THE REAL ALE COMPANY; a brewery planning to turn out 400 cases of premium ale per month is the first brewery in Michigan to request the necessary licensing in the past 38 years.

The prototype facility, the brainchild of Ted Badgerow and Gordon Averill, is located in rented space at Chelsea Industries and plans to begin its production of high quality, specialty brew by March 1.

New Brewery Starting in Chelsea Industries Building

For the first time in 38 years, an application has been filed to introduce a new brewery in Michigan. Detroit has Strohs, Frankenmuth has Carling and now, Chelsea has The Real Ale Co.

Two men, Ted Badgerow, an Ann Arbor cook, and Gordon Averill, a former dairy farmer between Grand Rapids and Muskegon, are responsible for the firm that will eventually turn out 400 cases a month of British-type ale.

In space rented in the Chelsea Industries building, the pair has been moving in bottles and fermenting tanks for a couple of weeks. Though their licensing

United Way Hits 83% of Year's Goal

One week after the official final day of the 1981 Chelsea United Way campaign, Friday, Oct. 30, local chairman Don Peck reports that, as of Friday, Nov. 6, the local fund-raising attempts have topped the Chelsea total to 83 percent.

More than $39,598 has been collected in both pledges and contributions, thereby equaling the 83 percent of the total goal of $47,950.

Nevertheless, Peck explained that a number of employee campaigns have not yet submitted their donations or reported on their response. Monies are also continuing to trickle in via the mail.

"By March or April of next year, we should have reached our goal or topped it," Peck said.

procedures have not yet been completed the duo plans to begin retail production early next year. Still, various forms must be filed in the right order.

According to Badgerow, the reason for the move to Chelsea was the "hardness of the town water supply, which is ideal for the type of beer he and his associate will brew.

The Real Ale Co. beer will be

Two Steers Shot in Farm Field

Jackson County Sheriff's Department are investigating the shooting of two Holstein steers on property owned by Jim Hadley of Harr Rd., Grass Lake, Saturday night.

According to Hadley, the steers were among 20 in the field at the time of the killing. Nearly all black, the steers could not have been mistaken for deer and it is believed that shiners killed the animals late Saturday night. Hadley discovered them at approximately 7 a.m. Sunday.

The dead steers, worth approximately $700 each, were shot within 20 yards of each other on Hadley's land which borders Harr Rd.

Hadley commented on the frequency of shining this year and said that, according to the Jackson County Sheriff's Department, there are more game violations than accidents this season.

Hadley buried his steers Sunday morning and is now putting his remaining herd in his barnyard at night.

fermented at room temperature and will have a richness and heartiness associated with Guinness Stout. According to Badgerow, the ale to be produced will differ from American beers in that American beers include a number of chemicals and preservatives. The Chelsea brew will consist of two main ingredients, water and malt while hops and yeast will serve as catalysts. The malt barley is imported from Ireland. The ale will ferment at room temperature, taking approximately 24 hours for the process to be completed.

Basically, the new brewery will employ Badgerow and Averill, cleaning and filling bottles with their product. "Nearly 90 percent

Band Concert Scheduled Thursday

Bands in the Chelsea School District will present a concert on Thursday, Nov. 12 in the high school gymnasium. The 7th and 8th grade bands, concert and symphony bands will perform concert selections and marches.

During the second half of the concert, the marching bands will be featured, performing highlights of the fall marching season. Special features will include the high school color guard and percussion sections.

The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m. and an admission fee of $1 for adults and 50 cents for students will be charged. A family admission will be available at a cost of $2.

of brewing involves cleaning and bottling," explained Badgerow.

Badgerow has been a cook in Ann Arbor for six years, now cooking at a University of Michigan sorority. He began home brewing and concluded that his brew was as good, if not better than commercial beers and ales. "We're hoping to establish a difference," Badgerow said, "and we know it will appeal to those persons who enjoy imported ales." They're going ahead with the prototype brewery on the assumption that it will be marketable.

According to Badgerow, the Jackson-Ann Arbor area is a prime location for their product and then hope to sell their draught product, with specific variations; to restaurants interested in selling a house ale. Cost will be under imported and significantly above typical domestic beers. Distribution will be economically feasible as The Real Ale Co. has its own truck.

The Real Ale Co. product will be a "sip not gulp" ale with a higher alcohol content—6.5 to 7.5 percent—than conventional beers and will be marketed under the name of Ozzie's (Badgerow's nickname) Wolverine Porter.

B & E Theft Reported at Chelsea Plant

Chelsea Police Department reports that sometime between Saturday, Oct. 31 and Monday, Nov. 2, a breaking and entering occurred at Chelsea Industries.

Entrance was gained through a side window. Once inside, subject or subjects unknown took the rear tires and rims from a 1974 Ford van owned by A. W. Jouning of Claymont, Del. Then, breaking a window to the vehicle, a radio and 12 volt battery were taken. Approximate cost of the stolen merchandise, $795.

On Monday, Nov. 2, at approximately 9:30 p.m., four Firestone radial tires on a 1981 Dodge parked at Chelsea Lanes were slashed with a knife.

Sheriff's Men Arrest 8 in B & E Cases

A series of breaking and entering of homes and businesses within the Chelsea-Dexter area has resulted in a number of arrests. Within the past two weeks, the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department has made a total of eight felony arrests on charges of breaking and entering and additional arrests are pending following authorization.

Each of the incarcerated suspects have been bound over the 14th District Court and, according to Detective Paul Wade, stiff sentences are expected.

Armed Man Forces His Way into House, Robs Elderly Woman

Detective Paul Wade of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department reported that an armed robbery occurred at the residence of a 71-year-old Chelsea woman living in the 13000 block of Old US-12 Wednesday evening, Nov. 4.

According to Wade, the incident took place at approximately 6:30 p.m. when a man approached the residence, knocked on the door and asked if "Jack Morris" lived there. When the Chelsea woman said that there was no person by that name living there, the felon pulled out a dark colored handgun and forced his way into the house.

Once inside, the robber took the woman upstairs with him, assisting her when she explained that she had a heart problem. He proceeded to loot the bedroom and took the woman downstairs, locked her in the bathroom and continued to loot the house.

When she freed herself from the bathroom, she discovered that the gunman had stolen a color television, miscellaneous jewelry and $500 in cash.

The felon is described as a well-kept white male between the ages of 30 and 35, approximately 5 feet eight inches tall, weighing about 160 pounds and having a medium build. He was wearing dark trousers and a red pullover sweater or jacket. Wade said that the bandit could be described as an "All-American boy" type.

The Sheriff's Department is following up on a few leads in the case. Persons having any information regarding the armed robbery are requested to call Wade at the Chelsea Sub-Station at 475-3210 or the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department at 971-8400.

ARMED ROBBERY SUSPECT: Committing an armed robbery on Old-US 12 last Wednesday, Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department describes the suspect as a white male between the ages of 30 and 35, approximately 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighing about 160 pounds and having a medium build. Persons having any information regarding the armed robbery should call the Sheriff's Department at 971-8400.

Former Cult Member To Speak at St. Paul's

Una McManus, a former member of the Children of God cult, and co-author of the book, "Not For A Million Dollars," describing her experiences while in this religious cult, will speak on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 15, from 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. at St. Paul United Church of Christ, 14600 Old US-12, Chelsea. All young people and interested adults in the area are invited. There will be no charge or offering taken.

The program is endorsed by the Chelsea Ministerial Fellowship and sponsored by the Junior High and Senior High Youth Fellowships of St. Paul church. Refreshments will be served following the presentation. A 20-minute film on cults will be shown.

McManus, 24, of Akron, O., is a freelance writer and currently attending college. After five years with the Children of God cult, she escaped and settled her accounts by winning a judgment of $1.5 million against the cult's leader, David Berg, accusing the group of alienation of affection and misrepresentation of ideals. She has since vowed to spread a different gospel—that cults are evil.

"It's important to inform the public about what's going on in cults," she explains. "I feel a moral obligation to expose them."

In 1972, McManus, who speaks with a soft Irish brogue, was a 15-year-old Roman Catholic girl when she met two members of the cult in Dublin. She was taken in by their "love-bombing" tactics.

She was sent on a nomadic path through Ireland, England, and Scandinavia, handing out leaflets and collecting money for the group.

At 16, she married another cult member, who was from Akron. Birth control was forbidden and the couple had a child quickly. She explained that most of their time was spent on the streets begging for money. About the time her second child was born, cult leader Berg sold her on what she called flirty fishing to win converts. One night in a discotheque in Oslo, Norway, she was told to save the soul of a man by seducing him.

"They wanted me to go out and be a happy hooker for Christ. But I said no, I wasn't going to do it." She left the cult and, for a while, lived on welfare in Akron. Then, she enrolled in school, met a man who had never been in a cult and remarried.

