Bulldog Cage Team Scores 3 Big Wins

A trio of non-league victories in the past week has given the Chelsea varsity cagers an overall season record of 9-1 and placed them in a good position to begin the second round of league play this Friday.

The Bulldogs beat Howell last week, 69-67, bumped Lumen Christi Friday, 77-69, and outlasted Tecumseh Tuesday night, 67-58.

All three contests featured good defense and balanced scoring among several of the regular Bulldog starters. Coach Robin Raymond noted that by the Tecumseh game, the tired team had lost some of its fine edge, which it must regain for the second meetings with SEC teams.

Raymond pointed to the Lumen Christi team a very aggressive group, with quick hands on defense. Chelsea was in the hole after the first quarter after a slow start and sluggish ballhandling. An explosive 29-point second quarter, however, brought the momentum back to the Bulldogs' side and set the tempo for the game.

Lumen Christi attempted to play their style of game, which is slow because it is aggressively physical. Chelsea, however, controlled the ball and didn't give the opposition a chance to feel comfortable with the game's pace.

In the final quarter, with only four minutes left, however, Lumen Christi managed to pull within four points of the Bulldogs. Captain John Dunn put the skids on the Christi surge with a jumper that put Chelsea up by six. Dunn then passed to Karl Albrecht for a lay-up and the Bulldogs took an eight-point lead to regain their momentum.

Jeff Dils had another superlative game, scoring 29 points, making eight assists and hitting nine out of 10 freethrows. Dils has upped his shooting average to 20.7, not by taking more shots per game, but by hitting the basket with greater consistency.

Other scorers in double digits were Don Schrottenboer with 12 and Karl Albrecht with 10. Dunn had 9, Mike Killelea 8, Sean Peterson 6, Brad Knickerbocker 2, and Jon Riemenschneider 1.

Biggest attribute of the team, said Coach Raymond, is their lack of selfishness with the ball. "They'd rather pass the ball to the open man than take a bad shot," he said. "We average only three or four bad shots per game."

After the fast action of the Christi game, Coach Raymond understandably found the Tecumseh game "unexciting."

According to Raymond, Chelsea held an eight to 14 point lead throughout the contest, and although Tecumseh came back in the second half to outpoint Chelsea in both quarters, the 35-21 Bulldog half-time lead was too much to overcome.

In the second half, Tecumseh's shots began to fall in with good consistency. Chelsea's allowed them nine field goals in the third quarter, which is an unusually high number for the Bulldog defense.

"It was one of those games where you have the team down, but you just can't put them away," summarized Raymond. "It was never in doubt that Chelsea would win."

Individually, John Dunn was a standout, scoring 12 points and doing a fine defensive job on Tecumseh's best player, Ron Smith. In the third quarter, Dunn hit three outside shots to stop the Tecumseh scoring momentum.

Scoring was topped with Dils and Schrottenboer with 16 points each, and Dunn with 12. Riemenschneider had 9, Peterson 6, Killelea 5, and Albrecht 3.

Schrottenboer was leading rebounder with 13. Albrecht and Killelea each grabbed six and Peterson had four. As a team, the Bulldogs out-rebounded Tecumseh, 32-24.

Excellent free throw shooting, close to 70 percent accuracy, was offset by 26 Chelsea turnovers. "We were one step behind the play all evening," said Raymond.

NEWLY-ELECTED OFFICERS to Chelsea United Way are Dale Schumann, left, and Tom Vaillencourt. They will lead teams of volunteers in the 1980 campaign to raise funds for numerous human service agencies.

Dale Schumann Named To Head Chelsea United Way

In its last three annual campaigns, Chelsea United Way has received gifts and pledges of $114,400, 1979 President Will Connelly stated in his report to the 1980 annual meeting of the fundraising organization.

The three-year total exceeded combined goals of $108,000 by $6,400. "Average giving to Chelsea United Way has increased from about $28,000 per year to $38,000," Connelly said. "This strong support from Chelsea individuals, families, farms, businesses and organizations has enabled United Way to keep pace with inflation in backing the programs of our human service agencies."

In his 1979 financial summary, Treasurer Thomas K. Vandegrift reported assets of $39,475 in the form of deposits and bank certificates. His report also showed that all campaign expenses were defrayed by interest earned on deposits with local financial institutions. "Every penny of every dollar in contributions goes directly for the support of our agencies," Vandegrift noted.

Seven new directors were elected to three-year terms at the annual meeting. They are Bill Bott, Merle Bradley, Donna Lane, Mary Ann Merkel, Don Peck, Pat Sober and Jim Stacey.

Dale Schumann, who served as campaign chairman last year, was elected president for 1980, and Tom Vaillencourt was elected vice-president. Re-elected for another year were Tom Vandegrift, treasurer; Linda Montgomery, secretary; and Paul Schaible, Jr., finance chairman.

Immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting, President Schumann convened the regular January meeting.

Covenant Church Chartered Sunday

Covenant church members recently joined in a chartering service for their newly-formed congregation. Approximately 120 persons formed the church, which temporarily meets in the Knights of Columbus Hall on Old US-12.

The service of chartering was led by the Rev. R. J. Ratzlaff, former pastor of St. Paul United Church of Christ. Most of the members forming Covenant Church are former members of St. Paul's.

Larry Wiedmayer is the president pro-tem of the newly-chartered congregation, and Mrs. Duane Hall serves as secretary-treasurer. Other members serving on the steering committee and incorporators of the new church are Ray Kyte, Bob and Betty Koch, Homer and Margaret Kuhl, Marilyn R. Ratzlaff, Jerry and Dixie Wenk and J. Raymond Seitz.

Members meet for worship at 4 p.m. on Sundays at the K. of C.

Hall. Church school is held there at 3 p.m.

The Rev. Roman Reineck, pastor of Bethel United Church of Christ, Manchester, preached the chartering sermon, entitled "Endings and Beginnings," last Sunday. The congregation affirmed their being by reading together the covenant which will guide them in their growth as a Christian congregation.

The Rev. Ratzlaff will serve as pastoral advisor to the fledgling congregation and will lead them in their worship services.

Following the service on Sunday, members and guests had fellowship together as they shared a pot-luck dinner. The hall was decorated by the church school children for the occasion.

Beginning the third Sunday in February, Covenant Church will meet at the Masonic Temple on W. Middle St., with worship at 10 a.m. and Sunday school at 8:45 a.m.

Three Young Men Charged With Fraud

A month-long investigation by Chelsea police ended last week when two local juveniles implicated themselves and an 18-year-old Munnith man in the theft of a bank book and the subsequent illegal withdrawal of funds from Chelsea State Bank.

According to Chelsea Police Chief Robert Aeillo, the theft was perpetrated Dec. 12, when the pair of juveniles stole 98 cents and the bank book from an unlocked car at Chelsea High school. In signed statements made to Chelsea police two weeks ago, the boys said they had planned to discard the book, but were persuaded to try and make a withdrawal by 18-year-old Walter J. Brown, III, of Munnith.

Police said the trio then proceeded to Chelsea State Bank where they procured a deposit slip then made the withdrawal of $500 at the drive-up window.

After the fraud was discovered at the bank, the funds stolen from the savings account were returned to the depositor, with the bank taking the loss. A description of the car and the two front seat passengers was given to Chelsea police, and subsequently led to the apprehension of the two 16-year-olds.

Following a month-long investigation, Chelsea police finally spotted the described car on Jan. 10 and brought the two passengers in for questioning. Chief Aeillo said both confessed to the theft and implicated Brown. The pair will appear in juvenile court in Ann Arbor on charges of larceny by fraud.

Chief Aeillo obtained a warrant for the arrest of Brown last Wednesday morning from the prosecutor's office in Ann Arbor. He was arraigned last Friday morning in 14th District Court by Judge Kenneth Bronson on counts of uttering and publishing and forgery, felonies punishable by a maximum of 14 years in prison for each offense.

Brown is being held in the Washtenaw County Jail on $20,000 bond. A preliminary examination in 14th District Court is scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 29.

INTERIM MINISTER: Dr. William C. Donald arrived in Chelsea this week to begin duties as interim pastor of St. Paul United Church of Christ. A native of Battle Creek, Dr. Donald is a trained Interim Pastor Specialist, whose function it is to assist the congregation in seeking a permanent pastor and help them to grow during a difficult period of change.

St. Paul Church Has New Pastor

Dr. William C. Donald has been hired as Interim Pastor by St. Paul United Church of Christ in Chelsea. He and his wife, Carolyn, joined the congregation Jan. 20.

Dr. Donald was born in Battle Creek, the son of a Methodist minister. He graduated from Albion College, Garrett Theological Seminary in Evanston, Ill., and Northwestern University Graduate School, Chicago. He was awarded a Doctor of Divinity degree in ministry to the sick and pastoral counseling.

He was ordained into the Methodist ministry June 1943, where he remained until he was transferred in good standing to the Evangelical and Reformed Church in 1952.

Dr. Donald served his internship in Hospital Ministry at Presbyterian and Wesley Memorial Hospitals in Chicago.

According to Dr. Donald, the Interim Pastor Specialist, as trained by the Alban Institute and the Mid-Atlantic Training Committee, is a "new breed of person."

BOYER & FITZSIMMONS are well-known around Chelsea for their illusions, but the two trophies they won in Ohio last week-end prove that their talents are very real. The duo took awards for best use of comedy and best overall act at the magic convention in Toledo. They plan to enter another such contest early in February in Columbus.

Boyer & Fitzsimmons Win Magician's Show Trophies

Chelsea's resident illusionists, Jeff Boyer and Jim Fitzsimmons, pulled off an impressive trick last week-end when they garnered two trophies at a magicians convention in Toledo.

Performing magic tricks in the context of a musical sketch they call "Law and Disorder," the pair brought home the best use of comedy award and the best overall act trophy.

Impressing the judges, Jeff said, was a trick in which Jim has Jeff bound in stocks and is preparing to belt him in the face with a cream pie. A curtain is drawn over Jeff, and Jim disappears around the edge of it to do the dastardly deed. A few seconds later, however, the curtain drops, and Jeff proceeds to smack the now-imprisoned Jim with the pie.

