Symphony Band Goes To Mexico Next Week

Chelsea's Symphony Band, while in Mexico, will march in the Children's Day Parade on May 4, according to a letter received by Band Director Steve Bergmann from the Invitational Mexican Band Festival.

According to the letter, the band will march for Mrs. Lopez Portillo, the Mexican President's wife, in the park. The letter goes on to say that this parade is the number one parade of the year and will be viewed by more than one million people.

In addition the parade will be televised all over Mexico.

It should be, as the letter says, "an experience the students will never forget."

The band will leave for Mexico Thursday, May 1 and return May 5.

Well wishers will have to be up early, as the band plans to leave Chelsea High for Metro Airport at about 5 a.m.

Kindergarten Round-Up Set May 8

Registration for all pupils in the Chelsea School District who will enter school for the first time in September 1980 is scheduled for Thursday, May 8 in the South school cafeteria.

Both rural and town parents are asked to come from 6:30 to 8 p.m., at which time there will be a short period of comments from the kindergarten teacher, principal, bus supervisor and school nurse.

To be eligible for kindergarten this year, children must be five years old on or before Dec. 1, 1980. Parents should bring a legal birth certificate to the round-up. Health forms will be issued at this time.

It is essential that all children be enrolled at this time to help kindergarten planning. Call the elementary school at 475-9131, ext. 60 or 65, if unable to attend the regular May 8 session.

WHITE CANE WEEK: Chelsea Lions Herb Pearson, left, and Chuck Murphy check over the roster of Chelsea Lions Club members who will be on the streets Friday and Saturday, April 25 and 26, collecting funds for the annual Lions White Cane Week. Lions will be asking for donations to support sight conservation and work for the blind. They will be located at Chelsea State Bank, Polly's Market, Rick's Market and Chelsea Pharmacy.

INCONVENIENT, YES! But also a welcome sight, as workers once and for all (hopefully) solve the problem of bumps and potholes at the Main St. railroad crossing. A rubber grating will be laid to cushion cars crossing the tracks and new lights and a pedestrian sidewalk will complete the federally-funded renovations.

AFTER MANY FRUSTRATING YEARS:

Railroad Crossing Finally Being Rebuilt Correctly

What is messy, unsightly, inconvenient and a long-awaited, long-looked-for blessing for Chelseaites?

If you ever have occasion to drive down Main St., you know in an instant that the answer is the construction being undertaken on the Main St. railroad crossing by the State Highway Commission.

After years of silently or not-so-silently cursing the potholes, bumps and overtaxed shock absorbers, Chelseaites will soon be gliding smoothly over the tracks on a bed of rubber grating.

In addition to the improvements on the road bed, a larger set of warning lights and also a vastly-improved pedestrian crosswalk will be installed.

Not a cent of village funds is being used for the renovation, which was initiated by local resident V. E. Clement, who was outraged at the condition in which the road was left after the last Conrail repairs.

Clement approached Village Administrator Fritz Weber, who put in a request to have the road inspected by the Michigan Highway Department. Upon inspection, the department felt that major repairs were indeed in order, and made a decision to go ahead with the improvements.

Federal funds are covering 90 percent of the cost of the renovation, with 10 percent of the funds coming from the State of Michigan, according to a spokesman at the Michigan State Highway Department in Jackson.

Estimated cost of installing the rubberized railroad crossing and new lights is $230,540 with $207,486 scheduled to come from federal money and $23,054 from state money.

Conrail is not covering the cost of any of the improvements but has reached an agreement to bear 100 percent of the cost of crossing maintenance and operation and maintenance of the crossing lights once the installation of the devices is completed.

The lights are estimated to cost $87,904, with the rubberized crossing set to run $142,636.

Even though things seem to be running smoothly with the renovations and construction, Clement is keeping an eye on the proceedings. "I guarantee that I'll stick with this until it's finished," he vowed, repeating his philosophy, "spend the money right the first time."

Clement says he is an old hand at pushing for railroad improvements, having worked at a similar problem in Northville, where he made his home until

Immunization Clinic Slated Next Wednesday

An immunization clinic will be held Wednesday, April 30, for Chelsea school students. The clinic is a co-operative effort of the Chelsea schools and the Washtenaw County Health Department and will enable more students to become properly immunized.

Immunization will be done from 9 a.m. to 12 noon in the high school science building and from 1 to 3 p.m. in the large group instruction room at Beach Middle school.

two years ago. He was instrumental in having changes made at a B&O crossing near Northville and Seven Mile Rds. there.

According to Clement, who visits the site daily, total construction time at the crossing, given good weather, should be about 30 days.

Girls Track Team Wins Chelsea Relays

The motto of the girls track team this year is "We can do it," and Saturday they did it in a big way, winning the Chelsea Relays.

It was the best finish in the relays for the Bulldogs since the 1976 team was second and the first team title of any kind since the 1975 team won the initial SEC meet.

This was the closest meet in the five-year history of the Chelsea Relays, as only four points separated the top four teams. The outcome was in doubt until the final relay.

Chelsea had a one-point lead over Carleton Airport after the field events. Mary Boylan and Lorrie Vandegrift won the shot put relay by three feet over second-place Hillsdale. The same pair finished fourth in the discus and Vandegrift teamed up with Tracy Bohlender to get second in the high jump.

Bohlender, Vandegrift, Sue Branham and Marleen Williams opened the running events by edging Dexter to win the shuttle hurdle relay. The two-mile relay of Nancy Heller, Cheryl Harker, Priscilla Drew and Teresa Hoffman rallied for fifth in spite of confusion on one of the baton exchanges, when a runner moved between the incoming and outgoing Bulldogs, making it hard for them to find one another.

Airport took over the lead with a second in the two-mile and a win in the 800 relays. The sprint medley of Bohlender, Heller, Kathy Honbaum and Debbie Honbaum placed second with a school record 1:58.8, putting Chelsea back in the lead. With three events left the Bulldogs realized that they had a chance at the championship.

After Hillsdale and Airport finished first and fourth, respectively, in the distance medley, Chelsea and Airport were tied with 35, and Hillsdale followed behind with 33.

Debbie Honbaum, Hoffman, Heller and Bohlender finished second, less than a step behind Dexter, with a superb effort in the mile relay. The 440 relay of Kathy Honbaum, Williams, Lisa Vandegrift and Debbie Honbaum finished second in the slower heat of that race, leaving the Bulldogs holding their breath, hoping that their time would place or that Airport would be no better than third.

Tecumseh won the race with Hillsdale second and Airport third. Chelsea's time held up for fifth, giving them 44 points and the win in the meet.

Tecumseh's final win boosted them to second with 41, and Hillsdale and Airport were next with 40. Dexter finished fifth with 30 points, followed by Erie-Mason and Lumen Christi with 19, Saline with 12, Monroe St. Mary with 11, New Boston Huron with eight, Hartland with seven and Linden with two.

"We joked Friday about keeping their time would place or that Airport would be no better than third."

Lay-offs Hit Chrysler Workers

Of the 6,900 hourly and salaried personnel laid off by the Chrysler Corp. this week, about 200 are employees of the local Chrysler Proving Grounds on M-52.

The layoffs, part of a corporation-wide program to reduce costs, were announced by Chrysler Tuesday afternoon.

According to B. J. Ludwig, director of the Proving Grounds, about 20 percent of the 1,000 employees there will either be laid off or take early retirement. Layoffs will be effective Friday, April 25 and are across the board reduction, affecting executives, managers, drivers, mechanics, custodians and all employees, Ludwig said Wednesday.

Early retirements will be effective April 30.

Ludwig said that all employees at the proving grounds are salaried, even though a certain number have the United Auto Workers as their bargaining unit.

In addition to receiving regular unemployment benefits, those laid off from the Proving Grounds will be entitled to additional money under the Trade Readjustment Act of 1975, which permits up to $269 per week to employees whose jobs are lost due to foreign imports.