Total Deregulation of Interest Rates Appears Unlikely
 After failing on a test vote, the state House of Representatives returned to committee a package of bills to totally deregulate interest rates.

The committee now is expected to develop a "floating" cap on interest rates as both Republicans and Democrats indicated the vote signalled the death of the deregulation effort.

The deregulation bills were part of a package of bills designed to aid the Michigan economy, making the state a better place to live and do business.

State bankers had declared that unless interest rates were deregulated and allow the market to set the rate up to a 25 percent criminal limit, they would not be able to lend money in Michigan, creating further problems to the state's struggling economy.

Officials at Michigan National Corp., the state's largest holding company, even went as far as threatening to move portions of their operations out of the state where they could compete in the current money market.

On the other side, the powerful United Auto Workers rallied in the name of consumerism, charging that allowing deregulation was nothing but a greedy move on the part of the banks and the subsequent higher interest rates would further cripple the public's buying power and eventually cost more jobs in Michigan.

Republicans opposed the legislation because it allowed loans to be made at any interest rate and not specifying that an interest rate could not be above 25 percent, the level of criminal usury.

Several Republicans, however, made it clear they continued to back deregulation of interest rates.

They said they disapproved of high interest rates but added the state was in no position to attempt to regulate them any longer.

By returning the bills to committee, another attempt can be made to institute a floating cap—tying the maximum interest rate to the level set for six-month Treasury bills or some other index.

Prior efforts to set a floating cap in committee have failed. Governor William G. Milliken has several times said he will not support total deregulation of interest rates, but will back some unspecified floating level.

House Speaker Bobby D. Crim (D-Davison) and Senate Majority Leader William Faust (D-Westland) support the floating cap concept instead of total deregulation.

Currently, interest rates are limited by statute with rates ranging from 11 percent on land contract property sales to 25 percent on first mortgages.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The cost of living might be driving us to an early grave, Mister Editor, but it looks like we won't get no bargains there either. According to this report Bug Hookum give at the country store Saturday night, the cost of dyin is killing the funeral home business. Bug had saw where undertakers from all over the country meeting recent in Philadelphia said they had come on hard times.

One funeral director said the price of all his materials had cut into his profit, cause people no longer are willing to spend the kind of money it takes to bury their dead in the manner to which they have become accustomed. Speaking for the living, Bug said, this could be another case of businessmen pricing themselves out of the market. Bug said it looked to him like free enterprise ought to come into play in this situation, and let competition take it course.

building all over the country. For-profit hospitals say that's exactly why they give better service, cause they're out to make money and the best way is to outdo the competition. Public hospitals say, on the other hand, just what the post office says about private parcel service, that private operations serve the high-return customers and leave the losers to the public. This means, they say, that mail and medicine cost more in the long run.

Personal, Mister Editor, it looks to me like a clear case of adding and subtracting. Fewer people are getting born, fewer are getting sick and fewer are dying, so we're going to have to do what the education business does with fewer to educate. It cuts back with the ebb and waits for the flow. As long as we fight the last war we won't ever be ready for the next one.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Clem Webster said he read the same report and that's what is happening. Some funeral homes are offering better deals than others, and them that ain't willing to compete are the ones that's hurting. Clem said he saw the problem more as supply and demand than the free marketplace. He said one undertaker at the Philadelphia meeting declared that the burying business is in a slowdown cause "there's just not sufficient death."

Furthermore, Clem went on, there don't seem to be enough sickness either. He had saw where hospitals are talking poor mouth in many parts of the country, and in Chicago some are advertising for patients and even offering special deals like steak dinners for visitors, lower rates certain hours and savings bond bonuses for babies. One hospital said emergency room business had picked up more than 30 percent since they run ads promising service within 60 seconds or your money back.

The fellers was general agreed that when demand for service falls the quality of service rises. Zeke Grubb, fer one, said he wasn't sure how this works with the sick and the dead, but fer sure there is a big move in this country to run both as private operations. Zeke had saw where one outfit, Hospital Corporation of America, already owns more than 300 hospitals, and it is buying and

ABWA Members Hear Talk On Advantages of A Will

Judy Moisan, president of the Chelsea Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association, called the Oct. 27 meeting to order at 7 p.m. Twenty-three members and 12 guests enjoyed a swiss steak dinner served by the Wolverine staff.

Guest speaker James Meretta, trust officer of National Bank and Trust of Ann Arbor, spoke on "Whys of A Will." He pointed out that many hassles can be eliminated if there is a will. He also touched on the advantages of a trust.

Property probated at time of death is distributed with the majority going to the surviving spouse, then to children, to parents if living, cousins and so forth.

He stated that the title of a person administering the estate has been changed to personal representative. He or she takes care of all taxes to be paid and other necessary details, and the assets distributed as requested in the will. In many cases, jointly owned assets do not have to be probated. If the joint named person dies, in some instances, trust companies provide a space for contingent names. Under a new code, a personal representative can probate a will without going to Probate Court if necessary papers have been filed.

A person can designate someone "Power of Attorney" to take care of business matters until death. This "power" can be revoked by submitting a written request to do so.

Meretta explained that trusts are property arrangements passing legal title to property to be managed. A bank or another trustee is helpful in reduction of fees in managing such a trust if it is self-declared with oneself as trustee. He also touched on the advantages of having one's estate in a two-trust plan and how the estate is administered at time of death.

Everyone should update a will every five years or as circumstances change. Meretta also told the women that a will should not be placed in a safety deposit box.

He concluded his talk with a question and answer period.

Carol Spike, director of purchasing and supervisor of central supply at Chelsea Community Hospital was the vocational speaker. She is responsible for ordering all supplies and special items for the hospital and there are 2,000 items on the inventory.

During the business meeting, Judy Durgan announced the winners of the pork raffle as J. Minick of South Lyon and Kenneth Marshall of Grass Lake. The proceeds of $319 will go into the Chapter Scholarship Fund. During the first two weeks of November, the members will be taking orders for nuts in fancy metal containers; these proceeds are also earmarked for the Scholarship Fund.

Shirley Porter was named to serve on the Ways and Means Committee. Jack Schiller gave the invocation and Janet Hegadorn gave the benediction.

Guests included Bonnie Augustine, Nancy Poland, Barb Kays, Debbie Craft, Carolyn Lyons, Fran Mullaly, Zella LaVan, Marlene Luhenick, Pat Stoll, Mary Lou Wollpert of Apollo ABWA Jackson Chapter, and guest speaker James Meretta of Ann Arbor.

The November meeting, fourth Tuesday, will be held at the Wolverine.

A Bureau of Labor was established in the Department of Interior in 1884; it later became independent as a Department of Labor without Cabinet rank. This was absorbed into a new Department of Commerce and Labor, which was created in 1903; the present Cabinet-level Department of Labor was established in 1913, according to a U. S. Labor Department publication.

QUIT SMOKING FINALIST: Stephen Foster of Chelsea recently entered a quit smoking letter writing promotional contest sponsored by the American Cancer Society as a part of the Great American Smokeout. His no smoking suggestion involved buying 100 balloons and blowing them all up before giving in to the urge to smoke. He is now one of three Michigan finalists in competition with three others from each of 58 Cancer Society districts across the country. Should Foster win, he and his wife will be awarded an all expense paid trip for two to Hollywood and dinner with Larry Hagman.

S. Foster Named Finalist In Quit Smoking Contest

Stephen G. Foster of Chelsea, who, late last month, was named local winner in the Larry J. R. Hagman Quit Smoking Letter Writing Contest sponsored by the American Cancer Society, has been named one of three finalists representing the State of Michigan in the national competition.

Three winners of each of the Cancer Society's 58 divisions nationwide will compete for a round-trip paid trip for two to Hollywood and dinner with Larry Hagman.

Foster's suggestion: to buy 100 balloons and blow them up before giving in to the urge, to smoke, thus feeling a shortness of breath. His letter was rated highly in the three judged categories of originality, practicality and clarity.

Despite his unusual idea, Foster himself does smoke.

Results of the national competition will be released later this month. Judging the Great American Smokeout promotional contest will be William G. Cahan, M.D., attending surgeon, Thoracic Service, Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center; John Mack Carter, editor-in-chief, Good Housekeeping magazine; and Camille McMennamin, vice-president, copy group head, McCaffery and McCall, Inc.

Frances Perkins, who became Secretary of Labor in 1933, was the first woman named to the U.S. Cabinet, according to "Important Events in American Labor History," a publication of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Girl Scouts Report Busy October

The month of October was very busy for Girl Scout Troop 719. The year-long goal is to find out more about Chelsea. On Oct. 15, Mrs. Tremper took us to the cemetery. We learned about the "houses" above the ground people are buried in and "empty looking" family plots. Reading dates on tombstones sometimes told the group how people died. Some had pictures on them.

