FUTURE RELOCATION of Chelsea Lumber Co. remains in the hands of the Sylvan Township Zoning Commission and the possible amendment of the zoning ordinance in question. If all goes well, and the rezoning is approved, Chelsea Lumber will move to this location, near Ann Arbor Trust Co. on the property of the former Pielemeier farm, at Old Manchester Rd. and M-52. This property has been owned by Robert Daniels for a number of years. A public hearing regarding the rezoning question will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Aug. 24 at the Sylvan Township Hall.

Sylvan Planners Set Hearing Date for Lumber Co. Zoning

Sylvan Township Planning Commission has set the date for a public hearing to discuss the petition of Daniels' Enterprises to amend the Sylvan Township Zoning Ordinance, Section 31.02 by adding a subsection "J" regarding home building or building supply centers for the retail display and sale of lumber, materials, appliances and all related building materials, subject to a trio of exceptions and restrictions.

The hearing is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Monday, Aug. 24 at the Sylvan Township Hall, 112 W. Middle St. There, all interested parties will be heard regarding the proposed relocation of Chelsea Lumber Co. The subsection to be possibly added to the present zoning ordinance will include three restrictions stating that the center must be under one ownership and consist of integrated facilities and buildings served by a central parking area and entrance; the lot area of the integrated center must be at least five acres in area; and, no open air display or storage of sand, gravel, coal or other mined materials will be allowed.

The acreage in question is located on Old Manchester Rd. near Ann Arbor Trust and the former Pielemeier farm. In order to meet the needs of both Chelsea Lumber Co. and Chelsea Milling Co., the organizations have entered into an agreement by which, the milling company will take over the lumber company buildings if the rezoning of the aforementioned acreage is made possible and construction of a new, more easily accessible lumber yard is complete. Interested parties are encouraged to attend the public hearing and all pertinent materials, including the petition and supporting papers, are on file in the office of the Sylvan Township Clerk, Mary Harris, and are a matter of public record.

Saline Youths Sentenced For Fire Hydrant Prank

On Monday, July 13, Judge Kenneth Bronson of the 14th District Court sentenced five

Saline youths for an April incident in which nearly every fire hydrant in the Village of Manchester was opened, resulting in the near draining of the village's total water supply.

The quintet was sentenced to six months probation and given fines and costs of $305 each after they pled guilty to charges of interfering with public utilities. The drainage was apparently intended to be a prank though the nearly emptied water system left the village in a precariously dangerous position had a major fire begun.

Six of Manchester's fire hydrants were uncapped with wrenches and the valves were damaged, resulting in a major catastrophe when firemen attempted to recap them. When the recapping was finally complete, more than 250,000 gallons of water had been freed, leaving Manchester with just over 25,000 gallons in reserve.

The group had been apprehended at the scene by an off-duty policeman. It took nearly eight hours to replenish the village's water supply to its pre-prank status.

The youths were given delayed sentences in 14th District Court; if they avoid troublesome situation during probation, all records will be expunged.

JOHN HOULE will display a number of his original drawings of historic sites within Chelsea during the eighth annual Sidewalk Festival, Friday and Saturday. Houle, manager of The Loft Frame and Art Gallery, will soon offer his drawings to the public in the form of signed, numbered prints.

John Houle Completes First In Series of Historic Sites

Sponsored by the Limited Edition Art Galleries of Michigan, Inc., Chelseaites John Houle will present two series of original prints of historic sites in Chelsea, available for purchase through The Loft Frame and Art Gallery beginning this week.

Displayed during the eighth annual Chelsea Sidewalk Festival and at The Loft, Houle's two series of four original signed and numbered prints will feature an octet of renditions of local landmarks including, in the first series, McKune House, the Chelsea train depot, First United Methodist church, and the 14th District Court building. The second series, yet to be completed, will include the Clock Tower, the Congregational church, the Welfare (Chelsea Standard) Building, and Chelsea Milling-Jiffy Mixes.

At this time, the McKune House is the first in the series to be completed; a second original print will be available to the public during the Chelsea Community Fair. Thereafter, a new print should be completed every two months. The entire, eight-piece collection is planned to be finished within one year.

John Houle, 24, is a Chelsea native now residing in the Waterloo Recreation Area. He married his wife, Tammy, nearly two years ago and the couple recently gave birth to their first child, a daughter McKenna, age five weeks.

Houle sold his first original pencil drawing at age 17, during the Chelsea Art Fair of 1973. According to him, that's when his interest really began. John studied art for three years, two years at Eastern Michigan University and one year at Northern Michigan University, where he majored in forestry.

Since the opening of the Walt Browns' gallery—The Loft—approximately five months ago, John has become the manager there. His original drawings have been on display at the gallery, prior to being printed. Since the pair have been hung, a total of 17 individuals have signed up for a numbered original, sight-unseen. The positive response shown elicited Houle's and Brown's interest in the endeavor.

In addition to his historic renditions, Houle also sketches people's homes upon request, having completed a number of sketches of homes within Chelsea. He is also experimenting with wildlife, after having developed a keen interest in the outdoors following years of hunting. "Enjoying wildlife, I made the decision to begin capturing their likenesses on paper," he explained.

The series of historic sites within the village will consist of a total of 75 signed and numbered prints per subject. Thereafter, the dyes and plates will be destroyed and there will be no possibility of further reproduction. The covered, unframed prints will be available at a cost of $25 each and will include a brief biography of the artist and a brief history of the subject matter. The two complete series will be available to the buyer for $200; each print will carry the same number.

Should this project continue to elicit the positive response that it has already received, future endeavors for John Houle include compiling similar series in surrounding communities such as Manchester, Dexter and Hamburg.

Host Families Sought for Japanese

A group of Japanese high school English teachers will be visiting Chelsea in August. These men have been chosen by their government to study at the University of Michigan this summer. They are interested in learning more about American customs and culture, school systems and English language improvement.

The 25 teachers are married males between the ages of 30 and 50.

The Ecumenical campus center in Ann Arbor will be bringing them to Chelsea Saturday morning, Aug. 15 and picking them up Sunday afternoon. The local unit of Church Women United is finding host families for the men.

This can be a good opportunity for your family to get acquainted with someone from another culture. Better understanding of other people can come from new knowledge.

Sidewalk Festival, Art Fair Opens Friday With Bargains for All

Chelsea's eighth annual Sidewalk Festival will feature many local and area artistic talents, entertainment, bargains and refreshments this week-end.

The annual festivities are scheduled to begin Friday, July 31, from 8:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., and end Saturday, Aug. 1 at 5:30 p.m. More than 50 booths have been reserved by artisans and community groups offering food and drink.

Arts and crafts will be shown, demonstrated and sold and will include painting, ceramics, basketry, nature photographs, stained glass, pottery and jewelry, among other fare.

Middle and Park Sts. will be closed to accommodate the buyers and sellers and parking on Main St. will be free both days.

An assortment of entertaining guests have been lined up for the delight of patrons each day. At 2 p.m. Friday, local masters of illusion, Boyer and Fitzsimmons, will provide a magic show at Sylvan Town Hall. Then, at 8 p.m., the second antique auto parade will proceed down Main St.

Swinging their way into Chelsea, the Saline Swirlers will demonstrate square dancing for fairgoers at 7 p.m. and, at 8 p.m., a hot air balloon fly over, sponsored by Independent Insurance Agents of Washtenaw county will take place.

On Saturday afternoon, an antique tractor parade will end the two-day festivities at 3 p.m.

In addition to strolling amidst local talents, browsing and enjoying good food, patrons drawn downtown for the Sidewalk Festival may also take advantage of the bargains that local merchants will have displayed on the sidewalks in front of their business.

Prison Escapees Nabbed By Police

A CB radio operator notified Chelsea Police Department of two suspicious persons prowling around Broderick Tower Shell at approximately 4 a.m. Saturday, July 25.

Chelsea police responded to the scene and chased the suspects on foot, apprehending one, Terrell Anderson, 28, who had been serving time at Camp Waterloo for breaking and entering an occupied dwelling. The other suspect climbed a fence surrounding Chrysler Proving Grounds, near the I-94 mile marker 158 and Old US-12.

Once inside, the suspect took a dump truck and drove through the Proving Grounds attempting to find a way out. Thereafter, he obtained a van and drove to gate No. 10 where he apparently broke the lock with a piece of metal and proceeded to drive the van through the gate. This occurred at approximately 10:30 a.m. and Chelsea Police and the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department—which had circled the Proving Ground via helicopter throughout the night—were notified of his current whereabouts and direction.

The suspect, Thomas Nicks, 24, who had been serving time for grand theft auto, was apprehended at I-94 near Weber's Inn with the assistance of the Ann Arbor Police Department. On Sunday, three inmates escaped from Cassidy Lake Technical school, two were apprehended following a night-long search. One escapee remains at large.

Chelsea Police Department answered multiple complaints throughout the night regarding possible prowling. A total of nine Ford motor vehicles were broken into, their ignition locks mangled. None of the vehicles were successfully stolen from their locations scattered throughout the village.

Learning of the escaped inmates, a concerned citizen phoned the Chelsea Police Department to report that two suspicious males were walking down McKinley St. heading toward North Elementary school. At that time, Sgt. Lenard McDougal and Chief Robert Aeillo went to the scene and apprehended the pair near the school tennis courts.

Taken into police custody were Nicholas Gerard Schamkowski, 21, of Detroit, who was serving three to eight years at Cassidy Lake for armed robbery committed in Macomb county, and Richard John Pomaville, 21, of Detroit, who was serving three to 10 years for armed robbery also committed in Macomb county.

