QUOTE

"Now I am beginning to live a little, and feel less like a sick oyster at low tide."

ONE HUNDRED-ELEVENTH YEAR—No. 24 18 Pages This Week CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1980 USPS 101-720 25¢ per copy SUBSCRIPTION: $8.00 PER YEAR

MORE THAN 100 YEARS HAVE PASSED since the Bradbury family acquired this farm located on Easton Rd. between Chelsea and Dexter. Originally purchased in 1834 by Paul D. Easton, great-grandfather of the present owner, it was sold to a party outside the family in 1934. It was re-purchased in 1940 by Jay Bradbury, father of the present owner, who then sold it to his son Archie in 1979. Three Bradbury generations stand proudly beside their marker: left to right, Ellen, Jason, Cindy and Archie Bradbury (the present owners) and Donna and Jay Bradbury (Archie's parents and former owners).

Bradbury Home Designated Michigan Centennial Farm

A farm owned by Archie Bradbury, 9890 Easton Rd., has been designated as a Centennial Farm by the Division of Michigan History.

The farm, located in Lima township, has been in the possession of the family since 1834. It was originally purchased in 1834 by Paul D. Easton, great-grandfather of the present owner. The purchase came directly from the United States government; the necessary paperwork was signed by Martin Van Buren.

Prior to moving to Lima township, Paul D. Easton, who was born in 1805, had resided in Seneca County, N. Y. In April, 1827, he married Sarah Adams, relative of the famous Adams family of Massachusetts, Connecticut and Vermont.

Easton and his wife had eight children: Rufus, Ambrose (who died in the Civil War), Rhoda, Fernando, Leander, Almada who is related to the present owner by having married John C. Bradbury, his great-grandfather), Orpha and Mary.

When Paul D. Easton died in 1858, the farm was purchased by his son, Leander. The new owner married four times and had several children by them. His fourth wife, Amarinta Canfield, the daughter of William and Mariah Canfield of Lyndon township, gave birth to a son, Leland, who would be a future owner of the farm.

In October, 1920, Leland married Hazel Cook, aunt of the present owner. They had three children, M. I. (Easton) Krempel, Harold Easton (the present mayor of Tecumseh) and Arlene (Easton) Bersuder. Leland's father, Leander, died in 1929 and Leland acquired the farm; he sold it in 1934 to George Steeb.

The farm was owned by Steeb for six years; in 1940, Jay (Jack) Bradbury re-purchased it and between 1977 and 1979 he initiated and completed the sale of this farm to his son and present owner, Archie Bradbury.

The farm originally comprised 120 acres located on the north side of Easton Rd. It has been expanded and now is made up of 160 acres. In the past and presently, the farm has always raised dairy cattle; the Bradburys currently have more than 100 dairy cattle.

Though the out-buildings are old, whether or not they are originals is debatable. A barn fire in 1960 resulted in the loss of most of the original structures.

The farm house was built in the 1850's. Though the interior has been remodeled, the home remains authentic on the exterior. It is there that the present owner, Archie Bradbury lives with his wife, Cindy and their two children Jason, 6, and Ellen, 3.

Interestingly, approximately 30 direct descendants of the farm's original owner, Paul D. Easton (who was one of 17 children), still reside in Lima township or in its immediate vicinity.

Bulldog Cagers Face Height Problem in Defending SEC Title

Fall Sports Banquet Set Monday

The Chelsea High school varsity boys basketball team will begin its regular season on Friday, Dec. 5 when it takes on the Brighton cagers in Chelsea. The Bulldogs' first conference encounter will be played at Jackson County Western the following Tuesday, Dec. 9 against the Panthers.

Last season the team, under the coaching of Robin Raymond, took the Southeastern Conference title with a 9-1 SEC record. The Bulldog cagers' over-all record stood at 16-5.

The 1980-81 varsity squad has a different look than the SEC championship team. The main difference is size. Last season heights ranged from 6'7" to 6'3" across the front. This year, the tallest cager, junior Chris Tobin, is 6'5½" followed by 6'2" junior Jon Riemenschneider.

The 1980-81 team lost six seniors from the preceding year. They are Captain John Dunn, Don Schrotenboer, Mike Killelea, Brad Knickerbocker, Dan McGill and Carl Albrecht.

This year's squad, regardless of height, is, according to Coach Raymond, "A better over-all shooting team with the guard position being its strong point."

Four good guards characterize the squad. They include seniors Captain Jeff Dils, Jeff Price, and Sean Peterson and sophomore David Wojcicki.

The weak spot on the team is center and Coach Raymond hints that the team may play without one. At this point, junior center Darrell Keezer, standing at 6'3½", is injured.

Forwards on the team include juniors Chris Tobin and Jon Riemenschneider and Mark Steinaway.

Most of the playing time will be seen by the aforementioned while the squad is composed of 14 cagers. The class breakdowns reveal that six seniors—Dils, Price, Peterson, John Welton, Bob Trevino and Toby Boyd—six juniors—Tobin, Riemenschneider, Keezer, Steinaway, Todd Sprague and Mike Bareis—and two sophomores—Wojcicki and Randall.

Bulldog Cagers Win First Conference Title For Girls Basketball

Well, they did it! The Chelsea High school girls basketball team has become the first CHS girls basketball team to ever be Number One in the league. The lady Bulldogs clinched the Southeastern Conference title on Friday, Nov. 14 and are alone on top. Thinking they might be tied in the number one spot, the lady cagers gave it their all in the contest against a very aggressive Ypsilanti Lincoln squad.

"We got the cake and anything else will be frosting and candles," commented Coach Jim Winter, reminiscing about Friday's 42-34 victory. On Saturday, Nov. 22 the lady Bulldogs will play the winner of the Jackson County Western-Jackson Northwest contest at Jackson Northwest. This will be the first leg of a tough journey through the District Tournament.

Coming out in the first quarter, the Chelsea cagers missed countless easy shots, they just couldn't score. "They must have been tense," explained the coach. Still, the lady Bulldogs held a slim 10-7 lead at the quarter's end.

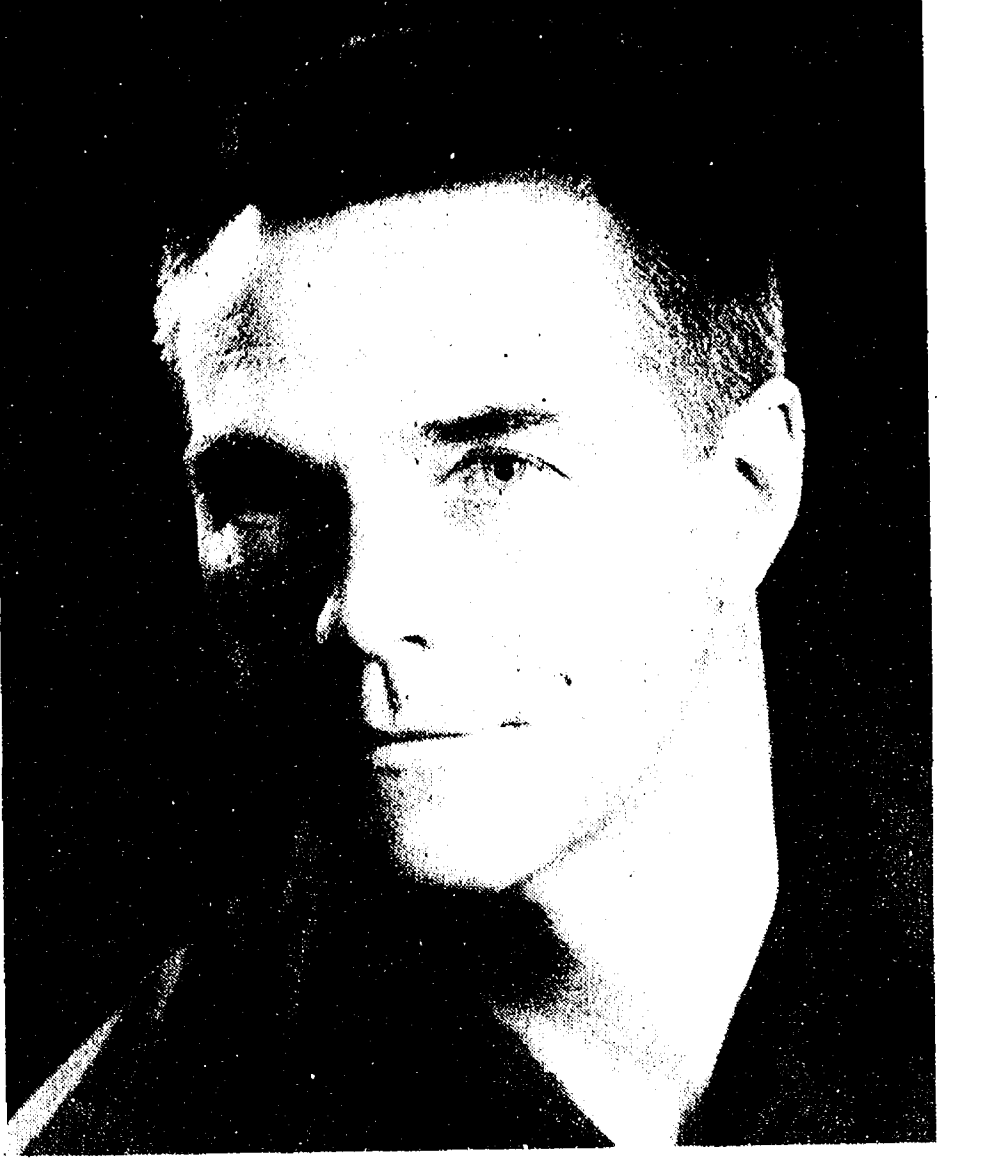

With the second quarter, Chelsea began to open up a comfortable lead, but lapses at the end of the first half found them being out-scored, 6-2. Their lead dwindled to only five points at the half as Chelsea remained ahead, 24-19.

In the third quarter, Chelsea came out with the intentions of proving who was the better team. That fell through as well, though the lady Bulldogs upped their lead to six points. The third quarter score was 34-28.

But, everything was coming up roses in the fourth. Lincoln made many mistakes, they threw the ball away too much and the game became extremely physical. With few fouls being called, there were countless turnovers and with one minute remaining to tick off the clock, Chelsea held the ball and won with an eight-point leading final score.

Scoring for the lady Bulldogs were Jennifer Ringe with 16 points, Amy Unterbrink with 12, Mary Boylan with 10, and Lorrie Vandegrift and Mary Jo Eisele with two points apiece.

