CAUGHT IN THE MIDDLE: As the situation falls into the hands of the courts, Fr. Joseph Rinaldo of St. Louis School foresees the eventual disposition of the case surrounding the educational rights and requirements of six handicapped students as a win-lose situation. "I want what is best and what is right for the boys. I just don't want to see them get hurt," he explains.

Bulldog Cagers Lose By 1 Point in Finals of District Tournament

Chelsea began its district championship competition Tuesday evening in a game against arch rival Dexter. Defeating the Dreadnaughts, 75-57, Chelsea advanced into semi-final action with Brooklyn Columbia Central Wednesday.

Against Dexter, the Bulldogs exhibited their usual good first half performance, only to improve in the second half. Dexter also played a strong first half.

Key players figuring in the contest were Chelsea's Jeff Dils with 13 points in the first half and a 28 point game and Dexter's Rob Ianni with 15 points in the first half and, like Dils, a total of 28 points for the game.

Chelsea pulled ahead with a 14-11 lead at the end of the first quarter and headed into the locker room with a four-point lead, 35-31, at intermission. Still, according to Chelsea coach Robin Raymond, "We let Dexter inside too much in the first half."

Following Tuesday's victory over Dexter, Chelsea faced Brooklyn Columbia Central in semi-final district championship action Wednesday night. Chelsea slipped past its opponent, 55-54.

According to coach Raymond, "We played as scrappy as we have all year; we were outstanding considering the height disadvantage but we committed too many turnovers and let them inside too often."

The game started out rather disappointingly for the Bulldogs who trailed, 10-15, at the end of the first quarter. But, by half-time Chelsea had closed in and taken a one-point lead, 32-31. The Bulldogs' greatest lead throughout the game was a seven-point margin in the second quarter.

With the absence of height, Chelsea held on for dear life in the third quarter and first six minutes of the fourth quarter. The game became a battle be-

It was an emotional, loud and crowded night. Chelsea, hosting the District 37 basketball championship took to the court to face "dark horse" Tecumseh in their third match-up of the year. Chelsea had defeated the Indians twice in the regular conference season. This time, it was Tecumseh's turn and the Indians ended the night with a 49-48 last minute win to clinch the district crown.

Bulldog supporters packed the stands like sardines. "Regardless of the outcome, it was really a great night for the team," commented Robin Raymond reflecting on the standing ovations given his players as they both walked on and off the court. "They deserve all the credit in the world for having turned the season around like they did."

Six Chelsea cagers played their last high school game. As seniors, Jeff Dils, Jeff Price, Sean Peterson, Jon Riemensneider, Mark

Immunization Clinic Set For Thursday

Recently the Chelsea Board of Education passed a Resolution which will exclude from school attendance on April 13, 1981, all students who are new to the Chelsea School District who have not presented evidence of required immunizations. This action of the Board is in compliance with state law.

To assist parents in obtaining proper immunizations for their children prior to the April 13th exclusion date, the Chelsea School District, in co-operation with the Washtenaw County Health Department, will offer a free immunization clinic on March 11, from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. in the high school science building for all new school-enterers and all elementary students in grades 1 through 5. At this time, students in grades 6 through 12 may also receive immunizations if their parents obtain permission slips at the school offices prior to the clinic date.

Parents are urged to review the immunizations of their children and, if necessary, to update them in order to comply with the law.

Beach Orchestra Earns I Rating

Beach Middle school orchestra traveled to Forsythe Junior High school, Ann Arbor, Saturday, March 7 to compete with a total of 14 area orchestras in the District Junior High Orchestra Festival.

Receiving a total of 20 grades, 17 "A's" and 3 "B's," Chelsea came home with the first I rating as a full orchestra made up of strings, wind, brass and percussion. The group was rated in a total of five categories: tone, intonation, rhythm, technique and interpretation.

Thirty-seven Chelsea students made up the winning combination, many of whom are 8th graders. Director Kevin Miller, in his first year at Beach explained, "I'm very proud of them for having made such progress within the past year." And, according to one of the judges at the competition, "There is excellent work in this orchestra with obvious musical results. It is a great pleasure to hear."

Bands Earn Top Rating at Festival

Chelsea High school symphony and 9th grade bands competed in the District 12 Band Festival Saturday, March 7 among a field of 78 bands competing in five different locations. At the end of the day's performance, Chelsea's two participants walked away with straight superior ratings.

It was the fifth consecutive year that the symphony band received a superior rating but it was the first year that they received "A's" and "A-plus's." The group was rated in five categories, tone, intonation, technique, interpretation and rhythm by a panel of four adjudicators.

The 9th grade band clinched their fourth consecutive superior rating and, according to director Steve Bergmann, "Their rating shows their steady improvement as an outstanding band."

Both the symphony and 9th grade bands, by finishing their district competitions with straight I ratings, have qualified for the state band competition to be held on Saturday, April 25.

According to Judge Mike Pratt, "The techniques of the bands are amazing for Class B High school bands." Jack Siedler, another adjudicator explained that "the symphony band is outstanding"

State Files Suit Against Chelsea School District In Handicapped Issue

Within the boundaries of Chelsea, a conflict between the Chelsea School District and St. Louis School for Exceptional Boys is brewing. This situation surrounds six mentally handicapped boys attending St. Louis School, the Washtenaw Association for Retarded Citizens (WARC) and Chelsea public schools.

But, the situation is a touchy one. According to state officials, these six handicapped boys, from homes outside the Chelsea area, are Chelsea residents and are, therefore, being denied a free public education in the Chelsea School District. These arguments are based on state law which states that a handicapped person, under the age of 26, is a "resident of the school district in which the person habitually sleeps, keeps personal effects, and has a regular place of lodging for the purpose of securing a suitable home and not solely for an educational purpose."

