Ronald Reagan Elected By Wide Margin in Republican Landslide

Harriers Place 20th in State Meet GOP Challenger Jim Dunn Unseats Congr. Bob Carr

The Chelsea High school boys cross country team finished off a very successful season by placing 20th with 440 points at the State Class B meet held Saturday in Oxford. The meet was won by Caro which totalled 155 points. The Bulldog harriers were led by sophomore Mark Brosnan in 21st place at 16:47. Other Bulldog placers were Bob Schleede, 56th at 17:16; Brent Martin, 86th at 17:32; Jeff Bradley, 135th at 18:02; Dave Kies, 142nd at 18:09; Bob Benedict, 156th at 18:39; and Toby Boyd, 166th at 19:46.

"The team has given an outstanding effort this season; they've come a long way," commented Coach Pat Clarke. "We lose just one senior this year, so we are all looking forward to next season," he added. In the girls individual run at Oxford, Sandra Frame finished 25th in the state at 20:39 while Nancy Hastings was 48th at 21:24.

Clearing up questions of national, state and local interest, record numbers of voters poured out to the polls on Tuesday.

It was supposed to have been a close race but, at a glance, the returns suggest that area voters agreed with the national majority in the ousting of Jimmy Carter and the landslide election of Republican three-time presidential hopeful, Gov. Ronald Reagan.

With a 10-1 electoral vote margin and an eight million popular vote margin, Ronald Wilson Reagan was given the position of President-elect. Republicans also swept the nation and gained a majority in the Senate for the first time in more than a quarter of a century.

With 51 percent of the national vote going to Reagan, Jimmy Carter followed with a 41 percent total. John Anderson got seven percent, two percent over the minimum needed for election funds to help him clear up his campaign debts.

Nonetheless, while Ronald Reagan defeated incumbent Jimmy Carter in all local township elections, such was not the case for the whole of Washtenaw county. Carter took the county, receiving 43 percent of the vote while Reagan followed at 41 percent. John Anderson took 11 percent and Ed Clark and Barry Commoner each received one percent of the ballots cast.

Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon and other surrounding township voters all cast ballots in favor of Reagan by at least a 2-1 majority.

In other areas, the vote generally followed suit. In the 6th Michigan congressional district, incumbent Bob Carr went down in a close race with his Republican opponent Jim Dunn. In the 23rd district, Republican State Representative Mary Keith Ballantine sought and gained re-election handily, running against Democrat Dan McCarthy of Dexter.

Unopposed Sylvan township board members included George W. Sweeny (R), township supervisor, who received 1,866 votes; Mary Harris (R), township clerk, was awarded 1,918 votes; Fred W. Pearsall (R), township treasurer, captured 1,877 votes; and, trustees, James R. Caruthers (R) and Reuben A. Lesser, Jr. (R) received 1,554 and 1,695 votes, respectively.

Incumbent Sheriff Tom Minick (R) sought to keep his present position and soundly defeated Democratic challenger Lushin Salyer in what appeared to be an easy victory throughout the county.

County prosecutor William F. Delhey (R) was returned to his office, defeating opponent Elizabeth R. Schwartz (D) both locally and county-wide. Across the county, Delhey received 55 percent of the vote.

Filling the office of county clerk will be Republican Robert M. Harrison who carried 56 percent of Washtenaw county's vote compared to 44 percent taken by his challenger Rose Marie Melton (D).

In a close race, the position of county treasurer was awarded to Michael A. Stimpson (R) who defeated Democrat Doris Case by a narrow 50 percent to 49 percent margin.

Seeking and attaining the title of register of deeds was Republican Patricia Newkirk Hardy who received 54 percent of the county vote. Defeated was Angle Jones Viegel.

The job of drain commissioner went to James Murray (D) who collected 51 percent of the votes cast. His opponent, Margaret A. Yorks (R) sought the position but tallied only 45 percent of the county's support. Returning to the Board of Commissioners from the 22nd District was George Merkel.

Vacancies for the State Board of Education were filled by the Republican duo of Norman Stockmeyer and Edmund Vandette while the University of Michigan Board of Regents added Deane Baker and David Lard, both Republicans, to their roster, at least locally.

Two new members of the Board of Trustees at Michigan State University came from a list of eight candidates. The winners in the election were another pair of Republicans, Paul Gadola and Thomas Reed. Another easy victory for the Republican party came with the election of Kurt R. Keydel and Richard Van Dusen to Wayne State University's Board of Governors.

In the race for the Trustees at Washtenaw Community College, the winners, without all of the precinct votes tallied, gave the election to Vanzetti M. Hamilton and Anthony J. Procassini with 24 percent and 27 percent support, respectively. Locally, however, it was evident that voters chose Anthony J. Procassini and Terrance M. McCarthy.