Rebounding came from Amy Unterbrink and Mary Boylan with 14 grabs each, followed by Lorrie Vandegrift with 10. Statistically, Chelsea led the Railsplitters in rebounding by a near 2-1 margin as the Bulldogs (Continued on page seven)

DALE FISHER

Fisher One-Man Show Set Sunday

On Sunday, Nov. 30, noted local photographer Dale Fisher will offer to the interested viewing public a collection of his natural photographs, taken from the lofty and not-so-lofty heights of a helicopter. The photographic art show will begin at noon and last until 5 p.m. in the Events Building at the Chelsea Fairgrounds. The vast array of framed photographs will be shown to the public free of charge.

Fisher's one-man exhibit will offer patrons a vast assortment of his works ranging from original collections to photographs of the Arizona landscape. Many of these reproductions of nature have never been shown before. Both he and his wife, Judy, will be on hand to answer questions.

Included in the exhibit are his original collections entitled "Deer Yard," "Winter Shadows," "Blue Water Day," and "Winter Creek." Too, his Arizona artworks, taken two years ago in Sedona and Oak Creek Canyon are among those photographs never before exhibited.

Other works to be shown will include nine photographs that will be decorating the walls of all of the patient rooms at Chelsea Community Hospital and his Mackinac Island portfolio.

Exclusively a photographic artist since 1965, Fisher believes that he is probably the only full-time helicopter-based photographer in the country. He still takes a number of commercial photography jobs to help alleviate the overhead expenses that arise from his airborne endeavors.

Shooting his photos from normally 25 feet above ground, Fisher's aims are to expose all of the beauty of nature that people never have a chance to see. "They're either on the ground or miles high, I just give them a different perspective," he concludes.

PATRICK RADY, hunting with his father, Harold Rady, 840 N. Main St., got his first deer, a 10-point buck at 8:30 a.m. Saturday Nov. 15, near Manchester. Pat, a student at Chelsea High school was out for his third season of deer hunting when he became lucky and bagged this 140-lb. deer.

Deer Hunters Flood Woods

Deer season for the gun-armed hunter got underway Saturday, Nov. 15 and will last throughout the month. According to early reports, huge deer herds prevail in the Lower Peninsula, particularly in Southeastern Michigan. But, the further north the deer hunter heads, the less likely he or she will be of bagging that coveted buck.

There are record numbers of the beautiful animals roving the countryside and record numbers of hunters out for the annual occasion. Many Chelsea-area residents are among the crowds of hunters tramping through the fields and woods in hopes of returning home with a prize white-tail.

The good season is evidenced locally by the shortage of deer licenses available to the hunter. By opening day, both Gambles and Chelsea Hardware had sold out of the mandatory deer hunting paraphernalia. At $8.75 apiece, Gambles had distributed approximately 475 licenses while Chelsea Hardware had sold 400 or so.

Secretary of State Office Will Close

On Tuesday morning, Nov. 18, the Chelsea branch of the Secretary of State's office was notified that it was among 45 branches to be closed effective Dec. 31. Some offices will be terminated as of Jan. 31.

The notice of closure, received from the Secretary of State in Lansing, came as no real surprise for any of the three employees who are employed there.

Following the convincing defeats of the four tax proposals that were placed before voters in the Nov. 4 election, certain future budget cuts were necessitated. With the slump in the car industry and the over-all sluggishness of the economy in both the state and country, huge deficits faced political leaders.

Governor William G. Milliken deemed necessary the shut down of operations of the 45 Secretary of State outlets which include 20 sub and 25 full-time offices. For the Chelsea employees, things could be worse. All three employees, though temporarily stunned by the cut back, will be transferred to other Secretary of State offices that have been designated to remain open.

Youth Arrested In B & E

Sometime between 5:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 10 and 8:25 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 11, Meabon's TV, Furniture and Appliance store was broken into.

Upon arrival, Chelsea Police noted that the perpetrators of the crime had entered the building by breaking a window and then unlocking the door. The burglar alarm was shut off and $65 in bills and change were taken. Nothing else was stolen.

Later apprehended was Jeffery G. Beyer, 19, of 514 Arthur St. Patrolman Rick Walter had picked him up and originally charged Beyer with larceny from an auto. It appeared that sometime earlier, Beyer had been suspected of stealing two exhaust pipes and a muffler from a Corvette that was being stored. Through interrogation, he admitted to having taken part in the Meabon incident.

On Thursday, Nov. 13, Jeffery Beyer was arraigned before a magistrate taking over during (Continued on page five)

MICHIGAN MIRROR By Warren M. Hoyt, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Legislature Faces More Budget Cuts Members of the legislature will be facing massive budget cuts and possible methods to increase state revenues upon their return to Lansing for a final legislative session of the year. Governor William G. Milliken, rejecting at present the discussion of tax increases, said he will be recommending very deep and painful cuts. He added the cuts will affect virtually all areas of government.

not tax increases, although in September he was supporting a package of revenue measures. However, he would not rule out further support for tax measures to help to balance the budget. George Weeks, executive secretary to the governor, explained Milliken would review the various options for budget cuts, weigh their severity and their implications, discuss the impact with department directors, and then decide whether to seek some revenue measures if he decides the cuts would be too deep.

Bryant said his caucus would look very unfavorably at increasing taxes in a lame-duck session. Other Republicans noted the caucus took that position in September, arguing voters should have such information before the election. Republicans have insisted they would not support any tax increases in the last weeks of the legislative year. Members of the Democratic caucus would be reluctant to supply all the votes for tax increases and believe they must follow what they see as voter sentiment against taxes.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says: DEAR MISTER EDITOR: Clem Webster bring this clipping to the session at the country store Saturday night.

Actual, went on Zeke, if we keep turning farms into shopping centers and parking lots we won't need tractors, and for sure we won't be able to grow all that grain the Carter Administration has worked out a deal to sell China. This piece Zeke had saw said three million acres are lost every year. By 2000, at this rate, Florida won't be nothing but amusement parks, airports and highway cloverleaves, Zeke said, and 75 percent of all the farmland in New England will be paved over. Our Corn Belt states will lose 32 million acres.

Zeke Grubb reported that farm equipment stealing is big crime in this country, and getting bigger as the price of everthing farmers and ranchers need goes higher. Probable, Zeke said, that feller won't git his tractor back fer $1,000, cause another farmer will be willing to pay the thieves $5,000 fer it, knowing it's stole. Crooks can't make crime pay without buyers, Zeke said, and what we got to realize is that it takes us honest folks looking fer bargains "no questions ask" to keep them in business.

Yours truly, Uncle Lew. Nicotine, a known poison, is found in the breast milk of nursing mothers who smoke.

J. Prohaska With Strong EMU Forensics Team

"I have to believe that on paper, with our students and coaching, we're one of the strongest teams in the nation, if not the strongest." That's the assessment of Dennis Beagen, director of forensics at Eastern Michigan University, as the forensics team starts preparing to seek its sixth consecutive national title.

is very enthusiastic about. He singled out three of those recruits—Sherry Katz, Rick Green and Marty Cuff—as being key elements on the new team. The strength of the students combined with "excellent graduate students" who coach the team promise an excellent year, Beagen said. The focus of the coming year, as it has been for the past several years, will be on having student quality for participation in the national tournament by competing individual tournaments; rather than on having the team win tournaments each week-end. To qualify for the national tournament, a student has to place as a finalist at any one of a number of sanctioned tournaments during the year. Since many Eastern students compete in anywhere from three to six events, they will be trying to qualify each of their events during the year.

Julie Prohaska, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Prohaska of 14580 Stofer Court, Chelsea, is beginning her third year with the EMU forensics team. A junior at Eastern, Prohaska is majoring in political science and speech. She placed fifth in informative speaking at last year's national tournament and also was a quarter-finalist in rhetorical criticism. She is a member of the Stoic Society, works as a tutor in the EMU Political Science department and is the past recipient of an EMU Campus Leader Award. Prohaska is a graduate of Chelsea High school.

Bowling Green will be the site of the 1981 national championship tournament, which will be held April 24-28. Beagen said this will be a key year for recruiting, since the team will lose six graduate students and 14 seniors to graduation in April. But the quality of the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts at Eastern should make that recruiting job fairly easy, he said. "We're considered to have one of the top speech, interpretation and theater programs in the nation," Beagen said. "If people want to know why we're successful, it's because of the quality of the department."

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Janish

Melissa Wright, Lester Janish Wed at Congregational Church

The Congregational Church of Chelsea was the setting for the wedding of Melissa Wright and Lester Janish on Saturday evening, Nov. 8. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wright of Chelsea. The bridegroom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Landwehr of Manchester. The Rev. Carl Schwarm officiated the 5 p.m. ceremony.

Honor attendants were the bride's sister, Mrs. Rodney Houle of Chelsea, and Brad Frey of Manchester, a friend of the bridegroom. Serving as bridesmaid was Mrs. Jason Josaitis of Taylor, cousin of the bridegroom.

Ushers included Bob Padley of Manchester, friend of the bridegroom, Richard Janish of Brooklyn, brother of the bridegroom, and Rodney Houle of Chelsea, brother-in-law of the bride.

Flower girl was the bride's niece, Kristy Ann Houle of Chelsea, while Joey Williams of Chelsea, a friend of the bride, served as ringbearer.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the UAW Hall in Chelsea.

Robin Wright and Ruth Whitley hosted the reception.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Allan Elsass of Saline, cut the wedding cake while Cathy Marqueler of Saline, a friend of the bride, poured punch. The bride's cousin, Kimberly Whitehead of Pinckney, attended the guest book.

The newlyweds will reside in Chelsea.

Unusual Careers For Women Will Be Explored

Washtenaw Community College will offer an afternoon information session for women regarding non-traditional career possibilities on Friday, Nov. 21. It is designed to help women interested in learning more about these through discussion with women already involved in a particular type of work and through films.

The session will begin with a buffet lunch in the Culinary Arts Dining Room of the school. It is offered at no charge and will be followed by a keynote address by Ann Arbor attorney Jean King.

Information sessions will then be offered concerning careers for women in fields such as carpentry, electronics, aviation, quality control, commercial art, printing, accounting, police and correctional work, welding and machine handling as well as others. Film showings will also take place.

The session is open to all interested women at no charge and will be held from 12 noon until 5 p.m. Questions regarding the event should be directed to WCC staff at (313) 973-3464.

Babies born to smoking mothers generally weigh less and are smaller in size.

Engineering Aptitude Test Being Offered

The National Society of Professional Engineers is again sponsoring an aptitude testing program for high school students interested in pursuing engineering careers, Francis B. Manning, P.E., local chairman of the nation-wide testing program, announced today.

Among leaders in the engineering profession, there is continued national concern that able and talented high school students be encouraged to consider the study of engineering and its career potentials and that use be made of the potential for the engineering sciences that is evident among high school youth. It has been recognized that there is a need for a mechanism of early identification, recognition, and continued follow-up guidance of young people with potentials for engineering.