Local Chrysler employees are entitled to these federal funds, and their usual employment compensation, which comes from money paid by the corporation into an unemployment fund.

While Chrysler's announcement was a dramatic one, the Proving Grounds is not the only local business affected by slumping domestic auto sales.

Rockwell-International, which produces only auto parts, has 51 of 156 hourly personnel currently working. The others have been laid off over the past six months. In the same period, Rockwell has gone from 56 to 38 salaried employees.

A Rockwell spokesman said that the Chelsea operation doesn't foresee any immediate relief, and that perhaps things will begin to pick up next summer before the change-over for the 1982 models.

Central Fibre on Main St., which produces wire products for interior trim to the Big Three automakers, has laid off 60 percent of its personnel and is down to one shift. A spokesman there said that the company doesn't expect things to change until perhaps the first quarter of 1981. Significantly, those local operations with minimal ties to the auto industry are experiencing few of the problems faced by the Proving Grounds, Rockwell and Central Fibre.

Dana Corp., which deals mostly with truck parts, is presently working at full strength. Based on current activity at Dana, it appears that no lay-offs are imminent.

Federal Screw Works and Fortune Industries, which likewise are not connected with the auto manufacturers, are experiencing relatively good times. Federal Screw is working two shifts and has five hourly workers on lay-off status. Fortune Industries reports being "down" as far as employees go, but the reduced numbers are due to not replacing workers who leave rather than actual layoffs.

In the wake of yesterday's announcement, Chrysler Corp. and B. J. Ludwig stressed that the cut-backs will not affect the 1981 model year and that all new models will come out on time.

Food Stamp Program Feeling Federal Budget Pinch
 Food stamp recipients in Michigan are threatened with losing that assistance if Congress does not act by May 15 to preserve the program.
 The entire national food stamp program—serving some 800,000 people in Michigan and 27 million people nationally—will be suspended June 1 if Congress does not appropriate more money for the programs.
 The cutoff could last for four months, until the end of the federal fiscal year in October.
 Michigan Department of Social Services Director John Dempsey said state-residents could lose $25 million a month in benefits if the Congress does not act.
 Dempsey said should the federal program be suspended, the state Department of Social Services will seek supplemental funding from the legislature to provide benefits to qualifying persons. He added, however, he does not expect enough state money to be available to make up the losses.
 The state was first warned in February that the food stamp program would reach its funding limits and be cut off in June. Dempsey said Congress would probably not act in time to continue the program as of mid-May.
 To prevent the program from being suspended, Congress must first eliminate the legal spending ceiling on the food stamp program, then pass new budget resolution allowing enough money to be spent to maintain the program for the rest of the fiscal year, then appropriate the supplemental funding and do it all by May 15.
 "This is unconscionable, but it probably will happen," Dempsey said in referring to the cutoff of funds.

Government Loan Program Proposed
 A new local government emergency assistance program, providing loans to local units of government, has been proposed by Governor William G. Milliken.
 The first focus of the program will be to help Hamtramck deal with financial problems related to the shutdown of Chrysler's Dodge Main plant.

 By law, the program must be suspended on June 1 if Congress fails to act by May 15.
 Dempsey reported legislation authorizing the extension has passed the U. S. Senate and cleared a U. S. House committee, but is currently tied up on the House floor.
 Dempsey said loss of the food stamp program will mean a major hardship on the 800,000 Michigan residents receiving the aid. He noted more than 32 percent of food stamp recipients get no other aid and will cut into costs of recipients of aid to dependent children and general assistance.
 The state's current social services budget includes $11 million for emergency aid which is already appropriated. The department has asked for one supplemental appropriation and will have to ask for another should the food stamp program stop.
 Dempsey said it could take $5 million a week to make up the food stamp losses.
 The social services director said Congress has to take the blame for program's possible suspension.
 In 1977, Congress expanded benefits, presuming inflation would stay low and there would be no large increase in recipients. Congress however, placed a spending limit on the program at that time.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
 All the fellers that gather regular around the stove or the drink box, as the season may be, at the country have seen their fourscore and 10, Mister Editor, and ever one is in reasonable good health, give or take such minor matters as bad joints, teeth and eyes that can come on you at any age. Clem Webster said once that all he wanted was to live til' he died, and all the fellers is doing a good job of it. Still, they well know there's more behind than ahead, and they take special interest in news to do with aging.
 So when Zeke Grubb unfolded this clipping at the session Saturday night and commenced this report, they all perked up. Zeke had saw where this California scientist said people have a built-in clock that is bound to call time. The idea of extending a person's lifespan, he said, is not took serious by serious scientists. What we got to do, the feller declared, is do away with ailments that kill us off before the clock strikes midnight. If we can do that, he went on, we can live full and active lives until the instant we drop dead on our 99th birthdays. Zeke said this feller is his kind of scientist, except he'd prefer to git into three figgers before keeling over.
 General speaking, said Bug Hookum, he would side with the idea that our bodies are at their best at 17, our minds peak at 20, and after that we jest git sicker and dumber. Bug allowed that he knows a heap more folks that are falling apart gradual than them that charged full blast into eternity. Bug said he'd have to agree with the scientist at Wake Forest University that said the longer people live the less energy they got, so the less energy society has got because the number of old people in it keeps going up. Life is to be lived in stages, and the trick is to recognize the stages and git the most out of em, was Bug's words.
 Ed Doolittle said he has seen to much research to take any reserch serious. Just like figgers can lie and liers figger, he said, reserchers can serch what they want. Ed said he saw the other day where a University of Virginia sychologist has reserched lying. She reported that she can allus tell if a person is lying, and everybody else can't. She said eye contact is a dead giveaway, but her studies show folks even can tell a lie when they hear one on the telephone. Liers usual hang their heads so you can't see their eyes, she reported, and their voice changes on the phone. She said men and wimmen run about even in being able to catch a lie, but she didn't mention which makes the best liers.
 There's all kind of problems here, declared Ed. Fer instant, you can't test men and wimmen liers together. One's lie may be the other's good excuse. A woman will lie about her age and call it a prayer of thanks fer good health and good looks. A man will lie about how much he won at poker cause he lied about how much he lost, and he knows the honest thing to do is work it out even. But Ed said the big question is whuther the sychologist is flat out lying about what she learned in her reserch. Wimmen are good at that.
 Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Mrs. Michael Bowen

Linda McGuire, Michael Bowen Speak Vows at Methodist Church

Linda McGuire and Michael Bowen spoke wedding vows in the First United Methodist church of Chelsea, Saturday afternoon, April 19, with the Rev. Marvin McCallum officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren McGuire of 416 Garfield are the bride's parents. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Bowen, 6977 Westbourne Dr.

Vocalist at the ceremony was Tonja Williamson, cousin of the bride, who sang "The Wedding Song" and "God Leads Us Along," to piano accompaniment by Rob Schneider, Jr.

The bride was attired in a gown of white chiffonette with Venice lace appliques on the natural waist. Schiffl embroidered lace formed a yoke at the high neckline and a flounce on the chapel train. Crystal pleating enhanced the yoke and the bishop sleeve cuffs. She carried a bouquet of light blue and white silk carnations.

Maid of honor was Wendy Myers of Harbor Springs. Mrs. Michael Bauer, sister of the bride, of W. Middle St., was matron of honor. Both were attired in royal blue gowns of knit chiffon with chantilly lace yokes, fitted natural waists with tie sash, bishop sleeves and flounce at the hemline.

They carried wicker baskets of white silk roses, dark blue bachelor buttons, light blue star flowers and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Kim Hopkins of Stockbridge, Tonja Williamson of Chelsea, cousin of the bride; Cyndi Bowen of Chelsea, sister of the bridegroom; and Lynette Mepians of Dexter. They wore light blue gowns in the style of those of the maid and matron of honor and carried wicker baskets with silk bachelor buttons, light blue star flowers and baby's breath.

