AT NORTH SCHOOL'S ANNUAL SCIENCE FAIR, every third grade student does an individual project. On April 1, they displayed their projects, with each classroom visiting the other three to see what their classmates had done. Shown is Ryan Lafferty demonstrating magnets to Josh Cowen, Jeremy Feldkamp, and Eric Cubberly. Ryan said he got the idea and the magnets from his dad. Ryan is in Dave Brinklow's class. The other three classes participating were those of Peggy Moore, Berta Stein, and Marcia Quilter.

JILL MCKINNON showed her dancing raisins to Mike Mayer at the North school science fair. When the raisins were put into tonic water, they formed bubbles, rose to the top, popped, and then went to the bottom. Jill said the purpose of the experiment was to show "that bubbles have air and that air makes things float." She got the idea from her mother who used to be a teacher.

PETER STRAUB holds up a test tube used to test nutrients in food. Peter was checking for vitamin C, starch, fats, and oils. He got the idea for the North school science fair project "by looking through a book." Students came up with ideas for their science projects by themselves, with the help of their parents, or from sources in the classroom.

Easter Egg Hunt May Be Lost Unless JCs Come To Life

Chelsea children will not enjoy an Easter egg hunt this year unless the Chelsea Jaycees make a phoenix-like recovery in the next few days. Since their membership has dipped below the minimum of 20 set by the state organization, they have been told they can no longer function as a chapter and therefore can not sponsor the Easter egg hunt.

Jaycees have operated in Chelsea for about 30 years, according to immediate past president Tim Merkel. Their contributions to the community, besides the annual Easter egg hunt, include the punt, pass, and kick; bingo at the Chelsea fair; helping with the blood drive; Christmas toys for needy children; fingerprinting children; and hosting a steak fry for other area Jaycees. Last spring they put on a "School's Out" dance for local teens which they describe as "a huge success."

Jaycees are a national organization whose purpose is to train tomorrow's leaders today by aiding individual development and organizational development through the operation of chapter projects. Membership is limited to people under 35 years of age. Originally part of the Chamber of Commerce, they have since the 1960's been a separate organization.

Three years ago the Jaycees opened their membership to women after a Minnesota woman sued the organization, claiming that women should be allowed equal opportunity to develop leadership skills. This means that the Jaycees are one of the few Chelsea service clubs that a husband and wife may join together.

According to Merkel, the Chelsea Jaycees have been on a downswing ever since he joined about five years ago. He said they have tried various methods of recruiting including phoning the people on old membership lists and going door-to-door but to no avail. It would seem in a town with the civic interest that Chelsea shows, membership would be no problem, but this interest may have, in fact, hurt the organization, since many told the Jaycees they would like to be involved

Changes in Bus Service to Ann Arbor Includes Dexter With Same Time Schedules

Roundtrip bus service from Ann Arbor to Chelsea is still expected to begin May 4 despite a recent change of plans to add the Village of Dexter to the route.

And according to Michael Bolton, executive director of the Ann Arbor Transportation Authority, the new route should not add any time to the 90-minute roundtrip.

Many of the details of the route are still being worked out. Stops for Chelsea have not yet been firmed up and the route from Dexter to Ann Arbor, as well as stops in Dexter, have still to be decided.

A group from AATA toured the village last week with Chelsea Assistant Village Manager Lee Fahrner to scout out possible bus stops.

Possible sites for a downtown stop include the east side of the railroad depot and the west public lot between Chelsea Glass and the fire hall. There will almost certainly be a stop at Chelsea Community Hospital.

The bus will leave Chelsea and return via Dexter-Chelsea Rd. That's about the only part of the route that is certain, other than it will end at Fourth and William Sts. in Ann Arbor. Whether the bus leaves Dexter via Baker Rd. or Dexter-Ann Arbor Rd. was not certain as of press time.

However, Bolton said all routing details and times were scheduled to be finished by late this week.

The fare from Chelsea or Dexter to Ann Arbor will be $1.50. The return trip to either village will be the same price.

"That's less than the cost of driving from either town and parking in Ann Arbor," Bolton said.

The bus was tentatively scheduled to leave Chelsea every 90 minutes beginning at 6 a.m. Monday through Friday. Saturday service would run from approximately 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

The new bus route is called "experimental" by Bolton. He is counting on commuters to make the project work.

"We're genuinely interested in seeing if a bus route in this corridor is a viable means of transportation," Bolton said.

"But we're not married to this thing. We won't continue the service if at the end of the demonstration period the service is not workable."

Bolton said the demonstration period is three years, or the life of the state grant that is footing 100 percent of the cost of the project for two years and 75 percent in the third year. However, he said the service could be stopped at any time before that if no one is riding the bus.

At the end of the grant, the route would have to be fully supported by fares and money from Chelsea and Dexter villages, as well as the surrounding townships that use the service.

Bolton admitted that economically this might be the worst time to start a bus service. Gasoline prices and interest rates are down, making car travel relatively cheap.

"This gist of our marketing will be 'how do you want to spend your 20 to 30 minutes on your way to work? Do you want to relax and read the paper or do you want to drive and hope you find a good parking spot?'"

Ann Feeney Is Only Candidate For School Board

Ann Feeney is the only candidate running for the one opening on the Chelsea School Board. A 10-year board veteran, Feeney decided not to seek re-election when her last term ended. However, after a year's break, she is willing to give it another try.

Explaining her decision, Feeney said, "When Art Dils decided not to seek re-election, I got nervous that no one was stepping forward to take his place. Several people asked me to consider running. When I ended my last term, I assumed I would never run again. But I do really care about what happens and I do have the time to devote to it, since I'm not working now, so I agreed to run."

Feeney filed her nominating petition on Tuesday, March 31. The day before, she obtained the necessary 20 signatures by stopping in at businesses along Main St. She reported that she received a very encouraging reception, that most said, "Oh, good, I'm glad you're running." Feeney is a graduate of Marygrove college where she earned a B.A. in English. She taught two years before starting a family. In more recent years, Feeney has taken classes at Cleary college and is just a few hours short of an accounting degree. For the last three and a half years she has worked at Spaulding for Children.

ANN FEENEY

Ann and Michael Feeney have six children, three of whom are still at home. During her 10 years on the school board, Feeney was able to hand a diploma to each of them.

Feeney has always been active in civic affairs. Present activities include the Civic Foundation of Chelsea, the Home Meals program, and volunteering at the United Methodist Retirement Home.

She has good memories of the 10 years she has already spent on the school board. She said during that time John Williams was hired as principal of the high school and Ray Van Meer as superintendent, and that it was a good experience to work with both of them. If re-elected, Feeney is looking forward to overseeing the progress on programs initiated while she was on the board such as the study skills plan and the curriculum review.

When Feeney was first elected, she joined an all-male board. Florence Mayer had served in the 1950's and another woman for a year in the 1960's but when Feeney joined, it had been a while since a woman had been on the board. Feeney said that being the only woman did not give her "a moment's trouble" and that she was proud of the men, the way they adjusted to her presence. When Charlie Cameron retired as superintendent, he complimented her, saying she was "just like one of the guys."

Feeney says the people now on the board are "a terrific group," adding "There's not a self-serving person among them." Besides looking forward to working with these people again, Feeney thinks it's a good time to be involved in education because "There's a lot of good stuff going on. Education is on the brink."

School board election is Monday, June 8. Since April 6 was the last day to turn in petitions, the only way anyone can run against Feeney is by organizing a write-in campaign.

Teachers Switch On April Fool's Day

The weather on April Fool's day was considered by most to be enough of a joke to not necessitate any further pranks. However, the teachers at South school pulled a good trick on their students. For the first two hours of the day, they exchanged rooms. The students adjusted to the change of teachers, but wondered who Principal Bob Benedict, who had not exchanged with anyone, was pretending to be.

Munith Man Killed in Motorcycle Accident

A Chelsea-area man was killed Monday afternoon when the motorcycle he was riding clipped the back of a van on Cavanaugh Lake Rd. and went off the road into trees and swamp.

Matthew Stapish, 29, 6600 Portage Lake Rd., was pronounced dead at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital at 5:17 p.m.

According to reports, Stapish's motorcycle hit a van driven by Dr. James Botsford of Chelsea shortly after 3 p.m.

According to the Chelsea Fire Department, which responded to the accident, Botsford had apparently pulled out of a small Cedar Lake road heading toward Chelsea when Stapish, traveling in the same direction, came over a hill and couldn't stop in time.

Fire department officials said that initially Botsford was not aware that his vehicle had been hit, only that he heard a thud.

Road conditions were dry and apparently did not contribute to the accident.

Overdorf Wins Freshman Prize At U of M

Susan Overdorf, a 1986 Chelsea High school graduate, has been named a recipient of the William J. Branstrom Freshman Prize at the University of Michigan.

The award is given annually to students in the top five percent of their class after their first semester.

The award was created in 1960 by William J. Branstrom, an attorney and philanthropist from Fremont. He was a recipient of a University of Michigan Regent's Citation and was the founder and president of the Fremont Foundation, established to improve educational opportunities for the youth of Newaygo county, and for the improvement of recreational and civic facilities in the county.

