2 Qualify for Girls State Track Meet

Several Bulldog girl tracksters turned in fine performances in the regional meet last Saturday, with two team members turning in state-qualifying performances.

Lorrie Vandegrift won the high jump with a leap of 5', good in the rainy, wet conditions. Her victory is the first regional championship in a field event for a Chelsea girl and qualifies her for the state championships Saturday, May 31, at Sturgis.

Also qualifying was Mary Boylan, who threw the discus 106'9" for second place.

Girls Track Team Defeats JC Western

Chelsea's girls track team, led by victories in all three relays, ended the dual meet season on a successful note by beating Jackson County Western, 75-48.

The 880 relay of Debbie Honbaum, Lisa Vandegrift, Kathy Honbaum and Tracy Bohlender ran their best time of the season to win the event. Sue Branham, Lisa Vandegrift, Kathy Honbaum and Marleen Williams combined to win the 400 relay and Beth Heller, Nancy Heller, Barb Davis and Pris Drew kept pace by winning the mile relay. It was the first time all season that the Bulldogs won all three relays.

Tracy Bohlender had a fine day, anchoring the 800 relay, equaling a class record in the high jump in finishing third, and lowering her own school record in the 200 hurdles.

COLOR GUARD: Members of the Chelsea American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars Posts and Auxiliaries headed the delegation and the entire parade last Monday, when Chelsea held its traditional Memorial Day celebration. Chelseaites marched to Oak Grove Cemetery, where they heard speakers and offered prayers for those who have given their lives in service to their country.

DSA: Millie Smith displays the plaque she received from the Chelsea Jaycees Tuesday night, as the winner of their annual Distinguished Service Award. Mrs. Smith, a resident of the Chelsea Methodist Home, was cited for her work with South school students. Present at the sur-

JV Baseball Team Wins SEC Title

Chelsea's solid JV baseballers sewed up the SEC title last Thursday, when they thumped Jackson County Western, 7-2.

In the first inning, the Bulldogs jumped off to a quick lead on the speed of Ross Murphy, who walked, stole second and scored from second base on an infield ground out.

In the second inning, Tim Whitesall led off with a walk, stole second and third and scored on Randy Krichbaum's perfect bunt. Neither team had a hit until the fourth inning, when Whitesall led off with a double to right center.

Bob Trevino followed with a single to center to score Whitesall. Walks to Craig Olmsted and Ross Murphy loaded the bases, and two runs scored on John Welton's single to left. Two more came in on a Mike Bareis double and Chelsea took a commanding 7-0 lead.

Western scored two runs in the sixth to finalize the score at 7-2.

Sam Coomes had the Bulldogs' only other hit. John Welton pitched a three hitter, striking out 10 and picking up his sixth win.

The victory gave the JV a (Continued on page six)

Daphne Fletcher Is State Finalist

Daphne Fletcher, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fletcher of Chelsea, has been selected to be a state finalist in the 1980 Miss United Teenager Pageant, to be held at Adrian College on July 22.

The pageant is the official state-wide finals for the Miss United Teenager Pageant.

Contestants from all over the state will be competing for the title. All are between the ages of 14 and 18 and must have at least a B average in school. They are requested to participate in the pageant Volunteer Community Service Program, in which many youngsters contribute at least eight hours of time to a charity or civic work of their choice.

Miss Fletcher is being sponsored by Ralph Fletcher Mobil. A student at Chelsea High school, her hobbies include collecting plants of various types. She also enjoys recreational sports.

Contestants will be judged on scholastics, civic achievements, beauty, poise and personality. No swimsuit competition is required. Each contestant will write and recite on stage a 100-word essay on the subject "My Country."

The winner of the state pageant will receive an all-expense paid trip to the national finals, a three-phase pageant in Hollywood, Waikiki Beach and Washington, D.C.

JC Service Award Goes to Millie Smith

Millie Smith was surprised by the Chelsea Jaycees Tuesday night when they presented her with the Distinguished Service Award for 1979.

Mrs. Smith, a 78-year-old resident of the Chelsea Methodist Home, was recognized for her many years of volunteer service at South school.

The award was presented by Charles Cameron following the Spring Sing at Chelsea High school. Jaycee president Bob Meyer explained that the group specifically chose to present the award at a function attended by South school students, who have benefited from her attention over the years.

Chelsea Jaycees annually present this award to a deserving citizen of the community. The unconventional presentation site was chosen after the usual banquet was cancelled.

Phyllis Muncer, who nominated Mrs. Smith for the award, wrote in her statement: "Mrs. Smith has for many years donated her time, buying her own materials, to assist in teaching first graders to read."

Other examples of Mrs. Smith's services to the community were cited, including her efforts to help an exchange student learn English.

Mrs. Smith was well prepared for the attention she gave students, having taught in the Ypsilanti School System for 30 years.

Fighting the stereotype of a septuagenarian, Mrs. Smith maintains a very active and youthful attitude and schedule. Among her favorite activities is the taking of long walks — such as the one she made a few years ago, climbing the entire trail at the Grand Canyon. She made a repeat performance of that feat a few weeks ago.

"Thanks to Mrs. Smith and others like her, including this year's judges Lyle Chriswell and Ann Peeney, Chelsea is a better community for us all to live and grow in," said Meyer.

Girls Track Team 3rd in SEC Finals

Chelsea's girls track team came up with some outstanding team and individual performances Tuesday, to finish third in the Southeastern Conference track meet.

This effort boosted them into a tie with Milan for third in the final league standings. The Bulldogs had 67 points in the meet, two behind second-place Dexter and 10 ahead of Milan. Lincoln won with 103.

Balance was the key to Chelsea's strong finish, along with superior strength in the field events. Chelsea dominated the field with 31 points to Lincoln's 23. Lincoln gained its advantage with excellent sprinters, winning every sprint and hurdle race and both sprint relays.

Lorrie Vandegrift paced the Bulldog field event attack, winning the shot put and finishing second in the high jump and discus. Mary Boylan won the discus with a school record throw of 107'7", and finished fourth in the shot. Tracy Bohlender added a fourth in the high jump and Pris Drew contributed a point with sixth in the long jump.

Vandegrift concluded her successful day with a sixth in the 100 meter hurdles with her best season time. Lincoln and Milan, as expected, took five of six places in the 100 dash, one of only two events in which Chelsea didn't score.

Teresa Hoffman was fourth in the 1600-meter run with a senior record time of 5:42.3, the second-best time ever run by a Bulldog girl.

The 400 relay of Debbie Honbaum, Lorrie Vandegrift, Kathy Honbaum and Tracy Bohlender edged Dexter for third with a season best of 1:51. Debbie Honbaum came right back in the 400 and finished third in a school record :61.1.

Marleen Williams, Vandegrift, Kathy Honbaum and Sue Branham combined for fifth in the 400 relay. Tracy Bohlender established another school record with a :31.9 in the 200 hurdles, finishing third.

Nancy Heller was second in the 800 with an excellent 2:27.5, and Teresa Hoffman added her second fourth place in her distance double. Debbie Honbaum was fifth in the 200 as Lincoln got three of the top four places.

After chasing the Bulldogs all evening, Dexter closed to within one point with a 1-5 finish in the 3200. Milan was only three back, setting the stage for a showdown in the 1600 relay.

