ONE HUNDRED-ELEVENTH YEAR—No. 18 16 Pages This Week CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1980 USPS 101-720 25c per copy SUBSCRIPTION: $8.00 PER YEAR

BOB SILVA, former owner of the Campus AMC/Jeep dealership in Ypsilanti, has purchased the former Lloyd Bridges Chevrolet agency after a number of months of planning. His Campus AMC/Jeep dealership was sold to John Lee, owner of John Lee Oldsmobile on Washtenaw Ave., Ann Arbor. Unwilling to sell his Renault franchise to Silva, Lee bought out Silva's dealership in an expansion move. Bob Silva, who has been in the automobile business for many years, took over at his new dealership Monday. Having made a successful business out of Campus AMC/Jeep selling no fewer than 500 new units yearly, Silva anticipates that his Chevrolet dealership, Bob Silva Chevrolet, located on S. Main St., will prove to be a story of similar success. After all, "We are dealing with between 25 and 30 percent of the population that drives a Chevy," the new dealer commented.

Robert Silva Is New Owner of Former L. Bridges Chevrolet

As of Monday, Oct. 6, a new face took over the former Lloyd Bridges Chevrolet dealership on M-52. That was the day Robert Silva and members of his staff opened the doors of Bob Silva Chevrolet.

Silva is the former owner of Campus AMC/Jeep on Washtenaw Ave., Ypsilanti. He sold the agency that he had owned since 1974 to John Lee, owner of John Lee Oldsmobile of Ann Arbor.

The decision to sell Campus AMC/Jeep came when John Lee was unwilling to sell his Renault franchise to Silva. The French car company and American Motors are closely affiliated in that Renault automobiles are built in AMC plants in the U.S. Without having the opportunity to purchase the franchise that Lee has owned since 1976, Silva chose to sell to the expanding Oldsmobile dealer.

The choice to buy Lloyd Bridges' agency came after Silva and his wife, Evelyn, who works at his car dealership, decided to stay in Washtenaw county. "We looked at several other dealerships before we decided to invest in Lloyd Bridges," Silva commented.

In purchasing the Chelsea Chevrolet dealership, Silva has become owner of the property, franchise and inventory. In all, the former Lloyd Bridges agency includes a showroom, used car lot, 15 service stalls and a body repair shop.

Management positions at the Chevrolet agency are being filled by personnel from his former Ypsilanti dealership. His sales manager will be Rene Michaud, Don Ott will be service, parts and body shop manager, Margaret Kormash will be office manager, and J. Edgar Leed will continue his post as finance manager.

Nonetheless, Silva also employs a number of former Lloyd Bridges employees, "all those who wanted to stay." His native staff will include seven service and body shop employees, two office employees and one salesman.

The Grosse Pointe born Silva grew up with the automobile business. Prior to joining American Motors, he worked as a field sales representative for Chrysler Corp. for 15 years and lived in a number of large cities nationwide. Before coming to Ypsilanti, he had operated a Chrysler dealership in Charlotte, N.C. When Mr. and Mrs. Silva came to Ann Arbor for their daughter's graduation from the University of Michigan in the early 70's, Silva was given the opportunity to purchase Campus AMC/Jeep. Within 23 months, he was the owner of a soon to be very profitable AMC dealership.

Silva is very happy about his move to Chelsea. "I like the business and the people I've met so far," he commented. "With a Chevrolet dealership, we will be working with 25 to 30 percent of the population and we will provide the consumer with a very reliable and capable service department."

According to Silva, the Campus AMC/Jeep dealership was so successful because of its thriving service department. "Here in Chelsea, we want to stress that we feel obliged to service the customer to the best of our ability."

DNR Demands Steps to Prevent Water Contamination from Landfill

After a heated one and one-half hour debate during the Chelsea Village Council meeting Tuesday night, council members and Department of Natural Resources Administrator Tom Werk reached a tentative agreement concerning the Village land fill located on Werkner Rd. approximately two miles north of town. Also present at the bi-monthly meeting was Rep. Mary Keith Ballantine.

The battle came after at least a year of pressure from the DNR to have hydrogeological testing done at the solid waste facility. These tests would measure for certain parameters and hazardous seepage that could possibly contaminate the fresh water well systems installed in the residential areas in the immediate vicinity of the land fill.

Because of financial binds holding the Village, the council had asked for an extension on the deadline for the installation of monitoring wells at private owned or operated waste disposal facilities. In Detroit last year, DNR representatives heard Chelsea's plea and a schedule of compliance was drawn up to give Chelsea until 1984 to meet the DNR standards and criteria governing disposal facilities. Later, that contract was rendered invalid and the Village was asked to meet the over-all date of Sept. 1, 1981.

If the Chelsea government does not okay the hydrogeological testing, the DNR will not issue a license to them to continue their land fill operation. President Ritter inquired what the DNR's next move against them would be if they did comply and Werk came back saying, "I hope you don't think that I'm moving against you."

"What if there is no contamination to the ground water? What would you do then?" Ritter asked. The DNR rep answered the Council, "I'd say, number one, that you're lucky; number two, I'd be relieved and number three, you could probably continue to design and maintain your land fill as such."

If Chelsea was to show good faith in compliance, the DNR would issue a license within 30 days to okay the operation. "This is ultimately to provide for the protection of the water of inhabitants residing within close proximity to the site," commented Werk. "Chelsea has done a very fine job running a small land fill, but we're concerned with the ground water. If it does not meet our criteria, two things could happen. First, the land fill could be closed and/or second, the situation could be remedied," the administrator continued.

The long, repetitious confrontation resulted in the Council agreeing that they would hire a consultant to visit the area in question, conduct the hydrogeological testing, install three monitoring wells, and have samples taken every few months to test for certain sophisticated contaminants that could possibly prevail and seep into the ground water.

The task, which will cost approximately $5,900, will get underway in January and the three wells are anticipated to be installed by Sept. 1. A series of steps, from start to finish, will be examined one by one by the Department of Natural Resources. After approval by DNR, the next step in the process will be undertaken.

The 80-acre site will need more than three wells eventually; the initial trio will only monitor ground water flow. Still, the initiation of the task early next year will get the Village started on a venture that will ultimately guard its citizens from the problem of water contaminated by chemicals and contaminants leaking into their fresh water systems.

Bulldog Grid Team Comes to Life With Homecoming Victory

Chelsea High school varsity Bulldogs finally did it. To top off a week of Homecoming festivities, the Bulldogs upended rival Dexter Dreadnaughts, 20-12, Friday night in a battle between two teams, each looking for their first victory of the season.

"We were much better defensively, we played smart, hit hard, we were impressive," commented Coach Gene LaFave about Friday's contest. He was right. Quarterback Dave Wojcicki completed his first eight passes of the evening. Jeff Lantis caught all three touchdown passes, and Gary Van Meer made a terrific Lonesome End play.

