Tax Relief Proposal A Defeated

Tuesday, May 19 was the date of a special election called by the state in hopes of passing Proposal A in order to deliver property-tax relief to Michigan residents. Voters turned out to cast ballots expressing their dislike of Gov. Milliken's plan.

The sound defeat of Proposal A was evident as of Tuesday night. By Wednesday morning, May 20, with 99 percent of Michigan's 6,712 precincts reporting, Proposal A trailed by a whopping 72-28 percent.

Still, Washtenaw county produced a number of cities and townships which favored the plan. Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and Freedom township narrowly supported Proposal A.

Townships defeating Milliken's plan included Sylvan, 1,062 to 413; Dexter, 695 to 366; Lima, 552 to 195; Lyndon, 360 to 148; Scio, 1,335 to 863; Webster, 528 to 287; and, Sharon, 321 to 90. Only Freedom and Northfield townships supported the Proposal A tax cut system. Freedom voters cast 344 ballots for and 133 ballots against the proposal while Northfield township found 571 in favor and 459 against Proposal A.

In co-operation with EMU, a number of local residents and members of the Chelsea Historical Society are assisting in surveying historic local homes. This group includes Otis Titus, Jean Storey, Deborah Wilson, Salley Nicola, Kathleen Chapman, Chris Wagner, Katherine

7 Car Accidents Reported to Police

Car accidents were in fashion in Chelsea last week as seven collisions occurred between May 22 and May 27.

The first property damage accident occurred at approximately 3:45 p.m. Friday, May 22 as a car driven by Keith Boylan, who was traveling down Freer Rd., was struck by a car backing out of a driveway and driven by Kenny Lindstrom.

At 5:04 p.m., Chelsea police were notified about the second accident located at the intersection of East and Harrison Sts. There, a truck driven by Michael Newcome was struck by a bicycle ridden by 12-year-old Jay Marentay. Witnesses confirmed that Marentay had ridden his bicycle into the side of Newcome's truck. The boy was taken to Chelsea Community Hospital for a routine check.

At 9:14 p.m., a car driven by Deborah Dunn, 18, went out of control and struck a pole at the intersection of Cavanaugh Rd. and Cleveland St. Dunn was cited as careless though she did attempt to stop. There were no injuries.

At approximately 3:55 p.m. Saturday, May 23, the fourth property damage accident occurred at the intersection of I-94 and M-52. There, a gravel truck driven by George Kilbreath of Dexter struck a car driven by Kevin Cook, 18, of Jackson as the latter attempted to turn into the Big Boy parking lot where he was employed. According to Chelsea police, Cook failed to yield to oncoming traffic as he turned west; Kilbreath could not avoid striking the car. Cook was cited for failing to yield; he was taken to Chelsea Community Hospital and later released.

At 3:40 p.m. Tuesday, May 26, another accident occurred at Madison and Park Sts. as a car driven by Daniel White of Stockbridge hit a car driven by Sherie Davis of Chelsea as the former attempted to negotiate a turn.

Schools Seek Renewal Of 20.5-Mill Operating Levy in Monday Vote

Chelsea Board of Education is seeking a 20.5 renewal millage in Monday's election. This is the same rate that the district voters authorized for the 1980-81 school year. All operating millage expires on June 30.

The Board of Education was faced with the uncertainty of Proposal "A" and the uncertainty of any future tax relief proposals and therefore, decided that the renewal would be for only one year.

Still, two ballot proposals will appear before voters at Beach Middle school Monday, June 8 between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8 p.m.

The first proposal will be for the 20.5 renewal millage; the second asks for a 2.6 mill increase.

Nevertheless, the Board urges voters to disregard or vote "No" on the 2.6 increase; additional funds are not necessary following the rejection of Proposal "A" last month. These two proposals were prepared by the Board prior to the May 19 special election so that all timelines for the annual June 8 election could be met.

The renewal of the 20.5 mills will not result in the same tax base as 1980-81. Instead, because of the increase in State Equalized Valuation for 1981-82, the rate will be reduced. The levy for debt retirement, paying off the bonded indebtedness from building additions and renovations will be reduced by 0.5 mill. Currently, the debt retirement is levied at 4 mills; this will be reduced to 3.5 mills.

No new or additional programs will be initiated during the 1981-82 school year. Instead, the district will operate the same programs as in the current year.

The Chelsea School District ranks sixth in the county in the per-pupil cost for school operation. Too, the district ranks first and second in all math and reading comparisons for grades 4, 7 and 10.

Chelsea's fine school system is an asset to the entire community, making the district a desirable place in which to live. In addition, the schools serve the community by providing extensive learning experiences for all residents.

A total of 2,430 students are enrolled in the kindergarten through 12 instructional program as well as more than 2,000 participants in the Community Education program which offers activities to persons ranging in age from pre-school to senior citizen.

Three Seek Two Posts on School Board

Monday, June 8 will mark the Chelsea School District election to include a millage renewal vote as well as the selection of two of three candidates running for the vacating Board of Education seats. Vying for the School Board positions are incumbent Earl Heller and newcomers Ann Comeau and Joseph Redding.

The two elected trustees will serve four-year terms ending in 1985. Polls at Beach Middle school will be open Monday from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Earl Heller is seeking his second four-year term of the Chelsea Board of Education. He is a lifelong resident of Chelsea and is owner-operator of Heller Electric.

He is involved in an array of community activities including the Fair Board, Washtenaw Farm Council and formerly, Kiwanis. Heller has been the treasurer of the Chelsea Board of Education for the past three years and is head of the finance committee.

Earl Heller graduated from Chelsea High school as well as Michigan State University where he earned a bachelor of science degree in animal husbandry.

Heller and his wife, Kay, have two sons, Marty, 10, and John, 5, both of whom attend Chelsea schools.

A resident of Chelsea for the past three years, Anne Comeau and her husband, Edward, and their four children moved here from Pennsylvania.

Comeau, a homemaker, has been involved in schools in many capacities during the past 20 years. She has served as a member of "Dialogue with the Superintendent," has been a member of the millage committee, a volunteer in the South school Media Center and was a charter volunteer during the institution of the new Chelsea Senior Citizen Program.

Comeau has been involved in such civic organizations as Woman's Clubs and was a 4-H leader for eight years. She is a former member of the American Dental Hygienists Association and former officer of the Massachusetts Dental Hygienists Association.

She is a graduate of Tufts University, Medford, Mass., and attended Forsyth School for dental hygienists in Boston. Two of her four daughters have graduated from high school; the other two are currently students in the Chelsea school system.

Joseph M. Redding, his wife, Kay, and their four children have lived in Chelsea for nine years. In that time, Redding has attended Chelsea School Board meetings regularly for four years and has served on both the Citizens Advisory Committee to the School Board and the curriculum Study Committee. He has coached both biddy basketball and soccer.

Redding has earned a bachelor of science degree as well as a masters degree in business administration and is employed by Ford Motor Co. in manufacturing engineering.

He currently attends St. Paul United Church of Christ and was director-co-ordinator of the Youth Groups at Dearborn Christian Church for several years.

Mrs. Redding is a registered nurse at Chelsea Community Hospital. Two of the couple's children are students within the Chelsea School District while their twin daughters are pre-school age.

Government Leaders

Speaking Message

From Tax Proposal Defeat
 After voters rejected 3-1 the latest property tax proposal, legislative leaders and Governor William G. Milliken agreed the issue has not been settled by the vote and the legislature, on its own, must devise a new tax plan.

Milliken, who said his proposal defeated in all 83 Michigan counties, said he would abide by the decision of the voters. He added he is looking at about 10 ways to cut property taxes, without providing any replacement revenues.

The most common assessment of why voters turned down the proposal was a distrust of government leaders.

Speaker Bobby Crim (D-Davison) said the level of distrust threatens the success of efforts to revitalize the economy.

Opponents, meanwhile elated over the defeat of the proposal, said the action reflected on the credibility of Lansing leaders.

The message of the voter rejection of the property tax cut/sales tax increase amendment by a stunning 563,050 to 1,447,318 vote was discussed in meetings around the Capitol as leaders performed a postmortem on the proposal.

Tax cutter Robert Tisch, whose stock soared as a result of the defeat of the proposal, now wants the legislature to implement by July 1 the tax cut portion of the proposal—a 50 percent cut of property taxes for operating purposes and a 50 percent credit for city income taxes.

He is demanding the legislature carry out this proposal without nearly $600 million in replacement revenues the 37.5 percent increase in sales and use taxes would have provided.

