

VFW Auxiliary Notes

The Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW Post No. 4076 met Monday, Aug. 10 in the VFW hall with 12 members attending.

The charter was draped in memory of Virginia Schang, District 5 president who died Aug. 3 and Thelma Franklin who died Aug. 10.

General reports were given by the various chairmen and reports revealed the upcoming programs are progressing successfully in the new term just begun.

Hospital chairman Lucy Platt revealed that assistance in managing parties at Ypsilanti State Hospital is very much needed and requested that anyone wishing to help should contact her. Parties are held each month by the 6th District chairman.

Once again, the group agreed to co-sponsor the Voice of Democracy program along with the post. The contest is held at Chelsea High school.

Ten percent of proceeds from the sidewalk sale days luncheons was voted out toward the department's special programs to help research and control Huntington's disease. This is considered a community project.

Ten dollars was voted toward the Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy fund and $25 was allowed for the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund to build a national memorial in Washington, D. C. to honor all American veterans of the Vietnam War.

The group decided to hold special bazaar-making programs on the fourth Mondays in September and October. Bertha White will be charge as project leader, special items will be constructed and some of them will be used for a special bazaar sponsored by the 6th District auxiliaries to help fund the district's hospital program. All members are urged to take part in this project. The 6th District is reportedly badly in need of booties for the hospitalized veterans.

The Auxiliary president requested that any member wishing to join in the Fair Parade and help carry the Auxiliary colors should be at the VFW hall at 12-noon on Saturday, Aug. 29.

It was announced that the 6th District meeting will be held in Adrian on Sept. 13, with a school of instruction on auxiliary procedures at 10 a.m. at 726 N. Main St. in the VFW Annis-Flint No. 1584 hall.

The local auxiliary will be having inspection by the 6th District president at the Nov. 9 meeting. The annual Auxiliary Pow-Wow will be held at Boyne Mountain from Oct. 1 through Oct. 4.

Virginia Schirmacher reported on the 6th District planning meeting held July 19 and also on the luncheons held for the sidewalk sale days, July 31 and Aug. 1. She explained that both were successful and thanked everyone who furnished foods and assisted her.

The next regular auxiliary meeting will be held Sept. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the VFW hall.

Home Meals Service Needs Volunteer Drivers

Chelsea's Home Meals Service is in need of volunteer drivers to assist in the delivery of daily meals to elderly and incapacitated community residents. According to Maryann Merkel, drivers are needed especially on Friday mornings.

All meals are prepared at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home and are picked up by drivers at 11:15 a.m. seven days per week, 365 days per year. The approximate time necessary to deliver all of the meals is one hour and the cost of fuel needed for delivery is tax-deductible.

Those persons without previous experience are given a short orientation to the program.

Persons interested in becoming daily or substitute drivers should contact Barbara Branch at 475-7644.

Kimberly Smith Accepted for Study at Interlochen Academy

Interlochen Arts Academy has announced the acceptance of Kimberly Kay Smith, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. P. Smith of Chelsea, a student for the 1981-82 academic year. She is currently attending Chelsea High school.

Students, ages 13 to 17, come from all over the world to attend the internationally famous school.

According to the Interlochen Admissions Department, Kimberly will pursue special interests in french horn.

Band, Orchestra Instruments Offered for Resale

The Chelsea Band and Orchestra Boosters reported having had 13 musical instruments added to their listing of used instruments as of Thursday last week.

The listing, organized to assist in the purchase of needed instruments or in the sale of no longer needed instruments, offers a variety of musical goods ranging in price from $5 to $300.

Persons interested in buying or selling should contact Mrs. Alice Rawson at 475-9297 for further information.

The sponsoring group hopes that this method will provide an opportunity to purchase used instruments at a much more reasonable price than purchasing new or renting.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale L. Smith

Carolyn Schardein, Dale Smith Are Wed at Methodist Church

Used Motor Oil Recycling Spots Listed

The Ecology Center of Ann Arbor and the Co-Operative Extension Service have announced a list of auto service stations that are participating in a new oil recycling program. Each station will allow people who change their own motor oil to deposit used oil in the station's collection tank for recycling. From there the oil will be taken to a refinery and turned into new motor oil.

To recycle your used oil, just bring it to one of the following stations during their normal business hours in a secure container—an old milk carton will do—and ask the attendant where to put it.

