DESERVING OF SOME GLORY is the 1980-81 Chelsea High school pep band, a group that never misses an opportunity to work up a little school spirit. The group had a real field day Friday at the Chelsea-Lincoln game. With a large boisterous Parents Night crowd the ensemble was able to rouse enough spirit so that the Lincoln Railsplitters fell at the hands of the Bulldogs, 70-55.

Bulldog Cagers Clinch Second Place in SEC With Win Over Lincoln

Amidst the largest crowd of the season, Chelsea Bulldogs were able to clinch second place in the Southeastern Conference Friday night by defeating the Lincoln Railsplitters, 70-55.

It was Parents Night at CHS and the crowds were also entertained during halftime by local biddy basketballers, much to the shock of the visiting Lincoln squad.

Entering the gym, the Railsplitters were bombarded by loud boisterous fans and a game that would surely be played with high intensity and revenge in the minds of the Bulldogs. And so it was.

First half shooting was no better than average but Chelsea's defensive effort was excellent. Both teams began by playing well and the noise level was high. By the end of the first quarter, Chelsea was ahead by one, 14-13 but Lincoln tied it up at 31-all at the half.

Chelsea came back in the third quarter to outscore the opponents, 20-13 and to take a 51-44 lead into the final stanza. Nevertheless, the evenly played contest had six lead changes.

Turnovers proved to be the key to the Chelsea win as the Bulldogs committed only 10 to Lincoln's 24. From the floor, Chelsea hit its season average of 42 percent, connecting on 29 in 69 attempts while Lincoln hit 22 of 64 for a percentage of 34. The Railsplitters pulled down 40 rebounds as compared to 34 grabbed by Chelsea.

Railsplitter 6'5" center, junior Mark Kedroske, paced his team with 18 points and 14 rebounds but the combination of Chris Tobin with 10 rebounds and Toby Boyd with four rebounds and four points counteracted the Lincoln attack to make the play even on the inside.

Scoring for Chelsea was Jeff Dils with a game-high 22 points and eight crucial assists while Jeff Price added 15, David Wojcik 10 and Chris Tobin nine points. Jon Riemenschneider added four points as did Mark Steinaway and Toby Boyd while Mike Barels sunk a pair for the victors. From the foul line, Chelsea hit 12 of 14 for 86 percent and the Bulldogs were 6-6 in the third quarter.

The win, Chelsea's eighth in the past nine games, has afforded the Bulldogs sole possession of second place in the conference. Since the beginning of the season, the team has come on strong, especially in post-holiday play, and Price, Tobin, Riemenschneider and Dils have provided the essential senior leadership needed for a successful team. In addition, when need be, players coming off the bench have come through with flying colors.

The Lincoln-Chelsea contest was the final league encounter in the 1980-81 season. Tuesday, Chelsea will finish its home season in a game against a fine Mason team before heading into the districts next week.

Firemen Respond to Seven Calls

Chelsea Fire Department made a total of seven runs during the week of Feb. 14-20. Beginning on Valentine's Day, Chelsea firemen were summoned to the scenes of two chimney fires. The first call was received at 5:42 p.m. on Mester Rd., the second at 6:26 p.m. on Maywood.

Another fire was reported at 2:32 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 15. Chelsea firemen responded to the Harper Dr. scene. Later that day, at 5:22 p.m., a rescue squad was summoned to Green Lake.

Cribbage Tourney Scheduled

Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary sponsored annual cribbage tournament will begin Monday, March 9 at the Village Bakery.

Registration will begin at 6:30 p.m. and play will start at 7 p.m. Refreshments will be available. Bring your cribbage board and cards. The tournament is open to anyone.

The tournament will run three consecutive Mondays and the play-off will be on March 30. If you have any questions, call Ginny Wheaton at 475-7412 or Carol Smith at 475-2038.

Fluoride Program Offered Children

Topical applications of fluoride will again be offered to Chelsea area children this summer, according to Arlene Samek and Ginny Wheaton, co-chairmen of the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary's topical fluoride committee.

The fluoride program which is supervised by the Michigan Department of Public Health, will be made available to preschoolers, second, fifth and eighth graders and to special cases referred by dentists. According to Arlene Samek, the procedure consists of four visits to the fluoride clinic. The child's teeth are cleansed on the first visit and a fluoride solution is applied directly to the surface of the teeth. The fluoride application only is then repeated during the three succeeding visits. This technique has been shown to reduce tooth decay by about 40 percent compared with the 60 to 65 percent reduction obtained with fluoridated water, she said.

In addition to providing protection against cavities, the program offers a valuable dental experience for children with no discomfort. Dental health education (Continued on page two)

Independent Party Names Full Ticket

Monday evening, Feb. 16, Chelsea's Independent Party hopefuls converged on the Village Council meeting room as the 1981 Independent Party caucus was held.

Nominated as candidates for the March 9 general election were Rosemary Harook, village clerk; Jerry Satterthwaite, Lyle Chriswell and John Popovich, village trustees; and Pat Chriswell and Anne Belser, library board trustees.

Candidates nominated at this caucus, which serves as a primary, will face those persons nominated by the Village Party the preceding week at the annual election. At Monday's caucus, all but Harook and Satterthwaite are incumbents seeking re-election next month.

Immunization Clinic Slated At School

Recently, the Chelsea Board of Education passed a resolution which will exclude from school attendance on Monday, April 13, all students who are new to the Chelsea School District who have not presented evidence of required immunizations. This action by the Board is in compliance with state law.

To assist parents in obtaining proper immunizations for their children prior to the April 13 exclusion date, the Chelsea School District, in co-operation with the Washtenaw County Health Department, will offer a free immunization clinic Wednesday, March 11, between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. in the high school science building for all new school-enterers and all elementary students in grades 1 through 5. At this time, students in grades 6 through 12 may also receive immunizations if their parents obtain permission slips at the school offices prior to the clinic date.

Parents are urged to review the immunizations of their children and, if necessary, to update them in order to comply with the law.

Super Saturday Season Continues Through March

Chelsea Community Education and Recreation Departments opened the 1981 Super Saturday season Saturday, Feb. 21 with a host of enriching courses for local children.

The Super Saturday program will continue throughout March and there are currently a number of courses with openings remaining. These include ballet for children in grades 1 through 6, babysitting basics for children in grades 4 through 6 and a pair of art courses, "Famous Artists" for grades 1 and 2 and "Print-making" for students in grades 3 and 4.

Other courses are also available in the current Super Saturday program and interested parties are encouraged to call the Community Education office, during business hours, at 475-9830 for more information.

Fire Calls Hit Low for Last Month

Last month, Chelsea Fire Department received and responded to the least number of calls it has had since December 1979. A total of 12 runs were made in January as opposed to 18 similar calls one year earlier.

Firemen received three calls from Chelsea and three from Lima township while they responded to two calls apiece in Sylvan, Lyndon and Dexter townships. Two hundred forty-eight man hours were spent in answering these calls.

Types of calls received by township indicate that within the village, firemen made two rescue runs and one fire run. In Sylvan township, one rescue run and one fire call were made. Lima township required three washdowns last month while Lyndon township experienced one shed fire and one dwelling fire that were handled by the Chelsea Fire Department. Within Dexter township, Chelsea firemen answered one rescue run and one automatic alarm call.

Dense Fog Shrouds Area Last Week

Did you feel lost last week? Were you wiping your glasses or adjusting your contacts more often? Did you perhaps drive down Main St. and turn right on Jackson St., only to find yourself inside Farmer's Supply Co.?

If so, there's no immediate need for concern, Chelsea was merely emerged in a week-long bowl of pea soup.

Fog, one of those strange quirks of Mother Nature, gripped our little village.

Fog is simply a cloud resting on the surface of the earth. It is tiny droplets of water condensed from moisture on the lowest layer of air at a temperature above freezing. Every particle of fog has minute specks of dust in it to form this vague cloud.

Many a small fishing boat has been run down by a tanker during the heavy fogs that prevail off Newfoundland. The ill-fated Titanic, lost in a dense fog, collided with an iceberg in 1915. The infamous London fog is often so dense that the people travel about with lanterns.

If Chelsea becomes increasingly plagued by this atmospheric condition, cars may have to arm themselves with fog horns, and pedestrians may have to don a well-lighted miner's cap to make the simple journey from Chelsea Drug to the Woodshed.

Living in Michigan, however, the one thing we can always be sure of is unpredictable weather. Last week, the March winds and balmy temperatures of spring arrived a bit too early, but the low-flying fog clouds remained through the week-end.

Chelsea Hosting District Tourney Starting Monday

Seven high school basketball teams will compete in the 1981 District Basketball Tournament, hosted by Chelsea High school and scheduled to begin Monday, March 2.

Competitors will include Jackson Parkside, Lumen Christi, Jackson Northwest, Brooklyn Columbia Central, Dexter, Tecumseh and Chelsea. Drawings for the team matchups were held Monday morning, with six teams playing three games apiece and one team playing only two games.

This is the first time in many years that Chelsea has hosted the districts and home team support will prove invaluable. Though Chelsea Coach Robin Raymond points to Parkside and Lumen Christi as clear-cut favorites, he indicates that Tecumseh could prove to be the "dark horse." Nevertheless, Chelsea also has a strong outside chance to win, according to the coach.

If Chelsea hopes to win, the Bulldogs will have to play three games well, something that is possible. But unlike Chelsea in consistency, the two favorite teams see-saw from good to poor performances at any given time.

Jackson Parkside has a strong Class B team, that until this year was Class A. Nevertheless, they are members of a tough league and play a strong Class A schedule of non-league games each year. Earlier this season, the Parkside cagers defeated Lumen Christi in overtime, 88-85. Christi, on the other hand, defeated Chelsea by 13 points.

The districts will begin with two games Monday, March 2 and will finish with a single game Tuesday. The preliminary games find Jackson Lumen Christi pitted against Jackson Northwest Monday, beginning at 6:30 p.m. This game will be followed at 8:30 with a match-up of Tecumseh and Jackson Parkside. The winners of these two contests will meet Wednesday in a semi-final bout.

Tuesday, Chelsea will take on the arch rival Dexter Dreadnaughts beginning at 7:30 p.m. The winner of this contest will face Brooklyn Columbia Central in semi-final action at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Finally, on Saturday, Wednesday's and Thursday's winners will enter the final leg of the district tournament action, the finals. The District Champion will then go on to the Regional Class B Championships in hopes of becoming Class B State champ.

Tickets for the district championship games will go on sale at 7:30 a.m. the morning of each game; sales will last until 9 a.m. each day. Tickets will be available at a cost of $1.50 each at the office of the Chelsea High school athletic director, Ron Nemeth.

Robert Thornton Elected To State Realtor Post

Robert H. Thornton, Jr., Chelsea realtor, was recently installed as secretary of the state's largest trade association at the Michigan Association of Realtors winter meetings at the Kalamazoo Hilton Inn. Wayne H. Everett of Lake City was installed as president, while Daniel Williamson of Farmington Hills will take over as first vice-president and Paul Scott of Traverse City will assume the position of treasurer.

Thornton, who owns and operates three real estate offices in the area, has been active in the real estate industry for 14 years. As a member of the Ann Arbor Board of Realtors, he has served on numerous committees and held the offices of vice-president, president and director of the board. He has also chaired and served on several committees of the state association, and is currently a director of the National Association of Realtors. In addition to a Master's degree from Indiana University, Thornton holds his industry GRI, CRS and RAM designations, and is a candidate for the CRB designation.

ROBERT H. THORNTON

Thornton is currently a trustee of Chelsea Community Hospital, and finance chairman of the Washtenaw County Republican Committee. He and his wife Alice have six children.

The Michigan Association of Realtors represents more than 27,000 members in various phases of the real estate industry, working with property owners across Michigan.

German Exchange Student Happy With American Life

GERMAN EXCHANGE STUDENT Andrea Kassuba relaxes in her American home, the Barbara Bacon residence with two of the six resident pets. Andrea holds 20-year-old Frosty, one of five house cats and is joined by Cheddar, the family watchdog. Andrea, a 17-year-old senior at Chelsea High school, has been in the U. S. since August and will return to her native Bremen, Germany in late July.