Mother of the bride was attired in a floor-length sleeveless gown with a floral print cape. The bridegroom's mother chose a floor-length aqua gown with long sleeves.

Robyn Krichbaum of Chelsea and David Wilson of North Manchester, Ind., both cousins of the bridegroom, acted as flower girl and ringbearer.

Best men were Steve Bowen of Chelsea, brother of the bridegroom, and David Wilson of North Manchester, Ind., the bridegroom's cousin. Ushers were Tony Willan of Ann Arbor, Doug Bowen of Chelsea, the bridegroom's brother; Dave Jaeger of Bay City; and Charlie Sannes of Chelsea. Tony Willan and Doug Bowen lit the altar candles.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the UAW 1284 Hall for some 300 guests. Mrs. James Branham poured punch, Eileen Staphish poured coffee, Jennifer Ringe cut the cake and Sarah Ann Bentley attended the guest book.

The couple is planning a four-day wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania. They will reside on Braeburn Circle in Ann Arbor.

The bride is a 1979 graduate of Chelsea High school and is employed by University Microfilms in Ann Arbor. Her husband is also a Chelsea High school graduate and was a member of the National Honor Society. He attended Lawrence Institute of Technology and is employed by DiClemente Siegel Engineering in Southfield.

May Fellowship Day Slated May 2 at Zion Lutheran Church

Church Women United of Chelsea invites all interested women to join together for a time of fellowship and sharing on Friday, May 2, at Zion Lutheran church. CWU has planned a salad pot-luck luncheon to be followed by a worship service to celebrate their traditional May Fellowship Day.

The luncheon begins at noon and each woman is asked to bring a salad to share and her own table service. Babysitters will be provided. Children will need to bring their own sack lunch, but milk will be provided.

May Fellowship Day was first observed in 1933 in order to bring church women together in their own communities. Today, it is one of three special celebrations sponsored by CWU, the other two being World Community Day and World Day of Prayer.

The purpose of these three celebration days is to become a visible community of faith as women worship ecumenically. Church Women United is open to all church women who wish to express their unity in Jesus Christ through working and worshipping together.

Theme for this year's Fellowship Day is "The Spirit of the Lord is Upon Me," and intends to emphasize the link between spirit and action and the importance of both. Joanne Weber, president of the local CWU unit, will be leading the service. Several women from local churches will be participating and Judy McArthur will provide special music.

7th Grade Volleyball Team Closes Season

The 7th grade girls volleyball team finished a fine season recently with an 8-4 over-all record. The team finished second in the Milan Invitational Tournament.

The season began with a dismal loss to an excellent Saline team, 2-15 and 4-15. Another week of tough practice tuned the team around and had them beating Saline seven days later, 15-4, 2-15, and 15-9.

With the encouragement this sparked in the team and much improved serving skills, the girls went on to win their next five matches, beating Manchester twice, Milan, Dexter and taking a forfeit by Willow Run.

Dexter returned to gain revenge and beat Chelsea in their second meeting. Not to be kept down, however, Chelsea came back to win their last two regular season matches with Lincoln and Milan.

They then traveled to the Milan Invitational, a single elimination tournament. Chelsea came through with a fine win in a close match with Lincoln to get to the finals. Their loss came in the finals against Milan, who won the tournament.

This year's team was composed of players Cathy Basso, Connie Bentley, Sarah Comeau, Melinda Fletcher, Liz Kincer, Julie Koch, Kelly Hawker, Dawn Olson, Mary Ann Richardson, Tammy Scharz, Joann Tobin, Beth Unterbrink and Lisa Van Schoick. Top five scorers on the season were Van Schoick, Unterbrink, Comeau, Kincer and Tobin.

The 7th grade team chose Tammy Scharz as the most improved player, a decision supported by Coach Cheryl Vogel.

8th Grade Volleyball Team Ends 7-5 Season

The 1979-80 girls 8th grade volleyball team, which recently concluded season play, was a large enthusiastic group.

The team took their optimistic enthusiasm to Saline for the first game of the season, only to be defeated with a sound 6-15, 1-15 trouncing by an excellent opponent.

Preparing themselves and getting their confidence back up, the team members set to face Saline seven days later. The work of the week proved itself, as Chelsea turned the tables on Saline, 15-8, 10-15 and 15-3.

The team played many tough matches after a come-from-behind victory over Manchester. That game was followed by a loss to Milan, and then four victories, over Dexter, Willow Run, Manchester and Dexter again. Lincoln and Milan, the final two opponents of the season, defeated Chelsea.

The 8th graders then headed to the Milan Invitational Tournament where they met the fine Lincoln team again. This time Chelsea took control to defeat the Railsplitters and earn their way to the finals, where they were defeated by Milan and finished second over-all. Their over-all season mark was 7-5.

This year's squad was comprised of Connie Bollinger, Julie Dunlap, Laurie Heller, Leslie Koepp, LaVonne Kruse, Bev McLaughlin, Donna Mahoney, Debbe Morris, Brenda Hoelzer, Mary Beth O'Quinn, Karla Peterson, Sue Riemenschneider, Joyce Robards, Jodi Rowe, Mary Smith and Karen Wilson.

Barb Behnke, Patty Barth, Monica Dixon and Cindy Kincaid all played in games for various parts of the season due to injuries and other reasons.

Five top scorers for the season were Dunlap, Peterson, Mahoney, Koepp and O'Quinn. Coach for the season was Cheryl Vogel.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,
As a member of the millage committee, I wish to acknowledge the generous offer of the members of Thornton Realtors to provide transportation to those needing it for the Wednesday millage election. In my opinion it is this sense of community involvement that makes Chelsea such a special place.
Anne M. Comeau.

To the Editor:
Whether the millage issue passes or not the following information is very important and startling. I received a letter last week detailing income from the Michigan lottery and the distribution of funds from the lottery as follows:
"For the fiscal year of 1978-79 the lottery brought in about $330 million. A little less than half of that amount was paid to various lottery winners. About $177 million was put into the general fund of the State of Michigan. The $177 million was budgeted: 37% to education; 34% to social services; 10% to health and medical; 19% to many smaller budget items. The (and get this), administrative costs of the lottery is over $27 million."

Signature on the letter is that of Robert Alexander, administrative aide in Senator Edward Pierce's office in Lansing.

Now just in your head, multiply the profit by 3 or 4 years, and keep in mind that ALL THESE FUNDS FROM THE MICHIGAN LOTTERY WERE TO SUPPORT OUR SCHOOLS. If all the energy that was put into the passing of the millage were channeled into reversing the lottery profit back to the schools where it belongs, there would not have to be all this time, energy, money for printing, to tax all for the sake of a few.

As long as the taxpayers of Chelsea wish to seek millage increases the people of Lansing love you. As long as we are suckers enough to keep increasing our taxes then they in Lansing do not have to right their wrongs. And we did it to each other.
Mrs. Millie Warner.

Cassidy Lake Community Relations Council Briefed

By The Cassidy Lake Community Relations Council

March 28 marked the first meeting of the Cassidy Lake/Community Relations Council. The Council has its first meeting at Cassidy Lake Technical school. The Council plans on meeting on a regular basis, tentatively scheduled for the last Wednesday of each month.
In February and March of this year each of the adjoining townships nearest Cassidy Lake appointed two community representatives to this Council. It is anticipated that township appointments to this Council be reviewed on a yearly basis.

Township appointments to the Council include: Chelsea Village, John Popovich; Lyndon township, Mrs. Linda Wade and David Longworth; Sylvan township, Don Schoenberg and Tom Hodgson; and Waterloo township, Wilbur Beeman and Dale Walz. The second appointment to this Council from Chelsea Village remains vacant, pending approval of the Village Council.

Cassidy Lake Superintendent Joseph G. Weinberg opened the meeting by welcoming all members to the school. Weinberg went on to brief the Council on security problems which occurred at Cassidy Lake last year. He discussed walkway problems which led to a heated meeting at Lyndon Township Hall last November.

