MIKAEL ENU SAYS GOODBYE TO THE CHELSEA BURN UNIT TEAM members, who have treated him along with University of Michigan hospital staff since June. He has returned to Lagos, Nigeria with a souvenir University of Michigan baseball hat. Physicians in Lagos will follow up on the treatment of his facial burns.

World Attention Focused on U. of M. Burn Unit at CCH

The reason Nigerians, severely burned in an industrial fire June 21, flew across the Atlantic for treatment at the University of Michigan hospital and the Chelsea Community hospital, instead of going to Paris or London, is a combination of nature and Dr. Irving Feller.

Feller, of 821 Lowery Rd. is the father of burn medicine. As a surgical resident in 1957, he saw that a lot of burn patients died — more than he thought should. They were treated for their surface wounds, not for medical complications such as infection.

Feller's research — he developed a vaccine for the bacteria Pseudomonas, which he discovered was invading the wound and attacking the body's immune systems; he has helped design water chambers to swirl away dead skin, grafting aids, and special beds, so that a patient can be turned without being touched — have made the Michigan Burn Center, at U. of M., Chelsea, and St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, world-renowned.

So when the accident happened, Dr. Richard Stewart, the medical director of Johnson Wax Company, which owned the Nigerian plant, called Feller. Although the center had treated French sailors hurt in shipboard fires in the Great Lakes, it was their first time, said Feller, patients had been brought here from abroad.

Feller says he has known ever since he started his research in 1957 that a burn victim suffers from more than just physical wounds. When he needed to expand the burn center in 1975, he picked the Chelsea Hospital, he says, because the beautiful setting and hospital attitudes, such as encouraging a patient to eat in the cafeteria instead of in bed, would be so conducive to rehabilitation.

The patient may be grieving for friends and family lost in the fire, which he survived. Suddenly his body is very different — he has scars; he may have lost a limb. What will his spouse think? Will he ever be able to wear a swim suit again? What about his job and his career?

There is a lot to worry about. But when patients see that lush display of nature at Chelsea after the sidewalks and parking lots of the urban hospital where they were medically stabilized for shock, "they begin to think of themselves as being healthy again," says Theresa Moray, nursing supervisor at the burn unit.

Thinking of oneself as healthy is a big step towards beginning to lead a normal life again, the goal of the rehabilitation of the burn patients here.

Burn patients are encouraged to wear street clothes as soon as possible. (The Nigerians are sporting U. of M. T-shirts and hats around the hospital.) If their bandages are bulky, they may wear sweat pants instead of jeans, but even sweats are a real psychological lift from hospital gowns.

Eating in the cafeteria is an important step for burn patients, says Ms. Moray, because they must get used to having people look at them.

It's not always easy, she said. Someone in the grocery store told the mother of a burn patient, "You shouldn't bring that child out in public!"

Most people aren't that crass, she said, "but we tell the patients that if that happens, then it is really the problem of the person who said it."

Although pain medication is used, said Ms. Moray, strict protocol is followed, so the patient doesn't become addicted. When they leave the hospital, they should be able to deal with muscle and joint pain they may suffer, she says, with only aspirin or Tylenol, and the relaxation, self-hypnosis techniques rehabilitation social worker Sheryl Tobes teaches them, such as doing brain teasers or thinking of something pleasurable while their dressings are being changed.

The patients usually need to eat much more than they are accustomed to, said Ms. Tobes, because their bodies burn so many calories while healing.

But thousands and thousands of calories are a lot more than most people are accustomed to eating and more than they want to eat, especially when they feel sick, she said. She hypnotized one patient with burns over more than 80 percent of his body, and who was losing weight on a 10,000-calorie daily diet, so that he would eat. (Her hypnosis also

Spears Seeks Recount In 20-Vote Primary Loss to George Merkel

James R. Spears, the York township trustee George Merkel of 142 Van Buren squeaked by in last week's primary race for District 1 county commissioner, plans to ask the county clerk for a recount, after the certification of the vote Wednesday.

Merkel beat Spears by 20 votes, 788-768 in unofficial tallies, the closest commissioner contest of the primary, in the district with the most land area. Donald E. Limpert of Manchester got 506 votes.

"I won't be able to sleep, if I don't ask for a recount," said Spears Sunday night. "Twenty votes is just too close — one machine could have malfunctioned."

"Maybe a recount will show George with more votes," he said, "but in the Ann Arbor mayoral race a few years ago, Belcher won in a recount by one vote."

Spears has six days after certification to file for a recount.

Martin L. Straub, R-Dexter township, won convincingly in District 2, 985 to 424 for Richard

O. Brunvand, R-Whitmore Lake, and 383 for Walter J. Walton, R-Webster township.

He will face Thomas E. Carey, D-Superior township, who won 708 to 296 over Robert E. O'Connor of Northfield township.

In other commissioner primaries, which because of redistricting often pitted commissioner against commissioner, Larry D. Minick, D-Augusta township, will face John A. Dillon, R-Ypsilanti township in District 3. Dillard Roy Craigler, D-Ypsilanti township, will run unopposed, in District 4. Mary Egnor, D-Ypsilanti will also run unopposed in District 5. Meri Lou Murray, D-Ann Arbor will face Republican Peter S. Wright in District 6. Raymond G. Shoultz-D will face Republican Thomas N. Burnham in District 7. Richard G. Walterhouse, a Republican seeking a ninth term as commissioner, will face Donald N. Duquette, a Democrat seeking a second term in District 8. Catherine McClary, D-Ann Arbor will face Karl Edelmann, R-Ann Arbor in District 9.

As Washtenaw county goes, so doesn't the state — at least in the race for governor in the 1982 primary.

Richard H. Headlee may have won state-wide, but not in Washtenaw. James H. Brickley had 5,451 votes to Headlee's 4,410, and Edward C. Pierce had 7,055 to actual Democratic nominee James J. Blanchard's 5,404.

Senator Donald W. Riegler, Jr. ran unopposed on the Democratic ticket. He will meet Philip Ruppe, who had 4,956 votes in the county, compared to second-place Deane Baker, with 3,121.

Lyndon township voters chose George Beeman-R as township trustee. He won over M. Jean Dunn, by 58 to 45 votes.

James Drolett won the Republican Dexter township trustee primary with 195 votes to 182 for H. Douglas Smith; 70 for Richard Rigg; and 64 for Peter Holske. John David Scriven, the Democratic challenger Drolett will meet in November, ran unopposed.

Although Webster township has no candidates for constable, there were write-in votes. These will be announced when the election is certified Wednesday.

Representative in Congress, 2nd District

The Democratic candidate will be unopposed George Wahr Sallade, who will face Carl D. Pursell, who had a wide county margin over Walt Long.

State Senator 18th District

Democrat Lana Pollack, who had solid support in Ann Arbor, will face Republican candidate Roy Smith, who ran unopposed.

Representative in State Legislature 52nd District

Margaret O'Connor, a Republican, will face unopposed Democratic candidate Henry J. Flandysz.

County Commissioner 1st District

George Merkel, Republican of Chelsea won the Republican nomination, in a close race with James Spears, who plans to ask for a recount. No Democratic candidates filed.

Judge of the Court of Appeals — 1st District

Non-partisan candidate Roman S. Gribbs had 5,470 votes to 5,192 for second-place Geraldine Bledsoe Ford.

Judge of the 14th District Court

Non-partisan candidate Thomas F. Shea had 4,999 votes to 3,800 for second place Walter K. Hamilton.

Tentative Teacher Pact Reached

Chelsea Board of Education and Chelsea Education Association reached a tentative agreement Friday morning, Aug. 13, on a contract for the 1982-83 school year in a 10-hour marathon negotiation session with the aid of state mediator Charles Jamer-son.

Details of the agreement will be released following notification by both parties, probably during the first week of September.

Teachers will report for orientation on Sept. 2, and the first day of school for students will be Sept. 7.

The fair superintendents will have a meeting Thursday, Aug. 19 at 8 p.m.

Fair days are Aug. 31 to Sept. 4.

