ONE HUNDRED-SEVENTEENTH YEAR—No. 13

CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27, 1986

20 Pages This Week

THE ORBITER, a new ride at the Chelsea Community Fair this year, has been called the "scariest ride," of the show. The ride belongs to the Crown Amusement Co. For $7 a child, or adult, can ride this, and all the other rides, all day long.

Community Fair Opens Despite Showers; Demo Derby Finishes Tonight

The 49th annual Chelsea Community Fair got off to a rough start as heavy rains muddled the fairgrounds and threatened to cancel many traditional opening-day events.

Fair board secretary Maryann Guenther reported that several parents had called Tuesday afternoon to check on the status of the Children's Parade. As of press time, the parade was scheduled to continue although it was still raining.

At any rate, the fair continues through Saturday at the fairgrounds.

The fair, which this year is dedicated to the memory of long-time fair worker and area farmer Harold Eiseman, is expected to draw more than 33,000 for the week.

Some of the most popular events of the week begin or continue today.

This evening is the second night of the Cavalcade of Thrills Demolition Derby. There will be three heats including the farm combine heat.

Two events highlight activities on Thursday. At 6:30 p.m. is a Mud Bog in the main arena. This event, new to the fair this year, has replaced the rodeo that had performed for several years.

The livestock auction begins promptly at 7 p.m. in the covered arena. Anyone is welcome to bid for cattle, sheep, or pigs.

Thursday morning's activities begin with an English performance horse show at 8, followed by antique tractor pulling at 9. Dairy cattle will be judged beginning at 10. In the afternoon, the Kiddies Peddle-Power Tractor Pull begins at 5.

Friday is a day for area women.

Registration for Ladies Day events begins at 8 a.m. and the program runs until noon.

This year's featured speaker is Constance Crump, restaurant reviewer for the Ann Arbor News.

Other events on the Ladies Day agenda include an information program on osteoporosis, featuring Dr. Martin Gleespan of the Village Professional Center, and "Elloise the Cow."

Nancy Dewar, a motivational speaker, will tell how she lost 110 pounds.

Tracey Lynne and the Mountain Express will give the first of two shows during Ladies Day. The band, which specializes in country and top-40 tunes, hails from South Lyon.

Ladies who register early will be eligible for free coffee and doughnuts. Every woman who registers will have a shot at one of the many door prizes from area merchants and businesses.

The evening's events will be highlighted by the crowning of the Chelsea Community Fair Queen during a show which begins at 7 p.m. in the multi-purpose arena.

Nine young women have entered the contest this year, including Dawn Spade, 16, sponsored by the Chelsea High school junior class; Kathryn Morgan, 17, of Rogers Corners Herdsmen 4-H Club; Lori Jedele, 16, of Chelsea McDonald's; Susan Schmunk, 16, of Chelsea Area Players; Debra Harshberger, 15, of the sophomore class; Michelle Kuhl, 17, of the senior class; Elizabeth Maurer, 16, of Chelsea Charms Baton Corps; Jennifer Bennett, 15, of Terrific Tailors 4-H Club; and Vicki Niethammer, 14, of the freshman class.

During Friday's show, each girl will perform her particular talent, and will be asked to respond to a question designed specifically for her. Julie Vorus is the mistress of ceremonies for the event.

Other events Friday include a Gymkana horse show at 9 a.m. and the lightweight tractor pulls, also at 9 a.m. Tractor pulling resumes at 7 p.m.

Saturday, the final day of the fair, is highlighted by the Chelsea Fair Parade at 1 p.m. down Main St.

On Saturday morning at 8 will be an Open Horse Show in the main arena.

Chelsea Family Practice Center and Chelsea Recreation Council are sponsoring a fun run beginning at 9 at the family practice center.

There are four races—a one-mile walk and one-mile run, a three-mile run and a five-mile run.

Registration the day of the race is $8, which covers entry fees, the cost of a t-shirt, and eligibility for prize drawings after the races.

Also at 9 is a compact tractor pull.

After the fair parade, at 3 p.m., the area's best horseshoe pitchers will gather for their annual contest.

At 7 p.m. the 4-wheel drive speed pulling contest starts in the Main Arena.

The Livestock Sweepstakes Show takes place at 7:30 in the multi-purpose arena. Livestock Raffle Drawing closes the fair at 10 p.m.

Storm Sewer Needs Major Work, Fahrner Tells Council

Calling the state of Chelsea's storm sewer system, "kind of a bleak picture," Assistant Village Manager Lee Fahrner gave a detailed presentation of the condition of the system at the village council meeting last Tuesday, Aug. 19.

Most of the problem, Fahrner said, occurs because the storm lines are simply too small to handle the volume of water during a heavy rain. There have been reports of flooding, water spilling up like small geyers and other assorted problems.

"We need to look at funding sources to do some major work," Fahrner said.

Village President Jerry Satterthwaite supported Fahrner, saying, "We need to find some big dollars."

Fahrner said the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is trying to have the Clean Water Act amended as it pertains to storm sewer water quality.

"The bad news is that will probably create a lot of additional paperwork," Fahrner said.

"The good news is they will probably attach some sort of funding support to it."

Fahrner said a major part of the problem is due to pipeline that is only about one half to one third of the size it should be, especially in the main line that runs under Federal Screw Works on Main St. to Grant St. and north to Letts Creek. He said where there is 18" pipe there should be 42" pipe, 24" pipe should be replaced by 48" pipe, 36" pipe should be replaced by 96" pipe, and 42" pipe should be replaced by 102" pipe.

Fahrner said the small pipe creates pressure in the lines, causing water to burst through pipe and joints and up toward the ground surface.

The problems are aggravated by an overflow pipe between Middle St. and the railroad tracks that has been taken over by roots and is generally clogged up. Fahrner said the obstructions

The Girls Who Would Be Queen

One of nine young Chelsea women will be named the 1986 Chelsea Community Fair Queen on Friday evening.

The show begins Friday at 7 p.m. in the multi-purpose arena.

Each girl is being judged on her talent, a personal interview with the judges, which occurred earlier in the week, and her poise in front of a crowd. Friday's talent show is not a factor in the judging as the girls performed privately for the judges earlier this week.

Julie Vorus will be the mistress of ceremonies for the show.

Judges for contest include Jacqueline Hunter, of Jackson, Leonard Lafleur, of Ann Arbor, and David Lutchka, of Grass Lake. All have had extensive experience in judging similar events.

The nine candidates include Debra Harshberger, daughter of Robert and Charlotte Harshberger, 14007 McKinley Rd.; Susan Schmunk, daughter of

ONE OF THE MOST UNUSUAL EXHIBITS in the agriculture display at the Chelsea Community Fair involves crops that are native to this country. Most vegetables we eat today were brought to this country by explorers and settlers. Included in the exhibit are potatoes, squash, pumpkin, tobacco and pod corn. Pod corn grows on an ear but each kernel is encased in its own pod. Seeds used to grow the vegetables are true to the original vegetables. Seeds from each crop were saved for the next year's planting. The display belongs to Cindy Brackett of Fowlerville.

School Begins September 3

School for Chelsea's children begins next Wednesday, Sept. 3, at 8:50 a.m. with a full day of classes.

Teachers and staff will report on Tuesday, Sept. 2. The morning will be devoted to individual building meetings and room preparations. In the afternoon, all teachers and secretaries will gather for a district-wide meeting beginning at 1:30 at Chelsea High School.

Parents of students who are new to the district should not wait until the first day of classes to contact the school.

Wednesday it will be business as usual at all schools. Lunch will be served and there will be regular bus route service both before and after school. Students should bring paper and a pen or pencil.

Students in high school vocational consortium classes will not begin those classes until Thursday, Sept. 4.

Klink, Lynn (Slusser) Klink, Charles Koenn, Frances (Reed) Ferry, Francis (Joe) Laban, Robert Selter, Dan Mayer, Ed Brown, Peter Flintoft, Richard Wood, Daryl Keizer. Not pictured who attended are Alice (Webb) Underhill, Sandra (Abel) Lemmon, Brian Leisinger and Alice (Klink) Wahl. Ed Lauhon was unable to attend but saw classmates at his mother's home at 567 Glazier on Cavanaugh Lake Sunday, Aug. 24 from 2-4 p.m.

