CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1985

BRANDY STEPP of Chelsea doesn't seem a bit phased as Chelsea Police Chief Lenard McDougall takes her fingerprints during the VFW's free fingerprinting session last Saturday at the VFW Hall on N. Main St. Brandy is being held by her aunt, Tammy Frey of Munth. 353 children were fingerprinted during the four-hour session, and many others left because of the crowd inside. The VFW, in conjunction with the police department, will hold another session on Saturday, Oct. 19, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Ginny Boyer, of the VFW women's auxiliary, said they didn't anticipate such a huge response, and promises the next session will be better staffed.

Building Boom Hits Chelsea

All of a sudden, building is booming in the Chelsea area. According to Zoning Inspector Rosemary Harok, Taco Bell is coming to town. The new facility has received preliminary approval from the planning commission to begin building on vacant property between Schumm's restaurant and Chelsea Big Boy on Old US-12, just south of town.

The owner will be Bill Davis of Ann Arbor, the current owner of Arbor Springs Water Co. Davis had a few minor hurdles to clear with the Washtenaw County Building Department as of press time, but may break ground as early as this week.

The restaurant should be up in time for a Christmas taco. A new eight-unit apartment complex is underway on W. Middle St. Jack Thams was granted three separate variances by the Chelsea village council at last Tuesday's meeting—one involving parking for the structure, one involving the placement of a garbage receptacle, and another regarding porch overhangs. The footings are already in place.

The units will be one and two-bedroom apartments, about 970 square feet each.

Builder Robert Penskar of Chelsea is constructing a 1,970 square foot duplex, also on W. Middle St. The building will be one level. The crawl space has been constructed. He does not plan to live in the building himself.

Builder Warren Porath also plans to build apartments at 705 W. Middle St. on land adjacent to the Chelsea United Methodist Home. He was also granted a variance, having to do with parking, at the council's last meeting.

According to plans shown the council, the building will proceed in phases, with possibly as many as three buildings ultimately being constructed. The initial building will contain 12 units.

Methodist Home Plans Open House

It must be October! The Methodist Home is getting ready to welcome the public to its annual Open House on Sunday, Oct. 13 from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m.

This year's Open House will be special because the new Kresge Nursing Wing is now open and 75 residents from the older buildings are getting settled into their new accommodations.

The Kresge Wing will be a part of tours of the Home offered during Open House.

The Rusty String Band, a traditional part of the open house, will be entertaining in the dining room; the mellow dulcimer music and traditional tunes are always enjoyed by residents and guests alike.

The Chelsea Home is part of the connection outreach of the United Methodist Church, but it welcomes residents of all denominations. Three different levels of living are offered: independent, semi-independent and nursing.

South Elementary school is planning an Open House for Thursday, Oct. 10 from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Children are encouraged to bring their parents, introduce them to their teachers and show what they are doing this year.

This is not a planned conference time because of many other parents being here. If you wish to have a conference with your child's teacher this would be a good time to make an appointment for later.

School administrators and teachers invite you to visit school and the classrooms and will be glad to help make arrangements for visits when you call the office.

Chelsea Schools Enrollment Drops 26 From Last Year

Chelsea school district has 26 fewer students enrolled this year compared to 1984-85.

According to the traditional count of students on the fourth Friday after opening, Chelsea has 2,239 students compared to 2,265 a year ago.

Both North and South Elementary schools gained in enrollment, while there were fewer students at both Beach Middle school and Chelsea High school. North school has 473 students, while South school's total is 493. They are up from 441 and 487 students, respectively.

Beach Middle school is down from 505 last year to 470, while the high school enrollment has dropped from 832 to 803.

According to assistant superintendent Fred Mills, the total number is "very close" to what the district expected.

The enrollment figures are not as important in Chelsea as they are in other districts around the state, in terms of receiving additional state funds. The Chelsea district is what is called an "out of formula" district, which means the district collects too much money for its size and property value to merit any additional aid. The state essentially guarantees that each district will receive a certain amount of money. The Chelsea district already takes in more than that amount of money.

The Ypsilanti school district and Milan school district are the only ones in Washtenaw country that are not out of formula districts.

The totals, by grade, for the school system are listed below. The first figure is the 1984 total, the second, the 1985 total.

Kindergarten, 159, 165.
First, 183, 187.
Second, 137, 185.
Third, 147, 144.
Fourth, 149, 153.
Fifth, 137, 152.
Sixth, 136, 153.
Seventh, 176, 141.
Eighth, 193, 176.
Ninth, 229, 193.
Tenth, 182, 228.
Eleventh, 197, 176.
Twelfth, 214, 192.

Beach seventh and eighth grade bands, with some 110 members, will show off their new yellow sweaters with logos, which were purchased by the school district.

According to Warren Mayer, the band director at Beach, tunes for the show will come from Broadway musicals and the blues. There may even be a polka thrown in.

The bands will hold rehearsals on the high school football fields on Thursday and Friday mornings. There will be bus transportation back to Beach after rehearsal.

Mud Bog Okayed By Village Council

Berm Busters will hold a mud bog on Sunday, Oct. 27 at the Chelsea fairgrounds. No further details were available at press time.

The village council gave the go-ahead for the show at its regular meeting last Tuesday.

Wastewater Treatment Plant $2.4 Million Grant Given EPA Approval

Chelsea has received its 55 percent grant from the Environmental Protection Agency for the funding of a new wastewater treatment plant.

Village President Jerry Satterthwaite announced the news last Tuesday night at the regular council meeting. Cynthia Hudgins, district co-ordinator for U.S. Representative Carl Pursell's office, confirmed the news. She said the village should receive written confirmation this week.

The initial amount of the grant is for $2,435,831. The total estimated cost of the project is $4,428,420. That leaves the village's share of the project at $1,992,789.

The EPA itself had a slightly higher estimated cost than village engineers at $4,707,600. And that estimate, according to a document dated July 28, 1985, from the EPA's Chicago office, was figured in 1983 construction costs. The document says "inflation cannot be included, per EPA guidelines."

A more precise cost will not be known until the project goes out for bids, probably next spring.

The Village of Dexter was forced to rebuild its wastewater treatment plant a few years ago and, according to Dexter village president Paul Bishop, the bids came in "quite a bit higher," than the estimates. However, he said, the EPA picked up its percentage of the difference.

The EPA's estimated cost per household in Chelsea is $88 per quarter, or $352 per year, which is considerably higher than people here are used to paying. Of course, if the project proves to be more costly than current estimates, then those per-household costs are likely to be higher. The EPA also estimated 12 percent bonding for 20 years.

Village officials are also waiting for an opinion from the village's financial advisor, Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone of Detroit, on whether or not an election on bonding will be required. Due to the fact that the project was ordered by the Department of Natural Resources under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, and that Chelsea has no choice in the matter, an election may not be required.

According to village administrator Frederick Weber, the village should have that opinion next week.

In addition to the construction costs, the grant covers the purchase of land for the project. The village is considering 5.8 acres, owned by Martin and Henry Merkel, that is adjacent to the current wastewater plant.

The Chrysler Proving Grounds will not be included on a new sewer line.

What will actually be built is something called "oxidation ditches," the least expensive of six alternatives, according to the EPA.

The following description of the project is given by the EPA.

"After flowing through the aerated grit chamber, the wastewater would flow into oxidation ditches, where it would be treated by microorganisms in the ditches using dissolved oxygen to reduce organics in the wastewater. The population of the microorganisms is maintained by returning solids from the secondary clarifiers back to the oxidation ditches. Oxygen is added by the stirring of two rotors. The wastewater is held in the oxidation ditch for 20.8 hours. It is then passed on to the secondary and reaction clarifiers. The wastewater flows through the reaction clarifiers for tertiary treatment and phosphorus removal. The wastewater is then chlorinated and dechlorinated and discharged into Letts Creek."

The EPA says the plant, "is not likely to fail," and will use less energy than other alternatives and will require a minimum of maintenance. It claims no endangered species, historical, or archeological site will be harmed.

Home Care Offered By Chelsea Hospital

Chelsea Community Hospital has begun providing home health services to residents of western Washtenaw, Livingston, Ingham, Jackson and Lenawee counties. Services are being provided by Chelsea Home Care, a branch office of Amicare Health Services.

"The opportunity to provide home care services to our patients is wonderful," states Mary Beth McGowan, home health care co-ordinator for Chelsea Hospital. "The Hospital has wanted to offer this service for a long time because we believe that caring for patients does not always stop at the time they are discharged from the hospital."

The office is located at the Hospital and provides nursing, home health aides, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, social work and dietary counselling services. Home care services provided by Chelsea Home Care are certified by Medicare, Medicaid, Blue Cross/Blue Shield and other insurance programs.

Chelsea Home Care serves patients discharged from Chelsea Hospital as well as individuals receiving health care from other organizations and living in the Chelsea area. In addition, payment for services may be arranged with the client's ability to pay taken into consideration.

For more information about Chelsea Home Care or to arrange for home care services call (313) 995-1992.

Chelsea Players Elect Five Board Members

Chelsea Area Players held their annual business meeting on Sept. 19. Four board members were re-elected along with one new board member to fill the five vacancies on the board.

Re-elected were Brenda Beaver, Joe Diederich, Brian Myers, and Wyn Schumann. Clara Smith was elected to the remaining position.

Two board members retired from the board of directors, both of whom had given much appreciated service and dedication. They are Anne Lee and Ric Foytik.

Officers for the coming year are president, Mike Long; vice-president, Julie Vorus; secretary, Clara Smith; and treasurer, Bev Slater.

Prior to the elections there was a general discussion concerning the by-laws that were to be adopted. Several regular members in attendance provided insightful viewpoints that were seriously considered and discussed. The by-laws were voted on and passed by the entire membership in attendance.