Cassidy Lake officials picked up the pair of escapees and transported them to Jackson Prison where they are being held. Chelsea Police Department is conducting an investigation to determine whether there is a connection between the attempted auto thefts and the escapees. No charges as such have yet been brought against them.

Popcorn Sale Funds Still Being Collected

Following the success of the Chelsea Recreation Council popcorn selling fund-raiser held last month, monies collected during the two-week sale to assist the summer baseball and softball budget are still trickling in.

According to Lynn Fox of the Rec. Council, selection of the winner of the white Huffy 12-speed boys bicycle featuring red striping will not be held until all funds collected are turned in to coaches. The winner's selection is tentatively scheduled for the first week in August.

Carnival Slated Aug. 9 to Benefit MD Association

On Sunday, Aug. 9, a carnival will be held at the Chelsea Community Fairgrounds to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

A number of bands will provide entertainment during the carnival hours, 2 p.m. to 11 p.m. Among them will be country western "Sleek Brothers Band" and well as rock and roll bands such as "Liar's Reason."

All proceeds from this event will go to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Governor Says Tanner Wrong In Not Sending Surveillance Billings
An Executive Office report to the Senate concluded that Department of Natural Resources Director Howard Tanner erred in not consulting with either the legislature or the attorney general when he decided not to send out air and water pollution surveillance fees bills prior to the statutory Feb. 1 deadline.

The report, however, also noted there was confusion in the statutes, requiring both the Feb. 1 billing and a fee increase to be enacted by Feb. 28.

The surveillance program's budget included revenues from a proposed fee increase, but the legislature failed to enact the fee increase to accompany the budget.

Tanner decided to wait for legislative action on the fee increase, disregarding the Feb. 1 deadline so billings for 1981 could reflect the increased amount.

The legislature did not complete action on the surveillance fee bills until late June.

The report said that the confusion did not justify Tanner's decision to delay the billings and he should have sought advice from Attorney General Frank Kelley and the legislative leaders.

Governor William G. Milliken added that air and water pollution fee payers benefitted by being able to hold onto their money until fees were clearly resolved in new legislation.

Tanner's failure to send out the billings by the statutory deadline was brought to the attention of the legislature by Senator Joseph Mack (D-Ironwood), long-time critic of the Department of Natural Resources and its top administration, specifically Tanner.

Mack called for the Senate to demand that legal proceedings be instituted against Tanner and charged him with "non-feasance, mis-feasance and malfeasance."

in office.

Instead of proceeding on its own, the senate decided to request the governor conduct the study to determine whether any wrong doing occurred. The governor was given 60 days to complete the report or the Senate would levy charges.

Mack was angered at the report, maintaining it showed Tanner demonstrated "non-feasance and malfeasance." He added the report was a "damn coverup for a damn poor administrator."

The billing incident will be part of an investigation a special Senate committee will conduct into the department's management, Mack said. The committee, chaired by Mack, will study the department to see how it is run. The report to the Senate included a letter from Tanner outlining the steps he took before deciding not to send the fee bills. The fees are charged to businesses emitting substances into air and water and help finance the air and water quality budgets within the department.

"... I had to weigh a very difficult administrative decision with profound implications regardless of the choice. I decided, therefore, to wait, expecting that legislative action would clear up the confusion and direct us on how much to bill and to whom. With the benefit of hindsight, I erred in not seeking legislative guidance," Tanner said.

The report concluded that Tanner was placed in an "untenable position of being accused of violating one or the other statute" because of the legislatively-created conflict.

Mack charged the executive office report is only "a flowery coverup. It's a slap on the wrist when I would have given him a swift kick in the butt."

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ed Doolittle told the fellers at the country store Saturday night that he was beginning to feel like one of them mayors said he felt during the recent United States Conference of Mayors in Louisville. The mayor said working on all the problems of a big city is like arranging deck chairs on the Titanic. The Reagan Administration is trying to mix some sanity into the Federal Budget by giving away less of the money it ain't got, Ed said, and withdrawal pains of local Governments hooked on turning to Washington for everything is causing much weeping and wailing in the land.

Ed said he's having trouble seeing light at the end of his tunnel to. He said he can live with instant coffee, instant milk, instant biscuits, even instant abortion, but he has come down to the sunset of years facing instant cremation if the two biggest powers in the world keep building better ways to blow one another up. So Ed declared what he ain't ready for is instant Bible. He had saw where Reader's Digest is bringing out a condensed version of the Bible, and he was worried that this instant society has been looking for shortcuts through the 10 Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount.

General speaking, the fellers come to console Ed and not to agree with him. Clem Webster, fer one, said a condensed Bible sure is better than no Bible at all, and he was of a mind that a heap of folks that don't crack the covers of the Bibles they got might take a chanct with one that has some of the begats left out. Clem said we have come to a time when ever magazine puts a girl on the cover and no cover on the girl and stacks em up at the grocery checkout like they're somepun ever home ought not to be without. The television is so full of foul mouth naked people killing one another until the biggest advertiser in the business, Proctor and Gamble, has pulled out of 50 shows. The preachers took to the TV to try and git a word in edgeways, Clem went on, and now they're using the money folks send em to live like the TV stars they say got on business on TV.

So what he's saying, Clem said, is what can a condensed Bible hurt? The fellers was general agreed with Clem. Bug Hookum said when it comes to talking religion he goes along with the old carpentering rule about measuring twict and sawing onct. Whatever you say can be took the way the other feller wants to take it, so you got to know his mind to know what you're saying to him. But Bug went on to declare that folks that read their Bible fer the beauty and the glory of the words will keep right on reading it. But them that are after ideas the works are trying to pass on want to git the most meaning with the least reading.

Zeke Grubb was with Bug. He said a book is like a telephone line between writer and reader. The better you can make the connection the clearer the voices are going to be, and that goes fer the most important connection a feller will ever make in this life or the next.

Personal, Mister Editor, I think Ed felt some better after the discussion.

Teenagers Injured In Cycle Crash On Farm Lane

Severe injuries were sustained Wednesday night, July 22 when two teenagers collided on the motor bikes they were driving on a farm lane off Textile Rd.

Frederick A. Delos, 15, of Pleasant Lake Dr. suffered a head injury and a fractured left leg in the accident. He was listed in fair condition at University Hospital Thursday. James D. Coval, also 15, of Textile Rd. was listed in fair condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital as well.

Delos was driving a 125 cc Yamaha motorcycle; Coval was driving a Honda three-wheeler and each had a passenger, ages 15 and 13, neither of whom sustained serious injury. According to police, only one of the youths was wearing a helmet at the time of the mishap and neither vehicle had lights on.

Prospective Freshmen Attend Orientation Sessions at WMU

About half of the 2,500 freshmen expected to attend Western Michigan University this fall have completed their summer orientation in Kalamazoo, according to the orientation director, Norman K. Russell, assistant to the vice-president for student services at WMU.

Among them were Christine Johnson and Terry Shonk of Chelsea and Catherine Johnston and Karen Palmer of Dexter.

In groups of about 180, the incoming freshmen spent three days on campus registering for classes, taking placement tests and meeting with academic advisors. They were housed in University residence halls and shown through the campus by a group of 40 student leaders.

Good Things Growing In Michigan

By Margaret G. McCall
Summertime is salad time, and already fresh lettuce and celery, good things growing in Michigan, are appearing in markets.

Nearly 22 million pounds of lettuce were marketed in Michigan last year, according to figures from the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Growers planted 1,600 acres to lettuce, mostly iceberg head lettuce, to produce a $4.2 million crop.

Lettuce is one of those foods we tend to take for granted. But what's a BLT without the lettuce, a molded salad not framed by greens, a tossed salad without that crisp lettuce crunch? Think about it—lettuce is one of life's staples.

Celery, too, has been neglected by cooks and consumers, even though Michigan muckland has been producing celery for more than 100 years. Dutch farmers in the Kalamazoo area are credited with introducing this delicacy to our state.

Last year, Michigan's celery crop was almost 139 million pounds, to maintain the state's rank of third largest producer in the nation. The crop, harvested from 3,200 acres, was valued at about $13 million.

In Europe, braised celery is frequently serve as a dinner vegetable, and is delicious when well seasoned. But my favorite cooked celery dish is an au gratin recipe, easy on the cook, and guaranteed to produce celery lovers.

Cut, trimmed and washed celery stalks into 2-inch lengths, place in a greased shallow baking dish. Pour over the celery a medium-thick cheese sauce (I like it made with sharp cheddar and a little Worcestershire), garnish the top with seasoned bread crumbs, bake in a 350-degree oven about half an hour. The celery will be crisp tender. Bake it longer if you like your celery well done.

Hafner and Melissa Hubert to pace the Indians to a 21-15 win. Chris White hit a three-run homer, Robbie Bergman and Danielle Taylor anchored the defense. Nathan Correll made several super catches.

Jason Szostak, Mike Tremper and Steve Brock sparkled on defense for the Twins.

Blue Jays 37, Mariners 17
Matt Jackalke, Karen Keane and Lee Skyles III slashed three hits apiece in routing the Mariners, 37-17.

Wendy Ball and Tara Roehm played exceptionally on defense. Tracey Wales and Amy Feldkamp had two hits apiece for the Mariners.

Rangers 28, Royals 23

The Rangers were blessed with timely hitting as Bob Coelius, Erik Brown and David Burkel had three hits apiece to pace the Rangers to their fifth consecutive win.

Jeremy Wolk played excellent defense. The Royals were led by Aaron Tanner, Kristi Smith and Mike Kelly with two hits apiece.

