Sunday Open House Set for High School Building Trades House

Chelsea High School's Building Trades Class has arranged an open house to exhibit their work on the house at 16799 Winters Rd. Sunday, May 17 from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Building Trades instructor Dale Richards supervised construction of the house, which began last September and should be completed by Sunday. Richards has supervised construction of two houses by Chelsea High school students.

"We've built it the way they did 25 years ago, not the way they're slapped together today," Richards said. "We do it right—make it so we don't have to be ashamed of it."

The house is for sale, and Richards estimates it has a market value of $85-$99,000. "It's a terrific deal. A solid, well-built house. There were no corners cut."

The house has 1,450 square feet of living space, three bedrooms, a living room, two full baths and a fireplace. Richards pointed out "a lot of little extras, a 25'x25' garage, a 36'x8' deck, oil heat, and it's well-insulated."

The house was built entirely by 24 students in two different Building Trades classes led by Richards. "By and large the kids have been good classes and they do what they're told. There have been a few mistakes, but nothing major" and the problems were corrected, Richards said.

Richards, a licensed contractor, enjoys showing the students how to construct a high-quality house. "We could build it to meet housing codes, but meeting code is like graduating with a D. We've tried for an A."

"I enjoy working with the kids. It's a lot of fun. A lot of headaches, but a lot of fun," Richards said.

Beach Bands Plan Spring Concert

The bands of Beach Middle and Chelsea High schools will present their annual spring concert Tuesday evening, May 19 in the CHS Auditorium beginning at 7 p.m.

The middle-schoolers will begin the program at 7 p.m. while the CHS bands will follow at 8 p.m.

Featured guest artist at the annual event will be Dr. Max Plank of Chelsea on saxophone. Dr. Plank is a professor of music at Eastern Michigan University where he was appointed instructor of saxophone and assistant conductor of bands at EMU in 1968. That position was held for eight years.

In 1976, Dr. Plank became an assistant to the Department Head at EMU and continued to teach saxophone. In 1979 he was appointed Director of Bands at Eastern.

Dr. Plank has performed with the Eastern Michigan University Symphonic Band on tour and has appeared as a soloist, conductor and adjudicator throughout Michigan. He is also the conductor of the Ann Arbor Civic Band.

Health Education Program Set for Senior Citizens

Chelsea Community Hospital will provide its second health education program for senior citizens next Wednesday, May 13.

Dr. Howard Reznick, a podiatrist at the hospital, will discuss foot care. He will show a film and slide tape presentation to emphasize foot care information most helpful to the elderly. Discussion areas include circula-

Proposal 'A' Discussion Scheduled

North Lake Community Mens Group is having a Proposal "A" information evening on Thursday, May 14.

Speaking for the proposal will be Bob Alexander of Senator Ed Pierce's office. Taking the "con" position is Will Johnson. A third speaker from the County Equalization office will also be present to offer the facts on state equalized value taxation.

All men in the area are welcome next Thursday, at 7:30 p.m. at the North Lake United Methodist church Activities Building on North Territorial Rd.

Firemen Answer 8 Calls for Help

A total of eight calls were reported by the Chelsea Fire Department last week.

On Monday, May 4, a caller from Queen Oaks Dr. reported a stove fire which had gone out when Chelsea firemen arrived at the scene. This call was received at 5:51 p.m.

At 9:34 p.m. Tuesday, May 5, a rescue squad was dispatched to a residence on Joslyn Lake Rd. where they subsequently treated a possible stroke victim. Then, at 10:54 p.m. an additional rescue request was made from a location on Madison St.

Thursday morning, May 7, at 10:27, a driver on eastbound I-94 near Fletcher Rd. had an epileptic seizure and pulled off the freeway to sleep. A Chelsea rescue team was dispatched to the scene.

Thursday evening, a girl riding her bicycle near McKinley St. fell from her bike onto the railroad tracks. At 5:24 p.m., the rescue call was received and Chelsea rescuers were subsequently dispatched. An oncoming train was stopped in order to move the accident victim who was taken to Chelsea Community Hospital where she was treated for bruises and released.

At 4:42 p.m. Friday, May 8, a grass fire was reported on the south side of I-94 east of Fletcher Rd.

Saturday, May 9, a call was received at 2:30 p.m., regarding a cottage fire near Clear Lake and Clear Lake Shores Dr. Finally, on Sunday, a rescue run was made to Camp Waterloo. This call, received at 2:54 p.m., resulted in the treatment of a man with a concussion.

Veterans Groups Plan Poppy Sale

Friday, May 15, the American Legion Auxiliary will offer the red crepe poppy to the public, commemorating the death of countless thousands in four wars. This reminder of their sacrifice is an annual event undertaken by members of Unit 31 of Chelsea.

Volunteers from the Unit will once again take part in this nationwide program in memory of those who gave their lives in the name of freedom.

Funds generated on Poppy Day are used to assist the needy veteran and his family. It is a self-help program; the familiar poppy is handmade, petal by petal, by hospitalized veterans assisted by volunteers. It is part of a physical and psychological therapy program.

Materials for the poppies are furnished by the Auxiliary and the veteran is paid for his work. These are offered to the public, not at a price, but for a contribution helping to say America remembers.

Kusterer's Named Lottery Claim Center for Area

Kusterer's Grocery on Main St. has been designated a Lottery Claims Center for winning ticket holders in the Chelsea area. Previously, lottery winners had to go to claims centers in Ann Arbor or Jackson to collect on the tickets.

The claims center opened on March 31. A winning ticket can be brought in to Kusterer's and a form filled out to be sent to the State Lottery Commission and a check will be mailed to the bearer for the amount won.

Contributions collected on Poppy Day are used by the local unit to aid needy veterans and their families in the community and in hospitals throughout the state. All proceeds are channeled directly into rehabilitation of veterans and child welfare.

Auxiliary members from Unit 31 will ask the public to remember those persons who took an oath to serve their country and died trying to preserve it for today, by pausing briefly to pin on a poppy and wear it with pride.

Nancy Heller Is Finalist In Pageant

The Miss Michigan National Teen-Ager Pageant was held May 1 through May 3 in Plymouth at the Plymouth Hilton Inn.

One of the state finalists was Nancy Heller of Chelsea. From a field of 1,600 applicants, 122 girls were chosen from Michigan as state finalists. After the points from the pageant events were tallied, 22 girls were chosen as pageant finalists. Nancy Heller was selected as a finalist.

The girls had a busy week-end. Friday evening, they were judged on being escorted on stage by their fathers and also on their individual 100-word memorized essays entitled, "What's Right About America."

Saturday was busy too with rehearsals, photographs and for-

Hospital Plans Free Health Fair

Chelsea Community Hospital, together with the University of Michigan Family Practice Center, will sponsor a Health Fair, Saturday and Sunday, May 16 and 17 at Chelsea Community Hospital.

The public is invited to learn more about their health and is invited to have free health and lifestyle screenings. Health professionals will be on hand to talk and answer questions about diet, exercise, hypertension, stress and other areas of interest. Food demonstrations, CPR recruitment, and blood pressure clinics will be included in the available activities.

The Health Fair hours are Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sunday from 12-noon to 4 p.m. Persons planning to attend are asked to use the main entrance of Chelsea Community Hospital. All programs will be free of charge and no pre-registration is necessary.

Further information may be obtained by calling Patricia Kubany at 475-1311, extension 477.

Bike Workshop Offered Saturday By Rec. Council

On Saturday, May 16, Chelsea Recreation Council will present a bicycle workshop. At a cost of $6 per participant, the workshop will be held in the audio visual room at Chelsea High school.

The course, concentrating on all areas of bike maintenance, including tire patching, will be held for persons between the ages of 6 through adult from the hours of 8

268 Runners Participate in 2nd Chelsea Challenge Run

Chelsea's Challenge, the second annual race sponsored by the Modern Mothers Child Study Club was held Saturday, May 9. Proceeds generated from the two distance races and the fun run will be donated to the Waterloo Natural History Association.

Though the official count has not yet been released, it was reported that 211 participants had signed up for the 3.1 mile (5 K) and 6.2 mile (10 K) distance events and 57 persons entered the one-mile fun run.

Winners for the men's and women's over-all categories were Jim Wood and Shelly Warren. Warren ran the 10 K course in 45:52 and Wood in 35:58. Curiously, Wood, who had registered for the 5 K race missed a turn and continued along the 10 K course. In winning the race, Wood had actually completed 1/4-mile more than the other 10 K participants.

For his successful efforts, Wood was awarded a quilt donated by the Modern Mothers while his female counterpart, Warren, received a $35 check.

Six different age groups, competing in the three races, produced the following results. Male winners in the 6.2-mile event included Craig MacIag, 0-13 age group; Jim Wood, 14-20; Robert Nelson, 21-29; Robert Rohrkemper, 30-39; David Pryor, 40-49; and Richard McNichol, 50-over. Female winners were Shelly Warren, 14-20 age group; Susan George, 21-29; Carol Santoro, 30-39; and Carolyn Pryor, 40-49.