Most exchange students come to the United States and move into the home of a willing, if not exuberant family. In the process, the student adjusts to the idiosyncrasies of his or her hosts, who make similar adjustments and the family most often assimilates the visitor into the fold.

But the transition is often emotionally taxing; the student is sent to a foreign land where his or her native customs are often unacceptable or vice versa and communication with home is expensive and infrequent. Not so for Andrea Kassuba, a German student living on a Chelsea area lake with Barbara and Mary Bacon, five cats and a dog.

The 17-year-old Andrea, a native of Bremen, W. Germany, moved to the Bacon home late last year following a short stay with a Manchester family and, in conversation, she beams when discussing her new-found family. "They (Youth For Understanding) asked me if I'd mind living in a house with no man. I wasn't sure at first but I explained that I'd try." A couple months later, Andrea admits that it is "very good."

Andrea sees herself learning everyday, both in school and at home. "As an exchange student, I felt uncomfortable at first; I was a guest and I had to act as such. I have had to adjust and I always want to show my best side, but sometimes that's difficult," she explained. "I have feelings too but I can't treat my American family the way I treat my family (Continued on page five)

Thursday, March 3, 1977—
Chelsea's wrestling season came to a close Saturday night, Feb. 26 as Mike Young stepped forth and received the fifth-place medal in the State Class B Finals at 132 lbs. His award was the only medal won by Southeastern Conference wrestlers at the state level and Willow Run was the only area team to receive any other medals.

A winter storm virtually closed down the town, and some doors were never answered; nevertheless, the March of Dimes Mothers March in Chelsea surmounted these difficulties to solicit a total of $969 in this year's fund-raising drive.

There is only one slate of candidates for the annual Chelsea Village election Monday, March 13; all candidates are members of the Independent Party and all support the Independent Party's platform.

Earl Willis, 42, who has been with the Chelsea Police Department on a full-time basis since 1961, has been appointed acting police chief, effective March 16. Willis was appointed by Village President Don Baldwin and the appointment was approved by the village council Tuesday night. Willis will take over command of the department when present Police Chief John Palmer leaves to become director of Civil Defense for Washtenaw County.

Clifford Garnsey, 22, was hired as a patrolman by the Chelsea Police Department last Saturday and he was on the job Monday. Garnsey, who was described by village officials as an "excellent man" and one who "passed all the tests with flying colors," is the first new officer hired in the current drive to bring the police department up to full strength of four men including police chief.

Additional Property Tax Cut Proposals Suggested
One thing the legislature will have before it this year is an abundance of tax cut proposals as the governor, members of the legislature and special interest groups put forth proposals to beat another tax cutting petition drive from getting on the ballot.
With taxpayer revolt continuing to surface, a property tax cutting proposal is a top priority of the legislature this year.
Already Governor William G. Milliken has proposed a plan cutting property taxes about 35 percent with some of the lost revenues being made up by an increase in the state sales tax.

A property tax reform proposal that includes some features similar to the governor's has been released by the State Chamber of Commerce, representative of Lansing.
The United Auto Workers also has issued a set of guidelines for property tax relief and vowed that obtaining the relief was its highest legislative priority in Lansing.
Besides the 35 percent reduction, the governor's proposal would require rollbacks required by Milliken's suggestion could only be restored by a vote of the local people, instead of by the governing body.
The chamber would also limit millage elections to once a year, specify that state spending could not exceed 8.4 percent of personal income and equal tax relief to businesses.

Later Senators William Faust (D-Westland), Senate Majority Leader, and Jack Faxon (D-Detroit), chairman of the Senate Education Committee, proposed a constitutional amendment exempting the first $660 in property taxes from payment.
Don Ephlin, UAW vice-president, said the governor's plan was inadequate because it "gives too much relief to those who need it least."
The UAW did not have an alternate proposal, but a position paper did say education is too

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
I have heard it said that tack is the trick of telling somebody to go to hell in such a way he looks forward to the trip. Not to many of us can meet them terms, Mister Editor, and fewer of us try. I reckon that's part of the reason I allus enjoy the ads in the paper. Anybody that writes ads has got to have tack, cause the nature of his work makes him look for the silver lining in everthing. If a used car has got slick tires you brag on the radio. If the house has got high ceilings and big winders and it will cost a mint to heat, you talk about the yard in spring and all the closet space. And even when you got to come right out and say it, you say it nice.
I got to thinking on ad writers the other day when the old lady got some garden seed in the mail. The little boxes of seed were in a big box, lodged in with papers tore from a daily paper where she ordered the seed. One of the pages had a page ad about some little pot belly bears that had got sick and had to go to the doctor. I'm going to send you this page, cause I know in your line of work you'll enjoy it. If anybody every sugar coated bad news it was whoever wrote the pot belly bear ad. It tells how the bears eat to much junk food, but the doctor fixed all of em up so the bears now can give boys and girls "the best and safest hugs in all the land."

What this add is about, Mister Editor, is stuffed animals that are being recalled cause they got wire and glass in their stuffing and some of it worked out and hurt children. The company that makes the bears and the stores that sell em ask folks to bring em in to be checked, and they say down at the bottom of the page that the recall was ordered by U. S. Consumer Product Safety Commission. The truth may be what hurts, and the ad tells the whole truth and nothing but the truth, but it gits my vote fer telling it as painless as possible.
I didn't bring up my pot belly bear ad at the session at the country store Saturday night, but some of the fellers was talking on related matters. Clem Webster, fer instant, had this report where the Federal Trade Commission is coming down hard on all these comparing ads. The kind that says four out of five people surveyed prefer somepun. It ain't been long, Clem allowed, since doctors would walk a mile fer a Camel, and they're still bit in the comparing game, even if cigarets now are called suicide by the pack. Some of the FTC's gripes are about stuff that most doctors recommend and products that have been hospital tested. They want to know, Clem said, how many doctors was ask, and how the maker of a laxative gits a hospital to test it.

You can't say somepun is best, Clem said, without showing what it's better than. Which reminded him of the feller that the preacher ask how was his wife, who had been sick. The feller thought a minute and asked "compared to what?"
Speaking of wives, I see where this one says here husband left her as soon as she paid his way through medical school, so she's suing fer half of everthing he'll make as a doctor. I figger the doc needs a good ad salesman to help him see the sunny side of this case.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Tax Tips For Farmers
"Receipts for nuts, bolts and other often forgotten expenses can add up when figuring a tax return," according to Dr. Myron Kelsey, extension specialist in farm management at Michigan State University.
The deadline for most farmers to file their 1980 federal tax return is March 1, and Kelsey says farmers should not forget to figure in those commonly omitted items. "Use bills from farm magazine subscriptions, farm books and fees from Extension meetings. These are all legitimate deductions on Schedule F."

THE SWING LOAN

One bugaboo of real estate transactions is a conflict of closing dates. Often, the purchase of a home involves a string of purchases and sales down the road. Here is how a conflict of closing dates could happen:
A buyer who has received a large deposit and a signed sales contract on his home wants to buy your home. For valid reasons of your own, you have to close the sale by June 1st. But the buyer's sale will not close until August 1st. In other words, there is a two month time lag before your buyer can produce the funds needed to buy your home. Does this mean a lost sale?

No! An experienced Realtor can often arrange interim financing or what is known as a "swing loan" for the buyer. The money is advanced by the lending institution on a short term with interest computed daily. The buyer's equity in his present home is the loan security. Properly handled with legal counsel, it could well be the solution.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Washtenaw Community College is presenting a unique, one-day free program concerned with women's issues on Thursday, March 12 from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

The Adult Resources Center and Student Activities at the College are sponsoring the event in which experts from the community will provide information and answer questions regarding topics of particular concern to women. Child care will be provided for participants for a small fee.

Among the topics to be discussed include child care—what's available in the community, how to decide upon a day care facility, how to pay for it and the effects of child care upon children; networking—single parenting, support groups for emotional sharing, social activities, extended family, barter system for goods, services and child care, agencies and organizations in the community; legal rights—divorce, property and custody laws, sexual harassment and job discrimination, child support and visitations; domestic violence—spouse abuse, what you can do about it and where to go; child abuse—understanding it and learning what to do about it; credit and finances—buying power, money management, insurance, loans and contracts.

The event is free. Refreshments will be provided. Questions are encouraged. Each speaker will provide time for informal discussion.

Whether you intend to attend all events or only part of the day, please pre-register by phoning the Adult Resources Center at (313) 973-3528. If child care, is needed, you must pre-register your child through the Adult Resources Center, too.

Questions about the event should be directed to WQC staff at (313) 973-3528.

Hospital Child Care Center Offers Wide Variety of Activities

Children at the Chelsea Community Hospital Child Care Center will be enjoying a wide variety of interesting activity during the next few weeks.

Math will be the main topic of discussion during the last week of February. During this unit, the children will explore various concepts in math such as number recognition and counting, according to their developmental level.

During the first two weeks of March, the theme will be "Me, Myself and I." This unit is designed to help the student become more aware of his or her own special characteristics, helping to form a more positive self concept. The teachers and children will discuss each child's unique physical characteristics as well as the various similarities between people. Learning to identify their many different feelings and emotions will also be an important part of this unit of study.

The topic of "Our Health" will be discussed during the next two weeks of the month. Songs and activities about brushing teeth, exercising every day and taking a bath will encourage the children to take an interest in healthy habits.

The final theme for March will be "Nutrition," coinciding with National Nutrition Week. The children will be discussing and preparing many types of food and will learn the names and characteristics of the four basic food groups. As a special treat, Pat Asp, the director of dietary services at Chelsea Community Hospital, will be visiting the Center daily to help emphasize the importance of good food habits to the children.

The Chelsea Community Hospital Child Care Center offers an educational program with the basic philosophy that each child is a unique human being with special talents and interests. It strives toward the healthy development of the total child, his or her social, emotional, intellectual and physical development.

The Center is licensed by the State of Michigan to care for children ages two and one-half to seven and is open, Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. It is located in the west wing of St. Paul United Church of Christ.

Beach Volleyball Teams in Action

Beach Middle school's girls volleyball teams opened their season at Tecumseh Tuesday afternoon, following a seven day lay-off because of inclement weather.

The 7th grade match was lost to Tecumseh, 11-15 and 11-15, in a "servers duel." Missi Keiser served for a total of 10 points in the two games, leading the scoring. Karen Killelea, Christie Favors and Michelle Easton all served at least 75 percent of their serves successfully to add to the over-all team effort.

The 7th grade team then traveled to Milan on Thursday to gain their first win, 15-13 and 15-4. In the first game, Chelsea fell behind, 0-8, before things began to get together. The Bullpups tied it 13-all and went on to win, 15-13.

The second game found Missi Keiser serving 13 points to give the girls an easy victory. Donna Bruck, Kristi Headrick, Susan Jaques, Karen Killelea and Missi Keiser all had 75 percent or better serving averages.

The 7th grade team is made up of Donna Bruck, Missy Connell, Michelle Easton, Christie Favors, Susan Grant, Kristi Headrick, Kerry Henderson, Susan Jaques, Missi Keiser, Karen Killelea, Cindy Kvarnberg, Lisa Lewis, Amy Oxner, Jill Schaffner and Baja Trimble. The team is coached by Cheryl Vogel.

The 8th grade Bullpups lost to Tecumseh as well, 15-4 and 15-5. Tecumseh had some excellent servers and Chelsea had trouble handling their power. Melinda Fletcher, Stephanie Grant, Beth Unterbrink and Anne Weber each served at least 75 percent of their serves successfully. Kelly Hawker and Beth Unterbrink were successful on 75 percent or more of their bumps.

On Thursday, the team traveled to Milan where they played a much improved match. Nevertheless, they were defeated, 10-15, 15-4, 5-15. Laura Anderson, Stephanie Grant, Carol Nix, Dawn Olson, Maryann Richardson, Peggy Seyfried, Tammy Schanz, Joann Tobin, Beth Unterbrink, Lisa Van Schoick and Anne Weber all served 80 percent or better. Stephanie Grant, Kelly Hawker, Dawn Olson, Tammy Schanz, Beth Unterbrink and Lisa Van Schoick all had 75 percent or more successful bumps. This match consisted on many nice volleys and showed a much improved team effort.