Dairy Queen B & E Suspects Nabbed

A suspect was arrested on a charge of breaking and entering the Dairy Queen at 901 S. Main, just before 3:27 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 14. $23 in change was taken, and $125.45 in frozen ice cream products destroyed when a freezer was left open.

A suspect was also arrested on a charge of possessing a stolen car, at about the same time.

Police officer John Detting saw someone running from the Dairy Queen into the woods, while he was on patrol at 3:15 a.m. He lost the suspect in the woods, but went back to the Dairy Queen to look around. A hole was knocked in the rear door, and glass broken in the inner door.

At the same time, a security officer at Chelsea Community Hospital found a "suspicious" car in the hospital lot, said police chief Robert Aeillo, with Ohio plates and three persons asleep inside.

Officers Detting and Richard Foster ran the license plates on the computer and found it belonged to a car which had been stolen.

While they questioned the three in the car, reserve officer Dennis Petch was at the Dairy Queen

Powder Puff Demolition Derby Repeating at Fair

The Chelsea Community fair will again host a powder puff demolition derby at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 1 during the Demolition Derby.

Marge Hintzen, last year's powder puff champion, will be back again and is eager for more competition, says Maryann Guenther, fair board secretary.

Entry forms are available at the fair office during office hours, or at the Wolverine Lounge.

with its manager, who was inventing the damage. He saw a suspect running through the woods, who matched the description of the suspect Detting had chased earlier. Petch apprehended the suspect this time.

Rodney Booth, age 17 of Ypsilanti, was arraigned in night court on a charge of breaking and entering.

Robert Carl Preston, age 18 of Huber Heights, O., was arraigned on a charge of possessing a stolen vehicle.

One person in the car was not charged, pending further investigation, and the other, a juvenile, was petitioned to juvenile court.

Fire Destroys Home on Bartell Rd.

Fire destroyed an unoccupied ranch-style house on Bartell Rd. last week.

When the Chelsea fire department got to the scene at 11:15 p.m. Aug. 11, said Larry Koch, assistant fire chief, most of the roof was already burned, and the house was enveloped in flames.

They extinguished the blaze, which was contained to just the house itself, he said. They left after 5 a.m. Thursday, but had to return for a short time Friday afternoon, when the debris rekindled.

No one has lived in the house since June, he said, when there was a fire in the garage area.

Whenever there is a fire in an unoccupied home, he said, it is usually investigated, as this one is, by the Washtenaw County Fire Investigation Bureau.

State Gets Federal Aid For Hazardous Waste Cleanup
 Seven sites in Michigan are among 45 around the country getting federal funds to clean up hazardous wastes.

The money, released on a matching 90 percent federal funds for 10 percent state funds, comes from a five-year, $1.6 billion program.

U. S. Environmental Protection Agency officials earlier had selected a Gratiot county landfill for the cleanup program.

The seven additional sites include one in Dalton township, Muskegon county; Battle Creek; Utica; Swartz Creek; Oakland county; Cadillac; and Rose township, Oakland county.

The state had already declared a toxic substance emergency at Berlin and Farro in Swartz Creek.

State Department of Natural Resources officials estimates $30-$50 million in federal funds will be spent over the next three or four years to clean up the dumps.

The Environmental Protection Agency authorized $249,000 for emergency work at the Liquid Disposal site in Utica to remove some of the health hazards. Two men were killed as the result of a chemical accident at the site in January.

Michigan and New Jersey had the largest number of sites selected for the cleanup program, but Governor William G. Milliken said that is the result of better recognition of the problem.

The cleanup projects will involve either a direct federal contract managed by the U. S. Corps of Engineers, or co-operative agreements with the state taking charge of the private cleanup through voluntary or court-ordered action.

Meanwhile, Milliken is urging federal officials to select Michigan to run a pilot program under which companies would be given the chance to monitor their compliance with federal and state environmental laws.

The initial environmental auditing program would involve facilities with good compliance records and who volunteer to participate.

Milliken asked for the designation in a request to U. S. Environmental Protection Administrator Jane Gorsuch.

If accepted, the Department of Natural Resources would work with a citizen advisory group to develop guidelines for an acceptable program, under which companies would be required to show they have sufficient internal procedures to detect and correct problems.

In a related matter, permanent regulations setting standards for the transporting of all spent nuclear fuel and larger quantities of radioactive waste have been filed with the Secretary of State and became effective mid-July.

As with temporary rules signed last summer by the governor, the new permanent rules, developed by the Department of Public Health and the State Fire Marshal's Division of the Department of State Police, include strict testing requirements for containers carrying atomic materials over any of the state's four major bridges at Detroit, Port Huron, the Straits of Mackinac and Sault Ste. Marie.

The rules also require that a shipper must secure prior approval for transporting the materials through the state; must furnish evidence of adequate communications capability and an acceptable safety inspection of the transporting vehicle; and must provide an accident emergency plan.

Shipments also may be inspected at any time by state health department personnel.

The battery has been recovered. No arrests have been made, and the larceny is still under investigation.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ever now and then you run across someone in the papers you think has got to be a sick joke. Some years back, for instance, this report came out of a college in Pennsylvania where half a dozen students smoked marijuana and stared at the sun till it put out their eyes. After that story had been in all the papers a professor confessed he had made it up to get kids from messing with drugs. I hope that one the other day about James Brady was somebody's idea of a joke.

The piece said the White House press secretary is suing the company that made the pistol he was shot with for $100 million. Brady is saying, according to the report, that the $39 revolver Hinkley used to try to kill President Reagan was "poorly constructed," and that Brady ought to get damages from the gun company just like folks that get hurt because of bad parts on cars. I have thought this case up one side and down the other, Mister Editor, and I am of a mind that this is the kind of logic that produces the kind of verdict we got from the Hinkley trial. It's the kind that says hot is cold and smart is crazy and that the pore has got to bite the bullet as long as it takes the rich to fix what's wrong in this country.

that used the gun. If we can take doctors to court for not preventing an unwanted child, Bug said, we're getting might close to putting God in the dock. And Bug wondered of any lawyer will take up the case of the first Nobel Sperm Bank baby that is showing uneasy signs of being less than advertised. Bug had saw where the mother of the baby with the genius genes from the Repository of Germinal Choice in California is a ex-convict. Them fellers that put their sperm in that bank are so smart, Bug said, that they can't be bothered with details like the quality of the mother, cause she's just a incubator anyway. You can tell that to the woman judge when the second-generation genius is hauled in for shoplifting and blames a pore choice of parents, Bug said.

Final, Ed Doolittle let the discussion go to the hogs. He had saw where some political consultant claims pig sweat excites folks, and that candidates ought to bottle the stuff and spray it at their rallies. Now, Ed said, everybody that's ever slopped hogs knows they can't sweat, and that may be what the feller was saying about what it takes to get folks worked up.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

I brung up the Brady suit during the session at the country store Saturday night, and it got the fellers off hot weather stories and out of the drink box. Clem Webster said first off it looked to him like Hinkley's gun worked to good for anybody's good. What we got here, Clem said, is a man on the gallows griping about the rotten rope. If Brady gits his $100 million, what award would be fair fer the poor devel that gits his hand blown off by a backfiring Saturday night special he's using to rob his friendly neighborhood liquor store, was what Clem wanted to know.

Actual, Bug Hookum said, Brady could make a stronger case in a suit agin makers of the poorly constructed human being

 FUNERAL HOME

I UNDERSTAND SOME PEOPLE PRE-PLAN THEIR OWN FUNERALS, WHY DO THEY?

Three important reasons come to mind at once. Pre-planning permits free choice, makes one's wishes known, and does away with any possible disagreement among the bereaved as to what to do and how much to spend.

In effect, one eases the burden placed on the immediate family—in terms of both the proper course of action to follow and the peace of mind in knowing that arrangements have been made in advance.

Because we feel that this question may be of value to many residents in the community we serve, we're glad you asked.

We welcome your questions and comments on this and other subjects—privately or publicly, through this column.

50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Jay E. Weinberg of 20056 Old US-12 are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary at an open house at their home from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 22, given in their honor by the Louis Dreyer family and the George Sweeney family.