Finally there was a discussion of the new committees that were created by the by-laws. Marge Lewis volunteered to be chairperson of Membership Committee, while Bill Coelius and Mary Colie were appointed to other committees. There are still openings on various committees and anyone interested should contact Mike Long at 475-2629.

The next board of directors meeting is Oct. 10, in the Citizen's Trust meeting room at 7:30 p.m.

KIDS ON THE BLOCK was the name of a recent puppet performance at South Elementary school designed to educate preschoolers about physical and mental handicaps. Students Show Higher Scores On National Tests

State high school test results from the American College Test (ACT), one of two major college admission examinations, showed the average Michigan high school student scoring higher than the national average.

Coupled with results released earlier showing the average state student scoring higher than the national average on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT), Superintendent of Public Instruction Phillip Runkel said the two results "reveal the results of continuing improvements in Michigan schools."

The 1984-85 test results from the more than 66,500 students who took the ACT, five times the number that took the SAT, showed that the average state result among high school graduates was 18.9, up from the 1983-84 average of 18.8 and over the national average of 18.6.

The state over-all average of the ACT scores improved for the third consecutive year. It also marked the fifth consecutive year that the state over-all average was higher than the national average.

Over-all Michigan ACT scores were up in English, social studies and natural sciences, but went down in mathematics, Runkel reported.

The results also showed that Michigan men's scores improved or remained stable in all testing areas, while women's scores improved or remained stable in all areas except mathematics.

Elections Division Offers New Computer Access System

A new system to provide the public, news media, and others easier access to federal campaign reports was announced recently by Secretary of State Richard Austin and Federal Elections Commission Chairman John Warren McGarry.

The system involves installation of a computer terminal in the Department of State Elections Division in Lansing that will be linked to the Federal Elections Commission computer in Washington, D. C.

Previously, only reports of Michigan candidates for federal office and their committees were available in the state elections office.

Information is organized to show contributions to candidates for federal office, contributions by Michigan-based political actions committees involved in federal elections, and contributions by individuals.

Austin reported that the only expense incurred by the state to participate in the system was the purchase of a receiving terminal which costs approximately $400.

"The disclosure of campaign related finances plays two significant roles in our electoral process," he said.

Austin said first the system increased the quality of information reaching citizens, giving voters a complete accounting of the various interest supporting those seeking office, and second, campaign finance disclosure laws provide an effective and clearly visible deterrent against corruption in politics.

The disclosure system was made possible through a co-operative effort between the Michigan Department of State and the federal commission, Austin said.

The state's election division also receives all campaign finance disclosure reports filed by state candidates and committees under Michigan's Campaign Finance Act.

Michigan is the ninth state in the country to participate in the disclosure system.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I'm slow on the comeback, allus have been. When somebody hits me with a sharp one I can't even come up with a dull one to toss back. But 15 minutes later I got a zinger that was invented for that very moment in my life. Another way of saying this is that I'm about half a bubble off plum. Still another angle is that I was born looking the other way. When everybody looks one way fer somepun I look the other, and it takes me a while to git turned around.

Fer instant, a feller at the Farmers Coop the other morning told me that even at his age his 'old lady kept clob on him fer fear he might wonder off the reservation. He said she was as bad as the original jealous woman, and he ask me if I recalled who that was. Natural I didn't, which he expected, so he told me it was Eve. Ever night when Adam come home, he said, she would count his ribs.

The truth was, I didn't recall because I had never known, and when I found out I didn't know I had. About 15 minutes after I left the store it come to me, but I still ain't thought of anything I could of said that would let the feller think I understood his little story. At least nobody has ever said of me that I can't learn anything because I understand everthing to quick. I saw this headline the other morning where a Kansas City company was going to buy Peoples Natural Gas, and my first thought was how in the world is that company going to bottle the stuff. Then I read enough to see that Peoples Natural Gas is a company to.

Actual, all this is a way of saying I was ready fer Bug Hookum at the country store Saturday night. He opened the session with a report on a bumper sticker he saw on the back of one of them motor homes rolling through the country. The sticker said "Back Off Or I'll Flush," and Bug said it took him five mile of road to catch that one. You read some of the sharp stuff on the front and back of moving vehicles, Bug allowed, and most of it is a relief from propergrander like "this truck pays $4,500 a year in road use taxes." What the truck didn't say, Bug went on, is that it tears up $30,000 worth of road a year.

Practical speaking, Bug said, the new smart sayings don't just happen. Real thinking people are setting up nights coming up with em, and then presses are printing em like they were regular reading matter. Between message T shirts and bumper stickers we got a hole new way of communicating, was Bug's words, and folks are pushing causes from abortions to zoos on their backs and bumpers. And Bug said he was speaking as the feller that didn't figger out "50 Drive 55" until he read where Congress said everbody in ever state had to.

Final, Zeke Grubb broke in to say when he was in town last week he say what must put the stopper in the bumper sticker jug. A parked car had a "Child in Car" notice in the rear window. The car was empty but fer a baby seat, and Zeke said he still ain't figgered out what the sign is saying. Is it begging drivers not to hit the car and hurt the baby, Zeke ask, is it telling drivers if they pull alongside the kid is apt to throw the puppy at em, or is it giving fair warning that with a wet, crying baby in the car and Mommy at the wheel everybody else on the road is perceding at his own risk.

Personal, I go with the warning, and I look fer more like "Drunk in Car" and "Rock Music in Car."

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Dexter Students Invited to Attend Post-Game Dance

There will not be live music, but there will be a disc jockey. "We just want to continue to build good relationships between the schools," Williams said.

County Historical Society To Hear About Ann Arbor Founders

Dr. Russell E. Bidlack, dean emeritus of the U-M School of Library Science, will talk about "The Short and Troubled Lives of Elisha W. and Mary Ann Rumsey," at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 17, at the Ann Arbor American Legion, 1035 South Main.

Washtenaw County Historical Society is sponsoring the talk about Ann Arbor's less well-known co-founders. Dr. Bidlack researched and wrote "John Allen and the Founding of Ann Arbor," about John and Ann Allen. At this time he will share what he has discovered about the Rumseys.

Dr. Bidlack, a past-president of WCHS, spoke about Ann Allen at the Society's 125th anniversary party in 1982.

The talk is open to the public free of charge. There is free parking and handicap access at the front door. Refreshments will be served.

The number of families maintained by women grew more than 84 percent between 1970 and 1984. The growth is attributed largely to more marriages ending in divorce and more women having children without marrying, according to "Women Who Maintain Families," a fact sheet by the Women's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor.

Mr. and Mrs. James Strader

Beth Sue Cole, James Strader Are Wed at Methodist Church

Beth Sue Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cole of Chelsea, was married to James Strader, son of Mrs. L. W. Strader of Inkster and the late Mr. Strader on Saturday, Sept. 28 at the First United Methodist church of Chelsea.

The Rev. Dr. David Truran performed the ceremony.

Kimberly Varela, niece of the bridegroom, and Linda Cole, mother of the bride, were vocalists. Donna Gaunt played the organ and Sharon Hughes the piano.

The bride wore a long gown with cathedral train accented by a satin waist band and bow. The Victorian neckline was trimmed in schiffli embroidery lace and had Juliet sleeves with bridal points. She wore a matching hat with bluish veil. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses with baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Wilma Winans of Chelsea. She wore a long, deep pink gown with Victorian neckline and Juliet sleeves similar to the bride's. Her flowers were long stem, pink carnations with baby's breath and fern.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Betty Cannon, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Marcella Businger, cousin of the bride, Miss Wendy Westphal, friend of the bride, and Miss Jennifer Wilson, friend of the bride. Their dresses were the same as the matron of honor's in a medium blue. Their flowers were long stem, blue carnations with baby's breath and fern.

Erin Cole, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and William Riewe, friend of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

Best man was Greg Riewe, friend of the bridegroom. Serving as ushers were Allen and Dale Cole, brothers of the bride, William Strader, brother of the bridegroom, and Donald Cannon, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

A reception for 250 guests was held at St. Mary's Hall. The wedding cake was made and served by the aunt of the bride, Mrs. Audrey Stolar. Mrs. Valerie Doughlas was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds took a one-week trip to Niagara Falls. They will reside at 120 South St., Chelsea.

The bride is a 1978 graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home.

The bridegroom is a 1973 graduate of Robichard High School and is employed by the Washtenaw Metric Lab, Ypsilanti.

Charms Planning Fund for Tennessee Homecoming Trip

Chelsea Charms have been invited to march in the Homecoming Tennessee festivities in May and are having their first fund raiser, a rummage sale on Friday, Oct. 11.

The governor of Tennessee and the mayor of Homboldt, Tenn., have extended this invitation because of Charm Director Rita Howard's past honors and the titles that the Chelsea Charms have achieved at the national and state baton twirling contests. Charms hope to raise $6,000 to enable all the corp to go.

The rummage sale will include treasures from 20 or more families, kitchen articles, bathroom sinks, roll-away beds, books, clothes, home decorations, and much, much more. Anything collectible or saleable could be there at the Longworth Building on Main St., Friday, Oct. 11 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Quilt Exhibit, Craft Fair Slated at Ann Arbor Church

An exhibit of more than 75 colorful, historical and contemporary quilts will once again delight the eye at the annual American Heritage Quilt Exhibit and Craft Fair at First United Methodist church in Ann Arbor. The United Methodist Women are sponsoring the event for the seventh year on Oct. 19 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the church on the corner of Huron and State Sts.

Very old quilts will be displayed alongside some very contemporary quilts; some with traditional or classic patterns, and some with innovative new designs. All were created with loving care. Quilters and non-quilters alike will enjoy this art form.

