Poppy Day Sale Set For Friday

Members of the Chelsea VFW Auxiliary and the American Legion Auxiliary will be on the street corners this Friday, May 16, selling the traditional red paper poppies to benefit veterans and their families.

Veterans' organizations in the United States first sold poppies in 1921 in response to an appeal from Madame Guerin of France for funds to aid needy and disabled veterans.

In 1922, the VFW conceived the idea of selling poppies made by disabled veterans in U.S. hospitals to support a nationwide veterans' welfare program. The symbolism of the poppy was promptly accepted by the American people and the sale was an immediate success.

As is traditional in Chelsea, the local auxiliaries of the American Legion and VFW will sell poppies on the same day. Proceeds from both poppy sales will be used exclusively to aid disabled and needy veterans and their families and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans.

Special Local Events Mark National Hospital Week

"We're America's Health Team" is what Chelsea Community Hospital and 6,000 other hospitals around the country have been saying to their patients, staff and communities during National Hospital Week, May 11-17.

"Our 1980 National Hospital Week theme compares the hospital to a well-trained and coordinated sports team," said Willard Johnson, hospital administrator. "We think of the staff as a team in which every member contributes his or her own special abilities to achieving the hospital's goal, which is, of course, the highest possible quality of patient care."

Chelsea Hospital is celebrating the week with several events open to the community, including the following:

Softball Team Wins Tourney Of Champions

Four very determined senior softball players led Chelsea's varsity team to a surprise championship this past week-end in the Royal Oak Dondero "Softball Tournament of Champions" in Royal Oak.

Against competition that included defending Class A state champion Dondero and Class B champion Fenton, as well as eight state district champions and eight league champions, Chelsea's seniors Amanda Schwarze, Kim Wood, Patti Hume and Nanette Push sparked the Chelsea "underdogs" to five straight wins and the tournament title.

Play for the Bulldogs began Saturday with an early afternoon win against Waterford, 4-3. Push was the winning pitcher, striking out four and walking only two. Kim Wood and Patti Hume picked up two base hits apiece and Push helped her own cause with a home run in the third.

Amanda Schwarze contributed three sacrifice bunts to move the Chelsea players around the bases.

After beating Waterford, Chelsea moved on to meet Saginaw Eisenhower, who had won their first game against Lake Orion, 11-0.

Chelsea drew first blood in the opening inning with two runs. Jennifer Ringe started the scoring combination with a walk. Kim Wood then socked the key hit of the inning to drive across two runs.

After Chelsea took that slim lead, Push silenced Eisenhower's bats, allowing them only two hits while fanning five. The Bulldogs managed one more run in the OPENING DAY: Sheriff Tom Minick (left) was on hand in Chelsea Monday morning for the opening of Chelsea's Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department substation at the school bus garage. A total of 13 deputies will be assigned to the station, which is intended to better

Sheriff's Substation Opens

This Monday marked the first day of operation for the Washtenaw County Sheriff Department's newest substation at the Chelsea School District bus garage on Old US-12.

Sheriff Thomas Minick said that finalized plans call for 11 deputies to be assigned to the substation on a regular basis. A sergeant, who will oversee both the Chelsea and Dexter substations, and a clerk bring the total number assigned here to 13.

Sgt. Donald Wenk, currently commander of the Dexter substation, will add the Chelsea station to his duties and will go back and forth between the two.

Those deputies, Minick said, will be responsible for approximately 17,320 people in the eight western townships of the county.

"It's not a real good ratio," he said, "but it's a hell of a lot better than what we had before."

The number of deputies working out of the station will be flexible, Minick continued, based on the demands of the season. In the summer, an increase in outdoor activities will probably necessitate shifting some officers for road enforcement and similar duty.

Monday was also the first day that the new station held office hours. Currently, the office hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., but Minick said he hopes to add an evening and possibly Saturday morning and close the office on Mondays, based on the needs of the community.

The office may be reached by calling the Sheriff's Department (Continued on page eight)

College Week '80 Offers Family Classes

In keeping with the White House Conference on Families being conducted this year, College Week '80 at Michigan State University includes a number of classes for and about families.

Sponsored by the Family Living Education Program of the MSU Co-operative Extension Service and the MSU College of Human Ecology, College Week is more than a half-century old. This year the event is set for June 16-19, with more than 50 classes and activities planned for an expected audience of more than 1,200.

College Week leader Matti Gershenfeld, Ph.D., a Temple University psychologist, will speak on "How You Can Make a Difference in Families," June 17.