The Weinbergs were married Aug. 20, 1932 in Detroit at the home of Mrs. Weinberg's sister Stella and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Thorne.

Mr. Weinberg was born in Chelsea. Mrs. Weinberg, the former Luella Cox, was born in Petoskey. They both graduated from Chelsea High school in 1925. The lived on South St. during the early years of their marriage, and moved to their present home in 1941, after purchasing the Weinberg Dairy, founded by Mr. Weinberg's parents in 1917. Mr. Weinberg retired from the dairy business in 1971.

The Weinbergs are members of the United Methodist Church of Chelsea. Mrs. Weinberg is a member of the senior citizens, and was long active in girl scouting and church work. She is a member of the Rebekah Lodge, is a Past Matron of the Eastern Star and is currently active in the Women's Auxiliary of the Ann Arbor Commandery and the Chelsea Past Matrons Club.

Mr. Weinberg has been active in the Masonic Orders for many years. He is a life member and former head officer of the Blue Lodge, Royal Arch Chapter Council and Commandery. He became a member of the Knight York Cross of Honor in 1962 and more recently a member of Hi-12 and senior citizens.

The Weinberg family includes daughters Jana Lou Dreyer of Ann Arbor and the late Doris Kay Sweeney; grand-daughters Luanne Dreyer of New York City, Tina Dreyer of Southfield; grandsons Mark Dreyer of Ann Arbor, Michael Sweeney of Chelsea and Timothy Sweeney of Chelsea.

The Chelsea charter chapter of the American Business Women's Association celebrated their sixth anniversary at their July 27 meeting at Wolverine Lounge.

Kate Quackenbush, the daughter of Gerald and Mickey Quackenbush of 13501 Trinkle, was awarded the $600 Stephen Buffton Memorial Educational Fund scholarship, an award made by the national ABWA. She is attending Ferris State and majoring in hospital management.

The anniversary was commemorated with the lighting of candles and the highlighting of outstanding events of the group in the past six years. Ann Beck of the Apollo chapter in Jackson was a guest for the evening. Member Lena Behnke baked and donated a lovely birthday cake. A congratulatory message from the national headquarters in Kansas City, Mo. was read.

Outgoing president Judy Moisan led the installation of the new officers for the coming year. Mickey Quackenbush will be president; Lena Behnke, vice-president; Martha Powers, recording secretary; Cheryl Nelson, corresponding secretary; and Shirley Case, treasurer.

The next monthly meeting will be held with the Apollo chapter in Jackson Wednesday, Aug. 25 at the Elks Jackson Lodge 113, 310 S. Mechanic. Car pools from the Chelsea chapter will leave the Wolverine parking lot no later than 5:30 p.m.

Extension Service Offers Help for Novice Canners

Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service will again be operating its Free Community Canning Center for the public this year. Its purpose is to give novice canners an opportunity to learn how to can foods safely.

Many hesitate to invest in a pressure canner until its value is demonstrated. Certain foods like green beans and corn require the use of a pressure canner in order to avoid botulism.

Individuals need to bring their own jars, lids, and produce. The Center is equipped with canners and other equipment. Master Canners will teach pressure canning and water bath methods and will be on hand to supervise the participants as they can their own food. Individuals must pre-register to participate. There is no charge for the workshop or use of the equipment.

Last year's donation to the Center enabled several deserving families to add more jars of canned foods to their pantries to provide better nutrition during the winter months. Anyone wishing to make a donation of jars, equipment, produce, or money is urged to respond by contacting the Cooperative Extension Service, P.O. Box 8645, Ann Arbor 48107. The phone number is 973-9510.

The Canning Center is located at Washtenaw County's Service Center, 4133 Washtenaw Ave. For more information and to register call 973-9510.

Canning Center
Calendar

Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service offers free participation workshops for area families to learn the correct and safe way to home can foods. Participants need to bring their own jars, lids, and produce. They will use the Center's canning equipment. Master Canners will teach pressure canning and water bath methods and will supervise the workshops.

Watch this space each week for the schedule of sessions. Pre-registration is requested. To register or for more information call 973-9510. Sessions begin at 9:30 a.m. Address: Washtenaw County Service Center, 4133 Washtenaw Ave., Ann Arbor 48107.

Former Chelsea Resident Authors Two New Books

Nyla (Kurtz) Witmore, a former Chelsea resident during her grade school years of 1947-54, has authored two new paperback books this year. Her first book, "I Was An Over Committed Christian," (Tyndale House), was published in 1979.

"How To Reach the Ones You Love," (Here's Life Publishers), addresses the subject of reaching loved ones with a gentle approach. The author answers the question... "Why is it so hard to share my beliefs and faith with the ones I love most?" In a style reminiscent of Erma Bombeck and Ann Landers, she covers such topics as - Are you a Christian on the offensive... or an offensive Christian? - How do you face rejection? - How can you know when you are pushing too hard? - What can you do about it?

Witmore's third book, recently introduced at the Christian Bookseller's Convention in Dallas, Tex., "Homemaking Programs: Talks and Activities," (Standard Publishing), is a collection of culinary, craft, and homemaking skills to be used by the individual homemaker or groups. A helpful foreword relates the practical helps in organizing, recruiting volunteers, and advertising. For use in women's clubs, mother-daughter groups, or teen clubs, instructions and brief devotional talks are given for the following: budget cooking, bread baking, cake decorating, pie making, needlecrafts, candle-making, flower arranging, grooming and wardrobe selection; money management, simple home repairs, caring for linens, silver and china; entertaining.

Although Mrs. Whitmore's books are usually found in religious bookstores, she writes for secular publications as well and is a popular conference speaker.

'Dealing With Feelings' Program For Senior Citizens

"Dealing With Feelings" will be the topic of a short program presented at the Senior Citizens Meal Programs in Dexter and Chelsea during the month of August.

Staff from the Chelsea Community Hospital Mental Health Program will be identifying topics of interest to area senior citizens and planning future presentations.

Margaret Szymke, RN, and Lucy Miller, RN, will attend the Chelsea Senior Meal Program on Aug. 18 at 11 a.m. located at North Elementary School.

Ruth Christensen, RN, and Mark Ziegler, PhD, will attend the Dexter Senior Meal Program on Wednesday, Aug. 25 at 11 a.m., located at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 8265 Dexter-Chelsea Rd. For further information, contact Margaret Szymke at 475-1311, Ext. 328.

Infant Car Seats Offered Families With Low Income

Infant car seats are now available on a "loaner" basis to low income clients of Washtenaw County Department of Social Services.

"We urge expectant mothers who are DSS clients to contact the office or their case worker to reserve a protective child seat, which is now mandatory under state law," said Polly Helmke, supervisor of DSS volunteer services.

Donated by the Catherine McAuley Health Center Office of Health Promotion, the infant seats are effective to the age of nine months or the weight of 20 lbs.

Noting that car accidents are the leading killer of small children, Helmke said parents should call the DSS office at 994-1879 to arrange an appointment to pick up a seat. A $5 deposit, refunded upon return, is required, Helmke said, adding that seats may be obtained from both the Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti branch offices.

Volunteer Pat Randall, program co-ordinator, handles distribution of the seats and instructs parents on proper usage.

"We are currently well stocked with infant seats, but have a waiting list for 'toddler' (1-4 years) seats," Randall said.

"We would greatly appreciate donations of seats for this age group," she said.

Art Fair Slated For Saturday In Manchester

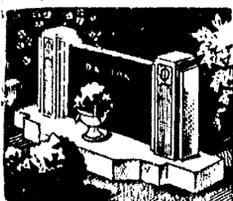

Manchester will be the site of an art fair, Saturday, Aug. 21, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., featuring fine arts booths and heritage craft demonstrations.

Among the artists with booths from Dexter will be Pam Grau with Stoneware pottery, Annelissa Gray-Lion with baskets, and Hal Horton with wooden sculptures. Besides works of artists from Manchester, Chelsea, and Ann Arbor there will be wooden toys from Kalamazoo, wood graphics from Pinckney, and etchings on tree fungus from Gregory.

Heritage craft demonstrations will include basket making, rug brading, rug hooking, spinning and weaving.