Among the other proposals advanced was one by Senator John Welborn (R-Kalamazoo) to cut property taxes by 10 percent, costing the state $500 million.

Other legislators favor liberalizing the circuit breaker program to give more income tax credits for property taxes in relation to personal income.

Milliken, who said he does not rule out anything, said, "I would have to review everything before I would support more cuts than the $250 million in Proposal A.

One avenue he said does not seem open is an increase in the income tax rate to pay for property tax relief as he expressed a belief the legislature would not approve that tax hike.

Crim said the legislature could work on statutorily-provided tax relief, but he did not offer a firm commitment to that approach.

But, he said, "We cannot abandon our goal of decreasing the burden on the homeowner without crippling the ability of government to provide basic human services that a humane citizenry demands."

Representative William Ryan (D-Detroit), chairman of the House Taxation Committee also agreed the legislature needs to act. "I do think there's something wrong with the property tax. It needs evening out," he said. Ryan, however, did not endorse a specific plan.

Even though he said voters might be indicating the tax structure ought to stay the way it is, the governor said he still thinks property taxes are at a level that "makes it difficult for people to survive."

"The regrettable thing about the vote is that the issue will continue to occupy our time when we should be addressing our economic problems," Milliken said.

But Milliken, noting the voter rejection of a string of eight tax plans, said Tisch should not be encouraged. He said a new ballot proposal would also have a difficult time and suggested such complex issues may never be approved by the people.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Is it wishful thinking, or is more attention being given to graduates and less to graduation speakers lately? President Reagan won one more for the Gipper this spring, but I ain't seen much more in the papers about what the new minted educated was told when they were turned loose on the world. Maybe the politicians, preachers, movie stars and well heeled from all walks don't want to scare everybody into graduate school by telling them straight the kind of world they're going to take charge of. Could be the speakers invited to share their wisdom can't decide what advice to give. Whatever the reason, Mister Editor, it's a relief.

The fellers at the country store took note Saturday night that the old "you're the hope of the future" song is not being sung to graduates across the land with as much spirit. Bug Hookum told the fellers at the country store that he looked on this change as freedom from speech as much as freedom of speech. But Bug allowed this don't take nothing away from speaker or listener, and that both may have a better understanding of their places.

For instant, Bug went on, speakers know the students have seen more of that world than the speakers saw in their day. And students, for their part know that for ever statement made by their speaker there's another argument just as strong. Our country operates on two sets of facts, Bug said, Democrat and Republican. He noted that Clem Webster and Ed Doolittle can read the same news item and get opposite results because of the slant of their minds they bring to the reading.

Furthermore, Bug declared, both parties make up figgers on business, industry, military and wants of the people as they go along and both keep everybody confused. If all we know is what we read in the papers, we can't be sure of much, Bug said. He had saw where Mobil, the country's second largest oil company, reported a 24 percent drop in profit this last quarter, and he had to read all they way to the end of the piece to find out that the $640 million still was well ahead of the $58 million for the same three months of last year.

Zeke Grubb said he hadn't give it much thought, but Bug's report made him realize that lately he's been reading his paper from back to front. Zeke says he reads the end of the items, and if they interest him he picks up the rest when he gets to em. Zeke said his old lady has allus been a back to front newspaper reader, because she looks over all the ads before getting to the news.

Well, Mister Editor, at least students of future years will have plenty to read about Presidents that are setting up all these libraries. I see where the $4.3 million Gerald Ford Library has been dedicated at the University of Michigan. We've got em all since Hoover, and Mr. Carter is working on his. Maybe the reason we can't get nothing straight now is that these fellers is saving the good stuff for their personal history books.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

I am concerned that Chelsea Schools maintain a quality educational program at an affordable price for all students.

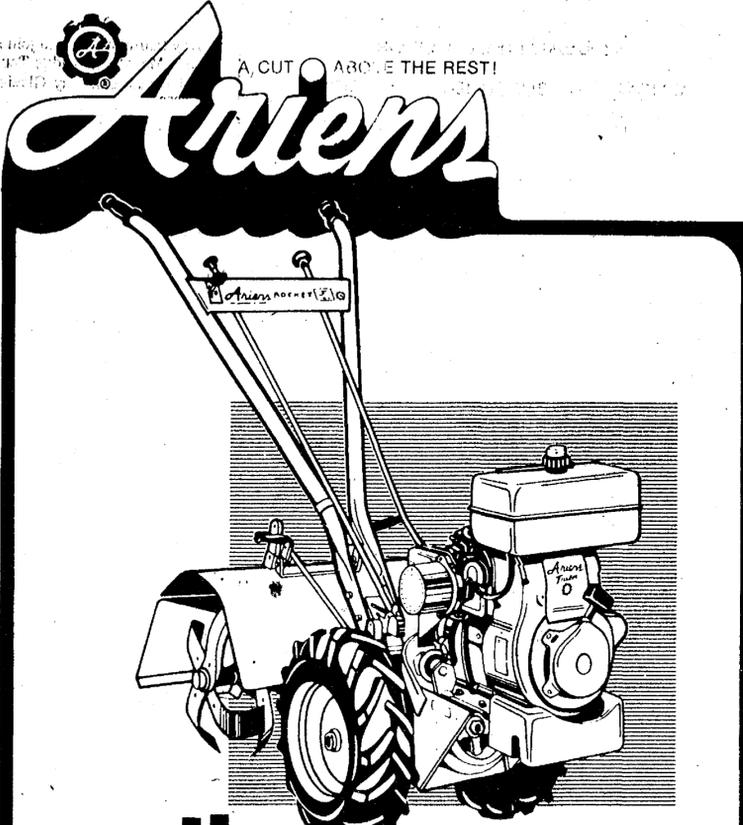

All students must be educationally well prepared — they are the future leaders of our community. Vocational, agricultural and college bound interests need a diversified curriculum built upon sound fundamentals.

The educational facilities must be used to their full potential thus meeting the academic enrichment and recreational needs of the entire community.

My husband Ed and I are members of St. Marys Church. We have four daughters, two of whom have graduated from public school systems, and two who are currently attending Chelsea Schools.

Membership stars and Brownie "B" patches were presented to the 10 Brownies attending. First graders Jennifer and Julie Koch remained in the Brownie Ring while the remaining 9-year-olds including Amy Ledford, Christie Kozma, Cory Tremper, Deanna Richardson, Dwana White, Jennifer Bliss, Jennifer Gilmore and Melissa Fletcher each received her Bridge to Junior patch and Brownie Wings. Each girl, in turn, was sent from the Brownie Ring and met by a Junior Scout who presented the Bridging Brownie with a new Girl Scout pin and escorted her to the Junior's Horseshoe.

Refreshments and a game were enjoyed by the scouts, their leaders and their mothers after the ceremony.

Brownies Marcel Wales, Connie Lonskey and Erica Bice were unable to attend the Wednesday after school ceremony but were awarded their membership star and Brownie "B" patches at a later date. Erica also received her Bridge to Junior Patch, Brownie Wings and Girl Scout pin.

Your Health Options

By Beverly Chethik
 Director of Health Education, Washtenaw County Health Dept.

My 16-year-old daughter has just begun to smoke cigarettes, and so have several of her friends. How can I convince her smoking is bad for her health?

Changing a habit isn't easy. In fact, if your daughter has just begun to smoke you might point out that it's a lot easier to stop a habit before it becomes ingrained than it is to try to break a habit that's firmly established.

Young people throughout the country are smoking earlier; the number of women between 12 and 18 years of age who smoke has doubled in less than 10 years. Teen-agers smoke for many reasons. They may see smoking as a symbol of their independence from adults. At the same time, they may smoke to win the approval of their friends because they are sure "everyone else is doing it." (A recent survey by the American Cancer Society reveals that most teen-agers think people their age are smokers, despite the fact that only about 30 percent of the teens smoked.) Some feel a cigarette helps them relax and look comfortable with their friends. To compound the problem, many teens feel omnipotent. They can't believe "something bad" like lung cancer, emphysema or heart attack will happen to them — especially if the "something bad" probably won't happen for another 30 years.

This doesn't mean there is nothing you can do to help your daughter stop smoking. For starters, you might try to provide her with information that seems relevant to her life in the near future. (1) Women smokers in the 20-30 year age group have twice the risk of losing their teeth as women who don't smoke. (2) Women who smoke are twice as likely to miscarry, and they are more likely to deliver their baby prematurely. (3) The effects of prenatal smoking seem to linger. Children born to heavy smokers have more difficulty reading and are significantly shorter than children of non-smokers. (4) Smokers in the 30-49 age group have about twice as many wrinkles, on the average, as do non-smokers who are 20 years older.