Only four trophies were being offered in Toledo, so Boyer and Fitzsimmons returned to Michigan with half the awards.

Jeff and Jim, both CHS seniors, are planning to enter a similar contest the week-end of Jan. 31-Feb. 2 in Columbus. In addition, they will be appearing at the Chelsea Big Boy Monday, Jan. 28, entertaining the restaurant's customers with magical doings from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Not content with just performing their illusions, the duo is also giving a course appropriately titled "Abracadabra" as a part of the Super Saturday program offered through Community Education and the Recreation Council. Children in grades four and five are invited to register for the sessions at North and South schools, where they will learn to do actual tricks each week throughout the program.

Wrestlers Win First of Season

After a disheartening half-season, Chelsea's grapplers gained back much of their confidence by taking two matches in succession, against Lumen Christi and Dexter.

Bulldogs Ranked 11th In AP Poll

For the first time since the 1974-75 season, Chelsea's varsity cagers have appeared in the AP and UPI state Class B rankings.

In the AP poll, determined by sports writers, Chelsea is tied for 11th place this week with 23 votes. Last week the Bulldogs received only seven votes from the writers.

Taking first place in the AP rankings is Willow Run, who will meet with Chelsea on Feb. 26.

No other SEC teams appear in the AP poll, but Chelsea and Salline each received one vote in the UPI poll, which is conducted among Michigan high school coaches.

According to Chelsea Coach Robin Raymond, high school rankings are often erratic, since coaches and writers never have a chance to see all state teams in action.

"It's no real indication of who's good," said Raymond, "but it's nice to see."

loss for Chelsea against Lumen Christi as the lighter weight categories brought three consecutive losses.

At 126 lbs., however, things began to look up, as Jim Cobb took his match, 1-0. Following Cobb, Craig Sturgeon won at 132, 14-0; Steve Grau, 138, won 6-0;

Busy Agenda Set for Legislature

Governor William G. Milliken and legislative leaders have left no doubt that monumental tasks await the executive and legislative branches of government as the 1980 legislature convened.

Milliken, in his annual State-of-the-State address, declared it was good but put forth a long list of priority items for 1980.

The governor declared early in his address he would be proposing no new taxes for 1980. He said in order to avoid any tax hikes, more than ever, government must adjust programs and activities to live within restricted limits as each resident of the state must live within personal limits.

The list presented to members of the legislature by the governor cited more than 350 specific administrative or legislative steps the governor deems as necessary this year.

On the state's budget, the governor said he would propose some reduction and even elimination of programs while proposing substantial increases in funding for the "vulnerable populations," including those persons in the mental health system.

He said his budget would more than triple the funding for mental health community placement programs, adding $42 million to aid the developmentally disabled and mentally ill.

Milliken said his budget also would include a special $40 million program for so-called distressed cities and the start of a $300 million program of matching grants to local governments for solid waste management programs over the next five years.

Declaring that business cannot stand more years of added cost of doing business, Milliken said the current workers' compensation system must be reformed to increase benefits to deserving persons while protecting business and industry from abuse and fraud.

The governor also said he would establish a special organized crime commission to implement a state-wide strategy to prevent and control organized crime, call for legislation to reform the state's horse racing industry and sponsor a conference to search for ways to effectively use the renewable forest products as an energy source.

Prior to the governor's annual message, House Speaker Bobby Crim and Senate Majority Leader William Faust outlined their legislative priorities for the 1980 session.

Those priorities were not unlike the governor's. Crim predicted an economic recession will prove a major challenge to the legislature during 1980. He added, that despite falling revenues and a drain on state services, the state should not raise taxes in an effort to make up the revenue shortfalls.

The speaker said the legislature must put on the November ballot a tax shift proposal, shifting taxes from residential property to an increase in the sales and use tax.

Crim reiterated that solving the workers' compensation reform problem will be his number one non-budget priority for 1980.

Other items listed cleaning up toxic dump sites, beginning to improve correction facilities and increasing funding of state pension programs.

Faust, meanwhile, listed Wayne County reorganization, Blue Cross/Blue Shield reform and racial steering prohibitions in real estate transactions among his top legislative priorities.

He also called for enactment of a Department of Energy to centralize in a single department the responsibility of administering the procurement, distribution and equitable handling of energy resources.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I read where our Governments recommend that we insulate our homes to cut down the cost of heating, and I natural want to do my part. I've been saving all the newspapers, and I plan to line my attic with them. I might even get up enuff energy to save more energy by tacking a layer under this floor. I'm wondering if this is a safe move.

What got me giving second thoughts to this project was a gadget Ed Doolittle's daughter give him at Christmas. It looks fer the world like a cigaret roller, but it's big enuff fer newspapers.

What you do, you make newspaper fireplace logs with it. Ed said the directions have drawings that show neat logs, but so far all he's got it to do is wad up the papers fer good and all. I'm thinking if newspapers are good fer burning they ain't so hot fer insulating. Or, they might git to hot fer insulating is another way to look at it. Have you give any thought to printing on fire proof paper? I wouldn't be the one to raise the issue, understand, but if the consumer protectors won't let us have doll clothes, that catch fire easy, they'd be mighty interested to know about newspapers that might bust into flame while the puppy is taking care of business. Why, the old lady could pour some hot grease into her garbage and send the house up in a flash.

I know you're out to git and print the hottest news you can find, but you got to think about the health and welfare of your faithful readers. I've took to scanning even the women's news, which I usual skip over, to see if there's any personal item that might kindle a spark. So far I ain't run across anything I see as a problem, but you realize better than most that the hint of hazard can send them health and safety inspectors into a feeding frenzy.

Serious, Mister Editor, if you was a Government agency you could spend money in a lot of ways that would make using fire proof paper a real practical idee. Fer instant, Ed Doolittle had this clipping at the country store Saturday night where we spent $47 million last year on salaries fer folks that work in the Selective Service System. This is the outfit that runs the military draft, and it went out of business more than six year ago. Ed listed $93,000 last year to teach Navajo Indians to be medicine men, and the item didn't even mention the millions spent on health programs on the reservations to offset the work of the medicine men. There was a $100,000 item to care fer 205 Amazon parrots, and another $100,000 went to study the mating habits of hermit crabs, which seems like a special waste since if he's a hermit he ain't much fer mating.

Let me know what you think about the insulating plan. Whatever you say I already git my money's worth from the paper, and I'm glad to see you're not being hurt by price overcutting like that weekly in San Francisco that said the big dailies there charged so much fer ads til merchants didn't have anything left fer the little papers.

Yours truly, Uncle Lew.

Registration Slated Next Week For Beef Referendum in February

Beef producers will soon have an opportunity to vote in a referendum on a Beef Research and Information Order. To vote, a producer must register between Jan. 28 and Feb. 6 at a local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ACSC) office, according to Earl Dolezky, chairman of the Washtenaw County ASC Committee, 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor. Voting will be Feb. 19-22.

All cattle producers would be affected by the order and each individual (cow-calf operator, stocker-grower, feeder, dairy operator, etc.) who owned cattle during 1979 is eligible to vote.

Dolezky said, the 1978 Beef Research and Information Act authorizes a national program under which cattle producers would be assessed to finance research and information activities designed to improve markets for cattle, beef products. This program will not be established unless producers vote to approve the order.

According to the Act, amended in 1978, for the order to become effective, at least 50 percent of those registered must vote in the referendum and a majority of those voting must vote in favor of the order. Originally the Act required approval by two-thirds of the registered producers voting. An order voted on in 1977 was favored by 55.4 percent of those voting and was not approved.

Antique Dealer Entertains Historical Society Members

Thirty Chelsea Historical Society members, friends and guests attended the January meeting at McKune Memorial Library.

During the business meeting, President Lois Moore gave a report on the accomplishments of the past year. It was also decided to make the February meeting a pot-luck patriotic dinner, place and time to be announced by committee members Hazel Dittmar, Sally Nicola and Maria Petsch. Lorenz Wenk presented the society with an old map of Washtenaw county showing the farm plots, which he purchased at an auction in Stockbridge. The map was placed in the historical room at the library.

Sally Rendell, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Darius Cash. She and her husband are owners and operators of The Treasure Mart in Ann Arbor and deal mainly in antiques. A humorous reading entitled "The Queen of Junk" pointed out the difference between antiquing and junking. That difference is money: it's possible to go broke junking, but it's not easy.

Cash went on to explain: "Last week I went junking from 10 o'clock in the morning till five o'clock at night and came home with change and a 10 dollar bill. Not only did I get a whole day's worth of thrills and excitement for my money, but I also got a rocking chair, a table, two lamps, 10 dessert plates . . . and a hot corned beef sandwich on rye with a pickle."

"That the beauty of junking," she continued, "but if you come home with a $300 Queen Anne chair from an antique shop, you'd better know why."

Cash brought along many antique articles, including a cream skimmer, an ear horn for the hard of hearing, a wooden frame hand mirror, Tiffany bracelets, a gadget for pinning and holding the voluminous skirts worn by women in the '80s, and a wooden roller set used to firm up the tummy in the "old days." A quilt dated 1879 and with "age 73" embroidered in one of the squares was made by the mother of the first governor of Minnesota. Cash also showed a tapestry which was brought out of Hungary and used on the ceiling of the Andrew Carnegie home in New York City. She indicated that she and her husband do appraisals and do take items on consignment. An invitation was extended to all present to visit the store and spend an interesting time browsing and identifying items.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting, giving those present a chance to visit and ask questions.

Girl Scouts Visit Greenfield Village

Area Girl Scouts and their leaders have been keeping busy with many varied activities. On Dec. 15-16, three area troops spent the week-end touring Greenfield Village. This was an enlightening experience for all who participated.

Chelsea's Girl Scouts of all ages held an Inner-Troop Swim on Sunday, Jan. 13 at Beach Middle school. Funds for the swim were obtained from the proceeds from the Girl Scout booth at the Chelsea Fair.

Another inner-troop activity is planned for the girls on Feb. 6, when they will go roller skating at the World of Wheels in Ann Arbor from 6:30-8 p.m.

