JOYCE VAN MEER escaped serious injury Sunday morning when her car was hit head on by a Pinckney boy as she was going home from church. Her car, a new Chrysler New Yorker, was totaled. Van Meer, the wife of Chelsea school superintendent Ray Van Meer, Meer, had a broken thumb and general bumps and bruises, but was otherwise in good condition. She was treated and released from Chelsea Community Hospital on Sunday.

A 16-YEAR-OLD PINCKNEY BOY was driving this car when it hit an automobile driven by Joyce Van Meer, wife of school superintendent Ray Van Meer, Sunday morning on Werkner Rd.

Police said there were no skid marks at the scene. The boy, who also had a companion in the car, was cited for having no brakes. Van Meer had relatively minor injuries.

Only Minor Injuries Reported In Head-on Collision Sunday

Joyce Van Meer, the wife of Chelsea school superintendent Ray Van Meer, escaped with minor injuries last Sunday morning when her car was hit head on in front of the Chelsea Free Methodist church.

Van Meer was heading home from church traveling north on Werkner Rd. at about 9:30 when another car, traveling south, swerved to avoid hitting another car in the rear end and hit Van Meer's Chrysler New Yorker.

Van Meer suffered a broken thumb, and general cuts and bruises. She was treated at Chelsea Community Hospital and released that afternoon.

According to police, the other vehicle had malfunctioning brakes when it hit Van Meer's car.

The driver of the other car was a 16-year-old Pinckney boy. Police said his car hit another automobile in the left rear before crossing the center line and hitting Van Meer's car. The driver of the first car hit was Billy Jane Zenz, of Stofor Rd. She was not injured.

The Pinckney boy, who also had another minor boy as a passenger, was cited for malfunctioning brakes, police said they were both taken to Chelsea Hospital and released. Both were wearing seatbelts at the time of the accident.

Van Meer also credits the use of seat belts for her relatively minor injuries.

"Ray was on the golf course when it happened," Van Meer said. "Sam Vogel was driving home and saw the accident. He's the one who told Ray. He said 'Joyce has been in an accident, and she's all right. But she crumpled the car a little bit.'"

"It's a miracle I'm alive. I feel real lucky. I'm getting around just fine, although I'm a little sore. I even went out to look at the car."

Van Meer's New Yorker had only 4,012 miles on it.

North School Plans 'Knight of Knights'

The halls of North school are once again taking on a festive air as preparations for the school's sixth annual fair, the "Night of Knights," are in full swing.

The fair is set for Thursday, Oct. 24, from 4:30 to 8:30.

A Dragon Roasted Chicken Dinner will be served between 5 and 7 p.m. for all who have purchased tickets. Tickets are available at the North school office and will be sold through Oct. 17.

Theme of the fair was taken from the school symbol—a medieval knight. Fairgoers are being urged to come in costume and in keeping with the theme, the chicken dinner is based on foods available during medieval times. Musicians will be strolling the halls and flower garlands and neck medallions will be available to adorn the youngsters attending the fair.

As the time grows near, art classes are busy making nuge pennants from brightly colored strips of material with which to decorate the gym. Each classroom has been given their own large paper dragon to decorate as their imaginations dictate. The school's Media Center is offering an array of books and materials about knights of old with which to capture the interest of the students.

The "Night of Knights" is not only a fund-raiser, but a time for parents and children to interact in a festive and warm environment, hopefully learning something about the lives of our ancestors along the way.

This will be Mom's or Dad's change to get out of the kitchen and enjoy a great evening with the kids. There will be games and rides to keep the children occupied while parents have a chance to share the company of other adults and enjoy some of the entertainment going on.

Vocal Music Groups Will Present Concert

Chelsea High school vocal music department will present a "Hello, Again" concert on Monday, Oct. 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. This concert gives the various vocal groups a chance to get acquainted again with the community and for new members of each group to be heard.

Two special groups will appear on the program. The first group is the dynamic duo of John Williams and Darcy Stielstra presenting "The Deaf Old Woman." Another special group is the Nifty Nine from Beach Middle school singing "Go into the World," and "Come Out Singin'," the last song choreographed by Melissa Graves and Gloria Gallas.

The high school girls select group, the Contemporaries, will do several selections ending with "Why Do Fools Fall in Love?" choreographed by Amy Wolfgang and Angie Welch.

The Madri-Guys, the high school boys select group, do a variety of songs ending with the old favorite, "Silhouettes."

The Chelsea Concert Choir begins the concert with formal style concert music. However, the last of the program is more informal, and the choir ends the program with the title song "Hello, Again" featuring Jill La Croix and Christopher Herter in a duet.

Trinkle Rd. Flooding Solution Should Be Completed in October

The Trinkle Rd. flooding problem should soon be a thing of the past.

According to Fletcher Desautels, chief engineer for the Washtenaw County Road Commission, the road work should be completed by the end of October.

"With any project like this, we are somewhat at the mercy of our suppliers," Desautels said. "Then we need five good weather days to do the work."

Trinkle Rd. residents were informed of the impending road work in a letter from the county, Desautels said.

The road has been completely covered with water for about two months at a low spot about a quarter mile from Freer Rd. The puddle has varied in size depending on rainfall, but has been completely impassible. The muck has created a dangerous situation. Residents have reported it behaves like quicksand and has created the real possibility that someone could drown in it.

A detour has been in place since the flooding began, routing traffic from Freer to Old US-12 to Fletcher Rd. The flooded portion of the road connects Fletcher and Freer Rds. and is about 1½ miles long. It has only been open to local traffic during that time.

The $25,000 solution engineers have devised involves putting a "geotextile fabric," directly over the existing road, completely covering the sink hole that is causing the problem. The fabric will be about 350 feet long.

Wood chips will then be placed over the fabric, and the fabric folded back over them, essentially creating a woodchip sandwich. Finally, gravel will be dumped on the top layer of fabric.

Engineers are expecting the fabric to be delivered sometime this week, a week later than originally expected. Then it has to be "sewn" together to create the large continuous piece of fabric needed.

"We had hoped to have it sewn together before it was shipped, but apparently that wasn't possible," Desautels said.

According to Desautels, the solution planned for Trinkle Rd. has been used successfully in similar situations around the county.

United Way Hits 12% Of Goal in First Week

At the conclusion of the first full week of the 1985-86 Chelsea United Way fund drive, contributions and pledges totaled $7,595, according to Lang Ramsay and Dave Prohaska, co-chairmen of this year's drive. This represents nearly 12% of the $68,000 goal set by the board of directors.

Response thus far by the various campaign divisions is as follows: residential, $2,098, or 30.9% of division goal; coupons, $150, or 100%; community organizations and clubs, $25, for 6.6%; professional, $850, or 34% of their goal; commercial, $2,461, representing 20.5%; and schools, $2,011, for 29.8%.

The industrial and hospital divisions are in the midst of conducting their drives, and results will not be known until the end of the month. However, these two divisions represent one-half of the campaign objective with goals of $26,500 and $6,500, respectively.

Included in the industrial division are BookCrafters, Chrysler Corp., Dana Corp., Federal Screw Works, and Chelsea Milling Co.

9.3% is derived from United Ways outside of the Chelsea area, such as Washtenaw United Way and the greater Detroit area United Fund drives.

According to Prohaska, Chelsea residents who work outside of our community may designate that their donations through employer-sponsored United Way drives go to Chelsea. "In such cases, please indicate this on the donor card, along with our mailing address which is P. O. Box 176, Chelsea 48118," encouraged Prohaska.

According to Ramsay, "98 cents of every dollar donated goes to fund agency programs. The remaining two cents per $1 pays for postage, printing, and collection loss. Unlike other United Ways, our organization uses volunteers to conduct the campaign and administer the program. This makes us much more efficient, and we are proud of our results."

In the local area, Chelsea United Way funds Chelsea Social Services, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Chelsea Area Transportation System, Chelsea Recreation Council, Chelsea Home Meal Service, American Red Cross, and the Washtenaw County Visiting Nurses Association.

In addition, a portion of United Way funds assist programs administered by state-wide and national organizations such as Hemophilia Foundation of Michi-

Mover Overruns To Come from Aid to S.E.M.T.A.

A recent agreement, which releases $52.6 million in federal aid to complete the Detroit people mover project, provides that any future cost overruns be deducted from state aid to the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA), which has managed the project until now.

Governor James Blanchard said he was pleased the final memorandum of understanding does not require the state to cover potential overruns in a project that officials have agreed will cost $208.6 million, or $73.6 million over original estimates.

He had previously criticized U. S. Urban Mass Transportation Administrator Ralph Stanley for demanding a blank check from the state for completion of the project, although Stanley said that was not his intent.

The memorandum of understanding was signed by the Governor, Detroit Mayor Coleman Young, Stanley, and SEMTA. The SEMTA board approved details at an afternoon meeting, and the Detroit City Council must now approve the agreement assuming management of the project.

The keys to reaching final agreement were that the city, taking construction management of the project over from SEMTA, is to assume primary financial responsibility for any overruns, and that the state and city would take the necessary steps—deductions from the $51 million a year sent to SEMTA—if the city were unable to cover overruns.

Blanchard sent SEMTA Acting General Manager Albert Martin a letter notifying him of the possible deductions.

Young said he firmly believes that with the newly-hired Turner Construction Co. as project manager, the 2.9 mile elevated transit system can be completed without further overruns and within its projected completion date of January, 1987, his press secretary Robert Berg said.

He said the priority is to finish the project, not to worry about possible overruns.

Austin Urges Five-Year Voter List Purge

Dropping persons from voter registration lists after five years of inactivity and broader local authority regarding deputy registrars has been proposed by Secretary of State Richard Austin.

Those and four other proposals respond to many complaints contained in a pending federal lawsuit that the deputy registrar system acts to unconstitutionally deprive persons of voting rights.