Mr. Geddes, a local fireman, visited the troop on Oct. 22 and discussed how to get out of a burning house. He provided a great deal of information to share with families. The troop examined his uniform and discussed what steps to take if a fire was discovered.

The troop is also working on a very big project, personalized, reversible tote bags that will help keep scout things organized. Lots of moms are assisting.

On Nov. 5, Linda Kropf showed the group some beautiful paintings she had done. She shared pictures of Hopi and Navajo Indians of today, showed the girls jewelry and discussed many interesting facts. Mrs. Tremper shared some Indian artifacts with the girls. She told the group that she found one in their garden. Her grandfather bought many artifacts from people during the depression.

Next week, the girls will travel to the Museum of Natural History for a tour of the Indian area.

The group is selling candles for an overnight stay at Greenfield Village.

Turkey Supply: "Overstuffed"

The U.S. turkey supply is "overstuffed," according to the Department of Agriculture, and in order to consume it, holiday diners will have to eat double and triple servings. That abundance of turkeys means lower prices for consumers.

Growers boosted output this year to a record 168.3 million birds, up two percent from last year. To reduce the large inventories of frozen turkeys to more normal levels, Americans will have to eat an average of 4.8 pounds each during the fourth quarter of this year.

tion co-ordinator, said "The play was selected because of its format consisting of three separate plays all taking place in the same suite in the Plaza Hotel in New York City." There are possibly 11 parts to cast.

Those interested are invited to attend a general interest meeting at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 1 at the First United Methodist church on Park St. Jan Koengeter, who was selected as director of "Plaza Suite," said, "We want the community to feel a part of this production and would welcome help in both the dinner and the theater areas."

The Friends of the Chelsea Players are not only looking for actors, but also help with table decorations, signs, coat check and so on. In the theater area help is needed with props, sets and technical aspects. The position of assistant director is open for someone interested in learning more about stage directing. It is looked upon as an excellent learning experience.

Auditions will be held at the First United Methodist church between the hours of 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 5 and 6. Perusal scripts are available on a check-out basis from Joan Wolf at 475-9576.

GUS WELLNITZ

Gus Wellnitz Marks 101st Birthday Today

On Tuesday, Nov. 10, Gus Wellnitz, father of John J. Wellnitz of Chelsea, will celebrate his 101st birthday. He lives at 10930 Wisner Hwy., Tecumseh.

Gus lives alone, keeps house for himself and cooks two meals each day. He has some help from his daughter, Mrs. Wilma Allen, who lives next door.

He has another daughter, Mrs. Ruth Marie Gove, who lives near Clinton and a son, John J. Wellnitz, who lives in Chelsea with his wife, Ruth. Another son, Harold, died in 1909 from a ruptured appendix at the age of 13.

Gus was born in Germany in 1880 and came to the United States when he was four years old. A farmer all his life, he believes being active and the fact that he neither drinks nor smokes has been a contributing factor to his long life. When he gave up farming approximately 11 years ago, he retained a large enough parcel of land to cultivate a sizeable garden.

More than one century old, Mr. Wellnitz remains active, reading and listening to the news and ballgames. According to his son, John J. Wellnitz, "He doesn't live in the past, except in his moral attitudes and values." Mr. Wellnitz keeps up with world and local affairs and is an ardent Republican.

His family of three living children, six grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren called at his home last week-end, wishing him a happy birthday prior to his departure to Florida where he has spent the past few winters.

Mr. Wellnitz will head to Florida on Nov. 15 and will be met there by his daughter and son-in-law. By mid-April, Gus will return to Michigan to plant his 1982 garden.

School Board Briefs

Schumann, Snyder, Dils, Graf, Comeau, Superintendent Van Meer, Assistant Superintendent Mills, Principals Williams, Conklin, Wojcicki, Assistant Principal Vogel, Athletic Director Nemeth, guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by President Ann Feeney. Board approved the minutes of the Oct. 19 meeting.

Assistant Superintendent Mills presented the Board of Education with an analysis of employee fringe benefit costs. There has been a substantial increase, specifically in the area of health insurance. 1981-82 costs reflect $574,383 for employee fringe benefit costs, a 15% increase from 1980-81. These costs are essentially health, retirement and unemployment compensation.

The Board awarded a contract to Robert Shaw Company, Oak Park, low bidder, to renovate the temperature controls at the Chelsea High school and Beach Middle school. The low bid for Chelsea High school was $27,833; for Beach Middle school, $28,980, for a total combined bid of $56,813. Specifications are being prepared for the renovation of temperature controls at North and South Elementary schools. Half of the dollar expenditure is paid by the energy grant the district received from the federal government. The other half is budgeted from the maintenance millage funds which were set aside to aid the energy conservation program.

The Board received a report from Athletic Director Nemeth on the fund-raising activities within the school district. This was an informational item. The committee will receive input from the business people in the community before making recommendations.

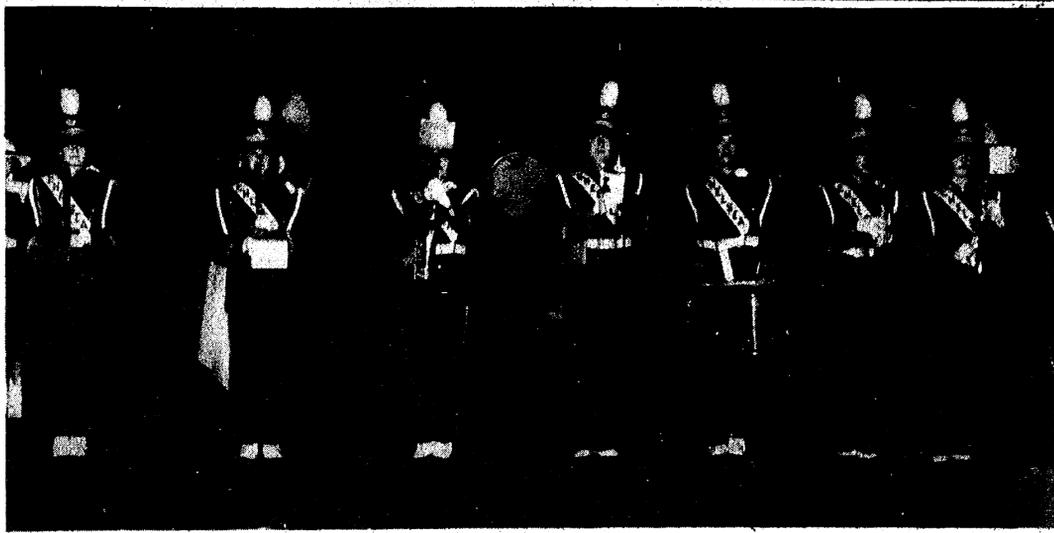

The Board was briefed by Superintendent Van Meer on expedited negotiations. Expedited negotiations, being discussed by the administration and the CEA, could reduce the time spent in the negotiation process. The contract with the CEA expires June 30, 1982.

The Board of Education received the Annual Report prepared by the Superintendent for the Board of Education, pertaining to the status of the school district.

Board adjourned at 9:58 p.m.

Artichokes in Your Gas Tank?

University of California research specialists have picked up information developed in the late 19th century showing artichokes as a source of fuel alcohol. They have crossed the "chokes" with sunflower varieties to produce the "sunchoke" which indicates yields of ethanol at a rate of some 600 gallons per acre on good agricultural land. The tubers of the fast-growing plant may yield up to 30 gallons of alcohol per ton of fresh weight.

PRIDE OF CHELSEA: Halftime festivities at Friday's final home football game against Mason included a special performance by the Chelsea High school marching band under the direction of Bill Gourley. Providing spirit and fine entertainment during intermission, the second half of the game followed with the Bulldog gridders taking ahold of the Mason Bulldogs and defeating them 23-8 to secure a first-place tie in the Southeastern Conference.

Right To Farm Act Meeting Scheduled

In July, Governor William Milliken signed into law the Michigan Right to Farm Act. It is designed to encourage farmers to continue to make the necessary investments to remain in agriculture and expand, by protecting them from nuisance suits which may result from noises, dust and odors which are a part of a normal farm operation.

Because of encroachment on farmlands as a result of rapid expansion into rural areas, the Right to Farm Act can assist farmers. Section three of the Act states that "a farm or farm operation shall not be found to be a public or private nuisance if the farm or farm operation alleged to be a nuisance conforms to generally accepted agricultural and management practices according to policy as determined by the director of the department of agriculture."

To assure that the policy developed covers all parts of agriculture which may apply to the Act, the 83 Michigan Soil Conservation Districts have been asked to conduct public meetings of farmers and other interested persons to obtain their thoughts and feelings on what should be contained in the Right to Farm

Act policy. In addition, the Soil Conservation Service, Important Agricultural Lands map will be on display for review. It will also be on display prior to the meeting at the Soil Conservation Service Office, 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor.