The initial Chelsea scoring came in the first quarter when Dave Wojcicki found Jeff Lantis open to receive a 24-yard pass. Gary Van Meer, who was injured in the game, received the two-point conversion pass from Wojcicki to give Chelsea an early 8-0 lead. Then, on Chelsea's next possession, Wojcicki sent a 29-yard pass soaring to Jeff Lantis again to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter found Gary Van Meer make an excellent fake as he hauled down a 40-yard pass to lead to the set-up of a seven-yard Wojcicki pass to the awaiting Lantis.

Dexter finally wiped the zeros from its side of the scoreboard when quarterback Tony McCoy plunged in from the one-yard line. Half-time score was 20-6 and Chelsea looked like it had a sure win.

At half-time, the 1980 Homecoming Queen of Chelsea High school was announced. Pris Drew, CHS senior, was chosen by her classmates from among a field of four candidates including Michelle Clark, Chris Johnson and Angie Inglis.

Neither the Bulldogs nor the Dreadnaughts could come up with a scoring play in the third quarter, but fourth quarter action gave Dexter a last opportunity to add points to the score-board. Halfback Jim Delanios dove in from the one-yard line to give Dexter their final six points.

Because of their superb performance in Friday's game, Coach LaFave gave five team members the honor of being named "players of the week." They include, on offense, Dave Wojcicki who passed for a total of 170 yards, Jeff Lantis who scored all three Chelsea touchdowns, and Scott Chapman. On defense, Daren Pierson and Todd Sprague were given honors.

According to Coach LaFave, "They really deserved this win and I think we're ready for Saline on Friday. But, Saline does have the home field advantage."

Open House Set Monday at CHS

The Chelsea High school Open House, scheduled for Monday, Oct. 13, promises to be an interesting departure from tradition. The "capsule schedule" format which has been used in the past, will give way to an open block of time during which parents will be able to observe student demonstrations, student activities and material displays throughout the campus.

The evening will begin at 7 p.m. with a brief introduction and orientation in the auditorium. From that point on, visitors will be able to tour the campus and participate in such activities as blood pressure checks by the health careers class, car exhaust emission checks by the auto shop class, learning the political platforms of the six presidential candidates on the Michigan ballot, browsing through a display of English materials used in our classes and many others.

"It is hoped," said Principal John Williams, "that the parents will still get around and spend at least a little time with their son's or daughter's teachers. However, this open format should allow people to spend more time where they would like. I want to stress that this is not the time nor the place to discuss individual student progress. It is, however, an excellent time to arrange a conference with those teachers whom you would like to see."

"Each teacher will have printed information, regarding their grading system, course content and so forth, available to pass out on Monday," continued Williams. "This way, specific information will be available in addition to activities and demonstrations to emphasize some of the exciting happenings at Chelsea High school. The counselors, teachers and administration, along with our secretarial staff, are hopeful that everyone will share this Open House experience with us."

Hospital Observing 10th Anniversary counties are expected to attend the gala ceremony celebrating 10 years of service and the dedication of the new therapy, radiology and administrative additions to the Chelsea Community Hospital.

Tours of the new additions will be conducted from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. and a ceremony will be held at 3 p.m. in a festive tent in the Center Courtyard of the Hospital. A reception will follow in the dining room.

The ceremony program will be presided over by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, James Daniels, and the invocation will be read by the Rev. Robert Weikart. Speakers will include Administrator Willard Johnson, Chief of the Medical Staff Leonard Wolin, M.D., Charles Ritter, Village President, Mary Keith Ballantine, Michigan State Representative and attending physician, Michael Papo, M.D.

Legislature Recessed Without New State Budget

The legislature recessed until after the November general election with election year pressures causing postponement of a full-year budget for fiscal 1980-81.

The state began its new fiscal year Oct. 1 with only a 90-day continuation budget which will allow for current spending for the first quarter less approximately 10 percent.

The continuation budget in effect hands over virtually all authority to spend about $1.1 billion during the period to the Milliken administration.

Governor William G. Milliken agreed to a continuation budget after meeting with legislative leaders who told him Republicans—members of his own party—would not support the revenue measures he endorsed in order to fund his $4.7 billion general fund spending recommendations for the new fiscal year.

The decision of not writing a budget forced Management and Budget Director Gerald Miller to scrap plans to go to New York to get approval from bonding houses to borrow $500 million in short term notes to cover early cash disbursements, such as school aid and revenue sharing payments to units of local governments.

Without the completion of the full year's budget, a bond for the short term money was impossible to obtain.

Instead, the state will borrow from pension funds, probably around $100 million to make the first payments.

Milliken called the continuation budget an unprecedented action, saying other failed attempts to approve budgets were solved with temporary authorizations of not more than several weeks.

"It means the legislature will have given the executive the unprecedented authority to further reduce spending. 'We're going to see more drastic cuts, and they're going to be tough,' he said not elaborating where the cuts will be made."

While the continuation budget proposed to simply appropriate a bulk amount of money without specific authorizations for specific programs, the measure creates a new special legislative committee to confer continuously with the budget director or allotments.

The bill also directs the budget director to meet weekly with the House and Senate appropriations and taxation committees.

Capital outlay projects would be continued, but no new projects would be started.

The upcoming election was a factor in the failure to get a full-year budget, Milliken said. He added the uncertainty about the economic situation was another factor.

Although the department of management and budget and legislative fiscal agencies estimate the deepest of the recession has passed, some are worried another downturn could occur.

Others hope revenue estimates will have increased enough by the time a full-year budget is approved so the proposed revenue measures will not be needed.

The governor and leaders have agreed to add $125-160 million in revenues through new lottery games, higher cigarette taxes, revised controls on liquor prices and new taxes on military pay and capital gains.

Before leaving for the fall recess, members of the Senate took a parting shot at the House of Representatives for not completing a budget.

Collectively, they said it was totally irresponsible for the House not to want to stay in Lansing until completing the budget. They complained also about turning over their powers of appropriating money to the executive.

Interestingly, though, no member of the Senate is up for reelection this year as they are in the middle of four-year terms.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The baseball players had their temper tantrum at the start of the season, so at least we got the World Series with us this fall. Who knows, if the TV actors put long enough we might discover we can live without em. Sports and space are the only things television is good at anyhow, and all we need to keep both of them going is no end of money. The politicians are coming on stronger ever day, as their campaigns git in the short rows, but the more they time their latest cure fer everthing but the common cold for the evening news, the more we got to read the papers the next day to find out what's going on.

Ed Doolittle said at the country store Saturday night that when he watches the television news he feels like a blind man examining a elephant. The news can be whatever part the TV picks to show, but Ed said he never can git the whole picture except from the papers. And Ed was of a mind that the more he reads the more he realizes the people he sees trying to git elected on television won't make much difference in anything anyway. Them that's running the country don't git elected, they git appointed by them that do.

Fer instant, Ed said, he had saw where Congress passed 404 new laws last year, while the departments, agencies, boards and commissions of the Federal Government wrote up 7,568 new regulations. A few of the laws bear direct on our lives, Ed said, but nearly all the regulations control somepun we do or is done to us. These bureaucrats have come up with 9,800 different forms to be filled out and turned in so they can figger out what they need to work up new forms for. This piece Ed saw said the Code of Federal Regulations runs to 60,000 pages and that it cost business $130 billion a year to try and keep up with them. More than 5,000 companies have dropped pension plans cause they can't fill out all the forms the Government demands.