"We believe most of these changes are attainable this year," Austin said.

At ceremonies commemorating the 10th anniversary of a state program allowing voter registration at secretary of state branch offices, Austin said the system has resulted in a "significant" increase in the number of registered voters, and that proportion of voting age persons who are registered is the highest among industrial states.

The five-year "purge" of voter registration files was twice vetoed last year by Governor Blanchard, who said access to registration must be improved. Austin said the six-part proposal attempts to do that.

Rather than remove persons from the registrations list after 10 years of not voting (four years in a non-voting active file and six in an inactive file), the proposal would erase registrations of persons who had not voted in five years.

Austin said he also supports legislation to permit reinstatement of cancelled registrations on election day for voters who could prove they were still residents.

To provide greater access, Austin proposed granting county clerks the power to appoint deputy registrars with county-wide registration authority, instead of authority resting at city and township levels. The state would provide a standardized voter registration form.

Other proposals include: giving the Department of State authority to register voters at group meetings at the request of organizations sponsoring the events; eliminating requirements that voter registrations submitted by mail be notarized; and authorizing voter registration by mail for persons permitted to renew driver licenses by mail.

Austin also proposed using Department of State resources to provide local election officials with address changes and voter registration transactions completed in branch offices, as well as cancellations.

The Secretary of State also said since the branch office voter registrations system was adopted, the number of persons registered and of those voting has increased faster than the growth of the voting age population.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Clem Webster told the fellers at the country store Saturday night that all he knewed about Lafayette Park in Washington, D. C. was what he read in the papers, and that was aplenty. The column writers have been choosing sides about all the demonstrators that camp and carry signs in the park near the White House, Clem said, and they are as far apart on this issue as they are on the rest.

For instant, Clem went on, one feller said the National Park Service is right to clamp down on the assorted crazies by saying how big their signs can be. He is of the mind that the rest of America has more Constitutional right to see and use the park than the sign toters have to this particular kind of free speech. Clem said this stand made sense to him until another column writer explained the situation.

Actual, this feller said, the circus and the clowns in Lafayette Park is a plus for the country because they make the rest of official Washington look sane by comparison. If we didn't have the park, this line of reasoning goes, we'd be amazed if not downright terrified by antics of Congress and all the Federal agencies. This side got Clem's vote. Just last week, he said, he had saw where the Social Security Administration wrote a note to a recipient and ask if he was dead. The note said "if you are deceased please let us know." Clem said the item didn't mention any reply or any forwarding address, but for sure the note raised more questions than it got answers.

The next paper you pick up tells where the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation figured out what to do about a dam building project in Utah that started at $332 million and now is running 10 year behind with a price tag of $2 billion. The bureau's remedy is to build the town near the damn, a $450,000 bowling alley so the 200 federal workers on the job will have recreation during all the time they don't spend trying to git the project on schedule. The town folks said the bowling alley would keep the dam builders off the streets and save in services such as police and sanitation.

The fellers were general agreed that the crazies in the park has got to be a comfort to us. If you try to look at Washington sensible, Bug Hookum allowed, you'll go crazy. Bug had saw where one congressman was promoting reverse revenue sharing because he said ever state and local government in the country is in better shape than the budget of the Federal Government that has been sharing its revenue with all of em. No sooner do we git word from the General Accounting Office that a bunch of Federal agencies are paying the same bills two or three times, Bug went on, than along comes word that our foreign debt is about as bad as our national debt. Then comes news that the U. S. Senate had voted the rose the national flower, Bug said, and he was of a mind that the shrinking violet is more up with the times.

Practical speaking, Ed Doolittle said, this country is still strong because for all it owes it still is worth so much more. Ed said he does worry about the Food and Drug Administration spending money to warn people not to eat the heart-shaped boxes that Valentine candy comes in, and he's not pleased about the 48,000 heavy leather holsters the Defense Department buys ever year fer .45 caliber pistols it ain't bought none of in 40 year, so he, fer one, is glad of the Lafayette Park crazies.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

WINANS JEWELRY

THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Beal of 239 Jefferson St., was observed by family and "a few good friends" Sunday, Sept. 22 at their home. Mary and Stanley Beal were married Sept. 21, 1935 in Chelsea and have lived in Chelsea their entire married lives. Stanley was active in business in Chelsea from 1927 until he retired in 1963. The Stanley Beals have four children, Richard Beal of Clinton, Caroline Grill of Ann Arbor, Donna Melon of Plymouth, and Paul Beal of Stockbridge; nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Scott Richardson Spends Summer In Brazilian Teens Mission Camp

Scott Richardson spent time in "boot camp" this summer, and then nearly two months working near the jungles of South America. But it didn't have a thing to do with the military. If anything, Richardson's experience took him to the opposite extreme.

Richardson, a senior at Chelsea High school, labored for Teen Missions International in Brazil this summer. Teen Missions is a non-denominational, Christian missionary organization that sends pre-college boys and girls to remote regions of the world. Richardson worked with a team of 35 to build a kitchen and meeting facility at a Teen Missions camp in Sao Miguel, Brazil, near the mouth of the Amazon river. That camp would be used by Brazilians, who would learn how to spread the word of God in the cities of Brazil.

"It was the hardest thing I ever did," Richardson recalled.

"It was very hard work and we lived very primitively. But it was rewarding to live down there without having anything of value with me. I had my boots, bible and a bunch of trashy clothes. It was rewarding to do something for God."

The building Richardson's team constructed was in a "boot camp" similar to the one he attended in Merritt Island, Fla., in June before going to Brazil.

"The idea of the camp was to make us live in circumstances that were harder than they would be where we were going," Richardson said. "There were about 1,000 people in the camp at once, and some of them were going to places like New Guinea where they might be hundreds of miles from any civilization. It prepared us mentally, physically and spiritually for the trip. Every morning we had to run an obstacle course about a mile long. We lived in tents and the only water we had came from a pump. We had to wash out of a pan, which meant not being clean for days at a time. They also taught us bricklaying, carpentry, how to work with concrete. They also taught us how to sing together, evangelize and puppetry."

They learned puppetry, Richardson said, because it turns out to be a good way to communicate with those in foreign cultures. Indeed, there were several occasions when his team had the opportunity to put on a puppet show, one time while floating down the Amazon river.

Richardson's team initially flew to Manaus, Brazil, in the middle of the country on the Amazon. They stayed in another Teen Missions camp. From there they took a "common class boat," to Belem, where they met Eddie Miller, a full-time missionary, who stocked them with various medical supplies, including "liver pills," to prevent worms.

From Belem they went directly to Sao Miguel, where they began work on the 36' by 80' concrete block building. As it turned out, his living conditions in Sao Miguel were considerably better than those in Florida—they had cooking facilities, toilets and showers.

When the team wasn't constructing the building, they were passing the word of God, Richardson said. They passed out literature and put on presentations in churches.

"As we grew together we began to come across better in our presentations," Richardson said. "It was rewarding to see how we could touch someone else's life."

Richardson said the "Christian word of God," was not widely known in the area around Sao Miguel. Many of the natives, he said, were involved with "magic things," and in every town there were stores to cater to that mysticism. He also said that many of the religious cults that have a foothold in this country, like the Hare Krishnas, and followers of the Rev. Sun Myung

Moon, are also prevalent in Brazil.

Richardson put up about $400 of his own money for the trip, while 30-40 sponsors helped out with the rest. He said that before attending college next year, he'd like to do it all again.

SCOTT RICHARDSON spent his summer in Brazil working for Teen Missions International. "It was the hardest thing I've ever done," he said.

Final Planting Date Near for Crop Insured Wheat

Oct. 31 is the final planting date for insured wheat, according to Barbara A. Cranson, a representative for the Federal Crop Insurance Corp. (FCIC).

Wheat planted by Oct. 31, must be reported by Nov. 15, in order to receive full crop insurance coverage. The acreage report reflects the actual acreage planted and reported by the farmer.

"During the growing season, if damage occurs, notice should be given promptly," Cranson said.

A new crop insurance plan, called Actual Production History (APH), is available this year to producers of wheat, barley, and oats in addition to corn, grain sorghum, and other crops. "Increasingly, our insured producers are discovering that with a yield guarantee which reflects production capability, crop insurance establishes a farm income floor. Thus, cash flow and the ability to repay a loan may be more accurately projected," explained Cranson.

All cheeses except those made for low-sodium diets are high in salt content. Processed cheeses can contain up to twice as much salt as the natural varieties.

THE 25TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY of Paul and Loretta Beal of Stockbridge, was observed Sept. 23. Paul's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Beal of Chelsea, observed their 50th wedding anniversary the same month but they were married Sept. 21, 1935. The Paul Beals have four children, Mark, Tim, Marcia, and Denise, and three grandchildren.

Band Alumni To Perform at Homecoming

All alumni of the Chelsea High school bands are invited to take part in the homecoming half-time show on Friday, Oct. 25.

William Gourley, director of bands, is asking alumni to bring their horns to the game.

During the first half those alumni wanting to play will pick up music at the band's football stands.

During half-time, after the high school bands perform, the alumni band members will join the high school band in playing one selection and the fight song. "No rehearsing and not too much effort. We don't want to wear the alumni out," is Gourley's words. "This is just an opportunity to dust off the horns, stand on the field and remember how much fun it used to be."

Only members needing a tuba or drum should leave a message at the high school prior to Friday, Oct. 25.

A VIEW from the CLOCK TOWER

By Will Connelly

The people of the Village of Chelsea owe a debt of gratitude to our Congressman, Carl Pursell, to Cynthia Hudgins, his district co-ordinator in Ann Arbor, and to Fritz Weber, our village administrator, for securing a grant of $2.4 million from the federal government to help in the building of an urgently needed wastewater treatment plant.