A real showdown it turned out to be. Karen Wade, anchoring for Lincoln, made up 15 yards to pull ahead of Chelsea for third, but the effort was too much. As Wade faltered at the finish, Tracy Bohlender overtook her for third. Wade was clocked under 58 seconds for her lap, Bohlender at :60.7 for hers.

Tracy Early ran a sub-60 for Milan and hit the tape first with Dexter second. Milan, however, (Continued on page two)

Diesel Fuel Increases; Truckers Qualify for Discount
The per gallon tax on diesel fuel has been increased by an act of the legislature which was coupled with a permit system for truckers to qualify for a six-cent per gallon discount on the new 11-cent per gallon tax.

The plan is part of a program designed to aid truck stop operators, especially those near state borders, who have been suffering from lost sales as truckers have not been purchasing fuel in the state due to Michigan's higher taxes.

The tax was increased from 7 to 9 cents per gallon in 1978 as part of the revenue package of the mass transportation plan. That per gallon tax, coupled with Michigan's sales tax on diesel fuel, has cost truck stop operators much business.

The recently approved compromise package has been in the works since the enactment of the transportation package in 1978.

The package further requires out-of-state truckers to either purchase fuel in the state or pay a tax equivalent to the number of miles driven within the state.

Commercial trucking companies wanting to qualify for the six-cent per gallon discount on the diesel fuel tax, would be required to purchase a qualifying permit at a cost of $92 for each vehicle.

With the sticker, the discount would be given at the pump by the truck stop operator.

The $92 permit fee would make up much of the lost revenue given as a discount, plus aid in governing the cost of administering the program.

The other lost revenues are expected to be picked up by increased sales resulting from truckers finding Michigan per gallon costs competitive with other bordering states.

Restitution Sentencing Approved

Probationers could be required to perform community service or pay restitution as part of their probation under legislation recently approved by the Michigan House of Representatives.

The bill establishes the options a sentencing judge has when ordering the conditions of a probationer's release.

Along with community service and restitution, a probationer can also be ordered to pay fines, pay prosecution costs, be imprisoned for no more than six months or perform other legal functions.

Current law allows a judge to order restitution, but critics said the law was unclear on the conditions that could be imposed.

The bill would also allow a judge to order immediate restitution, or payments in specific installments.

Restitution cannot be ordered, however, unless the probationer actually can make the payments.

Further, the legislation would also allow the probationer to ask the court to remit the restitution. A judge could also remit or modify the restitution if it was evident that it hurt the probationer's immediate family.

Any probationer who defaulted on restitution or other probation conditions could be held in contempt.

PBB Clean-up

A final bill, or at least says sponsor Senator John Hertel (D-Harper Woods), to solve the state's PBB problem has been cleared by the legislature.

It provides for any residual clean-up being recontaminated and final testing of milk samples of dairy herds not already exempted from the testing requirements.

Waterloo Plans Memorial Day Service on June 1

Waterloo Village will celebrate Memorial Day with a service at the UME church Sunday, June 1, at 2 p.m.

Speaker for the day will be Russell Noble, circuit judge of Jackson.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER-EDITOR:

The fellers got to talking about old time religion Saturday night at the country store, and afore the feller that runs the store run em out so he could close up and go home they had brung up old time everthing. Ed Doolittle was lamenting how all parts of the Christian body are looking so hard for points to agree on instead of disagree until all of em now are praying to whom it may concern. Ed said he was Baptist then, now and allus, though he allowed he don't know which branch. All he knows, he said, is that you're put plum under when you're baptised.

That was enough to git Josh Clodhopper started. Josh don't talk much at the sessions, but when you're as strong a Methodist as he is you don't take talk like Ed's setting down. Ed said plum under is the only way, allowing that when you scald a hog you don't pour water on him, you throw him in the vat. Josh wanted to know if putting a person in water up to his knees was good enough for Ed. It weren't. How about to the waist? No, then would to the eyes be deep enough? When Ed declared you had to have more than that Josh rested his case. After all, he told Ed, all you want is the top of the head anyhow, and we Methodists do that.

Natural, Clem Webster had to chime in from the amen corner. Clem said he was of the school that looks fer agreement, but he alus had been curious about how good Josh's preachers like fried chicken. Clem recalled the tale of the old Methodist circuit rider that dropped his upper plate overboard while he was fishing from a bridge. He couldn't preach without his teeth and he couldn't swim, so he called on his head deacon fer help. The story goes that the deacon tied a chicken leg to the preacher's fishing line, dropped it in the water and them teeth snapped at that drumstick like a bass at a jiterbug lure. Josh confessed that in the Great Depression it was fatal fer even a stringy old rooster to crow around preachers.

As fer fishing, Zeke Grubb said he like the old days when it was ever fish fer hisself. He had saw where the Government was perfecting fish like that two-inch snail darter in Tennessee, and he said that all the fish he'd ever tried to catch was more than able to look out fer theirselves. Zeke went on to declare that what we call progress mostly is outsmarting ourselves. Fer instans, he had saw where a contractor in Missouri had paid a outfit $20,000 to use somepun called a proton-precession magnetometer to find water in a new park, and they drilled dry holes all over up to 800 feet. Final, a neighbor come over with a sappy grape vine fer a divining rod and struck water at four places two feet underground. Farthermore, Zeke said, the more we advance in medicine the more we look to the herbs and home remedies he growed up with. Everthing from shampoo to spring tonics is being called her-bal now, declared Zeke, and some of it actual is. He says he's waiting fer sassafras to make a comeback and take over as the all-purpose everthing.

Yours truly,

was disqualified, moving Dexter to first and the Chelsea team of Hoffman, Drew, Bohlender and Debbie Honbaum into second. Their time of 4:11.3 was 12 seconds faster than their previous best and established Chelsea's fourth school record of the night.

It also typified the effort given by the Bulldog tracksters. "We surprised a lot of people," said Coach Bill Bainton. "We came up with our best performances at the right time and were very happy with our results. It was an enjoyable way to finish the season. I'm proud of this team."

SEC girls champions this year include two Bulldogs. Lorrie Vandegrift was shot put champ with a put of 33'1", and Mary Boylan heaved the discus 107'7" for that championship.

Lincoln and Dexter dominated the other categories, with Lincoln taking nine individual championships, and Dexter taking three. Jackson County Western took one individual championship, in the 1600.

Track Team 6th in Conference Meet

Bob Ball captured the shot put (48'11") and discus (148') at the SEC league track meet last Wednesday, performing well despite an injured hand which had hampered his distances.

"Bob did a fine job, just as he has all year long," praised Coach Pat Clarke. "I only hope his hand will come around for the state meet this Saturday."

Other placers at the meet were Bill Freeman, 4th in shot put (42'6") and 5th in discus with a life time best of 126'6"; Ken Bauer, 5th in 200-meter dash (:23.7) and 6th in the 100-meter dash (:11.7); sophomore Bob Schleede 5th in 1600-meter run (4:40.8); and junior Jeff Bradley, 5th in 3200-meter run at 10:25.

Freshman Mark Brosnan turned in an outstanding performance, placing fourth in the 3200-meter run in freshman record time of 10:22, breaking the old record by more than 10 seconds. "Mark ran an excellent race," enthused Coach Clarke.

Over-all, Chelsea finished sixth in the league meet with 36 points. The meet was taken by Lincoln with 98 points.

in Observance of

May 25 - 31, 1980

MICHIGAN KIWANIS WEEK

The well-being of Michigan's young citizens depends upon the guidance and understanding of a responsible adult population working hand in hand for a better tomorrow.