In letters received last summer, the parents of these children requested the right of public education for their children. An investigation by the state ensued, consisting of phone calls to these parents who stated that their children were placed at St. Louis for, primarily residential purposes. But, Chelsea schools sought to prove or disprove residency as the determining factor. These students were not admitted to Chelsea schools because determination of their residency was not established via a thorough investigation by the Department of Education; the phone calls were not enough.

But last week, the State Board of Education authorized the state attorney general to take action against Chelsea schools, charging that the school system is illegally denying education to the six mentally impaired youths.

Chelsea will appeal the charges, contending that the issue of legal residency has never been determined. And, according to the school's legal counsel, Chelsea will not abide by additional findings because the Department of Education would be obviously biased.

WARC, serving as an advocate for the parents, charges that Chelsea has argued on issues of cost, private placement and now residence. The organization contends that Chelsea has avoided serving the children, advancing objection after objection. But, Chelsea contends that because of the state's refusal to conduct an investigation, complete with an official determination of residency is a direct denial of the right of due process.

While this educational war is waged, the six boys in question are being educated at St. Louis School. But, until the dilemma is resolved, the state board has ordered the Washtenaw County Intermediate School District to assume responsibility for the children; also ordering that all expenses be borne by the Chelsea School District.

In the meantime, Chelsea is challenging the state's conclusionary findings of residence. "Our main concern is that it is not morally right for people to place their child in a private school and request a public education," explained Superintendent Ray Van Meer. "State or agency placed children are perceived as orphans, we have no difficulty in accepting them. We assume responsibility for them and state funds accompany them."

Van Meer explains that the six boys in question were sent to St. Louis School by their parents who elected to secure private education for their children. By doing so, public education is waived and the children should ideally be placed there under the assumption that they will be given a private education.

The impact of this dilemma is two-fold, according to Van Meer. First, placement of children from areas other than Chelsea will result in serious financial hardships on the district. Secondly, the ultimate number of students is unpredictable. In a small rural school district like Chelsea the potential detrimental impact on both handicapped and non-handicapped students is incomprehensible.

"We have challenged the state Department of Special Education because we do not think that a proper investigation was made to answer the question of residence. For about six months, we have tried to get the state to conduct a proper investigation," Van Meer continued.

"Officials at St. Louis and at the state Board of Education are reacting to a WARC advocate who filed this complaint regardless of the fact that he has

Fire Chief Gaken Retires from Post

The following letter was submitted to the Chelsea Village Council Monday, March 3 in which Fire Chief James Gaken submitted his resignation.

Gaken had served the Fire Dept. for 34 years, the last 18 of which he has served as chief.

Chief Gaken's letter follows:

Due to the fact that I am unable to be as mobile as I feel is necessary to carry out the job of fire chief, I plan to retire. My retirement will be effective with the annual department elections and upon approval and appointment of a new chief by the village president.

Upon my retirement, I will have served on the department for 34 years. I joined the department on March 31, 1947 and have held the offices of secretary, treasurer, assistant chief, and chief. I was elected chief at the department's annual election in March, 1963. I have had the honor of serving as chief for 18 years.

During this time, the department underwent many changes. We moved from the old station in the Municipal Building to the present station. This building was acquired through the efforts of my predecessor, Chief Ted Balmer. Eventually, even this building proved to be too small, so an addition was put on to house more equipment and provide work space for the firemen.

When we moved to the new station, we were proud possessors of three trucks, two of which went into the country and hauled 1,500 gallons of water. We now take four trucks into the country with a capacity of 4,850 gallons of water. The department also operates a rescue squad now which services all of the area we cover for fires.

Also, one of the major accomplishments are the contracts we are operating under at the present time. They are also being used by several other departments in several areas of the state. These are just a few of the many changes that have taken place in the department in the past 18 years.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the village officials, both present and past, for their help and co-operation over the years. There have been many village presidents, councilmen, and fire committeemen who have helped to make the Chelsea Fire Department what it is today.

Last but not least by any means, thank you to the men who have been, and are now on the department for their help and co-operation over the years. You have made the years go by rapidly. You are a great asset to your community, in fact a great necessity to your community. Also a thank you to the wives who put up with missed appointments, cold meals, missed night outs, and other inconveniences so their husbands could be firemen.

Thanks also to the township governments and officials and residents for their help and support.

Thanks also to my wife and family for their indulgence over the years.

Again, thanks to all of you.

Sincerely,
James Gaken, Chief,
Chelsea Fire Department.

Two Chelsea youths, a 16-year-old and a 17-year-old boy, were arrested by local police this week following a bombing at Chelsea High school Monday afternoon, March 14, which destroyed the school's piano. Under questioning, both boys told police their violence had not been premeditated and there was no reason for their actions.

More than 470 driver-mechanics, maintenance men and stock workers at Chelsea's Chrysler Proving Grounds were back on the job Friday morning following ratification of a new local contract last Thursday, which ended the eight-day strike over issues of job security and shift overlaps. Both issues were covered in the settlement.

Clear skies and mild temperatures were apparently not a factor in bringing out a poor voter turn-out Monday, for Chelsea's annual village election. Out of a total of 826 registered voters, 67 cast ballots in unopposed battles for the office of village clerk, three trustee seats and two vacancies on the Library Board. The Chelsea Community Hospital, with only limited contacts being made, has topped the $300,000 mark towards its $1.2 million goal. The campaign is a pledge-type program with gifts being requested over a five-year period.

Anyone walking down the east side of N. Main St. might think the public works crew has been on a treasure hunt with a phony map. Actually, they are finding what they've been looking for—trash, rusty old cans, pieces of scrap lumber and a fine assortment of just plain junk. Searching the holes that lead to storage bins originally built under the sidewalk to hold coal for storekeepers, village workers are emptying the catch-alls in hopes of constructing new sidewalks.

J. L. Atwood, president of North American Aviation, Inc. and W. F. Rockwell, Jr., presi-

According to a Michigan State University study, the average Michigan resident will have about $900 more disposable income by 1980 than today. The Michigan economy is expected to grow at least as rapidly as the national economy, with incomes and wage rates remaining above the U. S. average.