Pursell, who was closest to the transaction with the Environmental Protection Agency, is a hard-working representative of his constituents in this district of Michigan. At the same time, he is devoted to the well-being of the whole nation and is an active advocate of economy in government.

The sad thing is that Carl must work within the confines of a corrupt and degenerate system of government.

The taxes we are required to send to Washington end up as ingredients in a bloated pork pie. There are 435 congressmen and 100 senators involved in the costly recipe. Most of the 535 politicians equate the size of their slice of this multi-billion dollar pie to votes for re-election.

It is a savage contest of greed and power. For each bite of the pie achieved by one congressman he needs the support of hundreds of others on the House floor. The process has been described as back scratching, log rolling and pork barreling. Whatever the name, our congressman must vote for dams, bridges, military bases, post offices and sewers in other communities if he wants them to vote for Chelsea. He and his colleagues must also vote for bureaucracies in government departments which can spend or withhold funds for operations in their voting districts. The same lawmakers must accept, and even solicit, funds from wealthy political action committees (PAC's) who seek special privileges from the government for business interests, unions and professional cartels.

This is the climate in which Pursell and Weber had to procure $2.4 million from the EPA and Congress.

It should be added that this sanitary improvement to be carried out by the village will benefit the health and well-being of area neighbors for miles around. I live in Sylvan township on McKinley Pond a half mile from Letts Creek where the effluent from Chelsea is discharged into the Huron River system. As a federal taxpayer, I support this EPA grant and so should all the taxpayers from Dexter to Lake Erie. This is a much better investment than $50 ash trays for admirals or subsidies for tobacco growers.

The necessity for the new wastewater treatment plant is so clear it has been mandated by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources under the provisions of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act.

The much appreciated $2.4 million grant still leaves the residents of the village with the obligation to pay an additional $2 million. If, as contemplated, this sum is underwritten with 12 percent bonds over 20 years, the payments of interest alone will amount to $4.8 million. Add a bit for cost overruns, which by now are virtually de rigueur, and village residents will dish out at least $7 million while residents of the other 49 states will contribute to the $2.4 million from the EPA.

Have you just a moment for some day dreaming? What if the Village of Chelsea years ago had established a savings account for future capital needs the way some families save up for college for their kids? And what if, by 1986, this reserve fund had grown to $2 million?

A. There would have been a loud taxpayers protest about high village taxes while the administration is hoarding $2 million in a lush money market account.

B. The EPA would have refused the $2.4 million grant on the grounds that the village had $2 million in reserve and didn't really need any assistance.

With these considerations in mind, it seems best just to count our blessings and send our thanks to Carl Pursell, Cynthia Hudgins and Fritz Weber.

★ Survey Analysis Pertaining to Vocational Education

The Chelsea Board of Education has been presented with the analysis of the survey data regarding vocational education. A significant amount of time was spent in discussing the conclusion drawn from the analysis, and what it means for the future direction of the district in vocational education. A summary of the vocational analysis is as follows:

1. Approximately 60% of the community feels the school should continue to offer about the same amount of vocational education. Approximately 5% feel we should do less, and 35% feel we should do more.
2. Parents of high school students have the same opinion toward vocational education as the general public.
3. The opinion of persons (35%, more; 5%, less; 60%, same) toward vocational education remain the same regardless of age and educational level of respondents.
4. To a greater extent than the general public, non-parents support the Chelsea schools offering more vocational education.
5. Survey respondents who feel more should be done for non-college bound students also feel more vocational education is what is necessary.

Vocational Ranking	Respondents	Percent
More	315	36
Less	48	6
Same	507	58
Total	870	100

Vocational Ranking	Respondents	Percent
More	119	47
Less	9	4
Same	124	49
Total	252	100

Vocational Training	Respondents	Percent
More	107	35
Less	18	6
Same	178	59
Total	303	100

It was clear from the results that there is no support for less vocational education. The Board of Education was pleased that 60% of the respondents feel we are providing the right amount of vocational education. However, with 35% of the respondents feeling the district should provide more vocational education, a further look at the number of non-college bound high school students will be considered so that improvement in vocational education offerings could be considered.

Portage, Baseline Lake Level Will Be Lowered for Winter

Homeowners in the Portage and Baseline Lakes area were cautioned today to prepare for the coming winter. "The lake level at Portage Lake will be lowered approximately one foot starting Nov. 3, and completed Nov. 10," stated James E. Murray, Washtenaw County Drain Commissioner. The lowering of the lake level coincides with the closing of the boat launch facilities.

Each winter, the lake level is lowered to reduce frost and ice damage on the dam and erosion around the lake.

For additional information, please contact Chester Pankowski, senior drain inspector, at 994-2525.

Safety Tips Offered to School-Age Children

Parents of children who must walk to and from school should teach them some easy, common sense safety tips that can help avoid danger, advises Sheriff Schebil of Washtenaw county.

He urges parents to review the following points with their children:

—When walking to and from school, always remember to travel with a friend or group of friends. Remember, two or more heads are better than one, especially if there is an emergency.

Women's Role In Farming Increasing

Scratch the image of the farmer as being a male, wearing bib overalls, a plaid shirt, boots and a straw hat. That farmer just might be a woman.

A recently completed "women in agriculture" survey, conducted by Ford Tractor, shows that farm women occupy a variety of important positions in farm activities—including full management. It is the first in-depth study in five years to provide research into the woman's changing role in agriculture.

The survey findings confirmed that the farm woman's involvement in farm decisions is increasing in every area. Farm management has become increasingly a family affair, shared to varying degrees by husband and wife.

The survey also showed that 81% of farm women joined their husbands in making decisions on whether to buy or sell land, up from 58% five years ago. Husbands and wives jointly making decisions on whether to purchase major farm equipment rose from 46% in 1980 to 62% today.

The survey also indicated an increasing number of farm women participating in decisions on whether to start a new crop or a new breed of livestock, whether to try a new production practice, when to sell their products and selecting the brand of farm equipment to purchase.

Farm women are also assuming more responsibilities for farm finances, including book-keeping, maintaining records, paying bills or preparing tax forms, as well as animal care.

Of the 3,300 women who responded to the survey, 83% considered themselves full-time farmers and 13% part-time farmers. Approximately 54% consider themselves "one of the main operators" on the farm and another 3% said they were the sole operator.

scape architect, was a guest at the Chamber of Commerce meeting, Tuesday evening, at the invitation of the group's president, Howard Flintoft.

Flintoft had asked him to make suggestions regarding the future development of Pierce Park and he outlined long-range plans and made valuable suggestions on ways to carry out the plans.

Runciman's suggested immediate steps included marking the trees to be cut out in the heavily wooded section during the coming winter.

Roland Spaulding, reporting for the committee in charge of work on the roadside park site to be improved at the north entrance to the village, at the new bridge, said the work was progressing.

The cement abutments for a rustic footbridge across the creek have already been completed, he said, and grading of the picnic grounds in preparation for seeding is expected to be completed next week.

A committee was appointed to look into the possibility of financial support for a seventh and eighth grade junior football team. The group includes George Sweeney, chairman, and Don McClear, Phyllis Vogel, Alfred Knickerbocker, Otto Riegger and Shirley Riihimaki.

Members of the Band Parents Club and new band members were given a demonstration of musical instruments at Tuesday's meeting at the high school.

Movies pertaining to band work in the schools were part of the program, in addition to short talks by the school superintendent and principal.

—A stranger is anyone you or your parents don't know well.

—Never take candy, money, medicine or anything else that is offered by a stranger.

—Avoid strangers who appear to be hanging around the schoolyard, playground or public rest rooms. Tell your teacher or a school security officer about any suspicious person.

—If a stranger in a car asks you questions, don't get close to the car—just run away!

—Don't be fooled by strangers who want to ask you questions or ask you to help find a lost dog or cat—run away!

—Don't tell anyone your name or where you live and don't be fooled by a stranger who may have learned your name from your lunchbox, T-shirt or school bag.

If you think you're in any danger, start yelling and run to the nearest store or neighborhood "safe house," where there are responsible people who can help you.

—Always stick to the same safe route when going to and from school, and never hitchhike—never!

"These are good, common sense safety tips for school kids," Sheriff Schebil concluded. "I hope parents throughout our county will take an evening to discuss them with their children. Our department wants this to be a safe school year for every child."

Chelsea Historical Society Leaders Inspect Remodelled Funeral Home

Sunday afternoon two leaders of the Chelsea Historical Society made an inspection visit to the remodelled Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home on Park St. They were Marjorie Hepburn, president, and Don Dancer, a society trustee.

The change in the structure is of considerable interest to historians because the Staffan-Mitchell Home is the oldest business enterprise in Chelsea and the building dates back to the 1870's.

The firm was established in 1853 by Frank Staffan who began making caskets in his early twenties. Today Staffan-Mitchell is one of the two oldest funeral homes in Michigan.

The Park St. building has undergone numerous changes during the past century. The redesigned facade with its spacious double-door entry, illuminated by a glass fanlight and adorned with brass lamps, was designed by the architectural firm of Quinn Evans in Ann Arbor. The interior of the building contains more than 11,000 square feet including a chapel with seating for 250 persons.

John and Gloria Mitchell purchased the home in 1981 from George Staffan, grandson of the founder.

Members of the Historical Society maintain an ongoing interest in the families, buildings, institutions and events of the community. The redesign of the Staffan-Mitchell Home will become another addition to the Society's archives.

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU EDITORIAL

Field Sanitation Rules Not Needed

William Brock, Secretary of the U.S. Department of Labor, recently announced that the federal government would postpone a decision regarding the implementation of a proposed OSHA field sanitation regulation for 18 months. Thirteen states already have such regulations, not including Michigan.

