Dexter Twp. Zoning Board Turns Down 'Anti-Keyholing' Plan

Before an overflow crowd of nearly 200 people the Dexter township zoning board rejected a proposed "keyhole" zoning ordinance.

The public hearing was held on Monday, Aug. 16 at the Dexter Township Hall on Dexter-Pinckney Rd. The proposed P-5 ordinance (Private Sites dedicated to common use) was submitted by a group of area lake associations as well as a number of lake residents.

Purpose of the public hearing was to receive citizen input so that the zoning board could formulate a recommendation to the township board on the ordinance adoption.

The crowd voiced overwhelming support for passage of the ordinance. A number of statements were made by representatives of the various organizations. An opening statement was made by Phil Kearney, president of the Silver Lake Association and representative of the Dexter Township Lakes Management Group. Supporting statements were offered by representatives of other area associations, including Bob McAlpine, president of the Michigan Lakes and Streams Association, and Rene Warren of the North Lake Protection Association.

All expressed a collective concern for potential over-crowding and for the preservation of the lake lands and the quality of life the lake residents have become accustomed to.

The P-5 ordinance would restrict the common use of small lake frontage lots by a larger housing development.

The zoning board's reason for the rejection, according to zoning board chairman Charles R. Thomas, was two-fold. According to Thomas the zoning board was "pushed in a hurry without time to consider whether there are easier and better ways." Thomas stated that the board also questioned the Load Limit Factor insertion in the proposed ordinance.

Ordinance supporters, however, stated that research and preparation began almost five years ago and cited legal comment from the Michigan Township's Association attorney Philip D. Schaefer who in a letter to Dexter Township Supervisor Arlene Howe, stated "the approach which you have taken is a good one, particularly with respect to the load limit factors which you have built in."

The problem of "keyholing" or "funneling" is fairly new and as yet unresolved judicially for the most part.

However, according to Bob McAlpine, Michigan Lakes and Streams Association president, a recent State Supreme Court decision favored the Houghton Lake Property Owners Association in a suit which upheld a local court decision that a residential single family lake lot could not be used for non-riparian owners.

Also cited by Michigan Township attorney Philip Schaefer is the fact that the State Constitution provides that "the conservation and development of the natural resources of the state are hereby declared to be of paramount public concern in the interest of the health, safety and general welfare of the people. The legislature shall provide for the protection of the air, water and other natural resources of the state from pollution, impairment and destruction."

The "keyholing" ordinance had become a volatile issue in the recent primary election. Republican primary winners James Drolet and Doug Smith conducted a campaign based largely on their support of legislation favoring lake owners and lake preservation. They will compete against Democratic candidate John Scriven for two vacant trustee seats on the Dexter township Board in the November election.

The Dexter Township Zoning Board recommendation has been forwarded to the Washtenaw County Planning Commission for their recommendation. The final acceptance or rejection of the proposed P-5 ordinance will then be put to the Dexter Township Board.

Chelsea Co-Op Nursery Observing 25th Anniversary

How appropriate that Chelsea Co-op Nursery, which celebrated its 25th anniversary this spring, is located in a building steeped in educational history!

The nursery, which was begun in 1957 by 18 charter members, spent its first year in the Chelsea municipal building, but moved the next year to its present location at 11000 Dexter-Chelsea Rd., a site where a log cabin was built in 1854 as a schoolhouse by Lima township District No. 2.

That cabin and the building that followed it sometime before 1881, were constructed by parent-volunteers. The school had no name, until the present building was constructed in 1916, and named "Beach School", after a family on Dexter-Chelsea Rd. that had resided for the most time in the school district. (Dwight E. Beach middle school was named for a different Beach family.)

The charter member-parents furnished the building when they moved in with funds they had raised with bake sales, a hobo breakfast, and a fair booth. They repaired second-hand furniture and made new furniture themselves.

The co-op nursery used the building rent-free from the Chelsea school district for a few years, and later rented it for a small fee from some private owners. In 1963 the nursery purchased the "little red schoolhouse" by the railroad tracks from owner Charles A. Powers for $2,500.

They named it for Florence Howlett, a long time Chelsea teacher, who was 95 years of age at the time. Mrs. Howlett, now deceased, was born in 1867 and graduated from Chelsea High school in 1885. Her first teaching certificate, called a "first grade certificate" and issued by the county, allowed her to teach for two years in a rural school. She received her life certificate from Eastern Michigan University in 1920.

The Florence Howlett school has grown in enrollment through the years to its present capacity of 60 students in three classes.

The first teacher for the Chelsea Co-op Nursery was Mrs. Raymond Schairer, called "Miss Jane" by the children. She taught for nine years, until 1967, when Virginia Meyer began her 10 years of teaching. Dottie Schaff and Pam Zahn taught until 1980. Sherry Jones now teaches both a morning and afternoon session for four-year-olds. Marsha Hansen teaches the morning three-year-old class. Two parents help out during each class.

The goal of the nursery has been to provide a warm, friendly environment for pre-schoolers, says Diane Rinn. Children learn to play and get along with other children, to share and to take turns.

The children learn to listen and express themselves. Each year they develop more independence, says Mrs. Rinn, which helps ready them for kindergarten, and to have more self-confidence when they go to elementary school.

Parents learn also — they understand their child better after observing his interactions with others at nursery school, she said. The school is a way for

Pair Wins Horseshoe Pitching Event

For the second consecutive year Merle Sibley and Jim Daniels of Chelsea have won the Manchester Fair doubles horseshoe pitching contest.

The route to victory in the 12-team event was marked by a win over this year's official Michigan State doubles champs.

Sibley and Daniels came back through the loser's bracket in the double-elimination event to capture the title.

The two give much of the credit for their double win to the fact they are able to pitch year-round at the state's only indoor court, located in the basement of Foster's store here in Chelsea. The court was installed six years ago in the unused basement section of the store and boasts three regulation size all-clay pits.

Anyone in the area interested in joining the half-dozen regulars who use the facility should contact either Sibley or Daniels.

Radloff, Machnik Take Village Posts

Herman Radloff was named village trustee Aug. 17 to finish out John Popovich's term, and Arthur Machnik was named to the planning commission.

Radloff, of 413 Madison, ran for trustee in the March election. He would like to see Chelsea "grow carefully."

A strong downtown business community, he says, and the future of the landfill are major concerns of his.

Chelsea has two special resources in the community hospital and the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement home, said Radloff, 54, the sales manager for Killins Concrete Co. in Ann Arbor, and he would like to see both stay beautiful and grow if they want to.

He moved to Chelsea with his wife Margaret and five children three years ago. He is a member of the Kiwanis Club, and is on the board of trustees for First United Methodist church. He grew up in Methodist church. He grew up in terent places within the county since. He had a milk route here with Wilson Dairy, and became interested in moving here then, because as he says, "The people here are the friendliest in the county."