Your help is needed. If you are a farmer, own or manage a farm operation, a township official, farm organization member, or a person interested in preserving our precious farmlands, plan now to attend the Right to Farm Act Public Meeting: Monday, Nov. 23, 7:30 p.m., Scio Township Hall, 827 N. Zeeb Rd., Ann Arbor.

The Scio Township Hall is located 1/2 mile north of I-94 on Zeeb Rd., next to the Washtenaw County Road Commission office.

Planning Commission Reports

The first Planning Commission was established in 1966 by the Village Council. The present Planning Commission consists of nine (9) members appointed by the Village President with the consent of the Council. This combined group has over 30 years of planning experience for the Village of Chelsea. These members serve without pay. Fees charged to applicants for rezoning, site plan reviews, etc., are set to cover any costs incurred by the Planning Commission. I do not know where the figure of $12,000 to $15,000 comes from that Mr. Ritter mentioned in his report.

The Planning Commission gives the Council minutes of each meeting and Council has appointed two of its members to act as liaison to the Planning Commission to carry back information to Council.

The function of the Planning Commission is to review and approve site plans, make recommendations to the Village Council in matters relating to zoning amendments and conditional use permits and make recommendations on long-range planning. These recommendations are made pursuant to the Village Council's adopted Master Development Plan. The Planning Commission does not have powers to interpret the Zoning Ordinance nor to approve site plans that do not conform to standards and regulations set forth in the Zoning Ordinance. The Planning Commission also does not enforce the Zoning Ordinance; this power rests with the Village President.

Conflict of interest during voting at Council or Planning Commission level always results in said member declining to vote. Regarding the Hewitt property, no official action has been taken by the Planning Commission nor has a recommendation been made by the Planning Commission to the Council regarding curbs, gutters, sidewalks, streets or any regulations relevant to the development of Mr. Hewitt's property.

We are writing this article in reply to Mr. Ritter's "Village President Report" which appeared in the Nov. 3 issue of The Chelsea Standard. We wish to inform the citizens of Chelsea and Mr. Ritter of the functions and duties of the Planning Commission. We feel that Mr. Ritter's "Report" was very misleading and confusing.

Phil Hume, chairman
F. C. Belsler, vice-chairman.

Cadet Neal Vorus On Honor Roll at Military School

Headmaster Richard Piper of Howe Military School, Howe, Ind., has announced that Cadet Neal Vorus, son of Professor and Mrs. William S. Vorus of North Lake, was on the Howe honor roll for the first marking period of the year.

Neal, a junior at Howe, has been on the honor roll since he entered the school last September. He maintained a 4.0 grade point average during last year's second semester.

Neal is a member of Howe's two honor societies, the National Honor Society and Alpha Delta Tau. The latter requires that members maintain grades of 3.25 or better with no academic grade less than "B" for three consecutive six-week periods.

Vorus holds the rank of sergeant and was recently promoted to the position of squad leader.

ROAD COMMISSION SALT DOME: No, it's not a flying saucer. Instead, this white, air-filled dome has been constructed to eliminate the possibilities of salt water run off and subsequent ground water contamination from exposed road salt. In addition, by covering the salt, freezing during the winter will not occur. The dome, located off Zeeb Rd. at I-94, is an air-filled canvas-like material to later be sprayed with concrete. Thereafter, the air will be removed, leaving a concrete semi-sphere to protect winter road salt from the elements.

Recognition Night Honors County 4-H Members, Leaders

"Pathways to the Future" was the theme for the annual 4-H Recognition Night Ceremonies held Monday, Oct. 19 at High Point Center.

Select 4-H members were recognized for their outstanding participation in 4-H projects through the 4-H Tel-Award Program and County Awards Medals; for participation in the Action through Citizenship by Teens group; and for representing the youth of Washtenaw county on judging teams in the areas of horse, livestock and dairy.

Washtenaw county 4-H leaders were also honored for 1, 5, 10, 15, 30, 35, and 50 years of service to the program by the Award of the 4-H Clover. This year's recipients for 10 and above years included Louis and Barb Goderis of Chelsea, and Jean Van Dyke of Plymouth; for 15 years, Bill Baldus of Dexter; for 30 years, Ada Harwood and Rena Girbach, both of Ann Arbor; for 35 years, Ray Schairer of Dexter; and for 50 years of 4-H service, special recognition went to Erwin Steeb of Dixboro Rd., Ann Arbor. Newly certified Challenge Instructors, Bob Garbe of Ann Arbor, Mark McFadden of Dexter, and Dick Molenaar of Ann Arbor, were welcomed to 4-H as leaders and presented with Certificates of Recognition.

Each year, Recognition Night provides the opportunity to thank friends of 4-H for their enthusiastic support of the program. Those recognized as a "Friend of 4-H" included the Chrysler Proving Grounds of Chelsea, Eastern Michigan University Department of Continuing Education; E. G. Mann and Sons of Bridgewater; Dick Oltmanns of Ypsilanti; and Washtenaw County Central Services.

This year, for the first time, a "traveling" trophy was presented to the members of the Sharon Valley 4-H Club of Manchester as the top money-makers in support of Washtenaw County 4-H handicapper programs through their participation in the annual 4-H Horse-A-Thon. Samuri Riders 4-H Club of Chelsea took second place and received a Certificate of Recognition for their efforts.

Always a highlight of the evening, the Don Johnson Memorial Scholarships were presented to Jean Ann Wahl of Manchester and to Paul Ehnis of Whitmore Lake. Jean Ann is currently enrolled in pre-law courses at Michigan State University and Paul is studying electrical engineering and computers at Northern Michigan University.

Entertainment was provided by two 4-H'ers who took top honors at the 1981 Washtenaw County 4-H Youth Show this past summer. Laura Goderis of Chelsea performed a monologue entitled "Opening Night" in which she played all the "roles" depicting the activities of a cast on opening night of a play. Tracey Stengel of Manchester entertained the audience twice during the program playing "Music Box Dancer" and John Denver's "Sunshine On My Shoulder" on the piano.

The Washtenaw County 4-H Service Club hosted the "Favorite Dessert Tasting Party" which concluded the evening's program and also provided the refreshments.

Recognition Night is a function of the Washtenaw County 4-H Council and is planned and facilitated by 4-H volunteers. The planning committee is made up of Bob Feldkamp, Arlene Fisk, Russell Fuller, and Judi Poet, all of Manchester; Wilma Trachet and Debbie Van Fossen of Ann Arbor; Grace Kennedy of Ypsilanti; and Paul Tobias of Saline. Kim Bristle of Manchester served as Mistress of Ceremonies. Rena Girbach of Ann Arbor and several 4-H members of her family conducted the opening flag pledges representing the "4-H Family" in which several generations of 4-H'ers participated. Planning committee members served as announcers and presenters along with team coaches, advisors, 4-H members, 4-H leaders and 4-H supporters.

County project medals, recognizing 12-14-year-old 4-H members who have shown outstanding work in various project areas, were awarded to Shana Burke of Grass Lake in achievement; Jan Ehnis of Whitmore Lake in cultural arts and leather handicraft; Laura Goderis of Chelsea in bicycle and food nutrition; Melissa Hamilton of Manchester, horse; Anna Heath, Manchester, achievement and vet science; Jeff Horning, Manchester, agriculture and wood science; Amy Wolfgang, Chelsea, dairy and dairy foods; Wendy Wolfgang, Chelsea, bread and leadership; and Laurie Heller, Chelsea, achievement and food preservation.

The Tel-Award program recognizes older 4-H members in 35 national project areas and five state project areas. Four levels of participation are possible beginning with county, then district, state and national. To be eligible, members must be at least 14 and have completed at least three years in the project areas.

Tel-Awards were presented to Paul Ehnis of Whitmore Lake in gardening and crafts, where he also received the district award; Jon Goderis of Chelsea, photography; Anna Heath, Manchester, fine arts; Beth Heller, Chelsea, beef and dairy where she also received the district and state award; Nancy Heller, Chelsea, leadership at district level and sheep; Eric Poet, Manchester, safety; Judi Poet, Manchester, horse and pony; and, Rob Poet, Manchester, commodity marketing and field crops, where he received the district award as well.

Local persons announcing and presenting awards were Judy Poet of Manchester and Mary Tobias of Grass Lake, award of the 4-H Clover; Rob Poet of Manchester, challenge program; Bob Baldus of Dexter, livestock judging; Jane Sias of Chelsea, dairy judging; Diane Horning of Manchester, dairy bowl; Arlene Fisk of Manchester, horse bowl; Al Geer of Dexter and Bob Feldkamp of Manchester, Tel-Awards; Katie Chapman of Chelsea, Don Johnson Memorial Scholarships; and Bob Heller of Chelsea, president of the 4-H Council, conducted the Council elections.