The team members include Laura Anderson, Rhonda Bentley, Sarah Comeau, Melinda Fletcher, Stephanie Grant, Kelly Hawker, Carol Nix, Dawn Olson, Maryann Richardson, Peggy Seyfried, Tammy Schanz, Joann Tobin, Beth Unterbrink, Lisa Van Schoick and Anne Weber and is coached by Cheryl Vogel.

Both teams are managed by Becky Finch, Kim Harden, Jodi Reid and Paula Bridges.

The next match for the 7th and 8th grade volleyballers is Tuesday afternoon against Dexter. This home match begins at 4 p.m.

DEBATING FINESSE earned this quartet two plaques and a trophy at the state debate tournament held earlier this month at the Southfield Hilton, Southfield. German Exchange Student Happy With American Life in Germany. I feel like I should smile all the time and tolerate everything. Mrs. Bacon and Mary have really made me feel at ease and I feel at home with them."

Andrea is a senior at Chelsea High school; in Germany she's in 10th grade. Her year in U.S. schools will not be applicable in Germany though she will participate in commencement exercises with her Chelsea classmates next June.

She enjoys the freedom of choosing her courses for study here; that's not possible in her native country. "Some people think I'm taking easy courses here—swimming, government, photography, Spanish, crafts—but I'm studying things that are not taught in German schools and I am learning," Andrea says. "Why should I take physics or chemistry here? I have already studied those types of courses at home," she continues.

In Germany, Andrea studied the English language for six years which is obvious when listening to her near-perfect grammar and syntax. Too, she has studied Spanish and is already planning another exchange program in a Spanish speaking country. Her adventurous energy is refreshing.

Since her move to the Bacons' lakefront home, Andrea and her American family have a great many activities planned. This coming week-end, Andrea and Mary will caddy at an Ann Arbor bridge tournament and later in the month, they will caddy at another bridge tournament in Detroit.

In addition, Andrea is looking forward to a Youth For Understanding group trip to Washington, D.C. in April and hopes to visit Chicago and Cedar Point prior to her departure in August. Also, the Bacons are planning a vacation to New Jersey to visit Mrs. Bacon's mother, who just happens to be of German descent.

Though Andrea's impressions are, for the most part, positive, there are facets of American life that she could do without. "In Germany, people are open. We touch when we greet and we talk more intimately. The American has a sort of space around himself. I must keep my distance and watch what I say. I think we (the Germans) are more natural while the Americans are more shy, less natural," she explained.

In comparing her American school life to her schooling in Germany, Andrea elaborated. "In Germany, we study 11 classes, five one day and six the next, beginning at 8:15 a.m. and ending around 1:30 p.m. After school, groups of us meet to talk and drink tea. We have more time to socialize but in Chelsea, we begin school at 8:30 a.m. and end at 3:15 p.m. There's no time to get together after school. We all go home to do homework."

For Andrea, week-ends in Germany usually mean getting together in groups whereas here she has found that, for the most part, people go out in couples. Nevertheless, with a boyfriend in Chelsea, she has grown accustomed to and enjoys the exclusive dating situation.

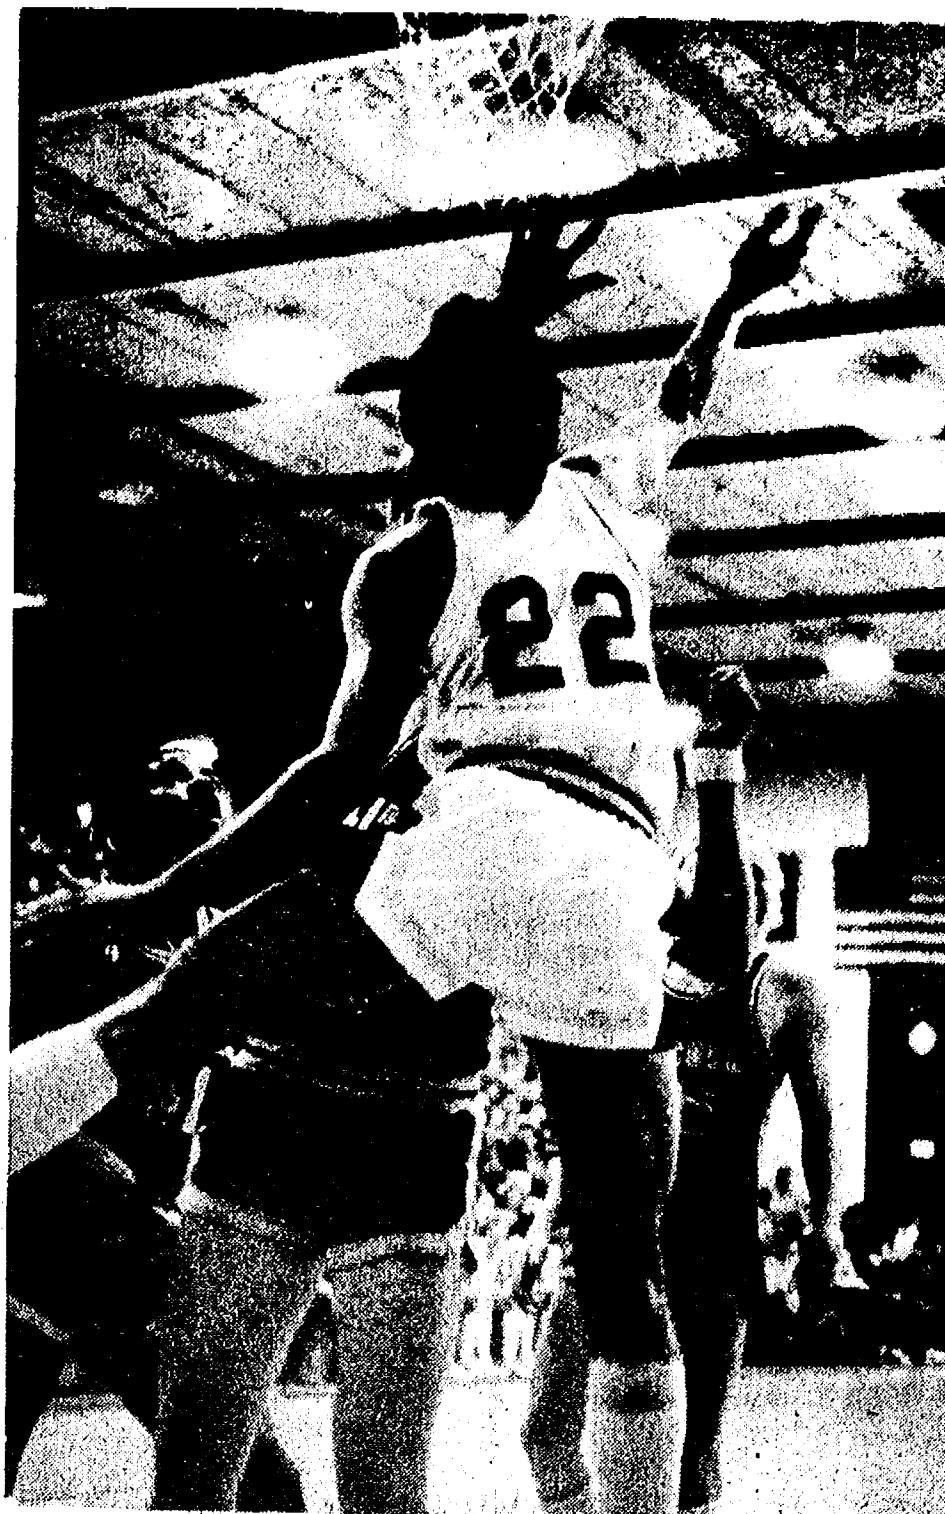

Since her arrival in August, Andrea's first trip to the United States has meant adjustment in every sense of the word, from food to social activity. According to Mrs. Bacon, "Andrea has been making a list of foods to take back to Germany, things that aren't available there." These American staples include peanut butter and macaroni and cheese. Though Andrea admits that she enjoys other American fast-food type meals, she feels that they aren't healthy enough. "I'm glad that there is only one McDonald's in Bremen," she admitted. Andrea explained that canned vegetables lack something as well; they don't taste as good. She has grown accustomed to fresh vegetables from her family's large garden in Bremen.

Andrea has become rather enchanted with her American way of life. Though both Mrs. Bacon and Mary are employed, Andrea is anything but lost when they're working. With six family pets to play with and hobbies which include knitting and macrame to keep her busy, Andrea rarely has time to be homesick for her German family.

The first two weeks and during the holidays were the most trying for Andrea. She missed her family but soon learned to accept the fact that she was living the experience of a lifetime. Still, in Germany are her parents, a mechanic father and housewife mother, and a brother and sister. Though she misses them very much, she is genuinely pleased for having become an exchange student.

Following the submission of her application to become an exchange student and a successful interview, Andrea became one of few students who ever have the chance to study elsewhere. She has capitalized on the experience and admits that she and her fellow exchange students are "not anything outstanding."

"We're just exchange students," she said honestly, "and I know we'll all go home feeling proud of ourselves for having been able to come here to learn, to adjust and to grow. We'll miss our American families, our friends, our school, everything—but we'll feel privileged for ever having come here to learn," concluded one refreshingly honest, interesting and sensitive Andrea Kassuba.

GOOD GUYS ALWAYS WEAR WHITE: Senior Captain Jeff Dils, alone amidst a crowd of opponents, tries desperately to keep the ball from slipping through the hoop Friday night during Chelsea's final encounter with Lincoln, a team that had defeated the Bulldogs earlier in the year. Emotions high and spectators loud, Chelsea soundly defeated the Railsplitters, 70-55 to pick up second place in the SEC.

Third Grade Class Hosts Valentine's Party for Parents

A touch of Paris was brought to South Elementary school Thursday afternoon, Feb. 19 as the children in Mrs. Jill Cummins' third grade class hosted a Valentine's Day party for their parents.

The South school band room was transformed into a French cafe-like setting and called "La Cummins," a place where parents were escorted and seated for the affair.

The third-graders, be-decked in aprons, became waiters and waitresses, taking orders and serving punch, ice cream sundaes and absolute delight to the parents attending.

Taking the place of the shrill strains emitted by the budding young musician, soft background music was played for patrons at the belated Valentine's Day Party presented by the novice staff at "La Cummins."

SPRING BRIDE ALERT

That beautiful wedding gown, whether it's your special creation or Grandmother's heirloom, demands attention to preserve its beauty for you to remember forever.

First of all, the gown should be cleaned immediately after the wedding day to ensure proper attention to any stains. Next, the gown must be carefully stored. Changes in temperature outside of the package will cause moisture to accumulate inside, and mildew will result if the gown is not properly packaged and stored. Airing the gown removes any moisture as it relieves the strain on the folds in the fabric. Leave everything to us... and you enjoy the honeymoon!

SOLAR FACTS

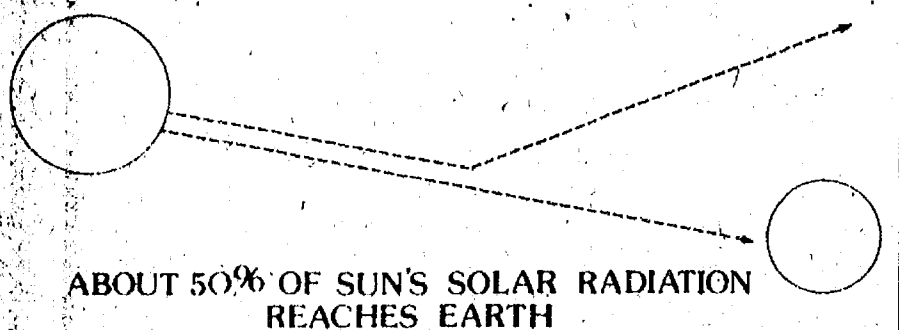

by Robert E. Lewis

A LOOK AT SOLAR ENERGY

Solar energy is the heat that comes from the sun. This energy is produced at the sun's core, which can be likened to a gigantic thermonuclear furnace. Every second this thermonuclear furnace converts more than 4 million tons of the sun's matter into energy. This energy is then radiated throughout the universe in the form of heat and light.

While our planet receives just a small portion of the sun's total energy output, we are unable to capture all of the solar energy that reaches the earth's atmosphere.

One-third of the sun's radiation is reflected back to space from the clouds and atmospheric dust. Another 10 to 15 percent is absorbed by the atmosphere's water vapor, carbon dioxide and ozone. That leaves us with approximately 50 percent of the total solar radiation available to this planet.