Susan was honored at the University of Michigan Honors Convocation on Sunday, March 29. She received a book with a bookplate imprinted with her name.

Stapish, a machinist at Federal Screw Works, is survived by his widow, Patricia; three children, Rachel, Kyle and Alicia; his parents, Charlie and Jeanne, of Chelsea; two brothers, Mark, of Dexter, and Michael, of Chelsea; and a sister, Eileen Ball, of Chelsea.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, April 9 at St. Mary's Catholic church at 11 a.m., with the Rev. Fr. Philip Dupuis officiating.

Visitation will be from noon to 9 p.m., Wednesday, April 8.

Electronics Stolen from Parked Auto

A radar detector and a stereo equalizing unit were stolen from an automobile parked at BookCrafters Inc. on Friday night, April 3.

According to Chelsea police, the equipment belonged to Kevin Robert Cross of Grass Lake.

Police said the equipment, which was permanently fastened to the dash, was stolen sometime between 3 p.m. and 11 p.m.

Police said entry was made to the car by prying glass on the passenger side of the car and unlocking the doors.

There was no estimate available as to the value of the stolen items.

Ohio Man Arrested On MDOP Charge

An Ohio man was arrested by Chelsea police last Friday, April 3 on an outstanding warrant for malicious destruction of property.

According to Chelsea police, an officer encountered Karl Stacey Frizzell, 25, of Bucyrus at the Union 76 station on S. Main St. Frizzell, who formerly lived in Chelsea, was later arrested at Park and East Sts.

According to Chelsea Chief Lenard McDougall, Frizzell was wanted for kicking out a car window.

4 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, April 5, 1983—

Gasoline prices jumped after a new five-cents-per-gallon federal tax increase went into effect. Prices at Ann Arbor-Chelsea area gas stations ranged from $1.119 to $1.159 for regular, and from $1.179 to $1.219 for lead-free. Village Bakery will reopen by June 1, following an insurance settlement on the Jan. 14 fire which burned out the establishment's interior, co-owner John Muncer announced.

Part Peddler, Inc., of Chelsea, has bought the inventory and machine shop assets of the "Big A" auto parts store at 121 N. Ashley St., Ann Arbor. The firm presently has stores in Chelsea, Dexter, Whitmore Lake and Saline.

Girl Scout Brownie Troop 544 of Gregory decorated an indoor Easter egg tree for Chelsea Methodist Retirement Home residents to enjoy. Troop members who set up the tree at the Home were Dierdre Gerba, Sara Gerba, Sara Bloxom, Kelly Donigan, Juanita Noll and Mindy Blades.

14 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, April 5, 1973—

A nation-wide meat boycott was being observed by many residents in this area. The prices of hamburger and chicken were still well under the ceiling President Nixon imposed as the retailer's costs continued to rise, but buyers were scarce. Village grocers, all but Luther Kusterer, admitted this week that the April 1 meat boycott is no joke. Kusterer was ignoring the whole thing. Gene Shoemaker is taking the boycott seriously as he had to "dump" 100 pounds of meat that he did not sell to Sunday shoppers.

At this year's 4-H Spring Achievement Show, Freer Acres girls all received a blue ribbon for sewing—Connie Connelly, Shelley Warren, Joyce Liebeck, Colleen Collins, and Holly Hoffmeyer (who also earned a purple ribbon for excellence).

Three girls were chosen from the Scissorettes to compete at the Saturday night showdown—Tracey Cattell, Mary Lynn Noah and Alicia Noah.

Terrific Tailors did well with the following blue ribbon winners—Cheryl Bareis, Linda Bristle, Elizabeth Bush, Pam Downer, Vicki Downer, Nancy Heller, Susan Heller (who also earned a purple ribbon).

Legislature To Reconsider Divestiture Bills

The state Legislature will be asked again this year to reconsider legislation requiring state interests held in firms doing business in South Africa to be removed from those corporations.

Rep. Perry Bullard (D-Ann Arbor), chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, said the pain and suffering of the people of South Africa continues and Michigan's divestiture actions would add pressure to the government to cease Apartheid.

The legislation, which is supported by Governor James Blanchard, would require the state to sell off stocks and bonds issued by companies operating in South Africa within a five-year period.

State Treasurer Robert Bowman said the amount invested in those companies is about $2 billion and is part of the portfolio administered for the benefit of state employees, teachers, legislators, state police, firemen, judges and probate judges retirement systems.

There are strong safeguards in the bills, Bullard added, to see that there is no loss in guaranteed pension rights.

Bullard said re-introduction represents the fourth or fifth time similar legislation has been offered. Last year the legislation was approved by the House but failed in the Senate at the end of the Legislative year on a procedural vote.

Sen. Jackie Vaughn (D-Detroit) said that with bipartisan support this year for the bills, they face a much better chance than they have in the past. "There has been a growth of support for these bills for the first time in the Michigan Senate. It bodes well for their passage," Vaughn said.

There has also been a change in attitude and diplomacy in the Senate, Vaughn said, and the leadership is not openly opposed this year.

Rep. Claude Trim (R-Waterford), representing the bipartisan coalition, said he had originally opposed the bills and preferred to let the voluntary human civil rights Sullivan Principles correct the apartheid problem in South Africa. However, he said, the Sullivan Principles have been exhausted and now it is time for legislative action.

$17 Million Settlement Reached in Pollution Cleanup Bankruptcy

Michigan and the federal government will receive $17 million in a settlement involving a bankrupt company burdened by costs of a clean up chemical pollution at Muskegon.

Attorney General Frank Kelley announced the settlement is the largest ever in a bankruptcy involving environmental issues, and preserves 150 jobs under a new company that will not be responsible to clean up existing contamination.

The state will receive $12 million and the federal government $5 million from Bofors Nobel, the bankrupt subsidiary of A. B. Nobel of Sweden, to immediately continue cleanup at the company's Lakeway Chemical Plant near Muskegon under supervision of authorities from both governments.

A medical surveillance trust will also be established to monitor the health of employees who may have been exposed to dangerous chemicals manufactured at the site prior to 1971.

The settlement also provides for upgrading the plant to be sold to and operated by the new corporation, LOMAC, to protect against future contamination.

That company will be responsible for any future contamination or interference with the cleanup, Kelley concluded.

Computer Match Nets $50 Million

A computer-based system enabling telephone operators to contact as many as 3,000 delinquent taxpayers a day has collected $50.3 million in its first year, State Treasurer Robert Bowman reports.

The $7.5 million system is operated under contract with G. C. Services Corp. under supervision of the treasury department.

The department also authorizes all enforcement actions such as liens and levies against the delinquent taxpayers.

Purse Stolen At Hospital

A Chelsea Community Hospital employee had her purse stolen on Tuesday, March 31 as it sat under her desk in a tote bag.

According to Chelsea Police, Sandra Carragher lost $26 in cash and sundries in the theft. She told police that several people could have had access to the bag between 11-11:30 a.m.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

It's bound to be spring, Clem Webster told the fellers at the country store Saturday night, the crickets are chirping, the birds are singing, the ground is warming, the department store ads are full of skinny wimmin in skinnier $75 bathing suits, baseball is all over the sports pages and people nobody ever heard of are running for President. Fer sure, Democrat Clem allowed, folks coming to the aid of his party ain't got to worry about peaking to soon with their campaign momentum.

Clem said he has thought the situation up one side and down the other, and he has come to the mind that what this country needs is some Tibet politics. He said he had saw where a two-year-old boy recent was set up as a ruler there after tests showed he had been a king in another life. That way to pick leaders beats keeping up with a blood line, Clem said, it cost less and it is a heap less wear and tear on candidates than the way we got now.

Serious, Clem went on, he can't help wondering how politicians can keep up this drive to start firstest with the mostest and hang in there to the lastest. With unemployment holding around six percent we got plenty of people with the time, he said, but they ain't got the money. Since working people with the money ain't got the time, Clem declared, we wind up with them in office working to stay in that office or step up to another one.

The fellers were general agreed that running fer office in this country has got to be a heap bigger job than being in office. Bug Hookum recalled that in England the candidates stand fer office, which ought to be easier on the body and bank account than running. Bug was especial interested in how a feller in public office can serve the public while he puts ever wakin minute in trying to stay in office.

Actual, Bug said, this lick and a promise public service ain't limited to elected servants. Them fired White House cowboys, North and Poindexter, was put in other jobs in the Marines and Navy, Bug said, but you can tell by the papers they are spending all their time taking the fifth and trying to sue before being sued. You got to figger, Bug went on, if they ain't needed at their jobs there must be plenty more military types that could find time to run for office without putting the country's defense at greater risk. All we got to do, Bug said, is find candidates that are out of office and can leave what they're doing without creating a vacancy.

Practical speaking, Clem said, this would mean candidates that don't have anything to do would keep on doing it if they got in. And before we say a politician doing nothing beats a politician doing somepun, Clem said, let's remember that this is where we come in. Since he ain't doing nothing in office, he has plenty of time to work at staying in office, and that throws the hole reform plan in a cocked hat, was Clem's words.