Indians 32, Blue Jays 21

The Indians got super defense from Rebecca Shures, Ryan Skelly and Kirk Hedding to blast the "Jays" with a score of 32-21.

Tim Wild made super catch in deep left field for the Blue Jays. Jeremy hit his first home run of the season.

Royals 37, Mariners 16

Tina Hassett, Eric Beeman and Carrie Flintoff blasted base hits all over the field as the Royals pashed the Mariners, 34-16. Steve Trevino and Mike Peterson turned in the defensive play of the game.

Brandi Kenney, Scott Dale, and Dennis Fifer turned in sparkling defensive performances for the Mariners.

Susan E. Hull, W.E. Beard, Jr., Speak Marriage Vows in Ohio

Susan Eileen Hull and William E. Beard, Jr. exchanged wedding vows Saturday, June 27 at the First United Methodist church, Kenton, O. The Rev. Gerald Erter officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Myrl and Kay Hull of 207 N. Main St., Kenton, O., while the bridegroom is the son of William E. and Ann Beard of 2845 Dayton Dr., Ann Arbor.

Providing music at the ceremony was organist Scott Barrett and vocalist Mrs. Tammy Barbet of Whitmore Lake played guitar.

Decorating the church were antique wicker plant stands filled with tiger lilies while white and apricot mums and baby's breath adorned the altar.

The bride chose an ivory chiffon gown. Belgium embroidery and seed pearls accented the blouson bodice which featured an English net yoke and bishop sleeves. She wore an apricot silk rose at the waist, tied with silk ribbons. Schiffli lace edged the hemline and chapel train.

A Belgium embroidered hat was side swept with a cascade of apricot silk roses and was accented by a fingertip veil attached to the back.

She carried a bouquet of apricot silk roses, white cymbidium orchids, stephanotis, lilies of the valley and ivy.

A friend of the bride, Mrs. George (Lynn) Bartley of Columbus, O., served as matron of honor. Ms. Marla Sebu of North Territorial Rd., Gregory, served as bridesmaid.

They were attired in ivory spaghetti-strapped gowns featuring a caftan overdress of ivory gauze printed with apricot flowers. They carried baskets filled with apricot silk roses, cymbidium orchids and ivy.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, John Beard of Ypsilanti. Ushers included Richard Beard of Ann Arbor, brother of the bridegroom and Peter Warburton, also of Ann Arbor, a friend of the bridegroom.

Following the wedding ceremony, a buffet reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Thereafter, the couple honeymooned at Salt Fork State Park Lodge, Cambridge, O. They are at home at 148 Van Buren St., Chelsea.

The bride received her bachelor's degree in education at Miami University of Ohio and her master's degree in library science at Western Michigan University. She is employed as media specialist, Beach Middle school.

Her husband received his bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Eastern Michigan University. He is an elementary school teacher at South Elementary school.

REDUCING WATER HEATING COSTS

Did you ever wonder how much it cost you to heat your water? One simple way is to check your fuel bills during the summer months. More than you thought—right? Here are some tips to get that cost down.

Run your dishwasher and clothes washer only with full loads. Putting each through a full cycle for a partial load is costly because you still pay for virtually full-load power.

Set the water-heater thermostat to the lowest temperature of hot water needed. This is usually the hottest faucet water your hands can tolerate. Too high a setting means excessive fuel consumption, and extra cold water is needed from the faucet to cool it down. The water heater ordinarily can be set at 140 degrees. Experiment a little to get it to the lowest hot water temperature that is satisfactory.

Insulate long runs of hot water piping from the water heater. This usually can be done at the basement ceiling where such piping is exposed.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2821. We're here to help!

I-94 Traffic Slowed By Bridge Repairs

Traffic on Interstate 94 Freeway in Washtenaw county from the Jackson county line east to Wagner Rd., will be slowed at times for construction work, the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) says.

Traffic will be intermittently restricted to one lane on various bridges for construction of median barriers and resurfacing of the bridge decks. Signs and flashing arrows will guide motorists.

The eastbound lanes will be fully open for University of Michigan home football games.

The work will end early this fall and resume in 1982.

Deborah Nangle, Dan Barnes Wed in Kalamazoo Ceremony

Deborah Ann Nangle and Dan Williams Barnes were married Saturday, July 11 at the First United Methodist church, Kalamazoo. The Rev. Wayne Reese officiated at the 5:30 p.m. wedding uniting the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Nangle of Kalamazoo to the son of Jack and Cheri Barnes of 9 Maple Ct., Chelsea.

The bride was attired in a white gown featuring a Queen Anne neckline and collar. The bodice was embroidered with seed pearls and the accordion pleated skirt edged with lace terminated in a chapel-length train. She wore a fingertip veil edged in similar lace and carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Cathyrne G. Bargamian of Allen Park. She wore a dusty rose gown featuring an accordion pleated skirt. She carried a bouquet of silk roses and stephanotis.

Bridesmaids included Julie K. Barnes and Jane E. Barnes of Chelsea and Ann Barnes Kemp-painen of Covington, Va., sisters of the bridegroom, Melissa Nangle of Kalamazoo, sister of the bride and Julie Coash, a friend of the bride.

They were attired in gowns identical to that worn by the maid of honor and carried similar bouquets.

Mother of the bride chose a beige organza gown with mauve and blue flowers imprinted. She wore a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in an ice blue gown. Pink roses pinned to her pearl purse complemented her attire.

Best man was James E. Barnes of Pinckney, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers included Brad Glazier and Victor Steinbach of Chelsea, William K. Cook of West Bloomfield, Bruce Bennett of Farmington Hills and the bride's brother, Michael Nangle of Kalamazoo.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, a dinner dance for 200 guests followed at the Birches in Kalamazoo. Thereafter, the couple left for a Canadian honeymoon.

They are at home at Long Lake in Scotts.

The bride is a graduate of Central High school, Kalamazoo, and Michigan State University. She is employed at Doubleday Blas and Co.

Her husband graduated from Chelsea High school and Michigan State University. He is employed by Reed Office Systems.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
On July 18, our hearts grew larger than ever before with love and pride. Love and pride in 15 exceptional boys from St. Louis school who came to work on a very special car wash. Water, soap and a lot of "elbow grease" and sweat under the hot sun, mixed with laughter got the job done. When the last truck was washed, Chelsea McDonald's restored our used up energy with hamburgers, fries and a cold drink. Polly's furnished dessert in the form of a big red watermelon.

It was the moment for a tally of money earned. Smiles were fixed on faces when told they, the Exceptional Boys and their friends, earned $140.50. Who are their friends you ask? Each and everyone of you who brought your car in for a bath. The folks from St. Mary's Parish Family who gave of their time and energy, and a lovable, wonderful clown called Tricky, to each and everyone of you, from our hearts, we thank you.

After all was cleaned up and picked up, we who worked the car wash formed a circle on the lawn under the trees. We held hands and together we offered thanks to God, for all of you, for each of us, and for the chance to prove we can do it!

Mrs. Millie Warner
St. Mary's Christian Service

Ann Arbor Trust Reports Increase In Assets, Loans

An eight percent increase in assets and a five and one-half percent decrease in earnings was announced in a message to shareholders from George H. Cress, president of the Ann Arbor Trust Co.

Total earnings for the first six months of 1981 were $376,469, compared with $398,567, for the first six months of 1980. On a per share basis, this represents $1.80 versus $1.91, respectively.

Cress reported that assets as of June 30, 1981 were $95,384,593 as opposed to $88,356,915 on June 30, 1980, an increase of eight percent. Outstanding loans at the end of the second quarter were $61,922,939, 10.4 percent above the level on June 30, 1980, of $56,086,491.

Cress attributed the decrease in second quarter results to the higher costs of existing deposits, as well as a shift in deposits from savings to Certificates of Deposit which bear a much higher interest rate.

Sight Trek Hikers Nearing West Yellowstone Park Area

The four Sight Trek hikers—David Kahn, Pat Ball, Stewart Merritt and Clarke Ball—who left Canada in mid-June have completed 700 miles of their 3,000-mile expedition down the Continental Divide to raise funds for the treatment of blindness.

The Sight Trek has already raised more than $25,000 to be used by the Chelsea-based SEVA Foundation (Society for Epidemiology and Voluntary Assistance) and the World Health Organization (WHO) to treat the nearly 300,000 Nepalis who are blind in one or both eyes.

A letter from Pat Ball was received at The Chelsea Standard last week. The following is a verbatim reprint of her correspondence:

Dear People:

I'm writing you to hopefully get something in the paper. Though I'm not quite sure how to do it.

I'm one of the four hikers for SEVA, Sight Trek, Pat Ball. I know people back home have been asking about me and are curious about the trek and I couldn't possibly write everyone. So I'd like to use the paper as a way to communicate with everyone.

By the time you read this we will almost be in West Yellowstone. Our target date is somewhere between Aug. 4-6.

Things are beginning to go much smoother; though not necessarily easier. As some of you may have heard, the first month was really trying for me. I went through mental and physical pain. Lots of times I wanted to quit and come home. I doubted I could complete such a task and I had no idea what I was taking on until I got out here.

All of that seems to be slowly disappearing. What has made it possible for me to continue is all of your support and love back home.

I've been in touch with Dr. Brilliant at the SEVA office and Steve Merritt, the Sight Trek coordinator, and they tell me how much people ask about us, and what people are doing to support us.

This is truly the most difficult thing in my life I have ever done or will ever do. I could not do it without you.

The trek is scheduled to finish sometime between Nov. 4-10. I am looking forward to seeing you all.

Pat Ball.