On the non-partisan ballot, five candidates were vying for the two available offices as Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court. Coming out victorious were incumbents Mary S. Coleman and Charles L. Levin who defeated the remaining trio handily. Nonetheless, newcomer Michael K. Hegarty made a rather impressive showing.

The office of 1st District Judge of the Court of Appeals found easy victories for unopposed incumbents George N. Bashara, Jr. and Vincent J. Brennan. The 14th District Court chose two judges from a field of three. Incumbents Kenneth Bronson and Robert V. Fink finished first and second, defeating opponent John W. Stanowski who had outspent the

Gridders Rally To Fall Short By One Point

Chelsea's last football game of the year was certainly an action-packed grand finale as the Bulldogs narrowly missed upsetting the Pinckney Pirates. With less than 12 seconds remaining in the game, the Pirates stopped Chelsea on a two-point conversion attempt and hung on to a one-point 27-26 victory.

The Pinckney gridgers dominated the entire first half, scoring at will. Methodically moving the ball down the field, the half-time lead was 20-0; it looked as though Chelsea was out of the game.

The Pirates came back in the third quarter to score again, hiking their already commanding lead to 27-0. But, Chelsea would not give up. On the Bulldogs, first possession in the quarter, Chelsea's John Preston dashed in from the four-yard line. Then, David Wojcicki made a 37-yard run into Pirate territory to up the Chelsea score to 14-27. But, the Bulldogs were far from finished. Preston again dove in from the Pinckney two-yard line to add six more points for Chelsea.

With just over three minutes left in the game, the score stood at 27-20, Pinckney still having the edge. But, three minutes later and with 12 seconds left to play, Wojcicki threw a 34-yard pass to Craig Olmstead who was all alone in the end zone. Preston's two-point conversion attempt was spoiled by the Pirates who hung on to a relieving 27-26 victory.

The Chelsea comeback and the disappointing missed conversion spurred the Chelsea fans on to an uproarious standing ovation for the Bulldogs.

According to Coach Gene LaFave, "It was the first time that we were able to both run and throw the football." The statistics evidenced LaFave's deduction. John Preston ran with the ball 24 times for a total of 102 yards. David Wojcicki was 15 for 25, for a total of 195 yards passing. Jeff Lantis caught the ball nine times for 125 yards.

Defensively, Chelsea hung on and didn't allow Pinckney any long gainers. "The team gave its full effort and the seniors were outstanding," commented LaFave. "It was one heck of a ballgame," he concluded.

World Community Day Slated Friday

On Friday, Nov. 7, women all over the world will be celebrating World Community Day. Church Women United, official sponsor of World Community Day in the United States, will hold an ecumenical service at the St. Mary's Rectory on Old US-12 at 1 p.m., following a 12 noon pot-luck luncheon. All interested women are invited to attend.

Program emphasis will be on responsible action for peace and justice. Speakers will be Anna Dorothy Wylie, Peace Education chairperson of Church Women United, speaking on "Peace," and Sister Theresa Grekowitz of the Farm Workers Ministry speaking about "Migrant Workers."

The pot-luck luncheon will begin at 12 noon. Bring a dish to pass and your own table service. If you cannot bring food, come anyway and contribute money to World Hunger. A nursery will be provided. Children should bring a sack lunch.

Two Die in I-94 Wrong-Way Crash

Early Sunday morning, Chelsea police received a call regarding an east-bound car traveling on the west-bound side of I-94. At 1:33 a.m., a car was sent out to watch for the vehicle and at 1:48 a.m., the Chelsea Police Department received another call, this time regarding a bad personal injury accident on I-94 near Parker Rd. in Lima township.

According to Chelsea Police Chief Robert Aeillo, he and his men went to the scene because neither the State Police nor the Washtenaw County Sheriff Department were able to respond.

Arriving at the scene of the accident at the 166 mile marker, one mile west of Baker Rd., Chelsea police and fire department found the wreckage of two full-size automobiles, the result of a fatal, head-on collision in which two men were killed.

The dead men are Paul L. Smith, 25, of 216 Harrison St., Chelsea, who was traveling west-bound on the expressway, and Timothy D. Smith, 18, of Austin, Tex., who was driving the wrong-way vehicle. Timothy D. Smith had been staying with a relative in Grass Lake and had been allegedly returning from a wedding reception in the Jackson area at the time of the accident.

Both men were alone in their cars at the time of the incident.

Paul L. Smith was a data processing instructor at a Jackson school and was also the brother of a Michigan state policeman. The two victims were not related and the accident remains under investigation.

