guy Oswald
Former Lansing Resident
Dies at Methodist Home

Mrs. Iva H. Oswald, a resident of the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home, died Wednesday, Jan. 9, at the home. She was 90.

Mrs. Oswald was born Oct. 17, 1889 in Paulding, O., the daughter of Charles and Minnie Lou (Beach) Barnes. On Jan. 12, 1912 she married Guy Oswald in St. Louis, Mo. He preceded her in death.

She was a member of the Asbury United Methodist church of Lansing.

Survivors include one daughter, Geraldine Weber of Davie, Fla.; one son, Garth B. Oswald of Arlington, Va.; eight grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandson; and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were held at the Evergreen Cemetery in Lansing, with Mrs. Oswald's grandson, the Rev. James Hynes, officiating.

Memorials may be made to the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home. Arrangements were made by the Burghardt-Cole Chelsea Funeral Chapel.

Mrs. W. Schrader
Dies Tuesday at Area Nursing Home

Mary Edith Schrader, 1250 Wilkinson St., died Tuesday, Jan. 15, at Huronview Lodge, Ann Arbor, following an illness of several months. She was 84.

Mrs. Schrader was born June 9, 1895 in Speedwell, Tenn., the daughter of Samuel and Florence (Braden) Kivett. On Oct. 17, 1919 she married Walter H. Schrader in Tennessee. He preceded her in death on Dec. 11, 1975.

A member of the North Sharon Bible church, Mrs. Schrader was also a life-time member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Surviving are three sons, Walter of Chelsea, Donald of Chelsea and William of Grand Rapids; three daughters, Mrs. Jerry (Florence) Newcomb of Bay City, Mrs. James (Jean) Coluccio of Kansas City, Kan., and Mrs. Charles (MaryAnn) Heard of Gregory; 21 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews.

She was also preceded in death by one daughter, Ethel Strouse, in June 1979.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, Jan. 17, at 1 p.m. at North Sharon Bible church with Pastor Ronald C. Purkey officiating. Burial will follow at Oak Grove Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to North Sharon Bible church. Envelopes are available at the Burghardt-Cole Chelsea Funeral Chapel.

On the Right Track for Vehicle Weight Reduction

The Cleveland Railway Co. introduced America's first aluminum street car on Dec. 2, 1928. The 6,650 lbs. of aluminum in the body, underframe and trucks constituted 20% of the car's weight. The Transportation Collection of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, exhibits not only early street cars, but other attempts at solving the weight problem in vehicles, including an Alcoa-Pierce Arrow aluminum automobile.

Tours of Chelsea Community Hospital and surgical center are available for small groups. To arrange for tours, call: Ruby Strieter, 475-2065; Shirley Schable, 475-7625; or Jan Wessinger, 475-1311.

Lamaze childbirth preparation classes are offered continually at Chelsea Community Hospital. To register, call 475-9558 or 475-7484.

Boy Scout Troop 476 wants newspapers. Ph. 475-2850 or 475-7547 for pick-up schedule. -38-8

Counselors Attend MOIS Workshop

Three Chelsea school counselors have recently completed a workshop in new ways to use the Michigan Occupational Information System in classrooms, career centers, libraries, or wherever students look for occupational information.

Attending the Ann Arbor workshop were Jean Mann and Peter Warburton from Beach Middle school and Chris Dimanin of Chelsea High school.

The one-day session was offered by the Michigan Department of Education in cooperation with the Washtenaw Intermediate School District for counselors, librarians, placement specialists and administrators. It included a slide/tape presentation, an application package of new approaches, participation in group activities and an idea exchange, all designed to aid junior and senior high school students in choosing and preparing for careers.

Michigan Occupational Information System (MOIS), now four years old, is found in nearly 2,000 locations, including vocational rehabilitation centers, offices of the Michigan Employment Security Commission, CETA programs and correctional institutions as well as schools.

It is a time-saving tool, tailor-made for Michigan residents, and is available in microfiche and interactive computer versions. MOIS is updated yearly and provides occupational descriptions, educational requirements, employment projections and