Republican Ed Doolittle said his heart went out to Clem and his unknown candidates, but his party's problem is the other way. If not Bush, wno, Ed said, and if Bush how does he git the voters to fergit how much he knowned and when he knowed it? The anser, Ed said, is to keep Bush out of public sight and mind and wait fer the TV debates that will be so dull folks will fall asleep and wake up thinking it was all a dream, like that TV show's season.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Balloons Found In Chelsea Area

Two balloons from the Weekly Reader Writing Pals Balloon Contest have been found in the Chelsea area. On Tuesday, March 24, a balloon from Sunbury, O. landed on a farm on Sylvan Rd. Three days later, Friday, March 27, a balloon from Joliet, Ill. was spotted in Chelsea.

The first balloon was found in a field on Mrs. Floyd Brand's farm, 3145 Sylvan Rd., Manchester, by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roehms, Ann Arbor friends who were helping shear sheep. The balloon was sent on March 18 by Amy Turcotte, a fifth grader at Big Walnut Elementary school, 940 S. Old 3C, Sunbury, O. 43074.

The second balloon was found by Wayne Oliver in his driveway at 210 Hayes and was sent by Michelle Stocker of Grand Prairie school, 3100 Caton Farm Rd., Joliet Ill. 60435. It had a picture of a crayon on the outside. Inside was a message, "We have been reading this year in the program called Time to Read. I have read 50 hours so far this year. If you find this please write. Thank you."

Wayne Oliver plans to save the balloon as a keepsake. He will write to Michelle to tell her he received the balloon and then give her name to his niece and nephew in Ann Arbor so they can become pen pals with her if they wish.

What farmers purchase to produce their commodities also creates employment for other Americans. For example, farmers use 6.5 million tons of steel, requiring the efforts of 40,000 workers.

Boy, Girl Scouts Get Together for Rollerskating Party

History was made on March 30 when a Chelsea Boy Scout troop and a Chelsea Girl Scout troop held a joint meeting. Said Girl Scout publicity chair Lois Kapp, "This has never been done before as far as I know."

Cub Scout Den No. 7 joined Girl Scout Troop No. 301 for a roller skating party at North school gymnasium. The event was organized by Roberta Kemp of the Chelsea Community Education Department who led the children in roller skating games.

The two troops took turns reciting their own promises and discovered that the beliefs of scouting are the same for both Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

According to Kapp, both troops had "a great time." In addition, the Girl Scouts managed to meet some of the requirements for their sports badge.

Even if a family does not have a worker employed in an occupation related to agriculture, America's farm effort hits every home in food availability and cost. American consumers spent $346 billion for food produced on U. S. farms. The farmer receives about 25¢ for every dollar spent on food.

A VIEW from the CLOCK TOWER

By Will Connelly

Equal rights for women seem to be making steady gains but total justice is beyond reach for a fundamental reason: There is no consensus among women themselves as to what constitutes equity in some specific situations. Recently the U.S. Supreme Court came up with a landmark decision which was greeted with feminine jubilation. Only a couple of weeks have passed and the cheers are being mingled with tears.

Diane Joyce had labored four years for a county road commission in California patching holes, shoveling asphalt and cleaning out culverts. The time came when she felt entitled to move up to a desk job. The agency had 238 skilled positions, not one of which was held by a woman, but within the past two years the county had enacted a voluntary affirmative action policy as a means of correcting the imbalance.

Joyce and eight male applicants who had scored above 70 on an oral exam were declared eligible. Ms. Joyce had scored 73 and Paul Johnson, a man with 13 years experience, had scored 75. The county's affirmative action co-ordinator, mindful of the new policy and the fact that there was still no woman in the 238 positions, awarded the promotion to Joyce.

Johnson sued under Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act. The case dragged through state and federal courts until it reached the supreme bench in Washington. There, late this March, Joyce won the decision by 6 to 3.

Discrimination against women in the construction industry and kindred trades has always been notorious; fewer than 2 percent of supervisors and 3 percent of workers are women. And thus the Joyce decision had the flavor of a double victory. It was achieved, however, by discriminating against another job candidate who had more seniority and had also scored higher on the qualifying test.

One of my neighbors who brought up the 6-3 decision in a conversation said, "My husband has been waiting for a promotion for five years and is ready to step into the place of a man who is retiring. What if some woman walks off with the job under some kind of affirmative action hocus pocus? I wonder if these gals who are so gung ho for ERA give any thought to the rights of men's wives and children?"

Long standing discrimination against women has not been confined to the muscle trades. There are entrenched, often unrealized, channels of male promotion in management, as women office workers know. But times are changing and if ballots were cast today a majority of men would probably vote for equal pay and equal rights for women.

Men really aren't male, chauvinist pigs; they've just become mired in tradition.

In the beginning, dominance was awarded to the male by common consent because of his greater size and strength. His availability for defense was never compromised by pregnancy, nursing or child care. It was his natural duty to fight, and lay down his life if necessary, to defend his mate against wild animals and human male intruders. No premarital agreement was needed and this anthropological obligation has prevailed up to the threshold of this century.

Since 1920 when women's suffrage came into the Constitution (and "obey" had finally been dropped from marriage vows) changes in the occupational roles of sexes have been sensational. They have occurred in this 20th century as a direct result of replacing human muscles with the power of machines. In bygone centuries men, and sometimes women, plowed the soil behind horses or oxen. Sweating males dug the earth with shovels, smashed rocks with sledges, attacked coal with pickaxes, hammered cherry-red horseshoes and laid rail tracks aided only by primitive hand tools.

Not long ago, women toiled from dawn to dark scrubbing clothes, pumping and hauling water, loading fuel into stoves, carrying out ashes, baking bread, canning fruits and vegetables, milking cows and ironing vast bedsheets with sad irons.

Today at the touch of a button one man can exert a hundred tons of pressure or move thousands of pounds simply by pressing a toe on a pedal. And today, emancipated woman can put her little foot down, flip a switch or press a button to release the forces of giants, indeed, muscle has been reduced below the level of child's play as office workers cross the room to use the electric pencil sharpener.

At home either of the partners may press a button causing the vacuum to work. Either may turn a dial and the laundry gets washed or the micromeat starts steaming or a head of cabbage is demolished in seconds to shreds for slaw. After dinner, fresh from their day of non-exertion in their respective jobs, the couple heads for the weights at the West Side Gym or the $199 Exerbike in the bedroom or the rower in the rumpus room to become aerobically exhausted.

Of the two, woman has been confronted with the most radical change because she has lost most of her occupation as a homemaker and surrendered much of her mothering to Kindercare and the schools. She has to work at a personal avocation or as a social volunteer to avoid the idleness induced by her army of machines. Best of all is the decision made by most women between the ages of 25 to 55: Have a job. Come up with a constructive answer to the $100,000 cost of a 3-bedroom house, a new van in the driveway or an arm and a leg for each child's college education.

Woman's surrender to the paycheck is by no means complete. Millions, unwilling to put in an eight-hour day, have found part-time employment from accommodating employers. Many firms not only offer part-time employment; they have attractive maternity leave plans. But soon after an infant has been launched into this world, mothers are back to work so that half of all preschool American children are in daycare.

In a situation as historically new as this it is not surprising that there are acts of real or seeming unfairness by employers. And certainly in the interests of fair play, the seeming injustices require inquiry and satisfaction.

Women should receive equal pay for work of equal quality and equal amount but I feel that passing laws and entrusting their enforcement to bureaucrats is a poor way of going about it. If an employer is being unfair, and it can be proved, the glare of white hot local publicity is far more effective than seeking justice from male lawyers who control our legislatures and courts.

There's just one more point, suggested by yet another neighbor. Women who seek justice under equal rights should remember that every remedy should consider the needs of the entire sisterhood. It should be fair to single women, married career women, mothers in the workforce, mothers at home, divorced women and widows.

MARCELLA BROWN, a resident at the United Methodist Retirement Home, enjoyed an Hawaiian luau with her granddaughter Amanda Gray. The luau was the culmination of a week's "cruise" which started Monday, March 30 with the Home's dining room decorated as a cruise ship. Residents pretended they had sailed from California, enjoying a week of activities such as deck games, a captain's dinner and dance, and a deck party in the main lounge. On Friday they arrived in Hawaii and celebrated with an appropriate meal including fruit salad and key lime pie and entertainment of Hawaiian dancing by Tammy Halfacre, who works in the Home's dietary department.

Methodist Home Residents Enjoy 'Cruise to Hawaii Week'

Residents of the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home were surprised when they arrived at dinner Monday, March 30 and found that they had cast off for a fantasy ocean cruise to Hawaii.

Captain Mike Clemer and First Mate Connie Amick welcomed residents aboard the S.S. Chelsea. Bon Voyage banners hung amidst international signal flags, ropes, fishnets, life jackets, lifeboats and other shipboard paraphernalia. Many of the windows had become portholes, sporting ocean scenes painted by the advanced art class at Beach Middle school. Each resident received a travel packet featuring the week's itinerary and special invitations to the big events.