Luick-Keyes Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hoffmeyer of Chelsea have announced the engagement of her daughter, Diane Marie Luick to Brian A. Keyes, son of June Law of Herkimer, N. Y., and Warren Keyes of San Jose, Calif.

The bride-elect is a 1978 graduate of Chelsea High school and Michigan State University. She is director of sales of the Embassy Suites Hotel in Palm Desert, Calif. Her fiancé is a graduate of Herkimer High school in Herkimer, N. Y., and is specialty restaurant manager of The Velvet Turtle Restaurant in Palm Desert, Calif.

An Oct. 25 wedding is planned.

Workshop Set on Making Jams, Jellies

Gardens are full and produce is overflowing at the farmer's markets so this is the time to preserve food for later. It is important to use the latest fail-safe methods when you can or freeze, pickle or make jam. Health, time, money and your labor are all involved.

Don't let your hard work go to waste; learn the newest methods of food preservation at the public demonstration-lecture sponsored by the Co-operative Extension Service.

Information on making jams and jellies will be presented by Home Extensionist Marion Prince on Aug. 28, at the County Service Center, 4133 Hogback Rd., at 7:30 p.m. Reservations are required; call 973-9510. A $2 fee will be collected at the door.

MINA MOECKEL

Mina Moeckel Celebrates Her 100th Birthday

Mrs. Mina Moeckel was guest of honor at a pot-luck dinner and Open House at the Township Hall in the village of Waterloo, Sunday, Aug. 17.

Friends, neighbors and relatives gathered to honor her for a very special occasion, her 100th birthday.

Gathered for the dinner were 100 people, with many others arriving for the Open House.

This was the second birthday celebration at which Mrs. Moeckel was honored, the first was held on her birthday, July 27, at Calvary church in Jackson.

Mrs. Moeckel is a long-time resident of Waterloo.

She and her husband Ezra and daughter Odema lived on the Ahling farm on Timms Rd., near Grass Lake, from 1915 to 1922.

They lived in Lima for a year before moving in 1924 to the farm on Gorton Rd. in Waterloo.

The farm continued to be their residence until her husband's death in 1950.

He died in March. The following December, she and Odema moved to 622 Dewey St., Jackson, where they now reside.

Mina was born on July 27, 1886, to Clement and Mary Huttenlocker Barber, living at the time on the Lyndon township farm of her grandparents.

She remembers moving by horse and wagon across the county line to their home on Gorton Rd. when she was about four years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Moeckel were married Dec. 7, 1910.

They had been married almost 40 years at the time of his death.

Mrs. Moeckel and Odema retained half an acre of land when the farm was sold, and have a small house located on the land—they come out often.

They have had this place for about 30 years, and Mina loves her garden and flowers.

Mina (as everyone calls her) has continued to work outside among the flowers and in her garden.

She takes great pride in her home at Waterloo.

On June 6, she planted beans and potatoes.

That night, she fell and fractured her hip.

She has recovered from the injury, although she sometimes uses a walker.

Her greatest regret is she can't move about as she once did.

She is looking forward to, and planning to get out in her pride and joy—her garden—to help work the earth, plant and harvest her crops.

Hospice Volunteer Training Scheduled

Hospice of Washtenaw, a division of Amicare Home Health Services, Ann Arbor, Inc., a non-profit health care agency, trains and utilizes volunteers in the care of the terminally ill and their families. Volunteers serve families in a variety of ways—through supportive counseling, friendly visiting, health care education, light household chores and errand assistance. Other volunteers assist in office operations, publicity, and public speaking. It is not necessary to have a background in health care to be a hospice volunteer.

Volunteer training will begin Sept. 8th. For more information, please call 995-1995.

O'Connor Calls for End To 'Pork Barrel' Budget

With state spending getting more out of control every year, State Rep. Margaret O'Connor (R-Ann Arbor) said that lawmakers need to start voting against budgets loaded with items that cannot be justified.

O'Connor said the 1986-87 Department of Agriculture budget is a particularly good example of how the appropriations process has become a pork barrel for special interest groups.

"It was with great reluctance that I voted 'no' on the agriculture budget," O'Connor said. "I tried several times to amend the budget and clean out the garbage that had been dropped into it, but the opposition was too strong. Farmers from the 52nd District told me to vote against the bill."

The 52nd District lawmaker said that $2.45 million of the agriculture budget went towards cities with race tracks and another $800,000 was included as a subsidy for the Pontiac Silverdome.

"These two items alone cost more than $3 million and I fail to see what good either of these will do for the farmers of this state," O'Connor said.

A Senate Fiscal Agency report said that the Silverdome is currently showing a profit and would be expected to continue to do so if state funding was discontinued.

O'Connor said there is no legal reason that the legislature must appropriate any funds to the Silverdome. That money should be used to help Michigan farmers," she said.

Other appropriations in the agriculture budget included $106,000 to operate a farm in China, and more than $105,000 for an orchard eradication program on privately-owned orchards and vineyards.

"When farmers want to remove a tree or a vine, they should grab a saw and do it themselves. The taxpayers shouldn't foot the bill."

"I also question why we need to be involved in helping the Chinese. Local people ask me why we're helping a foreign country compete against American farmers that need help."

O'Connor said that the agriculture budget was one of many spending plans that contained "intolerably frivolous expenditures."

"Government should not fund items that can be handled by the private sector. We continue to demonstrate fiscal irresponsibility and someone needs to put a stop to it," O'Connor concluded.

Sixty-one percent of women maintaining families in 1985 were in the labor force—that is, working or looking for work—compared with 54 percent in 1975, according to a fact sheet on working women published by the Women's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Dogs Disappearing From Lyndon Area

Dogs have been disappearing on and around Boyce Rd., and area resident Joy Franklin thinks it's no accident.

Franklin, who lives at 10951 Boyce Rd., had all three of her 10-month-old mixed breed dogs disappear at the same time between 10 p.m. last Friday and 5 a.m. Saturday. All three dogs came from the same litter.

She said no one in the area has seen them and no bodies were found.

The Franklins also lost two dogs earlier this year, one on Saturday, March 7, and the other on Saturday, March 21. Joy became suspicious when she realized the dogs all disappeared either late Friday night or early Saturday morning.

"We drove all over, and there was no sign of them," Joy said.

Joy has checked several times at the Huron Valley Humane Society, with no luck. Officials at the society suggested the dogs might have been picked up. Joy speculates that an unscrupulous laboratory is using the dogs for research purposes.

Joy's dogs aren't the only ones in the area that have turned up missing.

Recently, a mixed breed puppy belonging to Bonnie Howard, also a Boyce Rd. resident, disappeared under much the same circumstances early on a Saturday morning.

All the missing dogs have had similar characteristics, according to both Joy and Bonnie. They've all been fairly young, mixed breeds, small to medium-sized. They've all been friendly family pet dogs that were not afraid of strangers.

"This has been very distressing to my kids," Joy said.

Anyone outside the Chelsea village limits who has a dog disappear without a trace should contact the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

Thursday, Aug. 28, 1952—Including the new, 30-passenger GMC bus, the Chelsea Agricultural Schools district now has a fleet of seven buses and a station wagon.

Sept. 4, following the custom of the past year, all pupils, except those who live near the rural schools they attend, will be transported to Chelsea. Second and third graders will be taken from there to the four rural schools—Riemenschneider, Savage, Sylvan Center and Pumpkin College.

The old livery stable on Jackson St., just east of the W. R. Daniels garage, has been undergoing extensive remodeling for the past three months and according to present plans, will be ready for the new role as a modern, well-equipped plant for the Longworth Plating Service. The plating service, owned and operated by Marion Longworth, will move from its present location in the Tower building.

The store building at 115 Park St., formerly occupied by Chelsea Appliance, is undergoing extensive remodeling to provide office space for James Hendley, local attorney, and Alfred Mayer, insurance agent.

Final Work Bee Involves Board

The final work bee before the opening of the 1986 Chelsea Community Fair highlighted the fair board meeting on Thursday, Aug. 21.

The meeting had the best attendance since November.

Participating in the work bee were Bill Stoffer, president; Jerry Herrick, vice-president; Lloyd Grau, executive vice-president; Maryann Guenther, secretary; and Mark Staphish, treasurer. Directors who participated included Archie Bradbury, Richard Bollinger, Jim Dault, Tom Dault, Harold Gross, Jerry Heydlauff, John Klink, Charlie Koenn, Jeff Layher, Mark Lesser, Reuben Lesser, Jr., Ralph McCalla, Harold Trinkle, Ed Whitaker, Don Koenigster, and John Wellnitz, reporter. Absent were Earl Heller and Joe Merkel III.