Even though the earth's surface captures only one-half of the available solar radiation, the potential of this energy source is astounding. If we could fully utilize all of the sunshine falling on the earth's surface during a single day, the entire world's energy needs could be satisfied for 15 years!

To better use the sunlight that is available to us requires concentrating the sun's rays. Although we often think of sunlight as being intensely bright and hot, the sun does not actually deliver much energy to any single spot at any particular moment. In addition, the amount of solar energy radiated to any one place on earth depends on the time of day, season, latitude and weather conditions.

Solar energy technology, then, is based on developing devices that can concentrate the sun's rays so they can be harnessed for domestic energy use.

In the United States, modern research on ways to use solar energy began during the 1930s. In 1954, scientists formed the Association of Applied Solar Energy to investigate methods of employing the sun's energy for domestic use.

By the 1960s, solar-energy homes were appearing around the country. And in 1974, following the fuel shortages and price escalations caused by the Arab Oil Embargo, Congress called for a vigorous solar energy research program to further develop this promising technology.

Today, the use of solar energy to heat our homes is a part of modern living. More than 40,000 homes around the country currently use solar energy systems to provide substantial portions of their heating needs. Some of these solar heating systems rely on hardware and mechanical equipment to collect and distribute heat (active systems). Others rely only on building's architectural design elements and its orientation toward the sun (passive systems).

By the year 2000, more than 20 million American homes and untold thousands of commercial buildings will be using solar energy systems to meet their energy needs.

In future columns, we will explore the various ways that solar energy is being used in our daily lives. This will include discussions of solar concepts, types of solar energy systems, new solar products and materials, legislative and community programs involving solar energy, and a look at some of the ways to convert a traditional home into a solar home.

In the meantime, you can learn more about harnessing solar energy by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to:

STATE WRESTLING QUALIFIERS: Rick Poljan and Jeff Osentoski captured individual regional wrestling titles Saturday at Saline. From a field of nearly 30 teams, Poljan, at 198 lbs. and Osentoski at 115 lbs. emerged as regional champs in their respective weight classes. For the first time in many years, Chelsea has two contenders eligible to battle it out at the state level in hopes of being named State Class B Champion. Heading into the week-end tournament to be held at Chrysler Arena Friday and Saturday, Poljan sports an impressive 34-1 season record while his slighter cohort, Osentoski, carries a 31-7 season tally.

Two Wrestlers Qualify for State Championship Meet

The Class B district wrestling championships were held Saturday, Feb. 14 at Marshall where Jackson County Western emerged as the district winner, scoring a total of 142 points. Columbia Central followed with 129, Marshall 120, Jackson Parkside 95, Lumen Christi 85, Saline 68, Dexter 61, Chelsea 60, Tecumseh 46, Milan 44, Jackson Northwest 41, Hillsdale 28 and Albion 8.

Though Chelsea finished eighth from a field of 13 teams, two Bulldog grapplers placed in the top three in the district tournament and one of them won the district championship for his efforts.

At 198 lbs., Chelsea's Rick Poljan emerged as titlist. In his weight class while Jeff Osentoski took second place in his class at 112 lbs.

Ernie Bristle at 98 lbs. and Jeff Morgan at 105 lbs. took fourth place in their respective weight classifications but did not advance to the regionals.

From that point, Chelsea travelled to Saline High school

Saturday, Feb. 21 for the Class B regional tournament, facing SEC opponents from Saline, Dexter, Tecumseh and Milan as well as other rivals from the region.

From a field of 25 school wrestling teams, Chelsea finished Saturday's tournament in seventh place. Rick Poljan at 198 and Jeff Osentoski at 115 won the regional championship title in their weight classed by virtue of their fine performances at the meet.

Poljan won a total of three matches, pinning his first two opponents and winning a 10-6 decision over Gary Waterstradt of Monroe Catholic Central. The Chelsea wrestler advanced to the State Wrestling Tournament to be held this Friday and Saturday at Chrysler Arena.

Teamate Jeff Osentoski also took the regional championship at 115 lbs. by defeating Jackson Northwest contender Gary Nanian, 11-4. Interestingly, Nanian had pinned Osentoski just one week earlier.

Poljan heads into the state meet sporting a 34-1 season record while Osentoski heads into the tournament with a 31-7 slate. The Chelsea pair will join nine other wrestlers in their respective weight classes in hopes of emerging with the state wrestling crown.

Children's Theatre Play Stated in Jackson

Children's Theater, under the direction of Betty Ann Landman, presents "The Pled Piper of Hamelin." Public performance will be held Saturday, Feb. 28 at 10:30 a.m. at Parkside Auditorium, Jackson.

Children's Theater has been in existence for more than 30 years. It is performed solely by children in the 6th through 9th grades in the Jackson county schools, and is co-sponsored by Jackson Junior Welfare League and the Jackson Recreation Department.

Family Practice Center Adds Obstetrical Nurse

In September, the Family Practice Center in Chelsea began to expand its obstetrical program by adding to the staff an obstetrical nurse practitioner.

Mary Jo Baisch is a registered nurse who received her RN degree from Mercy College and a Master's degree in Parent Child Nursing and training in Lamaze childbirth education. She has begun assuming responsibility for education in childbearing and parenting for Family Practice patients and their families through evening pre-natal classes and early-parenting support groups.

Specifically, during pregnancy Ms. Baisch teaches patients about pregnancy and childbirth through group classes and individual counselling, visits the family while in the hospital after delivery, and offers parents the opportunity for support and advice in adjusting to the joys and challenges of childrearing. The patients also have support close at hand through the telephone and home visits.

The addition of Ms. Baisch has already proved to be beneficial for many patients seen at the Center. She hopes to continue developing programs to meet the needs of the community.

Historic Commission Seeks To Preserve Area Heritage

Anyone visiting Chelsea notices that it is a lovely village with beautiful old homes on tree-lined streets and a charming downtown. It also has some real architectural treasures. Among these are the Old Bank (District Court) Building, the Welfare (Chelsea Standard) Building, the Clock Tower and McKune Memorial Library. Unlike many other small towns, Chelsea has been able to grow and develop during the past 120 years while still preserving the beauty of its history.

In order to further safeguard the historical significance of Chelsea, the Village Council appointed an Historic Study Committee in September, 1979. Its purpose was to study historic preservation ordinances from other towns and to recommend a preservation ordinance for Chelsea.

Historical preservation is the protection, rehabilitation, restoration or reconstruction of districts, archeological and other sites, buildings, structures and objects. With the help of the Michigan Historical Commission, an Historic Preservation District Ordinance was written for the Village. Following a public hearing, this ordinance was adopted by the Village Council in July, 1980.

The purpose of the Chelsea Historic Preservation Ordinance is to safeguard the heritage of historically, architecturally and/or politically significant buildings; foster civic beauty; promote public education and appreciation of historic areas; and, stabilize and improve property values.

As a part of the Chelsea ordinance, an Historic Commission made up of eight Village residents was formed. This Commission must research the history and establish the significance of any building or group of buildings before the structures can be included in Chelsea's Historic District. Once included in the Historic District, a building is protected from demolition or exterior alterations which would severely diminish or destroy the architectural and/or historical character of the building.

Presently, the Historic Commission has focused its study on five commercial or public buildings in Chelsea. These include the Welfare (Chelsea Standard) Building, Sylvan Town Hall, the Clock Tower, McKune Memorial Library and the Old Bank (District Court) Building. Of these, the Welfare Building has already been designated as the first building in Chelsea's Historic District. It is also listed in the Michigan Register of Historic Sites. McKune Memorial Library and the Old Bank Building are currently being recommended for inclusion in the Historic District and research is underway on the Town Hall and the Clock Tower.

Private residences of historical or architectural significance can also be protected under the Historic District Ordinance. Members of the Historic Commission would appreciate any suggestions by Chelsea residents regarding buildings deserving consideration. Any of the following Historic Commission members may be contacted: Tom Davis, Britten Graham, Dr. W. Lane, John Popovich, Sally Rendell, Frances Runciman, Shelia Stewart or Otis Titus. Commission meetings are held the first Monday of each month and anyone interested is welcome to attend.

Hearing Slated On Dredging Little Portage

At 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 25, the Michigan Department of Natural Resources will hold a public hearing at the Dexter Township Hall, 6880 Dexter-Pinckney Rd., for all parties interested in expressing their views concerning a permit application filed under the Inland Lakes and Streams Act (1972 PA 346, as amended) by William Gajewski of Pinckney to dredge the bottom of Little Portage Lake, Dexter township.

This hearing will be held pursuant to Section (6) of the Inland Lakes and Streams statute and will serve as a primarily informational meeting to encourage the expression of opinions and the presentation of facts. It will not be a court-type proceeding. Witnesses will not be sworn in and there will be no cross-examination.

JV Cagers Trounced By Saline, NW, Lincoln

Friday, Feb. 13, Chelsea's JV cagers had a bout with the bad luck associated with the infamous date. In a contest against the JV Saline Hornets, the Bulldogs were trounced, 53-32.

At Saline, poor shooting from the field attributed to the loss as the Bulldogs could hit only 10 shots in 48 attempts for a percentage of 21. Free throw attempts showed a bit more promise as the Chelsea cagers connected on 12 in 39 chances for a 31 percent night.

Saline outscored the Bulldogs, 18-9, in the first quarter and took a 32-20 lead into the locker room at the half. The Hornets never let up on their opponents who were paced by Carl Pate with 12 points. Second highest scorer for the Bulldogs was Ken Nadeau with six though he did pace the team in rebounds with 11.

The loss dropped the Bulldogs to a grim 3-8 league record.

Valentine's Day evening found the JV Bulldogs in a non-league contest with the Jackson Northwest Mounties at Northwest. The Mounties ended the game by romping over the floundering Bulldogs, 59-44.

By the end of the first quarter, the score was tied at 11 apiece but Jackson pulled away to take a 29-21 half-time lead. Chelsea's field goal percentage was up over the previous night, to 38, but poor foul shooting was what left them with their 14th loss of the year.

The Bulldogs were unable to hit more than 38 percent from the foul line, 6-16, while Jackson hit 74 percent, 17 in 23 tries. Nevertheless, the Bulldogs outrebounded the opponents, 33-29.

At Ann Arbor Trust, our simple method for computing service charges on Commercial Checking Accounts makes it possible for you to completely avoid paying any service charge.

NO GUESSWORK. Most Banks use a complex mathematical formula to compute service charges on business checking accounts. So you never know what your service charge will be until you get your bank statement. At The Bank of Trust, you always know exactly where you stand.

WE KEEP IT SIMPLE. Our Commercial Checking Plans are designed for the business person who doesn't have time to think about complicated fee structures. All you have to do is maintain an average monthly balance of $1000 or more, and you'll completely avoid paying service charges. Should your monthly average balance be less than $1000, a flat charge of $6 will be assigned.

GARDEN SPOT

By Roberta L. Lawrence, County Horticultural Agent

Understand Plant Hardiness Zones

"The catalog listed it as able to grow in Zone 5. I thought if I planted it close to the house and covered it well each winter it would grow here in Michigan. Do you think it will come back?"

Each spring I can count on several dozen phone calls from gardeners whose struggling exotics didn't struggle through the winter. Most of Michigan is considered plant hardiness Zone 4, indicating lower minimum temperatures than Zone 5. Consumers are advised to pay close attention to hardiness zones, especially when ordering through mail order nurseries outside of their own zone.

The map of plant hardiness zones of the United States and Canada appears in all USDA horticultural publications, nursery and garden catalogs and most good gardening books. The map was originally drawn in 1938, based on 40 years data on average minimum temperatures. Slight revisions were made in 1967.

Placing plants in the correct zone is not as simple or as accurate a process as drawing the "weather" map. Plant hardiness takes into account a number of factors in addition to the average minimum temperatures represented on the map. Key among these are the length of the growing season and the average number of frost-free days. The annual rainfall is important for all plants. For perennials, the average snow cover becomes another critical factor in winter survival. In most cases, placement of plants in one or another hardiness group is based on at least several years of field trials in various parts of the country.