In the 3.1-mile race, male winners were John Cattell, 0-13 age group; Carl Pate, 14-20; Mike

Some 153 members of UAW local 437 returned to work Monday to end a two-week strike at Chelsea's Federal Screw Works after members voted 88-43, to accept the modified terms of a new three-year contract Thursday morning, May 12. The strike began May 3 when the workers walked off their jobs in a dispute over economic issues.

Gary Albrecht of 13589 Waterloo Rd., was just two floors and 10 minutes short of joining three other passengers who were slashed to pieces by the whirling blades of an idling helicopter which flipped over on the rooftop heliport of the 59-story Pan American building in New York Monday.

Braving the searing sun and near 80-degree temperatures, 105 riders pedaled their way up and down the hills of a 25-mile course at Chelsea's Chrysler Proving Grounds Sunday in the second annual Cancer Bike-A-Thon, sponsored by the American Cancer Society. A total of $4,000 was raised to help in cancer research.

VFW officers installed for the 1977-78 year were commander Kermit Sharp; senior vice-commander Richard A. Clark; junior vice-commander Ronald Moore; quartermaster, Laurence Boyer; chaplain Bill Pierce; advocate Mac Packard; surgeon Tom Collinsworth; and; Frank White, three-year trustee.

Business Climate To Be Top Legislative Priority

Legislative leaders and the executive office are preparing for possible summer-long meetings that could result in a series of recommendations for legislative action in the fall to help improve Michigan's business climate and increase jobs in the state.

The proposed discussion could incorporate work already being done by such groups as the governor's high-technology committee and small business conference, along with legislative study committees.

The discussions will also examine ideas from other business, labor and academic officials in an effort to develop practical, potentially successful ideas.

Job development was a high priority for all four legislative leaders, House Minority Leader

William Bryant (R-Grosse Pointe Farms) said, and there are high hopes that the Legislature's fall session could result in positive laws for business and jobs.

But there should be discussion to "winnow out impractical ideas, things that haven't worked in other places" before the legislature returns for the fall session.

Senator Robert VanderLaan (R-Kentwood), the Senate minority leader said these discussions could "roll together all the ideas of the high-tech committee, the small business conference, the full employment plan and come up with some definite ideas for the Legislature."

However, to date, very few concrete ideas on how a summer conference, other than the leadership's commitment to meet, have been made.

The meetings are not expected to be the quadrant approach consisting of legislative leaders and the governor hammering out differences and then making a proposal to members of the Legislature to concurrence.

Neither would it necessarily be an economic summit among government, business and labor.

Other officials from different areas, including universities, would be a part of the process and Bryant said the legislative staff could study the different ideas proposed from their cost and practicability.

"We've got to have one thing going on instead of the governor doing his things and Republicans doing theirs and Democrats doing theirs," Bryant said.

Sex Education Not Part Of Required Courses

School sex education courses, made optional by a 1976 state law, cannot be taught in required classes, Attorney General Frank J. Kelley has ruled.

He said the law specifically prohibits sex education from being a school requirement and added that the legislature used the words class and course interchangeably.

He issued the ruling in response to a school district's inclusion in an 8th grade home economics class a unit of sex education. Students were excused from the sex education unit at the request of the parent or guardian.

"The legislature has expressly provided that parents have a right to review the contents of any course in which family planning or reproduction health are discussed before they exercise their child excused from the class. School authorities may not avoid the effect of (the law) by including any sex education instruction in a required class," Kelley said.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Clem Webster was giving Ed Doolittle a living fit at the country store Saturday night. Republican Ed had cranked up one of his sermons on how this country final was gitting turned around now that we got folks in Washington that know what's wrong and how to fix it. But Ed made the mistake of slowing up to get his breath, and Democrat Clem jumped in with his mouth wide open.

First off, declared Clem, you got to worry about a Administration that sends the vice president in the hinterland to drum up support for programs in Congress. It's one thing that the vice president ain't got a blessed thing to do in Washington, Clem said, but it's another that President Reagan has the idea that every Republican presink chairman in the United States can't be wrong. When they tell Mr. Bush they're foursquare with the Reagan plan of salvation it just means they've got out-of-work kin they'd like to see named to some soft, good paying job, Clem allowed.

Actual, went on Clem, Ed ought to know better than to take all the noise out of Washington serious. It was Ed's hero, Abe Lincoln, that said they named it right when they called it spoils of victory. Abe onct remarked that "it's not the rebellion that's killing me, it's the Pepperton post office." This "newest batch" of Republicans "is having" their patronage problems compounded by claims of bare-bone cutbacks while they're passing out the goodies. What you got to keep in mind, Clem told Ed, is that the same Republican Senate that raised the debt limit and recent set higher income levels so more folks can be classed as poor and git Government help is the same one crying about how the only way we can survive is to balance the budget and cut out all spending but defense.

Probable, Mister Editor, Ed was full prepared to hold up his end, judging from the fistful of clippings he was waving when Clem had the floor, but Bug Hookum butted in first to declare that Governments is just like power companies and hospitals. It don't matter if they do more or less, it allus costs more to do, was Bug's words. The power company has to raise rates to build more plants when demand is up, then it's got to raise rate when demand is down because it cost as much to generate less as it would all their plants can turn out. Big hospitals charge more cause they got more staff and more equipment. Little hospitals spend more per patient than big hospitals, so they got to dig deeper in the patients they got.

However you slice it, Zeke Grubb agreed, the taxpayer gits it in the end. Zeke had saw where Federal workers in New York City had run up a $3,000 monthly bill dialing Dial-a-Joke. It turned out they was spending their day on the phone gitting such as the time and horse race results. Now their bosses want to spend a few million to fix phones so they can't call recordings, and there's been no word if it has occurred to anybody that maybe these folks just ain't got enough work to keep em busy.

What this country needs, declared Zeke, is Federal aid Dial-a-Prayer.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the annual sale of poppies by the American Legion Auxiliary and by the Veterans of Foreign Wars has been officially recognized and endorsed by governmental leaders since 1922, and;

WHEREAS, memorial poppies are assembled by disabled veterans, and the proceeds of this worthy fund-raising campaign are used exclusively for the benefit of disabled and needy veterans; and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans, and;

WHEREAS, the basic purpose of the annual sale of memorial poppies by American Legion Auxiliary and the VFW is eloquently reflected in the desire to "honor the dead by helping the living";

THEREFORE, I, Charles Ritter, president of the Village of Chelsea, do hereby urge the citizens of this community to recognize the merits of this cause by contributing generously to its support through the purchase of memorial poppies on May 15, 1981, the day set aside for the distribution of these symbols of appreciation for the sacrifices of our honored dead, I urge all patriotic citizens to wear a poppy as mute evidence of our gratitude to the men of this country who have risked their lives in defense of the freedoms which we continue to enjoy as American citizens.

Inverness Ladies Golf Club Elects Officers for Season

Inverness Golf Course's Ladies Day Club met for the first time this season on May 7 to select officers and organize a silent auction for June 18.

The meeting was held at the Inverness Clubhouse and a round of golf was played afterwards. Hostesses for the meeting were Ellie Reynolds and Polly Goins.

This year's officers are Polly Goins, chairwoman; Betty Korzilius, vice-chairwoman; Nancy Black, secretary; Anna Shirilla, treasurer; Yolaine Carignan, golf chairwoman; Jean Lewis, golf assistant and publicity; Ruby Strieter in charge of gifts, and Helen Wilson in charge of ringers.

Roberta Barstow, Lorna Eberts and Ellie Reynolds presented job descriptions for each office.

Lyndon Farm Bureau Discusses Tax Proposals

Lyndon Farm Bureau met Friday, May 9 at Lyndon Town Hall with 12 members present for a pot-luck supper at 7 p.m.

A business meeting followed with William Hogan, chairman, opening the discussion with the Farm Bureau creed. The secretary's report was read and accepted. A report was given by various officers. Perry Schonover gave a package report, Floyd Balmer gave the Minutes report.

The evening discussion was centered on taxes. Discussion leader Carl Schonover had given much study to farm land agreement which was of much interest to the group. The May 19 tax issue was fully discussed.

The next regular meeting of the Lyndon Farm Bureau will be held the second Saturday of the month, June 13 at 7 p.m.

Chelsea Child Study Club Hears Recital By Piano Students

The April 28th meeting of the Chelsea Child Study Club was held at the home of Nancy Grau with a total of 18 members and four guests present.

Prior to the meeting, Pat Stirling's students presented the program, demonstrating their musical abilities learned through the Suzuki method. Performers ranged in age from 4 through 12 and played violins, cellos and piano. These students learned to play by listening repeatedly to recorded pieces of music. The mothers took lessons with the students, playing the same small instrument as the student.

During the business meeting, president Betty Cox welcomed Kathy Frisinger into the Chelsea Child Study Club as an active member. Members were reminded of the Annual Spring Dinner and the installation of officers to be held at Chelsea Community Hospital Tuesday evening, May 26.