The local dairy judging team included Wendy Wolfgang of Chelsea who received a panel pin. The junior team consisted of Jeff and Tricia Horning, both of Manchester and Amy Wolfgang of Chelsea.

In the dairy bowl, local residents receiving panel pins were Kelly and Kerri Bristle and Jeff and Tricia Horning, all of Manchester.

Receiving panel pins in horse judging were Kevin Hutchings of Dexter and Melissa Graban of Manchester. In the junior division, Kelly Arnold of Dexter was awarded a panel pin as junior novice.

In the horse bowl, Anna and Tommy Heath and Judi, Scott and Rick Poet, all of Manchester, received panel pins for their efforts.

JOB CHANGES MAJOR REASON FOR HOME SALES

Job changes, including transfers and voluntary relocations that generally involve new jobs, are the principal reason why people buy and sell homes. This was the conclusion reached by a large Chicago real estate firm. Of the company's 4,070 residential transactions in 1975 (involving 4,070 buyers and 4,070 sellers) 47% of sellers and 44.61% of buyers cited transfers and voluntary relocations as their reasons for moving. The total of those giving job changes as their reason was down slightly from 1974. That year 51.5% of sellers cited job changes, while 50.7% of buyers gave the same reason.

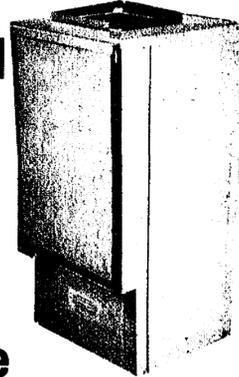

The second most important reason why families buy is to upgrade their living environment: 14.7% of the families surveyed gave that as their reason for moving. This was followed by first home purchase (14.5%), moving from a rental apartment (8.1%), investment (6.5%) and miscellaneous (5.5%).

In essence, the key to home sales today lies in keeping a close eye on the job relocation market. That's why it makes sense to sell through a Realtor. We have contacts nationwide who inform us of prospects who will be relocating to this community.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Girl Scouts Hold Dedication Ceremony

On Tuesday, Oct. 27, Girl Scout Troop 58 held its dedication ceremony. This special candlelight ceremony is held by the troop at the beginning of the year so that the girls can renew their Girl Scout Promise and review what the Girl Scout Law means to them.

In Troop 58, it is also a special time to welcome new members and to receive awards and recognition that the girls have been working towards.

This year's meeting was especially nice, being held at the First United Methodist church and being well attended by 25 girls and their parents.

October Awards Presented to Cub Scouts in Pack 435

It was greatly enjoyed by all the boys and parents in attendance.

Police Report Theft During Karate Class

Chelsea Police Department reports a larceny occurred Wednesday, Oct. 28 at North Elementary school during a karate class session.

Class members had changed their clothing and left their street clothes unattended in the men's room. Approximately 40 people were in the school at the time of the crime, about 9 p.m. A total of $45 in cash was taken from two wallets.

On Wednesday, Oct. 28, at approximately 7:35 a.m., Chelsea police received a call from Big Boy that a cab driver had been attacked by a passenger. Upon arrival at the Big Boy restaurant, police were informed that the cab driver had picked up a fare on East St. and had requested a deposit prior to transport to Ann Arbor. According to reports, the passenger reached across the neck of the cabbie stating, "You're going to take me to Ann Arbor."

The fare produced no money and, while heading south out of town, told the cab driver to stop. Pulling into the Big Boy parking lot, the passenger got out of the cab and crossed the street. The cab driver entered the restaurant and called the police.

Chelsea police discovered the assailant near McDonald's and arrested him. He was charged with assault and battery, and failure to pay. Possible narcotics were discovered and will be examined at the State Crime Lab. Should they be determined as narcotics, the suspect will be charged with a narcotics violation as well.

On Thursday, Oct. 15, malicious destruction of property occurred between 7 a.m. and 8:40 p.m. when two rear tires of a 1981 AMC Spirit were punctured while the vehicle was parked at the train depot. According to police, the owner of the car had parked the vehicle at the depot and taken the Amtrak to Dearborn. Upon returning from work, the punctured tires were discovered.

The first use of federal troops during a strike was in 1834 by President Andrew Jackson when, at the request of the Maryland legislature, he dispatched troops to end a violent labor disturbance among workers on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Department of Labor publication.

Letters to the Editor

Readers,
In regards to a recent letter in The Chelsea Standard by Mr. Ritter, I wish to answer a few of his points.

Regarding the hiring of personnel: The person in question was already a village employee. The Personnel Committee recommended he be changed to a full-time from part-time status. Mr. Ritter opposed the change for some reason. S. Kanten left the meeting before the vote was taken on this issue, so who knows what her thoughts were. There has never been a requirement that village employees live in town. Mr. Ritter speaks of buying services from out of town—let's be honest, none of us spend all of our money in town.

Regarding the paragraph about the Electric Department: The Village is a member of the Michigan Public Power Agency. There are 17 members in this agency. The agency was formed for the purpose of undertaking the planning, financing, development, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improvement, enlargement, betterment, operation, or maintenance of a project or projects to supply electric power and energy for the present or future needs of the member municipalities. The first project the agency took on was to buy a portion of Consumers Power Company's newly constructed Campbell No. 3 coal fired generating plant. The purchase was made through sale of Revenue Bonds in May 1980 and the Village is not liable for the retirement of these bonds. But we are obligated to purchase a certain portion of the Michigan Public Power Agency share of the power generated. The Village's goal is to be able to buy power for Village residents at the cheapest over-all rate possible. The real costs to the Village up to 1984 will be absolutely nothing. The reason for this is we are selling our share of the power back to Consumers Power. The sale of this power will be greater than the power costs to the village, which includes a proportionate amount of Michigan Public Power Agency capital cost to purchase a portion of the Campbell Plant.

Regarding morale of all Village employees: I have never known a time when so many Village employees had such a low morale problem. Perhaps we, as the electorate, should find someone else to lead us at the Village President level. Surely, there must be someone among us that could lead more cohesively.

Thanks for reading.
Rich Borton.

To the Editor:
As the Chairman of the Union Bargaining Committee at the Rockwell International Unit of Local 437 UAW, I feel obligated to respond to the "Letter to the Editor" published in your edition of Nov. 3, from Malcolm D. Bruce.

As one of Mr. Bruce's "few remaining incumbents" I would like to offer some insight to someone who obviously has been out of touch with the actual situation at this facility since he left it.

In 1977, the "Spring Plant" (now known as Rockwell International) employed well over 200 people (hourly and salary) and was a profit-making plant. During the negotiations of 1977, the Union was informed that a serious problem existed with our competitors. The Union was further informed that the complete National Agreement that would be implemented at all the other National Agreement plants could not be implemented at the Chelsea Division. When the Union received the Company's proposal for the Chelsea plant the wage difference was approximately 20 cents per hour less than the other plants involved.

The Chelsea Committee was also led to believe that if employees would accept this proposal there would not be a strike on the National level. This turned out to be a false assumption as a strike did indeed occur on Feb. 4, 1977—the main issue being the demand by the Union to have 12 days off, with pay, over a three year period. The Company agreed to nine days. At this time, all salaried employees were awarded 12 days. The 20 cents per hour was rejected by the membership.

In 1980 we again entered into negotiations. I participated in these meetings at the National table. These meetings were in session from November until a settlement was reached only three minutes from the strike deadline of 10 a.m. on Feb. 4, 1980. At the National table, no mention was made of existing problems at the Chelsea Division. Consequently, the National Agreement was ratified by the membership on Feb. 18, 1980. However, on the Local level, the Committee was informed that a wage reduction in the amount of $1.50 per hour was necessary as well as some seniority privileges, if the plant was to survive. At this point, the Union accepted every single proposal the Company demanded, avoiding a strike. The new Local Agreement was ratified on May 13, 1980.