Accordingly, the Junior Engineering Technical Society (JETS) conducts a testing program to focus the attention of high school students, parents, educators, and counselors on these needs and opportunities. This program is known as the National Engineering Aptitude Search (NEAS).

Principal feature of NEAS is an aptitude testing program that is specifically for use in this JETS program. It seeks to identify talented students in grades 9-12 whose performance on the NEAS tests indicates the likelihood of their success in future engineering studies.

Last year more than 70 area students took the NEAS test. The results from that test indicate a strong potential for many future engineers in our area.

This year's test will be conducted at the Chrysler Center on the North Campus of the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor on Jan. 17, 1981 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Deadline for applications is Nov. 14. There is a small charge for the test.

For applications and more information, students should contact their high school guidance counselor.

EMU Fashion Merchandising Class Plans Craft Sale

The fashion merchandising class at Eastern Michigan University will present two four-day periods of special events including demonstrations, craft displays and boutique at Roosevelt Hall on the EMU campus.

Between Nov. 10 and 14 and then resuming on Nov. 17 and running until Nov. 21, the fashion merchandising students will hold this non-profit event, selling various items including books, records, clothes and Christmas ornaments that have been donated by Ypsilanti-area merchants.

Hours for the EMU bazaar are 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. daily; Thursday, Nov. 13 and Monday, Nov. 17, it will be open until 7 p.m.

Glacier Hills Seeks Approval on Licensing As Home for Aged

Glacier Hills, 1200 Earhart Rd., Ann Arbor, has asked the state to approve relicensure of 225 home for the aged beds.

Previously known as The Lutheran Retirement Center, Glacier Hills was licensed as a home for the aged until December 1977. The license was allowed to expire for lack of use, since residents who required any level of care were admitted directly to the nursing home.

Glacier Hills now wishes to provide staff nursing to residents remaining in their apartments, eliminating the need for admission to the nursing home in some instances.

Currently, there are 230 apartment residents in Glacier Hills. There would be no cost to the project, which could become effective upon approval.

In keeping with state and federal regulations requiring state approval and action by the local health systems agency board prior to change in service, Glacier Hills has applied for a certificate of need. The application is on file with the Michigan Department of Public Health, Division of Health Facility Planning and Construction.

The first REA electrification line in Michigan, which was in the Mason-Dansville area, was established largely through the leadership of George W. Bissell, the first dean of engineering — 1907 to 1929 — at Michigan State University. Bissell will be honored with a new portrait which will be hung in MSU's Engineering Building.

Chamber Orchestra Performs

On Saturday, November 15, the Chelsea High School Chamber Orchestra played its premiere performance at the Thanksgiving Dinner for the Chelsea senior citizens. The group, led by Mr. Miller, played a variety of selections ranging from a minuet by Boccherini to a 1922 fox trot entitled "Thoroughly Modern Millie."

Members of the Chamber Orchestra are Katie Ullman, Shari Weber and Lauria Hines, first violins; Margie Peterson, Jeff Cox, Jeff Koepfle and Gretchen Vogel, second violins; Carrie Parkins, viola; Sara Ullman and Tom Mull, cello; and Mary Kay Poljan, bass.

Money earned by the Chamber Orchestra goes toward the funding of the Toronto trip planned for the Chelsea High School Symphony Orchestra.

VIC VERCHEREAU, beams after being presented the American Farmer Degree by Doug Rinker, National President of the Future Farmers of America. The award, presented to Verchereau at the 53rd National FFA Convention held in Kansas City, Mo., last week-end, is the highest degree of membership in the FFA organization. It was presented to a total of 781 national members during ceremonies at last week's convention.

Victor Verchereau Granted National FFA Top Honor

On Sunday, Nov. 9, Victor J. Verchereau of Chelsea traveled to Kansas City, Mo. for the Future Farmers of America National Convention. As president of the Michigan state FFA, he went to the convention as a candidate for the national FFA presidency.

On Thursday, Nov. 13, Verchereau received the American Farmer Degree at ceremonies held during the 53rd National Convention of the FFA. He was one of 781 FFA members selected to receive the American Farmer Degree, the highest degree of membership in the organization. As a holder of the American Farmer Degree, he joins a select group representing about one percent of all the nation's FFA members.

Verchereau is the son of Joseph E. Verchereau and lives at 10397 Hadley Rd.

Each American Farmer Degree recipient is presented a gold key and certificate in recognition of their accomplishment among the nearly one-half million FFA members across the country. They also receive a cash award for traveling to Kansas City and attend a special breakfast in their honor. The American Farmer program is sponsored through the National FFA Foundation by Amoco Oil Co. of Chicago, Ill.; J. I. Case Co. of Racine, Wis.; the Chevrolet Motor Division, General Motors Corporation of Warren; Pioneer Hybrid International, Inc. of Des Moines, Ia.; Production Credit Association throughout the United States, and the 12 Federal Land Banks of the United States.

The American Farmer Degree is the highest degree of membership in the FFA. It is presented only by the National Organization of the Future Farmers of America to members who have demonstrated exceptional agricultural and leadership ability. State FFA Associations may submit candidates for the American Farmer Degree based on total FFA membership in the state. The 781 members awarded the American Farmer Degree this year represent the highest achievement of more than 481,678

FFA members in almost 9,000 high school vocational agriculture departments.

All the FFA members who receive the American Farmer Degree begin as "Greenhands." After at least one semester of vocational agriculture, members may be advanced by the local chapter to the degree of "Chapter Farmer." The third degree, that of "State Farmer" is presented by the State FFA Association. Only students who have earned the State Farmer Degree are eligible for the American Farmer Degree. Each advancement is based on proficiency in combining classroom learning, practical "hands-on" experience and leadership.

In addition to having earned the State Farmer Degree, candidates for the American Farmer Degree must have been active members of the FFA for at least three years. They must have completed all of the vocational agriculture instruction offered in their high school. American Farmer applicants must also have earned at least $1,000 by their own efforts.

Vic Verchereau fulfilled each of these requirements. In the Chelsea FFA Chapter, he has served as junior vice-president, chapter treasurer and president. Later, he went on to serve as his region sentinel.

In high school, Verchereau became captain of his football team, was voted most representative, most spirited and friendliest of his senior class. He was also one of the commencement speakers for his 1978 graduating class.

He enjoys being a part-time Sunday school teacher and usher and is currently a student at Washtenaw Community College. He hopes to transfer to Eastern Michigan University to pursue a business career.

The National FFA Convention at which he took part is an annual event of the Future Farmers of America and is carried out in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Education. This year more than 20,000 FFA members, vocational agriculture teachers, parents and guests took part in the meetings held in Kansas City yearly since the FFA was founded there in 1928.

Deer Hunters Exhaust Stock Of Licenses

As of Tuesday morning, the only place in the area that one could acquire a deer license was at Sugar Loaf Lake, though even their supply was all but gone. Chelsea Hardware reported that they had ordered additional licenses immediately following their sell-out on Saturday.

According to the Conservation Department, it is definitely a good season with many good sized bucks to be had. "The deer kill this year is better than in the past few years," commented Conservation Officer Craig Wales, "and there have been no reported hunting accidents in Washtenaw county." Still, statewide, a number of hunting related injuries and fatalities have resulted from the annual deer season as hunters en masse have invaded the wild.

With every deer season, though, some hunters remain phenomenally greedy. "There are plenty of violations," explained Officer Wales, citing incidents of illegally tagged and illegally killed deer. On Monday, just two days after the season had opened, Conservation Officer Macomb retrieved six illegal deer that were hanging in the garage of a Lodi township man. According to Officer Wales, the department had received an anonymous complaint about the above episode prior to their impounding of the animals. The incident remains under investigation.

William Bott Promoted With Ann Arbor Trust

William J. Bott has been elected to the position of 2nd vice-president and branch manager of the Ann Arbor Trust Co., it was announced by George H. Cress, president.

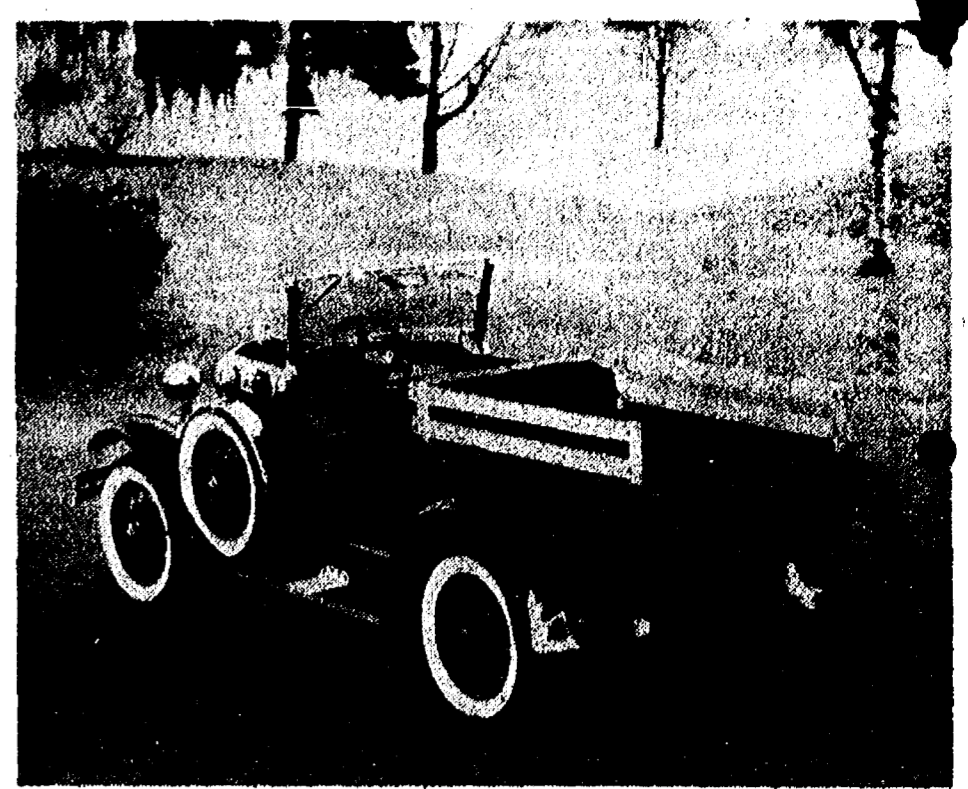

Bott, who heads the Trust Company's Chelsea Banking Office, joined the firm in June of 1978. Prior to that time he served as director of the Ann Arbor Chamber of Commerce for 16 years. Bott also directed the Chamber of Commerce in the communities of Niles and Three Rivers. In addition, he has been associated with Caldwell & Reinhart Co., realtors.