A class examining how family members help each other learn values, attitudes and living skills will be taught by Bea Paolucci and Paula Dance of the MSU Department of Family Ecology.

"Parental Influence on Children's Future Political and Career Choices" will be taught by Gaye Benson, a doctoral candidate in political science, and Jackie Parsons from the psychology department at the University of Michigan. The course will look at the way parents can influence the choices that students make in high school that affect their career options. Attitudes and behavior also affect the kind of political adults that children become: the parties they choose, how much they participate in the political process and their position on issues. The class offers a look at ourselves and insight into our influence on children in politics and careers.

Further information on College Week, including a registration form and brochure, is available from Marion Prince or Helen Fairman, Extension Home Economists, phone: 973-9510.

AT LAST! After months of urging the village to pester the railroad to fix its M-52 crossing in Chelsea, local resident V. E. Clement has the satisfaction of seeing the job well on its way to completion. The car gliding across the tracks behind him is riding on rubberized grating and a new blacktop surface, ensuring a smooth ride and safe shock absorbers when negotiating the crossing. Still to be completed in work on a new pedestrian sidewalk.

Shoplifting Call Leads to Arrest on Felony Charges

What began as the arrest of a man by Chelsea Police for shoplifting ended up as an arrest on the felony charges of possession of a stolen auto and possession of stolen merchandise over $100.

According to Chelsea Police Chief Robert Aeillo, the incident began Friday, May 9, at approximately 6 p.m. when police received a call from Polly's Market reporting that a man had just stolen some small merchandise from the store and fled the area in an auto. Witnesses were able to provide Officer Richard Foster with the license plate number and a description of the car.

Meanwhile, Aeillo said, Officer David Detling heard the report on his home police radio and decided to drive around the village in search of the described vehicle. He spotted it driving into the Medical Center, checked its location in the parking lot and then joined Officer Foster at Polly's.

The pair returned to the Medical Center and approached the parked car. They reported finding the stolen merchandise on the front seat and arrested the suspect on charges of larceny from a building.

A check was run on the auto and police discovered that the plates and vehicle were registered to two different people, both of Flint. A check with the Grand Blanc Police Department revealed that the car had been taken earlier in the day from a Flint auto dealership. The plates were stolen separately.

The subject was taken to the Washtenaw County Jail and is being held on $10,000 bond for each of the two felony counts he is charged with. He is also charged with possession of stolen license plates and larceny, two misdemeanors.

Chief Aeillo said the man's identity is something of a mystery. He revealed that he had gone into a local business earlier and filled out an employment application, using the name Gary Duane Wynn. He told police his real name is Gary Duane Jackson, aged 23.

A check is now being run on the man's fingerprints to determine his identity.

Cub Scout Awards Presented

Chelsea Cub Scout Pack 435 opened its April meeting with the following award presentations: Kurt Knisley, gold arrow; Doug Neal, wolf badge, gold and silver arrow; Paul Hedding, bear badge; Phil Patterson, geologist award; John Stephenson, forester award; Joe Eassa, geologist and naturalist awards; and Jeff Patterson, gold and silver arrow.

Further business discussions included a reminder about the May 17 Scout-O-Rama display at Briarwood mall. Pack 435 will be representing the Chelsea-area packs and will display mini planetariums that can be made from tin cans. Each cub will also display one item he made during the year.

The mid-June Day camp to be held at Camp Newkirk in Dexter is now finalized. Final pack meeting of the year will be held May 22 at the North school cafeteria. This meeting represents the culmination of a year of hard work with the Webelos graduating to Boy Scouts. Election of officers will also be on the agenda.

Customary Cub Scout excitement was aroused when April's meeting ended with the "Rainwater Regatta." Each cub built and painted his own sailboat. The crafts were powered by outboard "lung-power" wind gusts in a single-elimination tournament.

Pack honors for the Windiest Cub Scout in the pack were awarded to Rick Niethammer, who finished first; Brett Hanson, second; Paul Damm, third; and Chris Geiske, fourth.

Karen Simpkins Heads EMU Drug Workshops In Willow Run Schools

After years of playing sandlot softball, Chelseaite Karen Simpkins knows her way around a softball diamond sure enough. The Mushbach Rd. resident undoubtedly left a few catcher's mitts smoking before she made the transition to slo-pitch in one of Ann Arbor's top women's leagues.