During this 18-month period, OSHA will be looking to see whether additional states will impose regulations that require farmers to provide access to toilets, handwashing facilities and drinking water.

Since Michigan is a large employer of migrant farm workers and because it does not have a state field sanitation regulation, it is likely that state officials will begin efforts to pass a regulation. Already, the Michigan Agricultural Labor Commission is seeking comments regarding its feasibility.

It is absurd for anyone to believe that farmworkers in Michigan do not already have access to sanitation facilities while at work. Farmworkers work under the exact same conditions as farmers and their families. Sanitation facilities are available at the on-farm living units that are provided for farmworkers, at the farm headquarters and, in many cases, portable toilet units provided by farmers right in the fields. When it comes to sanitation facilities, farmworkers have access the same way as employees on road repair/construction crews, traveling sales representatives and others whose worksite is "in the field" and not in a fixed place.

Unquestionably, everyone should have reasonable access to sanitation facilities whether they are at work or not. But imposing a regulation, in absence of data to support its need, is a breach of the public's trust in government and only serves to perpetuate the mistrust between the people and their government officials.

Broderick Earns Gratitude of Shell Board Member for Help

When a branch office has a visit from one of the home office's head honchos, usually the employees like to tidy up a bit, straighten the furniture, water the plants and wash the windows.

Chuck Broderick, owner of Broderick's Shell station, never had that opportunity when a member of Shell's board of directors came to Chelsea. But he couldn't have passed a planned inspection with better marks.

J.H. Platts, an executive with the Whirlpool Corp., and a member of Shell's board, was on his way to Detroit Metropolitan Airport in his chauffeur-driven Cadillac when engine problems developed just outside of Chelsea. A Shell board meeting was waiting for him in New York.

As far as Broderick was concerned, Platts was just another customer.

"We opened the hood and saw that the belt to the air vacuum pump had broken," Broderick said.

"The station stocks belts for most cars, but we were out of the belt needed to repair this one. To top it off, this passenger was in a real hurry."

Broderick quickly realized there was not enough time to obtain a belt from any nearby parts stores.

"I checked to see if the air pump belt from my wife's Cadillac, which was at the station, would fit his car, but it was the wrong size," Broderick said.

"Mr. Platts' departure time was quickly approaching so I had my son drive him to the airport in my wife's car, while the chauffeur stayed behind."

Platts made his flight, and, eventually, the Cadillac was repaired.

That could have been the end of the story. In most cases, it might have been.

However, when Shell executive vice-president Frank Richardson heard about Broderick's dedication, he sent Broderick a Shell pen and pencil set and a thank you letter.

Even Platts himself didn't forget. He wired Broderick's wife, Sandy, a bouquet of flowers to thank her for the use of her car.

The story of Broderick's exceptional service also appeared in the slick company publication, "Shell Progress."

Senior Citizens Group Honors 80 At October Birthday Luncheon

Eighty people, including two teachers, were honored at North Elementary school Friday afternoon. What do they all have in common? For one, all but two are senior citizens; for another they all are Libras with a few Scorpios thrown in, and, yes, they all celebrated their birthdays this month.

Each month the Chelsea Senior Citizens group hold a birthday luncheon. This month the Chelsea Lioness Club provided the cake. The yellow carnations which marked the place settings of the birthday celebrities were compliments of the Chelsea Greenhouse. The Washtenaw Nutrition Center provided the food.

Arlene Larson, nutrition manager for the center, said the center serves more than 800 luncheons a month in the Chelsea area and this get-together is one of their biggest.

The senior citizens are showing their appreciation for the Chelsea school system in all they have done for them over the years by inviting the teachers of North school to join in and celebrate their birthdays together.

This month they honored Jill Carlson, who teaches kindergarten, and Marcia Quilter, a third grade teacher.

The luncheon was followed by refreshments and entertainment, including bingo. Mistress of ceremonies was Treva Winans, activities co-ordinator.

Community education director Jackie Rogers said these activities are an excellent way of getting people out of their homes and keeping them active in their community.

PP&K Slated Saturday at High School

Punt, pass and kick contest, which was rained out for the last two consecutive Saturdays, has been re-scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 19, at the Chelsea High school football practice field.

The event is sponsored by the Chelsea area Jaycees and is open to boys and girls 8-13 years of age who are enrolled in Chelsea schools. Trophies will be awarded for first-through third-place winners and a ribbon will be given to each participant.

Registration forms may be picked up or filled out at Merkel Furniture and Carpet at 209 S. Main. They will also be available at 10 a.m., prior to the event.

Framing, Matting Workshop Slated Thursday Evening

A framing and matting workshop, sponsored by the Chelsea Artists and Craftsmen's Guild, will be held Thursday, Oct. 17 at 7:30 p.m.

The workshop will be held at The Loft Frame & Art Gallery at 108 E. Middle St.

There is no charge of the workshop and the public is invited to attend.

Immediately following the workshop, at approximately 8:30 p.m., the CAG will hold a brief membership meeting to explain to interested people, the goals and purposes of the guild. Persons interested in joining may do so at the meeting.

School Board Notes

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, Oct. 7, were Schumann, Dills, Grau, Comeau, Redding, Satterthwaite, assistant superintendent Mills, principals Williams, Stielstra, Benedict, Westcott, assistant principal Larson, community education director Rogers, special education director DeYoung, athletic/pool director Reed, guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by President Schumann.

Board approved the minutes of the Sept. 16 meeting.

Entered as official communications were: (1) a letter from Ms. Darlene Schaffer to Dr. Henry DeYoung and principal Bill Westcott, expressing appreciation for their concern relative to students being approached by apparent strangers; (2) a thank-you letter from the Ann Arbor Graphic Arts Memorial Foundation for the $500 grant from the Chelsea School District Scholarship Fund. The grant was from the Steve Lewis Memorial Fund and was made in accordance with the wishes of Ed Lewis.

The Board of Education presented a certificate to Susan Overdorf, high school senior, in recognition of her attaining National Merit Semifinalist status.

The board tabled until Oct. 21, the discussion of an employee grievance.

The board discussed the subject of a secretarial evaluation form; the Personnel Committee will further discuss this with the administrators at a meeting in the near future.

Assistant superintendent Mills discussed the 1984-85 financial audit, and reported that the district was commended for its excellent financial record keeping.

The board adopted a resolution for two incentive programs relative to (1) meeting state guidelines for graduation requirements and (2) average class size—kindergarten and first-grade classes to contain not more than 25 pupils. The Chelsea School District is and out-of-formula district and will not receive additional funds for these incentive programs because incentive funds are part of the School Aid Act. However, the State Department recommends that the passage of the resolution may be advantageous to out-of-formula districts to be subject to more categorical aid recapture.

The board accepted, with appreciation, a gift to the High School Auto Shop of a prototype Mark VII from the Ford Motor Co.

The board appointed John Kipfmiller to the Chelsea Recreation Council.

The Board Finance Committee reported that they will meet on Oct. 14, at 8 p.m. to revise the 1985-86 operating budget.

The board Curriculum Committee will meet on Oct. 15, with the superintendent and the curriculum director. Curriculum director Laurie Bissell indicated that implementations of study skills is moving along with teacher input.

Principal Williams reported that, in the near future, a "buddy" system for new students at the high school will be implemented.

Meeting adjourned at 11:40 p.m.

CHARLES TOBIN ABBOTT, a freelance illustrator from Buffalo, N.Y., decided to use last Friday's beautiful weather to re-create an old family home on Main St. in water color. The home, opposite Chelsea State Bank, belonged to his late aunt and uncle, Robert and Margaret Tobin. He's also the nephew of Fred and Susie Klink of Chelsea.

Washtenaw County Health Department will offer flu shots at the following clinics:

Oct. 21-28-Nov. 4, 1-4 p.m., at Burns Park Senior Center, 1320 Baldwin, Ann Arbor.

Oct. 22, 1:30-4:30 p.m., Northside Community Center, 809 Taylor, Ann Arbor.

Oct. 23, 10 a.m.-noon, Milan Senior Center, 50 Nichols Court, Milan.

SERENDIPITY

shows the redesigned front to restore the buildings to what they probably looked like in their earlier days with the central entrance to Foster's. Also gone are the aluminum doors for Vogel's.

Vogel's & Foster's Restore Store Front to Original Charm

They stripped the paint off the bricks last summer. This spring they tore off the aluminum panels, and recast the capitals. They took an old thing of brick, wood and iron and gave it back its dignity. What was renewed was the old, the nostalgic, a facade dating back to the reign of Queen Victoria.

Jack and Friedelle Winans, proprietors of Foster's and Vogel's set the idea in motion to restore their buildings to their former state. It is part of a vision they share to see Main St., Chelsea, restored to something of its former charm.

Owners of the buildings for more than three years, the Winanses hired the architectural firm of Quinn Evans of Ann Arbor. They worked with the Belser Construction Co. of Chelsea. Mrs. Winans said they were just interested in making the building beautiful, but what they got out of it was a lesson in the building's history.

When the workers tore off an tin panel they uncovered a plaster wall covered with graffiti. People had scrawled their initials placing dates like 1888 and 1897 by their names. Of a political bent was "America vs. Spain" written during the Spanish-American war. "We had crowds of people out there looking at that," Winans said.

The architects discovered that the original entrance to Foster's was in the center of the building and the Winanses decided to restore it. The cast iron columns enclosed within the window case resumed their original function as borders for the central entrance.

"When the project was going on people said where did you get the nice columns. The pillars were always there and no one ever noticed them," Mrs. Winans said. When everyone stepped back to survey the results, the architects were confident the new old facade was a close approximation of its former days.

Winans, a former school teacher whose family has had businesses in Chelsea for three generations, hopes they have started a trend. "We're hoping a lot of stores will follow suit. A few years ago all the stores were painted and within the last two years almost all of them have taken it off," he said.

