McKUNE MEMORIAL LIBRARY celebrates its 50th birthday Sunday, Feb. 28. The library came into existence in a store on E. Middle St. on Feb. 28, 1932 with a total of 22 books donated by members of the Child Study Club—now the Woman's Club of Chelsea—and 100 books loaned by the State Library. In its 50th year, McKune Memorial Library has a total of 23,050 books, 464 records and 42 magazine titles.

McKune Memorial Library Celebrating 50th Anniversary

On Feb. 28, 1932 the McKune Memorial Library came into existence in a store on E. Middle St. The library started with 22 books donated by members of the Child Study Club, now known as the Woman's Club of Chelsea, and 100 books loaned by the State Library. It was run by volunteer help. A bake sale had to be held at the time of the opening to replenish the treasury. It brought in $11.50.

In 1934 the Library was offered space in the Chelsea State Bank in the upstairs front room and accepted gratefully. In 1946, the Library was moved to the Municipal Building and it remained there 10 years.

In 1949, "The Friends of the Chelsea Public Library" was organized and one of their goals was to search for a site or building for the library to acquire. Mrs. E. J. McKune who owned a house which had been in her family since 1870 was approached with the idea that she might leave her house to the Library. She was much taken with the idea. She died in 1956 and the village was informed that she had left her home to the village to be used as a library.

It was found that the house was in need of a great deal of renovation and 493 individuals, industries, businesses, clubs, church groups, memorial funds, labor unions, six townships and the Village of Chelsea contributed money, materials, labor or discounts to help with this large task.

The Library has been fortunate in its friends, for many gifts have come to it in the form of memorials, furniture and/or equipment.

Now entering its 50th year, the McKune Memorial Library has a collection of 23,050 books, 464 records and 42 magazine titles. A member of the original Library Board, Mrs. Jean Eaton, is now serving her 50th year on the Board.

Steering Committee Named for High School

Principal John Williams of Chelsea High school today announced the names of the Steering Committee members who will direct the school's efforts during its self-study and N.C.A. evaluation.

The Committee will be composed of six members and will be co-chaired by Sherill Pryor and Bill Chandler. Sherill Pryor is the Media Center specialist at the high school, and Bill Chandler teaches business and coordinates the work study and co-op programs at the high school.

Other members of the committee are Jim Winter, who teaches social studies, Jim Tallman, who teaches drafting, Pat Holmes, who teaches English, and June Winans, who teaches social studies.

N.C.A. membership requires that a school undergo a self-study and an evaluation once every seven years. It is the responsibility of the steering committee to co-ordinate the school's self-study, establish the time schedule for both the self-study and the outside team visit, compile all of the reports from the various staff subcommittees, and make the necessary preparations for the visit by the evaluation team.

According to steering committee co-chairperson Bill Chandler, the evaluation being undertaken by the school will involve "thorough review of the school's program and operation. The major question centers on the extent to which the teaching and learning activities within the school carry out its major purposes."

The first two major committees have been formed and will be starting work very soon. The School and Community Committee is chaired by Ken Sullins, math teacher, and the Philosophy and Goals Committee will be chaired by Barb Pruess, who teaches biology.

The first important date of the self-study that concerns parents of high school students is Thursday, Feb. 25. On that date, school will be dismissed at 11:30 a.m. to allow the high school staff to work on the self-study during the afternoon. Bus transportation will not be provided to high school students at that time, so it is important that all parents make arrangements for their children to return home safely. Buses will run as usual in the morning before school.

CATS Benefit Dinner Set For March 8

A benefit dinner for the Chelsea Area Transportation System (CATS) will be held Monday, March 8 at Chelsea Community Hospital. The event, co-sponsored by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club and Chelsea Community Hospital, will feature hors d'oeuvres, a prime rib dinner, wines and champagne, and entertainment.

The appetizers will be served at 7 p.m. followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. Cost for the benefit is $15 per ticket and all proceeds will go toward the operation of the CATS bus.

110 tickets will be available and are on sale at Gambles and Chelsea Drug as well as by calling Reuben Lesser, Jr. at 475-8564 or Don Cole at 475-1674.

CATS is a non-profit, tax exempt transportation system begun in 1976 to provide transportation for the elderly and handicapped within the Chelsea area. Its Board is comprised of volunteers representing the Village of Chelsea, Sylvan township, Lima township, the Chelsea Senior Citizen Center, the Chelsea United Way, Chelsea Community Hospital, the Methodist Home, Chelsea Kiwanis Club, Lion and Lioness Clubs, and the Chelsea Jaycees.

'West Side Story' Cast Rehearsing

"There's no business like show business and, as the song goes, '...four weeks, you rehearse and rehearse.' That's exactly what's happening at Chelsea High school right now as dancers, singers and actors are preparing for their March production of 'West Side Story'.

This year's show, which is considered one of the all-time greatest Broadway shows, is being directed by Tamara Barbret. Mrs. Barbret has directed the past four Chelsea High musicals and is immensely confident that this year's show will be as successful as any other, show presented in Chelsea.

Rev Yelsik, who took the task of set design for last year's 'Me and Juliet,' is taking over her old position once again along with filling the spot of assistant director. Technical director is Doug Beaumont, who is also returning from 'Me and Juliet.' Sue Bauer has the massive job of creating all of the dances for 'West Side Story,' and the orchestra, which is also made up of Chelsea High students, is being directed by Kevin Miller.

'West Side Story' was written in 1957 by two greats of the musical theater, Leonard Bernstein and Stephen Sondheim. The story of the musical is much older, though. The idea came from Shakespeare's immortal classic, 'Romeo and Juliet.' The original Broadway version made a star out of Carol Lawrence, and the movie version, which was made in 1960, starred Rita Moreno and Natalie Wood.

Production dates for 'West Side Story' are March 18, 19 and 20. Ticket information is pending.

B&E Cases Reported to Police Dept.

Kelley Joins Suit Against Sand Dune Mining
 Attorney General Frank J. Kelley has joined two environmental groups in a lawsuit seeking to prohibit sand dune mining on 144 acres along Lake Michigan near Bridgman.

The lawsuit, filed in conjunction with Hope for the Dunes and the Michigan Environmental Protection Foundation, asks the Ingham County Circuit Court to set aside a mining permit issued to the Martin-Marietta Corp. by the Natural Resources Commission (NRC).

A temporary restraining order was issued against the permit pending a trial on the issues. Martin-Marietta officials said the mining plan is in accordance with the law and would not destroy the dune or harm the environment.

They said 109 acres outside of the mining area, including a barrier dune, would be a buffer zone.

Also they said the sand dune act allows "responsible development of a natural resource vital to Michigan's economy." The dune is uniquely suited to its industrial purposes, the company added.

Kelley called the mining site, located north of the Warren Dunes State Park, one of the most important dune areas along the whole Lake Michigan shore.

"No other place along Michigan's coastline shows greater diversity in vegetation," he said.

The vegetation represents a succession of stages, with overlapping of northern and southern species. The company permit requires it to revegetate the area after mining.

Frederick Dilley of Grand Rapids, attorney for Hope for the Dunes and the MEFF, said, "If these sand dunes and the unique values they represent cannot be saved from the ravages of mining, then there is no sand dune in the state of Michigan or in the entire Great Lakes area which can be protected."

The lawsuit alleges procedural irregularities by the NRC in issuing the permit; the permit is against the great weight of evidence and mining would violate the Environmental Protection Act and the Sand Dune Protection Management Act.

Dilley said alternatives exist; other inland sources of sand should be used as well as dredged sand from Lake Michigan, recycling, alternative technology to reduce the amount of sand needed in foundry processes, use of dune sands already allowed by permit and use of dune sands not designated by the Department of Natural Resources as special areas.