Mystery surrounding the discovery last week of a 1950 model car sunk in Four Mile Lake after apparently dropping through thawing ice, was solved Thursday when Mrs. Robert Townshack of Belleville notified authorities that the car belonged to her son. She said the car fell through the ice after the son had driven it there to go fishing.

Governor Predicts Michigan Needs Federal Tax Cut Plans

Governor William G. Milliken has declared Michigan's best hope of getting out of economic difficulties is for President Reagan's tax and budget cutting plans to be enacted by Congress.

Speaking upon his return from meeting with the nation's governors and the President, Milliken said Congress just "chipping away" at the proposals will delay the state's economic recovery.

"The President intends fully to go ahead with his program and I believe in it. If there is a better plan, let's hear it," he said.

Upon Reagan's revealing of the plan before a joint session of Congress, there were concerns from some Michigan officials that the proposals could hurt several state programs, especially the mass transit plan for the Detroit area.

But Milliken said the transportation plan is still alive under some circumstances. He declined to name those circumstances, however.

The governor also said urban development action grants "still have some flexibility."

"The best thing for Michigan is to have the President's program succeed, so that we can get the jobs in this state, and bring down the high inflation and interest rates," Milliken said.

He added the President's program is a comprehensive approach, but if opponents begin to chip away at the program, that will take time and hurt its ability to help the state.

On another front, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Phillip Runkel said the proposed education budget cuts by the President will significantly hurt education quality in Michigan, especially when viewed in light of state budget cuts forced by the economic downturn.

Runkel said he has asked U. S. Secretary of Education Terrel Bell to give Michigan special consideration and added the secretary was very receptive to Michigan problems.

Runkel said the state merits special consideration because the economic situation is not duplicated anywhere else in the country.

The state's top school administrator said he was particularly concerned about the impact the cutbacks will have on urban schools, as funds are not only cut 20 percent across the board but are also changed for a system of targeting the funds to specific programs (such as vocational education, the educationally disadvantaged, etc.) to one of block grants.

Because urban schools receive more benefit from many of the targeted programs, they will probably be hurt more by the cuts, he said.

The 20 percent cut will cost K-12 schools $45.4 million and public and private colleges would lose $110 million.

Among the impacts of the cuts, he said, are lunch programs cut by $26.6 million, compensatory education by $25 million, special education losing $7 million and similar size cuts occurring in vocational education.

Runkel said the cuts need not affect each program in the amount federal funds are reduced in the specific program area because the state would have flexibility to reallocate the reduced level of fund that would come in a block grant.

He concluded he was not particularly opposed to the block grant approach proposed by Reagan administration, but is concerned about the combined effect of that approach and budget cuts.

He noted the state has already reduced its funding for specific programs by $140 million.

WARMING UP WINTER

Winter mornings can make you long for suntan oil and swimming. They also make you think about your blankets — does it seem they aren't keeping you as warm as they did back in October?

This is not a figment of your imagination. The nap (that fluff all over the surface) of a blanket, after much constant use, flattens out and mats down. The nap becomes too felted to trap air between its fibers, so there are no air-pockets to retain body heat and provide insulation against the cold.

Drycleaning will not only make your blankets look and smell fresh, but it will restore the fluffiness that keeps you warm.

Directed by Ferris E. Ohl, the Heidelberg College Concert Tour performed 11 church concerts in five states—Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut and New York—on its traditional spring tour which began Saturday, Feb. 28 and ended Sunday, March 8.

The Concert Choir of Heidelberg College, located in Tiffin, O., began preparing for the spring tour early in January. Nearly 100 students, including Marie M. Koch, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Erwin R. Koch of 760 N. Main St., make up the choir directed by Dr. Ohl.

"I had no idea they were that good," Raymond explained about Columbia Central, "they played an exceptional game and their defense was outstanding."

But, later in the fourth quarter, the lead changed hands and Chelsea took control to lead, 53-52, with less than a minute left on the clock. Jeff Dils hit a pair of free throws to push Chelsea ahead, 55-52, and at the buzzer, Columbia Central hit a basket for a 55-54 loss.

Free throws carried the Bulldogs through the second half as they hit 13 in 17 attempts for 77 percent. Columbia Central, on the other hand, hit 10 in 16 chances for 63 percent.

Chelsea hit 41 percent from the floor, 21-51, while the opponents made good on 22 in 51 attempts for 43 percent. Chelsea grabbed 28 rebounds compared to Columbia Central's 30, and the Bulldogs committed 14 turnovers as opposed to the losers' 17, but the statistics did not reflect the way the game looked.

Coach Raymond explained that he felt "fortunate that we were able to win."

Pacing the winners was Jon Riemenschneider with 13 points while Jeff Dils and Jeff Price each added 11. Bench scoring by Sean Peterson with eight and Mike Bareis with six also proved invaluable for the Bulldogs while David Wojcicki and Toby Boyd scored four and two points, respectively.

larceny of a motor vehicle, one breaking and entering and one larceny of jewelry.

Twelve accident reports were made as compared to 19 in January while property checks were also down; 445 in February and 549 in January. On 29 occasions, Chelsea Police assisted motorists, twice more frequently than in the preceding month.

Chelsea Police also assisted Washtenaw County in five instances. These included assisting an arrest at M-52 and I-94 and assisting the Michigan State Police on a high speed chase at I-94 and Fletcher Rd. Total time used in county assistance, two hours and 50 minutes. Additionally, Chelsea Police auxiliary officers put in a total of 71.5 hours during the month.

State Sues Chelsea Schools

no role whatsoever in dictating what this private school should do."

"As neighbors, we have tried to work out some common agreements in order to resolve these problems. The Board is sensitized to the needs of St. Louis School as a private institution providing an important and necessary service to the handicapped. But, we must also consider our obligations to the Chelsea schools as well as the needs and concerns of taxpayers and members of community," Van Meer explained.

