Resurfacing Depends on Permits for Tree Removal

Sylvan township is awaiting the verdict of Ivey Rd. dwellers on a proposed project of tree removal and excavation leading to the eventual resurfacing of the road. According to township Clerk Daniel Murphy, permits are required by Feb. 2 from some 16 residents before the township can begin initial work on the renovation of Ivey Rd. A similar project was scrapped last year when two residents refused to give the township permission to remove trees.

The Feb. 2 cut-off date was set so that the township board may present a definite time-table to the Washtenaw County Board of Road Commissioners at a meeting scheduled for early in February. Presentation to the county board is necessary since the Ivey Rd. resurfacing, estimated at $120- to $150,000, will be partially funded by county matching funds.

Murphy said the township board wants to be certain this year that there will be no opposition to the plans before the road commissioners are apprised of them. The two residents who refused to lend permission last year have reportedly changed their minds, Murphy said. He added, however, that the board is still waiting to see if all the needed signatures will materialize.

Plans for the 1.2 miles of Ivey Rd. are part of the township's efforts over the past 12 years to take one mile of road each year and rebuild it. The following year, the rebuilt section is blacktopped. Murphy cautioned, (Continued on page two)

NEW NEIGHBORS: Major-league baseball pitcher Fred Holdsworth, his wife, Laura, and artistic daughter, Beth, recently became Chelseaites when they moved into their new home on Butternut Ct. Fred, who has played with Detroit, Baltimore and Montreal, was recently traded to the Milwaukee Brewer organization. In spite of the gypsy existence of a baseball family, the Holdsworths intend to hold onto their Chelsea home. "It (Chelsea) reminds us of Northville when we were younger," Laura explained.

Major Leaguer Fred Holdsworth, Family, Happy in Chelsea Home

Together with the recent falling of the snow in Chelsea arrived the inevitable snow-shoveling season. Residents of Butternut Ct. are no exceptions to the rule, but the shovelers there may notice that one new neighbor seems to take the task a little more carefully than the others.

No, that new neighbor is not lazier than the rest. He's professional baseball pitcher Fred Holdsworth, taking no unnecessary chances with his throwing arm just a month before yet another session of spring training begins.

To the baseball fan, and specifically the Tiger fan, the name Holdsworth should ring a bell of recognition, since the bulk of his 10-year professional career has been spent with the Detroit club.

Recently traded to the Milwaukee Brewer organization at just about the same time he and his wife, Laura, bought their new Chelsea home, Fred is clearly pleased with both the move and the trade. Chelsea is just the atmosphere the couple was seeking and is close to Ann Arbor, where Fred is pursuing a degree in accounting during the off-season. As for the trade, Fred says the Milwaukee organization should be a welcome change from the Tigers.

Sitting cross-legged on the floor of his new living room, Fred expressed the hope that the team change will give a boost to the major-league career that has not turned out quite the way he and the Tigers hoped back in 1970.

Scouted from Northville High school where he marked up a 13-1 record his senior year, Fred passed up a four-year baseball scholarship to the University of Michigan to sign with the Tigers, a decision he vows he wouldn't repeat if given the chance. He was drafted on the low 21st round because scouts had been told by the school athletic director that he was planning to attend college. Detroit began almost immediately to tout Fred as an up-and-coming new hurler. "When I was 19, they were building me up to be the best prospect in 25 years," he recalls. "I didn't quite pan out."

Traded to the Baltimore Orioles five years later, Fred injured his arm and began a merry-go-round of visits to numerous doctors, none of whom were able to help his condition. A subsequent trade to the Montreal Expos gave the Canadian medical profession a chance at his arm, with little success.

"The orthopedic people are more into drugs and cortisone," he said, "both in Canada and the United States." One doctor informed him that he would probably never pitch again.

It wasn't until one important day when a friend put him in touch with a kinesiologist in Detroit, that throwing without pain once again seemed possible. Kinesiology involves the study of principals of mechanics and anatomy in relation to human movement. Probably the best known student of the principals of kinesiology as related to sports is major-league hurler Mike Marshall, who earned his doctorate at Michigan State University.

In ten minutes, said Holdsworth, the Detroit specialist told him what the others couldn't: he was suffering from a severe muscle imbalance. A regimen of corrective exercises to build up weakened muscles in the back of his arm as well as strengthen his injured deltoid gave hurler Holdsworth a new lease on his professional life.

The success of the program was evident in Holdsworth's 10-6 record last year in the minor leagues. By this time he was back with the Tiger organization, hurrying for the farm club in Evansville, Ind. and helping them to the AAA championship.

Unfortunately, some bitterness went along with the success, as Fred watched pitchers with losing records called up to the Tiger team while he continued to pitch in Evansville. He made a deliberate decision not to play for the Tiger organization this year, whether or not the club would agree to trade him. No trade would have meant "early" retirement from baseball for the 27-year-old pitcher and the beginning of a new career as a full-time student at the University of Michigan.

"Fred simply refused to play with the Tigers," said Laura Holdsworth frankly.

A trade with the Brewers was announced shortly before Christmas, however, and Holdsworth couldn't be more pleased with his destination. Milwaukee manager George Bamberger had been pitching coach in Baltimore when Fred (Continued on page four)

Swimmers Sink Milan For Title

CHS swimmers accomplished one of their major pre-season goals this week by defeating arch-rival Milan, 87-85, in a meet Coach Larry Reed called one of the most exciting high school meets ever. By so doing, the Bulldogs clinched the league championship for this year.

Two days later, Jan. 24, the swimmers raised their season record to 7-1 with an anticlimactic 112-59 win over Lincoln.

Milan's defeat was the first time the Big Reds have lost a dual meet to a Class B team since 1973. It is also their first-ever league loss since 1969.

"The win gives us respect state-wide among members of the professional swimming community," said Coach Reed. "Our swimmers have worked hard for this meet physically and psychologically since September. Our kids, our fans and our parents were all extremely boisterous and helped to keep us high through every close race. I knew it would be close, but I really didn't think we would win."

Chelsea was paced by outstanding efforts from everyone. The team won only five of 11 events but continually got all of the second, third and fourth places.

Varsity records and state qualifying performances were turned in by Dave Nicola, 50 free (:23.5), and 100 breaststroke (1:06.1); Dave Mason, 100 fly (:56.0); and the free relay of Dave Mason, Mike Mason, Scott Prohaska and Phil Hoffman at 3:31.2. Chelsea's other winner was Phil Hoffman at 1:53.6 in the 200 free.

The meet began with strong efforts from the medley relay teams of John Robbins, Shawn Pierson, Dave Nicola and Andy Weir (1:50.6), and Tom Gaunt, Craig Wirtz, Kirk Hawks and C. B. Wiesner at 1:53.6.

In the 200 free, Hoffman won and Prohaska was fourth (1:55.1). Sean Oxner took fifth with a freshman record time of 2:01.7. Following the 200 free, Chelsea and Milan were tied with 15 points each.

The 200 IM followed, and Chelsea finished 2nd, 3rd and 4th, with Gaunt, Dave Mason and John Robbins. Chelsea then led by two points.

Next came the 50 free, which proved to be a big plus for the Bulldogs. Dave Nicola took the event, Mike Mason was fourth and C.B. Wiesner was fifth. The time difference between first and fourth in the event was less than 1/4-second.

Milan divers took one, two and three in diving. Chelsea's Craig Wirtz and Shawn Pierson were fourth and fifth and the Bulldogs were down by six points.

Chelsea's flyers came back strong, however, finishing first, third and fifth. Dave Mason, Kirk Hawks and Andy Weir all lowered their personal bests considerably. (Continued on page six)

Cagers Win Two More in Title Quest

Two more victories for the varsity cager crew this week have set their over-all record at 11-1 and earned them an undisputed 11th place in this week's Associated Press Class B poll. The Bulldogs downed Jackson County Western, 85-70, and outpointed Pinckney, 68-54, in a Tuesday night contest.

Friday's game with Western featured the largest Chelsea point output of the season to date, as Don Schrotenboer led with 25 points, Jeff Dils had 23, John Dunn scored 13 and Karl Albrecht tossed in 10.

With four minutes left in the second quarter, Chelsea was up by 21 points. Coach Robin Raymond used his substitutes in the last minutes of the half and they performed admirably, losing only six points of the lead to Western's first string.

"Western was very fired up and played real scrappy," assessed Raymond, "but they didn't shoot real well."

In the second half, Jackson County Western reduced the Chelsea lead to nine points, prompting Raymond to put his starters back in the game. It came down to a free throw contest in the final minutes, with the referees tightening up on calling fouls. Chelsea made 20 free throws to Western's 17 in the second half of the game.

The Bulldogs made 32 of 62 shots for a 52 percent shooting average, tying their season high mark. Western managed to bucket only 37 percent of their shots.

Best Chelsea assets in the game, Raymond said, were Dunn and Dils and their exceptional inside passing. The pair broke the Western press again and again, going for Chelsea lay-ups.

"Eighty-five is a lot of points," said Raymond, "but we could have had more. Our substitutes each played 1 1/2 quarters and all who could play, did. We scored 85 points with everybody playing."

In contrast, Raymond called Tuesday night's home contest with Pinckney "a funny game. We played well, but we didn't play all that well."

Winter Carnival At Legion Home

Chelsea's American Legion Post No. 31 will this week-end hold its seventh annual Winter Carnival at the Post on Cavanaugh Lake. Last year more than 500 people participated in the carnival, and, with this year's expanded activities, a bigger crowd is expected.

The carnival begins at 5 p.m. Friday, Feb. 1, with a repeat of the Legion's highly acclaimed fish fry. The first 250 diners will be served.

