Two Requests Will Be On School's June Ballot For Operating Millage

Chelsea Board of Education, at its regular meeting on Monday, April 13, voted to place two proposals on the ballot for the annual election to be held Monday, June 8.

In the first proposal, the Chelsea Board of Education will ask voter approval for renewal of operating millage of 20.5 mills for one year. All the voted operating millage expires June 30, 1961. The 20.5 mills, plus the 11.22 county-allocated plus 0.5 maintenance millage, comprises the total operating millage for the 1981-82 school year.

The second proposal is that the Chelsea Board of Education will seek voter approval for 0.8 net increase in voted millage. The second proposal will be needed if the State property tax reduction proposal (Proposal A) is passed by the electorate on a special designated election to be held May 19. The passage of Proposal A will cause the Chelsea School District to lose $424,000 in operating funds. Although the net voted millage increase is 0.8, 2.6 mills must appear on the ballot. Proposal A guarantees that the State of Michigan will pay 50 percent of any increased operating millage that school district voters approve. The State, therefore, will pay, in dollars, an equivalent of 1.3 mills, which is half of the 2.6 request that appears in the ballot language.

Showers Reduce Grass Fire Calls

Last week, mild, moist weather seemed to put a damper on the typical springtime rash of grass and field fires that plague Chelsea and surrounding areas during the first few warm, dry months of each year.

As a result, the Chelsea Volunteer Fire Department made just one fire call during the week of April 13-19. This call was received Saturday, April 18 at 7:02 p.m. and regarded a series of small grass fires burning along the railroad tracks behind the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home.

Other calls received included a downed electrical wire at North Elementary school following the early morning thunderstorm Tuesday, April 14. A call notifying the fire department of the electrical problem was received at 4:14 a.m., Tuesday.

Neither fire calls nor rescue runs were made from April 14 through April 17. Then, at 11:15 a.m., Saturday, April 18, a rescue request was made from Timberland Game Ranch. The Chelsea Board of Education pledges to reduce the debt retirement levy from 4.0 to 3.5 mills, a reduction of 0.5 mills. This makes the net voted increased levy 0.8 mills. In the event that State Proposal A is defeated, the Chelsea Board of Education will not levy the 2.6 mill increase. The Board will, however, reduce the debt retirement millage 0.5 mills.

The Chelsea Board of Education voted to adopt the ballot language rather than wait for the outcome of the May 19 election. If the Board had decided to wait, a special election would have to be held; the earliest the election could be held would be approximately Aug. 1. This would disrupt the planning for the 1981-82 school year. The planning involves proper staffing and purchasing of equipment and supplies prior to the opening of school.

Beach School Disciplinary Code Adopted

Chelsea's Beach Middle school put into effect a new, updated disciplinary code last week following dissatisfaction and concern expressed by parents, staff and students over the original code for non-school like conduct.

In order to establish a timely disciplinary code, the Beach teaching staff surveyed area schools for information regarding other disciplinary codes. Their findings and suggestions were brought before the student government and parents. Input was received from each concerned group and the final draft received unanimous support from the interested parties.

This code was presented to Superintendent Van Meer and the Board of Education and was approved at their meeting held Monday evening, April 13.

A total of 27 disciplinary violations were outlined with prescribed penalties applicable to each. The first 11 offenses-fighting, inappropriate display of affection, profanity and vulgar language, insubordination, obscenity, possession of lighters, matches etc., defacing property belonging to another or to the school, inappropriate behavior at assemblies, pep rallies or other public assemblies, unauthorized leaving of the building, throwing of objects that are disruptive and potentially dangerous, abuse of hall pass privileges-receive probationary steps to include discussion of the problem with the student, warning and/or probation.

The next 11 actions of nonschool like conduct are deemed more serious and require a more serious penalty. These violations include theft, drugs, alcoholic beverages, etc., extortion, assault, forgery, intimidation, smoking and/or possession of tobacco, truancy, vandalism, causing a false fire alarm, or other criminal acts. Committing any of the above violations would result in a temporary suspension from Beach school for one to five days.