Take time out on this fall Saturday to enjoy other parts of the fair, as well. There will be a bake sale, with some breads being baked that very morning, and a craft boutique featuring items such as tote bags, stuffed animals, a fuzzy sheep family, Christmas tree decorations, doll-size comforters, Cabbage Patch doll clothes and pressed flower stationery. Quilt dealers will be on hand with displays and items for sale. Sara Deasy, quilter and teacher, will be answering quilting questions from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Those interested are urged to bring a favorite project, pattern or fabric to the session.

A new feature at this year's fair will be the Country Folk Art Demonstrations. Teachers and craftsmen from this area will illustrate techniques, such as traditional rug hooking, spinning and dollmaking. A soup and sandwich luncheon will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Coffee is free.

Laura Stevens is chairing this year's fair and Beverly Bole is current president of United Methodist Women at First Church. Monies earned at the event will go to local, national and global missions. This includes work in hospitals, schools, agricultural projects, and inner city projects that alleviate medical and social problems.

Pharmacy Week Offers Opportunity To Ask About Your Medicine

Consumers should feel free to ask their pharmacist questions about the medicines they take and Michigan Pharmacist Week, Oct. 13-19, is the time when pharmacists across the state, encourage individuals to begin doing just that.

"Your Pharmacist Educated for You," is the theme for this year's Michigan Pharmacist Week. Through a special proclamation from Governor James J. Blanchard, Michigan Pharmacist Week has been declared a time for pharmacists across the state to promote their image to the public. The pharmacist of the 1980's is a highly trained and knowledgeable professional, capable of providing specialized patient services.

With the help of your pharmacist, you can learn more about the prescription and the over-the-counter medications you take, including cautions you should be aware of; drug interactions, storage and labeling information, and the importance of keeping to your prescription schedule.

After five years of study at an accredited college or university, completion of internship requirements, and successful completion of a multiday examination, a pharmacist is licensed to practice by the Michigan State Board of Pharmacy. A pharmacist is also required to complete at least 15 hours of continuing education per year.

Your pharmacist... educated for you, is your prescription to good health. As a member of the health care team, your pharmacist is dedicated to providing you a variety of services to meet all of your health care needs. Utilize the knowledge of your family pharmacist by talking to your pharmacist today.

The pharmacists at Chelsea Community Hospital will be staffing a display outside the dining room from 11:30 a.m. until 1 p.m. Oct. 14-18. Information about your hospital pharmacist and general medication information will be available.

You can also talk to a pharmacist by calling the Chelsea Hospital Pharmacy and Home Care Center at 475-1196 between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Pharmacists at Chelsea Pharmacy 475-9103 are also available to answer your medication questions.

FIA Draws 3 Winners In Raffle

Faith in Action, Inc. (FIA) held a fund-raising raffle which began the week of the Chelsea Fair with drawing set for Oct. 1. Winners were drawn last Tuesday, Oct. 1, by Police Chief McDougal at the Chelsea Police Station, and the winners were: first prize, Anne McKeecher of Ann Arbor; second prize, Ethel Haist of Chelsea; and third prize, Rosemary Kloosterman of Ypsilanti.

Prizes for the raffle were donated as follows: first prize was a champagne balloon ride for two donated by System Directions, owned and operated by Blake Thomson; second prize was a G.E. microwave oven donated by George Heydlauff of Heydlauff's Appliances; and third prize was a hair cut and style donated by Gemini Family Hair Care.

Proceeds from the raffle will be used toward the purchase of food and provision of financial assistance to area residents in need.

1985 and '86 will see more fund-raising projects for FIA for the purpose of funding this community service organization. Projects such as these raffles, the annual fund-raising dinner and other activities are the primary sources of revenue. It is supplemented by individual and community group donations, as well as Chelsea and Dexter United Ways. There is no state or federal funding.

Services provided by FIA include: food, clothing, financial assistance, transportation, limited and selective emergency shelter, the Chelsea Free Health Clinic, Parent to Parent Program and Parents Anonymous.

Significant is the five-day a week availability of FIA to provide emotional support, information and referral, and long-term direction.

FIA does not just hand out food and clothing, rather, the staff works with clients to help solve everyday problems and work toward goals such as jobs and schooling. As a result, families and individuals have been able to make positive change in their lives.

It is difficult for the community to understand the value and extent of FIA services as a community resource because confidentiality prevents publicizing the success stories and the details involved. However, it can be said that FIA has been, and with continued community support, will continue to be a service that the Chelsea community can be proud of.

A VIEW from the CLOCK TOWER

By Will Connelly

It is remarkable that in the Chelsea area we have lots of people who need part time help to maintain their homes and properties while we also have hundreds of able bodied youngsters, retirees and unemployed people who are hungry for part-time work income. Yet we have no mechanism to bring them together.

We are blessed with plenty of good social and civic agencies in our area, but perhaps we need one more. For want of a better name, let's call it the Chelsea Help Registry. People who are able and willing to work could register with this agency, listing their skills, the types of work they are interested in doing and the days or hours when they are available.

People who need help—who want lawns mowed, snow shovelled, screens or storm windows changed, rooms or buildings painted, appliances repaired, houses cleaned, or whatever, could call the registry for work-seekers.

Many people in a wide range of ages have disabilities that prevent them from lifting, climbing or performing physical feats that are simple for lithe, vigorous high schoolers. On the other hand, many retirees who have decades of experience in electrical, plumbing, mechanical and structural skills would welcome a chance to earn money on projects that are too small to interest professionals in specialized trades.

To make the Help Registry work we would need a sponsoring organization to guarantee that the service will be ongoing and dependable. We would need desk space and a one-party telephone line. (The hours of the day or evening when persons could phone for help or employment would have to be determined by experiment and experience.)

Who would answer the phone, take applications and search the index cards for helpers? It could be done by volunteer workers organized and supervised by the sponsoring organization. Or by paid workers.

If the office hours were, say, four hours a day six days a week, it would be 1,248 hours per year. With free rent, the agency could be operated for between $5,000 and $6,000 per year using paid workers. Good supervision and control, so essential to success, would have to be provided by volunteer members of the sponsoring organization.

Okay. Where would the money be coming from? A good agency to get the Chelsea Help Registry started would be the Civic Foundation of Chelsea which has been created to provide one-time support for civic needs of the community. After that, the Help Registry, if successful, should easily qualify for annual assistance from Chelsea United Way.

It's just possible that the Help Registry could be self-supporting by accepting a service fee of, say, ten percent of the wage transaction involved.

These considerations, of course, are best left to future committees who will be close to the problems and the people involved.

Where could the office for this agency be located? An ideal place, about a year from now, would be our community-owned Chelsea Depot, if we can just get Amtrak to stop stalling and start fulfilling their written promises to sell us the station.

Once we get the station it will take about a year to raise enough money to pay for the property and its rehabilitation starting with an exterior repair job.

In the beginning, therefore, if the sponsoring organization will just get the Chelsea Help Registry (or other name) started, it is possible that the hospital or village administration would provide temporary desk space. Other possibilities for desk space are stores or offices that are open six days a week.

Right now, the Civic Foundation of Chelsea and Chelsea United Way are in the midst of their annual campaigns. CFC is seeking to raise its membership to 200. Chelsea United Way has a goal of $68,000.

We know the agencies that depend on Chelsea United Way. They are all necessary, well managed and responsible.

Something like the Chelsea Help Registry would fit right in for 1986.

THE FOOTBALL TRAINING STAFF is instrumental to having a smooth-running season. They help out with first aid, take water to the players during games, help injured players off the field, and generally help out where they are needed. EDUCATION RESEARCH

Prepared by the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASPP), Reston, Va.

Lawmakers last year scurried about passing bills aimed at improvements in the schoolhouse, but whether any of that massive amount of legislation will affect learning will not be decided until America sees what happens this year, according to the chief executive of the nation's largest school administrator organization.

"The Year of the School, as proclaimed by some alert governors last year, could more accurately be called the year of the legislative mandate," reports Scott Thomson, executive director, National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASPP).

This September we find ourselves astride a remodeled school vehicle with all cylinders roaring. New maps have been issued, but will we reach our destination?" he asked in NASPP's September issue of its members' newsletter.

This year America must focus upon the quality of the individual classroom if improvement is truly to occur, according to Thomson. Teachers and principals must take the initiatives which have the best chance of bringing about greater student achievement.

"Tougher standards don't guarantee better results," Thomson indicated. "High expectations are fine—even commendable, but success cannot be attained by rhetoric or regulation alone. Success requires a peak performance by teachers and students in the classroom."

Thomson called upon educators to look at recent research regarding classroom success as they prepare for the coming school year. He believes that individualized tutoring, learning styles, and learning histories of students will play an important role in improvement.

One-to-one tutoring is one of the best learning conditions which can be devised, according to Thomson.

"The key features here are that students get immediate feedback on their work, that the teachers review the concepts missed, and that all work is corrected before moving to the next step," he said. "These techniques can be applied in a conventional classroom setting, especially now with the assistance of the newer interactive computer software."

Recent developments on how students learn best, or learning styles, can also play an important role in school improvement, he indicated. New instruments are now being created which outline this research and provide profiles of the ways individual students process information.

"Educators will soon consider such student data essential, as do physicians who always diagnose before offering treatment," predicted Thomson.

Teachers and principals should also investigate what information students bring with them to the classroom, especially since one-half of "a student's achievement in a given grade depends upon the knowledge and skills that student initially brings to class," according to Thomson. That will allow the most appropriate instructional challenges to be offered students.

"Schools are being asked to do more today," he concluded. We can only succeed, in the long run, by doing a better job. That is why 1986 is the year of the classroom. Otherwise, the year of the school in 1985 will have been an empty slogan for all of us."

Living With Your Loss

Over the years, much has been written about what people experience when someone they love dies. However, one thing we've learned is that grief is a very individual process a person goes through.

There are no rules to go by, but there are some helpful guidelines. Many of these are discussed in our unique brochure entitled, "Living With Your Loss" written by noted bereavement expert and author, Dr. Earl A. Grollman.