Although plagued with swollen feet, blisters, tendonitis and strained ligaments, the hikers are covering 20-30 miles per day. "Through the pain, I have discovered an untapped reservoir of energy," said hiker David Kahn. "There is so much in me that I had not yet experienced—my energy is infinite just as my power is."

The trekkers are currently hiking the Idaho Bitterroot Range enroute to an early August arrival at Yellowstone National Park, where they will rest a few days and visit with family and friends. SEVA supporters, including Kiki Jensen, will travel to Yellowstone to greet the hikers upon their arrival. Persons interested in traveling to Wyoming for the early August scheduled arrival time of the four hikers may contact SEVA at 475-1351 for further information.

SIGHT TREK PROGRESS is shown by the map above which traces the route of the four hikers representing SEVA Foundation who are raising funds to help eradicate needless blindness in the Himalayan country of Nepal. The quartet, made up of Pat Ball, Stewart Merritt, David Kahn and Clarke Ball, has complete approximately 700 miles of their 3,000 mile expedition down the Continental Divide. They are expected to reach Mexico, the end point of their trek, in early November.

rival at Yellowstone National Park, where they will rest a few days and visit with family and friends. SEVA supporters, including Kiki Jensen, will travel to Yellowstone to greet the hikers upon their arrival. Persons interested in traveling to Wyoming for the early August scheduled arrival time of the four hikers may contact SEVA at 475-1351 for further information.

Following their brief rest at Yellowstone, the expedition will continue through Wyoming during the month of August enroute to their destination, Mexico.

ELECTRIC BLANKETS

If your electric blanket needs cleaning, REMEMBER, electric blankets cannot be drycleaned. Drycleaning solvents may damage electric blanket heating elements and wiring increasing the chances of fire and electric shock.

To clean your blanket at home:

1. Fill a tub with warm water (about 100° Fahrenheit).
2. Add a mild detergent solution, approximately one ounce for each gallon of water.
3. Soak the blanket for the 30 to 60 minutes, depending on the degree of the soil.
4. Hang straight in the air to dry. DO NOT USE the home dryer. Heat from the dryer may damage the heating element and the wiring.
5. Be certain that the blanket is fully dried prior to the next use. Damp wiring presents a dangerous electrical hazard.

Views On Dental Health

By ROBERT A. BURNS, JR., DDS, P.C.
BABY BOTTLE TOOTH DECAY

From a dental point of view, nursing babies from bottles can cause problems. Dentally-speaking—what's the worst thing you can do to a baby? Stick him in his crib with a bottle at nap time and let him fall asleep with the bottle in his mouth. Milk or juice in the mouth and on the teeth turns to acid and causes teeth to break down rapidly. Many babies who sleep with a baby bottle develop severe tooth decay, often in their front teeth. The problem is not the bottle but what's in it. The sugar in the milk, formula, or fruit juices causes the decay. Sometimes, these teeth become so decayed they cause severe pain and may break off or have to be pulled.
 During the day, the baby swallows these drinks quickly so there is no damage to the teeth. But during sleep, the liquid pools behind the baby's teeth and keeps them bathed in sugar for hours.
 One solution is to give baby the last feeding before bedtime. If your baby is still using a bottle when his teeth begin to appear, let him use it for short periods of time awake or sitting up. If he is using a bottle as a pacifier, put water in the bottle.

Recreation Programs Are Ending

Following last Friday's summer fun program, the series of daily events for children ranging in age from second through fifth grade came to close for the season.

All playground programs, held at both North and South Elementary schools, will no longer take place, that is until next summer.

As of Monday, July 27, no Recreation Council supervision will be available on the aforementioned playgrounds.

In addition, nearly all of the summer recreation programs—baseball, tennis, t-ball, softball and the like—will come to a close this week. Thereafter, all participants will be able to spend the remainder of the summer vacationing with family and resting up for the 1981-82 academic year.

Senior Nutrition Site Has New Hostess Program Director

Beginning Thursday, July 16, the senior citizens at the Chelsea Nutrition Site welcomed Madelyn Stoker to their group. She will act as volunteer hostess and program director on Wednesday and Thursday of each week.

Jesse Richards began a new senior fitness class that day as well. Participants will meet each Thursday morning at 11 a.m. at the Senior Nutrition Site. Ms. Richards serves through the Emeritus Program at Washtenaw Community College.

LOCAL ARTIST BEN BOWER puts the finishing touches on two original paintings to be awarded to two pair of lucky patrons of the Lioness Club booth at this week's eighth annual

Michael S. Lentz Completes Recruit Training in Marines

Marine Pvt. Michael S. Lentz, son of Leo Lentz of 20616 Logan Rd., Manchester, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battle-dress survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

festival, the paintings—including a football scene and a rendition of the Waterloo Farm Museum—will be given to two patrons of the festival. Each painting will be both matted and framed by Ben Bower.

As of this week, the recently completed paintings will be on display for the curious at the Village Bakery. In addition, both original paintings will be on display throughout Sidewalk Days, offering participants of the annual event with the opportunity to see local art at its best.

All proceeds coming from this Lioness Club endeavor will be distributed to various club sponsored organizations and causes including Leader Dogs for the Blind, the Braille Transcribing Service, the Special Olympics and St. Louis School for Exceptional Boys.

Missionary to Chile Will Speak at Assembly of God

"Recently in Chile, we have seen an upsurge of interest in higher levels of training," says the Rev. John Harris. "This makes the development of gospel literature, study materials, and seminars more important than ever before."

Harris, an Assemblies of God missionary to Chile, will be guest speaker Wednesday, July 29 at 7 p.m. at First Assembly of God, 14900 Old US-12 East, the Rev.

Richard J. Coury, pastor, has announced.

Prior to missionary appointment the Harrises pastored in Carleton, Michigan, and held an associate pastorate in Azusa, Calif.

Babe Ruth All-Stars Defeated

On Saturday, July 18 the Chelsea League All-Stars traveled to Ypsilanti to play in the Babe Ruth tournament. The two other teams in the district in addition to Chelsea were Ypsilanti and Lansing.

At 1 p.m., Chelsea faced Lansing with the loser playing Ypsilanti. Taking an early lead, Ypsilanti scored three times in the top of the first. Chelsea scored one run in the second inning as Darin Rowe crossed the plate on a single by Ron Dunn.

Then the roof caved in as Lansing scored three times in the third, and again in the fourth, one in the fifth inning and six in the sixth inning. The Lansing all-stars added 10 runs in the seventh inning, hitting the ball extremely well for 14- and 15-year-olds. Chelsea played as well as possible but could tally only seven runs to end the game, 28-7.

After a 30-minute break, Chelsea took on a very good Ypsilanti team. The loser would bow out of the tournament. Doug Pagliarini started as pitcher for Chelsea; he went the distance, losing, 6-1. He gave up six hits—Ypsi had 14 hits Friday night against Lansing—while walking only two and striking out six. It was a close 2-1 pitcher's duel until the fourth inning when Ypsi scored three times; they added an additional run in the sixth to clinch the victory.

Chelsea League All-Stars included from Jackson, Brad Wait and Steve Thallman; Rick Baldus and Scott Samuels from Dexter; Pat Ridenour, Dave Detling and Todd Rickelman of Manchester No. 1; Rob Smith from Manchester No. 2; Darin Rowe, Jim Ritter and Ron Dunn from Chelsea No. 1; Jeff Blanchard and Dave Sumner from Chelsea No. 2 and Doug Pagliarini and Rich Boham from Chelsea No. 3.

AFTER 33 YEARS, Walter Berjeski of Chelsea retired from his career as locomotive engineer for Conrail. Standing beside the last train he directed down the track, Berjeski was awarded a Seiko quartz watch and a gigantic cake from his friends at the company.

W. Berjeski Retires After 33 Years As Train Engineer

After 33 years as a Conrail locomotive engineer, Walter Berjeski of 6200 Conway Rd., Chelsea, retired June 12. He was honored at a retirement party given by friends at the Willow Run train yard. Trainmaster Terry Neil and yardmasters Terry Hoffien and Danny Salsbury presented him with a huge cake and an engraved Seiko quartz watch.

Berjeski, raised in Dillonvale, O., near Stubenville, married his wife, Catherine, nearly 45 years ago. The young couple moved to Detroit when Walter was 19 years old, after he had worked in the Ohio coal mines. During World War II, Berjeski became a tool and die maker in Detroit. But when the war came to an end, it appeared that the position was far from lucrative. Showing a keen interest in trains, he sought a position on the railroad.

Berjeski, age 62, was hired on Oct. 4, 1947 by New York Central railroad, as it was then known. He ran freight and passengers between Detroit and Toledo, Detroit and Chicago and Detroit and Bay City-Mackinac. Speaking with enthusiasm, Berjeski described the thrill of railroading, explaining it as "the only exciting thing left in life."

"Being in control of $1 million worth of equipment can really make a man out of a fellow," he continued, touching on both good and bad memories resulting from his career. The work was long and hard, as long as 16 hours per day, seven days per week. "Working such long hours really kept me out of trouble," he kidded.

Unintentional accidents were rare but often tragic; Berjeski has been at the throttle during a number of fatal car-train accidents. These mishaps were explained by the weight of the huge locomotive. "A train cannot be stopped as easily as an automobile," he said and each and every engineer worked on deadlines and definite times of arrival. The time element was a pertinent aspect of engineering a train.

Walter Berjeski's life is filled with fine, abundant memories surrounding his work. But, retirement seemed the next step. "I was tired and wanted to enjoy my family, my grandchildren and my home," he explained.

The Berjeskis have four children. One son, Ronnie, is a model maker for Ford Motor Co.; the other, David, is a member of the Detroit Police Department. The couple also has two daughters, Janice Coffman of Chelsea and Joanne Peer, a Trenton school teacher.

