sponsored by the Chelsea Senior Citizens, will be held Saturday, Sept. 21 at Chelsea High school from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Substance Abuse Task Force Will Be Community-Wide

Chelsea Substance Abuse Task Force, started in the early spring, is one of three non-profit organizations dealing with substance abuse that is getting its start in Chelsea. Unlike the other two groups which deal with high school students as substance abusers, this organization is striving to become community-oriented.

Having had only four meetings for which Dr. Ron Demkowski of Chelsea Community Hospital is president, Sue Carter of Chelsea High school is secretary, and Ken Larson of Chelsea High school is treasurer, all on a temporary basis, the group is going on by trial and error. The main objectives are to elect permanent officers, set by laws and raise money.

The money collected, which is being solicited from service groups in Chelsea, will be used to send people from the community to conferences on substance abuse. The goals of these conferences are to help individuals identify substance abusers and to find out possible ways of helping these abusers.

The task force, a sub-organization of Faith in Action of Chelsea Hospital, has also applied for federal grants from larger organizations such as the Chelsea Civic Foundation. Faith in Action is a non-profit organization that helps needy people in Chelsea.

According to Larson, the organization started out as a program to help students only, but the members realized that substance abuse is not only an individual problem but a community one.

The task force consists of about 20 people who come from Chelsea Hospital, St. Louis school, the Chelsea Police Department and various service organizations. These people meet twice a month on the Monday the school board does not meet. The group welcomes any interested individuals.

To have your organization listed in the 1985-1986 roster, please send the information to the library by Oct. 31.

It will be a handy tool for club officers to have when they want to contact other groups which might be interested in participating in community events and projects.

Please take a few minutes to write down the following information and send it to Mrs. Walter at the library: Name of Organization, Group's Purpose, Approximate Membership Count, Usual Meeting Time, Day and Place, Name of President, Address, Daytime Phone Number(s).

Mail to McKune Memorial Library, 221 S. Main St., Chelsea 48118.

Chelsea Area Players Plan General Meeting

If you've ever wanted, or even thought of becoming more involved in community theater in Chelsea, this is your chance. All interested community members are invited to attend the Chelsea Area Players' general meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 19, at the Chelsea High School Board Room. This is an opportunity to find out about the upcoming activities of the Players. The agenda promises a lively and spirited discussion.

The terms of five board members have expired. Nominations will be accepted and elections held to fill these spots. Board members agree to serve three-year terms.

Also on the agenda for this meeting is an update on the summer play, "Mame." According to president Mike Long, "Mame" was a success and a good time was enjoyed. The board would like to express their appreciation for the continued support of the Chelsea community in helping to make this summer's play the success it was. The cast, crew, volunteers and community businesses who contributed their time, energy, and services deserve a round of applause.

There will be a report on the planning and progress of the winter play "You Know I Can't Hear You When the Water's Running" by Robert Anderson. The performance is scheduled for Feb. 14, 15 and 16. This series of four one-act plays promises to provide an evening of uproariously funny adult entertainment. Tentative plans are to include in this Valentine's week-end performance, champagne and dessert to make it a truly gala performance.

Resumes are being accepted for the positions of director, assistant director, and stage manager. Auditions will probably be scheduled for mid-December.

Committee membership will also be discussed at the meeting. Volunteers are needed to help out in a variety of ways. The play-reading committee has been formed to choose a number of plays, one of which will be selected for next summer's performance. Members of this committee choose the plays which meet the criteria set by the board. These plays are then presented to the board for discussion and the summer play is selected.

More than 50 quality craftspeople from all over Michigan and some out of state will be exhibiting and selling. Some of the items displayed at the show will be Elizabethian herbs and wreaths, baskets, wood carving, hand-woven rag rugs, bobbin lace, knitted lace, porcelain dolls, wood folk art of various kinds, furniture, pottery, teddy bears, stenciling, stained glass, watercolors, country painting, blacksmithing, country dolls, wood inlay, and much more. Many of the exhibitors will be demonstrating at the show.

The craft show, which is being sponsored by the Chelsea Senior Citizens organization, is being promoted and organized by Marcy Stump, a Chelsea resident. The Senior Citizens will be selling food in the cafeteria, conducting a bake sale, and selling tickets for their hand-made oak leaf quilt.

Drifter Shot, Killed in Grass Lake Friday By State Police Troopers

A drifter of unknown origin was shot and killed in downtown Grass Lake last Friday as he lunged with a knife toward a policeman trying to take him into custody.

Police identified the man through fingerprints and a money order receipt as Ellis Avery, Sgt. Floyd Millikin of the Michigan State police said Avery, 42, had no known address and apparently had been a drifter for a least four years. He had a history of mental illness and minor criminal offenses.

"I think he was just passing through the area," Millikin said.

The man was shot at close range with a .38-caliber police-issue revolver in front of the Comerica Bank at 115 E. Michigan St. He was taken to Foote Hospital, Jackson, where he was pronounced dead at 4:01 p.m.

Police have refused to release the name of the trooper who shot Avery pending an investigation of the incident by the Jackson County Prosecutor's office.

According to police, Grass Lake Police Chief Kevin Summers first saw Avery lying on the ground in the cemetery. Summers requested identification, thinking the man could be a walkaway from one of the area's minimum security institutions. The man became belligerent and Summers requested back-up units. At that point Avery fled into the village, with seven police from various departments in pursuit.

Police said Avery said very little as they attempted to disarm him and never said why he fled. Police made several futile attempts to disarm the man by striking his arm as he fled.

Summers jumped out at Avery from behind a pickup truck to divert his attention so other officers could take him by surprise. Then, police said, Summers hit Avery with a club and the man came at him with his knife. Initially police said several troopers fired at Avery. Later they changed the story, saying only one trooper fired. The story was again amended Monday, saying at least five shots were fired.

Avery had a large amount of change and arcade coins in his possession. Police said he apparently rode an old moped into town, and may have been seen in Jackson two days prior to the shooting. He used the vehicle in his attempted getaway.

State police have said that they were "well within" their guidelines for the use of deadly force. They said Avery repeatedly threatened them with his knife when they came close enough to disarm him. They also said he was acting "like a maniac."

Winnewana Lake Being Re-Flooded, Will Be Restocked

The Winnewana impoundment is being re-flooded following repairs to the dam and adjacent structures, and will be restocked with fish as soon as it fills to a depth that makes over-winter survival possible.

"I think we have created an excellent habitat for waterfowl," Jackson district fisheries biologist Ken Dodge said. "The fishery probably will continue to be marginal. We are still looking at a maximum depth of six feet, and that isn't enough to insure against winter-kill."