The May 12 meeting, the annual meeting and fun night, will be held at the home of Gari Feldman. Each member is asked to bring two $2 gift wrapped items for prizes. Guests are welcome.

KIMBERLY SUSAN TAPPING graduated from the University of Michigan Dental school in the Dental Hygiene Program Sunday, May 3. She held the office of secretary of the Honor Council for two years. She graduated from Chelsea High school in 1978 and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dunn of 555 Washington St. She now resides at 635 Hidden Valley, Ann Arbor with her husband, Donald M. Tapping.

Erskine-Wahl Vows Exchanged in Garden Ceremony

Judith Allayne Erskine and Lyle Rudolph Wahl were married in a garden ceremony at their home on Saturday, May 2. Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Tim (Pat) Whitesall while Ronnie Wahl was his brother's best man. A family dinner was held after the wedding.

The new Mrs. Wahl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Blaess of Chelsea. Mr. Wahl is the son of Mrs. Wilma Wahl and the late R. G. Wahl of Saline.

After a wedding trip to the southern states they will be residing on South Fletcher Rd., Manchester.

Congratulations Girl Graduates. We have a free gift for the senior girls of CHELSEA HIGH SCHOOL

It's a lovely Lane Keepsake Chest. Perfect for bangles and beads, loveletters, little treasures of all kinds. And it's absolutely free. No strings. Just our way of saying that we're proud of you. Please bring your senior class identification or the coupon you may have received by mail or from your class secretary. We'll look forward to seeing you.

Spring Fashion Tea Held at Sharon Mills

A Spring Fashion Tea at Sharon Mills Antiques near Manchester May 4 featured seven local models in the fund-raiser to benefit Spaulding for Children.

The tea was presented by Caren's Apparel, Inc., of 118 S. Main in Chelsea. Former-Governor John Swainson gave a short talk on the history of Sharon Mills to the crowd of 52 guests.

Mrs. Georgia Kelly helped with the tickets while Mrs. Lillian Martin served as hostess.

Plans are being made to have the tea become an annual affair.

Mother-Daughter Supper Attended By 200 at St. Mary's

St. Mary's Altar Society's annual Mother-Daughter Supper was Monday, May 4 in the school gymnasium. 200 mothers and daughters attended.

Entertainment was provided by a local high school group, the "Contemporaries," who performed music and readings. The Rev. Fr. Dupuis also gave a short talk on the role of Mary as the Mother of Jesus.

Plants were awarded to Denise Hafner from Mt. Clemens and Mrs. Shriner from Ohio for traveling farthest to attend the supper.

According to Altar Society secretary Therese Doll, records indicate that the banquet has been an annual event since 1959, but, "I think it's been going on for a long time before that. Before 1970 it was a breakfast," she said.

At the June 1 meeting of the Altar Society, a nominating committee will be formed to set up a slate of officers for the September vote. The meeting starts at 7:30 in the rectory basement and will be the last until September.

Hospital Auxiliary Tours Substance Abuse Facility

On April 20 Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary held their monthly meeting and members were given a tour of the new Substance Abuse Residential Treatment Facility by Doug Dault, a substance abuse therapist.

The new Substance Abuse Facility is scheduled to open May 18.

After the tour, a business meeting was held in the Conference room at the hospital.

The Auxiliary will meet May 18 for their last meeting before summer vacation, director of volunteer services Jan Tupper said. A demonstration of silk flower arrangement will be given to volunteers, so that they may make silk flower arrangements to be sold in the Volunteer Hospital Gift Shop.

Birthdays Observed

William Bahnmler, who celebrated his 70th birthday on April 30, did so by accompanying his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wahl to Frankenmuth for their annual birthday dinner on May 1.

A VERY LEGAL EVENT: With her marriage to John Phillips, Pittsfield township police officer, the former Annette Zsenyuk almost certainly qualifies as Washtenaw County's "Law Enforcement Bride of the Year." She is secretary to Judge

Kenneth Bronson of the 14th district court and the daughter of William Zsenyuk, Manchester chief of police. Left to right are Judge Bronson, the bride couple, and Chief Zsenyuk. The ceremony took place in St. Mary's church, Manchester.

FIRST-PLACE WINNERS in all six age divisions during Saturday's second annual Chelsea's Challenge included the following runners. In the 6.2 mile event, winners were Craig MacIag, Jim Wood, Robert Nelson, Robert Rohrkemper, David Pryor, Richard McNichol, Shelly Warren, Susan George, Carol Santoro and Carolyn Pryor. The

Miss Teen-Age Pageant

(Continued from page one) mal interviews with all of the judges. Approximately 1,500 people attended the pageant held in the ballroom Saturday evening. The pageant closed Sunday morning with an awards breakfast where Nancy Heller also received a trophy for "outstanding program participation."

The crowned Miss Michigan is Becci Minges of New Boston.

School Board Briefs

At a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, May 4, present were: Stirling, Feeney, Schumann, Dils, Grau, Superintendent Van Meer, Assistant Superintendent Mills, Principals Williams, Conklin, Community Education Director Rogers, Athletic Director Nemeth, guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by President James W. Stirling.

Board approved the minutes of the April 27, 1981 meeting.

Superintendent Van Meer presented a letter from Governor Milliken and State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Phillip Runkel, extending congratulations to the students, principals and teaching staff of North school, South school, and Dwight E. Beach Middle school, for the scores attained by students on the recent Michigan Assessment Tests.

The Board was apprised of some violations which were noted during a recent fire drill. These will be checked for remedial action.

Assistant Superintendent Mills indicated that the district will not hire an architect to review the heating controls; an engineer from Johnson Controls will assess the needs and make recommendations.

Principal John Williams reported that the agriculture program for 1981-82 will be consolidated to a central site for 11th and 12 graders, and that agriculture programs for 9th and 10th graders will be held at each local school. This is a concept that has been supported by principals and superintendents because of declining enrollment of students in agriculture programs.

The Board was apprised of a May 6 millage meeting. At that time, individuals working on behalf of the district will be briefed on the needs of the district. These needs are somewhat uncertain until the outcome of Proposal "A" on May 19 is determined.

The Board approved Board policies pertaining to smoking, alcohol, drug use; dress code; suspension and expulsion; discipline of pupils for non-school conduct.

Board approved a one-year leave of absence, without pay, for JoAnn Williams, North School teacher.

Board approved the Athletic Coaches' Handbook and the Code of Conduct for Chelsea athletes, as presented by Athletic Director Nemeth.

Meeting adjourned at 9:07 p.m.

Plastics Course Offered By WCC Beginning May 13

Those who wish to enter the plastics industry and those in technically oriented positions who want to update their knowledge are invited to enroll in Plastic Materials, a 10-week course beginning Wednesday, May 13 at Washtenaw Community College. Classes meet from 7 to 9:30 p.m. in 208 Student Center Building on WCC's main campus, 4800 E. Huron River Dr., Ann Arbor.

Plastic Materials covers where various types of plastic are used and why. The course features a practical approach to plastic materials geared to the needs of those who enroll. Emphasis is on applications and the effects of material characteristics, such as properties, processing, and cost factors, on selection.

The $70 fee for this course covers all materials except textbooks. Texts are available at Ulrich's WCC Bookstore. Students are asked to pre-register by calling (313) 482-2230.

Views On Dental Health

By ROBERT A. BURNS, JR., DDS, P.C.

WHAT IS ROOT CANAL?

Years ago, a badly infected tooth was doomed to be pulled. Today, that's a last resort. Root canal treatment consists of: 1) the removal of the infected pulp that lies within the root canals of the tooth, and 2) the sealing of the root ends to prohibit any further infection.

The pulp is the tooth's center soft tissue (nerves, blood vessels and fibers). When the dentist removes a "nerve" from a tooth, he really removes pulpal tissue that contains the nerve.

Removing the pulp from the tooth does not produce a "dead" tooth. It will be very much alive and functioning because it has a source of blood and nerve supply from the surrounding tissues that hold it in place. The tooth will have no sense of feeling because the nerve has been removed, but the tooth itself will be fine; it should last as long as your other teeth and could even be eventually used as an anchor tooth for a bridge.

If you have dental health questions you would like to see answered, please mail them to the address below.

A public service with the aim of promoting a better dental health environment. From the office of: ROBERT A. BURNS, JR., D.D.S., P.C., Chelsea Professional Building, 1200 S. Main St., Chelsea, Phone: 475-9124.

'Walk America' Raises $14,000 for March of Dimes

During the week-end of April 25-26, for the first time ever, people all over the country joined in the fight against birth defects by walking in a local "Walk America." The Washtenaw-Livingston Chapter March of Dimes held their walk on April 25 at the Farm Council Grounds on Saline-Arbor Rd. 356 walkers from Ann Arbor, Dexter, Manchester, Milan, Saline, Whitmore Lake, Livonia, Chelsea, Plymouth, Westland, Belleville, Dearborn, Dundee, Northville, Wyandotte, Detroit, Britton, Clinton, Grass Lake, Tecumseh, Toledo, Novi and Ypsilanti turned out for the event and walked for $14,000 in sponsor pledges.