Local oil collection centers include Fletcher Mobil in Chelsea and Dick's Place and Webster Church Recycling Station in Dexter.

Used oil is a valuable resource, but it often becomes an environmental pollutant when disposed of in the trash, poured down the sewers, or spread on the ground. Recycling oil saves energy and keeps toxic waste out of the environment.

ULTRALIGHT AIRCRAFT is a unique, relatively new flying method that, according to Dr. Robert Burns of Chelsea, is the closest thing to unrestricted, enjoyable free flight available. The crafts are fly.

Ultralight Aircraft Provides New Freedom In Man's Flight

"Take one crisp dawn, lace it liberally with anticipation and stir with the steady beat of a hardwood propeller. Then savor all the adventure you can handle. The secret ingredient, of course, is a microflight aircraft." According to Robert Burns, a local dentist, the above advertisement for ultralight airplanes is a pure recipe for the nearest thing to unrestricted enjoyable free flight available.

Building and flying these airplanes that are called ultralights—because they fly on wings of Dacron sail cloth and lawn chair aluminum tubing with wind and cables and a pilot's legs for landing gear—has become a modern day aviation rebirth and sport that is as old as man's desire to fly. And fly they can and do with chain saw and go-cart motors mounted on a tubular frame and turning a three-to-five-foot propeller. At least one local person has been crisscrossing the skies over Chelsea on colorful wings of Dacron with his feet hanging down.

Dr. Burns explains that he built his first aircraft from blueprints and basic components that were supplied by Weedhopper, Inc. of Utah. This craft took approximately one month to build, working week-ends and nights and taking about 50 hours construction time. "I was never thrilled with the design or with the quality of materials and thus never flew it more than a few feet off the ground before selling it," he stated.

In the spring of 1981, he purchased a Quicksilver, the best that is manufactured and sold by Eipperformance, Inc. of San Marcos, Calif. This craft was originally designed as a glider in 1972 and has become a classic in its own time. The Quicksilver kit is one of the sport's most popular designs and exhibits technical advancement, articulate craftsmanship and high quality materials. "I assembled the kit in one week-end, about 25 hours. All the parts are cut to size, drilled and finished. The Dacron sail is completely formed and is generally comprised of six or seven bright and beautiful colors," he explained.

Flying an ultralight aircraft is like reducing flight to its bare essence. As the pilot, you sit suspended from the main wing in a nylon harness with only the breeze of the forward movement of the aircraft in your face. The propeller on the Quicksilver is a pusher type, so the pilot sits with the propeller, noise and propeller thrust behind him. Even the control of the craft is the essence of simplicity, as the directions and altitude of the craft is controlled by a shift of the pilot's weight.

"One hand controls the throttle, the other is for waving at people below," explained Burns.

Aircraft cruise speed is about 35 miles per hour and flight duration can be as long as two hours, based on three gallons of fuel. "The specifications say that the craft can go to 9,000 feet, but I've only been about 2,000 feet off the ground," he said. "Once aloft, it's fun to shut the motor off and simply soar or glide down."

The craft can be started in air by pulling the starter cord on the Yamaha 100 cc go-cart engine that delivers about 23 horse power.

Dr. Burns says that it is particularly enjoyable to fly slowly over the surrounding countryside and his farm just west of Chelsea, looking at the deer, geese and farm animals below.

The various ultralight manufacturers state that to fly an ultralight aircraft is quick and easy. Most of the manufacturers state that learning to fly an ultralight aircraft is quick and easy. Most of the manufacturers suggest a couple hours instruction with the dealer before a pilot goes off on his own. Currently, no FAA license is required for ultralight aircrafts. The only rules that must be observed deal with areas that a craft should not be flown such as into a controlled airport or within 1,000 feet above a highly populated area.

What makes the aircraft even more fun is its portability, as it can be folded up to be carried on a car top or in the back of a pickup truck to transport it to the beach or to one's garage. Set up time takes approximately 15 minutes and for the hearty, this type of craft can be launched by picking it up and running a short distance. It can be landed on the pilot's feet at little more than a walking speed or by using the landing gear or wheels.

The cost of ultralight flying? Very similar to the cost of a nice motorcycle and perhaps safer. The aircraft kits generally cost in the $3,000 range and cost approximately $1 per hour to fly.