Involved in civic activities, Bott is a member of the Board of Directors and the Budget Committee of the Chelsea United Way. He is also a member of the Advisory Board of the St. Louis School, the Steering Committee for the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce and he belongs to the Kiwanis Club.

Bott was instrumental in the establishment of Washtenaw Community College and served as trustee and treasurer of the board. He also served as secretary and commissioner on the Ann Arbor City Planning Commission.

Bott earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Indiana University and is also a graduate of the Institute of Organizational Management.

Model A Roadster Pick-Up in Production

Still riding the success of its replica of the 1928-29 Model A Roadster, the Model A & Model T Motor Car Reproduction Corp., has introduced a Model A Roadster Pick-up Truck.

First showing for the popular vehicle came at the corporation's Battle Creek, Assembly Plant. The pick-up is powered by the same 1980-81 Ford drive-train that forms the base of the Model A Roadster. Optional items include the wooden side rails on the truck bed for delivery use; and a camper-sleeper adaption.

The pick-up has a suggested retail price of $11,995. Delivery of the first units will start this month.

The pick-up and Model A Roadster reproductions are available through Palmer Motor Sales, Inc. the franchised dealer for this area.

BOY SCOUT'S AWARD OF MERIT was bestowed upon this gentleman last Thursday in Saline. Otis Titus, 78, of Chelsea, was the proud recipient of this honor, following many dedicated years of service to Chelsea area Boy Scout troops. With the encouragement of his grandsons, Robert and William Burgess, Otis became involved with Boy Scouts following an illness and seven operations that had forced him to retire from his plumbing business.

Otis Titus Granted Scout District's Award of Merit

On Thursday, Nov. 13, Chelsea's own 78-year-old Otis Titus, 710 Taylor St., received the District's Award of Merit, from the Munhake District of the Boy Scouts. He was one of three men awarded this honor in Saline following his many years of dedication to the Boy Scout programs in the area. The other two recipients are residents of Saline.

Mr. Titus' Boy Scout history stretches back to his Detroit childhood and, interspersed with other occurrences, continues on to this very day. When he was 16, he met a young lady at his family's cottage on Sugar Loaf Lake; at age 30, she became his wife. By the age of 17, he was his father's apprentice in a plumbing business, which eventually became his life-long occupation.

After his marriage, Titus and his wife moved to 710 Taylor St., his present residence. At the same time, he and partner Floyd Rowe, operated a plumbing business. Too, Mr. Titus was one of the first members of the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club. As a former member of the Chamber of Commerce, he was given partial responsibility for Alma Pierce's donation of land for present-day Pierce Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Titus gave birth to a daughter, Mary Ann. She was later married and moved nearby.

Continuing to work beyond the typical retirement age, Titus was stricken with a severe health problem and following seven consecutive operations, his busy, hard-working life became suddenly idle.

But, rather than just sitting back, Mr. Titus, with the encouragement of his two grandsons, Robert and William Burgess, became a volunteer Scouter. Utilizing his years of Scouting experience, he assisted his grandchildren in becoming Eagle Scouts.

The Scouting story begins as such. In 1969 and 1970, Titus entered Pack 455 as a committeeman. By 1971, he had become Webelo Leader, a post he continues to retain. Too, in 1978 and 1979 he also served as Pack Committee Chairman.

But that's not the extent of his Scouting career. In 1972 and 1973, he registered as committeeman for the Kiwanis-sponsored Troop 476 and from 1974 through the present, he has been the Troop Chairman.

He also served as Scoutmaster of Troop 451 from 1974 through 1977. This Knights of Columbus-sponsored troop was made up of residents of St. Louis School and one of Mr. Titus' grandsons had based his Eagle project on bringing quality scouting to those mentally handicapped scouts.

In old Iroquois, he was District Vice-Chairman under Mike Maloney. When the group met at Wiley school, he served as District Roundtable Webelo Leader Chairman. He handled the Webelo section of many Cub Scout training courses and Pow Wows. He was a loyal and active member of the District Committee for a great many years.

Referring to his nine-year chairmanship of Troop 476, Otis Titus has consistently assisted his scouts in whatever area they require. Though he is unable to attend overnight camp, he has been known to drive to Camp Kanesatake each morning to spend the day with the troop. His troop found paper drives to be the norm as opposed to the exception, a continual event that involved the entire village.

With more time to spend, Titus became a member of the Chelsea Historical Society and was later appointed to the Village Historical Commission. He was solely responsible for the research that led to the declaration of the Glazier Building as an historical site. In addition, he voluntarily worked on the maintenance of his church.

His 10 years as a Webelo leader has made this Scouter invaluable to the boys of the district. As both leader and troop chairman, Titus was interested in the transition from Cubbing to Scouting. He created his own manner of making the change from one group to the other. It is as follows. The Den Chief would remove the Webelo's neckerchief and declare that he was no longer a Webelo. From there, the boy would be welcomed with a Scout handshake by a local Scout, followed

8th Grade Cagers Lose to Tecumseh

Last week, the 8th grade girls basketball team went to Tecumseh for their final game of the season. The Bullpups went there with great determination in hopes of avenging a 28-12 trouncing earlier in the season. "The girls played their best game of the season until they got into foul trouble with one minute left in the game," commented Coach Vogel.

Chelsea came out with excellent defense, combined with fine shooting, to take a 15-10 lead into half-time. Tecumseh came back in the third quarter to tie the game up. The fourth quarter was a well played six minutes of basketball in which Chelsea held the lead until the last 45 seconds of play. Fouls took their toll and the Indians capitalized with six points and a 30-25 win.

High scorers were Beth Unterbrink with seven points and Joann Tobin with six points. Kelly Hawker and Sam Collinsworth scored three points each while Stephanie Grant and Tina Paddock contributed two points apiece.

"This year's team was composed of 19 members who started out and stuck with the whole season, worked hard and were enthusiastic and fun to work with," explained Coach Vogel. The team was composed of Tina Paddock, Gayla Bauer, Laura Koeppele, Kim Harden, Rachel Schnell, Cindy Issel, Liz Kincer, Laura Anderson, Becky Finch, Stephanie Grant, Sam Collinsworth, Chris Hegadorn, Dawn Olson, Sarah Comeau, Kelly Hawker, Joann Tobin, Maryann Richardson, Beth Unterbrink, and Anne Weber.

High total season scorer was Beth Unterbrink with 78 points, followed by Kelly Hawker with 42, Joann Tobin with 37, Anne Weber with 20 and Sam Collinsworth with 15.

Jaycees Plan Projects for Christmas

Each year, the Chelsea Jaycees have a busy month in December. In addition to activities with family and friends in preparation for the holidays, the chapter conducts two of its most satisfying projects.

Needy Kids Christmas and Fatherless Boys Tree projects are activities that the Chelsea Jaycees carry out each year. For the family that is suffering financial difficulties, the Jaycees reach out to be sure that children in the family are able to select gifts for brothers, sisters and parents. The child may even get a needed pair of gloves or booties for him or herself.

The Fatherless Boy Tree project is conducted early in the month. It begins with a trip out for breakfast, a drive in the country to a Christmas tree farm, maybe a snowball fight and a trip home with a Christmas tree and perhaps, a renewed feeling for the spirit of the season. This project is intended to provide fatherless boys in the area with some direct contact, time and experience with a man in a social situation. Many times the boys meet friends and may possibly encounter men they have seen before. Hopefully, they feel a little better from the experience.

Local merchants have been very, very generous and increasingly involved in these endeavors. Annually, the Jaycees have covered the resultant costs with various fund-raisers held during the year.

This year, there will be two 50/50 game nights sponsored by the Jaycees with one-half of all proceeds going toward the costs of their children's projects. These events will take place on two Fridays, Nov. 28 and Dec. 12 at Sylvan Township Hall. For further information, please call Bob Meyer at 475-2796.

Youth Arrested

Judge Kenneth Bronson's absence. Charged with larceny and breaking and entering, Beyer, who had been released earlier on personal recognizance bond awaiting sentencing for at least one other count of breaking and entering, was again released on the same type of bond. Beyer's double release on personal bond is against the law. According to Police Chief Robert Aello, anyone who has been released on personal recognizance bond and is awaiting sentencing cannot be released on it a second time.

Beyer was bound over to Circuit Court Tuesday, Nov. 18 and is currently in the Washtenaw County Jail, being held on $5,000 bond.

by the presentation of a Scout neckerchief. After this ceremony, the Webelo leader would give each boy a hand-made copper arrow color coded with stripes that represented his Cubbing achievements.

In such positions as Webelo Leader, the longevity of the retiree is in vivid contrast to the brevity witnessed in most packs. Perhaps, the continuity provided by men of Titus' years could lead to a more quality-oriented Cubbing and Scouting program.

Otis Titus has proved that this is quite possibly the case; by providing one of the best Webelo programs in the United States.

Students Boost Smoke-Out Day

National Smoke-out Day, Thursday, Nov. 20 got an added push from Chelsea High school students on Wednesday, Nov. 19. Members of the Student Council traveled to both South and North Elementary schools to present an anti-smoking skit to faculty and students.

The short presentation dealt with a "big, bad wolf" that tried to blow down a house. He couldn't. He smoked and was subsequently, short of breath.

Student Council representatives passed out literature from the American Cancer Society that attempted to sway children from peer pressure that could lead to cigarette smoking. Too, they passed pledge cards out to the students to take home to their parents, all in the hopes that if parents could refrain from smoking on Smoke-Out Day, they might be able to quit permanently.

Back at the high school, anti-smoking posters were put up and anti-smoking buttons were given to students to wear throughout the day.

All these activities, co-sponsored by the Washtenaw County branch of the American Cancer Society, were carried out by Chelsea High school students in hopes of eliminating the possibilities and prevalence of elementary, middle, and high school smoking.

Fire Dept. Answers Four Calls

Within the past 10 days, the Chelsea Fire Department has made a total of four runs. Three of the four calls answered were fire calls while the fourth dispatched a rescue squad only.

On Sunday, Nov. 9, firemen were called to extinguish a leaf and woodpile fire located at 200 N. Freer Rd. The next day, Monday, Nov. 10, found firemen assisting a woman who had fallen at 725 W. Middle St. All was quiet until Thursday, Nov. 13 when the Chelsea Fire Department put out a grass fire set by a trash barrel at 11153 Boyce Rd. Finally, on Friday, Nov. 14, the volunteer department was called to the scene of a chimney fire at 8636 Plainwell Dr., Half Moon Lake.

All four incidents were taken care of promptly; no serious damage or injuries were reported.

Cigarette smoking:

—Raises the blood pressure 10 to 20 points.