The local chapter expressed appreciation to all the workers and donors who contributed to the success of the walk and to the comfort of the participants. "Without this show of concern and enthusiasm from area businesses and residence the walk would not be the fun event in it," says chapter co-ordinators.

On May 16 there will be a free movie special showing for all walkers turning in their sponsor pledges on or before that date. The showing will be at the Michigan Theatre beginning at 9 a.m. All walkers paid by day will also be eligible for the prize drawing made possible by area merchants.

National Soil Stewardship Week Scheduled in May

Soil Stewardship Week will be held nation-wide this year May 24-31, according to William Fishbeck, chairman of the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District.

Since 1955, Soil Stewardship Week has been recognized in millions of churches and schools across the nation. It is designed to focus on the nation's natural resource problems and to consider ways to solve them.

"This country must, at whatever cost, maintain the capacity of the land to produce food and fiber," cites the National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD) in its booklet for the 1981 observance. NACD sponsors Soil Stewardship Week in co-operation with the nation's 3,000 soil and water conservation districts.

"With our own population at 220 million and growing and with many regions of the world depending on the United States to supplement their food supply, the need to maintain our productive capacity becomes increasingly apparent," according to NACD.

This year's event focuses on "Society's Pressure Points" as its theme and covers such topics as soil and water conservation, urbanization, and loss of prime farmland.

Information and materials for the 1981 observance of Soil Stewardship Week are available from the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District, 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor 48103, Phone, 761-6721.

From A Newcomer To People of Chelsea

To the girls in the Post Office
And the Grove Five and Ten—
Just once you could smile,
'Tis not really a sin!

To all those who jaywalk
And walk the light red—
I'd really feel dreadful
If I made you dead!

And to all you 'anti-socials'
from whom we've had no 'invites,'
We'd love to be included
To share your joys and delights.

So come on all you people of this quaint, lovely town—
Open up to your newcomers,
Stop letting them down.
—A Newcomer.

Real Estate
By PAUL FRISINGER
REALTOR

FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE

A government study uncovered the fact that of all people over the age of 65, only 6% are financially independent. All of the lucky 6% became so because of prior investment in real estate.

A good start on the road to your own financial independence is through ownership of a home. It's the soundest long-term investment you can make. Today, real estate is one of the only investments for which the average buyer can receive a long term loan of 20 to 30 years because the lenders know that the security for the loan is a good one. The homeowner pays something into this loan every month which gives him more and more dollar ownership each year. The portion of the monthly payment which goes for taxes and interest is deducted from his taxable income.

Best of all, the value of your home normally more than keeps pace with the cost of living. This could mean that once your loan is paid off, the selling price of your home is double or triple what it was when you bought it.

CHS Students Granted Full YFU Scholarships

Cynthia Thornton and Patrick Killelea of Chelsea have been named as recipients of full scholarships that will send them to Denmark and Germany, respectively this summer for two months. Thornton and Killelea were selected from applicants throughout Chelsea for a special program sponsored by the Chelsea Medical Center and Youth for Understanding, one of the largest international student exchange programs in the world. Thornton, a junior and Killelea a sophomore at Chelsea High school, were awarded the scholarship based on YFU's traditional selection criteria of academic achievement, personal references, involvement in extracurricular, volunteer and/or employment activities, quality of essay question answers, personal interviews and a general suitability for the international exchange experience as evidenced by their written application as reviewed by YFU's independent Admissions Committee. Cindy is a piano accompanist for her church's children's choir and enjoys hiking and cross-country skiing. Pat participates in the marching band, the debate team and school plays. He also enjoys playing the piano and writing music.

Thornton will join some 82 American students who will leave for Denmark in June while Killelea will team up with approximately 264 students planning to spend the summer in Germany. Both Cindy and Pat will live with volunteer host families and take part in family and community activities.

Youth for Understanding stresses family living as the heart of the student exchange experience. Its purpose is to encourage a deeper appreciation and comprehension of world cultures through firsthand experience. The non-profit education organization was founded nearly 30 years ago in Ann Arbor and moved its international headquarters three years ago to Washington, D.C.

Some 8,000 U.S. and international students are exchanged each year to host families in 23 countries in Europe, Asia, Latin America and Australia. The Chelsea Medical Center designed a program to send three Chelsea High school students overseas for summer 1981. The scholarship winners were selected from children of the Chelsea Medical Center employees.

Cindy Thornton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thornton while Pat Killelea is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Killelea.

April Police Activity Down From March

Police activity during the month of April as compared to the preceding month was down, at least according to the Chelsea Police Department's monthly report of patrol and complaint activity.

A total of 10 arrests were made in April as compared to 22 in March. The April arrests were made up of four felonies including two abductions and one forgery; one misdemeanor for trespassing; two warrant and three juvenile arrests.

Police radio runs totaled 239 in April, up by seven runs during March. Included among these calls was the investigation of 74 suspicious vehicles and 33 suspicious persons, 11 property damage accidents, one harassing telephone call, two assault and battery situations and one embezzlement.

Forty-four case reports were written in April. Among them was an abduction which had occurred in Detroit, a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, and seven incidents of malicious destruction of property. A total of 55 case reports had been written in March.

Property checks again showed a sharp decline with only 424 made in April which was preceded by 621 in March.

Four county runs were handled by the Chelsea Police Department, which resulted in a total of one hour and 20 minutes of Chelsea time. The county runs included two personal injury accidents, one recovery of a stolen car and one assistance on an arrest of a person possessing narcotics.

A total of 4,373 miles were driven on car number one as opposed to 2,501 in March while car number two had a total of 1,663 miles driven, compared to 2,825 during the preceding month.

The Chelsea Police Department's Auxiliary officers worked a total of 57 hours

Youth Art Works on Display

Artists from schools in Dexter and Chelsea are exhibiting some of their works in the third annual Youth Art Exhibition, "Through a Child's Eyes," presented by the Manchester Art Guild.

The display is going on now through Thursday, May 21 at the Manchester Art Gallery, adjacent to the lobby of the Black Sheep Repertory Theatre, upstairs at 138 E. Main St., Manchester.

Art forms on display include batik, chalk, pewter, fiber, plaster, acrylics, and watercolors.

Six districts participating in this year's exhibition are Chelsea, Clinton, Columbia, Dexter, Manchester, and Tecumseh. More than 100 projects are on display.

Hours for the show are: Thursday and Friday, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., Saturday 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and Sunday, 3:30 to 5:15 p.m.

"Through a Child's Eyes," has drawn entries from throughout the area. More than 100 works of art will be on display through Thursday, May 21. Not present for the photo were Tom Lytle, Holly McCutcheon and Lori Kornexl.

RANDALL S. HARRIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Harris of 175 Park St., and a 1978 graduate of Chelsea High School, is stationed at the U. S. Air Force Base in Insurlik, Turkey. Harris took his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex., and was given a Special Achievement Award for outstanding performance as a bugler in the Drum and Bugle Corps, Flight B590. His address is Harris, Randall S. 385-66-1853, PSC Box 271, APO New York, N.Y. 09289.

In 1836, Richard Mentor Johnson became the only U.S. vice-president ever elected by the Senate. He failed to get enough electoral votes to take office. He served with Martin Van Buren.

Ducks Unlimited Chapter Formed for Local Area

Ducks Unlimited, an organization of conservationists and duck hunters preserving wetlands for waterfowl has founded a new local chapter.

The Western Washtenaw Chapter of Ducks Unlimited is a non-profit organization led by two Dexter men, co-chairmen Bill Pierce and Harry Wilsner, with Fred Schmidt as treasurer.

Declining duck and goose populations led to the formation in 1937 of Ducks Unlimited, which buys land to be preserved as breeding-grounds and living space for waterfowl in North America, including acreage in Canada and Mexico. Funds for purchase of land are raised by local chapters.

Western Washtenaw Chapter is meeting every Tuesday at 8 p.m. Meetings alternate between the Loft Gallery in Chelsea and the Wildlife Art Gallery in Dexter. The Washtenaw Western Chapter welcomes new members.

A banquet will be held by the Western Washtenaw Chapter on June 11. Tickets are available at many local businesses in Dexter and Chelsea for $25 and give the buyer a prime rib dinner, door prizes, a tax deductible membership in the chapter, and if tickets are purchased before May 26, a chance in a drawing for a new Marlin 12 gauge shotgun.

Holy Week Celebrated at Cassidy Lake

The Good News came to be reality with the men who shared in Holy week celebrations at Cassidy Lake Chapel.

Wednesday, we shared in the reenactment of the Last Supper. We lived Christ's Mass, as He instituted the Sacrament of the Eucharist, and Priesthood. Good Friday we lived Christ's Passion. The men were given permission to make three large wooden crosses from old picnic table wood. The Passion began with Christ's washing of the feet of his Apostles. Then His Discourse was read. Followed by His trial, His carrying His Cross, the tree Crosses were placed at the Altar, and rocks were used to sound the nailing of Christ's hands and feet. Christ hung on his Cross with two thieves on His sides. There was the adoration of the Cross, followed by the Lord's Prayer, and act of (spiritual) communion.