You might also ask your daughter if smoking creates any problems for her right now. For instance, does smoking influence her relationships with other people — negatively? Do other people (teens or adults) complain that the smell and the smoke bother them? Does smoking put her in a position where she breaks the law? Does she have to sneak a smoke in school? Does smoking expose her to medical risks? Does she get winded so easily that she can't participate in a sport she likes?

The Teen-age Body Book suggests the following steps to changing a habit. You might want to offer them to your daughter.

- Set up realistic goals for yourself. It's easier for many people to change a habit if they think about giving up something "for today" — not "forever."
- Cut down gradually — not "cold turkey."
- Tell your friends of your decision; they'll remind you of your resolution.
- Look for alternatives — for things you like to do instead of smoking. Call a friend; read a book; ride a bike; listen to a record.
- Recognize you're giving up smoking for yourself and that your decision helps you have some control over your own life.

Your Health Options appears in this paper each month. If you have a health-related question, please write directly to the paper, Attention: Your Health Options, or write to the Washtenaw County Health Department, Health Education Office, Box 8845, Ann Arbor 48107.

Lumber Stolen Saturday from Construction Site

Stacks of 2 x 4's lined alongside the loading dock at The Chelsea Standard office were stolen Saturday afternoon by a man driving a light blue Chevrolet or GMC pick-up truck. His license number was "taken by an employee on her way to lunch."

Throughout the week, numerous persons inquired about removing the wood for us; we explained that it would be used during our remodeling. These people at least requested taking the wood. Not so Saturday.

Rather than prosecuting, The Chelsea Standard management requests that the missing wood be returned, no questions asked.

GARDEN SPOT

By Kerry J. Kelly, County Horticultural Agent

Question: I want to buy some flowering annuals to try to liven up the area around my home but my space is very limited. What kinds of flowers can I buy and what do I look for in selecting healthy plants?

Answer: Your decision to purchase flowering annuals for limited space is an excellent one. Annuals are relatively easy to grow, come in various sizes and offer a variable rainbow of exciting colors to work with. Regardless of the amount of space around your home or apartment, a few well-selected annuals used effectively can change the entire personality of your landscape.

The most popular flowering annual in the American home landscape is the petunia. Petunias are easy to grow and less expensive than most plants in home gardens. Hundreds of varieties provide continuous color and are available in dwarf to medium heights and in solid or mixed colors. Colors range from shades of blue, purple, pink, orange, red, yellow and white. Plant these in window boxes, decorative planters or urns, around shrubs and trees, or in hanging baskets from balconies, porches or overhangs. Plant petunias in well-drained soil and in full sun.

Another indispensable annual is the marigold. These plants are very popular for their hardiness and for their vibrant blooms ranging from the palest yellow to the deepest orange. Many of the dwarf varieties grow no more than six to twelve inches in height and work very well in small spaces. Marigolds can be picked for cut flowers during the summer and will continue to bloom until frost blackens the foliage. Marigolds prefer direct sunlight.

If your area is partially or predominantly shady, probably the most attractive annual for your purposes would be Impatiens. These delicate flowers thrive in shadier areas and come in beautiful shades of red, pink, orange and purple. They are especially attractive in hanging pots.

Other very popular and attractive annuals include dahlias, cosmos, pansies, snapdragons, ageratum and zinnias. A combination of different annuals using contrasting colors is very effective and may provide a much more appealing look to the eye than one continuous color. Try being creative and bold. In selecting healthy bedding plants for purchase, try to buy short stocky plants with dark green foliage. It is also wise to buy plants that are not already in full bloom. Granted, having open blossoms allows you to see what the flowers look like and gives you immediate color in your garden. However, plants with full open blossoms may not prove as hardy once placed in the garden as plants still primarily covered with buds. Try to resist your instinct to grab that petunia in full bloom!

Check plants closely for any insects or disease spots and look for healthy green vegetative growth, not a yellowed wilted appearance. Providing proper moisture during the year and removing mature flowers and seed pods as they develop should ensure that your annuals will maintain vigorous growth throughout the summer.

Questions for Garden Spot may be sent to: Co-operative Extension Service, P.O. Box 8645, Ann Arbor 48107.

SOLAR FACTS

by Robert E. Lewis

SOLAR TERMINOLOGY

Today there are thousands of scientists, architects and engineers working to develop advanced solar energy systems to heat, cool and light our buildings.
 As with any new technology, a special lexicon has emerged to describe the principles and concepts surrounding solar energy applications.
 While most of these words are commonplace to various scientific disciplines, they are often mystifying to many consumers. To better understand how solar energy is being harnessed for everyday use in our homes and commercial buildings, the alert consumer will want to learn some of the more basic solar terms.
 The following words are among those most frequently used by home-builders, architects and designers working in the field of solar energy. Moreover, these terms will be used repeatedly in future columns to describe some of the more popular solar energy heating and cooling systems in use today.
 Consumers wishing to learn more solar terms should write for the Solar Energy Glossary at the address listed at the end of this column. In the meantime, an understanding of the following words and phrases should help the average consumer begin to "speak" solar energy.

Heat Gain — an increase in the amount of heat contained in a space, resulting from direct solar radiation and/or the heat given off by people, lights, equipment, etc.
Passive System — a solar heating or cooling system that does not require mechanical power to distribute the collected heat. With passive systems, the design of the building itself produces and distributes the heat naturally.
Retrofitting — the installation of a solar heating or cooling system into an existing building.
Thermal Mass — the overall heat-storage capacity of an object or building. Most passive designs used heavy masonry and other heat-absorbing materials to give the building a high thermal mass. Such materials, when used in a passive system, are often referred to as its thermal mass.
 For a more complete listing of solar terms, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to:

Good Things Growing In Michigan

By Margaret G. McCall
June is dairy month, and it's one we can all observe easily, since Michigan's 7,600 dairy farms produce nearly five billion pounds of milk for us annually.

You may be surprised to learn Michigan is sixth in the nation in milk production. The Michigan Department of Agriculture reports state milk production is valued at almost $600 million, the largest single dollar item sold by Michigan farms. And the department is proud, too, that Michigan was the first state to adopt the Grade A fluid milk law, so all bottled milk in our state meets strict Grade A standards. Trained MDA inspectors check milk "from cow to consumer" to insure wholesomeness.

To observe June dairy month, you might try any or all of these suggestions. Mix up a batch of home-made ice cream on a summery day, put the kids to work cranking, and invite the neighbors to share the results. An assortment of toppings will turn any day of the week into Sundae. Chilled eggnog isn't just for holidays. It's a delicious, refreshing food for hot summer weather, made more nutritious with addition of Michigan eggs.

Beat the kitchen heat by preparing puddings, made with milk or cream, in the cool of the morning, refrigerate until dinner time. A big Michigan salad bowl, an assortment of Michigan cheeses and cold meats, some crusty French bread can provide the rest of your meal.

Let's see now, what dairy products have we missed? Cottage cheese, of course, the dieter's delight; half-and-half for quiche, fresh creamery butter for vegetables and toast, sour cream for your baked potato.

You get the picture — every meal or snack depends at least in part on dairy products. So join the celebration of good things growing in Michigan's dairy month, and lift your glass — of milk.

In 1916, the Adamson Act, providing a basic 8-hour day on railroads, was enacted to eliminate a threatened nationwide railroad strike, according to "Important Events in American Labor History," a publication of the U. S. Department of Labor.

GRAVEL TRUCK WINS: Failing to yield led to this collision Saturday, May 23 in front of the Chelsea Big Boy. According to police reports, Kevin Cook of Jackson, failed to yield to oncoming traffic as he made a left turn into the Big Boy parking lot. The result: a gravel truck, driven by George Klibreath of Dexter, struck and totalled Cook's car. Fortunately, no serious injuries resulted from the mishap.

Ag Trade Agreement With Mexico Expected

The U. S. and Mexico are expected to sign a one-year agricultural trade agreement for 1982, replacing the current pact, when Mexico's President Juan Lopez Portillo visits Washington, June 8-9.

U. S. government and trade sources said the trade agreement with Mexico, the third largest importer of U. S. agricultural goods,

From Two Cylinders To Automotive Giant

After three years of experimentation, Henry Ford rolled his quadricycle out of the shed behind his home on Bagley Ave., on June 4, 1896, and drove down the bumpy street. The two-cylinder vehicle, which rolled along on four bicycle wheels, was the forerunner of the Ford Motor Co.

Your June utility bill may be the most important one you'll receive all year.