The 600-acre impoundment, located north off Waterloo Rd. in southwest Lyndon township across from Sugar Loaf Lake, was drained two years ago and allowed to dry out so that bottom vegetation could be changed and regrown.

"We wanted to get rid of some of the species of weeds that were there, and let nature replace them with different ones more favorable to fish and wildlife," Dodge explained. "We have been partially successful. We have more cattails and smartweed growing."

"Unfortunately, we couldn't get the funding to plow out and deepen the lake bottom. It would have been a major undertaking, a lot of digging, dredging and hauling. I wish we could have done it, but the costs were too high."

The impoundment is fed by tiny Winnewana Creek. How fast it refills will depend on the amount of precipitation during the next months or years.

"There isn't much normal flow through there," Dodge said. "The creek is at the extreme edge of a small watershed. If we get a lot of rain and snow, the impoundment could be back to normal level in a year. If we get a long spell of dry weather, we could be looking at two to three years."

Dodge says he plans to stock Winnewana with bass, bluegills, pike and perch whenever the level rises to the point where survival of the planted fish is a reasonable risk.

"Pike and perch have a better chance of making it," he added, "because they can live with less oxygen than bass and bluegills can. It's going to be a marginal situation at best."

Created in the 1950's, the Winnewana impoundment provided several years of fantastic fishing, thanks to a series of mild winters after it was flooded. Then came several bad years, marked by winter-kills, and the fishery deteriorated to virtually nothing.

"About all that was left were bullheads," Dodge noted, "and even they didn't survive, as tough as they are. We netted the headwaters this year, expecting to find a lot of bullheads, and we didn't catch much of anything. There are very few fish left. That's good, because we can start from scratch with a balanced restocking program."

Dodge said he doubts if Winnewana will ever again furnish

Chelsea Hospital Plans Fall Benefit

Chelsea Community Hospital is planning a fall benefit entitled "Autumn Celebration." The benefit will be held on Saturday, Nov. 2, to raise funds for the purchase of a handicapped lift-equipped van which will provide transportation for Rehabilitation Program patients.

The "Autumn Celebration" will include a variety of activities and entertainment including Pat Bob Taylor in concert, music by the Al Nalli Combo and an auction conducted by Braun & Helmer auctioneers.

Benefit goers (those who attend the benefit) will have the opportunity to bid on a variety of items including art, travel packages, tickets to games, hot air balloon rides and more in the festive auction atmosphere created by Braun & Helmer. Live music will be provided throughout the evening, along with the opportunity for conversation and dancing during the "Afterglow" hour.

Purchase of the 12-passenger handicapped lift-equipped van will make reintegration into the community and home setting possible for patients in the rehabilitation program.

Manchester Police Department has reported that a Manchester woman was swindled out of $1,500 in cash following her agreement to pay cash for a roofing job to be done for her home by a firm called Roy's Roofing.

According to reports, the woman was told if she paid cash for the job, she would receive a 10 percent discount. She wrote out a check to Roy's Roofing which had apparently just opened an office in the Manchester area. This check was cashed, some tar was spread across the woman's roof and Roy's Roofing disappeared.

Crowds of anxious 4-wheel driver pullers lined the fairgrounds during the evening of Saturday, Aug. 29, anticipating the annual 4-wheel drive speed pulling event to be held in the new arena. But, like the tractor pulls held the night before, rain and mud greeted the group.

Still, unlike the tractor pulls, the 1981 4-wheel drive speed pulling competition was cancelled because of torrential rains, lightning and mud.

Hundreds of disappointed participants and spectators were forced to leave the new arena without their anticipated entertainment and potential prizes. In fact, all persons having registered their vehicles and paid their entry fees were being reimbursed because of the inconvenience and impossibility of pulling competition.

Ladies in the Sparrowhawk Chippers Golf League finished the summer with a tournament and luncheon, Tuesday, Aug. 25.

The luncheon was held at Quality Inn in Jackson and prizes were awarded poolside.

Tuesday's tournament winners were: Dorothy Mielke, third flight; Debbie Arend, second flight; after a playoff, Pat Whitesall, first flight.

Prizes were also awarded for: best over-all score, Debbie Arend; closest to the pin on No. 7, Sherri Plank; best attendance, Katrina Thiel and Barbara Preuss; birdie, Katrina Thiel; pars, Sherri Plank, Gloria Greenleaf, Betty Cox, Pat Whitesall, Helen Bareis, Cheryl Vogel and Nancy Brown. A special prize was also given to Betty Cox.

Under the direction of Mary Kilgore, Chelsea has developed a widow-to-widow program. Ladies gather to discuss their concerns and enjoy each other's company.

Reports on Two-Year Study Of Juvenile Justice
 A commission on state handling of neglected and abused children, established in 1982 by then Supreme Court Chief Justice Mary Coleman, has released its final report which contains 38 recommendations.

The recommendations include making improvements in staffing quality and placing maximum time limits for each step in the juvenile justice and child care system.

"It cannot be acceptable procedure to let children drift in the limbo of the legal and child welfare systems for years and years. We cannot allow thousands of Michigan's children to grow up without family ties. We must hold the belief that it is every child's inalienable right to belong in a family," the report said.

Recommendations by the commission include reducing the number of foster care cases per worker to 25 and the number of protective services referrals per month to caseworkers to 15.

The commission also recommended that reasonable efforts be made to maintain children in their families, which would require various resources to supervise such efforts.

Visitation practices by parents should be encouraged and improved, the commission report said.

The commission also recommended a clearer definition in the quality, nature and scope of the review hearing by amending the Juvenile Court Rules, which would determine how soon the first review hearing is to be held following discovery of abuse or neglect.

Additionally, the commission recommended making available community-based child abuse prevention programs, including parenting programs.

Among the problems cited by the commission are a lack of services, counseling or other services which prevent child abuse or which prevent unnecessary removal of children from their families, a serious shortage of foster homes and a lack of clarity in legal criteria for removing children from homes.

The commission also cited time delays in termination of parental rights, court process, action in parental rehabilitation and finding adoptive parents.

There are 9,824, abused and neglected children in out-of-home placements supervised by the Michigan Department of Social Services (DSS).

Included in the number are 2,634 children who have been in DSS supervised foster care for over two years.

Care for these children is estimated at over $75 million per year.

The commission also said that "the adult problems of criminal behavior and domestic violence have been linked to child abuse and neglect . . . Saving children will save dollars in the long run. Dollars that we invest in preventing child abuse and in keeping children in families are dollars that we will not need to rehabilitate troubled adults."