Donald Wilson, president of Hope for the Dunes, said botanists have concluded that the dune area has a diversity so spectacular it should be saved from destruction.

The permit was issued in December with mining authorized to begin this month. The Department of Natural Resources had initially recommended denial of a permit in 1979, but in July a hearings officer recommended approval.

Ken Sikkema, executive director of the West Michigan Action Council, said the action is a test case to determine if the sand dune protection law will be rendered ineffective.

The council is pledging financial aid and political support for the suit.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

By the time Ed Doolittle got done with his report Saturday night at the country store, the fellers was solid convinced this country is falling apart in more ways than one. Bug Hookum opened the session with a item about the new crack across the face of our piece of the earth. Bug said a underground hole 90 mile wide and 1,700 long has opened up down the middle of the country. The piece Bug brung said it made the St. Andrew's fault look like a pothole, and Bug allowed it makes you wonder if not just California, but half of America ain't fixing to slide into the Pacific.

Ed said he had read that report, and scientists said there was nothing to worry about, but Bug reminded Ed that was what they told folks gitting on the Titanic. If there was a better world in this life, Bug said he'd be on the next bus out. That's when Ed come with word out of Canada that the world of good guys and bad guys has split open and turned upside down. If there was any doubt that crime pays, Ed said, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police has removed it.

Practical speaking, went on Ed, the Mounties now have a policy that if you can't lick the crooks you pay em to join you. This clipping Ed had said police in Vancouver had paid a feller $100,000 to lead them to bodies of 11 children he killed. The man admitted killing the eight girls and three boys, but police couldn't find any bodies to git evidence they needed in court. They give him $30,000 fer four victims, and they were so pleased with the deal they paid $70,000 fer the other seven. The killer has been sentenced to life in prison, but the money has gone into a trust fer his family. The trust, Ed said, training office. Approximate value was set at $100. The Chelsea Standard was the scene of a breaking and entering early Friday morning, Feb. 19. Sometime between 12 a.m. and 8 a.m., person or persons unknown forced entry through a window at The Standard office, making away with cash and checks.

probable earns more than the killer would if he was back on his old construction job.

Furthermore, Ed went on, he's faring better in jail than most of us. He had saw where crooks got to make reservations up to six weeks ahead in oil booming Garfield County, Colorado. Judges there are sending em all over the state, and they're bringing immobile jails like schools do when they got to many kinds. Ed said jail food in Garfield County must be better than in Tampa, Florida where prisoners griped about the food so much the city worked out a deal for a cafe to cater the meals. The inmates are running the asylum fer sure, was Ed's words.

Zeke Grubb was full agreed. He had saw where a California doctor has got to pay his ex wife $1,500 a month support after he left her because she hired two men to kill him. At least the Illinois legislature had sense to repeal the law that let anybody own a machine gun, Zeke said, and the Government is moving to cut off survivor benefits to children who kill their parents. That's a start, Zeke said, cause nobody's got more than two parents, so it'll be harder to move up to the big time like that feller in Canada.

'New Beginnings' Offers Help in Time of Grief

New Beginnings, a group established to assist people in resolving their grief over the death of a loved one, recently recognized the one year anniversary of their existence in Chelsea. The local group is one of five groups located in southeastern Michigan. Leadership for the group comes from Dr. James Peggs, director of the Chelsea Family Practice Center; Ms. Joy Stacey, a leader in Church Women United; and the Rev. Robert Weikart, an Episcopal priest. The above people occasionally lecture on issues pertaining to grief and assist other people in forming New Beginnings groups elsewhere. New Beginnings is an informal but helpful experience in grief resolution. People are invited to attend any or all meetings. There is no registration and no cost. Often people bring friends for comfort and support. Anyone wishing more information concerning the Chelsea group may call the Family Practice Center, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at 475-1321, ext. 272.

CPR Classes Set for Area Residents

Residents of the greater Washtenaw area will have three day-long opportunities in February to learn CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation), an emergency procedure used to save victims of drowning, heart attack, electric shock, smoke inhalation, and other potentially fatal conditions.

"The only hope many victims of cardiac arrest have is that someone nearby will know CPR and keep them alive until medical help arrives," said Lesley Haney Mozola, safety services director for the local chapter of the American Red Cross. "Everyone should spend a few hours a year learning CPR or updating their CPR skills so that if an emergency arises, they can be the 'friend in need' who uses CPR to save a life."

CPR involves manually compressing the chest of the victim to reactivate the heart, and performing mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to restore breathing. The training on three consecutive Saturdays this month is offered at no charge and requires 3-4 hours to learn, Haney said.

On Feb. 27, University of Michigan Hospitals will sponsor a program for about 300 people at the U-M's Townsley Center for Continuing Medical Education. Classes begin at 9, 10, and 11 a.m., and also at 1 and 2 p.m. To register call 763-6710.

EARNING A II RATING for their quartet ensemble at the annual Solo and Ensemble Festival was this group of CHS singers. They are, from left, Jim Herter, Connie Dault, Micky Bennett and Tom Mull, accompanied by pianist Diane Bareis.

SOLOISTS LAURIE HELLER and Mike Smith earned I ratings, indicating superior individual performances, at the annual Solo and Ensemble Festival held at John Glenn High school in Westland, Saturday, Feb. 13.

Vocal Music Groups Score Well in District Competition

The Chelsea High school vocal music department traveled to John Glenn High school, Westland on Saturday, Feb. 13, for their annual district solo and ensemble competition. The department earned more honors this year than in any other year, attributable to the growing vocal music program in the Chelsea School District. Each soloist and ensemble was required to prepare two musical selections of contrasting nature for performance before a judge. The judge then evaluated the performances based on tone, intonation, expression and over-all musical effect. These "evaluations" are then categorized in ratings of I, superior performance; II, good performance; III, good performance but lacking essential qualities; and IV, a performance lacking many essential qualities.

More than 20 students participated at festival this year. The Contemporaries, a group of 15 girls, received a I rating for their ensemble. Laurie Heller and Mike Smith both received I ratings on their solo performances. A quartet, consisting of Connie Dault, Micky Bennett, Jim Herter, Tom Mull and Diane Bareis, accompanist, received a II rating on their ensemble. Cathy Basso received a II rating for her solo performance, and two girls, Connie Bollinger and Lisa Bentley, performed solos for comments only.

Those who received Is will now go on to state competition at the University of Michigan, Flint, on March 27, where they will again sing two songs of contrasting nature, as well as sightread exercises for additional judges.

All the students performed admirably and represented Chelsea with pride and consideration for other performers.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
I am a distant South Australian relation to David Thomas who died, I believe, at Sylvan township, near Chelsea, in 1893, in his 80th year. David Thomas' younger brother, James, was my great-great-grandfather.

I have a newspaper obituary for David Thomas which mentions his date of death as July 18, 1893, and his death having been brought on by Bright's Disease. David was of Scottish birth, having been born near Glasgow in 1813. In 1834, he emigrated to New York State, and settled at Troy where he married Janet Hart in 1835. They returned for a short while to Scotland, Janet was also Scotsborn, but later came over again to Troy in New York State. In 1842 the Thomas family moved westward and settled on a farm four miles north-west of Chelsea in Michigan State. There they resided until 1866 when the Thomases moved into Chelsea. (Whether they left any children on their farm is not known.)

Mrs. Janet Thomas died in Chelsea on July 11, 1890. I have been informed by Charles B. Winans, II, Chelsea Village assessor, that the latter's home on Main St., Chelsea, was formerly the residence of David Thomas from at least 1881 to the early 1890's. The obituary records David as a frugal and fair gentleman. The minister of religion who performed his burial service was the Rev. Whitcomb, and his family was evidently four sons, all deceased at the time of David's death and four daughters, who survived him. I do not know whether any people descended from David Thomas today would bear his surname, however.