The fifth annual Manchester Art Guild Art Fair will be behind the Manchester Middle school, across the street from the Manchester Community Fair which will feature farm animals, home crafts and carnival rides. There is something for everyone in Manchester this Saturday.

The U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs enforces Executive Order 11246, aimed at assuring that contractors using public funds do not discriminate against employees because of race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

William Pierce Named To Head German VFW

William R. Pierce of Chelsea was elected to the office of Department Commander, Department of Germany, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States at its fifth annual convention held in Nuernberg, Germany, June 18, 19 and 20.

Pierce went to Europe in 1977 with his division association (70th Infantry) and decided to stay in Heidelberg, Germany for a few months. Jack Mackey, a long time friend of Pierce, told him they were forming the Department of Germany, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Mackey asked Pierce to change his life membership from Chelsea Post No. 4076 to Heidelberg Post No. 9845 and to assist in the formation of the Department of Germany, VFW. This he did.

Upon the formation of the Department of Germany in late 1977, Pierce was appointed to the position of department chief of staff. He held that position until 1980. On the formation of districts in the Department of Germany, Pierce was elected as the first district commander of District V (Central). In 1981, he was elected to the position of senior vice-commander of the department. He has also been through the chairs and held most positions at the post level.

Although Pierce has belonged to the VFW for many years, he gives Chelsea VFW Post No. 4076 credit for educating him and teaching him the ways of the VFW. Men like Mac Packard, Frank White, Ken Platt, Byron Smith, Kermit Sharp, Laurence Boyer and Fremont Boyer and many other Post members he feels indebted to. The Ladies Auxillary of Chelsea Post 4076 assisted him in many ways. In particular, those assisting him include Eulahlee Packard, Bessie Sharp, Lucy Platt, Betty Smith, Mary Kniss and Gertrude O'Dell. Other area persons also provided Pierce with necessary support.

At the district level, men such as Glenn Carnes have made a big impression on Pierce and, at the state level, Clarence Schumacher, Eric Halverson and Cecil McGoon impressed Pierce very much.

Pierce explains that he is confident about the coming year as he has one of the best Quartermaster/Adjutants in the VFW in Elmer L. "Roy" Matheke. Roy Matheke has had some 35 years experience with the VFW. He spent more than 30 years in the Orient where he held all chair positions of the Post, District and Department of the Pacific Areas. He was department commander of the Pacific Areas in 1968-69. He held the position of Quartermaster/Adjutant of the Pacific Areas for four years prior to transferring to Germany in 1978. He was Department Commander of Germany from 1979 to 1980. In 1980-81 he made All American Department Commander.

Pierce plans on remaining in Europe until late 1984 or early 1985. He is a retired first sergeant from the United States Army with 27 years of active duty. He saw service in World War II (ETO), Korea and Vietnam. Besides service in the United States, he has seen service in France, Germany, Italy, Korea and Vietnam. He has traveled extensively both in service and since retired.

Pierce plans to attend the VFW National Convention in Los Angeles, Calif., from Aug. 13 to Aug. 20. Then he will visit relatives and friends in Colorado, Iowa and Michigan. He will visit his sister Betty A. Freeman of Chelsea in late August and early September and will return to Europe shortly after Labor Day.

School Board
Briefs

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, Aug. 2, were Feeney, Schumann, Dils, Grau, Comeau, Superintendent Van Meer, Assistant Principal Vogel, Athletic Director Nemeth, guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by President Ann Feeney.

A truth-in-taxation public hearing was held. The Board of Education has complete authority to establish that 32.72 mills be levied in 1982 from within its present authorized millage rate.

The high school attendance/discipline report was reviewed with the Board.

Superintendent Van Meer reported that the building trades class will be placed in the Southwest Vocational Consortium; and the class will be held at Dexter with both morning and afternoon sessions for Chelsea students. Agriculture will also be a consortium class, with a class at Saline and a class at Chelsea.

Superintendent Van Meer reported that a mediation session with the CEA is scheduled for Aug. 9, at 7 p.m.

The Board accepted, with regret, the resignation of Kevin Miller, pending the hiring of a suitable replacement. Kevin has accepted a position with the Elmhurst, Ill. school system.

The Board set the date of Aug. 10 for a public meeting for the awarding of the bid on $2,300,000 tax anticipation notes.

The Board declined an offer to purchase the 1981-82 building trades house.

The Board approved the 1982-83 adult high school completion course descriptions and requirements.

Assistant Principal Vogel reported that there will be some minor handbook changes dealing specifically with attendance procedures for 18-year-old students.

Athletic Director Nemeth reported on his recent attendance at a state workshop for state athletic directors.

Superintendent Van Meer reported that, in all probability, because of the special meeting to be held on Aug. 10, there will be no Board meeting on Aug. 16.

Meeting adjourned at 9:14 p.m.

Gregory GreenLeaf, the son of Edwin Greenleaf of 833 S. Main and Shirley GreenLeaf of Brandon, Fla., played basson in the Brandon High School orchestra's performance July 12 at the 11th International Youth and Music Festival, Vienna, Austria.

GreenLeaf, a 16-year-old high school junior, has played saxophone for four years, and bassoon for nine months.

The 72-member Brandon orchestra, which has won superior ratings for nine years in Florida competitions, was one of 50 choral groups, chamber ensembles, and orchestras chosen for the competition. The orchestra also recorded a radio concert to be aired in August during their week-long stay in Vienna.

Orchestra members also toured Frankfurt, Regensburg, Innsbruck, and Heidelberg for five days. This was Greenleaf's first trip to Europe.

A & L Parts Names
Bagierek To Head
Service Department

A & L Parts, Inc. of Ann Arbor has announced the appointment of Lawrence Bagierek as service department supervisor. Bagierek comes to A & L from Firestone of Wyandotte where he was assistant store manager.

A graduate of Eastern Michigan University, Bagierek has had a number of years of experience in the automotive parts and service industry.

In his new position, he will have responsibility for all automotive and light truck repair operations.

A & L has been in the automotive service business for more than 60 years. It specializes in electrical, brake and radiator repairs for businesses and consumers. A & L is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Allied, Inc., of Ann Arbor.

The number of women working in construction and kindred trades increased by 39,000 or 5.1 percent, from July 1980 to July 1981, according to the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs.

Dearborn Heights Man Arrested on Fraudulent Use of Credit Card

Elementary school teachers are right — geography is important. The get-away from a suspected fraudulent use of a credit card was foiled by a wrong turn onto a dead-end street.
 Two men drove into Broderick's Tower Shell station at 1630 S. Main at 9:18 a.m. Aug. 11, and put $40.50 worth of gas into their car. The driver handed the station attendant a credit card, but could not produce a driver's license. While the attendant called the credit card computer, the suspect picked up the card, got into the car and turned right on Brown Dr., which he has said, say the police, to have thought was a freeway ramp.
 Brown Dr. is a dead-end.
 Police chief Robert Aiello was called and he blocked the street with his squad car. He heard a car driving wildly around a corn field. It got stuck, and the passenger took off south to I-94. The suspect, the driver, disappeared into the woods.
 Aiello, Sgt. Lenard McDougall, Officer Glenn Culler, and two sheriff's department deputies searched for the suspects for about three hours. The passenger was found in about 40 minutes, questioned, and released with no charges.
 Through evidence in the vehicle the police learned the identity of the driver and suspected he might be one of those responsible for the automobile break-ins at fishing sites north of town during the past few weeks.
 The credit card, which the suspect attempted to use, was stolen four days earlier from a car at Pickerel Lake.
 The license plate on the car was stolen from a car at South Lake.
 County detectives, who are investigating the fishing site larcenies, arrested a suspect in Dearborn Heights Aug. 12, and returned him to Chelsea for questioning.
 Jesse Lynn Smith, age 26 of Dearborn Heights, was arraigned the morning of Aug. 13 at 14th District Court on the charge of fraudulent use of a credit card, a four-year felony.
 He was remanded to the custody of the county jail, because he could not post bond. No charges have been brought against him by the county at this time.