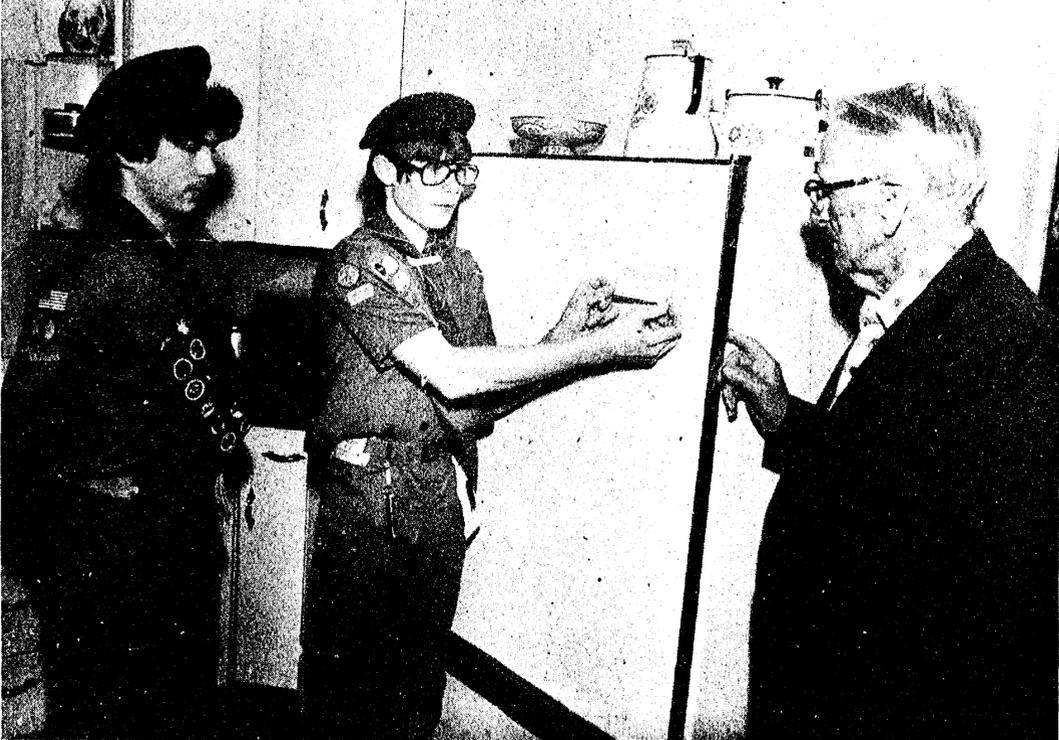

Annual euchre tournament begins at 7 p.m., with John Popovich the "card shark" in charge. A player need not bring a partner.

Fishing derby beings at 7 a.m. Saturday. Ice augers will be the first prizes in the perch and pan-fish divisions and a fishing shanty donated by the Chelsea Lumber Co. is designated for pike. Prizes will also be awarded in the children's division. Participants must enter before going to the lake and only fish caught on Cavanaugh Lake are allowed.

A new attraction this year is guided cross-country skiing. Bob Rohrkemper and Phil Hume will be guiding the two-hour trek through parts of the Waterloo Recreation Area. All skiers are welcome, beginners and pros. The tours are scheduled for 1 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. Sunday.

Also added this year is Jill Flintoft at the piano from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday. There is no admission, so come to listen, sing along, or just watch the outdoor activities courtesy of the upper deck's panoramic view. (Continued on page four)

VIAL OF LIFE: Allen Cole, center, and Chris Gallas, left, explain the benefits of the Vial of Life project to Walter A. Harper, 222 E. Middle. Cole, who is co-ordinating the project for his Eagle Scout ranking, told Harper how the small plastic vial containing vital medical information can help emergency medical personnel ascertain the proper treatment for a specific patient. The vial is kept on the top shelf of a refrigerator and is advertised to medical technicians by a sticker placed on the outside of the appliance's door.

Vial of Life Program Started Through Area

Sirens wailing and lights flashing, an ambulance crew arrives at the scene of a medical emergency in a local home. Diagnosing the symptoms of the unconscious patient, the Emergency Medical Technicians administer proper treatment and medication, but upon arrival at the hospital, the patient is dead.

A frightening scenario, but one that could happen if an unconscious patient has no one to communicate his or her unique medical history and drug allergies to attending EMTs or doctors.

Beginning this week, Chelsea Boy Scouts will show residents how they can be sure such information is always accessible to medical personnel through the Vial of Life.

A program led by Allen Cole as his Eagle Scout project, Vial of Life involves nothing more than a plastic tube, a piece of paper and a sticker. A medical information form is filled out by family members, rolled up and placed in a plastic tube, and then stored on the top shelf of the refrigerator. A small sticker reading "Vial of Life Inside" is affixed to the outside of the refrigerator to alert medical personnel that valuable information about the patient is available at their fingertips.

Boy Scouts will walk door-to-door in the month of February, passing out the vials and explaining their usage. Chelsea's police and fire departments, Chelsea Hospital and Fontana-Taylor am-balance service all support the project and will look for the stickers in the Chelsea area.

Major week-end for the drive in the village is Feb. 15-17. For residents outside the village limits, vials may be obtained at Burghardt-Cole Chelsea Funeral Chapel, Chelsea Pharmacy and Village Pharmacy at Chelsea Hospital.

Questions regarding the vial or distribution may be directed to project co-ordinator Allen Cole at 475-1674.

Governments Dole Out $4.5 Billion in Tax Credits
 Tax exemptions and various rebate plans by state and local governments return some $4.5 billion to Michigan taxpayers annually.

The credits and rebates include such items as personal exemptions against the state income tax liability, sales tax exemptions on food and prescription drugs and property tax credits.

Of the $4.5 billion total, the largest single item is the property tax exemption totalling around $1.8 billion annually.

The figures are from a report on tax expenditures, compiled by the Department of Management and Budget, required in a new law approved by the legislature just last year.

The property tax component of the package affects revenue to local units of government including cities, villages, townships, counties and school districts.

The expenditures from the state revenue coffers stem mainly from tax exempt property, property owned by the state, local governments, federal government, non-profit service organizations and religious organizations.

The property tax expenditure is only an estimate based upon reports from half of the 83 counties. The final figure could go as high as $2 billion.

While the counties reporting represented a mix of areas, there were fewer urban counties reporting than rural. Neither heavily populated Wayne nor Oakland counties reported.

The next largest category is $1.5 billion from the income tax revenues. Out of that figure, $600 million is due to the $1,500 per person personal exemption and $300 million from the property tax circuit breaker — a 60 percent credit for property taxes over a percentage of taxable income.

Another $122 million comes from subtractions from taxable income, adjustments taxpayers can make in their income before calculating their tax liability. The remainder of the $1.5 billion comes from other deductions such as credits for city income tax paid, accounting for $21 million.

Another $700 million is lost through sales and use tax exemptions.

The largest cost is the constitutionally mandated exemption on food and prescription drugs.

An additional $175 million is lost because sales tax is not charged on services, such as medical and legal services and repair services. Various non-profit organizations are also exempt from sales taxes.

The majority of the remaining tax expenditures are made up by the single business tax at $400 million and credits on the intangibles tax at $200 million.

20-Cent Charge for Telephone Information Service Approved
 The Public Service Commission has approved a request by Michigan Bell Telephone Co. to charge 20 cents for information service after a customer makes more than 20 information calls a month.

The plan will not go into effect, however, until about June, 1981. Under the plan, each residential and business customer will receive a monthly credit on their bills and be allowed up to 20 such calls within that billing month. Each information call after the allotment will cost 20 cents.

The charges will not apply to handicapped persons, who may file for an exemption, or to calls from pay telephones and telephones in hotels, motels and hospitals. Information services for other cities will be provided free upon request to customers.

The plan will be in effect for three years, after which the commission may evaluate the plan.

Finding productive employment for people needing jobs was the U.S. Department of Labor's "top priority" during the 1978 fiscal year, according to the annual report of Secretary of Labor Ray Marshall.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Ivey Rd. Resurfacing Project

If the renovation work is approved by Ivey Rd. residents, the work would be funded solely by Sylvan township taxes and the matching funds from Washtenaw county. No further burden would be placed upon persons living on the road.

Calling Ivey Rd. "the most populous road in the township as far as residents per mile," Murphy expressed his hope that the project could go forward in 1980.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

This is going to be a year full of politics, which means the pace of news is bound to pick up steady as we head into the stretch to November. I was thinking the other day how many words and how many pictures, not to mention how many denials of how many words, will be needed to keep up with movements on all the political fronts. Fer sure, there won't be enuff of any of them to suit all the candidates.

But here again, Mister Editor, the newspapers can do a job no other way of reporting the news can come close to. Ed Doolittle is as strong a believer in newspapers as I am, stronger if you consider his file of clippings, and he reported at the country store Saturday night on an item about Walter Cronkite, the television news reader. Ed said Cronkite is of a mind that TV falls far short in news. He said a half hour show can barely hit the high spots of enough stories to take up a page in the paper. Cronkite allowed that if TV had covered this big story, the report on the evening show would read like this: "Moses come down from Mount Sinai today with the Ten Commandments, the two most important of which we will look at right after this message."

Bug Hookum was agreed there's nothing like reading a full account of somepun in the papers, putting it down to go fer a cup of coffee, and coming back to read it again. But Bug said there's a lot to be said fer seeing the news too. To a heap of folks, Bug went on, seeing is believing, even if all they see is a feller saying "no comment" into a bunch of microphones. Bug said it takes all of the news sources to give us the clear picture we need. He recalled that when the newspapers had the news game to themselves they weren't nearly as careful as they are now.

General speaking, the fellers sided with Bug. Zeke Grubb said he would go so far as to say Reinhold Aman may be a household word before this year is over. Aman lives in Waukesha, Winsonsin, Zeke said, and puts out a magazine on cussing. He says we use only a dozen or so of 2,000 perfectly terrible words we can call other people and things, and these few are so badly worn they have lost their sting. Aman is coming out with a book on how to cuss better in 200 languages, and Zeke said it couldn't come at a better time. We need to work more color into our political name calling, declared Zeke, so Aman's book could be standard issue fer candidates and sailors. It would be a good idee to git a copy to that judge in Cortland, N.Y. that got so tired of the same words til he took to sentencing "verbal abusers" to having their mouths washed out with soap.

Ed broke in to give his endorsement of the colorful cussing bill. He said he had heard that the first man that cussed out his enemy instead of went at him with a club was the founder of civilization. That's somepun to be said fer gitting it off the chest, Ed allowed, and if any of this violence we're seeing can be traced to worn out cuss words that don't let off steam, he's ready to try some new ones.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Donald Bauers Observe 25th Anniversary

A 25th wedding anniversary celebration was held Saturday, Jan. 19, at the UAW Hall on Chelsea-Manchester Rd. to honor Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bauer, 13000 Scio-Church Rd.