The parts were all played by the inmates of Cassidy Lake prison, with all present taking active parts as well. The men involved enjoyed doing this so much, they wish to perfect their efforts and present it to the whole Lake population then to the surrounding Community of Chelsea.

Easter Sunday brought to Cassidy Lake, Fr. Joseph Renaldi, the director of St. Louis school, and Fr. Fortunato, who co-celebrated the Holy Mass. An Easter candle, provided by Fr. Dupuis, Pastor at St. Mary's, symbolized the Risen Christ, the Light of the World. At one point in the Mass from the Easter Light, candles were held by each man present, as they renewed the baptismal vows. The readings were done by Brother Dean, of St. Louis school, and one of the inmates. Music from two guitars, blended with the beautiful voices of Roberta Guinan, and her friend, Debbie, filled the chapel. Bob Guinan, and Mary, along with Bob Warner, as well as, Brother Frank, from Philadelphia, who came with Fr. Fortunato, added their voices. The chapel held the largest group of Cassidy Lake residents then ever before in all of the Catholic church activities there, since 1978. Easter Joy is for everyone, ALLELUIA!

Millie Warner,
Acting Catholic Chaplain.

Psychology Award

This week's Psychology Award winner is Dan Kleis. The winner of this award is chosen by the Psychology class.

Parameters for choosing Dan include, as one student states, he gives an "informative addition to class discussion." He also shows conviction in this addition. Dan's knowledge and application of knowledge are reflected in his good grades. Finally he shows great interest in class.

Although Dan has been chosen by his class, they are not the only ones observing his achievements. In summary, as his teacher states, "Dan is an inquisitive, achieving, interested student who maintains a good academic average."

CHELSEA COMMUNITY HOSPITAL WANTS YOU TO KNOW ABOUT...

Your Leisure Time, How Best To Use It

By Alice Tite
Director, Recreational Therapy

How do you spend your leisure? Are you in a rut? Do you spend most of your time watching TV, eating, listening to music or the radio or reading? Do you have time on your hands? Do you wish you had more time? Do you wish you could have more fun? If your answer is YES to any of these questions, you would benefit from Leisure Education.

Leisure Education is the process of learning to use free time to improve one's quality of life and promote wellness. Anyone can learn to use leisure more effectively. Start by analyzing an average day. Examine the time spent in work, food preparation, personal hygiene, eating, sleeping and transportation. What you have left is your free time. If you have a lot, you may want to explore some resources to structure your day; that is, plan some activity you enjoy doing each day to help give your life some direction. If you have little or no free time, you may wish to think about ways to eliminate or prioritize your activities to gain even a half hour to use for your leisure.

Next you need to identify the needs you meet through your leisure choices. How you spend your leisure depends upon your needs.

About 20 years ago, Max Kaplan first identified six basic needs which he called "constructs." These constructs are described below with some modification. They are: roots, mobility, sociability, altruism, self-fulfillment, creativity, and structure.

If you like to stay around the home, like to garden or be with your family, you may have a strong need for roots. If you like to travel, get out for a drive, or do activities which let you move, like swimming or jogging, you have a need for mobility. People who like to be with others have a sociability need.

Other needs are altruism—the need to help others, expressed in volunteering or cutting the neighbor's lawn; self-fulfillment—taking continuing education classes; doing something your own pleasure.

You may need creativity, expressed through any aspects of the arts or any activity which involves all your attention, such as repairing an engine in a car.

If you love competition and games with rules or are a person who celebrates holidays, remembers birthdays, belongs to organizations which have rules and limits, you probably have a need for structure.

Each individual has some or all of these needs at sometime in some degree.

It is important to identify your needs and choose activities which will satisfy them. Through identification of your leisure needs, you may be able to find some new alternatives to satisfy your needs in a better way. For example: faced with the increased cost of operating a car, you might not be able to take a drive as often as you would like. But by understanding the underlying need for mobility, you may be able to select another leisure pursuit which will be just as satisfying but will not cost so much. Jogging, swimming, roller-skating, biking all meet this need for mobility. Economic changes in your work, changes in physical capacity, and change in the amount of time available may affect your need for leisure as well as the value you place upon leisure.

Another goal of Leisure Education is to help you clarify your values. Your choice of what you do in your free time reflects not only your needs but your values. If you value work above everything else, you may always find yourself in a "work activity" regardless what needs you have identified for your free time. One of the goals of Leisure Education is to help you choose activities that are consistent with your leisure values and your needs.

Health professionals advocate a balance between work and leisure. Leisure Education can help you to learn to use leisure activities to achieve that balance. It is now common knowledge that many illnesses are stress related—arthritis, cardiovascular illnesses, ulcers, headaches and cancer to name a few. While it is not possible to remove stress from our lives, it is possible to reduce the negative effects of stress through using leisure effectively.

Through Leisure Education, one can learn the steps involved in coping with stress. First you must accept that stress exists, then, become aware of your feelings and allow those feelings to surface. Third, you must recognize the need to deal with the feelings and the situation. Fourth, you must take some kind of action. Leisure Education may use such tools as a Stress-rating Scale to determine your stress load, as well as a Stress-management Inventory to help you to determine how well you handle your stress.

There are also some proven ways of coping through leisure. Some examples are: relaxation, meditation and prayer, hobbies, ventilating one's feelings, running, hiking, swimming—in short, any exercise; talking to a friend, participating in the arts at any level, listening to music, taking vacations, and taking a short break when you are tense. By using these coping techniques,

Motorboat Safety Check Offered Free

Having your boat examined free by the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary could save your life. Having the necessary equipment to save your life aboard your boat in the time of need improves you and your passengers' chances of survival, like one PFD (life jacket) per person, plus one throwable device.

These volunteers—the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary—have been taught to examine your craft for safety, to see if your boat meets Federal and State laws plus added safety equipment recommended by the Auxiliary to help save your life.

When you receive this free courtesy motorboat examination and you pass, the Coast Guard Auxiliary "Seal of Safety" decal is applied to your boat. It lets law enforcement officers know that your boat meets their standards. If your craft fails the examination, no citation is given; however, you are given a check-sheet for your next examination so you can receive the "Seal of Safety" decal.

If you wish to have your boat examined, contact Louise C. Walker, vice-commander of Ann Arbor's Flotilla 17-03 of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at 662-5176.

The half hour or so it takes to inspect your boat and equipment will do much to assure you of a safe and pleasant boating season in 1981.

maintaining a nutritious diet and getting a medical check-up when you have a lot of stress in your life, you may prevent a possible stress-related illness.

If you have further questions about any of the aspects of Leisure Education covered in this article, please send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Alice R. Tite, MTRS, Recreational Therapy Dept., Chelsea Community Hospital, 775 S. Main St., Chelsea 48118, or call Ms. Tite at Chelsea Hospital, 313-475-1311, ext. 349.

New Books at McKune Library

McKune Memorial Library has recently acquired an assortment of new reading material. A total of 13 new books have been added to the Chelsea library's stacks. Below, the title, author and synopsis of each book is given.

Ashworth and Palmer by Thomas Hauser is the story of a young man and woman caught up in the pressured world of Wall Street's most prestigious and powerful law firm. It is here that Tom Henderson is on his way to the top until he meets Beth Anders, a secretary at Ashworth and Palmer.

The Delta Decision by Wilbur Smith is a worthy successor to his best seller Hungry as the Sea. The novel develops a runaway momentum of suspense as Stride pursues his nemesis across four continents to a climatic meeting in which only one can survive.

Earthly Powers by Anthony Burgess, author of A Clockwork Orange, is a novel that centers around two men who represent different kinds of earthly power—Kenneth Marchal Toomey, eminent novelist, a man who has outlived his contemporaries to survive into honors, bitter, luxurious old age as a celebrity of dubious notoriety; and Don Carlo Campanati, man of God, eventually beloved Pope, who rises through the Vatican as a subtle negotiator and shrewd manipulator to become the controversial architect of church revolution and a candidate for sainthood.

Sheila Schwartz's The Solid Gold Circle is an uncanny and frank description of the desperate world of social climbers and nouveau riche, where ambitious gives way to outrageous behavior. Schwartz presents a compelling novel where one woman manages to use the experience she has gained to create her own new world.

Washtenaw County Wool Program Tops in State

Washtenaw county sheep producers have received about $50,000 in federal incentive payments on the wool they sold in 1980. Washtenaw County ASCS made payments to 187 producers; this is the largest wool program in Michigan.

Earl Doletzky, chairman of Washtenaw County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, said the current shorn wool support price is $1.23 per pound but the 1980 national average market price for shorn wool was 88.1 cents a pound, a difference of 34.9 cents.

Dividing the difference (34.9 cents) by the average market price (88.1 cents) results in a 1980 rate of 39.6 percent, compared with a payment rate of 33.3 percent in 1979, Doletzky said. The payment rate is the amount required to bring the average market price up to the support price.