Art Machnik's major concern as a planning commission member is keeping industry here and developing sites for more.

"We have to have jobs for our young people," he says, "or we will lose them all."

Machnik, 53 years of age, grew up on a farm north of town and is a residential builder, with his own firm, Machnick Construction. He was a union bricklayer at age 16, and working at different sites in this area, he says, exposed him to many planning issues.

He is on a village board for the first time. He, his wife Lola, and their five children reside at 522 Wilkinston.

Head-On Crash Injures 6 on M-52

Paul Prentice was listed in fair condition at University of Michigan hospital yesterday following a head-on collision at 9:10 p.m. Friday, Aug. 20 on M-52 between Werkner and Waterloo Rds.

Prentice, 41, was driving southbound in the northbound lane, according to county sheriff reports, when his car crashed into one driven by the Robert Weber family of Owosso.

Robert Weber is listed in good and stable condition at Chelsea

Community Hospital, where he was taken Friday. His wife Rosa and three children Mark, 2, Sarah, 6, and Eric, 7, have been released from the Chelsea hospital. Weber is the brother of Fritz, Mary and Bill Weber.

Two other cars were forced off the road. The car in front of the Webers swerved into the roadside ditch, but Weber didn't have enough time.

The Chelsea rescue squad and police department assisted at the scene of the accident.

Kiddie Parade Kicks Off Fair Next Tuesday

Children from the Chelsea-Dexter communities are invited to kick-off the fair by marching in the children's parade, 6 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 31.

The children will be joined by the Beach Middle school band, which has marched in the parade for more than 10 years. Children will march by age groups, interspersed with fair queen candidates, who will ride in convertibles with their escorts. Fat Bob, the singing plumber, who will be master of ceremonies at the queen contest, will also ride, in a yellow 1957 convertible.

Children who wish to be judged by three members of the Chelsea community on the originality and neatness of their costumes, should be in the municipal parking lot at 5:15. Judging will be done between 5:30 and 6 p.m.

Children may walk, ride their bicycles or tricycles, pull wagons or carts, but horses or motorized vehicles are not permitted.

The four categories of competition are three- to five-year-olds, six- to eight-year-olds, nine- to 12-year-olds, and miscellaneous, mixed. Premiums for all the categories are $5 for first, $3 for second, and $2 for third.

Winners of the past include children dressed up as Star Wars characters, the Chelsea clocktower, toothbrushes, and Snoopy riding a bicycle. The parade usually attracts several hundred entrants.

The parade will start on E. Middle St., and go down Main St. to the fairgrounds. Members of the Kiwanis Club, which sponsors the parade, will walk with the children's groups. The police will have the parade streets blocked off.

Call Paul Schaible, superintendent of the event, at 475-1355 for information, or the fair office at 475-1970.

Horse Stalls Still Available For Chelsea Fair

Chelsea Fair horse division exhibitors 18 and under or a 1982 high school graduate, are advised that there are still stalls available for this year's Fair which will run from Aug. 31 to Sept. 4.

Anyone interested should call Mrs. Judy Long at 665-3070 to reserve their stall now.

Dr. Mary Westhoff Is Chelsea's First Full-Time Pediatrician

What kept Dr. Mary Westhoff, the first pediatrician to set up full-time private practice in Chelsea, going through 8 years of sleepless nights during medical training, was the resiliency, growth, and development of children.

She would see a child walk out of the hospital, who had been admitted with seizures from meningitis. That premature baby whom Westhoff had stayed up with all night for nights on end in the neonatal care nursery would chatter away as a two-year old.

Mott Hospital, where she did her pediatric residency, has a continuity clinic, in which the residents follow children for several years at annual check-ups, at the walk-in clinic, or when they admitted to the hospital. Westhoff followed 100-150 children there, and many of whom are following her to her Chelsea practice, now temporarily at Chelsea Community Hospital, until her office in leased space at Beach school opens in September. She will have staff privileges at both Mott and Chelsea Community Hospital.

"It's as important to learn to follow a child's growth and development," said Westhoff, who graduated from Michigan State University's medical school, "as it is to be able to treat them when they are hospitalized, which is a much less common event."

College Enrollments Decline In 1981-82

The State Board of Education has reported that college enrollments in 1981-82 were down only 29 percent, or 1,545 students compared to the previous school year.

Results of the board's annual count of all college enrollments showed that 515,304 students were enrolled in the state's approximately 100 colleges and universities.

While enrollment in the state's 15 public four-year colleges and universities declined to 235,027 students, down 7,880 or 3.2 percent from the previous year the state's 29 public two-year community and junior colleges reported increased enrollments totaling 211,874 up 4,073 or 2 percent compared to the 1980-81 enrollments.

The state's independent colleges enrolled 68,406 students, an increase of 2,262 students, or 3.4 percent.

Michigan State University, with 44,887 students, continued as the state's largest four-year college.

The University of Michigan had a larger enrollment, 48,861 but students attend classes on campuses at Ann Arbor, Dearborn and Flint.

Macomb County Community College, with an enrollment of 28,090, is the largest two-year college, while the University of Detroit, with 6,186 students, is the largest private college.

Property Assessment Smallest In Decade

The State Tax Commission has approved a $98.2 billion level in total property assessments, representing a 6.8 percent increase over 1981's value. That represented the smallest increase since 1972.

The commission said the total property tax bill based on an average 1981 tax rate of 53.36 mills, will be $5.2 billion, up from last year's $4.9 billion.

The final assessed value figure was only slightly changed from the preliminary total and the commission changes totals for 16 counties after appealing the preliminary totals.

The commission says the most rapidly growing class of property value was residential at 8.6 percent.

Other increases were 7.7 percent for farm, 4.6 percent for commercial and 3.3 percent for industrial, while timber cut over dropped 2.7 percent.

Personal property in fixtures, machinery and equipment in stores and plants rose 4.3 percent.

The commission also noted that agricultural and residential property was continuing to pick-up an increasing portion of the tax load, accounting for 66.1 percent of the state-wide assessments compared to 65 percent last year.

Business, industry and commercial property accounted for 33.9 percent, a decline of 45 percent in 1945, which the commission said was due, in part, to the growing use of tax abatement and farmland preservation laws.

Court Approves Buy-In By Two Electric Co-operatives

The state Court of Appeals, rejecting arguments by Attorney General Frank Kelley and a public interest group, has approved a plan by two electric co-operatives to purchase an additional $181 million interest in the Detroit Edison Enrico Fermi II nuclear power plant.

The court, in Attorney General v. Public Service Commission, affirmed the ruling of the commission in approving a loan from the Rural Electrification Administration for Wolverine Electric Co-operative and Northern Michigan Electric Co-operative.

The money was to meet a portion of cost overruns in the project, in which the two co-ops, had already acquired an interest.