"For me, building and flying an ultralight aircraft is the closest I'll ever come to growing wings of my own. It's an exhilarating experience of freedom that is difficult to compare with anything else," explained Dr. Burns.

Idling Car Wastes Gas

The amount of time a car can idle without wasting gasoline probably is a lot less than most motorists think, according to the Michigan Department of Commerce's Energy Administration. "An idling car can waste up to a gallon of gas an hour," said Joann Neuroth, acting director of the Administration. "By limiting idling time to 30 seconds, drivers can obtain maximum efficiency."

"Many motorists believe that starting a car uses as much gas as idling for 10 or 15 minutes," she said. "But studies show that starting a warm engine uses only the fuel it would take to idle for 30-seconds."

The Energy Administration has several free publications dealing with fuel efficiency, including gas mileage guides for new cars, car-pooling guides and tips on alternative fuels. Also available are more than 200 publications concerning energy conservation and renewable energy resources.

For further information, call the Administration's toll-free Energy Hotline, 1-800-292-4704, or write the Energy Clearinghouse, P. O. Box 30228, Lansing 48909.

Grass Lake Man Re-Enlists in Army

Spec. 4 Michael W. Chase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Chase of 261 Lake Heights, Grass Lake, has re-enlisted in the U. S. Army at Fort Bragg, N. C., for an additional three years military service.

Chase is a cannon crewman with the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg.

Girls Varsity Cage Practices Begin

Chelsea High school girls basketball program kicked off preparations for the 1981 season on Monday, Aug. 10.

Varsity practices are scheduled for 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. The junior varsity members will practice from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. All girls in grades nine through 12 who are interested in participating should report to the high school gym at the appropriate times.

Varsity Coach Jim Winter has only three seniors returning from last year's SEC championship team. "We lost an awful lot of good people from last year, but even though we'll only have three seniors, they could be good ones," he explained.

A look at the record seems to confirm the fourth year coach on both points.

Gone from last year's 17-4 squad are All-League and All-Region performers Mary Boylan, Mary Jo Elisele and Lorrie Vandegrift. Also missing will be the first girl to make two All-State teams, Jennifer Ringe, who was named to the Detroit News and UPI All-State teams as well as All-League and All-Region.

Returning for the 1981 season are Amy Unterbrink, Karen Kiel and Shelly Weber.

Unterbrink is headed for her third varsity campaign and last year picked up honorable mention All-Region honors. Kiel was a varsity letter winner and is expected to take over the inside work.

Weber is a former JV scoring leader and will be the only guard returning with varsity experience.

"We'll be young and inexperienced," explained Winter, "but, if we work hard, we'll be in the middle of things. Saline and Milan have the most players coming back from good teams last year. They should be the best. Everyone else should be pretty even. It should be an interesting year."

Task Force on Small Communities Submits Report

The Michigan Task Force on Small and Rural Communities, whose 19 members addressed the concerns and problems of small and rural communities, including transportation, regulation and growth, has submitted their final report to Gov. Milliken.

Their recommendations included: establishment of a rural regulation review board, development of an agricultural preservation strategy, increased funding for forestry, active state promotion of rural economic development, establishment of a rail use plan for rural areas, and expansion of rural extension services.

The task force held five public forums to surface the special problems and needs of communities of fewer than 50,000 people, before submitting their recommendations.

Nature Center Needs Variety of Volunteer Helpers

With the return of the fall season, comes additional need for volunteers at the Waterloo Nature Center.

In the past, the nature center has offered bog walks on weekends in September and October. Volunteers will be needed to collect admissions, greet visitors and take messages. Those persons who have skills in interpretation are needed to lead the walks.

Additional help is needed throughout the year for a wide variety of jobs including food gathering for live animals, display construction and design, typing, building and ground maintenance and so on.

Interested persons may call the Waterloo Nature Center Thursday through Sunday, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Ask the Governor

Question: You've said in the past that you would like to see agriculture take up some of the economic slack caused by recession in the auto industry. What steps do you plan to take in this direction?

Governor: Agriculture is a stabilizing factor in Michigan's economy and its expansion will be a critical factor in the state's economic development. It generates $16 billion annually and has been expanding at a rate of 10 to 15 percent each year. To further that expansion, I have set several goals for Michigan agriculture drawn from recommendations made to me by the Governor's Conference on Agriculture which met in April.