"This may be a 'no win' situation; it's a real mess and the chances of reaching a compromise are becoming more and more elusive. The basic question becomes, if St. Louis is a school, why doesn't it take care of its educational needs? and, if it isn't a school, why is it licensed as such?"

The 2,400-student Chelsea School District has, up to this point, an unblemished special education record. Since its beginning, a vanguard Chelsea Board of Education has expressed a strong commitment to the rights of all students to high educational standards.

The St. Louis-Chelsea confrontation, according to Fr. Joseph Rinaldo, is having an impact on the children and staff at St. Louis as well as on the community as a whole. "Rather than fighting in court, I wish we could just sit together and see what we could come up with. We're caught in the middle. It's like betting on both teams during a football game. Regardless of winning, you also lose."

The children at St. Louis come from needy families, or broken families—places that are not beneficial to the child. We cannot turn him away but many parents do not want their child to receive a Catholic education. They ask for public education instead," Fr. Rinaldo explained.

Nevertheless, Fr. Rinaldo admitted that a high percentage of the students are better served at St. Louis School. "Some might benefit at public school and I will fight it if they are denied that privilege," he continued.

"The state Department of Special Education has determined that these boys are residents of Chelsea and are entitled to a free public education. They are special children with special privileges according to law. I just don't want to see them get hurt," he concluded.

Nevertheless, the ultimate decision regarding the location of education for the six handicapped boys in question is in the hands of the courts.

Pop-Up Camper Stolen from Jackson St. Home

Chelsea Police report that between the hours of 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 4 and 2 p.m. Thursday, March 5, a 1968 Wheel pop-up camper was stolen from the J. Wheeler residence at 151 E. Jackson St. Approximate value of the equipment is estimated at $800. Police have no suspects at this time.

The attempted theft of two autos from the back parking lot at Chelsea Big Boy was reported Thursday, March 5 at approximately 11:40 p.m. One of the vehicles, a 1976 Dodge Charger had a CB radio stolen from it while the other, a 1976 Chevrolet Monte Carlo was missing a blanket valued at $10. The ignition systems of both cars had been tampered with.

Views On Dental Health

By ROBERT A. BURNS, JR., D.D.S.

FLUORIDE FACTS

Dental literature is replete with facts on the effectiveness of fluoride in preventing tooth decay. How does it work? Sugars in the mouth set up a favorable environment for the growth and development of bacteria. These germs produce acids that cause decay and leave behind deposits that injure the gums. One of the big defenses against the process is fluoride which builds up the resistance of teeth to these acids by making the tooth enamel harder. It should be in your child's drinking water so it can be absorbed in his growing teeth; it should also be in your child's toothpaste, and applied regularly on his teeth by the family dentist.

Chicago (the first big city to fluoridate its water supply) reports that tooth decay has been cut in half among its school children, and credits fluoride for this improvement. The water in Chelsea is also fluoridated, but well water outside the village generally lacks adequate fluoride levels.

In areas where the water is not fluoridated, children's teeth can be substantially protected against cavities by fluoride in drop or tablet form. If you have dental health questions you would like to see answered, please mail them to the address below.

A public service with the aim of promoting a better dental health environment. From the office of: ROBERT A. BURNS, JR., D.D.S., Chelsea Professional Building, 1200 S. Main St., Chelsea, Phone: 475-9124.

Chelsea 48, Tecumseh 49 Works of CHS Students Chosen For Gallery Show

Steinaway and Chris Tobin ended their high school career by losing the districts with style. "Dils, Price and Peterson played their hearts out," explained Raymond. "They could not have worked harder."

The first half of the contest was played evenly with the score tied at 8-8 at the end of the first quarter and tied again at intermission at 21-21. The lead saw-sawed back and forth with neither team controlling the momentum.

But, in the third quarter, Chelsea began to slip and Tecumseh made some defensive adjustments. The result, the Indians pulled ahead and outscored the Bulldogs, 12-8.

Tecumseh completely shut off the Chelsea inside game and forced them to shoot from the outside where the percentage shots were not as great. The game became balanced precariously on Chelsea's outside game and Tecumseh's inside game.

The Indians, led by Dave Duhan with a game high 23 points, led by eight with four minutes left on the clock. Chelsea cut that lead to five points with two and one-half minutes remaining and began an exceptional two minutes of competition. Baskets were traded and Tecumseh went up by six; the situation began looking grim.

Chelsea put on a full court press and fouled. Tecumseh missed the free throw and Dils added a pair. This situation repeated itself until Chelsea was down by one, 47-46 with 30 seconds on the clock.

Chelsea tried defensive pressure while the Indians did an excellent job of playing keep-away with the ball. In an attempt to steal the ball, Chelsea was unprepared for Tecumseh's uncontested lay-up that eventually won the game. Despite the Indians' obvious win, Jeff Dils got hold of the ball and put it through the hoop at the sound of the buzzer. The 1980-81 Bulldogs had come within one possession of winning the first district championship within 20 years.

Pacing Chelsea was Dils with 13 points while Jeff Price added 10, Tobin seven and Wojcicki six. Riemenschneider, Boyd and Peterson each added four points for the Bulldog effort.

Tecumseh outrebounded Chelsea, 30-24, while Chelsea committed 15 turnovers to Tecumseh's 18. From the floor, Chelsea connected on 20 of 47 for 43 percent while the Indians hit 19 of 41 for 46 percent. From the foul line, the Bulldogs made good on 8 of 10 for 80 percent while the Indians connected on 11 of 23 for 48 percent.

Chelsea ended the 1980-81 season with a 14-9 record, a far cry from what could have been expected earlier in the season. Finishing second place in the Southeastern Conference, the Bulldogs made a sensational comeback during the season, losing a district crown by one basket.

Works of CHS Students Chosen For Gallery Show

As a part of Youth Art Month, the Ann Arbor Art Association is having a special showing of works created by Southeastern Michigan high school students. According to Karry Kargel and Cathy Opoka of the Chelsea High School Art Department, several of their students had their works accepted in the show.