Monday's Bon Voyage dinner was followed by shipboard tournaments in the game room where Bob Hollowell claimed top prize in shuffleboard and Mrs. Rose Hartley led in bowling.

On Tuesday there was swimming on the Aft Deck (Charles S. Cameron Pool). Tuesday evening featured a formal Captain's Dinner and Twilight Dance in the Main Ballroom. Special entertainment was provided by the Rev. and Mrs. Ron Smeenge of the Covenant church.

Wednesday afternoon cruise members enjoyed a game of Hawaiian Bingo with appropriate travel prizes—Dramamine for seasickness, footsoak for tired feet, play money for shopping, hairspray for windblown hair.

As the S.S. Chelsea drew nearer to its destination on Thursday residents gathered in the lounge to see travel movies on Hawaii, raising fond memories of former vacations for many and helping all to forget the snow on the ground outside. Thursday afternoon the festivities took the form of a deck party in the Main Lounge with Hawaiian music, friends to talk with, and special refreshments prepared by the kitchen and served by the crew.

On Friday the ship docked in beautiful Hawaii. Staff members sported grass skirts, Mumus, and Hawaiian shirts; while the dining rooms were decorated with palm trees, pineapples, seashells, and posters of Hawaii. A centerpiece of exotic Hawaiian flowers arrived courtesy of Garnett's flower shop in honor of the celebration. In the true spirit of Hawaii, residents and their guests joined in a luau featuring Hawaiian chicken, fruit salad, yams and Key Lime pie. Hand-made leis were presented to all and, of course, there was a Hawaiian dancer, Miss Tammy Halfacre, a Methodist Home employee who has been dancing since she was three.

Ensign Ross Davenport Participates in Missile Cruiser Commissioning

Navy Ensign Ross E. Davenport, son of Lambert D. and Betty M. Davenport of 7400 Wall Court, Dexter, recently participated in the commissioning of the guided missile cruiser USS Mobile Bay homeported in Mayport, Fla.

More than 10,000 people attended the ceremony, which marked the Navy's sixth Aegis cruiser. After the ceremonies the Mobile Bay commenced a year-long series of intensive training evolutions designed to prepare her for fleet operations.

A 1980 graduate of Dexter High school, and a 1984 graduate of Michigan State University, East Lansing, with a Bachelor of Arts degree, he joined the Navy in November 1985.

More than 328,000 apprentices received training, and more than 94,000 new apprentices entered training, during fiscal year 1985, according to the Labor Department's Annual Report for Fiscal Year 1985. The apprenticeship program is administered by the department's Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training.

Four Facts That Every Taxpayer Should Know About IRAs.

IRAs remain an excellent investment, even with the new tax law. For example, consider these important facts as April 15 approaches:

1 1986 IRAs Are Still Fully Deductible.
Until April 15, 1987, any working person, under age 70½, can contribute to an IRA... and deduct the full amount from their income for tax purposes. The maximum allowed is $2,000 for working individuals, and $250 for a non-working spouse.

2 Most Individuals Will Be Eligible for Full or Partial 1987 IRA Deductions.
If you are NOT covered by a retirement plan at work your IRA will still be fully deductible in the 1987 tax year. And even if you ARE covered by such a plan, you may still be able to deduct all or part of your IRA — depending on your earnings.

3 Everyone Will Continue to Benefit From Tax-Deferred Earnings.
Regardless of whether you can deduct the total amount of your IRA or not, you'll still be able to defer the interest you earn until your withdrawal. And that can represent a significant tax savings.

4 Citizens Trust Offers High Interest Rates and a Special IRA Bonus.
At Citizens Trust, you'll find that our interest rates are extremely competitive. Plus, we'll add $25 to your account when you deposit $2,000 or more (by transfer or rollover) to an IRA with a maturity of 36 months or longer by April 15, 1987.

So, as you can see, you have every reason for making Citizens Trust your IRA headquarters... now and in the future. Why not stop in today?

Any withdrawals made prior to age 59½ — except in the case of death or disability — are subject to tax penalties by the IRS. Time deposits may carry interest penalties in the case of early withdrawal.

Michigan Sesqui Notes

Henri de Tonty was the famous French explorer Rene Robert Cavalier de La Salle's "right-hand" man. Better known as "the man with the iron fist," because one of his hands was indeed a steel replica of a hand (he had lost his own while fighting in a war), he was a legendary figure who, according to local historians, discovered what is known today as South Haven.

LaSalle had sent Tonty on a search mission for some missing men in 1679 when a storm hit, and Tonty and his crew were beached on South Haven's shore. There, they survived on berries, found inland, getting a taste of the "Flavorbest" fruit that has made southwest Michigan the fruit belt of today.

Present-day South Haven is a resort town welcoming tourists to its beaches, maritime museum, downtown shops, and waterfront activities.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
No doubt you will receive numerous angry letters from a Chelsea citizenry incensed over Brian Hamilton's anti-drug testing remarks in his "Sports Notes" column of March 18. But, Brian, here is one reader who supports your position wholeheartedly.

Like you, I have watched nicotine addiction destroy the health, careers, and lives of family and friends. Worse, I have seen how alcoholism can destroy not only the drinker, but innocent people around the drinker as well. Like you, I know first-hand what America's truly serious drug problems are.

And I will go you one step further, Brian, by saying that I also know people who use drugs responsibly—in their homes, after hours, with full knowledge of the risks, and without putting anyone's lives or well-being at risk but their own.

Where I work, the same few who rant and rave about the evils of marijuana and cocaine will brag to me about how loaded they got the night before, and about how they could barely see the road on the drive home from the bar. But who is more dangerous, the young athlete quietly relaxing at home with a joint at the end of a long day, or the liquored-up business executive behind the wheel of a heavy-horsepower sedan at rush hour? As for those in the latter category, it's bad enough trying to talk sense with them after their daily three-martini lunches; do I also have to worry that they might be the instrument of my death when I take the road?

Brian, I always enjoy your column, but on March 18, it was particularly excellent. I especially appreciate your courage in taking an unpopular, but in my view correct, stand. Keep the good work coming! A fan,
L. G. Morrison.

Editor,
The Board of Directors of the Waterloo Historical Society wishes to express its great appreciation to the staff of The Chelsea Standard and The Dexter Leader for their excellent coverage of news concerning the Waterloo Farm Museum and the Dewey School during 1986.

Both the Farm Museum and Dewey School set new attendance records, for both regular tours and for special events like Pioneer Day and the Christmas Open House. The fine coverage given museum events by The Standard and The Leader contributed greatly to our highly successful year.

Once Again, Thank you.

Lyndon Twp. Plans Road Work, Raises Go to All But Supervisor

In 1987 Lyndon township will spend more than three times the amount spent in 1986 on road repairs.

The additional expenditures are possible due to a larger cash surplus balance, according to township clerk Linda Wade.

Approximately 15 township residents attended Saturday's annual meeting in which road repairs and other topics were discussed.

Road repairs and improvements will account for $50,000 in 1987, up from $15,000 in 1986. Washtenaw County Road Commission will contribute another $12,500 toward the improvements.

Various projects are slated for Roe Rd., Beeman Rd., Leeke Rd., Boyce Rd., Goodband Rd., Bartell Rd., and North Lake Rd.

Roe and Beeman Rds. are scheduled for grading, ditch work, gravel application and dust control work.

On Leeke Rd. a culvert will be replaced and a bank will be cut back for better motorist vision.

Boyce Rd. will have a bank cut for better vision.

Goodband, Bartell and North Lake Rds. are all scheduled for gravel applications.

In addition, the township will try to apply four brine coats to the roads for dust control four times rather than three.

Salaries were increased for all township officials except Supervisor John Francis. His salary will remain at $4,500.

Raises went to assessor Shelley Sample, from $5,500 to $6,500; treasurer Janis Knieper's raise was from $6,050 to $6,655; Wade will earn $7,315, up from $6,650; and George Coash, zoning inspector, will earn $1,800 plus $15 per permit, up from $1,550 and $10 per permit.

A total budget of $246,649.95 was proposed for this year, up from $201,560.19 the previous year. It will have to be approved at the township's next regular meeting Tuesday, April 21.

Fire protection, paid for on a charge-back basis by Chelsea Fire Department, was down nearly $10,000. Expenditures are $25,836.19, down from $35,111.95.

Other major budget items include $3,000 for the Chelsea 14th district courthouse renovation project; $5,000 for improvements to Lyndon Town Hall; and $1,800 to Chelsea Recreation Council.

Lyndon, like every other township, lost its Federal Revenue Sharing funds this year. That will mean a loss of approximately $10,000, Wade said. Last year the township actually received $7,790.90. That money previously was used for the Chelsea Recreation Council, McKune Memorial Library and road repairs.

Other business at the meeting included discussion about legally abandoning a portion of Mester Rd., which is basically a field and is not maintained by the county road commission. Wade said a couple of residents are interested in building on the land. It will be a topic of discussion at the next township meeting.

Also, there was some discussion about joining a state Flood Insurance Program.