The Superintendent looked forward to a good working relationship with the Community Liaison Council. Weinberg said he was optimistic about the new Council, and hoped the members would take an active role in disseminating information to the community. He said, once members have a chance to see the school and learn about the operation, it is hoped they will take the information back to their respective township meetings, in order to help clarify rumors, and develop better communication with area residents.

There was general agreement that the Council would serve as an important link between the school and the community. It was felt that citizens not connected with the institution, could help communicate school operations to concerned citizens.

Weinberg briefed Council members on a number of changes that have improved security and control at the school. Weinberg pointed to the very young offender population at the school, and stated that this age group of offenders do act more impulsively than older offenders. He stated this particular problem does add to the walkaway rate at the school.

As the result of security problems at the school last year, Weinberg indicated that seven additional guard positions had been added for Cassidy Lake. Since the state is in the midst of budget cuts (due to over-all economy) Weinberg said the new guard positions were, in part, the result of a strong appeal from local residents, coupled with the support of Corrections Director Perry M. Johnson and key state legislatures such as State Representative Mary Keith Ballantine and State Senator Edward Pierce.

Added to increased security staff, Cassidy Lake will soon receive new communications equipment necessary for better control at the 85-acre facility. Weinberg indicated that FCC licensing procedures had been completed and he expects to receive shipment of this equipment within the next 4 to 6 weeks.

In addition to these two improvements at the school, Weinberg said that Department of Corrections Officials in Lansing have agreed to continue their efforts to hold inmate population to 275 at the school. Weinberg said that if this can be done, it should aid in the reduction of walkaways.

Added security precautions this year include increased use of roving patrol cars to deter walkaways, and smuggling of contraband into the institution from the outside.

While pleased with the developments which have occurred in the past several months to improve security, Weinberg indicated he is still trying to obtain funding for construction of a new 80-man housing unit. He stated that the addition of this new housing unit can add to security and control. This unit would replace about one-third of the old cabins now present at the school. Weinberg felt that, with the addition of this new unit, he could place guards in this area 24 hours per day, to decrease management problems and opportunities for young offenders to walk off. Additional public urging to state legislators he said, may bring about such a building. Weinberg said that an Executive/Legislative Task Force on Overcrowding is now working on several proposed solutions to prison overcrowding. Weinberg indicated that one proposal made to this task force was to immediately replace substandard beds at the school. Since the task forces work is expected to be completed by April, Weinberg said public support for construction of this building should help reduce the problem.

Council member Tom Hodgson (Sylvan) inquired about the present walkway rate this year as compared to last. Superintendent Weinberg indicated that the number of inmates who have walked away so far this year, is down dramatically from rates in past years. Weinberg said a total of 22 walkaways were recorded from Jan. 1 through April 1, 1979. For the same period in 1980, he said only four walkaways were reported. He added that all four walkaways were back in custody within eight hours after leaving.
General guidelines agreed upon by the Council were that: Council member's names will be published and circulated throughout adjoining townships, so that citizens know who their appointed Council representative is, and how to contact that representative; that the minutes of all Council meetings be made public; and that increased exposure be given to the school so that the community will be informed on all aspects of the Cassidy Lake Operation—including the many positive things going on at the school.

Deputy Superintendent Cummings and school officials escorted Council members on an extensive tour of the facility. Observation and discussion included the school operation, inmate programs available, inmate housing units and the general layout of buildings and grounds. Most Council members expressed appreciation for the insight they gained from the tour. As one Council person put it, "I've lived near here for over 20 years, and never knew you had such a school."
The next meeting of the Council is tentatively scheduled for April 30 at Cassidy Lake.

A FLAG FLUTTERS in the warm April breeze at Porter Cemetery, recently cleared of unsightly weeds and underbrush by about 25 dedicated volunteers. Plans for the historic Lima township graveyard include spraying of weed killer to control growth and the eventual erecting of a fence around the grounds.

Volunteer Group Cleans Porter Cemetery Grounds

The day was cold and the rain never let up, but mere weather didn't deter 25 hardy souls who worked all day Saturday, April 12, beautifying weed-choked Porter Cemetery. Workers, some of them who came with pick-up trucks, cleared away brush, twigs and weeds from the historic Lima township graveyard, located at the corner of Sager and Fletcher Rds. Among the group were a number of people who don't live in Lima township, but who wanted to lend a hand in the refurbishing effort. At noon, lunch was served to the workers and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ryan opened their garage to provide shelter against the cold and drizzle. Township Supervisor Leila Bauer expressed her gratitude to the volunteers who turned out for the effort and put their hearts into their work. She said donations have been received by the township for the cemetery, and that the money will be used to spray the grounds with weed killer this year. Next year, using a combination of township funds and donations, the township plans to erect a fence around the graveyard and plant grass.

Why Do So Many Junior and Senior High School Girls Have Urinary Tract Infections?

Bacteria, especially E. coli bacteria which are normally present in intestines, can enter the urinary tract and cause infections when conditions are right. The female urethra which carries urine from the bladder to the outside is a simple organ. It is short, about 1 1/2 inches long. It passes through the internal and external sphincters of the bladder which control the release of urine from the bladder. Infections of the bladder neck and urethra are a common and serious problem in women. They are commonly caused by contamination from feces and not—as many people assume—a symptom of a venereal disease. A urinary tract infection needs to be treated carefully so that it won't cause narrowing of the urethra. If a woman has burning on urination, a desire to urinate frequently or other related symptoms, she should see her doctor. Urinary tract infections may be treated with antibiotics. If the infection is not treated, the urethra may begin to narrow. When it does, a cycle begins: narrowing, infection, scar tissue, more obstruction and still more infection. This situation may start the infection going up to the ureters to the kidneys themselves. Some doctors think women, to help prevent urinary tract infections, should drink plenty of fluids and urinate frequently. In fact, women are encouraged to urinate right after they first feel the urge to empty their bladder. Some girls and young women do not empty their bladders often enough because they prefer to avoid using the school restrooms: Why?? They may feel shy, want more privacy or feel uncomfortable with the surroundings. In some schools across the state girls stay out of the restrooms because they see other girls drinking alcohol or smoking tobacco in the lavatories. To reduce the incidence of urinary tract infections, it is important that young women drink plenty of fluids and use the bathrooms—both at home and at school—as frequently as necessary. Bulldog Sluggers Struggle

Pitching and fielding have been good, but a lack of solid hitting has put the Chelsea varsity baseball team in the losers bracket three times in the first four games of the season.

Chelsea split a doubleheader with Brighton last Wednesday, 1-3 and 3-1, lost to Stockbridge, 4-0, and fell to Lincoln Tuesday, 4-3.

Thirteen hits are all the Bulldogs have been able to manage thus far in the season, but all four games have been relatively close contests.

Wednesday, Brighton came to town to make up a previously rained-out doubleheader.

Chuck Moore started on the mound for Chelsea and had some early control problems, walking seven in the first two innings. The first two Brighton runs in the 3-1 game came on erratic pitching, which Coach Wayne Welton chalked up to early-season nervousness.

Chelsea's lone run came in the fourth inning, when Drew Sprague doubled and was driven in on back-to-back singles by Ross Stofflet and Lou Jahnke.

The second contest of the afternoon was called after five innings because of darkness, but was far enough along for Chelsea to take the win, 2-1.

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard in the first inning on Walks to Jeff Dils and Stofflet. Both moved up on wild pitches and Dils finally came home on a wild pitch.

Brighton evened the score in the third inning, but in the bottom of the fourth, Chelsea brought home the winning run when Brad Knickerbocker singled, was sacrificed to second by Chuck Moore and scored on an error by the Brighton second baseman.

Joel Krichbaum threw the first four innings for Chelsea and Brad Knickerbocker came in the pitch in the fifth. Their performances held off the Brighton offense to hand Chelsea the win.

Stockbridge, on the other hand, held the Bulldogs to just two hits, by John Dunn and John Preston, on their way to a 4-0 win.