A number of merchants and individuals hired landscape architects and city planners from an Ann Arbor firm who completed a study offering practical suggestions on how to improve and revitalize Chelsea. A restoration of the old is the theme of the study.

The Winanses hope to see a downtown development authority activated by the Village Council. "I'd like to see trees downtown and change those lights to pedestrian lighting," Winans said. "Get it to a pedestrian scale."

The facade now complete, the Winanses have future plans for the interior, but for as long as they own the buildings, brick, wood cabinets and hardwood floors will never disappear. "We will never modernize it," assured Winans.

"We want to just restore it and make it lovely to look at and also a nice place to come to work," Mrs. Winans said.

Winans agrees that the downtown area is an excellent business district and hopes their efforts will only enhance its beauty.

Varsity Gridders Find New Life in Friday's Romp Over Dexter, 31-0

Ah, if the football season had only begun last Friday.

Using a superb passing attack and a smothering defense, the Chelsea Bulldog varsity football team shelled the offense-less Dexter Dreadnaughts, 31-0, at Niehaus field.

Chelsea quarterback Dan Bellus had his best game of the season as he completed 11 of 20 passes for 256 yards and two touchdowns. The senior co-captain also ran for another score.

The Bulldog offense amassed 399 yards for the game, 143 on the ground, with Mull gaining 94 and Curtis Heard 28.

Five different Bulldogs, including reserve running back Marc Carpenter, who is new to Chelsea this year, crossed the goal line. Mull, Bellus, end Todd Starkey, and tight end Marty Poljan all scored.

Perhaps the only offensive breakdown, if you can call it that, was the Bulldogs' inability to convert the point after touchdown, where they were one for five.

Dexter, for the second straight week, gained less than 100 total yards. This week's numbers were 30 yards passing and 56 yards rushing. The Dreadnaughts completed only two passes all night long.

"We played a complete football game," said Bulldog head coach Gene LaFave.

"We didn't have any major breakdowns. We even looked good on film, which isn't always the case when you win. We defended against their offense, although they haven't scored much all year long. They simply were unable to throw the football. Offensively, we could have probably scored two or three more times, so in a way they're lucky the score wasn't worse. They usually have problems defending against us."

The Bulldogs showcased a splendid passing attack, which looked even better than in Chelsea's first-game win over Brooklyn Columbia Central. Starkey turned in one big play after another, catching four passes for 143 yards. He even slipped on the dewy grass and then recovered for a good gainer.

Poljan is turning out to be solid tight end. He also grabbed four passes, one for a 17-yard touchdown, for 67 yards.

Rounding out the aerial attack were Mull with two receptions and Ron Hafley with one.

Chelsea set the tone of the game on their first possession after stopping the Dreadnaughts on the opening kickoff. A 68-yard pass play to Starkey took the ball all the way to the Dexter 10-yard line. The pass itself was no more than 20 yards—a slant over the middle. Starkey gained the rest on his own, dodging a couple of tacklers along the way before being run out of bounds.

Shortly thereafter, Mull galloped eight yards for the score.

"We got ahead for a change, which makes a big difference in what you can do," LaFave said.

Chelsea struck again one more time in the second half, this time on a 36-yard pass to Starkey as he raced down the left sideline. The first half ended 12-0.

The second half began much the same as the first one, with Chelsea scoring quickly. A controlled drive ended with the pass to Poljan at the 9:40 mark.

Bellus added his touchdown

JV Gridders Whomped By Dexter

The Chelsea Bulldog junior varsity football team played a "horrible game," in the words of coach Jim Ticknor and lost its second SEC game last Thursday to the Dexter Dreadnaughts, 28-6, in Dexter.

Dexter scored on its first possession of the game, eating up nearly the entire first quarter in the process with a 15-play drive.

"That drive set the whole tone of the game," Ticknor said.

After the conversion, the score was 8-0, and it remained that way until half-time.

The game-breaker, according to Ticknor, was Dexter's 85-yard return of the second-half opening kickoff for a touchdown.

"Our coverage broke down. It was demoralizing," he said.

The return was the beginning of the end for the Bulldogs. Dexter scored 20 points in the third quarter for a 28-0 lead before Chelsea scored its touchdown in the last few minutes.

The Bulldogs' only touchdown was set up by an interception by free safety Brady Murphy, which gave Chelsea the ball at the Dreadnaught 37-yard line. Five plays later, after a 23-yard pass to Clay Hurd, running back Gary Dosey scored the touchdown.

Chelsea was outgunned in virtually every statistical category. The offense only managed 103 total yards on the night, while the defense yielded 219 yards, all but seven of them on the ground.

"They put a strong rush on us all night long and Kevan (Flanigan, the quarterback) didn't have a chance."

Strong safety Rob Finch and middle linebacker Shawn Brown each had "strong defensive games," Ticknor said, making 14 and 15 tackles, respectively.

The over-all JV record is 2-4, 2-2 in the conference.

The JV Bulldogs take on Tecumseh at home tomorrow night at 7.

near the end of the third quarter on a two-yard run.

Carpenter's four-yard touchdown came when the game was well out of hand for the Dreadnaughts, with 2:08 left in the contest. Carpenter has been a special teams performer all season.

The only time Dexter came even close to scoring occurred in the first half after Charlie Walters caught a long pass and 15 yards was added due to a late Chelsea hit. Two plays later, safety Matt Bohlender intercepted a pass near the goal line.

Matt Harshberger led the MARK MULL PUTS HIS HEAD DOWN as he crosses the goal line for Chelsea's first touchdown against the Dexter Dreadnaughts last week. It was the first of five Bulldog touchdowns, by five different boys. Chelsea won the game, 31-0. Mull rushed for 94 yards on the evening.

A POTENT AERIAL ATTACK was the Bulldogs' main weapon against the Dreadnaughts last Friday at Niehaus field. Todd Starkey, who scored a touchdown on a 36-yard pass and set up another with a 68-yard play, had four catches on the night for 146 yards. Chelsea had 256 yards passing for the evening.

Cross Country Teams Near Top in Invitational

Hillsdale and Jackson Lumen Christi, the top two cross country teams in the state, were the only teams better than the Chelsea Bulldog varsity girls at the Sturgis Kiwanis Invitational meet last Saturday.

Meanwhile, the Chelsea boys varsity finished in sixth place in an equally strong field.

Kasey Anderson led the Bulldog girls with a fourth-place finish in 19:44. Hillsdale took the top three places.

Behind Anderson were: Amy Wolfgang, 12th, 20:34; Sallie Wilson, 13th, 20:36; Debi Koenn, 23rd, 21:17; Melanie Flanigan, 25th, 21:18; Jennifer Rossi, 26th, 21:22; and Robin Mock, 29th, 21:30.

"Hillsdale and Lumen Christi looked like the top two teams in the state," said Chelsea coach Pat Clarke.

"Kasey ran the best race of her career. She's really working hard in practice. Freshman Debi Koenn had her best time ever. I'm pleased with the progress all our girls are making. We are closing the gap between us and the top two teams."

Tim Bowdish once again led the boys team with a third-place finish in 16:34. Behind him were: John Cattell, 13th, 16:59; Lee Riemenschneider, 40th, 17:51; Paul Hedding, 48th, 17:57; Jason Creffield, 72nd, 18:28; Tucker Lee, 78th, 18:36; and Jeff Wheaton, 103rd, 19:20.

"A year ago in this meet we were 12th, and this year we were sixth, which shows a pretty fair improvement," Clarke said.

"Tim Bowdish and John Cattell ran good races and Lee Riemenschneider had a very good meet. I hope he continues to improve."

Boys Harriers Team Takes 6 of 7 Top Spots in Meet

Chelsea boys cross country team came within one place of shutting out the Dexter Dreadnaughts in a rainy, cold SEC meet last Tuesday, Oct. 8. The Dreadnaughts had been ranked 20th in the state.

Chelsea took six of the top seven places, leaving only fifth place for the Dreadnaughts.

Tim Bowdish finished first in 17:03. Following him were: John Cattell, 2nd, 17:35; Paul Hedding, 3rd, 18:13; Lee Riemenschneider, 4th, 18:23; Jeff Wheaton, 6th, 18:33; Jason Creffield, 7th, 18:39; and Tucker Lee, 9th, 19:00.

"Our first four runners ran very well, especially senior Tim Bowdish and sophomore John Cattell," said coach Pat Clarke.

"I was worried about this meet since Dexter was ranked 20th in the state, but the team responded to the challenge and ran very well."

TAKING THE HAND-OFF from Dan Bellus is running back Mark Mull, who ran up the middle for a good gainer on this play against the Dexter Dreadnaughts. Dexter had a difficult time defending against the Bulldogs, who amassed 399 yards in their 31-0 win.

SEC ROUND-UP: Saline Edges Lincoln, 21-20, In Overtime To Stay on Top

The Saline Hornets overcame what should be their last major obstacle in the quest for the SEC football championship with a 21-20 overtime win over the Lincoln Railsplitters last Friday in Ypsilanti.

The Saline win gave the Hornets a perfect 5-0 mark in league play, with one game remaining against Dexter this Friday at Dexter.

Lincoln was only the second SEC team to score on Saline all season long, and was well on its way to one of the biggest upsets in recent league history.

The game was tied at 14 after regulation play. Saline got the ball first and scored on a three-play drive, kicking for the extra point.

The Railsplitters then scored on their fourth play, but the extra-point kick sailed wide to the right.

Saline was in the unusual position of playing catch-up football late in the game after Lincoln scored on a 79-yard punt return, and a pass from Jeff Sloan to Scott Thomas. But Saline quarterback Grant Fanning skillfully guided the Hornets on an 82-yard scoring drive, capped by a 29-yard run and two-point conversion by Fanning.