Doletzky said the wool program encourages the production of higher quality wool because the more producers receive from sales, the more they receive in government incentive payments. Producer payments are determined by multiplying the payment rate (39.6 percent) times the net dollar return received from wool sales.

Doletzky also said producers will receive $1.40 per hundredweight in federal payments for unshorn lambs they sold or slaughtered in 1980. This payment is to compensate growers for wool on live lambs they marketed, he said.

The payment is based on the shorn wool payment rate, the average weight of wool per hundredweight of lambs and the price of lamb's wool relative to the national average price for shorn wool.

Incentive payment checks are prepared by USDA's commodity office. When payments are computed, the office withholds 2½ cents a pound from wool payments and 12½ cents per hundredweight from lamb payments. This money later is forwarded to the American Sheep Producers' Council to finance advertising, sales promotion and related market development activities.

These deductions were approved by a 75.3 percent favorable vote by sheep producers voting in an August 1978 referendum.

Men's Softball Organizational Meeting Slated

Men's Softball Program, presented again this year by Chelsea Recreation Council, will hold a second pre-season meeting on May 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Teams and rosters should be completed before this meeting so that a game schedule can be put together as soon as possible.

Umpires will also be chosen at this time. Those who are interested in umpiring the men's softball games should call Lynn Fox at 475-9830, 9 a.m. to noon week-days.

Chelsea, Pinckney Talents Help EMU Softball Team

By Don Newsted
EMU Echo Sports Writer

In only their second year of varsity competition, Eastern Michigan's women's softball team surprised many of the state's experts on the game when they compiled an impressive 21-11 regular season record. They also rode a seven-game winning streak into SMAIAW state tournament May 1-2 in Ann Arbor.

But for the second consecutive year, the Hurons bowed out of the tournament in two straight games and a disappointing seventh-place finish, marring an otherwise brilliant campaign.

Nanette Push, ex-Chelsea High school star pitcher and two-time Class B All-State selection, was the hurler in game one of the finals for Eastern. Locked in a tense 0-0 battle with Central Michigan's All-State pitcher Linda Pagett entering the bottom of the seventh inning, the Chipewas used a walk, error and the lost art of the suicide squeeze to hand Push and the Hurons a heart-breaking 1-0 loss.

In the afternoon losers bracket semi-final against the Michigan Wolverines, Push was called on to relieve starter Jodi Ward in the fifth inning with the score deadlocked at 1-1. The emotionally drained freshman did not have her usual stuff, allowing three walks and a three-run double in a disastrous sixth and the Huron season came to an abrupt end, 5-1.

Following the game, Push was recognized by rival SMAIAW coaches for her excellent season and was awarded her third straight All-State honor. She was joined on the team by teammate and shortstop Mary Crecholo, sophomore co-captain.

While Push and Eastern were experiencing exceptional seasons, 1980 Pinckney High school graduate Shelley Darrow was having an altogether different collegiate debut.

Relegated to spot duty as a second baseman on the infield rich Hurons, Darrow did see considerable action late in the season as a valued pinchrunner for coach Anne Johnston. In two plate appearances during the season she was hitless, but scored one run against the University of Toledo as a pinchrunner in a 3-0 victory.

But every team needs a strong bench and Johnston was no less appreciative of Darrow. "Shelley is a hard worker and has hung in there. She has not played much, but has remained a strong supporter in the dugout and has maintained an enthusiastic attitude," said Johnston. "Every team needs that from their substitutes. If you don't, you have problems."

Darrow's lack of playing time could be directly attributed to the two players preceding her on the Eastern depth chart, Ypsilanti sophomore Nancy Oestrike and highly recruited freshman Shelley Kendrick.

"Shelley has not seen as much game time as she would of liked and a lot of it is who she plays behind," Johnston explained. "It is not taking away from her talent, but the other two players are very good and have a little bit more."

Keeping Darrow company this year was her sister Sandy, an Eastern field hockey player and manager of the softball team. Her hard work and patience earned her the respect of players and coaches alike. Together, the Darrow sisters added a little something special to a very successful Eastern Michigan softball program.

Bulldog 9 Loses to JC Western

Jackson County Western played a sloppy game with Chelsea's varsity baseball team Monday, May 5, and won, 13-10.

A total of 18 walks slowed the game, 10 of them by Chelsea pitchers Joel Krichbaum and Steve Grau. The Bulldogs didn't lose heart, though. Down, 13-4, in the seventh inning they managed a six-run rally to finish the game, respectively.

John Welton, Sean Peterson, Jeff Dils, John Preston, Mike Bohlender, and Gary VanMeer all had singles in the game.

Girls Track Team 5th at Mason Meet

Record performances in the throwing and distance events helped the girls varsity track team to a fifth-place finish in the nine-team field in last week-end's Mason Invitational.

Mary Boylan got the Bulldogs off to a big start with a second place in the discus. Teammate Lorrie Vandegrift was sixth. Boylan's throw of 115'10" not only established a school record, but bettered the previous Invitational and Mason field records. Shelly Lape of Jackson Northwest won the event with a 118'8" throw, more than 11 feet better than the meet record Boylan set last year.

Boylan had another record breaking performance in the shot put. Her school record throw of 33'11 1/2" was good for third place. Lorrie Vandegrift was fourth with a put of 32'4". Lape won the shot, also, with a 38'5" throw.

In the other field events, Tracy Bohlender tied for fifth in the high jump and Sue Young long jumped 15'1" for a new freshman record, but didn't place in the event.

In spite of competing in their third consecutive meet, Chelsea's distance runners performed well. Nancy Hastings was third in the mile with a 5:42. Sandy Frame and Kristin Thomas finished second and third in the two-mile with Frame running a school record 12:14.8 and Thomas a personal best of 12:19.9. Tracy Bohlender earned the Bulldogs' only other points with a third place in the 220 hurdles.

Holt won the meet for the fourth time in its four years. The Rams had 109 points. Okemos was second with 106, followed by Pinckney with 57, Northwest with 54 and Chelsea with 46.

In 1909 a two-month strike of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union (AFL) was settled by providing preferential union hiring, a board of grievances and a board of arbitration. This laid the foundation for the impartial chairman method of settling labor disputes, according to a publication of the U. S. Department of Labor.

Girls Track Team Wins Over Fowlerville, Lincoln

Chelsea's girls track team ran their dual meet record to 4-3 and improved their chances to repeat last year's third-place finish in the SEC with wins over Fowlerville and Lincoln last week.

Tracy Bohlender and Mary Boylan were the only double winners in the 76-47 win over Fowlerville. Boylan won the shot and discus and Bohlender won the 440 and 220 hurdles. Other winners for the Bulldogs were Sue Young in the long jump, Sharon Glassford in the high jump, Sandy Frame in the mile, Carol Warren in the half-mile and Kristin Thomas in the two-mile. The 880 relay of Lisa Vandegrift, Carolyn Chandler, Kathy Honbaum and Tracy Bohlender was the Bulldogs' lone relay winner.

Other Chelsea placers were Lorrie Vandegrift, second in shot, 110 hurdles and tied for second with Bohlender in the high jump; Sue Young, second in 100 and 200; Kathy Honbaum, second in 440, and Lisa Vandegrift, second in the two-mile. Nancy Heller finished with a third in the discus as did Wendy Wolfgang in the mile and the 880 and Carrie Parkins in the 220 to earn her first varsity point.

Because of discipline and other problems, Lincoln had only seven runners available for their meet with Chelsea. Sue Young turned in a :12.5 time in the 100, the best by a Bulldog this year. Lorrie Vandegrift ran her best 110 hurdle time, :17.1 and all 15 Chelsea runners scored in the meet.

A number of Bulldog runners were also missing because of illness and an orchestra trip. The win upped Chelsea's league record to 3-2.

Boys Track Team
3rd in Mason Meet

Chelsea's boys track team traveled to Mason Friday, May 1 and came away third of 10 teams in the Mason Kiwanis Invitational.

Holt took first place, Mason second. "We looked pretty good in a very strong field," said Coach Pat Clarke.

The 440 relay team from Chelsea set a school record of :45.3 to win the event. Dave Wojcicki, Russ Ramsey, Toby Boyd and Ken Bauer made up the relay team.

Todd Sprague took first place with a lifetime best shot put of 49'2".

Sophomore Mark Brosnan set a two-mile school record with a 9:50.9 time to take fourth place in the event.

Other Chelsea placers included:
 Discus: Ken Nicholas, second, 145'5".

High Jump: Ray Williams, fifth, 5'10".

JV Sluggers Down
Western, Tecumseh

On Monday, May 4, Chelsea's JV baseball team rallied from a six-run deficit to defeat Jackson County Western, 15-14.

Chelsea was trailing 8-14 in the bottom of the sixth when a Chris Seitz single followed by doubles from Doug Pagliarini and Randy Krichbaum closed the gap, 11-14. In the top of the seventh, a Matt Villeneuve to Chris Seitz to Ken Nadeau double-play held Western in check.