Steve Grau, a hurler with the junior varsity, was called up to throw for the varsity and did an effective job. Chuck Moore pitched the fifth and sixth innings and Sean Peterson came in to pitch the seventh inning.

In the first SEC contest of the season Tuesday afternoon, Lincoln edged the Bulldogs, 4-3.

Chelsea was up 2-0 into the sixth inning, but yielded a walk and a home run to tie up the score. Joel Krichbaum, the starting pitcher, was tiring and after the home run was relieved by Knickerbocker.

The Railsplitters put together a walk, a hit and a Chelsea error to score one run, then another on a single.

In the seventh inning Chelsea picked up one more run when Mike Wood walked, Knickerbocker singled and Mike Bohlender sacrificed, putting runner on first and third. A wild pitch drove in Knickerbocker and the Bulldogs were in fine shape, with a runner on third and one out.

Unfortunately, the team couldn't capitalize on its fortune and finished the game one down. Hits were collected by Knickerbocker, who had two, Lou Jahnke, Jeff Dils and Ross Stofflet.

Defensively, Mike Wood played an excellent game behind the plate, throwing out three Railsplitters attempting to steal.

Chelsea is now 1-3 over-all and 0-1 in the SEC. The Bulldogs will meet Dexter away this Friday at 4 p.m.

Boys Track Team Loses To Lincoln

Chelsea's varsity boys track team dropped its opening meet to Lincoln by a 95-37 count last Wednesday afternoon. Although not reflected in the score, a good deal of improvement in the team's performance was evident.

Bob Ball led the Bulldog scoring, winning the shot put (52'3") and discus (141'4"). Sophomore Toby Boyd performed well in winning the 220-yard dash at :24.9.

Another sophomore, Todd Sprague, threw a lifetime best 40'2" in placing second in the shot put. Sophomore Bob Schleede ran a lifetime best 4:46.6, placing sixth in the mile.

Finally, the 800-yard relay team of Toby Boyd, Dave Wojcicki, Dave Nicola and Jon Riemenschneider took first at 1:39.6.

Other Bulldog placers included the following:

Bill Freeman, 3rd in shot put, 39'6 3/4"; Darrow Keezer, 2nd in high jump, 5'4"; Ken Bauer, 2nd in 100-yard dash, :11.0, and 2nd in 440-yard dash, :54.9; Daren Pierson, 330-yard hurdles, :45.0; Bob Schleede, 880-yard run, 2:14.9; Bob Benedict, two-mile run, 10:49.

Many of the younger Bulldogs ran for times which did not place against regional champion Lincoln, but which will place them later in the season.

"I was pleased with the team's effort," said Coach Pat Clarke. "We will continue to improve."

SOUTH SCHOOL STUDENTS displayed their love for books and reading this week during National Library Week. Displaying book soap that they made as one of the weekly activities are, front, Jude Quilter, Brian Address, Bryce Hansen; middle, Mary Johanson, Shella Haab, Shawn Farmer; rear, Kim Clark, Christine Young, Marty Heller and Laura Peterson. Students also visited McKune Memorial Library, read and prepared a recipe and had a family reading period at home.

Library Week Observed

In conjunction with National Library Week, April 14-18, students at South school made an extra effort to read and do reading-related activities.

Several students visited McKune Memorial Library, read and prepared a recipe at home and had a family reading period. Others read and wrote poetry with their families and carried out science experiments, all at the suggestion of Media Specialist Laurel McDonald.

In the Media Center, students designed book markers, created reading slogans for t-shirts and made book soap. Preparations were also begun for the Media Center Book Fair, which will be held April 29-May 2, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. daily. The book fair will also be open Thursday evening, May 1, during the Art Show.

Any parent willing to work on the fair should call Mrs. McDonald at South school, 475-9131.

MIKE BOHLENDER (14) waits for the ball as a Stockbridge runner scrambles back to the safety of the base. The Bulldogs managed just two hits in a 4-0 loss to the Stockbridge nine last Monday night. Chelsea is currently 1-3 on the season over-all and 0-1 in the SEC.

JV Baseball Team Wins 3 Out of 4

Chelsea's JV baseball squad has had fine luck with doubleheaders so far this season, splitting a twin bill with Brighton last Wednesday by scores of 5-6 and 7-0, and sweeping two from Stockbridge on Saturday, 9-7 and 2-0.

In the first game of the Brighton doubleheader, Chelsea wasted a good John Welton pitching performance by committing eight errors that accounted for all six Brighton runs. Chelsea scored four runs in the first inning on a triple by Ross Murphy and singles by Bob Trevino and Craig Olmstead.

The Bulldogs' other run came on a walk, error and single by Ross Murphy. Gary Van Meer also had a single for Chelsea.

In the second game, the Bulldogs played good defense behind pitcher Steve Grau, who hurled a three-hitter and struck out six batters. Chelsea started the game with Ross Murphy taking a walk then stealing second and third bases and coming home on a Craig Olmstead single. Chelsea's other run came on Gary Van Meer's single.

In the second inning, Chelsea combined a walk, a stolen base and singles by Olmstead and Mike Bareis for two runs. The JV scored twice more in the third inning on three walks and Tim Whitesall's bases loaded single.

It was more of the same against Stockbridge, as Chelsea

JV Softball Teams Swat Willow Run

Chelsea's junior varsity softball team got off to a fine season start Saturday, crushing Willow Run, 46-1, in only five innings. The JV blue team defeated Willow Run in the second game, 21-7, in five innings.

Amy Unterbrink opened the season for Chelsea on the mound and struck out eight of 11 batters in three innings to gain her first win of the season. Unterbrink dominated the Willow Run team, showing fine control and outstanding speed in her first mound appearance.

Freshman Donna Popovich hurled the last two innings of the first game, giving up just one hit and one unearned run in her first appearance on the mound for Chelsea. Donna showed fine control in striking out one and yielding no walks.

The Bulldog hitting attack was led by Shelly Weber and Amy Unterbrink, each collecting four hits. Weber drove in nine runs and Unterbrink collected six RBIs. Amy Hume led the young squad as she scored seven runs. Maggy Sweet and Amy Ziegler added power to the hitting attack, with Sweet swatting the first home run of the season as well as a double. Ziegler doubled and tripled.

In the second game, freshman Kim Boyd made the start for Chelsea and pitched the JV blue team to a fine 21-7 victory. Boyd went the distance, striking out six and giving up just one earned run in five innings.

Boyd also led the Chelsea hitting attack, slugging a single, double and the second home run of the day. Lisa Beeman and Amy Poljan also contributed to the powerful hitting attack. Beeman collected three hits, including a double and triple, and Poljan had a perfect day at the plate with three singles.

The strength of the Chelsea JV was clear as the 31 team members swamped the smaller Willow Run squad. JV coaches Charles Waller and Donna Stofer were pleased with the performances of all their young players.

Chelsea pitching appeared strong, as it has been for the last three years. It seems, however, that for the first time the hitting may be catching up with traditionally strong hurling and defense.

Both the JV White and Blue teams are looking forward to strong seasons.

A STOCKBRIDGE INFIELDER reacts in sheer disbelief as the umpire signals John Preston safe. Preston accounted for one of Chelsea's two hits last Monday in the course of a 4-0 loss to Stockbridge.

Varsity Netters Look For Better Results

Chelsea's varsity tennis team, the only one in the area comprised of both boys and girls, met very stiff competition last week, playing first Novi, then Saline and Brighton. Chelsea lost all three matches, although there were a few bright moments with promise for better things in the future.

Chelsea has a team of limited experience this year, with only three players having more than two years of varsity team experience. The team lost two top seniors last year and it will take several years to fill this gap.

Chelsea did however, find a young man with promise. Gustavo Lunazzi is a foreign exchange student from Argentina and is trying to fill the number one position. Doug Inglis, a sophomore with only one year of varsity experience, is playing the number two slot.