I am very personally interested in the Michigan branch of my Thomas family, as I am in the slow process of tracing all descendants of my Scottish great-great-grandfather William Thomas, who was David's father. I am thrilled to discover that Mr. Winans' residence was once that of David Thomas, and hope that any readers may remember either my David or his descendants, wherever they may be living now.

Such people are invited to correspond with me at my address below, should they believe they can help me in any way, however small!

Dear Mr. Editor:

Hurrah for freedom of speech and people who care about one another! In the recent issues of The Chelsea Standard readers have spoken their minds on the molesting charges recently brought to light through your paper's informative-reporting. I too have thoughts to share on this issue from my own experiences.

April of 1978 through December of 1981, I was Acting Catholic Chaplain at the Cassidy Lake

Minimal Security Prison. During that time period I came to know many, many of the young men there ages 17-24. Very few of them feel they have not been given justice for their attacks on someone in society. They know why they are there, and what the consequence of their prison stay will have on their lives of the future. During my Acting Catholic Chaplain Service there, I learned many things but one I never really considered before my touching the lives of these young men. No, there are two things I will share with you Mr. Editor.

The first is, everyone sees the victim and their family, rightly so. Our sympathy spontaneously goes out to them. We want to put our arms around that someone and say, "Hey, let me be your strength. Let me shelter you physically, emotionally and mentally." The accused: "Boy, I sure hope they throw the book at him, or her, nothing the Judge dishes out to them will be punishment enough for their crime." "Let's get rid of him, or her," and so justice is done.

Sometime, Mr. Editor, I would like to talk with you and your readers about the guilt, the shame, the deep dislike of oneself the "accused" feels, which in some cases drives them to suicide, or attempts of same. The fear of the accused who lives in fear 24 hours a day. The constant reminder of why he is a prisoner never leaves him. He will never erase this fact from his life. Many of the persons who have previously been housed in maximum security prisons like Jackson, have been introduced to homosexuality by force of other inmates. They become someone else's own property. The women prisoners are the same. Fear is their middle name forever. These are young people like those who attend our high school, or live next door. They are not all getto material. They are from middle class or above, families.

Which brings me to point two. Does anyone ever stop to think of the deep heart-ache, the anguish, the torment, the shared guilt, and shame the family of the accused feel? Each time they walk the street or go shopping, or go to church to pray, it takes all their strength to hold their heads up. They did not commit the act, they share in the pain. Each time, we, society, nail the accused with our words, our anger, we also nail the family with them. I would like to share with you a writing by Helen Steiner Rice, because it is important, Sir. "The Great Tomorrow" - "There is always tomorrow. Tomorrow belongs as much to you as it does to me. The dawn of the new day means the dawn of a new life. No matter what our yesterdays have been, tomorrow may be different. As long as we have life, the fires of hope will not die out. With the thought of a new day the flame that seemed dead leaps forward, and the sparks once more fly upward to spur us on. Tomorrow may hold your fate... Tomorrow may mean your victory. The great joy of expectation... the wonderment of an unknown realm... the splendor of the vast future lie in the eternal tomorrow... the day for which life is worth living."

This writing came to us on a card with added, "Thank you for caring, it meant so very much." Signed by the family of one accused in our community, after our lives briefly touched at Christmas time. I have placed this card in our Family Bible and will keep it there always for their special intention. In our hurry to see justice accomplished, we do overlook those who love the accused... the family.

Mrs. Millie Warner.

Dear Mr. Editor:

This is a rebuttal to a letter in the Jan. 26 edition of The Chelsea Standard signed by one Ms. Denise Fortner. It is with deep heartfelt gratitude I write this response, to you Mr. Editor, Ms. Fortner and readers. Had Denise not asked her questions regarding 11,600,000 aborted babies recorded since Jan. 22, 1973, when U. S. Supreme Court legalized "Abortion on Demand," and her reference to "abused and neglected children," the following research with its very startling records on some "abused and neglected" children, added with abused adults and teachers might never have been accomplished.

It was the popular thinking process in some sectors, and still is, that abortion would eliminate the numbers of "abused and neglected children," by simply erasing the pregnancy, thus the unwanted child would reduce in turn the numbers in statistics. Not so. Since legalized abortion of 1973, abuse of children has been on an alarming increase. U. S. Department of Health and Human Services put out, in 1979, a 105-page survey report of Analysis of Official Child Neglect and Abuse Reporting on National Level. It goes in part like this: 1976 Reports - 416,033; 1977 - 516,142; 1978 - 614,291; 1979 - 711,142 which is percent increase over '76-'77 - plus 71 percent.

Now let us look closer to home. Washtenaw county: 1980-184 court cases (102 boys, 82 girls); 1981 fiscal year: 208 cases (113 boys, 95 girls).

State numbers are: child abused and categories: 1973-2,678 reported cases; 2,500 or 93 percent physical abuse; 87 or three percent sexual abuse; 91 or three percent congenital drug abuse; one percent unclassified. 1981-41-6,761 reported cases; 4,856, 72 percent physical abuse; 1,787 or 26 percent, sexual abuse; 28 or two percent, congenital drug abuse; zero percent, unclassified.

The increase of cases from 1973-74 brought about State of Michigan Child Protection Law Act No. 238. Federal funds were then allocated to handle the influx of cases, awakening an awareness within the public of this growing sickness within our society.

Let us not limit our thinking to child abuse only, become knowledgeable of the alarming increase of abused adults and the abused aged. Abused by family members, or in some cases institutions (numbers forthcoming). In our public schools the overwhelming numbers of cases showing themselves of physically abused teachers in classrooms, which number over and upward of 50,000 and growing with each passing year.

Next, what has caused the adoption crisis in our country? In the State of Michigan there is a 5 to 7 year wait to adopt a "healthy white infant." Adoption of older children, and those who have handicaps is almost within one year or less. The Chelsea Standard, on the front cover of the same Jan. 26 issue, pictured a family whose adopted Korean children were to become citizens. It took one year for their adoption. Why? A number of researched factors contribute to shortage of infant adoptions. The one and strongest factor is abortion of 11,600,000 babies which creates a gigantic shortage of adoptable infants. (2) The stigma of unwed mothers is fading somewhat in our society and girls are keeping their pregnancy for their own care or adoption. (3) The crisis of infertility among women on the "birth control pill" increased by 14 to 15 percent. Enter surrogate mothers who are paid $10,000 for the service of their body in pregnancy plus $3-$5,000 to hospital, plus $10,000 to lawyer fees, right up front before anything takes place.

We have reaped from legalization of abortion a people with a constant growing lack of respect for another human being. Abortion is coupled with the sex-infiltrated media of TV soap operas, advertising, movies, magazines and we have let it happen to us and our children. When one's respect for life decreases on one level it reacts in all phases of personal relationships. We are living proof of this as a whole society, the records reflect this fact.

Denise, your parents loved you in the womb so much that they let you know life, and in their own way, love too. You were able to express your thoughts and sign your name, and were never to become another statistic of abortion. Our gift of life is what we make of it, but don't fool yourself into thinking any action we do is personal or private. For every action involves not only you, but always, always another human life. Think about it.

Gratitude,
Mrs. Millie Warner.

CHelsea CHARMERS: Earning top honors at the Walled Lake National Baton Twirling Association Contest held Saturday, Feb. 13 was this group of local baton enthusiasts. They are, from left, Susan Schmunck, Michelle Graflund, Christine Dunlap, Amy Scibor, Nikki Schultz and Kori White. Not present for the photograph were Elizabeth Maurer and Amy Weir, other placers at the contest. These baton twirlers are students of Rita Wilson-Howard of the Chelsea Charms Baton Corps.