—Blocks the filtering activity of the lung's air sacs, thus permitting cancer-causing materials to collect.

—Restricts the blood vessels and breathing movements of unborn babies in women who smoke, while also reducing the oxygen level of their blood.

—Drives up the level of fatty acids in the blood which may cause the deposit of artery-clogging plaques.

—Causes allergic reactions in many non-smokers.

Cagers Open Scrimmage to Public Tonight

dy Krichbaum—will make up the 1980-81 CHS varsity basketball team.

The biggest over-all plus for the team is their hard work and exceptional practices. These players can do more than their predecessors and the guards have good agility. In total, the team can shoot well from the outside and can run frequent and different combinations than other teams.

The most questionable aspect characterizing the squad is their inside play. Rebounding is a definite question mark while the success of the season hinges on the quality of defense. If the cagers can mold themselves into a strong defensive unit, the season outlook is favorable.

Coach Raymond explained that this year's team will utilize the same brand of play that has characterized his previous teams. "We're a fast breaking offensive team that moves the ball and takes quick shots. Hopefully, we'll also be able to slow the ball down and take more slow, definite shots as well."

A weak point this year is defense. The CHS team plays man-to-man defense and is anticipated to do this aggressively. They must force the opponent into more mistakes if the Bulldogs are to be successful.

In order to make the season a routine, Raymond has initiated a before-school practice program. Between 6 and 8 a.m., the cagers take to a full court without interruption and concentrate on their weaknesses and work to perfect their strengths. Much time is spent working on their inside play.

Coach Raymond, in his fourth coaching season, has arranged a tough non-league schedule for his team. Playing against very good teams, regardless of the games' final outcomes, is a good learning experience for the team. "By being matched up with some of the best teams in the state, our kids learn from their mistakes and from the patterns of play demonstrated by their opponents," Raymond suggested. This year's non-conference line-up includes the defending state champions of Willow Run, a strong Jackson Lumen Christi squad, and Class A Howell and Brighton.

The Southeastern Conference sports Milan's Big Reds as the pre-season favorite. Most of their players are returning this year as seniors. Following behind them are the two strong teams of Saline and Tecumseh. Chelsea, according to Coach Raymond, "should fall somewhere between one and four in the league."

These top four teams are well-balanced as far as individual team characteristics and talents are concerned. They are each fundamentally strong. Still, the Bulldogs are plagued with definite height and weight disadvantages this year as opposed to last year's perfect combination of these physical attributes. But, the Chelsea cagers are capable of doing more this year.

Much of their capability stems from a summer's worth of basketball action. Between 20 and 25 games were played against all the large schools in the area. At Adrian, the Chelsea cagers took to a tournament made up of 16 teams. In return for their efforts, the Bulldogs received much good playing experience, which should help them in the upcoming season.

On Thursday, Nov. 20, the Blue-Gold scrimmage, featuring the varsity versus the underclassmen will begin at 7:30 p.m. The annual event, which marks the opening of the regular season, is free and the public is invited.

Drama Club Rehearsing For Production in December

Rehearsals are well underway for the 1980 Chelsea High school drama and drama class production, "You Can't Take It With You." The cast, under the direction of Patrick Powers, has been working diligently on scene blocking and characterization. The class has been studying the acting and technical aspects of the theatre. Through the help of William Coleus and guest speakers, the students are learning set design, make-up, lighting and special effects as well as poise and stage presence. The show will be performed for both junior high and high school audiences during the day on Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 17 and 18. It will be presented for the community on the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 19. The cast, as well as the director, is enthusiastic about the upcoming show. One student, Greta Picklesimer, stated, "It is very rewarding to be a member of this class. I am really looking forward to the performance.

Cagers Win Championship

Amy Unterbrink had a particularly good night, sinking 12 points, grabbing 14 rebounds, blocking five shots and making three assists.

The win left Chelsea with the SEC crown and a winning record of 16-3 over-all and 10-2 in the conference. Since their 14th win a couple of weeks ago, the lady Bulldogs have been continuously breaking past records for season victories. In 1977, the CHS girls basketball team won a season total of 14 contests.

Jim Winter commented on his 1980 lady Bulldogs. "It's been a very good year, they've worked hard and established themselves as the best in the league. I'm proud of them; they really deserved to win this title."

Ask the Governor

Question: Who were the recipients of the Governor's Energy Management Awards this year? How much energy was saved?

Governor: Of the many state institutions competing in the energy conservation competition, the over-all winner, Eastern Michigan University saved 275 BTUs, a reduction of 32.2 percent from prior levels.

Another award was given to Central Michigan University for the development of an innovative energy conservation and money-saving technique. With the installation of new showerhead designs, more than $100,000 in water and gas costs were saved during the first 12 months of use.

Also recognized were Michigan State University, the University of Michigan, Northern Michigan University, Traverse City Regional Psychiatric Hospital, and Western Michigan University.

These institutions have set a great example of the importance and impact of wise conservation efforts. Selected by judges from Detroit Edison, Michigan Consolidated Gas, Consumers Power and Michigan Bell Telephone, the six winners saved 1.3 trillion BTUs of energy and $43 million since 1973.

For their outstanding accomplishments, both Eastern Michigan University and Central Michigan University will receive federal conservation grants of $12,500 from the Energy Administration, Michigan Department of Commerce.

Question: I'd like to know more about the state vanpool program. How much does it cost the state? Is it only for state employees?

Governor: Since the vanpool program began three and one-half years ago, it has expanded to 118 vans (from its original three) and is serving 1,350 participants.

Because the state employees using the vanpool have their charges deducted from payroll checks, there is no net cost to the state except for a small administrative cost.

The program has been a tremendous success and has saved each passenger between $250 and $1,500 per year. Also, on July 22 of this year, the Department of Transportation received a Presidential Award for Energy Efficiency largely because of the vanpool program.

Although the vanpool is solely for state employees, another program has been developed for riders, regardless of employer. The MichiVan program has been established for participants in the Grand Rapids, Lansing and Detroit areas. For more information, call 517-373-8258.

If you have a question for the Governor, please send it to: "Ask the Governor," Executive Office, Press Section, Lansing 48909.

FIVE RETURNING SWIMMERS who have gained experience in state level competition are above, left, junior Dave Mason, sophomore Dave Nicola, in water; junior Craig Wirtz, kneeling back, and senior Shawn Pierson, front right. Not present, junior John Robbins. Dave Mason, last year's Most Valuable Player, returns to try and medal once again in the individual medley, the butterfly and one of the relays. Dave Nicola swam on the medley and free relay teams last year in addition to the 50 free. This year, his role has changed and he will attempt to qualify in the 50 free, breaststroke and medley relay. He is a school record holder in the breaststroke and both relays. Craig Wirtz was 13th in diving at last year's state meet and hopes to qualify once again and place high enough to medal. Shawn Pierson, who swam breaststroke in last year's state meet, also hopes to qualify in the individual medley this season. He is also a possible entrant on the team's medley relay. John Robbins returns this year with experience in the backstroke at the state meet. He hopes to qualify for the same stroke this year in addition to the butterfly event. This year's team is aspiring for heights many teams may never attain. According to Coach Larry Reed, "These young men will play a definite role in the success this year's team is striving for."

Families Are Forever

By Gayle A. Winans Gorton
Families are so important to each of us. Why is it that things don't always go so smoothly in our home lives? Here are three ways to improve the Quality of our family life:

A) Family Councils: The entire family unit can meet together with father presiding. The total family welfare as well as personal problems and concerns can be discussed. Decisions such as a family vacation, a move, educational and other pursuits can be discussed, and counsel can be received. This is an opportunity to be open and honest, and to solve conflicts in the lives of all members of the family.

B) Family Prayer: Praying together brings a special unity to the family. It is also a time to pray aloud for one another and thereby express love and concern that may otherwise be left unsaid.

Family Home Evenings: To be most effective a weekly activity attended by all members could be held to do those things that breed the fond memories of family life. Outings, lessons, singing and other musical activities, projects, even a talent show, recreation, games . . . the list is endless and so is the potential for fun.

Love between the members of the family, and the appeal of being together with parents and siblings is strengthened remarkably by these times.

For extra help with these suggested programs and for other suggestions please feel free to call 475-9697 (Elder and Sister Grimshaw), and ponder the messages of the Family Week posters present around our community.

In keeping with the spirit of Family Week to be held the week of Thanksgiving, as stated in the proclamation by President Ritter, remember: Families are Forever. Enjoy the priceless possession of your family.

A Not So Phony Idea

Thomas Edison announced his invention of the phonograph in November, 1877. His talking machine was so unique that the government granted him a patent in a mere three months. Between that time and 1926 Edison received a total of 186 patents on the phonograph, one of his more important inventions. At Greenfield Village, Dearborn, visitors may step into the laboratory where the first talking machine was invented, moved by Henry Ford I to Dearborn in 1929.

DEATHS

Grace Darling

Former Pontiac Nurse Dies Saturday at Methodist Home
Grace Darling died Saturday, Nov. 15 at the Chelsea United Methodist Home. She was 92.

She was born Oct. 1, 1888 in Capac, the daughter of William P. and Mary (Vietch) Darling.

Miss Darling was a former registered nurse who had served in Michigan hospitals. She came to the Chelsea Home Oct. 19, 1970 from Pontiac.

Survivors include three nieces, Mrs. Carolyn Francois of Yale, and Mrs. Grace Shannon and Mrs. Roberta Lincoln, both of Port Huron.

Cremation has taken place and burial followed in Oak Grove Cemetery.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Arrangements were made by the Staffan Funeral Home.

Michigan consumers are assured quality milk and manufactured dairy products. Trained MDA inspectors routinely check parlors where cows are milked and milk house equipment on farms for sanitation. Only farms issued a state permit with sanitation approval may supply Grade A milk to dairies.

Earl Heller Resigns Post as Community Fair Manager

The regular meeting of the Chelsea Community Fair Board was called to order by President L. Grau on Thursday, Nov. 13. Other officers present were treasurer K. Poljan, vice-president J. Heydlauff, and executive secretary M. Guenther. Directors present were J. Layher, A. Steinaway, H. Gross,

M. Staphis, J. Herrick, B. Stoffer, J. Dault, A. Bradbury, R. Bollinger, R. Heller, G. Houle, J. Merkel, III, J. Holefka, H. Trinkle, C. Staphis and C. Koenn. Only six members were absent. Others present were Tom and Marilyn Lewis, Harold Eiseman, J. Wellnitz, Matt Middleton and Gerald Dennison. Representing the Southeastern Michigan Australian Shepherd Association were Sharon Van Blaricum, and Robert Cook, representing Frank Cook of the carnival.