Girl Scout Council Seeks Volunteers

Girl Scouts of the U. S. A., a national organization of 3,000,000 members, has been going strong for more than 73 years. And much of that strength is based on the time, energy, enthusiasm and caring contributed by adult volunteers.

The Huron Valley Girl Scout Council is looking for those special people with so much to offer, not only as troop and assistant troop leaders, but also as troop services directors, cookie sale chairmen, troop consultants, first aiders and committee members.

The World of Girl Scouts is diverse and exciting, aimed at preparing today's girls for the challenges of tomorrow. Parents and non-parents, career adults, and senior citizens can contribute to enriching these girls' lives by sharing their talents while enhancing their own skills. Whether the commitment is for a few days or several days a month, don't miss this rewarding opportunity.

And you will see yourself grow as well. To volunteer, call 313-483-2370 or write the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, P.O. Box 539, Ypsilanti 48197. The Huron Valley Council is a United Way agency serving nearly 12,000 girls in Washtenaw, Livingston, western Wayne and northern Monroe counties.

MUCC Urges Deposit on Wine Cooler Containers

The campaign of the Michigan United Conservation Clubs (MUCC) to require a mandatory deposit on wine cooler containers got a big boost recently when it was learned that Gov. James Blanchard has thrown his support behind the proposal.

Thomas L. Washington, MUCC executive director, said he was "extremely pleased" that the Governor has joined MUCC and Attorney General Frank Kelley in pushing for a rule aimed at keeping wine cooler containers out of the litter stream.

Gov. Blanchard sent a letter to Patricia Knox, chairperson of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, urging that body to promulgate a rule requiring the wine cooler container deposits. He pointed out that the Attorney General had advised the commission that it has the authority to regulate wine cooler containers.

MUCC led the drive for Michigan's "bottle bill" in 1976 that imposed mandatory deposits on beer and soft drink bottles and cans as a means to reduce litter and promote conservation of non-renewable resources.

The Liquor Control Commission has scheduled a hearing Nov. 19 in Lansing on the proposed rule. If the commission adopts the rule, it will be submitted to the Joint Administrative Rules Committee for final approval.

THE CLASSIC T-BONE $9.95

Available October 6-17

When any of us think of steak, chances are we'll talk about our favorite as being a T-bone. Lots of us can recall the best T-bone we've ever had. Now Schuler's is offering the opportunity for its customers to enjoy this premium steak at a special price.

All American favorite!

It's a steak that has been an All-American favorite since 19th Century cowboys realized their jobs had two benefits: a dollar a day for salary and the chance to dine like a king on big, juicy T-bone steaks.

The T-bone is really two steaks in one. The smaller half is the fillet mignon, known as the most tender steak of all, while the larger half is the New York cut, always a favorite with beef lovers. Now Schuler's customers can have them both at one low price during October 6-17. With all the fixin's!

Dinners include:

Each char-broiled T-bone steak dinner includes Schuler's Bar-Scheeze, salad, potato or vegetable, and fresh baked bread.

WCC Auto Services Receives GM Donation

Washtenaw Community College's Automotive Services program has received two 1985 Buicks plus over 50 components from Ann Arbor Buick and Buick-Oldsmobile-Cadillac Engineering in Flint. The donation totals over $35,000 worth of equipment, estimates Kenneth Barron, instructor at WCC's Auto Center, located at 5115 Carpenter Rd. in Ypsilanti.

"These are loaded, high-tech automobiles which represent the state of the art in automotive technology," says Barron. The cars and components will be used for instruction in the Auto Center's lab, he adds.

"The donations will give our students the opportunity to learn automotive service skills on the most recent technology," comments Roger Bertola, Dean of Occupational Education at the college. The autos—a 1985 Park Avenue and a 1985 Somerset Regal—feature fuel-injected V-6 engines and electronic dashboards. Components also given include 10 front-wheel drive automatic overdrive transmissions, 20 carburetors, 10 starters, 10 alternators, and a turbo-charger.

Industry donations keep instruction current in the Automotive Services program's five curricula, all of which involve extensive hands-on lab work, Barron comments. "Cooperation between a major auto manufacturer like General Motors and a community college is one of the cornerstones of quality occupational education. The Buick-Oldsmobile-Cadillac division of GM is a most enthusiastic supporter of education," Bertola adds.

The Automotive Services program offers one- and two-year curricula plus professional skills upgrading courses.

For more information on Automotive Services donations and programs, call the Auto Center at 434-1555.

The Labor Management Relations (Taft-Hartley) Act was passed June 23, 1947, over the President's veto, according to "Important Events in American Labor History," a publication of the U. S. Department of Labor.

TEACHING CHILDREN ABOUT HANDICAPS was the purpose of a puppet show by the Washtenaw Intermediate School District recently at South Elementary school. The show, entitled "Kids on the Block," was given to area pre-schoolers, and their parents. Children asked questions about the disabilities and were encouraged to touch the puppets. From left are Mark Riley, a puppet with cerebral palsy, Dr. Jill England of WISD, Melody James, who asked Mark a lot of questions, and Alice Hartman, also of WISD.

Touring Triathlon Set On LakeLands Trail

Sunday, Oct. 13, is the date for the LakeLands Trail Touring Triathlon in Pinckney. This is a non-competitive event for everyone in the family. There is no racing, but rather leisurely activities at one's own pace. The events are hiking, bicycling, and horseback riding or canoeing.

Distances are whatever participants choose. However the route has been laid out for the following:

Hike—2 to 4 miles on the trail.
Bike—5 to 9 miles on the trail or 20 miles on paved roads.

Horse—3 to 8 miles on the trail, or

Canoe—one hour on the creek. It is not necessary to do three activities, just possible. Canoes will be available for rent at $3 per hour. Participants must supply their own horses, bicycles, and feet!

The event concludes with an optional cook-out at Hell Creek Ranch (the site of the canoeing). For $2, there will be hot dogs, chips, and drinks.

Fee for the event is $4 for adults or $2 for accompanied children under 12, if paid in advance. (There is a $1 per person, surcharge for payment at the event itself.) The fee covers refreshments, and embroidered "Recycling Railroads" patch, limited sag service on the road, and driver's transportation back to the depot from the ranch.

The Touring Triathlon is based at the Pinckney Depot, where the proposed LakeLands Trail crosses Howell Rd. (D-19) just north of the village. It is west of US-23 on M-36, about 20 miles northwest of Ann Arbor and about 45 southeast of Lansing.

Events start at 2 p.m. and conclude about 6. While at the Depot, participants may purchase Trail T-shirts and memberships in the Friends of the LakeLands Trail—the sponsor of the Touring Triathlon.

Purpose of this event is to heighten the public awareness of the LakeLands Trail, and to demonstrate the potential for its use. (Continued on page eight)

Hunters Warned About Too Strenuous Activity

Those who plan to head for the great outdoors for this year's hunting season should remember that the cold weather and additional physical exertion required by the sport can set the stage for a heart attack. As with all trips, there is a certain amount of planning that should be considered before a hunting expedition. Just as you should wear bright clothing, take precautions to guard against a heart attack.

"Hunting involves a great deal of exercise," said Joseph Rogers, D.O., chairman of the exercise committee of the American Heart Association of Michigan. "Every year there are stories about hunters who die from the unexpected strain of hunting."

For individuals under 30, most of these deaths are caused by over-exertion in people who already have heart conditions. In individuals over 30, the heart condition is usually coronary artery disease, (the buildup of fat deposits in blood vessels).

"Hunters should see their doctors before the trip for an appropriate exercise plan," Rogers said. "The exercise plan is an important aspect in preparing for the trip because sudden physical exertion in an unconditioned body is dangerous for your heart, lungs and muscles. If you are in good health, you will be able to handle the intense walking and carry the heavy camping equipment which hunting trips require."

Another important point is, cold weather places an added strain on your heart because the blood vessels near your skin contract to conserve body heat for your vital organs.

As a result, your heart is receiving less oxygen. To stay comfortable, wear one less layer of clothing than you would if you were outside but not exercising (layered clothing is better than one heavy layer). Also, use mittens, gloves or cotton socks to protect your hands, and wear a hat, since nearly 40 percent of your body's heat escapes through your head and neck.

"Also, make sure you are thoroughly familiar with the warning signs of a heart attack," Rogers said. "These signs include a feeling of fullness, heaviness or squeezing pain in the center of the chest, which may spread to arms, shoulders, neck or jaws and may be accompanied by nausea, vomiting, sweating or shortness of breath."

Some other tips for hunting include:

—Never hunt alone.

—Know where to get help in case of any kind of emergency. You should know how to reach the sheriff's department or other emergency medical aid in the area in which you are hunting.

—If you're on medication for your heart, make sure all members of your hunting party know where you keep your medication, and how it should be used.

—Don't tire yourself excessively. Take the hunting, eating and celebration in reasonable doses, and get plenty of rest.

—Watch your alcohol intake: though it may make you feel warmer, alcohol causes your body to lose heat faster.

—Get help to carry your catch out of the woods. It is physically demanding to do so alone.

"Taking the precautions mentioned here, will not guarantee that you will get a deer this year, but it will mean that the chances of a potential tragedy have been reduced," Rogers said.

For a free pamphlet on the warning signs of heart attack, contact your local office of the American Heart Association of Michigan.

MANCHESTER EQUESTRIAN TEAM: Shown here while participating in the meet held at the Farm Council grounds, Sunday, Oct. 6, Manchester's youthful riders exhibit what fun it is to ride. They include Mary Clelland, Stephanie Evilsizer, Kristen Houck, Sara Samonek and Karen York, whose horse is 27 years old. For the fifth consecutive year, the team is coached by Sandee Sheats.