Would-Be Tough Guys Attempt Assault With Rifle

A man brandishing a 22-caliber rifle told a pair of Chelsea men to "make my day" after he followed them into the parking lot at Chelsea Lanes last week.

According to police, two Chelsea men left McDonald's restaurant on M-52 when they noticed they were being followed by two men in a blue pickup truck. When they pulled into the bowling alley parking lot, one of the men in the pickup got out of the truck with the gun and uttered the line made famous by Clint Eastwood as the macho detective Harry Callahan.

When one of the Chelsea men exited his vehicle, the men in the truck left the scene. A short time later, the Chelsea men saw the pickup truck stopped at Main and Park Sts. and decided to call the Chelsea police.

No one has been arrested in connection with the incident.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
 It's amazing what statics can do in this computer age. Here it is less than two weeks after Labor Day and early returns already are in for America's summer vacation. Zeke Grubb come with some numbers during the session at the country store Saturday night, and he was of a mind that somebody had to do some exit polling while folks were packing the car to get them this quick.

Zeke said the U. S. Travel Data Center in Washington has reported that it sampled 4,000 families and projected that Americans took 282 million vacations more than 100 miles from home and spent 1.7 billion nights away from home in June, July and August.

It ain't no wonder, Zeke declared, that America is ready to set in front of the television and watch football for the next five months. The country is wore to a frazzle from running all over the world in a frenzy to have summer fun, was Zeke's words. He went on to take note of some of the percents in the travel findings. For instance, 84 percent went by private motor vehicles and 12 percent by public conveyances, and Zeke said the best he can figger four percent must of walked unless they took the train and that ain't counted as a conveyance any more.

The statics on lodging have some gaps in em too, Zeke said. The center reported 42 percent of vacationers stayed in hotels and motels, and you got to wonder where the other 58 percent laid their weary heads, unless you can believe they were all in that 84 percent that slept in their cars. Zeke said he had saw some of the custom vans and motor homes that had stopped by the store and he was ready to believe that's where most of the missing 58 percent could be counted.

When Zeke slowed down, Bug Hookum jumped in to explain that the early vacation returns is unadjusted for relatives and friends. If nights and people on the road don't come out even, all you got to do is crank in enough couches and spare bedrooms spotted along vacation routes to balance the books. With a population of 236 million and 282 million vacations some obvious took more than one, Bug pointed out, but you also got to figger that somebody stayed home some of the time. When the Travel Center gets around to fine tuning its report, Bug said, it will find most of them 236 million got caught at home by somebody on vacation at least twice during the past three months.

General speaking, declared Clem Webster, the Great American Vacation is a sure way to make Americans appreciate the rut of the rest of the year. Going away makes coming home an adventure, Clem said, and you usual find that what you want most was there all the time.

Actual, vacation is in the mind of the vacationer. For instance, fer some being away from wives and husbands is vacation, and fer others being with em is. A couple that travels separate ways in their work might plan all year how best to spend a week at home together. Fer some wives, a four-day fishing trip their husbands take with other husbands onct a year might be favorite vacations fer both.

It's all in the attitude. I recall the wife that told her doctor she was worried that her 80-year-old husband was losing interest in romance. The doctor ask when she first noticed this, and the wife said first last night and agin this morning.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

New studies show that a creature's sleep time may depend not only on its metabolism rate, but also the animal's "danger factor," reports National Wildlife magazine. Animals that have few natural enemies, like the opossum and bat, sleep as much as 20 out of 24 hours. But the small roe deer, which has many predators, dozes only two-and-a-half hours a night.

Family Practice Center Starts Grandparent Adoption Program

University of Michigan Family Practice Center at Chelsea is sponsoring a new Adopt-a-Grandparent program. The program is designed to match senior citizens from within the community and older teens or young adult volunteers who will visit the seniors regularly in a one-to-one mutually beneficial friendship arrangement. This program is modeled after the successful Adopt-a-Grandparent program offered in East Lansing through Michigan State University.

The Chelsea program was designed and developed as a special student project by Denise Walton, under the supervision of Marian Cohen, ACSW, Social Worker at the Family Practice Center. They will be conducting interviews to select volunteers and grandparents and match them for compatibility.

"The program is a community effort designed to meet some of the needs of older persons trying to maintain their own homes in the Chelsea area," states Cohen. She adds that "young people in the Chelsea area may lack the guidance and support of grandparents. This program offers the opportunity for young adults to make a new friend and to learn from the adopted grandparents' life-time experiences. It can be very beneficial for both participants."

"The needs of older people vary from individual to individual," states Cohen. "Volunteers will find that the nature of his or her involvement with a given person will depend on that unique situation."

Once the interviews are complete and matching is done, the Family Practice Center will host a social tea for program participants. This will be an opportunity for the people to meet and get acquainted in a group situation.

If anyone has an interest in being either a volunteer or a grandparent, please contact Denise Walton or Marian Cohen at the University of Michigan Family Practice Center at Chelsea, 475-1321, ext. 430.

What we need first of all is for the impoundment to fill up fast so we can put some fish in there and start them growing and reproducing. Then, with a couple of mild winters, we could have some excellent fishing. It's a gamble worth taking."

Chelsea Area Players Plan General Meeting

Another committee for which volunteers are needed is publicity. The work of this committee includes the design of posters and flyers, distribution of posters and flyers, sending out public service announcements to newspapers, TV or radio, and writing articles about the Players' activities. Arranging for photographs, typing and making phone calls are other activities.

For the winter play, a refreshments committee is needed to make the necessary arrangements and purchases. Volunteers for set construction and painting are needed.

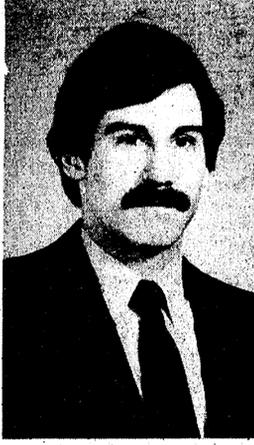

The long-range plans of the Players will be discussed at the general meeting. The possibilities include adding a third performance per year, finding a playhouse, development of the season ticket, and ways to increase membership.

Over the past year, the Players have been revising their by-laws. These will be discussed and voted on.

All-in-all, the meeting should be informative and lively. The Players invite you to share your ideas with them at the general meeting. If you'd really like to be involved, become a board member. Or if you'd like to try your hand at play-reading or one of the other activities, please let the Players know. This is your chance to influence the direction of community theater in Chelsea.