Chelsea Charms Sparkle in National Baton Twirling Meet

Five-year-old Kori White, the youngest competitive member of the Chelsea Charms Baton Twirling Corps, had an outstanding day at the Walled Lake National Baton Twirling Association contest held on Saturday, Feb. 13. Kori captured two first place trophies in her solo events - "Basic Twirl" and "Special Beginners." She also managed to win a fourth-place ribbon in "Basic Strut" category and performed remarkably well in "Military Strut." Kori is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary White.

Chelsea Charms Drum Major Susan Schmunck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmunck, took the first place trophy amongst a bevy of contestants in the "Special Beginner" category for her age group. Eleven-year-old Susan will now advance to "Novice" division as will Kori White.

Veteran winner, 10-year-old Michelle Graflund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Graflund, continued her winning streak by capturing the first place trophy in "Military Strut." She also placed fifth in modelling for "Miss Valentine," sixth in "Beginner Fancy Strut" and made excellent showings in both "Basic Strut" and "Best Appearing" costume.

In her second contest, Christine Dunlap, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dunlap, took the second place trophy amid a score of competitors in "Basic Strut" and then went on to win a fourth place ribbon in both "Basic Twirl" solo and "Special Beginners" solo.

Seven-year-old Amy Weir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Weir, performed a near flawless routine before the judges and took the third place award in "Basic Twirl" in her age group as did Nicky Schultz, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Schultz, who placed third in "Special Beginner" solo in the 0-6 division.

Amy Scibor, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Scibor, placed fourth in "Basic Strut" while Elizabeth Maurer placed fifth in "Basic Twirl" in the junior division. Elizabeth is the twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Maurer.

Observing the contest were Chelsea Charm members Julie Miller with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller; Betsy Schmunck and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmunck and brother, Dana, who is a flag bearer for the baton corps. Others cheering the contestants on were parents Sue Scibor, Linda White, Steve and Becky Schultz, Jill Dunlap, Norma Graflund and Corps director and teacher, Rita Wilson-Howard.

The first petition to a state legislature for a shorter working day was presented by carpenters in Georgia in 1802; they sought to place their profession "upon a more respectable and recognized social footing," according to a U.S. Department of Labor publication.

Flooding A Possibility In Southern Michigan

Rivers in southern Michigan that drain to the Great Lakes may have major flooding this spring, according to reports produced by the U.S. National Weather Service.

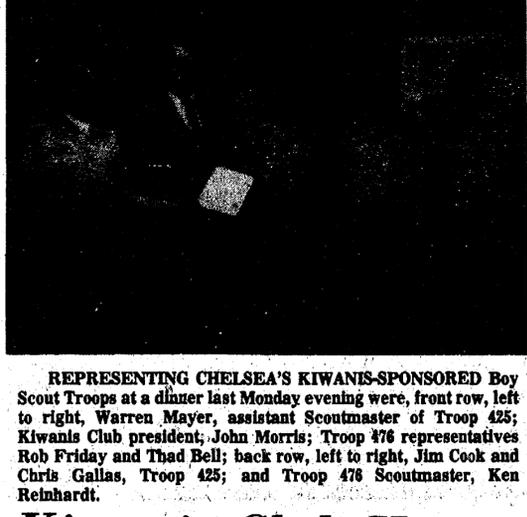

All the reports stress that exact conditions are extremely hard to predict at this early date. Several more factors, such as the amount of precipitation for the remainder of February and March and the temperature trend in March, need to be analyzed before Weather Service forecasters can be certain of the flooding potential.

Child Restraint Systems Studied By Auto Dealers

"Today safety is third highest—after economy and gas mileage—on the list of what people want from their automobiles," according to Jack Kearns, an auto safety consultant from Pittsburg, Pa. Kearns, along with three other consultants, was a guest speaker at a recent seminar for automobile dealers and salespeople. The seminar, Automobile Restraint System: A Sales Plus Factor, encouraged salespeople to promote the use of car seats and belts by children and adults. The seminar was sponsored by the Washtenaw County Health Department and Washtenaw County Auto Dealers Association. As pointed out at the seminar, automobile salespeople are especially qualified to educate the prospective customer about automobile safety because of their knowledge of the product and their contact with the public at times when new attitudes about automobile safety are being formed. Stephen Jacobs, a consultant from Washington, D.C., noted that most people are concerned about automobile safety—as when they make sure their tires are not bald and their headlights are working. Jacobs suggested salespeople tie in the new seat belt law to the customer's existing concern about automobile safety. Washtenaw County Health Department received a federal grant from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration to work with the automobile dealers, in part, because of Michigan's new child safety seat law. Effective April, 1982, all children under the age of four who are passengers in a motor vehicle must be properly secured with an approved restraining system. Information about the new Michigan Child Restraint Law and suggestions for keeping children happy in their car seats are available at the Washtenaw County Health Dept. (973-1488) and from auto dealers around the county.

Use of Label, Coded Envelope Helps Both IRS, Taxpayer

Taxpayers who use the peel-off label and pre-addressed envelope when filing their income tax returns help reduce the cost of processing and lessen their chances of making time-consuming errors, the Internal Revenue Service said.

Errors, especially if they involve incorrect or illegible social security numbers, also lead to re-puting delays, the IRS noted.

FIRST CHURCH IN CHELSEA: The first church ever constructed in Chelsea was the First Congregational church on E. Middle St., organized in 1849 with 16 members. The first "pioneer" church was constructed in the early 1850's on land donated by Elisha Congdon. In early 1894, the church and first parsonage were destroyed by fire but a new church was built and opened in the following year, standing in the same location as the original and present church.

Chelsea Congregational Church First Organized Feb. 21, 1849

The First Congregational Church of Chelsea was formed on Feb. 21, 1849 with 16 members. They were William Davis, Lucy Davis, John C. Winans, Mahlon Wines and Ann Wines, Amos Davis, Jared Hatch, Ruth Hatch, Moses Crowell, Emeline Crowell, Betsy Wines, Charles H. Wines, Emily Wines, Abigail Spaulding, Polly Hatch and Abigail Begole.

For two years, the newly organized church held services mostly in neighborhood schoolhouses. Then in 1851, because of increased membership, the church moved its place of worship to a schoolhouse one-half mile south of Chelsea.

In the fall of 1851 Elisha Congdon donated the land for the site where the present church stands and by the summer of 1852, just two years after the first building had been built in Chelsea, the church was dedicated with a membership of 54 persons and the Rev. Josephus Morton as pastor.

For eight years, this truly pioneer church, with its bare walls and floors, unshaded win-

A. Bradburys Compete for Dairy Honors

The excitement of annual Outstanding Young Dairy Couple competition sponsored by Michigan Milk Producers Association (MMPA), focused on Detroit Feb. 9 and 10 as 11 young couples from MMPA districts throughout the state vied for that singular honor.

The couples earned the right to compete in the state-wide contest by being selected by fellow dairymen in each of 11 MMPA geographic districts.

Archie and Cindy Bradbury of Dexter were named the outstanding young couple from District 1 while Peter and Pam Bontekoe of Marion were given first place state honors. First runner-up couple in the 1982 contest is Thomas and Lynn Atherton of Gaines.

MMPA annually sponsors the Outstanding Young Dairy Couple contest to develop future leadership for the Association and to identify for other MMPA members where the leadership potential lies.

The visit to Detroit gave the young couples an opportunity to learn more about milk marketing and enabled the three judges to meet the contestants.