Next time you're tempted to order a plant that is listed as suitable for use in a zone or two south of us, think again. Planting it near a warm foundation or out of the wind might help in terms of minimum temperatures, but you also have to consider the conditions that promote healthy growth, flower bud formation and hardening off in the fall. It's doubtful that we in Michigan can meet the conditions present even one hardiness zone south of us.

Questions for Garden Spot may be sent to: Co-operative Extension Service, P. O. Box 8645, Ann Arbor 48107.

Solar Energy Column Begins This Week

Today this newspaper begins a weekly column on passive solar energy. Passive solar energy systems use energy in the immediate environment and the thermal mass of the building itself to trap, store and transport the sun's energy for heating and cooling homes by natural rather than mechanical means.

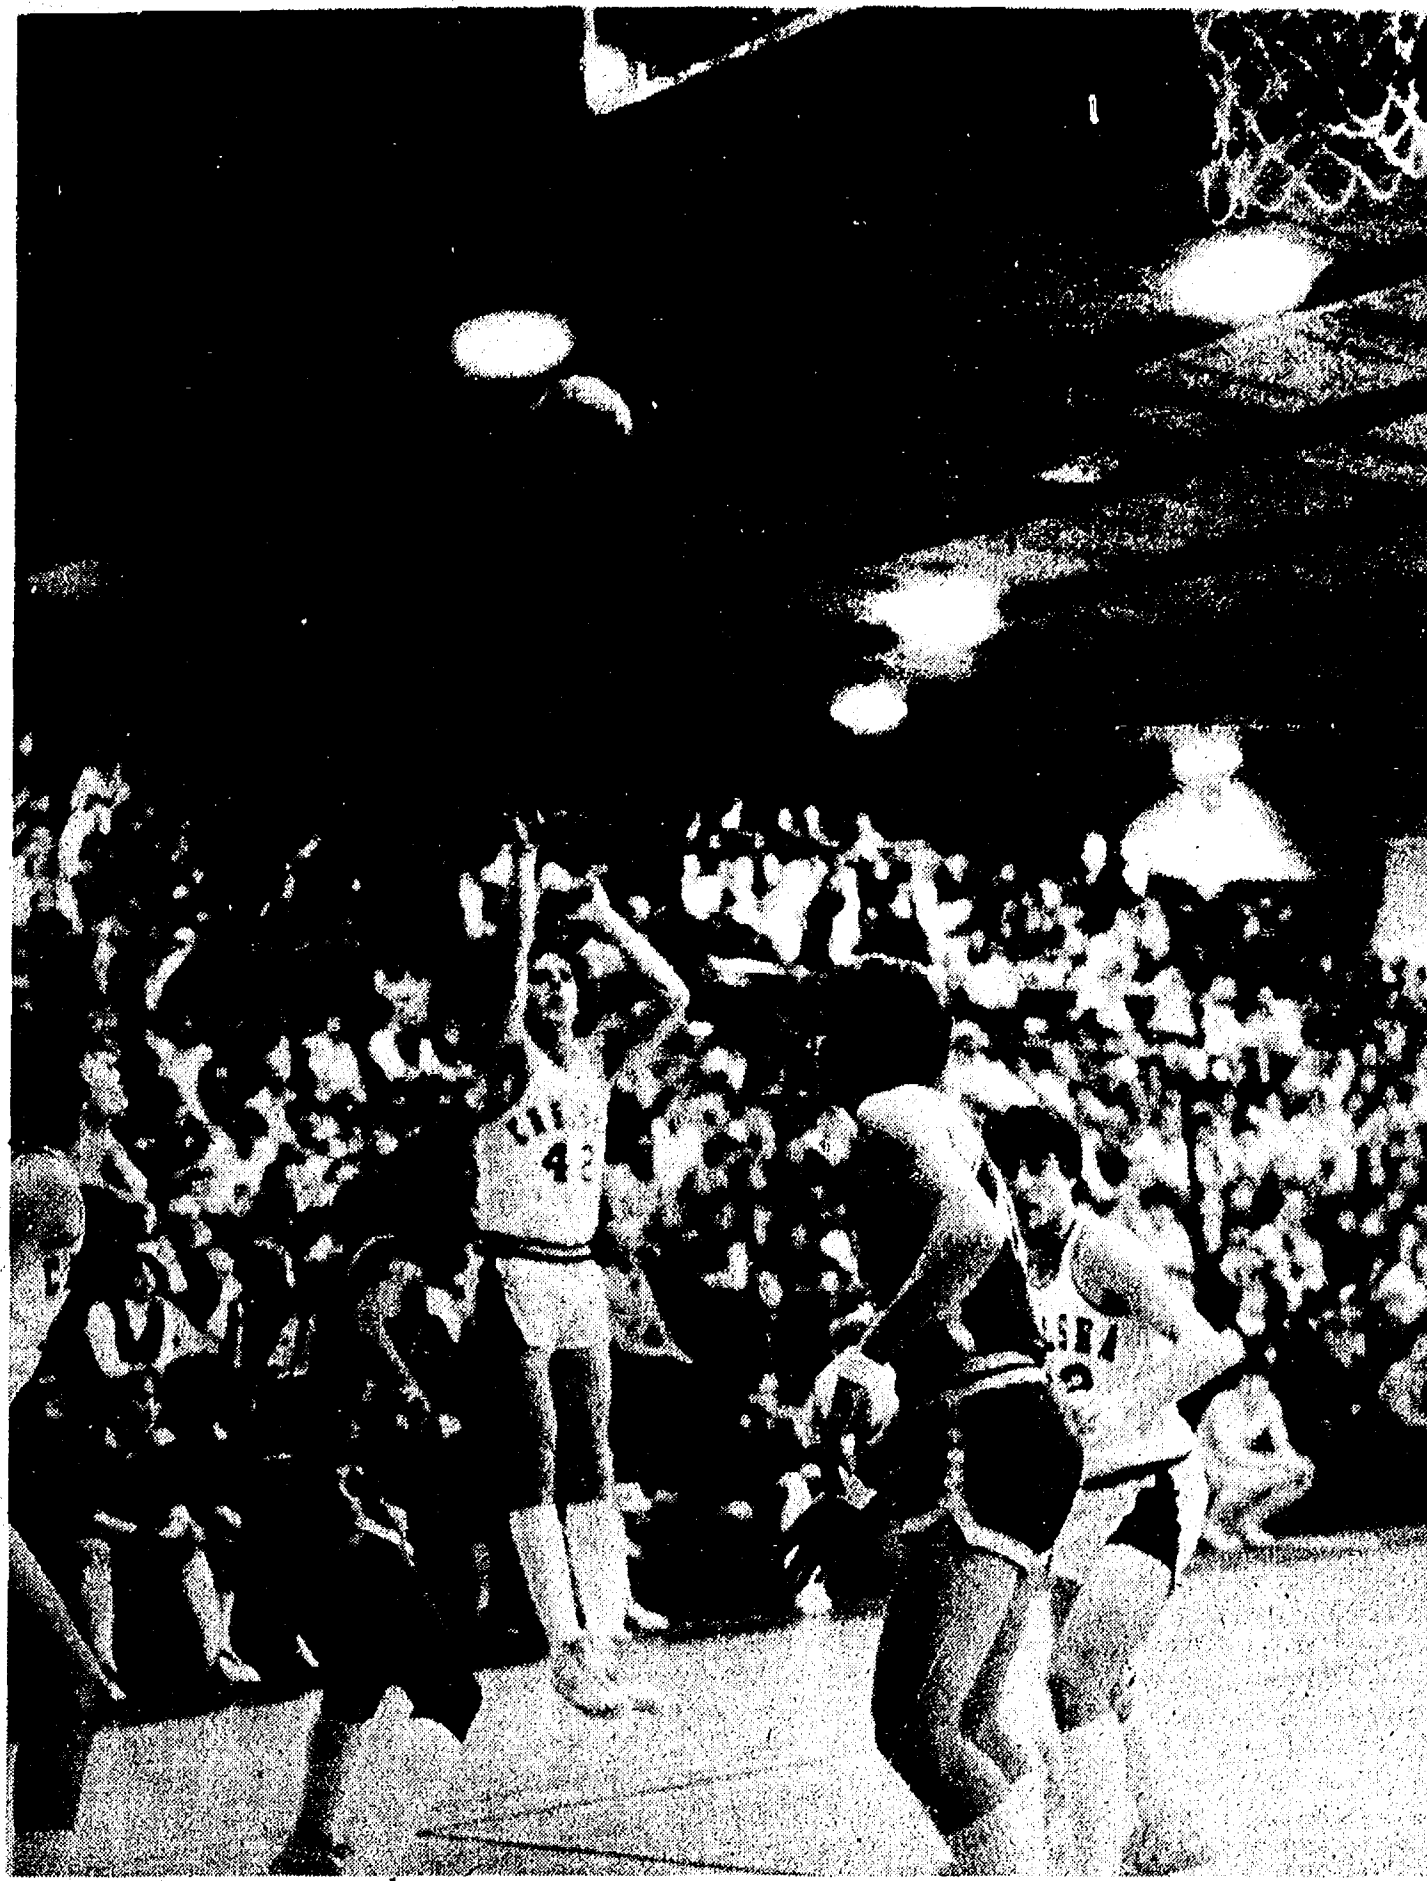

Not too far into the future, America's homebuilders and homeowners will no longer be able to depend on non-renewable sources of energy for these purposes, but must turn to energy alternatives such as solar.

In recent years, scientists and engineers have developed a variety of solar energy systems and designs that can substantially reduce domestic fuel consumption. Many of these systems are rapidly gaining public favor, and thousands of solar homes can now be found around the country.

This newspaper series is designed to present consumers with information about solar energy, and specific examples of solar energy systems that have proven effective and efficient in everyday use; how they work, how they can be incorporated into new buildings and how they can be applied as retrofit projects. Some energy-saving passive solar applications can be used on virtually all existing residential, and many commercial buildings in this area with savings of from 20 to as much as 80 percent of current energy requirements.

Because solar energy is a new subject to many people, the first columns in the series will be devoted to general solar information. Later columns will provide the reader with greater detail.

Parents Night crowd coupled with the fact that it was the last home league game of the season, helped the Bulldogs clinch second place in the Southeastern Conference.

Gas Tax Reduction For Gasohol Brings Price Down

The price of gasohol has come down, thanks to a state law that recently became effective. The law, passed last year, sets standards for gasohol production and lowers the state gasoline tax by five cents per gallon for gasohol.

The effect of the law has been to make the price of gasohol equal to or only slightly higher than the price of unleaded gasoline.

The lower price should encourage motorists to try using gasohol, says gasohol specialist Ken Nye of the commodity activities and research department of Michigan Farm Bureau. "Gasohol, which is a blend of 10% alcohol and 90% unleaded gasoline, is higher octane than unleaded fuel alone," he says, "so it can provide better performance for some engines. In addition, a study done last year by Illinois Bell Telephone showed that their fleet of vehicles got 4.6% better mileage using gasohol."

The Michigan Department of Treasury says that 3.43 million gallons of gasohol were sold in Michigan in December of 1980.

A 'Little' Romance

It may have been a little ceremony, but when "General" Tom Thumb, the two-foot, five-inch midgit with the P. T. Barnum show, married equally short Mercy Lavinia Warren Bump on Feb. 10, 1981, the wedding received big notice in the newspapers.

Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, offers visitors a chance to see one of the tiny carriages used by Mr. and Mrs. Thumb in its Transportation Collection.

Transportation Tax Revenues Dip

Fuel and weight tax revenue, the main source of support for Michigan's state and local highway and transportation systems, declined again in the last quarter of 1980 compared with 1979, the Michigan Department of Transportation reported this week.

Gas tax proceeds decreased 9.2 percent from the October-December period and weight taxes (license plate) fees fell by 7.5 percent. Net income for distribution to the state, counties and municipalities and to public transit and rail systems was down by nine percent. That is a slight improvement from the third quarter distribution, which was off 10.9 percent from a year earlier.

Gas tax proceeds totaled $108,071,236, down by $10,920,047. The yield from the diesel fuel tax, which was reduced last April 1 from nine to five cents per gallon for truck operators, fell from $7,992,285 in the last quarter of 1979 to $3,533,565 last year. The loss was partially recovered through $2,546,492 in special fees paid by truckers receiving the full tax discount.