DRAMA REVIEW:

'You Can't Take It With You' Is Still Enjoyable

By Russ Ogden
Free Lance Drama Critic
& Professor at EMU

George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart presented Broadway with a Christmas valentine on Dec. 15, 1936, at the famed Booth Theatre with the delightful comedy "You Can't Take It With You." Time has not tarnished the Pulitzer Prize winning play with the brilliant writing, combining broad and sensitive comedic character development in this 49-year-old endeavor.

Director Charles Burr and the True Grist Dinner Theatre acting ensemble in Homer give a valiant try, but their production becomes mired by ineffective and somewhat amateurish performance by the acting ensemble. The play is enjoyable only because of Kaufmann and Hart's script, in many instances.

started his permanent vacation by merely walking off his job one day and not returning.

Grandpa is surrounded by members of his family and welcomed guests who never left the premises after their initial arrival. All members of this household—relatives and guests—are involved in their individual hobbies whether it is erector set ship-building or manufacturing fireworks in the residence basement.

The play's crisis is a social one when the daughter, Alice Sycamore (Carrie Lane Johnson), falls in love with the son and vice-president of a Wall Street family (played by Neil Bearman) and the aspiring, traditional industrialist Wall Streeter's family.

Social bedlam in the Sycamore household is caused by the arrival for dinner of the Kirbys by a night early! Mr. and Mrs. Kirby (Charles Burr and Sharon L. Horsch) of Wall Street and their reaction to the Sycamore household forms the crux of the play. With plays written in the early post depression era, happy endings were common and so it is with this three act romp.

Although the comedy rolls along with less than satisfactory performances, Ken Renner as Mr. DePinna, a buddy of Mr. Sycamore's, gives a delightful guest interpretation of the guest who never left. Whether he is posing in Roman attire with discus in hand or coming from the basement covered with a fireworks explosion debris, Renner as DePinna makes every word and motion count with a superb interpretation.

Lorna Winslow is splendid as the adde pated but lovable "Penny." Sycamore while Karl Trader is so natural as Paul Mr. Sycamore he IS Mr. Sycamore, both giving well paced, interacting performances in their anchor roles. Returning to True Grist is Paul Kerr whose performance is so strong (and extremely well done) that he overcomes the stage and acting ensemble that is surrounding him. And, perhaps with a dose of prejudicial judgment because of previous successful roles, Purdue's Neil Bearman always seems to give an above average performance and does so again as the love lorn, family dominated son of the Wall Street family.

The ensemble as a whole: some actors are on the fast track vocally while others can barely be heard; some actors ARE "acting" while others are reciting their lines. Some actors relate to their fellow mentors on stage, while others seem to be giving a solo performance to the audience.

Yet in spite of these deficiencies, you will enjoy the play if you are seeing it for the first time but not be aware of what could have been at the True Grist Dinner Theatre. For prior patrons of the True Grist, the supporting vertical beams of the stage area have been removed with the stage seeming much larger with the actors given greater freedom of view as well as action to the audience gathered at serving tables.

"You Can't Take It with You" runs through Oct. 6 with no performances on Mondays or Tuesdays. Cocktails start at 6 on Thursday through Saturday evening, dinner buffet style is available at 6:30 p.m. and stage performances at 8. Wednesday matinee cocktail hour is 12:30 p.m., brunch at 1 p.m., show at 2. Wednesday evening is "no frills popcorn evening" with the show starting at 7:30 p.m. Sunday brunch at 1:30 and the show at 3 p.m.

Never have I not had a good time at the True Grist Dinner Theatre in Homer (I-94 to M-60 exit at Jackson), Michigan. The buffets provided with the evening of entertainment excel any local dinner theatre fare. The human warmth of the personnel who supplement the acting company's efforts from efficient waiting staff to the most cordial host is always commendable. So when the "acting banquet" is less than superb, the delectable food more than makes up for it. This was certainly true again opening night, Sept. 5.

"You Can't Take It With You" demands ensemble acting. When pieces of the ensemble fail to ignite or not keep pace, then a very literate play can be brought down from enjoyable to pretty medium entertainment fare.

Crop Insurance Deadline Near

Sept. 30 is the last day to apply for crop insurance for wheat in Michigan, according to Barbara A. Cranson, a representative of the Federal Crop Insurance Corp. (FCIC).

Crop Insurance covers unavoidable loss of production resulting from adverse weather conditions, wildlife, earthquake, or fire.

Three coverage levels (50, 65, or 75 percent) are available for insurance protection. Additionally, FCIC offers three optional price elections for valuing production lost or damaged," says Cranson.

A new crop insurance plan, called Actual Production History (APH), is available this year to producers of wheat, barley and oats in addition to corn, grain sorghum, and other crops. Producers of these crops may now qualify for higher yield guarantees by proving their yield history. Rates have been developed to offer reduced premium for producers with above-average yield. "With the increased cost of producing a crop, it makes good sense to take a look at this new concept," says Cranson.

To find out more about the APH plan, producers should contact a local, authorized agent. To select an agent, producers may check the list of agents at their local ASCS office, Sept. 30 is the final deadline for applications.

Too Much Love?

"It's too bad we farmers are loved so much. When farmers are in economic trouble, everyone wants the government to help us. And the more 'help' we get from government, the worse off our industry becomes. When the fellow downtown who ran the car dealership or the couple who operated the local hardware were in financial trouble, nobody loved them enough to call on government to save them. I reject the idea of a government-managed agriculture and that's one of the ideas to 'save' us today. My freedom of choice, the opportunities I have that farmers in other parts of the world don't have, are sacred to me. I have a great abiding faith in agriculture and I don't believe the problems we have now are insurmountable—if we take a lesson from past mistakes."

—Dean Pridgeon, MSU Trustee and Branch County hog producer.

Apple Showcase Slated At Plymouth Orchards

Do you prefer the Johnny or the Mac? Have you ever wondered what varieties of fruit trees would be the best choice for your home orchard? Many new apple varieties are recommended because they combine disease resistance with dwarfed size and other desirable growing characteristics. The problem is that you may not have had the opportunity to taste these new apples which means you probably won't plant them.

Now you have the perfect opportunity to sample several new and long favored apple varieties. The Apple Tasting and Fruit Variety Showcase will be held on Thursday, Sept. 19, at Plymouth Orchards. Co-sponsored by several Southeast Michigan Co-operative Extension offices and Hilltop Fruit Nursery, the informal meeting will run from 6 to 9 p.m. You may come at anytime, however, as a formal program is not planned. Specialists will be on hand to answer questions on selecting not only apples but also other tree fruits such as pears, plums, peaches, apricots, cherries and nectarines.