Kelley and the Public Interest Research Group in Michigan alleged the plant was unnecessary and unreasonably costly.

The PSC denied PIRGIM's application to intervene and the Court of Appeals agreed, saying the group failed to demonstrate it represented a substantial number of affected parties.

locomotive, but he didn't have any trouble understanding the purpose of a caboose. For one thing, Bug said, it gives fellers on freights a place to go, like to the bunkhouse or the store to take a break from work. For another, it's the only place where you can see what's going on at the back of the train. But the biggest reason, Bug said, is that if you didn't have a caboose how are you going to know when you get to the end of the train so the gates can go up and lights quit flashing.

As for progress, Clem Webster had saw where we have flat outsmarted ourselves with this telephone computer that is supposed to follow spoken orders. Clem said Bell Labs has come up with a computer that can understand what you say as long as you talk so the thing can understand you. Bell has tried out the computer all over the country, Clem said, and it hears the same words different in different parts.

What's scary about this, Clem allowed, is that we believe in lowering the river, not raising the bridge. Instead of programming accents into computers Bell will have everybody in the country talking like Donald Duck.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

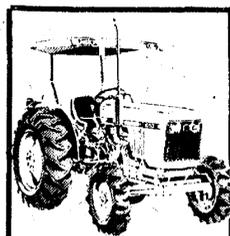

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Zeke Grubb got to rolling and come dangerous clost to preaching during the session at the country store Saturday night before the fellers could pull his plug. Zeke was worked up agin over backward progress, and agin he come down foursquare fer some forward thinking.

It turned out, Mister Editor, that Zeke had made the mistake of reading somepun other than the papers and his almanac. His preacher had lent him a book about the rise and fall of everything. Zeke said Lewis Mumford had traced the history of what he called Western values, and he had found that ever society has took no more than 300 year to make virtues of all the deadly sins. Right now, Zeke went on, this country is powered by greed, envy, gluttony, luxury and pride. If we didn't use all of em as consumers of good and services, Zeke said, we couldn't keep our economy going.

Ed Doolittle broke in to tell Zeke that a little heavy reading can be a terrible thing, and that he ought to be worrying about progress like the end of the end of the train: Ed said he allus-had been interested in railroadng, and many a night when his old lady was coming down on him hard about somepun he had wished he had a long passenger run that kept him away from home a couple of nights a week. Serious, Ed said, he likes trains and the part trains played in opening up this country. What he don't like, Ed said, is the report where there is a move afoot to git rid of cabooses. He thought of the caboose as the train's home, Ed went on, and when he was dreaming of that three-day run he meant dreaming back there where the stove and the coffee was, not up front firing the engine.

General speaking, after Zeke's report, the fellers was more in the mood fer Ed's kind of anti-progress. Bug Hookum allowed that he never could see why you need a fireman on a diesel

Former Sunday School Class Holds Reunion

The 12th reunion of the "Friendship Group," a Sunday school class started in 1946 at St. Matthews Methodist church in Livonia, was held the afternoon of Sunday, Aug. 22 at the Crippen Building at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement home.

Retirement home residents Mrs. Ressie Buxton, who moved there 12 years ago, and Miss Carrie Honderich hosted the reunion for 32 friends from towns such as Livonia, Troy, Jackson, and Chelsea. They enjoyed a buffet dinner of fried chicken and apple pie ala mode and sang gospel songs, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Evelyn Neuman of Livonia.

The highlight of the day was riddles and clever sketches such as "What to do when one's pacemaker makes the garage door go up, when a pretty girl goes by."

New faces have been added to the group in the last 35 years, said Mrs. Louise Rickert of 20477 Scio Church Rd., and some of the original group have passed away, but the love and enthusiasm they have for each other remains the same.

Steam Canners Poor Substitutes For Water-Bath

Several brands of steam canners have appeared on the market and are being promoted as substitutes for water bath canners. They consist of three pieces—a shallow pan which is filled with about two quarts of water, a perforated rack on which the jars stand, and a large dome cover. During processing, steam wafts around the jars.

Until processing times are determined specifically for steam canners, they should not be used.

Manufacturers of steam canners are recommending that acid foods, such as tomatoes and fruits, may be processed in steam canners using the timetables established for processing acid foods in boiling water-bath canners.

A pilot study conducted at Pennsylvania State University showed that the water-bath processing times were not adequate for steam canning. Up to 19 additional minutes were required when processing tomato juice and applesauce in a steam canner.

Inadequate processing of foods permits the growth of yeast and molds that can cause food spoilage.

Fortunately, spoilage of acid food processed in steam canners would be obvious. The signs of spoilage include loss of seal, bulging lids, gasiness, mold and off odor.

To prevent the loss of your home canned tomatoes and fruits, process them in a water-bath canner, follow up-to-date time schedules. It may be old-fashioned, but it works. Low acid foods must be canned in a pressure canner to be safe from possible botulism poisoning. Low acid foods are vegetables—except tomatoes, meats, fish, poultry and tomato-vegetable mixtures.

For up-to-date information about how to can, contact the Co-operative Extension Service office at 4133 Washtenaw Ave., Ann Arbor 48107. Telephone 973-9510.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
The recent contract agreement between the Chelsea School Board and the teachers of the Chelsea School District is disgusting. In times of high inflation, unemployment, and recession, most families of the Chelsea School District are feeling their lives change. People are tightening their belts to get by from these hard times. The work force, living in the Chelsea School District, has taken early retirement, given up COLA (cost of living allowance), benefits, taken wage cuts, layoffs, and given up vacation time to survive this recession.

Two questions can be asked in regards to this contract agreement. First, why did the school board give a 5 1/2% wage increase to the teachers. Second, why did the teachers ask for a 9% wage increase? The answers are quite simple. In this particular instance, the school board acted with incompetence, and the teachers with unbelievable greed! It is time for the school board to represent and implement the interest of the voters and residents of the Chelsea School District. It is time for the teachers to demonstrate to their students and the residents of the school district that they will join with everyone to make concessions in this time of recession. Maybe Supt. Van Meer should lead the way and give up his travel allowance or a wage cut. There seems to be a lack of leadership from the school district's administration.

It is time for the voters in the school district to remember the actions by the school board and the teachers. When the school board comes before the voters for a millage increase in the future, the answer should be NO as a result of the contract agreement just reached by the school board and teachers.

TWENTY LADIES in Chelsea Senior Citizens helped stuff "goodie bags" with items such as pencils, matches, and seed packets at 1 p.m. Aug. 16 in preparation for Ladies Day, an event for women

Pen Pals Meet After 13 Years

When Karen Lake wrote her New Zealander pen pal about plans for her approaching marriage in 1980, her letter crossed in the mail with one from Denise Carnihan telling Karen about HER wedding plans. They both had even picked the same wedding color scheme, red and white.