Lima Officials Get Four Percent Raises

Lima township officials voted themselves four percent annual pay raises at their annual meeting on Saturday, March 28.

Supervisor/assessor Leila Bauer will receive $11,900. The supervisor's portion is $7,500 and the assessor's portion is $4,400.

Clerk Arlene Bareis and Treasurer Betty Messman will each receive $8,400 in 1987.

A total budget of $253,853 for 1987 was proposed, up from $239,269 last year. The budget will have to be approved at the next regular township meeting.

Fire protection was the major budget item, accounting for $58,000, and an additional $20,000 going to a truck fund. Lima township is served by both the Chelsea Fire Department and Dexter Area Fire Department.

The township also plans to spend $43,000 on road maintenance, including $11,000 to rebuild a bridge on Dancer Rd. In addition, Trinkle Rd. between Fletcher and Freer Rds. will be graded and resurfaced using limestone. That project is projected to cost $18,000. The remaining $14,000 will be spent on repairing culverts and dust control.

The township has lost about $9,000 in Federal Revenue Sharing funds, according to Bareis. That money has always been used for road projects.

About 58,100 workers were certified as eligible to receive benefits under the Trade Adjustment Assistance Act, according to the Labor Department's Annual Report for Fiscal Year 1986. Benefits to workers who have been dislocated or displaced include training, counseling, job search and relocation payments.

Marcus Pletcher Accepted to Naval Academy in Annapolis

Chelsea High school senior Marcus Pletcher will become Plebe Pletcher July 1 when he reports to a pre-school boot camp at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. It will mark the beginning of an eight-year commitment to the armed forces.

Pletcher, who was nominated for the 4,500-student Naval Academy by U.S. Congressman Carl Pursell, learned of his acceptance last week. He's also waiting to hear from the United States Air Force Academy, to which he was nominated by U.S. Senator Carl Levin. However, Pletcher said the Naval Academy was his first choice all along.

"I was interested in both the physical and mental challenge," Pletcher said.

"It will be difficult." Pletcher will spend this summer working his body before school starts in late August. When school starts he'll "get no respect," as Rodney Dangerfield might say. As a plebe, he'll "be treated like dirt," in his own words, part of a process of learning respect for superiors, gaining a little seniority, and proving himself.

Pletcher became the second CHS student in the last two years to be accepted by a service academy. Last summer Jill Schaffner entered the United States Military Academy at West Point.

Pletcher has talked to Schaffner during her few breaks about her experiences at West Point, which he said made him even more convinced to attend the Naval Academy if given the opportunity.

MARCUS PLETCHER

"She really loves it," Pletcher said.

The acceptance marked the end of a long process that began in the spring of his junior year when high school counselor Chris Dimanin first discussed the possibility with him. He had to secure the nominations from the congressmen, send in applications, take physical exams and subject himself to rigorous interviews by committees set up by Pursell and Levin.

"They asked a lot of questions about how much I wanted to go into the armed services," Pletcher said.

"They asked me what I would do if I was told to blow up a civilian city with women and children in it. They said 'we've interviewed 500 people, why should we pick you?'"

Pletcher said his family and friends have been supportive of his decision, although he admitted that his older brother, David, was less than enthusiastic.

Pletcher, who will be part of a freshman class of 1,375, plans to study electrical engineering. He said he'd like to learn to fly but his vision will only allow him to be a navigator.

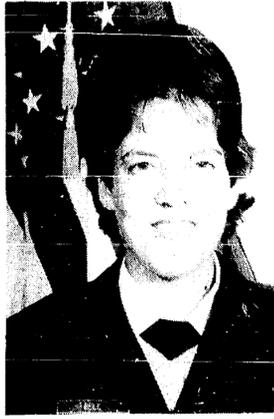

He'll also be required to participate in sports, but he doubts he'll be big enough for the football team. He played linebacker for Chelsea last fall. He'll be required to learn sailing as well.

After his four years at the academy, Pletcher will have a four-year service obligation. That could be stretched to six if he attends flight school.

In addition to playing football, Pletcher is tri-captain of this year's track team, and is vice-president of both the Key Club and the Chelsea chapter of the National Honor Society.

Pletcher's other college acceptances included Michigan State University and the University of Michigan. He also applied to Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

He is the son of David and Valeta Pletcher, 991 Ridge Rd. His brother, Dan, is a CHS junior. He also has two sisters, Diana, in California, and Valisa, in Detroit. Brother David is also in California.

4-H Members Participate In Culinary Arts Show

Several Washtenaw county 4-H members were among nearly 100 youths to participate in the 10th annual Salon of Culinary Arts March 22 at Michigan State University.

Jennifer Jaworski of Dexter demonstrated her culinary expertise by baking and exhibiting quick breads, yeast breads or rolls. The 4-H'ers also were required to bring copies of their recipes and create educational posters that explained how to use or store the products, outlined their nutritional value or highlighted a unique aspect of their items.

This event also involves MSU students and high school vocational program participants, as well as apprentice and professional chefs.

The Washtenaw county members' entries were judged by a panel of MSU food and nutrition experts and rated according to their quality, novelty and creativity. All members received ribbons for their participation.

Purpose of the culinary arts show is to bring chefs and other food service professionals together to share ideas, demonstrate new ways to prepare and serve food, and meet others in their fields.

For more information about other 4-H food and nutrition activities, contact the Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service office, or call 973-9510.

Ralph Brier Receives WISC Service Award

Ralph Brier, Chelsea School District transportation supervisor, has received the Washtenaw Intermediate School District's Service Award. He was honored for his "co-operative attitude and ability to work with other school districts in solving transportation problems."

Brier has worked for the Chelsea schools for the last 18 years, the first year as a bus driver and the rest of the time as supervisor of the transportation department. Brier oversees the driving and service of 25 regular school buses and five special education buses.

Besides transporting students from the country to the regular Chelsea schools, Brier's department is responsible for taking students to consortium programs which meet in other districts such as buildings and trades or nursing, and to special education programs at 11 locations. Brier has worked out schedules with other school districts to give the best service with the least duplication. For instance, if a Chelsea bus is transporting students to a special education program in Ann Arbor, it can pick up students in Dexter, thus saving the Dexter school district a trip. Or the Chelsea children can change buses in Dexter, thus relieving the Chelsea bus of some road time.

Brier, who dislikes tooting his own horn, said "I guess I did a little more than necessary because I felt it was worthwhile." Assistant superintendent Fred Mills puts it more strongly, saying, "Ralph has played a leadership role in co-operative scheduling. He has done an excellent job in co-ordinating with other school districts in Washtenaw county."

Brier, along with five other individuals and one organization, was honored at the WISC recognition dinner on March 25 in High Point's cafeteria on Wagner Rd. in Ann Arbor.

Brier is retiring on June 30. After living at North Lake for 20 years, he plans to move to the "north country" but will still maintain his Chelsea residence.

Chamber Gives Money to DDA To Develop a Financial Plan

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce presented a check for $1,600 to the Downtown Development Authority on Monday.

Bill Nilan, president of the chamber, presented the money to Dr. Ron Biedron, DDA chairman.

The check will be used to hire the services of Chase-Mogdis, Inc., of Ann Arbor to produce and implement a financial plan for Chelsea.

Franz Mogdis is a financial advisor who has helped both Ann Arbor and Milan develop financing plans for their community improvements.

Work is scheduled to begin immediately.

Cheddar cheese is named for the village of Cheddar in Somerset, England where it was first made. It is also called American cheese because it was the first cheese made in America. Cheddar, made from sweet, whole cow's milk is creamy white to yellow in color and perfectly complements snack items, meats, vegetables, fruits and wine.

Free Trees Offered for Membership

The National Arbor Day Foundation is giving 10 free Colorado Blue Spruce trees to everyone who becomes a Foundation member during April, 1987.

The free trees are part of the non-profit Foundation's effort to encourage tree planting for conservation and beautification throughout America.

"Colorado Blue Spruces were selected for this campaign because of their many uses in the home landscape," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said. "They lend beauty to their surroundings with their silver blue-green color and compact conical shape. They may be used as individual ornaments, an energy-saving windbreak, a privacy screen, or as living Christmas trees."

The 10 free Colorado Blue Spruces will be shipped postpaid in April or May with enclosed planting instructions. The six- to 12-inch trees are guaranteed to grow, or they will be replaced free of charge. The Foundation will give the 10 free trees to each new member contributing $10 during April.

80 percent of the money will be used to support local mental retardation projects such as the St. Louis School for Exceptional Boys, Chelsea Special Education Program and Special Olympics. The remaining 20 percent will be used throughout Michigan to support similar projects.

Blue Lake Camp Taps Weber, Gourley For European Tour

Chelsea High school senior Norman Weber will tour Europe this summer as part of the Blue Lake 1987 International Orchestra. He will be part of the string bass section.

In addition, Bill Gourley, director of bands at Chelsea High, will direct the Blue Lake 1987 Symphonic Band. He will join William J. Donahue of Ferris State College, who will lead the choir, and Valerie Palmieri, of Bloomfield Hills Schools, who will conduct the symphony orchestra.