In the bottom of the seventh, with Matt Villeneuve on first with a walk and two outs, Chelsea got four straight clutch hits, all singles by Chris Seitz, Doug Pagliarini, Mike Niebauer and Randy Krichbaum. These resulted in four runs and a solid Western defeat, 15-14.

Others getting hits for Chelsea were Darin Rowe with a double and single, Tom Headrick with two singles and Matt Villeneuve with a single. Winning pitcher in the contest was Eric Kruger.

On Wednesday, May 6 Chelsea's JV sluggers lost a heartbreaker, 14-10 in a battle with Saline's JV Hornets.

The game was a pitchers duel with the score tied 3-3 going into the sixth inning when Chelsea, aided by five walks and hits by Chris Seitz with a single, Darin Rowe with a bases loaded triple and Randy Krichbaum with two singles, scored seven runs to take a 10-3 lead.

Saline countered the Chelsea attack with the help of six walks, four errors and five hits. The Hornets roared back with 11 runs to defeat Chelsea, 14-10.

Mike Niebauer had a double and single, Tom Headrick hit a single and Matt Villeneuve walked three times and hit a double for the Bulldogs.

On Friday, May 8 the Tecumseh Indians came to Chelsea with only one loss on the season. The JV Indians traveled home with a second loss as the Bulldogs slid past, 8-5, behind the fine pitching of Ken Nadeau who gave up five runs, five hits and three walks while striking out eight in his second winning game of the season.

Getting hits for Chelsea were Chris Seitz with a single, Doug Pagliarini with a double, single and three-run homer, and Randy Krichbaum with three singles to raise his batting average to .600 on the year at 18 for 30. Matt Villeneuve also hit two singles.

Chelsea's JV record is currently 4-7 over-all and 4-3 in the Southeastern Conference.

Varsity 9
Shuts Out
Saline, 3-0

Chelsea high school's varsity baseball squad whipped Saline Wednesday, 3-0. Coach Wayne Welton called the game, "the best we've played in the two years I've been coach here."

Saline leads the league still after being pounded by Chelsea. John Welton gave up only three hits as pitcher and the Bulldog "defense was outstanding," Coach Welton said.

Jeff Dils walked in the first inning, stole second, made it to third on a sacrifice bunt by Mike Bohlender and came home in a cloud of dust to score on John Welton's ground-out.

Insurance runs came in the fourth inning when John Preston doubled and moved to third on a sacrifice bunt. Rod Robeson walked, stole second and Gary Van Meer drove them in with a single.

In 1902 the United Mine Workers of America ended a 5-month strike on October 21 against anthracite operators, agreeing to arbitration by a Presidential commission. The Anthracite Coal Strike Commission, appointed on October 16, recommended on Mar. 18, 1903, a 10-percent wage increase and conciliation machinery but denied union recognition, according to "Important Events in American Labor History," a publication of the U. S. Department of Labor.

BULLDOG JEFF DILS eats a little dust but scores the first run of the game against Saline Wednesday afternoon. The Bulldogs went on to win 3-0 over the league leading Saline Hornets.

Varsity Baseball Team
Loses One But Wins Two

The Tecumseh Indians came up with the big hits and defensive plays when it counted Friday and defeated the Bulldog sluggers, 7-1. Tecumseh committed five uncostly errors and had five very timely hits, while Chelsea committed but one error to go with four hits.

Jeff Dils deserved a better fate as Chelsea's pitcher. Dils went the distance, surrendering only six hits. Leading the hitting for Chelsea were Sean Peterson, Mike Bareis, Rod Robeson and Dils with one single each.

Key players for Tecumseh were Jim Quinn with three hits and Derek Nahabedian with a fine pitching performance. The visiting Bulldogs dropped to 3-5 in the conference and 3-9 over-all.

The Bulldogs, rebounding from Friday's loss to Tecumseh, defeated Brooklyn Columbia Central twice Saturday in two rapidly played games. Chelsea won the first game, 2-1, and the second, 13-2. The doubleheader took only three hours to complete.

The story of the opener was pitching. Chelsea's Steve Grau pitched a five hit, 10 strikeout performance for his first win of the season. Columbia Central scored its lone run in the fourth inning after a triple and fielder's choice. The Bulldogs struck back quickly when, in the fourth, Murphy walked and Dils laced a hit and run single which saw Murphy score as the centerfielder bobbled the ball. Ross Stofflet then connected for a single to drive Dils home with the lead and eventual winning run.

Dils and Stofflet had two hits each, while Murphy and John Preston each had one. The win upped the over-all Bulldog slate to 4-9.

The second game lasted but five innings because of the 10-run mercy rule. Chelsea emerged victorious with a 13-2 win.

Chelsea bats rapped out 11 hits and Joel Krichbaum notched his first win of the season.

Chelsea scored first in the opening inning when Craig Olmsted walked, stole second and continued to third on a bad throw. John Welton then laid down a perfect suicide bunt and Olmsted scored.

Mike Gipson had a single and a home run and Sam Coomes added a two run single. Tim Whitesall added another base hit. Gipson's homer ended the contest in the fifth as required by the 10 run rule.

Krichbaum pitched a four hit, five strikeout complete game. Leading hitters for the victors were Mike Gipson who was 2-2 including a home run; Sam Coomes, 2-2 including four R.B.I.'s; Tim Whitesall, 2-3 with two singles; Craig Olmsted, 1-3 including a long home run; Ross Murphy, John Welton and Mike Bareis with one hit apiece and two R.B.I.'s concluded the Bulldog hitting attack.

The victory pulled the Bulldogs into a 5-9 over-all season slate.

Musical Group Offering Concert At Baptist Church

The New Jerusalem, a musical group, will be giving a concert at the Chelsea Baptist church, 337 Wilkinson St., Sunday, May 17 at the 10:50 a.m. service, according to the pastor, T. B. Thodeson.

The New Jerusalem is an Ann Arbor group of eight young people who began as an outreach of Huron Valley Youth for Christ. They are now doing concerts in churches, retreats, banquets and for special occasions. Their music is contemporary but sensitive to the setting and the needs expressed by the concert sponsor.

The New Jerusalem singers sing for pure joy, making room for spontaneity by self instrumentation with piano, guitars and drums. By having regular employment they are free to enjoy ministering anywhere. With their singing they share their living faith and spiritual benefits of peace and an exciting future.

Allan Holder, the new Youth for Christ director, will also be present. He will be acknowledging the regular support given by the Chelsea Baptist church for the Huron Valley Youth for Christ program. He is representing the Board of Youth for Christ and his own personal appreciation for the support.

There is no admission charge and the public is invited to attend.

Family Film Will Be Shown At Baptist Church

"Ride the Wind," a Heartland Production, Inc., film, will be presented at Chelsea Baptist church, 337 Wilkinson St. Sunday, May 17 at 6 p.m. according to the pastor, T. B. Thodeson.

"Ride the Wind" is a story that families should share together. Eric Sanders, a young convert, is determined to be a "super christian" but that was before he met the boy next door whose father believes the Bible to be "just a book" and "loving your neighbor" a joke.

Soon tension explodes, there is conflict between the two families, value systems are accelerated, there is ridicule and troubled consciences.

The film points out there is much more to life than winning. There is no admission charge and no offering. It is a service to our community.

New Theory on Brain Growth

The manner in which children are able to learn is receiving some shocks these days with the introduction of a new theory on brain development.

Herman Epstein, a Brandeis University biophysicist, believes that the human brain undergoes most of its growth in two-year spurts, not through continual growth as has long been the belief. Epstein bases his assumption on studies of both human and dead brains.

That concept has now been translated into theories on how a youngster learns by Conrad F. Toepfer, Jr., associate professor of middle school education, University of Georgia.

"Up to this time, the process of schooling has been organized on the assumption that the human brain grows on some sort of continuum, and that the task of education is to challenge the learner," says Toepfer. "Although regarded as fact, no data exist to support the reality of this assumed brain growth."

According to the new theory, the brain develops in spurts between the ages of 2 to 4, 6 to 8, 10 to 12, and 14 to 16-plus years. During each period the brain grows between five and 10 percent in size in 85 to 90 percent of humans, according to Toepfer.

Just as the brain grows during two-year periods, there are two-year plateaus where no significant growth is found. These plateaus come between ages 4 to 6, 8 to 10, and 12 to 14 years.

"During these plateau periods, it becomes almost impossible for youngsters to initiate and develop new and higher level thinking skills," contends Toepfer.

What this means for parents and educators is that higher level thinking skills should be taught children during the growth periods and reinforced during the plateaus.

"Learning experiences during the plateau intervals should focus upon helping youngsters to consolidate, refine, and mature the new and higher level thinking skills they initiated during their just completed brain growth spurt," according to Toepfer.

Two early thinking skills are learning to name an item and recall its name. According to this research it would be appropriate to introduce those skills during the 2 to 4 year spurt. Parents and teachers could expand among and reinforce those skills during the following plateau period.