Julie Andrews, juror of the show, selected Chelsea art students Lori Kornexl, Sue Young, Randy Simon, Todd Brehmer, Cindy Snyder and Betsy Kolander. In addition, two students, Mary Boylan and Molly Feeney, were awarded honorable mention for their endeavors. Boylan was honored for her ceramic clay architecture entitled "Russian Castle" while Feeney was given recognition for her untitled pastel portrait.

Other area students who won honorable mention were Liz Davis of Community High, Lauren Sawyer of Saline High, Donald Sharp of Huron High and Kim Russell and Nora McNamara of Pioneer High school.

The Ann Arbor Art Association exhibit gallery is located at 117 W. Liberty, one block west of Main St. This youth exhibit will be on display until Friday.

NO DELIVERY - NO DEED

Even if a deed is properly executed, it doesn't become effective until it is delivered to the buyer and accepted by him. Take the case of the 80-year-old man who signed, sealed and acknowledged a deed to his nephew and placed it in an old tin box in his room. He died shortly thereafter and deed was discovered. In a contest with other heirs over the property, the nephew lost because there had been no delivery of the deed.

Until the deed is delivered, the title remains with the seller, and he may change his mind and destroy the deed with impunity. But once properly delivered and accepted, a deed passes title and cannot be revoked.

Your best protection in the area of deeds is your lawyer. He will see to it that it's properly drawn and executed—and protects you as far as his legal eye can see. Advice... do-it-yourself tactics in this technical area could have horrendous results.

BUCKLING UP BABES: Jeffrey Martell demonstrates the comfort and styling of his restraint device that enables him to ride safely in the car, not to mention the unique view he gets of the back seat. Rental of these devices is currently available through the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary as a part of the "Buckle Up Babes" program.

Child Restraint Devices Promoted By JC Auxiliary

Many children in the Chelsea area are much safer because of a project now being run by the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary. Called BUBS—Buckle Up Babes—the project is intended to increase the number of area children who are buckled up in child restraint devices while riding in motor vehicles.

"Car crashes are the leading cause of death to young children," said Denise Martell, chairman of the BUBS program. "But safely-constructed child restraint devices can reduce or prevent most of these tragedies. The problem is to convince parents of the need to use these restraints and then help them get good ones. That's what we're going to do."

Chairman Martell pointed out that in 1978, 27 children four years of age or younger died while riding as passengers in automobiles on Michigan highways. Another 4,140 youngsters in this age group were reported as injured.

"But the total number of injuries is actually much higher,"

Martell said, "since many young children are hurt in sudden stops or swerves. These injuries are not reported to the police."

"If more people knew how effective child restraint devices are in protecting their children, we are certain more children would be buckled up," Martell continued. "A safely-constructed restraint device can reduce the probability of death in a crash by as much as 90 percent. The probability of serious injury can be reduced by 78 percent."

"Once parents and other relatives decide to get a restraint device for their child," Martell explained, "they are confused as to which of the many models on the market is best. To help them make a good selection, we have a shopping guide available which lists all the safe, crash-tested restraint devices for infants and children up to four or five years of age."

Since some people may resist buying a restraint device because of the cost, a major part of the Buckle Up Babes project is loaning restraints for a small rental

Youth Conference On Birth Defects Held at EMU

The ninth annual Youth Conference on Birth Defects, co-sponsored by the March of Dimes and Eastern Michigan University was held Thursday, Feb. 26 at Pease Auditorium on the EMU campus.

More than 500 high school students and teachers from Washtenaw and Livingston counties were informed of the importance of the environment that is created by future parents for their growing fetus. The choices of whether to smoke, drink or take drugs and the effect it has on the unborn child were explained by Dr. Howard Weinblatt, an Ann Arbor pediatrician and Cynthia Wrentham, R.N. from the Washtenaw County Health Department. Film presentations on nutrition and teenage pregnancy emphasized the significance of proper pre-natal care.

The "Answer is You" was the message the students were reminded; it is their choice during pregnancy that will ensure their future children a happy and healthy life. The March of Dimes emphasized that by educating young people, birth defect prevention is more tangible.

fee of $12 per nine months. Upon return of the device, a $6 refund is made to the renter.

"When you consider that your child's life could depend on it," chairman Martell said, "restraints are not that expensive. Prices for good, safe models range from a high of $50 to a low of $12."

The Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary currently has several infant restraint seats which may be rented by anyone in the surrounding area. These devices are designed for infants ranging in size from birth to 20 lbs. Local residents are encouraged to donate infant seats no longer in use to the Buckle Up Babes program. These donations are tax deductible. The Jaycee Auxiliary will also purchase car seats no longer needed.

For more information, parents can call Denise Martell, chairman of the Buckle Up Babes project, at 475-1966.

By the second half, Chelsea had shut off the inside and stopped giving away the easy baskets. The pace of the game picked up and at the end of three, Chelsea had a commanding 55-42 advantage.

The momentum was still fast in the final stanza and within the final three minutes of regulation time, Chelsea outscored the Dreadnaughts by a 10-2 margin which made a big difference in the game. The Dexter deficit forced the Dreadnaughts to play catch-up and subsequently, commit fouls.

Chelsea capitalized on Dexter fouls at the free throw line, connecting on six in eight attempts late in the fourth quarter.

Pacing the Bulldogs was Jeff Dils with 28 points and eight assists. Rob Ianni of Dexter also connected for 28. A big difference in the game was the ability of Chelsea's bench to score. Sean Peterson hit 11 points after coming off the bench while David Wojcicki added nine as Chelsea's three guards combined for 48 points.

Others scoring were Tobin and Price with six apiece while Riemenschneider and Boyd each added four and Bareis, Steinaway, Welton and Villemure connected for two points apiece.

Chelsea used a total of 14 players during the contest while the starters played three quarters themselves. Nevertheless, both veterans and those coming off the bench were able to play together.