An indefinite suspension from school is likely to result if a student commits any of the following five violations—arson, possession or using weapons or explosives, striking or threatening school personnel, bomb threat, loitering by suspended student. These offenses are seen as most severe and can result in suspension for 6-10 days or possibly, expulsion and pending Board hearing.

According to Beach Middle school principal Al Conklin, this code has put an end to the sketchy disciplinary code employed originally. It specifies violations and provides the student with a clear picture of the consequences should he or she commit any violation.

MICHIGAN MIRROR By Warren M. Hoyt, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Construction Industry To Be Aided By Retirement Funds State Treasurer Loren Monroe

has put forth a plan to use about $80 million in retirement system funds to provide financing for new home construction in Michigan.

Under the proposal, the money is to be funneled through banks and savings and loan associations to purchase blocks of mortgages from home builders.

Monroe said he is embarking on the new plan because high interest rates have stalled new home construction. "Our initiation of this program will provide builders with the necessary financing for new construction. It will provide lenders with money to loan potential home buyers," he said.

He noted homeowners will find it easier to get mortgage money and the state employees retirement system will, meanwhile, get a "handsome" return on an insured certificate.

The retirement system will get a new return of 13.7 percent if the loans are held to the maximum 30-year period.

The lenders (banks and savings and loan associations) will pay the state 12.875 percent interest and the issues will be guaranteed by the Mortgage Guarantee Insurance Corp.

Lenders would, in turn, be allowed to add one fourth of a percentage point as a handling fee when providing the funds for home builders.

The money is to be used to finance single-family, owneroccupied property, with a maximum loan for any one mortgage at $125,000.

Some 75 banks and savings and loans have agreed to handle the mortgages.

Monroe said he expects all $80 million to be committed within a few months. Four separate issues of $20 million each will be

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Zeke Grubb told the fellers at the country store Saturday night that he is giving some thought to coming out of retirement and being a pusher. He said folks in this country are hooked on electricity, and now there's room fer the small operator in this field. Zeke had saw where somepun called the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act has opened generating electricity to everbody that wants to git in it, and he figgers there's some real money to be made if a feller can git hooked up right. Fer instant, Zeke said, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission has promised a market fer all the energy folks want to generate. All you got to do, Zeke declared, is build a few windmills or rig up a generator fired by gas from your milking barn or chicken house, and you got a steady income. The Federal agency says this kind of operation is at least 30 percent more efficient than a big nuclear or coal power plant, so the power company could pay you a good price and still come out ahead. Zeke said the agency figgers having a ready market will encourage enough backyard generators to turn out as much electricity as 12 large power plants by the end of the eighties.

General speaking, Zeke couldn't spark much interest in his cottage industry. Clem Webster, fer one, was of a mind that this kind of deal usual winds up costing more than it pays. Fer instant, he had saw where a $8.5 million battery is being built that would store enough power for 10,000 homes for one night. It's called the world's biggest battery, Clem said, and the idee is to help the power company keep up in peak periods. What it looks like, Clem allowed, is the old trick of making the blanket longer by cutting a strip off one end and sewing it on the other. The U.S. Department of Energy is backing the project, Clem reminded, and this is one of the outfits that ain't got a future in the Reagan Administration. Before Zeke cranks up any generators he'd best find out who'll be around to help him if the power company figgers it can do the job better without him, was

Clem's words. Practical speaking, said Ed Doolittle, the Guvernment's idee of saving usual ain't anybody else's. Fer instant, he recalled the tests has showed that it takes more energy to make alcohol fer fuel than you git from the alcohol. Not long ago, the U.S. Department of Agriculture was bragging about the millions of acres of land that tractors had freed for raising food cause farmers and ranchers didn't have to raise hay fer horses. Now these same experts are saying the most efficient way to get fuel from grain is not to make alcohol fer the tractor, but to feed the grain straight to the horse and let the tractor stay in the shed. Pritty soon, the best advice we can git might be to make alcohol from the grain, feed it straight to the farmer to ease his worry about how to make a living spending $10 more a head to raise hogs than he can sell em