This year's judges included Irene Cameron, co-ordinator of nutrition communications, Dairy Council of Michigan; Dr. Russel Erickson of the Michigan State University department of animal science; and Wilfred Wardin of Hemlock, dairy farmer and chairman of the MMPA board of directors' membership relations committee.

and low-backed pews, was the only church building in the village. A large box stove placed in the vestibule, with smoke pipes running two-thirds the length of the auditorium, provided little in the way of heat, but much in the way of light and comfort. The arrangement of the church was unusual, the pulpit being at the front and the choir occupying seats on a raised platform in the rear. During the singing the congregation arose, turned their backs to the pastor and faced the music. Later the order was changed; the seats were turned around and the pulpit placed at the back of the church with the choir.

The first church building, having become too small to accommodate the increased congregation, it was decided in 1871 to remodel and enlarge it. The grading of Middle St. a few years earlier had left the church in an elevated position and a flight of six or eight steps on the outside was required to reach it.

It stood so high that by removing the ground to street level and excavating a few more feet, a basement was added. When this remodeling was completed, little was left to remind one of the old church which had served the congregation for 20 years. A neat substantial building had taken its place, with a basement suitable and convenient for the social meetings of the church and for the installation of a furnace. This was the second building in town with a basement and the second with a furnace. The dirt that was removed from the church property was hauled by team and used to fill in a marsh where the junior high school now stands.

This heated basement was in great demand as a meeting place for the townspeople. Home talent plays, lectures by University of Michigan professors, magicians and bell-ringers all entertained in it. Because of its constant use the Village Council erected the first lamp in front of the church that was placed outside of the business district.

By 1888, a movement was underway to build a parsonage, which became a reality in 1889 with the construction of a very fine building on the church lot near where the main entrance stands today. Progress was underway for an addition to the rear of the church costing $5,000 when the church and parsonage were destroyed by fire on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 18, 1894. Only the organ was saved.

A fund-raising campaign was started immediately to replace the loss and in June of 1894, four months later, a local builder, John P. Foster, started construction on the present church. The Rev. William H. Walker was pastor during this time of chaos.

On Jan. 31, 1895, dedicatory services were held and the Rev. Walker announced at the service that the church was now entirely free of debt. Later the parsonage was added.

In 1933, the need for a church school addition was experienced and in 1954 construction was begun. Dedicatory services were held in 1957 for the new construction and the completely remodeled sanctuary, which is the present church home.

Bulldog Cagers Edge Past Saline at Buzzer, Lose to Lincoln, 55-66

Last Tuesday, the Chelsea Bulldogs hosted the Saline Hornets and defeated the opposition, 56-54. The Bulldogs held a slight, 11-7, advantage at the end of the first quarter, followed by a Saline lead at the end of the half.

According to Coach Robin Raymond, the teams played average basketball during the first half but, by the third quarter, both the Saline defense and offense were extremely aggressive as they took the lead, 47-37, at the end of three quarters.

In a dramatic comeback effort, Chelsea defeated the opposition, 56-54. A big factor in the victory was Chelsea's success at the free throw line, completing 13 of 15.

With just 15 seconds remaining, the score was tied, 54-54. Chelsea's Matt Villemure was fouled with just five seconds left and was successful on both of his allotted free throws to clinch the victory.

David Kiel played his best of defensive game of the season, scoring 19 points, nine coming in the final quarter, while he played well inside and close to the basket.

Chelsea's defense forced Saline into five turnovers late in the fourth quarter while scoring the first seven points of the final quarter.

Pacing the Bulldogs was Kiel with 19 points followed by David Wojcicki and John Welton with eight points apiece. Matt Villemure added seven and Mike Bareis added six. Toby Boyd contributed four points and Marty Steinhauer and Carl Pate each chipped in with two points.

According to Coach Raymond, Matt Villemure and Toby Boyd played especially well off the bench.

Saline outrebounded the Bulldogs, 32-30. Pacing Chelsea on the boards was Mike Bareis with nine and David Kiel with eight. In turnovers, Chelsea committed 16 as compared to Saline's 13.

Chelsea hit 49 percent of their field goals, 21 of 40; while Saline made good on 44 percent or 24 of 55 attempts. Chelsea hit 62 percent of its free throw attempts, 16-26, while Saline hit six of nine for a percentage of 67.

With the completion of this game, the Bulldogs were tied with Milan and Lincoln for second place in the Southeastern Conference.

Chelsea traveled to Lincoln on Friday, dropping a close game, 55-66.

The Railsplitters took a 16-9 lead at the end of the first quarter and hung on at the half, 29-26. At the end of the third quarter, Lincoln was ahead, 45-39, but the game became a four-point contest with just one and one-half minutes to go.

Still, the Bulldogs could never get the lead, despite a number of chances. For the first time in six games, the Bulldogs' floor percentage was below 40 percent, as they hit just 38 percent by completing 23 of 60 basket attempts.

From the free throw line, Chelsea hit 69 percent on nine of 13 attempts.

Lincoln outrebounded Chelsea, 43-32, and the biggest key in the game was Lincoln's 21 offensive rebounds as compared to Chelsea's 13.

Lincoln committed 17 turnovers to Chelsea's 15 and 14 fouls to Chelsea's 12.

Pacing the Bulldogs was Mike Bareis with 20 points while David Kiel added 10. David Wojcicki and Matry Steinhauer added eight apiece followed by David Mann with three, and John Welton, Matt Villemure and Carl Pate with two points apiece.

Rebounding was handled by David Kiel with nine, Mike Bareis with six and Marty Steinhauer with five. A season low of four assists was made by the Bulldogs and the tight Lincoln defense in combination with Chelsea's slowness added to the Bulldog loss.

Chelsea plays South Lyon at home tonight.

Wrestler of the Week

SENIOR STEVE SNYDER is a three-year varsity wrestler with a total of 20 wins at the varsity level. He placed first at the Chelsea tournament, second at the league tournament, and third at the Dexter and Washtenaw county tournaments. He took a fourth place at the Jackson County Western tournament. According to Coach Tom Fletke, Snyder has been a very consistent wrestler for the team this year and can be counted on for a win.

Wrestlers Place 3rd In District Meet

Chelsea's varsity wrestlers placed third in the district tournament held Saturday at Monroe Catholic Central High school.

Earning first place honors was the host team with 184.5 points followed by Southgate Aquinas with 133.5, Chelsea 133, Brooklyn Columbia Central 106.5, and New Boston Huron ended the day with 72 points.

Seven Chelsea wrestlers qualified for the regional competition to be held at Dearborn Robichaud this coming Saturday. They included:

Ernie Bristle, at 98 lbs., who placed second; Bill Hanna, at 105 lbs., who placed second; Jeff Morgan, at 112, placing fourth;

Travis Rudd, at 126, who earned first place honors; John Preston, 155 lbs., who earned a third place medal; Steve Grau, at 167 lbs., placing third; and Rich Poljan, at 198 lbs., who earned a second place medal.

Coach Tom Fletke was "very pleased with the number of Chelsea wrestlers who placed in the districts and earned positions on the Chelsea regional squad but explained that those qualifying must do better at the regionals in order to qualify for the state meet."

Citing excellent wrestling jobs at the districts, Fletke commended Travis Rudd and Steve Grau.

9th Grade Cage Team Has Win String Halted

Chelsea's ninth grade basketball team ended a three game winning streak with a convincing, 44-60, loss to Saline Thursday to drop the Bulldogs' record to 4-7 on the season.

Though the Bulldogs led, 27-26, at the half, Saline made a successful run at their opposition, outscoring the Bulldogs, 20-9 and 14-8 in the final two stanzas.

Pacing Chelsea was Dave Steinhauer with 10 points, all coming in the first half. He was followed by Keith Neibauer with nine points, seven scored in the second half.

Last Monday, the Chelsea ninth grade cagers defeated Dexter, 62-51, taking a 34-21 lead at the half.