The event was hosted by the Bauer's children and son-in-law, Jeanette and Ronald Herbst of Trinkle Rd. and Donald Bauer II of 6700 W. Outer Drive, Detroit.

Donald Bauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bauer of Chelsea, and Leila Trinkle, daughter of the late Clarence Trinkle and Mrs. Louise Trinkle of Chelsea, were married Jan. 8, 1955 at St. Paul Evangelical church, Chelsea, by the Rev. Paul H. Grabowski and the late Rev. Theophil Menzel.

Some 250 friends, relatives and neighbors joined the Bauers for dinner and enjoyed an evening of dancing to music by the Luke Schaible Band. Honor attendants of the couple were Mrs. Eva (Trinkle) Wheeler of Chelsea, maid of honor; Robert Bauer of Chelsea, best man; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trinkle of Barryton; Jean Polley of Plymouth; Ralph Trinkle of Chelsea; Mrs. Barbara (Bauer) Fredette of Chelsea; and Bruce Pratt of Manchester.

Cutting and serving the three-tiered anniversary cake were Doris Pratt of Manchester and Mary Bauer of Chelsea, who cut and served the wedding cake 25 years ago.

Mrs. Bauer had with her a handkerchief, hand-tatted by her aunt, Mrs. D. Wahl, that she had borrowed from her mother on her wedding day.

Hosts and hostesses for the occasion were friends Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wirtz of Chelsea and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Fusilier of Dexter. A highlight of the evening was the attendance of the Rev. Paul Grabowski, who performed the marriage ceremony 25 years ago.

Donald Bauer is employed at the Chrysler Proving Grounds. Leila Bauer is employed by the Washtenaw County Health Department and is supervisor of Lima township.

Locken-Pendley Vows Exchanged

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Pendley have returned from a two-week honeymoon trip to Hawaii, which followed their Jan. 5 marriage in the First Presbyterian church of Royal Oak.

A luncheon reception was held at the Kingsley Inn in Bloomfield for relatives and close friends in attendance at the ceremony.

The Pendleys will make their residence in Dexter at the home of the bride, Dr. Gail Locken, who will continue her practice of ophthalmology at the same location.

Correction

An error was made in last week's Standard story on the U-M van pooling program. A Chelsea rider in the pool is Elma Gage, 385 Washington St., not Elba Gage as reported in the photo caption. Elba Gage is Mrs. Gage's father-in-law, who worked for many years at the University of Michigan and is now retired.

LIVE LONGER!

Planning Your Protein Meals

By LELORD KORDEL
Number Five of a Series

MISSED ANY?

If you have missed any of the installments of "Let's Live Longer," you can get them by phoning the Circulation Department of this newspaper.

As you have already learned, good nutrition is not a matter of income. It's a matter of selection.

Proper foods actually cost less than many of those that are woefully lacking in nourishment. Many an expensively provisioned table is tragically poor in nutritional values because of poor selection and improper preparation.

Yet no mystery surrounds planned high-protein diets. The two basic dietary rules are simply these:

1. Increase your daily protein intake (even more if you've been ill, are planning a reducing diet or indulge in strenuous physical activities).

2. Limit the starches and sugars to natural carbohydrates found in vitamin-and-mineral-rich fruits, vegetables, honey, unrefined raw sugar or molasses, whole grains and seed cereals.

This will provide your body with the maximum of high proteins, minerals and vitamins obtainable from today's food items ordinarily grown on soils whose mineral richness is not always as great as it could be.

By adding a good multiple-vitamin mineral formula you can eliminate any guesswork on minerals and vitamins, thus achieving the ideal diet for any person.

NOT EXPENSIVE

Proteins do not have to be expensive. You can be healthy on a small budget.

An omelet for six costs no more than many a starchy meal for four.

A pound of chopped beef costs less than a pound of dry cereal.

A chicken costs no more than a fancy coffee cake.

The cheaper cuts of beef and lamb, as well as their gland and organ meats, contain just as much, often more, nutrition as the most costly steaks, chops and roasts.

The proteins in fish and poultry are also valuable to your body.

So don't bankrupt the budget in an effort to obtain the finest cut of meat in the butcher shop with the thought that it will be "better nutrition." It's not necessary.

Remember always to cook all meats (other high-protein foods as well) slowly at low temperatures to conserve the proteins and vitamins, to avoid undue shrinkage, to obtain tenderer, juicier meat, and to avoid scorched drippings.

EXTRA PROTEIN

An inexpensive, wholly effective, low-calorie way of obtaining increased protein (extra calcium, too) is by adding as much as 6 to 8 tablespoons of powdered skim milk to various dishes and beverages throughout the day.

Skim milk powder offers a remarkable source of protein at low cost. There is no excuse for "not enough" protein in the diet when such a splendid food is so readily available.

In the next chapter you'll learn more about this nutrition booster and how to use it to best advantage.

Cottage cheese, too, provides another reasonably priced, high-protein food.

Sunflower seed kernels and meal, as well as millet and sesame seeds, are valuable sources of high proteins, minerals and vitamins.

The addition of 3 to 4 tablespoons of any of these seed cereals to the daily diet yields an effective increase in high-grade protein, together with other essential nutrients.

If you are a vegetarian, you may obtain the full benefit of a high-protein diet by replacing the meat dishes with high-protein meat-substitutes.

However, for the sake of your health, and your dreams of feeling and looking younger, I hope you're a vegetarian with no prejudices against eggs, low-fat milk and cheese, for I cannot advise eliminating these valuable protein foods along with meat.

PLANNED DIET

Planned diet most certainly does not mean "monotonous" diet. If food gives you a real taste thrill, you actually eat less, are better nourished and avoid the dangers of overeating.

Science has proved that if you really enjoy your meals, your appetite is more likely to be kept within sensible bounds.

Since the rewards are so great—isn't it time to reorganize our eating habits? Remember that protein is the magic key. It can open the door to a delightfully enjoyable longer life for you.

I could cite case after case of elderly persons, weakened by tea-and-toast diets, who were restored to usefulness by gradually converting their meals to high protein foods.

Their weakened bodies gained new vigor. Minds became keen and alert once more.

Nobody who has witnessed these recoveries, as I have, could ever deny that protein foods are truly nutritional wonders.

Your mind and your body can remain youthful many years past your so-called "prime," if only you don't help fasten the shackles of a premature old age on yourself every time you sit down at the table.

Holdsworths Happy In Chelsea Home

played with the Orioles, and Fred is looking forward to working with him again.

What is not certain, though, is whether Holdsworth will again be with a minor league team, or whether he'll throw for the Brewers this season. A lot of it hinges on whether or not an owners-players contract can be settled quickly.

If contract talks hit a snag, the owners could lock the ballparks and a good deal of spring training would be lost. If that happens, said Holdsworth, teams will probably go with players who saw major-league action last year. On the other hand, if there is a long training camp, Fred feels that he has a good chance to begin the season in the majors.

Famed Columnist Addresses Modern Mothers Study Club

Dr. Marguerite Shearer, whose widely-read column appears in the Detroit Free Press, addressed the topic of sexual adjustment during adolescence at the Jan. 22 meeting of the Modern Mothers Child Study Club.

Dr. Shearer discussed some guidelines to use during the pre-adolescent and teen years. She emphasized that rules for children during these years are extremely important and supportive, even though they are often met by rebellion and opposition.

Phyllis Tillman and Lois Garmann served refreshments, following which a business meeting was held. The club elected to donate $300 to the Chelsea Symphony Band for its trip to Mexico. The club also agreed to sponsor one student for Girls State.

In both the interest of physical fitness and of the community, Modern Mothers is planning a fitness run, to be held in the spring. The run will be open to the public and all are encouraged to participate. Further details will be forthcoming.

Cookbooks being sold by the club are now available and may be obtained from Sharon Hodgson, 475-2792.

The meeting was held at the home of Janet Alford. Next meeting will be at Gloria Greenleaf's and will feature tips on planning vacations.

No matter what happens, though, the Holdsworths intend to keep their Chelsea home. "Our families are in Canton and Northville," Laura explained. "Chelsea reminds us of Northville when we were young and it (Northville) was much smaller than it is today."

With one 22-month-old daughter, Beth, and another child on the way, the Holdsworths say they enjoy the size of the community here and are pleased with what they've heard about the school system.

Spring training begins at the end of February and Fred Holdsworth is looking forward to a fresh start with a new club. "This year will be telling for me," he explained philosophically. "If I make it in the majors, then ok. But if not, then I'll go to school full-time."

Meanwhile, he is helping get the new family home in order while at the same time trying not to use his throwing arm too much.

Laura Holdsworth laughs when she remembers how friends of Fred's from the Tigers offered to help them move their belongings into the new house. The generous offer was refused when the Holdsworths recalled freakish, off-season injuries that have ruined a number of promising young careers.

At 27, however, with schooling and another career in his future, Fred has already been the route of the up-and-coming young superhurler. As he sees it these days, "You can't live in a bubble."

Special Olympics Boys Basketball Team Smothers Ypsi, 31-6

On Jan. 22, the Chelsea boys Special Olympics basketball team scored a win in its first game of the season, defeating Community Mental Health in Ypsilanti, 31-6.

Tracey Harvey at center was the game's leading scorer with 19 points. Terry Walkow had nine points, Dennis Czechowski 4, and Mike Goebel and Tim Black 2 each.

Also playing were Ryan Sweeny, Mike Foster, Clarence Weiss and Albert Bedard. Cheering the team on were Kathy Young, Linda Alber and Dawn Stancato. The team is coached by Nancy Cooper and Judy Bottum.

The team will next play Dearborn Howe on Feb. 1.

BOWLING CHAMPS: Winners in last week's Lung-a-Thon Bowling Tournament held at Chelsea Lanes included, from left, David Gipson, 1st, juniors; Tracy Harook, 1st prep; Todd Rowe, over-all champion; Tony Private, 1st, peanut; and Tammy Private, 2nd, peanut. Children took pledges per pin and winners were determined by highest game bowled and money collected. All proceeds for the event, organized by Vicki Wurster, went to the Michigan Lung Association.

SEC ROUNDUP:

Lincoln Comes to Life for Win Over Dexter, 77-61

A Chelsea victory over Jackson County Western ushered in the second round of league play for the SEC teams. Lincoln managed to beat Dexter to tie themselves for fourth place in the league, behind Chelsea, Saline and Milan.