After the work bee a short meeting was called to order by Stoffer.

Reports were read and accepted, and bills ordered paid. Last minute instructions for the fair were reviewed.

A VIEW from the CLOCK TOWER

By Will Connelly

Readers and listeners are especially grieved when they hear that a young person 15 to 24 years of age has rebuked the whole world by committing suicide. Yet, as we shall see later in this column, adolescent and college students are one group where we have our best chance for suicide prevention. The other group who may be turned to at the opposite end of the age scale, those 65 or older.

First, let's begin with a view of the whole picture. The year we have chosen is 1981 because that is the latest year published in the Statistical Abstract of the U.S. on suicides. Here are the figures for that year when nearly 21,000 suicides were recorded out of two million attempts.

SUICIDE DEATHS PER 100,000 PEOPLE

	White males by age	White females by age
15-24 years	21.1	4.9
25-34 years	26.2	7.7
35-44 years	24.3	9.5
45-54 years	23.9	11.1
55-64 years	26.3	9.4
65 and older	35.7	6.3

Suicide rates for black people of each sex are roughly half the rates for white people. Obviously, we could write a whole book on these differences between races, sexes and ages but we'll leave details to the experts.

There is a popular notion that suicides by students are the result of broken love affairs, but such tragedies are rare, what investigators have found is that students who are doing poorly in their studies feel a loss of parental love. Suicidal Asian students reflect the same emotions—"loss of face" with parents and families.

Dr. Herbert Hendin, a psychiatrist with the V.A., does not attribute the increasing suicides of students to social changes such as the activist sixties or emerging drug culture of the seventies. He feels that increased suicide attempts among collegians are rooted in the loss of family cohesion.

Parents who are close to their children will not fail to see the signs of depression and self-contempt which so often lead to rebellion and withdrawal. Mothers and fathers recognize the futility of trying to send troubled John or Susan to a professional counselor. Counselors have their valuable roles but in the end, victory over despair and self-condemnation is most likely to come from the bosom of the family. Above all, children—just like the rest of us—want to believe that they are needed.

Often a good starting point is for the parent of a deeply depressed youngster to go first to a counselor, and go alone. If parents and child are estranged, a sibling or other family member may seek the guidance instead. The goal is to rebuild the youngster's feeling that he or she is loved, appreciated and needed.

Throughout America the ratio of attempted suicides to actual suicides is about 10 to 1. Among youngsters, the ratio averages 100 to 1 or higher, while among persons over 55, the average is estimated at 1 to 1.

Every "failed" attempt at suicide is a cry for help. In thousands of cases a deliberate failure is a way of dramatizing the desperate need for help.

In the decades between ages 25 and 65, suicidal despondency may be concealed until too late. There are job failures, frustrated ambitions, marital tragedies, normal and abnormal sexual problems. Total despair often follows the death of a marriage partner, child, parent, sibling or beloved friend.

Other strong impulses toward self-destruction, repeatedly emphasized by experts on suicide, are homosexuality, alcoholism and drug addiction. Many homosexuals feel themselves outcasts in the heterosexual society. Alcoholics and drug addicts do shameful things that bring them into unbearable disgrace. Many kill themselves with huge amounts of booze consumed within a short period of time; drug addicts take the same way out with lethal overdoses.

In 1981, 64 percent of all people who killed themselves did it with firearms, while 14 percent chose poisons and an equal number did it by hanging.

Almost automatically, self-destruction in the U.S.A. raises the question of suicide in other countries. Here are rates per 100,000 male suicides during years centering around 1981 in 13 developed countries:

Austria	42.1	Poland	21.8
Denmark	38.9	Norway	19.1
Switzerland	33.6	U.S.A.	18.0
West Germany	29.6	Israel	9.8
France	28.5	United Kingdom	9.1
Sweden	24.6	Ireland	6.6
Japan	22.0

(In eight countries where firearms are limited or prohibited, the suicide rate is higher than in the U.S. In exceptional Switzerland, every able bodied man between ages 20 and 50 belongs to the militia and keeps his gun at home.)

THE ELDERLY

It is not surprising that we have a high rate of mortality from all causes as people reach their retirement years. While most older people die from natural causes, there is also a 33.5 suicide rate per 100,000 among our citizens 65 or older (all ages and both sexes).

Since 1920 our life expectancy has increased by 20 years, but health care cannot prevent a high incidence of illness and depression among the elderly. After long use, their bodies are wearing out. Many are frail and infirm. Spouses and friends are becoming fewer, followed by loneliness and the feeling of being unwanted and not needed. There is also the new dread among many that they will become comatose human vegetables in intensive care wards.

Nevertheless, the suicide rate for the elderly is far too high and an indifferent society is to blame. Too many younger people think of Old Uncle Ned or Old Nell, shake their heads a second, and turn on the TV.

Elderly suicides occur nationally at high rates, but there are some islands of community care such as Chelsea.

We have our Senior Citizens who are strongly supported by the schools and a host of local organizations. We have the CATS buses that provide door-to-door pickup and delivery.

We have our Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home. Hot meals for personal delivery to oldsters are cooked in its kitchen. Personal living quarters of its residents are made homey with their own belongings. Aided by the Civic Foundation of Chelsea, Wesley Hall, within the Home is a sanctuary for victims of Alzheimer's disease. There these patients live among staff members who call them by their first names, hug them and warmly tell them, "I love you, dear."

More love, more being wanted and needed, flows from Chelsea United Way, our Community Hospital and our churches. Chelsea is a good town to live in.

Helicopter Makes Emergency Landing

A helicopter was forced to make an emergency landing in a field off Dale St. last Saturday after an engine exploded shortly after take-off.

The helicopter was being used to demonstrate the University of Michigan's survival flight operations at Youth Appreciation Day at Chelsea Lanes. After the demonstration, the helicopter took off to return to Ann Arbor when the incident occurred.

According to police, the helicopter was about 400 feet off the ground when there was an explosion followed by black smoke billowing from the engine. They said the pilot then turned the engine off and glided to safety.

No one was hurt in the accident and the helicopter was not damaged other than the blown engine, according to police.

Senate Approves Expansion of Ag Export Bonus Program

The U.S. Senate recently approved a temporary expansion of the agricultural export bonus program, and Al Almy, director of public affairs for the Michigan Farm Bureau, says that if the provision becomes law, it should help boost the sale of U.S. farm products overseas.

"What this does is open up the export bonus program market to countries that we previously were not able to offer it to," Almy said.

GARTH HAMMER, 7, joins Cub Scout Pack 425 this year and he's already learned to do good turns. He is shown during Pack 425's picnic at Pierce Park. Thursday, Aug. 21, giving his three-year-old sister Katrina a ride in the swing. Cub Scouts and Cub Scout-leaders, many of their brothers and sisters and lots of parents gathered for Pack 425's first activity of the school year. A picnic table laden with food, a ball game during which the boys rotated positions, and playground equipment at the park kept everyone occupied. Pack 425's calendar for the year will soon be announced for both Cubs and parents.

Nothing that you do to attract the birds in the summer will get you the large numbers of birds that a winter feeder might draw. Generally you'll get an individual oriole or hummingbird or perhaps a pair of robins rather than a cloud of goldfinches or a dozen doves all at once. You may put out nesting material and not see what kind of bird took it. In other words, you need to be watchful—and maybe a little lucky. If you are, you may see birds and behavior that you wouldn't see at a winter feeder. The male cardinal, for instance, is now fawning over the female, following her around and feeding her. This courting behavior occurs only at this time of year. It's a special part of the annual cycle that's yours to see as you observe nature from your backyard.

Home Tour Offered By CCH Auxiliary

"Through the Garden Gate," a home and garden tour sponsored by the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary, will be held on Sunday, Sept. 7 from 1 to 6 p.m.

Chelsea State Bank Main Office, Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home, from any auxiliary member, or at any of the featured homes on the day of the tour after 1 p.m. The following three homes are part of the nine-home tour.

DUFFEY HOME: A gardener's dream is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Duffey located at 23 Chestnut St., Chelsea. Jerry's creative and award-winning gardens have caused many passers-by to stop and admire. Come walk through this garden.