Kiwanis International has announced its major emphasis in 1979-80 will be to build together. Its theme is "Right Start - Hand in Hand with Youth."

The Michigan District of Kiwanis has adopted a theme of "Accent on Youth" through such programs as Choices About Drugs and Drinking, Circle K and Key Clubs, the hospital coloring book program, the encouragement of programs for good health and exercise, and the recruitment of young people in Kiwanis Clubs.

Therefore, I, William G. Milliken, Governor of the State of Michigan, do hereby declare May 25 - 31, 1980, as Michigan Kiwanis Week, and urge our citizens to acquaint themselves with its "Accent on Youth" program and with the needs of our youth, and to avail themselves of the special opportunities provided by the Kiwanis Clubs in their communities to work hand in hand with youth, recognizing that it is by precept and example that we are best able to develop a more intelligent, active and involved citizenship.

Given under my hand on this thirteenth day of May in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred eighty and of the Commonwealth one hundred forty-fourth.

William G. Milliken
GOVERNOR

BOB BALL was a real ray of sunshine for Chelsea's tracksters Wednesday as he captured first place in the shot put and discus at the SEC league meet. In spite of an injured hand, Ball displayed the same consistency he has all year and came through for Chelsea. Ball will compete in both events in the state track meet this Saturday.

JOHN PRESTON (7) slides into base as a Novi defender attempts to put the tag on him. The Bulldogs managed to stay close in every contest this season except the Novi game last week, in which Chelsea was tromped, 17-4. A bright spot was Ross Stofflet, who drove in all the Bulldog runs with a grand slam homer.

Baseball Team Blasts Western, 9-1

It was a slam-bang finish to a see-saw season for Chelsea's varsity baseballers, as they dismantled Jackson County Western, 9-1, to finish out the 1980 season.

Earlier in the week, Chelsea fell victim to Saline and ace pitcher Jim Phelps, 4-1, and took a lambasting from Novi, 17-4.

Thursday's contest with Jackson County Western was a big one in many ways for the Bulldogs. Chuck Moore, hard-throwing senior pitcher, hadn't won a game all season despite excellent work. According to Coach Wayne Welton, Moore went out and "pitched a masterpiece" against Western, walking none, striking out 11 and yielding only four hits.

Moore ended the season with a fine 1.21 earned run average.

Chelsea bats boomed 13 total hits off the bats of John Preston, Mike Bohlender, Ross Stofflet, John Dunn, Drew Sprague, Brad Knickerbocker, Craig Thams, Mike Wade and Mike Wood. Bohlender led in RBIs with four.

Tuesday, Chelsea played well but ended up victims of Saline pitcher Jim Phelps, who hasn't lost a game in two seasons. Saline bats produced two runs in the first and two more in the fifth to put the game away for Phelps.

Chelsea managed to get on the scoreboard with their sole run in the fifth inning, on a walk to Ross Stofflet, a Lou Jahnke single and a double by Moore. The only other Chelsea hit was a Jeff Dils double.

Phelps was tough throughout, striking out 10 Bulldogs and walking only one. Brad Knickerbocker was the losing Chelsea pitcher and Chuck Moore came on in relief.

Nothing prepared the team for the lambasting it took the next day at the hands of Novi. Novi racked up 13 runs in the first inning and went on to romp over the Bulldogs, 17-4.

Coach Welton pointed out that of all the games played this season, the Novi contest was the only one that Chelsea never had a chance to win.

A bright spot, as he has been all year, Ross Stofflet pounded a grand-slam home run in the third inning to drive in all four Bulldog runs.

Other hits were collected by Bohlender, Dils and John Dunn.

Welton expressed the belief that if Chelsea had the season to play over again now, the team's 7-13 final record would be reversed.

A highlight, Welton said, is that the first four hitters in the batting order — Preston, Bohlender, Dils and Stofflet — will all be returning to the varsity next year. In addition, he said, the JV had an excellent year, winning the SEC title, and should contribute to next year's varsity.

Debbie Honbaum placed fourth in the 440 and the mile relay of Debbie Honbaum, Lisa Vandegrift, Teresa Hoffman and Tracy Bohlender placed sixth. The 880 relay team clocked a fine 1:52 time, but their season best wasn't good enough to score in a tough field.

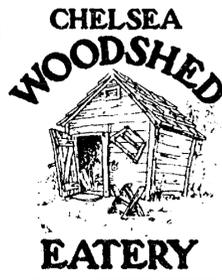

Chelsea finished seventh in the 16-team meet with 23 points. Holt won with 68, followed by Okemos, with 57 and Lumen Christi with 56. Battle Creek Harper Creek was fourth with 42.

In the late 1870's and early 1880's, the movement for a federal bureau of labor statistics gained strength, according to an article, "The Origin of the U. S. Department of Labor," reprints of which are available from the department.

Dexter Township Man Charged With Illegal Drain Dredging

A Dexter township man has pled not guilty to charges brought by the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) that he illegally dredged a Washtenaw County Drain Commission drain easement near Four Mile Lake.

Albert Ruhlig, 11591 Colby Rd., made his plea before Judge Kenneth Bronson in 14th District Court last week. A trial date on the misdemeanor charge has been set for Sept. 8.

Chelsea Rd. and empties into Mill Creek (Lett's Creek).

The DNR first received a complaint about the dredge in February on an Ann Arbor man, but it wasn't received by Officer Koppelo until sometime in March. Investigation of the incident by DNR, Land Resources and Soil Conservation Department led to a warrant being sought for dredging without a permit and trespassing and damage to state land.

Whether or not Ruhlig will be found guilty of the charges, it is certain that dredging was done in the area and that DNR and the commission must assess the possible injuries done to the lake and its plants and animals.

Koppelo said the possibility of the lake dropping half a foot or more is a serious one, because Four Mile Lake recedes naturally in the summer. A feasibility study will have to be done by DNR engineers to determine whether the lake will recede and what measures could be taken to prevent it from doing so.

The DNR and the county allege that Ruhlig hired a contractor to dredge some 200 yards of the drain in February of 1980 without first receiving permission from the two agencies. According to DNR Conservation Officer Sue Koppelo, the department has reason to believe that the dredging done there may cause the level of Four Mile Lake to drop this summer, perhaps as much as one-half foot to a foot.

Water flows through the ditch from the lake under Dexter-

Washtenaw County Prosecutor's Office disallowed the latter felony charges and issued a warrant for the former, which is a misdemeanor, under Act 346.

According to Koppelo, Ruhlig has sharecropped on a piece of property on a marl pond north of Four Mile Lake, owned by Ernest Girbach of Saline. She said that Ruhlig approached the Drain Commission and the DNR last year regarding the permits necessary to have the ditch dredged and thereby drain part

Chelsea Gains Share in Electric Power Plant

The Michigan Public Power Agency, of which Chelsea is a member, recently approved the sale of $4,370,000 Campbell Project Revenue bonds. Proceeds from the bonds will be used to acquire a 4.8 percent (37,950) kilowatt interest in Campbell Number 3, a 791 megawatt coal-fired generating plant owned by Consumers Power Company and located on Lake Michigan near Holland.

Number 3 plant and become part owners of it with Consumers Power Co. In the long run, he said, this will provide cheaper energy for the village of Chelsea.

Currently, Weber said, Chelsea is selling its power entitlement back to Consumers Power. However, the village forsee taking that entitlement by 1985 and getting the power more cheaply than buying it wholesale from Consumers Power.