The reports were read by the executive secretary, M. Guenther and were accepted. Earl Heller, who has managed the fair very effectively for the past several years, submitted his resignation as manager at the last regular meeting, effective Jan. 1, 1981. As manager, Heller had to neglect not only his business, Heller Electric and Supplies, but also his two sons, Marty and John who are growing up on the farm. They also need more of their father's time. He will still be a valued director-electrician and all-around help to the fair officers and directors. His resignation was regrettably accepted at this meeting.

A discussion was held about a possible dog show by Matt Middleton and Gerald Dennison for Memorial Day week-end, May 1981. No decisions were made at the meeting.

Frank Cook's representatives discussed the carnival for 1981.

At 9:15 p.m., the regular meeting was adjourned. The Annual Fair Meeting was called to order by President L. Grau immediately after the closing of the regular meeting. The minutes of the 1979 Annual Meeting were read and accepted.

Joe Merkel, III, a fair director, and J. Gaken and Tony Nielsen, past valued board members, were the nominating committee (Continued on page 12)

MAN THAT'S CORN: 50,000 bushels of the golden kernels lay in a small mountain on the property of Honeggers & Company, located on Dexter-Chelsea Rd. When their warehouse was filled with 300,000 bushels of the 1980 bumper crop, the firm had no where to go but outside. Though this year's corn harvest has yielded approximately the same amount as the record-breaking 1979 season, over-all corn production in the country is down. Severe drought made it all but impossible for other midwestern states to equal normal yields.

Bumper Corn Crop Overflows Elevator Storage Capacity

Following this year's bumper crop of corn, local feed mills are literally up to their ears in the yellow grain. Honeggers and Company, Inc., located on Dexter-Chelsea Rd., have finally become able to see daylight in their huge warehouse. That follows one month of 24 hour per day, seven day per week schedules to try and meet the storage needs of some 350,000 bushels of Michigan corn.

Though Michigan's 1980 corn crop will equal that reaped the previous year, it is very unlikely that the tremendous 1979 harvest will be surpassed. Still, long hard working days will be in store as farmers bring the crops in and Honeggers ships it out to various nation-wide destinations.

Corn farmers who live and farm within a 20-mile radius of the feed mill are those most apt to sell their wares to Honeggers.

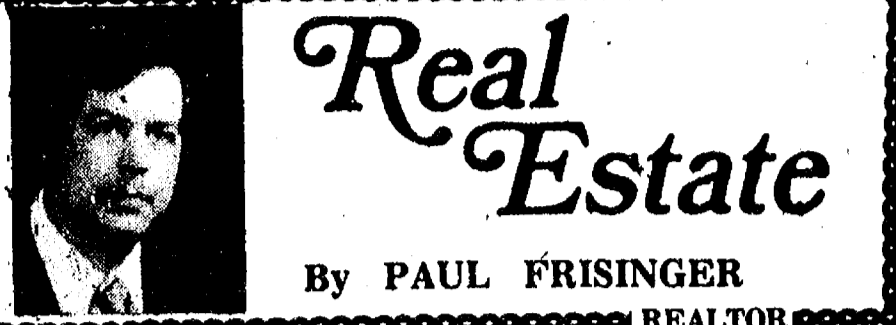

Prices have risen considerably from a single season earlier. According to Jerry Heydlauff, manager, "This year we are paying $3.14 per every bushel. That's 80 cents more than last year."

Heydlauff explained that an average acre of cropland will yield 90 to 100 bushels of corn. "This year, we've got farmers talking in the 120 to 130 bushel per acre area," he continued. Still, though Michigan was blessed with a magnificent corn crop, other areas in the Midwest, namely Iowa and Illinois, suffered severely dry weather and lost some of their crops. In sum, though the Michigan harvest was bountiful, the nation-wide crop is down for the 1980 season.

From the time the corn is dropped off, it is immediately transported to one of two areas in the country. By rail, with each car transporting 3,500 bushels, most of Honeggers corn supply will be sent to New England. And, transporting 1,000 bushels of corn per load to Toledo, truckers deposit their loads for re-sale at the Toledo Market and eventual export.

Nonetheless, Honeggers has been unable to keep up with the corn that is delivered en masse to their warehouse. Presently, 350,000 bushels remain in storage at the facility. This year, though, they have been forced to try something new. Honeggers, literally jammed with the grain, have stored 50,000 bushels in a huge heap outside. "We've never had to do it before, so it's hard to say what damage, if any, will result," explained Heydlauff. But, moisture content will not be a problem. A few weeks ago, corn was arriving with a 30 percent moisture content; now, the moisture has been considerably reduced to approximately 20 percent.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER

REALTOR

MORTGAGE PROTECTION

Perhaps it's mercy, but many of us barely comprehend the degree of financial exposure we submit to in the ordinary course of life. Take, for instance, the mortgage on your home. This represents a huge, multi-thousand dollar debt. If a husband dies, it could be a staggering burden for a widow.

One way to avoid all of this exposure is to buy what's commonly called "mortgage insurance." Actually, it's decreasing term insurance which will yield enough cash at any moment in time to wipe out the mortgage debt and leave the widow with a home that's free and clear. For more details check with your own insurance agent.

True, the house itself is security for the debt. In theory, you simply sell the house and use the proceeds to pay off the loan. But if the house is sold, the family will have to find other quarters. Also, a sudden sale may bring a poor price, thus wiping out the family's important equity.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8881; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Beach Cagers Down Milan, Lose to Saline

Beach Middle school's girls basketball team played Milan on Wednesday, Oct. 29, in Chelsea, as their last home game.

The 7th graders played an excellent game, getting lots of support from the bench and spreading out the scoring among six people.

The Bullpups held Milan scoreless in the first quarter while they posted eight points of their own.

In the second quarter Milan fired up but quick defense and good rebounding kept Chelsea with a six-point lead at half-time.

In the third quarter the teams played even, but the fourth quarter was once again dominated by the Bullpups. The final score was 22-12.

High scorer was Jennifer Cattell with eight points, Karen Killelea and Kristi Headrick each scored four. Two points each were scored by Michelle Easton, Jill Schaffner and Kelly Fletcher.

The 8th graders played a hard, rough game. The score at half-time was 3-1 in favor of Milan. Chelsea was scoreless in the first quarter and Milan was scoreless in the second quarter. As a result of good aggressive play and well-organized scoring by four different players, Chelsea managed to tie it up in the third quarter.

The fourth quarter found both teams fairly even but Chelsea gained a one-point lead by making three of four free throw attempts. The Bullpups then held on to their lead through the final minute of the game. Their final score was 14-13, Chelsea.

Scorers were Kelly Hawker with four points, Anne Weber and Sam Collinsworth scored three each, and Beth Unterbrink and Joann Tobin each had two points.

Beach Middle school's 7th grade girls basketball team went to Saline Monday optimistic and determined. The girls came out strong in the first quarter with excellent passing and shooting and aggressive defense to gain a 12-8 lead. Saline picked up the second quarter and led, 16-14, by half-time.

The Hornets dominated the third quarter, gaining a 13-point lead. The fourth quarter scoring was equal as Saline won the game, 38-25.

High scorer was Kris Mattoff with eight points. Kristi Headrick scored five points, Chris Defant scored four, Amy Wolfgang and Jennifer Cattell had 3 each, and Julie Thompson contributed two.

The 8th grade girls basketball team played one of their best games of the season against a strong Saline team but came out short, losing, 30-33.

"We played the best man-to-man we've played all season but just couldn't contain Mary Kenzicky, Saline's 'big gun,'" commented Coach Cheryl Vogel.

Chelsea played "catch up" the entire first half, starting the third quarter six points behind. The teams played even the third quarter. In the fourth quarter Chelsea kept tying it up but couldn't take the lead. The Bullpups' big chances to take the lead came with free throws but the shots wouldn't fall.

High scorer for Chelsea was Beth Unterbrink with 10 points. Kelly Hawker scored eight, Sam Collinsworth four, Joann Tobin three, Anne Weber and Sarah Comeau, two each, and Stephanie Grant contributed one.

The girl's final game is against Tecumseh today at 4 p.m., at Tecumseh.

Legislative Update

A Weekly Report from State Rep. Mary Keith Ballantyne State Capitol, Lansing 48909 Phone (517) 373-1775

Week of Nov. 17-21

DANGEROUS DRIVING — Michigan drivers are entering the peak season for deer car accidents and the number of accidents is soaring each year. In 1979 the 16,148 deer-car accidents left three people dead, 870 injured and cost $19.2 million in damage. They took a toll on the deer too. Some 99 percent of the deer involved were killed. Precautions? Stay alert and remember, deer travel in small groups.

HUNTING SEASON — About 750,000 hunters will go afield this fall to bag 110,000 to 150,000 of Michigan's herd of a million white-tail deer. The hunters will leave behind an average of $200 to $300 each in purchases of gas, groceries, taxes on private hunting lands, licenses, guns, ammunition and dozens of other items.

LAKE AUTHORITY — The Michigan Department of Transportation wants a Lake Michigan Transportation Authority established to oversee future water transportation on the lake and put new life into the industry, rather than short-term subsidies for cross-lake ferry service. It's up to the legislature now.

BUDGET WOES — Lame duck legislators face more severe budget cuts in order to balance the 1981 budget by Jan. 1. The Governor has recommended additional budget cuts of $288 billion, bringing the total to $1 billion, insisting that a hike in taxes is unwise. The new round of cuts will result in the layoffs of 1,000 more state employees. Hard hit are education, mental health and state police under the Governor's latest plan.

JOBS PROGRAM — Michigan, in the worst economic slump in 40 years, has launched a $75 million job and training program aimed at getting 36,000 people back to work and reducing the welfare caseload demands. The U.S. Department of Labor awarded a $10 million grant to supplement the program and target some 6,000 general assistance recipients in counties most in need of help.

TAX RELIEF — Michigan voter's refusal to approve any of the three property tax relief proposals earlier this month is an indication that they are holding out for a responsible cut. Look for the Siljander plan, which did not make it on the ballot this time due to insufficient petition signatures, to be resurrected. Over-all, it would provide a $500,000 cut for Michigan taxpayers.

PRISON OVERCROWDING — Legislation that would give the governor emergency powers to deal with prison overcrowding at any of Michigan's 12 correctional facilities will be debated in the House Corrections Committee this week. Presently, our prisons are housing 13,114 prisoners even though they were designed for only 11,738. The problem is so serious that many prisoners—more than 1,200—are sleeping in trailers and garages.

NOVEMBER REGISTRATION — A reminder to November-born Michigan citizens who own motor vehicles . . . 1981 license plate tabs must be on vehicles by your birthday this month. If you have any questions about 1981 vehicle registration, contact the local Secretary of State office.