When the next growth spurt comes, between 4 to 6 years, higher level skills, such as explaining and discussing, should be introduced.

Class of 27 Makes First Communion

On Sunday, May 3, 27 members of two Sunday school classes at St. Mary's Catholic church made their first communion. Mary Nadeau and Mrs. Leona Osen-toski, teachers of the classes, helped with the ceremonies, under the direction of Sister Patricia.

The second graders sang two songs during the ceremony, which took place during the 10 a.m. mass at St. Mary's. They were accompanied by Larry Cook on guitar.

The children making their first communion were Joseph Beaudoin, Brian Bell, Kristin Bohlender, Eric Crombez, Jason Grombez, Kimberly Friday, Margaret Guinan, Andrew Hafner, Joseph Hafner, Alex Hammerschmidt, Michele Hollo, Katherine Issel, Pamela Martell, Bree Michelsen, Damon Michelsen, Sara Musolf, Stacy Norris, Jennifer Payne, Jude Quilter, Paul Ross, Jeanene Rossi, Colleen Sharporn, Matthew Steinaway, Kara VonWald, Shoshana Vosters, Thomas White and Joseph Williams.

Trinkle Barn Dance Set for Saturday, June 20

Saturday, June 20 is the date set for old-fashioned fun as the annual "Old Fashioned Barn Dance" benefit is held at the Charles Trinkle farm, 9631 Trinkle Rd., Dexter.

Music, as in the past, will be presented by the Luke Schable Band for square and round dancing from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m.

Refreshments and set-ups will be available for purchase together with German sausage, hot dogs, popcorn and pop.

The dance is again sponsored by the Lima Liberty Belles and the Lima Brushkateers, a chapter group from the Dexter Sesquicentennial of 1973. All proceeds will go to Special Education in the Chelsea and Dexter schools and High Point Center.

Tickets may be purchased in advance at a savings at area businesses including McLeod's, Royal Hair Fashions, Bouillon Sales and Service and the Captains Table in Dexter; Vogel's, Foster's and Heydlauff's in Chelsea; Gambles in Manchester and Fran Coy Hairstyles in Ann Arbor.

Sluggers of the Week

first year on the varsity squad. He should be tops in the league by the end of the season and "we're looking forward to having Rod around for two more years," Welton said. Robeson also plays varsity football. Bob Trevino, right, is a junior infielder who Welton describes as "valuable, versatile," and plays anywhere on the field, recently confining his talents to the second-base position. He is in his first year on varsity.

Homeowners insurance is homeowners insurance, right? Wrong.

Auto-Owners homeowners insurance is different. Not only in the way we handle claims (Auto-Owners built its reputation on fast, fair claims service). Not only in the personal attention we give (another Auto-Owners trademark). Or in the way we could save you money (our low rates are famous). But, in our whole outlook on homeowners insurance, with innovative, imaginative policies that make sure you get just what you need, for just what you want to pay. So, if you're thinking you'd be wrong if you didn't call Auto-Owners . . . you're right.

BOB MURPHY tags his brother Matt with a sock on the jaw while Matt winds up his right as they train for competition with boxers from across the state in the State Tournament of Champions and the Tommy Hearn's Boxing Exhibition in the next few weeks. The Murphy brothers are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murphy of 6220 Stofer Rd. They are coached by Stacy McKinley, who won the 1979 Tough Man Contest.

STACY MCKINLEY, 1979 Tough Man Contest winner now coaching the Murphy brothers Bob and Matt, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murphy of 6220 Stofer Rd., tapes Matt's powerful right while Bob looks on. The brothers will box against opponents from across the state in the State Tournament of Champions at the Tommy Hearn's Boxing Exhibition in the next few weeks.

Murphy Brothers Will Box In Tommy Hearn's Exhibition

Two boxers from Chelsea will compete in the Tommy Hearn's Boxing Exhibition at the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti Boxing Club in Ypsilanti. On June 26-28, they'll compete in the Michigan State Tournament of Champions in Ann Arbor.

Bob Murphy and his brother, Matt, have been boxing at the Ypsilanti Boxing Club for about two months and will have their first public appearance at the May 16 exhibition. They have been training in Ypsilanti three nights per week.

They are coached by Stacy McKinley, who won the National Championship of the Tough Man Contest in 1979, and with the prize money of $50,000 started the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti Boxing Club. McKinley, who coaches 80 boxers, said the Murphy brothers are "two of the sharpest boxers in their class."

The boys will compete in Class C for the exhibition. Matt will enter the 119-weight class and Bob will enter the 125-pound weight class.

Matt first became interested in boxing when his father took him to Ypsilanti Boxing Club. "I was getting in a lot of fights at school," Matt said. "There's nothing for you to do around here. Boxing gives you something to do." His father thought boxing would keep Matt out of trouble, and it has.

Bob became interested in boxing when he went to see Matt work out.

McKinley and Murphy both would like to see an intramural boxing program formed in Chelsea. If more boys from Chelsea started boxing in McKinley's program, a carpool could be set up by their parents from Chelsea to Ypsilanti, Murphy said.

The boys training will increase to five nights a week to get ready for their upcoming fights. "We're working on our endurance," Bob said. Matt added, "I'm not in shape yet, but I will be before the fight."

McKinley is confident of the Murphy brothers' ability as boxers. "They're good kids, good boxers. They need discipline; I think they will win the tournament. They're quick learners," McKinley said.

Matt is confident. "I ain't going to lose," he said. Bob is ready for the competition also. "I'll win," he said.

Manchester Youth Completes Helicopter Maintenance Course

Army Pvt. Daniel E. Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Little of 316 S. Macomb, Manchester, recently completed the UH-1 Helicopter Repair Course at the U. S. Army Aviation School, Fort Rucker, Ala.

The course is designed to provide enlisted personnel with a working knowledge in organizational, direct and general support maintenance on the UH-1 helicopter. Personnel are trained in the duties of crew chief and record keeper.

They will compete against boys from all over Michigan in the June 26-28 tournament. Bob is a student at Chelsea High school and 15 years old; Matt is 14 years old and attends Beach Middle school.

Tickets for the May 16 exhibition in Ypsilanti will be available at the door. The June 26-28 tournament will be at the Central Campus Sports Building, 401 Washtenaw, Ann Arbor, on the campus of the University of Michigan at 7:30 p.m.

Edible Plants Workshop at Nature Center

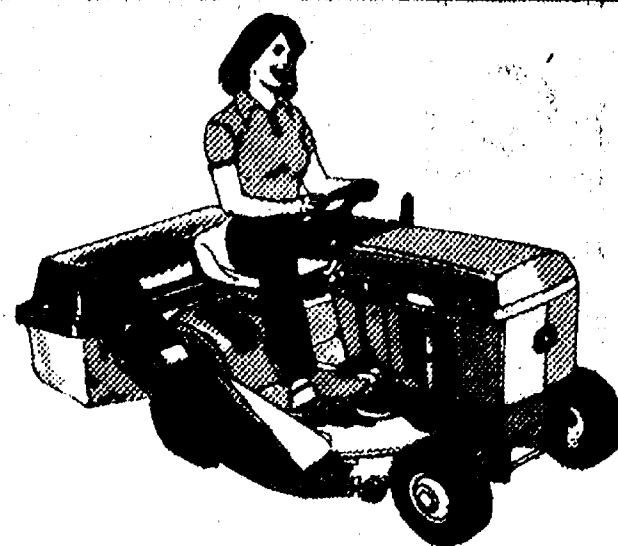

Birds singing, frogs croaking and the appearance of buds on trees all signal the coming of spring. For those individuals with some knowledge of the local vegetation this time of year is eagerly awaited.

Tasty tidbits can be gathered from the bountiful forests and swamps and delicious meals can be prepared if one knows how to identify wild edible plants.

On Saturday, May 16 from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. the Waterloo Nature Center is offering an edible wildplants workshop.

If the sound of sauteed ground nuts, dandelion and violet salad, watercress cheese spread and cattail shoots smothered in butter makes your taste buds tingle, come and learn how to identify and prepare some of these delicacies. The program will include a slide show, a hike identification and collection of specimens and the opportunity to taste several prepared dishes. Cost is $4 per family.

For further information call 475-8069 Tuesday through Thursday, 9-3.

Lawn Tractors with Rear Bagger

The optional 4-bushel rear bagger fits both John Deere Lawn Tractors — the 8-hp 108 with 30-inch mower and the 11-hp 111 with 38-inch mower. Tractors feature shift-on-the-go 5-speed transmission. Color-coded controls. And roomy operator's area. Both can be equipped with a front blade and a snow thrower for even more versatility.

You need both.
Allstate homeowners insurance and mortgage protection life insurance.

Allstate's homeowners insurance will help to rebuild your house if an insured disaster strikes.

But, what if something happens to you? Who will pay off the mortgage? That's why you also need Allstate Life's mortgage protection life insurance. It helps pay off the mortgage if you die.

So your family will have help to live in a debt-free home. You need both kinds of insurance.