Weight taxes produced $32,631,130, a decline of $2,663,464. Gross receipts in the Michigan Transportation Fund for the last quarter, including interest earnings and miscellaneous revenue, totaled $152,641,030, a decline of $15,548,148.

Deductions for various grants, including collection costs, left $144,263,246 for distribution for state and local highway, road and street programs and for other transportation, off $14,185,630 from 1979. This money is divided according to formula set by state law.

The State Trunkline Fund for construction and maintenance on the state highway system will receive $54,915,930 as its 38.4 percent share of net receipts. That is down by $5,469,295, or 9.1 percent.

The 83 county road commissions will collect $52,269,040 as their 34.4 percent share, a decline of $4,432,405, or 7.8 percent. Jackson county will receive $948,684 in funds for the fourth quarter of 1980 whereas the same time one year earlier, the county received $1,050,502. Washtenaw county will also experience a dramatic loss in road funds, $1,123,726 for 1980 as opposed to $1,210,339 at the same time in 1979.

Cities and villages will receive $28,217,504 as their 19 percent portion, off by $2,649,069, or 8.6 percent. Ann Arbor will have funds totalling $499,467 distributed while, during that same time span one year prior, $509,652 was allotted.

The Village of Chelsea will experience nearly $1,000 in loss, acquiring $18,095 in 1980 as compared to $18,984 in 1979. Dexter's loss is similar, $8,316 for the fourth quarter of 1980 as opposed to $9,332 in 1979.

Grass Lake's fourth quarter distribution amount for 1980 is $6,628 while the 1979 amount totalled $7,254. The Manchester allotment results in very little monetary loss; $10,215 as opposed to $10,634 one year earlier. Stockbridge experienced a similarly insignificant loss, dropping only $160 in budget distribution, from $6,070 to $5,910 between the fourth quarter of 1979 and 1980.

The Comprehensive Transportation Fund, which supports bus, rail and port development programs, will collect $11,875,963 as its 8.3 percent share of the total fund. Its revenue is down by $1,182,395, or 9.1 percent.

Present: President Ritter and Administrator Weber.

Trustees Present: Chriswell, Kanten, Keezer, Merkel, Popovich and Sweet.

Absent: Clerk McGibney.

Other Present: Police Chief Aiello, Zoning Inspector Goltra, Charles Hafner, Robert A. Steger, Mary Beth Detling, Evelyn P. Rosentreter, Sally Rendell, Emmett M. Hankerd and Ken Lindow.

The 1980 Police Patrol and Complaint Activities Report was reviewed.

A Memorandum from Planning Consultant Thomas W. Davis, entitled "Halfway Houses," was reviewed by the Council. It is Mr. Davis' recommendation that the Zoning Ordinance be amended so the government or community-owned buildings be prohibited as a residential facility use and that residents, where it appears in the Zoning Ordinance, shall not include persons on an inmate status.

PUBLIC HEARING

A public hearing was held to hear suggestions for use of Federal Revenue Sharing Entitlement Period 12 funds. There being no comments, the public hearing was closed.

Mary Beth Detling gave a report on activities of the Cassidy Lake Citizens Advisory Committee.

A letter was received from the Chelsea Historical Society requesting $450.00 from the village toward purchase of a marker signifying the Welfare Building as an historically significant site. Said amount would be equally matched by the Historical Society toward the purchase of the marker. No official action was taken at this time. The request will be considered in the budget for the next fiscal year.

Financial Reports were reviewed.

A discussion was held regarding a resolution to establish a Plant Rehabilitation and Industrial Development District, which would include the former Chelsea Fibre property. Motion by Chriswell, seconded by Keezer, to delete from paragraph five (5) of the proposed resolution the words "and all parts and accessories thereof." Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried.

RESOLUTION
ESTABLISHING PLANT REHABILITATION DISTRICT AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT ON THE APPLICATION OF THOMAS C. EISELE

WHEREAS, Thomas C. Eisele, of 770 Book Street, Chelsea, Michigan, has applied under the provisions of Public Act 198 of 1974 for a Plant Rehabilitation District and an Industrial Development District;

AND WHEREAS, the Village Council has given written notice by certified mail to the owners of all property within the proposed District and has afforded an opportunity for hearing on the establishment of the Plant Rehabilitation District and Industrial Development District, and afforded any other resident or taxpayer of the Village the opportunity to appear and to be heard, as appears from the Village Clerk's Notice and Proof of Service on file;

NOW THEREFORE, the Village Council of the Village of Chelsea does hereby make the following findings and determinations based upon the factual representations of Thomas C. Eisele as follows:

1. That the real estate as described on the attachments hereto is owned by Thomas C. Eisele.

2. That the property comprising not less than fifty percent (50%) of the State Equalized Value of the industrial property within the said described district is obsolete.

3. That said obsolete industrial property is in a condition which is substantially less than an economically efficient functional condition.

4. That said industrial property is in a state of condition, the desirability and useful of which is impaired due to changes in design, construction, technology, and improved production processes, and from external influencing factors which make the property less desirable and valuable for continued use.

5. That said industrial property consists of land improvements, buildings, structures, but does not include the land or inventory of the applicant.

6. That it would be beneficial to the applicant and the Village of Chelsea to develop industrial facilities upon said land and that it is technologically and economically efficient for the applicant to establish and build new plant additions contiguous to and adjoining to the existing facilities on said land.

7. That the above findings are supported by the presentation of Thomas C. Eisele.

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved and it is hereby resolved that the Village of Chelsea does hereby establish pursuant to Section 4 of Public Act 198 of 1974 an Industrial Development District and Plant Rehabilitation District upon the real estate described on the attachments hereto, and the Clerk is hereby instructed to forward the application and a copy of this Resolution to the Michigan State Tax Commission as prescribed by Section 6 of said Public Act.

Motion by Popovich, seconded by Kanten, to adopt the above resolution as read. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried. Resolution adopted.

Motion by Chriswell, seconded by Sweet, to appoint R. A. Steger and Company auditor of village funds for the period ending February 28, 1981. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried.

Motion by Sweet, seconded by Keezer, to transfer the sum of $1,356.38 from the Federal Revenue Sharing Fund to the General Fund to reimburse the General Fund for the following capital outlay expenditures authorized by Council action of May 20, 1980:

Police Radios.....$1,119.60
Three Chairs—
Municipal Bldg.236.78

TOTAL.....$1,356.38

Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried.

Correspondences from Soil Testing Services of Michigan, Inc., regarding the landfill hydrogeological survey and from Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone regarding amendments to the Economic Development Corporation Act were discussed.

A letter from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources regarding the proposed Dana Field Recreation Center was reviewed. The letter stated that the proposed project could affect flood stages upstream of the park and consequently the current site plan will require revision and a hydraulic report by the village will be necessary. The letter also stated that the project contains a wetland area and any proposed filling will require a permit under the Wetlands Protection Act of 1979. Motion by Keezer, supported by Sweet, to authorize the Village Administrator to file an application with the Department of Natural Resources for a permit under the Wetlands Protection Act of 1979 to fill low areas for the purpose of construction of ball fields at the proposed Dana Field Recreation Center. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried.

President Ritter called for a special meeting for Tuesday, February 24, 1981 for the purpose of making necessary fund transfers and budget adjustments prior to the end of the village's fiscal year, and to transact other business that may come before the council.

Motion by Keezer, supported by Chriswell to approve payment of bills as submitted. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried.

Motion by Popovich, to adjourn. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned.

Frederick A. Weber,
Deputy Clerk.

JV Volleyball

High scorer and rebounder for the Chelsea JV squad was Carl Pate with 17 points and 14 rebounds.

The JV Bulldogs took on the Lincoln Rallspitters Friday night during Chelsea's last home games of regular season basketball. The end result, a 9th league loss as compared to three wins.

Chelsea took a 13-8 lead at the end of the first quarter but Lincoln held the Bulldogs to four points in the second quarter while scoring 12 to take a 20-17 lead at half-time. Chelsea's ice cold, fourth point second quarter and Lincoln's red hot, 28-point fourth quarter resulted in the Rallspitters 62-45 victory.

From the floor, Chelsea had another cold night, hitting 31 percent of all attempted shots. The Bulldogs did, however, out-rebound the opponents and had fewer turnovers.

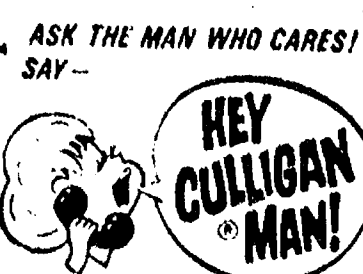

Two Chelsea players hit double figures as Carl Pate hit 16 points and pulled down six rebounds and Matt Villemure added 11 points. Mark Brosnan paced his team with eight rebounds.

Volunteers gave nearly 10 million hours of service to veterans last year at Veterans Administration medical centers. Each month they made some 78,000 visits to veterans in VA health care facilities.

PIONEER CRAFT FAIR: The Dexter Area Historical Society will present its eighth annual Pioneer Craft Fair Saturday, March 21 in the DHS gymnasium. Nearly 60 local artists will demonstrate their talents and techniques which will range from knitted lace by Ole Carlson of Chelsea to wood carvings by Dexter's Harry Willshire. Many items will be sold, refreshments will be available and the Cobblestone Dancers will perform during the fair which begins at 10 a.m. and runs until 5 p.m.

Pioneer Craft Sponsored By Dexter Historical Society

On Saturday, March 21, the Dexter Area Historical Society will present the eighth annual Pioneer Craft Fair. It will be held in the Dexter High school gym on Baker Rd. between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Admission will be $1 for adults, 50 cents for high school students and all others will be admitted free.

Approximately 60 artists and craftsmen will be demonstrating the techniques used in their work and many will have items for sale. This fair emphasizes arts and crafts that were used in pioneer days.

Each year the fair is updated and new crafts are added. This year, there will be several new crafts including knitted lace, cloth dolls and pierced tin. Often, a craftsman will become adept in a new craft and will exhibit this additional skill as opposed to one previously shown. This year, there will be three demonstrators who will "wear a new hat."

The origin of knitting is lost in the pages of history. It is known that knitting was very popular during the Middle Ages, with kings and knights wearing knitted shirts. At that time, knitting was done by men only. Guilds, the forerunners of today's unions, were strictly for men; boys who became a member of the guild, a boy was apprenticed to a knitter for six years. He then worked with a master knitter for another three years. To become a member of the guild, he was then given 13 weeks during which time he had to complete a large knitted rug. These rugs incorporated flowers, birds, animals and people and looked like a piece of tapestry.

These are just a few facts that were drawn from a recent conversation with Ole Carlson of Chelsea, who will be demonstrating knitted lace during the fair.

Carlson learned how to knit as a child and when poor health made it necessary for him to slow down recently, he decided to try knitting to occupy his time. Carlson works with many different threads and needles. When he was unable to find knitting needles long enough to accommodate several thousand stitches needed for one piece, he improvised and made knitting needles from piano wire. Frequently, Carlson buys silk embroidery floss, separates the six strands and re-spins them into thread. The work which results is extremely fine and, in many instances, resembles spider webs.

Three items, created by participating artists, will serve as door prizes. The first is a brown, beige, cream and soft yellow "gizzard" basket made by Therese Ohno. Using natural dyes, Mrs. Ohno dyed the splint, reed, honeysuckle and cat tails she used to make the 24" x 24" x 18" basket.

A hand woven cotton rug by John Wooden is the second prize. In the same color scheme as Mrs.

Ohno's basket, the rug measures 3'x5'. A small white-breasted nuthatch, carved by Harry Willshire, will serve as the third prize. The presentation of these prizes will be held at 4 p.m. and the winner need not be present.

The Cobblestone Dancers, a huge success last year, will perform again this year. The group was anxious to return following the enjoyable time they had last season while dancing and viewing the demonstrations.

New to the fair this year will be the "Cheerful Chimers," a group of 11 women from Bethlehem United Church of Christ, Ann Arbor. Conducted by David Diebold, the women will be playing a medley of tunes on what is technically known as the "English Bells."

A luncheon will be presented by the Dexter Heritage Guild, under the supervision of Ann Nuttle. The bake sale table will be loaded with baked goods made by area residents.