Four leaders, Nanette Havens, Carol Hoffman, Patty Ryan and Phyllis Vaillencourt, have passed the Troop Camper Equivalency Test and are now qualified to accompany the troops on camping trips.

The Western Washtenaw Area of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council has a new field director. She is Susan Bairley, who assumed her duties in mid-January.

Three Area Students Post All-A Records At Michigan State

Three local students were among some 540 Michigan State University undergraduates who achieved a 4.0, or "straight A," during the fall 1979 term.

Achieving top grades from Chelsea were James H. Botsford, 19500 Sibley Rd., in a pre-veterinary program, and Dennis R. Cosgrove, 6111 Sibley Rd., in undergraduate agriculture.

Dexterite Mark A. Haney, 9200 Island Lake Rd., also earned all A's in an engineering sciences program.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Harris, on organ and trumpet. They also performed the vocal solo, "Wedding Prayer."

The couple received guests at their home on Stoffer Ct. following the ceremony. A buffet dinner was served.

They returned home following a wedding trip to the Caribbean.

LIVE LONGER!

Protein Foods Are the Magic Key

By LELORD KORDEL
Number Four of a Series

Before you can hope to look younger and live longer, you must make a mealtime companion of protein—your "youth restorer" food.

Protein is the outstanding food element that determines whether you look and feel like 30 at 50. Or 50 at 30. Whether your muscles co-operate or cringe. Whether age is a matter of feeling or of years.

What is this magic stuff—this protein?

It is the basic raw material of all life. It is a must in every person's diet, regardless of age. The word protein means "holding first place." And first place in the diet is exactly where protein belongs.

Did anyone ever succeed in trying to make steel with mud? Or in attempting to repair an iron girder with putty? Of course not.

And neither can your body be patched together with boiled pudding. Or biscuits. Or candy. It takes protein—lots of it—to do the job of repairing body tissues.

That is why a protein deficiency can be so serious. It can make you flabby and weak.

POOR POSTURE

Lacking protein, the abdominal muscles find it difficult to do their job. This can immediately translate itself into poor posture.

Your hair, your skin, your heart, your liver, kidneys, brains, eyes, nerves, right down to your toenails—every single inch of you is made of protein. Protein shortage often leads to overeating, which can be the start of a vicious pattern:

You become a bit overweight. You no longer have the old energy. So you become lethargic. You sit around more. The pounds sneak up on you. It goes from bad to worse.

You begin to look . . . and feel . . . and act . . . older than your years!

A protein deficiency can also cause poor bowel habits because of flaccid intestinal muscles.

Since every part of your body depends on protein, a shortage can lead to such seemingly unrelated conditions as cold feet.

Or dry skin due to poor circulation.

Eventually, a protein shortage can lead to countless degenerative diseases.

The best proteins, of course, are to be found in lean meats, fowl, fish, cheese, eggs, low-fat dairy products. Also in whole grains and certain seeds like soybean, sunflower and millet. If it were necessary to do so, you could live to a bright-eyed and bushy-tailed old age by eating nothing except the proteins.

They contain all the factors for maximum human nourishment. And in correct proportions!

IMPORTANT RULES

Let's swing back to the two most important rules for living to a healthy and vigorous old age.

1. Food should be the first item on your budget.

2. Protein should be the first item in your diet.

Here is a list to help you remember the principal high protein foods:

• Living tissue — meal, fowl, fish. (Organ meats, such as liver, kidney, heart and brains should be used often because they are very high in vitamins — an extra bonus!)

• Eggs and milk products. This category of foods intended by Nature to nourish the young, would include natural cheeses and low-fat milk. And let's not forget buttermilk and yogurt. Or skim milk powder.

• Seeds of plants in their natural state — cereal grains, nuts, soybeans, legumes, sunflower seed kernels, millet. These are usually available in health food stores.

Our high-speed modern society is one of pressures and tensions. If we want to live longer we must eat the kind of food our bodies demand.

FEEDS ON ITSELF

When not enough protein is supplied in the diet, your body turns into a heartless cannibal and begins to feed upon itself.

When a protein deficiency exists, certain body cells are consumed in order to feed the necessary ones.

Not that the destroyed cells are unimportant.

But cells even more vitally important to the living body must feed on those that can be spared. At least for the time being.

It is this continued form of protein cannibalism that is the real cause of disease, of premature aging.

The one and only place where you can obtain this imperatively needed repair material for your body cells is from the food you eat each day.

Here I am speaking of the complete proteins as found in lean meat, fish, poultry, eggs, cheese, and seed cereals.

SHOCKING SURVEY

On any of these, particularly the animal proteins, you can live well and vigorously without ever touching another type of food—and still look forward to the taste joys of mealtime.

But here is a shocker: Surveys have disclosed the alarming fact that the eating patterns of from 50 to 60 percent are dangerously lacking in protein.

One reason is because meat, fish, poultry, eggs, cheese and milk products are more expensive than starches and sugars.

When the budget requires trimming, the protein foods are either decreased or eliminated altogether in favor of low-cost starch foods.

This is very poor economy from the standpoint of health maintenance. Every extra penny you spend on protein foods is the best health investment you can make.

Next: Planning your protein meals. How much is enough? Two simple basic rules. Getting your money's worth of protein foods.

Taxpayer's Guide Offered

The Michigan Taxpayer's Guide, an easy to understand booklet with helpful hints on filling out this year's tax forms, is available to residents of the 23rd District, State Representative Mary Keith Ballantine said today.

"This booklet details several important changes in different aspects of the Michigan Tax system which have taken place over the past 12 months," Mrs. Ballantine said.

"Because our tax laws are changed so often, it is more and more difficult for the average citizen to complete his or her own forms," she added. "This publication is one of the few in which citizens can find information on many Michigan tax laws in easy to understand language."

Mrs. Ballantine said the booklet outlines new benefits for senior taxpayers and contains information on the Property Tax Assistance Program and Home Heating credit.

"There are certain programs and tax breaks senior citizens are entitled to which they may not be aware of," Mrs. Ballantine said. "That's why I have included them as a regular feature of the Taxpayer's Guide, and I hope the seniors in the district find the information beneficial."

Mrs. Ballantine also noted that senior citizens who would like assistance in filling out their homestead property tax forms should fill out the request blank in the booklet and mail it to her.

The booklets may be obtained by writing to State Representative Mary Keith Ballantine in care of the State Capitol Building, Lansing 48909 or by calling (517) 373-1775.

Mrs. Ballantine welcomes any comments her constituents may have on the booklet, or on any matter of personal or legislative concern.

Did They Deliver on Time?

The first United States Post Office building was erected in 1829, 150 years ago. The structure, known as the Newport (R. I.) Custom House and Post Office, has been authorized by Congress the previous year. Greenfield Village, Dearborn, contains the Phoenixville (Conn.) Post Office, the earliest still-functioning post office in American. This post office was first built in the 1830s and still offers visitors to the Village a chance to mail letters.

Gasoline Stolen From Cars at Methodist Home

Several gas caps were removed and a quantity of gasoline stolen from cars parked at the Methodist Home apartments, 725 W. Middle St., last week-end.

Chelsea police reports indicate that Kurt Neumann, a resident of the apartments, summoned police after he discovered gas siphoned from a parked car. Upon arrival, the officer discovered that five other vehicles had gas caps removed and that two had been relieved of about one-quarter tank of gas each.

Another resident, Mrs. Sanderson, told police she had observed a Jeep, which she believed to be red and white, loitering in the parking lot the previous evening. Police have no clue as to the number or description of suspects.

On the Right Track for Vehicle Weight Reduction

The Cleveland Railway Co. introduced America's first aluminum street car on Dec. 2, 1926. The 6,650 lbs. of aluminum in the body, underframe and trucks constituted 20% of the car's weight. The Transportation Collection of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, exhibits not only early street cars, but other attempts at solving the weight problem in vehicles, including an Alcoa-Pierce Arrow aluminum automobile.

Employment, Training Services Council Plans Public Hearings

The Michigan Employment and Training Services Council will hold two public hearings in Ann Arbor, Thursday, Jan. 24 and Friday, Jan. 25, to give interested persons an opportunity to comment on women in the workplace and employment and training activity in Michigan.

Hearings will be held at the Holiday Inn-West Bank, 2900 Jackson Rd., in the banquet rooms located near the motel's restaurant entrance.

The hearing on Thursday will be from 7:30 to 9 p.m. and will follow an open forum format where anyone wishing to discuss a concern or activity regarding employment and training programs is invited to attend.

Friday's hearing will be from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. and is tentatively set aside for scheduled speakers.

Council Chairperson Arthur Underwood said that while the major focus of the hearings will be on women in the work force, any topic related to employment and training activities may be discussed, including the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA).

Underwood said the public hearings enhance the 32-member council's ability to make recommendations to Governor Milliken on ways to improve the effectiveness of employment and training programs.

Council membership includes representatives from local CETA programs, the State Board of Vocational Education, the State Employment Service, organized labor, business and industry, agriculture, state agencies, the public, community based organizations and CETA participants.

CETA funds are co-ordinated with other federal, state and local dollars to provide resources and services to the unemployed, underemployed and economically disadvantaged. CETA programs are decentralized and run at the state and local levels. CETA was enacted in December, 1973, and is divided into specific purpose categories ranging from work experience to public service employment.

School Board Briefs

Present at the Jan. 21 regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education were Schafer, Schumann, Snyder, Heller, Dils, Assistant Superintendent Mills, Superintendent Van Meer, Principal Williams, Assistant Principal Vogel, Special Education Director DeYoung, Special Education Vocational Co-ordinator Deborah Mohl, guests.

Meeting was called to order at 8:05 p.m. by Secretary Robert Schafer. The Board approved the minutes of the Dec. 17, 1979 meeting.

James L. McCoy, energy management consultant, presented the Board of Education with an energy use survey and energy management program. The report discussed the potential energy savings that will result through improved maintenance and operation of equipment and systems. McCoy described certain energy conservation measures that may be implemented throughout the facilities investigated with similar costs and savings benefits. Each facility had a description of its specific problems and of the energy use and energy conservation measures applicable to each facility.