Scott Prohaska, who is a member of the swim team and who also has only one year of experience, is playing the third spot.

Terry Shonk, a junior, is holding down the four singles spot. She would be the number one player on a girls team, and, according to Coach Terry Schreiner, finds it "extra tough" playing boys.

Chelsea's doubles team also lost a senior last year, but has some experience in Jeanette Morrison, Sarah Haselschwardt and David Boyer. The two girls are playing the number two spot this year and beat a boys team at Saline last Thursday by scores of 6-3, 7-6 and 6-1. They played a very aggressive match and have the ability to take other teams in the league.

Steve Wilson and Mark Barnes fill the number one doubles slot this year. Steve played two years ago, but not last year, and Mark is a newcomer to the game. Both show remarkable ability and should give several teams a hard time before the season is over.

David Boyer and Molly Bacon make up the third doubles. Both have been plagued by problems until now but are beginning to come on strong.

Two additional players on the varsity squad this year are David Harbaugh and Bob Moore. Both played in the first two matches but will have to play exhibition matches to gain experience for next year. Both are freshmen with no varsity experience.

"All in all, we expect to upset a few teams this year with sheer desire and determination," said Coach Schreiner. "With bad weather hampering practice, we're behind, but appear to be coming on strong."

Chelsea plays Gabriel Richard on Monday, Saline again on Wednesday, both at home, and meets Adrian on Friday, away.

Tax Return May Be Amended After Filing

If a taxpayer decides to change something on a federal income tax return after it has been filed, a corrected return can be filed on a Form 1040X, the Internal Revenue Service says.

A return can be amended using the 1040X any time during the three years following the due date (including extensions) of the original return, or two years from the time the tax was paid, whichever is later.

The 1040X and other filing information is available by calling the IRS toll-free number found in the white pages of your directory.

HUSTLE was the name of the game for this dust-covered Chelsea diamondman, as he raced back to first base trying to beat the tag. Cold bats and a meager two hits, however, were not enough to hand Chelsea a win over Stockbridge, and the Bulldogs succumbed, 4-0.

McDonald's Anniversary To Raise Funds for Youth Hospital Home

For each Big Mac sandwich sold in Michigan on Sunday, April 27, McDonald's will donate 25 cents to the Ronald McDonald House at Children's Hospital of Michigan. The state-wide, McHappy Day celebration marks the 25th anniversary of McDonald's and is part of a nation-wide celebration which will generate monies for worthy charities throughout the country.

Honorary spokesman for the Michigan Ronald McDonald House Ed O'Neil, star linebacker for the Detroit Lions, said that on McHappy Day, celebrities from every walk of life will join in by "lending a hand" at participating local McDonald's Restaurants.

On that day, mayors and clergymen, radio-TV-newspaper personalities, firemen and policemen, entertainers, community leaders and sports celebrities will act as voluntary crew members in Michigan restaurants to help raise money for Ronald McDonald House. They'll be greeting guests, shaking hands, passing french fries, signing autographs, and maybe even flipping a hamburger or two.

Ronald McDonald House is a "home away from home" for the parents of seriously ill children either hospitalized or being treated at Children's Hospital of Michigan. The 20-bedroom home built at cost of almost $900,000, was dedicated Nov. 2, 1979, and since that time has provided a temporary home—virtually at the bedside for parents of children from every part of Michigan. Monies raised on McHappy Day will be used to help reduce the still considerable mortgage.

Almost two dozen Ronald McDonald Homes are in operation throughout the country. Each was begun with a pledge of funds by local McDonald's owner-operators. Michigan McDonald's representatives made an initial pledge of $300,000; but already have raised and donated close to $400,000 towards the local home.

Ronald McDonald House is owned and operated by Children's Oncology Services of Michigan, Inc. (COSOM), a non-profit corporation formed for that specific purpose and made up primarily of parents along with hospital and McDonald's representatives. Parents using the home pay $7 per family per night—or nothing if they are unable to pay.

Compounding of Errors Leads to False Report

We at the Chelsea Standard apologize to Dunbar Meats of Dexter.

We said in the court proceedings that Dunbar had sold condemned meats and was fined $350 to a guilty plea. This was untrue and an error on our part. In order to clarify this we are going to go into detail and let you know what happened.

Dunbar works with the community in different ways. One is he works with the "work co-op" at Dexter High school. He trains young people in the art of cutting meat and helps place them in the industry. He currently has three young men working as meat cutters. Working with trainees is rewarding, but they do make mistakes, part of learning.

The State of Michigan, upon taking routine samples of ground products, called "comminted meat products," found products labeled ground beef "misabeled by student," intended for hamburger. The state says if beef is labeled hamburger, you cannot exceed 30% fat content. If it is labeled Ground Beef, you cannot have more than 20% fat content.

The sample taken had 22% fat. High grade of hamburger, but not ground beef, "misabeled by student."

Dunbar was summoned to court and fined $100 plus cost. This was the first time in 14 years of business, for too much fat in ground meat.

The Chelsea Standard each week goes to the courthouse and prints court proceedings. Our employee mistook the word "comminted" for "condemned." Goes to show you anyone can make a mistake.

We at the Standard would like to again apologize to Dunbar Meats.

Correction on Charge

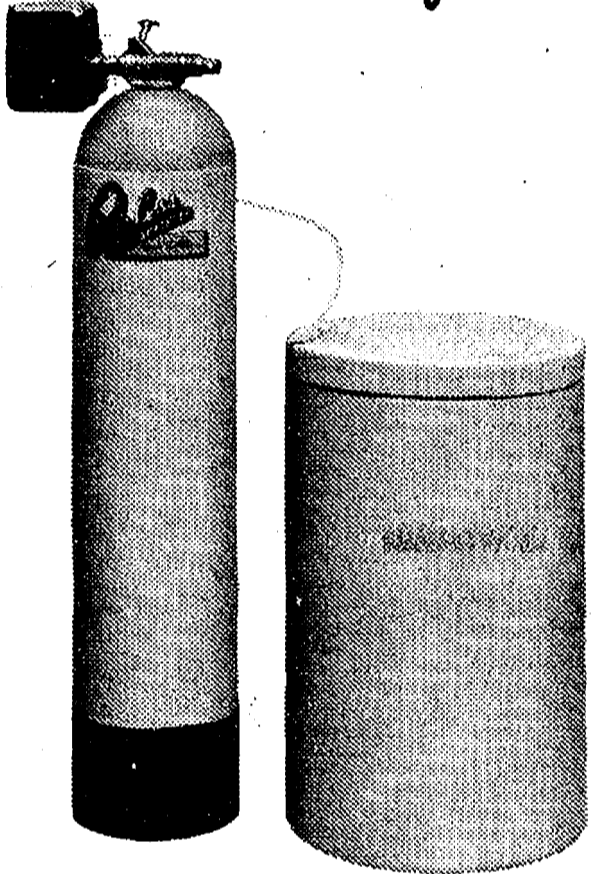

A story in last week's Standard erroneously reported that two Chelsea men were arraigned on charges of assault with intent to commit great bodily harm less than murder.

Gary D. Wright was arraigned on that charge, but Jimmy Collingsworth was charged with the lesser offense of felonious assault. Both men were set for a preliminary exam in 15th District Court yesterday.

The U. S. Department of Labor obtained commitments from employers to repay $9.3 million to victims of illegal employment discrimination during the 1979 fiscal year.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

★ Change in Priorities

The new "Yearbook of Agriculture" for 1979 is more evidence that the USDA is moving further and further away from its original intent and purpose.

The yearbook, which is an annual publication of the USDA, is supposed to be used as a reference tool by farmers and ranchers. The book usually centers around research, or marketing, or an issue important to farmers. For example, the 1964 yearbook was called FARMER'S WORLD. In 1966, the title was PROTECTING OUR FOOD.