Local Doctors Attend Scoliosis Symposium

Dr. Warren and Linda Atkinson of the Arbor Vitae Chiropractic Centre have attended a symposium in Orlando, Fla. on Scoliosis (curvature of the spine) recently.
 Chiropractic's leading authority of Scoliosis, Dr. Fred H. Barge, D.C., PH. C. spoke on new studies concerning this crippling ailment, which is eight times more prevalent in young girls (age 10-19) than in their male counterparts. Dr. Barge serves on the board of two chiropractic colleges and is listed in "Who's Who" in Chiropractic and practices in LaCrosse, Wis. His recent book on scoliosis completes a trilogy on chiropractic technique, all of which are currently being used in the curriculums of chiropractic colleges.
 Upon their return, Drs. Atkinson plans to offer free scoliosis screening examinations for a period of one month as a public service.

THE CHELSEA BURN UNIT TEAM is comprised of persons involved in all aspects of a patient's rehabilitation. Dr. Irving Feller, (left) director of the Michigan Burn Center, began his research in 1957 as a resident. Theresa Moray is nursing supervisor, who has also worked with burn patients at St. Joseph's hospital. Mary Haab is burn nurse specialist, and Sheryl Tobes, a rehabilitation social worker, who has been at this burn unit four years.

DELE JACOB FLEW TO METRO AIRPORT FROM NIGERIA. He was burned in a large-scale industrial fire at Johnson Wax Co. plant, and will be leaving the hospital to return home this week.

He is examined on morning rounds by Theresa Moray, nursing supervisor; Mary Haab, burn nurse specialist; and Dr. Irving Feller, director of the Michigan Burn Center.

The patients' weekly group therapy session with the social worker is often joined by those who are back in the hospital for reconstructive surgery.

"They can speak to the fears of new burn patients," said Tobes, "about what it's like out there at the movie theater, the bank and school."

Burn patients have said it's easier to deal with persons who ask questions, said Ms. Tobes, than with persons who just stare and gasp — but they can get tired of being asked questions all the time too!

Burns affect more than the person who suffers them, said Tobes. Family members have concerns about their loved one, and must adjust to changes in the family themselves.

If the relationship was good before, said Ms. Tobes, usually the family can adjust. But if a couple had marital problems before, a severe burn won't make them go away.

Family members who have the hardest adjustment are parents of burned children, she said. "They may have had nothing to do with the injury, but they feel so guilty and responsible."

"If the child is going to do well," she said, "the parents have to resolve their own feelings."

Emotional therapy may be needed long after a patient has left the hospital, said Ms. Tobes. A child burned very young may have problems with his self image during puberty.

There is a natural lull after a few years in the support system of family and friends who rallied during hospitalization, she said. The patient may have an emotional relapse. That is why there is no time limit on therapy available from the Michigan Burn Center.

The Chelsea Burn Unit has the "most beautiful setting" of any facility to treat burns in the country, said Dr. Feller, and that unique aspect to it, would be impossible to duplicate.

"Getting burned is not like having one's appendix out, and going home in two days," he said. The burn patient is in for a long haul.

The Michigan Burn Center sees 220-250 new burn patients from Michigan a year, and sees 250-300 Michigan patients who are returning for reconstructive surgery, says Dr. Feller. They can expand their facilities easily, he said, by adding beds at the three different hospitals, so no one is ever turned away, whether they are from Main St., Chelsea or Lagos, Nigeria.

The last two of the 10 Nigerian patients, who survived that catastrophic fire in June and were treated at the Michigan Burn Center, are due to leave Chelsea and return home Aug. 21.

Ann Arbor Trust Names R. L. Philp Lending Officer

Raymond L. Philp has been elected to the position of assistant vice-president and lending officer in the Commercial Loan Department of the Ann Arbor Trust Co., president George H. Cress announced this week.

Philp has served as associate cashier at the University of Michigan since April of 1981. He is a graduate of Pioneer High school and Eastern Michigan University with a degree in accounting.

Philp worked as a part-time teller at Huron Valley National Bank during his college years. Following graduation in 1972, he was appointed assistant auditor, then auditor before moving up to become assistant vice-president, commercial loans, in 1978.

Can Costs

Food packaging costs vary widely in the U. S. The value of beer containers, for example, is about five times greater than the value of the ingredients in the brew, according to the USDA. The packaging for ready-to-mix desserts, potato chips and soft drinks is worth about twice as much as the foods themselves.

Pre-School Classes Offered By Community Ed. Dept.

Chelsea Community Education Dept. is offering an enrichment program for pre-schoolers this fall, beginning in September. It will offer the community an additional program alternative. There will be two early childhood classes. The class "Learning Through Play" is designed for the three-year-old. "Enrichment for the Pre-Schooler" provides the four-year-old with an introduction to a learning environment.

Both classes will allow the child an opportunity for socialization, group interaction, problem solving, and following directions, under the guidance of a certified, experienced, pre-school teacher.

Stories, music, art, games and creative movement will occupy the two-hour session. Classes will be held at South Elementary school on Tuesday and Thursday mornings for the four-year-olds (9:30-11:30) and Tuesday and Thursday afternoons (12:30-2:30) for the three-year-olds. The initial sessions will run for six weeks. Cost is $35.

STEPHANIE L. GRANT LIKES TO SEW in her spare time — blouses are her specialty. She also likes playing movie themes and top 40 tunes on the piano. She will play "Nadia's Theme" for her talent at the fair queen contest. Stephanie, a 15-year-old sophomore at Chelsea High school, is sponsored by her class. She ran the mile, 1/4 mile and 1/2 mile events on the track team, and also runs cross country. She trains in the early evening, when it's cooler. Her court will be Becky Finch and Tina Paddock. She is the daughter of Lloyd and Linda Grant of 28 Sycamore Dr., and has two younger sisters. Her father will escort her, in this her first pageant.

Laurie Heller ACCOMPANIES HERSELF ON THE PIANO. She sings soprano in the Contemporaries and will sing for her talent competition. Laurie, a junior at Chelsea High school, is sponsored by Terrific Tailors, a sewing 4-H club. She also has beef and dairy cattle, and sheep for the livestock 4-H club Rogers Herdsmen.

She will enter a dairy cow, steer and a pen of market lambs at the fair. She will also enter baking, canning, vegetables, clothing and flowers. She has played basketball and volleyball for the past two years at school, and will be president of the junior class. She is the daughter of Robert and Elise Heller of 1610 Guenther Rd.

CARINE A. BROWN, a 16-year old junior at Chelsea High school, practices her talent competition song "Happily Ever After" from the musical "Upon A Mattress." Carine, sponsored by Class of '84, is the daughter of Robert D. Brown and Penelope Smedley, and the step-daughter of William Smedley. She began work at community education office in July, and sings in the high school vocal group, the Contemporaries, and the school choir. Carine, of 16224 Farnsworth Rd., is a varsity basketball cheerleader and member of the forensics team. After graduation, she would like to be a cosmetologist and own her own beauty salon. She will be entering ink and pencil drawings in the fair and possibly have a booth with her grandmother to sell art and craft work. Her court will be Carol Stirling and Terri Bort.

Rattlesnake Captured at South Lake

Leo Wroubel of 5010 South Lake didn't give too much thought to the coiled snake he stepped over on the stairs outside his home Saturday morning. He had just awakened, and assumed it was a water snake.

But thinking about it later while he was measuring a cottage near his home for repairs, he realized it was unusual — it wasn't anywhere near the water, and sunning itself on the cement stairs just like a rattlesnake. Sure enough, it rattled like crazy when Wroubel prodded it, accompanied by his wife Mary Ann and neighbor Scott Cook, who had been helping him at the cottage. Then, they all jumped.

Wroubel got a wheat shovel; Cook got a spade and 20-gallon plastic bucket. Although the snake was passive earlier, it kept slithering off the shovel and out of the bucket. It took Wroubel and Cook, who were giving the snake a healthy distance, about 15 minutes to secure it.

Wroubel says he will try to keep the snake alive for a few days, until he can contact the Department of Natural Resources.