Assistant Superintendent Mills reviewed with the Board a six-month financial status of the budget. It appears that the revenue patterns and expenditures are in line in over-all categories for a six-month period. Projections are that the District will complete the year within its budget constraints.

Assistant Superintendent Mills presented the Board with bus chassis bids from Palmer Motor Sales, Inc., Lloyd Bridges Chevrolet, Inc., and Evans Buick-GMC of Brighton, and a bus body bid from Classrooms, Inc.-Superior Coach. No action on these bids was taken. The administration will make a recommendation for the number of buses needed and for the awarding of the bids at the Feb. 4 meeting.

Special Education Director Dr. DeYoung and Special Education Vocational Co-ordinator Deborah Mohl presented an overview of the vocational program that operates in Region V, which includes Chelsea, Dexter, Manchester, and Whitmore Lake. This program currently is serving 25 to 30 students, in which special education students attend school for a portion of the school day and then get experience in a job placement setting.

Principal John Williams discussed the possibility of a date change for graduation.

The Board accepted the administration's recommendation and approved a half-time teaching assignment for Hannah Tolles, special education teacher at North school. This half-time assignment is for the balance of the second semester of the 1979-80 school year.

The Board approved the administration's recommendation to issue a temporary contract to Barbara Fisher, special education teacher, to replace Hannah Tolles for the balance of the second semester of the 1979-80 school year.

The Board approved the recommendation of Principal Wojcicki to grant tenure to William Beard.

The Board approved the Vocational Education Advisory Committee memberships.

The Chelsea Board of Education and the administration will send a delegation to the County School Officers' Jan. 29 meeting, to be held at Washtenaw Intermediate School District at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Sniderman, Michigan State University, will present goals and objectives seminar for county school boards of education.

Vice-president Ann Feeney had earlier in the evening presented to the Ann Arbor Gifted Association her perceptions on starting and maintaining a program for gifted students.

Trustee Daniel Snyder reported on the meeting with the state legislators reviewing information on the right-to-strike legislation and re-organization of intermediate school districts. Meeting adjourned at 11:13 p.m.

Technical, Trade Career Opportunities Will Be Discussed

The Career Placement Center at Washtenaw Community College will sponsor a four-hour information center for the public on special technical training and apprenticeship career opportunities which are available on Wednesday, Jan. 30 from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m.

Representatives from various Federal and State agencies will be among those at the session who will discuss technical and trade related career opportunities. Also, local labor organizations, as well as representatives from local auto industry businesses and other organizations will be available to discuss construction and industrial apprenticeships.

The session will be held in Lecture Hall I of the College's Liberal Arts and Science Building at 4800 E. Huron River Dr.

Questions about the event should be directed to WCC staff at (313) 973-5358.

Howell, Lumen Christi, Tecumseh Fall to Bulldogs

"We made 11 bad passes in this one game."

Last Tuesday's Howell game is another victory that Raymond feels was closer than it should have been at 69-67.

Chelsea had a 12-point lead in both halves of that contest that was narrowed to two at the final buzzer. A 65-57 lead was enjoyed by the Bulldogs with two minutes left in the game, when Howell scored eight consecutive points to tie it up at 65 each. Howell then scored with 50 seconds left to take a two-point lead.

Dils then hit a 15 ft. jump shot to tie the score. Howell took the ball back, but Knickerbocker stole an inside pass and Chelsea worked the ball until :19 was left on the clock and then called a time out. Resuming play, they were called for taking more than five seconds to put the ball in play, and Howell took possession. With just four seconds remaining, Howell called a time out.

Back in play, a Howell player took a 12 foot jump shot with just seconds left on the clock. It barely missed the basket, and Chelsea's Peterson grabbed the rebound and was fouled in the attempt right at the buzzer. With no time remaining, Peterson hit two shots at the foul line to pull the game out for the Bulldogs.

SEC play begins again for the team this Friday, with an away game with Jackson County Western.

BookCrafters Fill Four Top Management Posts

William G. Nuffer, president of BookCrafters, Inc., (formerly LithoCrafters, Inc.) of Chelsea announced the appointment of four top management positions this week from the corporate headquarters in Chelsea.

Nuffer named Charles Presley to the position of vice-president of administration and Ernie Reeves was named vice-president of marketing.

Presley has been with the company for nine years and will continue to oversee the accounting, credit, personnel and budget aspects of the rapidly growing corporation. Reeves joined BookCrafters in 1978 and has been instrumental in restructuring the sales force and centralizing the marketing and customer service functions of the company.

Nuffer also named new general managers at the corporation's two book manufacturing plants. Greg Hannahs assumed the position at BookCrafters of Fredericksburg, Va. Hannahs, formerly director of operations for two years, pioneered the innovative use of the Cameron belt press for volume printing at the Virginia plant.

At the Chelsea plant, John Evans was promoted from production manager to general manager. During the eight years of Evans' association with BookCrafters, he has experienced the entire scope of manufacturing duties at the plant.

BookCrafters, Inc., is the result of a recent merger of two sister companies, BookCrafters, Inc., of Virginia and LithoCrafters, Inc., of Chelsea.

The employment of the two manufacturing plants and sales offices in New York City, Chicago and Los Altos, Calif., total 315 persons. Sales figures for 1979 were in excess of $12,000,000.

BookCrafters is a wholly owned subsidiary of American Business Products, Inc.

Low Income People To Get Fuel Bill Help

Approximately 115,000 Michigan residents who get Federal supplemental security income (SSI) payments will receive an extra $177 in early January to help pay higher oil, gas or electric bills this winter. The extra check is in addition to the regular monthly SSI payment, according to William P. Philippe, social security manager in Ann Arbor. Social Security administers the SSI program.

Most SSI recipients who received SSI checks for December are eligible for the special energy check. SSI recipients living in institutions where Medicaid pays the majority of the cost will not receive a special energy assistance check since it is unlikely they will have to pay for any increased energy cost.

People who received a December SSI check but who do not get a special energy assistance check by Jan. 15 should contact social security. This is especially true for SSI recipients who use direct deposit and may not have kept social security informed of their current mailing address. All special energy checks are being mailed to homes of SSI recipients, including those using direct deposit. The number to call to report a missing check is 994-3310.

Special energy assistance checks are being sent to SSI recipients by the Social Security Administration and to other low income people through state and local agencies. Low income Washtenaw county residents facing an energy related emergency should contact the Community Services Agency at 994-1650.

The total cost of the special energy assistance payments program throughout the country, including the special checks to SSI recipients and grants to the states to help people with special emergency fuel or other energy related situations, is $1.6 billion. Of that, $400 million is being sent to SSI recipients, $400 million is allocated to the Community Service Administration, including $250 million previously allocated, for the Energy Crisis Assistance Program, and $800 million is being given the states in block grants. Michigan's grant $47.58 million.

The special energy check for each SSI recipient in Michigan will be the same. The amounts vary from state to state, however, ranging from $34 in Hawaii to $250 in 11 states. The individual state amounts are determined by a three-part formula which takes into account local weather conditions, the number of SSI recipients in the state and certain energy consumption statistics for the state.

Tires, Wheels Stolen from Dealer Vehicles

At least $1,300 worth of tires, wheels and batteries were stolen sometime last week-end from Village Motor Sales, 1185 S. Main St.

According to police reports, seven 4-wheel drive tires, five fancy wheels and one battery were taken from vehicles parked in the lot behind the dealership sometime between Friday evening and Monday morning.

Police feel the incident probably took place sometime late Sunday night or early Sunday morning, because of the heavy footprints, made after it began to rain Sunday night.

It appears that the operation was a one-man job from the single set of footprints around the vehicles. Police say he put the 4-wheel drives on blocks, pulled the valve cores out and removed the tires when they deflated.

An investigation is continuing.

Spiker of the Week

KELLY HENSE shows the spiking form which won her this week's place in the volleyball spotlight. Kelly was outstanding in the varsity win against Willow Run last week. She accounted for 11 points of 37 total, and provided good defense in the close match. Kelly is a junior this year.

Volleyball Teams Win 3 of 4 Games

It was hot week for Chelsea's junior varsity volleyballers, as the streaking JVs defeated Willow Run, 15-4 and 15-8, and Pinckney, 15-8 and 16-14.

The varsity also took positive steps in beating Willow Run, but fell to Pinckney with a weak effort.

For the JV, excelling in the Pinckney contest were Amy Poljan, Marty Kovick, Cindy Connell and Kim Forner. Venus Roberts had several effective spikes, and the second game was saved totally by Kathy Doll and Cindy Connell.

Beach Swim Club Off to Fast Start

Beach Middle school's swim team recently began season competition and jumped out to a dual meet record of 2-0 before bowing to Erie Mason last Thursday afternoon.

In the first meet of the year with Dundee, the Bullpups won the first event of the day: the medley relay. The team was composed of Dawn Borders, Mike Coffman, Kevin Colombo and Becca Lee.

Double individual honors went to Margie Rawson and Liesel Culver. Single event winners were Dawn Borders in the 100 freestyle and Kraig Leach in diving.

The last event of the meet was won by Chelsea, as Kevin Colombo, Missy Young, Margie Rawson and Liesel Culver teamed up for the freestyle relay.

Second win of the year was over Willow Run. Again, Chelsea took both the first and last relay events. Teaming for those relays were Borders, Coffman, Culver and Lee in the medley and Colombo, Settle, Mattoff and Rawson in the freestyle relay.

Double winners included

Margie Rawson, 200 free, 100 breast; Liesel Culver, 100 IM, 100 free; and Kevin Colombo, 50 free, 50 fly.

Next came Erie-Mason, a team composed of more than 50 swimmers. Chelsea again won the medley relay with Rawson, Coffman, Culver and Young. Other victories were recorded by Mike Rawson in the 100 IM, Liesel Culver in the 50 free and Kraig Leach in diving, but they weren't sufficient to overcome the Erie-Mason squad. Final score was 83-73.

Personal bests were recorded by Darrin Fowler, 200 free; Dawn Borders, 100 IM; Jared Bradley, diving; Jay Curry, diving; Becca Lee, 50 fly; Lori Folcik, 100 back; David Cianciolo, 100 free; Chad Freyre, 100 free; Bob Mock, 100 free and Martin Boote, 100 free.