Farthermore, the Federal Government has 15,500 lawyers on its payroll trying to unravel these rules that the bureaucrats that wrote them and the public that has got to follow them can't understand. And fer ever lawyer working fer the Government there's two working agin it, trying to it people out of jams not following the regulations has got them in. Ed said when some wise man said two lawyers could git rich in a town where one would starve must of had Washington in mind. When one batch of Cuban refugees sued the Government because another batch was git-ting better free treatment, and when they got a lawyer to take the case and a court to hear it with lawyers to back up the Government's policy, we reached some kind of low or high, was Ed's words.

Personal, Mister Editor, I still feel about our Government like I heard a feller say the other day. It's the worst Government in the world, except fer all the others. I read where they got 100 percent a year inflation in Turkey, and the generals that just took over the Government blamed it all on the country's "experiment with democracy."

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

COLLEGIATE ROYALTY: Chelseite Angeline M. Merkel and George DeVries, III, of Grand Rapids were elected to represent the Western Michigan student body during Homecoming festivities last week in Kalamazoo. The reigning couple was selected in a contest held Sunday night, Sept. 28 from a field of 19 queen and eight king candidates. Angeline, a junior at Western, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Merkel of Chelsea. Senior George DeVries, III, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George DeVries, II, of Grand Rapids.

Angeline Merkel Reigns Over WMU Homecoming

Reigning over Western Michigan University Homecoming festivities last week-end was Chelseite Angeline M. Merkel, a junior majoring in industrial marketing and George DeVries, III, a Grand Rapids senior studying paper science and engineering. Merkel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Merkel, 13228 Dexter-Chelsea Rd., while DeVries is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George DeVries, II, 24 68th St., Grand Rapids.

The king and queen were selected on campus Sunday night, Sept. 28; chosen from a field of 19 candidates for queen and eight for king. The contest consisted of three categories upon which contestants were judged. Each potential ruler had to dress in an historical costume as a famous American and tell why that costume was chosen; this was followed by clothing that WMU students might wear in the 25th century and a demonstratory commercial of a typical 25th century consumer product.

Contest judges were Trustee Robert D. Caine; Alice M. Cavanaugh, associate professor of home economics; Pearl F. Baskerville, counselor and assistant to the dean of the College of General Studies; Raymond A. Passkiewicz, assistant director of orientation and the Office of Student Activities; and Dr. Ruth M. Heinig, associate professor of communication arts and sciences.

The couple reigned over Homecoming events last week which included a 7 p.m. Thursday "Yell Like Hell" contest, followed by a street dance; a 3 p.m. Soapbox Derby at Fraternity Village Friday; a 9:30 a.m. Homecoming Parade Saturday, starting in downtown Kalamazoo and ending at the Student Center with an alumni luncheon at 11:30 a.m.; the 1 p.m. football game against Bowling Green and an "Afterglow" dance at 9 p.m. in the east ballroom of the Student Center.

Beverly Simon Working at Radio Station WXYZ

Bev graduated from Chelsea in 1978 and entered the Specs Howard School of Broadcast Arts in Southfield the same year. She completed the Practical Broadcast course and went on to complete the First Class Engineering course.

Beverly was hired at WXYZ as a technician and couldn't be happier with her new position. Says Bev, "There are a lot of Specs Howard graduates here. They've been a lot of help and have made me feel right at home."

NEW COURSE RECORD: 16:18 was the varsity course record time set by sophomore Mark Brosnan in a meet last week. Both boys and girls cross country teams set new records in the meet.

Boys Harriers Wins 5th Meet

The Chelsea boys cross country team won their fifth consecutive meet on Thursday, Oct. 2, surpassing Dexter, 15-47.

The Bulldogs were led by sophomore Mark Brosnan, who established a new varsity course record of 16:18 to break Dave Dawson's former record by a full 10 seconds.

In second place for the Bulldogs was junior captain Bob Benedict with a fine time of 16:53.

sophomore placers were Brent Martin, fifth at 16:25 and Dave Kies, 10th at 16:42.

The juniors placed fourth with 42 points. They were led by Bob Benedict in third place with his best time of 16:03. Other junior placers were Bob Schleede, eighth at 16:49 and Toby Boyd, 31st at 18:21.

Bulldog Girl Cagers Move Into Conference Lead Spot

Tuesday night found the Chelsea girls basketball team travelling to Adrian for a non-league encounter. Per usual, the lady cagers came out on top but not before they put up a tough fight in a very physical game. The evening's final score was 37-34.

The game started on a sour note; the lady Bulldogs fell behind 6-0 only two minutes into the game. At the end of the first quarter, the score was 12-6, the Adrian Maples in the lead.

In the second quarter, the Chelsea cagers began to play basketball. With the help of some good defense, they held Adrian to only five points in the quarter and gained 13 points for themselves. At half-time, Chelsea pulled ahead, 19-17.

Good defense highlighted the third quarter as well, but the lady Bulldogs were unable to add many points to their side of the score-board. As the third quarter wound down, Adrian took the lead with a 27-24 advantage.

Determined, the Chelsea team came back in the fourth quarter to give the Adrian Maples a real contest. Adrian would never be ahead by more than three points and with just three minutes remaining on the clock, Chelsea tied the score. Patty Rawson made two free throws and eventually, her team got ahead by a single point.

Good defensive playing in the last two minutes and Jennifer Ringe's two free throws clinched the Chelsea victory.

Scoring for the lady cagers was Jennifer Ringe with 14 points, Mary Jo Eisele with eight, Lorrie Vandegrift and Mary Boylan with five apiece, Patty Rawson with four and Amy Unterbrink with one. Top rebounders were Lorrie Vandegrift with eight and three steals, Amy Unterbrink with eight and three blocked shots, and Mary Boylan with seven rebounds.

On Thursday, Oct. 2, the Chelsea girls basketball team returned to league action in Saline and took back the first place title they'd lost the week before; they squeezed past the league-leading Saline Hornets by a 47-44 margin.

This contest found the Chelsea cagers in front from the game's onset and remaining there throughout. At the end of the first quarter, Chelsea pulled ahead by a score of 13-6. Even so, Saline did everything it could to keep the Bulldogs down; the game was overwrought with inconsistencies in the fouls called against the lady Bulldogs. In fact, in the first quarter, two of Chelsea's key players had two fouls apiece.

Saline made a number of mistakes defensively. In attempts to stop Jennifer Ringe from scoring, the Hornets' defense was advantageous to another Chelsea player. Mary Boylan exploded, netting 17 points (nine in the first quarter) and making 19 rebounds (eight in the first quarter). Too, the Hornets did not stop Jennifer Ringe who scored 13 points for her team.

The second quarter found the Saline referees calling repeated fouls; the Hornets had six free throws. Chelsea could do little more than hang on carefully. At half-time, Chelsea led by four points with a score of 25-21.