When you open the envelope containing your June utility bill you will find a very important booklet (or you might receive it as a separate mailing.)

It describes the new Michigan Residential Conservation Services program featuring a Home Energy Analysis.

The new service is offered by eight major Michigan utilities and meets the requirements of the Michigan Public Service Commission and the 1978 National Energy Act. It's available to all homeowners and renters who pay energy utility bills.

Even if you and your family are already conserving energy, the Home Energy Analysis can show you how to save more.

For a $10 fee, you will get a complete inspection of your home by an energy specialist from your utility. You will learn how effective your present insulation, weatherstripping, caulking and other energy cost saving measures are, and you will be provided with information on specific things you can do to reduce energy waste.

You also will receive a written computer analysis giving you estimates on how much recommended improvements will cost and how long they will take to pay for themselves. Information on contractors who can do the work, details on financing, tax credits and Home Weatherization Grants for low income persons also will be provided. After the work is completed, you may have it inspected by your utility.

Some of the recommendations may cost very little or nothing at all. Some you may be able to do yourself. Others will require the services of a contractor. In any case, the Home Energy Analysis puts you under no obligation to carry out any of the recommendations. However, you probably will want to do at least some of these, because now you will know a great deal more about how to make your home energy efficient.

Whether or not you decide to have a Home Energy Analysis, please read the booklet that comes with your June bill or by a separate mailing. It lists many things you can start doing right now to save energy and money. The booklet also tells you about assistance you can get from your utility to help you make your home more energy efficient—with or without the Home Energy Analysis. Lists of contractors and lenders, as well as do-it-yourself information also are available from your utility.

You can sign up for your Home Energy Analysis by returning the postcard in the booklet or by getting in touch with your utility. The sooner you sign up, the sooner you can start reducing energy waste in your home.

The Michigan Residential Conservation Services program is conducted through the utilities listed below. You can select any one of which you are a customer to perform your Home Energy Analysis.

TEL-MED Adds Three New Tapes

Homosexuality and diet variations are the topics of new tapes added to the phone-in library of TEL-MED, a free Washtenaw area telephone health information service.

The two new human sexuality tapes, entitled "Homosexuality: Gay Men" and "Homosexuality: Lesbians" were written in Ann Arbor and reviewed by Ann Arbor psychiatrists. They have now been made available for use nationally by TEL-MED. In simple, clear language the tapes discuss some common questions about homosexuality and homosexual lifestyles.

"Vegetarian Diets" provides information concerning reasons for switching to a vegetarian diet, nutrients needed, and possible modifications of such a diet.

The TEL-MED library includes 230 tapes covering many health topics, such as cancer, alcoholism and drug abuse, teeth and dental care and arthritis. All TEL-MED tapes are written and reviewed by physicians or other health care specialists.

To listen to a tape, call TEL-MED and ask to hear the tape over the phone. TEL-MED phone lines are open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday. Phone numbers are 668-1551 (Ann Arbor), 434-6120 (Ypsilanti) and 548-2832 (Howell). Call TEL-MED also to ask for a brochure listing all available tapes.

TEL-MED is sponsored by the Washtenaw United Way, the Washtenaw Medical and Dental Societies, and the hospitals of Washtenaw and Livingston counties.

DOTTIE-O-DAIRY RANCH on Halst Rd. was the scene Thursday, May 28 as kindergartners at both North and South Elementary schools took a field trip there. Cows, ducks, horses, pigs, peacocks,

Juveniles Admit B & E at 3-D Plant

At approximately 2 a.m. Thursday morning, May 28, Washtenaw County Sheriff's deputies arrested three local juveniles in connection with a breaking and entering of the 3-D

Co., 13550 Luick Dr. The alleged crime had been committed late Wednesday night. According to Detective Paul Wade, deputies Dan Cook and Richard Pniewski had assisted the Chelsea Police Department on quieting a disturbance on Park St. caused by a trio of boys.

Later, the sheriff's department answered a call regarding the breaking and entering of 3-D Co. There, liquor and Playboy magazines had been stolen and a pop machine was stripped of approximately $50 in cash.

Det. Wade explained that access to the building had been made by crossing a large field behind the business and, because it was raining, whoever was involved would have wet, muddy clothing.

Deputies Cook and Pniewski recalled seeing at least one of the boys involved in the Park St. incident with wet pants. They located the trio, who later admitted to their involvement in the breaking and entering.

The youths, ages 14, 15 and 16, were taken into custody and sent to the juvenile home. Two have been released. All stolen goods have been recovered.

Small Outboard Motors Being Taken by Thieves

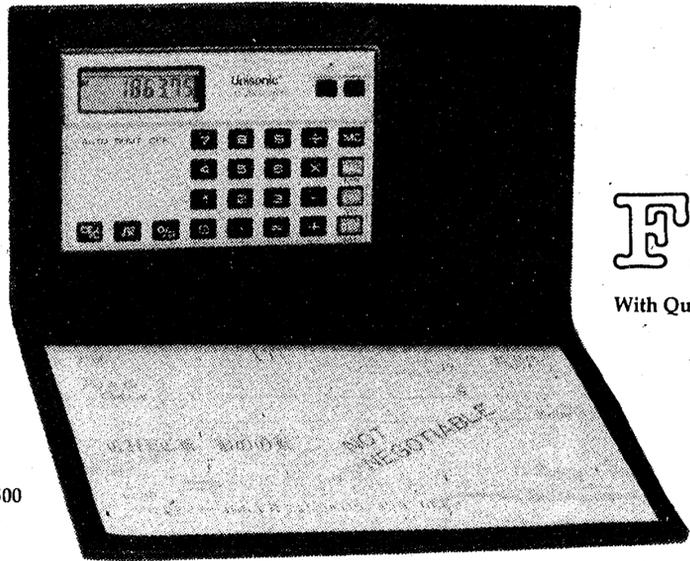

Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department has answered numerous calls within the past two weeks regarding stolen boat motors owned by permanent and seasonal residents and temporary campers on the lakes in the Chelsea area.

According to Det. Paul Wade, most of the incidents have occurred on North and Sugar Loaf Lakes and involve small fishing motors ranging from three to 10 horse power.

To avoid the theft of boat motors, owners can take a number of precautions including purchasing a lock to secure the motor to the boat or, if small enough, taking the motor off the boat and placing it in a garage.

JV Softball Team Stands 11-1 in SEC

On Tuesday, May 12, Chelsea's JV softball team hosted the Dexter Dreadnaughts, handing the rivals a 9-4 defeat.

Chelsea erupted for seven runs in the first inning to get the game going. Tough Bulldog defense held Dexter to only four runs, all of which came late in the fifth inning.

The fine batting of Jane Verway, Celeste Powell, Venus Roberts, Lisa Beeman and Deb Morris led the Bulldog attack. Pitcher Donna Popovich, teamed with catcher Joyce Robards, were given the win.

Chelsea traveled to Milan to play a doubleheader against the Big Reds the next day. Milan took a commanding 6-0 lead in the first inning but the Bulldogs battled back to win the opener, 11-7.

Margie Rawson started on the mound for Chelsea but was relieved by Donna Popovich early in the second inning.

Karen Wilson and Margie Rawson collected one hit apiece in the game. Marty Kovick, Kim Forner and Celeste Powell added two hits each.

In the nightcap, Marge Rawson pitched the entire game in which Chelsea was again victorious. The final score was 18-6.

Leading hitter was Jane Verway with three hits. Julie Patrick, Lisa Beeman, Venus Roberts, Celeste Powell, Deb Morris and Joyce Robards all added with a hit.

In a complete annihilation, Chelsea crushed Lincoln on May 18, 48-0. Every player on the Chelsea squad contributed to the win with solid batting and strong base running.

On Wednesday, May 20, Chelsea's JV Bulldogs wrapped up their conference play with a 14-2 win over Jackson County Western.

Pitcher Donna Popovich went the seven inning distance, showing superb pitching as she had done all season. Hits collected in the game came from Julie Patrick, Venus Roberts, Celeste Powell, Cathy Doll and Cathy Degener.

Coach Leisa Ledwidge was more than pleased about Chelsea's fine season. The Bulldogs were 11-1 in Southeastern Conference play and ended the year with a 22-3 over-all slate.

ANOTHER NO-HITTER: Amy Unterbrink pauses briefly enroute to another no-hitter, this time against Carleton Airport during a pre-district game Friday, May 22.