Last year's exchange program was cancelled as a result of terrorist activity in Europe, although European and Asian musicians were hosted in Michigan.

Weber will join 300 young musicians for a month-long tour in June and July of Austria, Belgium, Holland, France, Switzerland, Luxembourg and West Germany. Three groups will make the tour, a symphonic band, orchestra and choir.

"Postponing last year's European tours was the toughest decision our Board of Directors has been asked to make since Blue Lake began in 1968," said Blue Lake President Fritz Stansell.

"Looking back, I believe it was the right thing to do, given the atmosphere at the time."

Blue Lake International Exchange Program began in 1970 and since then nearly 4,000 American high school singers and musicians have toured Europe.

Weber is the son of Paul and Joanne Weber, 1990 Ivey Rd.

HONORED MUSICIAN: Norman Weber, a senior at Chelsea High school, will be one of 300 musicians to tour Europe in June and July with the Blue Lake 1987 International Orchestra. Norman will be a member of the string bass section.

Teething Babys Require Comfort and Patience!

Q: What can I do to help my baby through a teething period?

A: When teeth are getting ready to break through, the gum tissue usually becomes tender and swollen, excess drooling probably will occur and the baby may become irritable and restless.

As teeth are attempting to erupt, you may notice a slight fever. Although teething is an unlikely cause of illness, parents often associate cold symptoms and diarrhea with the eruption of teeth. Naturally, teething can compound the discomfort during a cold or intestinal disorder.

To help your baby through a teething period you can rub the gums with a clean teething ring or cold spoon. When infants are cutting teeth, they seem to find natural relief from sore gums by "gumming" anything available so be sure that there are no toxic substances like lead-based paints on any objects within reach of the baby. Also, make sure any object you give the baby cannot break and cause choking.

Teething is a natural process which soon ends. When the tooth emerges, the symptoms vanish.

Girls Track Team Aims For Another SEC Title

Once again the strength of Chelsea's girls track team lies in its distance runners. That should come as no surprise since the cross country team finished second in the state last fall.

However, the Bulldogs will also feature some talented young sprinters, who could ultimately make the difference between a good year and a great one.

Coach Bill Bainton has a young, but experienced, team back this season as the Bulldogs look to repeat as Southeastern Conference champions.

32 girls are out for the squad, including 18 letter winners and seven seniors.

"We should be right up there with Lincoln," Bainton said.

"I think the team that wins our dual meet will have a leg up on winning the conference. Saline, Dexter and Milan should be real close."

The distance runners are led by senior co-captains Melanie Flanigan and Sallie Wilson. Juniors Kasey Anderson and Jennifer Rossi will also be key runners. Rossi, in particular, has "looked outstanding" in the early practices, Bainton said.

Other distance runners who could come to the forefront include sophomores Helen and Suzanne Cooper, junior Ann Brosnan and freshmen Vicki Bullock, Sarah Grau and Kim Roberts.

"We could have as good a 3200 relay as we've ever had," Bainton said. Last year Chelsea had the state champs in the event.

Middle distance events (200 to 800 meters) will be run by senior Chris Neuman, sophomores Debi Koenn and Calisa Tucker, and freshman Anne Steffenson. Koenn, Bainton said, has had a good preseason and "looks good."

Sophomore Danica Disbro and junior Tami Harris are the Bulldogs' top sprinters. Disbro also specializes in the 300 hurdles.

Sophomore Robin Krichbaum, junior Stephanie Harms and freshmen Christy Koch and Tiffany Moore are all expected to contribute in the sprints.

Eddie Harook, school record holder in the long jump at 16' 2", returns to anchor that event. She's also decided to try the 100 hurdles.

Senior Cris Zerkel and junior Dena Stevens are Chelsea's top returning performers in the discus and shot put. Freshmen Moore, Tammy Browning and Marti Daggett are also working out in the field events.

Sophomore Sarah Schaeffer is about the only experienced Bulldog high jumper. Henrietta Munck, an exchange student from Denmark, is also trying the event.

"We'll take any help we can get," Bainton said of the high jump.

Other girls out for the team include junior sprinters Michelle Cigan and Jennifer Schweiger, sophomore distance runners Jennifer Harms and Leslie Manning, sophomore hurdler and high jumper Erin Sweet, freshman hurdlers Sheila Haab and Debbie Webb, freshmen sprinters Cathy Broderick and Chris Sawicki, and freshman distance runners Sara Van Gunst and Stephanie Wagner.

"The kids are working hard and practices have been going real well," Bainton said.

"And I think the kids are aware of what it will take to repeat as SEC champs and that everyone will be aiming at us."

SHOULD BE ANOTHER GOOD SEASON for the Chelsea girls track team, as distance running will be a key. Out for a run last week were, from left, Ann Brosnan, Kim Roberts and, Stephanie Wagner.

Wilson, Weber Playing at Siena

Two former Chelsea High school softball players are on the roster at Siena Heights College this spring.

Sophomore Karen Weber and junior Karen Wilson are hoping to help the Saints improve on a 15-10 record.

Weber plays second base and hits second in the order. Although she hit only .188 last season, she led the team in scoring with 23 runs and has excellent bat control, according to her coach, Al Sandifer.

Weber also led the team in walks. Wilson should see time at first base for the Saints.

Holmes Letters on NMU Swim Team

Former Chelsea High school swimmer Amanda Holmes, earned her first varsity letter at Northern Michigan University this winter.

Holmes is a freshman at the school. In order to win a letter, an athlete must participate in a minimum of half of the team's games or place in a national competition.

In 1981, the average disabled woman was not employed, nor was she looking for work, and her total 1980 annual income was less than $3,500. The average age for a work-disabled woman was 51; for a non-disabled woman it was 33, according to a fact sheet on working women published by the Women's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor.

TRACK CO-CAPTAINS for the 1987 season are distance runners Melanie Flanigan, left, and Sallie Wilson. Once again the Bulldogs should challenge for the Southeastern Conference championship.

Senior Leadership Called Key to Boys Track Team

New boys track coach Ted Wilson says the team "will probably go as far as our senior leadership takes us."

Although Wilson has had precious little time to work with the team, he is admittedly optimistic about the Bulldogs' chances in the Southeastern Conference.

He has 13 seniors back, including tri-captains Lee Riemenschneider, Curtis Heard and Marcus Pletcher, several good underclassmen and says the team is four or five deep in every event.

Part of the reason for Wilson's optimism is in the field events, where the Bulldogs have had a tough time scoring in recent years.

Mike Westhoven, who was a first-year sensation in the pole vault last year by jumping 13', will likely be first or second in every dual meet. He'll also probably place in the high jump.

Senior Doug Webb will probably be first or second in the discus in most meets, as he's capable of throwing 160' or better.

Senior Rob McDowell is the team's best shot put thrower and he's a likely place winner. Freshman Lucky Beeman has hit 41' and still has beginner's form.

"If he gets his form down, he goes 45' easy," Wilson says.

In the long jump, Joe Koszegi and Raffiel Castillo should also be able to place. Castillo, a beginner, has hit 16' in practice.

"In most circumstances we should be able to come out even after the field events," Wilson said.

"And that should make a big difference."

Like the girls team, distance and middle distance running will be the strong point of the team.

Junior John Cattell and sophomore Paul Hedding were two of the best 1,600 meter runners in the league last season. They should only be better. Pushing them will be David Kvarnberg and Holden Harris. Matt

Riemenschneider and Brady Murphy are also starting to come on strong, Wilson said.

The 3,200 run will feature Cattell, Hedding, Kvarnberg and Tucker Lee. Hedding, Harris and Pat Cheng should be tough in the 800 meter.

Riemenschneider will be the top 400 meter runner and is capable of becoming the first Bulldog to break :50. Casey Murphy, "sort of our utility runner, he'll be all over the place," according to Wilson, will also be in the event, with Castillo.

The 1,600 relay is wide open at this point, with Riemenschneider anchoring.

Murphy, Cheng, Riemenschneider and Hedding, and occasionally Kvarnberg, will likely be the first 800 meter relay team.

Pletcher, Westhoven and Webb will be the Bulldogs' hope in the high hurdles.

Murphy is the top 300 meter hurdler.

Heard is easily the team's leading sprinter although he's somewhat hobbled by shin splints, a recurring problem.

Heard will look to bring Chelsea points in the 100 and 200 meter events. McDowell and Dave Freitas will also give the Dogs some depth in the sprints.

Freitas, McDowell, Heard and a yet-to-be-chosen will be Chelsea's first team in the 400 meter relay.

Wilson picks Lincoln and Pinckney as the teams to beat in the Southeastern Conference, although he expects Chelsea to be in the thick of the race.

"I'm already starting to feel the cohesiveness of this team," Wilson said.

Outdoor Report

From DNR District Office in Jackson.

Wildlife . . .

The Jackson County Sichuan pheasants are being monitored daily for movement and possible mortality. With any new release of animals, mortality is highest during the first two weeks. Thirteen of the 30 radio-collared birds have died between 3-20 and 3-30-87. As the birds select a home territory and cease their searching movements, mortality is expected to drop.