But when she isn't pitching under the lights at Vet's Park, the 28-year-old Simpkins transfers her competitive drive to a more altruistic endeavor: helping area youngsters to make wise decisions concerning drug and alcohol use.

An assistant program director in Eastern Michigan University's Institute for the Study of Children and Families, Simpkins is coordinating a series of workshops for youngsters in the Willow Run Community School System. The drug workshops, which include the children's parents, are co-sponsored by the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department and the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention Program of the county Health Department.

The program will begin May 6 and meet Tuesday evenings at 7 p.m. through June 3. It began, Simpkins explained, because Washtenaw County Sheriff Tom Minick expressed a concern about drug and alcohol abuse in the public schools and called the EMU institute to see if something could be done.

Simpkins and Gary McClain, a health educator from the Health Department, will teach the workshops. Sheriff Minick will kick-off the sessions with an opening talk on May 6, and local experts from Ozone House in Ann Arbor and the SOS Community Crisis Center in Ypsilanti will add their knowledge as featured speakers.

"We are aiming our workshops at kids in the fifth through eighth grades," Simpkins said. "They're the most likely groups to be influenced by their parents."

Simpkins says she hopes five major goals will be accomplished through the program by the end of the five sessions:

- students and their parents should develop an awareness of the uses and abuses of alcohol, tobacco and drugs;
- students and their parents should have acquired facts about drugs and their effects;
- channels of communication about drugs and alcohol as well as other family issues should be improved;
- students and parents should have clarified feelings and values on the issues of drugs, tobacco and alcohol;
- and new strategies for problem solving and decision making should be developed during the program for use when problems arise.

The program will utilize six open-ended film strips that build up to a crisis situation and then stop. Viewers are invited to discuss the film and present alternatives to resolving the situation.

"Our emphasis in the program is getting family members to work together, to help children and their parents put problem-solving skills to use in drug related situations," Simpkins said. "We also want to help kids and their parents be aware of family problems that lead to potential drug and alcohol use."

Simpkins, a native of Farmington who received both her bachelor's and master's degrees from EMU, is openly enthusiastic about another program to be offered by the institute beginning May 1.

According to Simpkins, the institute just received a grant to identify potential high school drop-outs in the Carleton School System and to design an intervention program to meet their special needs.

"We will be studying 16-year-olds," she explained, "because they are the students who can legally drop out, especially students with low grades and attendance records. We will then design programs aimed at keeping them in school. If the program is successful, we can use it in other area school systems."

The new program will be administered by Simpkins, who was a group guidance teacher at Tecumseh Junior High. She has served as a research analyst in the institute's Foster Parents Training Program and also has worked as a women's sports consultant to the Ann Arbor Recreation Department.

On top of all that, Simpkins was recently accepted into law school and figures she might attend the University of Detroit because of the school's specialized program dealing in mental health and child custody cases. She hopes to arrange her law studies at night and continue her work for the Institute for the Study of Children and Families.

INTENSE INVOLVEMENT in many phases of family relationships has led local resident Karen Simpkins to teach a county-sponsored program on drug abuse and initiate a study of 16-year-old drop-outs in the Carleton School system. Assistant Program Director of the Eastern Michigan University Institute for the Study of Children and Families, Simpkins will be teaching in the drug abuse program in the Willow Run schools beginning this week. She was recently accepted to law school and hopes to attend the University of Detroit.

JCs, Auxiliary Attend State Meet

Chelsea's group caucused with the candidates on Friday night and attended a convention party where they met presidential candidate George Bush, together with 1,200 other Jaycees and Jaycettes from throughout Michigan. Sluggers of the Week

FEATURED SLUGGERS among the Chelsea varsity Bulldogs this week are John Preston, left, and Ross Stofflet. Preston, Chelsea's sophomore centerfielder, contributed importantly to the Bulldogs' back-to-back wins against SEC rivals Lincoln and Jackson County Western. Preston had three hits against Western and figured in the 9-0 Chelsea defeat of Willow Run this week. Stofflet had a banner week, banging two-run doubles in the first innings of three consecutive games. He is the Bulldogs' junior secondbaseman.

Tennis Team Wins 2 from Stockbridge

Chelsea's tennis team suffered a loss to Pinckney last week, but continued on to beat Stockbridge twice, 4-3, 4-3.

In singles, Gustavo Lunazzi lost to T.J. O'Bay, 4-6, 6-0, 6-3. Doug Inglis won by a default from Betty Zick, Doug Harbaugh lost to Jeff Toy, 6-1, 6-1; and Terry Shonk won both of her matches against Julie Boost, 6-4, 6-3 and 6-1, 6-3.