Girl Scout Troop 614 will be helping with the luncheon, cleaning the tables and running errands. They will also be selling Girl Scout cookies.

Some 600,000 veteran students received a 10 percent increase in their Veterans Administration education payments as part of the "Veterans Rehabilitation and Education Amendments of 1980" enacted Oct. 17, 1980.

Men's Rec. Basketball Games Played Sundays

The Chelsea Recreation Department sponsored adult men's basketball kicked off its season Sunday, Feb. 1 at the Chelsea High school gym. All games have been played on Sunday, beginning on a staggered schedule of 1 p.m., 2:15 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. The league includes seven teams who sport the following records:

	W	L
Ann Arbor Centerless	3	1
Chelsea State Bank	3	1
Dana	3	1
Rocking-M-Ranch	2	2
Chelsea Woodshed and Co.	1	3
Thompson's Pizza	0	4

On Sunday, Feb. 22, the Rocking-M-Ranch of South Lyon played outstanding basketball, upsetting Chelsea State Bank, 117-104. This was the bank's first loss in two years. Doug Everide scored 37 points for Rocking-M while Erny Thornsbury chipped in 30 and Ed Segers followed with 14. Mike Laurer scored 26 for the bank in the company of Randy Guenther with 20 and Len Kozma with 16.

Dana Corporation played consistent basketball, defeating Thompson's Pizza, 85-74. Dave Hinkle poured in 29 points for the winners followed by Dan Kryscio with 23, Bill Lewis with 14 and Jeral Whitaker with eight. For Thompson's Pizza, Jessie Coburn scored 24 points, Dean Thompson followed with 14 and Tony Robards chipped in 12.

Banner Spring defeated Chelsea Woodshed and Co. with a close 80-78 win. Pacing Banner Spring was Brian McManus with 18 and Willie Anderson with 18. For the Woodshed and Co., John Butler scored 16, Brian Alexander 15, Mike Gramer tallied 13 and Scott Butler 11.

Poet of Manchester. Denise Kolarov of Saline, Jeff Wilson of Plymouth and Tommy Heath of Manchester completed the team. This team really did well, considering Jeff Wilson was a Novice Junior, moved from that category to the Junior team and Tommy Heath stepped in at the very last minute, just before the contest got underway, to complete the four-member team. With the four team members, they were able to compete in the contest. Lynn Heath of Manchester was the Junior team coach.

Placing fourth in the contest and their category, was the Novice Senior team. Vicki Staebler of Ann Arbor was the team captain. Tina Bartholomew of Ann Arbor, Tammi Harris of Saline and Camela Albright of Ann Arbor completed the team with Judie Green of Ann Arbor acting as their coach. Tammi Harris received a fifth-place ribbon in the individual scoring competition.

These teams more than made up for the scoring with their enthusiasm, energy, manners and sportsmanship. The parents, leaders, coaches and staff are very proud of these young people and the job they did at the contest. As that old saying goes, "Just wait 'til next year!"

Question: I am increasingly concerned about the loss of Michigan farmland. Valuable farmland is being developed for housing and business sites. Are you aware of this problem and is anything being done to preserve what farmland we do have left?

Governor: Michigan has lost a greater percentage of agricultural land to development than any other state in the Midwest. In the past five years, the state has been losing farmland at a rate of 225,000 acres per year.

I strongly feel that we cannot afford to continue losing our farm resource. It is vital that we protect our essential lands from irreversible development.

I have suggested that state departments can join in the effort to preserve farmland by carefully examining policies and programs for their effect on agriculture. Federal grant and loan programs should also be reviewed to assure that they do not encourage the loss of farmland.

I have directed the departments of Agriculture and Natural Resources to expand their technical assistance and public education programs to encourage local action, such as improved zoning, to give agriculture its proper place among the community's other land uses.

The Department of Commerce has prepared, under my direction, two amendments to the Subdivision Control Act to enhance its use in preserving farmland and "right to farm" legislation protecting the agricultural industry from lawsuits largely resulting from pressure generated by urban development.

I have also proposed a substantial increase in funding for agricultural research and development. I have directed the Department of Commerce to increase efforts to expand the overseas sale of Michigan food products.

Finally, to design a plan to develop Michigan's food and fiber capabilities to their fullest, the Department of Agriculture was directed to assemble farm, business and academic leaders for an agricultural conference. The decrease of Michigan farmland has been an offshoot of urban sprawl and unmanaged growth. We must, therefore, additional efforts to helping rural and urban dwellers and developers understand that their mutual well-being depends on both farmland preservation and urban revitalization.

Question: Do Michigan residents have to pay Michigan taxes on their earnings when in military services even though they are not stationed in Michigan?

Governor: Michigan does not require its residents in active military service to pay taxes on their military earnings. Alaska, Illinois, Iowa and Vermont also provide this personal earnings tax exemption for active military personnel, but no other states provide complete exemption from state taxes.

If you have a question for the Governor, please send it to: Ask the Governor, Executive Office, Press Section, Lansing 48909.

Your Health Options

By Beverly Chethik
Director of Health Education, Washtenaw County Health Dept.

Last month's column included a self test to help you identify your HEALTHSTYLE. At this time we have received too little information from our readers to help us develop a community profile, but early feedback suggests that many people do not exercise regularly.

Exercise helps people feel both physically and mentally fit. If you are fit, you can deal with life's immediate demands (running for a bus or making an important decision) and still have energy left over. Your fitness shows in many ways: how you look, how you treat other people, the way you walk and sit and stand.

Most people believe that while exercise helps them keep physically fit, it doesn't help them stay mentally fit. They're wrong. There is a close tie between mental and physical health. While exercise doesn't solve emotional problems, it does give people a break from worry about them. It helps people unwind, and it's easier for people to face difficult decisions when they feel relaxed.

Exercise helps people avoid overeating and overweight. Active people who get pleasure out of doing a variety of things are less likely to spend their time thinking about—and eating—the next snack or the next meal. Exercise helps people have a good appetite, but it doesn't make people want to eat more than they need.

Exercise improves muscle tone, body shape and posture. A healthy person's heart, lungs, digestive system and blood vessels grow stronger or work better because of exercise.

People exercise in many ways. They exercise informally when they decide to walk the stairs at work instead of taking the elevator or when they leave the car in the garage and walk to the store. They exercise in a more formal way when they participate in solo or group sports. Both forms of exercise are critical.

An active life is an option for everyone, regardless of sex or age. In choosing a program, stop first and think about your lifestyle and what you like to do. People who enjoy working with a group may choose to bowl, play tennis or play basketball. For people who like working alone, swimming, jogging and bicycling are often preferred, but even these solo sports may be done in groups. People often vary their activities, depending on season and/or personal preferences.

People who decide to develop a more active lifestyle should work up gradually to new physical activities, allowing time to warm-up and loosen-up to get their bodies ready. A daily exercise program is best, but even three 30-minute exercise periods each week begin to improve fitness.

The most beneficial exercises are the rhythmic ones that use major muscle groups repeatedly and steadily. If you perform these exercises regularly—walking, dancing, jogging, biking or swimming—at less than your maximum capacity but not too easily either—they challenge your heart and lungs and enhance your feeling of well-being.

For starters, you might take a brisk walk, once or twice a day for 20 minutes, walking at a pace that is quick for you and swinging your arms and breathing deeply as you move. Continue this exercise regularly and/or increase the time and the variety.

People who are planning a fairly strenuous exercise schedule—especially if they are over 35—should visit a physician. Usually they will get a go-ahead, but sometimes a physician will recommend a special exercise program.

A word of caution before you start exercising: If you become dizzy, breathless or develop a pounding in your head or a pain in your chest, stop the exercise. Call your doctor if the symptoms continue for more than a few minutes. Don't exercise strenuously every-so-often; exercise regularly.

May sports contribute to your muscular endurance, strength, flexibility, stamina and balance. The President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports rates 14 popular activities:

1. Handball/squash
2. Jogging
3. Downhill skiing
4. Skating (ice and roller)
5. Cross country skiing
6. Swimming
7. Bicycling
8. Basketball
9. Tennis
10. Calisthenics
11. Walking
12. Golf
13. Softball
14. Bowling

Tractor Pull

Slated This Week

At Silverdome

If the sport has anything to do with racing and driving, Frank Haggerty of Emmett is interested.

Right now, his interest is focused on competition in the sixth annual Pontiac Silverdome Tractor Pull, Feb. 28-March 1.

Haggerty has been competing in the Silverdome Tractor Pull every year since the event was introduced in 1976. He has competed with some of the best drivers in the U. S. and Canada in what is billed as the "World's Largest Tractor Pull."

In 1973, Haggerty got into tractor pulling in partnership with his brothers-in-law, Ed and Don Rodz of Capac. Then, three years ago, he built his own tractor with the help of his wife's two brothers and got into competition on his own. He tagged his power-modified tractor with the name, "Fever."

"I guess I got the fever for tractor pulling competition and the Ford Fever commercials helped me decide on the name," he says.

Haggerty competes in 35 to 40 pulls each year and regularly wins in several smaller fair events to qualify for the special invitational competition at Pontiac. He is still looking for a win in major competitions such as in Toronto, Pontiac or Louisville.

★★★ Cagers of the Week ★★★

TODD SPRAGUE, a Chelsea High school junior, is the most aggressive cager on the 1980-81 Bulldog team. At 5' 10", Sprague has a height disadvantage which is countered by his aggressive style of play. In basketball, he is a good rebounder and good defensive player and, against Lincoln, he added 10 points for the Chelsea cause. A good all-around athlete, Sprague, in the off season, plays football and runs track for CHS.

SEC ROUNDUP:

Chelsea Downs Lincoln To Capture Second Place

Chelsea 87,

J. Northwest 60

Chelsea literally blew the Mounties off their own court Saturday evening, Feb. 14, trouncing the Northwest cagers, 87-60.

Assists played a key role in the Bulldog victory as 20 of 28 field goal completions were the result of passes. Eleven of 12 active Chelsea cagers got into the scoring column, three in double figures. Jeff Dils paced the team with 20 points while Sean Peterson and Jeff Price added 15 and 14, respectively.

Chelsea upped its season record to 10-7 over-all, in second place in the Southeastern Conference.

Milan 59,

Gibraltar Carlson 45

Milan clinched its 16th win of the season Saturday night, defeating Gibraltar, Carlson, 59-45, at Milan.