"A lot of our swimmers are young, but we are learning more each day," said Coach David Johnson. "We will be ready for championships by the end of February."

Next meet is scheduled for this afternoon, Jan. 24, against a fired-up Milan squad.

Gregory Youth Participates in Army Desert Exercise

Pfc. Paul E. Newman of Gregory, recently participated in Exercise Mohave Chief at Fort Irwin, Calif.

Fort Irwin, situated on the edge of Death Valley and the Mojave Desert, offers rolling sand dunes, barren mountains, and dry lake beds for desert armor training.

The exercise included combined-arms and joint tactical operations, live-firing and environmental adjusting.

Newman is a mechanic with the 20th Field Artillery at Fort Carson, Colo.

A 1976 graduate of Stockbridge High school, he entered the Army in October 1975.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Newman, live at 501 First St., Gregory.

Others present were Sue Schafer, John Wellnitz and Pat Merkel.

Only three were absent: Ed Keezer, Charles Koenn and Art Steinaway. This is a record attendance. Reports of the Dec. 20 meeting were read and accepted.

There was discussion on possible new surface water drainage across the fair property. Possible a large scales may be purchased.

Also, the 4-wheel drive pull for July 4 was again discussed. The permit, as stated in The Standard, was delayed to another village council meeting.

The calendar of events was discussed, because the fair catalogue is being compiled. An amendment to the fair by-laws was discussed and adopted.

Thirty fair members are planning to attend the Fair Convention Jan. 19 at the Hyatt Regency, Fairlane Town Center, Dearborn. Two members were to attend Friday for that day's program.

A reminder that the 1980 fair dates are Aug. 26-30.

TV Trivia

In the early 1940s the idea of television was known but the general use of such a fantastic device was seen as something in the distant future. By 1949, however, Americans were buying 100,000 TV sets per week. Those early days of the video viewer are reflected in the exhibits of Henry Ford Museum's Communications Collection in Dearborn.

COOKIE MAKING was part of the fun for North school students last week as they celebrated at Winnie The Pooh parties in the media center. Eager Pooh fans, above, vie for their favorite treats, which just might contain Pooh's favorite food: "hunny."

WINNIE THE POOH dictated the decor at North school parties last week, in celebration of the birthday of Pooh's creator, the late author A.

A. Milne. Media specialist Barb Locks, center, helps youngsters fashion paper bag masks while Winnie, at left, looks on.

First Drive-in Auto Service Station

America's first drive-in service station was opened by the Gulf Refining Co. on Dec. 1, 1913, at the intersection of Baum Blvd. and St. Claire in Pittsburgh, Pa. They sold 30 gallons of gas that day at about six cents a gallon.

Swimmers of the Week

CRAIG WIRTZ, Andy Weir and Shawn Pierson are this week's swimming award winners. Craig Wirtz had two good meets, twice winning diving, breaking the varsity record in driving and personal records in the 50 free and 100 free. Shawn Pierson showed his flexibility by diving in his first meet this season and getting a third award. He had his best time in the 50 and 100 breaststroke in the 50 free. Andy Weir swam on one winning relay and had personal bests in the 50 free, 500 free and 100 butterfly.

Swimmers Rout Willow Run, 125-41

Chelsea High school swimmers upped their won-loss record to 5-1 last week, with a loss at Adrian and a win at home against Willow Run.

In the Adrian meet, the CHS men lost six of 10 close races. Coach Larry Reed commented philosophically: "If you can't win the close races against the competition, you do not deserve to win. We didn't."

The only personal bests achieved in the meet were by Sean Oxner in the 200 free, Kirk Hawks in the 100 fly and Craig Wirtz in the 100 free.

After the loss, the team decided that they had to prove they were better than the score indicated. Willow Run felt the force of that decision, losing 125-41.

Chelsea took all 11 firsts and eight seconds in the rout. "If we had swum this way at Adrian, we would have won easily," Reed said.

School records were broken by Tom Gaunt, 200 IM (2:10.5) and 100 backstroke (:59.8); Craig Wirtz, diving, (223.95); Phil Hoffman, 100 free (51.6); and Dave Mason, 100 fly (:56.4).

Personal bests were turned in by John Robbins, Shawn Pierson, Kirk Hawks, Andy Weir, Kent Noll and Paul Schumann.

This week Chelsea swims Milan and Lincoln at home, then next week they travel to Brighton for a tough contest.

Historical Milestones

On Jan. 5, 1914, 65 years ago, Henry Ford rocked the industrial world by proclaiming a $5-a-day minimum wage, doubling existing pay scales. January also marks the beginning of the anniversary year of Ford's favorite project, Greenfield Village and the adjacent Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn. Dedicated 50 years ago in October 1929 by such dignitaries as Thomas Edison and President Herbert Hoover, the institution Ford established was to grow and become the world's largest indoor-outdoor museum of Americana.

JV Grapplers 3rd in Novice Tournament

Chelsea's junior varsity wrestlers, many of whom do double duty with the varsity squad, took third place in a field of nine teams at the Northwest Jackson High school Novice Tournament last Saturday.

Chelsea finished with 99 points, behind Addison with 130 and Eaton Rapids, with 99½. Last year at the competition, the Chelsea JV finished seventh.

JV Coach Mike Young expressed pleasure with his up-and-coming wrestlers and said they turned in excellent performances.

Grapplers competed in two divisions. In the first division, Chelsea featured the following finishers: Steve Snyder, 98, 2nd; Ernie Bristle, 105, 2nd; Travis Rudd, 112, 2nd; Steve Grau, 138, 2nd; Tom Headrick, 145, 4th; Chan Lane, 200, first; and Will Rosentreter, heavyweight, first.

Second division winners were Mark Bulick, 98, first; Tim Pennington, 112, 3rd; Dennis Czechowski, 126, 4th; and Dave Harrison, 134, 3rd.

Pinckney Cagers Win Over S. Lyon

Pinckney cagers got by South Lyon Friday night, Jan. 18, by a score of 59 to 55, behind the double-digit scoring of Evans, Balck, Janowski, and Haak.

The Pirates led in the first and third quarters, 14 to 12 and 18 to 11, respectively, tied, 11 to 11, in the second, then fell behind, 17 to 12, in the fourth period, when the final horn preserved their victory.

Evans led in scoring with 16, followed by Balck with 14, Janowski with 13, and Haak with 12. Leading rebounders were Evans and Balck with 7 each and Janowski with 6.

SEC ROUNDUP:

Dexter Downs JC Western To Take Over 4th Place

Saline beat Milan to notch another win in the SEC column, but Chelsea remained on top of the league with no losses and five wins.

Ypsilanti Lincoln came on to win only its second contest of the season against Erie Mason, and Dexter fought off Jackson County Western to regain fourth place in the SEC standings.

Chelsea, meanwhile, played two non-league powers, Lumen Christi and Howell, and chalked up two victories.

Dexter 65, JC Western 60—Dexter trailed Jackson County Western at the half, but out-

John Preston, 145, won 9-0; Bill Freeman, 167, pinned his opponent; Rick Poljan, 185, won 12-5; and Chan Lane, 198, won on a forfeit.

Combined with Adrian Saarinen's victory at 98 lbs., the string of victories gave the Bulldogs their first win of the season.

The JV wrestlers, who alternate wrestling for varsity and JV, decimated the opposition, 54-6.

The following Thursday, the grapplers took a close one from Dexter, 33-27.

Forfeits given to Jim Cobb, Craig Sturgeon and Will Rosentreter combined with wins from Travis Rudd, Adrian Saarinen, Jeff Osentoski and Dave Harrison, and Chan Lane to pull out the squeaker for the Bulldog grapplers.

Dexter wrestlers falling to the rejuvenated Bulldogs included Ryan Doletzky, Kenny Quigley, Wayne Moore and Jeff Eisele.

The JV also took its Dexter match, winning 12-3.

Fred Janson for Western led all scorers with 25 points. Dexter's Jim Vaughan had 24, and Rob Ianni added 17.

Lincoln 66, Erie Mason 46—

Ahead by only one point at the half, Lincoln staged an amazing comeback to stun Erie Mason by 20 points, 66-46, Friday night.

Greg Young had 14, Kevin Kedroske had 13 and Doug Phillips managed 12, as Lincoln upgraded its record to 2-4 overall. The Railsplitters have yet to win a league contest.

Erie Mason is now 2-8.

Saline 67, Milan 54—

A see-saw battle that saw excellent play from both teams ended with Saline the victors last Friday night, 67-56.

Milan got off to a poor start, on the short end at half-time, 37-27.

The Big Reds came back strong in the second half, however, and at one point, tied the game at 40-40. Milan failed to take advantage of opportunities that might have given them the lead, and Saline broke through to take the eventual 11-point victory.

We spend a little more

Like any other business, we have to make money choices at Rampy Chevrolet. Sometimes, spending a little more can mean saving a lot. So before one of our new cars goes off the lot and into your garage, we spend time and money to make sure it's ready for you.

We put our best mechanic in charge of new car preparation. When he says a car is ready to go, it really is. He has a check-list, an ear for rattles and a lot of patience. And he knows that every time we sell a new car, his reputation is on the line.

So is Rampy's.

Rampy knows that a reputation for trouble-free new cars is his best form of advertising. And no new car warranty covers being inconvenienced and irritated.

You're both when you have to bring a new car into the shop for adjustments. Rampy doesn't want to see that happen. So we spend more on new cars, before they're sold, than most other dealers.

When your car doesn't come back... except for regular warranty checks and service, our investment in time and money pays off. You're pleased because everything operates properly. We're pleased because, if you're satisfied, you'll come back to Rampy for your next car.

We don't want you back because a job was done wrong. We want you back because the job was done right.