HORSES GET SNIFFLES TOO: Manchester's Melissa Bullard gets some help from her father, Phil, at the Equestrian Meet held Sunday, Oct. 6, at the Farm Council grounds. Melissa's horse developed the sniffles near the conclusion of Sunday's meet and her coach, Sandee Sheats, advised a visit from the vet if Rocky had not improved by morning.

Missing Children Forum Set Oct. 15 in Brighton

The problem of missing and exploited children will be the subject of a community forum on Tuesday, Oct. 15, at the Brighton High School Auditorium located at 7878 Brighton Rd. Topics for presentation and discussion will include a state and national perspective on the problem of missing children; prevention efforts and an open forum for questions, and dialogue between those in attendance and each presenter. A special presentation on the Children's Trust Fund will also be offered to more thoroughly explain the functions of this organization which has been designated by the Moore family as the source for any memorial donations in the name of Shawn Moore.

There is no charge for admission and further information concerning the forum may be obtained by contacting Tpr. David DeVries at the Brighton State Police Post, telephone (313) 227-1051, or D/Lt. Jack Shepherd, Michigan State Police Child Abuse Unit, telephone (517) 332-2521, extension 546.

Touring Triathlon Set

LakeLands Trail is on an abandoned Grand Trunk railroad line which ran from Jackson through Pontiac. The state purchased the section west of Lakeland (east of Pinckney) about eight years ago to convert it into a non-motorized trail. No development has taken place. The friends of the LakeLands Trail is a citizen group formed last March to support the development and use of this trail. The present effort is focused on the 28-mile stretch proposed as a trail by the state. At the same time, the Friends are working toward preservation of additional abandoned portions of this rail line for trail extensions. The potential exists for an off-road facility from Jackson well into Oakland county. Connections with other abandoned rights-of-way could result in an almost unbroken trail from Lake Michigan to Lake St. Clair, off-road through the most densely populated part of Michigan!

To obtain more information on the Friends of the LakeLands Trail, and to get the flyer on the Touring Triathlon, write them at P. O. Box 707, Pinckney 48169, or call 313/971-6339 (in Ann Arbor).

Manchester Riders Compete in Meet

Manchester's Equestrian Team participated in the meet held at the Farm Council grounds near Saline, Sunday, Oct. 5.

Coach Sandee Sheats, now in her fifth year with the equestrians from Manchester, explained the school district does not assist with the activity and will not recognize the equestrians as athletes in the district.

However, there is a lot of assistance from the young people's parents.

The group is small, but the young people strive persistently to improve their equestrian skills and, in spite of their limited number, work very hard.

QUESTION: I'm disabled and I want to work. I'm afraid employers may not want to hire me because of my disability. What can I say to employers that will at least give me a chance of getting a job?

ANSWER: Unfortunately, some employers will have reservations about hiring the disabled. They will have fears and misconceptions about the ability of the disabled to do the job. But with a little education, many of these employers may at least seriously consider hiring a disabled worker.

You can tell employers that disabled workers can and have proved themselves to be good workers. Studies have shown that disabled workers' records of job performance, safety, time and attendance are equal to—or slightly better than—those of non-disabled persons.

In addition, an employer can benefit financially by hiring a disabled worker. The Targeted Jobs Tax Credit (TJTC) program offers employers a federal tax credit for hiring qualified disabled individuals referred by a state agency. The program pays the employers up to 50 percent of the first $6,000 the new worker earns in wages during the first year and 25 percent of the first $6,000, the second year.

Although TJTC is scheduled to expire by Dec. 31, 1985, Congress is considering a bill to extend the program to 1988.

MESC's Job Service can also help you find employment while helping employers find qualified disabled workers.

To promote the hiring of disabled workers, the week of Oct. 6-12 has been designated a National Employ the Handicapped Week (NETH). The theme of NETH this year is "Make disabled people a part of your team."

Its intent is to encourage teamwork among employers, disabled workers, service providers and others interested in disability issues to make sure that the doors to job opportunities are open and remain open to the disabled.

Two Area Students Named In Scholarship Competition

Two area students have been named National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) semifinalists in that organization's 31st annual competition.

Susan Overdorf of Chelsea and Don Griffiths of Dexter were among 15,000 semifinalists named in the National Merit Scholarship Corporation competition.

In publicizing the names of the semifinalists, the NMSC seeks to honor these outstanding high school seniors who will continue in the competition for merit scholarships, and to broaden their educational opportunities by bringing them to the attention of colleges and universities, as well as to focus a public spotlight on academic excellence throughout the 50 states, thereby encouraging support for an important segment of American youth.

Susan is the daughter of Rand and Meridene Overdorf of 13620 Riker Rd.

Named the 1985 Chelsea Fair Queen, she was sponsored by her colleagues in the senior class.

She has been exceptionally active in extra-curricular activities at Chelsea High, has two years experience in debate, forensics and orchestra, and is completing her second year as editor of the high school yearbook.

A member of the Chelsea Players' pit orchestra, she plays the violin and finds time for reading, writing and music, as well as enjoying backpacking and cross country skiing.

Dexter High senior Don Griffiths was one of the young men selected to attend Boys State on the campus of Michigan State University last summer.

His parents are George and Edrea Griffiths of Zeeb Rd.

An outstanding wrestler at DHS, Don is active in both the marching and symphonic bands.

He has attended Dexter schools since his kindergarten days and has been an efficient and supportive member of Boy Scout Troop 477.

Scoutmaster Jack Brigham explained, "Don is the type of young man with whom it's a pleasure to work—he's a great person—thinks of other people and their needs a good deal. Earlier this year, he attained the rank of Eagle Scout—the troop, as well as its leaders, takes pride in Don and in his accomplishments."

To qualify as semifinalists, the two local students and their counterparts throughout the 50 states entered the 1986 merit program by taking the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT). This test, administered in approximately 19,000 of the nation's secondary schools, serves as an initial screening device for over one million interested students who meet participation requirements.

To be considered beyond the first level, that of semifinalist, students must advance to finalist by fulfilling several additional requirements. These include documenting high academic performance in secondary school, being fully endorsed and recommended by their principals and confirm scores earned earlier by equivalent scores on the SAT.

They must also submit self-descriptions and provide information about their activities, personal interests and educational goals.

Cassidy Lake Inmate Dies After Apparent 'Horseplay' Accident

A Cassidy Lake Technical School inmate died last Tuesday after he and another prisoner were involved in a friendly wrestling match.

According to Cassidy Lake assistant superintendent John Andrews, David K. Wilkinson, 22, died at 9:55 a.m. at University of Michigan Hospital of a brain injury. Wilkinson had been an inmate since August. He was serving three to five years for obstruction of justice in relation to a homicide in Oakland county. Before August he had been at Camp Cusino, about 40 miles from Marquette in the upper peninsula. He was a native of Walled Lake.

Witnesses to the wrestling match have indicated it was initiated by Wilkinson as several inmates were watching television, Andrews said. The other inmate involved in the tussle has not been identified pending an investigation into the incident. Andrews characterized the incident as "horseplay," and that Wilkinson and the other man were friends.

The incident took place on Friday, Sept. 27 at about 7 p.m. Wilkinson was taken initially to Chelsea Community Hospital, but was immediately transferred to U-M Hospital.

Andrews said the autopsy indicated that Wilkinson lost oxygen to his brain, apparently the result of a head lock hold, which caused a brain hemorrhage.

Wilkinson had been on life support systems from Friday until his death Tuesday morning.

The other man has been transferred to Southern Michigan Prison in Jackson until the investigation has been completed. Andrews said "he will not be back," to Cassidy Lake.

Watershed Council Annual Meeting Slated Tonight

He will also provide the regulatory philosophy behind the existing surface water discharge permit process and the new non-point source pollution control strategies.

The program is free and the public is encouraged to attend. It will be held Wednesday, Oct. 9, at 7:30 p.m. at Lawton Elementary school, 2250 S. Seventh St., Ann Arbor.

Bulldog Gridders Fail Six Times from Inside 30-Yd. Line in 4th Loss

Someday, the Bulldog varsity football team will play solid defense and sound offense in the same game. But, it's beginning to look as though that day may be next season.

Chelsea muddled through another game, both figuratively and literally last Friday night at Jackson County Western. The result was the Bulldogs' fourth consecutive loss, 34-20.

A monsoon hit five minutes into the game and lingered throughout most of the first half. There was a touch of hail. Umbrellas were turned inside out. Reporters, fans and cheerleaders were soaked and frozen. The Chelsea stat sheets were destroyed. It wasn't pretty.

No one was as cold as the Bulldogs, though. The Chelsea offense consistently went into the deep freeze once it progressed inside the 30-yard line. The Bulldogs scored all their points in the last 14 minutes of the game, beginning when they were down 21-0. After their first score, the teams traded meaningless touchdowns.

Chelsea was inside the 30-yard line six times without scoring. Defensively, it was a familiar story. Chelsea was the victim of the big play. There were two long rushing touchdowns, 55 and 66 yards. There was another score early in the game on a fourth down and nine play from the Bulldog 12-yard line—the pass coverage was excellent, but the JCW quarterback had a lifetime to get the ball off.

"When you're winning and a play like that happens, it doesn't bother you, but when you're losing, it's a little demoralizing," said coach Gene LaFave. Penalties weren't a problem as they have been in some games this year. Three turnovers, two fumbles and an interception, didn't help, but they weren't the reason for the loss.

"We moved the ball well between the 30s (yard lines) but we couldn't get it into the end zone," LaFave said.

"When you get behind by that much you have to play catch-up football, which puts you in a difficult position. There's really a multitude of reasons we couldn't score. A missed block, a missed assignment, a dropped pass. I'll bet (quarterback) Dan Bellus had five or six passes dropped, balls that could have easily been caught. We can't seem to create any consistency once we get down there."