The U.S. Department of Labor's Employment Standards Administration administers more than 90 laws affecting American workers and employers, including wage and hour laws, the executive order requiring affirmative action in federal contracts, and various worker's compensation programs.

A MASSASAUGA RATTLESNAKE was found sunning itself on cement steps near Leo Wroubel's home Saturday. Neighbor Scott Cook holds the plastic bucket they captured it in, and Wroubel shows off the snake, which he eventually killed at the suggestion of the Department of Natural Resources.

No Encephalitis Found in This Area Fire Dept. Reports 24 Calls in July

That cold weather in the last week has killed off some of the county's large mosquito population, and fewer mosquitoes is good news about mosquito-borne encephalitis. The county health department has been trapping, testing, and releasing sparrows, who can be carriers of the disease but are not affected by it, at five different sites, all around Chelsea. They haven't found any birds with the virus in their blood yet, but August tends to be the month, Barry Johnson, county public health engineer, has said, with the greatest risk of spreading encephalitis, until the first frost comes. News reports from Georgia and Florida about outbreaks of encephalitis should be of no concern here, said Johnson. During spring bird migration from the South, that might be a different story. One sparrow (out of 600) tested in 12 counties, has shown signs of

The Chelsea Fire Department made 24 runs in July, most of which were rescue runs. Year-to-date runs total 188, up from the 1981 figure of 171 runs. Eleven runs were made within Sylvan township, which also had the most man hours, totaling 251 paid hours. Chelsea had 7 calls, 67 hours. Lima township had 1 call, 13 hours. Dexter township had 4 calls, 29 hours. Waterloo had 1 call, 7 hours. Other than rescue runs, the types of calls were varied; wires arcing, a personal injury accident, car fire, house fire, truck fire, grass fire, and wash down of a roadway. Fire department personnel also attended a county mutual aid meeting; watered the fair grounds; helped with 4th of July activities; at the fair grounds, went to Safety Town classes; watered the ball fields; took a trip to Grand Rapids checking on the new fire truck, and attendance at the Southern Michigan Association of Fire Chiefs and Donated man hours totaled 130.

Ricardo's Takes Slow-Pitch League Championship

Ricardo's won the men's slow-pitch softball championship for the second year in succession by defeating Chelsea Merchants 5-4 and 14-3, in a best-two-out-of-three games playoff Monday, Aug. 9 at Beach school field.

Both teams scored two runs apiece in the first inning of the first game, which was close throughout. Chelsea Merchants scored two more runs in the second inning, giving them a 4-2 advantage, which they held until the fifth inning.

Ricardo's scored three runs to take a 5-4 lead, which they held onto for the rest of the game. Winning pitcher for Ricardo's was Paul Stahl.

Ricardo's second baseman Steve Kincer and outfielder Chuck Slane were singled out by team manager and first baseman Bob Taylor, for their fine plays, which halted Chelsea Merchants' rallies. Kincer jumped up high in the air to catch what would have otherwise been a scoring hit. Slane made a diving catch in the outfield.

Ricardo's didn't take much time getting a big lead in the second game, played right after the first. They scored three runs in the first inning, to go ahead 3-1. They held Chelsea Merchants scoreless in the second, but scored eight runs themselves. Chelsea scored runs in the third and fifth innings, but couldn't dent that whopping lead. Ricardo's scored two runs in the fourth inning, and one in the sixth. They did not bat in the seventh.

Danny Allen, the winning pitcher, hit a home run and two singles. Outfielder Eddie Schwartzberger turned a "sure" run into an out at third, said Taylor, with fantastic fielding and throwing to the baseman.

"We were just hitting the ball like crazy," said Taylor, citing Ricardo's offense as the key to winning.

Both teams had 12-2 records in regular season play — splitting with each other. Chelsea Merchants lost to Jiffy Mix, and Ricardo's lost to 3D.

There is a traditional rivalry between the two teams, says Taylor, although the teams have played under different sponsors. Last year's final season game between them decided the league championship.

The players in the league, for men 18 years and older, would like to say thank you to their sponsors, said Taylor. The season began in mid-June after school let out, and finished with a fun tournament Saturday, Aug. 14 at Beach school.

Picnic Slated for Senior Citizens

The Senior Citizens will have a picnic from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 19 at Pierce Park.

A picnic lunch will be served at noon, followed by group activities. The picnic is co-sponsored by the nutrition program. A donation of $1 is suggested for those over 60 and $2.50 for those under 60.

The rain location is North school. Call the center at 475-9242 if the weather is questionable.

Matt Hueman, a naturalist for the Ann Arbor Parks and Recreation department, will present a short program for the senior citizens at 11 a.m. Aug. 24.

THIRD BASEMAN TIM SWEENEY MAKES AN OUT for Mark IV Lounge at Saturday's men's slowpitch softball league tournament at Beach school field.

Cross Country Teams Attending Training Camp

The cross country teams are taking their annual fall training/orientation camp to get to know each other and to keep up the team spirit this week near Big Rapids on the Little Muskegon River.

They camp out — no electricity, but they do have running water. They work out twice a day, once in the morning as a conditioning workout and once as a team. Coach Pat Clarke usually tries to make the afternoon practices less routine, such as having a race where the fastest runners start the furthest from the camp, so all runners finish at about the same time.

Clarke will chaperone the group along with Ron Nemeth, the athletic director, and his wife.

Jim Ritter Places 2nd in Golf Tourney

Jim Ritter of 50 Chestnut took second place, the Golden Masters division (boys 16-18 years of age), in the county finals of the Walter Hagen Junior Golf Tournament Aug. 9 at the University of Michigan golf course in Ann Arbor.

Jeff Eccleton of Stockbridge won that division and had the low score of the day with 81 for 18 holes. Ritter shot 85. Mike Carignan of Gregory shot 96, and Todd Hollister of Dexter shot 98 in the Master's division, boys 13-15 years of age.

Jeff Mlehe of Ann Arbor shot 87, a very good score for the day and for his age group, boys 12 and under.

Walter Hagen was a professional golfer who died of cancer, and this tournament is sponsored by the American Cancer Society. Preliminaries began in mid-July. Golfers could play a round at one of four selected county golf courses. The best three scores for each course qualified for the county finals, which have been held for two years.

The top player in each division of the five counties which held finals, qualified for the state finals, which were held for the first time Monday, Aug. 16 at the U. of M. course.

The Walter Hagen tournament has grown from 22 county players last year to 50 entries this year. Peg Molin, the volunteer who worked with the tournament, would like to encourage more girls to enter, since several girls' divisions had no contestants.

Jiffy Mix Wins Softball Tournament

Jiffy Mix won the men's slow-pitch softball league tournament Saturday, Aug. 14 in an exciting, come-from-behind final, 9-8 over Sweepsters at Beach school field.

Jiffy Mix was down 7-1 in the third inning, then 3-8 in the fifth. They scored two runs in the sixth to make it 5-8. They batted in the bottom of the seventh, and scored four runs to win the game.

Jiffy Mix beat Ricardo's, the league season winner, 6-3, in their first game of the day. Chelsea Glass beat 3D, 12-11 in an 11-inning first game.

Mark IV beat Inverness Inn, 9-4, and Sweepsters got a forfeit from Chelsea Merchants in later first round games.

Jiffy Mix beat Chelsea Glass 11-8, in the second round, and Sweepsters beat Mark IV, 4-3, to make the finals.

Girls Softball Team Wins Ann Arbor League

The undefeated Chelsea 13-15-year old girls fastpitch softball team had no troubles playing on Friday, the 13th.

Michigan Youth Wins National Honor

Perry Storms of Centreville took top honors in youth competition during the recent 1982 National Institute on Co-operative Education held at Purdue University. Storms came out on top of national competition based on his knowledge of co-operatives. Youth participating in the contest were judged by written examination as well as personal interviews.

His participation in the institute was sponsored by Production Credit Association of Kalamazoo, Federal Land Bank Association of Three Rivers and the Constantine Co-op, Inc.

They played so well in their two games at Veteran's park in Ann Arbor against an Ann Arbor team, that their games were shortened by softball's "mercy" rule, which limits a game to five innings if a team is leading by 10 or more runs at the end of the fifth inning.