The Chelsea cagers had built a 40-33 lead at the close of the third quarter, but title-holding Saline had the benefit of referees blowing their whistles left and right in the fourth quarter to give them a chance to catch up and attempt to surpass the ladies from Chelsea.

It didn't quite work that way, though the Hornets managed to score 11 points as compared to the seven netted by their rivals. But, according to Coach Jim Winter, "Our team is filled with gutsy kids. They knew what they were up against and just played carefully and defensively."

Chelsea was ahead by two points and with 18 seconds left to go, Jennifer Ringe hit a free throw to up the lead to three. Saline attempted to score again but as they headed down the court the last few seconds ticked away on the clock, determining that Chelsea had won the game and gotten their league-leading status back from the Hornets.

Scoring for the Bulldogs, in addition to Ringe and Boylan, were Mary Jo Eisele with eight points, Karen Kiel with four, Lorrie Vandegrift with three and Amy Unterbrink with two. In addition, Jennifer Ringe made four assists and four steals.

After another one bit the dust Thursday, Chelsea pulled into first place in the league with a 4-1 record. They are followed by Milan and Saline with records of 3-1; Dexter 3-2; Lincoln 1-3; Tecumseh 0-3; and, Jackson County Western, with a poor 0-4 season showing.

In 1825, the United Tailoresses of New York, a trade union organization for women only, was formed in New York City according to a U. S. Department of Labor publication.

CHS Homecoming Week

ment was made during half-time ceremonies at the cold, windy Dexter-Chelsea game Friday night.

Carefully planned since the beginning of the school year, the 1980 Chelsea High Homecoming Week was filled with a little bit of everything. Activities ranged from five varied dress-up days to egg tosses and VW Beetle stuffing to a pep rally, parade, queen contest and football game. There was something for everyone during the high-spirited week.

Voting for Homecoming queen allowed the student body to choose its favorite senior to represent the school and the event for the 1980-81 school year. In the past, contenders for the crown consisted of candidates from each grade level but this year, the long-standing system was altered so as to bestow the honor upon a senior girl during her last year at the school. Still, court members, made up of two representatives from each class, were elected to serve under their reigning upperclasswoman.

Topping off a week of in and out of school Homecoming activities, the Chelsea Varsity Bulldogs secured their first victory of the season during Friday night's contest with the arch rival Dexter Dreadnaughts.

THINKING WARM THOUGHTS, just moments after the parade began, Sophomore court members Tracy Borton and Gaylene

HOMECOMING QUEEN CANDIDATES Michelle Clark and Chris Johnson shiver from the cold October air as they proceed down Main St. during the pre-game parade Friday. Escorting the royalty is Bill Spaulding.

PUTTING ON A SMILE, junior Homecoming court members, Molly Feeney and Maggy Sweet are sheltered from the cold wind by escorts Bobby Travino and Dave Mason during Friday evening's open air trip down Main St. enroute to the High school football field.

ENJOYING THE RIDE? Freshman Homecoming court representatives Laurie Heller and Jenette Rouse shiver from the crisp

autumn chill during Friday's parade. The freshman duo was escorted by Randy Sabo and Bruce Centofanti, also freshmen.