JCW played a wishbone offense, something you don't see much anymore, especially in high school. That triple option befuddled the Chelsea defense. Once the first option began to work, the Chelsea players "began to overcompensate," according to LaFave, which made them even more vulnerable to the second option.

"If you can get the defensive team in a position like that, they end up chasing you all over the field," LaFave said.

That's the position the Bulldogs found themselves in.

JCW had about 330 yards total offense, but most of the statistics are guesstimates due to the loss of the stat sheets. About 120 yards were on two plays.

Matt Harshberger led the team with 16 tackles, and Matt Bohlender was in double figures again. But those guys are defensive backs. LaFave doesn't want them to lead the team in any defensive category except interceptions or broken-up passes.

The JCW passing game was "anemic," LaFave said.

Chelsea, by contrast, had roughly 250 yards on offense, the bulk of them by Mark Mull. Mull, who lined up at running back, ran for nearly 100 yards and caught several passes. He scored a touchdown.

End Todd Starkey caught his first pass in two weeks. In all he caught three for 65 yards, including a 49-yard scoring bomb.

Bellus was unofficially 11-32 in passing.

Junior Marty Poljan got a thrill by scoring his first varsity touchdown. Poljan had played guard all year until he was switched to tight end this week. The pass from Bellus made it all worthwhile.

"He looks like he's going to be a pretty good tight end," said assistant coach Wayne Welton.

LaFave said he is wary of the Dexter Dreadnaughts, this week's home opponent. While Dexter has not show much offensively, LaFave said, "they have a very good defense." LaFave doesn't want his Bulldogs to have to play catch-up football again. Chelsea has given up 12 touchdowns on plays of 50 yards or longer this season, a remarkable statistic considering the season is only five games old.

Tennis Team Wins Again Over Saline

Chelsea Bulldog girls tennis team beat SEC arch-rival Saline for the second straight time last Wednesday, 4-3. The score was the same as their previous match-up.

The win came a day after the girls ran into a strong Lumen Christi team and were shut out, 7-0.

In the final match-up of the week, the Bulldogs lost a tight match to Brooklyn Columbia Central, 4-3, on Thursday.

The Bulldogs' victory over the Hornets was a carbon copy of their previous meeting. Ada and Arlene Tai won their doubles match, 6-2, 7-5; Angie Miller won her singles match, 6-3, 6-4; Jenny Pichlik was victorious, 6-2, 6-4; and Deana Slusher and Kelly Stump picked up the deciding point with a 7-5, 6-2 win.

Karen Killelea and Anne Acree lost in three sets, 1-6, 6-3, 3-6. Melanie Dils took the second set to a tie-breaker but lost the match, 2-6, 6-7. Chris DeFante went down 1-6, 1-6.

"It was really remarkable to see the girls fire up so soon after a 7-0 defeat the day before," said coach Terry Schreiner.

In the Lumen Christi match, Christi took all the matches in straight sets, although two sets went to tie-breakers. The Tai sisters lost 4-6, 5-7, and Stump and Slusher lost 5-7, 1-6.

"Lumen Christi has always been our toughest competition and probably will continue to be," Schreiner said. "They give our team something to reach for."

In the final match of the week, the Bulldogs tried to avenge a Sept. 11 defeat to Columbia Central. However, DeFante couldn't compete due to illness, which put the Bulldogs at a disadvantage.

Angel Lawton got her first varsity start at fourth singles and performed admirably in a win.

Other winners for Chelsea were Pichlik, 2-6, 6-1, 6-0 and Slusher and Stump, 6-3, 6-3.

Miller lost only her second match of the season, 6-7, 6-2, 1-6; Dils was beaten by a state-ranked player, 1-6, 3-6; and the Tai sisters lost in three sets, 6-3, 4-6, 6-8.

The Tai sisters are 9-2 on the season, while Pichlik is 10-1.

This is the final week of play for the girls. This afternoon they host Riverview at 4 p.m. They compete in the regional matches this Friday and Saturday.

SEC ROUND-UP:

Saline Wallops Milan, 46-0, In Race Toward SEC Title

It appears that nothing short of a bulldozer will be needed to keep the Saline Hornets from winning the SEC championship this season.

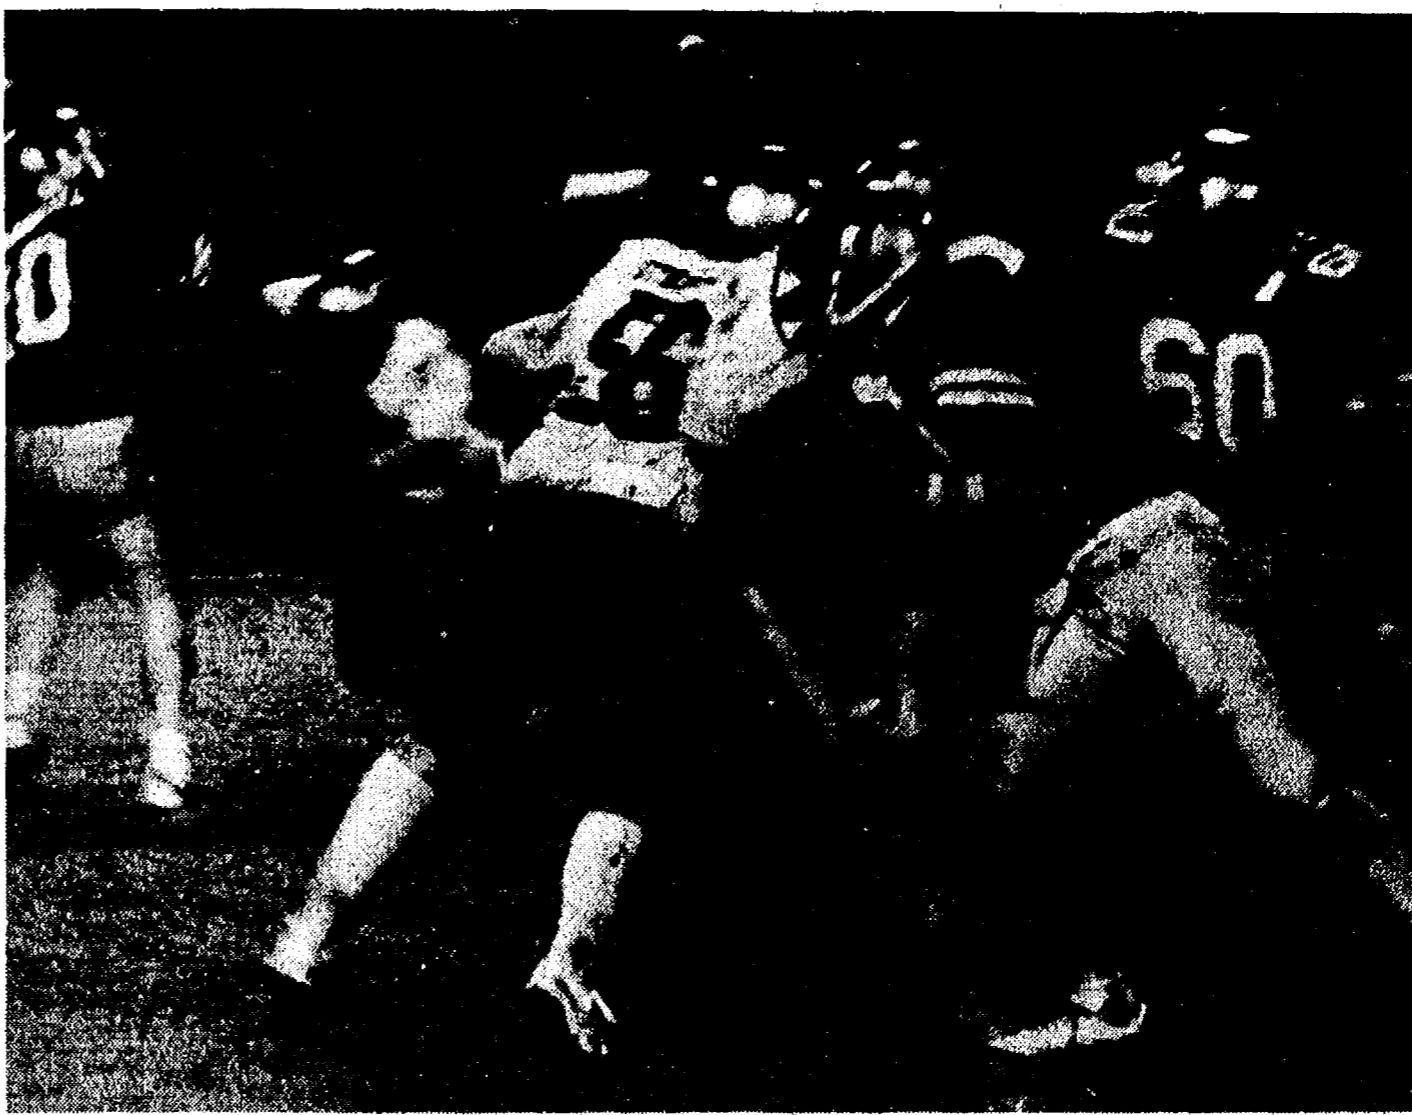

The Hornets shut out their third SEC opponent of the season last week with a 46-0 whitewashing of the Milan Big Reds. So far the Hornets have only allowed six points in four conference games. For the most part, none of their games have been close. They scored 48 points against Chelsea. Only the lowly Pinckney Pirates have scored on the powerful Hornets, and Saline coach Jack Crabtree is probably pounding his head over those.

The only Saline loss was against South Lyon the first game of the season, and that was a 7-6 score. Yielding 13 points in five games is the type of performance state champions are made of.

The Lincoln Railsplitters stayed half a game behind Saline with a 29-0 drubbing of the Dexter Dreadnaughts, spoiling Dexter's homecoming.