Walk-Away Returned to Cassidy Lake

On Friday, Oct. 31 an inmate walked away from the minimal security Cassidy Lake Technical Training School.

James Stanek, 18, of Wayne County had entered the correctional facility on Wednesday, Oct. 29 on two counts, attempted arson and unlawful use of an auto.

At approximately 6:45 a.m., he was picked up by Chelsea police at M-52 and I-94 after a Chelsea area resident had picked him up while he was hitch-hiking in the Cassidy Lake vicinity. Stanek had told the driver that he had been dropped off there by another driver and that he was on his way to Detroit.

After he was dropped off in the village, the driver went to the Chelsea Police Department to report the incident and admit that Stanek was quite suspicious acting. Shortly thereafter, he was picked up and returned to the Cassidy Lake School.

Vincent Dorer Honored By National Trade Association

VINCENT E. DORER, general manager of Federal Screw Works was presented a coveted gold micrometer at the National Screw Machine Products Association's 47th annual meeting held at Marco Island, Fla., last week. The award was made in honor of Dorer's 40 years of service in the industry and is presented to Vincent E. (Jerry) Dorer, general manager of Federal Screw Works in Chelsea, was presented with the National Screw Machine Products Association Gold Micrometer Award at that trade group's 47th annual business meeting held Oct. 26-30 at the Marco Beach Hotel, Marco Island, Fla.

The coveted Gold Micrometer represents 40 years of service in the screw machine products industry and is awarded to NSMPA member company executives exclusively.

Dorer began his career in the industry in 1940 when he joined Federal Screw Works as a floor inspector. His career was interrupted by a tour of service in the U. S. Navy where he served as a decoder until the end of World War II. He then rejoined Federal Screw Works and was promoted to assistant chief inspector, chief inspector, and then plant manager. In 1977, he was named general manager for Federal Screw Works, the position he currently holds.

Dorer has been active for many years in NSMPA. He has served as chairman of the Technical Conference, chairman of the Quality Control Committee, and participated in the Industry Futures Study Committee.

NSMPA represents more than 400 independent producers of screw machine products in the United States and Canada. Screw machine products are found in virtually every manufactured product that has moving parts.

Chelsea Hospital administrator and honorary chairman of the United Way drive. Beside Johnson is office unit bargaining committee official Monica Bailey and personnel manager Al Feldman.

4 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, Nov. 11, 1976—
 With the realization of only 32 percent of its 1976-77 goal, compared to a 75 percent figure at this time last year, Chelsea United Way is requesting additional support from the community. Residential and rural canvassing is over; additional funds will come from current industrial and professional campaigns. Even so, the projected additions will leave the total funding received far below the United Way's goal.

Nearly 2,000 health-minded Chelsea residents poured out of their homes to receive free swine flu immunization shots last weekend during county sponsored clinics held locally on Friday, Nov. 5 and Monday, Nov. 8.

Kathy Schmitke, 17, a Chelsea High senior, has been cited for outstanding performance in writing by the National Council of Teachers of English, and was named a finalist of the 1976 NCTE Achievement Award in Writing contest. She is one of 850 finalists selected to represent high schools in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and American schools abroad.

 Mrs. Susan D. Lake, 25, a fourth grade teacher since September at North Elementary school died Friday evening at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor following injuries received in an auto accident on Old US-12.

Born and raised in England, she married John Besley Lake in London last April. The couple came to Ann Arbor in May; her husband is employed at the Chrysler Proving Grounds. Ron Eder, chairman of the Chelsea Community Chest, reported that the drive had reached 100 percent by Friday evening, Nov. 11. The campaign raised $19,875 for the 1968-69 year. A flagrant deer hunting violator, who killed a deer and then threw its head and hide at Conservation Officer Donley Boyer's parked car was sentenced Thursday evening to 90 days in the Washtenaw County Jail.

Prison Tax Referendum Challenged
 East Lansing attorney Zoltan Ferency has requested that the State Board of Canvassers rule Proposal E—an income tax increase referendum for prison upgrading and construction—invald on grounds it is an actual appropriation.

Under the state constitution, appropriations are not subject to referendum votes in that appropriations may only be made by an act of the legislature. The referendum also was challenged on grounds the bill approved by the legislature contained more than one subject in its title, also contrary to the constitution.

Ferency charged the power of the referendum does not extend to acts making appropriations for state institutions or to meet deficiencies in state funds.

He noted, in a formal request to the canvassers, that the act (PA 250, 1980) calling for an income tax increase upon approval of the voters clearly states . . . "to provide for an appropriation," and the body of the law states that the funds appropriated are to be used for certain state purposes—correctional facilities.