Plymouth Orchard is at 10685 Warren Rd., in Plymouth. For more detailed directions, call the Washtenaw Co-operative Extension Service at 973-9510.

To get to Plymouth Orchards, take M-14 to exit 15 which is Godfredson Rd. Take Godfredson Rd. south and follow the Plymouth Orchard signs to the orchard.

Marker To Be Dedicated Commemorating Jerusalem

An historical marker commemorating the site of Jerusalem in Lima township will be dedicated in a ceremony beginning at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 14.

The marker, sponsored by the Washtenaw Historical Commission, is on property presently owned by Roy Koch at 1240 S. Fletcher Rd. where Mill Creek crosses just east of Haist Rd. But for the fact that the railroad through Washtenaw county was built where it is, the site could have developed into what is present-day Chelsea.

It is hard to imagine that quietly flowing Mill Creek, which barely murmurs as it passes under the Fletcher Rd. bridge, once was dammed to flood a 1,000-acre millpond and provide power for a combined sawmill and gristmill.

It is even harder to imagine that the community of Jerusalem once was a thriving village with several businesses and bright prospects for future development into west Washtenaw county's center of commerce.

All that is left of Jerusalem are the placid little creek and half a dozen homes clustered at the crossing. The historical plaque will mark what might have happened had the railroad not been located where it is.

Lima township historian Margaret Sias notes, "When the railroad was put through what is now Chelsea, residents in the area moved to it. That's how Chelsea came to be. The early settlements eventually disappeared as Chelsea grew."

The hamlet of Jerusalem traces its beginnings to 1831 when a millwright named John K. Bingham bought three parcels of land along Mill Creek, erected two dams, and constructed a sawmill to serve the needs of a growing community.

The mill passed through several changes of ownership while the settlement grew. A gristmill apparently was added about 1870, although the records are obscure as to just when it was built.

The little town was variously known as Bingham's, Porter's, Porterville and Mill Dell before coming to be called Jerusalem about 1860. The name came from a town in New York, which was titled for the Biblical city.

THE CAMERA DOESN'T SEE THINGS in quite the same way we do, and that is why a rectangular historical marker (top photo) on the Roy Koch property at 1240 S. Fletcher Rd. looks to be a little bit out of shape although it isn't. The camera did record the wording, which speaks for itself. Lower photo shows Mill Creek as it flows toward Fletcher Rd. It's hard to believe that the little stream, when dammed, once backed up a 1,000-acre millpond.

Jerusalem struggled along, never exactly mushrooming but hanging on. Over the years a succession of general stores, taverns and (later) gasoline stations did business there, along with the mill.

The death knell was sounded in 1930 when the federal government bought the water rights to Mill Creek, paid the then mill operator, Emmanuel Wacker, to close out his business, took out the dams and drained the mill-pond so it could be converted to farming. The land remains in agricultural use and is some of Washtenaw county's most productive acreage. A cider mill, powered by electricity, remained in operation on the site for several years before being abandoned. The Koch family has owned the property for more than 50 years.

TEL-MED is sponsored by the hospitals of Washtenaw and Livingston counties, Washtenaw United Way, Washtenaw County Medical Society and University of Michigan Health Service.

Bulldog Varsity Grid Team Dominates Strong Columbia Central, 36-12

In a game that was not nearly as close as the score indicated, the Chelsea Bulldog varsity football team whipped the visiting Brooklyn Columbia Central Golden Eagles last Friday, 36-12.

With the exception of two long plays by the Golden Eagles, one a 91-yard kickoff return for a touchdown and the other a 53-yard run, the Bulldog defense passed its first test of the year. Chelsea limited the visitors to 177 total yards, 156 of them on the ground. According to defensive co-ordinator Wayne Welton, the team's goal for every game is to give up less than 185 yards.

The kickoff return, and three Chelsea fumbles kept the game from being substantially more lopsided than it was.

"Defensively we did an outstanding job," said Chelsea Head Coach Gene LaFave.

"Other than the one big play, we shut them down. Our special teams play was not good, but over-all our execution was good. For a first game we played well, but perhaps not as well as we would have liked."

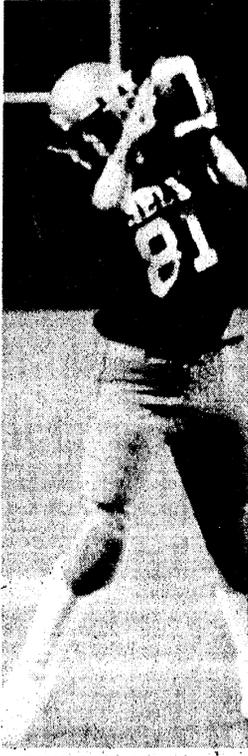

Offensively, the Bulldogs revealed a more balanced attack than might have been anticipated from last year's play. Rushing offense surpassed passing yardage, 171-142.

"Columbia came to stop the pass and lined up a lot of people in the secondary," LaFave said.

"Friday night we proved we could run the ball."

Dan Bellus had a good night, completing 12 of 22 passes.

Senior halfback Mark Mull, wearing the slightly-confusing number of a tight end (81), the position he was originally scheduled to play at the beginning of the season, accounted for 143 yards of offense and 11 tackles on defense in a solid, all-around performance. He caught four passes from senior quarterback Bellus for 36 yards and rushed for 107.

Bellus and sophomore running back Rob Finch combined for the remaining 64 rushing yards, split evenly with 32 each.

However, Finch led the scoring parade for the evening with two touchdowns on carries of three and four yards.

Chelsea took the opening kickoff and promptly took the ball 80 yards in 13 plays. That opening series must have made head coach Gary Huntley wonder if he had prepared for the wrong team. After a 15-yard pass to Mull, the Bulldogs rushed on seven of the next 10 plays, six carries by Mull and one by Finch.

However, the Bulldogs looked like the Bulldogs of old on the final two plays of the series. Junior flanker Matt Bohlender caught a nine-yard pass to the 16-yard-line, and junior split end Todd Starkey followed with a touchdown reception at the front-left corner of the end zone.

Starkey had four catches for the night, good for 35 yards, and Bohlender two receptions good for 40 yards. Tight end Matt Steinhauer also caught two for 34 yards.

From the first score on there was never much doubt about the outcome, even though the score was only 6-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Bellus kept the ball on the option play around the left end for a five-yard score early in the second quarter. The first key to the drive was a 25-yard pass play to Steinhauer to the Golden Eagle 24-yard-line. Four plays later, on fourth down, after three short gains on runs by Bellus and Finch, Mull caught a quick pass at the 12 for the first down. Two plays later Bellus beat the BCC linebackers to the flag for the score at the 10:54 mark of the quarter.