Chelsea Girls Sparkle In Meet of Champions

Chelsea's girls track team had a double winner in Tuesday's Ann Arbor Kiwanis Meet of Champions. Mary Boylan won the discus with a meet record throw of 113'5" and took the shot put with a school record throw of 35'6 1/2". Boylan was not the Bulldogs' only star, just the brightest one.

Lorrie Vandegrift placed fifth in the discus with a 100'9" throw and sixth in the shot with 31'7 1/4". Their performances were fitting ways for the two seniors to begin winding down their final season. Vandegrift's season will conclude with the high jump in the state meet at Sturgis while Boylan has the state and the Free Press All State meet June 5.

Two other seniors ended outstanding careers at Chelsea with the Meet of Champions. Kathy Honbaum turned in a 1:04.3 in the 440 to finish a very close seventh as fifth, sixth and seventh all had the same time.

Honbaum spent three years as a sprinter before moving to the 440 this season. Her hard work was rewarded with the trip to the Meet of Champions.

Nancy Heller had an unusual four years. She was an outstanding half-miler as a freshman, suffered leg problems as a sophomore, came back with a fine junior year and then had "sort of an off year" this year. She has come on strong at the end of the year to provide a dependable and consistent runner on the mile relay. Heller and Honbaum, along with Wendy Wolfgang and Tracy Bohlender, were seventh in the Meet of Champions with a 4:21 mile relay.

Tracy Bohlender finished fourth in the high jump with 4'11" and prepped up for the state meet, finishing fourth in the 220 hurdles while lowering her school record to :30.4. Bohlender has also entered the Free Press meet.

Other Bulldogs in the Meet of Champions were Carol Warren in the 880 and Sandra Frame in the two-mile. Warren, a freshman, was a fine half-miler and ran on the mile relay team this year. Frame, over the course of the season, has chopped half a minute off the school two-mile record.

ANN EISELE starts her delivery in the second game of the day against Ann Arbor Pioneer. Eisele pitched well in her first appearance of the season on the mound for Chelsea giving up just five hits and three runs in six innings.

Basketball Camp Still Has Openings

There are still openings in the Chelsea Basketball Summer Camp program co-ordinated by Chelsea High school varsity basketball coach Robin Raymond. Assisting Raymond in coaching will be Jeff Dilis and Jeff Price.

The six-week camp gets underway June 15 and runs through July 22 for all interested sixth through twelfth graders. Cost for the basketball camp is $10.

Meeting each Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday mornings, incoming ninth through twelfth graders will gather from 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. while incoming sixth through eighth graders will meet from 10:30 a.m. until noon.

Contents of this year's basketball camp will include work on individual and team techniques and emphasis on mastering fundamentals of offensive and defensive basketball. Players will be divided into teams for intra-camp competition.

At the end of the six-week camp, awards will be distributed to those persons who perform best in the areas of offensive and defensive play as well as free throw accuracy.

Interested students may register through the Community Education Department.

Big Boy Downs Portage Hardware

Chelsea Big Boy came through Tuesday night, May 26 with a big win against Portage Lake Hardware. Big Boy started things early in the game by scoring five runs in the top of the first inning.

Len Kozma walked to start the game. Wayne Welton followed with a double, Randy Brier—who's been ripping the ball all over the park this season—was walked intentionally. Clean-up hitter John Houle then drove in two runs with a single and Mike Laverman hit a long three-run homer to right center field to give Big Boy their five run cushion.

The first out of the inning was made by Chelsea's seventh batter.

Big Boy continued their scoring with two more runs in the third inning, one in the fourth, two in the fifth and one in the sixth to up the tally to 11-1. With a 10 run rule, Big Boy gained the victory after six complete innings.

With the return of shortstop Wayne Welton and outfielder John Houle, Big Boy was finally able to field their strongest lineup. Chelsea played a fine all-around ball game with good pitching, hitting and defense. Len Kozma went 2 for 3, Welton was 2 for 4, Brier went 3 for 4, including a homerun, J. Houle was 3 for 4 with two doubles, Laverman had his three-run homer, Craig Houle chipped in with 3 for 4 including a double. Third baseman Jerry Ahrens played a fine defensive game, Ron Hodge did the pitching and gave up a run in the first inning and shut the door on Portage the rest of the way to gain his first victory.

Girls Softball Team Places 3rd in Royal Oak Tournament

On Sunday, May 17 Chelsea's varsity softball team resumed play in the rain delayed Royal Oak Dondero Tournament of Champions.

The Chelsea team opened with a disappointing 11-1 loss at the hands of the tournament hosts, Royal Oak Dondero. Anita Powell took the loss, her first of the season. Anita pitched well but failed to receive sufficient fielding and hitting support.

The lady Bulldogs then dropped into the loser's bracket, immediately facing a tough Bishop Foley team. Amy Unterbrink took the mound and pitched the next 26 innings for Chelsea. Unterbrink struggled through the Foley game, taking the win, 5-4, as the Chelsea team picked up five runs in the first inning with the big hit being Anita Powell's double.

Chelsea picked up steam in their next game as they squared off against Royal Oak Kimball for the second time in the tournament. Amy Unterbrink, facing Kimball for the second time, found the groove against Class A Kimball, striking out 13 as she tossed her second no-hitter of the season.

The lady Bulldogs picked up their only run in the game as Kely Hense walked and Celeste Powell came in to pinch run. Powell advanced to second on a sacrifice bunt by Amy Unterbrink and took third on a passed ball. Celeste came in to score the winning run on Kim Boyd's perfect sacrifice bunt.

Chelsea faced Class A Clio next, a team whose only loss came at the hands of Royal Oak Dondero. Unterbrink remained on the mound for Chelsea and continued her fine performance. Amy held Clio in check for the next 11 innings as neither Chelsea nor Clio could push across the winning run. Chelsea picked up eight hits without being able to score a run against the strong Clio defense which turned in two double plays to choke off Chelsea's rallies.

Clio scored first with two outs in the 12th inning. Unterbrink walked only the third hitter of the game and Clio put together their third hit of the game with some excellent base running to pick up two runs. Chelsea rallied in the bottom of the 12th inning, collecting three hits and one run but failing to tie the score as Clio came away with a hard won 2-1 victory.

Chelsea finished the tournament with a 6-2 tournament record. Amy Unterbrink, in pitching the last three games, threw 26 innings giving up just six runs, six hits, striking out 32, while walking only six.

The lady Bulldogs left the tournament tired but satisfied with their play against such tough competition, finishing third in a field of 18 teams.

Three Girls Qualify For State Track Meet

As the track season draws to a close, the girls on the Chelsea track team are coming up with some fine individual performances. Running in the Jackson Northwest regional, three Bulldogs qualified for the state meet.

Mary Boylan placed third in the discus with a throw of 114' 11" to qualify for the third consecutive year. Lorrie Vandegrift goes to state for the second year in a row in the high jump. She finished third in the regional with a 4' 11" jump. Tracy Bohlender qualified by placing second in the 200 hurdles with an outstanding time of :30.7. This trio marked the first time three lady tracksters qualified for state in any event.

Bohlender also scored in the high jump, tying for fourth by clearing 4' 11". Sandra Frame finished sixth in a very strong 3200 field with a school record time of 12:05.7. Other strong regional performances came from Sue Young who made it to the finals of the long jump but finished in a non-scoring eighth place; Kathy Honbaum, who won her heat of the 400 with a personal best of 1:02.3 but also ended up eighth over-all; and, the 800 relay of Lisa Vandegrift, Carolyn Chandler, Kathy Honbaum and Tracy Bohlender, who ran their season best, but in a non-scoring effort.

The Bulldogs finished ninth in the 17 team field with 23 1/2 points. Battle Creek Harper Creek won the meet with 64 points. The strength of the SEC was evident as Milan, Saline, Tecumseh and Dexter finished fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth.

On May 20, Chelsea had only one winner in the SEC league meet but she was a double champion. Mary Boylan won both the shot and discus with throws of 32'8 1/4" and 107'8". Lorrie Vandegrift added a fourth in the extremely close shot competition with a 32'2 3/4" throw.

Tracy Bohlender finished second in the high jump with 4' 10" and added a second in the 200 hurdles where her :30.9 equaled the old meet record. Martha Hans from Tecumseh was first with a :29.7. Sue Young continued to jump well in the long jump, concluding her season with a fifth-place finish with a freshman record of 15'4".

Lorrie Vandegrift finished fifth in the 100 hurdles as did Lisa Vandegrift, Carolyn Chandler, Kathy Honbaum and Tracy Bohlender in the 800 relay. Lisa Vandegrift, Chandler, Young and Carrie Parkins ran a season best :54.4 to finish fifth in the 400 relay. Carol Warren ran a 2:27.8, her best ever, in the 800 for another fifth for the Bulldogs. Wendy Wolfgang ran a fine 2:31 but failed to score.