The Michigan Department of Agriculture will give immediate priority to expanding agribusiness production and marketing, especially in soybean processing; increased pork and hard cheese production; reestablishing poultry breeding; establishing a regional beef processing plant, and encouraging alternative energy source production from agricultural products, such as gasohol.

As an example of why we need increased processing capacity, Michigan has dramatically increased its soybean production, yet nearly all soybeans grown in Michigan are shipped to other states for processing into meal. Michigan's swine and poultry producers are large consumers of this meal. We export the raw material, then turn around and buy it back at a higher price because of transportation costs. We need to attract soybean processing facilities with all the intensity and interdepartmental co-operation that we exhibited in attracting the Volkswagen plant to Michigan, because it will not only provide jobs but also help us to expand our hog and poultry production.

Michigan State University's extensive agricultural research, veterinary medicine and co-operative extension programs will receive increased budget support. Included in that support is a call for Michigan State University to begin construction of a plant and soil science building as a means of attracting scientific talent and improving research capabilities.

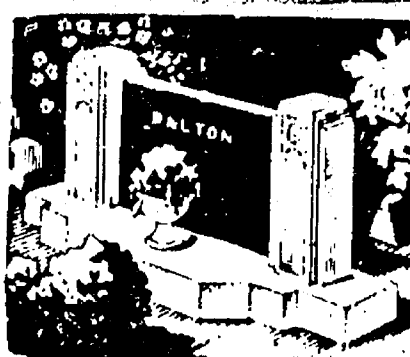

Greater emphasis will be placed on Michigan farm products in our over-all effort to increase the sale of Michigan products abroad.

In addition, I signed into law in July the "Michigan Right To Farm Act," which will protect farms and farmers from increased commercial and residential development, and also from restrictive ordinances and lawsuits related to odor and noise.

LOOKERS OR BUYERS?

Most people enjoy watching parades and get a thrill out of the color, pageantry, floats, costumes, music, and rows of marchers.

But there's one parade that's not enjoyed very much: the parade of people that come trooping through your home if you decide to sell it yourself. Besides wasting your time (this "parade" can go on for days and days), it must be remembered these people are complete strangers who walk in off the street after seeing your sign. And don't be impressed by numbers—you want quality, not quantity when selling. Sure, they'll show a lot of interest as you take them through your home, but you have no way of knowing if they're lookers or potential buyers.

On the other hand, we carefully screen every one showing an interest in your home if you list it with us. We find out who they are, their present financial and economic situation, and most important, if they're sincerely interested in buying your type of home. When we bring them over, they're not strangers—they're good prospects!

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS: The Chelsea Community Hospital Ladies Auxiliary presented three scholarship checks last week to three area young women studying in health oriented fields. Presenting the checks was Mrs. Paul (Jean) Mann, left, chairman of the scholarship committee. Receiving the Auxiliary scholarships were Robin Fenton of Chelsea and Joan Schaible of Manchester while Kimberly Brown of Chelsea received the A. A. Palmer Memorial Scholarship.

Community Hospital Auxiliary Awards Three Scholarships

Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary awarded $500 scholarships to Robin Fenton of Chelsea and Joan Schaible of Manchester. It is the third year for the auxiliary's scholarship program.

To be eligible, a student must be directly involved in a health career program. Selection of recipients is based on academic achievement and sincere intent to further education in a health career.

Joan Schaible was awarded the scholarship in 1980 as well as this year. She is a 1979 graduate of Manchester High school and attended Michigan State University for one year. She transferred to Madonna College in Livonia, where she was accepted into the nursing program. For the past two summers, she has worked as a nurse's aide in the Chelsea Community Hospital recovery room. She was named to the Madonna College dean's list twice this year.

Robin Fenton has lived in Chelsea for two years. After graduating from high school in 1979, she attended Eastern Michigan University as a nursing student. She was named to the dean's list at EMU last year.

Robin has been employed at the Chelsea McDonald's and is earning most her own educational monies. She has six brothers and sisters. Her nursing interest lies in maternity and neo-natal care.