7th Grade Cagers Close 5-5 Season

The 7th grade girls basketball team traveled to Tecumseh last week for their final game of the season. With the same enthusiasm and determination that they had for the first game of the season, the girls faced a strong Tecumseh squad that completely dominated their meeting three weeks earlier. The Bullpups played one of their finest games of the season.

The first quarter evidenced their newly developed poise and patience as Chelsea was only down by one at its end. In the second quarter, they still stayed close as the half-time score was 7-10.

Chelsea was still not outdone in the third quarter as the teams played evenly. The final quarter, however, was a different story as Tecumseh took control of the game with the final score in their favor, 26-15.

High scorers for the Bullpups were Jennifer Cattell with six points, Chris Defant had four points, Kristi Headrick scored three points and Jackie Boosey contributed two.

"It was an enjoyable season with a group of eager and enthusiastic young people," commented Coach Vogel. "They should have many good seasons ahead of them."

Good hustle was shown by guards Jennifer Cattell, Jackie Boosey, Michelle Easton, Chris Defant and Kris Mattoff. Laura Damm, Heather Grenier, Karen Killelea and Julie Thompson showed great improvement throughout the season. Kristi Headrick, Amy Wolfgang, Jill Schaffner, Kelly Fletcher and Cindy Kvarnberg were the high rebounding forwards for the season. The two highest point scorers were Jennifer Cattell and Kristi Headrick with 50 and 47 points, respectively. The Bullpups finished with a 5-5 overall season record.

Heart Attack Victims Sought In Medical Study

Volunteers are urgently needed to help combat America's number one killer, atherosclerosis. This disease is primarily responsible for heart attacks, strokes and related fatal diseases that account annually for some one million deaths or 53% of all deaths in the United States.

The National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute is conducting a program at three participating medical institutions, including the University of Minnesota, to determine whether lowering blood cholesterol levels will reduce the risk of heart attacks.

The University is seeking persons 20 through 64 years of age, who have had only one heart attack in the past five years. All such persons are asked to call the University of Minnesota Hyperlipidemia Study collect at 612-376-4494 for more information.

The Veterans Administration's annual report—a 199-page publication on the nation's 30 million veterans and how the agency serves them—can be obtained by sending $6 to the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402.

Abe Ambles Down the Aisle

He may have been happy, but guests at Abraham Lincoln's wedding to Mary Todd in Springfield, Ill., on Nov. 4, 1842, described him as "Pale and trembling as being driven to the slaughter." He soon adjusted to married life.

Some of the furniture from the Lincoln's Springfield home is now on exhibit in the Decorative Arts Gallery of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

Psychology Award

Chelsea High school senior Cara Feeney has been selected as the recipient of this week's psychology award.

The psychology students selected Cara for the award because of her excellent class participation, her hard work in class and out of class and interest and enthusiasm for the subject. They also noted that Cara makes interesting comparisons to people in her own family relating to the material being discussed.

When asked what she thought of the class, she replied, "I think that the class is very interesting and I am learning a lot. It is fun because we get to have a lot of class discussions."

Cara plays softball for Chelsea High school. Upon graduation, she plans to attend Michigan State University where she would like to pursue a career in business. Cara is the daughter of

Debate Tournament Set Saturday at CHS

On Friday, Nov. 14, Chelsea High school's varsity and novice debate teams traveled to Southfield Lathrup High school to compete in a two-day debate tournament against Class A schools. In hopes of bettering themselves and preparing for the State debate tournament to be held in January, Chelsea debaters consistently tackle larger schools in their verbal contests.

Novice debaters included affirmative arguers David Moore, Pat Killelea and Will Rosenreter. Arguing on the opposite end of the spectrum were Dan Klemmer, Jeff Koepele, David Moore and Missy Arnett, negative debaters.

In their two day clash, the CHS novice unit finished with a 6-6 record.

Varsity debaters Sara and Theresa Merkel, completed a week-end of arguing with a 2-4 tally.

This Saturday, Nov. 22, the league debate tournament will be held at Chelsea High school. The one-day battle will feature novice, junior varsity and varsity debate units from six league schools. The verbal attacks will begin at 7:30 a.m. and continue until 1 p.m. with debaters from Ann Arbor Huron, Ann Arbor Green Hills, Columbia Central, Plymouth Canton, Milan and Chelsea High schools competing.

The public is welcome to come, watch and listen to the six-school verbal wizardry.

Beach School Gridders Fair Board Notes

The Beach Middle school "A" or varsity football team ended the 1980 season with a 3-2 record. This marked the 18th of 19 seasons coached by Bert Kruse that junior high teams have had a winning record.

This year's team, with the help of assistant coach Bill Wescott, opened with a 12-6 loss to Lincoln but followed that disappointment with wins over Dexter, 28-0, Milan, 24-6 and Saline, 20-14. These three victories were sandwiched between the initial loss to Lincoln and a final 30-6 defeat by Jackson Catholic.

The 1980 squad was composed of Scott Miller, David Steinhauer, Eric Schaffner, Chad Hodge, Dan Kimbler, Dan Fenton, Charlie Boomus, Rob Beckwith, Scott Burkhalter, Kyle Kemmis, Brian Farley, Rob Long, Mark Bentley, Phil Sweet, Ed Brosnan, Keith Neibauer, Steve Hunn, Dan Smiley, John Harris, Matt Smith, Charlie Koenn, Brett Knickerbocker, Jeff Kitchen, Kevin Gross, Doug Graves and Scott Jones.

The offense was led by halfbacks Dan Fenton, who rushed for 237 yards, four touchdowns and two extra points, and Scott Miller, who rushed for 230 yards and three touchdowns. Eric Schaffner rushed for 125 yards and one touchdown and 7th grader Rob Beckwith had 95 yards in eight carries that was good for one touchdown.

In the passing department, Eric Schaffner hit 16 out of 37 for 193 yards and two touchdowns. Scott Jones had three out of four for 36 yards and one touchdown. Leading pass receivers were Rob Long with eight catches while Scott Miller and Scott Jones each caught three. One of Jones' grabs was the Saline game's winning catch. Brian Farley and Charlie Koenn also caught touchdowns passes.

Defensively, Scott Miller led the tackles with 35. David Steinhauer had 29, Eric Schaffner and Chad Hodge had 27, Dan Kimble had 24 and Dan Fenton and Charlie Boomus, 20 apiece.

The 1980 junior high team was characterized by good over-all team speed, some good hitting, but below average size. Good things are expected in the future.

Sylvan Township Board Proceedings

Regular Meeting
Nov. 11, 1980

The meeting was called to order by Supervisor Schoenberg with the following members present: Treasurer Pearsall, Clerk Harris, Trustee Lesser and Trustee Carruthers.

Minutes of the last meeting were read, corrected and approved.

Bills were presented by the Clerk. Motion by Carruthers, supported by Lesser, that orders be drawn and bills be paid. Motion carried.

Michael Loux presented the Zoning permits report.

A discussion was held regarding the fence ordinance; a need for changing an ordinance concerning raising of animals in a low-density residential area, and a recommendation to change 2 parcels of land from Recreational Conservation to Agriculture.

Recreational Council requests and amounts given were discussed.

Correspondence was read from the Cavanaugh Lake Association.

A letter from the D.N.R. was read and discussed concerning signs being posted on Mill Lake.

A letter from the Washtenaw County Planning Commission was read concerning stop signs being posted on Garvey Rd.

Motion by Carruthers, supported by Pearsall, to purchase a service contract for the typewriter purchased by the Clerk. Motion carried.

A discussion was held regarding the rental of the Town Hall.

Bids were opened for the position of Assessor for the coming year. Action was tabled.

Meeting adjourned at 10:25 p.m.

Mary Harris, Clerk.

Lima Township Board Proceedings

The regular meeting of the Lima Township Board was called to order by Supervisor Bauer on November 10, 1980, and was opened with the Pledge to the Flag.

Roll call: Supervisor Bauer, Clerk Bareis, Treasurer Tilt, Trustees Gross and Heller all present.

Approved minutes of the October 6 meeting.

Approved motion to deny to Sobek rezoning request due to traffic conditions, nearby neighbor concerns, and in accordance with the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance, General Development Plan and recommendations of the Lima Township Planning Commission and the Washtenaw County Planning Commission.

The treasurer's report was received.

The zoning inspector reported on the various violations.

Approved motion that any Lima Township violators, with regard to zoning be penalized in accord with the County Building Inspection procedures and these be noted in the local paper.

Approved motion to adopt resolutions with regard to clarifying election laws in the area of circulating petitions and legal representation.

Approved motion to bond the treasurer in the amount of $10,000 and all others $5,000.00.

Approved motion to pay bills in the amount of $3,315.71.

Supervisor Bauer thanked the outgoing board members, Trustee Harold Gross and Treasurer Jean Tilt for the many hours of dedicated service each has given during their years in office.

Approved motion to adjourn at 10:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Arlene R. Bareis, Clerk.

Federal benefits for Vietnam Era veterans have totaled more than $47 billion. This includes some $28 billion for GI Bill education and training assistance and more than $4 billion for VA hospital and medical care.

offering suggestions for future consideration. One consideration was to shrink the board of 27 people to 21, or even 18 for better concentration on various projects. Two new members, one to replace Ed Keezer, who had served the fair as secretary for many years, and the other to bring membership up to 27, were made. An error in 1978 or 1979 meetings caused the Board to operate with 26 members. The new members are M. Guenther and J. Robards.

The new officers are president Jerry Heydlauff, vice-president Art Steinaway, secretary Maryann Guenther, and treasurer Kay Poljan. L. Grau and R. Poljan were named co-managers of the fair. Several directors whose time was up were unanimously re-elected for the good jobs they have done. The meeting was adjourned at 9:30 p.m. All members and officers were very satisfied with the new members as well as with the election of the officers. The next meeting will be held on Thursday, Dec. 18.

Special Olympians Lose Hockey Game With CMHDC

On Nov. 6, Chelsea traveled to the Ypsilanti Boys Club to play Community Mental Health Development Center in poly hockey. Chelsea teamed up with the class from Dexter High. Chelsea-Dexter was defeated, 10-7.

Playing center was Paul Klapperich from Dexter. Forwards were Dennis Czechowski and Brian Shinault. On defense were Ryan Sweeny, Mike Foster, Sue Ulrich and Glenn Passow. The goalie was Terry Walkowe of Chelsea.

Also playing well for the team were Doris Esch, Linda Alber, Lori Brown, Clarence Weiss, Dawn Stancato and Albert Bedard.

Chelsea-Dexter goals were scored by Ryan Sweeny, 1; Albert Bedard, 1; Dennis Czechowski, 3; and Brian Shinault, 2.