In the second half to take the game. Gary Chatell, who led the Big Reds with 15 points, passed to Sam Pope for the winning layup just at the buzzer.

Pinckney, now 6-5, was led by Mark Evans with 17 points.

Milan had a struggle, but finally defeated Pinckney last Friday. Saline continued its winning ways by defeating Lumen Christi.

Milan 62, Pinckney 60—Pinckney suffered its second heartbreaking loss in as many nights, Saturday, falling to Milan's Big Reds, 62-60. Milan found itself down by 10 at the half but woke up sufficiently Lincoln 77, Dexter 61—After five consecutive losses in SEC play, the league's cellar-dwellers, Ypsilanti Lincoln, came to life Friday night and zapped Dexter, 77-61.

Kevin Kedroske led the way for Lincoln with 17 rebounds and 19 points. Jim Czinski, however, contributed mightily with 20 points and scrappy play.

Top Dreadnaught scorer was Jim Vaughan with 18.

Varsity Cagers

Pinckney is a good shooting team, he explained, but its weak defensively. Chelsea should have scored more than their 68 points he said.

Strangely enough, the turning point of the contest came in the first quarter, when Chelsea broke an 8-8 tie with eight unanswered points. From that point on, Raymond said, the Bulldogs kept their scoring above Pinckney's output.

"We played to the opposition," he said. "We played as well as we had to play to maintain a 10-point lead."

A strong point was the aggressive play of Brad Knickerbocker, who scored eight points off the bench. "Not only his points, but his hustle was tremendous," Raymond explained. "He picked up three loose balls on the court because of hustle alone."

Everyone else, the coach said, played average. Dills had 18 points, Schrottenboer followed with 14, and Knickerbocker had 12. John Dunn scored eight, Mike Killelea had six, Sean Peterson had four and Chris Tobin and Jeff Price had two each.

"We've improved steadily," said Raymond, "but there are areas that need improvement, such as rebounding and the defense. We've been averaging about 20 turn overs for the past few games."

Nevertheless, Raymond is pleased with his team's record and improvement this year. He's looking forward to the Milan game, a key league contest, this Saturday at home. If Chelsea defeats Milan, then the SEC boils down to a race between Chelsea and Saline.

Raymond would also like to see his team move up from 11th in the state-wide polls. "We'd like to get in the top 10," he said. "It means something to be in the top 10 in the state. We aren't playing downriver Detroit schools or Flint area schools, but for our area we are certainly one of the top teams."

Milan comes to Chelsea this Saturday for an evening contest.

Brighton Nips Pinckney in Overtime

Hustling in overtime, Brighton powered past Pinckney in last Friday night's basketball contest for a '70-62 victory over the Pirates.

The teams were evenly matched throughout the regular period, with Pinckney outscoring the Bulldogs, 19-17, in the first quarter, tying them, 17-17 in the second, and dropping its slim lead as Brighton topped it by a single point in the third and fourth, for a 60-all tie at the final horn.

The Pirate defense fell apart in overtime, as Brighton outscored Pinckney, 10 to 2, for the win.

Black and Janowski led the Pirates in scoring with 14 each, trailed by Haak with 11.

Good Things Growing in Michigan

Cheeses are gaining in popularity. They are high in protein, require no preparation and have the versatility of combining with many other foods for delicious salads, soups, main dishes and desserts.

There's no limit to the ways cheese may be used, from casseroles to cheese cakes. There are some cheeses, however, which are meant to be eaten as is, or simply matched with fresh fruits.

Appetizers are a promise of good foods to come, and perfect starters are slices of brick cheese served on Michigan apple slices or Michigan pears with Cheddar or Muenster cheese. For a busy Saturday lunch treat, lightly butter a slice of brown bread, cover generously with hot Michigan baked beans and a thick layer of shredded Cheddar cheese. Broil slowly until cheese melts, then top with crisp bacon slices.

Michigan's natural cheese production totals about 33 million pounds each year, with American cheese amounting to two-thirds of this total, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Cheesemakers in our state produce Muenster, Cheddar, brick, Mozzarella and other Italian cheeses, cream and farmer cheeses, among others. Cottage cheese production amounts to about 56 million pounds annually.

Each person in the U. S. consumes about 18 pounds of cheese each year. Considering cheesemaking requires 10 pounds of whole milk to make about one pound of cheese, this industry definitely has a stabilizing effect on the dairy industry.

Cheese is aged from 60 days to a year or more, depending on the flavor development desired. Aging and the quality characteristics are key factors in determining price.

There is an infinite variety of cheese products including shredded, grated, wheels, cylinders, bricks, cartons, pears, balls or pear rectangles, cups and jars. In color, cheese ranges from purest white to deepest orange, with shades of yellow and marbled blues and greens. As for flavors, these, too, range from the mildest cream cheese to robust Roman and Limburger. Swimmers of the Week

ALL CHELSEA SWIMMERS earned weekly honors this time around, as they combined to defeat Milan and capture the SEC championship. The team ran its record to 7-1 with a close 87-85 victory over Milan and a 112-59 romp over Lincoln. The 200 medley relay foursome of Tom Gaunt, Dave Nicola, Dave Mason and Mike Mason, together with the free relay of Phil Hoffman, Scott Prohaska, Mike Mason and Dave Mason or Dave Nicola. Hoffman has qualified in the 200 free, 100 free and 500 free; Prohaska in the 200 free and 500 free; Mike Mason in the 100 free; Dave Mason in the 100 butterfly and 200 Individual Medley; Dave Nicola in the 500 free and 100 breaststroke; Tom Gaunt in the 200 IM and 100 backstroke; John Robbins in the 100 backstroke; Shawn Pierson in the 100 breaststroke and Craig Wirtz in diving. "We are now just a matter of some hard work away from reaching our goal of finishing in the top 20 of the state meet," said Coach Larry Reed. Pictured above are, front, left to right, M. Mason, D. Mason, Prohaska, Hoffman, Kirk Myers, Pierson; middle, Steve Wolak, Gaunt, Andy Weir, Paul Schumann, Wirtz; rear, Nicola, Robbins, Assistant Coach David Johnson, Diving Coach Chris Seufert, Coach Larry Reed, Assistant Coach Jon Oesterle, Sean Oxner and Kent Noll.

Swimmers Win League Title

In the 100 free, the Bulldogs took second, third and fourth, losing first by only .004 seconds. Mike Mason was second, followed by Prohaska and Wirtz. This event again tied up the meet.
Ill luck beset the Bulldogs now, however, as they were shut out of first and second place in the 500 free, an event they had hoped to win. The difference between first and third in the 20-length race was only 1.8 seconds. Fourth for Chelsea was Oxner, with Paul Schuman in fifth.
The backstroke seemed to bring Chelsea's chances for a victory to an end. "We hoped to get first and third," said Coach Reed, "and ended up with a second, fourth and fifth. We were down six points, 68-79."
With two events to go and the Bulldogs seeming losers, Dave Nicola defeated the number two Class B breaststroker in the state. Shawn Pierson dropped his time 1/2 seconds to take an unexpected third, and Kent Noll was sixth.
"We had a loaded last relay left," recalled Reed. "But if we won and they got second and third, then we would lose by two. Milan split their last relays and again I thought it was over."

Chelsea's A relay ran away with the first race, but they knew that the B relay had to come in at least third against their team.
"The whole pool was bedlam," said Reed, "as we all knew that we had to get third."
Chelsea's A relay of Mike and Dave Mason, Prohaska and Hoffman won easily, but, said Coach Reed, C.B. Wiesner, Andy Weir, Paul Schumann and Sean Oxner "swam out of their minds," to win by :09 and take the meet, 87-85.
Thursday, the team met and defeated Lincoln in a far less emotional match, 112-59.
Winning for Chelsea were Gaunt, Nicola, David Mason and Hoffman in the medley relay; Oxner in the 200 free; Nicola in the 200 IM (freshman record, 2:15.1); Hoffman in the 50 free; Weir in diving; David Mason, fly; Prohaska, 500 free; Gaunt, 100 back; Shawn Pierson, 100 breaststroke; and Hoffman, Prohaska, Nicola and Mike Mason in the 400 free relay.
Next meet for Chelsea will be a tough one with Brighton Thursday night. The Bulldogs have now qualified both relays for the state meet. Also qualifying are two in the 200 free, two in the 200 IM, one in the 50 free, one in diving, one in 100 fly, two in the 100 free, two in the 500 free, two in the 100 backstroke and two in the 100 breaststroke.
The state meet will be held at Grand Rapids Junior College, March 14-15.

Volleyball Teams Defeat S. Lyon

A new strategy brought Chelsea varsity volleyballers an impressive victory over South Lyon Monday night, 11-15, 15-13 and 15-6. The JV also continued its winning ways by downing the Lions, 15-13 and 15-12.
According to Coach Judy Bottom, changing the line of three spikers and three setters to four spikers and two setters gave the Bulldogs the power they needed to defeat the opposition.
In the second game of the evening, Chelsea was behind 10-5, only to come back and take the game, 15-13. Ten serves by Amy Hume, who had come in to substitute, contributed to the team victory.
Serving by Kelly Hense and Sandy Bushway, as well as 38 successful spikes set up by Sue Branham and Hense, led the team to victory. Branham had 11 spikes and Cindy Gerstler had 10.

Mrs. Ruth Smith of Jackson, a former Saline coach, met with the team prior to the contest and gave them a number of very helpful suggestions, Coach Bottom said.
JV defense was the star of its match with South Lyon, as Kathy Doll, Kathy Morris and Kim Forner combined with Melanie Schneider's serving to come back, 15-12, in the second game after trailing, 11-1.
The JV is now 3-5 over-all and the varsity is 2-6. Next match will be Monday, Feb. 4, at home against Pinckney.

Volunteers Sought for Cholesterol Study in Heart Attack Victims

The University of Minnesota is seeking volunteers to participate in a national study. The National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute study is being conducted at three large medical centers: the University of Minnesota, the University of Arkansas and the University of Southern California.

The research team is conducting this trial in hopes of determining the relationship of cholesterol lowering to heart disease.