The one and two doubles teams took both matches against Stockbridge. Steve Wilson and Mark Barnes won over Julius Hill and Russell Benson, 6-0, 6-4. Sarah Haselschwardt and Jeanette Morrison won from Dennis Stone and Dale Kaywood, 6-1, 6-1.

The third doubles, David Boyer and Molly Bacon, lost both their matches, 3-6, 4-6.

Rob Moore played an exhibition match against Dennis Jenety and won, 6-0, 3-0. Bill Merkel has joined the team and is filling in where needed — both singles and doubles.

A CLOUD OF DUST was raised by this rival diamondman in a contest last week, but Chelsea catcher Mike Wade managed to see well enough to put a decisive tag on him at home plate.

Softball Team Defeats Champions

fifth and took the contest, 3-1. Amanda Schwarze once again had three sacrifice bunts that kept the offense moving.

The two Saturday wins set the Bulldogs up for a big game Sunday against Ann Arbor Huron. Both teams scored in the first inning, tying the game at 1-1. Jennifer Ringe kept the team's offensive attack producing as she ripped a double and a single off losing pitcher Mimi Fry.

Chelsea scored another in the third, one in the fifth and one in the sixth to put the contest away, 5-1. Winning hurler for the Bulldogs was Nanette Push, who went the distance, striking out five River Rat hitters.

That win set Chelsea up to meet defending Class A champs and tournament hosts, the Dondero Oaks.

Things looked fairly grim for the out-of-towners, as Dondero took Chelsea into the seventh inning with a 4-1 lead. Molly Eisele led off in that inning with a triple and the Chelsea offense suddenly came alive. Shelly Weber and Amanda Schwarze walked, and the bases were loaded with no outs.

Cara Feeney and Jennifer Ringe made the first and second outs of the inning, putting the Bulldogs' backs to the wall.

Senior co-captain Patti Hume stepped up to the plate and ripped a single to drive across two runs, bringing Chelsea within one of Dondero, 4-3. Kim Wood then banged a sharp grounder that the Oaks' first baseman couldn't handle and Amanda Schwarze scored from third to tie the contest at 4-4.

With runners on first and second and two out, Nanette Push drove a line shot deep into the outfield and Patti Hume tore home with the winning run, making the final score 5-4, Chelsea.

Amy Unterbrink took the win after she came in in the sixth inning. She fanned four Oak hitters and yielded only one hit.

"It was by far the greatest come-from-behind victory I have ever seen in my four years of coaching," said an elated and stunned Coach Bill Wescott. "I still don't believe that this is what really happened."

That surprise upset sent the Bulldogs into the final tournament game with Flint Carmen.

Like the previous contest, it was a real test, with the score deadlocked at 1-1 after seven full innings. The proceedings remained scoreless until the bottom of the 10th inning when Anita Powell led off with a walk. Molly Eisele and Maggy Sweet advanced Anita with two sacrifices.

Then, with the score tied and two out, Amanda Schwarze stepped up and banded a double down the left field line to score Powell and give Chelsea the championship by a 2-1 score.

A total of 16 teams competed at the invitational and featured 41 players who had made all-league, all-county, all-metro or all-state. The 16 teams had won a combined total of 289 games so far this season for a winning percentage of 76 percent.

MANY MEMORIES from the past were resurrected Sunday, when old friends came together at the Pleasant Lake House, now known as Aura Inn. Mrs. Helen Lutz Vogel and Mrs. Esther Lutz Schanz, granddaughters of original owner Jacob Lutz, brought the above fascinating photo of a masquerade party held in the roadhouse dance hall in 1912. The band from Chelsea, led by Casey Rafferty, was always a favorite with dancers. Photos that were gathered will be enlarged and placed in the present tavern and a book will be compiled recalling all the memories. Anyone still having information should call the Aura Inn, 428-7993.

Further Clean-Up Work Scheduled at Porter Cemetery

JV Softball Team Wins 4 Big Ones

Wins continued to pile up for the junior varsity softball team last week, as the girls picked up four more decisive victories.

Tuesday, the Bulldogs defeated Jackson County Western behind the one-hit pitching of Amy Unterbrink and Shelly Weber. Unterbrink struck out eight and walked just one in three innings, while Weber cleaned up the last two innings and allowed only one unearned run.