ANNUAL DADS DAY was held last week-end for 4-year-olds at North Lake Co-op Nursery and their dads. Fathers took part in all the usual nursery activities, aided by teacher Loree Stafford, assisted in making memorable doughnuts which the youngsters then rolled in sugar and cinnamon. Posing for a group picture to commemorate the special, once-a-year day, were fathers, left to right, Dennis Herndon, Patrick Decker, Kent Thiel, Jim Knott, Bill Colvin, Jim Alford, Philip Radant and Bob Brock and their respective offspring. A similar program for fathers and 3-year-olds will take place this Saturday, Jan. 26, at the nursery.

Frosh Cagers Win Two from Dexter

Both the A and B teams of Chelsea's freshman basketball squad met with success last week against Dexter's frosh, defeating them 51-38 and 32-23, respectively.

According to Coach Tallman, the B players looked just as, or more, impressive than the A team, dominating the play and taking an 18-4 lead in the first quarter.

The A squad began by outscoring Dexter 18 to 6 in the first quarter. By using a zone defense, however, the Dreadnaughts were able to prevent the Bulldogs from penetrating to the basket in the second and third quarters.

Playing well for that group were Doug Pagliarini and Kevin Richardson.

Then, in the fourth quarter, Dexter was forced to go man-to-man, which allowed Chelsea to pull away and win by 13.

Mike Neibauer led the scoring with six, followed by Mark Brosnan with five, Ken Nadeau and Carl Pate with four, and Mike Hintzen with three.

Playing well, said Coach Jim Tallman, were Rod Robeson, the top player with 12 points and 10 rebounds, and Dave Wojcicki who had 10 points.

Nadeau, Pate and Neibauer tied for rebounding honors with seven each.

Randy Krichbaum also scored 10 and had five rebounds, and Matt McCallum scored six. Russ Harris grabbed seven rebounds and Frank Waller, five.

The frosh's next contest is Thursday, Jan. 24 at home with Saline. Their record on the season is now 4-2.

Chelsea and Dexter B squads also played a contest, giving more frosh players a chance to see court action.

REALTOR BILL BECOMES LAW

Last week a bill of interest to realtors and home buyers alike was signed by Governor Milliken.

has caused a good deal of ill-will in the past and the threat of lawsuits if buyers lose the backup house they had in mind because their earnest money was not readily available to them.

The new law, sponsored by my Republican colleague Ruth McNamara, will permit realtors up to five days to deposit earnest money in a trust account to secure a purchase agreement. The old law required that the broker deposit the earnest money into an escrow account within two banking days.

Another problem with the old law was that violations were made unwittingly by brokers who for one reason or another were unable to deposit the check within two banking days.

The new law will give realtors more flexibility in conducting their business efficiently. Compliance with the two-day deposit rule was often difficult for a number of reasons—perhaps the property was the object of legal proceedings or it was owned by several partners or heirs or the owners were out of town and unable to accept the offer within a short period of time.

When an investigator for the Department of Licensing and Regulation finds a violation, the broker is suspended for a period of time from gainful employment. When this happens all the broker's staff are also out of work and many families go without income. Of course agents could transfer to another broker, but when the broker who committed the violation returned to business he would have no staff.

As any of you who have purchased a home or other property know, it is not unusual for many days to pass before a written, legally binding document can be agreed upon by all parties concerned. The buyer may withdraw a written offer at anytime until he or she is notified that the seller has accepted it. The buyer, frustrated by the delay and still not certain whether the deal has gone through, can change his mind and demand his money back immediately.

I think you'll agree that this new law will benefit brokers who are committed to conducting their business in a professional and ethical manner and will also assist consumers.

Unfortunately, brokers can't issue a trust account check to the buyer until the buyer's check has cleared the broker's bank. This

The law will also permit the deposit to be made in a state or federally chartered savings and loan association or credit union. However, the burden of proof as to whether the institutions can establish such accounts remains with the institutions.

Since the Revolutionary War, nearly 39 million men and women have served in the U. S. military during periods of armed hostilities.

PRE-SCHOOLERS LEARN SAFETY

A first grader recently was killed when the school bus she had just left rolled over her when she crawled in front of a paper she had dropped.

It was that type of accident that prompted Dorothy Chlad of Cleveland, O., to start the non-profit Safety Town program for pre-schoolers several years ago.

Safety Towns now have sprouted up in many cities and towns across the nation under the sponsorship of local civic groups.

Parents, teen-agers, senior citizens and businesses get involved as volunteers in the construction and design of the buildings and as instructors. Safety Towns get support of local police, fire and medical personnel.

During a two-week program, the children learn to become safe citizens through their own involvement in simulated and actual life situations in miniature toy-town settings, reports the Automotive Information Council (AIC).

"We often hear reports that our kids tell their parents to 'buckle up,' and to 'stop, look and listen,'" said Mrs. Chlad. "We like that."

"By reaching the children during the pre-school years we can help them build safety habits they can use their entire lifetime," Mrs. Chlad told AIC. She added that more children die from accidents than the next six leading causes combined—cancer, birth defects, pneumonia, homicide, heart disease and stroke.

Parents or organizations interested in starting a Safety Town should write the National Safety Town Center, P. O. Box 39312, Cleveland, O. 44139.

The program originally was set up to help children learn traffic

Good Things Growing In Michigan

The next time you're crunching your favorite pickle, be reminded that you are eating a product of one of the more than 50 major "good things growing in Michigan."

growers to buy all harvested cucumbers. Cucumbers too large to make into whole pickles are sliced for spears, diced for relishes or processed into pickle slices.

Our state's Saginaw Valley-Thumb area is the heart of the pickle industry, leading the nation's production of pickling cucumbers. This area also produces the number one dry edible bean crop in the nation.

Cucumbers ripen within a short period of time, so some are canned immediately to avoid spoilage. Others are put into huge vats to cure for as long as 11 months. Pickles packed fresh from the field without curing are referred to as fresh pack. Processed pickles are cured in brine, then packed in a particular liquid to obtain a desired flavor.

Pickling of foods is a process for preservation that dates back more than 4,000 years. More than 250 pickle producers in the country make an assortment of pickles and specialty items like corn relish and pickled peppers from which to choose.

* A Miracle In Our Time . . .

Whether we Americans realize it or not (and most of us don't), we have witnessed a miracle in our times, and it was performed by the men and women who grow our food.

Michigan's cucumber farmers enable the nation's largest pickle packer, which is headquartered in our state, to produce more than 100 pickle varieties each year.

Stop and think of the progress this country has made in the past 25 to 30 years—or even the last 10 years . . . Thirty years ago, we had very few dishwashers or clothes dryers in our homes. Jet planes, antibiotics, atomic energy, Salk vaccine, electronic computers, and electric can openers had hardly been heard of . . . two-car families and air conditioned homes were few and far between . . . and the list could go on and on.

About 236 million pounds of pickling cucumbers were harvested in 1979 in our state, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Cucumbers harvested for fresh market customers totalled 15.2 million pounds, to rank Michigan ninth in the nation.

Who's made this fantastic progress possible? Ask that question of the average person on the street, and you're sure to get a multitude of answers. Our scientists, inventors, and industrialists would surely be mentioned, as they rightly should be—but the farmer as an important force behind this country's progress would most likely be overlooked. There's probably a reason behind that, too. Farmers have become so efficient at producing great quantities of wholesome food that most of us take a full stomach for granted.

Pickle producers in Michigan normally sign contracts with

The rate of increase in output per farmworker since 1950—almost double that of nonfarm workers—is one of the basic reasons for the high standard of living enjoyed by Americans today.

(1) Farmers have freed manpower. At the time of the American Revolution, this was a nation of farmers. Even 50 years ago, more than one-fourth of all Americans were farmers. At present, less than 4 percent feed our nation while sharing more than 25 percent of their production with other countries. The remaining millions of people in America have been freed to produce other goods and services.

(2) Farmers have freed income. Fifty years ago, the average American had to spend 75-80 percent of his income on the basic requirements of life—food, clothing and shelter. Today, these essentials take about 60 percent; so the average family can spend 40 percent of its take-home pay for travel, recreation, education, health, and other things that add to life's quality.

(3) Farmers have freed time. The average work week in 1929

Legislation Proposed!
Would Give MDA
Audit Authority

Legislation introduced by Representative Francis Spaniola would give the Michigan Department of Agriculture additional authority to audit grain dealers.
The bill, H. B. 4807, has passed the Michigan House of Representatives and has been favorably reported by a Senate Committee.
Action is expected following the Legislature's holiday recess.

As currently written, the bill would require licensed grain dealers, such as elevators and truckers, to keep daily position reports of their transactions.
Three types of transactions are recognized: cash sales, price later agreements and warehouse receipts. These and other provisions of the bill would help protect farmers from losses due to bankruptcies of grain dealers.

Our state ranks fifth in the nation with sugar beet production of nearly two million tons harvested in 1978, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Processing factories located in the "sugar bowl" of Michigan, the Saginaw Valley-Thumb area, produce more than three million pounds of sugar each day, Michigan-made sugar is easily identified by its attractive red, white and blue paper bags.

New Pastor at St. Paul Church

as contrasted to the former role of a retired minister filling in on Sunday."

"The trained IPS minister works within a different framework of time, of goals and planning than does a regular minister," said Dr. Donald. "The IPS assists the congregation to reflect on what is happening and what has happened, and how it can grow in the light of new dynamics operating in the life of the congregation during a period of change."

As interim pastor, Dr. Donald will assist the congregation of St.
Paul's to seek a permanent pastor. "The IPS works to help the congregation clarify expectations as well as to deal with their anxiety," he explains, "and enables the church to be free to enter a creative relationship with the new minister."

Among his many career-long accomplishments, Dr. Donald was appointed Interim Senior Pastor of the Peoples Church of Chicago, one of the largest parishes in the country, in 1970.
In 1973, he and Mrs. Donald toured Greece, Israel and Turkey and in 1974 completed the journeys of St. Paul.

In October 1976, he participated in Vacancy Consultant Training for Interim Pastors at Hendersonville, N. C. In April 1977 he completed his training and is now available for Interim Pastorate positions only.

Dr. Donald appears in the 1979 edition of "Who's Who in America" in the midwest section.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER
REALTOR

IF THE SHOE FITS . . .