The study is seeking participants who have had only one heart attack during the past five years and who are 27 through 64 years of age. Volunteers are being sought at all three of the Hyperlipidemia Study Clinical Centers.

For information persons may call the University of Minnesota Hyperlipidemia Study collect at 612-376-4494.

Beach Swim Team Defeats Milan, 84-72

Last Thursday, the Beach Middle school swim team went up against a fired-up Milan squad and emerged victorious, 84-72.

The meet, actually a scrimmage because both clubs used sixth graders, was highlighted by Margie Rawson. The Beach tri-captain broke school records in both the 100 IM and 100-yard backstroke. An eighth grader, Rawson went 1:11.906 in the backstroke, not only establishing a junior high record, but going under the existing high school backstroke record.

"Margie is an excellent athlete and is just beginning to understand that she has the potential to be one of the best female swimmers in the state," admired Coach David Johnson. "She's grown up quite a lot over the past year."

Other first place finishers included the medley relay team composed of Dawn Budess, Mike Coffman, Margie Rawson and Becca Lee; tri-captain Liesel Culver, 200 free; Kraig Leach, diving (school record); Paula Colombo, 50 fly; Liesel Culver, 100 free; and Mike Coffman, 100 breaststroke.

Further best times were recorded by tri-captain Kevin Colombo, Becca Lee, Dawn Fowler and Jenny Cattell.

★ Just Another Tax

Inflation continues to add emphasis to the series of financial crises within the Social Security system.

This is hardly news, for the Social Security system is, and has been, out of touch with economic and actuarial reality for years.

Unemployment, though, has caused revenues to fall behind what was predicted, claims for disability payments have risen much faster than the experts expected, and then inflation came along to add staggering blows.

There is well-founded worry about the possible bankruptcy of the entire system. This possibility has caused former Social Security commissioner, Stanford G. Ross, to publicly confess that people must forget what he calls "the myth" about contribution to their own retirement—through Social Security.

Ross says that the myth that the Social Security levy is a contribution placed against the security of old age is not at all true and that taxpayers must recognize Social Security for what is really is: a TAX to support the elderly, the disabled and their families.

Ross says the myth was useful in the early days of the program—but that now everyone must be made to realize that there is not guarantee of what he calls "entitlement" earned from contribution to the system.

In short, Social Security taxes are just another tax for another form of social welfare, and unless limited by law, these taxes are scheduled to increase time and again—without end.

Nutrition plays a vital role in pregnancy, reports the March of Dimes. One main reason why many babies are born too soon or too small is because their mothers eat poorly or unwisely while pregnant.

LAND OPTION TECHNIQUE

When considering the purchase of a large parcel of land, it would be wise to think about a technique which has some degree of risk but tremendous profit potential. It is called the land option.

What is an option? It is simply a legal paper that gives you the right to purchase a given parcel of land for a given price during a specified period of time, but not the obligation to buy the land. The cost of the option is generally applied to the purchase price if you exercise the option. If you do not exercise it, the option money is forfeited.

Why is it a good technique to use? Because you "reserve" land at today's price for tomorrow's increase in value. When the parcel's value has gone up you can sell the option at a profit or you can buy at the specified price and resell to another buyer. If your hunch doesn't pan out, all you've lost is the price of the option without tying up a lot of money over a period of years. There are many varieties of options, so it's always best to work with a real estate professional in this area.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8881; evenings 475-2821. We're here to help!

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

Teaches Jesus Christ is a friend to sinners. This great truth is wonderful to know. Christ came to save sinners. In Matthew 1:21 is recorded, "And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins." "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." (Luke 19:10; I Timothy 1:15). Christ died to save sinners: "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." He tasted death for every man. (Hebrews 2:9; I Corinthians 15:1-4). Christ gave the gospel to save sinners: "And he said unto them, go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." (Mark 16:15, 16). The good news of the gospel is for every creature. (Romans 1:1: The gospel is a message that must be obeyed. Jesus is the author of eternal salvation to the obedient. (Hebrews 5: 9; I Peter 4:17; 2 Thessalonians 1:7-9). Christ invites sinners: "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28-30; Revelation 22:17).

Legislative Update

A Weekly Report from
State Rep. Mary Keith Ballantine
State Capitol, Lansing 48909
Phone (517) 373-1775

Week of Jan. 28-Feb. 4

PRIMARY PROBLEMS? — Although both parties are proceeding with separate plans for National Delegate selection, county clerks have urged that the Presidential Primary be scrapped, while several Democrats are pressing for party participation in it.

HEATING HELP — Several state and federal grant programs are available to help pay heating bills and winterize homes, depending on qualifications. Details are available from many local agencies or from the Energy Hot Line, 800-292-4704.

NEW BUSINESS — During 1979, the number of new corporations registering to do business in Michigan rose by 28 percent over 1978. This is another record, and indicates a healthy state business and job trend despite adversity in the auto industry.

CENSUS JOBS — Now is the time to apply for 1980 Census jobs. Applicants must pass a basic test and have access to a car; jobs pay $4-4.50 an hour for a 40-hour week but with flexible hours. Contact your U.S. Census district office or your local MESC office for details.

BITTER BUDGET — Governor Milliken has now submitted his proposed budget for the 1980-81 fiscal year and it is an extremely lean one. The proposed increase in general-fund spending is only about 5 percent, which amounts to a decrease over this year when inflation is considered.

Included with the budget, in line with over-all tone of austerity, is the proposed elimination of 1,651 state jobs and dropping or reducing 87 programs. Cuts are being proposed in almost every area of state spending, although Mental Health and Corrections would suffer the least. About $182 million would be drawn out of the "Rainy Day" Budget Fund.

The Governor agrees with legislative leaders that the possible option of raising taxes to maintain the current level of services is not a desirable or realistic one.

HIGHWAY SIGNS — The Attorney General has ruled that a city, village, charter township and a township having a population of more than 50,000 may enact an ordinance providing more stringent requirements with respect to size, lighting and spacing of highway advertising signs (billboards), than the requirements included in the State Highway Advertising Act.

CATTLE DRIVE — Some 1,500 PBB-contaminated cattle, which have been kept in cold storage, are now being shipped west for burial at a disposal site in southwestern Nevada. Citizen opposition to Michigan burial, including legislative action, prompted this decision by the DNR.

INDIAN HOUSING — Acting Lt. Gov. Brickley has signed into law HB 4396, which authorizes tribal councils at reservations to set up five-member Indian housing authorities, which could then acquire and clear property and develop housing and transportation facilities for Indians.

Cross-Country Ski Clinics Start Saturday

A cross-country ski clinic, sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Department, begins this Saturday, Feb. 2, at Chelsea High school, room 113.

This week's clinic, offered at one of two possible times, is intended for adults aged 16 and up. Interested persons may attend either session A, which runs from 9 a.m. to noon, or session B from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

According to the Recreation Department, the one-day clinic provides everything anyone will need to know about the basics of cross-country skiing. The department provides the instructor and will also procure equipment from Sun and Snow Ski Shop in Ann Arbor for those who don't have their own.

Registration is $5 and is limited to 30 persons per session. Those attending should plan on an additional $5 if equipment rental is necessary. Include sex, height, weight and shoe size with the registration form found in the Community Education brochure for winter 1980.

A similar clinic will be held Saturday, Feb. 9, for children in grades one through 12. A session from 9 a.m. to noon will accommodate children in grades one through six, while seventh through twelfth graders will be taught from 1 to 4 p.m.

For further information on registration, call the Chelsea Recreation Department at 475-9830.

Snowline Phone Service Reports on Wintertime Fun

The winter snows are upon us, and Southeastern Michigan is "snowing" with a variety of exciting wintertime activities. Regardless of what winter activity you choose, they're all just minutes away, no matter where you live in the 11-county area.

Throughout the winter season, Southeastern Michigan Travel and Tourist Association operates its SNOWLINE, the area's only direct line to winter activities and information.

Taped daily, each SNOWLINE report provides up-to-the-minute ski conditions at major Southeastern Michigan ski resorts, 24 hours a day. The taped messages include inches of snowbase, grooming, hours of operation at the resorts and weather conditions.

The SNOWLINE also offers helpful information on cross-country skiing, ice-fishing, skating and tobogganing as well as current winter events.

Recreation Basketball Teams Begin Action

Play in the Chelsea Recreation Department men's basketball league began this past week.

Not enough games have yet been played to determine league standings, but a few teams have already recorded victories.

Union Savings Bank roundly defeated Garnett's by a score of 69-34. Union Bank was led by Rick Snyder who had 15 points. Dave Hanes and Greg Brendmore each scored 10 points for the losers.

In an unbelievable rout, Chelsea State Bank buried Thompson's Pizza, 143-28. Mike Lauerman led Chelsea State Bank with 44 points. Jesse Colburn was top Thompson cager with eight.

CHS Class of 1970 Plans 10-Year Reunion

There will be a second meeting of the Chelsea High school Class of 1970 10-year reunion committee Feb. 3, at 3 p.m., at the home of Vicki (Wilkerson) Ersten, 8317 Clear Lake Rd.

Class members who are interested are urged to attend.

Beach Cagers Lost to Pinckney At Foul Line

Like their counterparts on the junior varsity at Chelsea High school, Beach school eighth grade cagers met their downfall at the free throw line this week, losing to Pinckney, 44-34.

According to Coach Wayne Welton, key to the loss was Chelsea's two for 10 percentage at the foul line. Pinckney managed to sink 10 in 21 attempts.

Chelsea and Pinckney field goal shooting percentages and rebounding were identical.

Marty Steinhauer led the junior high cagers with 18 points. Chuck Hager had 6; Jay Marshall, 4; Jeff Martin, 3; David Bushway, 2; and Glenn Prinzing, 1.

Next home game will be Tuesday, Feb. 5 against Lincoln.

The development of a sudden hearing loss may be the symptom of a serious medical problem, and should immediately be brought to the attention of a medical doctor—preferably an ear specialist.

TRI-CAPTAINS: Liesel Culver, Margie Rawson and Kevin Colombo, left to right, lived up to their titles as Beach swim team tri-captains this week, as the team downed Milan, 84-72. Culver took a first in the 200-yard free and the 100-yard free, Colombo recorded a personal best time, and Rawson not only broke the Beach 100-yard backstroke record, but also bested the Chelsea High school record in the same event. Dave Johnson coaches the team.