If the Hornets start dancing in the streets before Friday's game with Dexter, they may find themselves in a tie for the championship. The Dreadnaughts are capable of stopping the Hornet offense. But can the Dreadnaughts move the ball against the tough Saline defense? That remains to be seen.

After Dexter, Saline's final two games are against non-conference opponents Brooklyn Columbia Central and Riverview.

Lincoln has Pinckney and Milan yet to play, with Belleville their final opponent of the year.

Chelsea played perhaps its best game of the year against arch-rival Dexter last Friday enroute to a 31-0 rout of the Dreadnaughts.

The Bulldogs were flawless in nearly every aspect of the game, with the possible exception of extra-point tries, in which they were 1-5.

Yielding big plays has been Chelsea's downfall all year, but

Varsity Cagers Lose 2 in Week

Chelsea varsity girls basketball team dropped two SEC contests last week to Dexter and Tecumseh, both times the victim of teams who had a significant height advantage.

Dexter, on the strength of a 27-point performance by Sherrill Bell, stopped the Bulldogs 52-46, at Dexter last Tuesday. On Thursday, the Indians put together a strong fourth quarter to edge the Bulldogs, 49-40, on the Chelsea home court.

Chelsea remains winless in SEC play at 0-4.

Bell, who could be the SEC's most valuable player this season, used her considerable height and strength advantage under the basket for numerous easy field goals.

"We said we were going to play in front of her all night (to deny her the ball), but we just didn't seem to do it," said Bulldog coach Jim Winter.

The teams were tied after the first quarter at 11, and Chelsea was down only three points at half-time, 25-22. After falling farther behind in the third quarter, Chelsea rallied to within three points again, 49-46, before being forced to foul the Dreadnaughts in the closing minutes.

Kristi Headrick led the Bulldogs with 18 points and eight rebounds, while Jennifer Cattell had another strong game with nine points, four steals and four assists. Other Bulldog scorers included Kris Mattoff with nine points, Kim Ferry with four, Kris Zerkel with three, Mary Lazarz with two and Trisha Mattoff with one.

The Bulldogs as a team were 16 of 45 for 35 percent, and 14 of 24 from the free throw line.

"Those aren't bad percentages for us, but we should be getting more shots than that," Winter said.

"Dexter played a fine game." Despite losing by nine points to Tecumseh, the Bulldogs played their "finest defensive game of the year," according to Winter.

At 5' 9", Headrick is the tallest Bulldog, while Tecumseh matched up with a front line of 6' 2", 6', and 5' 11", to make matters worse, Headrick fouled out of the game with three minutes remaining.

The game was tied at half-time at 20, and the Indians were up by only two at the end of the third quarter, 32-30.

"Toward the end, we had to take some chances and pull out all the stops," Winter said. "It certainly wasn't a case of us falling apart. When you take chances like that against players that tall, either you get the ball or they get a nice shot."

Headrick again led the team with 16 points and 12 rebounds. Kris Mattoff followed with 11 points, Cattell had six, Zerkel, four, Ferry, two and Pam Brown, one.

The Bulldogs were 15 of 43 from the floor, for 35 percent, and 10 of 16 from the line, for 63 percent.

"We talked a lot about defense after the Dexter game," Winter said.

"We knew with Tecumseh we'd have the same kind of problem only worse. We knew if we didn't do a good job on defense, we'd find ourselves in a big hole early. We played a great game. Offensively, it's like we're starting all over again. We've had several injuries to key players, but they're back now."

The Bulldogs play Fowlerville at home tomorrow, beginning at 5:30. Next Tuesday, the always-tough Saline Hornets come to Chelsea for a 5:30 contest.

JENNIFER CATTELL, 20, feels the Tecumseh defensive pressure during last week's 49-40 loss to the Indians. The Indians had a significant height advantage over the short, but scrappy, Bulldogs.

Girls Tennis Team 4th in Regionals

The Class B regionals were held at Monroe on Friday. This year's field was composed of Allen Park, Allen Park Cabrinni, Brooklyn Colombia Central, Crestwood, Grosse Ile, Cherry Hill, Ladywood, St. Mary Academy, Monroe Jefferson, Riverview, Saline and Chelsea.

Chelsea had three participants make it to the quarter-finals. They were Angie Miller, Jenny Pichlik and the doubles team of Deana Slusher and Kelly Stump.

The 12-team tourney began at 9 a.m. Friday and continued until about 8 p.m. with the finals to be played Saturday morning.

Both Angie and Jenny were seeded third in the tourney. Kelly and Deana were unseeded but managed to take out the third seed in their flight. They won over Brooklyn Colombia Central and Ladywood. In the quarters they were ousted by St. Mary's Academy, the first seed, 6-1, 6-3, after putting up a good fight. Jenny had a bye in the first round but went on to beat Holly Dresselhouse of BCC, 6-2, 6-1. She made it to the quarter but lost out to the No. 1 seed Claudine Michaud of St. Mary's Academy, 7-5, 6-0.

Angie also had a bye in the first round and met Teri Belinda of Ladywood in the second. She won that match, 6-2, 6-0, and went on to play Jill Perry of Grosse Ile in the semis. Jill was seeded No. 1 in this flight and Angie upset her by beating her in a tie-breaker in the first set and then continued to dominate her in the second. Angie's scores were 7-6, 6-1. This put her into the finals. She played Saturday morning at the Downriver Tennis Club at 10 a.m. but lost to the No. 2 seed Sharon Duvall of St. Mary's Academy, 6-4, 6-3. Angie fought hard but lacked the experience of the senior she played. Angie has two years to go and should gain this experience as she competes in the next two years.

Melanie Dilz deserves a lot of credit as she was within one game of beating her opponent in the semis but her legs tied up on her and she lost in the third set to Shelly Denman of Grosse Ile, 7-5, 5-7, 8-6. Melanie was ahead in the third set, 6-5, when she fell to the ground twice with leg cramps. She valiantly finished the set but could barely move and the girl took the next three games handily. Melanie played 54 games in the two matches she played.

Chelsea did better than expected in several of these flights but did not fare well in others we counted on. The Tai sisters lost a very tough and painful match to

7th Grade Cagers Upend Dexter, Lose to Lincoln

Beach Middle school seventh grade girls basketball team upended Dexter last week, 43-31, but lost a close contest to Lincoln, 25-21.

In the Dexter game, Chelsea had its best offensive performance of the season, hitting 39 percent from the field. Crisp passing and improved rebounding also contributed to the victory.

Kristen Bohlender and Colleen Scharphorn each scored 12 points to lead the Beach team. Shawn Losey had seven, and Brenda Brede and Kate Dilworth each scored four points.

Scharphorn also led the team in rebounds with eight, while Bohlender, Mercedes Hammer and Jane Pacheco each had five.

Sara Musolf contributed four steals and three assists.

Lincoln contained Chelsea with a fine zone defense and had one dominating player.

Scharphorn paced the Beach team with 10 points, five rebounds and four steals.

Cari Thurkow scored six points and Musolf again had four steals.

Gridders of the Week

GRIDDERS OF THE WEEK are Jeff Larson, left, and Matt Harshberger, both senior defensive specialists. Jeff is the son of Ken and Brenda Larson of Cavanaugh Lake Rd., and Matt's parents are Robert and Charlotte Harshberger, McKinley Rd. residents. Jeff has had a bit of the injury bug this season, but seems to be back at full stride. Outside of football, Jeff is one of the voices of WCHS, Chelsea High school's mock radio station. He's planning to work in radio someday, perhaps as a newscaster. To earn a little money, he works at Polly's supermarket, and for a little relaxation, he likes Lake Michigan trout fishing. Matt is in his second year at Chelsea high, coming two years ago from Taylor, where his father works on the police force. He's an honor student, with an interest in history. He's spent a considerable amount of time helping his parents build their new ranch house. Fire fighting and prevention is also one of his interests, and he's in the second year of the Chelsea Fire Department's 240-hour training program. Matt's a defensive back who's led the team in tackles on at least one occasion this season.

8th Grade Cagers Dump Dexter But Lose to Lincoln

Beach Middle school eighth grade girls basketball team whipped Dexter, 35-7, but lost to Lincoln, 35-27, for their first loss of the season. The young girls are 5-1 on the season with four games to go.

In the loss to Lincoln, Beach led at half-time, 20-12, before Lincoln scored 18 points in the third quarter to take the lead for good.

Chelsea scorers were: Allison Brown, six; Tiffany Moore, five; Scharme Petty, five; and Kim Roberts, four. Rebounders were: Brown, 15; Jill Nowatzke, six; Petty, five; and Roberts, four.

Moore and Petty had four and three steals, respectively.

In the game with Dexter, the Bulldogs were aided by poor Dexter shooting—Dexter simply couldn't get a shot to drop.

Chelsea scorers were: Brown, eight; Stacey Scott, six; Moore, five; and Nowatzke, four. Leading rebounders were: Nowatzke, 11; Brown, seven; and Heidi Boyer and Debbie Webb, five. Staple Guenther led in steals with five and Amy Thomson and Brown had three each.

Frosh Gridders Edge Fowlerville

Outside linebacker Mike Taylor stopped a Fowlerville two-point attempt in the closing seconds as the Chelsea freshman football team escaped with its third win of the season, 21-20.

The host Fowlerville team scored a touchdown with 25 seconds remaining in the contest, threatening the Bulldogs with their third loss of the season. However, Taylor stopped the Fowlerville runner from carrying the ball through the right side of the line, ending the play on the one-foot line. All the Bulldogs had to do was fall on the ensuing kickoff.

"It was a classic kind of game," said Bulldog coach Jim Tallman.