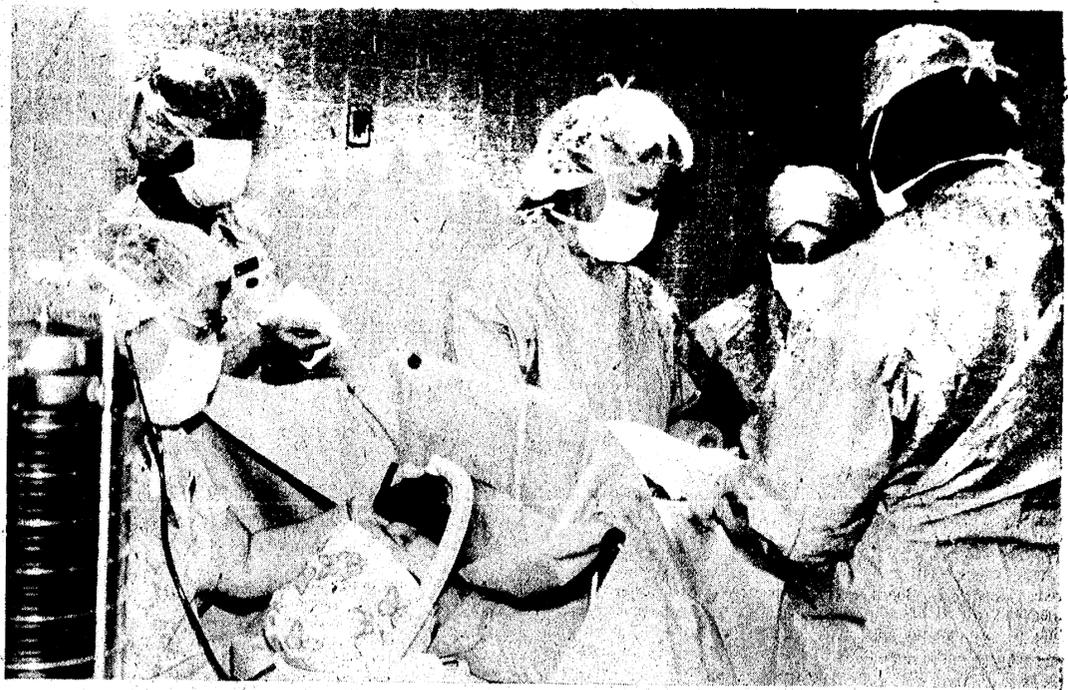

On Oct. 14, while attending a Health and Safety Seminar in Avon Lake, O., I was notified that the plant would cease all operations on Feb. 1, 1982 if our Local failed to reach an agreement with a prospective buyer by Nov. 1. My attempt to re-negotiate more concessions with the Company were flatly rejected.

The Local Committee, along with the International Union, then met with the potential buyer in a vain attempt to keep the plant open. His proposal, take it or leave it, was for 27 of us to be paid $5.25 (maximum) per hour for a production worker. No pension plan, no dental insurance, no COLA, no life insurance, no grievance procedure, and only minimal health insurance. This proposal was unanimously rejected by the membership on Oct. 23.

Sadly, the "Spring Plant" will close on Feb. 1, 1982. Rockwell, in my opinion, has some of the most dedicated, dependable employees in this facility. It's obvious we have, over the years, made a profit to enable the Company to operate, and construct new plants in the Carolinas.

However, there is one bright spot. I know where Mr. Bruce can find a job that will pay him $5.25 per hour, that is if he wants it!

Fair Board By-Laws Revised

The annual meeting of the Chelsea Community Fair was called to order by Jerry Heydlauff, president, on Thursday, Nov. 5. The minutes of the 1980 annual meeting were read and accepted.

Other officers present were Art Steinaway, vice-president; MaryAnne Guenher, secretary; Kay Poljan, treasurer; and Lloyd Grau, manager and executive vice-president.

Directors present were Frank Renton, Archie Bradbury, Richard Bollinger, Harold Gross, Robert Heller, Gary Houle, John Klink, Charles Koenn, Jeff Layher, Reuben Lesser Jr., Mark Stapish, Bill Stoffer, Jerry Herrick, Jim Holefka, Ralph McCalla, Joe Merkel III, and Harold Trinkle.

The by-laws were revised to reduce the Fair Board to 25 members. J. Robards and C. Stapish asked that they not be re-ected. All former officers and directors were retained.

The regular meeting was then called to order by President Jerry Heydlauff. The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting held Oct. 22. They were approved. The contract with the Crown Carnival was approved and signed for Aug. 31 through Sept. 4. A new rental and damage deposit was prepared by Art Steinaway, Mark Stapish and John Wellnitz to be effective Jan. 1. It was approved by the Fair Board except for the amount of insurance required for auctions and other public meetings. Everyone will make a minimum damage and rubbish clean-up deposit of $50. The lowest rental will be $25. These were some that were classified as freebies in the past. The cost of utilities and wear and tear of property caused this change. There are two or three exceptions to this rule and some rates will have to be determined by Board action.

Other Fair business was brought up and discussed before adjournment.

Bulldog Gridders Trounce Pinckney In Season's Finale

Playing on a field in poor condition Friday night, Chelsea's Bulldogs outdid the Pinckney Pirates on their home field, 36-12. It was the season finale for both teams and capped an exceptionally good Chelsea season.

The Bulldogs managed to gain 450 yards Friday night and John Preston ended his high school career as the first Chelsea back in recorded history to run up in excess of 1,000 yards. He ended his year with 1,022 yards following his three touchdowns and six successful extra points involving two two-point runs and two field goals. He gained 201 yards Friday on 29 carries, capping his excellent high school football career.

The game found Chelsea up by a score of 14-6 at the end of the first quarter. Scoring for the Bulldogs were Craig Olmsted on a 34-yard pass from David Wojcicki and Preston on a 37-yard run followed by a two-point conversion.

Chelsea held Pinckney scoreless in the second quarter while Preston made a four-yard run and two-point conversion to build up Chelsea's lead to 22-6 at the half.

The teams played evenly in the third quarter with Chelsea completing seven points on a 35-yard run into the Pinckney end zone by Preston and Pinckney adding their final six points of the outing. Preston added a final touchdown in the fourth stanza to end his career and the game on a winning note.

Statistics proved that the team did what was necessary to win the game. David Wojcicki made good on seven of 11 passes for 350 yards and Russell Harris carried for 78 yards.

Wojcicki ended the season with a total of 1,344 yards gained in passing and Jeff Lantis broke a record with 51 completed pass receptions this year.

The Bulldogs ended their season with an 8-1 record and, though disappointed in not making the play-offs, it was, according to Coach Gene LaFave, "a tremendous year for the entire team."

Hockey Team Loses Third Game

The Chelsea Merchants hockey team played its third game Sunday, Nov. 1 against undefeated Brown Bombers.

The first period was very closely played with the Merchants scoring the only goal. Scoring was Tim Ganton, assisted by Harold Vandervoort.

The second period was much the same, ending in a 2-2 tie. Ken Shaw added the Chelsea goal on an assist by Duane Tryon.

In the final period of play, the Bombers scored first followed by a Chelsea goal by Jeff Kerster assisted by Tom Vandervoort.

The Bombers scored again to take a 4-3 advantage with 50 seconds left. Goalie Steve Schanz was pulled to put an extra man on the ice in the final seconds but the Bombers scored in the open net and the Merchants lost, 5-3.

SIDE-STEPPING: David Wojcicki runs with the ball Friday night against the Pinckney Pirates. Wojcicki ended the season with a total of 1,344 yards gained in passing. He completed 7 of 11 passes for 350 yards in Chelsea's season finale.

7th Grade Girl Cagers Post 5-5 Season

The seventh grade girls team concluded their basketball season by dropping their final two games to Saline and Tecumseh. These losses put their record at 5-5 for the season.

Saline dominated the game throughout, winning 34-9. Cris Zerkel was the leading scorer and rebounder with five of each while Trisha Mattoff and Dawn Thorne each had two points to add.

The following night, the team faced another superior team, Tecumseh, and was defeated by a similar score, 34-8. Pam Brown, Kelly Ghent, Trisha Mattoff and Cindy Stirling each had two points. Cris Zerkel was the leading rebounder.

SEC ROUND-UP:

Chelsea Wallops Pinckney, Dexter Loses to Hartland

Chelsea 36, Pinckney 12

In the season finale for both schools, John Preston led the Chelsea Bulldogs to a 36-12 wallop of the Pinckney Pirates Friday night at Pinckney.

Preston scored three of Chelsea's five touchdowns as well as adding six extra points via two two-point conversions and two kicks.

Craig Olmsted scored the first touchdown on a 34-yard pass reception from David Wojcicki. Then, still in the first quarter, Preston made a 37-yard run and added a two-point conversion to put Chelsea up, 14-6, at the end of the first stanza.

The Bulldogs held the Pirates scoreless in the second quarter while Preston scored from four yards out and added a two-point conversion. At the half, Chelsea held a 22-6 advantage.

In the third quarter, Russell Harris managed a 35-yard scoring drive and Preston kicked the extra point; but not before the Pirates added their final six points of the night on a two-yard dash. John Preston capped Chelsea's efforts with a nine-yard run in the fourth quarter to pace the Bulldogs to their 8th win of the season.

Milan 21, Airport 6

Airport held a 6-0 lead into halftime but the Big Reds came away with 21 second-half points to pace themselves to their third win of the season Friday, defeating Carlton Airport at Carleton.

In their first five outings of the season, Milan lost, though their second half put them up 3 wins to 1 loss. Nevertheless, the Big Reds ended their conference season in fifth place in the Southeastern Conference.

Riverview 35, Saline 6

The downriver Pirates walloped, trounced and intimidated their opponents, clipping the wings of the SEC co-champion Saline Hornets at Saline Friday night.