The agency, formed in 1978 with Chelsea as an original member, is formed of 18 lower Michigan communities who are Michigan municipal electric systems. Participants in the purchase are Bay City, Charlevoix, Chelsea, Harbor Springs, Hart, Holland, Lowell, Petoskey, Portland and Traverse City.

Purpose of joining the agency, Weber said, was to guarantee the Chelsea electric system power at the lowest cost to consumers of that power.

The bonds were sold at a net interest cost of 8.3954 percent and purchased by an underwriting team comprised of Smith Barney, Harris Upham and Co., the lead manager; First of Michigan Corporation; Bache Halsey Stuart Shields; The First Boston Corp. and Salomon Brothers.

Other member cities, not a part of the acquisition, are Crosswell, Grand Haven, Niles, Paw Paw, St. Louis, Sebewaing, South Haven and Zeeland.

According to Chelsea Administrator Frederick Weber, the agency was formed to undertake ways and means to provide energy for the present or future needs of the member municipalities.

Officers of the agency, elected at its annual meeting April 15, are William Strom of Traverse City, chairman; Ronald Dawson of Grand Haven, vice-chairman; Martin Heffte of Zeeland, assistant secretary; and Richard Gorman of Petoskey, general manager and secretary-treasurer.

Rather than build its own plant, Weber said, the agency decided to buy an interest in the Campbell

Speech Therapy Program Slated

Chelsea Community Hospital is sponsoring a program of speech and language therapy for pre-school aged children during the summer of 1980. A special parent group will be included, which will meet one time per week to discuss speech and language problems and their impact on the family.

Any child, age one and up, living in western Washtenaw and surrounding counties with a speech, language, and/or hearing problem is eligible for the program. Children with problems such as delayed language development, pronunciation problems, difficulty putting ideas into words, stuttering, cleft palate, and hearing loss are welcome.

The speech therapy will be conducted in small groups of 2-4 children. Each group will meet for three 50-minute sessions on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday each week. The program will last for seven weeks, beginning June 24 and ending Aug. 7. Prior to the program each child will receive a comprehensive speech and language evaluation. The speech therapy groups will meet at North Elementary school in Chelsea, and the parent group will meet at Chelsea Community Hospital. The cost of the entire program will be $200 per child. Partial and complete scholarships are available.

The speech pathology staff believes that the extensive speech therapy program coupled with the parent groups will provide maximum benefit to the children.

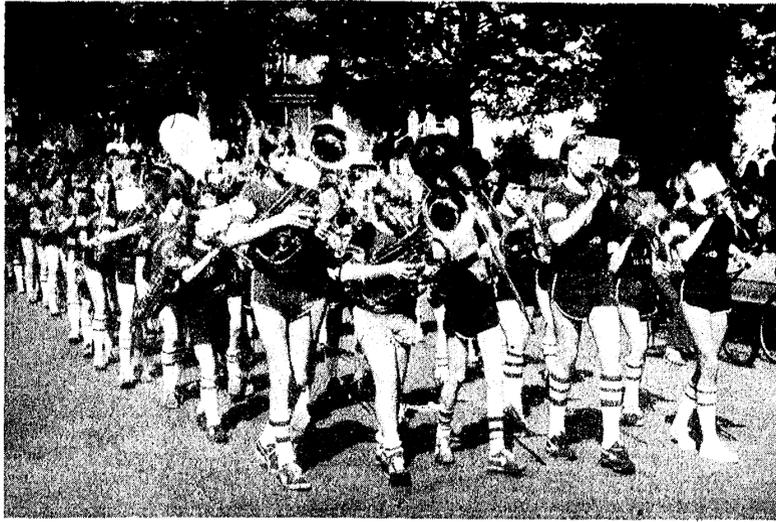

Interested parties should contact Kathleen Anderson, Director of Speech Pathology, Chelsea Community Hospital, 475-1311 Ext. 351.

Hospital Child Care Center Starts New Summer Program

Chelsea Community Hospital Child Care Center is starting a special summer program for children aged 5 to 8 years. The program will begin June 9 and will continue until school begins in the fall. The curriculum will consist of both educational and recreational activities.

Each child will be provided with opportunities to find satisfaction in the completion of work. They are allowed to assume responsibility, appropriate to their age and development, in planning, carrying out, and evaluating tasks. Gardening is a popular activity during the summer months. The children will learn about gardening as a process—preparing the soil, planting, water, cultivating, and harvesting.

The Center operates from 6:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. It is located at St. Paul United Church of Christ, 14600 Old US-12 in Chelsea. For further information please contact Corinne Priehs, 475-1920.

LIMA-SCIO LEARNING-BY-DOING

Lima Scio Learning By Doing 4-H club will meet Saturday May 31 to re-organize for the summer project season. The meeting begins at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Keith Bradbury on Easton Rd. For further information, please call leaders, Mrs. Bradbury at 475-8316 or Mrs. Harold Sias, 475-1076.

CHELSEA SCHOOL BOARD CANDIDATE

ANNE M. COMEAU

I have been involved in schools in many capacities during the past nineteen years. I have served with P.T.A.'s on committees, as President, Secretary, and Liaison (to the school board) Chairman.

I have been a member of an Advisory Council, a member of teacher-parent dialogues, and otherwise actively involved in all levels of public school education.

Civic Associations and Women's Clubs are part of my background. I have served in several offices and as President of the Women's Club.

It was very beneficial to me to be a 4-H leader for eight years in a community club, horse club, exchange club and teen council.

I am a former member of the American Dental Hygienists Association and Past President of the Massachusetts Dental Hygienists Association.

In the past year I have served as a member of 'Dialogue with the Superintendent,' a member of the Millage Committee, a volunteer in the Media Center at South School and as a charter volunteer during the institution of the New Chelsea Senior Citizen Program.

I am concerned that Chelsea Schools maintain a balanced program geared to what the community can afford.

We know a tax reform will be a reality in the future — hopefully we can establish, as a community, which reform will best benefit Chelsea.

All students must be educationally well prepared — they are the future leaders of our community. Vocational, agricultural and college bound interests need a diversified curriculum built upon the 3 R's. Educational institutions are responsible for seeing that the academic enrichment and recreational needs of the entire community are met, thus they must be used to their full potential.

My husband Ed and I are members of St. Mary's Church and have four children. The oldest, Cindy, has graduated; Meg was a '79 graduate of Chelsea High School; Sarah is in 7th grade at Beach School; and Laura is in 3rd grade at South School.

Thank you for your time and I would appreciate your support in building an even better Chelsea School District.

Michigan Food Facts Booklet Now Available

The 1980 edition of Michigan Food Facts has been published by the Michigan Department of Agriculture in time for Michigan Week festivities, according to Dean M. Pridgeon, MDA director.

Pridgeon said the 16-page booklet describes more than 50 food crops grown commercially in our state and displays many "good things growing in Michigan" on the four-color cover. Major crop growing areas are identified in Food Facts, as well as crop volume and value. The state's production rank in comparison to other states is also listed.

"Although farm acreage in Michigan is less than at any time since 1880," Pridgeon said, "our state leads the nation in production of five food crops and ranks fifth or higher in 24 others."

"Each Michigan farmer produces enough food to feed himself and 64 other people, one of the best agricultural land in the world, a resource we must protect, since it cannot be replaced."