On 3-30-87, biologists observed two roosters posturing and "fighting." One was a 3/4 Sichuan male, the other an existing wild ringneck. The ringneck seemed to dominate the smaller 3/4 Sichuan bird and was judged the winner by a unanimous decision. Their match was interrupted by a hungry red-tailed hawk. Both head-to-head for heavy cover and the red-tail flew off to look for an easier meal.

The radio-collared birds are primarily females. Two birds have moved slightly over one mile north of the original release site.

Fisheries . . .

With the arrival of warm, springlike weather, everyone's interest turns to fishing. Therefore, to avoid confusion now is a good time to list the designated trout streams in this nine-county district.

Remember—at least for this year all non-trout streams will remain open year around for the taking of trout. Only designated trout streams are closed to all fishing except for the period of April 25-Sept. 30. Designated trout streams are also closed to all spearing.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

This is a somewhat abbreviated version of Sports Notes since no one is in town to read it anyhow.

Rumors are flying at Chelsea High school about possible coaching changes next year. There could be some interesting twists in 1987-88. Sorry to see social studies teacher Jim Winter leave the coaching ranks. He was one of the wittiest guys on the staff and never minced words about his team's performance.

Winter's departure has helped fuel some of the coaching speculation, although I don't expect heated competition for his job, the girls head basketball position.

English teacher Paul Terpstra, if he's interested, seems to be a logical candidate. He's shown he can coach at the JV level. He'll also insist his girls use good grammar on the court, always a plus when trying to make an impression on the road.

Maybe forensics coach Bill Coelius would be interested. That way the girls could first learn how to write it then how to present it.

If you're interested in the job, contact Athletic Director Larry Reed.

The coaching situation at the high school could be influenced by the student population at CHS, which will drop when this senior class graduates. That could mean teaching staff changes.

Anyone interested in becoming a head football coach? Contact Dave Diles at Dexter High school. Strong spine absolutely necessary. Great potential for a rewarding experience. Must look pretty in pink.

If it were my job to locate a coach, I'd take a look at the assistant coaches at Chelsea High. There are a number worthy head coaching candidates.

By the same token, if I were an assistant coach at Chelsea, I'd say "no thanks, I like it here."

It also looks like there's going to be a head basketball job open at Pinckney High school, since D.J. Lincoln is having his legal problems. Perhaps that could draw someone from this community. There would be the added incentive of a lot of good, young talent at the school.

The Dexter and Pinckney jobs might look good to someone from Chelsea because it wouldn't require a move.

Looks like the CHS softball team left Michigan for Gatlinburg, Tenn., just in time to do a little cross country skiing. Hope the weather is better for the baseball team in Venice, Fla. The girls start play this Saturday in Webberville.

Of all seasons to coach in, spring could be the worst, or best, depending on your point of view.

It's only five weeks long and by the time the real, good weather starts, you can hang it up and go play golf. On the other hand, you can just about forget your family life for April and May. The teams have to pack so many games into their schedules. I don't know where the coaches get their stamina.

Congratulations to basketball Rahn Rosentreter for being named region coach of the year by the Ann Arbor News. He did a fine job.

Also, congratulations to forward Mark Bareis for making the Detroit Free Press sixth team all-state. He was the only player in the Southeastern Conference to make one of the top six teams.

I have to agree with Rosentreter. Bareis hasn't reached his potential.

Wilson Is Track Coach, Has A Little Extra Help

Long-time village resident Ted Wilson, father of girls track co-captain Sallie Wilson, is the new boys head track coach this season. Wilson has also snagged two of his General Motors Hydramatic Plant co-workers to help him out. But they're not just three guys looking for something to occupy their time. Wilson, who grew up at North Lake, is a 1960 graduate of Chelsea High school, where he was a quarterback on a conference winning football team, a guard on the basketball team and a four-year baseball letterman. He ran track for a year at Eastern Michigan University. In 1974 he coached the Ann Arbor Pioneer girls track team. He's also been a track official since 1962. Wilson finished up at EMU in 1972. Joining Wilson are Ypsilanti residents Dave Williams and Dave Smith. Williams, a paid assistant, was the 1976 captain of the University of Michigan track team, where he was an All-American on the mile relay team. He also ran the 400, 600 and 800 meter events. Williams, 33, earned an education degree but went to work in production at Hydramatic. He's taking some refresher education courses. He's a graduate of Muskegon High school. Smith, 35, is a graduate of Ypsilanti High school and Eastern Michigan University. He was a sprinter and at Ypsilanti high competed in the state meet. Before moving to Ypsilanti, he ran in both New Jersey and Italy, being the son of a service man. He also ran his freshman year at EMU. Smith studied geology at EMU and went to work as a plant metallurgist at Hydramatic. His time with the Chelsea team is all volunteer.

Nature Study Events Slated at Hudson Mills

Two nature events will be held at the Outdoor Activity Center Building of Hudson Mills Metropark near Ann Arbor/Dexter. "Birding for Beginners," a 1 1/2-hour introduction to birding for the new bird-watcher, will be held on Saturday, April 11 at 10 a.m. Bring binoculars, if available. "Lookout for Bluebirds," an early on-site look for bluebirds and discussion, will be held on Sunday, April 12 at 1 p.m.

Seamanship Course Offered By Coast Guard Auxiliary

United States Coast Guard Auxiliary, Flotilla 17-03, will be offering its Boating Skills and Seamanship Course at Saline High school beginning Wednesday, April 22. The eight-week course is designed for both current and prospective powerboat owners. Topics covered include boating terminology, safety afloat, boat handling, weather, engines; legal requirements, rules of the road, navigation, marlinspike seamanship (ropes, knots, anchoring, etc.), radios and aids to navigation. The course fee is $16 which includes a textbook, chart and other materials. Family participation is encouraged with additional family members paying only $8 if the textbook is shared. Classes will be conducted in the cafeteria from 7 to 10 p.m. on Wednesday evenings. Certificates will be awarded for successful completion. Interested persons may contact the Saline Adult Education Office at 429-9016, or Dan Kolhagen at 429-9235 evenings.

Jim Winter Resigns Post As Girls Basketball Head Coach

Jim Winter, long-time coach of the Chelsea High school girls varsity basketball team, has resigned his position. Winter is a social studies teacher at Chelsea High school. The last two seasons had been tough ones for the Bulldogs, as they finished in last place both seasons. Winter took over the varsity team in 1978 and guided the Bulldogs to Southeastern Conference championships in 1980 and 1984, Chelsea's only titles. He has also coached the Chelsea freshman boys team. "It's probably a combination of every reason any coach ever decided to hang it up," Winter said. "I've told the kids, if it's not fun, don't do it. I decided to take my own advice."

Winter is working on an advanced degree at Eastern Michigan University and is active in his church. "I also need more time for teaching," he said. Winter officially resigned March 20. Athletic Director Larry Reed said the position would be posted internally.

BOY IT'S COLD OUT HERE: Chelsea boys track team wasn't too concerned about staying within the lines last week during this part of practice, as temperatures were in the 30s. The boys, however, showed their dedication to the sport as many of their teammates had already left for spring vacation.

Frog Walk Set At Dahlem Center

Spring peepers as well as chorus, wood, and leopard frogs will entertain participants in the Frog Walk scheduled for 2 p.m. on Sunday, April 12, at the Dahlem Environmental Education Center. Each year peeps, chuckles and other "voices" emanating from ponds, puddles and marshes tell us of the arrival of Spring. This is your chance to cure (or maybe catch) Spring Fever and also get acquainted with some common amphibian music-makers. After meeting the members of the web-footed chorus and learning their calls, participants will join the staff for a hike to the Center's ponding areas where the annual Spring concert should be in full swing. To participate, don a comfy pair of walking shoes and meet the naturalist at the Center's Visitor Building, located at 7117 S. Jackson Rd. Dahlem Center members are admitted free. Non-members are invited to participate for a nominal program fee ($1.50 for adults/$1 for students).

Walleye Season Opens April 25

April 25 is the opening day for fishing walleye, sauger, northern pike and muskellunge on the Saginaw River. Recent changes in the sportfishing seasons have caused some confusion among anglers, according to members of the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) Fisheries Division staff. Anyone with questions may contact the DNR Law Enforcement Division, (517) 373-1230.

One in every 9 (10.8 percent) employed disabled women were self-employed, compared with just over 1 in every 20 working women with no disabilities, according to a fact sheet on working women published by the Women's Bureau of the U. Easter Season At St. Barnabas

The message of the Easter Season is one of sacrifice, love and salvation for all.

- Sacrifice for us by God who cares so deeply that He gave His Son to bear our sins even to the death of the cross.
- Love so deep that Christ willingly died that we might live.
- Salvation for us in our sins being forgiven and in the promise of life eternal in the Risen Lord.

It is a very special Season. Accept God's great gifts for you, gifts unearned yet freely given.
COME AND WORSHIP THIS SEASON. COME AND GREET THE LORD OF YOUR LIFE. COME HOME TO CHURCH.