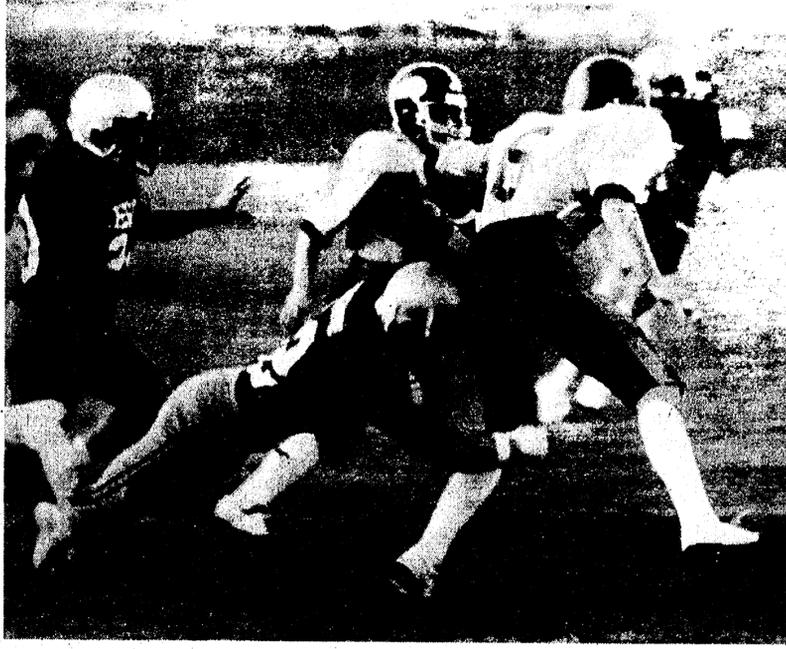

Just a few short seconds later, however, the Golden Eagles came back with the kickoff return. For the rest of the half, Chelsea couldn't sustain a drive, punting the ball away once, and fumbling it away on another occasion. The score remained 14-6 going into the third quarter.

The Golden Eagles took the second-half kickoff, and turned the ball over on a fumble on the first play from scrimmage. Mull and Bellus ran the ball the next four plays to the three-yard-line. Finch then scored the first of his two touchdowns.

A Chelsea fumble set up BCC's second score. After stopping the Golden Eagles on downs at the Chelsea 23-yard-line, the Bulldogs gave the ball back on the first play at their own 20. BCC kept the ball on the ground for five plays before punting it over from the one with 2:27 left in the third quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter, with the score still 22-12, BCC took a strange gamble by going for a first down on a fourth and one situation on their own 33-yard-line.

After the first-down attempt failed, the BCC secondary was (Continued on page 11)

DEFENSE WAS THE STORY for the Bulldogs' season opening win against Brooklyn Columbia Central. The Chelsea defense gave up 177 yards, much of it on one 53-yard scamper. Above, outside linebacker Steve Wingrove, a senior, stops Golden Eagle end Todd Plate for a short gain.

QUARTERBACK DAN BELLUS sweeps around the left end for the Bulldogs' second touchdown of the night early in the second quarter. The senior co-captain completed 12 of 22 passes, but, more importantly, guided a Bulldog offense that gained 171 yards rushing.

Record Set at Independence Lake Biathlon

The third annual Independence Lake Biathlon which was held Saturday, Aug. 24, drew 90 participants. The event featured a one-mile swim followed by a 3.1 mile cross country run. A new course record was set in spite of the threatening weather. Top three places in each division are as follows:

Male—1st, Dave Linden, Ann Arbor, 39:31; 2nd, Martin Holland, Ann Arbor, 39:33; 3rd, Doug Chestnut, Ypsilanti, 42:16.

Female—1st, Stacey Dahlman, Ann Arbor, 48:25; 2nd, Mary Burau, East Lansing, 49:57; 3rd, Marylynn Early, Lansing, 50:41.

The new course record was set by Dave Linden, the old record of 45:42 was set by Neal Bond in 1983.

Bulldog Golfers Lose Opening Match at Howell

The Chelsea Bulldog golf team lost its opening match of the season at Howell last Tuesday by 11 strokes.

The final score was 169-180 over nine holes.

The top Bulldog performers were junior Tom Roth who shot 42, senior Rob Murrell, who shot 44, and junior Jon Lane, who shot 46.

Final scores are determined by adding the scores of the top four players (out of six).

JV Gridders Drop Opener, 28-12

Three interceptions and a lost fumble were the key ingredients in an opening-season loss for the junior varsity Bulldogs last Thursday against Columbia Brooklyn Central, 28-12.

"We had our chances," said coach Charlie Ticknor.

"We were just unable to hit the open receivers."

Indeed, the only two passes completed (2-14) by the Bulldogs were both good for touchdowns. The first one was a 34-yard strike from Jordan Gray to Kevin Flanigan with no time left on the clock at the end of the first half. The second was in the fourth quarter with the score at 20-6. Gray hit Clay Hurd with a 35-yard pass.

One bright spot on offense was the running of the option, where Gray was able to carry the ball eight times for 89 yards.

It was unfortunate for Chelsea, though, that the rest of the running game never quite got out of the blocks. All other runners gained 28 yards on 16 carries.

"Our running would have been a lot better if we could have passed more successfully," Ticknor said.

Ticknor said that defensively his team played well "in spots." Brooklyn managed only 26 yards on three-for-eight passing, but ran for 200 yards.

"They had too many big plays," Ticknor said.

"But I saw a lot of positive things. We had a lot of first game jitters, but the kids never gave up, which is a credit to them. They had a pretty good team, and I think we do, too."

Netters Win First Match ★

Chelsea High school girls tennis team won its match against Howell, 4-3, on Wednesday of last week. It was a good win as Chelsea had lost to Howell, 1-6, twice last season. "We have a little more experience this year and some good JV players moving up into key positions," coach Terry Schreiner noted. "Some of our players are now playing indoors during the winter which is what we need to excel today."

Chris Defant is the captain of the team and this is her fourth season playing for Chelsea. Chris will be alternating at the number one position with junior Melanie Dils, especially for the tougher teams that we play twice.

Chris and Melanie are fairly equal in ability and take turns beating one another.

The next two posts (singles 3 and 4) will probably be played by Angie Miller and Jenny Pichlik, respectively. Chelsea has depth in singles for the first time this year in that third-year player Jackie Boosey can step in when necessary. Freshman Angel Lawton is also coming along very well and can fill a vacancy should one arise.