They finally met this month, after more than 13 years of correspondence. Denise and her husband Chris are staying at Karen and Mike Lake's home at 13600 Old US-12 for 12 days, the first stop the couple has made in their first trip to the United States.

Both women were nervous about the meeting at Metro Airport Aug. 12, although they both knew a lot about each other, after being childhood confidantes for so long.

"But you can't really know someone completely from letters," said Karen, who instinctively hugged Denise, when they recognized each other from wedding photographs they had exchanged.

Letters are a silent medium, so the thing that Karen has been most surprised at about Denise is her voice. Even though she knew Denise would have a British accent, imagining what someone will talk like is hard to do.

Chelsea was a pleasant surprise for Denise, who said she thought the whole U.S. was as developed as pictures they had seen of New York City. Their own country is all mountainous, so the flatness here feels very different.

Blueberries, tacos and roller coaster rides, all things they've tried for the first time on their visit, got rave reviews. But salty popcorn? They are used to popcorn with a sweet, fruity coating.

Karen found the first letter Denise ever wrote her, in of course, the writing and thinking style of a nine-year old. They had a good laugh over it. "She wrote that her favorite food was macaroni and cheese," said Karen, who fixed that meal one evening for nostalgia's sake.

They got each other's names through a world pen-pal club. Karen has always loved writing letters, so she wanted a pen pal when her older sister Kathy got one, a bit of sibling jealousy, she says.

The Carnihans leave today for Canada and Los Angeles, then back to Wellington, New Zealand after a two-year trip abroad to Europe, Morocco, and Turkey.

Now the Lakes are making plans for a trip to New Zealand someday.

WCC Registration Set Sept. at CHS

School Renting Excess Space for Doctor's Office

Dr. Mary Westhoff has a unique office location for a pediatrician—offices in Beach Middle school.

"This is not a move by the school system to provide on-site medical care," says Raymond Van Meer, school superintendent. "It's a way to earn rent from surplus space, a move school systems nationwide are making."

A Flint dentist has a school-site office; some schools are selling complete buildings. The county sheriff's office already rents space in the Chelsea school garage, said Van Meer, and now with Dr. Westhoff's three-year lease, the school system property is at full capacity.

"We look for a use that is compatible with our activity," said Van Meer, "and one which is needed by the community." The chances of a sudden increase in enrollment, so that this space would be needed again, said Van Meer, are almost nonexistent. The housing market is a practical barometer for enrollments.

Dr. Westhoff will be used as a consultant to the schools and give monthly talks to staff, parents, and students. If a child gets sick during school, she says, they will see their own physician. She cannot treat a patient outside her practice without the parent's permission.

"Of course if there were a life-threatening situation, I'd help out," she says, but emphasizes that her office is a business unto itself.

Her office will open in September, when remodeling is completed.

Lt. Steven Willoughby Participates in SAC Air Force Exercise

Second Lt. Steven O. Willoughby, son of Carl F. and Roberta Willoughby of 6242 Dexter Rd., Dexter, has participated in an Air Force Strategic Air Command (SAC) exercise called Global Shield 82.

Willoughby, a deputy missile combat crew commander, Grand Forks Air Force Base, N.D., joined others from all SAC units in the United States and selected Air Force Reserve and Air National Guard units to take part in command post and field training exercises. Global Shield 82 was the fourth such exercise held by the command in as many years. It was designed to enhance readiness and the ability of the command to carry out orders which support U.S. national policy, should deterrence fail.

Components of the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps, as well as elements of the Canadian forces, also participated in the exercise.

*Nitrate in Water

You may have heard about possible health problems related to nitrate in food or in water. Nitrate is a form of nitrogen which is essential to life. Nitrogen, actually, composes four-fifths of our atmosphere. But nitrate, in excessive amounts, can cause a serious disease in infants. It may, also, be related to some cancers in adults, although the evidence is not conclusive.

Adults get most nitrate from food rather than water. But under certain conditions, private well water can contain very high levels of nitrate. This can occur if the well is improperly located and constructed so that it is contaminated by human sewage. Or it can occur if there is run-off from barnyards or fertilized fields, or from some industrial wastes, or even if the soil naturally contains high levels of nitrate, as it does in some parts of Michigan.

The biggest health risk is a disease with the long name of methemoglobinemia. It occurs in infants six months of age or less. It is a condition in which the ability of the red blood cells to carry oxygen is reduced severely. When this happens, the infant will develop a blue color, due to lack of oxygen in the blood, and must be seen by a physician immediately. Methemoglobinemia occurs in infants because, for a variety of reasons, they cannot convert methemoglobin to normal hemoglobin and because, in relation to body weight, they drink much more water than adults.

The link between nitrate and cancer is much less clear. But epidemiologic studies of human populations have shown a correlation between gastric cancer and nitrate levels in drinking water. The studies are not conclusive by any means but they do suggest caution when dealing with exposure to nitrate in drinking water.

If you think you might have a problem with nitrate in your drinking water, you should have your well tested a regular water sample container furnished by the Michigan Department of Public Health and available from your local health department should be used to collect a sample. Our laboratory will analyze the sample and report results to the local health department. If excess nitrate is found, you will be notified. However, no water supply can be evaluated on the basis of one analysis alone. A complete survey would be needed. The local health department will advise you of what needs to be done.

In 1886, the subject of fairs came up in The Chelsea Herald. According to the voice of the community, the first fair, under the new organization "Western Washtenaw and Eastern Jackson Agriculture Association," was held in Chelsea Sept. 28, 29, 30 and Oct. 1, 1886.

Gas Tax Revenues Decline Slightly

Second quarter state gas and weight tax revenues, which are shared with the county and village, increased for the first time in 2½ years — but it's a mixed blessing.

Although total quarterly revenues are up (a 1 percent gain) for the second quarter of 1982, reports the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT), many counties, villages, cities and state-subsidized bus and rail programs are actually getting less than last year (one half of one percent in net revenues), because of increased collection costs and deductions.

The county got $1,156,723, up slightly from the 1981 second quarter figure of $1,159,296., but Jackson county got less, $958,782, compared to a 1981 figure of $968,283. As a whole, the 83 county road commissions got $242,265 less this quarter.

Chelsea lost — $18,557, compared to last year's second quarter amount of $18,651, part of the state-wide city/village loss of $166,294. Dexter went down a tad, $8,531, from 1981's $8,575. Grass Lake went up to $7,058, from $6,806. Manchester lost — $10,475 from 1981's $10,530. Pinckney at $8,093 is down from $8,031. Stockbridge at $6,051 is barely down from $6,060. Gasoline taxes in April to June totaled $105.2 million, up 2.3 percent, $2.38 million. Special taxes paid on larger trucks in lieu of a six-cent-a-gallon rebate on diesel fuel brought in $8.1 million, up by 2.1 percent.

Weight taxes, from the license plate fees, increased $307,000 to $49 million. Interest earnings decreased $1 million, down 26 percent to $2.9 million. Miscellaneous revenues fell 6.1 percent to $2.56 million.