Chelsea held a slim lead over Dexter for fourth going into the 3200 and the Bulldogs got outstanding races from Sandra Frame, who was third in 12:05 and Kristin Thomas, fifth with an excellent 12:12.5. Thomas' time is 27 seconds under the school record at the start of the season.

However, Dexter had a second Lisa Goldman and a fourth Cheri Sly to put the Dreadnaughts ahead by one-half point with an event to go. In spite of Chelsea's 4:15.3, yet another season best by Nancy Heller, Carol Warren, Kathy Honbaum and Tracy Bohlender, the Bulldogs were fourth in the 1600 relay while Dexter was second, locking up fourth place in the meet.

The final meet standings saw Milan with 95 points, Tecumseh 68, Saline 59 1/2, Dexter 50 1/2, Chelsea 46, Western 19 and Lincoln 9.

"The results don't reflect the over-all quality of our team," said Coach Bill Bainton. "This was an outstanding meet this year, and the league was very tough. Comparing results, several SEC teams could have done well in other leagues and even won several other regionals. As far as performances go, we have a pretty successful season."

Final Southeastern Conference standings find Milan in first place followed by Tecumseh, Saline, Chelsea, Dexter, Western and Lincoln.

JV Baseball Team Now 6-4 in SEC

On Monday, May 18, the Chelsea JV baseball team defeated Lincoln, 6-4. Doug Pagliarini won his second game of the season, pitching a 10-hitter.

The JV's scored two runs in the second inning on two walks and Eric Kruger's double. In the sixth inning, a walk, three errors and singles by Ken Nadeau and Tom Headrick allowed the JV's to score four runs. Headrick and Nadeau played good defensive games.

The JV's split a doubleheader with Fowlerville Tuesday, May 19, losing game one, 6-4, while winning the second contest, 14-2.

In the first game, Chelsea wasted a combined three-hit pitching performance by Tom Gaunt and Barry Newkirk. Getting hits for the Bulldogs were Chris Seitz, Doug Pagliarini, Ken Nadeau, Randy Krichbaum, Mike Niebauer and Eric Kruger.

The second game found the JV Bulldogs parlaying 10 walks and five hits into 14 runs and a convincing 14-2 victory. Leading the Chelsea hitting attack were Jay Marshall, Doug Pagliarini and Barry Newkirk with one single apiece while Randy Krichbaum hit two singles.

Chris Seitz pitched a strong game for Chelsea, giving up two runs on two hits. The JV Bulldog squad is now 6-4 in league play while 7-10 over-all.

Sluggers of the Week

CHELSEA'S SLUGGERS OF THE WEEK are Mike Gipson, left, and Joel Krichbaum. Gipson is a junior outfielder who, according to Coach Wayne Welton, "has shown great improvement this season." He has a good idea of the strike zone and has led his team in walks this year with 17. Playing baseball only, Welton looks forward to Gipson next season. "He has power," Welton explains.

Krichbaum, right, is a senior right-handed pitcher who, like his pictured counterpart, plays baseball only. He is a two-year varsity letter winner who led his team with more pitching victories last season. According to Welton, "He played what seemed to be the best game of his life against Fowlerville last week. He showed poise."

Varsity Softball Shuts Out Carleton

Chelsea's varsity softball team took their second step in the Class B State Tournament Friday, May 22 by defeating Carleton Airport, 6-0.

Behind the no-hit pitching of Amy Unterbrink, the lady Bulldogs scored a run in the first, second and third innings, putting the game away in the sixth inning with a three run burst. Unterbrink struck out 13 batters on her way to her third no-hitter of the season, facing only 23 Jet batters.

Chelsea collected nine hits as the team pounded Airport's starting pitcher with five extra base hits. Anita Powell had a perfect day at the plate, smashing out two singles and a double, picking up three RBI's. Anita Powell also made the outstanding field play of the game as she saved Unterbrink's no-hitter in the seventh inning, moving to her left into the hole between third and short to pick up a sure base hit and turn it into an easy out.

Other Bulldog hits were picked up by Laurie Cobb, Kelly Hense, Jennifer Ringe and Kim Boyd.

Saturday, May 30 the lady Bulldogs traveled Monroe Jefferson for the Class B District finals.

Soccer Draws 175 Youths

Run, dribble, pass, hustle are words you might hear in the familiar game of basketball. But, for the past six weeks, approximately 175 Chelsea youth have been training their feet in the skills of passing and dribbling as they participate in the Chelsea Recreation Department's soccer program.

Rain or shine, mostly drizzle this spring, the soccer players, ranging in age from 7-14 years, met once a week on a large field on Old US-12 to practice and scrimmage. Since the soccer program uses a playing area equivalent to the size of four football fields, the group was fortunate enough to have had the land donated to them by Reuben Lesser. Being able to meet at the same time and same place has made it easier for busy family schedules. Also, the Village of Chelsea, kept the land mowed for the soccer teams. Help from Reuben Lesser and village was much appreciated.

The life line of the soccer program, as in other Rec Department athletics, is the volunteer coaches. They are the persons who donate their time, effort and talents when working with these young players, all in the spirit of sportsmanship and fun. With the increase of participants, parents and friends were recruited to meet the expanding program's needs. Some coaches had never played soccer or had even seen a soccer game. They all deserve credit. The coaches for the 1981 soccer program were John Baker, John Eisenbeiser, Mary Lou Hurd and Tom Smith of Ann Arbor, coaching the 10-14-year-old teams; Chris Baker, Wilhelm van Reesema, Rik Hagen, Jim Alford and Steve Correll, coaching the 6- and 7-year-old teams; and Sandy and Tom Northrup, Joe Redding and John Wilcox, coaching the 8- and 9-year-old teams.

For the first time, young referees helped with the games of the older players. They were Robert Murrell, Eric Cole and Carl Pate.

Soccer stressed learning through doing the entire season and everyone ended up knowing more than when the season got underway. The program will get underway again next year after the snow melts.

SOPHOMORE KIM BOYD is the youngest of the Chelsea varsity's four pitchers and while Kim starts for the varsity in right field she has made only one pitching start, throwing a no-hitter for the JV Bulldogs against Pinckney.

Chinese Dinner Planned at Dexter St. Joseph Church

If you like Chinese food, the school hall of St. Joseph's church at 4th and Dover, Dexter, is the place to go on June 14. At 6:30 p.m. some of the Vietnamese people who came to this area as refugees will be serving some of their native specialties.

The meal will start with egg drop soup, followed by egg rolls, sweet and sour pork, and Chinese shish-kebab. The meal will be completed with bean cookies and Chinese tea.

Our Vietnamese friends, who are of Chinese heritage, felt they would like to help replenish the St. Joseph's Refugee Corps Fund, and this dinner would be a good way to share their heritage with some of their American friends.

The St. Joseph's Refugee Corps has now assisted 18 people to resettle in Washtenaw county. If you'd like to join in the spirit of friendship and share the good food, come to Doan Ket, "Link to Brotherhood," on June 14 at 6:30 p.m.

Tickets may be obtained by calling Paula Franson at 426-3012. Reservations are limited.

Coast Guard Auxiliary Instructs in Boat Safety

In observance of National Safe Boating Week, June 7-13, Miriam Chaffee, representing United States Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 17-03 of Ann Arbor and Jerry McGonigal representing Flotilla 17-05 of Jackson, visited Chelsea elementary schools last week to volunteer their services in jointly teaching water safety and boating safety classes to Chelsea elementary students. This was done to aid the U.S. Coast Guard in their aim to promote water safety through public education. The Coast Guard Auxiliary, in addition to conducting public education classes for all ages, also helps the Coast Guard carry out patrols and search and rescue missions. An additional service that auxiliaries perform is giving courtesy boat examinations to let boat owners know if their boats are properly equipped for safety.

Young People's Citizenship Seminar Set by Farm Bureau

Beth Heller of Chelsea, Jennifer Gyde of Whitmore Lake, and Jenny Feldkamp, Beth

Meade, Charlotte Rickelmann and Carol Schable, all of Manchester, will be among 219 high school juniors and seniors participating in the 18th annual Michigan Farm Bureau Young People's Citizenship Seminar, June 15-19, at Albion College, Albion.

During the five day seminar, the students will participate in a mock election process and hear from experts on our nation's system of government, as well as those in other countries. According to Robert G. Craig, seminar chairman, activities are aimed towards students gaining a better understanding and appreciation of America's way of life and freedoms, its political party system and its capitalistic private enterprise economy.