In doubles, Chelsea has returning lettermen, Karen Killelea and Anne Acree who will have to work hard to maintain the No. 1 spot in doubles. Creeping up on them are the Tai twins, Ada and Arlene, who played all winter and attended tennis camp for three weeks this summer. They are looking exceptionally good this year, having moved up from JV last year and should really be an asset to the team. They will play either one or two this season.

Playing third doubles at present is the team of Kelly Stump and Deana Slusher. Deana is a returning letterman from last year and Kelly has moved up from JV.

Closely rivaling them are two other JV players, Minta Van Reesma and Alison Thornton. This gives the team depth in both singles and doubles which we have never had before. "Hopefully it will keep everybody on their toes and make them work harder," coach Terry Schreiner stated.

Winners for the Howell match were Angie Miller who won her match at third singles, 6-1, 6-2; Jenny Pichlik at fourth singles, winning 6-1, 6-2; also, Ada and Arlene Tai at second doubles, 6-1, 6-0; and Kelly Stump and Deana Slusher over their opponents at third doubles, 6-1, 6-0. Chris Defant played a close second set but lost the match, 2-6, 5-7. Melanie Dils lost a tough three-setter, 6-1, (Continued on page 11)

THE CHELSEA BULLDOG made its first appearance of the season at the football home opener last Friday. The suit, a gift from the class of 1985, was worn by an unidentified student.

Bulldogs Face Real Challenge at Saline

This Friday's matchup between the Chelsea Bulldogs and Saline Hornets could decide the Southeastern Conference Championship even though it will be the first conference game for both teams.

Chelsea coach Gene LaFave said the game will certainly be one of the toughest tests of the season.

"We will have to have the same kind of balanced game we had against Brooklyn Columbia Central to win the game," LaFave said.

"Saline always has good athletes and big, strong kids. They always come out with a solid game plan, too. They'll be much more physical than Brooklyn was."

Chelsea had 313 total yards, 171 rushing and 142 passing.

Saline comes into the game with a new quarterback, Grant Fanning, and little experience in their wide receivers, but that won't necessarily be an advantage.

"Their quarterback is an exceptional athlete with a strong arm," said defensive coordinator Wayne Welton.

"Although I've never seen him throw a football, I have seen him throw a baseball because he's the shortstop on their team. He also runs well, which will pose some problems that Brooklyn didn't."

Welton said that defensively the Bulldogs "will keep on doing what we've been doing," but that the Saline quarterback is likely to see some different looks than what he'll see in game films from past Chelsea games.

Again, Welton said, the key to the game will be in the play of the linebackers, who had a pretty good day against the Golden Eagles. Steve Wingrove and Mark Mull combined for 18 tackles. With a quick quarterback, defensive end Andy Box, who had seven tackles last week, may also have another busy night.

MARK MULL, right, takes advantage of a good, but perhaps slightly illegal block by guard Andy Box for a good gain during Chelsea's home opener with Brooklyn Columbia Central. Mull led the team in rushing with 107 yards and passing with four catches for 36 yards.

Summer Softball Season Ends

The Chelsea adult softball leagues ended with Chelsea Industries taking the top spot in the men's A division with a 20-1 record, and North American Exploration Corp. winning the B division with a 13-7 record.

North American Exploration was the only team all season long to knock off Chelsea Indians.

Chelsea State Bank took the top spot in the women's league. On the last night of the season, two teams were tied for second place, Chelsea Pharmacy/Tower Mart, and Wolverine Food and Spirits. The Pharmacy/Tower Mart team lost their last game to Chelsea Glass and Wolverine slipped past Palmer Ford. Wolverine was a first-year team.

"I'd like to thank all people involved in this year's programs," said Ron Schuyler, director of the leagues.

"We had a tough time finding umpires, but found enough local umpires to handle the season well. They did a good job."

Schuyler said the 1985 season will be his last as director.

Gridders Win

called for pushing Mull, which put the ball at the 18. Three plays later, again all rushing plays, Mull took the ball in from the five.

Toward the end of the game, the Chelsea defense again rose to the occasion, stopping the Golden Eagles at the Bulldog 44 on a fourth-and-inches play. It turned out to be the beginning of Chelsea's final scoring drive of the night, which was helped along the way by a roughing-the-kicker penalty.

The final drive, with the exception of a pass to Starkey, was grind-it-out football. Finch scored his second touchdown of the night with less than 10 seconds to go.

Netters Win

4-6, 2-6; and Killelea and Acree lost at first doubles, 1-6, 3-6.

"We are starting out the season with a win over a Class A team. I just hope we can maintain this momentum," says coach Schreiner. "It really would be nice to have a good season. We haven't had much of a chance up until now."

Next match will be against Monroe Jefferson, away, on Monday.

Local Youth Win at State 4-H Horse Show

Several Washtenaw county 4-H'ers received awards at the 1985 Michigan State 4-H Horse Show held Aug. 20 at Michigan State University.

Anna Remen of Ann Arbor, was awarded champion placing in fitting and showmanship as well as second place (silver medal) in both hunter seat over fences (16-year-old and up) and working hunter over fences. In addition, she was awarded third place (bronze medal) for both hunter seat equitation (17 and up) and bareback equitation (13 and up).

Ken Martin of Grass Lake, earned reserve champion in the fitting and showmanship event, a gold medal for stock seat equitation (17) and silver medals for both English fitting and showing (16 and up) and saddle seat equitation (17).

According to John Evert, Washtenaw county 4-H Youth Agent, the purpose of the annual event is to give 4-H horse project members an opportunity to evaluate their horsemanship skills by competing against other youths from across the state with similar interests.

This year's event included 245 classes ranging from western and English riding and dressage to costume, trail and gymkhana events. Washtenaw county was allowed to send 24 delegates to the state show, a percentage based on the number of members enrolled in the 4-H horse project.

ED BEISSEL, a McKinley Rd. resident, show off some new potatoes from the best crop he's ever had, including one that weighed over 2.5 pounds. Beissel has harvest more than 210 pounds of potatoes that began last spring as 50 pounds of seed potatoes.

Farm Bureau Protests Ruling on Ethanol Imports

Farm Bureau has notified Treasury Secretary James Baker of the nation's largest farm organization's "strongest objections" to the decision to delay imposition of the correct tariff on imported fuel ethanol.