Kim Schmid and Amy Hume each had two hits and scored three runs, while Kim Boyd blasted two hits and three RBIs.

Friday, the JV Blue Team, coached by Donna Stofer, traveled to Lincoln and took the opposition apart, 22-8. Kim Boyd pitched the first three innings and Donna Popovich worked the last two. Boyd struck out four and walked two, and Popovich struck out three and walked two.

Nancy Hastings, Lisa Beeman, Kathy Doll and Kathy Degener each collected two hits in a well-balanced hitting attack. Kim Boyd had the big hit of the game, a two-run homer in the fifth.

Two more wins came to the JV Saturday as they dismantled Ann Arbor Huron's junior varsity, 18-1 and 11-1.

In the first contest, Ann Eisele stopped the Huron team at just three hits and one run. She was almost letter-perfect each time Huron threatened, as in the fourth inning when she struck out the side after yielding two singles. She fanned eight and walked one.

Amy Ziegler, Amy Hume, Ann Eisele and Tracy Borton each pounded out two hits, with Eisele and Borton connecting for doubles. Kim Boyd again led the team with three hits, three runs scored and three RBIs.

Kim Boyd started on the mound in the second game and went five innings as Chelsea shut down Huron under the mercy rule. Boyd struck out five and walked only three in giving up one run. Laurie Cobb punched out two hits and Tracy Borton added a double and drove in two runs.

Borton also made the outstanding fielding play of the day, making an excellent snag in centerfield after a long run.

The steamroller JV is now 16-1 this season and looking forward to a contest today at home against Columbia Central.

Monday, May 19, will be an appreciation night of entertainment, hosted by the Chelsea bands.

At 6:30 p.m., the 7th and 8th grade bands will play in concert in the high school cafeteria. After the program, the junior high stage band will play at a dessert reception for the community.

Following the reception, the ninth grade and high school bands will perform in the auditorium. The symphony band will also show slides of its recent trip to the Mexican Band Festival.

A special invitation to the evening's festivities is extended to those who contributed to the Mexican Festival Project Fund and helped send the band to Mexico.

Tuesday, May 20, a 6th grade musical program will be presented at Beach Middle school at 8 p.m.

The concert will begin with the sixth grade strings, feature the sixth grade band and conclude with the sixth grade chorus, vocal groups and band combined.

This is the only concert of the year for the sixth grade musicians.

Girl Scout Recruitment Program Set

In an effort to make Girl Scout information for the fall program accessible to the community, there will be a Girl Scout recruitment program held Wednesday, May 21, from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Large Group Instruction room at Beach school.

Albert S. Sussman, acting vice-president for academic affairs at U-M, explained that the five are part of a "very limited number of students, selected on the basis of their academic potential, to win this award."

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my gratitude for all the kindness shown me during my recent stay at our Chelsea Community Hospital. Thank you, my good friends, who called and sent cards. Thank you to all the doctors, the nurses and aides who made my stay as comfortable as possible. Thank you to our Fire Department's very efficient Rescue Squad and the ambulance service who so quickly came to our aid. It was good care and prayers that hastened my recovery. Many thanks.

L. D. Guinan.

THANK YOU

The staff and boys of St. Louis school would like to thank all those in the community who supported our recent "Vacation Raffle." We realize how much time and effort were spent by many and difficult it is at times to sell tickets. The following persons were the lucky prizewinners:

1st—Caribbean cruise for two, Claudette Hill.

2nd—Week-end in Toronto for two, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cerco.

3rd—Week-end in Chicago for two, R. Haylena.

We'll not only say thank you, we'll remember you in our prayers.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The red-crepe-paper poppy of the American Legion Auxiliary is hand-made by disabled veterans in hospitals and workshops. Veterans are paid for each flower they assemble. All material used is furnished free of charge to the veteran, the American Legion Auxiliary pays for the material.

Poppy Day, May 16, is sponsored each year by the American Legion Auxiliary to give citizens the opportunity to wear a poppy in memory of those who gave their lives defending our country and to contribute to the rehabilitation of needy veterans in nursing homes and hospitals all over the country.

Traditionally, there has never been any price fixed to the poppy. All monies received from the program go for the aid to disabled veterans or members of their families.

"Wear a Poppy," lest we forget to honor the dead and aid the living. Let us remember—it is the Poppy—made with loving hands and love in our hearts that carried on the programs of Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation and children and youth.

Ruth Christwell,
American Legion Auxiliary.