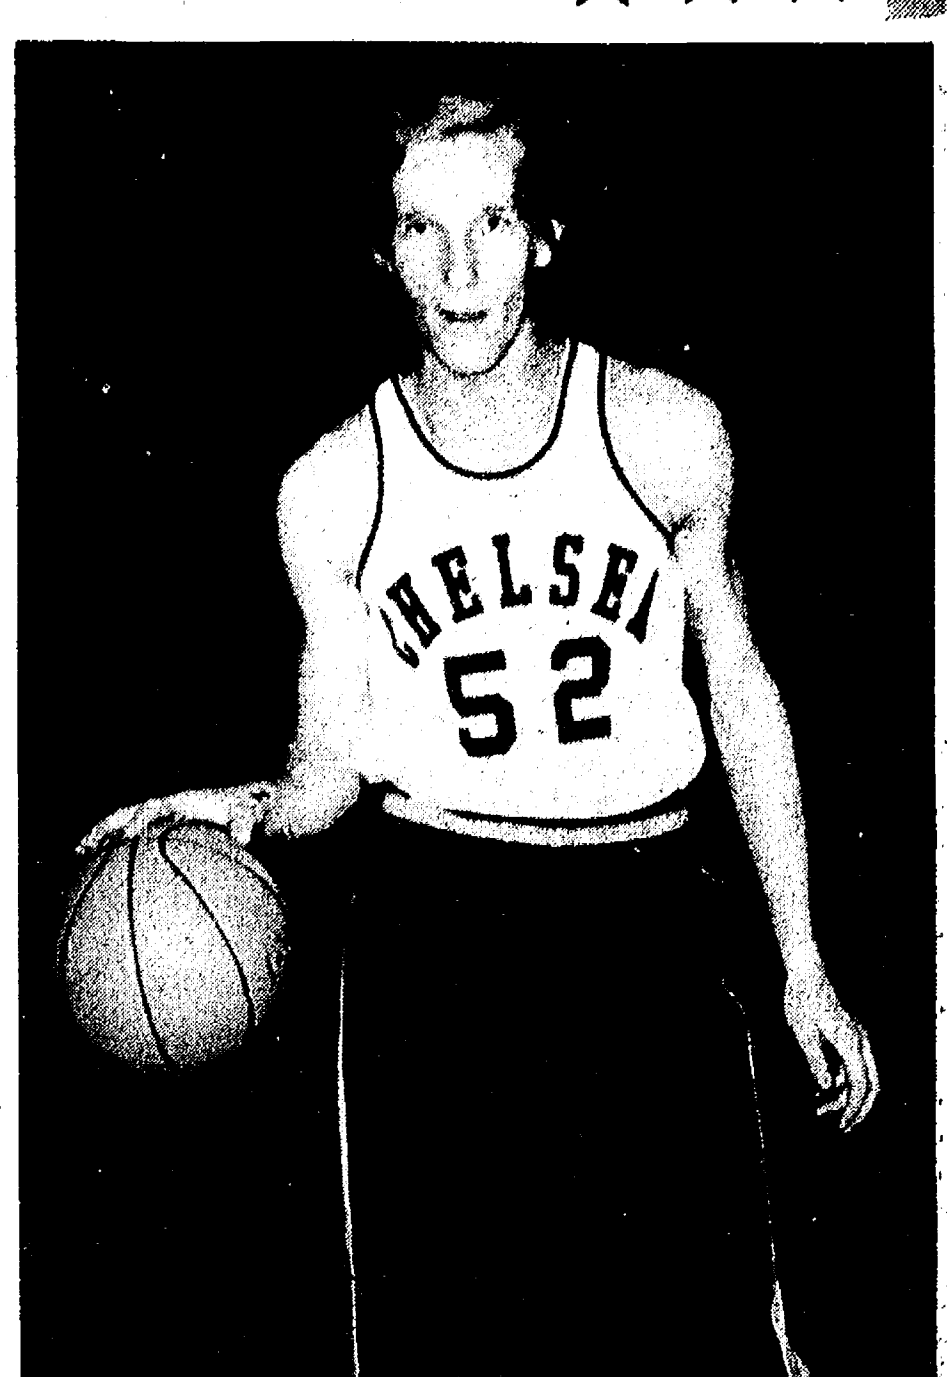

Leading the Big Red attack was Sam Pope with 20 points while John Gruden added 16 and Pete Barnes pulled down 10 rebounds.

Milan led throughout the contest, taking a 30-16 lead at the half and coasting to a Valentine's Day victory.

Saline 54, Howell 67

Amidst a towering Howell Highlander squad, the Saline Hornets failed to win their second season game Tuesday, dropping the contest to the giants, 67-54.

The Hornets stayed in the game until late in the third quarter, when the Highlanders racked up

Men's Swim Team Wins 3 Season Record To Post 13-0

The Chelsea mens swim team won three additional meets last week to run their season record to 13-0. They have, within the past two seasons, recorded 24 consecutive wins.

In a double dual meet held at Jackson High school, Chelsea defeated Jackson, 64-19, and Marshall, 68-16, Tuesday evening. Then, on Thursday evening, the Bulldog tankers travelled to Willow Run and defeated a much improved Flyer team thereby putting a cap on an undefeated season.

Mason, Kent Noll, Mike Mason, Phil Hoffman, Craig Wirtz and Sean Oxner.

The freshman quartet of John Drew, Steve Ramsey, Kevin Colombo and John Hoffman offered the crowd the meet's most exciting and outstanding event as the group broke the freshman record in the freestyle relay. They broke the 4:04.6 record by 1.5 seconds.

Other excellent swims were turned in by Richard Merkel in the 50 free, Darrin Fowler in the 200 IM, Tom Gaunt in the 50 free, John Robbins 100 free, Shawn Pierson 500 free, Sean Oxner and Mike Mason in the 100 back, Ted Merkel in the 100 breaststroke and Steve Wolak in the 100. John Hoffman, John Drew and Steve Ramsey all had best 100 freestyle times in their record-breaking free relay and Kevin Colombo missed following suit by only .4 seconds.

Varsity Volleyball Team Drops Two Matches

Chelsea's varsity spikers dropped a pair of matches last week to Dexter and Tecumseh, thereby dropping their record to 8-6 on the season.

Against Dexter Monday, the visiting Bulldogs dropped the first match, 16-14, as the Dreadnaughts came from a 14-9 deficit to win. Chelsea came back in the second match to defeat rival Dexter, 15-12, but the Dreadnaughts polished off their fourth conference win with a convincing 15-10 trouncing of the Bulldogs.

Though the varsity spikers were unable to record a victory, the Chelsea JV's added another win.

defeating the JV Dreadnaughts, 9-15, 15-12, 15-13.

The Chelsea spikers returned to the court Tuesday night, travelling to Tecumseh to face the Indians. For the second consecutive night, the Bulldogs were unable to hold onto a much needed second game lead, thereby handing the Indians their third conference win of the season.

The Bulldogs defeated the Indians in game number one, 15-5, but dropped the final pair, 16-14 and 15-5. Though the varsity spikers fared poorly, the JV squad picked up its second win in two nights, defeating the young Indians in two straight games, 15-12 and 15-10.

Winners on Tuesday night were John Robbins, Dave Nicola, Dave Mason, Mike Mason, Phil Hoffman, Sean Oxner, Tom Gaunt and John Hoffman. The meet's most outstanding swim was turned in by Mike Mason in the 100 freestyle where his :51.8 time qualified him for the state meet at Grand Rapids Junior College, March 13 and 14.

In the meet against Willow Run, the team tried to put all swimmers in events that were not specialties, just low pressure fun. The result, the meet got closer that expected. Nevertheless, the final score, 47-36, was in Chelsea's favor.

Winners for Chelsea at the Willow Run meet were Shawn Pierson, Dave Nicola, Dave

Bulldog Cagers Defeat NW, 87-60

Following the Saline-Chelsea basketball game Friday, Feb. 13, Chelsea took on the Jackson Northwest Mounties on Valentine's Day, defeating them, 87-60, in a non-league make-up game.

The race horse style of game was what the Bulldogs are accustomed to playing and it's exactly what they got against Northwest. From the time they hit the court, Chelsea took over, causing havoc with their half-court trap and outscoring the Mounties, 33-19 in the first half of the contest.

By the third quarter, Chelsea was 13 for 16 from the floor and five for six from the line. Again the Bulldogs tallied up 31 points as compared to the opponents' 17. But Northwest came back in the fourth quarter to outscore the Bulldogs, 24-23. Nevertheless, Chelsea's 54-point second half was, as Robin Raymond put it, "The best half of the season."

The Bulldogs' offensive game was their best all year as well. Passing was an obvious key to the Bulldog victory; 20 of the 28 shots connected from the floor were the result of assists. Chelsea shot 56 percent from the floor, completing 28 in 50 attempts.

Northwest completed 41 percent of all attempted floor shots, connecting on 25 of 61. From the free throw line, the Mounties made good on 10 of 20 for 50 percent. Chelsea, on the other hand, connected on 31 in 38 attempts, resulting in a percentage of 82. The Bulldogs are now at 69 percent from the line this season.

Rebounds per team were tied at 29-all while Jackson Northwest committed 23 fouls and 30 turnovers as compared to 15 and 22, respectively, from the Bulldogs. Chelsea's relatively few fouls were a good indicator of fine pressure defense from an aggressive cage team.

Jeff Dils paced the Bulldogs with 20 points, followed by Sean Peterson and Jeff Price in double figures with 15 and 14 points, respectively. Peterson's score was his season high, nine points of which came in 10 attempts at the free throw line. Of 12 active Chelsea players, 11 contributed to the Bulldog scoring effort and subsequent victory.

Dils led in rebounding with seven and added three assists. David Wojcicki had five assists while Chris Tobin and Jon Riemenschneider passed on three occasions each.

Coach Robin Raymond was obviously pleased by the Bulldog effort during Saturday evening's contest. "Everyone contributed and considering that we'd played the night before, they were excellent."

Currently, Chelsea is 10-7 overall and the Bulldogs have won seven of their last eight games, being defeated by only by Milan.

Swimmers of the Week

SWIMMING HIGHLIGHTS: Chelsea's mens swim team sports a trio of featured tankers this week including, top, Wayne Smith, a sophomore who specializes in the sprint freestyle events and butterfly. He will be swimming in the Chelsea Invitational on Thursday in both relays and the 100 butterfly. Mike Bohlender, a first-year senior swimmer, has handled his position well, according to Coach Larry Reed. His excellent swims in the 50 and 100 freestyle events last week brought unexpected points to the team's total, while Kent Noll, like Smith is a sophomore specializing in sprint freestyle and butterfly. At Thursday's Chelsea Invitational, Noll will be participating in the free relay and will swim individually in the 50 and 100 freestyle events.

points to take a commanding lead. Tecumseh was paced by guard Ron Smith with 21 points while Scott McDonald connected for 12.

The unsuccessful Hornet attack was led by Jim Phelps with 14 tallies.

Milan 52, Western 40

Following a slow start, Milan's Big Reds got back into form Friday night, defeating Jackson County Western, 52-40, at Parma. Nevertheless, the Big Reds scored only five points in the first quarter while holding the Panthers scoreless.

Ten cagers on the Milan squad figured in the 52-point evening score. Pacing the SEC champs was Sam Pope with 12 while John Gruen hit 10.

By half-time, Milan had a very comfortable 21-9 lead which never subsided. Nevertheless, Western never gave up, staying in the game until the bitter end while the Big Reds ran up their season tally.

Robin Greeted Warmer Weather

Though Half Moon Lake was draped with a thick blanket of fog that hovered over the melting ice and clung to the bare limbs of surrounding trees early Thursday morning, another sign of the warming temperatures and approaching spring was perched beside the bird feeders at the Richard and Linda Westcott residence. There, the Westcotts' 10-year-old daughter, Shasey, spotted a plump though ravenous robin hopping about searching for food.

It seemed to be an appropriate late winter scene—melting snow, puddles, fog, bare trees and a robin—that sparked the excitement of a child who immediately called her grandmother to inform her of the discovery.

Bowlers Raise $900 in Tournament for Charities

From Jan. 19 through Feb. 1, the Bowling Proprietors Association of Michigan and the Detroit Free Press Charities, Inc. sponsored the 13th Annual Bowler's Charities Tournament, held in various locations across the state.

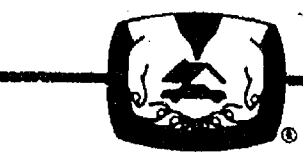

The tournament, open to all bowlers in organized adult leagues where average records are kept, attracted large numbers of Michigan bowlers. A $1 contribution entry fee per bowler totaled $900 from Chelsea Lanes entries alone.

The $999,000 collected within the past 13 years, has been distributed to needy causes throughout Michigan. Principal recipients include foundations for the blind and for the cure of cancer, Children's Hospital, the U-M Burn Center, heart disease research, care for the mentally retarded and relief of the underprivileged.

Participating in the tournament, bowlers attempt to qualify for the finals to be held June 7 at Thunder Bowl, Alpena. There, participants will vie for prizes or cash equivalents of those prizes, which include vacations and appliances. A grand total of more than $20,000 in prizes will be distributed.

Ninety bowlers from Chelsea Lanes are eligible to participate in the regional roll-offs, in hopes of reaching the state finals in June. Times, dates and locations of these roll-offs are, as yet, undetermined. Nevertheless, three Chelsea area men, Tom Sari, Vernon Duncan and Tony Private, earned first, second and third place in the Chelsea tournament, sporting 718, 697 and 694 series, respectively.

During the 1970s, the proportion of black women in white-collar work increased sharply as many of the younger, better educated women found jobs in clerical occupations, according to a publication of the U. S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

What Does Gasoline Really Cost Today?

Consider this information from the Department of Energy next time you purchase a gallon of gasoline:

The average price of a gallon of leaded regular gasoline in 1941 was 19.2 cents. In August of 1980, the price of $1.21 per gallon.

But when corrected for inflation and expressed in real 1941 dollars, the 1980 price would be 21.3 cents per gallon.

When you add $1.00 for a gallon of gasoline, you are paying 11.87 cents more for it than in 1941.