In addition to the auxiliary scholarships, the A. A. Palmer Memorial Scholarship was awarded to Kimberly Brown. This $500 scholarship fund was set up as a memorial to the late Dr. A. A. Palmer by the original group of physicians at Chelsea Medical Clinic. For the past eight years, it has been administered by Dr. William Hawks and is now under the administration of the Scholarship Committee of the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary.

This scholarship is principally designed for a Chelsea High school graduate interested in medicine, primarily through family practice. Determination of a recipient is based on academic achievement, extra-curricular activities and motivation to pursue a career in medicine.

Kimberly is a 1977 cum laude graduate of Chelsea High school and a 1981 graduate of the University of Michigan. She has been accepted to the Wayne State University Medical School and will begin her training in September.

Monies for the scholarships are collected through a percentage of the art sale by the Chelsea and Painters, held the first week-end in June at the hospital.

Members of the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary Scholarship Committee include Mrs. Paul (Jean) Mann, chairman; Alice Thornton, Auxiliary president; Gayle Olsen and Jan Tupper.

FAIR ORGANIZATION: Maryann Guenther, left, and Kay Poljan, secretary and treasurer of the Chelsea Fair Board, respectively, have been working diligently on preparations for the 1981 Chelsea Community Fair, Aug. 25-29. A work bee will be held this Thursday, Aug. 20 beginning at 7:30 p.m. and continuing until dark. All ready, willing and able souls are encouraged to help out in the final preparations for this year's fair.

Hundreds of runners will be in Howell, Saturday, Aug. 22, for the fourth annual Melon Festival Run, sponsored by Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Michigan and the Howell Area Recreation Department.

Top male and female finishers in each age division will receive medals and plaques. Free T-shirts, specially designed for, the Melon Festival Run, will go to the first 1,000 registrants.

"This is truly a cross-country race," said Race Director Ann Conklin of the Howell Area Recreation Department. "The course goes through the woods, over grassy hills, through melon fields and around a lake."

Last year 750 runners registered for the race and even more are expected this year.

The race will begin at 9 a.m. at Howell High school. Call (517) 546-0693 for entry forms or more information.

Babe Ruth No. 1 Third in League

Chester No. 1 ended their 1981 Babe Ruth League season with two big wins over Jackson and Chelsea No. 3. Each game was won in revenge as Chelsea No. 1 had lost to both teams earlier in the year.

Jackson held the lead the entire game until the bottom of the seventh inning when Darin Rowe scored to tie the game at 10-10. Chelsea was behind by as many as five runs but never gave up and came back to win the game. Because of darkness, the game was called and completed a few days later. That saw Jackson going out in the eighth, highlighted by Jim Ritter picking a runner off first base. Then, in Chelsea's half of the eighth inning, David Bushway was safe at first on an error, then three consecutive walks forced him home, giving Chelsea No. 1 the win. This knocked Jackson out of first place and gave the league title to Manchester No. 1.

The final game of the season featured the two top Chelsea teams, No. 1 and No. 3.

It was an exciting, close game as Jay Marshall of No. 1 outdid Doug Pagliarini of No. 3, 3-0. Chelsea No. 1 scored twice in the second inning and once in the third to take the game and finish third in the league behind Manchester No. 1 and Jackson. Marshall gave up four hits and struck out four while Pagliarini struck out nine and allowed only three hits.

Chester No. 1 finished the season with an 8-4 record, winning five of its last six games. Playing for Chelsea No. 1 this summer were David Bushway, Ken Cabanaw, Dan Cook, Ron Dunn, Ed Esch, Dan Kimbler, Jay Marshall, Barry Newkirk, Jim Ritter, Darin Rowe, Jeff Salyer, Don Siff, Matt Smith, Phil Sweet, and Jim Toon. The team was coached by Akel Marshall.

John Miller Is First 'Small' Race Male Pilot

The first male pilot was accepted as a contestant in the 26th Annual Michigan "Small" Race, which started and finished at the W. K. Kellogg Regional Airport in Battle Creek on Saturday, Aug. 15, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

The race is sponsored by the four Michigan Chapters of the Ninety-Nines, an International Organization of Women Pilots formed in 1929 by Amelia Earhart, and the Michigan Aeronautics Commission. Traditionally, women pilots only have been permitted to race but men have served in the cockpit as co-pilots.