Statistically, Chelsea outscored the Dreadnaughts by a 45-35 margin. In turnovers, the Bulldogs committed 22 while Dexter had 32, 21 in the second half.

From the free throw line, Chelsea made good on 15 in 23 attempts for 65 percent while the Dreadnaughts hit 15 in 24 attempts for 63 percent.

Chelsea hit 50 percent from the floor, 30 of 60 while the Dreadnaughts hit 43 percent by connecting on 21 of 49 shots.

79 Attend Chelsea Day In Florida

Seventy-nine Chelseaites attended the annual Chelsea Day in Tarpon Springs, Fla., Sunday, Feb. 22. Among the crowd were Euhalee and Mac Packard, enjoying their second Floridian Chelsea Day celebration.

Leaving Chelsea Friday, Feb. 20, the Packards, in the company of Mrs. Packard's mother, Ruby Sanders, arrived just in time for the event hosted again this year by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blaess. Following Chelsea Day, they visited relatives in the Tampa and Port Richee areas.

According to Mrs. Packard, the weather was a balmy 74 degrees and the company, many retired Chelseaites now residing in the sunny South, and Chelsea Day festivities were fabulous. At least half of those persons participating in the reunion have established homes in the Tarpon Springs area.

Three of the originators of Chelsea Day, Flossie Lake, Lula Sweeney and Margaret Weir, also attended the annual event, coming from as far away as Arizona to enjoy the day.

Chelsea Day will be celebrated on the fourth Sunday of February again next year. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blaess will be in charge of the reunion to be held at the same location as in the past few years.

Ballantine To Meet With Taxpayers

Twenty-third District State Representative Mary Keith Ballantine (R-Jackson) will be at the McDonald's Restaurant in Chelsea on Thursday, March 12, from 5:30 until 7 p.m. for a "Meet Your Legislator Night."

Owner Al Fellhauer of the Chelsea McDonald's extended the invitation to Mrs. Ballantine to encourage more local involvement in state government affairs.

"I am delighted to be able to participate in this type of forum. To my knowledge, this is a first and it pleases me that Al Fellhauer has taken this type of initiative to familiarize the public with the workings of the State Legislature. I will be on hand not only to meet informally with my constituents, but to answer their questions about any problems they might have with the state government," Representative Ballantine explained.

The public is invited to attend next Thursday night's informal meeting.

Career Planning Program Offered to Junior Class

The junior class at Chelsea High school will be participating in the Michigan American College Testing Career Planning Program (ACT CPP) later this month, a system of testing that assesses the student's abilities in six areas—clerical skills, language usage, mechanical reasoning, numerical skills, reading and space relations—and utilizes this information to help the individual make sound educational and career decisions.

Sponsored by the CHS Guidance Department, the program will be offered free of charge as opposed to the typical $4 fee for the services. For the first time, Chelsea has the funds available to provide the ACT Career Planning Program to all members of the junior class.

Offering the high school junior the information and resources necessary to become more familiar with him or herself, the CPP will provide each student with a personalized computer print-out revealing strengths and weaknesses in each of the six evaluated categories. In addition, a student designed booklet, Planning, will assist the individual in interpreting the reported information and offer insights into the world of work, various career options and update information on employability.

This program is focused on the entire junior class, it is not limited to a particular segment of the student population. In addition to career information, the ACT CPP results will include an estimated ACT Composite score—the estimated score that would result from completing the ACT Assessment, the official qualifying test for the State of Michigan Scholarship Program.

Following the returned student profile, each participant will receive a career newspaper, The Decision Maker, designed especially for Michigan students. This publication provides information regarding the work outlook in Michigan and contains, for example, descriptions of jobs and expected salary ranges; job opportunities and locations and techniques for locating a job.

Swim Team Heads For State Meet

CHS tankers will head to Grand Rapids Thursday, March 12 to attempt a feat that few high school teams ever accomplish—to win a state championship.

"All year, our team has hoped to improve to the point where we could enter the state meet with an honest chance to win. Each swimmer has individual goals that are very high, so high in fact that I personally don't think they can be reached without total pressure, support and team effort," explained Coach Larry Reed.

"If we reach our individual goals, the team results will take care of themselves," he continued. Two years ago, Chelsea entered the state meet with hopes of scoring, the team finished 31st. Last year, the tankers aimed for a place in the top 10 and clinched 10th place over-all in the state. This year, Chelsea's swimmers are aiming for the best they can get, be it 4th, 3rd, 2nd or 1st.

Entrants in the 1981 state championship swim meet are the 200 medley relay team; John Robbins, backstroke, Dave Nicola, breaststroke, Dave Mason, butterfly and Mike Mason, freestyle; 200 freestyle, Phil Hoffman, Sean Oxner; 200 IM, Dave Mason, Tom Gaunt; 50 freestyle, Dave Nicola; 1 meter diving, Craig Wirtz and Kraig Leach; 100 butterfly, Dave Mason, Kirk Hawks; 100 freestyle, Phil Hoffman, Mike Mason; 500 free, Sean Oxner; 100 backstroke, Tom Gaunt, John Robbins; and, 400 freestyle relay, Tom Gaunt, Dave Nicola, Mike Mason and Phil Hoffman.

Alternates for relays include Shawn Pierson, Paul Schumann and John Hoffman.