"The lead kept changing hands and it rained quite a bit." Fowlerville took the lead on the opening series, but the extra point try failed, which turned out to be a key play in the game. Chelsea took the lead on the next drive on a five-yard run by Rex Marsh. Larry Nix kicked the extra point.

That was the only scoring in the first half.

Chelsea opened the second half with an 80-yard scoring march. Marsh scored his second touchdown of the game on a three-yard run, then ran for the two-point conversion, giving the Bulldogs a 15-6 lead.

However, Fowlerville came right back with a long scoring drive of their own. The two-point try was good this time, cutting the Bulldog lead to 15-14.

On the first play after the kickoff, Nix hit Shannon Fredette on a 60-yard scoring pass. The kick failed, and Chelsea held on to a precarious 21-14 lead until the closing seconds.

"Fowlerville is a power type of team, they run the ball right up the middle," Tallman said.

"But we had a lot of our success up the middle, too. Our line played a good game. Jeff Prentice at center, guards Eric Friesinger and Mike Massey, and tackle Scott Rob all played well. Dave Zerkel caught a touchdown pass that was called back, and that's happened to him two or three times this season."

The freshman Bulldogs are 3-2 on the season. They play their final game of the season next Tuesday at Monroe County High school.

JV Cagers Lose Their First in SEC

Chelsea Bulldog junior varsity girls basketball team lost its first SEC contest last Thursday to the Tecumseh Indians, 36-30, after topping the Dexter Dreadnaughts earlier in the week, 28-25.

Chelsea pulled ahead in the third quarter against the Dreadnaughts after leading by only one point at half-time, 14-13. They outscored Dexter by five in that quarter, and played virtually even with them the rest of the way.

"We didn't shoot particularly well at 24 percent but we out-rebounded them, 44-26, which made the difference in the game," said Bulldog coach Paul Terpstra.

Leah Enderle led Chelsea scorers with 11 points, Heather Neibauer had seven and Kim Easton, six. Neibauer paced the Bulldog rebounders with 12.

In the Tecumseh game, the Bulldogs fell behind early, 15-4, but could never come closer than the five-point, half-time deficit.

The Indians, thus far, have proven to be the class team of the league with a 4-0 mark.

"They're the strongest team we've seen so far in the first round," Terpstra said.

Easton and Peggy Hamerschmidt shared the scoring honors with 12 each. Hamerschmidt also led the team in rebounding with seven, although as a team, Chelsea was out-rebounded, 29-23.

"After getting off to a poor start, we played them even the rest of the way," Terpstra said.

The Bulldogs play Fowlerville at home tomorrow at 5:30 and Pinckney away next Tuesday at the same time.

Girls Harriers Team Shuts Out Dexter on Oct. 8

Chelsea varsity girls cross country team took 10 of the top 11 places enroute to a shut out of the Dexter Dreadnaughts in rainy, cold weather last Tuesday, Oct. 8.

Bulldog Kasey Anderson took the top spot in 20:32. Following her were: Sallie Wilson, 2nd, 21:07; Jennifer Rossi, 3rd, 21:20; Amy Wolfgang, 4th, 21:44; Robin Mock, 5th, 21:59; Debi Koenn, 6th, 22:04; Melanie Flanagan, 7th, 22:07; Susan Jaques, 9th, 22:41; Alisha Dorow, 10th, 23:01; Ann Brosnan, 11th, 23:22; and Wendy Hunn, 14th, 23:49.

"We ran a very fine team race against Dexter," said coach Pat Clarke.

Evangelist Cook Coming to North Sharon Bible Church

North Sharon Bible church will feature Evangelist Jim Cook in six days of special services beginning Sunday, Oct. 27 in the Sunday morning activities.

The meetings are scheduled for 10 and 11 Sunday morning as well as 7 on Sunday evening. The weeknight services will be Monday through Friday at 7 p.m.

The Rev. Jim Cook, the speaker for the meetings, was a pastor before he entered evangelistic work. With this background, he understands the needs of people in local churches and seeks to meet those needs in his meetings. Raised in a family on Detroit's east side, Cook was familiar with violence and teen-age gang warfare during his early years. As a result, many of his early friends went on to serve prison terms or face violent death. In an effort to escape that environment, Cook joined the Marine Corps. It was shortly after his honorable discharge that he entered the ministry.

Following Bible School training, Cook, pastored two thriving churches in California before entering evangelistic service.

In addition to Cook's preaching, special music will be a part of each service. A nursery with qualified workers is furnished for each service. Transportation may be arranged by calling (313) 428-7222.

Swim Team Wins Over Ypsilanti

The Ypsilanti Braves fell victim to the Chelsea Bulldog swimming team last Tuesday in Ypsilanti, 103-65.

The Bulldogs were led by triple first-place winners Paula Colombo and Karen Grau. Other first-place winners were Susan Schmunk, Cathy Hoffman, Helen Cooper, Susanna Cooper, Rebecca Dent and Sharon Colombo.

"We had many personal best times at this meet and that's what we are looking for as we prepare for Adrian next week," said Chelsea coach Mike Keeler. "Exploring Religion In Our Personal Differences," for those 21-25.

Some of the swimmers and divers who achieved lifetime bests were Missy Check, Tricia Colby, Michelle Cigan, Tami Harris, Nancy Stierle, Deanna Zangara, Lisa Taylor, Karan Paulsell and Chris Young.

"I'm very proud of these young ladies—they are very enthusiastic and are always supporting each other in practice and meets," Keeler said.

The next meet is against Adrian tomorrow at 7 p.m. at Cameron Pool.

Bulldogs . . .

Bulldogs with 12 tackles and recovered both Dexter fumbles.

This week's game with the Tecumseh Indians in Tecumseh will provide the Bulldogs with one of their toughest tests of the season.

The Indians are on a roll, having won three consecutive games, two of them via shut out. They've made an amazing recovery since their first three games when they were shut out collectively, 86-0.

According to LaFave, the Indians play straight-up, power football, running behind two gargantuan tackles, one 235 pounds and the other 283 pounds.

"They're by far bigger than anybody we'll play this year," LaFave said. "And right now they might be the best team in the league. I think if they played Saline (the conference leader at 5-0) right now, they'd give them more than they could handle. They played Saline tough earlier, it was 0-0 well into the third quarter. We can't afford to get behind this week or we'll be in trouble."

JULIE VORUS, right, is in rehearsal for the role of Beulah Blinnings in the Ann Arbor Civic Theatre's upcoming production of Tennessee Williams "Orpheus Descending." (Seen here with Wendy Wright who plays Dolly Hanna.) The production will be at Lydia Mendelsohn Theatre on Oct. 23-26. For ticket information call (313) 662-7282.

National Respect for LIFE Month

Three free office visits to participating M-CARE physicians per year. A nominal $4 per visit after that. These are some of the benefits of M-CARE that attract U-M employees like Professor Hannay and his wife, Roberta. "We looked into all the options available to U-M employees," Prof. Hannay said, "and we decided M-CARE was our best bet."

M-CARE...the U-M's own family health plan for its employees

Over 6,000 U-M employees—a third of the Ann Arbor campus workforce—have signed up for M-CARE since it was first offered in February, 1985. A recent random survey of members shows that 89% reported short or medium waiting times, 88% were able to get appointments on short notice and 95% thought the service sites were convenient.

It's medical care...and "wellness" care

M-CARE provides medical care when you need it—through 500 medical specialists and 110 specialty clinics at the U-M Medical Center...through convenient service sites at the Brighton Health Service, the Family Practice Center in Chelsea, the University

Health Service...and through 33 community pediatricians.

And M-CARE provides "wellness" care—through free age-specific health maintenance exams for adults...through free well-child pediatric exams and immunizations for children up to age 14...and through ongoing wellness programs.

You have the chance to join M-CARE, Oct. 21-Nov. 1

Once again, U-M employees will have the opportunity to sign up for M-CARE. Find out more about M-CARE by calling 763-7000.

CARD OF THANKS
The family of William W. Freeman would like to thank everyone for your many acts of kindness. We would like to express our appreciation to those whose kind offers we were unable to accept. To the Ladies of the United Methodist church and the Order of the Eastern Star No. 108, our heartfelt thanks for your willingness to provide a luncheon following the memorial service. We are particularly grateful to the Chelsea Community Hospital and Will Johnson, John and Gloria Mitchell, Ralph Guenther, The Rev. Marvin McCallum, and Tom and Phyllis McGaw for the special help they provided. Words simply cannot express our gratitude to Dr. Erlandson and the S. I. C. U. staff at St. Joe's. Their constant care and support and the daily phone calls, cards, and food provided by our friends throughout Bill's hospitalization was of immeasurable importance to us. Since our loss, your many thoughtful acts have provided a great deal of comfort to us both physically and spiritually. Thank you.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The Ronald McDonald House is often referred to as the House that Love Built. It is a "home-away-from-home" for families of children who are hospitalized or receiving outpatient treatment in area hospitals. The House establishes an environment in which parents can receive emotional support from each other, prepare meals, sleep, relax and do laundry.

Arbor House, Inc. is a not-for-profit corporation created for the purpose of building and operating the Ann Arbor Ronald McDonald House. On Sept. 5, 1984, the corporation broke ground for the house located at 1600 Washington Heights on land leased through the University of Michigan.

The House has bedroom and bath facilities for 24 families, along with kitchen space for four separate cooking areas; dining for up to 30 persons, living room area; children and adult recreation areas; laundry and storage areas. Also included is a two-bedroom resident manager's apartment, office and storage space.

My name is Kathy Dunn, and I've been involved with the project of making this House a reality in our community. As a member of the Board of Directors of Arbor House, Inc., I'd like to extend my appreciation to those people in the Chelsea community who have helped us reach our goal. I would also like to encourage more members of our community to get involved with this most worthwhile project.