The male entry is John Miller, an air transport pilot who lives at 3747 McKinley Rd. who has ASMEI, CONVAIR 580, G-1159, Rotocraft and flight instructor ratings. He has logged a total of 8,500 hours in flight time.

Small only in comparison to the Powder Puff Derby, inception of the Small Race was in 1956 when the All Women's Transcontinental Air Race terminated in Flint. The Small Race was flown from Flint to Harbor Springs where the International Convention of the Ninety-Nines was taking place. Twenty-two cities in Michigan have hosted the race which became a round-robin event in 1960 starting and finishing in Muskegon.

Cash awards of $2,000 and many trophies were awarded to the pilots and co-pilots placing in the top 10 and there were special category awards for those not so fortunate. The race was a test of skill, proficiency and safety in flying. It is a three-legged round robin cross-country flight of not more than 250 statute miles for stock model, fixed wing, single or multi-engine aircraft not exceeding 420 total horse power. Each aircraft flies the assigned route. Official timers at each of three locations recorded the time as each aircraft passes. The pilot finishing with an over-all speed score closest to the handicap speed for his/her airplane is given winner's honors.

Hospital Urges Use of Children's Car Seats

The Catherine McAuley Health Center, three local jaycee auxiliaries, and the University of Michigan Highway Safety Research Institute are working together to help ensure that the thousands of babies born each year at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital ride home in the safety of an infant car seat.

"Averaging about 300 deliveries each month, St. Joseph's is the leading birthing center in the greater Washtenaw area, and thus has a special responsibility to help inform expectant parents about the urgent need for infant car seats," said pediatrician Daniel Chapman, M.D., associate medical director of the hospital's Newborn Nursery.

Chapman pointed out that automobile accidents are the number one killer of children in the U. S.

"This situation is especially tragic when you consider that numerous studies clearly show that using car seats could reduce these fatalities by 90 percent," he emphasized.

Chapman noted that the Michigan legislature has cleared a "child car seat" law that, upon Governor Milliken's approval, will become effective in the spring of 1982, making Michigan the 8th state to enact such legislation.

The law in essence will require that all children under the age of 4 must be restrained by a car seat when in front. In back, only children under 1 year must be in a seat; those between 1 and 4 may use either car seats or lap belts, Chapman said.

In many situations, the law permits those receiving citations to eliminate the $10 fine by obtaining a car seat prior to appearance in court.

Chapman said parents "ought to accept car seat usage as readily

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:

Question please. Why, when it has been proven medically that cigarettes are harmful to one's health and causes cancer, are there so many young people under the age of 18 who buy and smoke cigarettes? Can our stores and gas stations and the like get into trouble for selling cigarettes to minors?

Well, the answer is yes... "It is illegal to sell cigarettes to anyone under age 18 in Michigan," Tom Campbell, Washtenaw county assistant prosecutor, told Action, Please! The fine for the misdemeanor is not to exceed $50 or 30 days jail. Campbell notes it is also illegal for a minor to use cigarettes in public (Ann Arbor News, June 1981).

Well, this will solve all the smoking problems in the public school systems from junior high on up. Kids, watch out, the puff you're taking may be the last one. Parents, you have a new tool now, a law to enforce into "Action, Please." As parents you care for your children's health—watch a fever, get medication when it proves Jr. has something more serious, yet you let him or her smoke. It does not have to be that way. A lot of love and a firm guiding hand can make all the difference... if we all worked at this together, at home, in the schools, at stores and other places of business, we could protect our children from possible future cancer.

If we love them, let's show them we do! Hey all you beautiful young people, we do care and we want to help you have a long and healthy life.

A mother of seven,
Mrs. Millie Warner.

Michigan Cattle Brucellosis-Free For First Time

For the first time in Michigan history, no state cattle are under quarantine for brucellosis, reports the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Only 11 other states are currently listed as being brucellosis-free. Last year, Michigan had two herds under quarantine; during the early 1950s, there were nearly 7,000.

According to Dr. Charles Cole, chief of the MDA Animal Health and Meat Inspection Division, brucellosis is one of the most infectious and at one time was the most widespread of cattle diseases. Although it can attack other farm animals, its major threat is to cattle and swine. There is no known cure and infected animals frequently show no symptoms. Such animals become the source of infection for other animals, Dr. Cole said.