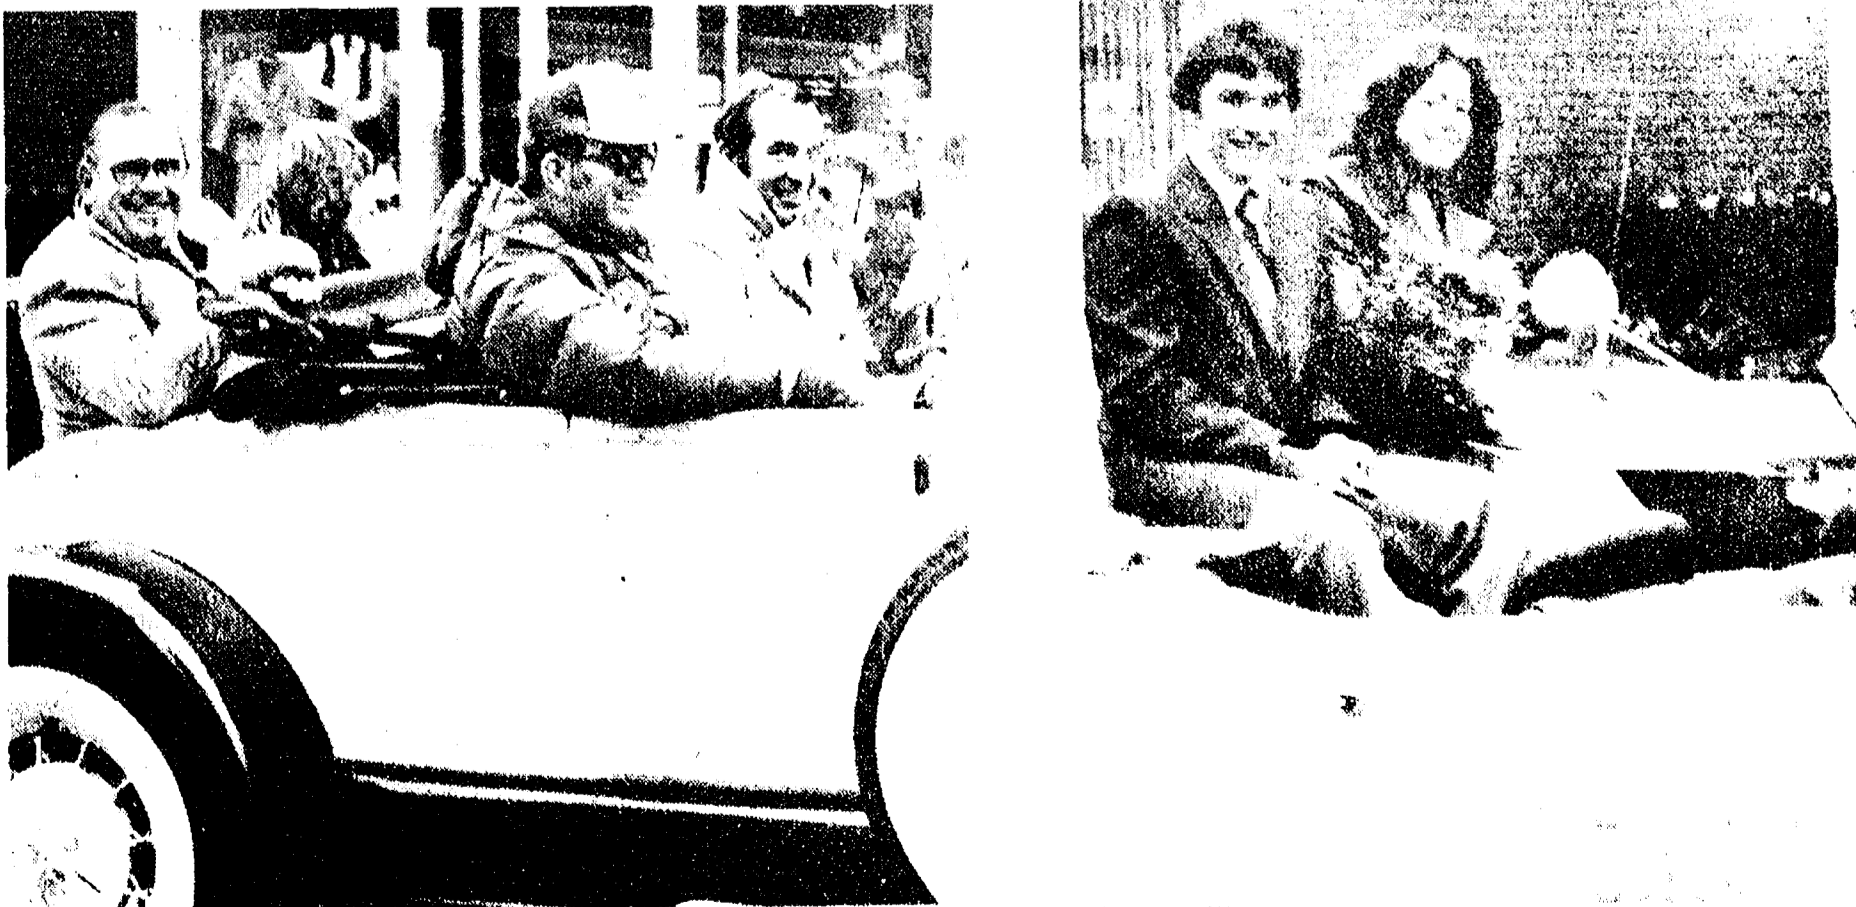

CLOWNS marched among some of Chelsea's finest Friday during the annual Homecoming Parade. Temperatures in the low 40's didn't stop this quintet from adding a bit of warmth and humor to an otherwise frosty occasion that preceded the Homecoming game.

FRIDAY'S HOMECOMING PARADE sported various floats and other participants including this vehicle driven by a member of the Chelsea High school auto shop class.

VILLAGE PRESIDENT CHARLES RITTER and trustees Sis Kanten, Mike Sweet and John Popovich were among the participants in the Chelsea Homecoming Parade. Cold weather kept many Chelseaites home during the pre-Homecoming game festivities early Friday evening.

SOPHOMORE LYNETTE MEPLYANS, the 1979-80 Homecoming Queen follows in the procession to the High school. Elected as a freshman, she looks ready to step down and turn her crown over to any of the four upperclassmen seeking the honor. This year's Homecoming Queen candidates were four seniors Michelle Clark, Chris Johnson, Pris Drew and Angie Inglis. Court representatives included two girls from each class.

Legislative Update

A Weekly Report from
 State Rep. Mary Keith Ballantine
 State Capitol, Lansing 48909
 Phone (517) 373-1775

Week of Oct. 6-13

BUDGET PASS — The legislature has approved a three-month continuation budget for the remainder of 1980, putting off until later the adoption of a full-year budget. Spending authority has been delegated to the Management and Budget Director.

WINTER SHUTOFFS — The Public Service Commission has approved rules providing that utility customers with low incomes or on government assistance will be protected from service shutoffs between December 1 and March 31, if a small amount is paid.

CONDO COVERTS — Both houses have now approved HB 5227/5580, which provide extended leases for senior citizens in apartments being converted to condominiums, and offer loans to developers who must hold these apartments for the leases.

TISCH CONTINGENCY — The Department of Management and Budget has prepared recommendations for budget cuts in the event Proposal D (Tisch) is approved: 40% Social Services cut; closing of most state hospitals; State Police force cut by 75%; funding cut in half for MSU, U. of M., WSU with no money for other 4-year colleges; closing of the state library and schools for the deaf and blind; Licensing and Regulation eliminated; closing of most state parks; elimination of worker-safety inspection programs. Only Corrections and Treasury would not be affected much.

LIEN REFORM — The House has approved HB 4053/6046-48, which would repeal the 1891 Mechanics' Lien Act which has many requirements and provisions that have worked to take away a person's property or to force a homeowner to pay double on a contract. Protection is retained for ensuring payment for work done on a home, but without undue hardship to the homeowner.

COMPENSATION COMMISSION — The State Officers Compensation Commission will hold a public hearing at 10 a.m. on Oct. 13 in the Lewis Cass Building, Lansing, to receive comments on possible 1981-82 salary increases for legislators, Governor, Lt. Gov. and Supreme Court justices.

DAY CARE — Family day care homes, which provide neighborhood child-sitting service for less than seven children, must now register with the Social Services Department. This replaces a prior requirement that such homes be licensed; they need not be inspected before starting up.

WELFARE BOOM — The Department of Social Services has predicted that ADC welfare caseloads will average 243,000 per month in the 1980-81 fiscal year, up from the August level of 233,700. The Department predicts continued growth for all forms of assistance for at least two years.

TRAVELERS UP — The Transportation Department reports that it's been a banner year for travel in Michigan, with the number of motorists stopping at our 10 Travel Information Centers so far this year up seven percent over the same period last year and four percent over 1978.

Good Things Growing In Michigan

Michigan wine, one of the good things growing in our state, and perhaps one of our best kept secrets, will be honored Oct. 5-11 during Michigan Wine week.
 "We hope many people take this opportunity to visit the wineries and get acquainted with this expanding industry and the quality Michigan wines available," said Dean M. Pridgeon, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.
 "Our viticulture industry has taken great strides in recent years and has captured many prestigious awards. The wine industry is a definite asset to the state's agricultural economy."
 Michigan's wineries developed at the close of Prohibition, when it was determined weather and soil conditions along Lake Michigan provide excellent growing conditions for wine grapes. French hybrid grapes and vinifera, classic wine grapes, have been grown increasingly in the state, enabling winemakers to produce internationally competitive wines.
 Sixteen wineries now sell products throughout the state and half the nation. If the word "Michigan" appears on the label, a minimum of 75 percent of the grapes must be grown here.
 Free winery tours are available to visitors at many of the state's wineries year-round, seven days a week, and most have tasting rooms.

 "This is an excellent time of year to visit one of the wineries. Grapes are being harvested now and visitors are able to see the grape crushing, and winemaking process," Pridgeon said.
Historical Society To See Slides of Harvest Festival
 Former Chelsea resident Ike Lundberg will be the guest speaker at the Oct. 13 meeting of the Chelsea Historical Society. He will present a slide show on the "Feast of the Hunter's Moon," which occurs annually at Fort Ouratenon, the first white settlement in present day Indiana which was established by the French in 1717. The feast is a celebration of harvest with music, dance and many special crafts.
 The Historical Society meets at McKune Library at 7:30 p.m. There is a short business meeting and refreshments, followed by the program. Everyone interested in experiencing life in the old Midwest is welcome to attend.