Agriculture is the state's second largest industry worth $12 billion to Michigan's economy. Farmers received an estimated $2.4 billion in 1979. Addition of transportation, processing and marketing costs brought the total retail value to more than $12 billion!

Copies of the 1980 Michigan Food Facts are available without cost by writing or calling MDA's Communications office, P. O. Box 30017, Lansing 48909, (517) 373-1104.

Special Ed Students Camp At Hayes Park

North school Special Education classes took their annual spring camping expedition May 6-9, traveling to Hayes State Park in the Irish Hills.

Accompanied by teachers Bernie Hines and Jody Williams, 22 North school students and 18 students from Manchester and Dexter spent four days enjoying the out of doors.

Students did all their own cooking during the four days. Money was raised by the campers at a staff luncheon, and they also benefited by donations from the Chelsea Lions Club and the Lionsess Club.

At the camp, the children slept in bunk beds in cabins, took nature hikes, did crafts and enjoyed orienteering, night hikes, campfire singing and ghost stories.

Robert Benedict, North school principal, brought his ukelele to the campgrounds one night and led a round of campfire singing. The Irish Hills location has proved a popular choice for the North school campers for the past few years.

CHS Class of '70 Now Plans Picnic Instead of Reunion

A committee planning the 10-year reunion of the Chelsea High school Class of 1970 has been forced to cancel plans previously made.

Because only 25 responses were received before the deadline, formal plans have been cancelled. The committee has decided to have a picnic on July 26 at Hudson Mills Metropark on North Territorial Rd., Dexter. Those wanting to attend should send $5 to the committee. A dish to pass would be appreciated, but is not necessary. The picnic will begin at 11 a.m., with lunch to be served at 1 p.m.

The committee will be returning all money received, so those who paid for the previous activity will have to submit another check. New deadline is June 21 and the committee hopes for a better response.

First Auto Patent Filed By Selden in 1879

George B. Selden filed a patent May 8, 1879 on a horseless carriage powered by an internal combustion engine. With the rise of auto manufacturing years later, Selden went to court to prove he held the sole patent. He went so far in 1907 as to build a working full-sized model of his vehicle, but he lost the case. The Duryea brothers, among others, were freed from having to pay royalties to Selden. Selden's 1907 auto is now on exhibit in the Transportation Collection of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

At Ann Arbor Trust, our simple method for computing service charges on Commercial Checking Accounts makes it possible for you to completely avoid paying any service charge.

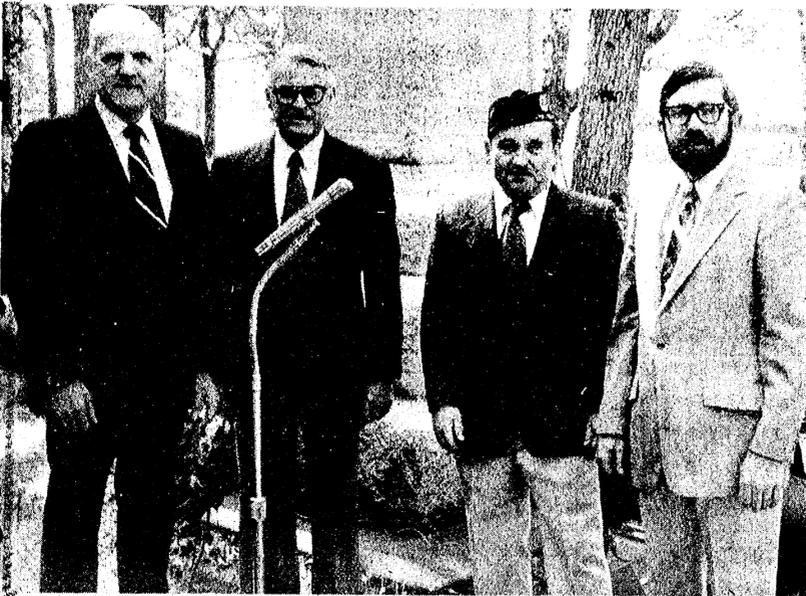

NO GUESSWORK. Most Banks use a complex mathematical formula to compute service charges on business checking accounts. So you never know what your service charge will be until you get your bank statement. At The Bank of Trust, you always know exactly where you stand.

WE KEEP IT SIMPLE. Our Commercial Checking Plans are designed for the business person who doesn't have time to think about complicated fee structures. All you have to do is maintain an average monthly balance of $1000 or more, and you'll completely avoid paying service charges. Should your monthly average balance be less than $1000, a flat charge of $5 will be assigned.

THE BANK OF TRUST IS FIGHTING INFLATION. While other banks are raising their service charges, ours has remained the same for the past six years.

Dale Fisher Heliphoto Art Being Accepted Nationally

retired General Dwight Beach of Chelsea; officer of the day and master of ceremonies, Ray Lutovsky; and the Rev. James Stacey, who gave the invocation and benediction.

"It is no accident that the photographer becomes a photographer," well-known picture taker Dorothea Lange once wrote, "any more than the lion tamer becomes a lion tamer."

She might have gone on to say that common to both is a sense of struggling with untamed forces to produce a desired result and bring order out of a kind of chaos.

Such is the photographic art of local resident Dale Fisher, who captures and frames nature with the aid of a camera, a helicopter and an innate sense of how to capture the beauty of the world.

Fisher, known for years around Chelsea as "the man who takes pictures from up in the sky," has moved in a new direction in the past two or three years, refining his selections and choices in a bid to produce art from his squat, boxy camera.

Photographs are still not widely accepted as being "fine art" in many circles, but Fisher has an unswerving belief in the artistic worth of the photographs he creates. Dedicated to reproducing the beauties of nature never seen by humans rooted to the ground, he shoots the forests, lakes and mountains in ways that transform them from mere reproductions into interpretations.

How he does this is still somewhat of a mystery, even to Fisher himself. A photography student at Washtenaw Community College who sought his philosophy and theory of composition for a class project came away empty handed.

"I don't have a theory of photography," he insists. "I don't want to know my theory of composition. Whatever it is, I don't want it to go away."

In this, Fisher admits that he is somewhat "peculiar" among photographers, who generally have at least some sort of answer ready for that question.

Instinct necessarily must play a large part in photographing objects dozens of feet off the ground in a large, whirring machine rushing over the landscape below. Years of training in the Navy as an aerial photographer Fisher says, have submerged his technical skills into instinct and allowed him to produce work that goes beyond technical training.

A man who moved to rural Chelsea to escape urban "civilization," Fisher keenly appreciates the irony of relying on two of the most civilized of inventions, the camera and the helicopter, to produce portraits of serene and untamed nature. But while the helicopter helped him develop a successful commercial photography business, it also allows him to move away from the commercial into a sphere of photography shared by no other artists.

Fisher allows that it is instinct that keeps him unique in the field, but also cites tremendous expenses of maintaining a helicopter and pilot. Flying the machine costs $3.25 or more per minute, and he may spend several hours in the air for one photo. Conventional photographers who are artists on the ground find themselves with problems in the sky, Fisher says. Everything just moves too quickly to use normal techniques of framing and composition. That's where the instinct comes in.

Although he has cut down on the number of commercial jobs he takes, Fisher still takes commissions from business and industry to pay the bill for his growing artistic enterprises.

Those enterprises currently include a Mackinac Island portfolio of photographs suitable for framing and almost ready for marketing, and a number of other portfolios of Ann Arbor, Charlevoix, Vermont, the Atlantic and other areas of the country.