They beat the team coached by Tom Burns 14-0, with Beth Unterbrink as the winning pitcher, and 17-4, with Trish Lapairez as winning pitcher.

They are the league champions in the Ann Arbor travel league with a season record of 11-0, and are coached by Pat Clarke.

Federal Land Bank Lowers Loan Fee

The Federal Land Bank of Saint Paul has announced a reduction of its bank loan fee from 4 percent to 3 percent effective with all loans closed on or after July 22.

D. M. "Woody" Engelking, vice-president and treasurer, financial division, in making the announcement, cited lower bond rates and their stabilization during the past several months as one of the primary reasons for the reduction. In addition to this downward trend, the decision by the Bank Executive Committee and the Board of Directors was also based on the FLB pricing philosophy. This philosophy states basically that the Bank shall price close to market, using a loan rate and loan fee combination.

The bank loan fee is charged on net new money and helps to ensure the continued financial strength of the bank while allowing it to hold interest rates for as long as possible for existing borrowers.

The Federal Land Bank of Saint Paul is a federally-chartered, privately funded financial services corporation with an outstanding loan volume of more than $6.6 billion and over 87,000 member-borrowers. It has served farmers and ranchers in Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota and Wisconsin for over 65 years.

Air Compressor Specialist Joins A & L Parts

Edward Rybarczyk has recently joined Allied, Inc. of Ann Arbor as a sales engineer in its equipment division. Rybarczyk will specialize in air compressor sales and service in southeastern Michigan and northwest Ohio.

Rybarczyk comes to Allied, Inc. with many years of air compressor and fluid power sales and service experience having been employed by several Toledo firms.

The Allied, Inc. Equipment Division is the largest Weaver hoist distributor in the U.S.A. but also sells and services lubrication equipment, compressors and a complete line of equipment used in commercial garages. Allied, Inc. is the parent company of A & L Parts, Inc.

MSU Offers Michigan District Maps

A set of three Michigan maps of the state's new House, Senate and congressional districts is now available from Michigan State University's Labor Program Service.

The unmounted 35" x 50" maps, based on the 1980 census, include all county and township names. They are available from the Labor Program Service, School of Labor and Industrial Relations, MSU, East Lansing 48824. The cost for all three is $10.

THE SENIOR CLASS WANTS TO WIN THE FAIR FLOAT CONTEST AGAIN! They have won it for the past three years as freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Brad Myers, Kathy Degener, and Cindy Connell are madly stuffing paper in chicken wire, hoping for a four-year sweep.

Nature Bike Tour Slated Sunday at Hudson Mills Park

"See Nature By Bike," a family nature program, will be held at the Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter on Sunday, Aug. 22 at 10 a.m.

Naturalist Julie Cerbus will lead a three-mile bike tour to observe the plants and animals of the park. Participants must bring a bike and meet near the nature trail sign at the Oak Meadows picnic area.

This program is "free," however, advance registration is required.

For information/registration—contact the Nature Center at Kensington Metropark—Phone 685-1561 (Milford).

St. Joe's Benefit Dance Planned

Lester Lanin and his 15-piece "big band" orchestra will return to perform for the seventh annual "St. Joe's Benefit," announces 1982 chairperson Mrs. John B. (Marnee) DeVine.

Presented by the Catherine McAuley Health Center, which includes both St. Joseph Mercy and Mercywood Hospitals, the event will be held Saturday, Dec. 4, in the Michigan League.

"The Benefit Committee, composed of community volunteers, is already at work on plans for the special event and has selected 'St. Joe's Celebrates a Holiday Fantasy' as this year's theme," DeVine said.

"We're fortunate to have active again many of the individuals who volunteered so much time and skill for last year's dinner-dance, in addition to several persons participating for the first time," DeVine stated. She announced that Carl J. Frelwald, Jr., will again head the decorations committee, and John F. Daly will chair the ticket committee.

DeVine reported that proceeds will support the "Code '90" effort at the health center. Code '90, she pointed out, is designed to help retain key health care professionals and also to attract first-rate personnel. Noting that the 1981 benefit raised more than $150,000 for Code '90, DeVine said, "The shortage of nurses, respiratory therapists and others is a national problem that is certain to affect health care delivery in our community unless we support efforts to prevent it."

Further information concerning the benefit may be obtained by contacting Helen B. Mann, assistant to the vice-president for advancement, at 572-4043.

encephalitis. That sparrow was found in Monroe county.

Horses may be vaccinated against the disease. One human and some 140 horses have died from it in the state during the past two years.

Sparrows are good birds for testing, said Johnson, because they are relatively easy to catch and live close to people. Health department personnel put feed in wire cages, which the birds can get into, but not out of.

Depending on the weather, said Johnson, testing will continue until the first part of September.

Administrative complaints were filed against 13 companies in 1981 as the result of actions by the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, according to the department's annual report.

Zoning Board of Appeals

Minutes. August 3, 1982

The meeting was called to order at 9:00 p.m. by Chairman Merkel.

Present: Chairman Merkel, Secretary Rosentreter and Administrator Weber.

Members Present: Chriswell, Keezer, Merkel, Riemenschneider and Satterthwaite.

Others Present: Lloyd Grau, Fred Harris, John Popovich, and Emmett Hanker.

The Zoning Board of Appeals meeting of July 6, 1982 minutes were read.

Motion by Riemenschneider, supported by Satterthwaite, to approve the minutes as read. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried.

A public hearing was held to consider a variance from the Zoning Ordinance which would permit the Fair Board to build a fence in the front yard of the fairgrounds with barbed wire along the top, and to allow barbed wire along the top of any other proposed fence which the Fair Board may erect around their property. A letter was read from Darin Roberts of 527 Wilkinson Street objecting to the variance (Attached to these minutes as Appendix A). R. Steger spoke in opposition to barbed wire and informed the Council that the Fair Board had proceeded with construction of the fence prior to the hearing, noting that this was a gross violation of the Zoning Ordinance. John Popovich spoke in favor of granting a variance to erect a fence with barbed wire.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, a public hearing was held in accordance with Article VII of the Zoning Ordinance (Ordinance No. 79), on the application of the Chelsea Fair Board for a variance from the provisions of Section 5.14 B and D of said Ordinance No. 79; and

WHEREAS, oral and written statements in opposition and in favor of granting the variance were considered; now;

BE IT RESOLVED, that this Zoning Board of Appeals grant unto the Chelsea Fair Board a variance from the provisions of Section 5.14 B and D of the Zoning Ordinance (Ordinance No. 79) to allow a six (6) foot high woven wire fence in the front yard of the Fair Board property with barbed wire along the top and to allow barbed wire to be placed along the top of other proposed fences around the perimeter of the fairgrounds; and;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that in granting this variance, this Board of Appeals recognizes that special conditions and circumstances exist which are peculiar to the land and structures of the Fair Board which are not applicable to other lands and structures in the same district.

Motion by Satterthwaite, supported by Merkel, to adopt the above Resolution as read granting a variance to the Chelsea Fair Board request. Roll call: Ayes—Keezer, Merkel, Riemenschneider and Satterthwaite. Nays—Chriswell. Motion carried. Resolution adopted.

Motion by Keezer, supported by Chriswell, to authorize the Chelsea Fair Board to hold a Carnival at the Chelsea fairgrounds for the period of August 31 thru September 4, 1982. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried.

Motion by Keezer, supported by Merkel, to adjourn. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned.

Evelyn Rosentreter, Secretary.

THIS 24-INCH TELESCOPE at Peach Mountain Observatory in Dexter township, being used here by University Lowbrow astronomer Doug Nelle of Ann Arbor, will be used by persons going to the Comet Austin open house.

Open House Slated To View Comet

"The place" to view Comet Austin, visible in this area Aug. 18 to 22, will be at a Peach Mountain Observatory open house in Dexter township, about 9:30 p.m. Aug. 21.

The open house, sponsored by the University Lowbrow Astronomers from sundown (about 8:30 p.m.) to sunrise so other celestial goodies can also be seen, will be called off, if it is cloudy at sunset.