Girls Cross Country Team Loses to Dexter

On Thursday, Oct. 2, the Chelsea girls cross country team continued its improving season, but still lost to a strong Dexter team, 20-41.
 Sandy Frame led the Bulldogs in third place with a new varsity course record of 20:25. Lisa Vandegrift ran her personal best time at 21:42, placing fifth. Other Bulldog placers, all of whom ran their best times, were Sue Young, 14th at 25:17; Tracy Bolender, 16th at 25:55; and Maggy Sweet, 18th at 28:33.
 The girls are now 1-4 overall and 0-4 in the SEC.
 On Saturday, Oct. 4, the girls traveled to the Manchester Invitational and placed 7th in a field of 14 teams. "Every girl that ran for us improved her best time considerably," said Coach Pat Clarke. "I think that speaks very well for the great effort that they are making to establish girls cross country in its initial season," concluded Clarke.
 Placers for the lady harriers at Manchester included Sandy Frame, 7th at 19:28; Lisa Vandegrift, 18th at 20:47; Sue Young, 51st at 23:52; Tracy Bolender, 55th at 24:34; and Maggy Sweet, 59th at 25:21.
 In the 7th grade one-mile run, Sue Jaques was 10th at 7:36 and in the 8th grade one-mile run, Mary Ann Richardson was 17th at 6:38.

 The lady harriers will travel to the Mason Invitational Saturday, Oct. 11 for their next competition.

Hunters Report Dearborn Man for Shooting Crane

A Dearborn man pleaded not guilty Sept. 29 in 14th District Court in Chelsea to charges of shooting a sandhill crane in the Pinckney Put-Take Pheasant Area Aug. 23.

Two put-take pheasant hunters in the area observed another hunter shooting at two sandhill cranes, a protected and rare species, which bears no resemblance at all to either a pheasant or any other legal game bird.

One of the sandhills glided off into the marsh, but the other crumbled and crashed to the ground dead.

The hunters copied down the back-tag number of the man who shot the sandhill, and followed him to his car and took down his license number, too.

They then notified conservation officers, supplied them with the information, and offered to testify against the violator.

They also assisted the officers in locating the downed sandhill, and even spent time with their dogs trying to locate the second crane. It was not found, but the dead crane was located for evidence.

A warrant was sworn out against Imad Habib Baydoun, 23, of 8285 Carlin, Detroit. A pre-trial hearing will be held Oct. 20 at 1:30 p.m. in the 14th District Court, Chelsea.

The sandhill crane is a rare species that nests in the Waterloo area with other cranes at this time of year before migrating to their wintering grounds.

Anyone having information about fish and game law violations should call the Department of Natural Resources toll-free hot line number 1-800-292-7800.

Fall Cribbage Tournament Being Planned

The Chelsea Jaycees Auxiliary is planning to sponsor a fall cribbage tournament later this season. In the past, the group has provided the community with a spring tournament but public interest has deemed it necessary for the Jaycees Auxiliary to add a second cribbage tournament to its schedule of events. Time and place are tentative as yet, but will be announced as soon as they are definite.

Pioneer Day Set Sunday at Waterloo Area Farm Museum

The Waterloo Area Farm Museum, located three miles west of Waterloo, at 9998 Waterloo-Munith Rd., is the only one of its kind in Michigan and is on the National Register of Historic Places.

The museum is the product of a group of enthusiastic citizens who, 17 years ago, formed the Waterloo Area Historical Society. Since then, the Society has restored and furnished a farm house, milk cellar, ice house, forge, bake house, barn, and log house to represent Michigan history between the years 1844 and 1895. Volunteers started the museum and now maintain it while the artifacts within have been donated by area residents.

For the one-time visitor, the museum provides a unique look into Michigan's pioneering past while a person more deeply interested can guide, restore, clean, or take classes in early American arts and crafts.

On Sunday, Oct. 12, between the hours of 1 and 5 p.m., the Waterloo Area Historical Society will host "Pioneer Day," a celebration of pioneer life and the major fund-raising activity of the Society. In addition to a tour of the house, the visitor may talk with a soldier in a Civil War encampment, listen to old-time fiddlers, take a wagon ride, and visit with craft demonstrators.

Thirty craftsmen will be on hand to demonstrate a wide variety of skills including sheep shearing, spinning and natural dyeing, soap-making, chair caning, basket making, rug braiding, rug hooking, forge work, whittling, tin working, sauerkraut preparation, molasses cookie baking, apple butter and butter churning. All crafts and baked goods will be available for purchase in a Historical Society sponsored gift shop.

The majority of the arts and crafts demonstrators also teach classes at the Museum during the summer and fall months. The topics range from edible plants and herb arrangements to apple head doll making and candle dipping; the emphasis is placed on personal instruction and the creation of a craft from start to finish.

Volunteer workers at the Waterloo Area Historical Society believe that history should be brought from behind sterile glass cases and yellowed textbooks into people's lives. By restoring and maintaining the museum and out-buildings, that is exactly what the group has done. Newcomers are always welcome and training sessions for individuals interested in guiding tours are offered. For more information, call Mrs. M. Hannewald, 14185 M-52, Stockbridge 49285, (517) 851-8247 or write the Waterloo Historical Society, P. O. Box 37, Stockbridge 49285.

PIONEER SPIRIT is evident as Tim Adams relaxes and Julie Soulliere looks hard at work at the Waterloo Farm Museum. The dup guides visitors through the historic replica of a log cabin, exemplifying life in the old Midwest between the years of 1844 and 1895. They will be on hand to answer questions during Pioneer Day, Sunday, Oct. 12. The annual occasion, sponsored by the Waterloo Historical Society, will take place between the hours of 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. and will provide the public with a variety of demonstrations of 19th century skills, dancing and foods.

Hall of Fame for Chelsea Athletes

The Chelsea High school coaching staff is in the process of establishing a Chelsea Football Hall of Fame to recognize and permanently enshrine the names of those athletes who have made outstanding contributions to football at the school.

These young men will be chosen by the coaching staff on the basis of their character, leadership, athletic ability and over-all contributions to the program. There will be no attempt to limit the number of inductees each year but the coaches stress that they want this honor to be bestowed upon more than just all-league or all-county team members.

On Friday, Oct. 17, there will be an initial induction of players from the teams of the 1970's with individual coaches from that decade making the selections. The ceremony will take place during half-time festivities at the Chelsea-Lincoln football game and each Chelsea Hall of Famer will be given a certificate of recognition.

Charter inductees will include the following varsity Bulldogs.
1970-Jeff Bust, Larry Gorton, Jim Wojciecki, Mitch Heard.
1971-Wayne Welton, Randy Brier, Mark Collins, Tom Lixey, Jeff Hughes, Tom McKernan, Randy Seitz.
1972-John Mann, Bruce Guster, Tim Lancaster.

1973-John Houle, Dale Poertner, Jeff Marshall, Dave Tucker.
1974-Ron Kiel, Jack Hackworth.

1975-Randy Guenther, Howard Salyer, Tim Reed, Dennis Bauer, Jim Marshall, Don Sullivan, Joel Sprague, Jim Boyer.

1976-Tony Robards.
1977-Steve Pennington, Victor Verchereau, Chuck Broderick.
1978-Al Augustine.
1979-John Labarbara, John

Dunn, Lou Jahnke.