Also in the works for a number of years and slated to be published soon is a large-format, hard-cover book on Ann Arbor, featuring photographs of the diverse aspects of the city.

Having done commercial photographs for so long, Fisher says that the difference between them and what he considers to be art is not clear cut, but can be felt. "Emotion is very important," he explained. "Photos can be artistically done, but still be commercial. When a photo is art, it is a combination of emotion, composition and other things."

A good example is a photograph of a sailboat at sunset, captured on the spur of the moment as the boat sailed by the dock on which Fisher was sitting. The photo, for which Fisher had to rouse his sleeping pilot and risk being dumped in the drink, is lifted above the common by a sense of emotion passing between two people on the boat.

Without the two silhouetted people, Fisher said, it would be just another photograph, suitable for mass production.

DALE FISHER combines the unlikely elements of a helicopter, a box camera and Navy aerial photography training to produce art in the form of glorious nature photographs. A familiar local sight in his crew cut and blue flight suit, Fisher and his helicopter have begun to move away from commercial photography into the more uncertain and rewarding regions of gallery art.

Fisher is not well known for his photography, but should be very soon. Art Collectors Galleries, with 28 galleries in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware, has just agreed to carry his entire collection.

Locally, his work was selected for the new Ann Arbor Trust Co. building and was also exhibited in the downtown Ann Arbor office of Ann Arbor Trust Co. The Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary has just gotten the final go-ahead to decorate 56 rooms in Chelsea Hospital with his photographs. The auxiliary is sponsoring the project and also financing the purchase of the photographs from its own funds.

Although the financial rewards are lean at this point, Fisher is determined to make a contribution to photography as an art form rather than just sell photographs. He describes his resistance to saturating the market with cheap photographs and greeting cards just to get his name before the public.

"Once you're cheap, you're cheap," he says firmly. It's difficult not to give in to the financial lures, he explains, but the decision, sometimes "very painful," has been made.

Completely serious about his move toward artistic photography, Fisher set a timetable for when his pictures might begin to sell and when he might begin to be recognized in the field. He now feels that his estimate was a bit conservative and that recognition may come sooner than expected.

Another photographer, Emmet Gowin, once wrote: "Photography is a tool for dealing with things everybody knows about but isn't attending to. My photographs are intended to represent something you don't see."

That belief, expressed silently in dozens of sensitive studies of the world as seen from above, is also the philosophy of Dale Fisher.

FFA Gives Program to 3rd Graders

Students of Mrs. Crouch's third grade class at North Elementary school learned about agriculture Wednesday, May 21, from Chelsea High school vocational agriculture students who are involved with the topic on a first-hand basis.

Instructors for the elementary students were Mark Machesky, Colleen Lewis, Shawn Ball and Kelly O'Neil of the Chelsea Chapter of the FFA, who conducted the program as part of the FFA's "Food for America" program, which is the organization's effort for a better rural-urban understanding.

"Food for America" is designed to improve leadership abilities in FFA members while communicating the story of modern agriculture to elementary school children.

These chapter members served as discussion leaders in the classroom, utilizing a set of instructional resource materials that include an activity resource book containing duplicating masters of the educational games included.

The entire "Food for America" project is co-sponsored through the National FFA Foundation, Inc., and by three agricultural businesses: American Breeders Service, Division of W. R. Grace & Co.; J.I. Case, a Tenneco Company; and Mobay Chemical Corp. Funds from the sponsoring companies and from the FFA Foundation general fund have been used to develop and distribute resource materials.

The FFA appears to be in a favorable position to tackle the issue of improving producer-consumer understanding and the over-all understanding of agriculture. With more than 97,000 members across the nation in 9,000 high schools, members are able to provide the human contact to many individuals, together with visual and printed information.

"We are concerned that so few young people understand where their food comes from," says the Chelsea FFA Chapter. "Our members are well qualified to help elementary school children learn about agriculture because of the knowledge and experience gained in courses and by actual experience on the farm and in local agricultural businesses."

The Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970, signed on Dec. 29, 1970, is designed "... to assure so far as possible every working man and woman in the Nation safe and healthful working conditions and to preserve our human resources." The act is administered by the U. S. Department of Labor.

In administering the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970, the Labor Department's OSHA issues standards and rules for safe and healthful working conditions, tools, equipment, facilities and processes. OSHA conducts workplace inspections to assure that the standards are followed.

The Senior Community Service Employment Program employees economically disadvantaged older persons in part-time community jobs; it is a major effort by the U. S. Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration on behalf of older workers.

The U. S. Department of Labor's Office of Comprehensive Employment Development supervises training and work experience programs to increase the employability of individuals who have had difficulty competing in the labor market.

Michigan farmers received a record $2.4 billion for their products in 1979, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. With the addition of transportation, processing and marketing, the value of Michigan's agricultural industry is more than $12 billion, making it the state's second largest industry.

An endless number of delectable dishes can be prepared from our tremendous variety of agricultural products, such as chilled apple cider, tossed spring salad, glazed baked ham, crispy dinner rolls, milk and ice cream sundaes.

FINANCING "HANDYMAN SPECIAL"

You have your eye on the purchase of a "handyman special." You can arrange the financing for the $40,000 price tag, but it will need about $8,000 in repairs. Where do you go from there?

A construction commitment loan is one way to finance immediate improvement on a home you are about to buy. Basically, you will ask for a loan on the future of the home — after improvements and repairs. In other words, a loan based on the future $48,000 value instead of the present $40,000 price tag. If the bank agrees to loan 75% loan, they will give you $30,000 (75% of the $40,000 sale price) for payment to the seller at the closing.

It will hold the remaining $6,000 of your loan (75% of the $8,000 improvements) until the remodeling is done. Then it will be released to you for payment to your contractor. Thus the improvements on the house cost you only $2,000 out-of-pocket. You pay the remaining $6,000 worth of improvements over the life of the mortgage — and at the same interest rate.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

PART II

Answers the question, What Is the Church? In the article last week we learned that the word "church" means the "called out," and referred to a body of people called out or set apart for a purpose. This week we plan to continue our study by noticing that the scriptures speak of the church as "the body of Christ." First, look at these verses which tell us that the church is the body of Christ. In Ephesians 1:22, 23, "And he hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of him that filleth all in all." — "the church, which is his body" — This statement proves beyond doubt that the church is the body of Christ. Of course we realize that this is a spiritual body. Second, Christ is the head of his body, the church: In Colossians 1:18 is written, "And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead: that in all things he might have the preeminence." Since there is but one Christ (one head), there must of necessity be but one body (one church). And so the scriptures teach. (Ephesians 4:4-6). Third, just as the physical body has many members (hands, feet, eyes, lungs, a heart etc.) so the body of Christ has many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: so we being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another." Last week we learned that those who were baptized for the remission of sins became the called out (the church). See Acts 2:38, 41, 47. The apostle Paul wrote, "For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body." (I Corinthians 12:13). One gets into the body of Christ the same way he gets into the church. The body and the church of Christ are the same. More to follow.

Letters to the Editor

Mr. Editor:

As promised, this report is submitted to the residents of the Village of Chelsea:

The budget has been approved and the millage was reduced.

Salaries and Wages: Hourly employees were given an 8% raise. Salaried employees were frozen at the 1979 level. Administrator, $26,009; Police Chief, $22,500; office supervisor, $15,952; and listed but not re-appointed to job classification, assistant administrator, $14,160.90.