Students participation in the seminar have been selected by county Farm Bureaus in co-operation with their high schools. The students must possess leadership ability and an interest in learning more about their country.

The first federal legislation paying workers in private industry a pension was the Railroad Retirement Act. This provision was enacted in 1935, according to a publication of the U.S. Department of Labor, "Labor Firsts in America."

Through the seminar's activities, the students also will gain a practical and meaningful experience in citizenship education through information, discussion, self-expression, participation and self-discipline," said Craig.

Speakers at this year's Michigan Farm Bureau Young People's Citizenship Seminar will include Robert Vander Laan, state senate Minority Leader, Grand Rapids; Dr. Clifton Ganus, president, Harding University, Searcy, Ark; and, Vic Verchereau, 1979-80 president, Michigan Future Farmers of America, among others.

Virginia Ryan, Ph.D, Women and Substance Abuse Specialist with the Michigan Office of Substance Abuse Services (OSAS), is working to change public attitudes toward women alcoholics and encourage more women to seek treatment. Only 9,200 women (as compared to nearly 50,000 men) were admitted to state-funded alcohol treatment programs last year. Dr. Ryan estimates that "there are closer to 100,000 women in Michigan who have a serious alcohol problem."

According to Dr. Ryan, there are significant differences in how alcoholism is identified and should be treated in men and women. "It's an uphill battle to convince anyone with a drinking problem to get help," she said, "and women alcoholics face many obstacles to recovery that male alcoholics do not."

For example, she explains, the social stigma is greater for women alcoholics. Excessive drinking among men is more often excused and treatment also becomes more acceptable for men than women.

Also, according to Dr. Ryan, hidden drinking is much more common among women than men. Women, especially those who are unemployed, tend to drink alone in their own home more often than men and their problems are less obvious to others.

Another problem she says is that physicians frequently prescribe tranquilizers for women with a "nervous condition" and often overlook early signs of alcoholism. Thus, women alcoholics are more likely to become cross-addicted than male alcoholics.

Divorce rates for alcoholic women are also much higher than for alcoholic men. She says that non-alcoholic wives are far more likely to remain with their alcoholic husbands than are non-alcoholic husbands with their alcoholic wives. Thus, the alcoholic woman is less likely than her male counterpart to have an adequate social support system during her recovery.

"Female alcoholism is not new, it's just increasing and being diagnosed more often," points out Dr. Ryan. "In the past, many women alcoholics were treated for mental disorders and not alcoholism. Also, traditionally, women have encountered drinking difficulties later in life than men. However, as social prohibi-

Women Alcoholics Face Many Barriers to Recovery

Alcoholism, somewhat like ulcers and heart disease, has traditionally been considered a "man's disease." Women with drinking problems often face many barriers to identification and recovery not experienced by men.

According to Dr. Ryan, several of Michigan's alcohol treatment programs specialize in helping women alcoholics. Others, she says, recognize the special needs of women and are seeking ways of modifying traditional services to address these needs. She points out that most communities also have Alcoholics Anonymous meetings, many for women only, and many have Women for Sobriety chapters.

"There is help and hope for women alcoholics," concludes Dr. Ryan. "Every woman alcoholic who seeks treatment and successfully recovers is helping reduce the social stigma attached to alcoholism among women. This, in turn, will help provide a climate in which a woman with an alcohol problem is more likely to seek treatment and to receive services which are appropriate to her needs."

Michigan Food Facts Booklet Offered Free

The 1981 edition of Michigan Food Facts has been published by the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Pidgeon said the 16-page booklet describes nearly 50 food crops grown commercially in our state and displays some of the "good thing growing in Michigan" on the four-color cover. Major crop growing areas are identified in Food Facts, as well as crop volume and value. The state's production rank in comparison to other states is also listed.

Our state leads the nation in production of five food crops and ranks fifth or higher in 19 others," Pidgeon said. "Each Michigan farmer produces enough food to feed himself and 87 other people, on some of the best agricultural land in the world, a resource we must protect, since it cannot be replaced."

Agriculture is the state's second largest industry, worth $16.5 billion to Michigan's economy. Farmers received an estimated $3.3 billion in 1980. Addition of transportation, processing and marketing costs brought the total retail value to $16.5 billion!

Copies of the 1981 Michigan Food Facts are available without cost by writing or calling MDA's Communications office, P. O. Box 30017, Lansing 48909, 517/373-1104.

Grass Lake Man Participates in Giant NATO Exercise

Marine Lance Cpl. Anthony P. Daschke, son of Leonard and Jeanette Daschke of 5705 Crane Court, Grass Lake, and whose wife, Angela, is the daughter of Evelyn Lamb of 222 Kathy Circle, Jackson, recently participated in the NATO exercise "Cold Winter" and "Coldex-Flotex 81" in northern Norway.

He is a member of the Battalion Landing Team 1/6, based at Camp Lejeune, N. C. Three U. S. Navy ships and 1,500 Marines of the 36th Marine Amphibious Unit were involved in the two exercises. Upon arriving in Norway, they conducted combined underway training and amphibious landing operations with ships of the United Kingdom.

After extensive training with Norwegian ground forces, the Marines re-embarked for amphibious landings in the "Cold Winter" phase, which improved the readiness of the combat elements and the capability of the group to support landing forces.

The final phase of the deployment, "Coldex-Flotex," involved an opposed transit with a Norwegian surface escort group while conducting simulated air, surface, and submarine warfare operations.

Question: You have said you support and encourage the tourism industry. What special summer events does Michigan have to offer tourists and vacationers?

Governor: In addition to Michigan's beautiful waterways and natural attractions, there are enough activities to keep a tourist busy from now until fall. Both small towns and large cities host a wealth of festivals and events which are fun and interesting. Although the Holland Tulip Festival and the Alma Highland Festival took place in May, listed below are a few highlights for the summer months.

June 4-6: Michigan Special Olympics Summer Games, Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant.

June 8-14: Rose Festival, Jackson.

June 12-14: National Asparagus Festival, Hart.

June 14-20: Bavarian Festival, Frankenmuth.

June 20-28: World Hot Air Balloon Championship, Battle Creek.

July 5-11: National Cherry Festival, Traverse City.

July 11-19: National Blueberry Festival, South Haven.

July 17-19: 200 Years of Fort Mackinac, Mackinac Island and Mackinaw City.

Aug. 19-22: U. S. Cheerleaders National Grand Championships, Lansing Civic Center.

Aug. 20-Sept. 7: Michigan State Fair, Detroit.

Aug. 22: Howell Melon Festival, Howell.

Sept. 4-7: Michigan Peach Festival, Romeo.

Sept. 7: Mackinac Bridge Walk, St. Ignace to Mackinac City.

Sept. 11-13: Wine Festival, Paw Paw.

Sept. 12-13: Old Car Festival, Greenfield Village, Dearborn.

More information on the hundreds of art, music, sporting events, Detroit's ethnic festivals and other events may be obtained from the Michigan Travel Bureau, Department of Commerce, Lansing 48909.

Question: Is the Upper Peninsula suffering from the same economic problems that we are in Lower Michigan?

Governor: Some sections of the Upper Peninsula have experienced similar problems of a depressed economy, but recent events have sounded an optimistic note in two traditional Upper Peninsula industries—mining and forestry. I recently participated in the groundbreaking for a $483 million Champion International pulp mill facility at Iron Mountain which will require 2,000 construction workers and 350 permanent jobs. On the same day, the White Pine Copper Mine began a $78 million expansion which will create 500 new jobs. To put the projects in perspective, the investment is comparable to Detroit's Renaissance Center. Earlier this year, the Mead Corp. began a $285 million operation in Escanaba.

These events, in addition to an expanding tourist industry, promise renewed economic development in the Upper Peninsula.

If you have a question for the Governor, please send it to: Ask the Governor, Executive Office, Press Section, Lansing 48909.

Summertime Festival Schedule Offers Variety

Michigan's summertime festival schedule reads somewhat like a menu of tempting delicacies from across the state and around the world, according to the Automobile Club of Michigan.

First there is the fruit salad combination of Traverse City's National Cherry Festival, July 5-11, South Haven's National Blueberry Festival, July 11-19 and Howell's Melon Festival, Aug. 20-23. The tantalizing treats awaiting visitors to these events include pancakes and pies of blueberries or cherries and big round juicy melons.