Pacing Chelsea were Neibauer and Steinhauer with 12 points each while Scott Jones scored 11 points and Mark Hintzen added eight.

On Thursday, Feb. 11, the Bulldogs won their second consecutive game by defeating the Milan Big Reds, 39-38. The team was paced by Dave Steinhauer with 11 points and Keith Neibauer and Mark Hintzen with eight points.

The U.S. Department of Labor's Mine Safety and Health Administration (MSHA) is responsible for making working conditions in underground and surface mines and related activities as safe and hazard-free as possible.

Tecumseh 50, Saline 49

With just 11 seconds to play, Jeff Corley sank two free throws Friday, giving Tecumseh a well-deserved, 50-49, win over the Saline Hornets.

Tecumseh played hard through the first half but the Hornets were able to play catch up in the second half and almost best the visitors.

With just 33 seconds left in the game, Saline cut the Indian lead to one point, 48-47, but Indian Jeff Corley was sent to the foul line, missing his first attempt and sinking his second to clinch the win.

Lincoln 66, Chelsea 55

Winning their ninth game this season, the Lincoln Railsplitters confused Chelsea, defeating the Bulldogs, 66-55, at Ypsilanti Friday night.

The Railsplitters upped their season slate to 9-6 over-all and 6-4 in the Southeastern Conference while Chelsea dropped to 8-7 over-all and 6-5 in the SEC.

Lincoln basically controlled the contest though the Bulldogs did make a couple of runs at their opponents. Pacing Chelsea was Mike Bareis with 20 points.

Milan 59, Western 40

The Southeastern Conference cellar-dweller Jackson County Western Panthers managed to hold off the Milan Big Reds for the first quarter and a half Friday night but the opposition eventually provided a press that bested the lowly Panthers, 59-40.

The Big Reds are now 9-6 over-all and 6-4 in the SEC, tied with Lincoln for second place in the league title race. Pacing Milan was Scotty Harrison with 11 points, six rebounds and five assists.

34-MEET WIN STRING BROKEN:

Varsity Swim Team Loses to Fenton, 92-80

Chelsea swimmers defeated Riverview, 45-37, Dundee, 98-76, Cherry Hill, 92-80, won their freshman-sophomore invitations by 70 points, defeating Jackson, 103-67, and then traveled to Fenton and lost their first meet in three seasons, 92-80, ending a 34-meet undefeated streak.

with 258.8 points, and by Dave Nicolay, 22:04 in the 50 freestyle event. Against Jackson, the team swam a mixed up line-up and enjoyed a nice low pressure victory. In the meet against Fenton, Chelsea won only three of 11 events. Coach Larry Reed said that "the loss was definitely a team effort as the team continually lost races by close margins. We had superior depth but it never showed. They made a real commitment to rest and point for this meet but we didn't. We felt the state meet was most important and that we could beat Fenton anyway. We couldn't and we didn't."

Rapids for the state high school championships. "We should get into the meet seeded about fifth but could finish anywhere between second and eighth," commented Reed.

Auto Mechanic, Customer
Should Have Mutual Respect

Taking your car to a mechanic is like taking your personal aches and pains to your doctor.
"You don't tell doctors how to treat your body but you do tell them the symptoms," says
Thomas J. Carr, manager of Safety Engineering for the Motor Vehicle Manufacturers Association (MVMA).

Carr contends that a good car mechanic is really a car doctor.
"Treat him or her that way.
Describe the problems and the conditions under which they occur."
Some examples. If a car shim-mles and shakes, remember at what speed it occurs. Rate of speed could indicate whether you need a front wheel alignment or a wheel balancing.
Frequent stalling, especially in traffic, is dangerous and should be corrected immediately. Stalling can be attributed to a variety of sources—a faulty choke, a clogged fuel filter, carburetor float level, the acceleration pump in the carburetor, a dirty PCV

Your Health Options

By Beverly Choctik
Director of Health Education, Washtenaw County Health Dept.

To keep my heating bill down, I have been using a kerosene heater. I've heard the heaters are dangerous. Is that true?
Portable kerosene heaters can provide temporary heat efficiently in a well-ventilated house. However, they should never be used for several hours at a time in a conventional heating system.
If kerosene heaters are not properly used, they may cause carbon monoxide to accumulate. And carbon monoxide may reach toxic levels in minutes or hours—depending on the circumstances.
Eleven states have banned kerosene heaters as unsafe. Although Michigan allows them to be sold—"they're safe enough not to be banned" according to Richard Pfister, MSU safety engineer—they are more hazardous than other heating systems.
Early symptoms of poisoning include dizziness, headache and/or nausea. As oxygen is replaced in the body by carbon monoxide, suffocation occurs. And "just getting out in the open air doesn't eliminate carbon monoxide from the body—it takes 10 to 24 hours," according to Pfister.
Manufacturer's instructions aren't adequate for all situations. Sometimes people disregard them. They shut the window tight rather than leave it open one-inch—because they want to save money. Or perhaps they have insulated their home so well that the house is more "air tight" than the manufacturer expected. Carbon monoxide builds up quickly in the house.
The type of fuel used may also present a potential hazard. Finally, different people have different tolerances for carbon monoxide. "Extended exposure to even low levels may have effects on infants, pregnant women, elderly persons or those with allergic sensitivities," according to Pfister.

Crop Outlook Good, Prices Will Decline

Despite record-setting demand for U.S. wheat during the last half of 1981, market prices over the next several months are expected to remain well below last year's levels. The average U.S. farm price for 1981-82 will be about 20 cents a bushel below last season's $3.91. Early estimates put the 1982 wheat crop at a record 2.13 billion bushels.
The second best soybean crop on record, along with a slow economy, could force average prices for 1981 soybeans down by more than $1.25 a bushel. The season average price is expected to be $6.25 a bushel, compared with $7.57 a year earlier. Demand for the 1982 U.S. soybean crop is expected to jump 9 percent to nearly 2 billion bushels.
The new soybean crop in Brazil, America's chief competitor, continues to suffer from inadequate rain during crucial development stages. Brazil exported more than 11 million metric tons of soybeans and related products last year. U.S. soybean sales totaled more than 26 million metric tons.
State unemployment insurance agencies which operated under direction of the U.S. Department Labor provide payments for workers temporarily out of work.

DEXTER TOWNSHIP NOISE ORDINANCE ORDINANCE NO.

THE TOWNSHIP OF DEXTER ORDAINS: SECTION 1. DECLARATION OF POLICY.

It is hereby declared to be the policy of this Township that the peace, health, safety, and welfare of its citizens require protection from excessive, unnecessary, and unreasonable noises from any and all sources in the community. It is the intention of the Dexter Township Board to control the adverse effect of such noise sources on the citizens under any condition of use; especially those conditions which have the most severe impact upon a person.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS.

For the purposes of this Ordinance, certain terms are defined as follows:

1. "dBA" means the intensity of a sound expressed in decibels read from a calibrated sound level meter utilizing the A-level weighting scale and the fast meter response, as specified in American National Standards Institute Standard S 1.4-1971.
2. "Commercial" means a use of the property for purposes other than residential, agricultural, recreation-conservation, or public lands, as those uses are defined in the Dexter Township Zoning Ordinance, now enacted or as subsequently amended.
3. "Property Line" means the line which represents the legal limits of the property owned, leased, or other occupied by a person, business, corporation or institution. In cases involving sound from an activity on a public or private street or other public or private area or right-of-way, the "Property Line" shall be the nearest boundary of the right-of-way or area.
4. "Residential" means a use of property for temporary or permanent dwelling purposes, or agricultural, recreation-conservation or public lands uses as the same is defined by the Dexter Township Zoning Ordinance now adopted, or hereafter amended.
5. "Noise Level" is the maximum continuous sound level or repetitive peak level produced by a source or group of sources as measured with a precision sound level meter using "A" weighting scale, and the meter response function set at "Slow."
6. "Precision Sound Level Meter" is a device for measuring sound level in decibel units within the performance specifications in the American National Standards Institute Standard S1.4, "Specification for Sound Level Meters."
7. "Emergencies" are essential activities necessary to restore, preserve, protect, or save lives or property from imminent danger of loss or harm.