Here is an open letter to any homeowner who has been trying to sell his own home or has thoughts in that direction:

"DEAR SIR:
Welcome to the real estate business! Now, would you like to get out of it?"

It does take a lot of your time, doesn't it? We know because we've been in it for some time now. It always amazes us how our "business day" stretches out, with the so-called rush-hour common to most businesses sometimes never occurring at any set time.

That's why our office puts in what we call a "9-to-5-and-then-some day." Owners who list with us never have to pass up meals or week-end trips, since there's no need for them to be around to make sure a prospect sees the property. And that means faster sales as well as easier selling because we can show your house to a dozen prospects while you're at the regular job you're supposed to be doing.

Why not phone us? We'll be happy to discuss your situation in the strictest confidence."

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER

When Ordinary
Standards Simply
Are Not Good Enough

DONALD A. COLE
Director

The loss of someone who was loved can never be an easy experience, of course. But bereavement
. . . like so many hardships . . . can be made easier by people who understand and who know all the ways to be helpful. These are the people at Burg-hardt-Cole Chelsea Funeral Chapel.

We firmly believe that in providing funeral service, ordinary standards simply are not good enough.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

Reveals a quest for happiness in the life of king Solomon. He sought for happiness in every source of worldly pleasure. (Ecclesiastes 2:3). Solomon searched for happiness in wisdom. His request to God was for "an understanding heart . . . that I may discern between good and bad." (I Kings 3:9, 12).
His wisdom was able to solve difficult problems (I Kings 3:16-28). But all of his wisdom failed to satisfy.
(Ecclesiastes 1:18). He looked for happiness in riches. His riches exceeded all the kings of earth.
(I Kings 10:23). Wealth is hard to acquire, gives no real pleasure and soon vanishes. Solomon looked for happiness in worldly pleasures. (Ecclesiastes
2:1-3). But all was vanity and vexation of spirit.
Solomon was a powerful king — the ruler of a mighty nation. This was also temporary. As a great actor on a stage playing many different parts he summed up where true happiness is found in Ecclesiastes 12:13. "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man."

Van Pool for U-M Employees from Chelsea Area Operating Successfully

It's 7:15 a.m. on a typical working day in Chelsea. Already the cars begin to snake down Old US-12 on their way to the freeway leading to Ann Arbor and beyond.

For about 12 Chelseaites, however, that morning drive lasts no longer than it takes to get to Polly's parking lot. There they abandon their gas-guzzling autos and ride together in heated or air-conditioned comfort to their jobs at the University of Michigan.

A car pool able to transport 12 people every morning?

Impossible, of course. But, change the word "car" to "van," and you'll have the University of Michigan's highly successful program for transporting employees and conserving energy at the same time. The Chelsea group that pools every morning is one of 11 such vans on the road.

Van pooling, as the program is known, began at U-M as an experiment late in 1978. According to Pat Hartman, program co-ordinator, the university was aware that a similar program had been successful at Chrysler Corp. for some time. One of the vice-presidents of the university suggested that perhaps the time was right for considering such a plan for U-M employees.

The initial two pools, one from Tecumseh and the other from the Hamburg-Pinckney area, were guinea pigs of a sort, testing how the ride system would work. When it became clear that the experiment was a success, the plan was then introduced to all university employees and all were given an opportunity to express interest in riding in a pool.

One of those particularly interested was Chelseaites Francis Donovan, who not only wanted to ride, but offered to take on the heavy responsibilities of being a driver.

Unlike a traditional car pool, the van pool does not rotate drivers. Furthermore, the driver is responsible for housing the van, keeping it filled with gasoline and having all major and minor maintenance problems taken care of. He is, of course, reimbursed for the expenses by the university, but nevertheless has quite a load to bear.

Francis Donovan, however, doesn't quite see it that way. An ardent champion of conserving natural resources, he saw in the pool a means of preserving energy as well as cutting down on pollution of the air. Those two facets mean more to him than avoiding high gasoline prices.

"People seem to have the money for gasoline," explained the smiling maintenance foreman. "It's not that that scares me. But I want to guard against something else. I would like my son to travel across this country the way I have. We as responsible adults should conserve."

It's hard to deny, however, that the ever-rising cost of gasoline makes the pools more and more attractive. Based on the mileage covered, members of the Chelsea pool pay $35 a month in payroll deductions which cover maintenance costs on the van, gasoline and insurance.

With a deal like that, and university parking stickers up to $75 this year, it's not hard to predict that there are more in-

VAN POOL: Chelseaites Otis Armstrong, Dottie Riemenschneider and Jerry Young return to Polly's parking lot after a day at work in Ann Arbor. The trio, together with Francis Donovan, Lou Depping, Connie Donovan, Delores DeLaTorre, Ann Hocking, Becky Armstrong, Gretchen Settle, Jo Ann Poske and Elba Gage, ride together to the University of Michigan every day as part of the popular U-M van pool program. Through payroll deductions of only $35 a month, each passenger has a guaranteed comfortable ride to work and back every day of the year.

terested Chelsea people than there are spaces in the van. If another pool were to start in the area, it would probably begin in the same way the current one did.

According to Donovan, the university first determines that an area has a large enough group to warrant a pool, and then secures a willing driver. Bids are then taken from local dealers on a van, and when the bid is awarded, a special order is placed for a van with the specifications required by the university.

Each van is custom built with a double heater and double air conditioning, heavy-duty electrical system and brakes and seat belts on all seats. Cost of the vehicle is $11,000, which is borne by the university.

The driver then lines up riders from a list provided by the university. Often a controlling factor in who eventually rides in the pool is the work schedule. According to Donovan, a woman called to drop out soon after the Chelsea pool was started because her hours had been changed. She called at 7:15, Donovan said, and he had a replacement by 8:00.

Because van pools have designated parking places close to campus buildings, many people think the group is somehow getting more than the average employee. That is a contention that Donovan and his group of riders would like to set straight. "Even within the university, some people think we're pampered employees," he said. "We're not. We're paying our own way. Everyone who's riding in a pool is giving up the convenience of stopping at Kroger or at Briarwood after work."

An additional benefit, according to Pat Hartman, is reduced personal car insurance for those employees who choose to pool. Because mileage to work and back is eliminated, rates will often go down.

For those in the Chelsea area who are interested in the pool, but didn't get a spot, there is good news. According to Pat Hartman, "Chelsea really looks good for a second van."

Anyone interested in being a driver for this area or finding out more about the possibility of a second van in Chelsea is welcome to call Pat Hartman at 764-3428. She points out, however, that the service is open to U-M employees only.

Even though that is the case, Hartman speculated that reading about the pools might just spur others to ask their employers if such a program might be started where they work.

According to Francis Donovan, it's the only way to travel.

"The people in the community have realized there is a problem with energy and they're willing to do something about it. Right here in our own back yard, we've got 12 people who are concerned enough to do something."

Question: I understand you recently visited some refugee camps in Thailand following your trade mission to China. What did you find during your visit?

Governor: Along with Governors Robert Ray of Iowa, Thomas Judge of Montana, Richard Lamm of Colorado, Richard Snelling of Vermont, and Albert Quie of Minnesota, I visited several refugee camps in Thailand, including the new holding center for Cambodian refugees at Sa Kaew near the Cambodian border.

While we were impressed by the favorable conditions at the Nongkhai and Loei camps, we were appalled by the condition of the Cambodian refugees at Sa Kaew, which already had more than 30,000 refugees even though it had been open for only three days when we visited it.

It was a grim, grim thing. We saw human misery of enormous proportions.

I have read, as you may have read, a great deal about the boat people and the refugees who are the unfortunate victims of political maneuvering across this world. But I must say that I have never experienced what I did during my visit.

The camp was an absolutely incredible thing to behold. It was developed in a field, a mud field. When we arrived, the sun was out, but during the course of our stay, the clouds came out and it began to rain. The people had tarpaulins over them, or tents, or straw mats of one kind or another. When the rain came, particularly in the hospital area, it came down through the holes in the tarpaulins. The people were lying in the mud on the mats and many of them were dying.

The day before we arrived, 50 had died in this area and many died during the time we were there.

All of the governors who were part of this group, are determined to try to do something to assist these people who are caught in these tragic circumstances. About an hour after we left, we cabled the President and called for emergency medical technicians, doctors and nurses, because there is no question that if there had been more doctors and nurses there, many people who died may not have died. Each hour makes a difference.

I hope to build a greater sense of awareness and understanding on the part of the people of Michigan and this country about the plight of these refugees.

I think this state and nation have a moral obligation to assist these refugees. I know that there are political problems connected with this program in this country. People are concerned that we are taking on more problems and not solving the ones we have.

Certainly we have not solved the problems in our cities, but we have enough affluence in this country to do both. Simply because we haven't totally solved one problem doesn't mean we shouldn't consider taking on another one, too.

We should try to do what we can to the extent that we can.

Question: Has the Home Heating Assistance legislation been signed into law yet?

Governor: The bill funding the Home Heating Assistance Program was recently signed. It will assist Michigan citizens living on limited or fixed incomes in meeting the rising costs of home heating during the 1979 and 1980 tax years.

The maximum credit available during the first year of the two-year program will be $370 with the average tax credit expected to be $90 per household. The maximum credit during the second year will be tied to the Detroit Consumer Price Index to compensate for inflation.

The program is expected to cost $33 million during 1979 and will provide assistance for 340,000 households. It is anticipated that 70 percent of the recipients will be senior citizens.

Michigan also recently became the first state to participate in a new co-operative federal-state program to assist senior citizens with energy problems.

Under the program VISTA volunteers will work with Area Agencies on Aging to seek grants and loans to improve the energy efficiency of senior citizens' homes, assist in determining what energy improvements are cost effective and work with local businesses to arrange discounts for senior citizens who buy energy conservation materials.

Low-income and senior citizens also may seek assistance in paying home heating costs from their county departments of Social Services or through Community Action Program agencies.

LOTS OF BURGLARIES

Noting that a burglary occurs every 46 seconds in the United States, the Insurance Information Institute says many of these could be avoided if homeowners would lock their windows and doors and take a few other simple precautions.