CRATES OF WINE, the wood burned away, form a lone, naked stack at Gordon's Distributors in Dexter, following a conflagration there Sunday morning. The State Liquor Commission is expected to order the destruction of the remaining wine, believed to have been contaminated by the heat. Chelsea firefighters assisted in battling the blaze.

GED Preparation Classes Slated

Are you too busy to commit the time necessary to come back to school and complete your high school education? Director of Community Education Jaclynn Rogers reminds residents that GED (General Educational Development) test preparation classes are available through the Chelsea School District for those who would like to advance their education in a shorter period of time.

The GED is a high school equivalency test that may be taken by anyone over the age of 18 without a high school diploma. In many cases, employers will accept this test as being equivalent to holding a diploma. Rogers states that although a GED is not a diploma, it does test skills equivalent to those earned in a secondary school.

The GED preparation class meets Monday and Wednesday evenings for 17 weeks, three hours each session. The class prepares adults for taking the test.

Unique to the Chelsea preparation course is the division of the class into five segments in which only one subject area is addressed at a time. Following intensive study in a subject, the group travels to the Ann Arbor testing center to take that portion of the exam.

Another important feature of the class is that individual test scores generate credit toward earning the actual high school diploma.

Anyone interested in registering for the class should make an appointment at the Community Education Office, 475-9830. Classes begin Monday, Feb. 4.

If you have difficulty hearing when your back is turned to a speaker you may be exhibiting one of the signs of possible hearing loss, warn hearing specialists.

Family Estate Planning Course Offered at WCC

For eight Saturday mornings beginning Feb. 2, Washtenaw Community College will offer a special workshop in family estate planning.

Phil Zepeda, instructor for the class, explains that the course will present an overview of estate planning designed to give the participants in the class a basic understanding of forming family estate plans. He will illustrate creative opportunities in such planning. Participants will plan basic areas of creation, accumulation, utilization and distribution of estate.

The class meets from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Those enrolled may bring a brown bag lunch, if they wish. The class will meet in Room 3909 of the College's Student Center Building at 4800 E. Huron River Dr. Advanced registration is requested by phoning WCC staff at (313) 482-2230. A $30 fee will be charged. As with all programs offered by the College, in-district senior citizens are invited to participate at no charge.

Cub Scouts Receive Awards

Cub Scout Pack No. 435's January Pack Meeting was an exciting event for all attending. The business portion of the meeting began with the presentation of awards:

Brian Feldman received his Wolf Badge, a Gold and a Silver arrow award; Michael Thompson received his Bear Badge; Joe Eassa won his Webelos Badge and Scout award; Rick Neithammer received his Scout and Forester awards; and John Stephenson and Phil Patterson each received Scout awards.

Upcoming activities include the Planning Session for parents on Feb. 6 in the North school cafeteria at 7 p.m., and the Blue and Gold Banquet, Feb. 10 at 1 p.m. in the same location.

This fun-filled family afternoon will also include surprise entertainment to accompany the superb menu. On Feb. 17 a tobogganing party is scheduled at the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club for cubs and their families.

The pack meeting concluded with the annual double-elimination competition known as the Pinewood Derby. Each Cub Scout builds and decorates his own miniature racing car from a block of wood, four wheels and axles. The originality of all entries enhanced the excitement as cars were pitted against each other two by two.

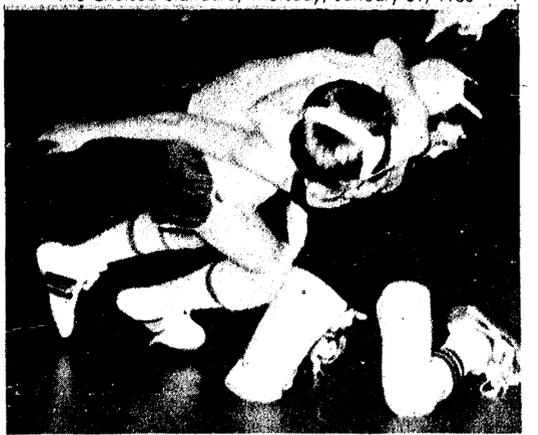

While all competitors received a participants ribbon, the following honors were issued: Wolf Den Competition—second runner-up, Michael Thompson; first runner-up, Doug Neal; and champion, Brian Feldman.

Bear Den competition—second runner-up, Todd Thurkow; first runner-up, Robert Thoren; and champion, Scott Lindsay.

Webelos Den competition—second runner-up, Phil Patterson; first runner-up, Joe Eassa; and champion Rick Neithammer.

In pack competition—third runner-up, Robert Thoren; second runner-up, Rick Neithammer; first runner-up, Brian Feldman; and Pack 435 grand champion, Scott Lindsay.

BULLPUP WRESTLERS Ed Esch and John Wilson brush up on their form in preparation for yet another Beach Middle school wrestling meet. Both Esch and Wilson won matches last week against competition from Stockbridge. Beach's team is 3-2 this season.

Beach Wrestlers Post 3-2 Record

With three consecutive victories over Tecumseh, Stockbridge and Saline, the Beach Middle school wrestlers have a record of three wins and two losses on the season.

Wednesday, Jan. 16, the Bullpups defeated Tecumseh, 52-32. Winners for Beach by referees' decisions were Mark Rosentreter, Scott Cooper, Kurt Eisenbeiser and Ed Mullaly. Winning for Chelsea by fall were David Tobias, Jeff Morgan, Bob Murphy, Scott Hass and Blake Alder.

David Gipson won by forfeit and Dan Fenton's match ended in a 4-4 draw.

Jan. 23, Chelsea managed to defeat a surprisingly good Stockbridge team.

"For a first year program Stockbridge is very solid," remarked Coach Bill Westcott. "I was proud of our kids being able to beat them."

Winners for Chelsea were Rosentreter, Eisenbeiser, Ed Esch, Cooper, Eric Stofflet, Murphy, Hass and Gipson. Doing a fine job for the Bullpups were David Tobias, Pat Rowe, Tom Sturgeon, Will Van Reesma, John Wilson, Pat Marentette, Chad Hodge and Rick Cook.

"I was very impressed by our young kids in the exhibition matches," said Coach Westcott.

After downing Tecumseh and Stockbridge, the Beach crew downed Saline, 52-27.

Jeff Morgan was out of the lineup because of an injury and was replaced at 103 pounds by John Wilson. John responded by pinning his man in the first period.

Other winners by pin were Rosentreter, Cooper, Fenton, Tim Osentoski and Blake Alder. Picking up the only decision for Chelsea was Marentette.

Also winning by pins for Chelsea in exhibitions were Rick Mindikowski, David Tobias and Kurt Eisenbeiser.

Beach's next home meet will be against Saline Thursday, Feb. 14.

Job, Vocational Training Classes For 'Displaced Homemakers'

A 12-week project for "displaced homemakers," designed to lead participants directly into an appropriate job or vocational training program, will be launched on Feb. 18 by Soundings, an Ann Arbor center for women in middle years, in co-operation with Washtenaw Community College.

The program is for Washtenaw county women who have been primarily homemakers for a substantial number of years but have experienced a sudden loss of income through divorce, widowhood or illness of a family wage earner, and must get a job to support themselves.

Other eligibility requirements for admission to the project are that the women be unemployed, over 40 years of age or with no children under 16 living at home, and be able to commit themselves to the schedule of the program from Feb. 18 through May 8.

During these weeks, the primary group activities will be held in the lounge of the Adult Resources Center, Washtenaw Community College on Monday and Thursday afternoons from 1:30 to 3:30. The time and place for individual counseling sessions and other activities will be arranged with the participants.

The first six weeks of the program will consist of a series of group learning workshops aimed at increasing the women's confidence in their ability to get a job and at increasing their skills in the techniques for finding jobs. Along with the group learning, every participant will receive individual counseling to determine vocational interests and aptitudes and to develop occupational goals, as well as any personal counseling needed for easing stress and increasing employability.

The final segment of the program will offer specific, guided assistance in the job search, individually and in groups, for participants who must find immediate employment.

At the same time, those women who need to enter a vocational training program will be assisted by the staff to enroll in a suitable course of training and to apply for financial aid.

The entire program is free to eligible women except for a $10 registration fee. Funds for the pilot project have been provided by the Power Foundation and the Ann Arbor Area Foundation.

Interested women who feel that they meet the basic eligibility requirements for the project should call Gerry Brown or Esther Donahue at 665-2606 to learn more about the program and arrange an interview at the Cleary College office of Soundings.

Jaycee Auxiliary Meets in Hospital Surgical Lounge

Regular monthly meeting of the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary was held in an unusual location. The organization's treasurer is in Chelsea Hospital for a six-week stay, and so the members gathered in the hospital's surgical lounge for the January meeting.

Jaycettes came from Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti, bringing gifts to the patient, Kathy Sprawka, as well as presenting Chelsea with the Travel Trophy for the month of December.

Topics of discussion were the Special Olympics bowling day March 7, and the track and field meet coming in April. Nancy Cooper is looking for volunteers. Also discussed were Sister Chapter, the state meeting in February, Cystic Fibrosis and Reyes Syndrome awareness projects, Teacher Appreciation and cribbage tournament.

President Carol Smith experienced a death in her family this week, and Vice-President Denise Martell presided over the meeting in her absence.

Last week, four members of the group attended the January executive board meeting in Midland. The theme was "Away From It All," and Denise Martell, Arlene Samek, Carol Smith and Alberta Colbrey attended the activities.

Several workshops were held, one of which informed them of a halfway house for women who feel trapped by their lifestyle and need a place to think things out. They also learned disco dances and enjoyed the hotel swimming pool.

Awards for December went to Chris Wagner, girl of the month, and Kathy Sprawka, 90-day wonder. The 90-day wonder award can only be received once in a year. The recipient must have the most active hours for three months consecutively. The first quarter award went to Denise Martell and the second quarter to Nan Rowe. The December award of goofs went to Sandy Meyer.

Next month's meeting will be held at the home of Sandy Meyer and will feature a Dime-a-Scoop Dinner. Co-hostess will be Alberta Colbrey.

TREMENDOUS HEAT generated by a Sunday morning blaze on Grand St. in Dexter blew out windows along the east wall of a building occupied by Gordon's Distributors, Pilot Plastics and Classic Container Corp. and splattered tar over the foundation and ground from the melted roof. Chelsea firefighter Thomas McGee, who suffered a sprained ankle, was treated and released at a local hospital.