Four years ago, Walter and Catherine Berjeski purchased five acres on Conway Rd. They worked together, designing and building approximately 80 percent of their new home themselves.

According to Berjeski, he is currently thriving on his family, his large garden and his grandchildren. "We've planted a fine garden and lots of trees. I'm just beginning to live, but I don't regret my choice of jobs or my retirement," Berjeski said.

Following retirement, a majority of people travel or move to a warm climate. Not so in Walter Berjeski's case. Breaking the typical mold, he's spending his time talking about the days gone by, tending his garden, and getting to know his family better.

Fire Department Answers Rescue Call

Chelsea Fire Department was summoned just one time during the week of July 20 through July 27. Chelsea rescuers were requested to the Isadore Wencel residence at 115 Island Lake Rd., Sunday, July 26 at 10:12 a.m. following an apparent heart attack. Despite CPR treatments, Wencel, age 77, died.

Orioles Take Little League Crown

Indians 14, Royals 11

The Indians fell behind the Royals in the early inning but rallied to win the slugfest, 14-11, Friday. Hitting star for the Indians was Jason Wolf with a home run. Other Indians getting hits were Jr. Morseau, Nathan Hatto, Jim Clark and Chris Callison. Pete Spencer also had an RBI single.

Cardinals 10, Dodgers 6

Coach Hansen got his Cardinals into the win column with a hard fought, 10-6, victory over the Dodgers. The game was close until the Cardinals scored seven runs in the third inning. Pitching for the Cardinals were Tim Anderson and Rick Niethammer. Getting hits for the Cardinals were Tim Anderson with a double, Shane Hutting with a triple and home runs were recorded by Bob Rawson and Matt Forner. Good defense was highlighted as the Cardinal twosome of Terry Draper and Tim Anderson cut down two Dodger runners at home plate.

For the Dodgers, Eric Dalton led the hit parade with two singles. The Dodger twosome of Scott Baker and Matt Monore returned the defensive favors by throwing out two Cardinal runners on the base paths.

Cardinals 9, Royals 8

The Cardinals, after getting off to a bad start, have come back to win their last two games, getting tuned up for tournaments. The Cardinals beat the Royals, 9-8, Wednesday as Owen Wilcox stroked a long homer in the bottom of the sixth. Other Cardinal hitters were Matt Forner and Owen Wilcox with doubles. Steve Favers slammed a triple.

Orioles 7, Dodgers 3

The Orioles of Coach Petsch closed out their regular season of play with a 7-3 win over the Dodgers. Sean Lausar was starting pitcher for the Orioles. John Cattell took over in the second and had six strike outs. Matt Kemp pitched the last three innings getting five strike outs. Getting singles for the Orioles were John Cattell, Matt Kemp, Mike Swaringer, Ron Hubbell, Sean Lausar and Brant Snyder. Matt Kemp also stroked a double. For the Dodgers, Matt Monore handled the mound duties and also helped his own cause with a three-run homer.

CHELSEA'S PUBLIC LIBRARY, begun by the Chelsea Child Study Club in 1932, was located in various office spaces during its early history. But, in 1959, following bequeathal of the McKune family residence by the late Catherine McKune, the library was given a permanent home in a 121-year-old historic structure built in 1860 by Ellisha Congdon, one of the founders of Chelsea. This house was purchased by the McKune family in 1887 and remained in the family's possession until Catherine McKune's death in 1958.

Historic McKune House Now Permanent Home for Library

In January 1932, guests of the former Chelsea Child Study Club met and listened to an officer of the State Child Study Association lecture on libraries. At that meeting, a committee was appointed to investigate the possibility of beginning a library in Chelsea. Winifred Palmer, headed the committee and within weeks, it was voted to allow adequate expense to clean a store which was donated by the Palmer family and located on E. Middle St.

This store was much too large for the few bookcases and tables, so the first thing done was the reduction of the store. Sheets were dyed in a burgundy hue and hung across the room, dividing the store into a public area and a storage and work area.

The library was begun with 22 donated books and 100 books were loaned from the state. Volunteer help and two members from the club were on duty during each library period, three hours twice weekly. The library was supported by the Child Study Club from the time it was opened in February 1932 until it became tax supported in 1938.

In 1933, the library was offered space in the upstairs front room of the Chelsea State Bank. The Village offered the volunteer staff by donating $50 in support while members of the American Legion donated $15 and assisted in moving the books and furniture to the new location. With the Depression in full swing, club members learned to mend books and began a regular book-mending day.

In 1936, the library began donating duplicate copies of books to various agencies and organizations including Mill Lake, Cassidy Lake, Percy Jones Hospital, the American Legion Hospital and Chelsea, England, where children's books were sent.

In January 1938, a plan was made to petition the Village Council to make the Library tax supported. A proposal was put before the people in March asking for a one-half mill tax levy for the library. The proposal passed by one vote. Later it was raised to one mill. It was at this time the facility became a fully public library.

The Chelsea library moved from the second floor of the bank building to the old Kempf bank building in 1940. In June 1947, when the Municipal Building was purchased and remodeled to house the municipal offices, the Chelsea Public Library was moved by a vote of the people to the second floor of the building.

Four years later, the club undertook a three-fold project, of which one aim was the development of a building and site fund for the library. This plan was climaxed with the late Mrs. E. J. McKune's bequeathal of her home on S. Main St. to the library as a memorial to the McKune family.

McKune Memorial Library opened its doors to the public June 29, 1959, the result of hard work and appreciated contributions from the people of the community. Those persons initially responsible for the opening of the Chelsea Public Library could have never imagined that one day their collection would be

Reds Down Yankees, 4-0, To Take Pony League Title

Reds 7, Royals 1

The Reds, striving to win the Pony League title, scored seven unearned runs in the third inning and defeated the Royals, 7-1 Friday. Red hurler Mike Ball pitched a one-hitter and struck out nine. Getting Red hits were Scott Wolak, Bob Murrell, Chris Tarasow, Mike Ball, Jeff Larson and Mark Westhoven.

For the Royals, Brian Robeson had the only hit.

Tigers 3, Astros 0

Coach England's Tigers played a solid defense and got timely hits to beat the Astros, 3-0. Pitching the shut out for the Tigers was Chuck Downer who helped his own cause by crashing a tremendous blast deep to center for a two-run homer. Other Tigers hitters were Ray Spencer with a single and Steve Whitesall with a single.

For the Astros, Mark Ahrens started on the mound and got relief help from Greg Haist as they combined to hold the Tigers to three hits. Getting the only two Astro hits were Mark Ahrens and Marty Poljan with singles. Defensive play of the game was a long running catch of a liner in left center by Marty Poljan.

Tony Hammerschmidt of the Tigers was exceptionally strong behind the plate as he snagged two pop ups and cut down three Astro runners trying to steal.

Reds 4, Yankees 0

The teams fought to the end Monday night, tied for the Pony League title with 7-1 slates. Coach Larson's Reds got two first inning runs, added two more in the fifth and shut out the Yankees, 4-0. Pitching a one-hitter for the Reds was Mark Mull. Seven Yankees went down on strikes. The Reds had two hits, a single by Mark Mull and a double by Mark Westhoven.

For the Yankees, Kevin Maynard gave up just two hits and struck out 10 in a losing performance. Kevin Maynard got the only Yankee hit.

Astros 3, Braves 2

In a dramatic game delayed two days by rain, the Astros had to come from behind to beat the tied, 1-1, at the end of the regulation six innings. The teams went into extra innings. The Braves got out of a bases loaded jam with no outs in the bottom of the seventh. Then the rains came and the game was postponed until Wednesday afternoon at 3 p.m. The Braves, batting first, scored a run in the top of the eighth. The Astros came back to win the game on a tremendous two run homer by Rob Beckwith in the bottom of the eighth.

Tigers 13, Royals 5

Coach England's Tigers stayed in the middle of the Pony League title fight with a 13-5 victory over the Royals. Hitting stars getting singles for the Tigers were Jeff Harvey, Ray Spencer, Tony Hammerschmidt, Rob England and Mike Merkel. Getting doubles were Jeff Harvey and Rob England. Booming triples for the Tigers were Jeff Harvey and Ray Spencer. The defensive play of the game was an over the shoulder catch by Ray Spencer. Mike Merkel also turned in a double play for the Tigers.

Hitting stars for the Royals were Brian Robeson with a double and single, Ty Anderson with a single, Matt Bohlender with a single, Jim Boritzki with a single and Randy Hafner with a single. For the Royals, Terry McAuley made a good defensive play on a long triple by Ray Spencer which prevented the hit from being a home run.

Astros 6, Yankees 3

The Astros of Coach Ahrens ambushed the title-seeking Yankees, 6-3. For the Astros Mark Ahrens and Rob Beckwith combined to shut down the heavy-hitting Yankees. Astro hitters were Mark Ahrens, Kevin Gross,

Bulldogs Squeak Past Jacks To Take Lead

Crackerjacks 9, Dizzy Demons 5

It was a close, conservative game as both teams struggled in the batters box. Crackerjack Cathy Basso hit a triple and double. Amy Dmoch, Jenny Cattell and Karen Kerby each added singles. Crackerjack center-fielder Karen Kerby made a fine catch of a high fly ball and threw out runners at second base. Jenny Cattell came in to pitch in relief in the fourth inning and did a super job. She only gave up five hits in three innings and caught a pop up for the final out of the game.

Hitting star for the Demons was Michelle Easton with a double and a single. Handling pitching duties were Demons Chris DeFant, Pam Brown and Jackie Boosey.