SECTION 3. GENERAL PROHIBITION.

It shall be unlawful for any person to create, assist in creating, permit, continue, or permit the continuance of any unreasonably loud, disturbing, unusual or unnecessary noise which annoys, disturbs, injures, or endangers the comfort, repose, health, peace or safety of others within the limits of the Township of Dexter.

SECTION 4. MAXIMUM PERMISSIBLE SOUND LEVELS.

No person shall conduct or permit any activity which produces a dBA beyond his property line exceeding the levels specified in Table I. Where property is used for both residential and commercial purposes, the residential sound levels shall be used only for measurements made on the portion of the property used solely for residential purposes.

USE OF PROPERTY RECEIVING THE SOUND	7 a.m. to 10 p.m.	10 p.m. to 7 a.m.
RESIDENTIAL	86	55
COMMERCIAL	86	61

SECTION 5. GENERAL EXEMPTIONS.

The following activities are exempted from the sound level limitations of this Ordinance.

1. Emergency work necessary to restore property to a safe condition following a fire, accident or natural disaster, to restore public utilities, or to protect persons or property from an imminent danger.
2. Sound made to alert persons to the existence of an emergency, danger, or attempted crime.
3. Parades, concerts, festivals, fairs or similar activities, provided that the same are conducted subject to any sound limitations established by the Township Board or Board of Zoning Appeals, in the granting of any permit for the approval of such activities.
4. A farm or farm operation shall not be found to be a violation of this Ordinance if the farm or farm operation alleged to be a violation conforms to generally accepted agricultural and management practices according to policy as determined by the director of the Michigan State Department of Agriculture.

SECTION 6. TEMPORARY EXEMPTIONS.

1. The Township Board is authorized to grant a temporary exemption from the maximum permissible sound levels established by this Ordinance, if such temporary exemption would be in the public interest and there is no feasible or prudent alternative to the activity, or the method of conducting the activity, for which the temporary exemption is sought.
2. The following factors shall be considered by the Township Board in determining whether to grant a temporary exemption:
 - (a) The balance of the hardship to the applicant, the community and other persons in not granting the variance against the adverse impact on the health, safety and welfare of persons adversely affected or any other adverse effects of the granting of the variance.
 - (b) The nearness of any residents or residences, or any other use which would be adversely affected by sound in excess of the limits prescribed by this Ordinance.
 - (c) The level of the sound to be generated by the event or activity.
 - (d) Whether the type of sound to be produced by the event or activity is usual or unusual for the location or area for which the variance is requested.
 - (e) The density of population of the area in which the event or activity is to take place.
 - (f) The time of day or night which the activity or event will take place.
 - (g) The nature of the sound to be produced, including but not limited to, whether the sound will be steady, intermittent, impulsive, or repetitive.
3. A temporary exemption must be in writing and signed by the Clerk and Supervisor of the Township Board and must set forth the name of the party granted the exemption, the location of the property for which it is authorized, and date(s) and time(s) in which it is effective and the dBA level(s) authorized.
4. A temporary exemption may be granted only for the period of time for which it is reasonably necessary to conduct the activity, which in no case shall exceed 30 days.

SECTION 7. VARIANCES.

Persons wishing to continue activities which commenced prior to the adoption of this Ordinance and which create noises in excess of the permitted levels may seek a variance from the Township Board. Such a variance may be granted if the Board finds that strict application of the Ordinance would cause a hardship and that there is no reasonable and prudent alternative method of engaging in the activity.

SECTION 8. PENALTY.

Any person who violates a provision of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. If the person responsible for an activity which violates this Ordinance can not be determined, the owner, lessee, or occupant of the property on which the activity is located, shall be deemed responsible for the violation. A person found responsible for a violation of this Ordinance or who violates this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a term of imprisonment not to exceed ninety (90) days, a fine not to exceed $500, or both, or any part thereof, plus costs of prosecution.

SECTION 9. EFFECTIVENESS.

The within Ordinance shall be effective thirty (30) days after its first publication subsequent to adoption, March 25, 1982 effective date. Adopted: Feb. 16, 1982, regular meeting of the Dexter Township Board. Motion by Begres, supported by Scriven. Ayes—Scriven, Begres, Eisenbeiser. Absent—Howe.

THIS FAMILY PHOTOGRAPH represents the Hubley side of the Hubley-Eisler wedding, the third act of "Plaza Suite." Linda Klein, right, plays Mimsey, who gets last minute cold feet the day of her wedding to Tim Whitesall, the bridegroom, Borden Eisler, who expects to be next in the family portrait. Mimsey's parents are Roy and Norma, alias Bill Coelius and Janette Tobin. The Chelsea Players will present "Plaza Suite" this Saturday and Sunday at St. Louis School.

'Plaza Suite' Matinee Set Sunday Afternoon

Neil Simon's "Plaza Suite" was described by Time magazine as being "an avalanche of hilarity." The three-act play looks into the lives of three couples occupying, in turn, a suite at the Plaza Hotel in New York City.

In Act III, the couple has a daughter who is getting married in about a minute and a half. She has locked herself in the bathroom and refuses to come out. This last act is a farce in which the father soars to parental fury in a hilarious sequence.

In Act III, the roles of Norma and Roy Hubley are played by Janette Tobin and Bill Coelius while the parts of Borden Eisler and Mimsey Hubley are cast with Tim Whitesall and Linda Klein.

"Plaza Suite" marks Janette Tobin's first return to the Chelsea stage since appearing in the Chelsea Players' production of "Sweet Charity." Her acting experience also includes "Oklahoma" and her memorable portrayal of Mrs. Harcourt in "Anything Goes." She has performed in plays with the University of Michigan Faculty Wives Drama Group and serves on the board of this organization in the office of secretary/treasurer.

Janette is a secretary in the Department of Mechanical Engineering at the University of Michigan. A long time resident of Chelsea, she and her husband, Marty, live on Summit St. They have three sons.

Janette Tobin is a past president of the board of The Friends of the Chelsea Players.

Bill Coelius, a teacher at Chelsea High school since 1967, is a favorite with students enrolled in his speech, debate, radio and stage and drama classes. He has directed and produced the following stage and drama presentations: "A Christmas Carol," "You Can't Take It With You," and the recent "Teahouse of the August Moon." He was last seen in a Chelsea Players production as Elwood Dowd in "Harvey." Area residents will also remember his hilarious portrayal of the peddler, Al Hakim, in "Oklahoma," but he is perhaps best remembered for his role of Horace Vander Gelder in "Hello Dolly."

In his spare time, Bill makes wooden toys. His "Ye Old Toy Shoppe" is a favorite booth at the Ann Arbor Street Fair. Taking an active part in this family business is his wife, Pat, and their two sons, Bill and Bob. They make their home on Waterloo Rd. The role of Borden, the bridegroom, is played by Tim Whitesall, who, besides being very active in the Chelsea High school athletic program, is the CHS senior class president. Tim is a product of the Chelsea Players' Summer Children's Theater workshop where he studied under Jeff Daniels. He has appeared in two stage and drama productions. In "You Can't Take It With You," Tim played the role of Donald and, in "Teahouse of the August Moon," he was seen as Mr. Hokida. Tim has been on the debate and forensics teams and was on the top novice team in the State Regional competition.