The comet, discovered by an amateur New Zealand astronomer in June, will be only "marginally" visible to the naked eye, says Jim Loudon, staff astronomer for the University of Michigan Exhibit Museum, but one could get a nice view of it through a telescope, such as the 24-inch diameter one at Peach Mountain.

"A whole generation has grown up without seeing a comet," says Loudon, since there hasn't been a truly spectacular comet in the evening sky since 1957.

Comets are known to be unpredictable — they have completely disappeared or gotten 10,000 times brighter in one day. Loudon says there is only a small chance that Comet Austin would "flare."

Although the 19th century had much more spectacular comets

Rev. Ira W. Cargo

West Methodist Minister
Conference Dies at 96

The Rev. Ira Wiles Cargo died Wednesday evening, Aug. 11 at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement home. He was 96, and the oldest Methodist minister in the Detroit conference.

He was born Jan. 11, 1886 in Barry county, Mich. to Iris William and Mary Adell Wiles Cargo. He was the eldest of their three children.

He married Nina Belle Lathrop, also of Barry county, in 1919. She pre-deceased him in 1978, the year of his 62nd anniversary. The Rev. Cargo's sister, Dr. Ruth Elizabeth Cargo, a professor at Adrian college and also a resident of the Chelsea home, died in 1974. His brother William Cargo, agricultural specialist for the state, died in 1979 in Brighton.

The Rev. Cargo attended Michigan Agricultural College (now Michigan State University), Adrian College, and Drew Theological Seminary. His first pastorate in more than 70 years of ministry was in Romulus; then Detroit Kercheval Avenue, 1915-17; Clarkston, 1917-22; Cass City, 1922-27; Fenton, 1927-35; Gladstone, 1935-39; and Fowlerville, 1939-54.

He retired in 1964 from the Detroit Conference of the United Methodist Church, but continued an active ministry and church work for 25 years during his "retirement" in Florida.

He preached a memorable sermon on his 90th birthday at the Methodist church in St. Cloud, Fla., and his last sermon at age 94 at Jefferson Avenue United Methodist church in Detroit.

During World War I he was a chaplain at Camp Custer, near Battle Creek. His Fenton congregation rebuilt their sanctuary destroyed by fire during the Depression. He organized community clubs, Boy Scout activities, and camps and retreats for young people. He could read the Bible in both Greek and Hebrew.

His personal philosophy was, "Preach the Gospel, and love the people."

He is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Cargo of St. Petersburg, Fla.; his son and daughter-in-law, Ambassador (retired) and Mrs. William I. Cargo of Arlington, Va.; his daughter-in-law, the Rev. Martha H. Cargo of Detroit, the wife of his late son, the Rev. Paul M. Cargo; his sister-in-law, Mrs. William Cargo of Brighton; 11 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were made by Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home, Chelsea.

R. A. Haselschwerdt

8440 Chelsea-Manchester Rd.
Manchester

Ray A. Haselschwerdt, 89, a life-long Sharon township resident and farmer, died Friday, Aug. 13, at Chelsea Community Hospital following an extended illness. He was born June 1, 1893 in Sharon township the son of Conrad and Eliza Ortbring Haselschwerdt. He was married to Inez Alber on March 4, 1917; she survives. He was a member of the Manchester United Methodist church.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by two sons, Ronald of Jackson and Duane of Manchester; two daughters, Mrs. Richard (Ruth) Barton of Stockbridge, and Mrs. Sam (Elaine) Cushman of Jackson; six grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by two sisters and four brothers.

Funeral services were held Monday, Aug. 16 at 3:30 p.m. at the Jenter Funeral Home, Manchester, with the Rev. Thomas Hart officiating. Burial followed in Oak Grove Cemetery, Chelsea.

Gertrude A. Pratt

805 W. Middle St., Chelsea
(Formerly of Manchester)

Mrs. Gertrude A. Pratt, 805 W. Middle St., Chelsea, formerly of Manchester, age 91, died Thursday, Aug. 12, at Chelsea Community Hospital following a brief illness.

She was born June 5, 1891, the daughter of William and Anna Greve. She was married to John Pratt on Feb. 26, 1914; he preceded her in death on Aug. 12, 1966. She was a member of the Manchester United Methodist church and had been a resident of the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home for several years.

Survivors include: three sons, James, Robert and Ellis all of Manchester; 12 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; also several nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by five sisters.

Funeral services were held Monday, Aug. 16, at the Jenter Funeral Home, Manchester, with the Rev. Thomas Hart and the Rev. Michael Mazer officiating. Burial followed in Rowes Corner Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the Manchester United Methodist church or the Chelsea Methodist Retirement Home.

The U.S. Department of Labor used strike forces to reduce minimum wage and overtime violations in specific industries in New York, Philadelphia, New Orleans, Denver, Los Angeles and San Francisco during the 1981 fiscal year, according to the department's annual report.

Edward Paice

Rene Marie and Robin Lee Mason, the infant twin children of Richard and Cathleen (Martin) Mason of 10415 Territorial Rd. in Munith, died shortly after birth Tuesday, Aug. 10 at the University of Michigan Women's Hospital.

Surviving the twins are their parents; step-sister Cindy Mason, also of 10415 Territorial Rd.; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin of Pontiac; and paternal grandmother, Mrs. Christine Mason of Garden City.

Funeral arrangements were handled by Burghardt-Cole Chelsea Funeral Chapel.

Manchester Fair Livestock Auction Slated Thursday

Nearly 60 head of livestock will be sold at the annual Manchester Fair Auction beginning at 8 p.m., Thursday, Aug. 19.

To be sold are 38 live lambs and 20 steers. These animals were raised by local youth between the ages of 10 and 17. A club steer will also be sold in quarters and for the first time, two club lambs will be sold in halves. Auctioneer will be Dale Heselschwerdt from Napoleon Livestock. Prospective bidders may inspect the animals at the fair.

Nature Walk Slated Aug. 24 at Nudson Mills Park

"Sights and Sounds of Summer Insects," a family nature walk, will be held at the Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter on Tuesday, Aug. 24, at 10 a.m.

Naturalist Julie Cerbus will lead a 1½-hour nature walk through the fields and woods to search for butterflies, beetles, grasshoppers, and other insects of the summer season. Insect repellent is suggested and persons should meet at the nature trail sign at Hudson Mills.

This program is "free," however, advance registration is required.

For information/registration—contact the Nature Center at Kensington Metropark—Phone 685-1561 (Milford).

A vehicle entry permit is required (Annual: regular - $7, senior citizens - $2 or daily - $2).

Linda Wiedmayer Attending Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp

Attending Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp for the fourth summer session is Linda Wiedmayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wiedmayer, 3725 Notten Rd. She is studying in the orchestra division.

Blue Lake which hosts approximately 3,850 elementary through high school students this summer, offers instruction in a wide variety of fine arts.

Located 15 miles north of Muskegon in the Manistee National Forest, the 16-year-old summer school of the arts has grown to be one of the largest facilities of its type in the United States.

Students attending Blue Lake's fourth session have the option of majoring in art, band, jazz ensemble, orchestra, organ, piano and theatre. The fourth session is primarily for senior high students.

Soil Conservation District Plans Fall Tree Sale

The Board of Directors of the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District has announced that the District will hold a "Fall" Tree Seedling Sale. This is the third time this program has been offered to the citizens of Washtenaw county, in addition to the annual Spring Sale.

Many inquiries have been received by the District concerning the availability of tree seedlings this fall. The Board of Directors is pleased to accommodate this interest, and to encourage the planting of trees for reforestation, soil conservation, wildlife habitat, windbreaks and aesthetic purposes.

Eight tree species will be available: Austrian Pine, Red Pine, Scotch Pine, White Pine, Norway Spruce, Colorado Blue Spruce, White Spruce and Douglas Fir. Orders with payment in full will be accepted until Friday, Oct. 8. The trees may be picked up on Tuesday, Oct. 19 or Wednesday, Oct. 20, at the Conservation District Office, between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

For more information and to obtain order forms, contact the SCD Office, 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor, ½ mile West of Zeeb Rd., telephone: (313) 761-6721.