The team was coached by Nancy Cooper and Arlene Schreiber. The team is planning a rematch against CMH on home territory.

Special Olympians are gearing up for the Washtenaw County Special Olympic Bowling Tournament on Nov. 14 at Belmark Lanes and for a poly hockey game against High Point Center on Nov. 21.

Volunteers are still needed for the bowling tournament.

In women, lung cancer rates in England, Wales and in the United States, continue to increase. They are increasing at a more rapid rate in younger than in older women.

NANCY COOPER and Lori Kornexl register handicapped Olympians from the area participated in the tournament held at Belmark Lanes. Endless assistance was given by volunteers from Chelsea High and other schools.

LOOKS LIKE A WINNER: Bowling at Lane 9, Chelsea's Kenny Capazolli throws what's bound to be a strike during Friday's Special Olympics Bowling Tournament. He was among nearly 20 Chelsea Special Olympians who took part in the tournament.

Special Olympic Bowlers Participate in Tournament

Chelsea Special Olympians took part in the Washtenaw County Special Olympics Bowling Tournament on Friday, Nov. 14. The event was sponsored by the Ann Arbor Civitan Club and more than 250 athletes from ages 6-67 took part. Participants came from Chelsea, Dexter, Saline, Whitmore Lake, High Point Center of Ann Arbor, Lawton School in Ann Arbor and the Community Mental Health Development Center in Ypsilanti. The tournament was managed by Nancy Cooper, Area 20 Special Olympics director.

The 82 volunteers who scored came from Chelsea High school, Dexter Business Office and Education Club (BOEC), Ann Arbor Civitan Club, Chelsea Lions, Chelsea Jaycees Auxiliary and a huge contingent from Boysville in Clinton. For many of the volunteers, this was their third or fourth Special Olympics Bowling Tournament.

The Chelsea High and Junior High students did exceptionally well this year, even though the team trophy was won by Community Mental Health. The trophy for the highest game of the tournament by a male bowler went to Tracey Harvey of Chelsea High. Chelsea also ran off with the trophy for the highest game by a female, Lori Brown, also of Chelsea High. Tracey bowled 145 while Lori had 134.

Other Special Olympians who won first in their division were Ryan Sweeny, Tracey Harvey, Lori Brown, Kim Foss, Glenn Passow, Ken Capazolli, Karen Gipson and Theresa Murphy. Placing second were Clarence Weiss, Linda Alber, Lenny Warner and Dennis DeVoe. Placing third were Dennis Czechowski and Tom Carlson while fourths were awarded to Mike Foster, Dawn Stancato and Mike Goebel.

The next event for the Special Olympic team from Chelsea is a poly hockey game against High Point on Friday, Nov. 21.

October Farm Prices The index of prices received by U. S. farmers increased 0.4% in October from September, according to the USDA. The index of prices paid by farmers for commodities and services was up 0.7% from mid-September. Contributing most to the increase in prices received by farmers were wheat, hogs, soybeans, milk and oranges. Higher prices for replacement of livestock, feed and family living were the major contributors to the increase in prices paid by farmers, USDA said.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

We would like to express our gratitude to the entire student body of Chelsea High school for collecting Campbell's and Post products labels, to benefit the St. Louis School athletic program. We would like to give special thanks to: the National Honor Society, with the co-operation of Mrs. Pamela Holmes, teacher and advisor to this society, who was responsible for initiating and backing this project by offering a $10 prize to the class who collected the most labels.

Approximately 3,000 labels were collected. Mr. Groesser's third hour, Creative Writing, grades 10-12, won the prize for collecting 455 labels. Mrs. McLain's Biology No. 1 Class, were the runners-up with 422 labels.

Thanks again, for a job well done!

School Board Briefs

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, Nov. 17, were Stirling, Feeney, Schumann, Dils, Snyder, Grau, Superintendent Van Meer, Assistant Superintendent Mills, Principals Williams, Wojcicki, Benedict, Assistant Principal Vogel, Community Education Director Rogers, Athletic Director Nemeth, and guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by President James W. Stirling.

The Board revised the transportation policy to conform to state law. Under the revised policy all eligible students living 1 1/2 miles from the schools will be transported. This includes students living in the Village. There will be three stops: one in Lanewood, Middle and Wilkinson Sts., and Old US-12 and Wilkinson St. The Board also approved a deviation from the general policy for the balance of the 1980-81 school year, allowing students who walk to one of the designated points to ride the bus. The implementation of this policy begins Nov. 24.

The Board approved the custodial maintenance pay scale's effective date as June 30 for accounting purposes.

Board approved an increase in hot lunch prices, effective Dec. 1. Prices are: 70¢ for students, $1 for adults, 10¢ for milk for students, and 20¢ for milk for adults. The increase is due to rapidly increasing food prices.

The Board authorized the administration to sell by advertised bid a 1976 Ford Thunderbird which had previously been donated to the school district.

Board approved a spring trip to Toronto, Ontario for the high school orchestra. The orchestra will be performing at Bloor Collegiate School in Toronto.

Board approved revised Board of Education policies pertaining to: appraisal of administrators, purchasing policies, property disposal procedures, reduction of personnel, and administrative regulations.

Athletic Director Ron Nemeth reviewed the report of the Athletic Ad Hoc Committee, placing the recommendations in short-term and long-term needs for the district. He analyzed the recommendations of the committee and placed them in an implementation plan.

The Board reviewed some more Board of Education policies.

Board acknowledged the Southeastern Conference basketball championship which was won by the Chelsea girls basketball team.

Vice-President Ann Feeney informed the Board that there will be a County School Officers seminar on Jan. 29. The program is currently being planned.

FFA Members Attend National Convention

On Sunday, Nov. 9, Future Farmers of America advisor Keith Gafner and FFA members Doug Burchett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burchett, Bill Lamb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schleede, and Dave Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harrison, left for the FFA National Convention in Kansas City, Mo.

They toured the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago and John Deere plant in Moline, Ill. Then, at the convention, FFA members attended workshops, business sessions and the agricultural career show. Time was spent talking with Victor Verchereau, Chelsea's American Farmer who was vying for the FFA national presidency at the convention.

Then, on the way home, the FFA members representing Chelsea, toured the Arch of St. Louis.

ALL-REGION QUEENS: Chelsea's girls basketball team, in addition to being crowned the Southeastern Conference 1980 champions also sports a quartet of All-Region athletes. From left, Jennifer Ringe was named to the first team. In addition to being the all-time leader in assists in a season, she averages 14.6 points per every contest. Mary Boylan was named to the second All-Region squad. She holds many school rebounding records and was responsible for an average of 8.2 points and 10.8 rebounds per game. Amy Unterbrink was awarded honorable mention for her part in the success of the 1980 lady Bulldogs' season. She played a key role in nearly every game, both scoring and rebounding exceedingly well. Mary Jo Eisele, was chosen as a second team cager. Her hustling has been a major weapon in the Bulldog defense and offense this year. She averaged 4.7 points in each contest.

All-Region Girls Basketball Teams Include 3 Bulldogs

Last week the two All-Region girls basketball teams were announced. They are each made up of some of the finest high school athletes in the area.

The first team is made up of the following five cagers: Dexter's Jane Walsh, who sported an 18 point per game average and was her team's assist leader; Pinckney's Janeen Wiltse, who holds every scoring record in Pinckney's basketball history; Sandra Hennings of Whitmore Lake, who averaged 14.9 points and 10.3 rebounds per game; Chelsea's Jennifer Ringe, who averaged 14.6 points, 3.3 assists and 2.9 steals per contest and holds the school record for assists in one season; and, Linda Elvey of Milan, who averaged 16.5 points per game played.

The second All-Region team consists of five equally talented ladies. They include: South Lyon's 6' Sandy Snow, who leads her team in rebounding, scoring, field goal percentage and assists; Vickie Wareing of Saline, who, at 5'11", averages 13 points per game; Chelsea's Mary Boylan, averaging 8.2 points and 10.8 rebounds per game and holding a number of Bulldog rebounding records; Chelsea's Mary Jo Eisele, who played hard for her team without thinking of stat sheets and averaged 4.7 points per contest; and, Denise Dreffs of Whitmore Lake, averaging 11.3 points and 9 rebounds in each game.

Honorable mention was given to the following 11 hard-working, hard-playing lady cagers: Amy Unterbrink, Chelsea; Alicia Seegert, Manchester; Candy Ianni, Dexter; Linda Hock, South Lyon; Rene Peterson, Clinton; Phyllis Jackson and Karen Wade, Ypsilanti Lincoln; Beth Morrow, Milan; Lisa Gomez and Chris Johnson, Brighton; and, Kathy Stuewe, Tecumseh.

Don Cooper Coming for Saturday's Travel Film

DON COOPER

Don Cooper, one of the top-ranking travel-adventure film artists of the country, will present his latest production, "Montana Adventure" on Saturday, Nov. 22 at 8 p.m., in the Chelsea High school auditorium, as the next program of the "Travel and Adventure Series" sponsored by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club. Season tickets are still available at the door and single admission is $3. Season ticket holders are guaranteed seating.

Cooper, or as he is called by those who know him—"Coop," is a lumberjack who has spent many years in the forests and lumbercamps of Montana, and Alaska. He has travelled in Alaska, the Yukon, Canada, the United States, Mexico, Guatemala and other distant places. He was literally born and raised in the logging camps of western Montana, son of the late George R. Cooper, Senator for Montana. He has spent more than eight years in the land of James Oliver Curwood and Robert Service.

During recent years he has produced thrilling and humorous travel-adventure films in Alaska, the Yukon, along the Alaskan Highway and the Pan-Am Highway, and through the Inside Passage and the Aleutian Islands. Many consider him to be the "star" attraction among all travelogue artists. He has been classed with Mark Twain and Will Rogers as a humorist. His hazardous adventures are guaranteed to thrill everyone. His photography is superlative.

"Montana—Land of the Big Sky" takes us to a great Western state distinguished by towering mountain ranges. The first white men to see Montana were the Spanish explorers, who gave it their Spanish word for mountain—Montana. Travelling mostly by canoe we will visit this great state, guided—and mis-guided—by a couple of native sons, Don and Dennis Cooper of De Borgia, Mont. Though many of Montana's better known attractions are visited, most of the trip will be through the vast and beautiful areas still traversed only by rivers. Much of Montana remains a little-known land of seemingly infinite unpeopled distances, spectacular mountain ranges, and rushing white-water rivers—a land still populated by a host of wild creatures; elk, moose, deer, grizzly, coyote, lynx, and antelope. Visits will also be made to back-country cow towns, logging camps, ghost towns and wheat ranches. An adventure by a man who lives in—and loves this lovely land