A full list of hourly rates may be obtained at the Municipal Building.

The pressing problems are:
 (1) The Land Fill: The State Legislature has passed Public Act 641 and given the Department of Natural Resources the power to write the regulations of compliance as to location and type of soils that may be used for land fills. The additional service charge is to comply with part of these regulations. This money is being set aside in a fund earmarked for this purpose and not going into the General Fund.

(2) Water System: I have been informed that due to the lack of proper maintenance and no true maps showing locations of shut-off valves in the system, the valves are broken off or lost over a period of years due to paving over of shut-off valves in streets. In case of a major break in the system, it would be necessary to shut down the entire system, as there are no shut-off valves to isolate the problem area.

Federal Funds were used to curb, grade, new sidewalks and resurface Old US-12 (Jackson Rd.) west of M-52 to a point past the Fairgrounds. Other residents have had to pay 50% of the cost of curbs and sidewalks yet these were given to benefit a few.

Buchanan St. at M-52 was all improved, west, with curb and resurfaced street.

Orchard St. was widened, resurfaced, new driveways and sidewalk. This was just that part of Orchard, adjacent to the Chelsea State Bank property.

I attended a meeting several months ago, when the residents on Orchard St. voiced their objections to this as it would cause a traffic problem on the rest of Orchard. I am still investigating to find out what funds were used for this project.

If at any time anyone has any questions or problems, please call me at 475-2069.

Charles S. Ritter, Village President.

To the Editor:

Any farmer will tell you that the smell of animals, manure and dust from the land and chemicals is natural to the business of farming and must be tolerated by those living nearby.

The noise, dust, and pollution of gasoline and diesel equipment, the spilling of earth, gravel, etc., on the road, parking equipment on the premises is natural to an excavating business and must be tolerated.

The parking of whole and partially disassembled automobiles, piles of discarded parts, noise and pollution, the danger of explosion and fire is natural to a gas station service garage and must be tolerated.

The business of collecting discards and cast-offs commonly called refuse has its natural consequences. The storage of selections from one person's trash to determine if it will be another person's treasure is good business and conserving of our natural resources. This is natural to this business and must be tolerated.

To arbitrarily decree that the first three may pursue their businesses and the last be forced to quit by a township government is repugnant to the Constitution of the United States of America and tells the world that "All men are created equal." However some have appointed themselves to be more equal than others.

It is the duty of government to prevent injustice—not promote it.

Student Volunteers Offer Walking Tour Of MSU Campus

Michigan State University students are putting their best foot forward in offering prospective students and their families, alumni or guests a walking tour of the central campus.

Strictly a volunteer effort by its students guides, the walking tour includes visits to a dormitory, the library, computer center, botanical gardens, international center and museum.

Glimpses can also be caught of Spartan Stadium, the president's house, the 1225 locomotive, Beaumont Tower and the Red Cedar River.

Fair weather or foul, guides and their guests depart from the Union Building alumni office twice daily for a 1½ hour tour designed to present the diverse offerings of the university from a student's viewpoint. Tours are scheduled for 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and reservations are not required.

New Books at McKune Library

Death Wears A Red Hat by William Kienzle. Father Koester returns to solve a new mystery certain to baffle and delight his many fans. Kienzle's first Father Koester mystery, The Rosary Murders was an overwhelming success. Detroit is the setting for both novels.

The Adventures of Richard O'Boy by Benjamin Siegel. From the Suffolk countryside to the battlefields of the Crimean War to the gaslit streets of London, this richly satisfying novel brings vividly to life the color, the character, and the cruel paradoxes of that most fascinating of eras: Victorian England.

The Girl In A Swing by Richard Adams. A brilliant departure for the author of Watership Down—a novel of erotic beauty, terror and suspense. It is the story of a quiet Englishman, swept out of his settled bachelorhood by an exquisite young German woman whose beauty stuns him and whom he impulsively marries—knowing nothing of her family and nothing of her past.

Winner's Circle by Joseph Hayes. From the man who gave a new dimension to suspense fiction in The Desperate Hours now comes his most brilliantly plotted novel based on the drama of Derby Week. He captures all the excitement of Derby fever . . . the heart-stopping suspense of the race—and its unexpected aftermath . . . and above all an extraordinary cast of characters.

Niagara by Robert Taylor. Pulitzer Prize winning author turns to Niagara Falls in the nineteenth century (and New York City, and France) and the results is this marvelous novel in the best Taylor tradition—chock full of fascinating characters, entertaining stories, death-defying feats, and plenty of romance.

Innocent Blood by P. D. James. Philippa Falfrey, adopted as a child, exercises her legal right to apply for a copy of her birth certificate when she becomes eighteen. Although she has always had a fantasy of being the illegitimate daughter of an aristocratic father and now dead mother, she soon learns the shocking truth about her parents—and finds that her mother is about to be released from prison.

Ravenswyke by Alan White. This is a colorful family saga set on the sea coast of North Yorkshire, England. It opens in 1916 as World War I is being waged on the continent and spans the years until World War II.

Stranger by Bryan Forbes. Theo Gittings had been "turned" while he was still a student at Cambridge in the 1930's, becoming one of that infamous group that included Kim Philby and Donald MacLean—those household names—spies who betrayed a whole generation. Written on a large canvas, Theo's story shifts from Cambridge to Franco's Spain, prewar Berlin, London during the Blitz, and the Hollywood of the McCarthy period, to reveal the life of a stranger.

Snow Falcon by Craig Thomas. A meticulously researched and marvelously executed novel, which pits politics against love, altruistic patriotism against filial loyalties, is destined to repeat the success of Foxfire. Russians plotting not only against the major western powers, but also against themselves.

The Transit of Venus by Shirley Hazzard. "The calculations were hopelessly out. Calculations about Venus often are." The men's conversation was historical and astronomical, but other resonances of the younger scientist's remark were not lost on Caroline and Grace Bell, newly arrived in England from Australia. What happens to these beautiful orphan sisters, and to the men who love them, becomes as moving and wonderful and yet as predestined as the transits and epicycles of the planets across the heavens themselves.

Economically disadvantaged persons hired under the Senior Community Service Employment Program take a wide variety of work assignments at day care centers, schools, hospitals, facilities for the handicapped, in beautification, conservation and restoration projects. The program is authorized by the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA).

A PAIR OF JUNIORS are the highlighted Chelsea sluggers this week. Sean Peterson, left, was expected to fill a number of roles for the varsity this year, but took over the second base spot and never gave it up. A good defensive player, Peterson hit .280 for the season and led the team in stolen bases with 10. Coach Wayne Welton said that Peterson pitched some, but that his real value is as an infielder. He also lettered in basketball this year. Mike Wade, catcher and sometime outfielder, shared duties behind the plate this year with Mike Wood. Wade hit a solid .250 this year, but was robbed on some solid line drives throughout the season. Welton said Wade's strong points are baseball knowledge and enthusiasm.

Traverse City, founded in 1847, was an important lumbering center, but the rich forests were gradually depleted, due to overzealous efforts of the loggers. In the 1890's, B. J. Morgan discovered that red tart cherries were suited to the area's soil and climate and Traverse City eventually became the cherry capital of the nation, a title it still claims, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce, Lansing.