CARD OF THANKS

I have been overwhelmed at the outpouring of generosity and concern from the people of this community in response to my husband's death. It will be many weeks before I can personally thank all those who supported me, but my children and I are strengthened by that support. I'm especially grateful to the Chelsea Ministerial Fellowship, staff and teachers of the Chelsea Schools, and St. Louis School, Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home, and my own parish, St. Mary's. I feel so grateful to be among you. Kathleen Cesarz.

Girl Scout Leaders Attend Training Session

Girl Scout leaders from the Western Washtenaw area of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council hosted an adult training week-end at Camp Linden on March 27, 28, and 29. Camp Linden is south of Fenton.

Organizers, who came from Chelsea, Dexter, Manchester, and Saline, spent over a year planning the camping week-end. Attending the event were 125 scout leaders from southeast Michigan, along with 15 from the host area.

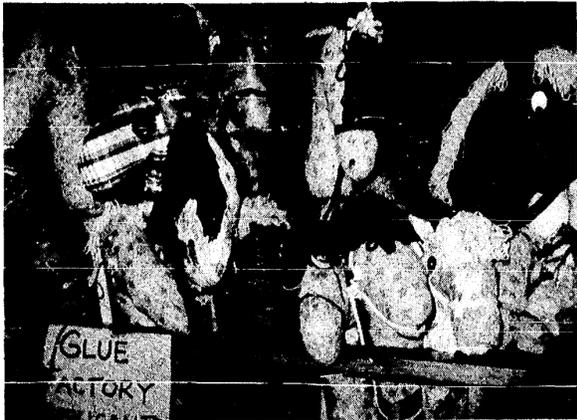

The training sessions were led by professionals from the Girl Scout Council. Craft classes were led by the organizers, including glass etching by Lois Kapp of Chelsea, wheat weaving by Annette Anderson of Dexter, rag baskets by Judy Osinski of Chelsea, and fabric picture frames by Bev Stowe of Chelsea.

The viftles committee, led by Noel Laraway, kept busy all week-end preparing food for 140 women.

The theme of the week-end was "The Wild West." Participants dressed in western duds and made stick horses. A rodeo was held, with Lee Tremper, Chelsea troop service director, officiating. The Western Washtenaw contingent acted as sheriffs, arresting anyone not riding their horse.

Another fun event was the sparkle party held one evening. The whole group went outside and were handed WinterMint Lifesavers. When they chewed them with their mouths open, they discovered that the lifesavers glowed in the dark.

At the end of the week-end, one woman summed up scouting saying it was "a chance to share other people's children and to stay young at heart."

WILD WEST WEEK-END: Western Washtenaw girl scout leaders hosted a "wild West Week-end" for 125 other leaders from southeast Michigan. In addition to training sessions and craft lessons, they had time for fun, including a rodeo where they each made a hobby horse. Said one participant, "I had to reach 37 before I got my first stick horse."

It could be the best idea from the University since the block-M.

What an idea! Here's a health maintenance organization available to you that comes directly from The University of Michigan.

In fact, it's an HMO which draws together respected local physicians and community hospitals with the world-renowned University of Michigan Medical Center.

It's called M-CARE, and it's a total program of health care committed to keeping you and your whole family healthy. Its benefits begin with routine care such as check-ups, lab tests, and office visits and extend to hospitalization. And include emergency services, not just around here, but anywhere in the world.

M-CARE also gives you the choice of your own personal physician for routine care. You're free to choose from many participating physicians in family practice, internal medicine, obstetrics/gynecology, and pediatrics.

What's more, this HMO gives you access to the world-renowned University of Michigan Medical Center, should you ever need it. And offers six other neighborhood health centers, to make health care convenient for you.

Yes, this is a great idea all right — except that it's missing one very important detail: you.

Ask your employer to include M-CARE among your health care options. Ask for the HMO from The University of Michigan.

Every dog has its day. And winter is the time of Sirius, the "Dog Star." According to Ranger Rick magazine, Sirius is one of the stars closest to Earth, making it the brightest in the winter sky. It's also hotter and bigger than any of the other close stars. Sirius is part of the constellation called the "Big Dog," or Canis Major. Both are visible from November until mid-May.

CELEBRATING 40 YEARS of publishing The Chelsea Standard are Walter and Helen May Leonard, left, who were surprised by a group from the Chelsea School District who presented this huge cake. Making the presentation is North school principal Bill Wescott, flanked by Beach Middle school principal Darcy Stielstra.

HERE IT IS! says Dr. Henry DeYoung, who looked through the Leonard's first edition of The Chelsea Standard for news about the Chelsea School District. That newspaper was published the first week of April, 1947. DeYoung was part of a group from the school district who dropped by to help the Leonards celebrate their 40th anniversary of publishing The Standard.

Michigan Sesqui Notes

On March 19, 1925, the State Senate passed a law that for the first time required anglers to purchase licenses to fish in Michigan. In 1986 alone, a total of 1,217,436 licenses were sold to both residents and non-residents of Michigan. With nearly 40,000 square miles of Great Lakes water, 11,000 inland lakes and 36,000 miles of rivers and streams, Michigan has 149 types of native fish. About 25 are considered game fish by anglers. Various trout, salmon, bass, pike, walleye, catfish, bluegill, and perch are among the most popular.

For details on Michigan's fish and how to catch them, contact the Michigan Travel Bureau at 1-800-5432/YES or 1-800-722-8191 (TDD) for a packet of fishing information.

With 3,200 miles of shoreline, 11,000 inland lakes and 36,000 miles of river and streams, Michigan has long been a water wonderland. On Feb. 18, 1893, the Detroit Boat Club, the first of its kind in the nation, was founded. In 1965 Michigan led the nation with 722,793 boat registrations. About 239,000 people went charter fishing in that same year and the number is growing each year. The Michigan Travel Bureau is now offering a new 1987 charterboat directory. For a list of charter services and information on various fish types, contact the Michigan Travel Bureau at 1-800-5432-YES for the Michigan Charterbook.

Leonards Mark 40th Year As Standard Publishers

Tell Them You Read It In The Standard

"Mr. and Mrs. Leonard are a capable young couple with the energy that is required to continue the business where we leave off, and to direct the expansion which will be required to keep abreast with the progress which is destined to become a part of Chelsea's future. Our best wishes go to them for a happy and prosperous business career in their new endeavor."

So went the introduction of Walter P. and Helen May Leonard to the Chelsea community 40 years and one week ago in the March 25, 1947 edition of The Chelsea Standard. It was part of a farewell letter written by Mr. and Mrs. M. W. McClure in their last edition as publishers, positions they had held for 26 years. The Leonards became official publishers of the paper on April 1.

The Leonards, with a lot of help from the Chelsea community, celebrated their 40th business anniversary exactly when and where you might expect—on Thursday, the day after publication day, in the office as they were planning this edition of The Standard.

Many friends sent flowers and a contingent from the Chelsea School District, headed by Superintendent Ray Van Meer, brought a cake big enough to last three days.

The Leonards took over the paper when it was located at 108 E. Middle St., now the home of The Loft. In 1960 they moved the paper to the Welfare Building, where it is still located.

Although Walter had worked for the Tabor, Ia. Beacon and the Barrington, Ill. Review, two weekly newspapers, before attending the University of Michigan, the couple did not begin married life with the idea of publishing a newspaper.

When The Standard came up for sale, Walter was fresh out of the service and was near receiving a degree in aeronautical engineering from U. of M. While a student he was also a production-worker at The Michigan Daily.

Helen May, with a U-M degree in art, had taught art in Sparta and Ferndale before joining Physicists Research Co. in Ann Arbor as a commercial artist.

Those first few weeks had the Leonards working virtually around the clock and may have had them longing for their college days. The lead story in their first edition was the burning of Central Fibre Products, now the site of Chelsea Industries. It was one of the biggest stories of 1947.

Walter has said that if he hadn't been "a production man," they might never have gotten that first edition on the presses.

Since then, however, Walter and Helen May have dedicated their lives to chronicling the weekly events of Chelsea and Dexter (they bought The Dexter Leader in 1955).

They have witnessed the progress the McClures spoke of, including the establishment of the Chrysler Proving Grounds, which they consider probably the most important story of the last 40 years.

They have also emphasized a positive approach to covering the news of Chelsea, which they spoke of in an "Open Letter To Our Readers" shortly after they became publishers.

That letter said in part: "It has always been and shall continue to be the policy of The Standard to record and reflect the hopes, desires and successes belonging to you of Chelsea and vicinity."

"We sincerely hope that we may be able to contribute in a worthy fashion to the community of which we are becoming a part. To share in the business and social life of Chelsea, as it progresses and grows, shall be ample reward."

"Our grateful thanks is hereby expressed for the sincere and friendly welcome we have received from the community. It is our desire to know each of you personally as soon as possible. But since it is impossible for us to call on all of you, we extend a hearty welcome to come in and get acquainted. Meanwhile, accept our pledge that The Standard shall continue to be operated as "Chelsea's Home Newspaper" for your benefit and enjoyment."