Collection costs and other grants, including $5 million to the state's critical bridge fund, totaled $20.2 million, up 13.3 percent.

Funds left for distribution to various transportation programs totaled $148 million, a decline of more than $730,000 from the second quarter of 1981. Those funds are divided according to a formula set by state law.

The State Trunkline Fund, for construction and maintenance of the state highway system received $56 million, a decline from 1981 of $300,000.

The Comprehensive Transportation Fund, which supports bus and rail programs received $12.2 million, a decline of $64,000.

Suspects in Lumber Theft Flee Scene

Two suspects got away after trying to steal lumber from Chelsea Lumber Co. at 306 N. Main, but they lost their car and plywood escaping. Chelsea police officer Peter Graves saw two suspects loading lumber into the back of a station wagon, at 5:30 a.m. Aug. 18, while Graves was on routine patrol checking property. The suspects ran between lumber yard buildings when they saw the squad car. Graves disabled their car by letting air out of the tires, and called in a county officer and tracking dog. They traced the track to north of Veterans Park, but lost it in the fields. The suspects had 11 sheets of 4 foot by 8 foot plywood, worth about $150 loaded in the station wagon. The police impounded the vehicle for investigation, but no one has claimed it. They are still investigating the incident.

Primary Election Certified

Dwight C. DeRoos won the Webster township constable primary with 12 write-in votes. He needed more than 11 votes to qualify. Five other write-in votes for the office, for which no candidate officially filed, were scattered among five different people. The primary election was certified Friday, Aug. 20. In the District 1 county commissioner primary race, George Merkel of 142 Van Buren, Chelsea, still had a 20-vote lead over James R. Spears, a York township trustee. As of 2 p.m. yesterday, Spears, who has said he will ask for a recount had not yet filed. The actual recount takes about two to three days, but since recounts for state offices get first priority, a commissioner recount would probably not take place until mid-September. Spears has until 5 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 26 to file.

Workmen Injured By Underground Cable Vault Cave-in

A man suffered lacerations and possibly a broken arm from a cave-in the morning of Aug. 17 at a Michigan Bell underground cable vault at the northeast intersection of Dexter-Pinckney Rd. and North Territorial. He was pinned against the vault a few minutes while helping replace the vault cover, but not buried by the dirt caving in from the side walls, according to county sheriff reports. He was an employee of Michigan Trenching, and taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for treatment.

There has been a 25 percent increase in enrollment over the last two years in private career schools.

Family Support Program Offered Through Hospital

High Scope Educational Research Foundation, in cooperation with Chelsea Community Hospital is offering the Parent Program as a family support program for families in Chelsea, Dexter and Manchester areas.

Some of the key components of this program are:

The relationship of parents to their infants in a home setting. Trained home visitors and parents share and initiate activities with the baby, respond to games and other activities initiated by the baby, and discuss child development using the baby's actions as a focal point.

The focus of the home visit is not to "eliminate deficits" but supporting and expanding present parenting skills of the families. Rather than teach parents the "correct" way of raising children, they are encouraged to develop and clarify their own parenting skills.

Home visitors, individuals from the community, help parents to feel that their views are important, that they can learn to rely on their own informed judgment in raising children. This is accomplished through development information, assisting parents in developing a keener observational skill and encouragement of parents to explore and discover ways to respond to their particular child's needs, interests and personality through child-play activities.

By focusing on the child's development and parent/child relationship, this program can be very flexible and meet many family needs. Quite often, the parent/child relationship reflects other family problems because it is usually through the children that parents vent their problems, frustrations and anger. The Parent Program is therefore considered an effective preventive program as well.

During the home visits, the home visitor and the family will concentrate on child development and at the same time, build a trusting relationship whereby other family problems can be addressed. After all, if the parent feels good about themselves, they will feel good about their children and visa versa.

The Parent Program is a supportive and informational program that assists family members in feeling good about each other by working on the positive rather than the negative.

Now is especially difficult for families when they are faced with prolonged unemployment or fear of unemployment. As a result of this, families are drifting away from each other, even separating. There appears a lot of stress and tension. Even the best of parent/child relationships deteriorate under these conditions. The Parent Program can help these families by providing emotional support (a listening ear) and rebuild good relationships with each other.

Single parenting has increased rapidly in the last few years, not only divorced parents but also young teens opting to keep their babies. Most of these young girls have very little knowledge of child development or parenting skills. The Parent Program can educate these young mothers in child development, parenting skills, community resources, nutrition, health and provide a positive, supportive atmosphere or example.

When services and programs are being cut back or eliminated completely these days, the Parent Program is even more important and badly needed to assist families in hard times.

For further information, call Jo Ann Carruthers at 475-1311 ext. 262. The program is also looking for volunteer home visitors. Those interested people may also call the same number.

Lester Esch Wins $5,000 in State Lottery

Lester Esch of 7404 Dexter-Ann Arbor Rd. won $5,000 on an instant, "The Good Life" ticket he bought at Dexter Pharmacy in early August.

He rubbed off the ticket, when he got home and discovered he had his first lottery win ever. He had been buying about a ticket a day, since the lottery began.

He took his wife Carol and daughter Doris out to dinner at Ponderosa to celebrate, but hasn't decided what he will do with the money yet.

"I'll wait on spending it until I find out exactly how much of it Uncle Sam gets," said Esch, who is employed by Chelsea Milling Co. "I've had one win now; I'll never win another one."

Esch, 45 years of age, received his check, after filling out forms in Lansing.

Chelsea Big Boy Captures Third Place In Regional Tourney

Dreams of a trip to Albuquerque, N.M. to play in the national men's slow pitch softball nationals, died this week-end for the Chelsea Big Boys. They took third in the Great Lakes regionals qualifying tournament in Eau Claire, Wis. They would have needed to win the eight team tournament to continue on. They won their first two games, beating Kelly's Bar from Milwaukee, 3-1, and last year's regional's champion Owosso Mitchell, 5-4, guaranteeing themselves at least third place. But they couldn't score in their third game, and lost to the Wausau Marksmen, 1-0, in a game with only four hits total. Their fourth opponent was Wilber Lime, the host team with "a million screaming fans," said Craig Houle. Chelsea Big Boy lost, 3-0, and left for home before the championship between Wilber Lime and Wausau Marksmen was decided.

Tom Paul of Custer was the winning pitcher for Chelsea Big Boy in the first game. Owosso Mitchell scored three solo home runs in the top of the fourth inning in game 2 to take a 3-0 lead. But Chelsea Big Boy came back in the bottom of the fourth. Craig Houle was hit by a pitch to take a base. Al Augustine scored a runner with a triple, and Mike Lauerman scored Augustine with a single. Lauerman then scored on a single by Bruce Wagner.