Organ Concert to feature "Chelsea Night"

Tracy Hammer • Yamaha Keyboards

At their next organ concert on Tuesday, June 3, King's Keyboard House would like to see a large turnout from Chelsea. This date has been selected as "Chelsea Night" and all Chelsea residents who attend will receive special recognition as well as door prizes. The purpose of this, according to Dick King of King's Keyboard House, is to let people of different communities who are interested in organ music, get together and enjoy a common interest. King adds that people who don't live in Chelsea are also welcome.

The guest artist at next Tuesday's concert is Tracy Hammer of Los Angeles, California. She has had extensive experience as a performer and arranger, giving her first recital at the age of nine. Her program will consist of popular, theatre and jazz selections, plus playing tips for organists. The concert will be held at King's Keyboard House, 115 East Liberty, Ann Arbor and will begin at 7:30 P.M. There is no admission charge. If you have any questions, please call 663-3381.

Rep. Ballantine Seeks Re-Election

State Representative Mary Keith Ballantine (R-23rd District) announced today that she will seek re-election to the Michigan House of Representatives.

In making the announcement, Mrs. Ballantine said, "I believe I have served the people of the 23rd District well since taking a seat in the legislature, and I am hoping to serve my constituents in Jackson, Washtenaw, and Ingham counties for another two years."

Acknowledging that the legislature is faced with "some large challenges," Mrs. Ballantine cited the need for workers' compensation reform, welfare reform, property tax reform and increased fiscal responsibility, as well as new laws to promote a healthy business climate in Michigan.

"Michigan residents, and consequently, the legislature, will face many challenges in the 1980's," Mrs. Ballantine said. "I look forward to the challenges. I would like to continue my participation in some important decision making for another legislative term. We will be making decisions which will have an impact on the quality of life in our state for many years to come."

Mrs. Ballantine conducted nine town hall meetings throughout her district since taking office. The meetings were held in Chelsea, Freedom township, Rives Junction, Stockbridge, Grass Lake, Summit township, Liberty township, Columbia township, and Scio township.

MARY KEITH BALLANTINE

Mrs. Ballantine is vice-chairman of the House Committees on Corrections and Public Utilities. She also serves on the Public Health, Senior Citizens and Retirement, and Urban Affairs Committees.

Sault Ste. Marie, at the northeastern corner of Michigan's Upper Peninsula, is the oldest city in the Midwest. It was established in 1668 by Jesuit missionaries Father Jacques Marquette and Father Claude Dablon, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce, Lansing.

Your Health Options

Director of Health Education, Washtenaw County Health Dept.

Question: I've heard something about Fifth disease going around in Chelsea. What is it and what should I do if my child gets it?

Answer: Fifth disease (erythema infectiosum) has been diagnosed recently in the Chelsea area, especially among children between 4 and 15 years of age. Although infants and adults may also be affected, this happens less frequently.

Although the disease itself is not serious, it is important that a physician be consulted to differentiate Fifth disease from other diseases like rubella and rubeola which may lead to serious complications.

Fifth disease is a moderately contagious disease, affecting both boys and girls. The first sign typically appears as a bright red mark on the cheek; this redness which resembles a "slapped cheek" spreads to the arms and legs and to the trunk. The palms of the hands and the soles of the feet may also be involved.

The rash which takes on a lacey appearance as it fades, tends to come and go when there is a change in temperature, exposure to sunlight, exercise, stress or emotion.

There is usually little or no fever with Fifth disease, and the patient does not need treatment. Complications are rare. Isolation is not required. The rash lasts from 2 to 39 days; the average, 11 days.

Fifth disease is thought to be a viral infection, spread by an infected person. The incubation period is from 6-14 days. Most outbreaks subside in 1 to 2 months.

When adults are affected by Fifth disease they are more likely to experience fever, headaches and gastrointestinal upsets. Adults may also develop arthritis or arthritic symptoms.

YOUR HEALTH OPTIONS appears in this paper the last week of each month. THOMAS R. MINICK

Sheriff Minick Seeks Re-Election

Thomas R. Minick announced last week his intentions to run for re-election as sheriff of Washtenaw county.

In a lengthy statement, Minick cited his 20 years in criminal justice and a refusal to play partisan politics with the office of sheriff as strong assets to his reelection bid.

"I have always felt that the electorate of our county wanted an individual as their sheriff who was not controversial, impulsive and political," Minick said. "During my term as sheriff I feel that the office has become professionalized."

According to Minick, the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department is "the best-trained, best-equipped and most efficient sheriff's department in Michigan." He goes on to declare that under his administration, "political appointments and promotions have been abolished within the sheriff's department."

"My goal as sheriff has been to attain a consumer's approach to proving corrections and law enforcement operations that best serve the public's needs," Minick concluded. "Responsible leadership of the highest caliber is essential if continuation of the professionalization of the sheriff's department is to be attained."

Minick was first elected to the office of sheriff in 1976.

Canine Heartworm Can Be Treated

Every year many dogs fall victim to canine heartworm disease. If undetected, this disease can lead to heart and lung damage and even death, warns the Washtenaw Academy of Veterinary Medicine and the American Heartworm Society.

The American Heartworm Society (AHS) reports that heartworm has now spread almost nationwide. Originally, the eastern seaboard and Gulf state regions were the primary reservoirs. It is now found in every state east of the Rocky Mountains and is becoming quite common in this area of Michigan.

Long white worms, called Dirofilaria immitis, cause canine heartworm disease. Unfortunately, a great deal of damage can result before signs are apparent to the owner.

This disease can be detected by a blood test. Sometimes an infected dog will have adult worms but none of the tiny microfilaria in the bloodstream. To confirm the infection in these cases, a veterinarian must use x-rays, repeated blood tests and other laboratory procedures.

Heartworm disease is transmitted by mosquitos. When biting an infected dog, a mosquito may take up blood containing immature stages of the heartworm. After a two-week incubation period in the insect, they develop into infective larvae.

If the larvae are transmitted by the mosquito to another dog, they migrate through the body to the heart. Here they grow to adult size (6-14") in about five to six months.

Veterinarians can successfully treat most infected dogs if the disease is diagnosed in time. Drugs are available that kill the adult worms. While there is some risk involved in treatment, fatal reactions are rare in otherwise healthy dogs.

Complete rest is necessary after treatment for a few weeks to avoid lung damage from dead and decomposing worms. In areas such as southeastern Michigan, where the disease is or may be a problem, the AHS recommends testing of dogs during the spring of the year.

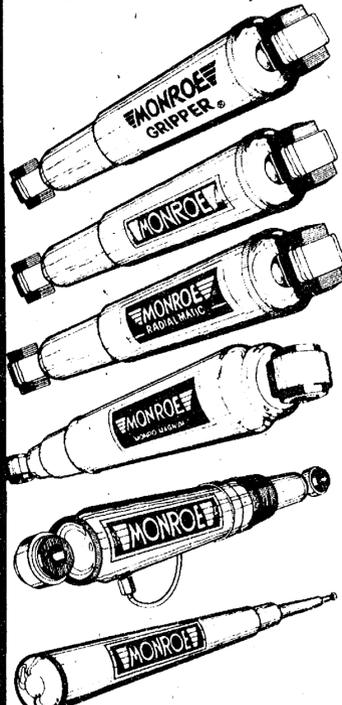

For more information, send a self-addressed, stamped business-sized envelope to American Veterinary Medical Association, 930 N. Meacham St., Schamburg, Ill. 60196 and ask for a copy of "What You Should Know About... Canine Heartworm Disease," or contact your local veterinarian.