This initial induction will comprise members from the entire decade whereas, in the years to come, yearly initiations will take place. In addition, the newly organized Chelsea High school Football Hall of Fame will very possibly be expanded to include both members of the Bulldog teams prior to 1970 and coaches who contributed to the team efforts.

Gridders of the Week

SENIOR MIKE O'QUINN (58) has begun his first year of football since 8th grade. His position is offensive guard and according to Coach LaFave, "Mike is a positive addition to the team and a real joy to coach." Other than football, Mike played JV baseball as well. Outside interests pursued by Mike are hunting and fishing and he is currently employed at the Chelsea Big Boy restaurant. He has applied to Central Michigan University and plans to begin there next fall. He is undecided as to a major. As far as his team, Mike sees that they are "improving dramatically" and that tomorrow's game with Saline should prove "tough though enjoyable."

SENIOR JON RIEMENSCHNEIDER (81) is both a defensive end and an offensive tight end who has started for the Bulldogs throughout the season. "He's a good athlete who's played a great deal," comments Coach Gene LaFave. As a matter of fact, Jon has played football since 7th grade though this is his second year on the varsity squad. In addition to football, Jon is a member of the basketball team and has participated in other sports, including track and baseball. When he's not involved with organized sports, Jon enjoys traveling and fishing. Upon graduation from Chelsea High in June, he plans to attend college. His collegiate choice and his course of study remain as yet undetermined.

Girls Swim Team Downs Lincoln

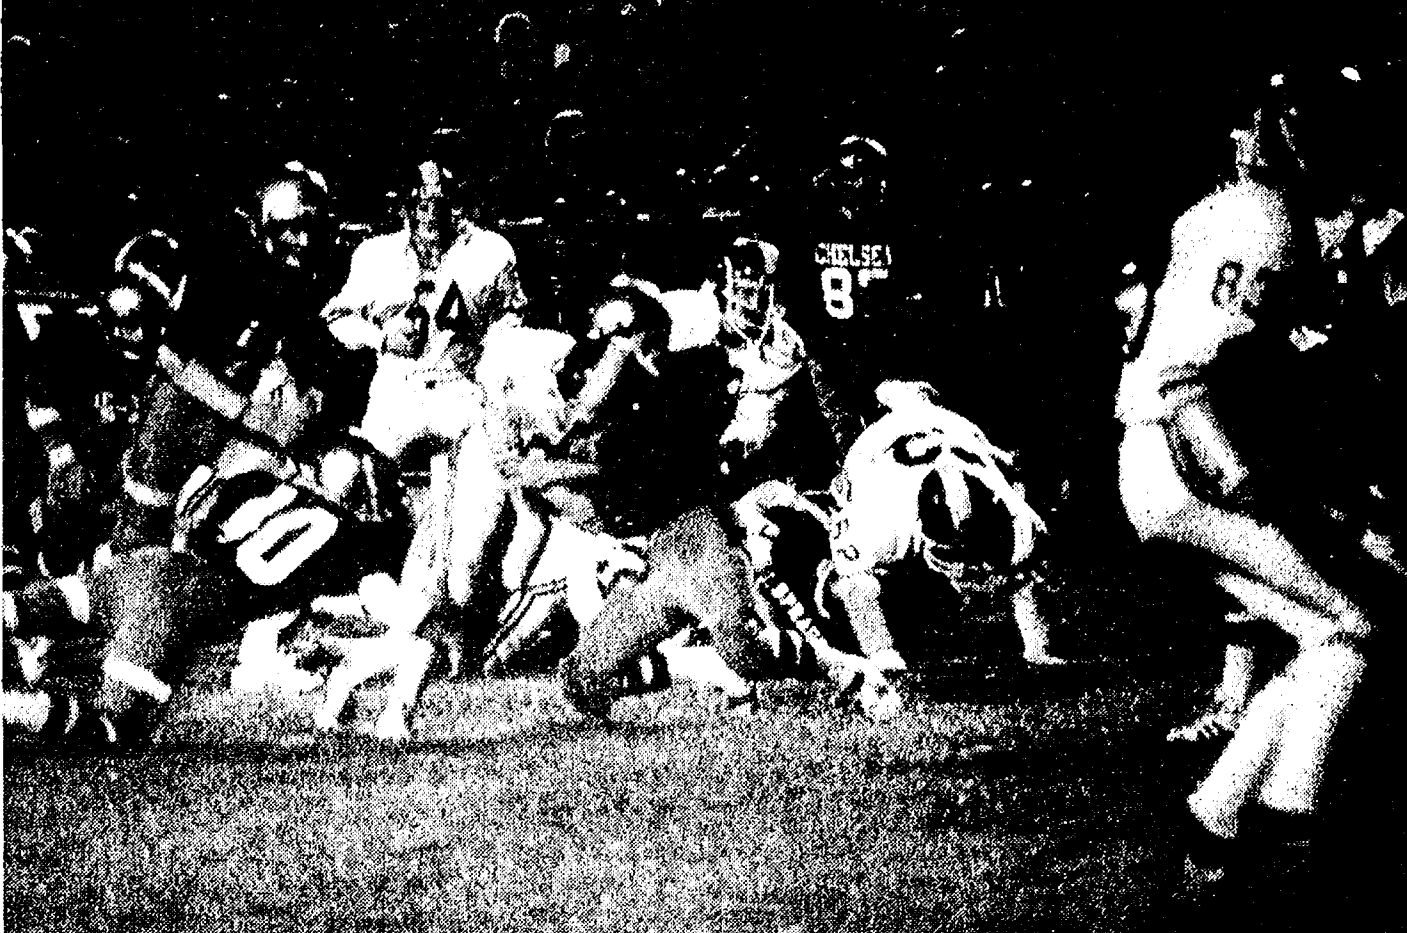

Last week, the Chelsea High school girls swim team increased their dual meet record to 4-1 with a 105-67 thrashing of Lincoln. First-place finishes were recorded by the medley relay team composed of Dawn Borders, Michele Clark, Liesel Culver and Pam Spayd. In addition, the following girls swam into first place: Teresa Degener, 200 freestyle; Sara Borders, 200 IM; Kristen Thomas, 50 free; Michele Clark, diving; Liesel Culver, 100 butterfly; Margie Rawson, 100 freestyle; Dawn Borders, 500 freestyle; Sara Borders, 100 backstroke; Kristin Thomas, 100 breaststroke; and Sara Borders, Janine Hoffman, Teresa Degener and Margie Rawson, free relay. Other team finishes included points scored by Cinda Thornton, Mary Bacon and Barb Davis. The team's next meet is today at Dundee.

DEXTER'S ROB KNICKERBOCKER (43) is hauled down by two Chelsea players as other Dreadnaughts Randy Ralford (62), Randy Krull (75) and Rob Ianni keep a lookout for other Bulldogs who might want to get in on the play.