Please join us for the Grand Opening Celebration for the Ann Arbor Ronald McDonald House on Oct. 19, from 1 to 4 p.m. There will be many activities including house tours and magic shows for the children.

If you would like further information on how you could help in the support of the House, please call or write: Arbor House, Inc., P.O. Box 7376, Ann Arbor 48107 (313/994-4442).

Kathy L. Dunn.

Barley Gains Popularity As Feed Grain

More Michigan farmers are rediscovering the advantages of barley as a feed grain, and it is becoming increasingly popular as a supplement or alternative to corn, the most popular feed grain.

"Farmers intending to seed fall barley should start planning immediately," says Larry Copeland, extension crop specialist at Michigan State University.

Both spring- and fall-seeded barley varieties are available in Michigan, but spring-planted varieties are planted more frequently. Fall-seeded barley varieties offer certain advantages, however. For example, fall-seeded barley is usually harvested at least two weeks earlier than spring-seeded varieties, and field conditions are generally drier and more dependable for planting in the fall than in the spring. This year, unlike previous years, an ample supply of fall barley seed should be available, Copeland says.

Barley is susceptible to winter injury, so Copeland advises against planting barley north of Clare. Because barley requires a good fall growth to ensure winter survival, the crop should be planted fairly early—between Sept. 10 and Sept. 30.

In 1984 performance tests, the variety OAC Halton produced the highest yields of those tested in Michigan, yielding about 103 bushels per acre. The variety Odin yielded about 96 bushels per acre. Of these varieties, Odin seed is more readily available, however, Copeland says.

Seed treatment is essential for high quality grain production. Vitavax 200 is the recommended treatment for controlling such diseases as loose smut, seed decay and seedling blight. Quackgrass can be controlled by incorporating Roundup before tilling.

Copeland advises producers always to get their soil tested to determine how much phosphate and potassium should be applied.

Saline in three sets, 1-6, 6-4, 8-6. They had Saline on the ropes but let them off. We were leading, 3-5, and then let it slip away game by game. Chelsea had beaten this same team twice before during the season. This was a tough one to lose and it cost us but we learn by experience and they had more.

At this time, the final results of the tourney are unknown. St. Mary's Academy led with 20 points, Grosse Ile was next with 15, Crestwood with 10, and Chelsea was tied with 8 for fourth with Brooklyn Colombia Central and Livonia Ladywood, Saline came in under Chelsea with 7 points.

Angie Miller ends up with an over-all record of 15-3, Jenny Pichlik 15-2, Deana Slusher and Kelly Stump 13-3 and Ada and Arlene Tai 10-5.

ROAD COMMISSION WORKERS weld the final plaque in place as part of the official ceremonies for the re-opening of the Bell Rd. bridge in Dexter township. Much of the 94-year-old bridge had to be replaced. The township paid for 25 percent of the project, and the county paid for the rest.

Bell Rd. Bridge Re-Opened After Complete Renovation

The 94-year-old Bell Rd. bridge was officially re-opened last Friday in ceremonies attended by Dexter Township Supervisor Jim Drolett and Dick Miller of the Washtenaw County Road Commission.

The bridge had been closed for eight weeks for sorely needed repairs. The cast-iron structure was weak and the wooden decking was falling through. Bell Rd. is a primary link between Dexter-Pinckney Rd. and Huron River Dr. Fire and police services depend on it heavily.

The bridge was substantially replaced, financed by the township, which paid 25 percent of the bill, or about $10,000, and the road commission, which picked up the remaining 75 percent, or $30,000.

Estimates for replacing the bridge with new construction ranged in the neighborhood of $300,000.

Five new stringers were incorporated into the one-lane bridge, as well as brand new decking. In addition, the original plaques were sandblasted by Arnett's Monuments free of charge. Jim Kennedy of Dexter Welding repaired the breaks in the plaques, also free of charge. Drolett's daughter, Kimberly, also repainted the plaques raised lettering. The lettering spelled out the names, "Commander Welch" and "Jacob Jedele," a former township commissioner.

Drolett said the bridge has not been officially weight-rated, although it would probably hold six tons.

LANA POLLACK, who claims to have been on the steps of the Michigan student union when President John Kennedy made his famous speech establishing the Peace Corps, gave a talk at Beach Middle school Monday morning as part of the school's observance of the 25th anniversary of the Peace Corps. The state senator fielded questions about the Peace Corps and politics. Above, she says, "It's okay to be a politician," and young people should consider it for a career.

SEC Round-up

this time the Bulldog defense eliminated that tendency.

Chelsea scored on its first possession on a nine-yard run by Mark Mull. After that it was "share the wealth night," as end Todd Starkey, tight end Marty Poljan, quarterback Dan Bellus, and reserve running back Marc Carpenter all scored touchdowns.

Dexter, on the other hand, seemed to be playing defense all night long. Their offense, as has been its tendency all season long, was anemic.

It was the first SEC victory for the Bulldogs, giving Chelsea sole possession of sixth place with a 1-3 league mark, 2-3 over-all.

Chelsea plays at Tecumseh this week in what promises to be another tough clash. The Indians, who shut out Milan, 14-0, have won three straight, relying on a strong defense. They are in a third-place tie with Dexter at 2-2, and have an outside shot at finishing in a tie for second, should Lincoln lose another game.

The Tecumseh defense held the Big Reds to a measly 28 yards of offense after the first quarter, and forced four turnovers.

The Indians and Big Reds were in a scoreless tie at half-time, but Tecumseh scored on its first drive in the second half on a short pass, capping a 65-yard drive. Late in the game, one of Milan's three fumbles, at the Big Red 28, set up Tecumseh's final touchdown. Milan, which at one time was tied for the SEC lead, fell to 2-3 in conference play, half a game behind third place Dexter and Tecumseh.

Pinckney, meanwhile, dropped to 0-6 over-all with a 39-6 loss to non-conference Saginaw Nouvel. Nouvel, who carried a perfect 5-0 mark into the game, scored early and led 19-0 at the half. Brad Cuthbertson scored Pinckney's only touchdown on a one-yard run late in the fourth quarter.

The Pirates are in the SEC cellar all by themselves with an 0-4 mark. The Pirates should maintain their perfect mark after their game with Lincoln this Friday in Pinckney.

THE NEW SCOREBOARD was put into place last Thursday afternoon at the Chelsea High school football field, just in time for Chelsea's rivalry game with Dexter on Friday night. Technicians finally got the scoreboard working for real about mid-way through the second quarter of the contest. It worked perfectly thereafter. The board is higher off the ground than the old one, and is completely solid state. In addition, the numbers are larger, and the clock can count both forward and backward. The Chelsea Kiwanis Club and Chelsea Athletic boosters each contributed $3,000 toward the $8,000 purchase price, and the school district paid for the rest.

Thursday's 'Today' Show Will Come from U-M

The NBC "Today" show will be going to college from 7 to 9 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 17 at the University of Michigan. Host Bryant Gumbel will broadcast live from a set on the U-M Diag in the heart of campus. Today co-host Jane Pauley will be on the Brown University campus in Providence, R.I.

Producer Scott Goldstein says the U-M was chosen as an example of a state-supported "academic and athletic powerhouse" and Brown University represents a highly rated private institution.

Filming for the Oct. 17 broadcast began in August when a Today crew arrived in the Upper Peninsula community of Norway to videotape U-M freshman Cynthia Sue Brown as she prepared for her first year on campus.

A crew that traveled to Ann Arbor in September to record her first days in U-M classes also filmed the Wolverine-Notre Dame football game, the Men's Glee Club, and several campus social activities.

The show is tentatively scheduled to feature several live campus interviews—including U-M President Harold T. Shapiro, U-M Athletic Director Donald B. Canham, other students—and music from the U-M Marching Band. Weathercaster Willard Scott will broadcast from several campus locations.

According to Robert A. Potter, U-M director of communication, preparations for the show include locating a raccoon coat for Scott, arranging to feed the "Today" show crew at 2:30 a.m. at the Michigan Union, setting up a temporary control room, and providing security for the equipment and the specially constructed stage.

Potter said, "Even though preparation for the broadcast has meant extra hours for our staff, the recognition for the University if very gratifying and we are pleased to have the opportunity to welcome Today's audience to the U-M."

Construction Started On Chelsea Taco Bell

Construction has begun on Chelsea's newest fast food emporium, a Taco Bell. The restaurant will be located between Chelsea Big Boy and Fast-Morrow Buick-Olds-Chevrolet Agency on M-52.

The property and building are owned by M.D.M. Limited Partnership. Ron Marten and William Davis of Ann Arbor are the general partners.

The franchise itself, technically called MDM Restaurants, Inc. of Chelsea, is owned by Marten, Davis, and Victoria Mobley. Mobley will become the restaurant's manager.

Marten, president of MDM Restaurants, is also president of Marten/Davis Commercial Investment Co. of Ann Arbor, while Davis, vice-president of MDM, is president of Arbor Spring Water Co.

Mobley was most recently an account executive with Group 243 Design/Ann Arbor, which handles Domino's Pizza accounts.

According to Mobley, the restaurant will have two assistant managers, two shift leaders and 20-30 part-time employees. The building will be able to seat 64 customers and will incorporate the "latest in Taco Bell design," including a drive-through facility.

"Chelsea Taco Bell plans to be working closely with the high schools in the area to provide a clean, friendly work environment for students while giving those students the valuable work experience they need to prepare them for the future," the company said. "The goal of MDM Restaurants is to become a participating member of the community and provide the Chelsea area with a quality product and operation."

The Taco Bell should be open before Christmas, the company said.

VICTORIA MOBLEY, one of the three owners of the future Chelsea Taco Bell, will also be the restaurant's manager. She has 10 years of fast-food experience with both McDonald's and Domino's Pizza. She was most recently with Group 243 Design/Ann Arbor, where she was an account executive for Domino's.