The 35-6 loss, dropped Saline to a 5-4 over-all slate for the season, despite the fact that they remained 5-1 in the conference.

Saline's only scoring opportunity came in the second quarter as quarterback Brad Koch ran 14 yards into enemy territory for the six-point attempt.

Hartland 12, Dexter 6

Dexter, hosting non-league Hartland Friday night, found a way to lose their eighth consecutive game, dropping the contest after holding a 6-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. The lone score came on a one-yard run by Tony McCoy and a two-point pass failed, ending Dexter's "threat."

Hartland scored six points in the second quarter and six more in the third to pace the squad to a 12-6 win over the lowly Dreadnaughts.

Monroe CC 42, Tecumseh 18

Hosting the Monroe Catholic Central team Friday night, Tecumseh's Indians dropped their season finale, 42-18, losing to Monroe CC for the second year in succession.

The Catholics held a 24-6 lead going into half-time following Tecumseh's four-yard run and score by Mark Van Buren.

Despite 12 third quarter points, the Indians were unable to catch former Huron League rival Monroe who compiled an additional 18 points to cap their win.

The Indians ended their season with a 3-3 league slate and over-all standings of 4-5.

Lincoln 20, New Boston 0

Lincoln held a 14-0 advantage heading into the third quarter Friday night at New Boston, enough to pace the Railsplitters on to a shut-out victory of hosting New Boston. The Railsplitters finished their season with a 6-3 over-all slate.

Scoring for the visiting Rails were Midura on a 28-yard run, Federer on a five-yard run and Johnson on a three-yard run.

The Lincoln Railsplitters ended their Southeastern Conference season in second place with a 4-2 record, behind the tied Chelsea Bulldogs and Saline Hornets.

This Byrd Really Flew

Another milestone in the history of exploration was reached on Nov. 29, 1929, when Admiral Richard R. Byrd became the first man to fly over the South Pole. Byrd accomplished the feat in the "Floyd Bennett," a Ford Trimotor named for the pilot of Byrd's North Pole flight, which had occurred only three years earlier. The "Floyd Bennett" now resides in a place of honor in Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, surrounded by other vehicles with illustrious histories.

★ Gridders of the Week ★

MIKE HINTZEN, MATT McCALLUM and KIPP BERTKE are this week's featured football players. They are all juniors at Chelsea High school. Hintzen, left, serves as an inside linebacker on defense who has made tremendous strides in improvement. He is a good athlete with quickness and has been a definite contribution to the team. He is in his second year of football. McCallum plays as a defensive end and, according to Coach Gene LaFave, shows intelligence on the field. He has played a great deal this season and, with some weight increase, should be a big plus for the Bulldogs next year. Kipp Bertke has proven to be pleasant surprise on the football field. He plays as defensive end and has an excellent attitude. Committed to football, Bertke should have a fine senior year.

PP&K Winners Listed

In co-operation with Palmer Ford, the Chelsea Jaycees held their annual Punt, Pass and Kick football competition last Thursday.

It was a little late in the season so the first-place winners will not be eligible for regional competition. Nevertheless, energy and determination were in abundance as these promising young athletes withstood the evening chill to take their turns at passing, punting and kicking while hopeful parents observed from the sidelines.

The Jaycees, headed by Wendell Wagner, project chairman, Jerry Martell, president, and Sylvester Wojcicki, who faithfully assists each year, measured and scored every effort. They were aided by Ted Lewis Morgan Rowe, Carl Goin, Ginny Wheaton, Denise Martell, Harry Thurkow, Phil Weiss, Harold Allen and many others.

The winners of the trophies and medals are as follows:

- 8 Year Olds: Jude Quilter, 1st; Vincent Dunn, 2nd; Damon Michelson, 3rd.
- 9 Year Olds: Lucky Beeman, 1st; Steve Emmert, 2nd; Chad Starkey, 3rd.
- 10 Year Olds: Jr. Morseau, 1st; Larry Nix, 2nd; Craig Maynard, 3rd.
- 11 Year Olds: Greg Boughton, 1st; Eric Dalton, 2nd; Todd Rowe, 3rd.
- 12 Year Olds: Matt Kemp, 1st; Todd Starkey, 2nd; Randy Hafner, 3rd.
- 13 Year Olds: Kevin Maynard, 1st; Dan Bellus, 2nd; Shannon Darrow, 3rd.

8th Grade Girl Cagers Lose Two Last Week

The eighth grade girls basketball team hosted Saline on Monday. "The girls played their best game of the season, playing aggressive 'heads up' ball," said Coach Vogel.

Chelsea jumped out to take a 7-4 lead in the first quarter. The second period proved to be the Bullpups' downfall as they gave up 15 points while scoring only four of their own to take an eight-point deficit into the half. In the third quarter, the game slowed down, ending with a 10-25 score. The Bullpups never gave up and completely controlling the fourth quarter, outscored the Hornets, 12-4, but still fell short as the final score at the buzzer found Saline with 31 points, Chelsea with 27.

High scorers for Chelsea were Kristi Headrick with 12, Jennifer Cattell with eight, Michelle Easton with four, Kris Mattoff with one. High rebounders were Amy Wolfgang with eight, Kristi Headrick with seven.

The Bullpups' final game was played against Tecumseh at home on Tuesday. After such a total effort against Saline the day before, Chelsea had a poor night, losing, 9-34. The scoring was well-balanced with Jennifer Cattell, Michelle Easton and Amy Wolfgang, each scoring two points. Kristi Headrick contributed one.

Rebounding were Amy Wolfgang, Kristi Headrick and Jennifer Cattell with five apiece. Kris Mattoff pulled down four.

The team finished with a 3-7 record.

Varsity Girl Cagers Drop Three Games

Chelsea's girls varsity basketball team dropped three consecutive contests within the past two weeks, losing to Ann Arbor Pioneer, Tecumseh and Milan.

On Tuesday, Oct. 27, the girls were defeated by Pioneer by a score of 49-32. Scoring for the lady Bulldogs were Amy Unterbrink with 18 points, followed by Karen Kiel with six, Amy Hume with four and Beth Unterbrink and Missi Lazarz with two points each. According to Coach Jim Winter, the loss was not a big disappointment because Pioneer was just a better team.

On Thursday, Oct. 29, Chelsea lost a game to Tecumseh, 43-23. "We just didn't play well after the first quarter," Winter explained. "They completely intimidated us in the second quarter where we scored just two points."

Pacing the Bulldogs was Shelly Weber with six points. Amy Hume and Amy Unterbrink added five points apiece while Beth Unterbrink and Karen Kiel contributed three and Tracy Borton one in a losing cause.

On Tuesday, Nov. 3, the ladies were defeated by Milan's Big Reds, 37-25. Playing better in the second and third quarters, Chelsea managed a brief advantage, losing in the fourth quarter as each team scored 12 points.

Scoring for the lady Bulldogs were Beth and Amy Unterbrink with seven and six points, respectively, while Shelly Weber and Amy Poljan each added four and Missi Lazarz and Karen Kiel added two points apiece.

Chelsea's record is now 6-9 over-all and 3-6 in the Southeastern Conference.

7th Grade Girls Basketball . . .

Zerkel, Dawn Thorne, Pam Brown, Cindy Stirling, Sarah Noah, Chris Hilts and Kim Ferry.

Leading the team in scoring during the season was Trisha Mattoff with 44 points. She was followed by Cris Zerkel, 23 points; Pam Brown, 22 points; and Sallie Wilson, 18 points.

According to Coach Ann Schaffner, there was good potential on the team and continued hard work during the off-season will undoubtedly determine the degree of success the girls achieve in the future.

That's Against the Law Now

A. C. Bostwick revved up his 40 horsepower Winton on Nov. 16, 1901, and roared down the straightaway course at Ocean Parkway in Brooklyn, N. Y. When he finished the mile-long course, Bostwick had made the record books. With a time of 56.4 seconds (about 63 mph), he became the first man to drive a car one mile in less than a minute. The record stood about three minutes before another driver beat it with a 51.6-second time. A 1900 Winton is part of the extensive transportation collection at Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn.

U-M Divers Thrill Enthusiastic Crowd

More than 300 enthusiastic spectators clapped, cheered and whistled as the University of Michigan's Kimball divers presented an exhibition at the Charles S. Cameron Pool Wednesday evening. The Kimball divers are world class athletes who are present or recent members of the U-M varsity diving team. They came to Chelsea to demonstrate the high degree of perfection required of champions in national and world diving competition.

The performances brought the crowd to their feet repeatedly and ended in a prolonged standing ovation. "Diving such as we witnessed in Chelsea Wednesday evening is rarely seen except at national championships or international events," Larry Reed, Chelsea aquatics director, said.