CARLSON HOME: A definite must on this tour is Susan and Marvin Carlson's fabulous home found at 14206 Dexter-Chelsea Rd., Chelsea. A unique and startling re-creation of a simple farmhouse open for your viewing.

TAI HOME: The lakeside resort of Dr. and Mrs. Tai, 421 Glazier Rd., Chelsea, is everyone's dream home. Complete with putting green, stocked pond, tennis court, and gazebo by the lake. You don't want to miss this enchanting residence.

Storm Sewer Repairs

(Continued from page one) have reduced the line's capacity by more than 50 percent. That pipe is at the end of an overflow pipe that runs from the Main St. to Grant St. line down Garfield St. The council voted to replace the 300-foot overflow line, at an estimated cost of $15,000.

"We have to start some place," said Village President Jerry Satterthwaite.

"We always say next year and next year never comes," said trustee Herman Radloff.

Fahrner admitted that replacing the overflow line is no solution to the problems, saying it will only make the problems less severe. He said that eventually the entire line should be replaced, which won't be cheap.

Fahrner suggested that one solution to replacing the entire line might be to construct a retention pond off Wilkinson St. that would take care of excess water during severe rains. That water would be returned to the creek later via a controlled flow system.

"The EPA should like that because a retention pond significantly improves the quality of the water" because sediment has a chance to settle, Fahrner said.

Fahrner indicated that there are also problems with the flow of water in Letts Creek caused by downed branches, aquatic growth and other obstructions. The village has plans to work on the creek drainage problems during the winter.

However, Fahrner noted that nothing short of a full-scale dredging of the creek is likely to provide enough water capacity in the creek.

During the ice ages, the Sahara Desert was a rich grassland.

Washtenaw GOP Picnic Set Sept. 7

All Republicans in Washtenaw county are invited to a free picnic from 2 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 7.

Jointly sponsored by the Washtenaw Republican County Committee and Republican candidates and office holders, the picnic will be held at the home of State Representative Margaret O'Connor, 4300 Ann Arbor-Saline Rd.

Congressman Carl Purgell is donating the pop and hot dogs, which will be cooked by County Clerk/Register Bob Harrison, Sheriff Ron Schebil, Prosecuting Attorney Bill Delhey and Treasurer Mike Stimpson. County Commissioners Ellis Pratt, Marty Straub and Roy Smith and their wives will act as hosts and hostesses, according to picnic chairman Colleen Conrad.

Republican county chairman Jane Talcott of Manchester announced that the College Republican Clubs from the University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University will provide games for children. Virginia Johansen, president of the Ann Arbor Area Republican Women's Club and Richard Tubbs, president of the Young Republicans Club, will be on hand to sign up new members.

State-wide party officers and candidates have been invited. A crowd of over 200 attended last year's picnic, and twice that many are expected this year.

For more information call the County Republican Headquarters, 971-4622. In case of bad weather call 663-1327 the day of the picnic to see if it has been postponed to Sept. 14.

Brighton Hospital Offers Films on Alcohol, Drugs

Three films designed to help patients and schools prevent and cope with alcohol and drug abuse among children may be borrowed at no charge from Brighton Hospital, which has specialized in treating alcoholism and chemical dependency for over 28 years.

Three films currently available are: "Sons and Daughters, Drugs and Booze," which is of special interest to parents and educators; "One Too Many," depicting substance abuse among teen-agers; and "Get the Message?," aimed at elementary school children and their parents.

According to Ivan C. Harner, the president of Brighton Hospital, any parent, school, community, or church group may borrow the films at no charge. Harner notes that the films are used in communities throughout Michigan since the hospital serves the entire state and the midwest region.

To reserve a film, an organization should contact the hospital's Community Relations Department at (313) 227-1211, ext. 276.

MERRY-GO-ROUNDS AND PICNICS are partners in fun. When Cub Scout Pack 425, Chelsea, planned the year's first activity, a picnic at Pierce Park, brothers and sisters enjoyed the occasion as well as the Cub Scouts and their parents.

Wheat Poll Vote Says No To Controls

The overwhelming "no" vote in the wheat poll by Michigan producers indicates that farmers understood the potential impact of mandatory production controls, said Bob Craig, manager of commodity activities and research for Michigan Farm Bureau.

Of the growers who voted in the poll in Michigan, nearly 74% voted no. That was one of the highest percentage of "no" votes in the nation, Craig said. "We have a very diverse agriculture in our state, and I think producers were concerned that if mandatory controls were established for wheat, they might be extended to other commodities as well," he said.

Nation-wide, wheat growers voted "yes" in the wheat poll by a 54% to 46% margin, but Craig said those results were inconclusive. "If anything, farmers nationally probably showed their disgust with the whole idea of a wheat poll by simply not voting," he said. Craig noted that nearly 80% of the wheat growers nationwide did not bother to cast ballots.

But Al Almy, director of public affairs for Michigan Farm Bureau, said the national results would likely spur some legislative action on mandatory production controls. "I think in the political whirlwind in Washington, the results of this poll will be a strong signal to those congressmen who favor production controls to begin an immediate push to get legislation enacted to require mandatory controls," he said.

Tax Reform Should Benefit Agriculture

The tax reform package reported out by a House-Senate conference committee should have a positive effect on farmers over the long run, according to agricultural economist and tax expert Mike Kelsey of Michigan State University.

Kelsey, speaking to Michigan Farm Bureau commodity advisory committees in Lansing on Aug. 21, said the short term picture may appear a little less rosy. "I'm sure that many farmers are going to be unhappy with some of the tax preference items that have been taken out of the law, such as the investment tax credit and preferential treatment of capital gains," he said.

"But what it's going to do is put agriculture back in a position where you make investments as a result of the economic benefits rather than just the tax benefits."

That situation should benefit the medium size family farms that have been under the most financial stress, he said. "It's been some of the very large farms that have drawn in outside capital specifically for tax purposes. The old tax law made that justifiable even if the farmers weren't making any money."

Kelsey suggested that farmers should begin their tax planning early and consider whether they should sell some capital assets in 1986 in order to take advantage of the capital gains rates. "But that has to be looked at very carefully in relation to the much lower tax rates that we'll have in 1987 and 1988," he said. "So tax planning will be especially important this year because some of the guidelines we've had in the past are not applicable."

TODD SPRAGUE and girlfriend Christine Lehmann.

Couple A Little Closer Thanks to Exchange

A guy knows he's something special when his girlfriend will leave her family and native country for a year so she can teach school in this country a mere nine hours' drive from where he attends college.

But Chelsea's Todd Sprague, and Christine Lehmann, a native of Zurich, Switzerland, figure nine hours away is a whole lot closer than several thousand miles.

Christine got herself to this country via the Amity Institute of California, which sponsors a work exchange program. She'll be teaching German at a high school in Minnetonka, Minn., near Minneapolis, and living with a local family. That's just a long day's drive from Kalamazoo, where Todd attends Western Michigan University.

The couple met two years ago on a dance floor in Ann Arbor. Christine was in town to visit her brother, Roger, who was attending medical school.

Christine said she was used to the European custom of going to a discotheque to dance by herself, and was completely surprised when Todd asked her to dance.

"When I was here then, I thought I would travel a lot," Christine said.

"But after I met Todd, I didn't travel so much."

Since then the couple has corresponded mostly via mail, although Todd admits he's run up some rather hefty phone bills. In addition, he spent several weeks in Switzerland last summer, traveling all over Switzerland and Italy.

"At least I'll get to see her more than once a year."

Finding the spare time is going to be tough, they admit. Todd, one of the top athletes at WMU, has both an indoor and outdoor track season, as well as his business communications studies, to take up his time.

For Christine, it will be her first try at teaching, although she did manage 150 young people in a secretarial school.

Todd is the son of Jim and Marian Sprague, 3490 Clear Lake Rd.

Four-fifths of the employed women maintaining families in 1985 worked at full-time jobs. Half of the women maintaining families had earnings which comprised three-fourths or more of family income, according to a fact sheet on working women published by the Women's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor.

McKune Library Increasing Hours To Serve Patrons

McKune Memorial Library Board has announced an increase of 14 hours which the library will now be open.