Woman's Club Sees Five Decodes Of Wedding Gowns

The Woman's Club of Chelsea met on Tuesday, April 14 at McKune Memorial Library. The program, "Five Decades of Wedding Gowns," was presented by club member Betty Oesterle.

A lovely hand-made gown dating from the 1890's was on display. It featured hand-made lace and exquisite tailoring. A gown worn in the 1920's was also shown. It was a simple Grecian sleeveless, design, in satin accepted by a full-length net veil trimmed in lace.

Three wedding gowns from the 1940's, 1960's and 1970's were modelled by Jane Kessler and Lynda Ellenwood, daughters of club members J. Vogel and Betty Oesterle. This was a delightful addition to the program; both the models and the spectators enjoyed the show.

A description from an old newspaper clipping of a stylish wedding held in the 1890's was read by Mrs. Oesterle. Of particular interest was the fact that a list of gifts and givers was included in the article.

Following this interesting program, members shared their own wedding pictures with each other. Wedding cake and coffee was served by hostesses for the evening, Mary Turcott, Janice Glazier and Mary Jane Leeman.

Al Machnik Patents Insulated Concrete Basement Wall System

MacWALL ENTREPRENEURS: Art, left and Joe Machnik explain the MacWall system of prefabricated concrete panels to be used in both residential and commerical buildings. The energyefficient system, first conceived five years ago by Al Machnik, is currently being franchised and has been installed in one residential home to date.

Five years ago, Al Machnik, owner of Machnik residential construction on N. Main St. conceived an idea to manufacture insulated concrete precast systems for basement walls, deck construction and external residential walls. It was just an

Today, MacWall offers the public its energy efficient precast insulated panel system. This wall system offers the homeowner all the advantages of poured concrete walls, block systems and all-weather wood foundations and eliminates the disadvantages associated. Franchises have become available and currently, D and J Gravel in Howell sells the MacWall system under the name of Michigan Precast Concrete.

As designer, Machnik, who makes his home in Plymouth, became associated with Darvis and Associates, Ann Arbor, currently the MacWall structural. concrete design engineering firm.

advantages to a polystyrene-insulated masonry wall are varied. The cost is competitive to both block and concrete wall construction and with insulation being of prime concern to the public recently, the precast system offers a resistance value or pass through rating of heat and cold of 23.0 while the average 10 inch solid concrete wall has an R rating of 1.0.

The MacWall system requires 60 percent less concrete than the typical concrete wall and requires no additional insulation. It contains 3" of rigid foam with an R rating of 11.55 and 5" of air space and can be attached to the slab floor. Pre-set firring strips allow for immediate application of drywall, panelling, or other interior finish.

The precast insulated panelling system installs quickly, requiring only two man hours and one hour of crane time to erect a 100-foot wall. This time element is significantly less that the time required for placing two sets of poured wall forms or laying block wall and following the panel plac-ing, the job is done. In addition, it contains its own expansion and contraction joints to eliminate problems with cracking and leakage.

MacWall is a patented code approved wall system which is not limited to residential construction. The product is stronger than block walls and equal in strength to concrete. MacWall, however, is 60 percent lighter that solid walls of equal thickness.

According to Machnik, the MacWall system will evolve into other uses as the system is put into practice. Currently, the system has been installed in one recently built home and it is anticipated that, in the future, the value of any residence or commercial building will increase if this type of energy-saving wall is installed.

Views On Dental Health

By ROBERT A. BURNS, JR., DDS, P.C.