Wayne Welton hit a triple in the fifth, then scored on Roger Bourne's single. Owosso Mitchell tied it up in the sixth with an infield hit, and sent the game into extra innings. Bob Moffett, on third with a single, scored on a grounder, which the second baseman bobbed in the bottom of the eighth inning, to give Chelsea Big Boy a tough win.

The game with Wausau Marksmen, was a "pitchers' battle" said Houle. Jim Strong, the Chelsea pitcher only allowed three hits, but Wausau scored in the top of the seventh inning. Chelsea Big Boy had only one hit in the game.

Wilber Lime went ahead, 1-0, in the first inning of game 4, and 3-0 in the fourth inning. Al Cohen entered the game as Chelsea Big Boy relief pitcher, and held them scoreless the rest of the game — but it was too late.

Chelsea Big Boy finished the season with 38 wins and 15 losses, said Houle, and went further in post-season play than they ever have before.

CHELSEA BIG BOY TOOK THIRD at the Great Lakes Regionals in Eau Claire, Wis. this week-end, which turned out to be their last tournament of the season. They qualified for the regionals by taking third in the state finals. Members of the fast-pitch men's

School Opening Waits Until Closing of Fair

The fair is such a "big thing" in this community that it just makes sense to delay school's start until after the fair, said Fred Mills, assistant school superintendent.

"Attendance usually is not good before Labor Day anyway," said Mills, who sells fair tickets at the gate and calculates percentages for the tractor pull, so when the schools and teachers negotiate the contract setting the school calendar, they keep both dates in mind.

The fair runs from Aug. 31 to Sept. 4. Teachers will report for orientation Sept. 2, and students will begin Sept. 7, the day after Labor Day.

New Signals Often Cause Accident Increase

Traffic signals don't always reduce traffic accidents.

That fact was once confirmed in a recent study by the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) at 39 intersections around the state where traffic signals had been installed within the past five years.

The study showed that accidents increased 25 percent at the 39 locations within a two-year period after signals were installed.

It also showed an increase of 126 percent in rear-end type accidents, and an 86 percent rise in left-turn accidents during the two years after signals were installed.

Only one type—right-angle accidents—decreased. They dropped 27 percent after installation of signals.

"This study, and many others nation-wide, indicate that while signals may reduce certain types of accidents, other types increase," said Maurice Witteveen, MDOT's traffic and safety chief. "They're not a panacea for high-accident locations, but it's extremely difficult to convince the public of that."

"The primary purpose of signals is for traffic control at intersections," Witteveen said. "They alternately assign the right-of-way to motorists on major and minor streets."

"Yet, most people still believe that signals are primarily safety devices. Obviously, they're not."

MDOT is responsible for approximately 2,175 signals on the state's 9,500-mile highway system.

Pinckney Youth Joins Air Force SAC Training Exercise

Airman 1st Class Robert L. Greynolds, son of Carl H. and Dorothy A. Kramm of 7892 Chilson Rd., Pinckney, has participated in an Air Force Strategic Air Command (SAC) exercise called Global Shield 82.

Greynolds, a security specialist with the 91st Missile Security Squadron at Minot Air Force Base, N.D., joined others from all SAC units in the United States and selected Air Force Reserve and Air National Guard units to take part in command post and field training exercises. Global Shield 82 was the fourth such exercise held by the command in as many years. It was designed to enhance readiness and the ability of the command to carry out orders, which support U.S. national policy, should deterrence fail.

Components of the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps, and well as elements of the Canadian forces, also participated in the exercise.

Your Health Options

By Beverly Chethick
Director of Health Education, Washtenaw County Health Dept.

We have just moved to Michigan, and my son will be in the 8th grade. I hear I have to bring to the school proof of my son's immunizations, and that this proof must come from my doctor. Since my doctor is not in this state, what else can I do?

Michigan law requires students to be immunized against certain vaccine-preventable childhood diseases. These are: polio, diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis (whooping cough), measles, mumps and rubella.

Children moving into Michigan from out-of-state—among others—must have their immunization status reported to the school district. The schools cannot accept a verbal statement from the parent as proof of immunization.

The schools need a certificate of immunization. You can find this information on the immunization record your doctor gave you for your son. You can also find it in your son's clinic record, school record or personal record.

The important thing to keep in mind is that the immunization information must list the vaccines and the dates they were given.

If you can't find a copy of this information in your records, you can contact your doctor and ask him/her to provide you with it. The schools will accept a note from the doctor as long as it lists the vaccines and dates administered. The information should be written or typed on the doctor's prescription pad or letterhead.

Some parents believe no one gets measles and the other childhood diseases any more. But many people do!

In recent years, small outbreaks of polio and no-so-small outbreaks of measles have caught schools and neighborhoods by surprise. When percentages of vaccinated children drop, epidemics may occur.

Since school doesn't start until September, you have time to gather the information you need—and to act on it. If your son doesn't have all the shots he needs, you can make an appointment with a local doctor or clinic, or you can attend a Health Department Immunization Clinic. (Call 973-1488 for information about dates and times.)

If you are sure your son has had all his shots but you need confirmation about dates, you still have time to call your doctor and have the information mailed to you.

Either way, it is important to check your records now. Children who are entering a Michigan school district for the first time must show the required immunization evidence before they are allowed to enter school. Without this information, their admission to school is delayed.

YOUR HEALTH OPTIONS appears monthly in this paper. If you have a health related question, please write directly to the Washtenaw County Health Department, Health Education Office, Box 8645, Ann Arbor, Mich. 48107.

Swim Pool Repairs, Cleaning Underway

The Cameron swimming pool will reopen after its annual repairs are finished either Monday, Aug. 23 or Aug. 30, depending on how fast the underwater lights can be repaired.

"Fixing those lights has been more difficult than we expected," said Larry Reed, pool director. The lights had been failing more than they should, so a new lighting system and fixtures are being installed, a difficult process since the wires are imbedded in and under the pool walls.

Each August the pool is closed about three weeks, so needed repairs can be completed before the busy school and fall recreation season starts.

The pool has been drained, and broken tiles and grouting replaced. The large bulkhead, which must be able to withstand the thrust of racing starts and weight of relay teams and timers, has been dismantled, and rusted or broken parts repaired and replaced.

The bulkhead, which separates the two swimming areas, is repainted with a non-skid paint. The pool and pool deck are treated with an acidic super-cleaning solution.

"We always try to finish repairs before Aug. 15, so the girl's swimming team can start practicing," said Reed, "but it's hard to make that deadline when swimming lessons run until the end of July."

Call 475-1425 for information about the pool.

'SAFE BOATING TIPS'

From Ann Arbor Flotilla 17-03,
U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary

★Boaters Should Know Common Distress Signals

Knowledge of common boating distress signals could save your life. The code of the sea requires that you render assistance to other boaters in distress, if within our capabilities to do so. Know what your capabilities are. If you can't handle the situation without endangering your boat or passengers, seek help from marine law enforcement officers or other trained rescue personnel.