The Lincoln defense played superbly, pushing the Dreadnaughts backward all night. Dexter had negative total yardage for the night, and was inside the Lincoln 50-yard line only once. Only one first down, not via a penalty, was recorded in the Dreadnaught ledger.

Again, the Splitters played opportunistic football. For the second straight week they blocked a MARTY POLJAN, 88, gets bumped outside while trying to rush the Jackson County Western quarterback last Friday night at the Panthers' home field. Poljan, who was also moved from guard to tight end on offense, scored his first touchdown of the season in the Bulldogs' 34-20 loss.

MARK MULL turns up field on a kick off return during Friday's contest with the Jackson County Western Panthers. The senior captain had more than 200 yards in all-purpose offense as he rushed for nearly 100 yards, caught passes and returned kicks. He also scored a touchdown on a 15-yard run. Unfortunately, the Bulldogs lost the game, 34-20, their fourth consecutive defeat.

7th Grade Girls Cagers Win Two

Beach school seventh grade girls basketball team won two games last week, topping Saline 34-24 on Monday, Sept. 30, and Milan, 28-8 on Wednesday, Oct. 2.

The team started off slowly against Saline but came back with some good basketball.

Colleen Charphorn led the team with 14 points, 11 rebounds and eight steals. Kristen Bohlender finished with six points, 10 rebounds and five steals. Several other starters showed significant improvement.

Eight girls contributed to the scoring against host Milan and all 20 team members had a chance to play.

Charphorn again led the scoring with six points, while Brenda Brede, Sara Musolf, Kelly Bellus and Kate Dilworth each scored four points.

Krista Johnston had five rebounds.

JV Gridders Lose To JC Western

Chelsea junior varsity football team made "two crucial mistakes," that resulted in a 13-6 loss to Jackson County Western last Thursday on the home field.

The first mistake was a blown assignment early in the first quarter on a fourth down and 20 pass play that gave JCW a first down inside the five-yard line. A touchdown followed, along with a kick for an extra point, good for a 7-0 lead.

The second mistake was late in the fourth quarter with the visitors holding a slim 7-6 lead. A hard rush on quarterback Kevan Flanagan resulted in an interception after a pass was deflected at the line of scrimmage. The JCW defender ran the interception back 25 yards for a touchdown.

Chelsea scored on the first possession of the second half on a three-yard run by Rob Finch. The 51-yard, 10-play drive was highlighted by a 22-yard pass from Flanagan to Clay Hurd.

"It was a battle between two good defensive teams," said coach Jim Ticknor. "There was a lot of good defense in each other's territory."

The Bulldogs gained 128 yards total offense, 49 on rushing, 79 through the air. Finch had 51 yards, but the team lost two yards on an option. Junior Morseau, a normally-dependable runner, was hurt on the first play of the game and didn't play afterward. All passing yards were gained by Hurd on 5-15 passing by Flanagan.

JCW gained 191 yards, 143 running and 48 passing. Three Bulldogs, according to Ticknor, turned in outstanding defensive games, including Shawn Brown with 16 tackles at middle linebacker, Cory Johnson with 10 tackles at outside linebacker, and Chris Cheng at defensive end with 13 tackles.

The JV's play at Dexter tomorrow night at 7.

Fresh Gridders Shut Out Western

Chelsea Bulldog freshman football team shut out its second consecutive opponent last Thursday enroute to a 20-0 win over Jackson County Western at Niehaus Field.

"Things are going good for the freshmen," said coach Jim Tallman. "I've seen so much improvement on this team. Usually improvement comes so gradually, but that's not the case with this team."

The Bulldog defense kept the visitors outside their 30-yard line the entire game. In addition, Matt Riemenschneider and Adam Heeter had two key interceptions.

The offense played pretty well, too, Tallman said. Total offense amounted to 298 yards.

The Bulldogs' first score came in the second quarter on a three-yard run by Jeff Patterson, capping a 60-yard drive. Jeff Marshall caught a key pass during the drive.

Patterson also ran for the two-point conversion.

The score remained 8-0 until the first drive of the third quarter when Larry Nix hit Shannon Fredette on a 40-yard pass play. The extra point attempt failed.

Rex Marsh scored the final touchdown in the fourth quarter on a two-yard run capping a 60-yard drive.

Tallman cited the play of Marshall and Fredette on offense, and linebackers Jerry Reinhardt, Ted McDonald and Mike Taylor on defense, along with defensive backs Mike Kushmaul and Heeter.

Varsity Cagers Lose Two Games

Coach Jim Winter's Chelsea varsity basketball team lost its fifth and sixth games in a row last week to "two teams we had a real good shot at beating," according to Winter.

The Lincoln Railsplitters, a tough, physical team, took Tuesday's contest, 52-31. Brooklyn Columbia Central edged the Bulldogs on Saturday, 39-34.

Lincoln took advantage of 26 offensive rebounds and 31 Bulldog turnovers for the win, most of both coming in the second half. The game was tied at 15 at the intermission. Chelsea had fought back from a 10-0 deficit.

"We thought we were in good shape at half-time, but they outscored us 22-6 in the third quarter," Winter said.

"They play a rough kind of game and it's hard to play good basketball against them."

Jennifer Cattell led the team in both scoring and rebounding, with 14 and 11, respectively. Following her were Kris Mattoff and Kris Zerkel with four points, Trisha Mattoff with three, Jodi Keezer and Mary Lazarz with two, and Kim Ferry and Karen Weber with one each.

In the loss to BCC, a poor third quarter was again the nemesis of the Bulldogs. They were outscored 14-2 in that quarter.

"They didn't take a shot outside the lane in the second half," Winter said.

"Again, we thought we were in good shape at the half-time with a 20-12 lead. We had at least six turnovers in the third quarter. The things we were doing right in the first half, we didn't do in the second half."

Cattell led the team in scoring with 13 points and Trisha Mattoff followed with eight. Weber scored four, Kris Mattoff and Kris Zerkel, three each, Lazarz, two and Ferry, one.

The Bulldogs, as of Saturday, were 2-7 for the year. They play Tecumseh at home tomorrow.

JV Cagers Romp To Decisive Wins

Chelsea junior varsity basketball team chalked up two decisive wins last week, 40-17 over Lincoln on Tuesday, and 53-17 over Brooklyn Columbia Central on Saturday.

In the Lincoln game, after taking a 7-6 first quarter lead, the Bulldogs outscored the Railsplitters 12-2 in the second quarter and 11-1 in the third quarter for a 30-9 lead.

Although Chelsea only shot 28 percent from the field and 21 percent from the free throw line, they took advantage of 27 Lincoln turnovers.

Leah Enderle led Chelsea with 11 points and Kim Easton added eight. Laura Torres and Heather Neibauer each scored six. Peggy Hammerschmidt and Neibauer paced the team in rebounding with seven each.

The game with Columbia Central was decided by a 43-25 rebounding advantage and 22 steals on the part of the junior Bulldogs.

Chelsea outscored BCC 17-0 in the second quarter and 13-2 in the third quarter to take a commanding 46-10 lead.

Hammerschmidt led the team in both scoring and rebounding with 14 points and nine rebounds. Neibauer added 11 points and Enderle, nine.

"Everyone played quite a bit," said coach Paul Terpstra.

The Bulldogs carried a 7-2 record into yesterday's action with Dexter. They play at home tomorrow against Tecumseh beginning at 5:30 p.m.

8th Grade Girls Cagers Are Now 4-0

Beach school eighth grade girls basketball team is off to a perfect 4-0 start with victories over Dexter, Tecumseh, Milan and Saline.

The season-opener with Dexter ended in a 29-19 score. Leading the scoring were Jill Nowatzke with eight, Scharme Petty, seven, Allison Brown, six, and Debbie Webb with four.

Top rebounders were Brown with nine, Nowatzke, seven, and Amy Thomson with five.

Petty had five steals, and Lisa McGlimmen and Tiffany Moore had four each.

In the 27-25 win over Tecumseh, Chelsea had the lead the entire game, and Tecumseh scored at the buzzer.

Scorers were: Brown, eight; McGlimmen, seven; and Webb, three.

Webb and Nowatzke had nine rebounds each and Petty had six. Brown and Webb had three steals each.

Chelsea won another close game with Saline, 20-18. A Saline basket was disallowed due to a foul with two seconds to go.

Brown led the scoring with 10 points, and contributed 13 rebounds. Nowatzke and McGlimmen had eight and seven rebounds, respectively. Moore and Stacey Scott had five and four steals, respectively.

Chelsea walloped Milan, 33-16. Top scorers were Moore with eight, Brown with six, and Lisa Park with four. Moore and Brown had 10 and six rebounds, respectively, and Scott had four steals.

Gridders of the Week

GRIDDERS OF THE WEEK are junior Matt Steinbauer, left, and Marty Poljan. Matt, the son of Gerald and Judy Steinbauer, comes from a long line of Steinbauers who have been top Bulldog athletes. Matt is a tight end on offense and linebacker on defense. He's described as "ambitious and inventive," who works long hours on Saturdays with his painting and lawn mowing service. Marty, the son of Richard and Kay Poljan, was recently moved to outside linebacker and was a key to stopping the running attack of the Lincoln Railsplitters a couple of weeks ago. Marty's an avid hunter and particularly likes deer bow season.

"MICHIGAN MONARCH," an oil painting by David Conklin of Port Huron, has been judged winner of the Wildlife Artist of the Year award by Michigan United Conservation Club which sponsors the annual competition.

JV Cross Country Teams Compete in Mason Invitational

Both Bulldog junior varsity cross country teams had a chance to run at the Mason Invitational last week against superb competition. Although team scores were not kept, individual runner's places and times were.

THE CHELSEA FREE METHODIST CHURCH is planning to add a small chapel and six Sunday school classrooms to its present facility on Werker Rd. Above on the left is Wally Smith, head of the church's building space committee, along with the Rev. Mearl Bradley, the church's pastor.