On Aug. 2, the U. S. Customs Service agreed that it was allowing ethanol imports at a tariff rate that was substantially lower than what it should have been. The correct tariff should be 3% plus 60¢ per gallon rather than the flat 5% tariff that was being collected. On Aug. 27, the Customs Service decided to postpone, for two months, the higher tariffs for shipments whose contracts were signed prior to the Aug. 2 ruling.

Al Almy, director of public affairs for the Michigan Farm Bureau, said that under the new ruling, it would be physically possible and profitable for U. S. importers and foreign exporters to ship as much as 250 million gallons during the interim period. "That amount would be equal to about half of the U. S. annual production and would have a very devastating effect on our ethanol industry," he said.

The National Corn Growers Association and producers of ethanol fuel filed suit on Aug. 30 in the U. S. Court of International Trade to block importation of shipments not subject to the proper higher duties.

Bechtel Hires Former Pursell Press Secretary

William S. Kerans, 41, has been named area public affairs manager in Bechtel Power Corporation's Ann Arbor area office, according to William G. Henry, vice-president and area office manager.

Since 1977, Kerans has served as press secretary to U. S. Rep. Carl Pursell (R. Mich.), whose district includes Ann Arbor. Prior to that position, he served from 1972-1976 as press secretary to the Republican members of the Michigan State Senate in Lansing, and from 1967-1972 as assistant press secretary to the Republican members of the Michigan House of Representatives.

Kerans graduated from Michigan State University in 1967 with a B. A. in Telecommunications. Prior to that time, he had a varied background in news reporting, sports reporting and television and radio program and advertising production with a number of stations in Michigan including WJIM-TV and radio in Lansing, and WILX-TV in Jackson.

In his new position, Kerans will be responsible for Bechtel Power's relations with government and media representatives in the Midwest region served by the Ann Arbor area office.

"We're delighted to have Bill on board," said Henry. "Bill will help maintain Bechtel's strong commitment to responsible corporate citizenship in Michigan. Bechtel has been a part of Michigan for almost 30 years, and we are enthused about our future prospects in the state and the region."

EPA Proposed Ban Alarms Fruit Growers

Banning the use of the food growth chemical Alar, proposed by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), would cost Michigan fruit growers "multi-millions of dollars," according to Tom Butler, apple division manager for the Michigan Agricultural Co-operative Marketing Association (MACMA).

Removal of Alar from the growth process of such fruits as apples and cherries would have a negative effect on both fruit producers and consumers, he said. "The elimination of Alar for use in apple production would reduce the shelf life of apples. They would be less red in color and tend to bruise easier," Butler said.

EPA wants to ban Alar because of its potential of being a cancer-causing agent, but Butler says a human being would have to consume 50,000 pounds of apples a day for life to be exposed to the high levels of the chemical used in the EPA study on mice and rats.

"Alar is safer than table salt," he said.

Butler said the MACMA will testify for continued use of Alar in fruit during upcoming EPA scheduled public hearings on the proposed ban.

"I am confident that once all of the facts are considered, EPA will withdraw its proposed Alar ban," he said.

Question: I lost my job in a budget-cutting move. I have now received a tentative job offer from another firm but it pays less, offers no benefits and means I have to travel over 50 miles to and from work. If I refuse this job, will I still be able to collect unemployment benefits?
 Answer: Based on the differences in salary, benefits and travelling distances between your old job and the potential new job, you may still qualify for unemployment benefits even if you refuse the job offer. But as a general rule, workers who refuse an offer of "suitable" work are disqualified from receiving jobless benefits.
 The key point in whether the employment offer is for a "suitable" job. An MESC unemployment claims examiner will decide if the offer is suitable based on several factors about you and the job. The examiner will look at how long you have been out of work, your past experience and training, your chances of finding a job in your line of work, the job's wages and benefits as compared to your former job, the job's distance from your home and any risks the job may pose to your health, safety and morals.
 If you have a question for MESC, send it to "Ask MESC," 7310 Woodward, Room 5065 Detroit 48202. Unfortunately, it is not possible to answer or acknowledge each letter. We do, however, read them all and print those of most general interest.

YOUR FUTURE WON'T WAIT... AND TIME'S A WASTIN'!

"Time is money"... "The future waits for no man." Both are well-worn statements and basically true. Your time, however, is worth much more than money.

If you have been thinking about going back to school for your diploma, don't put it off another day! Adult Education classes will be starting again this fall with many adults from this area taking advantage of the no-cost program available to those working for a high school diploma. Your decision to start now could mean a better or more satisfying job and a richer, fuller life. With a diploma, the way is opened to further technical training or a four-year college program.

Call the number below and find out how you can get all the help you need to get started on your future. Time's a wastin'!

The earth's protective ozone layer, which absorbs high levels of radiation from the sun, is at serious risk from world-wide chemical use, reports International Wildlife magazine. While aerosol spray-can use of chlorofluorocarbons has declined by 82 percent over the past decade, their use as refrigerants, insulating material and solvents has increased by more than 70 percent. The EPA estimates a 20 percent depletion of the ozone layer, possible in less than 40 years, would result in 3.7 million more cases of skin cancer each year in the U.S.

Gregory Police Arrest 3 On Alcohol-Related Charges

It has been a big two weeks in Gregory for the arrest of drivers under the influence of alcohol.

A rollover on the railroad tracks east of Van Sickle Rd on Monday, Aug. 26 in the early evening was likely the result of alcohol, according to Larry Owen of the Unadilla Township Police Department.

Owen said the driver, Lawrence James Hunt, 26, of Jackson was arrested for driving while intoxicated after a breath test indicated an alcohol level of .18. The legal level of intoxication is .10. Owen said both the driver and a passenger escaped uninjured.

In another incident, Owen said that he was standing outside the police station when a man pulled up in an automobile and complained about an arrest Owen had made earlier.

According to Owen, it was obvious the man had been drinking, and a breath test confirmed his suspicions.

Arrested was Dale Lyle Pidd, 22, of Stockbridge. He was also charged with carrying a loaded firearm in a non-game area.

The third alcohol-related offense occurred on Thursday, Sept. 5.

According to Owen, a man swerved across the center line on Main St., stopped, and tried to back up, lodging his bumper against a stop sign.

Arrested was Merlyn Aldwyn Ostrum of Howell. According to Owen, Ostrum had also been arrested two days earlier in Livingston county for OUIL.

Owen also responded to a head-on collision on Thursday, Aug. 29 on Church St. near Bullis Rd.

Owen said no charges were filed after Kenneth Dale Lewis, 51, of Gregory, failed to negotiate a sharp curve and hit a car driven by Theresa Ann Wiley, 25, also of Gregory. Wiley was the only one injured in the accident and was transported to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. She has since been released.