JV Cagers Continue Their Losing Habits

Ill luck continued to plague Chelsea's junior varsity cagers, as they fell to Howell, 61-53, and were demolished by Lumen Christi, 68-26.

Good Things Growing In Michigan

Even though popcorn was served at the first American Thanksgiving, the popcorn business started "popping" when moviegoers discovered popcorn and movies were a great combination. Today, popcorn is sold in 99 percent of all movie theaters.

About 85 percent of all popcorn is consumed at home, and is a favorite snack for dieters. Two cups of popcorn contain only 110 calories!

Americans consume approximately 400 million pounds of popcorn each year, with more than 7.2 million pounds produced in Michigan, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Our state is ninth in the country in popcorn production.

Here are some tips for popcorn connoisseurs on keeping and fixing this snack treat:

Store kernels in tightly sealed jars, preferably in the refrigerator. Inside each kernel of popcorn is a tiny measure of moisture. When the temperature is just right, this droplet turns to steam, builds up and explodes 30 to 40 times its original size. Lack of moisture in a kernel can keep it from popping. If this happens, sprinkle on one tablespoon of water for each quart jar of popcorn, tighten the cap and shake it. Then let it stand for a few hours.

For a different snack, try seasoned popcorn. Combine one package onion soup mix, one-half teaspoon each garlic salt and hickory smoked salt, one teaspoon seasoned salt with one-half cup melted butter. Pour over the popped corn and stir.

Cocktail popcorn is prepared by mixing one-third cup butter with one and one-half teaspoons salt, one small minced garlic clove and one-fourth cup minced chives. Pour mixture over popping corn and toss.

Legislative Update

A Weekly Report from State Rep. Mary Keith Ballantine
State Capitol, Lansing 48909
Phone (517) 373-1775

Week of Jan. 21-28

VET BONUSES — Acting Gov. Brickley has signed into law HB 4383, which extends eligibility for Vietnam Era bonuses to veterans who lived in the state for the six months prior to January 1, 1961. Deadline for applications is June 30 of this year.

ENERGY CONSERVATION — Gasoline consumption in Michigan during 1979 decreased by more than 5 percent over 1978 and the Commerce Department has credited conservation-conscious Michigan motorists. All forms of conservation are essential today.

EXPENSE FUNDS — All public officeholders in Michigan who maintain an expense fund must file an Officeholder Expense Fund Report by Jan. 31, covering all receipts and expenditures for the 1979 calendar year. This is separate from campaigns.

DIFFICULT YEAR — Governor Milliken set the tone for this legislative year in his State of the State address when he said that state revenues will be tight and that few if any new programs can be initiated. He again reminded the legislature of the long-overdue need for reform of the workers' and unemployment compensation programs in our state.

A major point of consideration was the fact that with state revenues remaining relatively static due to hard times in the auto industry, it may be necessary to make some cuts in current state programs. Legislative leaders agreed with the Governor that that is far more preferable than raising taxes to increase revenue. The consensus was that although his proposal for aid to distressed cities may indeed be needed, it will have difficulty gaining approval.

SNOWMOBILE HANDBOOK — The DNR has published a Snowmobiler's Safety Handbook which explains laws and regulations, and provides suggestions on appropriate clothing and preventing emergencies. Copies are free from any DNR field office of DNR, State Fairgrounds, Detroit 48203.

NO SHUTOFFS — Lt. and Acting Gov. Brickley has approved rules to help eliminate utility shutoffs for home residential customers this winter. The rules require utilities to post notices before cutting service to apartment buildings, and prohibit shutoffs to anyone determined to be eligible for state or federal financial assistance, which would then pay overdue bills.

SOLAR GRANTS — For the first time, federal grants totalling $750,000 are available for a variety of solar and alternate-energy educational and marketing programs in Michigan and other states. For details write MASEC, Attn. Mr. Langlois, 8140 26th Ave. S., Minneapolis, Minn 55420.

BOBCAT PELTS — A federal temporary restraining order on the export of bobcat pelts has been removed for Michigan and several other states. Bobcat season in Michigan ends Feb. 28 in the Lower Peninsula, March 31 in the U.P.; all animals taken must be reported to the DNR.

Today's Investor

By Thomas E. O'Hara

Q. My husband has the opportunity to invest in a stock purchase plan as an employee of a large company. What guidelines would you recommend to determine if this is, in fact, a good investment?

A. If you are going to invest in the stock of the company you work for, the first thing you should do is make a study of the company just as you would for any stock. If the company has a good record of growth and seems to have potential for further growth, chances are you would want to buy its shares. One key is to be objective. Don't allow natural prejudice to interfere with judgment. Some employees think their company is the best in the world and haven't really studied its record or potential.

If you satisfy yourself the company is the kind of investment you want to own, look at the other features of the plan.

If the company matches your money to some percentage, that is a decided plus. It's additional money you wouldn't get otherwise. If you pay for it with a payroll deduction, you will not miss the money.

Such plans are dollar-cost-averaging at its best since the shares are purchased over a period of time. Also dividends are usually reinvested to buy additional shares. Since profits, when you eventually sell will be capital gains, providing shares are held more than a year, the tax will be lower than it would have been had the company given you its contribution directly.

Usually there will be a restriction that will keep the stock from getting into your hands for a period of time so you cannot sell it and get the immediate advantage of the company's contribution. That of course is only fair. The company's objective is for you to have a greater interest in the company.

Simpkins, 28, a native of Farmington, earned her bachelor's degree in 1976 and a master's degree in educational psychology in 1979, both from EMU.

As an intern from January through April 1979, Simpkins taught group guidance classes at Tecumseh Junior High school which prepared students to select courses and make future choices. She has served as the senior research analyst for Eastern's Foster Parent Training Project since 1975.

Two Chelsea High school band members recently received individual honors, recognizing their ability as musicians.

Tim Dmoch, member of the 9th grade band and the marching band, has been chosen for the Michigan Lions All-State Band, sponsored by Lions Clubs throughout Michigan.

Tim plays French horn and will perform with the 130-member group at the Lions International Convention in Chicago this summer. He will also perform with the band on Mackinac Island this summer.

Dmoch was recommended for the honor by Director Steve Bergmann.

Escapee Sentenced on Rape Charge

A 19-year-old Cassidy Lake Technical School escapee who last month pleaded guilty to the knife-point rape of a Detroit woman in Waterloo Recreation Area last fall, was ordered back to prison Friday.

Phillip M. Allen, originally of Detroit, was sentenced by Washtenaw County Circuit Court Judge Henry T. Conlin to spend from 17 to 30 years behind bars. Allen last month pleaded guilty to a charge of first degree criminal sexual conduct.

Conlin also sentenced him to serve a concurrent prison term of three to five years for his escape from Cassidy Lake.

Last Oct. 21, Allen raped a woman as she and her husband strolled the woods of Waterloo Recreation Area, not far from the prison camp. The husband was forced to partially disrobe and lie face down while Allen held the woman at knife-point and raped her.

The man later told sheriff's deputies that Allen repeatedly threatened to kill his wife if he made any move to help her.

Allen had been serving time at the camp for burglary, and was identified by the couple during a police line-up.

Stockbridge Man Seriously Injured In Van Crash

A Stockbridge man was seriously injured Saturday night, Jan. 19, when his van went off of Dexter-Chelsea Rd. just east of Chelsea and slammed into a tree.

Randall J. Mackinder, 515 W. Mechanic, Stockbridge, was extracted from the wreckage of his van and taken first to Chelsea Hospital, then transferred to University Hospital in Ann Arbor. A hospital spokesperson reported Mackinder still in serious condition late Monday afternoon.

The accident occurred on Dexter-Chelsea Rd. near Freer Rd., according to sheriff's department reports. The report did not speculate, however, on the reason Mackinder skidded off the road.

Mackinder was reportedly pinned inside the van's crumpled driver's section and required assistance from Chelsea firefighters, ambulance workers and sheriff's deputies.

At the session, teams will be chosen, schedules assigned and shirts passed out.

There are still a limited number of openings left in the program. Parents who are interested in signing children up for biddy basketball should call the Recreation Department office at 475-9830 this Friday, Jan. 25, between 9 a.m. and noon.

Programs Slated To Study Needs of Gifted Children

There are many students in our school district who are gifted or talented academically or artistically. What can our community do to encourage them and help them develop their gifts to the fullest?

Local schools have already begun working on this question. On Thursday, Jan. 31, 7:30 p.m. at the North School Media Center, there will be a program to explore the needs of the gifted and talented and ways to meet these needs.

Anita Todd, consultant for the gifted and talented at Washtenaw Intermediate School District, will be guest speaker. This program is concerned with students from pre-school age through high school and is open to parents, teachers, administrators and anyone else interested in helping talented and gifted children.

Group Nixes Proposed Fire Run Charges

Upset Lyndon township residents made their feelings on a proposed fire ordinance that would charge residents $150 for each fire run quite clear at a public hearing held by the township board last week.

Most of the 25 people at the hearing opposed the ordinance, which they called double taxation, claiming that their township taxes should cover the cost of fire protection.

According to Clerk Linda Wade, the ordinance was intended not to make more money for the township, but to cover the cost of fire runs so that funds may be spent on other township projects, such as road improvements.

Wade told the attending residents that the $150 charge would be reimbursed by home owners insurance policies. Lyndon township currently contracts for fire protection from the village of Chelsea. Twenty percent of the township's budget, $15,000, was paid to Chelsea, Unadilla and Stockbridge fire departments for protection last year.

Wade said the board will either revise or scratch the proposed ordinance. Action may be taken at the next board meeting, Feb. 19, 7 p.m.

Beach Cagers Lose to Saline

Beach school cagers brought their record to 1-2 for the season after a loss to Saline this week, 34-31.

According to Coach Wayne Welton, the game was even closer than the score indicates, with the 8th graders missed scoring opportunities a key factor.

"We handled their press well," said Welton, "but missed the easy scores. They beat us at the foul line."

Chuck Hager led the 8th graders with 10 points, followed by Marty Steinhauer with 8, Jay Marshall 7, David Kiel 4, and Glen Prinzing 2.

The cagers next play Pinckney tomorrow night, Jan. 25, at Pinckney.