Legion Showing NASA Films

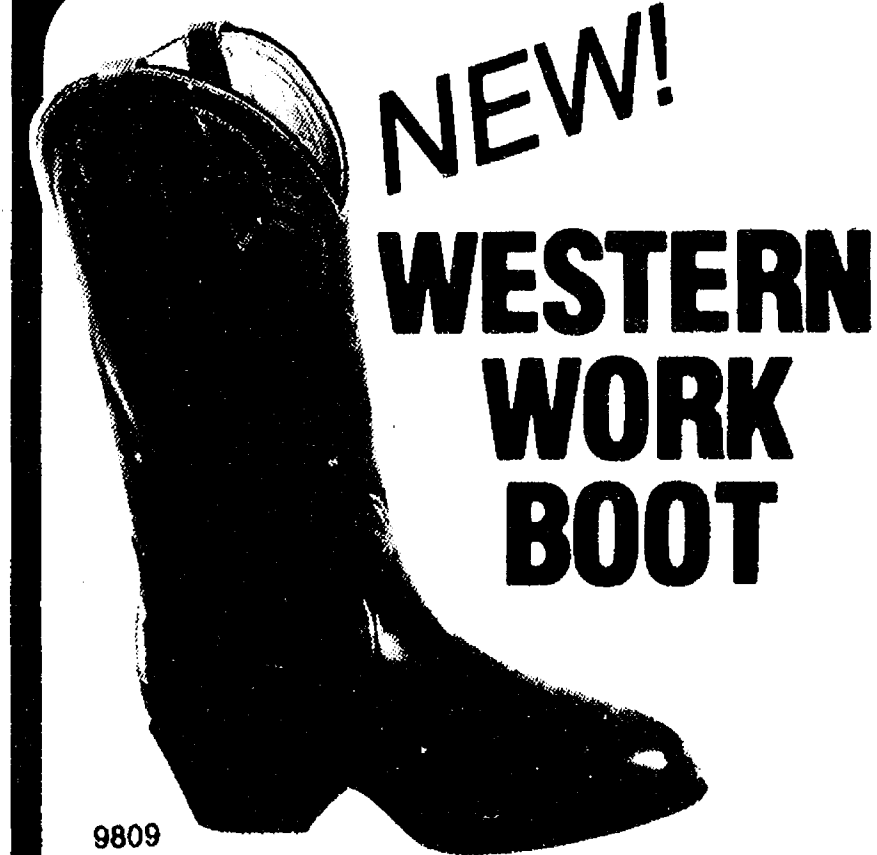

American Legion Post 31 will be showing a series of award winning NASA films next month. The program, entitled "Journey into Space," will consist of five color films to be shown Saturday, April 4 at 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. and Sunday, April 5 at 3 p.m.

Tickets for each three hour show will be available from Legion members and reasonably priced at $1, allowing full family participation. Parents are urged to bring children ages six and up. The full program will be announced at a later date and will include "The Flight of Apollo 11, Man's First Landing on the Moon."

The Chelsea Recreation Department's mens basketball league got back into action Sunday, March 8. In the first game, Rocking-M-Ranch once again played outstanding ball, defeating Chelsea State Bank. Beach Volleyball Teams Lose to Dexter, Tecumseh Chelsea's 7th grade volleyball team fell victim to Dexter in a close three-game match last week. The first game was dominated by many volleys and the lead was traded between teams many times before Dexter took over, 16-14.

In the second game, Chelsea dropped behind, 9-1, before the team caught up and won, 17-15. The third game was equally thrilling as Chelsea led, 10-2, but was unable to hang on. The final score in this contest was 14-16. Leading scorer in the match was Donna Bruck serving for 11 points while Kristi Headrick served eight and bumped for better than 75 percent in the company of Christi Favors.

The 8th grade Bullpups lost their first game, 7-15. But, in the second game, Chelsea came closer though the team was unable to pull away and was defeated, 13-15.

Laura Anderson served for five points and bumped for 75 percent or better. Joining her in bumps were Stephanie Grant, Beth Unterbrink, Lisa Van Schoick and Dawn Olson.

The Beach school volleyball squads hosted Tecumseh's Indians Thursday. The 7th graders lost in two games, 7-15 and 11-15. High scorers were Cindy Kvartberg with six points while Kristi Headrick, Susan Jaques and Cindy Kvartberg each bumped for 75 percent or better.

After dominating the first game, 15-4, the 8th graders lost the final two to drop the match to their Tecumseh counterparts. Serving well in game one, nonetheless, were Beth Unterbrink and Stephanie Grant.

'Darkhorse' Tecumseh Hangs On To Claim District Title

Tecumseh 66, Jackson Parkside 57

The Indians won their first game in district play Monday night, upending the Jackson Parkside Eagles, 66-57 following a slow first quarter.

Tecumseh's Dave Duhan scored a game-high 35 points to pace the Indians though Parkside made the going rough by outscoring the opponents, 13-8 after the first eight minutes. But, the Indians took a 27-25 half-time lead that never subsided and ended in a surprise victory for a "dark horse" contender.

Milan 86, Lincoln 45

The Railsplitters, reacting in "slow motion," according to Coach Bill Welch, were buried underneath an onslaught of Milan Big Reds Monday night, in the first game of the Willow Run tournament. The Flyers soared past the floundering Ypsilanti Lincoln cagers, 86-45.

By half-time, Milan's balanced scoring and full court press led the SEC champions to a 51-25 lead which eventually eliminated the Railsplitters from championship contention.

Pacing the Big Reds was Sam Pope with 23 points and six assists while Pete Barnes netted 16 and had five steals and five assists. John Gruden added 16 points and pulled down 10 rebounds and Willie Joplin sunk 11 points, made five steals and handed out nine assists.

Hitting double figures for the losers were Doug Phillips with 13 and Dan Johnson with 10.

Chelsea 75, Dexter 57

Chelsea's Jeff Dils and Dexter's Rob Ianni played exceptional games, cancelling each others effort out as the Bulldogs defeated their arch rival Dexter Dreadnaughts in round one of the district championships Tuesday evening at Chelsea.

Chelsea played their usual strong game, taking a 14-11 first quarter lead. By the half, the Bulldogs were up by four, 35-31. Though the game was evenly played, Chelsea had an advantage as 14 players had court time and three Bulldogs hit upwards of double figures to clinch the win.

Pacing Chelsea was Jeff Dils with 28 points while Sean Peterson hit 11 and David Wojcicki nine.

The Dreadnaughts were led by Rob Ianni with 28 followed by Chris Rutkowski with 13.