The latest USDA offering is nothing like that at all, and is a painful reminder to farmers and ranchers that the Department of Agriculture is rapidly becoming a Department of Consumer Affairs. The 1979 yearbook is called "WHAT'S TO EAT?" and is a child's guide to the world of food. It's quite cute and probably effective in its own right. However, it shatters the farmer-oriented tradition of the yearbook.

Most farmers and ranchers have no argument with the fact that consumers, including children, should understand all about the food they eat. The USDA has printed mountains of materials on that very subject. However, turning the Yearbook of Agriculture into a consumer-oriented, cartooned primer, brings into sharp focus the question of priorities in the "new" USDA—a department that was originally created to protect the interests of agriculture.

Posthumous Award To Gordon Beaumont

The Carnegie Hero Commission has awarded a posthumous bronze medal to Gordon F. Beaumont, formerly of Chelsea, who was killed trying to save the life of an employee.

The medal was presented in Kalamazoo Friday night to Beaumont's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Jerrold F. Beaumont, 3551 Washington St. The Rev. Beaumont is pastor of St. Barnabas Episcopal church in Chelsea.

A graduate of Chelsea High school, Gordon Beaumont was killed Nov. 3, 1978 in Kalamazoo while trying to save a female employee who was being abducted by a former boyfriend. Beaumont pursued the abductor and died from a gunshot wound to the head. The man later killed the abducted girl before taking his own life.

Beaumont was a food service manager at Kalamazoo College at the time of the shooting.

Also presented to the Rev. and Mrs. Beaumont Friday night was the Peter T. Connally Award, given each year by the Kalamazoo Kiwanis Club.

The Carnegie Hero Fund Commission, established in 1904 by Andrew Carnegie and supported by that estate, recognizes about 10 percent of the cases of heroism brought to its attention each year. The commission pays tribute to "heroic deeds performed at extraordinary risk to the life of the person."

After the regionals, there will be state tournament in Grand Rapids on May 2 and 3. On May 30-31, there will be a five-state national tournament, also at Grand Rapids.

The house in which Noah Webster wrote his dictionary was dismantled and moved from New Haven, Conn. to Greenfield Village, Dearborn, where it was rebuilt and completed during 1936-37. Webster's home is only one of a number of historically significant buildings meticulously moved, rebuilt and preserved for present and future generations at Greenfield Village, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce, Lansing.

ASK THE GOVERNOR

by William G. Milliam

Question: What is happening to the state's economy?

Governor: I have received numerous letters from citizens across the state asking about the state's declining economic climate and what effect it will have on government programs.

I wrote about the economy in this column only a month ago. At that time, I was not able to paint a very bright picture for the immediate future. I said there was no question in my mind that Michigan is in a recession. Unemployment and inflation both are expected to increase and personal income will drop by more than 4 percent, the largest drop since the 1930s.

Since then, budget reductions by President Carter, which cut $100 million from Michigan's budget for fiscal 1981, additional announced layoffs by Ford and General Motors, and the continuing decline in the national economy have added to the state's economic concerns.

Last week, I made additional cuts in the proposed budget for fiscal 1981 amounting to $180 million. These cuts, coupled with previous decisions, mean next year's budget now has proposed program reductions of nearly $400 million.

A month ago I urged the 19 department directors to begin immediately to phase in during this fiscal year proposed reductions planned for next year's budget.

Last week, I asked budget directors to prepare a report showing how these cuts would be implemented. I have asked them to fill no positions and to prepare to make layoffs. I asked the department directors to make the budget reductions I have proposed a central part of their day-to-day planning and decision-making.

The process has been difficult and the decisions have been painful. But we must take steps now to face up to the realities imposed upon us by the faltering national economy.

I am asking the people of Michigan to bear with state government through this crisis. There will be cuts in services provided by the state, but I am working to avoid major disruptions and to continue to meet the needs of our citizens.

Question: I understand you are trying to bring a Japanese auto manufacturer to Michigan. What is being done?

Governor: This week I begin an eight-day business mission to Japan. I will meet with officials of eight Japanese manufacturers including a top automaker, Toyota Co. I plan to present a proposal to Toyota for locating a proposed manufacturing plant in this state.

In addition, I was very encouraged by Nissan Motors' announcement last week that it will be building a manufacturing plant in this country. Michigan was listed among the possible sites for the plant.

Michigan has been in close and continuing contact with Nissan and Toyota; building on that relationship we are interested in working closely with the firms as they begin to review locations for proposed plants in this country.

This is an excellent time to meet with Japanese automakers. The protectionist movement in America is growing and has the potential to lead to import restrictions on foreign-made cars. Recognizing this, Honda already has committed itself to building a plant in the U. S. Toyota has just announced it will study the feasibility of an American operation and Nissan announced it will begin seeking a site for a plant.

Question: Who will you endorse for the Republican presidential nomination?

I intend to campaign for and help George Bush.

AL KLEIS presented the Chelsea Senior Citizens "platform" last Friday to state legislators at a Senior Power Day Forum at Washtenaw Community College. Among the local concerns are medical insurance, energy costs, property taxes and federal funds for local senior citizen needs.

Senior Citizens Attend Senior Power Forum

When more than 250 Washtenaw County senior citizens presented their needs and wishes to state lawmakers Friday, Chelsea was well-represented.

A bus-load of local residents traveled to Washtenaw Community College for a Senior Power Day forum, sponsored by the Washtenaw Council on Aging, Inc. Delegates from each contingent were chosen to present the concerns of seniors in the county to State Representatives Gary Owen (D-Ypsilanti), Perry Bullard (D-Ann Arbor), Roy Smith (R-Saline), and State Senator Edward Pierce (D-Ann Arbor).

State Rep. Mary Keith Ballantine (R-Jackson) and U.S. Rep. Carl Purcell (D-Plymouth) were invited but were unable to attend.

Al Kleis of Chelsea represented the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home, Title VII Nutrition Site, and Chelsea Senior Citizens (sponsored by Chelsea Hospital, Kiwanis, Village of Chelsea and Chelsea School District).

The four main points of his address were finalized last Monday evening at a caucus attended by interested Chelsea seniors.

Kleis told the legislators that, first, Chelsea senior citizens are concerned about medical insurance, particularly against catastrophic medical expenses. Local seniors believe that the prescription supplementary plans are unaffordable and "practically unavailable."

Also, too much confusion exists with Blue Cross/Blue Shield benefits, the group believes. "Only the well-to-do can afford $54.10 per month for one person," Kleis told the panel, "and they need it least of all."

Second, Chelsea residents said that they believe that local and civic organizations should be eligible to receive state and federal dollars to provide such services to seniors as home repair, transportation and chore service.

"We feel local groups could provide better services with the added use of these dollars," the statement read, "as opposed to having OUTREACH workers from Ann Arbor providing services for our people."

Third on the list of concerns is one that has hit seniors particularly hard: the cost of energy. Limited incomes do not keep pace with rising energy costs and inflation, Kleis reminded the panel.

Finally, the group expressed its dissatisfaction with the current property tax structure and all its attendant problems.

"We are strongly opposed to the property tax structure for financing education," Kleis said.

Real Estate
 By PAUL FRISINGER
 REALTOR

THE GAME OF THE NAME

Perhaps you may be a little confused with all the names and titles given to people who sell real estate. Here's a breakdown on the differences.

A broker is a person who is licensed to deal in real estate for pay. He is sometimes called a real estate salesman or agent. Salesmen must also be licensed. The broker is usually the person who owns the business whereas the salesman or sales associate works for him. The term agent is a catchall phrase that is used for brokers and salesmen and also for REALTORS. Anyone who represents you in financial matters is your "agent."

About 100,000 of this country's real estate professionals can call themselves REALTORS. They are members of the National Association of Realtors and also of their local and state real estate boards. REALTORS are pledged to subscribe to a strict code of ethics established by the National Association. He is among the leading brokers of a community - but this is not to say that many non-REALTOR brokers are not as reputable.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

OLD SIGN REMOVED: It was a classic, graceful sign that graced the entrance to Chelsea Hospital, but, unfortunately, difficult to see at night. Last week, a hospital worker began slowly chipping away at the stone block to make way for a new, more visible sign.