Add a main course like the pick of the catch from Ludington's Salmon Derby, Aug. 22-Sept. 6 or the one served to some 1,600 townspeople and another 12,000 visitors at the Manchester Chicken Broil July 16. This outdoor picnic is held annually at the high school athletic field, with the town fathers doing the cooking while the town mothers relax.

For a truly hearty meal, visit the International Kielbasa Festival in Hamtramck's Memorial Park July 4. The succulent sausage will be served noon to 10 p.m., and it is free—compliments of the city's meat packers.

Another hearty dish—golabki (stuffed cabbage)—is the speciality at the Polish Festival in Flint, which is held twice annually—July 12 and Aug. 23.

For dessert, try some aebleskiver (fried pancake dough rolled in a ball and coated with confectioners' sugar) at the Danish Festival in Greenville Aug. 14-16.

Wash it all down with some "fruit of the vine" after taking part in the traditional grape-stomping at the Paw Paw Wine Festival Sept. 11-13. The local wineries invite visitors to shed shoes and socks and start stomping—the old-time way of crushing grapes for wine. Purple feet and wine-tasting are traditions of this event.

For table decorations, choose the sweet-smelling posies found at the Jackson Rose Festival June 6-14, the Mackinac Island Lilac Festival June 13-14 and the Coloma Gladiolus-Peach Festival July 31-Aug. 2.

To burn off all those calories, festival-goers can try some foot-stomping at the Summer Polka-Fest in Frankenmuth Aug. 14-23. Twenty-three polka bands will play non-stop German, Polish, Czech, Slovenian and traditional American polka music starting at 5 p.m. weekdays and noon Saturdays and Sunday. The high-stepping is done under tents on two wooden floors, 80 by 60 feet.

HEYDLAUFF GOES TO WASHINGTON: As an assistant to Congressman Carl Pursell, Dale Heydlauff, 23, of Chelsea, is required to act as a liaison between the Congressman and numerous governmental units. He is the son of Jerald and Shirley Heydlauff of Dexter-Chelsea Rd.

Dale Heydlauff Working With Cong. Carl Pursell

A Chelsea native is playing a key role in shaping federal transportation policy and putting together a comprehensive transportation plan for southeastern Michigan. Dale E. Heydlauff, 23, Chelsea High and Eastern Michigan University graduate, is the newest member of Congressman Carl Pursell's Washington staff.

Department of Transportation officials, particularly the national administrator for mass transportation, and representatives of the Governor's office, the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEM-TA), and affected local governments. The negotiations are at a particularly delicate stage right now. Decisions will soon be made on exactly how federal funds will be used, and how the proposed system may be altered to reflect the realities of a tight budget and expected inflationary pressures.

"Working as a legislative aide in the nation's capital is an educational experience of immense proportions," Heydlauff said. He prepared for it by earning a B.S. degree in political science and speech communication at Eastern, graduating in 1978. He was a member of EMU's national champion forensic team and was state champion in informative speaking.

Prior to his work on the Civic Involvement Program at General Motors, he was a tutor and teaching assistant in the Political Science Department at EMU.

He became acquainted with Congressman Pursell through involvement in his re-election campaign last fall.

Dale is the son of Jerald and Shirley Heydlauff of 11340 Dexter-Chelsea Rd. between Dexter and Chelsea.

Rep. Pursell won a seat on the Appropriations Transportation Subcommittee in the U.S. House this year and was looking for a new staff member to assist him in that expanded responsibility. Heydlauff, with experience on the industry-government staff at General Motors, was in the right place at the right time with the right qualifications.

He is currently immersed in preparation of the Fiscal Year 1982 federal budget for transportation programs, including highways, railroads, public transportation systems and airlines. One of Pursell's top priorities and thus, one of Heydlauff's chief assignments, is reaching a bipartisan compromise to save Amtrak and Conrail service in the Midwest.

Heydlauff serves as liaison between the Congressman, Appropriations Committee staff and the Reagan Administration on transportation issues. He aids Pursell by preparing briefing materials for committee meetings and House debates, and researches questions raised by constituents and organizations.

Of primary concern for Michigan and many people in Pursell's 2nd Congressional District is $600 million in pending federal assistance for a comprehensive Southeast Michigan Transportation program. A vital part of the proposal is improvement in commuter train service between Washtenaw county and Detroit.

Heydlauff has been engaged in extensive negotiations with

Views On Dental Health

By ROBERT A. BURNS, JR., DDS, P.C.

SUGAR—TOOTH'S WORST ENEMY

Sugar is the major cause of tooth decay. Despite this, the average person consumes about 126 pounds of sugar a year. (That's enough to make about 10,000 chocolate chip cookies!) No wonder the average person has 10 decayed teeth before his or her 15th birthday.

How does sugar perform its dreadful deed? When you eat sugary snacks, the sugar reacts with bacteria in your mouth that form colonies on the teeth. These sticky colonies of bacteria (called plaque) convert sugar to acids and tooth decay results. Simply, sugar is the fuel for tooth decay.

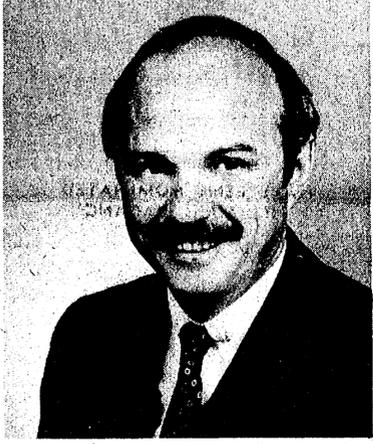

Every time you snack on a sugary food, these acids are working for at least 20 minutes afterwards (so three sugar snacks or drinks a day create an hour's worth of acid attack). The longer a sugary food lasts in your mouth, the greater the risk of tooth decay. Sticky and chewy forms of snacks are more harmful because they tend to cling to your teeth longer.

The best decay prevention is to reduce your consumption of sugar combined with daily brushing and flossing to keep plaque from organizing.

If you have dental health questions you would like to see answered, please mail them to the address below.

ZONING & BUILDING PROTECTION

Most communities now have some rules about what you build where, and for what purposes. Check these restrictions carefully before buying or building. You could discover, for example, that local zoning laws forbid running a business out of your home. Or you may be prohibited from using certain building materials, or building a guesthouse on your land. Generally, your recourse is to appeal to the local board for a variance, an exception to the rule.

Sometimes the law requires you to take out a building permit in order to make changes in your home. Normally, a permit is required just for major projects, not simple tasks like laying down a new floor or adding cabinets or bookcases. If you aren't certain about the need for a permit, it's wise to check. Also, be sure that any contractor you hire has obtained the necessary permits. To be safe, have that guarantee in writing. Also have him state in writing that the work he completes will comply with local building codes.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 435 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8881; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Washtenaw Deputies Set the Pace for Detroit Police Academy Grads

Washtenaw County Sheriff's Deputies "set the pace" recently for the second highest scoring class in the history of the Detroit Metropolitan Police Academy. At the May 1 graduation exercise, held in Livonia, Inspector James Jackson of the Detroit Police Department noted that only one class has held a higher over-all average.

Five Washtenaw county deputies graduated with the 21 member class: Willis Chapman, Gary Chick, Anthony Klaf, Louis Lanava and Craig Strong. Of these, three received special honors. Anthony Klaf held the highest over-all academic average, Gary Chick scored first on the final class examination and Craig Strong held the highest firearms score.

Sheriff Thomas Minick, who was present for the award ceremony, praised the achievements of his men, but also gave credit to the other fine officers in the class, noting that it is often the over-all atmosphere of intense competition that inspires certain individuals to become class leaders.

All five graduates are currently assigned to the Corrections Division.

MSU Peach Varieties Reach Market

The search for the elusive perfect peach never ends for horticultural researchers at Michigan State University's Agricultural Experiment Station, but varieties released during the last couple of years have moved the search closer to its goal.

Three new freestone varieties have reached the commercial market and are available to fruit growers and home gardeners, says Experiment Station peach breeder and horticulturist Robert Andersen. The new varieties—Sweet-haven, Newhaven and Jayhaven—are the Experiment Station's best efforts so far in breeding the ideal peach for Michigan—one that can cope with the cold winters, resist disease and give consistent crops.

About 12,000 peach varieties have been cultivated through the Experiment Station's breeding program since the 1920s, when the late Stanley Johnston, professor of horticulture, pioneered peach research in Michigan and came up with the first varieties specifically suited to the state's climate and growing conditions. Much of Johnston's research was conducted at the South Haven Experiment Station, an outlying research facility which was closed last year.

Future research and testing of new varieties will be handled at the Experiment Station's newest field station at Clarksville, near Grand Rapids.