The library will open at 10 a.m. Monday through Saturday. The evening hours are expanded also. In the past the library was closed from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. It will now be open during those hours.

The heavy use of the library is one of the contributing factors to this change. July 1985 the library circulated 3,858 items, making a new record for the circulation of library materials.

The new hours, starting on Sept. 15, are: Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Friday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Abundance of Autumn Trips Await Michigan Travelers

As the weather turns crisp and leaves become drenched with color, fall travelers can board a car, motorcoach, plane or ship to enjoy a day or week-long autumn getaway, reports AAA Michigan.

"From a one-day tour to Frankenmuth to a three-day visit on Mackinac Island, Michigan has a wealth of great destinations from which to view the state's spectacular fall color show," stated Peter R. Erickson, AAA Michigan Travel Services director.

Those who prefer a longer voyage can try their luck at the casino tables and enjoy Broadway-style shows in Las Vegas, explore South America's majestic beauty and culture or wiggle their toes in the white sands of a Caribbean island during an island-hopping cruise.

While Michigan sports a myriad of areas known for fall color beauty, among the popular favorites are Mackinac Island and the route taken by travelers headed up to the Agawa Canyon by train.

"Mackinac Island's charm and history draw many autumn visitors who prefer cooler temperatures and smaller crowds," Erickson noted. Three-day bus trips depart from Dearborn Sept. 28 and Oct. 5, with the ferry ride to the island, two nights at the historic Island House Hotel, an island carriage tour, two dinners and two breakfasts included. Prices start at $190 per person.

A breath-taking trek aboard the Algoma Central Railway, a Soo Lock boat tour, two nights at the Water Tower Inn in Sault Ste.

Marie, Ontario, some meals and the round-trip motor coach ride from Dearborn await those who book the Agawa Canyon Tour departing Sept. 22 and Oct. 1 and 10. Prices start from $202 per person.

"The bus travels north on I-75 along some of the most scenic areas in Michigan's Lower Peninsula," Erickson added. "And the railway ride of 114 miles into the Agawa Canyon allows time for passengers to relax, take pictures and enjoy the scenery."

Those with a little less time can motor coach from Dearborn to Frankenmuth, with departures Sept. 9 and Nov. 18. The one-day tour of the Bavarian-style city includes lunch at the Bavarian Inn. Prices start at $36 per person.

Las Vegas-bound travelers may choose a three-, four- or seven-night trip and pick one of 11 major hotels this fall. The package, which includes round-trip air from Detroit, hotel, show tickets and sightseeing, starts at $189 per person.

"Rio De Janeiro, Buenos Aires, and a visit to the Iguassu Falls are among the highlights of a South American adventure from Oct. 21-31," Erickson said. "The package, which also includes round-trip air from Miami, eight nights in three hotels, many meals and two tours, starts at $1,282 per person." Round-trip air fare from Detroit to Miami, for as low as $219, is additional.

Among the many Caribbean cruises available this fall are one-week stays on board the Norwegian Caribbean ships bound for Nassau, Freeport, Cozumel and other tropical playgrounds. The SS Norway, MS Southward, MS Starward and MS Skyward depart from September through December, which prices starting from $520, including air fare.

Restauranteur Has Eye On Jiffy Market Site

If all goes as Jim Carres, of Saline, hopes it will, Chelsea will have a new, specialty restaurant sometime soon.

Carres, owner of Jimmy's Filling Station restaurants in Saline, Brooklyn and Clinton, has his eye on the site of the former Jiffy Market on Sibley Rd. The restaurants specialize in subs, salads, pizza and seafood, mostly on a carry-out basis.

However, before the restaurant can become a reality, Carres has several obstacles to overcome.

Carres is seeking to have the parcel annexed into the Village of Chelsea. Currently is on Sylvan township land. Tuesday night the village council passed a resolution to annex the land. The final say, however, is up to the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners.

Carres wants to have the land annexed so that he can take advantage of the village's sewer system and water lines. However, the closest line is at least 200 feet away. The cost to construct the additional line would be approximately $3,000, according to Assistant Village Manager Lee Fahrner. An additional $375 would be required to extend the water line, and there would be a sewer tap-in fee of $250. Carres would have to pay to construct sewer line from the building to the tap-in point.

Carres admitted that the costs were higher than he anticipated and he said he hopes he can spread the cost out over several years. Nothing was decided at the meeting concerning the financing of the sewer project, although there was discussion that a one-parcel special assessment district might be set up so the costs could be spread out.

Carres opened his first restaurant eight years ago in Saline, and business has been expanding ever since then.

Michigan has more registered snowmobiles, more registered boats, and more public golf course holes than any other state.

Girls Cross Country Team Has Hopes for Chance at State Title

Chelsea High school girls cross country team ought to be one of the state's powerhouse squads this season as coach Pat Clarke begins his 16th season.

The Bulldogs finished third in the state in class B last season and nearly the entire team is back.

"I think we can be a factor in the state meet," Clarke said.

"The girls are more experienced this year and seem to be taking everything more in stride. If we keep healthy and keep our heads on straight, we can be one of the top teams."

Leading the group is a trio of senior captains including Melanie Flanagan, fourth year varsity, all Southeastern Conference, all-region; Sallie Wilson, second year varsity, all-SEC, all-region; and Robin Mock, fourth year varsity, all-SEC, all-region.

"These seniors should provide outstanding leadership which is so vital in state competition," Clarke said.

Returning juniors include all-stater Kasey Anderson, the regional champion last year; Jennifer Rossi, all-SEC; Alisha Dorow, the SEC junior varsity champion last year; Anna Muncer, Ann Brosnan and Wendy Huu.

Sophomore Debi Koenn has looked "particularly strong" in pre-season workouts, Clarke said.

A bonus this season is the return of Kim Allen, who transferred out to Arizona in the middle of last season. Kim had also been an all-SEC runner.

"I'm really glad to have Kim back," Clarke said.

Newcomers who should help out include junior Laura Torres, who is running in third position so far, and freshmen Sheila Haab, Kim Roberts, Vicki Bullock, Anne Steffenson, Katie Peckham, Charity Strong, Stephanie Wagner, Becca Buckel and sophomore Jennifer Harris.

Chelsea faces some stiff competition from league foes Saline Hornets and Milan Big Reds. Saline finished seventh in the state and Milan 10th last season. Clarke said that Lincoln, Tecumseh, Pinckney and Dexter all had young teams last season and should be much improved.

MEET THE DODGERS—1986 CHAMPIONS in Chelsea Little League play. Their league record this summer is 8-1-2. "Add to that a pair of exhibition games—a win over Dexter and a loss to Manchester," said coach Earl Grau. Explaining they are very proud of the boys, Grau and the other two coaches, Russell Weid and Tom Eder, say the team has played excellent "heads up" ball this summer. "They have really learned a lot and we all had a lot of fun during the season," the coaches agreed. Commending the parents as well, the coaching staff heaped praise on the families of the players for taking the time to come out to the ball diamonds and support the players. Shown in the photo, front row from left, are Cory Brown, Jason Tripp, Mark Eder, Kevin McCalla, Jayson Lien and Jeremy Zeigler. Standing behind them, left to right, are Cory Weid, Mike Eder, Jason Garrigus, Richie Dunahoo, Chris Gibson, Jason Johnson, Steve Gran and coach Earl Grau. Coaches Russell Weid, left, and Tom Eder stand in the back row, behind the boys. Note the trophies held by many of the team players. Each boy received an individual trophy, and the team was presented the large trophy for topping the league. Missing from the photo are players Eric Montagne and Andy Wetzel.

Boy Harriers Look To Improve

Chelsea boys cross country team is aiming to improve on its 20th place finish in the class B state meet last season with a corps of eight returning lettermen.

"In order to move up from 20th place, we must continue to improve throughout the season," coach Pat Clarke said.

Lee Riemenschneider and Jason Creffield, both fourth-year runners, join senior and second-year runner Greg Brown as this season's tri-captains.

Junior John Cattell, an all-region, all-Southeastern Conference runner, returns. He's recovering from a mid-summer accident, Clarke said, but should round into form by the beginning of the season.

Clarke said that senior Tucker Lee has looked especially strong during pre-season workouts, as has sophomore Paul Hedding.

Other returning lettermen who will be counted on heavily include junior Mike Lavigne and seniors Brian Coy and Jeff Anderson.