Always carry a supply of Coast Guard approved hand held signal flares for use during day or night boating activities. Know how to use them. Aerial pyrotechnics are not approved for use in Michigan on inland lakes, due to the possibility of starting fires ashore.

Learn how to use a sun reflection signal mirror to attract attention from airplanes or from shore. They are inexpensive and effective during sunny days.

To attract nearby boaters, wave outstretched arms up and down rapidly. Do not just wave one hand casually. Pleasure boaters may think you are just being friendly. An orange life jacket held aloft on an oar is also a distress signal.

Blow a horn or whistle repeatedly—five or more short blasts.

To send an S-O-S with a flashlight, signal 3 dots, 3 dashes, 3 dots.

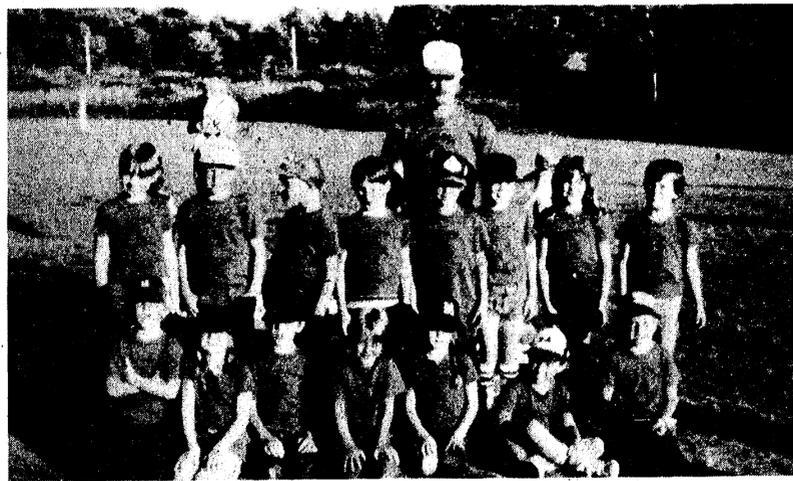

Stay with your boat. Don't panic. Many people who attempt to swim to shore for help drown, because they tend to underestimate the distance. Cold water shortens life expectancy of even good swimmers, due to hypothermia. If your boat is capsized or partially sunk, keep as much of your body out of the water as possible to prevent heat loss.

For more information, take a Coast Guard Auxiliary course in boating safety. Call Flotilla Commander Albert Chaffee, 313/994-4674, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Conservationist Eacker Transfers to Missouri

Clark Eacker, district conservationist for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service, has accepted a promotion to the position of area conservationist with his agency in Warrensburg, Mo. Clark has served as district conservationist at the Ann Arbor field office for nearly 14 years.

Eacker assumes his new duties on Aug. 23. In his position, Eacker is responsible for supervising the activities of 13 SCS field offices in West-Central Missouri, staffed by approximately 50 personnel. Soil erosion control through the installation of terracing systems and other land treatments is a major conservation need in Eacker's area.

During his assignment at the Ann Arbor field office, Eacker sees his program responsibilities expand from a staff of two persons to the present staff of 12 which serves the Washtenaw, Wayne, and Monroe Soil Conservation Districts.

Eacker took particular pride in working with landowners, Soil Conservation District officials and his associations with other agencies and organizations. He helped establish the Washtenaw County SCD's annual spring and fall tree and shrub program, urban soil erosion control policies, the Higgins Lake Environmental School Scholarship Program for teachers, the Washtenaw County Soil Survey, the SCD's monthly newsletter, the "Big Tree Contest" and various working memos of understanding with local units of government. He was instrumental in developing the Saline Valley Rural Clean Water Project which is now operational and will bring nearly $2 million in cost-share assistance to farmers who install water quality improving practices.

Proving Grounds Bicycle Contest Slated Aug. 28-29

The first-ever Proving Grounds Challenge will be a bicycle endurance contest, Aug. 28-29 for anyone eight years and older, to help raise funds for the United States Cycling Federation's Olympic Development Program.

The event is intended to be a personal challenge of one's endurance, not a race, so awards will be given for one's bicycling ability — braking, handling stress situations, pacing oneself, taking corners and shifting.

An entrant can ride five miles, 50 miles or whatever they can guts out in 24 hours, noon Saturday to noon Sunday. Two loops of road in the Chrysler Corp's Proving Grounds, south of I-94 on M-52, will be set aside for riders.

One course is flat and about 4 1/2 miles long, good for younger riders and their parents. The other is a more hilly 10 1/2 mile circuit. Both courses are two lanes wide, with no bad turns.

A rider may enter as a group such as 4-H, church groups, League of American Wheelmen, or one may enter as an individual. One may do it just for the fun, or if one has officially registered before the event, try for prizes such as Schwinn bicycles, Peaches records and tapes, bicycle clothing and equipment, and trophies. Eight special prizes will be given to adult male and female riders by Penn-Mutual Insurance Co.

Each participant will receive a Chrysler-Peaches T-shirt and patch commemorating the event. Local bike dealers will be volunteering to run the emergency repair tent. Replacement parts will be sold. Cyclists should be sure their bicycle is in good working order before the race.

The National Ski Patrol, registered nurses and ambulances will be at the site before, during, and after the event.

A squad of radio control and security people will be there. If there is an accident or problem on the course, riders should look for one of the numbered radio cars stationed along the way. Although the proving grounds will be patrolled, riders are responsible for the security of their own belongings. Bicycles should be locked.

Riders will need lots of nutritious food and liquids, especially if they plan to go the whole 24 hours. Organizers of the event suggest riders bring their own food, coolers and cookstoves. No open fires will be allowed. Sewinn-Wolverine Explorer Post 1039 is setting up a kitchen, and will serve a limited but nutritious meal.

Camping in a beautiful but somewhat primitive site will be allowed after 6 p.m. Friday night until noon Sunday. Motorhomes, campers, trailers, tents, vans, trucks and cars, are permitted. There will be no electricity; portable toilets will be used, and only drinking water (which had to be hauled in) is available.

Organizers of the race, sponsored jointly by the Chrysler Corp., Peaches Records and Tapes; Schwinn Bicycle Co., and participating 7-Eleven stores, which are helping with registration, suggest that the following rules be observed, so that everyone has both a good and safe time, and to keep the facilities available for other cycling events.

Riders must be at least 8 years of age to participate. Riders 8 to 18 years of age must have their entry signed by a parent or guardian in the presence of a bicycle dealer or Michigan Bicycling Federation official, or member of Schwinn-Wolverine Explorer Post.

Persons under 12 years of age must be accompanied by an adult during the race, must ride the short course, and be off the course between 10 p.m. Saturday and 4 a.m. Sunday.