Bulldogs 15, Green Machine 11

The Green Machine team made a gallant effort, scoring four runs in the bottom of the sixth inning, but fell short Friday. Cathy Burkel hit a single and a double. Tina Paddock made two good catches while playing third base. Pitcher Kristi Headrick also made a good catch of a high pop up. Coach Larry Nix said, "Shelley Boham played a fine game as Green Machine catcher."

Dizzy Demons 17, Rowdy Reds 15

Demon Chris DeFant slugged a grand slam to help her team come back and take the victory Monday. Adding singles were Wendy McGlinn, Jackie Boosey, Michelle Easton and Diana Parker. Coach Carol DeFant notes good catching by her daughter Angie DeFant and excellent outfield play by Diana Parker.

Red Jenny Pichlik boomed a long double and Jenny Borton hit a single. Rowdy Red Coach Nancy Pichlik commented "Our girls were very alert and aggressive on the base paths."

Green Machine 16, Orange Plus 7

Green Machine Laura Nix pitched her first game of the season and did a fine job. Tina Paddock started off the third inning with a double. Cathy Burkel followed with a triple, knocking in the lead run. Kathryn Morgan also recorded an RBI by slugging a solid single to right field.

Bulldogs 4, Crackerjacks 3

It was a hard fought battle as both teams played well. Crackerjack Lisa Van Schoick stroked her first home run of the year in the second inning.

Coach Bonnie Basso reports two bunts were laid down perfectly by Jenny Cattell and Tylene Greenleaf. Crackerjack singles were recorded by Jennifer Colvin, Dawn Thorne and Dawn Spade. Good defense was displayed by left fielder Jean Petsch who stopped a ball and threw to second base to hold the runners. Also good heads up play was displayed by Kirsten Erickson.

Bulldog Kim Collins made an unassisted double play at first base while outfielders Cindy Kvarnberg and Kris Mattoff made good fly ball catches. At the plate, Stacy Murphy hit a double. Laura Anderson, Trisha Mattoff and Laura Walton each hit singles.

Rowdy Reds 17, Green Machine 9

Rowdy Red assistant coach Russ Pichlik commented, "Our win is attributed to all of the girls hitting very well." Among the many hits were doubles by Linda Laler, Kim Clouse and Karen Killelea. Heidi Knickerbocker and Jenny Pichlik each hit singles. Red third baseman Deanna Zangara fielded a sharply hit ground ball and threw to first to make it look easy.

Second baseman Jill Schaffner snagged a deflected ball and tagged a runner coming from first for an easy out. Starting pitcher Chandy Hurd and reliever Jenny Pichlik combined efforts to record the win.

Hitting for the Green Machine was Kathryn Morgan with a double in the fifth inning to earn her first RBI. Donna Bruck hit a triple and also drove in a run for a short rally.

Blue Belles Hold Slim Lead in Midget League

Peppermint Patties 15, Red Barons 7

It was home run night as each team boomed two homers. Patties Tina Kimbler and Debbie Urbanek hit one each for their squad Friday night while Red Barons Robyn Krichbaum and Tiffany Partido each slugged one for their side in Midget League action.

Slugging triples were Pattie Heidi Boyer and Barons Helen Cooper and Robyn Krichbaum. Doubles went to Pattie Debi Koenn and Baron Kim Ritter. Peppermint Patties Heidi Boyer, Sheri Stephens, Kristin Bohlender, Cory Tremper and Julie Tobias all singled.

There was an excellent double play executed by Patties Debbie Urbanek and Debi Koenn. Defensive player of the game was Debi Koenn who made two good fly ball catches. Red Baron Tiffany Partido made a nice catch of a line drive while playing third base.

Blue Belles 9, Peppermint Patties 8

A see-saw battle took place as bats were swinging by both clubs Monday, July 20. Slugging homers were Blue Dena Stevens and Patties Heather Nelbauer and Tina Kimbler. Peppermint Pattie Tina Kimbler also hit a single and a triple. She played well defensively as well as making two fly ball catches. Debbie Urbanek made a good catch in the third inning to retire the side and hold the Blue Belles scoreless that inning. Adding Peppermint singles were Kris Bohlender, Julie Stacey, Debi Koenn and Julie Tobias. Coach Margot Koenn noted, "Kristin Bohlender and Sara Musolf did a fine pitching job."

Playing well defensively for the Blues were Shannon Losey and Laura Unterbrink who each snagged line drives. Pitcher Dena Stevens struck out all three batters in the fourth inning.

Slugging doubles for the Blues were Lisa Unterbrink, Dena Stevens and Laura Comeau.

Red Barons 12, Jellybeans 2

Coach Joe Rossi reported that fine all around good team effort gained them the victory. Two good catches were made by Tiffany Partido and one catch was snagged by Jenny Rossi. Booming her fourth homer of the season was Sarah Weis. Tiffany Partido hit a solid triple while Susie McGonigal and Katie Giebel each singled. The Barons hammered out 25 hits.

Jellybean Kim McDaniels hit a double. Jill Koch, Lisa Park and Lisa Taylor added singles. Coach Lynda Longe said Tiffany Brown struck out three batters in her first appearance as pitcher.

Bumble Bees 19, Jellybeans 5

The Bumble Bees played a superb game knocking out 29 hits and playing well defensively to gain the win Wednesday. Bumble Bee Mary Kemp boomed her second homer of the season down the left field line. Judy Barels and Teresa Lewis added doubles to help the cause.

Bumble Bee Beth Kenney was a human vacuum cleaner at shortstop, throwing out six batters.

Jellybean Tiffany Browning tripled while teammates Kim Easton and Michelle Ball each doubled. Lisa Park went two for two at the plate with singles. The Jellybeans, 15 hits fell short of runs and the Bumble Bees recorded their fourth win.

Red Barons 11, Peppermint Patties 8

Patties Coach Margot Koenn stated that her girls played well with singles by Heidi Boyer, Sheri Stephens, Beth Peterson and Debi Koenn. Tina Kimbler and Debbie Urbanek doubled for the Patties. Heather Niebauer slugged her seventh home run of the season. In the third inning, Tina Kimbler at shortstop made an outstanding catch of a sharply hit line drive to stop a Red Baron rally. Another nice snag was made by Debbie Urbanek at first to retire the side in the fourth inning.

Cost of Food

While the amount of total dollars consumers spend for food climbs annually—up 10.5 percent to $302 billion in 1980—the average percentage of consumers' disposable personal income that goes for food remains unchanged at 16.6 percent, according to USDA's "National Food Review." Of that 16.6 percent, 12.2 percent was for food at home and 4.4 percent for food away from home. In 1970, the total average percent of disposable income spent on food was 17.2 percent; in 1960, 20 percent, and in 1950, 22.4 percent.

Rain-Outs Scramble Babe Ruth Schedule

Following rain-outs, Chelsea No. 1 was forced into playing three games in three days last week during Babe Ruth action. This resulting in two victories and one loss.

On Wednesday, July 22, Chelsea No. 1 faced a very tough Chelsea No. 2 team. After giving up seven runs in the first inning, Jim Ritter settled down and coasted to a 20-10 win. The team scored 13 runs in the second inning to make it easy for Ritter. Ron Dunn had two singles while Matt Smith and Jun Toon had singles for the team.

Then, Thursday Chelsea No. 1 took to the road and traveled to Manchester to play a game with Manchester No. 1, a team in both first place and undefeated. The game was a pitcher's duel but Manchester No. 1 pushed two runs across in the third on a very controversial play, as the ball hit the batter's foot and rolled down the third base line in fair territory. The ump's allowed it, saying that they didn't see the ball hit his foot. Then, Dave Dettling had a double which drove in two, making the final score, 4-0, with Manchester winning.

Jay Marshall pitched a one-hitter for Chelsea No. 1 but took the loss against Manchester. He walked five and struck out 12. Chelsea actually hit the ball better than Manchester but Manchester turned in two double plays and one triple play. Ron Dunn had two hits and Phil Sweet had one for Chelsea, a team which outlived Manchester 3-1 but couldn't get a break.

On Friday, Chelsea No. 1

Women's Slow-Pitch Softball Tournament Cancelled by Jaycees

The Jaycee-sponsored women's slow pitch softball tournament scheduled for last weekend, July 25 and 26, was cancelled last week following a poor response rate.

Despite the apparent success of the men's tournament held earlier in the month, the local organization was unable to elicit an adequate amount of response from the female softball sector.

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF THE VILLAGE OF CHELSEA

The following Articles and Section of Articles of Incorporation of The Economic Development Corporation of the Village of Chelsea are amended, supplemented and added in accordance with Section 30 of Act 338, Public Acts of Michigan, 1974, as amended, to provide as follows:

ARTICLE II

The Corporation is organized pursuant to Act 338 of the Public Acts of 1974, as amended ("Act 338") to perform essential public purposes and functions of the Incorporating Unit. Its purposes will be to alleviate and prevent conditions of unemployment; to assist and retain local industries and commercial enterprises to strengthen and revitalize the economy of the Incorporating Unit and the State of Michigan; to provide means and methods for the encouragement and assistance of industrial and commercial enterprises in locating, purchasing, constructing, reconstructing, modernizing, improving, maintaining, repairing, furnishing, equipping and expanding within the Incorporating Unit; to encourage the location and expansion of industrial and commercial enterprises to more conveniently provide needed services and facilities to the Incorporating Unit and the residents thereof; to promote economic activity in the forestry and agricultural sectors by providing incentives to combat inflation, to reduce energy consumption, to retain the family farm unit, to reduce the rate at which urban sprawl has been devouring farm lands, and to provide farmers and foresters with a more favorable export market; to encourage the development of facilities designed to produce energy from renewable resources; and to accomplish such other purposes as may be provided from time to time in Act 338, and, to accomplish the foregoing, to do the following:

(a) To construct, acquire by gift or purchase, reconstruct, improve, maintain, and repair the necessary lands, or interests in lands or portions of lands, for "Projects", as that term may be defined from time to time in Act 338.