Top newcomers include juniors Dave Kvamberg, Brady Murphy, Craig Zuehlke, sophomores Matt Riemenschneider and Paul Boyers, and freshmen Holden Harris, Brian Zangara and Jeff Latimer.

Clarke said the Saline Hornets, who finished sixth in the state in class B last season, should be the preseason favorites in the SEC. The Hornets return five senior lettermen. He said Lincoln should be much improved and could challenge, along with Pinckney and Tecumseh. Milan and Dexter will be rebuilding, he said.

"Our team could contend if we can round into shape and can maintain our positive attitude," Clarke said.

Fun Run to Fair Slated Saturday

Want to do a run that leads you to something other than the finish line? Join the third annual "Fun Run to Meet You at the Fair," which will be held in Chelsea on Saturday, Aug. 30. Participants will leave the Family Practice Center at 9 a.m. and be cheered across the finish line at the Chelsea fairgrounds. Entrants have a choice of doing a one-, three-, or five-mile run as well as a one-mile walk.

"We want to emphasize the fun in 'fun run,'" states Peg Campbell, race director. "With this event, everyone wins; everyone is eligible for prizes, and everyone has a good time. Once the post-race activity has finished, everyone can go to the fair."

The run is designed to encourage people to run for the fun of it. All participants will receive a t-shirt, refreshments, and, as they cross the finish line, a lottery envelope. Some envelopes will contain gift certificates for prizes. In addition, special prizes will be awarded to all participants age 14 and under, as well as to other categories of participants.

The run is sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Council and the University of Michigan Family Practice Center at Chelsea.

The entry fee is $6 until Aug. 23. After that the fee is $8, and $9 the morning of the run.

For an application or more information, call Peg Campbell at 763-7120.

McCalla. Kathy Zeigler is missing from the photo. Coach Grau successfully predicted a win for his boys. The score was 8-6, with the boys leading. The parents put up a valiant struggle, everyone had a fine time and most are already looking forward to next season. The weatherman played havoc with a team picnic planned recently, but the group accepted an invitation to go "undercover" at the fire station when firefighters were called out. Everyone enjoyed the unexpected turn of event, coach Grau explained.

Inverness Ladies League Has Award Luncheon

Inverness Ladies League Award Luncheon was held at Inverness Golf Course club house on Tuesday, Aug. 19. Award winners were as follows. First place team: Rose McGibney and Janet Smith. Second place team: Ruby West and Mary Nadeau. Third place team: Betty Korgilius and Olga McCormick.

Vets Park Flag Is Seventh Stolen

Seven American flags have been stolen in Chelsea since May. The latest one, taken from Veterans Park, had been recently donated by Chelsea VFW Post No. 4076. It was last seen on Wednesday, Aug. 20 and was reported missing on Saturday, Aug. 23. Chelsea Police Chief Lenard McDougall said he believes kids are stealing the flags for pranks. He urges all area parents to be suspicious of a sudden interest in patriotism on the part of the child, especially if flags begin appearing at home. "I think somebody is out there with a large flag collection," McDougall said.

"IF YOU CAN'T BAT, run and roll in the time on the ball field beside the one where the game is," decided toddler Kyle Brown. He shows the results in this photo! A couple of mothers remedied his condition. They took him to the hand pump and doused him to rid the youngster of the lime, wiping him dry again. He had as much fun as anyone when the Dodgers, Chelsea Little League 1986 Champions challenged their parents, Thursday, Aug. 21, at Dana Field. The Dodgers won, 8-6, reported coach Earl Grau. He commended the parents for their fine and consistent support during the entire season.

State Fish-Off Entered By Local Anglers

Dennis Andrew and three colleagues will travel to Charlevoix for the State Fish-Off later this month.

Sponsored by Dexter Video, Andrew and the other three anglers on the team have been fishing with the Pro-Bass program throughout the past few months.

VCR's of fishing expedition information and tips on fishing lures and locations have been extremely valuable to the team of anglers and their cohorts, Andrew said.

A deputy with the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, Andrew says fishing is a consuming hobby with him.

He explains the men who will travel to the State Fish-Off are appreciative of the local sponsorship which makes their trip possible.

He promises a full report on the team's activities at Charlevoix, Sept. 26-27.

In 1981 registered Michigan boat owners spent over a billion dollars on boating in Michigan.

Though state recreation area boundaries are posted with signs prohibiting shooting of firearms from April 1-Sept. 14, these rules will not apply to Canada goose hunters during the Sept. 3-8 season. Entry into established refuges on the open-for-hunting game areas or recreation areas is prohibited, just as in the regular waterfowl season.

Because the season was confirmed by Federal authorities so late in the summer, a waterfowl guide will not be available for this experimental season. Hunters are advised to contact DNR Regional or District Offices for additional information and a brief handout on the season.

September Goose Hunt Announced

The Department of Natural Resources (DNR) has announced a Sept. 3-8 hunting season on local giant Canada geese in the State's Lower Peninsula.

This experimental season is the culmination of an eight-month effort by the DNR working with the Michigan Flyway Council and U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to obtain additional controls on fast-growing local goose populations.

Michigan and Massachusetts are the only two states that will be offered the opportunity this fall to test early September hunting as another solution for local goose control. DNR wildlife biologists estimate Michigan's local birds numbered 35,000 in 1985, and predict the figure may reach 70,000 this fall.

The daily limit for the early hunt will be two Canadas and four in possession. Shooting hours will be one-half hour before sunrise to sunset, local time, in the Lower Peninsula.

Because Federal authorities were concerned about unintentional harvest of early-arriving migrant geese from Canada breeding grounds, there will be some closed areas on state game lands during this early hunt. (Check with Waterloo Area Headquarters for listing of scattered closed areas.)

"In spite of the closures, 95 percent of the Lower Peninsula will be open to hunters," said Jerry Martz, DNR Waterfowl Specialist. "Including most parts of state recreation, game and wildlife areas, state forest lands and private lands (with owner's permission)."

Though state recreation area boundaries are posted with signs prohibiting shooting of firearms from April 1-Sept. 14, these rules will not apply to Canada goose hunters during the Sept. 3-8 season. Entry into established refuges on the open-for-hunting game areas or recreation areas is prohibited, just as in the regular waterfowl season.

Because the season was confirmed by Federal authorities so late in the summer, a waterfowl guide will not be available for this experimental season. Hunters are advised to contact DNR Regional or District Offices for additional information and a brief handout on the season.

VICKY WURSTER, co-ordinator of last Saturday's Youth Appreciation Day at Chelsea Lanes, laughs it up with Bif, the mascot of the Young American Bowling Alliance. More than 450 children ages 3-18 attended the first annual event, which featured free games, food and a variety of safety programs.

MARINE SAFETY OFFICERS of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, David Egeler and Ron Brown, share a minute with "Bif," the mascot of the Young American Bowling Alliance during Youth Appreciation Day at Chelsea Lanes Saturday, Aug. 23. Egeler and Brown gave a water safety program in the afternoon.

BOWLERS OF ALL AGES and sizes took part in the first annual Youth Appreciation Day at Chelsea Lanes on Saturday, Aug. 23. The youngsters learned a lot about a number of safety issues, and amused themselves with free bowling, games and food. On the left is Bif, the mascot of the Young American Bowling Alliance, who came all the way from Wisconsin for the event.

America's first mustard is said to have originated in Philadelphia by Benjamin Jackson. He advertised in the Pennsylvania Chronicle in 1768 that he was the "original establisher of the mustard manufactory in America."

Chelsea Lanes Jammed For Youth Event

More than 450 children age three to 18 took part in the first annual Youth Appreciation Day at Chelsea Lanes despite a rainy beginning on Saturday, Aug. 23.

Hotdogs, popcorn, and soft drinks, as well as video and pinball games, pool and bowling were available free of charge. The idea of the program was to reach out to five area communities and to involve as many community organizations as possible.

The program was co-ordinated by Vicky Wurster of Chelsea Lanes.

A number of safety programs were presented during the day. Among them were "Seatbelt Safety," by Chrysler Proving Grounds; "Child Abuse and Runaways" and "Marine Safety and Water Safety" by the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department; "Bike and Drug Safety" and "Drinking and Driving" by Chelsea Police Department; "Survival Flight Helicopter" by University of Michigan; "Home Fire Safety" by University of Michigan Burn Center; "Physical Readiness for Sports" by Chelsea Family Practice Center; and demonstrations by the Chelsea Fire and Rescue Departments.