Free Methodist Church Plans Building Expansion

A small chapel and six Sunday school classrooms will be added to the Chelsea Free Methodist church due to a growing Sunday school and worship attendance, the church has announced.

Church membership now exceeds 100, Sunday school has grown to 150, and worship to 200.

The church was organized eight years ago with 10 charter members and an attendance of 50. In those first years, services were held in rented facilities of St. Barnabas Episcopal church. Later, the congregation moved to the present facility on Werker Rd.

A capital stewardship campaign is being conducted to raise sufficient funds for the addition and present debt retirement.

It is anticipated that construction on the new addition will begin in the fall of 1986 or spring of 1987.

STUDENTS VISIT RADIO TELESCOPE: The fourth through eighth grade students of Faith Lutheran school took advantage of the good weather early in the school year by walking up to the University of Michigan radio telescope. The technicians were nice enough to bring the dish down to ground level and explain the uses of the telescope. The walk was in connection with the seventh and eighth grade science classes. These students are currently studying astronomy. Faith Lutheran school began its 13th year with an enrollment of 34 students in grades kindergarten through eighth grade. Its teachers are Mrs. JoAnn Southwell, Miss Jodeen Dorr, and Richard Gibson.

Memorial 18

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Martin L. Slane, who passed away four years ago, Oct. 9, 1981. When links of life are broken, and loved ones have to part, it leaves a wound that never heals in an ever-aching heart. When evening shades are falling, and I sit alone, to my heart comes a feeling, if you were only home.

Sadly missed by his wife, Edith Slane and family.

DONALD R. WALZ

In memory of our father, Donald R. Walz, who passed away 11 years ago on Oct. 15. So many things have happened since he was called away. So many things to share with him had he been left to stay. Love, Diane and Tylene.

Scout Council Plans 75th Year Jubilee Camporee

More than 1,500 Scouts, leaders and parents are expected to take part in the Wolverine Council's Diamond Jubilee Camporee to be held at Rynearson Stadium, Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, on the week-end of Oct. 18-20.

The "Jamboree-type" camporee is being held to help celebrate the 75th (Diamond Jubilee) anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Participating Boy Scout troops will come from communities throughout the four-county Wolverine Council area of Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe, and Washtenaw counties, plus the City of Flat Rock in southern Wayne county.

Campsites will be laid out in district (county) groupings, with troops bringing their own equipment and food. Each troop will be under the leadership of its own adults.

Camporee activities begin with registration and setup on Friday evening, and continue until Sunday noon when the final awards are presented.

Highlights of the Diamond Jubilee Camporee include a visit by William "Bill" Hillcourt (one of the national founders of the Scouting movement), and Astronaut Jack Louma (a former Scout and current member of the Wolverine Council Executive Board).

William Hillcourt is better known by millions of American boys as "Green Bar Bill" for his monthly articles in Boy's Life magazine. Bill Hillcourt is the author of many Scouting books including the first "Handbook for Patrol Leaders," "Two Lives of a Hero" (a biography of Sir Robert Baden Powell), and the current "Boy Scout Handbook." Bill has been actively involved with the Boy Scouts of America since he came to this country from Denmark in 1926 while enroute to seeing the world.

Scouts participating in the Diamond Jubilee Camporee will participate in competitive "scoutcraft" events on Saturday featuring fire building, knot tying, map and compass work, pioneering, and first aid.

Saturday's program will be capped off with a camp-wide arena show at 8 p.m. to be held at Rynearson's baseball field. Ceremonies will be similar to those held at the National Scout Jamboree conducted this past July in Virginia. Mark Benner of Brighton helped co-ordinate the national ceremonies and is in charge of the Wolverine Council's arena show.

The theme of the Diamond Jubilee Camporee is "Pride in the Past... Footsteps to the Future." The public is invited to visit the camporee site on Saturday (9 a.m. to 9 p.m.) to see "Scouting in action."

WCC Observing 20th Anniversary

Throughout the county mayors of the cities have designated Oct. 14-20 Washtenaw Community College Week in recognition of the College's 20th anniversary. Commemorating the College's formation by citizen referendum in 1965, the week will kick off a year of activities celebrating the College's 20 years of service to the community ending with a community-wide open house on Washtenaw Community College Day, Sunday, Oct. 20.

A different on-campus activity is planned for each day of WCC Week, explains Catherine Arcure, director of college advancement. The week will culminate in an open house Oct. 20 from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. The public is invited to tour the campus, see the displays on each of the College's over 50 programs, and enjoy music by WCC's award-winning jazz orchestra. Puppet shows, dance performances, movies, balloons and refreshments of cider and birthday cake will all be a part of the open house. Arcure comments. A jam session at "Preservation Hall Annex" and an opportunity to make an audiotape are also among the activities available. Alumni will be recognized with special activities that afternoon, she adds.

A citizen's committee, headed by Tony Procassini, WCC board member, has planned further events for the 20th anniversary year including an Education Day, Oct. 14 and Government Day on Oct. 17. Committee members planning the week's events include: Richard Bailey, Geraldine Brengle, Karen Christiansen, Woody Holman, Rick Kelsey, Ann Kettles, Gerald Lipnik, Merritt Martin, chair Procassini, Elvira Vogel, and Ralph Wenrich. A Mardi Gras, scheduled for Feb. 8, will be a later part of the celebration.

For further information of WCC's 20th anniversary activities, please contact Judie Lax in the college's office of advancement at 973-3492.

Adair is an expert on the history and culture of the Smokey and Appalachian Mountains. He'll talk about the pioneers, the mountain people, the craftsmen, waterfalls and wonders of the mountainous Southeast.

There are five other speakers in the series, one each month through March.

The programs were arranged through Windoes Travelogues, Inc. of Grand Rapids. All speakers are experts in their fields.

Each show begins at 8 p.m. sharp at the high school auditorium.

All proceeds from the series go to support a wide array of community projects such as the boy scouts, the senior citizens bus, and the 4th of July fireworks display.

Price of the tickets is $12 for all six shows. They may be purchased from any Kiwanian or from many local merchants including Heydlauff's Appliances, Chelsea Hardware, Chelsea Lumber Co., Chelsea State Bank, Palmer Motors, Groves 5 cents to $1 Store, Kusterer's Grocery, Jerry Ashby Insurance, Ann Arbor Trust Co. branch and McDonalds.

About 70 percent of the people in America read a newspaper at least once a day.

CHELSEA POLICE RESERVE Robin Wright, left, and Pam Lisznyai, right, a police dispatcher, were two of the people who volunteered their time to the VFW's fingerprinting effort last Saturday at the VFW Hall on N. Main St. They, along with chief Lenard McDougall, fingerprinted 353 children in four hours. Above, Amie Rose Hatch of Chelsea watches as Wright makes the mark on the special form. The demand for fingerprints was so great that the VFW plans another session on Saturday, Oct. 19, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the hall. The idea is to give parents a way to permanently identify their children should they ever turn up missing. Only the parents keep a copy of the prints.

Dennis Petsch To Coach Academic Games Team

Dennis Petsch, a life-long Chelsea resident, part-time dispatcher and reserve officer for the Chelsea Police Department, is the new advisor to Beach Middle school's academic games program. He takes over for Betty Cox, who recently moved to North Carolina.

Petsch, 26, is a graduate of Chelsea High school and even attended Beach school the first year it opened. He recently earned his teaching certificate from Eastern Michigan University, with a major in science and a minor in mathematics.

"I wanted the position because it will give me good experience working with children in an academic field," Petsch said.

"I coach during the summer and it will be nice to work with the children outside of sports."

In addition to coaching and supervising the academic games, Petsch is the police department's main speaker on substance abuse topics. He has spoken to various groups around town, including the schools.

Petsch is taking over a program at Beach that is enormously popular. This year 30 children are taking part, up from 28 last year. The program was built, in large part, by Cox. For a while it looked as though no one would be found to guide the youngsters this year.

The academic games team began practices last week, and their first competition will be Saturday, Oct. 19 at Lansing Waverly High school. There are four academic categories the team practices: equations, a math game; Mr. President, about U.S. presidents; current events; and "on words," a word game. The team will compete in the equations category in the regional tournament, and in the other three categories in the state tournament.

Caroline Lane Honored By Sandusky Schools

Caroline E. Lane, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Lane of Chelsea, a third-year teacher in the Lakota Central Schools of Sandusky County, O., was recently honored by being selected as one of 350 teachers in the elementary and secondary schools in Ohio to attend the Jennings Scholar Lecture Program.

This program was initiated to honor outstanding classroom teachers in line with one of the Foundation's major objectives of improving the quality of elementary and secondary education in Ohio.

These programs consist of a series of six lectures by major personalities of widely different backgrounds. They are operated by the staff of the Colleges of Education of Bowling Green State University, Ohio University, Capital University, the University of Dayton, Cleveland State University and Kent State University with assistance from the Foundation's staff. This lecture series was established to provide a means of greater accomplishment on the part of teachers in the hope that it would result in greater recognition for the teaching profession in the public schools.

Miss Lane is a 1979 graduate of Chelsea High school and a 1983 graduate of Bowling Green State University where she received a triple major in Elementary Education, Learning Behavior Disorders and Educably Mentally Retarded. Miss Lane is presently pursuing her master's degree at BGSU in addition to her teaching duties.

CAROLINE E. LANE

Round-Up

fourth and nine play that went for a touchdown.

Chelsea and Dexter face off this week in what should be an interesting match-up at Niehaus Field. The Dexter offense hasn't been at all consistent, which should be a relief to the Bulldog defense, which has had its problems. On the other hand, the Dexter defense is capable of playing very well, as is the Chelsea offense. As the old cliché goes, the team with the fewest mistakes will probably win.