Next year, Tim's plans include attending Central Michigan University. He will major in social sciences and minor in music. He has been a piano student for eight years and studies with LaVonne Harris.

Linda Klein wears two hats in her involvement with "Plaza Suite." She is the assistant director of Act III and, in this act she also plays the role of Mimsey, the young bride. A two year Chelsea resident, Linda lives with her husband, Perry, on North Territorial Rd. She is employed by the Territorial Family Medical Center as a licensed practical nurse. This is Linda's stage debut.

Tickets for the Saturday, Feb. 27 dinner theater are no longer available. On Saturday there will be a wine and beer cash bar at 6 p.m. with dinner at 7 p.m.

The tickets for the Sunday, Feb. 28 matinee will be available up to curtain time. They may be purchased at the door or at the following locations: Ricardo's, Heydiauff's, Chelsea State Bank; Chelsea Community Education and Chelsea Players board members.

Tickets for the matinee are $3.50 each and curtain time for the Sunday performance is 1 p.m. at St. Louis School, 16195 Old US-12.

For further information, call Chelsea Players board members Julie Vorus, 475-8716; Mary Beth Rosenberg, 475-9736; or June Warren, 475-8409.

Committees Keep Senior Activity Center Lively

The Chelsea Senior Citizen Activity Center is comprised of various daily and weekly activities enjoyed by hundreds of area senior citizens who gather at the North Elementary school activity site. Many of those persons taking part in the activities also assist in the planning of these events.

Input is gained most frequently through the network of committees, organized to plan and implement the typical and not-so-typical activities at the center.

A total of seven committees make up this network and include the Sunshine Committee, which meets monthly to make and prepare cards for birthdays, get-wells, thank yous and more. The Special Events Committee meets twice monthly to plan, organize and implement the special events at the Center while the Travel Committee, also meeting two times each month, usually decides on travel itinerary, researches facilities and time frames.

Once each month, the Newsletter Committee meets to assist in the preparation, labeling, sorting and typing of the monthly newsletter. After printing, the senior citizens on the committee collate the newsletter and mail it to persons on the Center's mailing list.

Meet-A-Neighbor committee members select and prepare a biographical background on a specific senior citizen who takes part in the activities at the Senior Citizens Center.

The Hostess Committee is made up of senior citizens available to donate their time one afternoon each week to work with another as hostesses for the daily activities. This committee fulfills the needs of making coffee and tea and greeting friends at the door. The Building Committee is made up of persons interested in exploring building needs in terms of expansions and the like.

For further information, call the Center at 475-9242

School Board Briefs

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, Feb. 15, were: Feeney, Schumann, Heller, Grau, Snyder, Comeau, Superintendent Van Meer, Assistant Superintendent Mills, Principals Williams, Wojcicki, Conklin, Assistant Principal Vogel, guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by President Ann Feeney. Board approved the minutes of the Feb. 1 meeting.

Superintendent Van Meer proposed an addition to the Board of Education policy governing the use of school district facilities. This proposal spoke to the rental of available school space. Essentially the rental would be something that is compatible with the educational program of the Chelsea School District, and would serve a need in the community.

The Board was presented with an alternate or main-roads busing plan in the event of inclement weather. After much discussion, the Board felt that they should continue their basic premises that (1) they have an obligation to transport students to school; (2) when conditions of safety jeopardize operations, school should be closed. The Board did feel that a contingency plan of main roads could be worked out in the event of prolonged successive days out of school.

Dr. Jerry Waldyke, chairman of the Sex Education Advisory Committee, presented the Board with a recommendation to expand the sex education program at the high school level to include contraceptive education. This was a recommendation from the Advisory Committee that has been operating the last 2½ years. The Board took this under advisement and will be reacting to it at its March meeting.

Assistant Superintendent Mills reviewed the money expenditures of the 1981-82 maintenance millage, indicating that $75,255 had been appropriated for classroom painting, roofing at the high school and South school, fencing, fire extinguishers, plumbing repairs, floor and ceiling at South school, air-lock doorway at Beach swimming pool, energy conservation, and science tables at Beach. Monies have been reserved for the energy matching grant.

Superintendent Van Meer apprised Board members that letters have been sent to employees with exemplary attendance record for the first semester.

In an action item, the Board approved the following high school curriculum changes: the addition of Electronics II, the deletion of Electricity I and II, the piloting of a revised 9th grade physical education program with a format of three days of physical activity and two days of classroom instruction, and the addition of a Basic Geometry class. The Board was apprised that the Chelsea Challenge will be mailed this week.

Principal Al Conklin described the Quiz Bowl at Beach school; competition with Dexter, Tecumseh, and Saline will be held later this month.

Meeting adjourned 9:35 p.m.

World Day of Prayer Scheduled March 5

World Day of Prayer, an international celebration sponsored in the United States by Church Women United, will be held March 5 at 9:30 a.m. at the First United Methodist church, 128 Park St., Chelsea. This annual service unites millions of people in prayer services occurring on six continents during a 24-hour period.

This year's theme is "The People of God: Gathered for Worship, Scattered for Service." The text was prepared by women of the Republic of Ireland and of Northern Ireland. They worked ecumenically at a Christian renewal center near the border of the two Irish states.

World Day of Prayer provides women in the United States with an occasion to participate in a nationwide offering which goes into Intercontinental Grants, the process by which Church Women United carries out its stewardship through grants to a wide variety of programs.

Rod Line, a student of the University of Michigan living here with his parents, Jim and Marilyn Line, will be the featured speaker at Chelsea's celebration. He will be sharing with the group insights he experienced and the knowledge he gained while studying in Ireland for a year and a half.

The Chelsea World Day of Prayer will also feature the White Breakfast again this year. All of the residents of the Chelsea area and neighboring towns are invited to come. Babysitting will be provided for the day.

The community is invited to the presentations on Tuesday morning and evening.

Lenten Services Start Next Week At Faith Lutheran

Beginning Ash Wednesday, there will be a series of services under the theme, "Did Jesus Have to Die?" The Rev. Mark Porinsky, pastor of Faith Evangelical Lutheran church, feels that there is a great deal of evidence to consider on this topic.

One or two aspects of this question will be examined each Wednesday evening from Feb. 24 through March 31, and also Maundy Thursday and Good Friday, April 8 and 9, coming to a climax in the two Easter morning services.

These services are open to the public and all evening services begin at 7:30 p.m. The Wednesday services last until about 8:15 p.m. and are followed by coffee hours.

The church is located at 9575 North Territorial Rd., one-quarter mile west of Dexter-Pinckney Rd.

Home Meals Service Needs More Drivers

Chelsea Home Meals is in need of volunteer drivers to deliver hot meals to local persons on every other Monday, Tuesday and Saturday.

All meals are picked up at the Methodist Home at 11:15 each day and approximately one hour is necessary to deliver the meals that are packed in lightweight insulated containers and dropped off to those persons who are elderly, incapacitated or otherwise handicapped and take part in the Home Meals program.

The meals delivered include a balanced hot meal, beverage and fruit and are often the only hot meal those participating in the program have each day.

In addition to delivering the meals, the Home Meals program serves other purposes in that it provides a sort of "check-up" service, assuring the safety of those who are provided with meals.

Persons interested in volunteering their services should call Barb Branch at 475-7644.

GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP 689

On the 7th of February, Girl Scout Troop 689 was a guest of sister Troop 145 at a sledding party at Mrs. Erwin's home. After sledding, the group ate hot dogs, spaghetti, potato chips, cookies and hot chocolate. We had a wonderful time.

On Feb. 10, we had a Valentine Party for the residents of the Methodist Home. We played bingo, with the winners receiving prizes. Cookies and punch were served. We were invited back for their Maple Sugar Festival in March.