All programs and food were donated. Irish Hills Meat Co. provided the hot dogs, Chelsea VFW Post No. 4076 supplied popcorn, Way Bakeries of Jackson supplied buns, Coca-Cola of Jackson provided soft drinks, and free pinball and video play was given by Inlet Vending of Jackson.

In addition, there was a visit by "Bif," the Young American Bowlers Association mascot from Greendale, Wis.

In 1970, there were about 6.7 million children in one-parent families; by 1985 almost 13 million children were in such families. Most of these children are being raised by their mothers, according to a fact sheet on working women published by the Women's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor.

The Fair - Through the Eyes of A Child

An excitement that I cannot explain,
Suddenly comes over me.
When Mom says, "The fair is coming to town,"
For all of us to see.

Come in, the gate is open wide,
The ride lights blink off and on,
They seem to pull me toward them,
"Let's see the animals first," says Mom.

And as we enter that great big barn,
What's the first thing that I see,
A long, swishing tail on the back of a cow,
And slowly she turns and moos at me.

A farmer is squeezing something below,
And out comes milk pure and white,
But that big cow doesn't like it at all,
She's putting up quite a fight.

Next comes the sheep, it sniffs at me,
And I gently touch its back,
It feels so thick and fluffy,
"Hey Mom, why is this sheep white and black?"

Baaaa!! I hear the goat in the next pen,
And it climbs upon the gate,
I can tell he looks real hungry,
But he'll just have to wait!!

The horses look so sleek and tall,
With the cowboys and their boots,
And there are even riders who look,
Like jockeys in millionaire suits.

What's that in the corner?
Laying there so fat and pink,
"A pig," says my Dad,
"Not too close, 'cause they stink."

On to the cages with the small animals,
What's that funny feathered thing?
A crown on top of a chicken's head?
And fluffy feathers for a wing?

Oh, there's one of my favorite things,
With ears flopped and touching the floor,
A bunny rabbit is what I see,
Oh look inside, there seem to be a hundred more!!

Oh look Mom, at the end of the barn,
Hurry follow me this way,
There's a mom and a little one like you and me,
Oh, this is the baby animal display!!

Finally, we stepped outside,
"Cause you know in the back of my mind,
Although I loved seeing all the animals,
The rides are more my kind.

The ferris wheel gave me quite a turn,
It took me up so high,
And if it wouldn't be for Dad sitting next to me,
I just know I would start to cry.

Next, I went on the nearest ride,
Over the praries way out west,
The Merry Go Round with its horses,
Is the ride I like the very best.

It turned my round and up and down,
And each time I had to wave,
At my Mom and Dad standing there,
Boy, I was feeling so brave.

I think I'll give this ride a try,
To me it looks pretty slick,
All the big kids ride the Tilt-A-Whirl,
But all I'm getting is sick!!

Well, the "OOO-AHH's" were going to start quite soon,
So we went and got something to eat,
And the caramel apples and cotton candy,
Were a welcome little treat.

The sky then exploded with beautiful lights,
OOO's and AHH's were heard from the crowd,
The fireworks were a beautiful sight,
And the explosions were so loud.

The games on the midway looked thrilling,
And a stuffed animal is what I longed for,
So my Dad took a chance and knocked over some cans,
A pink dog!! Who could ask for more?

Mom said it was time to leave this near place,
As I rested upon my Dad's knee,
With half eaten candy and a balloon on my wrist,
Holding tight to my pink doggie.

It was fun, I got scared, and even got sick,
Of this there is no doubt,
But I'd come back tomorrow and stay all day,
Isn't that what the fair's all about!!!

—Patricia H. Zangara

"SMOKE", a team composed mostly of Chelsea area residents, was the class E district champion in a tournament played July 25-26 in Ann Arbor. The team will compete in the state tournament this week-end in Port Huron. In winning the tournament, Smoke outscored their opponents 48-15 in six games and finished undefeated, despite playing in two extra-inning games. Terry Seltz was the team's leading hitter, going 12-24 with an on-base percentage of .640. The team's defense was outstanding during the tournament and pitcher John Lixey, who pitched five games, tossed 22 consecutive scoreless innings. Smoke is a self-sponsored team. In the front row, from left, are John Lixey, Terry Seltz, Doug Hillman, Brian Schultz, Dale Schoenberg and Jim Hohmann. In the back row, from left, are Dan Alber, Chuck Moore, Craig Coltre, Jeff French, Tom Lixey, Roger Moore and Dale Poertner.

A Michigan Family Reunion.

Of course Aunt Sara loved the invitation. Who wouldn't like feeling so special that someone had the Governor invite them for a visit. And really, don't worry about hurting anyone's feelings because Governor Blanchard will invite as many people as you'd like to have come. Plus they'll get lots of information on why Michigan is such a wonderful place to spend a vacation. There'll even be a little something in the mail for you — like a copy of Michigan's Travel Planner. That way, you'll know all the when's and where's of what's happening in Michigan. Who knows, between you and the Governor, this may turn out to be Michigan's best reunion ever.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

Wanted—Wanted—Needed! Any info on the most unpatriotic, disrespectful, non-loyal thief and trespasser, that has been plaguing our Chelsea area since July 4th? Any information will be gratefully appreciated. A wave of American Flag thieves seems to hit this area and elsewhere every three or four years.

It was about four years ago that our Chelsea cemetery was invaded and 13 American veterans' markers were stripped of their American flag. How low can one stoop when stealing from the dead?

It isn't the cost that counts, as much as the pain for the veterans and survivors. It isn't the cost of a new flag that bothers, it's the loss of a loved one, along with millions of other families who have or had veterans in service that didn't come back. It isn't the cost of a flag—but the cost the veterans are paying with their mangled bodies and minds, in our VA hospitals all over the U. S. A., that paid the price to help you walk freely on the street.

This seige of thievery is punishable by law—federal and state. A $50 fine, time spent in jail, or other charges can be imposed on any person showing such stupid disrespect to the flag of America and other people's property.

If any of our residents see someone having more flags than usual, trying to sell them or using them for covers, wallhangings, window coverings or mats, please report this to the police.

A few years ago two American flags that covered two veterans' caskets, were given to the VFW Post 4026 and then given to Veterans Park here. Each in turn, was stolen less than a week after they were posted. Three weeks ago, the auxiliary and post from Post No. 4076 presented a 4x6 Perma Nyl-all weather American flag to this Village, Veterans Park Ball Park. It too, has been stolen since then.

Our Chelsea Fair Parade will have many flags in it. If you don't feel like saluting each group as it goes passing by, at least stand; and salute the lead flags; and then stand at attention—arm's at sides, when the rest go marching by. It's your country—let's keep it free. In our 40 years of membership we have presented over 300 American flags in this area.

Eulahlee Packard,
Americanism Chairman,
VFW Auxiliary No. 4076.

Dear Editor,

Last fall I helped my uncle, Hermus Mallard, now deceased, write a letter to Casey's Top 40 with the hope that Casey would read it as a long-distance dedication to the people of Chelsea, Michigan. Almost a year has passed since we posted the letter, so it is probably safe to assume that it did not make Casey's cut. (He gets over a million letters a year! I heard him say so on "Eye on Hollywood.") But I thought I would share Uncle Hermus' letter with your readers, anyway:

"Dear Casey,

"I live in Ann Arbor, a big city in Michigan, with my niece and her family. I am partially deaf so I have to turn your show way up to hear anything. This is all right except when you play that rock and roll music.

"Not far from here is a tiny village called Chelsea where there are nice people. When I was feeling better I would drive to Chelsea and shop in the bakery and hardware store. The people were so friendly and the prices reasonable. I saw one wino but even he was smiling.

"It is always a pleasant day in Chelsea, even when it rains or there is a blizzard. Now I am under heavy medication and sometimes in an iron lung. I have not made a trip to Chelsea in three years. The last time I collapsed.

"But I will never forget the kindness of the Chelsea people. Many spoke loudly so I could understand them and helped me count my money. Casey, could you please play "Up, Up With People, You Meet Them Wherever You Go"?"

Hermus Mallard.

Maybe some of the Chelsea shopkeepers remember Uncle Hermus. He loved peach cobbler and wore a green corduroy hat with ear flaps.