Sunday Fire Destroys 3 Dexter Businesses

Firefighters from six departments expended a total of one million gallons of water bringing under control the two biggest fires in Dexter history Thursday, Jan. 24 and Sunday, Jan. 27.

Answering an alarm relayed by the Ann Arbor Fire Department at 7:18 a.m., the Dexter force encountered flames leaping from the building housing Industrial Tectonics and the Gelman Instrument Corp. at 3715 Jackson Rd. Thursday. A mile of hose was laid between Mercywood Hospital and the scene of the inferno, as firefighters from Ann Arbor and Pittsfield township assisted Dexter.

The fire, which originated in the Industrial Tectonics section, occupied by Arcadium and the Sincor Corp.—the firm's subsidiaries—claimed an estimated $500,000, the lion's share of which was absorbed by Gelman, whose research records, insured for $150,000, were consumed at an estimated cost of $300,000. Firefighters were able to save most of the Industrial Tectonics office space at the cost of $30,000 in damages to its laboratory.

Nine pieces of equipment and approximately 50 firefighters were put to work containing the blaze. Although its cause is yet to be determined, Fire Marshal Hugh Mosher and Dexter Fire Chief Mike Collins have ruled out arson and are investigating the possibility of an electrical malfunction.

The building, which once housed the original Weber's Restaurant, is owned by Herman Weber, and has undergone interior modifications many times. "The fire had a really good head start when we got there," said Chief Collins. "There were many false ceilings from all the remodeling and the flames just traveled throughout the interior ceiling area."

Near-zero temperatures caused moderate freezing problems throughout the seven-hour battle, but there were no injuries.

The single greatest fire in the history of the village erupted at 7931 Grand St. early Sunday, in the building occupied by Gordon's Wine Distributors, Pilot Plastics, and the Classic Container Corp. Dexter firemen answered the alarm at 3:35 a.m. and were soon joined by units from Pinckney, Chelsea, Saline, Ann Arbor and Pittsfield townships, who threw 75 firefighters, 11 engine companies, two tankers, two rescue squads, one aerial tower, and one utility vehicle into the fray.

"There were heavy flames shooting out of the east windows when we got there," reported Chief Collins. "We think they had gone through the roof in that portion, which was vacant, at that time." Many additions made on the building in recent years left firefighters with the problem of battling a blaze that was catapulting through several layers of windows. In addition, highly inflammable polyethylene and polystyrene materials stored in the Pilot Plastics section were pouring out noxious smoke which in Collins' opinion contributed to the fire's force.

Personnel spent two hours bringing the flames under control as they sought to keep them from the Classic Container section of the building. "It was kind of 'cut it off at the pass,'" said Collins. "We succeeded, and their loss, I assume, will be minimal. Their problem now is the power cut-off, and I imagine they're trying to find some way to get power in there." Representatives from Detroit Edison and Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. were summoned to the scene early to shut down their respective lines in the interests of safety.

Again, freezing temperatures hindered the firefighters' efforts. One hose left unattended was later found to be frozen solid three feet back from the nozzle. Said Collins: "We try to maintain dry hose on our trucks, but most of our hoses were still wet from the Gelman fire. We've had to send 1,800 feet of hose to Northfield for drying in their heated tower."

Pilot Plastics was the big loser, with 13,770 square feet gobbled up by flames at an estimated cost of $100,000-$150,000, including its entire stock, which was at full capacity in anticipation of spring orders. Gordon's suffered a stock loss of $350,000, and representatives of the State Liquor Commission were still on the scene this week to prevent the removal by unauthorized parties of cased liquor earmarked for destruction because of contamination. Building loss was estimated at $500,000. The structure belongs to the DJK Company.

"We're looking at a loss of $2,000,000 from these two fires alone," Collins pointed out. That sum is nearly 10 times the total fire loss sustained in the area during 1979.

Residents of the village were awakened by exploding chemicals and bottled liquor, which sent up great rolling balls of fire and illuminated the early-morning sky. "I don't know what it was that awakened me," reported Frank Ames of 3134 Hudson St. "It might have been the sound of falling steel. Then I heard explosions, one after another. I called up three of my neighbors to warn them; I don't know why, but it never occurred to me to call the fire department. Fortunately, they arrived on the scene soon after." Said Mrs. James S. Schlegel of 3438 Pineview Dr., "I looked out my window and the entire sky was bright red."

One firefighter, Thomas McGee of the Chelsea department, sustained an injured ankle, was hospitalized and released later Sunday morning. An ambulance from Fontana-Taylor was on the scene throughout the emergency. Water was secured from hydrants and by means of 1,300 feet of hose laid to the nearby Mill Pond.

Dexter firefighters returned to the station at 10:30 a.m., after which Chief Collins and Fire Marshal Mosher began probing for the cause of the fire, which remains undetermined.

"We're looking at four possibilities," explained Collins. "One: Employees were using cutting torches in the area nine or 10 hours before the fire started; Two: Someone reported smelling gas in the area earlier; Three: They were installing and working on gas unit heaters in that part of the building that afternoon; Four: Maybe the heat compromised the building structure, it sagged, and a gas pipe cracked. It would be pure speculation beyond my knowledge to say anything more." He added that arson is not suspected.

The twin holocausts capped a hectic week for the Dexter Fire Department, highlighted by the total loss Wednesday, Jan. 23, of a garage belonging to Ed Hartman at 11115 Quigley, in which, along with stored household goods, a 1979 Plymouth Volare station wagon, a 1972 Oldsmobile, and a 1975 Ford four-wheel-drive pick-up were burned at an estimated loss of $15,000. The alarm was turned in at 2:24 a.m.

"I'm extremely happy with the co-operation of every fire department in the fires on Jackson and Grand," commented Collins. "I think these guys did a hell of a job."

Gummy Preservation

The year 1889 was heralded with a truly unusual invention. Patent No. 395,515, issued Jan. 1 of that year, was for a chewing gum locket. Rather than sticking a used piece of gum behind the ear or under the seat, the gum chewer carefully sealed the gum in the locket until it was needed again. While the gum locket is not in existence anymore, a number of more practical inventions may be seen in the eight-acre Hall of Technology in Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

Cager of the Week

KARL ALBRECHT, playing gamely after a recent knee injury, has hustled his way to Cager of the Week honors. A senior playing his first year on varsity, Albrecht is considered Chelsea's "sixth starter." Coach Robin Raymond says Albrecht's strong point is his offensive power inside. "He powers the ball to the basket real well," said Raymond. "The injury slowed him, but he improves every day." Albrecht will have to be 100% at tournament time if Chelsea is to do well, Raymond stressed. Playing both forward and center, Karl has averaged 7.8 points and 6.6 rebounds per games.

Passage West by Dallas Miller. Two Irish immigrants who, through widely different means, fight their way to the top of the new worlds they seek to conquer.

man ship Cecile steams into the bay to the astonishment of the sleepy resort town.

Good Things Growing in Michigan

Even though popcorn was served at the first American thanksgiving, the popcorn business started "popping" when moviegoers discovered popcorn and movies were a great combination. Today, popcorn is sold in 99 percent of all movie theaters.
About 85 percent of all popcorn is consumed at home, and is a favorite snack for dieters. Two cups of popcorn contain only 110 calories!
Americans consume approximately 400 million pounds of popcorn each year, with more than 7.2 million pounds produced in Michigan, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Our state is ninth in the country in popcorn production.
Here are some tips for popcorn connoisseurs on keeping and fixing this snack treat:
Store kernels in tightly sealed jars, preferably in the refrigerator. Inside each kernel of popcorn is a tiny measure of moisture. When the temperature is just right, this droplet turns to steam, builds up and explodes 30 to 40 times its original size. Lack of moisture in a kernel can keep it from popping. If this happens, sprinkle on one tablespoon of water for each quart jar of popcorn, tighten the cap and shake it. Then let it stand for a few hours.
For a different snack, try seasoned popcorn. Combine one

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
About a month ago you featured an article by Jim Mshar, telling of his family's experience when a defective furnace exposed his family and parents to carbon monoxide poisoning and resulted in the death of his father, Alex Mshar (my brother-in-law).

After that tragedy I intended to examine my furnace to see if it was in good condition. Like so many other things "I just never got around to it."

Then on Sunday (Jan 20th) I woke up with a headache, which is very unusual for me. On Monday morning I also had a headache and my stomach felt upset. My daughter Jane complained of similar symptoms. After school that day my son also had an upset stomach.

Later in the evening the similarity of our complaints to those of the Mshar family occurred to me. After much hesitation I called the gas company and they sent out a technician. It didn't take him long to discover a six-inch long triangular shaped crack in the side of our furnace.

We now have a new furnace and are feeling fine, but I wonder how many other furnaces in this area are in the condition that ours was.

I urge you to check yours now. Do not put it off as I did. Also, be on the alert for the symptoms—headache and upset stomach. We were warned by the previous tragedy in our family. Please be on the alert to protect your family.

Clarence W. Wood.

To the Editor:

This letter is to give the Willow Run side of the Willow Run-Chelsea Boys swim meet. The results given to our coach showed Chelsea winning 81-66, not 125-41 as reported in last week's Chelsea Standard.

First off, the Willow Run swim team, a seventh place finisher in last year's state Class B meet, was hit hard by graduation and boys who didn't come out. This left the new coach with one senior, two sophomores and eight freshmen. Of these 11 swimmers, only six had any experience.

So he would not run the score up on Willow Run, Chelsea Coach Larry Reed said he was swimming some of his better swimmers exhibition. By doing this, they do not count in the scoring on our results and kept the score close—not a runaway as reported in your paper.

From a parent who has watched Willow Run swimming over five years and who was at the meet.

John Dudley.

(Editor's Note: Assistant Swimming Coach Dave Johnson agrees that a number of Chelsea's swimmers were competing exhibition in the Willow Run meet. He adds, however, that Coach Larry Reed makes a point of informing opposing coaches that he is going to report how well the team actually performed in the Chelsea newspaper. Reed would not, Johnson said, report this score to the Ann Arbor News, but feels that the Chelsea community has a right to know how well their team performed.)