(b) To acquire by gift or purchase the necessary machinery, furnishings and equipment for Projects.

(c) To make secured or unsecured loans, participate in the making of secured or unsecured loans, undertake commitments to make secured or unsecured loans and mortgages, sell loans and mortgages at public or private sale, rewrite loans and mortgages, discharge loans and mortgages, foreclose on a mortgage, or commence an action to protect or enforce a right conferred upon it by a law, mortgage, loan, contract, or other agreement.

(d) To borrow money and issue its revenue bonds or revenue notes to finance or refinance part or all of the Project costs and the costs necessary or incidental to the borrowing of money and issuing of bonds or notes for such purpose, and secure those bonds and notes by mortgage, assignment, or pledge of any of its money, revenues, income, and properties. Bonds and notes may be issued pursuant to this act to acquire and install Projects, necessary lands, or an interest in the land or portion thereof, for the site therefor, and the necessary machinery, furnishings, and equipment for a Project notwithstanding that the corporation does not own or propose to own such Projects, lands, or machinery, furnishings, and equipment. The corporation for a municipality which has a population of more than 1,000,000 persons may combine part or all of the Project costs of more than 1 Project for pollution control facilities in a single financing arrangement. However, the bonds and notes for each Project for pollution control facilities shall be secured by a separate agreement and collateral for each Project.

(e) To enter into leases, lease purchase agreements, installment sales contracts or loan agreements with any persons, firm or corporation for the use or sale of Projects.

(f) To mortgage or create security interests in the Project, a part of the Project, a lease or loan, or the rents, revenues, or sums to be paid during the term of a lease or loan, in favor of holders of bonds or notes issued by the corporation.

(g) To sell and convey Projects or any part thereof for a price and at a time as the Corporation determines.

(h) To lend, grant, transfer or convey funds, described in Section 27 of Act 338, as permitted by law, but subject to applicable restrictions affecting the use of these funds.

(i) In general, and subject to such limitations and conditions as are or may be prescribed by law, to exercise such other powers which now are or hereafter may be conferred by law upon a corporation organized by the Incorporating Unit under the above statutes and for the above purposes.

ARTICLE VII

A. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be appointed by the chief executive officer of the Incorporating Unit with the advice and consent of its legislative body. The Board of Directors shall consist of nine (9) persons, not more than three of whom shall be an officer or employee of the Incorporating Unit. Directors shall be public officers. The term of office for directors shall be in accordance with Section 4(2) of Act 338, provided that the Corporation shall notify in writing the chief executive officer of the Incorporating Unit of the Corporation's designation of a project area, and there shall be promptly appointed, in the same manner, to the Corporation's Board of Directors two additional directors representative of neighborhood residents or business interests likely to be affected by each such project proposed by the Corporation, whose term of office shall be consistent with the provisions of Section 4(2) of Act 338.

B. (1) The Board of Directors shall designate one of its members as Chairman, one of its members as Vice-Chairman, one of its members as Secretary, one of its members as Deputy Secretary, and a Treasurer who need not be a member of the Board of Directors, each to be designated for such office for a period of one (1) year. Such officers may succeed themselves in office.

(2) The Chairman shall preside at meetings of the Board of Directors and may sign and execute all authorized bonds, contracts, checks and other obligations and execute bonds and/or interest coupons with his facsimile signature in the name of the Corporation (to be attested in the same manner by the Secretary) as and when authorized by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that any bonds executed by facsimile shall be authenticated by an original signature of a duly appointed corporate trustee appointed to act on behalf of the bondholders. He shall do and perform such other duties as may be fixed by the bylaws and from time to time assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

(3) The Vice-Chairman shall, in the absence of the Chairman or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, perform the duties of the Chairman and, when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Chairman. The Vice-Chairman shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Chairman or by the Board of Directors.

(4) The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors, and of all committees thereof, in books provided for that purpose. He shall attend to the giving, serving and receiving of all notices or process of or against the Corporation. He may sign with the Chairman in the name of the Corporation all bonds, contracts and other obligations and execute interest coupons and/or attested bonds with his facsimile signature in the name of the Corporation (to be executed in the same manner by the Chairman) as and when so authorized by the Board of Directors, and when so ordered, he shall affix thereto or cause to be imprinted thereon the seal of the Corporation. He shall have charge of all books and records which shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection and examination by the Board of Directors or any member thereof, and by the legislative body of the Incorporating Unit, and, in general, perform all the duties incident to his office. The Secretary shall preside at meetings of the Board of Directors in the absence of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

(5) The Deputy Secretary shall, in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, perform the duties of the Secretary and, when so acting, shall have all the powers and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary. The Deputy Secretary shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Secretary or by the Board of Directors.

(6) The Treasurer shall have custody of all the funds and securities of the Corporation which may come into his hands or possession. When necessary or proper, he shall endorse in behalf of the Corporation for collection, checks, notes and other obligations, and shall deposit them to the credit of the Corporation in a designated bank or depository. He shall sign all receipts and vouchers for payment made to the Corporation. He shall jointly with such other officer as may be designated by the Board of Directors sign all checks, promissory notes and other obligations of the Corporation when so ordered by the Board of Directors. He shall render a statement of his cash accounts when required by the Board of Directors. He shall enter regularly in the books of the Corporation to be kept by him for the purpose full and accurate accounts of all moneys received and paid by him on account of the Corporation, and shall, at all reasonable times, exhibit his books and accounts to the Board of Directors or any member thereof when so required. He shall perform all acts incidental to the position of Treasurer fixed by the bylaws and as assigned to him from time to time by the Board of Directors. He shall be bonded for the faithful discharge of his duties as Treasurer, the bond to be of such character, form and in such amount as the Board of Directors may require.

(7) In the absence of any officer of the Corporation or for any other reason that the Board of Directors may deem sufficient, a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, may delegate, from time to time and for such time as they may deem appropriate, the powers and duties of any officer elected or appointed, to any other officer or to any director.

C. The members of the Board of Directors or any person executing any revenue bond or revenue note on behalf of the Corporation shall not be liable personally on the revenue bond or revenue note, or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the revenue bond or revenue note, by reason of acquisition, construction, ownership, or operation of a Project, or by reason of any other action taken or omitted by the Board of Directors. By resolution the Board of Directors may provide for the purchase of insurance indemnifying the members of the board from and against any and all personal liability or accountability described in this section or any loss or expense related thereto.

ARTICLE XII

All meetings of the Board of Directors shall be public and notice of such meetings will be posted in the office of the clerk of the Incorporating Unit once at least eighteen hours prior to the date of such meeting and the Corporation shall comply with Act 287 of the Public Acts of 1976 relative to its meetings.

ARTICLE XIII

The Corporation shall at all times be deemed to be an agency, or political subdivision of the Incorporating Unit. The books and records of the Corporation and of the Board of Directors, officers and agents thereof shall be public and open to inspection and audit by the Incorporating Unit at all reasonable times. The Corporation shall submit an

Historic McKune House . . .

housed in attractive quarters devoted entirely for use as a public library while perpetuating one of Chelsea's most historic landmarks, the McKune House.

Built in 1860 by one of Chelsea's founders, Elisha Congdon, II, McKune House was constructed as a home for his very large family. Congdon died in 1867 and the home was purchased by Timothy McKune and was used as an inn.

The third floor was transformed into a ballroom and, on at least three occasions, was the scene of festive dances—in 1869 when Orchard St. was opened and again in 1893 when Chelsea High School held its first alumni banquet and dance.

The owner's son, J. Edward McKune and his wife, the former Catherine Staffan, became the owners following the death of Timothy McKune. Mrs. McKune had gone there as a bride in 1899 and she and her husband lived there the rest of their lives. Mr. McKune died July 22, 1944 and his wife died July 25, 1958. In her will she bequeathed the property for use as a public library with the stipulation that one room upstairs should be designated the "Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McKune Room."

Restoration of the building was made possible through the far-sightedness of the Woman's Club of Chelsea who, in 1951, began a library building fund with a contribution of $100.

Others have become interested in the fund through the Friends of the Library and by the time the McKune House was willed to the village and an estimate of the costs of restoration was made, the fund total had reached $4,000.

Since then, contributions of money, materials, time and effort have been made by individuals, organizations and business people of the community. Nevertheless, it had begun to appear that completion of all the work planned would be impossible, since the original estimate of $10,000 proved insufficient and another $3,000 was needed.

It was at this time that a grant of $3,000 was received from the Herrick Memorial Foundation, making it possible to complete the restoration as planned.

The present McKune Memorial Library, now in its 22nd year, became a reality because of Mrs. McKune's keen interest in the project for a number of years prior to her death and the continued efforts of a dedicated group of women in the Chelsea Woman's Club.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING SYLVAN TOWNSHIP PLANNING COMMISSION

Take notice that the Sylvan Township Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on August 24, 1981, at 7:30 PM, at the Sylvan Township Hall, 112 Middle Street, Chelsea, Michigan, upon the petition of Daniels Enterprises to amend the Sylvan Township Zoning Ordinance, as follows:

Add the following new subsection "J" to Section 31.02:

"J. Home Building or Building Supply Centers for the retail display and sale of lumber, materials, appliances, and all related building materials, subject to the following exceptions and restrictions:

i. The center shall be under one ownership and consist of integrated facilities and buildings served by a central parking area and entrance.

ii. The lot area of the integrated center shall be not less than 5 acres in area.