JV Gridders Win Over Dexter, 20-15

On Friday, Oct. 3, the Chelsea JV gridders defeated the Dexter Dreadnaughts by a 20-15 margin. The first quarter found Villemure completing a seven-yard pass to Dave Weber to put Chelsea on the scoreboard, 6-0. Then, to cap the score, Villemure ran for the extra points to give Chelsea an early 8-0 lead. Dexter followed suit, first scoring on a one-yard run and adding two points from the ground. The score was tied, 8-8. The JV Bulldogs came back again with another pass from Villemure to Weber. After receiving the sailing pigskin, Weber managed to go the distance to give Chelsea its second touchdown, this time from the 65-yard line. The pass for two points was incomplete. The Bulldogs could not keep the Dreadnaughts down. They followed Chelsea's footsteps to creep in from the one-yard line. The extra point kick was good, giving Dexter a minimal 15-14 lead at half-time. Both teams came back and proved to be defensively strong in the third quarter. Neither team could add to their total on the scoreboard. But, with the onset of the game's final quarter, quarterback Villemure completed a 14-yard pass to Steve Cattell to give Chelsea the final six points of the contest and the needed points to win. The extra point attempt was not good. Leading rusher was Harris with a total of 107 yards. He was followed by Villemure with 25 and Rowe with 11. Richardson added 49 yards on kick-off and punt returns, Cattell totaled 57 yards in passing, and Weber accumulated 86 yards receiving. Quarterback Villemure was 8 for 15 pass attempts for a total of 143 through the air. Leading tacklers were Prinzing with 14, Harris 11, Hintzen and McCallum with eight each, Villemure and Bertke with seven each, Greenleaf six, Weber six and one fumble recovery, Pagliarini and Marshall four, Buckberry four and a recovered fumble, Richardson three and Cox and Guenther with a single tackle each. This week the Chelsea JV Bulldogs take on the Saline JV Hornets in hopes of continuing to broaden their winning record.

WHO'S GOT THE BALL? On a cold damp night, Chelsea and Dexter gridders scramble on the turf, each trying to gain some extra yardage. The two teams played hard, each in need of that all-important first win of the season half gone. For Chelsea, it was a good night as the Bulldogs wound up on top with a score of 20-12, a perfect way to conclude a week of pep rallies and Homecoming festivities.

SEC ROUND-UP

Tecumseh, Saline Roll on In Conference Title Chase

Saline 12, Lincoln 7
Friday night's Homecoming game in Saline was far from an upset. The Hornets managed to win another game, this time a 12-7 decision over Ypsilanti Lincoln. It was an apparently equal match-up of SEC rivals as Lincoln scored in the opening quarter on a three-yard pass from Darrell Federer to Dave Stasiak. Still, the Hornets came back within two minutes to score on a 65-yard pass from Jim Phelps to Mark Veal. That ended the scoring for both teams until the third quarter when Saline's Jim Rolan dove in from the one-yard line to clinch his team's victory. Saline had a total of 225 offensive yards in comparison to Lincoln's total of only 142. All-State Railsplitter Derrick Tolliver accumulated only 77 yards, three quarters of them coming in the first half and dropping him well below his per game average of 182 yards.

league and 5-0 over-all. They remain tied for the conference lead with the ever-powerful Saline squad. In the first quarter, VanBuren made a six-yard run into the Panther end zone, putting his team on the scoreboard early. This performance was outdone later in the same quarter by Hans who made a 49-yard pass interception and raced in for Tecumseh's second scoring play. By the end of the first quarter, the Indians had a comfortable 13-0 lead. Second quarter action resumed with Hans receiving a 42-yard pass from Todd and making his second consecutive touchdown run; VanBuren followed suit with a two-yard crash across the goal line. A commanding half-time lead of 27-0 proved to be too much for the floundering Panthers. Still, to avoid any additional embarrassment, Jackson quarterback Scott Spangler made an all-out dive from the three-yard line to put his team on the board and spoil Tecumseh's chances of another shut-out. That was all the scoring Jackson would be able to accomplish. Tecumseh's VanBuren came back again to score on a three-yard run in the third quarter. Parros made an identical three-yard scoring play in the fourth quarter. The Indian-Panther contest found Tecumseh with an impressive 41-6 victory and a team of happy newcomers in the SEC.

Milan 12, Dundee 12
Milan's Big Reds were far from overjoyed when the final seconds of their bout with the Dundee Vikings ticked from the clock on Friday night. With just over a minute to go, the Milan gridders had a 12-6 lead and had Dundee 45 yards away from scoring vicinity. Still, Dundee quarterback, Troy Miller lofted a desperation pass to Tim Jackson who crashed his way across the goal line to tie the game, 12-12. The non-league game would not go into overtime, a decision that both coaches made prior to the game's onset. The border Conference team managed to upset the Milan squad that was looking for their second win on the season. Dundee got on the scoreboard early with a two-yard run by Davis. Milan did not have the opportunity to follow suit until the second quarter when Jackson received a 49-yard touchdown pass from Ludwig. Half-time found the teams tied, 6-6. The two squads came back unable to score in the third quarter but Milan broke out of the scoreless trend early in the fourth when Henry dashed across the Viking goal line from the one-yard line. Sitting on a potential victory, the Big Reds were upset with seconds more than a minute to go when the "who could have believed it pass" was completed to give the Vikings a surprising tie with the Milan gridders.

Forner Bags Buck Via Bow & Arrow

Deer season for the bow and arrow hunter opened on Wednesday morning, Oct. 1 and by evening, Tom Forner, 25, of Chelsea had gotten his quota, a 10-point buck weighing between 170 and 180 lbs. Forner has been bow hunting for just over one year and he and his wife, Martha, have a strict philosophy, they only shoot what they intend to eat. The varied cuts of venison to come from Forner's 10-pointer, will provide the family with enough meat to last until next season. According to Mrs. Forner, "Since Tom already got a deer, I probably won't hunt this year. We don't go out head-hunting, I could never see any purpose in killing for the fun of it. Killing in order to eat is a different story." Forner bagged his meal-providing trophy in the Waterloo area using a compound bow. Beach Girl Cagers Split With Dexter

The Beach school girls basketball teams played their second games against Dexter last week. The 7th graders won 18-14 and the 8th graders lost a heart-breaker, 28-30.

The 7th grade girls played another tough, competitive game. The opening quarter found both squads playing equally, but ended with Chelsea behind, 4-6. The Bulldogs had a rough second quarter and were unable to score while Dexter scored a total of six points.

Coming back in the third quarter, Chelsea scored 14 points and held Dexter scoreless. Much of this was due to the hustle of

The Rock Given New Coat of Paint For Homecoming

Homecoming would never be complete without the painting of the boulder on the corner of Harrison and East Sts. The ritual coating of the rock with school colors, phrases and the like takes place during Homecoming Week.
The "vandals" this year were members of the class of '81 and they decorated the stone with neatly brushed 81's in pale yellow and blue. Unlike the sloppily painted rock on the University of Michigan campus in Ann Arbor, the Chelsea seniors took the time necessary to avoid splattering the sidewalk or surrounding grounds at the former high school site.
The traditional midnight rendezvous with paint cans and brushes in hand occurred sometime last week; seniors involved remain unknown.