Bicycles should be in good shape, with no flags or protruding objects attached.

No earphones or loud radios are permitted. A rider's number must be in a visible place, pinned high up on clothing. The number should not be folded or mutilated.

If a bike is to be ridden at night, it must be equipped with a good headlight and a good tail light. Light colored clothing should be worn.

Riders should obey the rules of the road and the road marshals. Slow riders should keep to the right. Bunch riding is not allowed; only double or single file.

Riders should ride well; this event is not designed to be a cut-throat race, so riders will be disqualified if they ride against the flow of traffic, cut across the course, or race/ride erratically.

No alcohol, campfires, or littering. Anyone who drives a car or motorcycle on the course will be expelled from the event.

Entry forms may be obtained

Tecumseh Sports May Be Canceled

The Class B Southeastern athletic conference Chelsea students compete in, could lose a member, if Tecumseh voters veto a school millage Monday, Aug. 30.

"It's all or nothing for Tecumseh athletics," said Ron Nemeth, Chelsea schools athletic director. The school system won't try any creative financing such as Whitmore Lake's use of private funding.

The Tecumseh school principal will call Nemeth early Aug. 31, so that if he needs to, Nemeth can "get on the phone in a hurry" to find other opponents for games scheduled with Tecumseh.

Nemeth says he will wait until the vote to take action, to be both loyal to a conference member, and because action may not be necessary.

The Southeastern Conference presently has seven members, Chelsea, Tecumseh, Saline, Milan, Ypsilanti Lincoln, Dexter, and Jackson County Western.

But Jackson county will be in the conference only one more year. The summer of 1983 that school will join the Cascades Conference.

"Every school in the league is dollar conscious," said Nemeth, "but careful budgeting isn't a cure-all."

"The voters just have to decide if athletics, music, and art should be a part of public school education."

Prairie Walk Set Sunday at County Park

Matt Heumann, park naturalist, will lead a "prairie walk" 10 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 29 at the county's Independence Lake county park.

The focus of the two hour, 1 1/2 mile walk, will be on how the prairie has changed since the county began managing it two years ago. It is a flat walk and easy enough for children.

Trees and bushes usually invade grasslands in this area, said Heumann, and shade out prairie grasses. But with controlled burning, grasslands can be preserved.

It had once been a lawn for a group camp, so it was regularly mowed. The mowing which kept it a prairie also killed all the prairie flowers, so the area has been reseeded during the past year.

Persons taking the hike should be able to see late summer flowers such as prairie cone, asters, blazing stars, rattlesnake master, and impressive stands of blue stem grass, more than six feet tall.

There is a $2 entrance fee per vehicle to the park itself, but no charge for the hike. The park is located on the north side of the lake, on Jennings Rd.

at Peaches Records and Tapes or 7-Eleven stores. Entry fees are $10 before Aug. 21, and $15 at the event itself. Registration will begin at 6 p.m. Friday, Aug. 27, and begin again at 6 a.m. Saturday morning.

Riding clinics will be held both 7 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m. Saturday. Entertainment, hikes, moonlight warmup rides, and a celebrity lap of the short loop at 11:30 a.m. Saturday will be held.

Fair History Tid-Bits

The Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws for a society to be known as the Chelsea Community Fair were prepared by attorney James C. Hendley and approved by the club in 1938.

In 1889, Frank P. Glazier gave a first-class Eight Day Clock to the lady taking the most premiums on canned fruit at the Chelsea Fair. Winners of the prize was Mrs. C. A. Updyke.

1943—Because so many persons have work connected with the World War II effort, it has been unanimously voted by members of the Chelsea Community Fair Association to not have a fair this year. Fairs are discontinued until 1948 because of the war.

1950—Dorr Whitaker, Everett Van Riper, Paul Schaible and Reuben Lesser are designated as a committee to investigate the possibility of securing a permanent site for the Community Fair.

Some occupations with more than 50 percent projected growth in employment through 1990 include: paralegal personnel, computer service technician, computer operator, office machine repairer, and physical therapist. Training for these occupations is available through schools accredited by NATTS.

The National Association of Trade and Technical Schools (NATTS) is an educational association representing private career schools. NATTS has 500 members in 45 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. The NATTS Accrediting Commission maintains educational standards and business ethics.

Courses at most NATTS schools begin three to 12 times a year.

NATTS offers a free handbook indexing more than 500 schools by both location and occupation. The Handbook also lists 98 career specialties and the amount of time it takes to learn a skill. To get a free copy, write to: NATTS, 2021 K. Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20006-1077.

* August Food Shopping Best of Season

Michigan food shoppers will find August 1982 to be one of the best months of the year. A wide selection of seasonal state-produced fruits and vegetables is coming to market, beef prices are slightly lower, poultry prices are steady and egg prices have increased less than predicted.

While the U.S. Department of Agriculture wrestles with the definition of barbecue, America's backyard cooks are proving that almost any meat can be grilled. First-cut chuck roast (wrapped in foil), top-round steak (marinated first for best results and porkburgers are some of the more economical cuts replacing traditional steaks.

Budget-minded cooks may have to continue this economical action as retail pork prices continue to climb and retail beef prices are only slightly lower. Analysts say the high cost of money is one key factor that is holding down pork production. (The June USDA report showed pork supplies running below last year as much as 15 percent through mid-1983.)

The reduced pork supply is helping to maintain beef prices so further reductions in beef will be minimal. Total cattle on feed at the 13 major feeding states is up 4 percent over a year ago but, considering high cow slaughter rates, beef industry analysts believe herd expansion this year will be small.

Broilers and turkeys will continue to be economical choices during August. Shoppers may want to add eggs to the shopping list more often as an inexpensive meat alternate.

Fresh produce shoppers will find Michigan's harvest basket filled to overflowing this month. For starters, sweet cherries and red tart cherries are still available. Inquire at any farm or orchard market with freezer facilities or in the produce department of the state's largest retail co-operatives.

Blueberry production is at the seasonal peak this week and will continue until September. Blueberries are widely available from supermarkets, city markets, roadside markets and U-pick operations.

Michigan's peach crop will peak about the third week in August. Although the national crop is down about 25 percent, Michigan has a larger crop than last year.

Calls to buyers indicate excellent quality cantaloupe are coming from local growers. More and more Michigan growers are also producing some of the specialty melons such as Crenshaw and Persian.

Apple fanciers who have had it with out-of-state imports will want to look for Paula Red (or Paulared) apples, a home-grown, late summer apple with all the good qualities of a top fall apple. Its slightly tart flavor is so thirst-quenching it could inspire a new pop flavor.

A backyard cookout wouldn't be complete without a salad. Start with head lettuce from California or a combination of greens (endive, escarole, Romaine) grown right here in Michigan. The cucumber slices, tomato wedges, green pepper rings, carrot slivers and radish roses probably all originated on a Michigan farm.