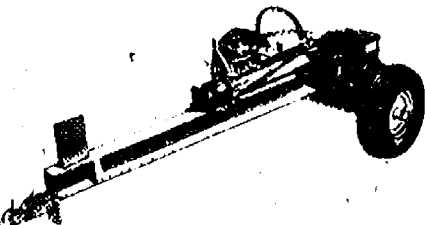

iii. No open air display or storage of sand, gravel, coal, or other mined materials shall be allowed."

All interested parties will be heard at said hearings. The petitions and supporting papers are on file in the office of the Sylvan Township Clerk, Mary Harris, 13 S. Main Street, Chelsea, Michigan 48118, during regular business hours by appointment.

McDonald's Awards Trips to Cedar Point Amusement Park

A number of Chelsea and Chelsea area residents were recently awarded two tickets for a day at Cedar Point following their entrance into a McDonald's-sponsored contest. Lucky winners selected each week during a span of four weeks ending the final week of June include, Rose McGibney of 511 W. Middle St., Doug Brown, Jr. of 18001 Waterloo Rd., Gayle Murphy of 128 E. Summit St., and Stephanie Osborne of 221 Lincoln St., all of Chelsea as well as Diane Stowe of 825 S. Clinton, Stockbridge and Phyllis Lythe of 4750 Clear Lake Shores, Grass Lake. According to a McDonald's spokesman, chances of winning the amusement park tickets were based on the number of entries submitted at each participating McDonald's restaurant. Entry blanks were sent to a polling place where they were tallied and new winners were announced each week throughout the four-week contest.

30-YEAR CELEBRATION: Genevieve Baczynski was presented with a 30-year ring, a corsage, a floral planter and a spectacular cake for 30 years of outstanding service at Chelsea's Dana plant during ceremonies held on June 18. Presenting Genevieve with her ring is Supervisor James Boughton, plant controller.

Jason Eyster To Direct Ars Musica Orchestra

Jason Eyster has been named as the new Executive Director of Ars Musica, the Ann Arbor-based baroque orchestra.

He comes to Michigan from New York City where he has been actively involved in legal issues affecting the arts. In addition to serving as Associate Editor of Art and the Law, his articles have appeared in the New York Law Journal, Artworkers News, and various other publications. Eyster succeeds Eric Stern who held the position of general manager since 1979.

While in New York, Eyster participated as a board member and funding chairman of the Director's Collective, a New York City theater company.

Prior to his Ars Musica appointment, Eyster worked at the national office of Actor's Equity Association as a business representative for the Broadway and Off-Broadway theater agreements. His duties included contract administration, negotiation of collective bargaining agreements and arbitration.

A graduate of Princeton University, with a degree in art history, and of Fordham Law School, Eyster also studied at the Wharton School of Business and the Julliard School of Music. While at Fordham, he founded the Fordham International Law Journal and traveled to Japan on a Fulbright Fellowship.

"When Ars Musica played in New York City one and a half years ago," Eyster said, "I was extremely moved by the freshness and the clarity of the performances. I've attended many concerts in Manhattan, but that was one of the most memorable."

"When I learned of the opening for Executive Director of Ars Musica, I immediately applied. The use of original baroque instruments is of personal interest to me since my hobby is collecting rare and unusual instruments."

He added, "I'm excited by the artistic quality and national reputation of Ars Musica. The ensemble will very soon become an internationally renowned organization. I also see the potential for a most vigorous base of local support."

Since coming to the Ann Arbor area, Eyster has chosen Chelsea for his home. He has purchased a house located at 1025 N. Fletcher Rd.

The orchestra's plans for the season include an expanded concert schedule and the release of a new recording of J. S. Bach's complete Brandenburg concertos as well as continuing their regular subscription series in Ann Arbor, Detroit and other cities in the area.

Orioles Take Farm Title With Perfect 8-0 Season

Tigers 21, Athletics 8

The Tigers received super defense from Peter DeFanti and Jeremy Stephens to pace themselves to a 21-8 victory.

Jeff Moore and Chad Starkey rapped triples while Jimmy Hassett and Chris Salyer each pitched in with a double. Jeff Utter and Mike Loftus blasted home runs for the "A's."

Red Sox 20, Yankees 11

Keith Miller had four hits while Tom White, Brandon Murrell and Steve Everett were turning in defensive gems to pace the Sox to a 20-11 win. Mike Hodgson had two hits and Todd Ferry got a home run for the Yankees.

Orioles 12, Tigers 11

Jamie Basso laid down the perfect sacrifice bunt enabling Greg Clark to score the winning run in the bottom of the fifth inning. Clark came all the way from second base and scored the run on pure hustle with "a Pete Rose" style, head first dive. The Oriole outfield had the defensive play of the game as their relay throw to T. J. Hackworth robbed Pat Hasset of a home run. John Collins carried the big bat, blasting a grand slam homer.

The Tigers got a triple from Eric Hammer and home runs from Chad Starkey, Mike Spade, Chris Salyer and Brian Talbot.

Athletics 14, Yankees 13

The A's blasted five home runs and that proved to be the difference as the "A's" whipped the Yankees, 14-13. Jim Miller and Tom Steele sparked on defense for the "A's" while Matt Weiss was doing it for the Yankees. Todd Redding and Chris Spencer had two hits apiece for the Yankees.

Orioles 13, Yankees 6

The Orioles made it eight wins in a row as they dumped the Yankees, 13-6. Brett Paddock and Chad Raymond had two hits apiece and Nick Houle made a fabulous catch in right field. Todd Ferry stabbed a screaming line shot to help the defense for the Yankees.

JC Auxiliary Observes 25th Anniversary

The Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary celebrated its 25th anniversary of community service Tuesday evening, July 21 with a candlelight dinner at Anne Steinaway's home.

Steaks were grilled by Jaycees Ted Lewis and Charlie Sprawka and a lovely anniversary cake was given by the Village Bakery in honor of the occasion. A beautiful flower arrangement adorned the salad bar table and was given to the Auxiliary by the Jaycees, thanking the ladies group for its hard work and continued support during the past 25 years.

The Jaycee Auxiliary has been responsible for many fine projects through the years including the community fluoride program, blood drives and lunch with Santa. The Auxiliary is geared toward community service, personal growth and social gatherings.

It is an organization open to young women between the ages of 18 and 35. Any women interested in taking part are urged to contact Pam Lewis at 475-1603.

Manchester Youth Completes Marine Recruit Training

Marine Pvt. John A. Benedict, son of Helen Benedict of 529 Granger St., Manchester, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battle survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

CHELSEA JAYCEE AUXILIARY members gathered together Tuesday, July 21 at the home of Anne Steinaway to celebrate 25 years of dedicated community service. Following a fine barbeque, the group discussed past, present and future projects to be conducted by the community service organization.

Church Members Attend Lutheran Convention

Local church members were delegates to the July 3-10 convention of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, which is North America's second largest Lutheran body, with 2.7 million members in over 6,000 North American congregations.

Among the 1,100 voting delegates in session at the Cervante Convention Center in St. Louis, Mo., the church's headquarters city, were Larry Hannewald, lay delegate from Stockbridge, and Franklin Giebel, pastoral delegate from Our Savior Lutheran church, Chelsea.

The 1981 LOMS convention elected a new president, vice presidents, and 115 other officers, and took action on 170 resolutions ushering in what was often referred to as "a new era" for the Synod.

Dr. Ralph A. Bohlmann, president of the Synod's Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, was elected president. On Sept. 27, he will succeed Dr. J. A. O. Preus, who is stepping aside after three four-year terms in office.

Preus' administration has been noted for its steady guidance of the church through a controversy over interpretation of the Bible during the 1970's. The result was re-affirmation of the LOMS posture upholding its historic Lutheran stance on that issue.

Bohlmann, in his acceptance speech, praised Preus' leadership and noted that the Missouri Synod had also emerged from this period with a progressive thrust in programs.

One evidence of that is the success of the Synod's Forward in Remembrance fundraising appeal, with an announcement at this convention that it had reached $74.8 million in pledges, compared to the $40 million goal.

Other top officers elected include Dr. Robert Sauer, St. Louis, first vice-president; Dr. Joseph Lavalis, Philadelphia, second vice-president, and the first black to be elected to such a high position in the major Lutheran church; Dr. Guido Merkens, San Antonio, Tex., third vice-president; Dr. Gerhardt Hyatt, St. Paul, Minn., fourth vice-president; Dr. Walter A. Maier, Ft. Wayne, Ind., fifth vice-president; Dr. Herbert Mueller, St. Louis, secretary; and Norman Sell, St. Louis, treasurer. Mueller and Sell were the incumbent

Did We Miss A Holiday?

Holidays, holidays, holidays ad infinitum. Each legal holiday is clearly marked on calendars hung from walls, corkboards or desk pads.

Flags fly, declaring this or that day a time of reverence. Flags wave, often at half staff, to honor the dead. Flags wave at all times in Chelsea, honoring the country. They hang high above Main St. for all to see.

Fourth of July is past, the next holiday is Labor Day. Or is it Secretaries' Day or Father's Day or Grandmother's Day. They are all clearly logged on our calendars or in our minds.

But, for those of us at The Chelsea Standard office, we were unable to figure out what holiday last Tuesday was. Flags were placed in front of a number of stores on Main St., honoring something or someone. Which holiday was it? Did we at The Standard miss a day off work because we lost track of legal holidays?

Can anyone fill us in?