PLAQUE POINTERS

Plaque is probably the biggest cause of tooth decay and eventual loss. What is it-how do we acquire it—and how do we control it?

Plaque is the sticky, practically colorless film that builds continuously on the teeth. The main inhabitants of plaque are bacteria—one milligram of plaque can contain a half-billion bacteria. Bacteria ferment sugars in the mouth (why not to eat sweets), changing them to acids which then eat away at tooth enamel.

As the plaque creeps below the gum line, it mineralizes and becomes razor-sharp deposits of tartar which is the catalyst of periodontal (or gum) disease—by far, the major cause of tooth loss in

Chelsea Girls Relays Slated Friday on Dexter's New Track

Two things will be different for the sixth annual Chelsea Girls Track Relays. The meet has been moved to Friday, April 24, one week later than usual because of the Easter holiday. And, in anticipation of a larger field, the meet is scheduled to be held on the new eight-lane track in Dexter. This move was made so that the number of teams invited could be increased without adding to the length of the meet.

The caliber of competition is again strong this year. Last year. Chelsea won the meet in the final two events; only four points separated the top four teams. This year's meet could prove to be just as close. Milan appears to have a slight edge on over-all balance but Jackson Lumen Christi. Hillsdale and last year's runner-up, Tecumseh, will challenge. Newcomer Holly has entered some good times in the sprint relays and could also be a contender.

The distance relays figure to be especially tough this year. Dexter, with Lisa Goltman and Kelly McKillen, will be as strong as Milan. Hillsdale brings back most of the runners from last year's winning distance and twomile relays. All three teams were among the best in the state in cross country.

Lumen Christi has everyone back from last year's record setting sprint medley but the Titans will be pushed by Holly and Milan who has Tracey Early, one of the top sprinters in the SEC.

Host Chelsea's strength is in the field events. Mary Boylan and Lorrie Vandegrift are defending shot put champs and are leading contenders in the discus. Vandegrift teams with Tracy Bohlender to give the Bulldogs a strong high jump team. If Chelsea is to win, not only will they have to battle the other teams, but also overcome a jinx which has seen none of the previous champs repeat their performance.

The competing teams are Carlton Airport, Cheisea, Dexter, Erie-Mason, Hartland, Hillsdale. Holly, Lumen Christi, New Boston Huron, Novi, Saline, Tecumseh and Milan. The field events begin at 4 p.m. while track events follow at 5 p.m.

RE-ROOFING NOT FOR AMATEURS

For a long time, the slogan of REALTORS has been: "Under all is land." Just as important, is the phrase for home ownership referred to as "Roof over your head." You are more apt to have problems with the latter.

Re-roofing is no job for an amateur. It may look simple to the uninitiated, but reroofing involves judgment that calls for more than lining up shingles and nailing them down. If you're not sure of what you're doing, it can result in wasted materials and effort. A homeowner may discover that an amateur job costs more than a professional one because a bungled job may have ruined the materials and have to be redone by an expert using new materials.

Re-roofing also involves considerationswhether to tear off the old roofing material or apply a new roof over the old one. Also, there is a very important element of safety. For the amateur roofer, no job around the house hurts more than falling off a roof.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here

Chelsea's next meet will be Tuesday, April 21 at Napoleon: the next league meet will be Thursday at Tecumseh.

According to Coach Bill Bainton, "It was a nice win for us, not only because it was our first meet and first league meet of the season but also because it was such a close contest."

Homeowners insurance is homeowners insurance, right?

Wrong. Auto-Owners homeowners insurance is different. Not only in the way we handle claims (Auto-Owners built its reputation on fast, fair claims service). Not only in the personal attention we give (another Auto-Owners trademark). Or in the way we could save you money (our low rates are famous). But, in our whole outlook on homeowners insurance, with innovative, imaginative policies that make sure you get just what you need, for just what you want to pay.

So, if you're thinking didn't call Auto-Owners...

you'd be wrong if you

you're right.