Ferency stated that if, in fact, the proposal does not violate the constitution on the basis it is not an appropriation, it violates another section of the constitution for the reason that it embraces more than one object not expressed in the title—declaration of an appropriation and its use for certain state institutions.

"In view of the foregoing, you are requested to rule that the said proposal is invald for the reasons stated and, therefore, not eligible to be certified or officially declared approved, should the proposal receive a majority of the votes cast thereon at the election on Nov. 4," Ferency said.

Previously, however, Attorney General Frank J. Kelley ruled in a formal opinion that the constitutional ban on public votes on appropriations bills does not apply to a proposal increasing the income tax to provide funds for prison construction.

Kelley said despite the proposal's specification that the money raised by the tax can only be used for prisons, additional action is required by the legislature in order to actually control the use of the funds.

The proposal, approved by statute of the legislature but with the final decision to be made by the voters, would increase the income tax to 4.7 percent, from 4.6 percent, for five years (beginning Jan. 1, 1981) with the revenues to be used for prison replacement, construction and renovation.

The referendum route was the only way the legislature could muster enough votes for the proposed tax increase as members of the state House of Representatives were unwilling to vote for any type of tax increase prior to the November general election.

In a related matter, still pending is an order from Ingham County Circuit Judge Ray Hotchkiss to ease prison overcrowding in the state facilities.

As a result of a suit filed by Ferency, Hotchkiss granted summary judgment and ordered the Department of Corrections to reduce prison populations to institutional capacity.

Rich Hollo Bags Giant Buck Deer With Bow & Arrow

At dusk Saturday evening, Nov. 1, Rich Hollo of Chelsea, bagged a huge nine-point buck at the Chrysler Proving Grounds. Hollo, employed at the Proving Grounds killed his prize from 35-yards away using a compound bow and an aluminum arrow. Field dressed, the buck weighed 205 lbs. and had a 16 1/4 inch rack spread. According to Hollo, this was his eighth deer in eight years of hunting with a bow and was, by far, the largest he has ever killed.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Well, it's done with fer another go round. All the tumult and shouting is over, and all the politicians know how they look cause the voters have took their pictures. It might well be, Mister Editor, that folks in a democracy allus git what they deserve, and we have served it up to ourselves again fer bitter or worse. The fellers took note of this week's election at the country store Saturday night, and they spent the rest of the session catching up on news that has been pushed to the back of the papers by all the smoke the politicians have been blowing past us.

Fer instant, Bug Hookum final got the chanct to submit his report on what he says is called the wedding ring tipoff. Bug saw where this sychiatrist found that wives and husbands that fertig to wear their wedding rings is saying unconscious that they are fed up being wives and husbands. The doctor said that taking rings off fer long spells is a sign of trouble. A worst tipoff is when the partner that ain't wearing a ring denies he took it off cause he's bored with what it stands fer. The doctor reported that a lot of his unhappy married patients don't wear rings, so he wrote rings as a perscription fer bliss.

Bug said him' and his old lady has been ringless for nearly 60 year now, and all this time he had thought they got along right good. It's a crying shame that doctor waited this long to tell him all they need to understand and enjoy one another was a pair rings. After thinking the situation up one side and down the other, Bug went on, he was of a mind that unhappy people is the only kind that sychiatrist sees, rings or no. What happy person would pay $40 a hour to lay on a couch and answer a lot of fool questions from a total stranger, Bug wanted to know.

The next catch-up item come from Zeke Grubb that wanted to know why a Playboy bunny's toe is worth $1 million, but a Chicago lawyer's toe won't bring but $3,463. Zeke had saw where the New York bunny wants that much for pain and suffering for a toe broke waiting tables, but a jury set the low award after the lawyer stubbed his toe and sued the owner of the torn carpet he tripped over. A court allus likes to review cases of the same type, Zeke said, so if the bunny case goes before a judge that uses the Chicago price list, she's going to be shy of $1 million. On the other hand, if the judge happens to be a toe man he could award enuff that would give the Chicago lawyer cause for appeal.

Clem Webster said it was a wonder to him how much matters can clutter the courts in the first place. The news he didn't want the fellers to miss was the latest rowing races across the oceans. The same day's paper recent had Ted McNamara leaving Land's End, England in a barrel bound fer Florida, and Peter Bird heading across the Pacific in a rowboat from San Francisco. McNamara got all of 70 yard out before his barrel turned over and he swum back. At last report, McNamara had set fire to his boat and gone home, and Bird was out there somewhere. Clem said Bird gets his vote as the No. 1 crazy.