Dear Editor:

I am writing to inform concerned citizens of the Chelsea area of the progress being made regarding the security at Cassidy Lake Technical School. Many weeks have passed since the emotional meeting at Lyndon Town Hall. Some of you may think that the issue has been swept under the rug and forgotten. Such is not the case. Some steps have been taken to tighten security at Cassidy Lake, and to provide ongoing communication with area residents.

According to Superintendent Weinburg, the school has received approval to hire seven additional security officers. Qualified applicants are now being interviewed. Communications equipment has been ordered that will enable security officers to be in radio contact with each other and with the school's administration building at all times. Thus it should be possible to monitor the activity of the inmates much more effectively. Whether these measures will be adequate to solve the escape problem remains to be seen. It is encouraging to see that some positive corrective measures are being taken.

In addition, a liaison committee of corrections department administrators and community citizens is being formed. The committee will monitor the progress being made regarding the escape problem and will provide accurate information on the matter to area residents through the local news media.

Citizen representation on the committee will include a township official and at least one citizen at large from each township, and representatives from the village of Chelsea. State Representative Mary Keith Ballantine, who is on the corrections committee in the legislature, will also be active.

Township Supervisor Don Schoenberg will represent Sylvan township, and I have been nominated by the township board as a representative at large. Any Sylvan township residents wanting further input or information on the matter may call Don Schoenberg at 475-7273 or me at 475-2792.

Tom Hodgson.

Dear Editor:

I would appreciate it if you would publish the following letter in the "Letters to the Editor" column.

On Jan. 24, I received an anonymous letter from someone identified only as "Angry Neighbor." The complaint was about my dog.

I am disappointed to know that I have a neighbor who would resort to this type of communication. We could have discussed the matter in a friendly way and come to an understanding.

This anonymous letter was not only inconsiderate of me but also of other neighbors I have met who are very kind. I am sure they do not appreciate being implicated by this "Angry Neighbor" letter.

Lois Garman.

In the Tecumseh game, said Coach Jon Schaffner, the Bulldogs didn't play badly, but were outscored in foul-shooting. Chelsea made just six of 17 free throws, while the opposition sank 14 of 32.

Leading scorers in the contest were John Welton with 16 points, followed by Darrow Keezer with 9; Mike Bareis, 6; Toby Boyd, 4; Bob Trevino, 3; and Jeff Lantis, Todd Sprague and Jeff Shaw with 2 each.

Keezer grabbed 23 rebounds in the contest, recorded three steals and blocked four shots. Shaw had seven rebounds, Welton had five rebounds and three steals and Bareis recorded four assists.

Against Western, the Bulldogs came up on the losing end of a heartbreaker. Chelsea never trailed in the game until the final five seconds, when they lost it.

Free throws were again a factor, as Western made eight in the final quarter to only four by Chelsea. The Bulldogs were up by 13 points early in the fourth period, but couldn't hold for the win.

Chelsea's two best rebounders, Keezer and Boyd, fouled out, weakening the Chelsea attack. Top scorers were Shaw, 9; Sprague, 8; Keezer, 7; Boyd, 6; Trevino, 6; Welton, 5; Bareis, 4; Daren Pierson, 2.

Band Prepares Mexican Fiesta Dinner Dance

As time draws nearer to the Mexican Fiesta Dinner Dance Feb. 9, the dinner-dance committee chairmen are busily getting things underway. Organization is the key word in the next two weeks of preparation for the evening.

Committees specializing in details such as decorations are now gathering articles of ornate Mexican tapestry from local residents to be displayed at the dinner. Handmade pinatas and table settings are also being constructed in preparation for the event.

Other committees, such as publicity and set-up, are organizing band members to do everything from making posters to washing dishes, and from contacting radio stations and newspapers to counting plates.

The food committee has ordered large quantities of special food and the Jazz Band is spending countless hours preparing music for dancing.

Those band members acting as waiters and waitresses are even planning a practice run-through of the proper dinner etiquette procedures.

All the committees and their chairmen are hoping to provide the community with a true touch of Mexicanism. A ticket to the dinner will help send the band to Mexico City this May.

Tickets may be purchased at Chelsea Pharmacy now through Feb. 8 at a cost of $25 per couple and $15 per single.

Family Practice Program Started

With the arrival of five additional physicians, the University of Michigan Family Practice Center at Chelsea Medical Center has fully launched its program of furnishing medical care to area residents while also training physicians in the specialty of family practice.

"We have begun a new medical program here at Chelsea and have been steadily adding staff since the winter of 1978," noted Dr. Harry Schneider, center director.

New arrivals at the center, (the former Chelsea Medical Clinic) include Dr. Warren Garr, a recent graduate of a New York training program at the Charles S. Wilson Memorial Hospital in Johnson City. Dr. Garr will be a full-time staff physician.

The other four — Drs. Scott Frank, Patrick Kearney, John O'Brien and Fred Van Alstine — are graduates of the U-M Medical School and, as family practice residents, will spend the next three years working at both University Hospital in Ann Arbor and at the center. A resident is a physician serving a period of advanced training in a medical specialty.

Working closely with certified family practitioners, the residents will be part of a team concept of medical care used at the center. In addition to the skills of an MD, this approach applies the skills of a nurse, patient co-ordinator, social worker, nutritionist, psychologist and counselor.

Patients will be seen by members of the same team each visit, thereby assuring both comprehensive and continuous care even though residents may complete their training and depart.

"With additional staff, the Family Practice Center can accept more patients," Dr. Schneider noted, "either during normal office hours or through the on-call physician available nights and week-ends at 475-1321."

The center offers personalized, continuing care to patients of both sexes and all ages. "The enrollment of entire families is especially desirable because many problems are better understood when viewed in the context of the family environment," Dr. Schneider added.

Pierce Named Best Freshman Legislator

Senator Edward C. Pierce (D-Ann Arbor) was selected "Best Freshman Legislator" in a Detroit News survey published in The News on Sunday, Jan. 20.

Pierce also ranked 9th in the Top 10 Best Legislators List. He was the only freshman legislator to make the Top 10 Best List.

According to one staffer who responded to the survey, Pierce was "a breath of fresh air, an excellent spokesman for the unorganized citizens of Michigan—the poor, children and the unemployed."

Another response was, "he's not afraid to ask tough questions and demand answers—even if it means challenging someone else's scared cow."

A lobbyist said, "Pierce is a thoughtful voter who doesn't have a predetermined bias on any issue."

Questions on job performance were sent by The News to all state lawmakers, lobbyists and legislative staffers. A total of 294 questionnaires, or 26.1 percent were returned.

A record three out of every five husband-wife families reported in March 1979 that at least two family members were earners during the previous year, according to the U. S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS); since 1970, the number of multi-earner families has increased by more than 3 million, reaching 28.4 million in March 1979.

Q. I have always been very fond of Kentucky Fried Chicken so about five years ago I bought some shares in Heublein, Inc., which had purchased the Colonel's operation. It hasn't been a great investment. I paid about $30 a share and while it has been above $50 several times its currently just about what I paid for it. I will say my dividend has increased and is up about 50%. Do you think I should continue to own this company?

A. After hitting a high fiscal '76, the company ran into some earnings problems and it looks like fiscal '80 will be the first year since then that earnings will return to and probably surpass those of '76.

It appears now that the company has overcome the problems that developed and is moving ahead. A lot of the problem was in the Kentucky Fried Chicken division, but in fiscal '79 average sales of the 743 company owned stores were up 14% per unit. Only 6% of the increase was due to higher prices. The company's 3,500 franchised stores didn't do quite as well, but did show an advance.

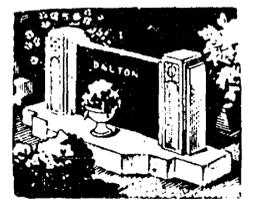

The company has two other divisions: Beverage Operations and International Operations. The company is in an area here where growth has been greatest. While the compound growth rate in the sales of all spirits for the past five years has been under 2%, Heublein's sales have grown at three times that rate. In five years it has moved from number five to number two.

The company combines both food and beverage sales in its overseas operations. Kentucky Fried Chicken sales have been very strong in Japan, Australia and the United Kingdom. Beverage sales have also been good. Sales increases overseas have been about 3 times the 5-6% increase in the U. S. Last year 19% of Heublein's sales and 17% of profits came from its International division.

It seems from the figures that the company is now growing nicely with no apparent major problem. It would appear it should be a better holding in the next five years than it was in the past.

Washtenaw Area Welfare Fraud Hotline Started

A hotline to help the public report welfare fraud is being piloted in Washtenaw county with an eye towards state-wide expansion.

The hotline number (1-800-462-2213) is similar to a fraud reporting number now in operation in Wayne county (313-256-3464). The 24-hour Washtenaw number, however, records callers messages after playing a pre-recorded message and is toll-free.

The Wayne number is manned by an investigator from Social Services' Office of Inspector General and is in operation Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The pilot project is hoped to save manpower costs and encourage the public to report fraud.

Callers are urged to have a concise statement of the complaint prepared before calling, including the name, address and city of the person allegedly committing the fraud.

The hotline was proposed by Washtenaw County Prosecutor William Delhey and funded by Social Services.

Implementation of the hotline coincides with the issuance of warrants for the arrest of 16 persons on welfare fraud charges last week.

The warrants were the result of a nine-month investigation in Washtenaw county by the prosecutor's office and the Office of Inspector General.

"Essentially the same thing is going on across the state," according to Ed Roth of the Inspector General's office.

Roth said investigations by the Inspector General resulted in over 1,000 convictions and/or repayments state-wide last year.

How to cope with the high cost of heating:

HANDLE WITH KERO-SUN!

If you're frustrated by the high cost of heating, a Kero-Sun portable kerosene heater gives you low cost heat for only pennies an hour. Heats with almost 100% efficiency for 30 hours on less than 2 gallons of clean-burning, safe kerosene. Every Kero-Sun is thoroughly safety-tested. Each has a battery-powered igniter, so you need no matches to light it and each has an automatic shut-off — in case of tip-over. There's no smoke, no odor, and you need no chimney installation. This may be the winter when a Kero-Sun portable heater is your only way to handle the high cost of heating.

Factory representative will be in our store to show and demonstrate the complete KERO-SUN line Saturday, Feb. 2, from 9 to 5.