Helele Mallard Ford.

To the Editor,

An Open Letter to the Waterloo Duck Killer:

On Thursday, Aug. 21, at approximately 5 a.m. you plowed through our group of eight ducks who were innocently sleeping in a huddled group. The count stands at three dead and one injured.

After this thoughtless and cruel act, you left the splattered, bloody remains all over the road for the neighborhood children to find when they woke just a few hours later.

While I am the first to admit that the ducks are sometimes a nuisance, they did not deserve such a violent attack. They were raised from eggs to live in and around the Waterloo pond and protected from predators until they could defend themselves, but what chance did they stand against your motorized vehicle?

I'm sure that you have an excuse for what you've done but I feel that it was inexcusable. If you were in such a hurry that you could not wait for them to move, you could have simply gone around the ducks, which is what most of us choose to do. Or, there was a driveway right there for you to turn around in, and there were two alternate routes that you could have taken that would not have caused more than a 45-second delay.

If my dog had killed those ducks, they would be hanging around his neck... show your face, I'm sure we can come up with a suitable punishment for your crime—a tooth for a tooth... or, perhaps you should stop by sometime and explain your actions to all the children who were exposed to your violence by the sight that greeted them when they awoke.

Waterloo Duck Lover

P. S.—Do be sure you and your family are not in my way when I am driving by in a hurry. By the way, you were seen and we are watching for you. Most people who drive in the dark use headlights—you should try that too!

Dear Editor:

Even in a quiet town like Chelsea law abiding citizens must contend with the loud music and behavior of teenagers. This is one area where I agree with Lyndon Larouche. He says we should colonize Mars so law abiding citizens can escape from the wicked. I would add to that, creationism should be taught in the schools there.

Muffin Blore.

Need Early Copy For Next Week

The Editor of The Chelsea Standard is requesting early copy and advertising for the next issue of Sept. 3 as Monday is Labor Day holiday.

SUZANNE OGDEN of Ypsilanti will be opening with the female lead role in "Butterflies Are Free" at True Grist Dinner-Theatre in Homer Thursday, Aug. 28. The production will continue on Wednesday through Sunday until Sept. 21.

Ypsilanti Actress Opening At True Grist Theatre

"Butterflies Are Free" lights up the Fall Season at the True Grist Dinner Theatre in the Historic Homer Mill. Butterflies, celebrating its 17th birthday on Oct. 21 (1969), drew rave reviews from The New York Post, Times, and Daily News when it opened. New Producer David Pritchard of the True Grist has announced that Butterflies will run from Aug. 28 through Sept. 21.

A warm, touching comedy of a bachelor in his first apartment with a pretty actress next door, complicated by an interfering and overprotective mother. "Butterflies Are Free," by Leonard Gershe, promises chuckles and belly laughs in this production.

Featured in the True Grist comedic production are James Allen Baker, the bachelor Don, and Suzanne Ogden, the actress Jill. Baker is from Westland and has performed all over Michigan and the Mid-West most recently at the Grist in "Damn Yankees."

Suzanne Ogden, from Ypsilanti has delighted Coldwater audiences at Tibbits Opera House during the past several seasons. She is fondly remembered as Baby June in "Gypsy" at the Tibbits Theatre. She then appeared as Isabel in "Pirates of Penzance."

DEATHS

Hugh A. Bradbury

864 Wylie Rd.
Dexter Township
Hugh A. Bradbury, 864 Wylie Rd., Dexter township, age 84, died suddenly at his home, Friday, Aug. 22.

He was born Feb. 23, 1902, in Atlantic, Ia., the son of Archie and Nettie Ayres Bradbury.

Mr. Bradbury had been a resident of the Dexter area since 1919, and was a member of the Dexter United Methodist church, Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and Washtenaw Lodge No. 65 F & AM.

On Feb. 28, 1924, he married Esther L. Beach in Dexter; she preceded him in death on July 18, 1966.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Leroy (Barbara) Wing of Ann Arbor; a brother, Jay L. Bradbury of Dexter; two sisters, Mrs. LaVerne (Meri) Coy and Mrs. Mary Haselwerdt, both of Dexter; four grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Mildred Lewis, and a brother, J. Clifford Bradbury.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Aug. 26, at 1 p.m. at the Dexter United Methodist church, with the Rev. John E. Harnish officiating.

Burial followed in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Dexter.

Masonic services were held Monday evening, Aug. 25, at 7:30 p.m. at the Hosmer Funeral Home.

Memorials may be made to the Dexter United Methodist church. Arrangements were by the Hosmer Funeral Home.

Maurine Snay

Chelsea
Maurine Ann "Boots" Snay, 44, of Chelsea, died Monday, Aug. 25 at Cedar Knoll Rest Home after a long illness.

She was born July 13, 1942, in Charlevoix, the daughter of Fred Maurice and Gladys (Speirs) Hodgkin.

Surviving are three sons, Jeffrey Lovely, of Ann Arbor, Rodney Lovely, of Chelsea, and Arthur Snay, of Indiana; her father, of Charlevoix, and mother, of Ypsilanti; one sister, Sharon Watts, of Lima township; and one granddaughter, Amber Lovely. She was preceded in death by a brother, Fred Hodgkin, in April, and a sister, Sandra, in 1975.

Mrs. Snay had been a resident of Chelsea for three and a half years, coming from Boyne City.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, Aug. 27 at 11 a.m. at Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home, with the Rev. Fr. Philip Dupuis of St. Mary's Catholic church officiating. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery, Chelsea.

Arrangements were handled by Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home.

DRIVING NORTH ON M-52, it looks as though Wolverine Food and Spirits Owner Joe Merkel completed some extensive renovation. However, the "architectural illusion" is the work of Madison, Wis. artist Randy Smits. He turned the previously uninspiring building into what looks like a cafe with character. It took Smits and helper Eric Vinger nearly three weeks to complete their work, and they hope to work on the back and west side of the building next year.

WOLVERINE FOOD AND SPIRITS, formerly a drab, brown block building, has a new look to it thanks to artist Randy Smits of Madison, Wis., and his helper Eric Vinger. Specializing in what he calls "architectural illusion," Smits has turned the restaurant into what looks like a cafe from a distance. The two men hand-painted thousands of bricks on two sides of the building to match real bricks already in place. They also painted awnings, a door, and an Indian, above, Smits said, like Alfred Hitchcock, he puts himself into every piece of art he produces. "The Indian is what I would look like if I were an Indian," he says. The two almost look like blood brothers, don't they?

KATHY GIBSON GETS A HIT at Dana Field during the Aug. 22 game in which Chelsea Little League Champion Dodgers challenged their parents and emerged the victors, 4-6. Coach Earl Grau explained the parents had been great support for the boys this season. "Besides that, we all had a lot of fun," he said.

Fire Destroys Motor Home

A son, Max Robert, Sunday Aug. 10 to John and Pat Hepburn of Chelsea. Maternal grandparents are Robert and Esther Isbister of Albuquerque, N. Mex. Paternal grandparents are Max and Marjorie Hepburn of Chelsea. Baby Max has a two-year-old sister, Samantha.

A son, Jacob Charles, Thursday, Aug. 14 to Marcia and Denny Walz of Grass Lake. Grandparents are Paul and Loretta Beal of Stockbridge, formerly of Chelsea, and Duane and Maryann Walz of Munnich. Great-grandparents are Mary Beal of Chelsea, Freida Neilly of Ft. Myers, Fla., Mrs. Harold Walz of Munnich and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klink, Sr. of Chelsea.

A motor home belonging to a Georgia man was destroyed by fire Monday night after an unattended soldering torch ignited curtains in the vehicle.

According to Chelsea firemen, the man, John Jarvis, was visiting his brother at 12850 Trist Rd. in Jackson county. They said Jarvis was working on a soldering project in the home, put down the torch, and when he returned he found the curtains on fire.

No one was hurt in the blaze, although the home was completely destroyed. It was completely engulfed in flames by the time firefighters arrived on the scene. No further details were available at press time.

Spray Painter Vandalizes Church

Christian Fellowship Church, 337 Wilkinson St., was vandalized by someone with spray paint on Sunday, Aug. 24.

Chelsea police said the words, "Preacherman your a liar rape rape" was written on a wall. The incident was reported by Pastor Eric Hanson. It is still under investigation.