LIT FROM WITHIN and set higher from the ground, the new sign at Chelsea Hospital may lack the old sign's rugged good looks, but is much easier to see at night and also helps to point the way to the emergency room for incoming vehicles.

Fair Board May Open Kitchen

On Thursday, April 17, the regular meeting of the Chelsea Fair Board was called to order by President Lloyd Grau. Other officers present were Kay Poljan, Maryann Guenther, Earl Heller, Frank Renton and Jerry Heydlauff.

Directors present were Dick Poljan, Mark Stapish, Jim Dault, Jeff Layher, John Klink, Gary Houle, Ralph McCalla, Bill Stofer, Archie Bradbury, Reuben Lesser, Jr., Robert Heller, Jerry Herrick and Charles Koenn.

Others present were John Wellnitz, Pat Merkel, Bill Coltre, Steve Sparks and Keith Gafner.

Absent were Richard Bolinger, Harold Gross, Ed Keezer, Jim Holefka, Joe Merkel, III, Charles Stapish, Art Steinaway and Harold Trinkle.

The secretary's report was read and accepted. Steve Sparks presented plans for the use of banners and decorations for the Aug. 26-30 fair. Discussion and consideration for his return at the next board meeting were finalized.

Food service at the fair kitchen was further discussed and gave rise to the possibility that the kitchen may be opened for the fair. Pat Merkel announced that the fair had been approved for bulk mailing by the Post Office.

Athletic Boosters will be offered the same deal as in the past in regard to admissions taken at the various gates.

Dick Poljan presented tentative plans for parking the carnival mobile homes. No final action was taken, however one plan, with trees and shrubs, was favored. Jerry Heydlauff will donate white pines if the fair can do the transplanting.

BOB AND BECKY BRUNTON

Evangelists To Appear At Immanuel Church

Bob and Becky Brunton, a husband and wife gospel duet team from Eaton Rapids, will present a concert of sacred music at 7:30 p.m. Friday, April 25, at Immanuel Bible church, 145 E. Summit St.

The concert will include songs written by Bill Gaither, Ralph Carmichael, Andrae Crouch and Hoytnee, as well as some of their own compositions. Bob and Becky met in 1962 while singing with the Spurriows, a group sponsored by Youth for Christ International.

The couple recently resigned professional careers to devote full time to their singing ministry. Becky was a music teacher for the Michigan School for the Blind and Bob served as director of payroll for Michigan State University. Together they have conducted many adult and teen choirs throughout the mid-Michigan area. Their easy-going stylings and tight harmonies feature the use of piano and taped accompaniments.

The concert is free and open to the public.

Prearranging The Funeral... A Very Special Expression of Love

DONALD A. COLE Director

Just like buying life insurance and making a will, prearranging the funeral is expressing love for your family in a very special way. It's doing something now that will mean so much later. Those left behind will know that everything is being done exactly as you wanted it. And that's truly a blessing.

Visit Burghardt-Cole Chelsea Funeral Chapel this week for complete information on prearranging the funeral. No charge, or obligation, of course.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

Instructs about being a parent. God commanded Adam and Eve, "be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth." (Genesis 1:28). With this command he gave them tremendous responsibilities to face as parents. The Bible has much to say concerning what God expects of parents. The apostle Paul in Ephesians 6:4 gives this instruction. "Ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and the admonition of the Lord." The promise is made in Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way that he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Both of these passages show the parental responsibilities of guiding, teaching and setting the proper example in the ways of the Lord. It is difficult to understand the attitude of a parent who says, "I will not force my child to go to church because religion is something every individual has to make up his own mind about the matter." Why not use the same reasoning concerning a child attending school? Education is important! It is needed to help one live more efficiently in this life. Spirituality is essential for "the life that now is, and the life that is yet to come." (1 Timothy 4:8). Parental responsibility cannot be shifted.

Sluggers of the Week

LEADERSHIP is the common denominator for this week's two featured varsity sluggers. Seniors John Dunn, left, and Brad Knickerbocker will be providing needed experience and clout to this year's team. Dunn is a two-year letterman in baseball and is also had excellent seasons in basketball and football this year. He plays an excellent third base and should provide the team with a reliable bat. Knickerbocker is a coach's dream, equally at home at second base, the pitcher's mound, the outfield and other spots in the infield. He is also a skilled athlete, outstanding this year in basketball and football.

Hunting, Fishing Licenses Hiked

Legislation changing the prices for fishing and hunting licenses in the state of Michigan, both for state residents and non-residents, was recently passed by the legislature.

Fishermen must have new licenses in their possession by April 21. Those who purchased 1979 annual licenses after Jan. 1, 1980 may go to a DNR office that issues licenses and apply this license toward a 1980 fishing license. Nearest office in this area is at 3335 Lansing Ave., Jackson. Telephone number there is (517) 784-3188.

With the new legislation, annual licenses are effective from April 1, 1980 to March 31, 1981. License fees, which include agent compensation, are as follows:

Resident Fish: Price is $6.75 and covers husband and wife. Spouse portion will be issued at the same time the licensee portion is issued.

Senior Resident Fish: Price is $1.00, issued to residents aged 65 and older, and covers husband and wife for all species of fish.

Annual Non-Resident Fish: Price is $15.25 and covers only the person to whom it is issued.

Annual Non-Resident Husband and Wife: Price is $20.25 and covers the holder and spouse of an annual license.

Daily Fish: Price is $3.75 for each day. It covers only the person to whom issued.

Trout Salmon Stamp: Price is $6.25 and covers only the person to whom issued. Spouses must purchase their own stamp.

A big change in the law is that there will no longer be a provision for free licenses to military personnel. A resident military person home on leave may purchase a resident license. Military personnel stationed in Michigan may purchase a resident license.

The entire revised fee schedule for 1980 and 1981 is as follows:

SMALL GAME—

Resident small game, $6.25 (1980) and $7.25 (1981); Minor small game, $3.25 and $3.75; Nonresident small game, $35.25 and $35.25; waterfowl stamp, $3.75, with no increase in 1981; put-take, $12.25 for five birds, and $13.25 for five birds; public access, $1.00 with no increase for 1981; turkey, $6.25 and $7.25; non-resident turkey, $20.25 with no increase in 1981; and shooting preserve, $7.75 and $8.75.

DEER-BEAR—

Resident firearm deer, $8.75 (1980) and $9.75 (1981); non-resident firearm deer, $75.25 with no increase in 1981; resident archery, $8.75 and $9.75; minor resident archery, $4.50 and $5.00; non-resident archery, $50.25 with no increase in 1981; resident bear, $10.25 and $11.25; non-resident bear, $100.25 with no increase in 1981.

TRAPPING—

Trapping, $10.25 (1980) and $11.25 (1981).

FISHING—

See above prices. Only the resident fishing license and the trout-salmon stamp will increase in price in 1981, to $7.25 each.

SENIORS (65 and older)—

Resident hunting, $4.00 with no 1981 increase; resident fishing, $1.00 with no 1981 increase; resident turkey, $1.00 with no 1981 increase.

Resident sportsman, $27.75 (1980) and $31.25 (1981).

All fees include a 25 cent surcharge on all hunting, fishing and trapping licenses sold over the next three years. Senior licenses and public access stamps are exempt from the charge. Fees will be used to reward informants of game law violators, hire more conservation officers and conduct an educational campaign against poaching.

A YOUNG TED BALMER smiles from the seat of an Ann Arbor-built auto in this vintage photo from the Ann Arbor News. The vehicle was a 1910 Ann Arbor automobile, the only surviving one of its kind at that time. Balmer, who sold the car together with his local garage business about 10 years ago, is celebrating a birthday this week. Before retiring, Homer "Ted" Balmer was also fire chief of the village for many years.