Milan 35, Saline 21

The Hornets led a slow down game against the Big Reds Wednesday night in round two of the districts for Milan and Saline managed a 10-8 advantage at the end of the first quarter. Nevertheless, Milan took a two point lead at the half, 16-14 and never let go.

An interesting game, there was no scoring in the third quarter, but by the final stanza, Milan was hot, outscoring the lowly Hornets 17-7 to walk away with another league and district win, 35-21.

Pacing the Big Reds was John Gruden with 13 points while Saline, now out of the district race, was led by Tilt with a not so impressive four points.

Tecumseh 68, Lumen Christi 64

Tecumseh, the dark horse in the Chelsea district championship race, got its second district win Wednesday against Jackson Lumen Christi to even its over-all season record at 10-10.

Tecumseh raced out to a 16-14 lead going into the second stanza and held a 35-34 lead at the half. Coming back following intermission, the Indians outscored their opponents, 15-12, and scoring was even in the fourth period at 18-all.

Both teams had four players hitting double figures for their efforts. Pacing Tecumseh was Corley with a game-high 17 points while Smith added 16, McLoughlin 12 and Duhan 11 for the victors.

Lumen Christi was led by Schomer with 16, followed by Crowley with 13. Conklin and Walz connected for 11 points apiece.

Chelsea 55, Columbia Central 54

The Bulldogs fell behind, 10-15, at the end of the first quarter but managed to hold a one-point lead at the half, 32-31.

The absence of Chris Tobin caused a severe height disadvantage but Chelsea's cagers made up for it in speed and quickness to slide into a one-point second round victory over a fine Columbia Central squad.

A hard-fought, hard-earned Chelsea win was paced by Jon Riemenschneider with 13 points while Jeff Dils and Jeff Price, suffering from a bout with tendonitis, each added 11 for the Bulldog effort.

In Tobin's absence, Chelsea received support from a strong bench, responsible for 14 points as compared to no scoring off the Columbia Central bench.

Milan 50, Willow Run 65

Heading into the district final, Milan held a 21-1 season record, that is until Willow Run swept away with an inspired 65-50 victory enroute to defending their 1980 state championship title.

Nevertheless, with three minutes remaining, the Flyers held a precarious 51-47 lead while Milan seemed to be in control. But John Gruden fouled out for the Big Reds and Willow Run took over.

At the end of the first stanza, Willow Run held an 18-16 lead and a 35-32 half-time advantage. By the end of three, the Flyers were ahead, 44-41.

Pacing the Flyers was Keith Jackson with 34 points while Sam Pope led the losers with 16 points. The Flyers now advance to the Class B Regional at Brighton to take on Royal Oak Shrine Tuesday night.

ROBIN RAYMOND offers his team some words of encouragement and advice during last week's district championships hosted by Chelsea. The commentary paid off as the Bulldogs defeated Dexter, 75-57, Tuesday night and Brooklyn Columbia Central, 55-54, Wednesday.

Chelsea 48, Tecumseh 49

Following two Chelsea victories over Tecumseh during the regular season, the Indians, termed by Chelsea coach Robin Raymond as the "dark horse in the districts," scored an upset victory over the Bulldogs Saturday night in the final game of the District 37 competition.

With only eight seconds remaining, Tecumseh's Dave Duhan took a pass underneath the basket and tossed in an easy lay-up, defeating the Bulldogs, 49-48. But, the Bulldogs had been behind 42-38 with under three minutes remaining. Jeff Dils had helped the Chelsea cagers close in 47-46 with 30 seconds left. Following Duhan's pair, Dils again drove down the lane to add another pair of points as time ran out.

Pacing the Indians was Duhan with a game high 23 points while Dils led the Bulldogs with 13.

Tecumseh takes on University of Detroit High Tuesday at Brighton in hopes of moving into a regional crown championship.

Beach Volleyball Teams Lose

The Bullpups could not gain control of either of the final two games in the match, losing 2-15 and 7-15. Doing an outstanding job with their bumps were Laura Anderson, Mary Ann Richardson, Kelly Hawker, Lisa Van Schoick and Dawn Olson.

Demonstrating some excellent spikes that afternoon were Kelly Hawker, Joann Tobin and Beth Unterbrink, who also served for a total of nine points.

The 7th and 8th grade volleyball teams will play their final home game Tuesday, March 10 beginning at 4:30 p.m.

Special Classes Offered During Nutrition Month

March is National Nutrition Month, and a perfect time to describe a nutrition resource in your community. Chelsea Community Hospital provides a Community Nutritionist, Julie Say, registered dietitian, to share nutrition information with area residents.

Services available through the Community Nutrition Program include a weight reduction program which began in 1978 and continues to be popular. Ms. Say, community nutritionist, also provides nutrition information through guest lectures to students in area schools, diabetic diet classes, classes to learn more about the treatment of high blood pressure with diet, and nutrition classes for pregnant women.

As a special feature during national nutrition month, a nutrition class entitled "Food Is More Than Something To Eat" is being presented on Thursday afternoons from 3 to 4 p.m. beginning March 12. Learn more about food additives, and vegetarian diets. Nutrients needed by the body and the amount of vitamins and minerals each family member needs for nutritional health will be discussed. There is a fee of $5 for the three-week class. To register, phone the Chelsea Community Education Office at (313) 475-9830.

If you have any nutrition related questions or would like more information about services offered by the Chelsea Community Hospital Community Nutrition Program, phone Julie Say, R. D. at (313) 475-1311, Ext. 369.

In Memoriam 17

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

RICHARD L. (DICK) ABDON

Jesus called him Jan. 6, 1981.

He answered. His passing left me with an empty home. Jesus called you Dick Dear, 'cause He needed you to help Him prepare a new life for you and me. He said you had suffered a long time. Now my dear there is no more pain for you. But the loss of you leaves me very lonely and sad. When He calls for me I will be ready. We will meet again in heaven, where there is peace and love. Let the light shine bright so I can see. The love we shared will still be, forever.

Your loving wife, Doria.