Beginning with dives at the edge of the Cameron Pool, the divers first demonstrated the four basic positions achieved by divers after they leave the board. Next, springing into synchronization from the three boards at the Chelsea pool, the U-M men and women presented the standard dives required in all competition. There were followed by the spectacular optional dives which are scored according to difficulty. The program was concluded with an exhibition of comic diving.

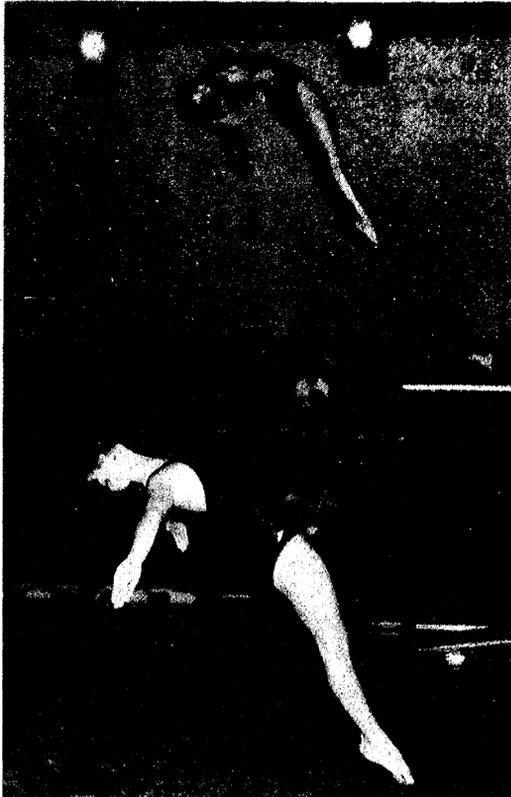

Action at the event was photographed by Will Connelly of Chelsea from a lifeguard tower which placed his camera level with the three-meter board.

Two athletes who were scheduled to participate could not perform. They were Bruce and Vicki Kimball, son and daughter of Dick Kimball, U-M diving coach. Bruce was seriously injured by a speeder, driving without lights at night. Vicki was with him at the hospital on the night of the Chelsea event.

Not So Speedy Race

The roads between Chicago and Waukegan, Ill., were the scene of one of America's first automobile races on Thanksgiving Day, 1895. More than 80 entries showed up for the 52-mile race, but only six started and just two finished. The winner was a horseless carriage designed by Charles Duryea and built by his brother. The winning speed was an average of 7.5 mph. Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, offers the only surviving example of America's first production car, the 1896 Duryea motorwagon, one of 13 produced that year from the winning prototype vehicle.

SIMULTANEOUS BACK DIVES are executed by Olympic diver Chris Seufert, foreground below, and Leisa Johnson, member of the University of Michigan diving team.

The first pension law to be declared constitutional was in Alaska in 1915. The law covered all residents over 65 who had lived in the state for 10 years, according to a publication of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Veterans Day 1981 will be observed on Wednesday, Nov. 11, and the Veterans Administration is urging all Americans to commemorate the day by participating in their local community's observance.

800 NUMBERS: Some out-of-town businesses provide an "800" number that you can dial without charge. For example, when you want to call out of town about reservations, look for 800 numbers provided in ads by hotels, motels, resorts, airlines and ground transportation.

Views On Dental Health

By ROBERT A. BURNS, JR., DDS, P.C.

SMOKING AND ORAL CANCER

You already know that smoking can be instrumental in the cause of bronchitis, lung cancer, emphysema and heart disease. But what does smoking have to do with oral health? It affects your whole mouth in many ways—none of which are beneficial.

By far, the most serious risk is the development of oral cancer. Smokers have a four times greater risk of oral cancer than nonsmokers.

Tobacco in any form can cause cancer of the mouth and throat. So don't think you can avoid cancer by switching from cigarettes to a pipe or cigars.

This year an estimated 24,000 people will be stricken by oral cancer. Within five years many of these people will be dead. Each year, approximately 8,000 people die from oral cancer. One of the reasons for this high death rate is that oral cancer victims do not recognize the need to see their dentist or physician until it becomes too late for treatment to be successful. Yet, ironically, mouth cancer is one of the few varieties that can be easily recognized by a visual diagnosis in its early stages.

Your dentist is trained to provide the appropriate examination at your regular check-ups to detect oral cancers in their early stages that can be more easily treated.

If you have dental health questions you would like to see answered, please mail them to the address below.

Michigan Listed Among States Hit By Acid Rain

Michigan is one of 15 of the 26 states east of the Mississippi River that are "extremely vulnerable" to the harmful effects of acid rain, according to a study completed by the National Wildlife Federation.

The ratings are contained in a report by NWF researchers who studied each state's rainfall acidity, geology, soils and water chemistry to estimate the potential for acid rain damage to fisheries, soils, crop foliage and marble and limestone structures within the states.

Acid rain forms when sulfur and nitrogen oxide emissions, mainly generated by coalburning power plants, combine with rain or snow. The acid is often blown hundreds of miles from its actual source before it falls to earth.

Right Writer is Type Writer Sept. 12, 1873, was the date of the successful completion of the first practical typewriter by Christopher Sholes. The first patent on the timesaving device was as early as 1829, but it wasn't until Sholes' machine-invented in 1867, patented the next year and finally produced five years later-that the ingenious device with four rows of keys became popular with the public. Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, exhibits an 1874 model of Sholes' typewriter among thousands of fascinating artifacts from the nation's past.

Chelseaites Attend Three from St. Barnabas NCCW Convention Named to Honor Group

Three area women—Mrs. Wayne Harvey, Mrs. Dennis Gulnan and Mrs. Leon Chapman—recently attended the National Council of Catholic Women's Biennial Convention in Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Harvey accompanied his wife, did some sight-seeing and attended some of the sessions, Oct. 5-9.

There were approximately 2,000 in attendance, including 244 priests, bishops, archbishops and laity. The theme of the convention was "Relecting Christ, Remembering and Renewing." Workshops in areas of organizational services, community affairs, church communities, family affairs and international affairs were offered. The women, voting as delegates had a voice in the election of the national officers and in passing resolutions. This year, the NCCW went on record with a resolution affirming the statement of Pope John Paul II issued as of Aug. 30: "Let us promise each other that we will work tirelessly for disarmament and abolition of all nuclear weapons." The NCCW asks that all nations limit nuclear arms and work toward the outlawing of nuclear weaponry and all forms of germ and chemical warfare. And that the NCCW support all reasonable efforts to promote peace everywhere in the world.

The resolution was sent to the Secretary of the United Nations and copies to all member nations as well as Pope Paul and President Reagan.

Each day concluded with the celebration of the Liturgy in the auditorium ballroom of the Radisson Muehlebach Hotel, except on Thursday when it was held in the cathedral. Bishop Kenneth Povish of the Lansing diocese was the principal celebrant at the conclusion on Friday. He praised the women for the work they had done to date and asked them to continue to do more in the coming years. He noted also the many works that had been carried out in the working with the handicapped and the people in the oppressed countries.

At the province dinner on Wednesday evening, Mrs. Chapman gave a brief report on Diocesan activities. Other Diocesan presidents also reported. The banquet, traditionally held on the last night of the convention, featured as its theme "A 60th Birthday Celebration." All Diocesan presidents or representatives were spotlighted and given an opportunity to disclose their contribution to the fund to finance future conventions. The goal was reached.

In the election, Mrs. Ralph Meisner of the province of Chicago was elected national president for the two-year term. The 1983 convention will be held in Denver, Colo.

At the close of the session on Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Harvey, Mrs. Gulnan and Mrs. Chapman did some sightseeing, stopping at the stockyards and enjoying lunch at the Golden Ox. Next, they traveled to the Hallmark shopping center, the Truman Museum and Library and the Living History Farm near Des Moines, Ia. where they observed the restoration of the early farming community and enjoyed visiting with people manning the various shops. They were told that the church being built on the hillside was on the spot that Pope John Paul II said Mass when he visited Iowa.

The Society of Distinguished American High School Students announced today that three students from St. Barnabas Episcopal church are to be included in its membership for 1981.

The society, one of the most selective high school honoraries in the country, accepts only students nominated by their sponsors. To be nominated, students must excel in academics, extracurricular, or civic activities.

Students awarded this honor included Edward Kime, Anne Mazurak and Laura Beck. The student's sponsor, the late Mrs. Marian Kime, received a National Appreciation Award from the society for "being dedicated to the encouragement and assistance of students." One of the society's goals is to make membership an encouragement, for top performance on the secondary school level. Unique in concept, the society has combined this honor with its national awards program which earmarks college scholarships for society members. This program, now in its 13th year, is funded by more than 100 American colleges. It also preserves the honor by listing the students and their biographies in an annual membership registry.

The first National Labor Legislation Conference was called by Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins in 1934 to obtain closer federal-state co-operation in working out a sound national labor legislation program, according to the U.S. Department of Labor's "Important Events in American Labor History."
